

93 Chapter 93 You made this alpha like a puffy rabbit

They run around the isolated mountain lake and spend their time there and after some time they return to their friends that almost collapsed seeing Artemis. 1

"Holy guacamole!" Sam and Luke said, looking at her.

"She is not a wolf! She's a lycan." Cara said.

"None of you are right," Meredith said. "Artemis is the She-Wolf. The primordial wolf, the daughter of the Moon Goddess!"

"Fuck me!" Sam said.

"I can't," Meredith replied laughing. "I had my own mate to fuck, and you have yours" and Cara slaps him over the back of his head, making him stay like a pup near her.

"You rock, Mer!" Vivienne said. "I am jealous! Why Storm is so tiny? I want a big wolf too," Vivi said, pouting again.

"I love Storm the way she is" Luke said, kissing his mark.

"You do?" she asked, smiling at him.

"I do!" He reassured her.

"When is your luna ceremony?" Cara asked suddenly.

"Next sunday" she said and looked at Max, taking his hand in her hand.

"I can't wait to see you as luna!" Cara said and then looking at Sam she said "Samuel Jackson, you make me elope. I want a ceremony too. My mating ceremony."

"We are trying to have a baby, I think we skipped that step, my love," he said.

"YOU ARE WHAT?" Vivi asked, jumping out of her seat and turning into a human. She is naked in front of everyone but she doesn't seem to care.

"Luke!" she said pointing to him.

"I want a baby wolffy too." she said and put her hands on her hips as Luke sat down in front of her trying to cover her.

"It's a pup, not a baby wolffy!" sam said laughing.

"We just mate today and you already want a pup?" Luke asks her and Max and Sam can't stop laughing.

"I've told you she's in trouble." Sam said, but immediately Vivi jumps over Luke and lands on Sam's back, who is still in wolf form, standing naked on him and beating him with her small hands.

"Watch your mouth, you scoundrel!" she said, pulling his fur.

"Take her from me! She is crazy!" Sam yelled while Luke transforms and takes Cara in his arms.

"Angel," Luke said. "You are naked in front of our friends!" and right then Vivi realized what she just did and blushed all over her face and hid behind Luke.

"I will take her home," Luke said, and Max motioned for her to leave.

"Go, make that baby or she will make a new striptease show again!" Sam burst into laughter while Vivi squeezed her eyes at him.

"Go, go" Meredith said laughing, and she sees them transforming and running in the packhouse direction.

"We will go too," Sam said. "I am afraid that this is too much for Cara, is her first day back."

And his wolf, Leo, takes Cici and starts to run, because it's a matter of pride. Luke can't have a baby before him. He wants to make Cara pregnant again ASAP!

But now being alone again, both Max and Meredith transform and stay naked in the middle of the beautiful meadow.

"Mer" Max said, caressing her back with his fingers and looking at her as she lengthens her back slightly, and puts her hands at the back of her head to watch the sky.

"I believe that if we fight today, you will beat me!" he said, smiling at her.

"Is that so?" Meredith asks laughing and she turns her head and watches him as he lays on his back too, staying in the same position as her.

"What are you implying?" she said, smiling at him.

"That I should mark you. Even that Frenchie is marked "

"But we didn't fight yet. What if you are stronger?" she said and his eyes darken in a second.

"I am like a jelly every time I am around you" Max whispers, turning to one side and walking with his index finger on Meredith's body.

Tingles over tingles rise wherever he touches her so that Meredith gets up easily and sits over him, riding him. She stays naked, with her pussy over his very "agitated friend."

She takes it in her hand and puts it at her entrance, letting it slip inside.

"Let's fight," she said, while Max started to move a little and made her moan and close her eyes.

"I'm losing here, Max," she said laughing. "Make me a winner!" she laughs, amused by his torment.

And right when he was in the middle of the action, trying to find a way to make her win "the battle", Meredith elongated her fangs and marked him directly, making him moan in pleasure and cum deep inside her.

He just exploded without being able to control himself. He is shivering, and trembling and he never felt this way. Meredith keeps her head tight and when she feels that he has finished and he emptied himself completely she withdraws her teeth and looks at her beautiful mark on him.

"You win" he whispered, trying to recover from the most sensational emotion he experienced in his life.

"Your turn," Meredith said, smiling at him, and setting aside her hair, placing it on one shoulder, she showed her neck to Max.

He gets on his knees and looking into her eyes he approaches her and starts to gently stroke her neck, until he finds that perfect place.

He kissed the place one more time, sucking a little from it and then marked Meredith. She bows slightly, and he catches her and holds her to his chest and when he feels that their bond is complete he lets her breathe.

"Mine" Max and Stark said at the same time.

"Mine" Meredith and Artemis moan while they caress Max's muscular body.

"This is better than anything else" Max said and placed her in his lap while his "friend" finds his own way to what interests him.

He slips inside Meredith again, holding her in his arms and moving a little and sucks from his mark.

"You destroyed me," he said, laughing. "You made this alpha like a puffy rabbit"

"It's not good to be a rabbit," Meredith said, smiling at him.

"Why is that?" Max asked.

"Rabbits have a sex addiction," she said, laughing.

"Then I'm definitely a rabbit," Max said, and he continued his activity until late at night. There were just the two of them, and the sky above them. Or that was what they thought, because they didn't know that from somewhere in the distance someone saw everything.

With tears in eyes, looking around, and thinking at all the things that were lost, their spectator swore revenge.
