

169 Chapter 169 What a wonderful day!

Author's POV 1

"What the hell was that?" an alpha asks looking slack-jawed at Meredith.

"Holy goddess!" that's not possible. "We came here to fight and kill that jerk, who hunts our brothers all over the world and she just killed him with two punches?" another one asked Max.

"That's my mate!" Max said with a lot of pride and he ran directly to Meredith and lifted her in his arms, forcing her to put her legs around his waist in front of all these alphas.

"I love you, Meredith Cruz!" and he is not waiting for her response, he just kissed her, he kissed her with passion.

"Will you forgive me for being so stupid to talk with you like I did yesterday?"

"No. I will not" Meredith said calmly. "Actually" and she just watches his reactions.

Max's heart stops.

"You can't leave me!" Max said in a very commanding way making everyone around to laugh, and an alpha from Europe just says with a very funny accent:

"Leave him, please! And choose me!"

But Max has no sense of humor and he wants to leave Meredith there for a moment and punch the alpha that just spoke.

"Maximillian Cruz does not see a joke?" and the alpha took a step back, but James interfered and stops Max.

"No one will take her away from you, are you nuts? He was just mocking you!" and looking at that alpha he said commandingly "Stop joking like that or he will kill you for real. His sense of humor stops at Meredith."

BUt Meredith just signals to Max to let her walk on her own feet and going in front of the alphas she said:

"I know you guys came a long way, and I appreciate that. I almost can't believe it that you risked your life for someone like me."

"Is it true what we've just seen or was it an illusion?" Her father's neighbor, who has known her since she was a baby, asked.

"About me killing Manganiello or about the fact that my wolf is special?" and Meredith rests her head on Max's shoulder, while he rests his arm around her waist.

“Both, but especially the last part. I know you Meredith, you were raised on my knees because Landon is a good neighbor. You were human all your life!”

“It seems that I wasn't, alpha Carson” and she smiled at him.

“What are you going to do now?” another one asked.

“Is there something that I should do?” she laughs. ‘I just want to go home, to see my daughter that I miss so much and live in peace for the rest of my life.’

“We will all do that, because you killed all the hunters in the US and Canada.” someone said laughing. “Or maybe they are from the entire world, because besides Manganiello's gang we haven't found any other hunter.”

“We owe you a lot Luna Cruz!” a young alpha whispered and hearing him, Meredith's face was like a Christmas tree full of twinkling fairy lights .

It's the first time when someone calls her Luna Cruz and she likes it!

“So that's all?”

“Yes.” and this time Max is the one who spoke.

“My Luna must be exhausted after all that happened. I will take her home.”

“Who wants to stay here a little bit more is welcomed” the alpha who lives in the area said and he already mindlinks everyone except Max and Meredith’s people, asking for an urgent meeting. What happened here can be left like this.

“Thank you all!” Meredith said and she already knows that they are planning something but right now she doesn’t care. All she wants is to be with Max. If they try something too, she will put them down one by one later.

“ Come here!” and Max bends a little.

“What are you doing?” Meredith looks around and sees a lot of amused faces.

“Jump on my back. You must be tired.” and seeing that she says nothing he commanded”
Jump, Meredith! I will carry you!”

“Are you nuts? I am not five, people will look at me!” and seeing that she is so stubborn he grabbed her arms and pulled her to him, throwing her over his shoulder, with her ass in the air.

“Maximillian Cruz!” she shouted with all her heart, but he continued to walk until he reached his car.

"You are horrible!" she said pointing her finger to him. "What would all those people think about me! "and she is pouting her lips.

"That you are his mate!" Francois says coming closer.

"See?" and Max winks at Francoise, but he is not even finishing what he just said that they saw Landon and James running.

"The plane is waiting for us" James yelled "Lori is giving birth and I am not there!"

"Shit!" Meredith pushed Max in the car, jumped into his lap, while Francois, Luke and Carter occupied the rest of the seats and she told Sam.

"Drive now!"

She sees James driving like a crazy the other car and when they arrived at that private airplane.

At the airport they left the cars in the middle of the road , with open doors and jumped in the airplane.

"Calm down, man!" Francoise said to James. "You have a little e more and you're making a pop"

"You should shut up, Franco!" James said. "First have your own baby and then we will speak."

"What makes you think that I am not having a baby already?" Francoise says, raising an eyebrow at James.

"I am Francoise Cassel! When I touch a woman she is already pregnant with me"

"Oh my goddess!" James yelled and started to laugh. "You're nothing but a dandy. No - you're worse!" but he stopped right there and James started to curse.

"What happened?" Meredith asked and she was already on her feet walking to James' seat.

"Shit! Shit! Shit!" and James starts to cry so loudly that scares everyone because he never cried in his life.

"Oh, my goddess!" Sam said "Tell me that Lori didn't die giving birth to his pup!"

"WHAT?" and James looks at him in horror.

"Of course not! But she just gave birth and I wasn't there!" and he cried so hard that everyone thought that he was mourning someone.

"So I am an auntie?" Meredith whispered.

"And I am again a grandpa!" Landon said, giving Carter a windmill high-fives.

"My Luna gave birth to our baby girl and I missed the moment!"

"It's all my fault!" Meredith said.

"No, Mer!" Francoise said and came closer to her. "That's better. Knowing James he would have fainted seeing Lori in pain" but James just wants to punch Francoise.

Meredith jumps from her place and protects Francoise, making him catch her in his arms.

"Let my Luna alone!" Max growled.

"Take her, man!" Francois said. "She was the one who jumped on me."

Max is so furious. He just took her back and everyone wants to say something to her or touch her. He wants her only for himself!

So he takes her in his arms and kissed her temple.

"You know what, man?" Francoise said, and this time he is the definition of a scoundrel.

"You should put her to take a pregnancy test. I just touched her!" and everyone looked at him in disbelief.

"I will ban you some day from my pack!" Max growled.

"No...you love me Maxie!" Francois said and threw himself back on his seat, and closing his eye he simply whispered:

"What a wonderful day!"
