

90 Chapter 90 Stark wants to meet Artemis

Author's POV 1

"How is Leia?" Meredith asks Vivi and helps her to sit because in the last weeks she was daily at the hospital supporting Luke, and she is exhausted.

"The same. At least she's not dead for real." Vivi said deeply sad.

"And Francois is still there?" Meredith asks, smiling.

"Like a lost puppy. He just stays at her door because Luke won't let him set foot in her ward."

"He is just sorry," Meredith said, smiling at Vivi.

"So what if he is sorry? He was a jerk, and the way he talked about us, calling us animals?" Vivi said, smoking nervously.

"Us?" and Meredith starts to laugh out loud. "You are so sweet Vivi" and she just looks at her.

"Today Cara will come home. Will you help me to prepare a place for her?"

"Home, Do you mean in the pack house or at her place?" Vivi asks in shock.

"To the pack house. She can't stay at her place. There are all the things she prepared for their pup and Sam is afraid that she will collapse remembering everything."

"What do you need?" Vivi asked, smiling, she needs this distraction from the hospital because after almost two weeks there she is going crazy.

"This place is enormous and I've spoken with mom and dad and it seems that the beta and gamma families have their own condos here." but she doesn't even manage to finish that Vivi immediately jumps up for joy.

"I have a condo here?" she asks enthusiastically.

"If you will accept Luke, yes." Meredith said, looking amused at her.

"Are you nuts?" Vivi asks. "Of course I accepted him! All he needs to do is to fuck me and to mark me and we will be fully mates!"

"WHAT?" Max asked, coming into the room and looking at Vivi.

"This crazy woman will live here?" and he starts to laugh.

"I will!" she said. "And I will give you something. Did you change your mind?"

"About what?" Max asks, looking at her as if she aberrates again.

"About that threesome! I am still available until Luke will mate with me!" and she starts to laugh seeing him whitening his face, while Meredith goes to him and kisses his lips.

"I don't want her here" Max whispers into her ear. "She is crazy"

"She's not, she's just sweet!" Meredith said, looking at him. "Help us to choose the condo for Sam and Cara" she said, taking his hand in her hand.

At the last floor live the alpha family. There are two enormous condos with five bedrooms, two living rooms, a personal kitchen and six bathrooms. One is for Max and one for Lisa and carter.

But one floor down the space was specially created for the beta and gamma families. After Luke's parents died he chose to live in the pack house but in a normal bedroom with the warriors, not in the condo, and the beta had his own house, so none lived on this floor for a long time.

"Holy fucking shit!" Vivi exclaimed looking at the enormous space that is divided in two by a long and spacious hall.

"Frenchie!" Max said, looking at Vivi. "You make me crazy so you won't stay under my bedroom to hear you moan all night! That part will be yours!" and he starts to laugh seeing her face.

"But I want you to hear me, Max!" she said and Max has a little and starts to beat her.

"Leave her alone!" Meredith said entering the condo where Cara will live.

"This looks better than I thought!" She said,

Four bedrooms, one spacious living room, one splendid kitchen, four bathroom and a big balcony from where you can see the whole garden behind the packhouse.

"Who brought the furniture?" Meredith asks, looking at the modern condo. She didn't expect this.

"Mom. Two years ago, she decorated the place hoping that Luke and Sam would start to live here. "

"She did a really good job," she said, smiling.

"Hey!" I want to see my condo too!" Vivi said, pouting.

"Luke's condo!" said Max, annoying her and making Meredith smile.

These two will be like Tom and Jerry all day and she will be glad to see their show, because she loves both of them madly.

But as soon as Vivi enters the condo she remains with her mouth open looking around.

"Shit!" and she starts to run around looking in every corner.

The thing is that Lisa took into account Sam and Luke's own style. While Sam's place was very modern and airy, because he is a guy that likes to feel free and and likes to feel the same in the place where he lives. So his apartment is simplistic, and has a home air.

But Luke's side is different. The place is arranged in Scandinavian home interior design. And Vivi is more than excited.

"So you won't hear me from here?" she asked, squeezing her eyes at Max.

"I hope not!" he said laughing, because he knows that she is joking but he can't help but react every time Vivi says something stupid.

"This is perfect! And she is already imagining how she will "abuse" Luke when they will be alone here.

"Let's go and help Sam to bring his girl home"

Max said "There is nothing to do here.

Everything is already set "and he takes Meredith in his arms in bridal style, leaving Vivi alone to enjoy her new home.

"Now that Cara is healed you own me something" Max said kissing her lips.

"Is that so?" Meredith asks, looking into his eyes.

"You promised me that you will be my luna"

"I didn't!" she said smiling at him as if it was nothing but Max lifted her in his arms and forced her to put her legs around his body and fixed her on a wall, he bent down and whispered to her.

"Are you objecting?" he asks laughing.

"It's my nature to object," Meredith said, smiling at him and pursing her lips so that Max could kiss them.

"From now in one week. Be prepared to be my luna. Officially!" he said and kissed her.

"Isn't it too soon?" Meredith asked, thinking about everything that happened.

"It's too late if you ask me." and he moves his hips a little rubbing her.

"And by the way" he said and this time he looked into her eyes. "Stark wants to meet Artemis. When will you let them meet? "

Meredith just looks into his eyes. She didn't showed Artemis to anyone.

"You are a monster!" Federico Castellano said.

What if Max will think the same?

"Please" Max said looking into her eyes, I want to meet her too. You two are mine, both of you. I don't care if she's tiny and weak, or if she is a fatty wolf "

"There are no fat wolves, you stupid!" Artemis said, letting Stark hear her for the first time and he starts to laugh.

"Alright," Meredith said. "Tonight we run together!"
