

85 Chapter 85 She's not coming back to me

Author's POV 1

"What happened?" Meredith asked and her face is white like snow.

"I can't tell you right now, but the girls are in hospital. They are already transferred to Vancouver, because our pack doctors are the best and they have a better chance to survive there."

"To survive?" and Meredith moves away from Max a little and looking into his eyes she asks him in panic. "How bad are they?"

"You will see it with your own eyes" Max said and took her hand in his hand. "I can't even talk about this because I came after you as soon as the doctors got to them, but they were dying when we came here."

"Oh my goddess!" Meredith whispered and immediately she starts to run outside the building, pulling Max after her.

"If Cara dies, or Leia...I swear Max, nothing will save Veronica and Castellano from my wrath. Not even the fact that Veronica is pregnant will not help her. I will erase any trace of her from the face of the earth. "

"She's what?" Max asked and he almost stumbled and fell.

"She's pregnant" Meredith repeats and Max is weaker and he stops from collapsing holding on to the walls with his hand, but Meredith turns and looks at him nervously.

"It's not yours if this is why you are so scared, but it could have been. And believe me that would have been something unforgivable for me. "

"Max" Stark said, a little bit intimidated. "She has had a very strong aura since she transformed. What kind of wolf does she have? "

"She is just stressed for Cara and Leia" Max tells Stark and as soon as they arrive at the airport they fly directly home. No one said a word throughout the flight, leaving Meredith to process everything that happened.

But when after hours of emotional torment they finally arrive at New Moon's pack hospital, her heart breaks as she sees Sam crying next to Cara's bed.

"Sam" she whispered, while Max came behind her and put his hands on her waist.

"She's not waking up, Meredith," Sam said crying.

"She's not coming back to me."

"Everything will be fine" Meredith said looking at Cara who is almost all hunted. A lot of IV's come in and out of her body but the most striking thing is that her pregnant belly is no longer there.

And Meredith turns her head and starts to cry, trying not to be seen by Sam. She puts her face in Max's chest and just cries for her lost friend.

"I am so sorry, Sam" she said "This is all my fault. She was hurt, because of me!"

"No, Mer. She was hurt because of Castellano's and Veronica. If Max would have been in your situation, I would have died for him. I am his beta. Is my duty to defend him no matter what."

And she can't stop from crying.

"It hurts me so much to see her like this." Meredith said, looking at Cara's bed.

"It hurts you because she matters to you. She is more than your beta, she is your friend."

And Sam takes Cara's hand in his hand and he is kissing it.

"At least she has a chance to survive. I still have the hope that she will come back to me."

"What are you talking about?" Meredith and Max ask at the same time, and their faces are losing their colors.

"Leia" Sam said but he couldn't say anything else, and he just closed his eyes and put his head on Cara's bed, still holding her hand.

"Luke!" Max shouted as soon as he reached the VIP ward where Leia lays. She is connected to a lot of devices, and all her body is full of IVs.

But Luke is lost in his own thoughts. Vivi holds his hand in her hand while Francois stays on a sofa in Leia's ward and just looks at her with a blank face, still trying to realize what happened. How is it possible for a werewolf to be in this state?

"Luke" Max said again "I am here. I am so sorry "

"She is dead," Luke said. "The doctor said she is cerebral death. Only the devices keep her alive, but I can't turn them off," Luke said, bursting into tears.

"She is my only relative in life. I can't do it!" he said.

"Then don't do it!" Meredith said coming near her bed and looking at Leia's pale face and then looking at Francois she asks.

"What are you doing here, Francois?"

"I came to help Vivi and Luke, if they need anything," he said, swallowing in panic. But Meredith and Artemis are furious right now. Leia was weak because of his rejection. He was cruel. He is her friend but what he did is unforgivable.

"Your help is not needed, Francois. You helped her enough when you rejected her. "And she said that as if she had announced that the time is eight a clock.

Luke and Vivi looked at him in shock, and Luke's claws start to appear and until he realizes what is already happening, he quickly hits Francois, but Max and Meredith put themselves in front of him, keeping him still.

"You hurt my sister?" Luke asks, smoking with rage.

Vivienne approaches Franco and catching him unprepared she slapped him with all her strength.

"That's why she was sad? That's why she cried? " Vivienne's asked. "How could you?" she asks, trembling with rage.

"This!" Vivi said, pointing to Leia. "This is something that will hunt you for the rest of your life."

"It won't! She is just an animal!" Franco says and right then Luke has a little bit and transforms, but Max commands him to stay still, and he can no longer oppose his alpha command.

"Then let me tell you," Vivienne said with tears in her eyes.

"I Vivienne Cassel accept Luke Navarro as my mate, and I want to be transformed and live a life in happiness with him, as a werewolf"

"Are you nuts?" Francois asked, starting to panic.

"No Francois," she said, saying his full name for the first time in her life. "Rather than to be a more insensitive bastard, it is better to live my whole life as an animal. Just go and never come here."

"You can't be serious," Francois said.

"Mark my words, Francois. Get the fuck out from this place or I'll take you out!!" she said, yelling so hard that Luke ran to her and took her in his arms.

But her screams changed something in Leia's condition. All the devices started ringing and immediately the doctors rushed into the room.

"She's dying for real!" One of the doctors said.

"Do you want to let her go or do you want to try a new resuscitation?" he asks Luke who is in shock and can't even breath for himself, what else to answer the question.

"Save her!" Meredith orders them and walking towards Francois takes him by the hand and pushes him out of the ward.

"I believe that from now on you will stay away from me too, because surprise! I am an animal too!"

She growls at him with great force and slams the door in front of him, making him perplexed and turns around looking at the doctors that resurrects Leia again.

"She's back!" Artemis said and right then her heartbeat starts again.

"Max" Meredith said, using a mindlink for the first time in her life, and making Max tu shudder. "I am furious!"

"I know, Mer. So do I." he said, coming near her and taking her hand in his hand.

"He will regret not wanting her," she continues.

"I know." Max said looking at Leia who is still in cerebral death.

And Meredith turns her head and looks into Max eyes and hot tears starts to run down her face.

"Take me home, please" she whispered and collapsed in his arms.
