

My Master 1261

Chapter 1261:

In this place, there are slightly fewer Immortal Sects than elsewhere, or perhaps it could be said there are slightly fewer Great Teachings!

Usually, very few people move about in this region. After all, to the south lies an endless sea, shrouded by fog beyond which they cannot continue. Who would bother coming here for no reason?

But now, at the southernmost border, there is a gathering of individuals from various sects of the Eastern Province. The majority are from the Demon Sects, but there are also a small number of Loose Cultivators and a handful from the so-called Immortal Sects.

"Finally, those remote lands beyond our domain will be connected to our Eastern Province!"

"Yes, we've waited too long for this day!"

"Those remote lands beyond the domain are disdained by those Great Teachings, but they present great opportunities for us. Even if they are remote, surely there are some Spirit Grass and resources, right?"

"Indeed, we don't aim to snatch the best resources; obtaining a decent share will be sufficient."

In the crowd, a chubby man with a ruddy nose and even somewhat conspicuous ears shouted, "If you want to snatch resources, please help yourselves to those Spirit Grass and ores; we won't compete with you. But don't compete with our Crowd-heart Demon Sect for Disciples."

At his side, someone heard him and immediately burst into laughter: "Does the Crowd-heart Demon Sect still think they don't have enough Disciples, wishing to recruit more? What, do you aim for your number of Disciples to surpass that of the Great Teachings?"

"Disciples are also a resource. Though from remote lands beyond our domain, who knows if we might encounter someone with extraordinary talent. Of course, the Crowd-heart Demon Sect can rest assured that we, the Lone Wild Goose Demon Sect, will not compete with you extensively for Disciples. We will only take those with High Level Immortal Bodies."

"High Level Immortal Body? If anyone encounters one, who wouldn't want them as a Disciple!"

While people were engaged in heated discussions, someone suddenly spoke up, "Gentlemen, let's remember our agreement. We are here to snatch resources from those remote lands beyond the domain. When the time comes, how much and what kind of resources we can grab will depend on our individual abilities. However, let's not clash with each other."

"Naturally."

"For those of us who lose out on snatching resources, we have no intention to wage war with you."

The surrounding crowd responded one after another, with what was truly in their hearts known to none.

In the midst of the discussions, the fog over the sea began to thin out, and a vast continent was approaching at an astonishing speed.

The Eastern Wasteland, the Desolate Cold Country!

At this moment, the experts from the various Immortal Sects had already arrived here, with the exception of those from the farthest southern sects.

Simultaneously, figures such as Qin Yao, Wu Jianzi—masters from the Immortal Sects—and disciples of the Grand Preceptor like Yu Tuoyu, as well as reincarnated beings with Great Abilities like the Axe Madman and Star Lord Hao Yue, had all appeared here.

This time, the team from the Hundred Peaks Sect was led by Yi Sheng and Liè Yàn. Ever since that incident, Liè Yàn had been reflecting upon his actions on Spirit Mountain within the Hundred Peaks Sect.

However, due to the significance of this event, and since Cao Zhen and the others had not returned, he had no choice but to leave Spirit Mountain and rush to the Desolate Cold Country along with Yi Sheng.

Just as Yi Sheng had arrived at the location, he was greeted by someone.

Linghu Gudu.

He too had ceased his wandering and rushed to this place.

Seeing Yi Sheng's arrival, Linghu Gudu promptly greeted him, joined by Wu Jianzi, Jiang Yan, Qing Mozi, and others.

"Yi Sheng, where is your master and the others? Why don't I see them?" Linghu Gudu, recognizing only the familiar face of Yi Sheng, was taken aback with surprise.

At the side, Wu Jianzi and the rest were just as curious, "Where is Sect Leader Cao? Why isn't Sect Leader Cao here?"

Not just them, the masters from the various sects also began to gather around.

Cao Zhen, he was the number one expert of the Eastern Wasteland; a being who had reached the limit of the Golden Core Stage.

It was Cao Zhen who originally informed everyone that the Eastern Wasteland would be connected to the Central Five Provinces, advising them to abandon their conflicts. If not for Cao Zhen, who knows how chaotic the Eastern Wasteland would be; yet now, as the Eastern Wasteland was soon to be connected to the Central Five Provinces, Cao Zhen was absent!

Besides Cao Zhen, of the high-ranking experts of the Hundred Peaks Sect, only Yi Sheng and the long-absent Liè Yàn had arrived. Aside from them, only younger generation experts like Liao Youdi had come. The experts from Four Treasures Peak were all missing, and even the two junior Disciples, Zhu Peng and Duo Duo from Four Treasures Peak, were nowhere to be seen. This was exceedingly strange.

The Axe Madman also inquired, "Exactly, where is Xiang Ziyu? Where did that kid go? I remember you saying that when the Eastern Wasteland connects to the Eastern Province, Cao Zhen and the others would appear, too. So why has no one come?"

Yi Sheng knew that her master was seen as the pillar of the entire Eastern Wasteland. Now that the Eastern Wasteland was about to be connected to the Eastern Province, his absence, indeed, unnerved the people of the Eastern Wasteland.

Feeling helplessly resigned inside, she could only tell the truth, "My master and the others cannot come here for now, because, my master and they are currently in the Eastern Province, and the place we are about to connect to is also the Eastern Province!"

Upon hearing this, Star Lord Hao Yue instantly furrowed his brows and exclaimed in surprise, "What? Your master is in the Eastern Province? That's not right; there is fog there, how did they get across?"

"My master, they accidentally discovered a hidden pathway. At that time, they didn't know it led to the Eastern Province. Only after entering did they realize it was the Eastern Province. Then, my master decided to explore the situation in the Eastern Province, and so they stayed there."

Chapter 1262:

"But Master also said that when the Eastern Wasteland is connected with the Eastern Province, Master and the others will return."

Upon hearing this, everyone immediately began to ask with concern.

"This, Sect Leader Cao truly lives up to his name, having actually reached the Eastern Province ahead of time!"

"Then, did Sect Leader Cao mention what the situation is like in the Eastern Province?"

"Yes, what's the situation there in the Eastern Province...?"

Cao Zhen's presence in the Eastern Province was certainly good news, after all, with him being in the Eastern Province, it was possible to learn about the situation there.

Yi Sheng spoke in a heavy tone, "Master said that in the Eastern Province, the Great Teachings are not particularly interested in us, but the Sects there, especially those of the Demonic Path, those Demon Sects, intend to invade our Eastern Wasteland."

"The Great Teachings are not getting involved? That's a relief."

"Right, do we know how many Demon Sects are planning to attack our Eastern Wasteland?"

Yi Sheng gently shook his head, "Master didn't say."

Just as the person who had asked was about to continue inquiring, Star Lord Hao Yue had already spoken, "No one can know for certain how many Demon Sects will attack us, as the numbers of those from the Demon Sects are continuously growing.

Moreover, no one knows whether they will invade the Eastern Wasteland, East Breeze, or the Eastern Border."

While speaking, Star Lord Hao Yue let out a soft sigh, "However, Dao Companion Cao should not have gone to the Eastern Province by himself this time. He at least could have let me and Axe Madman go with him.

If the two of us were to live through another lifetime and spend some time cultivating in the Eastern Province, it's very likely that we could break through to the limit of the Golden Core Stage. In that case, our combat power in the Eastern Wasteland could be stronger."

In his previous life, he indeed did not reach the limit of the Golden Core Stage, not only because the limit is extremely hard to achieve but also because in his previous life during the Golden Core Stage, he did not experience the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth.

Therefore, after not reaching the limit of the Golden Core Stage, he did not forcibly remain at the Perfect Completion Golden Core and continue cultivating in hopes of reaching the limit. Instead, he quickly advanced through the Wind Fire Tribulation and then entered the Earth Immortal Realm.

Now, he is in the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, and he can only remain in the Golden Core Stage, naturally striving to reach the limit of the Golden Core Stage.

Moreover, he is living through another lifetime now.

Especially after being spurred on by Cao Zhen, he started to accept disciples. At the beginning, he didn't feel much about it, but gradually, as he watched his disciples grow and surpass peers and even stronger individuals, his thoughts began to change slowly.

Initially, he only saw the Thousand Caves Door as a temporary abode, and if it were convenient, he would help a bit, but he wouldn't go out of his way to aid a Sect like Cao Zhen would.

After all, being a reincarnated individual with Great Ability, how could he be the same as those ordinary members of Sects?

But once he started taking on disciples and training them, his heart gradually changed, and he himself did not know when he started caring more and more about the Thousand Caves Door and the Eastern Wasteland.

When he realized this, he found that his Dao heart had changed, and he even glimpsed a different path than what he had in his previous life.

He even felt that he could reach even higher levels than in his former life!

It is precisely because of his concern for the Thousand Caves Door that he has come to this place.

However, even though he feels he can be stronger than in his previous life and has had new realizations, he is only close to the Golden Core Stage limit and has not yet reached it.

The limit of the Golden Core Stage is really too difficult to achieve, especially in the Eastern Wasteland where the Spiritual Energy is much more scarce.

That's why he said that Cao Zhen should return and take them there; if Cao Zhen took them, and he went to the Eastern Province where the Spiritual Energy is more abundant and dense, he truly has a good chance of reaching the limit of the Golden Core Stage, and it should not take too much time.

By his side, Qin Yao let out a sigh, "Star Lord Hao Yue, if both of you had gone to the Eastern Province and had not returned by now, then we in the Eastern Wasteland would really be without a leader."

While speaking, she paused briefly and looked at the crowd, "Now that Sect Leader Cao is not here, and we have to face the attack from the Demon Sects of the Eastern Province, should we choose an Alliance Hierarch first?"

All around, everyone nodded in agreement and turned their eyes towards Star Lord Hao Yue and Axe Madman.

If Cao Zhen were present, they would naturally choose him as the Alliance Hierarch, but with Cao Zhen absent, they would naturally have to choose one of the other two reincarnated individuals with Great Ability.

Axe Madman, feeling the gaze of the crowd, gently shook his head, "Don't look at me, I am not interested in being an Alliance Hierarch. I'm here simply to have the opportunity to fight more people; I came purely to fight, so don't choose me. Just select Star Lord Hao Yue directly."

Very soon, everyone unanimously passed the decision to make Star Lord Hao Yue the Alliance Hierarch of the Eastern Wasteland.

And Star Lord Hao Yue quickly began to arrange defenses and distribute tasks to everyone.

Three days later.

Above the great sea, the white fog completely dissipated, and a massive landmass heavily touched down at the southern coast of the Eastern Province.

Eastern Wasteland has finally connected with the Eastern Province!

Chapter 1263:

Ever since the people of Eastern Wasteland learned that their land could be connected to the Central Five Provinces, they have waited for far too long.

Regarding the connection to the Central Five Provinces, their feelings have always been complex. On one hand, they are worried that after connecting to the Central Five Provinces, they might face attacks from some of the Sects there, but on the other hand, as cultivators, how could they not yearn for the heartland of Immortal Cultivation!

Now, this moment has finally arrived!

After the lands of Eastern Wasteland, Eastern Border, East Breeze, and others connected to the Eastern Province, such large continents clashed together without causing massive earthquakes or even raising mountains and upending the earth, as if two jigsaw pieces were joined. The only change was the Spiritual Energy!

Once the mist began to fade, rich, pure streams of Spiritual Energy rushed towards them like torrents of river water.

And the instant Eastern Wasteland was fully connected to the Eastern Province, the incoming Spiritual Energy could only be described as boundless.

"This Spiritual Energy, it's so dense, so pure!"

"Could it be that the Spiritual Energy of the Central Five Provinces is all this dense?"

"With such pure and rich Spiritual Energy, cultivating under these conditions, the speed of cultivation could be unimaginably faster!"

"Stop talking about these useless things. Now, we've connected to the other side, everyone spread out and be ready."

Under Star Lord Hao Yue's arrangements, the people of Eastern Wasteland each took their positions.

Eastern Province.

The crowd gathered in the south whooped excitedly upon seeing the unfamiliar continent connecting to their Eastern Province.

"Charge!"

"Let's make it clear first, if someone has already claimed that Immortal Sect, then don't compete for it."

"First come, first served!"

The people of the Eastern Province did not take those from the remote territories seriously at all. In their eyes, whoever got to a place first and seized the loot owned it.

The connection to the Eastern Province was not just at one point, but rather the combined lands of the Eastern Wasteland, Eastern Border, and East Breeze, which were now interconnected.

In no time, whether it was Eastern Wasteland, Eastern Border, or East Breeze, massive amounts of cultivators from the Eastern Province entered them, including not only Golden Core Stage cultivators but also Core Formation Stage cultivators.

However, rapidly the cultivators from the Eastern Province halted in their tracks, for they were greeted by a group of cultivators.

Many cultivators from the Eastern Province were stunned for a moment, followed by a burst of sneering laughter.

"It seems they aren't stupid, knowing that we would enter their backwaters."

"No, are they trying to stop us? Isn't that foolish?"

"They do have quite a number of people. Looks like they've gathered everyone from their Sects here. They surely don't think they can stop us! How foolish!"

"Yeah, if they were truly wise, they should've hidden away, hoping that we'd show mercy and spare their Sect!"

"No, they should have offered their Sect's resources directly and then pledged allegiance to us."

"Them, pledge allegiance to us? We would have to deem them worthy first."

"Haha, it depends on what we'd find worthy in them."

The cultivators of the Eastern Province looked at the people opposite of them without any regard, laughing unrestrainedly.

How could mere backwater cultivators compare to them!

The people of Eastern Wasteland, faced with the unrestrained mockery from the cultivators of the Eastern Province, looked visibly upset, with many showing rage on their faces, appearing as if they might strike at any moment.

Within the crowd, someone laughed and said, "Alright, gentlemen, no more laughter. Let's take care of business first. We surely can't let this group block us here."

"That's true." A man dressed in black robes with a gaunt face looked towards the opposite side and shouted, "If you don't want to die, then quickly make way."

They truly looked down on the people from that barren land, but they also knew, even if the cultivators opposite were weak, there would still be some at the Golden Core Stage, and some with decent strength. Especially since so many of their kind had gathered, if a fight were to break out, they would suffer injuries. So if they could avoid fighting, they would choose not to fight.

"What a joke!"

Anger appeared on Star Lord Hao Yue's face. Having reincarnated with Great Ability, when was it ever the turn for these insignificant fishes, whom he wouldn't spare a glance in his past life, to clamor before him!

With a cold snort, behind him, a huge Golden Core composed of ten different phenomena emerged!

"Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection?"

The cultivators from the Eastern Province were greatly surprised!

"Could it be that such remote places have a being of Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection?"

"What a surprise, truly, it's too much of a surprise that such places could have a Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection!"

"Considering the opponent's position, it's clear he's the leading figure. He must be the number one expert in this region, with the appearance of one Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection, it's not so surprising after all. No matter where, there will always be one or two geniuses."

In the crowd, an exceptional young man clad in white robes among the black, extraordinarily conspicuous, stepped forward two paces and looked towards the person with the ten phenomena Golden Core, saying, "You are not bad, being able to achieve Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection. You must be the strongest in your Sect, as well as the one in charge."

Chapter 1264:

"Now, I give you an opportunity to join our Burnflame Sect. Our Burnflame Sect is also a well-known sect in the Eastern Province. You can go back and bring those talented individuals from your Immortal Sect to join our Burnflame Sect. This is a godsent opportunity for you!"

As he spoke, a proud expression appeared on his face.

After finishing, he paused slightly and continued, "Of course, if you want to join our Burnflame Sect, you will need to contribute all the resources of your Immortal Sect."

Star Lord Hao Yue, looking at the man who seemed to be offering charity to himself, felt a surge of rage boiling inside him.

"Join your sect? You think you are worthy?"

At his words, many among the cultivators from the Eastern Province in front of him burst into laughter.

"Fiery Devil, he's looking down on you!"

"Fiery Devil, someone said you're not worthy and you just stand there and take it?"

"Fiery Devil..."

A sinister look suddenly appeared on Fiery Devil's face as he coldly said, "I originally thought your cultivation base was decent and wanted to offer you a way out, but it seems you are seeking your own death!

Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection? Perhaps, in your poor and remote area, you are the only one with the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, but in our Eastern Province, there are plenty of those with Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection.

And, all Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection are not the same."

As the last syllable dropped, ten perfected Golden Elixirs of anomalies appeared behind him. Each one was engulfed in flames, yet unlike any common flame, the flames within his Golden Elixirs were black!

Star Lord Hao Yue glanced at the anomalies appearing behind his opponent and said coldly, "I really want to know, what's the difference between one Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection and another. Do you dare to fight me?"

If it were based on his past temperament, he would have acted long ago, but now, having people he cared about behind him, and also the members of Thousand Caves Door, if he directly engaged the opponent, it would inevitably lead to a massive conflict, endangering many disciples from the Thousand Caves Door.

Thus, the best course was to confront the opponent, make him step back understanding the difficulty. Even if he couldn't make the opponent realize the difficulty, he aimed to inspire his side.

After finishing speaking, he even restrained part of his aura.

Currently, as the distance between him and his opponent was too great, the opponent was unable to detect his aura, but if the distance closed, his opponent would certainly be able to sense it; only a fool would engage him then, so he needed to conceal his aura first.

As for the opponent being stronger than him?

Star Lord Hao Yue never even considered this scenario; those stronger than him were only at the Golden Core Period Limit. Was the opponent at the Golden Core Period Limit?

What a joke!

Would someone at the Golden Core Period Limit be ridiculed so easily?

"A fight with me?" Fiery Devil laughed upon hearing this, as if he heard the biggest joke beneath Heaven, "It seems, you people from remote places really do not understand that there are heavens beyond our heavens and people beyond our people.

Since you seek death, very well, I'll let you know the difference between the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection!"

With those words, he suddenly rushed forward.

He, being of Wilderness Level Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, how could his opponent, merely from a poor backwater also of Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, match him?

Moreover, what divine skills has he cultivated?

Divine Skills of the Eastern Province, that person from such a modest region, what kind of divine skills could he possess!

Engaging this person, killing him would also be well, and thus, these frogs in the well from remote areas would learn what the outside world is like. After witnessing the terror upon killing their strongest, these people might just give up resisting!

Other people from the Eastern Province also held a watchful entertainment mindset, not intending to interfere.

Let the two of them fight; even if Fiery Devil could establish his might, the opponent would also come to realize the gap between them and Eastern Province, hence they would avoid intervening.

After all, Firessential Sect couldn't possibly take over the entire remote region.

Although the two were far apart, due to both being at Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, they quickly approached each other.

Fiery Devil's face showed a fierce expression, and from his hands, bundles of burning, black flames emerged.

"Now, let me show you the Divine Skills of the Eastern Province!"

As his words fell, the black flames in his hands suddenly shot out.

The peculiar black flames gathered in the void, forming a giant fireball. As the fireball descended, the temperature of the surrounding air abruptly increased.

Under the scorching flames, the surrounding air seemingly began to distort. Where the giant fireball passed, the void itself would deform due to the terrifying and hot aura.

Just as the fireball soared through the void, the grass below even started burning due to the fiery high temperatures transmitted through the air.

As he shot out the flames, the cultivators from Eastern Province behind him, some at Core Formation Stage, even felt their breaths getting hot.

This is the power of a Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection!

Star Lord Hao Yue, watching Fiery Devil already close by, sneered internally, no longer hiding. Behind him, within the giant merged elixirs, the three moon anomalies in the center and the surrounding star anomalies simultaneously released dazzling rays of light.

Chapter 1265:

For a moment, a boundless and mighty aura surged in all directions.

Across him, Fiery Devil felt a terrifying presence coming from the void. His eyes suddenly widened, his pupils filled with shock. How could this be possible? This presence...

How could such a terrifying aura possibly belong to someone from such a remote place!

The intensity of this aura, this horror... it is already approaching the Golden Core Period Limit!

He had never fought against someone close to the Golden Core Period Limit; he was merely a Wilderness Level Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, wasn't he? How was he qualified to fight against beings close to the Golden Core Period Limit, let alone provoke such terrifying existences!

Even, he had never seen someone close to the Golden Core Period Limit make a move; the strongest he had seen was a top-tier Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection!

And when that top-tier Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection made a move, the aura wasn't this terrifying.

How could a place as remote as this have someone approaching the Golden Core Period Limit?

In his astonishment, the sky suddenly darkened.

At this moment, even though it was clearly daytime, three moons' apparitions appeared in the void, and stars surrounded them, complimenting their glow.

The next moment, the space where Fiery Devil and Star Lord Hao Yue were located suddenly turned pitch black, impenetrably dark, not even a hand could be seen if extended.

Following that, an extremely bitter cold, as if it could freeze the entire space, assaulted them.

The originally scorching air plummeted in temperature.

Fiery Devil instantly felt the air around him become exceedingly cold. Next, the chill enveloped him completely. The piercing cold instantly spread throughout his body, seeming to freeze him solid; he even felt as if it was going to shatter his very soul!

Approaching the Golden Core Period Limit, this must be an existence approaching the Golden Core Period Limit!

In the next breath, he stopped thinking altogether.

Behind them, the people from the Eastern Province suddenly saw the world in front of them turn pitch black, their complexions drastically changing.

"To change heaven and earth like this is not something an ordinary Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection can do!"

"Fiery Devil must have met his match!"

"It's too dark; nothing can be seen!"

Luckily, it was only a moment before the darkness disappeared, and the world regained its brightness.

But at this time, in the void, there was an additional ice sculpture!

Fiery Devil, and the Flame he unleashed!

The huge black fireball, at this moment, was completely encased in frost, frozen within the void.

And behind, the entire person of Fiery Devil had also turned into an ice sculpture.

The next moment, the Frost shattered, and the flame within the frost dissipated into the air along with the breaking ice.

"Crack..."

Another crisp sound echoed, and in the void, Fiery Devil shattered along with the Cold Breath that enveloped him. His physical body was torn asunder, falling towards the earth.

"Dead... Is he dead?"

"Just like that, Fiery Devil is dead?"

"Fiery Devil, a Wilderness Level Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, was instantly slain by the opponent. Who on earth is that person?"

"Even a Profound Level Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection couldn't do it, to kill Fiery Devil instantly!"

"The opponent is at least a top-tier Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, or even someone approaching the Golden Core Period Limit!"

"Approaching the Golden Core Period Limit? Can such a place bring forth an existence that is approaching the Golden Core Period Limit?"

The crowd from the Eastern Province was filled with doubts and uncertainties, unable to comprehend how such a powerful existence emerged from what in their eyes was an obscure and inconsequential locale.

Star Lord Hao Yue did not even spare a glance at the shattered corpse of Fiery Devil, his gaze icily sweeping across the people of the Eastern Province, filled with disdain: "Is this the Divine Skills of Eastern Province? As expected, there's a difference between a Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection and a Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection."

"Damn it, he's provoking us Eastern Province!"

The crowd from the Burnflame Sect in Eastern Province looked up at the man in the sky and then at Fiery Devil's corpse on the ground, shouting aloud one after another.

"Kill him!"

"He's just one person. Even if they have one Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, what if he's strong!"

"That's right, we have so many people, what is there to fear!"

On the side of Eastern Wasteland, Axe Madman, hearing the shouting from the crowd around him, sneered, and the next moment, ten magnificent Ten Different Phenomena Golden Cores representing his Pill Fusion emerged behind him, he shouted with surging fighting spirit: "Are we going to fight? Old man has waited too long already!"

"Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection!"

"Another Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, they're not just one!"

The geniuses from Eastern Wasteland, hearing the exclamations of the Eastern Province crowd, burst into mocking laughter one after another.

"Let's show you just how many Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection we actually have!"

As they finished speaking, Qin Yao, Yi Sheng, Liè Yàn, Liao Youdi, Wu Jianzi, and others released their own extraordinary Golden Cores.

For a moment, each perfect Ten Different Phenomena Golden Core from the backs of the Eastern Wasteland crowd emerged!

On the other side, the Eastern Province crowd stared at these extraordinary Golden Cores, and for a time, were completely dumbfounded.

"What is this situation?"

"How do they have so many Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfections!"

"Is this a backwater place?"

What they were witnessing was completely different from what they had imagined.

Chapter 1266:

They initially thought that once they arrived here, they could simply sweep through, but now, they actually saw so many Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection!

"The power here is even stronger than ours!"

"However strong, what extent can it reach!"

"With so many of us, if we all attack at once, what can they do!"

Gradually, the people from the Eastern Province recovered from their surprise and began to react.

"No way, I don't believe that all these Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfections can be that strong!"

"Exactly!"

"Charge!"

No one knew who took the first move, but suddenly, people from the Eastern Province began attacking. However, they did not charge straight to the Eastern Wasteland people, instead, they flew to a certain distance before unleashing their Divine Skills.

The cultivators from the Eastern Province were almost all Demonic Cultivators; in an instant, waves of Demonic Qi surged into the sky, and various Divine Skills shot out, converging into a stream heading towards the Eastern Wasteland.

On the Eastern Wasteland side, the unleashed Divine Skills varied, including Scholar Cultivators, Buddhist Cultivators, and Taoist Cultivators, but notably absent were Demonic Cultivators!

The streams of Divine Skills collided in the Void, producing thunderous booms that made the sky shake wildly and the ground tremble incessantly.

In the midst of the colliding streams, a figure charged directly at the group of cultivators from the Eastern Province.

Madman with the Giant Axe!

Wrapped in a brilliant Protective Divine Power, he moved with astonishing speed to the forefront of the Eastern Province cultivators, his Giant Axe swinging at one possessing the Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection. With one strike, the axe fell.

The Giant Axe traced a perfect arc through the Void, carrying an overwhelming momentum as it struck.

The person confronted, who also had the Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection, instantly widened his eyes in terror. The aura was horrifying; this was certainly not an ordinary Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection.

Retreat!

He instantly lost the will to fight, rapidly retreating backwards.

But in the next moment, his eyes dramatically widened. He thought he had dodged that terrifying axe, but it still cleaved him in two.

"Bang!"

A loud crash resounded, and his body was split into two halves!

Bright red blood shot into the sky, splashing onto many people around him.

The surrounding people gazed at the man holding the Giant Axe, with his unkempt, wild-man appearance, and their faces were stricken with fear.

"This one, he's not a normal Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection!"

"Mirror Fear Demon, that's also a nominal Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection, actually cleaved in one strike!"

"Quick, retreat!"

All around, people began to cry out in alarm.

"The master, where are our masters? Let our masters stop him!"

"Surround him, take him down first!"

In the midst of the shouting, Yi Sheng and others from the Eastern Wasteland already surged forward, each finding a Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection opponent to engage.

For a while, cries of alarm continued incessantly.

"What!"

"This woman using fire, she's not a regular Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection either! She's, close to the top-tier Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection!"

"This one using a sword, so strong too!"

"What's going on, how come all of their Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfections are so powerful!"

"Quick, retreat!"

In the ensuing battle, one after another of the Eastern Province's Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfections fell.

In the eyes of the Eastern Province, these remote and poor areas were inconsequential, and the sects that occupied these places did not have strong power, including lacking many top-tier Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfections. Upon confrontation, they instead began to retreat in succession.

Moreover, they originally came to snatch resources, not to fight to the death. Now discovering that the opposition was so strong, there was no point in them continuing to fight.

The Eastern Province retreats, while the people of the Eastern Wasteland, after pursuing for a while, also gave up the pursuit and withdrew.

"This is the Eastern Province?"

"Doesn't seem all that impressive."

"They just retreated like that? It seems, their top-tier Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfections are not as strong as ours!"

Listening to the shouts of the people, Star Lord Hao Yue's expression remained grave as he said solemnly, "If you think so, you'll suffer eventually. Those who attacked us were just some small sects of the Eastern Province. The strongest Great Teachings of the Eastern Province did not move.

The power of a Great Teaching far exceeds your imagination. Moreover, although we repelled their attack, what about East Breeze and the Eastern Border? Especially Eastern Breeze, which suffered heavy losses when we previously clashed, they surely cannot withstand an attack from the Eastern Province.

If those people pass through East Breeze or the Eastern Border to reach our Eastern Wasteland, what then?"

At Star Lord Hao Yue's words, the faces of the people around immediately grew serious.

"What should we do?"

"Do we need to send more people to defend those two places?"

Hearing this, someone immediately shook their head and said, "We can't split our forces to defend; all of us concentrated here makes them reluctant to engage us forcibly, which naturally can stop them. But if we divide our defense, our strength here will weaken. They will likely seize the opportunity to attack."

"Yes, actually, the reason we initially succeeded in the fight is because Star Monarch Hao Yue and others are stronger, but in a real fierce battle, we might not necessarily be able to defeat them. It's just that they don't want to engage us desperately! Once our strength weakens, they will definitely attack again!"

Chapter 1267:

"That's not necessarily the case. Perhaps after they realize how strong we are, they won't dare to attack us anymore?"

For a time, everyone was debating whether to divide their forces or not.

"We can wait a little longer."

Star Lord Hao Yue slowly stated, "First and foremost, we must protect this frontline battlefield. We can retreat first, then observe for a few days to see if they dare to attack this place.

If they do attack, we will naturally hold them off here. If they don't dare to attack, we will divide into two groups and guard our borders with the Eastern Border and East Breeze respectively!"

After facing resistance in their assault, the Eastern Province's cultivators retreated, their disputes continuing to echo along their path.

"Can you believe it? We of the Eastern Province were actually defeated by cultivators from those remote areas, it's a disgrace!"

"Who's to blame? Your Silu Cult was the first to retreat!"

"We retreated first? Which eye of yours saw us doing that?"

"Don't look at us. You all were fine at the back, but we lost two existences of the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection!"

"What now?"

"Continue the assault? I just looked, and we actually don't have fewer people than them!"

"So what if we don't have fewer? They're defending their sect and ready to fight desperately, but what about us? Which one of you is willing to fight to the death? If we were all ready to, we would have rushed in long ago!"

"I came here to compete for resources, not to fight to the death. If you want to keep fighting, then go ahead. I refuse to believe that the cultivators from the other regions are also this strong. Our Silu Cult will look elsewhere!"

"Exactly, we don't believe that these remote places are all that strong either. We're going to find another place as well!"

Suddenly, people from many sects started flying towards different directions.

Just as they said, they had come to seize resources, not to fight to the death. If they couldn't take this place down, why not try somewhere else?

As time passed, more and more left. Since they hadn't taken this place down to begin with, now with fewer people, it was even less likely they would succeed.

For a time, the crowd converged here, but most of them departed for other places. However, two sects not only headed elsewhere but also sent messengers towards the Eastern Province.

"Go to the Overturning Water Sect immediately. Our sect has always had good relations with the Overturning Water Sect. The Overturning Water Sect doesn't belong to the Demonic Sect nor the so-called Great Teachings. This relationship is exactly why they suffer ostracization.

This time, as the lands beyond have connected to our Eastern Province, they, holding on to their identity as a Great Teaching, didn't attack. But if they learn about the strength of these outer regions, they will surely be interested.

After all, a place capable of cultivating so many of the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, including some nearing the Golden Core Period Limit, and some top-tier practitioners, must have more resources than we initially anticipated.

I believe the Overturning Water Sect will make a move. When that time comes, we will send people to follow them, and we will also be able to pick up some resources."

The Eastern Wasteland fended off the enemies, but East Breeze and the Eastern Border had crumbled after their initial resistance!

Especially East Breeze, which had suffered heavy losses in a previous battle with Eastern Wasteland and hadn't yet recovered, was simply unable to defend against the people from the Eastern Province.

Out of necessity, the Immortal Sects could only return, then wait for the adversaries to arrive before offering up their resources.

This procedure was not unfamiliar to them, since they had done the same when Eastern Wasteland attacked them previously. However, they soon realized that this situation was different from before.

The people from the Eastern Wasteland had distributed and looted the place, allowing one Immortal Sect to scavenge at a time.

At most, there might be occasional overlaps, but they wouldn't continue to loot, except maybe the team led by Xiang Ziyu, who might have scavenged once more than others.

However, the people from the Eastern Province who had invaded this place were different; they were not part of one singular force, they had not joined forces before.

They didn't care whether an Immortal Sect had already provided resources to another force. As long as they arrived, they would strip that Immortal Sect of everything!

Moreover, most of those who invaded were from the Demon Sects, known for their bloodthirstiness. They not only plundered various ores and Spiritual Medicines, but some even seized female disciples with Special Immortal Bodies, and young Disciples.

And some people from the Demon Sects aimed to completely strip an Immortal Sect of all its resources.

For some Sects, having no choice but to preserve their existence, they had to surrender all their resources.

Others couldn't bear it and started fighting fiercely with the cultivators from the Eastern Province.

For a time, the entire East Breeze became as chaotic as it could be.

However, the chaos had not ended, and within a short period, more people from the Demon Sects began pouring into East Breeze, causing their numbers to surge.

Friction even started to occur among the Demon Sects from the Eastern Province.

Mountain Water Sect.

This sect was also significant in East Breeze, but now, confronted by cultivators from the Eastern Wasteland who had invaded East Breeze, they could only preserve themselves by surrendering all of their sect's resources!

All of their resources!

Moreover, the invaders took away two female disciples with Special Immortal Bodies and ten new disciples who had recently joined the Mountain Water Sect.

They had no choice but to concede.

Resources could be looted again if they were lost, but if the sect was gone, then everything would be over.

Chapter 1268:

Even so, those Demon Sects from the Eastern Province still did not let them off.

The Demon Sects from the Eastern Province even started to entertain the notion of desecrating the living tombs of those ancestors who lay dormant.

"Your Sect has run out of resources? What about those living tombs? The living tombs of your sleeping Elders and such, there should be plenty of treasures inside, right? Go, dig up all those living tombs, and take out all the treasures."

A man dressed in a black robe, with a sinister face, looked at the group of foreign Cultivators before him and pointed his hand toward the distant living tombs!

Unlike those Loose Cultivators who seek secluded places to hide their living tombs, people from the Immortal Sects built their living tombs within their own Sect grounds.

To them, the most secluded places were still at risk of discovery. However, building living tombs within the Sect grounds was the safest; to desecrate them, one must first breach their Sect's defenses!

But what they hadn't anticipated was that during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, they would end up connected with the Central Five Provinces, making even those living tombs within their Sect grounds unsafe.

The Demonic Cultivators from the Eastern Province also knew that once those living tombs were disturbed, their occupants could awaken and fight desperately, which is why they didn't personally set out to desecrate the living tombs, instead, they dictated the members of this Sect to do it!

"Impossible, those are the living tombs of the predecessors within our Sect, we cannot possibly desecrate them!"

The acting Sect Leader of Mountain Water Sect, upon hearing this, had nothing but rage in his eyes. It was absolutely impossible to let them desecrate their ancestors' living tombs!

Why should they agree to these people's terms and surrender their resources? They were waiting for the day when the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth would end, their predecessors would awaken, and then, under the guidance of those predecessors, they could slowly recover their vitality.

But if the living tombs of their ancestors were all desecrated and their ancestors perished, what use would there be when the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth ended? Without Earth Immortal Realm masters, could they still continue to survive?

They didn't have the resources to construct temporary living tombs now, let alone build new living tombs for their predecessors!

The leading man on the opposite side showed a gruesome smile and sneered, "You won't give in? If you don't, then are you ready to see your entire Sect annihilated?"

No sooner had his voice fallen, that from below came cries of high calling, followed by figures in black entering the Mountain Water Sect.

"More people from our Eastern Province Demon Sect have found their way here? Wasn't it agreed that this Sect was ours to claim?"

The leading man frowned and his face displayed dissatisfaction. However, when he saw the appearances of the approaching figures clearly, his expression became extremely odd.

"Wind Thunder Devil, wasn't your Thunder Flame Devil Sect attacking somewhere in the Eastern Wasteland? Why have you come here to East Breeze?"

Having been in the area for some time, he understood that this territory was called East Breeze, and the neighboring region was the Eastern Wasteland. He also heard people from East Breeze say that the Immortal Sects in the Eastern Wasteland had even more resources.

And this was said by every Immortal Sect he had visited.

At the same time, he also knew that one could directly travel from East Breeze to the Eastern Wasteland, he even had a map showing the route to the Eastern Wasteland, planning to pillage all the way there, and then enter the Eastern Wasteland to plunder more.

However, he also knew the chances of them pillaging the Eastern Wasteland was slim, given that many Demon Sects had directly entered the Eastern Wasteland already.

He could only feel unlucky, having arrived in the most desolate of backwaters.

Unexpectedly, he encountered people from the Thunder Flame Devil Sect here, and he clearly remembered that the Thunder Flame Devil Sect people had entered the Eastern Wasteland.

Only now did the members of Thunder Flame Devil Sect realize that the place they had previously visited was the Eastern Wasteland.

"The Eastern Wasteland? You're mistaken; this place is where we have come. Enough talk, you're here to dig up their living tombs, aren't you? Isn't that just like wiping out the entire Sect? They are going to fight to the death with you, which means you will also suffer losses. How about this, we join forces to annihilate them and then we evenly split the resources from the living tombs?"

The people from Thunder Flame Devil Sect did not reveal the truth; they had been routed when attacking the Eastern Wasteland, which was too embarrassing to admit.

Besides, they had suffered losses, and it would be best to have others from their Demon Sects also attack the Eastern Wasteland, so they all would share the setbacks.

Moreover, with more Demon Sects attacking the Eastern Wasteland, it would definitely be conquered, which would benefit them as well.

"Join forces with you? No need!"

Not only within Mountain Water Sect, but throughout East Breeze, the various Demon Sects that had previously invaded were noticing more and more Demon Sects who had not previously attacked East Breeze were arriving here, and moreover, those Demon Sects were the same ones who had previously attacked the Eastern Wasteland.

They were no fools; so many Demon Sects refrained from attacking the Eastern Wasteland—known for being richer by the people of East Breeze—and were instead coming to East Breeze to snatch resources from them. There must be something suspect.

Soon, they learned the reason.

"What's going on? The Eastern Wasteland has two existences approaching the Golden Core Period Limit, and several of the top-level Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection?"

"Their Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection are not ordinary?"

"So, they found out the Eastern Wasteland is too strong, hence they ran over to East Breeze to compete with us for resources?"

"We've fought the East Breeze people into terror, and yet they come to reap the benefits, wishful thinking."

For a time, between the various major Demon Sects in the Eastern Wasteland, conflicts erupted over resource disputes, and as they penetrated deeper into the area, they moved ever closer to the borders between East Breeze and the Eastern Wasteland.

"I really want to see how strong the Eastern Wasteland people are!"

"With so many of us gathered, can't we invade the Eastern Wasteland?"

"The people of Eastern Wasteland are guarding that one place, can they really afford to send so many experts to the border with East Breeze?"

"They are all guarding the front, their interior must be weak."

"March into the Eastern Wasteland!"

Not just in East Breeze, but throughout the Eastern Border, more and more figures from the Demon Sects of the Eastern Province were converging towards the border with the Eastern Wasteland.

Chapter 1269:

Li Ke, leading Cao Zhen's three disciples, didn't wait for Cao Zhen and the others; instead, they rushed towards the south of the Eastern Province at the fastest speed.

It was not easy for them to arrive in the southern part of the Eastern Province, but then they were stunned.

They did come from the Eastern Wasteland, but they had traversed the Boundless Bloody Hell, not a terrestrial passage.

Now, in the south of the Eastern Province, there is a vast area connecting to places like the Eastern Wasteland, and they truly didn't know exactly which part led to the Eastern Wasteland.

With no other option, they could only walk and inquire as they went, eventually determining the location of the Eastern Wasteland.

Then, after finally returning to the Eastern Wasteland, they were shocked to discover that they saw no people!

Once the people of the Eastern Wasteland realized that there were no more enemies at the front lines of the Desolate Cold Country, they quickly divided into two groups under the leadership of Star Lord Hao Yue and set off towards the borders of the Eastern Wasteland with East Breeze and the Eastern Wasteland with the Eastern Border.

Fortunately, although Star Lord Hao Yue and the others had left, they had still left behind some Golden Core Stage cultivators, in case someone from the Eastern Province entered their Eastern Wasteland, they would be aware of it.

Among those who stayed was a disciple of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

The disciple of the Hundred Peaks Sect, upon seeing the group, quickly came forward and exclaimed with surprise, "Elder Li Ke, Elder Brother Bei Yan, Elder Sister Duo Duo, and Brother Zhu, you've finally returned."

As he spoke, he looked over their shoulders, but no matter how hard he looked, he could not see Cao Zhen and the others, and he couldn't help asking, "Grand Elder, where are the Sect Leader and the others?"

"They are on their way back." Li Ke was equally curious, glancing around at the few people present and asking, "What about the others? Where are the people of our Eastern Wasteland? Why is no one guarding here?"

The disciple of the Hundred Peaks Sect quickly explained, "The troops from the Eastern Province have already been repelled by us, and afterwards, Star Lord Hao Yue led everyone to the borders with East Breeze and the Eastern Border."

"So that's how it is."

Duo Duo and Bei Yan turned their heads to look at Li Ke. Now they had three choices: stay here, go to the border with East Breeze, or go to the border with the Eastern Border.

"We will go to the border with East Breeze. East Breeze is too weak to withstand the others."

Li Ke made a quick judgment and flew towards the border with East Breeze.

Although they did not know the way back from the Eastern Province, the path to East Breeze was all too familiar to them, for they had scavenged there often in the past.

At the border between the Eastern Wasteland and East Breeze, groups of cultivators from various forces in the Eastern Province tried to enter the Eastern Wasteland through this location, only to quickly realize why the previous batch of cultivators who attacked the Eastern Wasteland had all run back.

These cultivators from the Eastern Wasteland did not at all resemble those from some backwater region, boasting nearly Golden Core Period Limit existences, and even top-tier Perfect Completion Golden Cores at the Profound Level, Perfect Completion Golden Cores of Ten Different Phenomena.

They were quickly repelled but, after retreating, they did not leave immediately and instead stayed not far away.

They were waiting, waiting for more people to arrive.

If the Eastern Wasteland was so strong, then certainly there must be more resources.

Even if the cultivators of the Eastern Wasteland were formidable, could they be stronger than all of those from the Eastern Province?

Once they gathered more experts from the Eastern Province, they would surely defeat the Eastern Wasteland.

Gradually, the number of people congregating there grew, and then, they launched another attack on the Eastern Wasteland, but the result was still a failure.

"What's the deal with this Eastern Wasteland?"

"Their people are fighting as if they are not afraid of death at all, and each of them is terrifyingly strong!"

"It can't be that we are unable to conquer the Eastern Wasteland, can it?"

"Conquering the Eastern Wasteland is not the goal; the key is to take down their Immortal Sects!"

"You all continue to wait here, but we from the Xia Wu Sect will not wait any longer. It's true that there's only this piece of land connecting the Eastern Wasteland with East Breeze, but we are cultivators; we can control Flying Boats, we can perform Sword Flight, we can enter the Eastern Wasteland via other locations!"

"That's right, since the people of the Eastern Wasteland are all gathered here, their interior must be left empty. We can directly rush into their interior, strike at the major Immortal Sects, plunder the resources and immediately leave!"

"I refuse to believe that each and every one of their Immortal Sects has so many powerful experts."

"We'll leave, too. We'll fly directly from other places into the Eastern Wasteland; with such a vast border, let's see how they defend it."

"Leave? Have you thought it through? Right now we are gathered together; once we fly into the Eastern Wasteland, we'll be fighting independently. If they join forces..."

"If they join forces, can't we join forces too? Besides, if they come to attack us together, won't we flee? But by doing so, their sect gateways will inevitably be empty."

"With so many people entering the Eastern Wasteland together, even if they want to target us, they won't be able to!"

"However, there's no need for cultivators below the Golden Core Stage to go."

"Let's go, let us charge into the Eastern Wasteland!"

At that moment, individuals from various sects in the Eastern Province changed their routes, crossed the vast sea, and flew into the Eastern Wasteland from various locations.

However, some cultivators began turning towards other regions of East Breeze instead. They looked down with disdain upon those who were determined to rush into the Eastern Wasteland.

"Still going to the Eastern Wasteland? I think they've forgotten why they wanted to go to these remote places outside their domain in the first place. It is because, everyone thought these remote lands outside of their domain were very weak, and upon entering, we could plunder resources at will."

Chapter 1270:

But what about now?

This Eastern Wasteland is much stronger than we had anticipated. Even if they scatter and enter the Eastern Wasteland, by the time they try to take down an Immortal Sect, who knows how many disciples will be lost. Is it worth it?"

"That's right, at this time, it's better to continue scavenging in East Breeze!"

It didn't take long for the people of the Eastern Wasteland to find out that those from the Eastern Province began to scatter and fly into the Eastern Wasteland from all directions.

"As expected, the thing we were most worried about still happened."

"Now, we can no longer gather together. Everyone should return to their respective Immortal Sects and resist their attacks. At the same time, Immortal Sects in close proximity can support each other against the enemy."

"However, before we return, we can take the opportunity to eliminate some of them along the way!"

The people of the Eastern Wasteland naturally knew that everyone was a cultivator, and perhaps for mortals without land connections, it was impossible to cross the sea to reach another place, but for cultivators, the lack of land is not an issue at all.

But, they still need to gather together, at least to let the enemy know the strength of the Eastern Wasteland, perhaps then, some might be deterred by the difficulty.

Indeed, they managed to repel the enemy, causing the enemy to disperse into the Eastern Wasteland. They also don't know how many of the enemy have entered the Eastern Wasteland. Now, everyone can only return to their Sect at the fastest speed.

It's alright for the large Immortal Sects; although they all sent their experts here, each Sect still retained some strong cultivators at their gates.

But the smaller Immortal Sects are out of luck.

Some small Immortal Sects might only have a dozen or so cultivators at the Golden Core Stage in total. How could they stand against the masses of the Eastern Wasteland?

Even a sect like Celestial Plum Sect that has an expert like Qiao Jingyao at the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection couldn't withstand it, after all, despite Qiao Jingyao being such an expert, the number of disciples in Celestial Plum Sect was too few, and apart from Qiao Jingyao, there weren't many strong cultivators.

Yi Sheng quickly made her way back to Hundred Peaks Sect with Liè Yàn at the greatest speed, and at the same time, she took out the Sect's chart Qiao Jingyao had given to her before leaving, and started writing rapidly.

"Eastern Province cultivators have already stormed into the Eastern Wasteland, for now, take people with you to Hundred Peaks Sect. Without us at Hundred Peaks Sect, they need an expert like you to help defend."

After writing it, she immediately burned the Sect's chart.

She knew that after Qiao Jingyao revitalized Celestial Plum Sect, she absolutely did not want to give up on it.

However, under the current special circumstances, they are facing the cultivators from the Eastern Province, and because it's unknown how many Eastern Province cultivators there are, relying only on Qiao Jingyao, they would definitely be unable to defend Celestial Plum Sect no matter what.

Unless, the enemy doesn't attack Celestial Plum Sect.

However, Celestial Plum Sect is the closest Sect to the border of East Breeze; how could others possibly overlook it.

Right now, Qiao Jingyao is not alone — she has her disciples. Even for her disciples' sake, she can only lead Celestial Plum Sect to seek temporary refuge in Hundred Peaks Sect.

Moreover, what Yi Sheng said is correct — although Hundred Peaks Sect has many strong cultivators, almost all of the sect's strong cultivators are currently outside, leaving only two disciples at Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection in the sect.

One of them is naturally Nie Jie, and the other is Shen Lid!

Initially, among the later recruits of Hundred Peaks Sect, apart from Duo Duo and Zhu Peng of Four Treasures Peak, two more disciples reached Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection. One of them is Liao Youdi, who is very close to Duo Duo and Zhu Peng and part of their trio.

The other one is Shen Lid.

Shen Lid's brother, Shen Lìfēi, and sister, Shen Liting, had also entered Hundred Peaks Sect with Duo Duo and others back in the day.

Shen Lid's parents had a total of four children, all of whom were born with Immortal Bodies. Among them, Shen Lid had the most talent and became a cultivator of Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection.

His brother and sister have also reached the Perfect Completion Golden Core Stage but are not among the Ten Different Phenomena Golden Core Great Perfection.

Although Nie Jie and Shen Lid are both of the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, neither is considered the most outstanding cultivator of this level.

Especially Nie Jie, who can be said to be the second disciple in Hundred Peaks Sect to reach Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection without being asleep. freewebnovel.com

Yet, among all cultivators of Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection in Hundred Peaks Sect now, he is the weakest.

Even Shen Lid is stronger than him!

So, having Qiao Jingyao enter Hundred Peaks Sect now can also strengthen the power of Hundred Peaks Sect.

After all, after passing Celestial Plum Sect, it would be Hundred Peaks Sect.

Four Directions Sect, Red Demon Sect.

These two Demon Sects are among the weaker ones within the various Sects of the Eastern Province.

It is precisely because of their weakness that they are eager to enter those Great Teachings or even those desolate areas beyond the domain that even the extremely powerful Sects look down upon.

After all, they find it hard to compete for resources in the Eastern Province.

Even if a relic appears, with their power, entering the relic would almost always result in them returning empty-handed. The main reason is that their power is too weak, although it's said that in the relics, anyone could obtain treasures.

However, to obtain treasures, one still needs strength; typically, those who end up getting the treasures in the relics are the most powerful ones in the group.

Of course, there are also a few who have incredible luck and manage to obtain precious items from the relics, but they are few and far between.

Besides, once you obtain treasures, you also need the strength to safeguard them.

In the past, before the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth arrived, it was still manageable, as the older generation within their Sects was still around, capable of entering those dangerous places.
