

171 Chapter 171 We reached our destination

Author's POV 1

"I should punish you!" Grandpa Cruz said, pointing his cane to Meredith.

"I am sorry, grandpa" she said and went to him and took the old man in a warm embrace.

"You even took off the bracelet I gave you!" he said, pouting at her and making her smile.

"And you know exactly why" and this time he looked him in the eye. "I thought that I was protecting you doing this"

"Protecting my ass!" Vivi cried out. "We almost died here having a stroke because of you!"

"I am sorry, sweetie," Meredith said, smiling at her.

"Don't smile at me Meredith Cruz!" Vivi cried. "I was so stressed. If my baby wolfy will be agitated when he is born it will be all your fault!"

"And let me guess" Max said laughing "You are the embodiment of calmness and tranquility."

"Of course, I am," Vivi said, blinking her eyelashes and making everyone laugh.

"Look," Meredith said "I am really sorry, but at that moment it seemed the only option. I promise that I will never do something like that and looking at Grandpa Cruz she asked:

"Can I have my bracelet back?"

"Only if you promise that you will never take it off again." Grandpa said, still pouting his lips, and making auntie Jen look amused at him.

"I promise!" and Meredith even raised a hand smiling at him.

"Swore to me!" Grandpa shouted.

"Dad, that's enough!" Carter said, but grandpa wouldn't even budge.

"Alright, I swore!" Meredith said and Grandpa immediately takes the bracelet from his pocket.

"He has been waiting for you since he heard that you are in the airplane," auntie Jen said. "He was really scared, sweetie." and hearing her Meredith just kissed both of them.

"I love you too, Grandpas!" she said, making them smile.

The girls run and took her in their arms and while Vivi and Cara were very vocal, Leia just told her:

"I understand your reason, but please, think in our hearts, Mer. Everyone loves you in this pack.”

“Not everyone” Meredith laughs thinking about Max’s former lovers but Leia just raised an eyebrow.

“Believe me, everyone! Max took care to take anyone who had grudges against you to leave this pack, he did it after our attack. You are loved here. Just keep this in your mind.”

“You spoke like a Luna” Sam joked “ But she is right , Mer.”

“I know that” and looking around she asked.

“Where is my daughter?” and Lisa immediately brings Theo and placed her in Meredith arms.

Max lets her hold her but he signals everyone to leave them alone. On a normal day he would never let them speak like that with Meredith, but they are right. She need to know how much she values in their lives.

He rested his arms around her waist and lead her to their room.

“Are you mad at me too?” she asked him when she saw the way he looks at her.

“I was, but now you are back in my life and I am not anymore.” and he helped her sit in their bed, and adjust the pillow on her back, so she can rest with Theo at her chest.

“Let me help you” he whispered, and lifted her shirt a little, caressed her breast and took it of from her bra so that their daughter could start to eat her meal.

“She missed you too,” he whispered, and caressed her little head.

“She missed her milk dispenser” Meredith laughs but just a look from Max and she closes her mouth.

“I already promised,” she tells him.

“You better keep your word or next time I will put some handcuffs around your hands and you will never leave this room.

“You are so savage, Mr. Cruz ” she said but his heart skipped a beat remembering the way she talked to him when she came back from France and started to work at MaxLine.

“And you are too sassy, Miss Quinn!” he said, smiling at her. “You even robbed me for five millions dollars.” and he bends and kisses her lips while Theo continues to eat.

“Just because you were a scoundrel and you acted like the Lidero Supremo!” and this time Meredith is the one that kissed him.

“We fooled around a lot” and Max just sat near so that now she can rest her head on his shoulder.

"We did. But in the end we reached our destination." Meredith whispered.

"I just feel strange, Mer." Max said. "Is it really all over?"

"I hope so. There is no more Veronica, no more Castellano, no more Manganiello and his hunters...and she just thinks of the alphas that stood in Hamilton after they left, wondering what are planning.

"James said that Castellano acts properly in his pack and that he takes care of Veronica and baby Amadeo" she said.

"You asked about them?" And this time Max looked at her like she just raised another head.

"Of course I did." and she just takes a sigh. "I don't hate her, her mind is just lost. Maybe in another family she would have had another life."

"Sam was raised in the same family," Max said immediately.

"You know what I meant, Max" and she smiled. "Even Beta Craig found his mate in the Crescent Moon Pack, can you believe it?" and this time she is laughing. "The ways of the goddess are so messed up!"

"Excepting them all our enemies are dead" and this time Max closed his eyes thinking at Meredith's words.

"That means that we can do whatever we want, Max." and she takes Theo from her breast, and placed her in the bed, because the little one is already sleeping soundly.

She sits in Max's lap, with her legs bent on either side of Max's body and she puts her arms around his neck.

"We have struggled so much since I came back. How long has it been since we started to love each other for real?" and Meredith caress his beautiful face with the tip of her finger as if he is the most precious thing.

"It's been six months, eighteen days, eight hours and" and looking at his watch he smiles and says " watching her " and six minutes."

"It's time to learn how to live normal, darling" and Meredith lifts her bottom a little and kissed him tenderly, but when she sits back she stays exactly on his bulge, making him escape a moan.

"Define normal" Max laughed and pulled her closer to him, so close that now she is almost glued to him.

"I want to rebuild our nest in Tofino" and she winked at him. "I lived so many gorgeous moments there and you owe me one weekend per month there. You promised.”

“I will rebuild it, but this time we need more bedrooms” and he points to Theo , who is sucking her little finger now and giggles in her sleep.

“About that.” and this time she is damned serious. “I want more pups”

“No. You will never suffer by giving birth, ”Max said seriously.

“Look at her ,Max” and Meredith is visibly emotional. “I want more pups like her.” and with tears in her eyes she said and I want to know that I am pregnant this time. I will go to the doctor and I will enjoy every second of this experience. I want to hear the baby’s heartbeat, to see him or her growing.”

“So this is not negotiable,” Max laughed.

“Oh , it is. You give me more babies or I will rape you and make them by myself,”

“Alright” and Max laughs loudly. “More babies for us. What else?”

“I want to work again,” she whispered.

“About that...we must find Smith” Max said “And break his legs.”

“We don’t, because that is what I was going to say next. No more revenge Max, no more fights. I am just sick of it.”

“Not even a little kick in the ass?” and Max is just joking and when he sees the way Meredith is watching him , he kisses her directly.

“I want that too. Now” he said and the scoundrel on his surface, of course encouraged by Stark.

“In which way do we start this normality?” and he puts his hands on her hips while he moves under her body and makes her feel him.

“I would start..” and she seemed to be thinking about it. But Max gets out of the bed, takes Theo in his arms and runs with her in her bedroom, and places her lightly in her crib.

“Baby, I need you to be real quiet. Daddy is going to make you a baby sister or brother”

And hearing him Meredith starts to laugh from the door.

“What are you doing here, Max?”

“I am bribing her! can't you see?” and he slowly kissed her forehead and then took Meredith in his arms and ran directly to their bedroom.

“I like all your proposals, darling” Max whispered while he laid her naked in the bed and he placed himself between her legs.

"Do you have any preference?" and Meredith raises her hips making him slip in.

"Yeah, let's make those babies!" and that's all he was able to say because as soon as he took her, he new that this day was the day when his life changed forever.
