

My Master 1301

Chapter 1301:

.....

When there were only five days left until the Sect Tribulation of the Five Sounds Sect, Jiu Yin and the others all rushed to the Five Sounds Sect, where Array Sound introduced everyone to each other.

However, Array Sound only introduced those ten people who were invited to help the Five Sounds Sect through their Tribulation, without mentioning Bei Yan and the others. Bei Yan was also seeing Jiu Yin for the first time.

Upon hearing Jiu Yin's words, Bei Yan immediately realized: "You are one of those invited to aid the Five Sounds Sect through their Tribulation? So you are... at the limit of the Golden Core Stage?"

Jiu Yin nodded slightly, a smile blooming on her face: "That's right."

"Then, you also come from a Great Teaching?" Most of the individuals at the limit of the Golden Core Stage that Bei Yan had heard of were from the top sects.

"Correct, I am a Disciple of the Yin Yang Sect." Although Jiu Yin's response was with a smile, when mentioning the Yin Yang Sect, she inevitably exuded an arrogant bearing that came from within her bones.

"The Yin Yang Sect!"

In the past, during the grand assembly held by the Cloud Reaching Sect, Bei Yan had heard about the Yin Yang Sect; it was a top-tier Great Teaching just like the Dragon Chant Sect!

So, both his master and his Senior Disciple went to the Eastern Province and each brought back an Immortal from a top-tier Great Teaching?

However, his master was more impressive; not only did he bring back an Immortal, but he also brought a group of individuals at Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection to help.

Looking at his Senior Disciple again, he keeps calling himself the protagonist day by day, but in front of the master, he's nothing!

Thanks to the thirty individuals at Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection brought by Yu Long, the Hundred Peaks Sect sent out many more people to assist the Bright Heart Sect.

Ling Xi quickly left with Yan Yourong, Duo Duo, Zhu Peng, Liao Youdi, Liè Yàn, a total of six individuals at Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, along with a group of other experts from the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Yu Long looked at the departing individuals at Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection and then at those who remained; his heart couldn't help but feel a bit surprised. The number of individuals at Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection from the Hundred Peaks Sect, even when considering the sects of the Eastern Province, was considered quite formidable.

Of course, the most astonishing thing was the strength of these individuals at Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection; the majority of them were not ordinary Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection cultivators.

Nie Jie, as the Vice Sect Master of Hundred Peaks Sect, warmly invited the guests in the absence of Sect Leader Cao Zhen: "Esteemed guests, since you have come to our Hundred Peaks Sect, you are guests of our sect. What kind of Cave Mansion would you like? I will have someone arrange it for you."

No matter what the reason was for these individuals' arrival at Hundred Peaks Sect, they were all beings at Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection and surely needed to be treated well.

"There's no need for another arrangement of Cave Mansions." Yu Long waved his hand and said, "We will go to Dao Companion Cao Zhen's peak."

Although he didn't delve much into the Hundred Peaks Sect, he knew that Hundred Peaks Sect was divided into one hundred peaks, and both Cao Zhen and Xiang Ziyu came from the same peak.

Immortal Bi Yue had them come here because of Cao Zhen. In that case, they naturally ought to go to the peak where Cao Zhen was.

Moreover, he was actually quite fond of that peak.

After all, that peak had both Cao Zhen and Xiang Ziyu, two at the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills reaching the limit of the Golden Core Stage, as well as an individual at the limit of the Golden Core Stage like Ling Xi, and the rest of their disciples were also extremely powerful.

"Do you all want to go to Four Treasures Peak? Well, that's good too..." Nie Jie looked towards Xiang Ziyu. At this time, with Peak Master Cao Zhen absent and both the Senior Disciple and the Second Disciple gone, Four Treasures Peak was naturally under the care of Xiang Ziyu.

"Good, then let's head to Four Treasures Peak."

Xiang Ziyu quickly led the group toward Four Treasures Peak.

Aside from Little Bei Yan who was in the midst of Wind Fire Tribulation and couldn't fly with full strength, the rest of the group, being the weakest at Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, arrived at the base of Four Treasures Peak without much time, even without exerting their full power.

Instantly, he saw two giant white jade pillars, and between them, a completely transparent jade stone without a single impurity could be seen.

He had seen such pure jade many times; there was nothing particularly special about it. The key was, the three big characters on top of the jade stone!

Yu Long looked at the characters—Four Treasures Peak!

The only feeling in his heart towards these three characters was that they were beautiful, extraordinarily beautiful!

Even without much understanding of calligraphy, upon seeing these three characters, he believed that they were the most beautiful three characters he had ever seen since his birth!

Even without a deep knowledge of calligraphy, he felt as though these three characters contained some sort of magic.

These ordinary three characters even gave him a sense that within them, he saw swordsmanship, the path of cultivation, and reflections on life.

Suddenly, behind him, an aura surged skyward!

Yu Long swiftly turned around to look behind him.

In his aftermath, among thirty disciples of the Dragon Chant Sect, there was one with a delicate face filled with scholarly charm. His eyes were fixated on the three characters of Four Treasures Peak, as lights began to emerge around him.

In his wake, there was even the vague appearance of a writing brush.

"Enlightenment!"

"Disciple Qing Shu has gained sudden enlightenment!"

"Brother Qing Shu is one of the few in our Dragon Chant Sect who entered the path through calligraphy!"

"Brother, you achieved enlightenment just by seeing these three characters?"

The Dragon Chant Sect was not a sect known for entering the path through calligraphy, nor was it a Great Teaching of Mixed Clan.

.....

Chapter 1302:

However, within the Dragon Chant Sect, indeed, there is one lineage that enters the path through calligraphy, and Liu Qingshu is a disciple from that lineage.

"Junior Brother, he has seen plenty of top-notch calligraphy in his daily life; how could he have such sudden enlightenment?"

The crowd looked at the suddenly enlightened Liu Qingshu with immense surprise. Their Dragon Chant Sect is one of the top Great Teachings, although they are not known for entering the path through calligraphy. But what is the status of their Dragon Chant Sect?

Unspeakable is the number of calligraphy-based Great Teachings that do not outright fawn over them, but still come close.

Whenever something arose, or when they came seeking assistance from the Dragon Chant Sect, they would bring along with them their treasured calligraphic works.

Moreover, within the Dragon Chant Sect, there is an Elder who has gone into deep slumber, who is also a top-tier master of calligraphy, and Liu Qingshu is a disciple of that very master.

Liu Qingshu, being a person who entered the path through calligraphy, would surely read those works.

Furthermore, the plaques in many places of the Dragon Chant Sect were also written by top calligraphy masters from the Eastern Province, and yet Liu Qingshu, who gazes upon these scripts daily without enlightenment, is now suddenly enlightened just by seeing the three characters of Four Treasures Peak?

They admit, even though they are not individuals who entered the path through calligraphy, they can feel that these three characters are exceptionally well written.

As for how good they really are, they cannot articulate.

But, can these three characters be so remarkable as to grant Liu Qingshu instant enlightenment? Isn't this a bit too exaggerated?

Could it be that these three characters surpass the countless calligraphy masters of the Eastern Province?

How could that be possible!

They absolutely do not believe that in this outer region of the Eastern Wasteland, someone's calligraphy could surpass that of the calligraphy masters of their Eastern Province.

Liu Qingshu's enlightenment, however, did not last for too long. Like most people upon enlightenment, it was only a moment later that he came back to his senses.

Following that, he worshipped deeply towards the three large characters on the white jade.

Around him, no one tried to stop him, nor did anyone think it strange.

For them, cultivators, enlightenment is truly too precious, too significant.

Even many would cultivate their entire lives, only to fall in the end without ever having a single moment of enlightenment.

Enlightenment could have a big or small impact. A minor impact might influence a period of cultivation, allow more clarity during cultivation thereafter, and resolve many previously unclear questions.

A significant impact could even directly affect one's entire cultivation path.

In the world of cultivation, the grace of enlightenment is an exceedingly great kindness.

Liu Qingshu's bowing to the white jade was to thank the master who wrote the three characters of Four Treasures Peak.

After expressing his gratitude, Liu Qingshu continued to tremble with excitement. He turned to Xiang Ziyu and asked, "Esteemed Dao Companion, may I inquire, who is the master who wrote these three characters of Four Treasures Peak? I have attained enlightenment through that master's calligraphy.

I hope to personally thank that master after the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth has passed."

Before Xiang Ziyu could respond, Bei Yan, who had stayed at Four Treasures Peak, cried out upon hearing this, "Why wait until after the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth ends?"

Liu Qingshu was taken aback by Bei Yan's question and after a brief pause, he replied, "Such calligraphy, naturally, could only be done by a great master who has entered the path through calligraphy! Such a master's cultivation base must at the very least be at the Earth Immortal Realm, or even the Immortality Regainment Realm, and they must certainly be in deep slumber by now. Hence, I hope to have the opportunity to personally thank that master after the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth concludes.

Why would you ask me such a question, esteemed Dao Companion? Could it be that the master has already..."

Seeing that Liu Qingshu was about to say something untoward, Bei Yan interrupted with an exasperated expression, "I know what you're trying to say. Our Four Treasures Peak does not have that many taboos. But I'm worried that if your Elder Bi Yue hears about it, she might want to give you a good lesson."

Liu Qingshu grew increasingly astonished: "What do you mean?"

"What do I mean? These three characters were written by our master. Were you just about to ask whether the master who wrote these three characters has passed away?" Little Bei Yan was also helpless; how could it be that a disciple of the Dragon Chant Sect had such difficulty understanding? His meaning was so clear, yet still not understood.

This jade stone was brought back by Elder Brother Xiang Ziyu; at first, Elder Brother Xiang Ziyu also wanted to inscribe the three characters of Four Treasures Peak onto it, but he was stopped by the rest of us. Later, when our master returned, he picked up the brush and wrote these three characters.

"What? These three characters were... were written by your master, by Cao Zhen?" Liu Qingshu completely lost his composure; he would never have imagined that someone capable of writing such characters would not be in deep slumber, and moreover, that person was actually Cao Zhen!

The surrounding crowd upon hearing this were stunned as well; these characters were written by Cao Zhen? They might not be disciples who entered the path through calligraphy and couldn't comprehend the exact level of mastery in writing these three characters, but the fact that Liu Qingshu, who had entered the path and achieved Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, was able to experience sudden enlightenment the moment he saw these three characters indicated that the calligraphy skills must be extremely profound.

Among them, one disciple full of bewilderment said: "Cao Zhen? Isn't he known for entering the path through Musical Rhythm? How is it that he is now associated with entering the path through calligraphy?"

"No, he probably did not enter the path through Musical Rhythm; after all, he is proficient in many Divine Skills, and Musical Rhythm is just one of the Divine Skills he is skilled at," said someone.

"Then what about this calligraphy?"

The disciples of the Dragon Chant Sect, including Yu Long, all looked at the disciples of Four Treasures Peak with utter confusion.

Chapter 1303:

Bei Yan shrugged nonchalantly and said, "It's not just musical rhythm and calligraphy that my master excels at; he's also proficient in the Painting Way, skilled in alchemy, adept at talisman making, an expert in military law... In short, whether you know it or not, to use my master's words, he understands a bit of everything."

"A bit?" Liu Qingshu pointed excitedly at the three large characters and exclaimed, "These characters, with their thin and vigorous strokes, are slender without losing their substance; the brushwork is forceful with a natural sense of meaning, the structure is strikingly beautiful, and the style is refreshingly elegant... Before this, I had never seen a calligraphic script like this, setting it apart from all known fonts we are familiar with; it's like establishing an entirely new sect. And these characters, I haven't seen better even after so many years! These words have truly reached the pinnacle of the Dao of Calligraphy. Master Cao... Master Cao says he only understands a little, he's far too modest."

Everyone around knew that Cao Zhen had a profound mastery of calligraphy, but they had never expected Liu Qingshu to give such high praise to Cao Zhen.

Among them, many did feel that these three characters were indeed the most beautiful and perfect they had ever seen, but since they were not adepts of calligraphy, their opinions carried no authority.

But it was quite different with Liu Qingshu saying so!

Previously, their fellow disciple Bi Yue had said that Cao Zhen's performance on the musical instrument was unparalleled, and now, Liu Qingshu also speaks of Cao Zhen's calligraphy as the highest level he has ever seen!

How could one person possibly have so much energy and also reach such high levels of perfection in everything?

They had never really understood why their fellow disciple Bi Yue had such an attitude towards Cao Zhen.

True, Cao Zhen did reach the limit of the Golden Core Stage with his Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills, and one could barely say he was worthy of their sister disciple. But there was Cao Zhen, and there was Li Ke, which was a big problem.

And their fellow disciple, she even took the initiative to pursue Cao Zhen, which was even more problematic.

But now, they truly began to understand their sister disciple.

Even if Cao Zhen's alchemy and talisman making were not exactly as his disciple Bei Yan said, where he understands a bit of everything, Cao Zhen must still be fairly skilled in them, otherwise, his disciple wouldn't have mentioned them together.

Bei Yan couldn't be bothered to explain to everyone that his master's 'bit of everything' was different from what these people understood as 'a little bit'.

Standing aside, Yi Sheng, who seldom ventured out of the Hundred Peaks Sect, pointed to the three large characters on the white jade stone and said, "If you want to thank Master, you can do so when he returns.

Actually, it's not anything special. Ever since Master wrote these three characters, many people come to the foot of Four Treasures Peak every day to observe them.

Although few people have sudden insights, over the years, there have been two disciples who achieved sudden enlightenment by contemplating Master's words."

"No, I must thank Master Cao," Liu Qingshu said as he looked up at the characters on the jade stone again, expressing his admiration, "It's truly a stroke of luck for those disciples within the Hundred Peaks Sect to have the opportunity to contemplate such calligraphy at any time."

Because of Liu Qingshu's enlightenment, the crowd lingered for a while at the foot of Four Treasures Peak before they began to ascend the mountain.

Behind the white jade stone gate of Four Treasures Peak was a series of long stairways.

Yu Long looked at the materials used for the stairs and the inscriptions upon them, feeling the formations around, yet his expression was unfazed.

To them, from Dragon Chant Sect, all of this was nothing special.

Four Treasures Peak once was desolate, but later, with the assortment of materials brought back by Xiang Ziyu and their construction efforts, it now looked somewhat respectable.

However, to Yu Long and the others from Dragon Chant Sect, who even if were not in their own Great Teaching usually visited other Great Teachings, Four Treasures Peak seemed quite lacking in comparison.

In their opinion, the only thing worth some attention was the ten mu or so of Spirit Fields, but even so, it was only worth a glance, after all, these were merely Spirit Fields and not Immortal Fields.

As for that pond, it didn't even have a single Flood Dragon.

In the ponds of Dragon Chant Sect, they raise Dragons!

Of course, now due to the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, those dragons were mostly asleep.

The group followed a man-made river upstream, reaching halfway up the mountain where they finally saw several courtyards and newly-built houses.

The materials of the houses were so-so, and more notably, there were too few of them.

Cao Zhen was the Sect Leader of Hundred Peaks Sect and also the Peak Master of Four Treasures Peak, and with so many masters at Four Treasures Peak, nearly all of the sect's masters came from there. Four Treasures Peak should be a powerful mountain with many disciples.

However, to their surprise, they discovered that their imagination did not match the reality.

On their way up, they hadn't seen any other Four Treasures Peak disciples at all, besides not seeing Four Treasures Peak disciples, they really hadn't seen any other disciples from Four Treasures Peak, not a single one.

Yu Long looked puzzledly towards a few people from Hundred Peaks Sect and asked, "Where are your other disciples?"

"Other disciples?" Yi Sheng shook his head, "We don't have any other disciples."

Chapter 1304:

"No more?" Yu Long was dumbfounded again and asked, "How many disciples does Four Treasures Peak have?"

Yi Sheng replied without any hesitation, "Seven."

"So, including your master, there are a total of eight people on Four Treasures Peak?" Yu Long was left speechless. There are a total of one hundred peaks in the Hundred Peaks Sect, yet the strongest among them only had eight people?

He had seen on his way here that the number of Disciples of Hundred Peaks Sect was definitely over ten thousand. How could it be that the strongest Four Treasures Peak only had so few people?

With fewer people, naturally, there are fewer rooms here.

He looked up, and there were precisely ten houses that the Hundred Peaks Sect used for living.

And they were thirty-one people!

This...

Yu Long regretted in his heart. Had he known, he would have let the Vice Sect Master of Hundred Peaks Sect arrange accommodations for them. Now, they actually had no place to stay.

Although they said that with their cultivation base, it wouldn't matter if they had no place to stay for a few days.

But what about the long term?

Yi Sheng seemed to know what problem they were troubled with and said with a bit of apology: "Since the disciples of Four Treasures Peak very seldom stay on the peak, we rarely have visitors. Therefore, the preparations are insufficient. Please forgive us."

She paused for a moment and then continued, "If you don't mind, we can now construct temporary housing for you."

"There's no need for such trouble; any cave will do. We often slept in caves when we were out on training expeditions, exploring ruins," Yu Long declined directly, shaking his head, as building houses could take an unknown amount of time.

"It's not a bother at all, and it will be done very quickly." Yi Sheng spoke and quickly flew away. However, she returned again after just a short moment.

Yu Long and the others watched with confusion as Yi Sheng, who had left behind the Flying Boat and returned so quickly, wondering what she was up to.

As they were pondering, suddenly, a rumbling sound came, and in their view, automatons appeared one after another.

"Automaton Puppets?"

"So many automatons?"

They were no strangers to automaton puppets, as there were a handful of Immortal Sects in the Eastern Province centered on creating them, but they were few in number. Among these, only one was a Great Teaching.

Mainly because Immortal Sects focused on making puppets and automatons found it extremely difficult to start from scratch and develop step by step.

First of all, training disciples to create automatons consumed too many resources.

Compared with Talisman Making or even Artifact Refining, training disciples required far fewer resources. Even an Alchemist disciple needed less.

The process of making automaton puppets involves too many different aspects, and one single failure in any part means starting over.

Meanwhile, during the initial phases of Alchemy, the herbs used are not so precious, nor the consumption so high.

Moreover, if a novice Pill Master successfully makes pills, they can also be sold, since all Cultivators need pills for their cultivation. Even low-grade pills sell well, and if not, they can just use them themselves.

However, it's different for novice Automaton Puppet Masters.

Aside from taking longer to train, the things they create don't look that great.

For instance, no matter what rank the pill is, at least they are round, but the automatons created by novices, let's not even talk about their appearance.

These automatons can only perform the simplest tasks in place of people. Anything slightly more complex is beyond them, and generally, no one buys such automatons; they're either used in-house or given away.

After all the effort to train a disciple capable of creating Automaton Puppets, it's extremely hard to sell them.

Every Cultivator needs Talismans, Pills, and Divine Weapons or Treasures.

But Automaton Puppets?

What use are those things?

Sects with too many disciples don't need so many Automaton Puppets.

It's mostly Sects with fewer disciples that might want some Automaton Puppets.

In summary, if a Sect is mainly focused on Alchemy, Artifact Refining, or Formations, it can gradually grow and expand without much difficulty. However, for a Sect focused on creating puppets and automatons to grow, and even become a Great Teaching, is incredibly tough. In the entire Eastern Province, there is only the Puppet Sect that is a Great Teaching.

Of course, the Puppet Sect can't be considered poor either, since it has many master craftsmen. The automatons they create are of superior quality and are often intended for those above the Earth Immortal Realm; thus, they can still be exchanged for treasures.

However, the Puppet Sect is certainly not rich, especially compared to those great teachings centered on Alchemy or Artifact Refining; it falls short by a great deal.

All in all, creating Automaton Puppets isn't considered a mainstream craft.

Now, here at Four Treasures Peak, he saw heaps and heaps of Automaton Puppets, and moreover, these automatons were extremely well-crafted.

Could it be that Four Treasures Peak intended to employ these Automaton Puppets to...

In Yu Long's eyes full of amazement, these Automaton Puppets started to construct foundations and build houses, and they were doing it quite substantially.

"This..." Yu Long pointed at these Automaton Puppets and said in astonishment, "Does the Eastern Wasteland have a Sect that excels in making Automaton Puppets?"

Yi Sheng nodded slightly and said, "In the Eastern Wasteland, naturally, we have Sects that excel in making automatons. However, these automatons were not made by other Sects; they were all crafted by our master."

Chapter 1305:

"Your master? Him again?"

The disciples of the Dragon Chant Sect heard Cao Zhen's name once again and were almost becoming numb to it. So Cao Zhen was also skilled at crafting mechanical beings?

Moreover, judging by the excellence of these mechanical beings, his level in their creation was evidently very high.

Just what could that Cao Zhen do?

In just two days' time, the mechanical beings of Four Treasures Peak had constructed thirty houses, into which the disciples of the Dragon Chant Sect moved.

Three days after the disciples of the Dragon Chant Sect settled in, Cao Zhen and Immortal Bi Yue returned to the Hundred Peaks Sect.

At the same time, Cao Zhen brought the Immortal Fields from the Five Sounds Sect and planted them on Four Treasures Peak, then began to cultivate them attentively.

Yu Long and the others from the Dragon Chant Sect, watching the Immortal Fields become more and more fertile day by day, were thoroughly stunned.

Over twenty days later, Ling Xi, Yan Yourong, and others came back to the Hundred Peaks Sect to support the Bright Heart Sect.

Simultaneously, Cao Zhen ordered all the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect to return to the sect.

The Hundred Peaks Sect held a memorial service for their fellow sect disciples who had died in the attack by the three major sects of the Great Lai Dynasty.

After the service, the next day, Cao Zhen led the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect to strike back, annihilating those from the Demon Sects of the Eastern Province that had invaded their Eastern Wasteland.

Although his Prosperous Age Picture Record only depicted the Hundred Peaks Sect and not the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, the Hundred Peaks Sect was a part of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty after all, and chaos within the dynasty had likewise influenced his prosperous times.

Besides, he had once lived in the mortal world of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty for fifty years, and so he was already filled with sentiment for the dynasty.

Even if not for his prosperous times, even if it wasn't for the promise once made to the Grand Preceptor to take good care of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, he would still intervene.

With more than thirty masters of Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection led by Yu Long guarding the Hundred Peaks Sect, Cao Zhen could send practically all of the sect's experts out to ravage the invading Demon Sects across the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

Although the Hundred Peaks Sect was but one sect, with the addition of Immortal Bi Yue and Jiu Yin, they possess five beings at the limit of the Golden Core Stage. Not a single Demon Sect that encountered them escaped defeat.

Gradually, the Demon Sects that had entered the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, even those in the Eastern Wasteland, realized that invading the Eastern Wasteland was unwise and began to withdraw.

After all, their original intent was merely to plunder resources from the Eastern Wasteland, not to fight to the death.

Now that they had discovered the Immortal Sects of the Eastern Wasteland were stronger than expected, especially with experts like Cao Zhen ravaging their ranks, staying in the Eastern Wasteland seemed to be a losing proposition.

And as these people returned to the Eastern Province, more and more information about Cao Zhen and the Hundred Peaks Sect began to spread there.

"What? You're saying that Cao Zhen is from the Eastern Wasteland? The Hundred Peaks Sect is an Immortal Sect of the Eastern Wasteland? Impossible! Didn't Cao Zhen reach the Golden Core Stage Limit with only nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills?"

And his disciple, Xiang Zi Yu, also reached the limit of the Golden Core Stage with nine Golden Pills. How could such figures come out of the Eastern Wasteland?"

"What? Immortal Bi Yue is also in the Eastern Wasteland? And the thirty masters of Ten Different Phenomena Golden Elixir Great Perfection from the Dragon Chant Sect, all in the Eastern Wasteland, all in the Hundred Peaks Sect?"

"It's quite unexpected, so many experts, all hailing from the Eastern Wasteland!"

"I wonder how Cao Zhen and his group managed against those who entered our Eastern Province, before they bridged Eastern Province with the Eastern Wasteland!"

"Right, have you heard? That Cao Zhen is highly adept at tomb raiding!"

"I've also heard about this. There were people who saw Cao Zhen unearthing Old Man Wu Shuang's live burial site! Later on, people who visited that empty burial could confirm that it was indeed Old Man Wu Shuang's live burial location!"

"Not just Old Man Wu Shuang, people also saw Cao Zhen in the Eastern Wasteland unearthing dozens of live burial sites!"

"So this Cao Zhen is a bit terrifying. Not only is he at the Golden Core Period Limit, but he also specializes in digging up others' live burials!"

"However, none of this has anything to do with us. So many Demon Sects went to attack the Eastern Wasteland, and Cao Zhen wouldn't remember all the Demon Sects. If he managed to make everyone leave the Eastern Wasteland, on one hand it's because their strength was indeed formidable, and on the other hand it was also because of Immortal Bi Yue. We left the Eastern Wasteland just because we felt that staying there was pointless, not because we were afraid of him. Even though he's strong, Cao Zhen's backing is an Immortal Sect from the Eastern Wasteland, which is not enough for us to be concerned about."

Cao Zhen and Xiang Zi Yu both reached the Golden Core Period Limit with nine abnormal phenomena and, even in the Eastern Province, they were highly scrutinized, with even some Great Teachings paying close attention to them.

And news about them, about the Hundred Peaks Sect, spread not just among the sects of the Eastern Province, but also among the established Great Teachings.

Heaven Prayers Sect!

Their history was not short-lived, yet they had experienced a catastrophe previously that caused them significant losses, and they were not confident that they could survive the next Sect Tribulation.

It was precisely because of that catastrophe that they sent a branch to invade the Eastern Wasteland, attempting to take it over completely.

But those they dispatched to the Eastern Wasteland had failed!

Chapter 1306:

For a great teaching, having a branch hall annihilated is an extremely face-losing event.

If it was another great teaching that destroyed their branch hall, especially one much stronger than them, they might settle with a few verbal rebukes and leave it at that.

After all, they are not the rivals of such a force, but if the one who destroyed their branch hall was a minor sect, especially one from some remote region, or it was the work of some other small power.

They would surely seek to completely obliterate that opponent, even if they find themselves in an extremely difficult situation, they still must act.

If they do not obliterate the other party, other forces will only further look down upon them, considering them weak, and their situation will become even more difficult.

The branch hall of Heaven Prayers Sect that was destroyed had even established a dynasty, but in the end, it was annihilated by the various Immortal Sects of the Eastern Wasteland.

Leveraging the opportunity that arises once every ten thousand years to re-enter the Eastern Wasteland and attempt to restore the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, they were again exterminated by the Hundred Peaks Sect!

In the Conference Hall of Heaven Prayers Sect, the upper echelons of the Sect gathered in full, and in the center of the hall, two men spoke in low voices about everything they knew.

"This is the situation: the Grand Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Dynasty has already fallen into slumber, and we have full capability to obliterate the Guardian Immortal Dynasty and achieve the great endeavor of restoration! But it is because of that Hundred Peaks Sect, especially because of Cao Zhen, that our plans have repeatedly failed.

Furthermore, several Princes have mysteriously vanished, succumbing to death one after another, and surely this must also be Cao Zhen's doing. At that time, in the entire Guardian Immortal Dynasty, even across the whole Eastern Dynasty, only Cao Zhen possessed the capability to slay several Princes.

It can be said that our failure is entirely due to this man, Cao Zhen!"

They did not originate from the Eastern Province, but from the Eastern Wasteland.

Although the remnants of the Qi Tian Dynasty were almost completely uprooted, there were still some who survived due to being active elsewhere, among other reasons.

These two individuals were survivors from that time. After the Eastern Province and the Eastern Wasteland became connected, they immediately left the Eastern Wasteland for the Eastern Province, found the Heaven Prayers Sect, entered its ranks, and reported everything they knew to the Sect Hierarch and the senior members of Heaven Prayers Sect.

They sought revenge!

If it wasn't for Cao Zhen back then, if it wasn't for the Hundred Peaks Sect, they would have already re-established a new Qi Tian Dynasty, and both of them would have been credited with great contributions.

But it was because of Cao Zhen, because of the Hundred Peaks Sect that they failed. Not to mention making great contributions, for years, the two of them have been hiding like dogs who lost their homes, in remote places, fearing being discovered.

But now, things are different.

The Eastern Province is now connected to the Eastern Wasteland, and with the backing of Heaven Prayers Sect, they can now directly enter the Eastern Wasteland.

Cao Zhen may be strong, but he is just one individual; the Hundred Peaks Sect, no matter its strength, is but a minor sect of the Eastern Wasteland. But behind them, Heaven Prayers Sect is a great teaching!

For a great teaching to obliterate the Hundred Peaks Sect, isn't that easy!

At the main seat, the temporary Sect Hierarchy of Heaven Prayers Sect, Swallowing Heaven Demon, looked at the disciples from the two branch halls filled with rage, seemingly eager to immediately follow them and obliterate the Hundred Peaks Sect, and gently shook his head.

If it were before, even a month ago, he would have directly sent people to exterminate the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Why did Heaven Prayers Sect establish branch halls in the Eastern Wasteland and even deploy a large number of experts to support the building of dynasties?

It is because, Heaven Prayers Sect had suffered a major catastrophe in the past, and after the catastrophe, the Sect's vitality was greatly diminished. At that time, Heaven Prayers Sect was even weaker than many great teachings that were established later.

And the competition in the Eastern Province was indeed too fierce.

Their desire to acquire more resources in the Eastern Province and implement their plans was exceedingly difficult.

Thus, they thought of dispatching people into the Eastern Wasteland.

Even though at that time the Eastern Wasteland was not yet connected to the Eastern Province, there were still passageways between them, and every ten thousand years, those passageways would open.

After every ten thousand years, they would send a large number of experts into the Eastern Wasteland. Their goal was to unify the entire Eastern Wasteland and then use the resources of the entire Eastern Wasteland to replenish Heaven Prayers Sect.

Moreover, after becoming the temporary Sect Hierarch, he also learned something: their true Sect Hierarch needed a large number of Earth Immortal Realm experts. Specifically, for what the Sect Hierarch needed these experts, he didn't know; he only knew that the Sect Hierarch required those people to perform a rite akin to a sacrifice.

However, later on, as the Heaven Prayers Sect's branch halls in the Eastern Wasteland dynasties were overthrown, the ritual had to be temporarily halted.

It was also because of that sacrificial ritual that the Sect Hierarch dispatched even more experts to enter the Eastern Wasteland with the intention of restoration.

But it was all ruined by Cao Zhen, by the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Under normal circumstances, he indeed should send people to the Eastern Wasteland and wipe out the Hundred Peaks Sect.

But recently, news came that two individuals in the Eastern Wasteland who had taken Golden Pills of the Nine Abnormal Phenomemon and reached the Golden Core Period Limit, Cao Zhen and Xiang Ziyu, astonishingly both belonged to the Hundred Peaks Sect.

The disciples from those two branch halls spoke of the same Cao Zhen they knew!

Aside from these two, the Hundred Peaks Sect also has a Talisman user who is likewise at the Golden Core Stage Limit.

To have three Golden Core Stage Limits within one sect, while Heaven Prayers Sect is a great teaching, it does not even have a single Golden Core Stage Limit. The strongest in the great teaching are him, his junior brother, and junior sister; all three are close to the Golden Core Stage Limit. But no matter how they cultivate, utilizing all methods, they simply cannot advance any further and reach the Golden Core Stage Limit.

Chapter 1307:

The presence of three individuals at the limit of the Golden Core Stage is indeed a cause for concern.

After all, to obliterate a Sect with three such experts requires a significant cost. Of course, he has no doubt they can destroy the opponent's Sect. Even if they are gravely weakened, his Heaven Prayers Sect is still a Great Teaching; it's just a matter of how steep the price is.

However, while they can destroy the opponent's Sect, they are unable to kill the three at the limit of the Golden Core Stage.

If there was only one at the limit of the Golden Core Stage, they might have a chance to intercept and kill that person.

But with three at the limit of the Golden Core Stage, unless these three stoutly defend their Sect, if they all intend to escape together, then it's simply impossible to stop them.

By then, if their Sect is exterminated by his Heaven Prayers Sect and they are single-minded in seeking revenge against the Heaven Prayers Sect, that would be a serious problem.

After all, their Disciples also need to go out, to vie for various sacred relics, and to contest various resources.

With three individuals at the limit of the Golden Core Stage lurking in the shadows, how can their Disciples venture out in peace?

Even he and his junior brothers and sisters would be at risk of their lives when encountering the three, unless they were accompanied by a large number of Disciples.

Besides, he has received information that Jiu Yin from the Yin Yang Sect and Immortal Bi Yue of the Dragon Chant Sect are currently within the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Jiu Yin is a lesser concern, but Immortal Bi Yue is different; her status is such that in the entire Eastern Province, very few dare to provoke her.

To exterminate the Hundred Peaks Sect would inevitably lead to a conflict with Immortal Bi Yue, which means a conflict with the Dragon Chant Sect as well.

Even at their peak, the Heaven Prayers Sect was far from comparable to the Dragon Chant Sect, not to mention the current state of the Heaven Prayers Sect.

Moreover, it won't be long before the Heaven Prayers Sect faces its Sect Tribulation.

He does not wish to add more troubles at this time.

Although the news of their branch's destruction will inevitably spread soon—after all, their branch had once established a Dynasty.

When everybody learns that their branch has been destroyed and they did not retaliate, the reputation of the Heaven Prayers Sect will be completely lost.

But that also depends on the circumstances.

With the Sect Tribulation imminent, everything must be prepared for it, and even the greatest enmities must be set aside until after the tribulation!

After pondering for a moment, Swallowing Heaven Demon slowly began to speak: "You two have just come from the Eastern Wasteland, from our branch, to the Eastern Province. There are many things you do not yet understand.

The Hundred Peaks Sect is much stronger than you described. Although our Heaven Prayers Sect can eliminate the Hundred Peaks Sect, we will also suffer significant losses.

As it is, we are about to undergo our Sect Tribulation. Everything should be focused on the tribulation, and all hatreds should be postponed until after it has passed. Now, you may leave."

As he spoke, Swallowing Heaven Demon waved his hand, signaling his subordinates to escort the two out. If the strength of the Hundred Peaks Sect were weak, he would dispatch a part of his Disciples to easily eliminate it without hesitation. But given the opponent's strong power and the impending Sect Tribulation, he is not prepared to act against the Hundred Peaks Sect right now.

Surrounding him, the high-ranking members of the Heaven Prayers Sect are also aware of the situation regarding the Hundred Peaks Sect and Cao Zhen, and they waited until the two had left before someone whispered lowly: "Sect Hierarchy, I understand why we're not dealing with the Hundred Peaks Sect now. But if we show no response at all, what about our face..."

Before his voice had fully faded, immediately someone opposed: "Face? With the Sect Tribulation approaching, what other matters should we concern ourselves with? You're well aware of how many existences at the limit of the Golden Core Stage the opponent has.

We will undergo our Sect Tribulation during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, and the Heavenly Dao will certainly bestow relics.

If we truly exterminate the Hundred Peaks Sect, and those few at the Golden Core Stage limit escape and then target us for revenge, entering the relics not to seize them but merely to retaliate against us and attack our people, that would be a huge problem."

"Elder Zhao is right, but Elder Zhao, have you considered another issue? Our branch originally had enmity with the Hundred Peaks Sect. Even if we don't destroy their Sect, won't they seek revenge on us?"

"Of course, there's a possibility, but perhaps the other party won't take such extreme revenge."

"So, according to you, we do nothing? Are we, the Heaven Prayers Sect, a great teaching, going to be intimidated by a minor Sect from a remote region beyond our territory?"

With that remark, the surrounding crowd fell into silence.

It's hard to hear, but it's the truth.

Who would have thought that the Heaven Prayers Sect is now too weak, and that they are about to undergo a Sect Tribulation?

In the quiet, suddenly a voice arose.

"Actually, it's not that we can't do anything." Among the crowd, a handsome man spoke up: "I've received information that the Void Breaking Sect, a branch of the Void Breaking Sect in the Eastern Wasteland, was directly exterminated by the Hundred Peaks Sect. The entire branch, every single person, was annihilated, and later, some fresh graves were found, upon investigation, bearing the marks of the Void Breaking Sect.

Cao Zhen did more than merely destroy their Sect; he also exhumed all of the tombs of their slumbering experts, utterly wiping them out. With such relentless persecution, do you think the Void Breaking Sect will have no response?"

Upon hearing this, the surrounding crowd immediately shook their heads.

"Impossible, if the Void Breaking Sect shows no response, they would suffer an immense loss of face!"

Chapter 1308:

"Our sub-branch was obliterated, all graves dug up; the Void Breaking Sect will inevitably seek revenge!"

"The Void Breaking Sect and us... anyway, they will definitely take action."

Among the crowd, someone almost mentioned how the Void Breaking Sect differed from their Heaven Prayers Sect, but his words stopped at his lips. Nonetheless, everyone knew what he meant.

The Heaven Prayers Sect has been on a decline, whereas the Void Breaking Sect, although also one of the newer Great Teachings, has not suffered any losses.

Nor have they faced a crisis of Sect Tribulation during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth.

"It's just uncertain how the Void Breaking Sect will respond, especially since Immortal Bi Yue is still with them. Moreover, just like our sect, they do not have anyone at the Golden Core Period Limit."

"But no matter what, the Void Breaking Sect won't just stand by idly; they will definitely send people to the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"We can observe the Void Breaking Sect's situation. If the Void Breaking Sect engages in battle with the Hundred Peaks Sect, we can also send... "

"No, a battle between the Void Breaking Sect and the Hundred Peaks Sect would be ideal. That way, all of Hundred Peaks Sect's attention will be on the Void Breaking Sect."

At the head of the assembly, Swallowing Heaven Demon nodded slightly and said, "Correct; having the Void Breaking Sect attract enmity before us couldn't be better. Our concern now should not be the Hundred Peaks Sect, but our Sect Tribulation.

We must invite enough masters to aid us in overcoming the Sect Tribulation; preferably, we should invite ten individuals at the Golden Core Period Limit to help us through the tribulation."

As Swallowing Heaven Demon spoke, he turned his gaze towards the two rows of upper echelons below, and asked the female cultivator in a fiery red robe sitting at the first place on his left: "Sister Huan Tian, how many of the masters you've invited have agreed?"

Upon hearing this, a look of deep resentment flashed across Huan Tian's face as she coldly said, "Of the three people I invited, they said they could agree to aid our Heaven Prayers Sect in overcoming the Sect Tribulation, but their demands are simply too outrageous!

They even said that after our Heaven Prayers Sect passes the tribulation, aside from the Divine Thoughts, they want to have the first pick of the treasures."

"First pick!"

"This is too much!"

"It's the rule in the Eastern Province that after assisting with a Sect Tribulation, it's indeed permissible to divide the treasures bestowed by the Heavenly Dao, but that's after the Sect experiencing the tribulation has picked ten or twenty items.

Especially now, during the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, even if they are strong, they can only exert the power of the Golden Core Period Limit. Normally, after we have chosen twenty treasures, then it's their turn to pick."

"To let them have first pick would mean they would take away all the finest treasures. We must not agree to this!"

The crowd shouted in anger as Swallowing Heaven Demon's voice rose once again.

"There's more; they said that the strength of our Heaven Prayers Sect is too weak, and helping us through the tribulation is extremely risky. Moreover, there's no guarantee of success in overcoming the tribulation, and we might not receive the rewards from the Heavenly Dao. We could even get injured.

Therefore, they are demanding that before they help us with the tribulation, we should agree to give each of them a Treasure."

"What!"

"Give each of them a Treasure!"

"They're dreaming!"

"We can never agree to that!"

"If we overcome the tribulation, wouldn't each of them end up with two Treasures?"

"The Five Sounds Sect just recently passed their Sect Tribulation; those who assisted only received one Heavenly Dao descended treasure. The Five Sounds Sect has been a Great Teaching for a much shorter time than our Heaven Prayers Sect."

"If we're also undergoing our Sect Tribulation during the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, we can only offer them the same benefits as the Five Sounds Sect."

"We cannot agree to their terms!"

Listening to the crowd, Swallowing Heaven Demon internally sighed helplessly. The other party was indeed taking advantage of the current weakness of their Heaven Prayers Sect, banking on the fact that they lacked a Golden Core Period Limit, hence their excessive demands.

The Heaven Prayers Sect has existed longer than the Five Sounds Sect, but their current strength might not necessarily be stronger. However, the tribulation the Heaven Prayers Sect faces is far more dangerous than that of the Five Sounds Sect!

The tribulation the Heaven Prayers Sect is to face is the one after becoming a Great Teaching for four hundred thousand years!

Of course, the terms proposed by the other party were too excessive, something the Heaven Prayers Sect could not possibly agree to.

"If the conditions they're proposing are so outrageous, then let's seek others who might agree to our terms, even if slightly more than what the Five Sounds Sect had originally offered," he said, sighing in his heart again.

Many had witnessed the Five Sounds Sect's tribulation, and news of it had spread.

Even the people of the Five Sounds Sect said that it was thanks to Cao Zhen and Xiang Ziyu that they managed to overcome the tribulation; some even claimed that each of the two was equivalent to two masters at the Golden Core Period Limit!

If possible, he would also like to invite Cao Zhen and Xiang Ziyu to help the Heaven Prayers Sect's tribulation, but he knew that was impossible.

After all, their Heaven Prayers Sect held enmity against the Hundred Peaks Sect, and even if those two genuinely agreed to assist, he would dare not accept their help.

Who knows if during the tribulation, they might suddenly strike at the members of the Heaven Prayers Sect.

After becoming the interim Sect Hierarchy of the Heaven Prayers Sect, he realized just how difficult and exhausting it was to lead a sect.

Just like now, if all the invitees demand such excessive terms, should the Heaven Prayers Sect agree or not?

Chapter 1309:

Without agreement, without someone at the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection to help them overcome their Sect Tribulation, the Heaven Prayers Sect truly fears they cannot survive it. By then, the entire Heaven Prayers Sect will cease to exist.

But if they agree, the price they pay is too great.

"Being a Sect Hierarch is truly difficult!"

At the Void Breaking Sect, Bu Chengping, the interim Sect Hierarch, looked down at the crowd below with tightly furrowed brows. He had never imagined that one day he would be stumped by a sect from beyond their region.

He knew that many remote areas beyond their realm were connected to their Eastern Province, a matter he had hardly paid any attention to. He did not think that the connected regions would have any impact on them after all.

After all, they are a Great Teaching!

Only those sects struggling to survive in the Eastern Province paid attention to those areas, seeking to plunder resources there.

However, he did not expect that shortly after the Eastern Wasteland connected to their Eastern Provinces, he would receive a sect message.

There was a sect called the Void Breaking Sect claiming to be a branch of their Void Breaking Sect, and now that Void Breaking Sect in the Eastern Wasteland are struggling to survive, intending to seek refuge with the main Void Breaking Sect.

He had also flipped through the annals of the Void Breaking Sect to learn that indeed they had a branch in the Eastern Wasteland, which was a matter of many years ago.

In the past, a forebear in their Void Breaking Sect had a falling out with the Hierarch and most of the Sect's elders over ideological differences, so he took his followers to the Eastern Wasteland and founded the Void Breaking Sect.

No matter how much that forebear's ideas diverged from the mainstream ideology of the Void Breaking Sect, he was neither expelled nor condemned by the Void Breaking Sect. He merely established a branch while still being one of their own, their inheritances being that of the Void Breaking Sect.

Therefore, that branch was still acknowledged by them. Since the other party wanted to return, they should let them return.

However, they had waited for a long time, yet the members from the Eastern Wasteland branch had not come back. Later, they received the news that the Void Breaking Sect in the Eastern Wasteland had been annihilated by the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Though that Hundred Peaks Sect was just a sect in the Eastern Wasteland, the two individuals who had caused a great disturbance in the Eastern Province, Cao Zhen and Xiang Ziyu, turned out to be from the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Adding to his headache, the news that came back stated that among those who exterminated the Void Breaking Sect were the Yin Yang Sect's Jiu Yin and the Dragon Chant Sect's Immortal Bi Yue.

"Sect Hierarchy, actually, the destruction of the Void Breaking Sect is primarily due to the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"Right, we don't need to bother with Jiu Yin and Immortal Bi Yue."

"We just need to target the Hundred Peaks Sect."

One after another, the upper echelons of the Void Breaking Sect voiced their opinions, which was to act as if they were oblivious to Jiu Yin and Immortal Bi Yue's involvement, and to directly seek retaliation against the Hundred Peaks Sect.

After all, the Yin Yang Realm where Jiu Yin resided and the Dragon Chant Sect where Immortal Bi Yue was, they were both top-tier Great Teachings of the Eastern Wasteland, and just one Great Teaching was far beyond what the Void Breaking Sect could compare to, let alone two Great Teachings.

Unless the Void Breaking Sect wished for their own destruction, they would not dare to provoke these two Great Teachings at the same time.

"However, how are we to deal with the Hundred Peaks Sect?"

"To deal with the Hundred Peaks Sect, we must first figure out a way to take care of their three Golden Core Period Limits."

"If we want to annihilate the Hundred Peaks Sect, and those three flee afterwards, targeting our Void Breaking Sect, that would be a major trouble."

"Also, the Dragon Chant Sect, there are more than thirty Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfections protecting the mountain gate for the Hundred Peaks Sect. If we attack the Hundred Peaks Sect, it is inevitable we will clash with them."

The people below, as they continued discussing, began to feel the headache themselves.

Bu Chengping stretched out a hand, massaging his temples. Such is the threat of the Golden Core Period Limit during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth. If your Great Teaching lacks someone at the Golden Core Period Limit, then when you go to attack others, you must consider well whether you can capture them. If you can't and they escape to retaliate, can you withstand it?

Of course, in the whole Eastern Province, only one sect possesses the existence of a Golden Core Period Limit, so generally, this problem is rarely encountered.

But who could have thought that the Hundred Peaks Sect, a sect from the Eastern Wasteland, would possess three at the Golden Core Period Limit.

If the other party had only one Golden Core Period Limit, they could rely on their experts approaching the Golden Core Period Limit and their top Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfections to join forces in capturing the enemy.

However, with three Golden Core Period Limits, it is absolutely impossible for them to capture all of them.

If possible, the Void Breaking Sect would not want to conflict with the opposition, but now that everyone knows their branch was annihilated by the Hundred Peaks Sect, they can't just do nothing, can they?

"Sect Hierarchy." Someone below pondered for a moment and offered a suggestion: "Perhaps, we could send a few experts to the Hundred Peaks Sect to demand an explanation, to see what they have to say?"

Bu Chengping frowned and counter-asked: "Demand an explanation? If the opposition says they have no explanation for us, what then? What do we do?"

The person who just made the suggestion was left speechless when asked.

"Let's drop this matter for now." Bu Chengping thought for a moment and then addressed the crowd: "The reason they are so rampant is because we are in the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, and they have three of the most premier combatants.

But what about after the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth ends? At that time, when the Earth Immortal Realms successively awaken, once the Immortality Regainment Realms revive, what would a Golden Core Period Limit amount to?"

Chapter 1310:

There's also Immortal Bi Yue, who because it is now the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, all the experts and seniors of the Dragon Chant Sect are in slumber, so no one is watching over Immortal Bi Yue. She can act according to her whims, doing whatever she desires.

However, once the Reversal Mini Epoch Period is over, when the Elders of the Dragon Chant Sect awake, they will no longer indulge Immortal Bi Yue in such nonsense. They certainly won't allow Immortal Bi Yue to have disciples of the Dragon Chant Sect protect other Sects — such preposterous matters.

By then, with no protection from the Dragon Chant Sect for the Hundred Peaks Sect, and once our Earth Immortal Realm experts have all awakened, we will naturally be able to manipulate Hundred Peaks Sect as we please!

All we need to do is wait a little over forty more years, and forty years is not a long time."

Upon hearing this, everyone nodded in agreement; this was indeed the best plan.

The news of the branches of the Void Breaking Sect and the Heaven Prayers Sect being annihilated by the Hundred Peaks Sect had already spread throughout the Eastern Province. All the major Sects in the Eastern Province were waiting for these two Great Teachings to react.

But they waited and waited, yet they saw no action from those two Great Teachings.

The Void Breaking Sect remained quiet, while the Heaven Prayers Sect was inviting powerful experts everywhere to help them pass the Sect Tribulation.

"Are these Great Teachings? Their branches were wiped out by a Sect, and they expressed no reaction?"

"Could these two Great Teachings actually be afraid of a Sect from the Eastern Wasteland?"

"The Heaven Prayers Sect needs to pass the Sect Tribulation, they have no time to deal with Hundred Peaks Sect's matters, but what about the Void Breaking Sect?"

"They wouldn't just do nothing, would they?"

"How could they do nothing? They must surely be waiting. We've been to the Eastern Wasteland, and although we haven't seized any resources there, we've learned a lot of news.

That Hundred Peaks Sect rose only after Cao Zhen ascended. Before Cao Zhen, Hundred Peaks Sect was just one of the ten Immortal Sects within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty of the Eastern Wasteland.

Their strength is due to Cao Zhen and his Four Treasures Peak.

From this, it seems that there might not be any experts among their Earth Immortal Realm, and naturally, they couldn't compare to the Void Breaking Sect. When the time comes, the Void Breaking Sect can do as it pleases with the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"It should be so."

Seeing no action from the Void Breaking Sect, everyone speculated about the Sect's intentions.

Cao Zhen and Hundred Peaks Sect soon learned of the news that the Heaven Prayers Sect needed to undergo the Sect Tribulation.

The high-ranking members of the Hundred Peaks Sect and the experts within the Sect gathered to discuss amongst themselves.

Nie Jie frowned and said, "As everyone knows, the Qi Tian Dynasty was founded by a branch dispatched by the Heaven Prayers Sect. Now that the Heaven Prayers Sect must undergo the Sect Tribulation, they will inevitably take action against us once they have finished."

Bei Yan heard this and immediately interjected, "Alright, Deputy Sect Master Nie, if you want us to cause trouble during their Sect Tribulation, just say it outright, no need to beat around the bush."

Nie Jie, long accustomed to Bei Yan's brash way of speaking, paid it no mind and instead nodded with a smile, "Indeed I have this idea, but as for how to disturb them, I am unsure."

"This is something my master is good at..." Bei Yan immediately looked towards his mentor and said, "Master, you guys went to assist the Five Sounds Sect in their tribulation before, right? Then you must surely know how to disrupt them."

If only we could go help them pass their tribulation, then we could launch an internal attack against them."

"What good thoughts are you having! Unless they are out of their minds, they would invite us to help them pass the tribulation." Cao Zhen shook his head, "However, we indeed cannot let them pass the tribulation so easily. But the idea of entering the Heaven Prayers Sect to assist them in their tribulation, don't even think about it."

The only time we can cause trouble is during the relic heist. They are undergoing tribulation during the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, and surely relics will open. When that time comes, we'll just enter directly and snatch the treasures within the relics."

When the Five Sounds Sect underwent their tribulation, those Melody Pagodas played a significant role. Therefore, if we could take away a large portion of the treasures that the Heavenly Dao intended for the Heaven Prayers Sect's Sect Tribulation, it would certainly affect their ability to pass the tribulation."

As Cao Zhen spoke, he turned to Immortal Bi Yue and Jiu Yin and asked, "Do you know when the Heaven Prayers Sect will undergo their Sect Tribulation?"

Jiu Yin pondered for a moment and replied, "There are still over five months. However, I cannot give an accurate time for when the relic will appear."

"That's enough time. If they're to undergo the Sect Tribulation in five months, the relic surely won't appear just yet."

Cao Zhen looked at everyone and thought for a moment before saying, "Although the people from the major Demon Sects have already left our Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, and even the Eastern Wasteland, we still have to be cautious."

We need to leave behind a Golden Core Period Limit. Additionally, the number of people going to the relics this time should not be too large. The relics in the Eastern Wasteland are extremely dangerous, as Ling Xi and others have seen before. Even those at the Golden Core Period Limit might die inside the relics."

As soon as he finished speaking, Little Bei Yan commented softly from the side, "Master... those two at the Golden Core Period Limit who died inside the relic were killed by you, weren't they? Without you, there wouldn't have been any Golden Core Period Limit deaths."

"Hmm, you have a point," Cao Zhen looked at Little Bei Yan and nodded seriously, "Perhaps you should come with us then?"

Startled, Little Bei Yan hastily shook his head, "No, no. Master, I think as a Wind Fire Tribulation, it's better for me to stay and defend the Sect."
