

94 Chapter 94 She was a Quinn first

Author's POV 1

"Brat!!!!" Grandpa Cruz yelled, coming as fast as he could and taking Max by the ear to pull him closer to him.

"Grandpa!" Max said laughing. "I am an alpha and you make me look like a two year old kid."

"Shut up! And let me see your neck! Holy goddess! Thank you! Now I can die and my white hair can descend quietly into the mortuary pit. This brat is finally an honorable man!"

And Meredith giggles looking at them.

"Sweetie," Lisa said, taking her in her arms.

"Thank you for letting him back in your life. I know that he did a lot of stupid things but finding you was the best thing that happened in his life."

"I must call Landon and James." Carter said with a huge smile on his face.

"Meredith!" grandpa yelled suddenly. "When will you give birth?" and Meredith looks at Max and Max looks at grandpa and puts his hand on the old man's forehead.

"He doesn't have a fever." Max said laughing.

"Of course I haven't but I just changed my mind, I still can't die until I won't see my grand grand pups!"

"Then we must postpone the moment as long as possible, grandpa!" Meredith said coming near the old man "We don't want to lose our naughty grandpa!"

"You!" grandpa said. "Even you started to mock me?"

"Only when you are naughty, grandpa," she said laughing.

"So what's the plan?" Lisa asked, coming near Max and Meredith, and starting to eat her breakfast. "Will you have your luna ceremony this weekend? Do you have any special requests?"

"No mom," Meredith said looking into Max's eyes. "I just need to finish this last step and live in peace with all of you. There is nothing that I want."

"But what about your dress for the ceremony?" Lisa asked. "I will ask Olivia to come and help you"

"No, mom!" Max said. "I want to offer her a dress."

"What idea is that?" Lisa said a little bit of shock.
"I am a fashion tycoon. Did you forget?" and he winks at Lisa.

He takes Meredith's hand in his hand and pulls her to his chest he said through their mind link.

"I love you. I love you so much that I am scared."

"About what?" Meredith asks him in return, putting a hand on his cheek.

"What if one day you will open your eyes and see how stupid I am and that I don't deserve you? What if someday you will not be able to forgive all my non-senses? Or to love me no matter what?"

"This will never happen," Meredith tells him.

"You are indebted to me for life, and I am a person who collects money from her debtors without mercy. So you will pay for life for being a scoundrel when we first met"

"I can not wait!" Max said laughing and sitting at the table makes her sit on his lap.

"Max, your parents are looking at us!" Meredith said blushing.

"Let them watch, I want to hold you!" he said but right then Sam and Cara, followed by Luke and Vivi, went down to the table. Now that they live here they will eat with his alpha, as it should have happened before.

"Ohoho!" Sam said, pointing to Max. "But what do we have here?" and immediately he goes to him and looks at Max's neck.

"She beat you, didn't she?" and begins to laugh out loud.

"Who beat who?" Carter asked as he entered the dining room with Landon and Olivia and was immediately followed by James and Lori.

"Your sister beat our alpha!" and Sam starts to laugh.

"Impossible!" James said, knowing all too well that even if Meredith has a black belt in martial arts, and trained as a human with him for many years, she is a newborn wolf. It would be impossible to bring down an alpha as powerful as Max.

"She did it!" Luke said. "He made a deal with her and she told him that she will mark him when she will beat him!"

"Are you stupid, Max?" James asked. "Did you let your alpha pride down, just to let my sister mark you?" and he laughs with all his heart.

"He didn't," Meredith said. "And I can beat you too, brother," she said, smiling at him.

"You wish, little Mer!" he said, calling her the way he was doing when they were little.

Max puts his hands around her waist and kisses her mark making her feel the need to be with him again but Artemis has another plan.

"You know what?" she said taking control over Meredith, while her eyes are shining making her presence felt.

"Let's fight now!" and James just looks at her with his mouth wide open.

"Mer, there is no need to force yourself."

But that's it.

Artemis looks at him and says "Is little Stallion afraid of his little sister?" and she starts to laugh. "Come on, James, like when we were kids and you were struggling to teach me to hit the boys at their sensitive point!"

"What a traitor!" Sam said laughing. "Did you teach her to hit us in our jewels?"

"Not hard enough if you can still reproduce yourself," Artemis said laughing.

"Alright," James said.

"Let's go!" Artemis signaled to him and immediately rose from Max's arms.

"Don't hurt her!" Landon said, pointing his finger at James, while Max started to laugh.

"Human or wolf form?" Meredith asks.

"Wolf" James said wanting to see his sister's wolf, and he transformed while Meredith is still in human form.

"What Are you doing?" he asks her.

"Just attack me!" she said laughing. "My wolf needs a little stimulation to transform" and she doesn't finish what she has to say as soon as James rushes towards her, but Meredith jumps in the air and stretches her leg and hits James in the ribs slamming him to the ground.

He loves her but he is an alpha and his wolf will never accept such humiliation, so he gets up from the ground and attacks Meredith directly to everyone's horror. Only Max is quiet.

"James, stop!" London said and he has a little more and he transforms, but just when James has a little more and catches Meredith by the leg, Artemis transforms making James take two steps back and falls on his back in shock.

"Holy fucking shit!" Landon and Olivia said at the same time, while Lori and James are looking at Artemis with open mouths.

"You are a white wolf?" Lori asks in the height of happiness.

"No" Meredith said "I am more than his. I am the primordial wolf! "

James transforms and takes human form again, while Lori runs to him and gives him his trousers.

"Meredith Quinn! You rock!" he said laughing.

"Cruz!" Max corrects him, annoyed "Meredith Cruz!"

"Yeah, yeah... she was Quinn first" he said and ran to her and put his hand on her silver white fur.

"So I win?" she asks, laughing.

"Without a doubt!"
