

My Master 1131

Chapter 1131:

Cao Zhen emphasized, "I'm worried that the night might be dangerous."

"No need to worry, with me here, no one will dare to trouble us," Bi Yue Immortal expressed a strong confidence.

Cao Zhen gently shook his head, never mind, if Bi Yue didn't want to find a place to stay, then they might as well continue their search. Perhaps, this peerless relic posed no danger at night.

Besides, both he and Bi Yue Immortal were at the very limit of the Golden Core Stage. If there really was any danger, they should be able to escape.

The night grew darker, and the relic, which seemed like an Immortal Realm during the day and scarcely showed any Strange Beasts, now echoed with the roars of these creatures as the sky darkened.

These howls included the cries of wolves, the chirping of birds, the screeching of giant eagles, and even the faint sound of a dragon's roar. The myriad of sounds mixed together, instantly making this world seem much more dangerous.

Cao Zhen was puzzled; it was the same place where he and Bi Yue hadn't encountered many Strange Beasts during the day, but why were there so many roars at dusk?

Could it be that these Strange Beasts hid during the day and only came out at night?

Among these roars were fierce tiger growls.

"Tiger roars?"

A look of excitement flashed across Bi Yue Immortal's face—they were looking for tiger skin and bones. But in the next moment, a look of confusion appeared on her face and slowly, her brows furrowed.

"Why do the roars seem to come from all directions? And the sounds... they're slightly different. Which way should we go, or should we just pick a direction at random?"

"Go west," Cao Zhen pointed in a direction and said, "There's a tiger roar from there that sounds vaguely similar to the drum sounds from the high tower. The drums must be made from the hides and bones of such a beast."

Bi Yue Immortal stared blankly at Cao Zhen, her face filled with amazement. Could he really discern that from the sounds? Was Cao Zhen able to determine which Strange Beast we should seek just like that?

She thought of the exceptional level Cao Zhen had shown when he struck the drum with all his might before and, although she was surprised, she chose to believe in him.

The two quickly flew off into the distance.

During the day, they couldn't find a Strange Beast no matter how hard they tried, but now, as they flew through the night, their presence immediately drew the attention of various Strange Beasts.

In the darkness, a Strange Beast about twenty feet long, with a wolf-like head and bat-like wings, soared into the air and swooped toward the duo.

As the Strange Beast flew, it suddenly opened its mouth and, in the next instant, a Flame snake shot out, illuminating the pitch-black sky with blinding brightness. The Flame increased the surrounding temperature dramatically.

This was a Strange Beast equivalent to the later stages of the Golden Core Stage.

However, before its flame could reach Bi Yue Immortal and Cao Zhen, Bi Yue waved her hand, and a violent gust of wind swept out from her sleeve.

The incoming flame was instantly extinguished, and with that, the wind enveloped the Strange Beast.

In the next moment, the body of the Strange Beast exploded with a thunderous noise.

Even though the beast was as powerful as one in the later stages of the Golden Core Stage, Bi Yue Immortal was at the limit of the Golden Core Period; the difference between their strengths was simply too great.

Flying alongside Cao Zhen, Bi Yue Immortal encountered many Strange Beasts that continuously attacked them. Among them were beasts comparable to the ninth culmination of Pill Fusion in the Golden Core Stage and others akin to the Perfect Completion Golden Core Stage. Cao Zhen even spotted a beast equivalent to the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection.

But to these beasts, Bi Yue Immortal was almost invincible, defeating them in nearly a single round.

Cao Zhen didn't need to be distracted at all during their journey. He only had one task, which was to listen and pinpoint the Giant Tiger Monster.

These beasts apparently had Spiritual Wisdom, too. Realizing the incredible terror of the woman before them, especially after many of their kind had fallen to her hand, they eventually gave up. They no longer pursued the woman but fled into the distance instead.

Clearly, they weren't the only ones venturing through the night. While Bi Yue could fend off these beasts, others did not have Bi Yue's formidable strength.

In the night sky, screams could still be heard, along with the sounds of Divine Skills exploding.

"Roar!"

Suddenly, another thunderous roar sounded.

"It's over there, that's the roar of the Strange Beast."

Cao Zhen quickly alerted Bi Yue Immortal. No sooner had he spoken than Bi Yue, wielding her Divine Weapon, charged ahead with him.

Moments later, before his eyes appeared a smooth Great Stone, atop which a fierce tiger let out a mighty roar skyward.

The tiger appeared to be over forty feet long, with a tail that seemed to stretch for more than ten feet by itself.

On their way, they had encountered numerous Strange Beasts, but none had an aura as strong as that emanating from this Giant Tiger Monster.

Upon seeing humans, the tiger's wild eyes instantly turned their way, along with a raw, brutal, and bloody scent.

This aura meant the tiger had definitely attained the strength of the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection and, even within that rank, it was an exceptionally strong being.

Chapter 1132:

Suddenly, the fierce tiger let out a long howl. With the words falling, thick scales grew upon its tiger palms.

The next moment, it lunged forward, and in an instant, a terrifying gale swept around.

Wind from the tiger!

The violent wind howled, uprooting the large trees in the distance.

Within the storm, there was also a dense evil qi, attacking both Cao Zhen and Immortal Bi Yue.

Almost at the same time, the mournful cries of resentful spirits resounded from all around.

In Cao Zhen's field of vision, apparitions of fierce ghosts suddenly emerged, and in a brief moment, thousands of ghosts wailed mournfully, and an endlessly gloomy, dark, bizarre, and terrifying aura assaulted them.

In the darkness of the night, two black auras suddenly appeared from the void, targeting both Cao Zhen and Immortal Bi Yue.

Just as the black shadows were about to invade Cao Zhen and Immortal Bi Yue, Immortal Bi Yue's divine weapon chimed lightly, emitting a pleasant, crisp sound. Immediately, a wave of visible force surged from the bell, dissipating the two black auras upon contact.

While Immortal Bi Yue blocked the black auras, she also confronted the giant tiger monster.

Cao Zhen, watching Immortal Bi Yue battle the giant tiger, revealed a puzzled look in his eyes. The black aura clearly wasn't something the tiger had unleashed.

Then, where did this aura come from?

He was at the limit of the Golden Core Stage; if there were enemies nearby, he should have detected them. So, who was behind this black aura?

Was it purely from this world?

If so, would everyone be attacked by this black aura?

Cao Zhen's thoughts stirred, and he connected directly to his disciples through Zhonghua Cloud. Suddenly, his vision was filled with gales and flames.

Peak Fire Heavenly Tribulation!

Beneath the night sky, Bei Yan continued to run, and wherever he went, the Wind Fire Tribulation naturally descended.

Just then, Bei Yan and the others were surrounded by strange beasts. In a short time, amidst the Wind Fire Tribulation, beast after beast fell dead.

Meanwhile, Ling Xi and the others stood at a distance, not offering help, merely watching Bei Yan perform.

Cao Zhen quickly confirmed that his disciples were safe and then contacted Ling Xi through Zhonghua Cloud, asking directly, "Ling Xi, did you suddenly suffer an attack from some black aura before?"

Ling Xi, now accustomed to her master's voice suddenly echoing in her mind, immediately nodded in response. "That's right, Master. We were just attacked by some black aura. It seemed to appear out of nowhere, then split into six strands, each attacking the six of us. However, the black aura felt very weak. I only had to use an ordinary Five-thunder Righteous Method, and I didn't even have to use much mana to completely scatter it."

"Indeed, the black aura you encountered was also very weak, and with six of you, there were six auras. It seems this black aura really did originate from this world, targeting each individual's aura. It might be the danger of this relic during the night," Cao Zhen mused, not understanding why the relic's danger was so feeble. The terrible skeletons and resentful spirits they encountered in the peerless relic they entered before were far more dangerous.

Cao Zhen couldn't figure out the issue at the moment and could only instruct, "I always feel there's something strange about these black auras. You all be extra cautious. Also, did you see a high tower earlier?"

"A tower?" Ling Xi shook her head, "No, we haven't seen a high tower, not even a building resembling a tower."

This time, Ling Xi didn't converse with Cao Zhen through her mind as only their group was present in this world. She spoke aloud partly to let her junior sisters know that Master had contacted them again, showing he hadn't neglected them.

Nearby, when everyone heard Ling Xi talking to herself, they understood that Cao Zhen must have reached out to Ling Xi again. Yan Yourong and Duo Duo hadn't even started to speak when Li Ke spoke up with a strange tone, "Sect Leader Cao, to think you'd remember your disciples while 'flying together' with the genius fairy of Dragon Chant Sect, you sure don't have it easy.

I wonder, since you entered this relic, have you found anything? You are a master of musical rhythm, and this is a musical rhythm relic; you can't possibly have gotten nothing, right?"

She knew that while Cao Zhen was communicating with his disciples through special means, he could also hear her if she spoke beside him.

Cao Zhen was just about to respond when a dull thud sounded.

Immortal Bi Yue had already slain the fierce tiger. Despite the tiger's strength, Immortal Bi Yue was at the limit of the Golden Core Stage.

"Wait, you didn't destroy the tiger's hide, did you? If it's destroyed, we won't be able to make a drum skin!" Cao Zhen exclaimed and quickly said to Ling Xi, "I have something to take care of right now. I'll find you tomorrow."

With that, he broke off the connection with Ling Xi.

Ling Xi helplessly turned to the others and said, "Master said he's got something to do, so he's gone for now."

"Oh," Duo Duo and Yan Yourong nodded, but they gave Li Ke a peculiar look. Just now, their Mistress had spoken with sarcastic undertones—she must be jealous again.

Feeling their gazes, Li Ke seemed to realize why they were looking at her and deliberately cleared her throat, saying, "That Cao Zhen is infuriating! When he leaves everyone behind to go off alone into relics, that's one thing.

But this is a musical rhythm relic, and he's skilled in musical rhythm. He must be gaining a lot inside, yet instead of thinking of us, he goes to outsiders.

When he's with us, the treasures and resources we get all belong to Hundred Peaks Sect, but when he's with that woman, they have to share any treasures and resources they get. Isn't that just favoring strangers?"

Around her, Duo Duo and the others could only nod, not daring to say more.

At that moment, the Wind Fire Heavenly Tribulation triggered by Bei Yan ended, and he flew back, casually saying, "Actually, it's simple—just make Immortal Bi Yue one of our own, and then she won't be favoring outsiders."

After speaking, he suddenly felt the air around him turn ice cold.

Chapter 1133:

Immortal Bi Yue had not damaged the fierce tiger's skin too severely. After obtaining the tiger's hide and bones, the two flew towards the tower throughout the night.

When they had first arrived at the tower, they had only encountered several members of the Five Sounds Sect, but now as they returned to the spot, only one member of the Five Sounds Sect remained outside the tower. However, two new individuals had joined him.

One was a monk dressed in a kasaya.

Having appeared in the Cloud Reaching Sect's grand ceremony, monks practicing Zen Cultivation were also seen by the crowd.

On the other side, a man clad in black emitted an aura that warned others to keep their distance, a chilling aura of Demonic Qi continuously spreading out from him.

This was a practitioner of the Demonic Path.

At that moment, the three seemed to be carefully listening to something when suddenly they heard the sound of air being pierced and turned their heads in unison.

Miao Yin of the Five Sounds Sect saw Immortal Bi Yue and nodded amicably. Then, her gaze fell on the tiger skin and bones that Immortal Bi Yue was holding, revealing a flash of surprise in her eyes. Her fellow sect brothers and sisters had left around the same time as Immortal Bi Yue, yet her brothers had not returned, but Immortal Bi Yue and her companion had returned so quickly—only the two of them!

The Zen Cultivator saw Immortal Bi Yue but showed no reaction, quickly averting his gaze and continuing to listen closely to the drum beats.

Even the Demonic Cultivator quickly averted his gaze, evidently not wanting to engage in conflict with Immortal Bi Yue.

Bi Yue simply glanced at the two and seemed unbothered by their presence, flying with Cao Zhen to a drum with a ruptured head.

Normally, drums are quite troublesome to craft, but this one before them was much simpler—it merely required stretching the tiger skin over the drumhead tightly.

Then, Bi Yue handed Cao Zhen the tiger bones.

Miao Yin observed their actions but looked off into the distance. She did not know how proficient the man brought by Immortal Bi Yue was in Musical Rhythm but was aware that he hadn't been listening here for long.

The drumbeats emitting from within the tower sounded ordinary, yet they contained countless variations.

Even with her musical expertise, she had listened till now and only grasped eight or nine points of certainty that she could resonate with the drumbeats inside the tower.

The other party hadn't listened to the drumbeats before, so now, even if they repaired the drum, they could not make it resonate, and she still had a chance. As long as her sect brothers returned quickly, as long as Immortal Bi Yue didn't disrupt their efforts, and if their conjectures were correct, they could be the first to enter the tower.

As the thought had just crossed her mind, a dull drum sound reached her ears.

Had the other party struck the drum?

Had he gone mad? Without having listened to the drum sound before, he struck the drum upon arriving—couldn't he fear that a mistake would trigger danger from within the tower targeting him?

He...

A look of astonishment suddenly crossed Miao Yin's face as she stared incredulously at the figure striking the drum. The frequency of his drumming and the sound produced matched precisely with the sounds coming from the tower. For a moment, the air around them vibrated, followed by the tower itself shaking.

The next moment, the tightly shut door behind him abruptly opened.

"This..."

Miao Yin's eyes widened in shock. He had succeeded so quickly? Since her arrival, she had been listening to the drumbeat and wasn't completely certain she could resonate with the tower's drum sound.

But the other party had not lingered here, and upon arriving, he directly struck the drum to produce resonance. What sort of musical expertise was this, and who had Immortal Bi Yue found?

In Miao Yin's surprised gaze, the other seemed to be grasped by an invisible hand and pulled through the door behind him.

Bi Yue stood by Cao Zhen's side, the first to react. She turned to follow Cao Zhen through the door, but the wooden gate abruptly slammed shut the next moment.

Bi Yue also felt a terrifying force push her back. Even as an individual at the Golden Core Period Limit, she could not resist the force and was pushed backward.

Immortal Bi Yue stood there flabbergasted, perplexed by what had just happened. Could it be that only the one who plays music could enter? Were others incapable of entry, and were there dangers inside the tower?

If there were dangers within the tower, Cao Zhen was but a cultivator with the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills; how would he withstand them?

Now, all she could do was pray that there was no danger inside the tower.

Around them, the other three individuals also looked toward the tower with varying expressions.

Inside the tower, Upon entering, Cao Zhen saw a winding staircase that spiraled up to the top of the tower.

Surrounding the stairs were numerous large drums, which began to sound as soon as he entered. Each drumbeat produced a Sonic Wave that shot towards him rapidly.

This relic resembled the one the Eclipse Demon had entered before, but the one before him seemed even more dangerous.

"These Sonic Waves, as long as one understands Musical Rhythm and has reached the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection Cultivation Base, should be able to avoid them. However, a typical cultivator at that level, if ignorant of Musical Rhythm, would be unable to ascend," Cao Zhen observed the waves coming at him and confidently moved forward, simultaneously sensing the changes in the Sonic Waves all around him.

Chapter 1134:

"The sonic waves have grown stronger again, such intensity, without reaching Nirvana, Liè Yàn should be almost at its limit."

"The sonic waves are still intensifying..."

"This place... Huh? Have we reached the end? However, with sonic waves of this level, I wonder if Ling Xi and Yan Yourong and the others can break through."

Cao Zhen quickly reached the top of the tower.

At the top of the tower was its spire, not very large in area, where three objects were placed, one of which was a large drum.

The earlier sounds had emanated from this drum.

The drum was entirely black, and its surface was painted with patterns of ferocious beasts.

Cao Zhen glanced at the drum, merely raised his hand to tap it casually, and instantly a visible wave of air shot out from the drum, spreading to all sides, striking the walls and echoing back, filling the room for a moment with a sound that resembled the low thud of ancient beasts stamping on the earth. It was as if countless Ancient Beasts were charging from afar.

These waves of energy even rushed into his body, resonating from his heart, as loud as if peals of thunder were exploding within him. What was more terrifying wasn't just the volume of the sound, but that the sound was the roar of supreme beasts, as if countless ferocious animals wanted to devour him.

"This Divine Weapon is not weak, even feels stronger than Yan Yourong's Grieving Anger Dragon Blade. However, this is the relic fallen from Heavenly Dao aimed at the Sect Tribulation of the Five Sounds Sect, to offer just one Divine Weapon inside such a lofty tower seems a bit off."

Although it looked easy for him to enter here, that was because his Musical Rhythm was too advanced. Others trying to enter wouldn't find it so simple.

Not to mention that fierce tiger, even finding it would be not easy, let alone slaying it without some strength.

They killed it easily, for Immortal Bi Yue was at the limit of the Golden Core Stage.

Cao Zhen then looked towards the other two treasures.

Beside the large drum, floating in the Void were two objects, one in the middle being a Token, and on the other side, a very thin beam of light. Around the beam, Mana surged, though it was just a beam, seemingly having a life of its own.

"This is Divine Thought!"

Techniques like some simple Cultivation Techniques and Divine Skills, could be directly taught through verbal instruction, but when a Cultivation Technique reached a certain degree, like the Eight Nine Mysterious Art, the first ten levels, which is the first stage, could still be taught verbally. However, the subsequent stages of the Eight Nine Mysterious Art could not be directly passed on verbally to others.

Similarly, spells beyond Divine Skills were also complicated, impossible to be conveyed merely through verbal instruction or a Secret Manual.

Many with Great Ability, wishing to pass on their Cultivation Techniques or spells to posterity, could only do so through Divine Thought.

"This Divine Thought, I wonder if it pertains to a Cultivation Technique or some sort of spell." Cao Zhen regarded the Divine Thought, pondered briefly, but then directly took it into his Qiankun Bag.

He lacked no Cultivation Techniques.

Even after reaching the Earth Immortal Realm, the spells he could use were even more plentiful.

After all, both Zhang Daoling, to whom he was connected, and True Person Yu Ding, were very strong. They not only Cultivated but also focused on researching spells, rather than Divine Skills. In fact, they were masters of even more spells.

Just like with Xiang Ziyu, after he discovered Xiang Ziyu's Immortal Body, he wanted to impart to Xiang Ziyu some Divine Skills of Yin and Yang; however, Zhang Daoling's techniques on Yin and Yang were all spells with no Divine Skills. Xiang Ziyu hadn't reached the Earth Immortal stage and couldn't cultivate spells.

In short, whether it was Cultivation Techniques or Divine Skills, neither was of much importance to him, nor did his disciples really need them.

He had partnered with Immortal Bi Yue to enter here, so it would be fair to give her this Divine Thought, while he took the Token and the Divine Weapon.

Cao Zhen reached out and grabbed the last treasure, the Token.

As the Token entered his hand, a cool sensation spread through him—not the kind of chill that bites to the bone, but more like a refreshing coolness experienced when one lightly touches an ice cube on a hot summer day.

In the next moment, the air before him violently fluctuated, and as he fell from the sky, the tower in front of him instantly transformed into a minuscule tower and flew into the Token in his palm.

Outside the tower, the others just happened to see the tower fly into Cao Zhen's palm.

A cold murderous intent flashed through the eyes of the Demonic Cultivator, but in the next instant, the killing intent in his eyes dissipated.

Immortal Bi Yue had already risen and landed in front of Cao Zhen.

Indeed, there was no danger inside the tower, so Cao Zhen had obtained the treasures inside? Even the tower itself had been taken by Cao Zhen.

"Let's go."

Below Immortal Bi Yue, a ribbon-like sash appeared again, she pulled Cao Zhen onto the sash and directly commandeered it to fly into the distance.

Although she was at the limit of the Golden Core Stage, Cao Zhen was not.

The sudden disappearance of the lofty tower here would inevitably lead many to rush over to investigate.

She feared lingering here would attract some lunatics to come and directly attack Cao Zhen.

Despite her strength, if too many attacked Cao Zhen, she would be unable to fend them all off.

Having already acquired the treasures in hand, there was naturally no need to stay here any longer.

Chapter 1135:

All around, whether it was Miao Yin of the Five Sounds Sect, the Zen Cultivator, or the Demonic Cultivator, they merely watched the two fly away without any reaction.

He knew they were no match for Immortal Bi Yue.

Even to ambush Immortal Bi Yue? The three of them might not be a match for her, not to mention, they did not belong to the same faction, so how could they possibly make a move?

Besides, they were not crazy.

After flying some distance with Cao Zhen, Immortal Bi Yue stopped in a secluded place, turned her head, and asked Cao Zhen, "What did you manage to obtain inside?"

Only Cao Zhen had entered the Tower, and in the end the Tower even shrank and flew into Cao Zhen's hands, so if there were any treasures inside the Tower, they must have been taken by Cao Zhen.

"I got a big drum," Cao Zhen first took out the drum.

Although Immortal Bi Yue did not understand Musical Rhythm, after Cao Zhen struck the big drum, she nodded slightly and said, "Not bad, this drum is not an ordinary Divine Weapon, if you refine it once more, it could even be used as a Treasure."

As she spoke, her gaze still fixed on Cao Zhen, she asked, "Besides this big drum, there should be other treasures inside, right?"

"There is also a strand of Divine Thought," Cao Zhen took out the strand of Divine Thought and said, "I do not know what kind of Divine Thought this is, nor do I know whether it contains Divine Skills, Spells, or Cultivation Techniques."

"Divine Thought!" Immortal Bi Yue was instantly moved, as this was Divine Thought left by the Heavenly Dao!

Cao Zhen also noticed Immortal Bi Yue's interest in the Divine Thought. He did not take back the Divine Thought but instead took out another Token and said, "This is the third treasure, a Token. The Tower eventually flew into this Token. I do not know what other functions this Tower has."

It seems you are quite interested in this Divine Thought, so how about this—I will take this Token and the big drum, and you can have the remaining Divine Thought?"

He had no use for the Divine Thought, so naturally, he chose the other two items.

Upon hearing this, Immortal Bi Yue's face showed a surprising expression. Cao Zhen actually did not want the Divine Thought, which, in her view, should be what Cao Zhen needed most.

After all, the Immortal Sect Cao Zhen came from was not strong, under such circumstances, he should need the Divine Thought to enhance his strength. Why would he choose the big drum and the Tower?freewebnovel.com

The big drum was indeed an extremely powerful Divine Weapon, but Divine Weapons could be forged, how could they compare with the Divine Thought.

So, what Cao Zhen wanted was the Tower?

Could there be some secrets inside the Tower that she did not know about?

After all, only Cao Zhen had entered the Tower.

Suddenly, Immortal Bi Yue thought of many possibilities. Cao Zhen had taken out these three treasures, but were there really only three treasures?

Like that Divine Thought, why was Cao Zhen so straightforward in giving her the Divine Thought? Could there be other strands of Divine Thought that Cao Zhen had only taken out this one to placate her?

In that instant, Immortal Bi Yue thought of many things, a cold glint flashed in her eyes. Suddenly, her expression turned cold as she said, "Let me see your Qiankun Bag."

"My Qiankun Bag?" Cao Zhen was immediately confused. The Qiankun Bag was not something to be casually shown to others. Even his own disciples had never seen his Qiankun Bag.

"Bi Yue, you want to see my Qiankun Bag, isn't that a bit inappropriate?" Cao Zhen couldn't help but feel a wave of annoyance rise in his heart. Looking at the stunningly beautiful Immortal Bi Yue before him, he felt repulsed for the first time, and a dark aura began to rise from his heart, spreading around him.

Suddenly, at the next moment, an extremely faint, almost imperceptible aura also rose within him, surging towards the dark aura.

As this aura grew imperceptibly small, with its eruption, Cao Zhen instantly felt this aura.

It was...

The Age of Prosperity Qi!

It was not the aura of the Prosperous Age Skills he cultivated!

It seemed to be the Age of Prosperity Qi from the Hundred Peaks Sect, from Four Treasures Peak.

This Age of Prosperity Qi suddenly erupted, instantly enveloping the dark aura, and in an instant, it devoured the dark aura completely.

Cao Zhen's heart also jolted fiercely, What was happening to him just now? Was he about to attack?

It seemed he was affected by that dark aura.

Then what about that dark aura? Wasn't that the black aura that previously tried to infiltrate him and Bi Yue, which was seemingly shattered? How could it suddenly appear inside him?

And what about Bi Yue?

Bi Yue had suddenly turned so different, even wanting to see his Qiankun Bag. Could she also have been influenced by this aura?

Cao Zhen was just about to warn Bi Yue, but a fierce look flashed in her eyes as she coldly said, "It's not up to you whether I look or not."

In an instant, Bi Yue reached out towards Cao Zhen.

Although she did not release her Golden Core, her speed was still astonishingly fast, reaching the limits of the Golden Core Stage.

Immortal Bi Yue was fast, but Cao Zhen was faster.

Without releasing his Golden Core either, Cao Zhen simply darted backwards, avoiding Immortal Bi Yue's grasping hand. His physique was originally much stronger than others in the same Cultivation Realm because of his cultivation of the Record of Deities and Demons and the constant tempering of his body when he broke through to the Golden Core Stage, not to mention after cultivating the Eight Nine Mysterious Art.

Chapter 1136:

Bi Yue grabbed at emptiness, her actions only intensifying the malicious aura she emitted.

"You managed to avoid my attack, even though I haven't released a Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills, nor have you," she accused with growing intensity. "Under these circumstances, where neither of us has unleashed our Golden Pills, not even someone with the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection could dodge my attack.

Cao Zhen, you truly have been concealing your true self. I must see who you really are and what exactly is inside your Qiankun Bag."

As the final word left her lips, behind her materialized a vast Golden Core consolidated from nine different abnormal phenomenon Golden Pills. The space behind her seemed unable to withstand the power of this appearance and continuously exploded while shockwaves resonated in the air.

Behind Cao Zhen appeared nine abnormal phenomenon Golden Pills as well, along with the Heretical Golden Core atop his head, which he hadn't released in a long time. Often, he could overcome his opponents without unleashing it, and previously, in the Boundless Bloody Hell, he hadn't needed to exert any effort—his disciple could handle the Demonic Beasts.

As the Heretical Golden Core appeared, Cao Zhen's aura climbed to an unimaginably terrifying level. The next moment, Immortal Bi Yue wielded her silk ribbons, which she had always used for flying, striking toward him.

The ribbons danced through the air like a Divine Dragon descending from heaven, aiming straight for Cao Zhen's face.

Cao Zhen, intensely focused, dodged swiftly to the side as he watched the descending ribbons—a feat impossible for his past self at such close proximity under Immortal Bi Yue's assault. However, having cultivated the Eight Nine Mysterious Art, his dodge was so adept that he entirely evaded the falling ribbons.

But in the next moment, the ribbons abruptly curved and continued their assault toward him. Simultaneously, the two bells on the ribbons collided, emitting a dragon chant.

In an instant, Cao Zhen felt as though a Divine Dragon roared right before his face.

He now confirmed that Bi Yue was from the Dragon Chant Sect—it truly was a dragon's chant!

Because of this dragon chant, he momentarily paused, and the curving ribbon had already reached his face.

In a critical moment, Cao Zhen kept moving, dodging to the side while shouting at Immortal Bi Yue, "Bi Yue, calm down—you have been tainted by the Demonic Qi! Check your body."

"Demonic Qi has tainted me, haven't you been tainted as well?" retorted Bi Yue, her pretty face frosty, but a smile lingering at the corner of her mouth.

Seeing this smile, a phrase flashed in Cao Zhen's mind—'Terrifyingly beautiful.'

That phrase must have been invented for Bi Yue...

Wait, why is she smiling?

Cao Zhen suddenly stopped, looking puzzledly at Bi Yue. "That's wrong, you're smiling—have you recovered?"

If Immortal Bi Yue was still under the influence of the black Demonic Qi, she wouldn't be showing such a smile.

"Master Cao is truly discerning," said Bi Yue as she retracted her ribbons, teasingly looking at him. "Just now, that dragon chant snapped me out of it. You've really kept yourself hidden; even under my full force, influenced as I was, I couldn't hit you."

Furthermore, it's clear that you noticed the black Demonic Qi before I did and even suppressed it.

Master Cao, shouldn't you explain to me, your comrade, what your origins really are?"

While she spoke teasingly, her heart was full of shock. She had attacked with full force yet Cao Zhen had dodged every move; the only possibility was that, like her, he too had reached the limits of the Golden Core Stage!

Chapter 1137:

Immortal Bi Yue had herself reached the limit of the Golden Core Stage, and she knew better than anyone how difficult it was to reach this pinnacle. In the Dragon Chant Sect, she was hailed as a once-in-a-hundred-thousand-years talent.

Yet, even with her considerable natural talent, backed by the Great Teaching and an abundance of resources, without that one great fortuitous encounter, she would have been unable to reach the limit of the Golden Core Stage during her Perfect Completion Golden Core.

It was excruciatingly difficult to reach the Golden Core Period Limit at the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection.

Even within the entire Dragon Chant Sect, only two individuals had managed to reach the limit of the Golden Core Stage at the Perfect Completion Golden Core, which was a reason for their Sect's formidable strength.

She wondered how many Great Teachings there were out there without a single disciple who could achieve the limit of the Golden Core Stage during the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection.

However, the man in front of her, who claimed to be from the Hundred Peaks Sect, Cao Zhen, had reached the Golden Core Period Limit during his Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills!

"Who exactly are you, and where do you come from?" Immortal Bi Yue looked at Cao Zhen with utter seriousness. She absolutely refused to believe that an Immortal Sect she had never heard of could produce such an individual who attained the Golden Core Period Limit while at the stage of Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills.

As she gazed at Cao Zhen, her heart was filled with shock. If she hadn't tested him herself, she would have never believed that someone could reach the limit of the Golden Core Period while at the stage of Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills.

Cao Zhen seemed to have anticipated that Bi Yue would ask this question, and he bluffed, "Have you heard of reincarnated Great Ability?"

"Of course I know," she replied curiously, nodding her head. She was puzzled as to why Cao Zhen would suddenly bring up reincarnated Great Ability.

Cao Zhen nodded and pointed to himself, "I am a reincarnated Great Ability."

"That's impossible!" Immortal Bi Yue exclaimed without even waiting for Cao Zhen to explain, "Our Eastern Province doesn't have reincarnated Great Abilities. Not just our Eastern Province, but the Western continent, Southern continent, and Northern continent lack them too.

Reincarnated Great Abilities only happen in the Central Continent, and faraway places like the Northern Wasteland and Northern Border. Thus, you cannot possibly be a reincarnated Great Ability, or, if you are indeed one, it must be from a very distant epoch.

Moreover, no one from Central Continent comes to our Eastern Province now, so who on earth are you?"

Previously, Immortal Bi Yue's skepticism of Cao Zhen arose from the black aura's influence and her desire to check his Qiankun Bag, but now she genuinely doubted Cao Zhen's identity.

Cao Zhen was utterly dismayed; he never expected that the Eastern Province would lack reincarnated Great Abilities.

How come nobody mentioned this in conversation before? Was it because there were no reincarnated Great Abilities that the topic never came up?

Now he was in trouble, having inadvertently exposed himself.

What should he say next? How could he spin a tale to make Immortal Bi Yue believe in his fabricated story?

Immortal Bi Yue seemed to guess what Cao Zhen was thinking; she continued, "Master Cao, we should consider ourselves friends, right? At the very least, you've helped me before, and it was thanks to you that I experienced Enlightenment. I will remember this favor. You don't have to lie to me."

Cao Zhen looked up at Immortal Bi Yue, pondering internally if she would reveal his secret of having reached the Golden Core Period Limit while at the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills stage.

Should she spill this secret, what would the consequences be?

Eventually, everyone would surely want to know his origins and seek out his Immortal Sect.

He himself had mentioned the Hundred Peaks Sect, and once the Eastern Wasteland was truly connected with the Eastern Province, people would inevitably learn about Hundred Peaks Sect. Then, it would be easy for others to link him to the Sect, and with a bit of inquiry, the true nature of Hundred Peaks Sect would be fully exposed.

Having arrived in the Eastern Province, he contemplated what the reaction might be once the Eastern Wasteland, where Hundred Peaks Sect was located, was connected to the Eastern Province. How would they react to learning that he was from Hundred Peaks Sect and that he had reached the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection right after the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills?

But given his brief stay in the Eastern Province and not being from any of the major sects, he truly didn't know how they might respond.

Yet, now presented a good opportunity.

Sooner or later, people of the Eastern Province would find out that he had reached the Golden Core Period Limit at the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills stage.

Even if he hid it well, the people of the Eastern Province, by asking around different Immortal Sects and the common folk, could deduce that he achieved the Golden Core Period Limit at the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills stage.

Furthermore, if people from the Eastern Province were to attack the Eastern Wasteland and specifically Hundred Peaks Sect, he wouldn't be able to refrain from taking action; and by acting, he would completely reveal his strength.

Therefore, hiding the secret that he reached the Golden Core Period Limit at the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills stage was impossible; it was just a matter of timing.

Given these circumstances, it might be better to first ask Bi Yue.

After all, he owed her a debt for her Enlightenment. Besides, she had invited him to the Dragon Chant Sect when she only thought he specialized in Musical Rhythm, unaware that he was at the limit of the Golden Core Stage. It seemed likely she needed his help with something.

She probably had no reason to target him or to lie.

After some thought, Cao Zhen glanced around to ensure no one was there. Still not reassured, he pointed towards a distant cave and said, "Let's talk inside the cave; I'll tell you there."

Chapter 1138:

Immortal Bi Yue didn't give it much thought, and immediately followed Cao Zhen into the mountain cave. She too was at the limit of the Golden Core Stage, what was there to fear? However, her curiosity about Cao Zhen's identity grew stronger. Just who exactly was Cao Zhen, to make him so cautious and careful?

Both of them were at the limit of the Golden Core Stage, and they both felt that there were no people around, yet Cao Zhen still chose to enter this small mountain cave.

Once Immortal Bi Yue flew into the cave, Cao Zhen took a look outside then slowly began to speak, "I truly am a reincarnated being of Great Ability!"

After he spoke, he paused for a moment and then asked, "Do you know of the Eastern Wasteland?"

"I know of it, but I am not familiar with it. We know that outside our Central Five Provinces, there are some remote and secluded places. It is said that because of a great war in the past, the vast land was shattered, and some of the broken pieces of land, for some reason, drifted away. People refer to these places as the Eastern Wasteland, Eastern Barbarians, among other names. As to exactly how many lands there are, I am not clear.

"Right, I have also heard that those regions seem to be connecting with our Central Five Provinces soon. Other than that, I don't know much about those places."

As Immortal Bi Yue spoke, her eyes revealed an unexpected glint while she speculated, looking at Cao Zhen, "You're not going to tell me you come from the Eastern Wasteland, are you?"

"Clever," Cao Zhen snapped his fingers, "Yes, I am indeed from the Eastern Wasteland."

"No, that's not right," Immortal Bi Yue shook her head, "That's not right, there's a misty barrier between the Eastern Wasteland and our Central Five Provinces now, it's impossible for you to come to our Eastern Province."

"But we did make it. Actually, there's a small gap between the Eastern Province and the Eastern Wasteland, it's not possible for a lot of people to go through, but a few can manage it. After all, haven't people from the Eastern Province been able to send a portion of their numbers into our Eastern Wasteland, or the Eastern Barbarians and such places before?"

Immortal Bi Yue felt overwhelmed by the surge of information and took a while to accept what Cao Zhen had said. Then she sorted through it bit by bit, "So the reason you have such high Musical Rhythm ability is that you are a reincarnated being of Great Ability, and the reason we have never heard of you or your sect is because you come from the Eastern Wasteland.

"Speaking of which, when you were reincarnated, it must have been during a very ancient era, right? Otherwise, you should know that reincarnated beings of Great Ability don't appear in the Four Continents."

Cao Zhen nodded emphatically, fabricating his story, "Correct, it indeed was a very ancient era... never mind, I am now reincarnated and do not wish to talk about the past. Dwelling too much on past memories will affect the cultivation of my Daoist heart going forward."

Immortal Bi Yue nodded in understanding. She had heard that some reincarnated beings of Great Ability, upon reincarnation, make it their first task to forget the past. Otherwise, they would just follow the same path and reach the same level as before – at best, become slightly stronger but not experience a qualitative leap. Therefore, they needed to forget the past.

Of course, there are also some reincarnated beings of Great Ability who choose to continue on their previous path but will correct the mistakes they made before.

Although Immortal Bi Yue was even more curious about Cao Zhen's identity as a reincarnated being of Great Ability, since Cao Zhen clearly did not wish to divulge more, she could not well ask further and changed the subject instead, "Just now, from what you said, you didn't come to our Eastern Province alone, did you?"

Cao Zhen nodded, "Correct, I brought my disciples with me."

"Where are your disciples then?" Immortal Bi Yue asked. She did not question why Cao Zhen, a reincarnated being of Great Ability, would still take on disciples.

This time, Cao Zhen spoke the truth, "Some of them have already entered this relic, and another disciple is currently within the Cloud Reaching Sect. The Rainbow Bridge of the Cloud Reaching Sect was triggered by that disciple of mine."

Immortal Bi Yue did not know why Cao Zhen was so certain that the Rainbow Bridge had been triggered by his disciple, but based solely on Cao Zhen's status as a reincarnated being of Great Ability, and considering the terror of reaching the Golden Core Period Limit at the time of the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills, she believed what Cao Zhen said.

She now finally understood why Cao Zhen had no use for that Divine Thought. What would a reincarnated being of Great Ability need with cultivation techniques, Divine Skills, or even spells?

Once Cao Zhen finished speaking about his situation, he suddenly asked, "By the way, what is the perspective of your Eastern Province toward us people from the Eastern Wasteland?"

"What is the perspective?" Immortal Bi Yue was indeed stumped by the question. She frowned slightly in frustration and said, "I don't have any special feelings about your Eastern Wasteland connecting to the Central Five Provinces, no expectations, nor have I ever thought about it before."

"This kind of thing doesn't impact us at all. In short, our great teachings are not concerned with this matter."

"Then, what if they knew about someone who reached the limit of the Golden Core Stage at the time of the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills, what would they do? Would they attack the Hundred Peaks Sect? For example, would they try to nip me in the bud? Or even destroy the entire sect I belong to?"

At these words, Immortal Bi Yue's eyes widened in shock, and she spoke with bewilderment, "Why would you think that? Was the era you lived in so chaotic?"

"Although there are indeed disputes and conflicts among the Immortal Sects, the kind of preemptive elimination of an opposing faction's talents you're talking about is rare. After all, you are not their enemy, why would they unanimously target your sect?"

Chapter 1139:

Even those from the Demonic Path wouldn't target your Immortal Sects. First off, we're in the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth. If they target your sects and you retaliate, they too will be in trouble.

If they truly wish to suppress or even annihilate your sect, they would wait until the end of the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth. By then, their experts will gradually awaken and could easily eradicate you.

However, I don't think such a situation will arise.

Immortal Bi Yue paused momentarily as she reached this point, then looked at Cao Zhen and spoke earnestly, "The fact that you've reached the limit of the Golden Core Stage with Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills is indeed stunning.

But no matter how stunning, it is still the Golden Core Stage. Being a great reincarnated figure, you understand better than I do how lengthy the path of Immortal Cultivation is. To many, the Earth Immortal Realm marks the true beginning of cultivation.

You are currently strong, but once you reach the Earth Immortal Realm, who can guarantee you'd remain as invincible among your peers? On the path ahead, anything could happen.

Therefore, even the Demonic Sects might not target your sect. You have nothing to worry about."

"You mentioned the Demonic Sects, so I want to ask, after our Eastern Wasteland and other areas connect with your Central Five Provinces, will those Demonic Sect people take action? Say, to attack and annihilate us, or do something else?"

"It's hard to say about the Demonic Sects, who knows what they're thinking. They might really come to attack you, or they might just extort some resources from you and then leave you alone.

Frankly, the great teachings shouldn't care too much about the resources from the Immortal Sects from the Eastern Wasteland. However, the smaller Demonic Sects would very likely take notice of you."

Cao Zhen nodded slightly; this information was similar to what he knew.

He thought of the Void Breaking Sect and continued to inquire, "Do you know about the Void Breaking Sect?"

"Void Breaking Sect? Among the great teachings, they are quite new, and during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, they have not produced any famous geniuses. There isn't even a Golden Core Stage limit presence in their sect," Immortal Bi Yue asked curiously. "Why do you suddenly ask about this teaching?"

Cao Zhen replied truthfully, "Because in our Eastern Wasteland, there's an Immortal Sect called Void Breaking Sect, and I was wondering if there is any connection between Void Breaking Sect and Void Breaking Teaching."

"If it's Void Breaking Teaching, then the Void Breaking Sect you mentioned is very likely a branch of theirs," explained Immortal Bi Yue. "Although I'm not too familiar with Void Breaking Teaching, I've heard that they like to establish branches."

I remember a senior sister mentioning that Void Breaking Teaching sends disciples to create branches during the times when our Eastern Province has openings to places like your Eastern Wasteland."

As Immortal Bi Yue said this, she looked up at Cao Zhen and asked, "Why do you suddenly ask this? Has your Hundred Peaks Sect had a conflict with the Void Breaking Sect? And then, did you annihilate them?"

As a great reincarnated being at the limit of Golden Core Period, if there was a conflict, it would certainly be Cao Zhen's sect that eliminated the other, not the other way around.

"No, we haven't attacked them yet. They ran off on their own," Cao Zhen briefly explained the grudge between Hundred Peaks Sect and Void Breaking Sect.

"Then it is certain that Void Breaking Teaching will attack your Hundred Peaks Sect," Immortal Bi Yue spoke. "All the great teachings have one thing in common: they protect their own."

Even though the Hundred Peaks Sect hasn't attacked Void Breaking Sect, you did have a conflict. The members of Void Breaking Teaching won't care whether it was Void Breaking Sect who attacked you first. They'll just see that people from Void Breaking Sect were killed by someone from Hundred Peaks Sect, and they had to leave their mountain gate because of Hundred Peaks Sect.

So, they will certainly seek revenge on you. Other great teachings won't interfere with such matters."

Cao Zhen furrowed his brows tightly; this was indeed not good news.

Immortal Bi Yue continued, "Although it's still the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth and everyone is at the Golden Core Stage, the number of Golden Core Stage disciples from a great teaching will inevitably exceed those of a sect coming from the Eastern Wasteland.

Even though you are at the Golden Core Period limit, you're powerless to stop them.

To fend them off, there's only one way!"

"What way?" Cao Zhen looked at Immortal Bi Yue eagerly.

Immortal Bi Yue pointed to herself and her face suddenly revealed a charming smile as she leaned toward Cao Zhen and said, "Marry me."

Cao Zhen was completely dumbfounded; he had never expected this answer. He could only look helplessly at Immortal Bi Yue and say, "No, I meant seriously, stop joking."

Immortal Bi Yue's gaze fixed intently on Cao Zhen, "Who says I'm not being serious? Seeking a cultivation partner is very serious!"

Feeling helpless, Cao Zhen spread his hands and said, "No, I mean, we were talking about the problem with Void Breaking Teaching."

"I am talking about Void Breaking Teaching," Immortal Bi Yue pointed at herself and said, "I am from Dragon Chant Sect. After all, Void Breaking Teaching became a great teaching not much earlier than Five Sounds Sect, merely by a margin of about a hundred thousand years. They cannot compare with our Dragon Chant Sect."

At that moment, Cao Zhen understood Immortal Bi Yue's intention and said, "But you are just a disciple of Dragon Chant Sect. Even though you're a genius, geniuses are still just geniuses. You've said it before, the path of cultivation is long, who knows what the future holds for a genius."

Chapter 1140:

"You're strong now, and you're valued in the Dragon Chant Sect, but what about later? When the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth ends, you won't be so valued anymore, and the Five Sounds Sect isn't likely to stop attacking our Hundred Peaks Sect just because of you."

"Why couldn't it?" He said, although brilliant, his father was the Hall Master of the White Dragon Hall in our Dragon Chant Sect."

Cao Zhen shook his head slightly, "Hall Master, is that enough?" He didn't even know how many halls the Dragon Chant Sect had.

But Bi Yue proudly puffed out her chest and said, "My grandfather is an elder of our Dragon Chant Sect."

"Elder? There are many elders," Cao Zhen said curiously. "Some elders who don't manage affairs probably don't have much authority. What kind of elder is your grandfather?"

Instead of answering Cao Zhen's question, Bi Yue haughtily raised her chest higher and said, "My grandmother is the Grand Elder of our Dragon Chant Sect."

"Grand..." Cao Zhen was momentarily speechless. Being a Grand Elder was a completely different matter, being second only to the Sect Hierarch.

However, just as the thought surfaced in his mind, Bi Yue spoke again.

"The true Sect Hierarch of the Dragon Chant Sect is my grandmaster!"

"The current acting Sect Hierarch of the Dragon Chant Sect is my uncle."

"The current Grand Elder of the Dragon Chant Sect is one of my cousins."

"Oh, also, one of the true Vice Sect Hierarchs of the Dragon Chant Sect is my grand uncle. Is that enough? I have many more uncles and great uncles I haven't mentioned yet."

Cao Zhen was completely convinced. With that background, no wonder people from the Five Sounds Sect were so polite to Bi Yue, and even the current acting Hierarch of the Cloud Reaching Sect was courteous when he saw Bi Yue. He understood it all instantly.

Another question came to Cao Zhen's mind; he asked, "However, there must be many children in your family, with so many..."

He was interrupted by Bi Yue, "I am the most beloved child of my grandmother, without exception. In our family, my grandmother is the strongest. My master only has me as a disciple, and among all the Sect Hierarch's disciples, my master is the most powerful!"

Got it, the background is truly heaven-defying.

After Bi Yue had stated her background, she took a step forward, looked at Cao Zhen, and asked, "Now tell me, if you were to become my spiritual companion, would the Void Breaking Sect dare to trouble your Hundred Peaks Sect?"

"Not only would they not dare to cause trouble," she continued, "but even if I sent them an invitation, they would come with gifts and smiling faces to attend our spiritual companionship ceremony."

Cao Zhen had a headache. "Well, about the spiritual companionship ceremony, let's not rush it."

"What do you mean, rushing it?" Bi Yue looked at him and asked, "Am I not beautiful?"

"Beautiful." Cao Zhen nodded wholeheartedly. He felt that merely calling her beautiful didn't suffice and added, "You are the most beautiful person I've ever seen."

A blush of shyness appeared on Bi Yue's face as she continued, "Am I not strong? I've been cultivating for just over a hundred years. If it weren't for the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, I would already be in the Earth Immortal Realm. Is my talent not good?"

"Strong, your talent is top-notch!" Cao Zhen nodded emphatically. Putting everything else aside, the mere fact that Bi Yue had reached the limit of the Golden Core Stage was enough to prove how extraordinary her talents were.

Bi Yue looked at Cao Zhen and posed an almost soul-searching question, "So, what is your reluctance really about?"

"I have no reluctance..." Cao Zhen shook his head lightly. This was like in his previous life, a fair-skinned, beautiful-legged woman with dual bachelor's degrees, and her family owning a multinational Fortune 500 company, suddenly confessing her desire to marry him.

Not just in his previous life, even when he had just arrived in this world, or even right after he had participated in the Grand Immortal Martial Congress, faced with such a situation, he would immediately agree.

With such conditions, there was nothing to consider.

But after living those fifty years as an ordinary human, his mindset had really changed a lot.

He looked at Bi Yue and countered, "Why me?"

"Why couldn't it be you?" Bi Yue countered back, and noticing Cao Zhen did not respond, she paused slightly before continuing, "Firstly, I really like musical rhythm, and you conquered me with it. My ideal spiritual companion would be a master of musical rhythm. Also, my companion must have a significant cultivation base as well.

You, having been a Great Ability in your previous life, and now, having reached the limit of the Golden Core Stage during the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills test, clearly you also meet my second criterion.

And it's fun being with you, why couldn't it be you?"

"Well, it just feels a bit too soon," Cao Zhen professed sincerely. "You are great, but we've only just met and aren't familiar with each other. Suddenly bringing up becoming spiritual companions caught me off guard."

He was genuinely taken aback; he had never even considered this before.

Perhaps, in the Immortal Cultivation world, many spiritual companions fall in love at first sight.

But not him.

It felt too rushed, too sudden.

"Too soon? No worries, we can get to know each other slowly. Let me know when you're ready to marry me." Bi Yue moved closer to Cao Zhen, her voice tender, "But make it quick, otherwise, once your Eastern Wasteland is connected and the Void Breaking Sect takes action, it will be too late."

Cao Zhen looked at Bi Yue as if she were some rare and precious beast, as if he was meeting her anew, "You've changed, you're not the same as when I first met you."
