

61 Chapter 61 I will never leave you again

Max's Cruz POV 1

"What did she say?" I ask Stark because I'm convinced I didn't hear correctly.

"She said..." Stark said "she said that she loves us!" and if I could see him right now I am sure that his tail will be moving from side to side and he would have some puppy eyes.

"Tell me again" I whisper to her ear trying to keep this moment just for us even if I know that our parent heard her because they are just looking at us with tears in their eyes, as if they are witnessing an event that will change you the fate of mankind.

"I love you too, Max" she said blushing and making me to realize that I am not hearing voices in my head and she, Meredith Quinn, my wife, my mate, my all, She is telling me that she loves me.

And I don't care about anything, I just lift her in my arms, taking her in bridal style and she puts her hands around my neck and I kiss her, while our parents starts to laugh.

"Brat!" grandpa yells "Let my granddaughter breathe! I just took her back!" and everyone starts to laugh, while Meredith puts her head on the crock of my neck and she kisses the place where one day she will mark me. This little gesture, a kiss on my neck wakes me up and I feel the need to take her right now.

"Control yourself, Stark!" I tell him. "She's not ready yet, let's not destroy everything that was built!" and he goes back with a howl, because he really needs her.

"So this is real!" Olivia Quinn said with a big smile. "You two are really back together!"

"Yes, mom" Meredith said as I come with her at our table and put her stay in my lap.

"She can stay on her seat, you know?" James said looking at me, as I hold her on my chest.

"Shut up, James. She just told me that she loves me and you want to let her stay on her sit?" and I kiss her forehead and I feel her shivering in my arms.

"Max," Landon Quinn said. "If you hurt her again, not even my friendship with Carter and your grandpa will save you from my hands. I will hunt you and I will kill you if you hurt her again!"

And I see Olivia putting a hand over his hand trying to calm him down but he continues. "You were the only man I wanted for her and you still are” and this time he smiles “And your grandpa and your father didn’t plan your reunion alone, we worked together for that” and now it’s my turn to look at him in shock.

“So you three, fooled me?” I ask and Meredith just looks at me, but I calm her caressing her back and her hands.

“You were meant to be together, Max. Look at you now!” he said. “You are together and she loves you!”

“Did you work me by my back too, James?” I ask him because this is too interesting to let it go.

“No. I always said that you two are adults and you should take care of your problems alone.” James said. “But knowing that she was suffering because of you, made me want to kick your ass back then”

And looking at them and them in Meredith’s eyes I tell them.

“Mr. and Mrs Quinn, I love your daughter. It took me a few years to realize that, but I love her. When she came back almost a month ago I was hit in the face with the mate bond. I said that I don’t want her, because she was a human” and I see how Meredith looks at me.

“But just the next day I was already running after her trying to make her accept me. Your daughter set my skin on fire." I say and start to laugh.

"I hope she fried you well!" James said looking at his sister and smiling at her.

"She knocked me out. Hearing her say that she knows about werewolves made me realize that this bond will work and that things are not as difficult as it seemed to me, but finding out that she is my ex-wife destroyed every shield that was built around me. Made me realize how wrong I was, how stupid I was. "

"What about now?" grandpa asks, rubbing his palms impatiently.

"Now she is mine" I tell them. "We are still far from what should be, but I am hers and she is mine, and we have accepted the bond between us. And the cherry from the top of the cake is that she is my wife!" and this time I smile at her and kiss her directly and she answers to my kiss.

"So we are a family again?" Landon Quinn asks smiling at us.

I look at Meredith and watch her saying to her father.

"We are dad" and she pecks my lips. "We are a family again"

And late in the night when I take Meredith to drive her home, auntie Jen came with a suitcase and tells me:

"Young alpha, all you asked for is here" and looking at Meredith she tell her:

"Luna, if you need anything just call me and I will come and help you"

"Auntie," Meredith said. "I will, but until then take care of yourself and rest!"

As soon as we are in the car she asks me.

"What's with that suitcase?"

"Do you think that I will leave you alone after you confess your love for me?" and taking her hand in my hand I tell her:

"I took some clothes with me. I am moving with you, just as I told you yesterday. "

"We are not in a hurry going so fast?" she asks me but I see that she wants that too, she is just scared that we are moving too fast.

"We are already married, and last night we slept in the same bed, and today we had our family dinner already, the rest will flow in its own rhythm. Whenever you are ready for a new step we will do it. One by one, step by step, together. "

And Meredith shakes my hand and I know she's calm now.

In her bedroom I open my luggage and he helps me to arrange my clothes in her dressing room.

"During the day I will need to visit the pack house, and sometimes to sleep there, will you come with me?" I ask her.

"I will" she said and I see her taking something from her closet.

"I will take a shower" she tells me and enters her bathroom, but I have other plans and I take some shorts and a white t-shirt and enter the bathroom too.

She is with her back at me, letting me see her perfect body and her naughty little ass. I know that she felt me near her but this time she is not hiding from me. I take off my clothes and step into the shower and pull her to me.

"I love you so much" I tell her while my hands catch her hips and bring her closer to me.

She turns in my arms and her little hands starts to move over my chest, descending slightly to my abdomen and sitting on my hips.

And looking down at my erected cock she said with a very emotional voice:

"I want you so much but I am so afraid that after I will give myself to you, you will change your mind and leave me"

And my heart skips a beat.

"I will never leave you again" and I kiss her ravaging her mouth and when she is out of air I tell her.

"Let me show you how much I want you too"
