

My Master 1151

Chapter 1151:

"What's wrong with Evil Cults?" Ren Xiaoyao suddenly clapped his hands and said, "Junior Sister's suggestion is good, why didn't I think of that? Brother Huan You, you should join our Sun Chasing Sect! Never mind the Evil Path. That Holy Lotus Cult even took in a Demon Head from the Demonic Path, claiming they had converted the Demon Head.

If the Holy Lotus Cult can take in a Demon Head, why can't our Sun Chasing Sect take in someone from the Evil Path? Besides, you can't entirely be considered a person of the Evil Path!"

"This..." Huan You was still hesitant, mainly worried about affecting Ren Xiaoyao and the others.

Zhi Nuo spoke up again, "You don't need to worry about us, Brother. You are one of the top masters among those with the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection. During the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, even Great Teachings would welcome a master like you.

Moreover, you have reached your current level of cultivation on your own, without anyone's guidance, which shows how high your talent is.

Once you join our Sun Chasing Sect and receive guidance from our master, you will surely shine even brighter. I believe that once you join the Sect, and once our Great Teaching's masters awaken, many elders will be eager to take you as their disciple.

By that time, your master might even thank my Brother and me!"

Ren Xiaoyao also finally showed some cleverness for a moment and nodded, "That's right. I'm saying, Brother Huan, is it that you don't want to be in the same Great Teaching as me, or what?"

"Of course, I would like to be in the same Great Teaching as you..." Huan You looked at Ren Xiaoyao and Zhi Nuo and finally nodded heavily, "Then, from now on, you will be my Senior Brother and Senior Sister."

"No need for later, from now on, you are part of our Sun Chasing Sect," Ren Xiaoyao said joyfully.

Since Huan You had agreed to join the Sun Chasing Sect, he naturally wasn't afraid of being targeted for revenge by the Demon Sound Sect and set out with Ren Xiaoyao and Zhi Nuo to search for Immortal Bi Yue and the others.

However, he really couldn't understand Ren Xiaoyao. Why bother stirring up this trouble for nothing?

Atop a high mountain, a tall tower stood erect.

In front of the tower, a number of Ancient Zithers were laid out, each with a broken string. At this moment, musical rhythms were emanating from within the tower.

Sitting quietly in front of the tower were three people, listening to the music. Among them, one was from the Demon Sound Sect, and another was clad in pitch-black garments, with the character for 'Hundred' embroidered on it!

The last person was from the Five Sounds Sect.

Suddenly, a gust of wind arose.

All three people lifted their heads simultaneously toward the source of the sound, and in the void, two figures appeared.

"Immortal Bi Yue?"

Whether it was the individual from the Five Sounds Sect, the man in black clothing, or the person from the Demon Sound Sect, all of their expressions changed.

The person from the Five Sounds Sect started shaking their head resignedly, "Encountering Immortal Bi Yue again, this place won't be snatched away by her as well, will it?"

He had heard too many stories of Immortal Bi Yue seizing towers.

Everyone who entered the ruins knew that this relic had descended by the will of the Heavenly Dao due to their Five Sounds Sect's impending Sect Tribulation, a glimmer of hope bestowed by the Heavenly Dao to their Sect.

Their Five Sounds Sect had also mobilized fully, sending out the most people, including the most masters.

This was about whether their Five Sounds Sect could withstand the Tribulation and continue to be a Great Teaching. Naturally, all their disciples were fighting desperately.

However, despite many from the Five Sounds Sect entering the ruins, only five towers had been seized, whereas Immortal Bi Yue and that stranger named Cao Zhen had taken five towers by themselves.

Now, with Immortal Bi Yue and Cao Zhen appearing again, the tower was likely to fall into their hands once more.

Everyone was saying that whenever Immortal Bi Yue and Cao Zhen showed up, the tower would inevitably be captured by them. That man's musical rhythm proficiency was indeed too high; he didn't need to listen for long to the sounds emanating from the tower to play a melody in harmony with it, resonating with the tower itself.

Even if someone else played music with Cao Zhen, they would often be disrupted by him.

Cao Zhen, standing behind Immortal Bi Yue, swept his gaze over the three people there. He had already seen many from the Demon Sound Sect and Five Sounds Sect and recognized their Sect's Uniforms early on, but the other person...

He laid eyes on the man dressed in black with an embroidered 'Hundred' character on his chest.

This 'Hundred' character was clearly a symbol of some power.

Most Immortal Sects would have their Sect's symbol embroidered on the left side of the chest.

"Hundred" character?

Seeing the 'Hundred' character, Immortal Bi Yue seemed to guess Cao Zhen's reaction and whispered, "That person is from the Hundred Rivers Sect, which is like your Hundred Peaks Sect—a sect of mixed disciplines. Their disciples practice Musical Rhythm, as well as Painting, and they study Confucianism, Swordsmanship... However, unlike your Hundred Peaks Sect, the Hundred Rivers Sect consists of Demonic Cultivators."

"Demonic Cultivators..." Cao Zhen nodded lightly, certain that this person had no relation to the Hundred Peaks Sect. Moreover, it was well known that the Hundred Peaks Sect was founded by their Ancestral Elder and not a branch from some Great Teaching.

He didn't pay much attention to this person.

Immortal Bi Yue and Cao Zhen had already seized five towers, all in the same way, and they were well-acquainted with the process. The two even directly landed in front of an Ancient Zither, and Cao Zhen reached out his hand towards it.

Chapter 1152:

Bi Yue kept a vigilant watch on her surroundings.

In truth, she was just going through the motions.

Along their journey, they had pillaged many towers but had not seen anyone dare to launch an assault on them.

After all, Bi Yue herself was at the limit of the Golden Core Period, and her backing from the Dragon Chant Sect was not something just anyone could provoke.

However, this time, a member of the Demon Sound Sect suddenly stood up, looked at Cao Zhen, and asked, "Are you the one known as Cao Zhen?"

Cao Zhen had just discerned what material the strings were made of when he suddenly heard someone speaking to him. He turned around in surprise to face the stranger dressed in Demon Sound Sect's attire, nodding with some confusion, "Yes, I am Cao Zhen. What can I do for you?"

The member of the Demon Sound Sect took a step forward, his expression suddenly icy as he interrogated, "So you are Cao Zhen, no mistake there. I ask you, why did you kill Gong Yinmo?"

"Gong Yinmo?" Cao Zhen stood there dumbfounded. "I've never met anyone named Gong Yinmo; why do you say I killed him?"

The member of the Demon Sound Sect retorted coldly, "Still denying it? You did not expect that after you killed Gong Yinmo, you failed to kill him completely. After you left, he sent a message back to our Demon Sound Sect, naming Cao Zhen from the Hundred Peaks Sect as his killer!"

"This is utterly nonsensical; when did I ever kill someone from your sect?" Cao Zhen was utterly bewildered. He had just arrived in the Eastern Province from the Hundred Peaks Sect. He had not killed anyone, and his disciples certainly wouldn't claim to have committed a murder in his stead.

Moreover, they had offended no one. It seemed likely that before his visit to the Cloud Reaching Sect, perhaps no one even knew about the Hundred Peaks Sect, and the only ones who did, the Four Sons of Snow Mountain, seemed to have been killed by someone else.

And this person was claiming that he had killed one of their own?

Immortal Bi Yue's expression grew even colder as she stepped forward, positioning herself in front of Cao Zhen and said coldly, "Are you looking for trouble with me?"

As her words fell, an unending chill began to spread toward the antagonist, causing the temperature around them to plummet sharply.

The members of the Hundred Rivers Sect and the Five Sounds Sect, feeling this aura, quickly stepped aside to show that they were uninvolved, whilst casting puzzled looks at the disciple of the Demon Sound Sect.

If someone from the Demon Sound Sect had been killed, they were killed. To put it crudely, which of the great sects didn't have disciples who had been killed by others?

And considering that Cao Zhen had not yet achieved the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, what level of cultivation realm could someone he managed to kill possibly have? How important could they be? Was there a need to confront Cao Zhen personally?

Now, Cao Zhen was accompanying Immortal Bi Yue. Wasn't this tantamount to seeking trouble with Immortal Bi Yue? What was the Demon Sound Sect trying to achieve?

The Five Sounds Sect disciple had yet to speak when a voice came from the void, "I am not looking to trouble Immortal Bi Yue. We simply seek vengeance upon this man."

As the voice died away, Hui Yin's figure appeared within everyone's line of sight, along with three more disciples from the Demon Sound Sect following behind him.

Hui Yin stared coldly at Cao Zhen and said, "I was unaware of this matter until Young Brother Shangyin informed me. Only then did I learn that Gong Yin, our fellow brother, had been killed by you.

Moreover, you did not just murder our brother, but also insulted our Demon Sound Sect. How can our sect tolerate such disrespect from outsiders!"

Hui Yin then turned to Immortal Bi Yue and said, "We mean no hostility towards the Immortal, but please step aside."

Although Immortal Bi Yue had not known Cao Zhen before, she didn't believe for a second that Cao Zhen had killed anyone from the Demon Sound Sect. If Cao Zhen really had slain someone from the Demon Sound Sect, could he have left the victim half alive, allowing him a chance to breathe?

Cao Zhen was at the limit of the Golden Core Period just like her and was even a reincarnated individual with great ability. How could he possibly make such a mistake!

Bi Yue responded coldly, "I can tell you this, he did not kill your people. Moreover, even if he did, what then? Or are you implying that you wish to be enemies with me?"

"We certainly have no intention of being enemies with Immortal Bi Yue, but if the Immortal insists on protecting this man, then we will have no choice but to offend," retorted Hui Yin.

As Hui Yin spoke, the massive pill fusion formed by ten unique Golden Cores suddenly appeared behind him, the ten Golden Core phenomena merging into one colossal ancient zither.

In front of him, an ancient zither materialized as well, and with a light strum of his fingers across its strings, visible sonic waves burst forth, shooting toward Cao Zhen.

The disciples of both the Five Sounds Sect and the Hundred Rivers Sect's eyes widened in shock. The Demon Sound Sect was actually initiating an attack! With Bi Yue openly committed to protecting Cao Zhen, were they truly willing to provoke Immortal Bi Yue?

Just for some unnamed person they hadn't even heard of?

This seemed implausible!

There must be some other reason behind it.

Or rather, it could be a mere pretext; they had always intended to strike, and their target was definitely Cao Zhen.

The Demon Sound Sect wouldn't be so crazy as to attack Immortal Bi Yue directly. Attacking Bi Yue would be tantamount to declaring war on the Dragon Chant Sect. They'd have to be mad to do so.

Unless they were completely confident they could kill Immortal Bi Yue.

But Immortal Bi Yue was at the Great Perfection of the Golden Core; even outnumbered, she could escape if not a match against them.

Moreover, they did not have enough numbers to kill Immortal Bi Yue conclusively.

Thus, their true target must be Cao Zhen.

In the midst of their astonished gazes, four other disciples from the Five Sounds Sect also took action, with each one's phantasmal Golden Cores emerging behind them.

Chapter 1153:

Every one of these four people was a Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection!

Each of the four had a musical instrument as their phenomenon, and in front of each of them materialized four different musical instruments as divine weapons. The four acted almost in unison with Hui Yin.

Suddenly, five different sounds emitted, and sonic waves tore through the air, colliding with each other in mid-air, causing the entire void to tremble wildly. Even the ground beneath everyone's feet shook, and as the sonic waves surged through, the void itself suddenly shifted, revealing clear fissures.

In the next moment, Immortal Bi Yue slightly lifted her hand and waved, and instantly, in the void, a silver Divine Dragon Xu Ying appeared. The dragon roared towards the sky, its sound so loud that it even suppressed the divine music played by the five.

For a moment, only the dragon's chant seemed to remain in this space.

The mountain under everyone trembled even more from the dragon's chant, revealing a clear crack; even the ground further below quivered crazily under the roar akin to the arrival of a Divine Dragon.

The sound traveled even farther away.

In the void, Ren Xiaoyao suddenly heard this dragon chant. His expression tightened as he yelled, "This is the Silver Dragon Shout of the Dragon Chant Sect! Such formidable might must be Bi Yue. Someone has made a move on Bi Yue; hurry, let's go over!"

No sooner had his voice faded than he shot out like an arrow released from its bow.

Behind him, Huan You and Zhi Nuo exchanged glances, seeing speechlessness in each other's eyes.

They couldn't understand why Ren Xiaoyao, who adored Immortal Bi Yue so much, was in such a rush to rescue his love rival now that someone was attacking Bi Yue's close associate, effectively his rival in love.

That made them think Ren Xiaoyao was acting rather foolish.

The dragon chant reverberated mightily as if it were about to shatter this part of the world.

The sonic waves even shattered amidst the roaring sound.

Meanwhile, members of the Five Sounds Sect and Hundred Rivers Sect were utterly astonished. It was a joint strike from five individuals who were all at the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, and even from a great distance, they could feel the terrifying nature of each sound wave. Yet, their joint attack had been effortlessly broken by Immortal Bi Yue alone!

This was the terror of the Golden Core Period Limit!

The five had not expected their attack to be so easily countered and were all slightly stunned; then, suddenly they dispersed, surrounding Bi Yue and Cao Zhen from five different directions.

The next moment, all five began to play their instruments again.

In the void, sounds emerged once more.

This time, the sounds did not emanate simultaneously, but one after the other.

In the void, as the five continued to play, sound waves gathered in front of them, turning into various forms—some transforming into seemingly invincible spears, some into hammers capable of easily shattering mountains, and others into long swords...

Then, the spear shot out first.

Bi Yue swiftly moved her silk ribbon, which unfurled like a meandering river from beyond the heavens, sweeping through the air, shattering the spear.

But then, the sword shot forth.

Bi Yue again swung her ribbon, shattering the long sword, but before she could rest, the sonic hammer struck down at her.

In the void, Hui Yin, who was busy watching Bi Yue defending against their attacks, wore a triumphant smile on his face. They knew Bi Yue was powerful, and even with the five of them attacking together, they might not break through her defenses.

Thus, they had their real killing move; the actual attacker was not one of them.

By now, their senior brother was already appearing beside Cao Zhen, and when it came to assassination, their five together could not match their senior brother.

Cao Zhen was undoubtedly doomed!

Cao Zhen stood happily behind Bi Yue, watching her combat the five. It was his first experience of this kind—where he didn't have to act, and someone else protected him from everything. The sensation was quite unique.

Suddenly, a killing intent emerged from behind him.

Cao Zhen was jolted alert. Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills promptly appeared behind him.

Almost simultaneously, a figure appeared in front of him, clutching a pitch-black dagger lunging for his neck.

The dagger was dense with Demonic Qi, giving the feeling as if it had been launched from the abyss, ripping through the air in front of Cao Zhen in an instant.

From afar, Hui Yin looked as the senior brother suddenly appeared, watching Immortal Bi Yue still resisting their assault, observing the manifestation of the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills behind Cao Zhen, and finally laughed out loud.

Indeed, Cao Zhen was merely a Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Core. Although they didn't understand how Cao Zhen had detected Senior Brother Dark Sound, what did it matter if he had detected him?

He was just a Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Core. How could he resist the senior brother?

The senior brother was a presence among the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection—and an extremely strong one at that.

Cao Zhen had no chance to fend off the senior brother's attack.

Once Cao Zhen was dead, their mission would be considered complete, and they could retreat.

By then, even if Immortal Bi Yue decided to seek revenge, with so many of them there, together they could fend off Immortal Bi Yue.

The next moment, the dagger would pierce Cao Zhen's neck.

Behind Cao Zhen, the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills vibrated intensely, streams of potent mana surged into his body; the next moment, a Golden Pill shot out from behind him.

Chapter 1154:

In an instant, a voice as pure as the sounds of Heaven emanated.

This voice was like an Immortal melody, yet it was incredibly loud, as if an ancient Beast, enraged to the utmost, was roaring.

For a moment, the space around Cao Zhen shattered amidst this roaring sound, and visible sound waves shot out, targeting the person in front of him.

These were ten different types of sound wave attacks, ten different types of Divine Skills!

Although these ten sounds were distinct, they seemed to originate from the same source, and they were terrifyingly powerful, arising directly within the adversary's heart.

In a flash, the attacker felt his blood boil tumultuously within him, and the dagger he thrust out involuntarily slowed.

Cao Zhen, watching the falling dagger, quickly dodged to the side.

In front of him, Dark Sound's blood, impacted by the ten different sound waves, boiled, and his body uncontrollably retreated backward.

"Pfft..."

Dark Sound couldn't help but spew a large mouthful of bright red blood, and his face even paled considerably.

His heart was filled with horror. His assassination technique was among the very top within the Demon Sound Sect, and even some top-tier Transcendent Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion experts couldn't defend against his assassination unprepared.

Yet, the person before him had detected him and launched an attack in such a short amount of time, even managing to wound him.

He knew the attack was Musical Rhythm based, but why could this person deploy so many Divine Skills instantaneously? Those were unmistakably ten different Divine Skills!

How could anyone release ten Divine Skills at once?

Moreover, these ten Divine Skills were all so powerful that they couldn't possibly be executed by someone with only Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills!

From afar, Hui Yin's smile had completely stiffened.

What was happening?

His peer's assassination had failed?

Cao Zhen was but a mere Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Core. How could his peer's assassination fail?

Even he could not withstand his peer's assassination, let alone a mere Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Core.

Moreover, Cao Zhen had even managed to wound his peer.

A Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Core wounding his peer? What a joke!

What was the situation with this Cao Zhen?

From a distance, the disciples of the Five Sounds Sect's eyes suddenly widened, filled with disbelief. What had they just witnessed? A person with a Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Core blocked Dark Sound's assassination and even managed to injure him in an instant.

That was Dark Sound.

Their Five Sounds Sect was a major sect that led people onto the path of cultivation, and so was the Demon Sound Sect. They had always closely monitored the Demon Sound Sect.

Perhaps Immortal Bi Yue did not recognize Dark Sound, but he certainly did.

Dark Sound was among the powerful in the ranks of the Transcendent Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion, not the very top, but still extremely formidable, certainly much stronger than he.

People had graded experts among the Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion.

Aside from those at the Golden Core Period Limit and those very close to the Golden Core Period Limit, the rest were divided into the Peak Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion, Transcendent Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion, Profound Level Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion, Wilderness Level Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion, and the Ordinary Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion.

Dark Sound belonged to the Transcendent Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion!

Now, a Transcendent Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion had actually been injured by someone with a Nine Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core? How was that possible?

If this incident hadn't happened right before his eyes, he would never have believed it!

Their Five Sounds Sect didn't have anyone at the Golden Core Period Limit, but they did have a master very close to the Golden Core Period Limit. Even that master had not reached such a level during his Nine Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core days!

After all, a Nine Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core had not yet completed Pill Fusion!

It was well known how big a difference there was between those who had completed Pill Fusion and those who had not!

Even among those who had completed it, there was a huge difference between the fusion of nine Golden Pills and ten Golden Pills!

How could this person, who had not completed Pill Fusion, possibly possess such tremendous strength?

What kind of monster, demon was this?

No wonder Immortal Bi Yue could associate with this person!

Then, if this person would reach Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion in the future, how terrifying would he be?

Another existence at the Golden Core Period Limit?

Bi Yue, even while blocking the opponent's attacks, paid attention to Cao Zhen's situation. Seeing Cao Zhen repel the adversary, there was no surprise on her face. After all, she had fought Cao Zhen before, otherwise how could she be sure that Cao Zhen was an existence at the Golden Core Period Limit?

However, Cao Zhen was different from the time he had fought her; he hadn't released that special Golden Core, so it felt like Cao Zhen's power hadn't reached its peak.

It seemed he had indeed listened to her advice and hidden a part of his strength.

However, Cao Zhen's recent attack had unexpectedly unleashed ten different Divine Skills at once. How did he accomplish that? When they fought before, Cao Zhen only dodged, hardly showing such wondrous Divine Skills.

It seemed due to Dark Sound's failed assassination, Hui Yin and the others also stopped their attack.

Immortal Bi Yue didn't even give Hui Yin and the others another look. She completely disregarded them, turned her back on them, and, looking at Cao Zhen, said proudly, "You're worthy of the man I, Bi Yue, admire. You've released ten Divine Skills at once. How did you do it?"

As her voice fell, a pained roar echoed through the void.

Ren Xiaoyao, upon seeing more fighting from a distance, rushed over at full speed, arriving just in time to see the man hiding behind Bi Yue, named Cao Zhen, dodge Dark Sound's assassination and even wound him.

With that, he heard Bi Yue's voice and felt as if he heard the sound of his heart breaking.

"Bi Yue... Bi Yue has actually admitted aloud that she likes this man! She... Is she really choosing this man as her Dao Companion? But, of course, this person, with such terrifying strength at Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Core, will definitely become an existence at the Golden Core Period Limit once progressing to Ten Abnormal Phenomena Golden Core Perfect Completion. He's worthy of Bi Yu... Indeed, it all comes down to one's own strength..."

Ren Xiaoyao muttered, seemingly coming to terms with the situation, though his heart felt as if it was bleeding. At that moment, he suddenly obtained profound Enlightenment.

Enlightenment!

Just like that, he achieved Enlightenment!

Chapter 1155:

Before reaching the Golden Core Stage, even before he met Immortal Bi Yue, Ren Xiaoyao always believed that he was a peerless genius. Similarly, even within the Sun Chasing Sect, a major sect, he was deemed the genius among geniuses by others.

He also believed he would cut through all obstacles, climbing the path of Immortal Cultivation to become the hierarch of the Sun Chasing Sect.

Even though he never attained Enlightenment, he still always believed that he was the most talented.

Because, a real genius does not need Enlightenment; he understood everything he cultivated. What else was there to realize?

It was not until he met Immortal Bi Yue that he truly acknowledged there were heavens beyond this heaven and recognized what true genius was!

Still, he did not fall from grace; in the eyes of others, he remained a genius. Among those of the same cultivation realm, among those of similar age, he was still a formidable figure. Only he himself knew, he felt that something was lacking whenever he practiced cultivation.

Until today, he suddenly gained insight...

Endless mana surged to the skies; within the void, streaks of golden light spread far away, quickly covering thousands of miles.

"Did elder brother have an Enlightenment?"

Zhi Nuo looked in surprise at Ren Xiaoyao, whose body radiated golden light. Internally, she disagreed with her elder brother coming to help.

What did they have to do with Bi Yue's matters or the matters of the Dragon Chant Sect? Why come to help? Elder brother's friend was proficient in musical rhythm; why didn't they seek their own adventures and opportunities instead of coming here?

But what she never expected was that her elder brother, who had never experienced Enlightenment since he began cultivation, quickly realized Enlightenment upon just arriving here.

Though Enlightenment like this might not immediately advance one's cultivation realm or allow breakthroughs, it could immensely aid future cultivation.

Even now, during the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, elder brother might still improve due to this Enlightenment.

Among the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, elder brother was already a top existence. According to the classification of those who understood the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, elder brother was among the pinnacle experts.

Following this Enlightenment, with further cultivation, one couldn't help but wonder if elder brother could advance further, approaching the limits of the Golden Core or even reaching those limits?

Huan You looked at Ren Xiaoyao, who was amidst Enlightenment, and was also startled; however, he soon nodded heavily—his previous thoughts were not wrong. Ren Xiaoyao's inner demon was indeed Immortal Bi Yue. Now, seeing Bi Yue with another male cultivator had completely disheartened him, and his inner demon was subsequently shattered, making Enlightenment a natural progression.

Initially, the focus of the crowd had been on combat, particularly on Cao Zhen, who despite being of the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills cultivation, had injured someone of the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection.

But suddenly, everyone's attention was involuntarily drawn towards someone experiencing Enlightenment.

"Is that Ren Xiaoyao of the Sun Chasing Sect?"

"How did he suddenly gain Enlightenment?"

Cao Zhen wore a perplexed expression; had he again encountered someone gaining Enlightenment? Surely he did not actually possess some passive aura that induced Enlightenment in others?

But the problem was, he didn't know this person; he hadn't said anything just a moment ago, so this person's Enlightenment had nothing to do with him.

Generally, Enlightenment occurs in an instant, and Ren Xiaoyao's Enlightenment this time was also just a brief moment. The next moment, just as the golden light had filled the sky, he let out a long howl to the heavens, and within the void, countless golden lights dissipated.

Huan You looked at Ren Xiaoyao in the void; his glance still saw the previous Ren Xiaoyao, but now, he appeared different, now full of ease and freedom, Zi Zai.

His whole body shone brilliantly, and behind him, the ten different phenomena Golden Pills converged together to form a massive Pill Fusion.

Above the Pill Fusion, various phenomena of Golden Pills emerged—some depicted mountains, some rivers, others void, clouds, and even the sun and the moon...

These ten different phenomena merged together to form a painting; one could vaguely sense, even seemingly perceive an ethereal shadow wandering freely within this picture!

Upon the vast Golden Core, surging mana rippled outward, a terrifying power expanding this space, seemingly about to split the surrounding void.

Ren Xiaoyao's gaze shifted and fell on four individuals from the Demon Sound Sect afar off, his eyes sharp as blades, and with a chilling tone, he said coldly, "Die!"

As the words fell, he swiftly charged out.

The members of the Demon Sound Sect were instantly stunned. What? When had they ever offended this Ren Xiaoyao? They had no feud with the Sun Chasing Sect, did they?

What madness possessed Ren Xiaoyao?

Huan You and Zhi Nuo were also astounded—hadn't Ren Xiaoyao just gained Enlightenment? Why was he still insisting on aiding Bi Yue?

That shouldn't be right.

Having gained Enlightenment, he should have moved on.

"Sun in the Sky!"

The energy within Ren Xiaoyao rapidly climbed. As he flew, he suddenly let out a fierce shout; his raised hands caused the surrounding space to vibrate intensely, even emitting tearing sounds, as if space itself was being violently ripped apart.

Subsequently, a massive sun appeared in his palms.

Chapter 1156:

Far away, everyone had a feeling that what Ren Xiaoyao held between his hands was not just an illusory sun, but the actual sun from the horizon, as if the sun had fallen from the sky and landed in his hands.

Cao Zhen had seen numerous people who, when invoking their Divine Skills, seemed to have a sun appear behind them. However, their Divine Skills featuring the sun appeared more like an illusory sun, including those of his disciples Yi Sheng and Li Ke, who used the Fire Technique. Their skills also involved the sun.

But the sun illusions they invoked, no matter how much they resembled the sun, were just illusions. In contrast, the Divine Skill performed by the person in front of him felt genuinely like the presence of a sun.

Despite being the same sun, the sun that emerged in this person's hand didn't possess that terrifying scorching heat.

Instead, it emanated a majestic and overwhelming aura of utmost positivity and firmness.

The next moment, the sun in his hands suddenly soared upwards, rising into the void. The sun's golden radiance instantly illuminated this entire world in a golden hue, completely filling this realm as it obscured the sky.

Immediately after, the sun appeared above the heads of several members of the Demon Sound Sect, crashing down with a terrifying might, as if intending to destroy this part of the world.

In that instant, everyone truly felt as if a colossal sun had plummeted from the sky.

Where the sun passed, space continuously shattered, echoing with thunderous booms as if the thunder of Heavenly Tribulation rained down on the earth.

The entire world violently shook at that moment.

"Damn it!"

"Has he gone mad?"

"I've heard that Ren Xiaoyao is fond of Immortal Bi Yue, but we aren't really dealing with Immortal Bi Yue!"

"Damn!"

They weren't actually afraid of Ren Xiaoyao, as he was merely among the top of those with the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection. How could he be stronger than Immortal Bi Yue?

What they hated was Ren Xiaoyao suddenly appearing and disrupting their plans. Additionally, now that Ren Xiaoyao had made a move, someone had to counter him. Once their forces were divided, who would stop Immortal Bi Yue?

But since Ren Xiaoyao had already acted, they had to defend.

Among the four from the Demon Sound Sect, two quickly invoked their mana.

Amid them, from a guqin and a flute, waves of sound burst forth. In the void, it seemed to converge into countless streams of Sword Qi, shooting towards the falling sun.

The next moment, these bursts of light landed on the sun, and the void violently quivered, with continuous booming sounds echoing.

Amidst the dazzling light, suddenly, the figure of Immortal Bi Yue burst forth. Seeing as Cao Zhen had already revealed some of his power, there was no need for her to stay by his side anymore.

A few of Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection dared to attack it!

With a step, Immortal Bi Yue suddenly produced a colorful meteor under her feet. Stepping on the meteor, she appeared in an instant before the four from the Demon Sound Sect!

Immortal Bi Yue!

The expressions of the four from the Demon Sound Sect drastically changed. They knew that Immortal Bi Yue was at the limit of the Golden Core Stage, and they had heard that her dance steps were unmatched in the Eastern Province, not just in evading but as a terrifying movement technique. Yet, they had never imagined that her dance steps could be this terrifyingly swift, appearing instantly before them.

Cao Zhen watched as Bi Yue, who had suddenly vanished and then appeared before the four from the Demon Sound Sect, felt a jolt in his heart. Bi Yue's speed was terrifying to this extent?

What kind of movement technique was this?

Even himself, having cultivated the Eight Nine Mysterious Art, couldn't achieve this, appearing instantly in front of someone as Bi Yue did.

Bi Yue's movement technique was not just a simple technique. She must have integrated Divine Skills into it.

As Immortal Bi Yue appeared, her arm swung fiercely. From her hand, the silk ribbon with a bell attached suddenly shot out, splitting in two, targeting one of them directly.

In a flash, high-pitched dragon roars sounded out again, only this time, two dragon roars were heard.

The split silk ribbon seemed like two Divine Dragons.

One was an Ice Dragon, its body seemingly formed from countless years of indestructible frost, drastically dropping the surrounding temperature. Where the Ice Dragon passed, it seemed as if the space itself had been encased in ice.

On the other side was a fiery red Divine Dragon, appearing to be formed from flames capable of incinerating everything. Where it moved, the air ignited instantly.

One of ice, one of fire, the two Divine Dragons flew from different directions, simultaneously attacking a disciple from the Demon Sound Sect.

The appearance of Immortal Bi Yue was so sudden that no one expected she could appear so quickly. The disciple from the Demon Sound Sect hardly had any time to react before the twin dragons of ice and fire had already struck.

In an instant, heaven and earth shook, and the sun and moon were obscured.

The elements of ice and fire surged into his body simultaneously.

The two terrifying forces, striking at once, instantly blasted apart the body of this Five Sounds Sect disciple, sending crimson blood skyward.

Behind them, members of the Five Sounds Sect and Hundred Rivers Sect watched in horror. They had seen Golden Core Stage limit masters before, but this was the first time they witnessed such a master unleashing their full power.

Chapter 1157:

With just one move, just a single move, a practitioner with the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection was directly annihilated!

After taking a life, Immortal Bi Yue showed no sign of stopping. Her hands moved swiftly, and pure mana in her palms converged into a huge sphere.

In just one breath, the sphere burst apart, and suddenly, the sound of dragons humming filled the air.

In this space, countless dragon shadows instantly appeared. At a glance, there seemed to be tens of thousands of them, each dragon shadow bellowing with its head raised to the sky. Every dragon shadow was filled with an endless aura of dominance.

Tens of thousands of dragons burst forth, shooting towards Hui Yin, seemingly wanting to completely devour this part of the void and swallow Hui Yin whole.

Hui Yin was utterly horrified. The flow of energy within him reached its peak, and his body was enveloped in a collage of lights, reminiscent of a rainbow's embrace. In front of him appeared an ancient-looking, damaged-tail zither, each string shimmering, pulsating unpredictably.

The next moment, the zither suddenly exploded, its strings snapping and shooting towards Immortal Bi Yue all at once.

Each string seemed to transform into a stream of incisive Sword Qi, each one filled with the terrifying might to pierce through mountains and sever rivers.

Each strand of Sword Qi seemed capable of penetrating the sun and the moon, of overturning heaven and earth!

This flurry of Sword Qi clashed with the countless dragon shadows.

As the Sword Qi swept past, a series of dragon hums shattered instantly.

The collision of Sword Qi and dragon shadows caused the entire void to shake violently.

Visible waves of Qi force spread all around, and this part of the void seemed unable to bear the terrifying power, bursting apart with a thunderous explosion!

The clash of their Divine Skills caused the sky to collapse and the earth to quake. Even the harsh sun above their heads seemed to tremble, while the mountains beneath their feet cracked and crumbled as huge stones and trees were blown apart, tumbling down.

Sharp Sword may be strong, but inside the void, there were even more phantasmal images of Divine Dragons; the blades formed by zither strings failed to shatter all of them, leaving about half of the Divine Dragon shadows still charging toward Hui Yin!

In the next instant, Hui Yin suddenly flipped his hand.

Suddenly, the strings that had already shot out began to tremble violently, and echoes resonated throughout the void where the strings had passed.

Wave upon wave, like ripples in the water, they spread out in all directions, and wherever they went, the phantoms of the Divine Dragons shattered to nothingness.

Echo, Echo!

He was named Hui Yin because of this unparalleled Echo Spiritual Ability!

Seeing her attack blocked, Immortal Bi Yue didn't show the slightest hint of panic on her face. She lifted her fair and delicate fingers, striking a palm towards Hui Yin's direction.

What appeared to be delicate fingers suddenly transformed as they struck down, turning into a huge dragon claw.

Merely a dragon claw was filled with endless domineering majesty and an aura of primal wildness that spread instantly through the entire void.

This dragon claw, it even had the aura of a king—it seemed to be the Dragon King's Claw.

As the claw descended, it reversed the sun and moon, stirring heaven and earth.

It melded perfectly with the heavens and the earth, creating a perfect arc as it swept through the void.

This claw obscured the sun and sealed off all of Hui Yin's escape routes.

No sooner had Hui Yin used the Echo Spiritual Ability to ward off Immortal Bi Yue's previous attack than her next strike had already descended.

He had just begun to gather his energy for another move, but the enormous claw of the dragon had already heavily smashed down.

He could even clearly see the shining scales on the dragon claw and the sharp barbs on them...

This was no phantom, definitely not an illusion created by mana. This was a dragon claw!

The thought had just crossed Hui Yin's mind when an incomprehensibly terrifying force struck him.

The enormous dragon claw grabbed him and then clenched fiercely.

In an instant, Hui Yin's body burst apart.

Hui Yin, dead!

The Demon Sound Sect, the other two watching their companion die in succession, were startled to the extreme as well.

Escape!

The thought of fleeing flashed instantly through their minds.

But at that very moment, Ren Xiaoyao's attack descended once more.

Ren Xiaoyao's previous attack with the harsh sun had already been extremely difficult for the two to parry, but now, his attack was a Heavenly Phenomenon with the sun and moon appearing together!

Meanwhile, Dark Sound watched, as two of his brothers fell to Immortal Bi Yue's hands in the blink of an eye, and saw another two brothers struggling against Ren Xiaoyao's attack, and he suddenly turned to flee.

Now, what more was there for him to kill? His target for assassination was far more powerful than he had imagined, and his sect brothers were dying. What was he waiting for if not to run?

He quickly turned and fled into the distance.

"Still trying to run?"

Watching another escape into the distance, Immortal Bi Yue abruptly turned and stepped out.

With one step, she appeared right by Cao Zhen's side, but without pause, she took another step. With every step she took, a star appeared beneath her feet.

At a glance, it was as if she was walking across a river of stars to arrive instantly behind Dark Sound. She herself seemed like a white Divine Dragon, like a long spear capable of piercing through all things in the world.

Chapter 1158:

Her entire being radiated with a dazzling brilliance, and in an instant, an endless sharpness filled the entire world.

As she sped through the void, a thunderous boom resounded through the heavens, as if the skies shattered completely due to her swift dash!

Dark Sound, sensing the terrifying power from behind, felt every hair on his body stand on end in an instant, as an alarming sense of crisis spread throughout his entire being—he sensed death approaching.

Amidst the crisis, a massive shell of the Mysterious Turtle appeared behind him, and atop the shell, a Giant Elephant was being wielded.

A primal, savage aura surged forth from within the shell, while dense black Demonic Qi violently dispersed in all directions.

The shell itself conveyed a sense of solidity as immovable as a mountain peak, as if nothing in the world could disturb it!

Yet, in the next moment, Immortal Bi Yue charged through, and the turtle's shell shattered with a loud crack. The boundless sharpness surged straight into Dark Sound's body.

In a flash, a sound as if a mountain exploded reverberated.

Dark Sound's body burst apart violently!

Almost simultaneously, the two other Demon Sound Sect disciples behind him also fell thunderously under Ren Xiaoyao's attack.

In the blink of an eye, all five members of the Demon Sound Sect, five existences at the Ten Different Phenomena of Perfect Completion Golden Core, perished.

Not far away, that disciple from the Hundred Rivers Sect suddenly got up and flew swiftly towards the distance. The people of the Demon Sound Sect engaging Immortal Bi Yue had nothing to do with him.

He had no objections to watching the excitement here, but who could have predicted Ren Xiaoyao's sudden arrival, who, without a word, immediately helped Bi Yue. Bi Yue was even more terrifying, instantly slaying three high masters of the Ten Different Phenomena Golden Core Great Perfection.

He now finally understood the terror of the Golden Core Period Limit. The high masters of the Ten Different Phenomena Golden Core Great Perfection stood no chance against the Golden Core Period Limit—they didn't seem at all like entities of the Ten Different Phenomena Golden Core Great Perfection!

With the people of the Demon Sound Sect dead, what reason did he have, a member of the Demonic Sect, to stay here? Was he waiting for death?

Those from the so-called Grand Righteous Sects would certainly show no mercy if they could kill him conveniently.

He knew he was no match for an expert like Immortal Bi Yue, yet he used to believe his own strength was fairly decent. Now, after witnessing Bi Yue's action, she discarded that belief altogether.

Escape!

While Immortal Bi Yue and the others hadn't set their sights on him, he must make a swift escape!

Beside the tall tower, the disciple from the Five Sounds Sect stayed where he was. Their Five Sounds Sect was part of the Righteous Path, and furthermore, they were seeking Immortal Bi Yue's help. There was no reason for her to kill him.

He had always heard of Immortal Bi Yue's strength but had no idea just how powerful she truly was. After all, he had never seen Bi Yue take action, nor had he seen someone at the Golden Core Period Limit make a move.

Now, having witnessed Immortal Bi Yue's actions and her terror, his heart filled with even more certainty, for when their Five Sounds Sect faced their Sect Tribulation, Immortal Bi Yue was supposed to assist.

Naturally, the stronger Immortal Bi Yue was, the better.

He had never imagined this man named Cao Zhen beside Immortal Bi Yue to possess such terrifying strength while still at the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills, before even achieving Pill Fusion!

Wouldn't this person, upon reaching the Ten Different Phenomena Golden Core Great Perfection, also become a limit of the Golden Core Period?

Given his relationship with Immortal Bi Yue, when it was time for their Five Sounds Sect to face the Heavenly Tribulation, if Immortal Bi Yue could also invite him, they would gain another ally at the Golden Core Period Limit to help their sect overcome the tribulation.

However, the day of their Sect Tribulation was drawing ever closer, and it was uncertain whether there would be enough time.

Cao Zhen, watching the Demon Sound Sect disciples being killed in an instant, couldn't help but speak up, "I mean, could you not be too hasty? By killing everyone like this, how are we supposed to gather information?"

These people, out of the blue, claim that I've killed their kin—I don't want to shoulder that blame; I need to get to the bottom of this. And here you go, killing them all."

As Cao Zhen's words ended, Ren Xiaoyao, along with Zhi Nuo and Huan You, turned their heads to look, beholding the unfamiliar male cultivator.

Chapter 1159:

Who is Immortal Bi Yue?

That is the famous Immortal that the entire Eastern Province knew well, especially during the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, where there was hardly a person who did not know of her existence.

Yet now, they saw someone with a Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills blaming Immortal Bi Yue.

Even if this Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Career cultivator was strong within the same cultivation realm, and even if he could become a being at the limit of the Golden Core Stage after breaking through to the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection,

That was merely a possibility. He was not yet a being at the limit of the Golden Core Stage.

Besides, Immortal Bi Yue was not only scary in terms of pure strength; her background was even more frightening.

However, upon facing the accusations from the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Core cultivator that no one recognized, Immortal Bi Yue did not lash out. Instead, she merely stuck out her tongue slightly and said, "I got a bit carried away."

In an instant, everyone around them began to doubt if there was something wrong with their eyes.

What did they see? Immortal Bi Yue actually making a gesture that reflected the bashfulness of a young girl?

If they hadn't just witnessed Immortal Bi Yue dispatch cultivators at the Perfect Completion Golden Core realm as if she were chopping vegetables, they would even doubt if they were looking at the real Immortal Bi Yue.

Cao Zhen shook his head slightly and said, "Forget it, I guess those people just wanted to kill me and found a lousy excuse to do so."

As he spoke, his gaze returned to the few people who had rushed over, clearly recognizing Immortal Bi Yue; otherwise, they wouldn't have come to Immortal Bi Yue's aid right after their enlightenment.

Feeling Cao Zhen's gaze, Immortal Bi Yue turned her head and introduced, "This is Ren Xiaoyao from the Sun Chasing Sect."

Following this, she fell silent, mainly because she did not know the other two people either.

Ren Xiaoyao seemed to have seen through everything and reached enlightenment, but even facing Immortal Bi Yue, his face betrayed an unnatural expression.

He took a deep look at Immortal Bi Yue, then glanced at the guy named Cao Zhen, before pointing to someone named Huan You and saying, "This is my good friend, Huan You. We've already invited him to join our Sun Chasing Sect."

As he said this, he pointed to his junior sister and introduced, "This is my junior sister, Zhi Nuo."

Zhi Nuo?

Cao Zhen couldn't help but ask when he heard the name, "Is your surname Zhou by any chance?"

Zhi Nuo's eyes immediately narrowed, her gaze filled with disgust as she said harshly, "My surname is Zhi, and my given name is Nuo!" This guy, having just met her, is already hitting on her? And using such a tacky method, too?

Her senior brother didn't just introduce her, he also introduced Huan You, so why didn't he ask about Huan You?

Clearly, this guy is a playboy.

Immortal Bi Yue actually took a liking to this man instead of her senior brother; she must be blind.

"Oh, so it's Zhi Nuo, not Zhi Ruo," Cao Zhen nodded slightly. If Zhi Nuo really answered with the surname Zhou, he would have to ask if she knew anyone named Wu Ji or something of the sort.

Regarding the Sun Chasing Sect, he had heard of it before; they sent people to the Cloud Reaching Sect's grand meeting, though not many because the Sun Chasing Sect was quite far from the Cloud Reaching Sect. Beyond that, he didn't know much about the Sun Chasing Sect.

After Ren Xiaoyao finished the introductions, he turned towards Cao Zhen and suddenly clasped his hands together, saying, "Thank you, Dao Companion, for helping me to enlightenment."

Cao Zhen was taken aback. He helped him to enlightenment? He had indeed helped many people reach enlightenment before, but the problem was that he didn't even recognize the guy in front of him, and he hadn't done anything, so how did he help him reach enlightenment?

Ren Xiaoyao seemed to understand Cao Zhen's confusion and continued to explain, "After hearing about Bi Yue's feelings for you, and witnessing your strength, it was in that instant that I understood so much, and because of that, I was able to reach enlightenment.

Even though you did not directly guide me, it was ultimately because of you that I reached enlightenment, so I must thank you."

Cao Zhen finally understood why the other person was thanking him. It turned out that this guy was a suitor of Bi Yue, and after hearing Bi Yue's confession to him, he suddenly came to understand many things, which led to his enlightenment.

So, his enlightenment was still somewhat connected to Cao Zhen?

Could it be that he really had some kind of enlightenment aura?

But pursuing Bi Yue...

Are you not from the Sun Chasing Sect? Shouldn't you be pursuing someone like the Sun Fairy or Immortal Lord Zhuo Ri? Why are you chasing after a moon? That doesn't suit your own great teaching.

He wasn't surprised that someone was pursuing Bi Yue; if Bi Yue had no suitors, he would have to say the male cultivators of the Eastern Province were all blind.

But this Ren Xiaoyao, the more he looked, the more he seemed to be someone who didn't play by the rules.

Under normal circumstances, shouldn't he have been upset to see Bi Yue wanting to be with Cao Zhen, realizing that Cao Zhen was just a Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pill, feeling dissatisfied in his heart, and directly challenging Cao Zhen or provoking him in various ways, even wanting to bring people to assassinate Cao Zhen?

Why did he instead come to Cao Zhen's aid?

As Ren Xiaoyao finished speaking, and as no one else spoke up, the scene somehow became quieter, and everyone standing together even felt a weird sense of awkwardness.

Bi Yue seemed to not want much interaction with Ren Xiaoyao either. She pointed outside and said, "Shall we go and find materials to fix this zither string?"

"That's a good idea, but first, let's collect the bodies," suggested Cao Zhen, pointing to the bodies of those killed by Bi Yue. No matter how you looked at it, they were at the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection and were disciples from great teachings. Surely there must be some valuable things in their Qiankun Bags.

Chapter 1160:

Ren Xiaoyao, who had killed two people, hadn't bothered to search them, but those that Immortal Bi Yue had killed had all carried Qiankun Bags on them. It was uncertain whether these people had enough confidence in their own survival in this place, or if they simply didn't trust others and therefore brought all their treasures with them. Indeed, the contents of the Qiankun Bags carried by these individuals were abundant.

Especially one of them, who even had a zither string that was the exact missing, broken string needed for the Ancient Zither here.

This discovery saved them the trouble of searching for a zither string.

Cao Zhen quickly fixed the zither string and began to play the Ancient Zither.

Huan You, although he too had entered the path through Musical Rhythm and had profound achievements in it, couldn't help shaking his head and whispering in awe into the ears of Ren Xiaoyao and Zhi Nuo after hearing Cao Zhen play, "He truly is a top-notch master of Musical Rhythm. I am far, far behind him."

In no time at all, Cao Zhen had entered the high tower. After a while, the tower vanished and Cao Zhen descended.

By this point, he and Immortal Bi Yue had obtained six towers from the ruins.

As the tower disappeared, suddenly the entire ruin shook violently.

From afar, a multitude of sounds could be heard, each seeming to be the interplay of several tones resonating together.

With each sound, visible ripples of sound waves would spread throughout the void, each wave carrying the sounds across the entire ruin.

For a moment, everyone inside the ruin turned their eyes towards the source of the sounds.

In the center of the ruin, a burst of silver light shot out, instantly turning the area into a world of silver; this silver light didn't fade away, but instead continued to reach outwards. In just a moment, it had enveloped the whole ruin.

Amidst the twinkling silver light, a gigantic pair of silver wings rose into the void.

These wings were not the harsh silver light, but semi-transparent, and even from a great distance, one could see the complex inscriptions carved upon them.

Behind the wings, the phantom of a huge divine bird emerged.

The next moment, this phantom of the divine bird merged into the silver wings.

Suddenly, streams of light appeared around the wings, circulating endlessly. From afar, it looked as though a river of stars surrounded the edges of the wings, with the beams of light resembling shooting stars.

At this moment, everyone within the ruins looked up towards the wings in the void.

And in this moment, everyone knew—the greatest treasure within the ruins had appeared.

"Silver Light Wings!"

Suddenly, Ren Xiaoyao exclaimed as he looked up at the wings in the void.

Beside him, a disciple from the Five Sounds Sect also showed a look of surprise, whispering, "It's actually the Silver Light Wings. Could it be that after the disappearance of the Tri-colored Divine Wings, they were taken by the Heavenly Dao?"

Huan You, hearing the words of the two, also suddenly realized, exclaiming softly, "So this is the Silver Light Wings from the Tri-colored Divine Wings!"

Cao Zhen's face was filled with curiosity. These wings seemed quite powerful, and those from the Great Teachings even recognized them, so...

He turned his head to look at Immortal Bi Yue beside him.

Immortal Bi Yue, knowing that Cao Zhen came from the Eastern Wasteland and was unfamiliar with the treasures of the Eastern Province, explained softly, "This is a Treasure, a true Treasure! The Silver Light Wings are of the Yellow Grade Mid Grade.

Yet, they are quite special,

Under normal circumstances, those at the Golden Core Stage wouldn't be able to wield a Treasure, but the Silver Light Wings can be used by someone at the Golden Core Stage. The only difference is that they would be more powerful when used by someone in the Earth Immortal Realm.

To put it more accurately, the speed isn't as fast! Likewise, those at the Golden Core Stage cannot display the full brilliance of the Silver Light Wings stretching for tens of thousands of feet."

Cao Zhen had previously attended the Cloud Reaching Sect's grand assembly and had heard many discuss the ranking of Treasures; thus, he also became aware that in the Eastern Province, or rather in the Central Five Provinces, people don't categorize Divine Weapons by grades.

But they do categorize Treasures.

People divide Treasures into five ranks: Heaven, Earth, Mysterious, Yellow, and Mortal, each divided into Upper, Mid, and Low Grades.

Yellow Grade Mid Grade may not sound very high, but in actuality, it's already considered a very powerful Treasure. After all, the majority of Treasures are of the Mortal Rank.

Moreover, Treasures are not as easy to refine as Divine Weapons.

It should be said, even the lowest level of Treasures, the Mortal Rank Low Grade, is far beyond the comparison of Divine Weapons. Even the strongest Divine Weapon cannot match the value of a Treasure.

Cao Zhen whispered, "Then what about this 'Tri-colored Divine Wings' you just mentioned?"

Immortal Bi Yue immediately began to explain, "The Silver Light Wings are just one piece of the Tri-colored Divine Wings. In addition to this, there are the Red Light Wings, and the Orange Light Wings.

Even though the Silver Light Wings have nothing to do with Musical Rhythm, and it seems they shouldn't appear in these ruins, the Orange Light Wings among the Tri-colored Divine Wings is indeed a Musical Rhythm Treasure. And the Orange Light Wings are the core of the Tri-colored Divine Wings.

Among the Tri-colored Divine Wings, both the Silver Light Wings and the Red Light Wings are Yellow Grade Mid Grade, while the Orange Light Wings are of the Yellow Level Upper Grade.

Once the Tri-colored Divine Wings are assembled, this Treasure can even reach the Upper-grade Profound Level!"

Beside him, Zhi Nuo looked at Immortal Bi Yue, who was patiently explaining to Cao Zhen, with a puzzled expression on her face. The Tri-colored Divine Wings are said to be of the Mysterious Rank.
