

65 Chapter 65 He is worthy

"Vivienne," Luke said, placing the suitcases he had brought from the airport in the lobby of her suite and closing the door behind him. 1

"Yes Luke?" Vivienne asks his ignoring him and looking around at her hotel suite.

"I will be here at seven a clock to take you out, just as Meredith said. We are dinning out tonight." And he just can't take his eyes from her.

"I've got a second chance!" he said to himself "Fuck, Kodi! I have a second chance of happiness." And even if his heart is still crying and longing for Sarah, he knows that he will not lose this chance.

"You act strange, Luke Navarro. You look a obsessed man. You look at me like I'm Little Red Riding Hood and you want to eat me," she said, looking at him while passing and going to another room.

"Will you let me eat you?" he asks laughing.

"Are you a bad wolf?" she asks him with her sassy French accent that makes her so adorable.

"Did you ever hear about a good wolf?" he asks her following her and looking at her as she throws herself on her back in the middle of the bed.

"Don't you know the story of the bad wolf and the good wolf?" Vivienne asks Luke putting her arms under her head and closing her eyes while she lays on her back.

Luke comes and sits on her bed, being captivated by her presence and the way she acts so natural and familiar in his presence.

"Tell me" he whispers, lying next to her and resting his head on his elbow so he can look at her better.

"Inside of you" Vivienne said turning on her side and looking into Luke's eyes and feeling mesmerized by his presence. "Are two wolf. One is bad and he represents anger, hater, revenge, greed, your ego and all the negative emotions while the other one is the good wolf that represents peace, love, kindness, truth, compassion and faith. Which one are you, Luke Navarro?" she asks him.

"What do you feed your wolf?" she whispers looking at him and feeling how her body starts to heat just seeing him.

"Meredith told you that I am the good guy in this story, so I guess I am the good wolf." He said coming closer and staying with his face just a few centimeters away from her face. Just a little bit and he will kiss her.

"This is not the right answer," Vivienne said, and immediately got out of bed. "I always liked the bad boys. The one that impressed me and made my heart tremble. The one that always surprises me." And she starts to laugh while Luke just looks at her.

"So I ask you again, Luke Navarro, are you really a good wolffy?" and she said it in a very seductive way, making Luke feel uncomfortable.

"What the fuck is she doing, man?" Kodi asks. "It seems that she tries to fool us, test us."

"She doesn't feel the pull of the mate bond, Kodi" Luke said with sadness.

"I will imprint on her!" Kodi says with determination.

"No" and Luke got out of bed and headed for the door without looking at her. She is playing with his feelings. He suffered so much after Sarah's death and he can't risk his heart for a woman that acts like a seductress with a man that she barely knows. She seems a professional in fooling around with men.

"But she is our mate," Luke said.

"No, Kodi," Luke said, turning and looking at Vivienne, who was looking at him in shock as he walked away from her. "She is our mate, but for her we are nothing." And smiling with sadness at her he said before leaving her suite.

"Please Vivienne, be ready at seven. Don't let Meredith wait for you." And he just leaves while Vivienne doesn't know what hit her.

"Where did my personal Stephen Amell go?" She asks herself. "That wolfy was the best piece of meat I've seen in my life! Shit! Will I be alone here?" and immediately she takes her phone and calls Meredith.

"Tell me about Luke Navarro!" she said as soon as Meredith answers.

"Vivi, what have you done?" Meredith asks her, knowing her friend personality too well.

"Nothing unusual. Flirting and seducing him with my arrogance. I wanted to have some fun until our dinner but the jerk left me alone and leave with a sullen face." Vivienne said.

"Shit!" and immediately Meredith tells Max. "Will you mindlink Luke? He needs a friend now." And then she tells Vivienne.

"He is not like the guys you used to play, Vivi. Luke is kind and he suffered a lot. You know what I told you about the mate bond."

"Of course I know. "Vivienne said" The celestial connection made by a voodoo goddess, through which two people can no longer live without each other and the rest of the story is, blah, blah..." Vivienne said.

"Luke's mate died a few years ago" Meredith said with seriousness "And is not a blah, blah thing, is very serious for a wolf"

"And that's why he acted like a fucking monk? Then why did he try to impress me?" and Vivienne is more and more irritated.

"Because you are his second chance mate, silly" Meredith said "and probably you said or did something that hurt his feelings. He is the best man I know after my dad and my brother. He was the one that somehow put Max's brain in his place "

"Shit!" Vivienne said excitedly. "Do I have my own mate?"

"It seems so," but as soon as Meredith said that Vivienne reacts.

"I don't want a good guy by my side. I am too young and I will get bored. What do I do with a good guy when I'm only 24 years old?" And Vivienne panics.

"It's not how you think, Vivi," Meredith tells her gently. "I wanted to make Max pay for what he did in the past but he somehow forced me to come closer and closer in this mate bond and it's a wonderful feeling."

"No. I don't want to. You've seen what happened with Francoise. There is no true love in this world. Sooner or later someone betrays, sooner or later someone gets bored. I don't want to suffer what my brother suffered. "Vivienne said and made her mind. She will stay away from Luke.

"Francoise has always known that only he is the one who loves in that relationship, Vivi, and he risked hoping that only his love will be enough" and Meredith sighs remembering how her good friend Francoise Cassel cried for his unfaithful wife.

"Luke is from another story. He is worthy, Vivi, even more than Max or Sam. He is that kind of guy that will choose to die for you without thinking. "

"I don't need a guy who wants to die for me. I need a guy to blow my brain and made me crave for him. "

"Luke can be this guy," Meredith tells her.

"No, he will be clingy and will always try to protect me. I know his type. You will see it tonight" Vivienne said.

And no matter what Meredith told her she had her own thoughts. In this life the only purpose is to live every moment to the fullest and never care about anything else. Her only "loves" are his brother, the most talented designer in the world Francoise Cassel and Meredith, her best friend, who saved her life four years ago at a damned sinister party.

And in the evening at seven a clock she was waiting for Luke to come and take her but when she opened her door to her surprise, Luke was nowhere. In front of her a gorgeous man stands and smiles.

"Good evening Miss Cassel" the warrior that Luke sent said smiling at the beautiful woman that stands in front of him "Gamma Navarro sent me to drive you to your dinner meeting."

"Where is he?" Vivienne asks in shock looking for Luke. Meredith said that he is her mate, and if he is her mate he must love her crazily and cling on her and suffocate her trying to catch her attention. So where the fuck is Luke Navarro?

"Gamma is training until late at night and he couldn't come to drive you personally, but he hopes that you will have a nice evening. Shall we go?" the warrior asks and Vivienne for the first time in her life is left without words. He didn't come after her?

Looking in the mirror one more time she can't help but ask herself why she put so much effort preparing for this dinner. She is gorgeous and she knows it. She is his brother muse and every man in this world would want a piece of her. So where the hell is Luke Navarro?
