

57 Chapter 57 I made her suffer

Author's POV 1

"You are glowing," Meredith said to Cara as soon as she arrived at her office.

Max drove her and they entered Max's company hand in hand, smiling at each other, and making all the employees to look at them with a large smile. The boss is finally tamed!

"I am happy" Cara said smiling and looking at her chocolate box that Sam sent her every day. Actually since he discovered that she loves so much chocolate, not a day has passed without sending her a small gift, and he just stalks her on the camera like a pervert enjoying every reaction of her.

"You know that you can live with me until your house is furniture," Meredith said. "I already miss you."

"I am missing you too, Mer, but after last night I understood more than ever that having our own intimacy is mandatory. We only have one mattress in the whole apartment." Cara said laughing.

"Two forks, two glasses and two plates but we were so happy last night. And you know what? When you will have your Luna ceremony and you will live with Max in the pack house, I will follow you. That place will not be as vapid as it is now after you will move there. Sam promised to change everything in his house so that he could erase any traces of his past and feel good there. "

"Will you move there?" Meredith asked smiling.

"I will!" Cara said and took Meredith's hands.

"You are my only friend, Mer. And this happiness that I feel now is because of you. You made me shine, and helped me catch Sam under my claws.

"Cara said and starts to laugh.

"And I will thank you forever for that" they hear Sam saying, while he enters the design department, and goes straight to Cara and kissed her in front of all her colleagues.

"Max is asking for you!" he tells Meredith and right then Luke gets off the elevator .

"What are you doing here?" Sam asks him to look at him strangely, but Luke doesn't let him down and laughs.

"I came to see if this beautiful lady is happy with the way you are behaving with her. My offer is still available" Luke said laughing out loud.

"Do you want to walk on two feet or do you want me to break them?" Sam asked him in horror.

"He's joking!" Meredith tells him. "I called him, he will not take Cara from you. "And she stays between them.

"I will if he won't love her enough," Luke said, still laughing, and mocking him for all the nonsense he'd done in the past.

"That's it. I will beat you!" Sam said and jumps at Luke who hides after Cara.

"You won't!" Luke laughs in his face, and just when Sam wants to punch him, Cara pays between them and with all his force he is hitting her on the shoulder trying to avoid her face in the last second. All the colleagues in the office jump to their feet in fright.

"Caaaaara!" he yelled in panic, seeing her on the floor.

He is a beta for the goddess's sake and his strength can't be compared to Cara's force, who never trained in her life because everyone avoided her.

"I can't breathe," she says, almost crying in pain. "Sam, I can't breathe!" she tells him with tears in her eyes.

"I am so sorry" Sam said and takes her in his arms and runs with her followed by Meredith and Luke.

"This is all your fault" Sam yelled at Luke as the four of them stepped in the elevator.

"Sam" Cara said crying in pain and putting her head on Sam's shoulder. "Is none fault. It was an accident"

And they just put Cara in Sam's car. Luke is driving to the pack hospital while Sam holds her in his lap, and Meredith stays in the front seat near Luke.

"Hold on a few minutes, sweetie," Meredith said, and she looks in her hand at the phone that starts to ring. It's Max, She just text him and tell him about what happened and then looks at Cara.

The hospital is near the pack house and as soon as they arrived at the location all the eyes are on them. Some of the pack members that never leave the pack to work in town are staring at Meredith, while some of them at Cara. They know her, she is the omega that none wanted in the past. But the ugliest looks are from the women that Max and Sam slept with.

"What happened?" one of the doctors asks seeing Cara in Sam's arms yelling already in pain.

"I hit her by mistake while I was trying to beat someone," Sam said, placing her lightly on the hospital bed.

"You can leave, beta Jackson," the doctor said. "I will verify her, I am sure she is fine. Don't worry about her, she is used with this kind of wounds"

"What the fuck are you talking about?" Sam asks in shock looking at the doctor and then at Cara who's face is now white like snow.

"As an omega she was frequently hurt, a lot of our pack member hit her. Her wolf will heal her soon." The doctor said as if it was nothing.

"Take care of my wife now!" Sam yelled. "You will not let her suffer until her wolf will heal her!" and he is almost trembling and wants to break the doctor's neck, and Cara just let him act the way he wants because this doctor let her suffer and heal by herself a lot of times in the past.

"Wife?" the doctor asks in shock. "She is your wife?" and looks at her neck and sees Sam's mark and then at Sam and also he is marked. Since they married, Sam didn't come to the pack house, and he asked Luke to help him with his things when he moved with Cara, so realizing that the weakest omega of their pack is now the beta female, almost made the doctor to fall from his feet.

"Take care of her or I will kill you. Did you just let her suffer in the past because she was an omega?" Sam asked and put a hand on the doctor's neck.

"Sam" Cara whispered between tears. "Let him, please" and as soon as Sam's hand is released from the doctor's throat, the doctor just run out of there asking for some nurses and doctors to help him with Cara.

"We will take care of her, beta" another doctor said and tried to take her but Sam said with fury.

"Where ever she goes I will stay with her. After all I found out, I don't trust you to leave her alone in your hands. "And he stays with her all the time.

And after some half an hour she is finally put in a hospital VIP ward.

"How is she?" Max asks Sam when he arrives at the hospital, looking at Cara, who is sedated and sleeps in her bed, letting Cici to heal her.

"She is not good at all. I fractured her shoulder and clavicle. I am an idiot, Max," Sam said, lowering his head and crying. "I made her suffer with my jealousy and stupid attitude"

"She will be fine, don't worry" Meredith said coming near Max and holding his hand in her hand, feeling the need to be by his side.

"I am sorry, man. It was just a joke. You know that I will never take someone else mate" Luke said feeling bad for what happened.

"She will kill me," Sam said. "Her body is stronger now, but she is still weak after so many years in poverty."

"She won't" Meredith said smiling at him. "She loves you, Sam. And she knows that you didn't want to hurt her."

"Beta" suddenly the doctor appeared in front of him. "I have the results of the tests we run on your mate"

"Is she alright, apart from fractures, did I do anything else?" Sam asks while Luke, Max and Meredith sit with their souls on their mouths.

"Well, you kind of did it," the doctor said, and Sam has a little left and he is collapsing. Luke runs to him and supports him.

"Tell me everything!" Sam said in a voice muffled with fear.

"You let her pregnant. Your mate is pregnant" and Sam faints.
