

98 Chapter 98 I am the animal here

Author's POV 1

"You're so beautiful!" Vivi said, holding Meredith in her arms as Luke looked at her closely.

"You are too sweetie" Meredith said smiling at her and when she sees Cara coming she stretches out her hand and signals to her to come to her.

"You two are my beta and my gamma. I couldn't have been happier than I am now, you were and still are my closest outside family." Meredith tells them.

"You saved my life back then, Mer," Cara said.

"I didn't, you were already strong enough to survive alone, it was the scoundrel of Sam who made things difficult." and looking at her she asks. "How are you feeling"

"Better than last time," she said smiling, "but it's just the first week."

"Vivi" suddenly Francois can be heard and Vivi turns her head and looks at him in shock.

"What are you doing here?" she asks Francois. He hurt her feelings. He was her brother and yet he acted like a jerk. It was her choice to be with Luke and she is more than happy but he..Ahh! She would want to beat his ass!

"I invited him," Meredith said. "We still have friends, don't we, Francois?"

"We are" he said, easily ashamed and looking at Vivi he asks her.

"Can we talk, Vivi?"

"About what?" she asks, putting her hands on her breast. Luke sees everything from a distance but although he is always ready to intervene and take her from there if Francois makes her sad again, he just lets her talk to her brother.

"About me being a jerk, about missing you and about me being sorry" he said looking like a puppy in her eyes.

"I don't want to talk to you" she said and turned her face from him even if in reality she wanted to take him in his arms.

He came near her and pulled her by his chest.

"I am sorry, Vivi. I was a fool. I thought that all this mating is something else, like a rut but this ceremony was the most beautiful thing I have ever seen," he said this time looking at Meredith, who is smiling at him.

"Are you happy here, Vivi?" Francois asks.

"I never felt so good in my life, Franco," Vivi said. "Luke is perfect and loves me without caring what happened in the past, he healed my wounded soul. He is wonderful "

"How is Leia?" Francois asks suddenly. The truth is that he thought about her a lot last in the week. Not even he knows why, but not being able to see her after more than two weeks in which has been at the door of her hospital ward daily, makes him crazy.

"She's home now," Vivi said. "Luke brought her home. She is in one of our bedrooms, because we didn't want to leave her alone at the hospital. She is stable, at least her heart didn't stop again. "

And just when Francois wants to say something Luke appears on his back scaring him.

"Why do you ask about my sister?" he asks Francois, pretending to be upset. "Aren't you afraid she'll eat you?"

"No." Francois said looking into his eyes. "If she wanted to hurt me, she'd have done it since I rejected her."

"I don't want to see your face here" Luke said and makes Vivi look at him, but he tells her something through mindlink and then calls one of his warriors.

"Pete," Luke said. "Take this human and lock him on the penultimate floor of the pack house. The dungeons are on the right side of the floor, door three "and he winks at him.

"WHAT?" Francois asks in panic.

"Will you let him put me in jail?" he asks Vivi, trembling in shock.

"I believe I will" Vivi said and kissed Luke whispering in his ear "Thank you"

The warrior signals to Francois, who is white at his face, but trying not to disturb Meredith's ceremony he submit and follows the warrior. He will find a way to run from here later, but when the warrior opens the door and asks him to enter in his dungen, Francois just smiles at him.

"Don't do anything stupid!" The warrior Pete said. "She was and if she will ever recover she will still be our strongest female warrior. Seeing her like this broke our hearts. So, be careful what you do. Maybe Luke didn't break your neck, but I'll do it if she gets hurt again. "

Francois just nods and looks at the bed where Leia "sleeps".

'How is she today?' He asks the nurse.

"The same, she moves her hands even if gamma doesn't believe me, but I know what I've seen.

And is not trembling. Her wolf came back and fight to help her ”

“Is it possible?” Francois asks.

“I’ve seen it once so yes, it’s like a miracle but it’s possible,” the nurse said, giving Francois hope.

“Can I stay alone with her? I will take care of her and if there is something wrong I will call you” he says and after the nurse mindlinks Luke, she leaves to the kitchen.

Francois just looks at Leia. He must confess that she is really beautiful. He is always in contact with models, and even if he was not a womanizer in his life he never lacks women and sleeps around when he needs to, but Leia’s appearance sums up everything he likes at a woman.

She is tall, has an athletic body, the right amount of breast and ass. Her face is really beautiful and the two dimples she makes in her cheeks when she smiles make her delicious for him.

He just comes near her bed and takes her hand in his hand.

“I am sorry Leia. “He whispers. “They told me that you couldn’t fight well because of what I said to you.” and he just held her hand in his hand and said almost laughing.

"I am sorry, I acted like an animal. It seems that I am the animal here" and he feels her finger trembling a little in his hand.

"I wish to take the time back," he said. "But I can't. Will you wake up, please?" he asks her and looks at her hand which stays still in his hand.

"I would like to have a try at least. Vivi is happy, why should not be too if this mate thing is true?" he asks her.

"Will you, please? Will you wake up?" and he takes his shoes off, without letting her hand from his hand, just using his feet and climbs in bed next to her.

Francois put his head on her pillow, resting his forehead on her temple so that his lips would kiss her neck.

He saw it at Vivi and Luke, and also at Meredith and Max. The werewolves have a thing with kissing their mates necks, so he does the same even if he doesn't understand why he is doing it.

He just puts his lips on her neck and stays there until he falls asleep.

"How is she?" Luke asks the nurse in a whisper when he comes to her room after three hours.

"They have been sleeping like this for a while, but she is doing well. I think this is a good idea.
