87 Chapter 87 She disrespected me!

Author's POV 1

"There is my favorite granddaughter!" Grandpa Cruz said as soon as he saw Meredith coming down for breakfast with Max.

"How many granddaughters do you have, grandpa?" Meredith asks, squeezing her eyes at the old man. "Tell me honestly, who else did Max bring home besides me?" and Max's face becomes pale while grandpa's mouth remains open. But seeing their faces Meredith starts to laugh.

"I was joking! You can start breathing again! " she said, going to the old man and hugging him, but the poor old man's heart beat like after some marathon.

"You look better" Carter said coming into the room with Lisa but he see Max's and grandpa's faces can't help but ask:

"Did something happen?"

"No, dad" Meredith said, making him smile because she didn't call him like that since she just married Max five years ago, and Max was ignoring her.

"I made a joke and they shit in their pants" and Lisa burst into laughter.

"That's what they need!" and takes Meredith's hand and pulls her in a hug.

"I am so glad to have you here. It's like a dream come true. "

"I am happy too" Meredith said looking in Max's eyes, while he starts to recover after Meredith's joke.

"Luna!" auntie Jen said coming into the room with the food. "I made all your favorites today!" and the old woman is so happy that she seems ten years younger.

"You always pamper me, auntie!" Meredith said, smiling at her. "Come and stay with us." she said and auntie Jen blocks in her traces.

"Is not proper, Luna, " the old woman said.

"Please," Meredith insists, "Just as we did when you took care of me five years ago."

An omega to eat at the same table with her alphas? There is something impermissible, but seeing her panicked face Max goes and brings another chair to the table and then goes and takes the old woman's hand making her tremble in fear.

"Your luna asked you something auntie." he said smiling and reassuring auntie Jen that he is ok with what Meredith said.

"You are like family. You took care off me when I was a naughty little boy "

"You still are " Meredith said, making everyone laugh and Max squeezing his eyes at her.

"And then you took care of my wife too, when I should have been the one to do it, so please stay with us." and he placed her near grandpa Cruz and started their breakfast.

But when Max took Meredith after breakfast and went to the hospital the atmosphere changed.

A few weeks ago, when Cara was taken here and found out that she is pregnant Max's and Sam pack members were looking at Meredith with hatred.

She was just the human that aspires to the position of luna. And she felt all his former lover's eyes over her, and now, coming back to the hospital, holding hands with Max nothing changed.

But the funny part is that they don't know that Meredith is far from a human right now.

"Alpha," one of the nurses said, coming near him and making sweet eyes to Max. "Do you need anything?"

Max doesn't even look at her and looking around he sees Francois sitting in a chair at the door of Leia's ward.

"What is he doing here? I thought you told him to leave! "

Meredith doesn't even get to say anything as the baggy nurse puts her hands on Max's arm and asks him:

"Do you want me to kick him out?" and she blinks her lashes at him.

"Kill her!" Artemis said. "She touched our mate!" but Meredith is calm , just as she was her whole life and said to Artemis:

"Let's see what Max will do, right now his past is following him"

Max felt like being burned seeing the nurse's hand on his arm and immediately pulled his hand and clenched his teeth asking:

"Are you stupid or are you just not ashamed at all?" and he takes Meredith's hand in his hand trying to calm down.

"Neither." the nurse said "But you are holding hands with a weak human, and have no embarrassment to let the world know her as your wife."

"Because she is my wife and more than this, because she is my mate!" Max yelled in her face and he tried to control Stark, who wanted to transform and break the neck of the reckless nurse.

"She is not fit to be either one or the other. She will never give you the pleasure you need to feel as an alpha. " and she laughs in Meredith's face "You need a strong woman!"

"Like you?" Meredith asks her.

"Why not?" the nurse asked, giving her an ugly look, and in the meanwhile a lot of werewolves started to gather around. What the nurse said is what they also think. They hate the idea of having such a weak luna. Even Francois is looking in Max's and Meredith's direction, wondering what is happening.

Max looks around at his member packs and wants to ban all of them but Meredith shakes her hand from his hand and asks the nurse.

"I have to admit you have courage" and she smiles "Let me tell you something. I am able to beat you as a human. And I am able to beat you like werewolf too "but the nurse starts laughing.

"You talk about things you don't know and don't even respect the laws of your race, so let me ask you." and this time Meredith is very serious when she asks her" What is the punishment for defying your luna? Or questioning the decisions made by your own alpha? "

And right then the nurse's face turns white, and those around her begin to disappear one by one.

"Looking at you, I understand you know the answer." and Meredith looks at Max, who is smiling at her, and pulls her in his embraces, kissing the top of her head.

"My alpha," Meredith said, making Max's heart skip a beat.

"Should we punish her?"

"I think we do," Max said and the nurse starts to take a few steps back, trying to run, but in just a second Meredith lets Artemis to partially transform and elongates her claws and catches the nurse who is yelling.

"I'm sorry!" the nurse yelled! "I didn't know you were a werewolf! I'm sorry! " She keeps yelling, attracting everyone's attention.

"It's not about knowing what I am or not! It's about respect no matter who's standing in front of you."

"I'm sorry! I promised that I will never ... "the nurse said but Sam and Luke, alarmed by the noise, come out of the wards where their loved ones are fighting between life and death and seeing this scene they are infuriated.

Sam snatches the nurse from Meredith's hands and asks:

"What did she do?"

"She disrespected me!" Meredith said calmly. "But I believe that we are fine now and that this will not happen again, isn't it?"

The nurse cries out loud and just nods approvingly.

"Disappear!" Max says and comes near Meredith and takes her in his arms.

"You are ferocious!" he whispered in her ear.

"And you were a manwhore!" She said annoyed by everything that happened and Max whitened his face.

"I'm sorry!" he said looking into her eyes.

"Next time someone disrespects me like this I won't be so calm."

"Calm?" Sam and Luke ask in unison looking at her. "She pooped in her pants for your fear"

"Yes, this is my calm face when I meet Max's mistresses" Meredith said and detached her hand from Max's hand and went to Cara's ward while the boys looked after her with their mouths wide open.

"She's a badass luna!" Luke said, smiling sadly.

"And sassy!" Sam said, completing Luke.

"She's amazing, and she's mine!" Max said, smiling while he looked at her back.

"Are all the werewolves female like her?" Francois asks, approaching them and thinking of something.

"Why are you still here?" Luke asks him.

"I don't trust you with my sister!" Francois said. "Where she stays, I stay!" he said, trying to hide the fact that he is fascinated by what he saw.

"Is Leia just as strong as Meredith?" he asks himself.
