

My Master 1501

Chapter 1501:

They don't want to fail either.

However, if they fail three times, the You Sha Society will cease further attempts, and within a millennium, they won't accept any more contracts to assassinate this person.

As for the money spent by the one who placed the contract?

Once the money reaches the You Sha Society, there's no talk of refunds.

In fact, after the first failed attempt, the You Sha Society will assess the reasons for failure, and if they feel the target's strength far exceeds estimated, they might even increase the price.

If you don't continue to pay, then sorry, we will no longer pursue the assassination.

Initially, the slogan of the You Sha Society was that once a contract was accepted, it must be completed, and after one failure, they would pursue non-stop.

Later, they pursued a prodigy of the Yin Yang Sect, and after three consecutive failures, that prodigy also became wise and hid within the Yin Yang Sect.

Then when that prodigy went out again, he even set a trap along with others, counter-killing members of the You Sha Society, inflicting great losses on them.

Later on, that prodigy of the Yin Yang Sect experienced a tremendous fortunate encounter, reached the state where Yin and Yang merge, and further advanced, now becoming the Supreme Elder of the Yin Yang Sect!

There are probably not many in the entire Eastern Province who can rival him, let alone his identity as a Supreme Elder of the Yin Yang Sect. Continuing to assassinate him would provoke the entire Yin Yang Sect to fight desperately against the You Sha Society.

It was because of this event that the You Sha Society wanted to change their rules, and in general, they no longer accepted tasks to assassinate geniuses of the Great Teachings.

But the You Sha Society completely changed their rules because of another incident.

Subsequently, they pursued a loose cultivator. This loose cultivator wasn't particularly strong and didn't have any powerful backers, but he possessed an extremely special mask treasure. When worn, it could completely conceal his aura, change his appearance, and even alter the appearance of the Immortal Mountain. If he didn't use spells, it was impossible to identify his identity.

After the You Sha Society attempted to assassinate him twice, he realized they were after him and simply wore the mask and stayed hidden.

No matter how strong the You Sha Society is, they still have to find their target to act, and how can they kill someone they can't find?

That task remained uncompleted for a long time.

Since then, the You Sha Society finally changed their rules, deciding to pursue a target only three times and cease any tasks against them for a millennium after three failures.

"So, I've been pursued once; there are still two more attempts," Cao Zhen felt somewhat displeased, feeling uneasy knowing someone is constantly plotting against him.

In this way, he still couldn't expose all his cards.

This time, the six assassins from the You Sha Society seemed to be taken out quite easily. However, the premise was that they were discovered, and the You Sha Society's people seemed to wait for the Void Breaking Sect's move before acting. Only the Void Breaking Sect's departure for unknown reasons disrupted their plan.

If Wan Ren Di hadn't found them, and the Void Breaking Sect hadn't left, these people could have possibly succeeded by launching a sudden attack during their confrontation with the Void Breaking Sect.

After all, these were six Earth Immortal Realm individuals.

Therefore, he had to keep some cards hidden.

After today's battle, the card he still kept hidden was the Prosperous Age Picture Record!

The Prosperous Age Picture Record is an offensive treasure, not a defensive one.

After refining treasures for the disciples and modifying the Hundred Peaks Sect's formation, he also had to refine a defensive treasure.

Currently, he had no other choice; unable to find the You Sha Society, he had to strengthen his own defenses first.

The You Sha Society has established branch locations in many places to accept tasks or allow individuals to apply to join, but there is no branch in the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

Previously, during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, the You Sha Society also entered the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty and tried to establish a branch, but they were refused by Cao Zhen.

In fact, it's not only the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty; many areas controlled by the Great Teachings are discontent with the You Sha Society and prohibit them from entering, such as regions controlled by the Yin Yang Demonic Sect, where there is no branch of the You Sha Society either.

But these are mere branches; no one knows where the main headquarters of the You Sha Society is.

If one day the headquarters of the You Sha Society is exposed, they will be close to destruction.

Over the years, the You Sha Society has killed countless people, offending numerous factions.

The Void Breaking Sect's people have already left, and Cao Zhen's group can't guard the mountain gate indefinitely. After dealing with the corpses of the six dead assassins, they only left a few from the Earth Immortal Realm to guard, while the rest went on with their duties.

Cao Zhen originally intended to refine a treasure for Yan Yourong, but after this incident, he decided to set up the Great Formation first. Setting up the Mountain Protection Array of the Hundred Peaks Sect requires a lot of resources, so he started with the Golden Light Array.

Void Breaking Sect.

The people of the three major Demonic Sects, after moving all resources from the Void Breaking Sect and dismantling all Great Formations, took away what they could and deliberately destroyed the mountains and Cave Mansions of the Void Breaking Sect before leaving.

Their cooperation this time was very successful, and after realizing they couldn't withstand the forces of the Demonic Sects, the Void Breaking Sect chose to flee instead of holding on to a losing battle.

Chapter 1502:

So they didn't suffer much loss.

And now they've destroyed the entire Void Breaking Sect, so the sect's fate must have been affected. Based on the people of Void Breaking Sect, even if they run away, they can't cause much trouble.

As for the one hundred and twenty Earth Immortal Realm cultivators that Void Breaking Sect sent to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect, if they really did battle, they would surely suffer significant losses, which is nothing short of insignificant.

However, upon their return, they unexpectedly received news that the people from Void Breaking Sect who went to the Hundred Peaks Sect did not attack the Hundred Peaks Sect.

"What? The people from Void Breaking Sect went to the Hundred Peaks Sect, first used some resources to exchange for their disciples detained by Hundred Peaks Sect, and then the Hundred Peaks Sect delayed them, allowing Hundred Peaks Sect to stall for time. Finally, when we took action, they did not act?"

On the road, the Love-Blood Devil listened to the news being delivered, and she was somewhat astonished. The two people she arranged within the Void Breaking Sect did not follow along to the Hundred Peaks Sect but stayed behind, leaving the Void Breaking Sect, opening the sect's gate for them.

So they did not know when Void Breaking Sect's people acted, they were just calculating the time, feeling the other side surely had arrived at the Hundred Peaks Sect, acted, and then followed by taking action themselves, not expecting the Void Breaking Sect's people still did not act.

Among those on the Flying Boat, an elderly man with gray hair frowned and said, "So, Void Breaking Sect still has one hundred and twenty Earth Immortal Realm cultivators gathered together. What if they do something?"

"What can they do?" someone nearby sneered indifferently, "Could they possibly dare to attack our Weeping Blood Demon Sect? That would just be sending themselves to death."

"That's right. Besides, we have already destroyed almost all of their sect, their foundation is damaged. They can only do two things: either gathering more people to join other sects or venture into dangerous places. Now that the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth has ended, they can enter dangerous places."

"Ignore them, instead it's the Hundred Peaks Sect we need to focus on. After returning and digesting the resources we've gained this time, we should also prepare to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"However, digesting these resources will require some time, such as some treasures that need to be refined again, and also their Void Breaking Sect's heritage."

"Once we return, everything will be decided by the Sect Hierarchy."

Cao Zhen spent half a month rearranging the Golden Light Array, yet before refining treasures for his disciples, he heard some news.

"What? The Void Breaking Sect has been destroyed? So, Little Beiyan's mouth is actually true! How did such a big sect get destroyed? Even after dispatching over a hundred Earth Immortal Realm cultivators, the Void Breaking Sect should have had considerable guarding forces."

"Master, it was the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, Ten Thousand Beast Demon Sect, and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, the three major demonic sects joined forces to annihilate the Void Breaking Sect. These three major demonic sects also ransacked all the resources of Void Breaking Sect." Wanyi Di explained everything he knew, "Also, Master, I heard that the Weeping Blood Demon Sect actively united the other two demonic sects, and the leader from Weeping Blood Demon Sect was a female cultivator, reportedly she hails from our Eastern Wasteland, and is the branch leader of Weeping Blood Demon Sect's Eastern Wasteland branch."

"It's her!" Cao Zhen immediately recalled the woman Grand Preceptor specially instructed him to watch over before he fell into slumber. When he arrived, she had already left, and since then, he hadn't found her, as though she vanished into thin air.

When he heard about the woman again, she had already returned to Weeping Blood Demon Sect and quickly secured her position within the sect.

Now, this woman has once again gone to reap benefits.

This woman is indeed somewhat terrifying.

While he dealt with the people of Void Breaking Sect, she took advantage behind.

Those are the resources of a large sect!

When the Heaven Prayers Sect failed their Heavenly Tribulation and was destroyed, many major sects went to seize resources, Immortal Bi Yue and others claimed great successes after seizing a portion.

The three major demonic sects dividing those resources, he couldn't imagine how large the gains are for each sect!

The people of Weeping Blood Demon Sect destroyed Void Breaking Sect, and no one knows if their next target might be the Hundred Peaks Sect.

"Instruct our disciples from Hundred Peaks Sect not to go out wandering, focus fully on cultivation for now."

Cao Zhen quickened the refining of treasures.

Another half month later, he completed the transformation of Yan Yourong's Grieving Anger Dragon Blade.

Like Ling Xi's Divine Weapon, Yan Yourong's Grieving Anger Dragon Blade also reached the Yellow Level Upper Grade level.

Cao Zhen then started refining treasures for other disciples.

The Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty does not permit the Killer God sect to establish branches, but in the Great Jin Dynasty, there is a Killer God Branch.

Yan Yourong changed her aura and also wore a pitch-black ghost face mask. This mask was found by Xiang Ziyu in the place where Heaven Prayers Sect discarded treasures, and it's very unique. Once worn, even someone cultivating special pupil techniques cannot see the real appearance of the person behind the mask.

Chapter 1503:

However, this mask cannot change the aura, so its function is limited and was discarded by the people of the Heaven Prayers Sect.

Nevertheless, the disciples of the Four Treasures Peak have all cultivated the Eight-Nine Mystical Skill, allowing them to change their aura autonomously, hence they do not need a mask to alter their aura.

Yan Yourong flew all the way and soon reached the Capital City of the Great Jin Dynasty.

The Capital City of the Great Jin Dynasty was obviously much smaller and less prosperous than the Capital City of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

Yan Yourong concealed her aura as she entered the city, quickly arriving at a two-story building that appeared quite unremarkable. The only distinctive feature of this house was the two blood-red characters on the jet-black plaque — Assassin Guild!

Yan Yourong stepped into the Assassin Guild.

There were no customers in the room, only an old man sitting behind a counter.

Seeing someone enter, the old man hurriedly got up and politely asked, "Dear guest, what mission have you come to have executed by the Assassin Guild, or do you wish to join the Assassin Guild?"

There are only two kinds of people who enter the Assassin Guild: those who want to hire someone to kill, and those who come to kill.

After all, the Assassin Guild offends many by constantly killing, and various forces wish to eradicate its members. If they genuinely stationed their cultivators here, others might follow these cultivators back to the Assassin Guild's lair. What then?

Moreover, these individuals do not need to be cultivators.

In fact, in the past, if disciples of certain groups were killed by the Assassin Guild, they would seek trouble with the guild, such as destroying its branches one by one.

However, the branches of the Assassin Guild fundamentally hold nothing of value.

You could destroy a branch, and they would simply establish another. Moreover, you might even suffer retaliation from the guild.

Over time, no one bothered to disrupt the branches of the Assassin Guild. Occasional reprisals usually occurred when a disciple of a great teaching was killed; they would retaliate and vent their anger, which marked the end of it.

And the Assassin Guild usually endured it.

After all, if their disciples have been killed by your people, how can you deny them a chance to vent?

Besides, there's nothing to lose with a branch.

Yan Yourong looked at the old man, nodded, and deliberately said in a hoarse voice, "I want to join the Assassin Guild!"

She wants to join the Assassin Guild!

Her idea was simple: since the Assassin Guild sent someone to kill her master, she would infiltrate the guild.

By joining the Assassin Guild, when someone again attempts to kill a disciple from the Hundred Peaks Sect, she might be able to get advance notice.

Also, she always believed there were many in the world who deserved to die, such as the Young Master Lian Hua she encountered in the South Ocean. She wouldn't recklessly kill by joining the Assassin Guild — she would only kill those who should be killed.

"Oh? Joining our Assassin Guild?" The elder's face immediately showed a smile. Every time someone joined the Assassin Guild, depending on their strength, he would receive a considerable fee.

"I wonder about your cultivation base, Immortal?"

Yan Yourong's eyes outside the mask immediately emitted a cold gleam, stating icily, "You, an ordinary person, understand what a cultivation base is? Moreover, even if I told you my level, could you, an ordinary person, discern it?"

She now had to disguise herself as someone else, and the people of the Hundred Peaks Sect were known for being kind to ordinary people. Being not too far from the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, if she were too polite, it might make someone suspect she was from the Hundred Peaks Sect. So, she deliberately displayed unusual coldness.

The elder seemed accustomed to being looked down upon by these immortals. He hastily smiled and said, "Immortal, indeed I, the humble one, cannot perceive your cultivation base, but I can report your level, so that when tasks are assigned, they will naturally correspond to your abilities."

Yan Yourong let out a cold snort, then glared at the elder before speaking in a hoarse voice: "I am of the Earth Immortal Realm, early Longevity Period."

"Oh, so you are an Earth Immortal Realm master. Please hold on, master, I will immediately report the message."

The old man quickly took out a paper similar to a sect's chart, wrote a few words on it, then swiftly burned it. Subsequently, he took out a talisman.

In only the time it took for half an incense stick to burn, a string of words appeared on the previously blank talisman.

"Return here three days later to receive the talisman and the mask."

After scanning the words, Yan Yourong turned and left. When the assassins of the Assassin Guild go out to kill, they can't guarantee success every time, nor can they ensure that nobody is around during the killings.

As they release their own aura, spells, or expose their Immortal Mountains and Golden Core visions, it becomes easy for the opponent to recognize their identity.

Therefore, the Assassin Guild especially prepared a kind of mask that, once worn, not only hides one's appearance but can also alter the look of Immortal Mountains and change one's aura within a short time.

As for the talisman, it will display the tasks assigned by the Assassin Guild; these are not secrets in the world of immortal cultivation.

Yan Yourong didn't casually find a place to stay in the city; instead, she sought a spot overlooking the Assassin Guild branch. Clearly, someone from the guild would come to deliver the mask and talisman.

She intended to see who would bring the items, and if possible, she planned to follow them.

But three days passed, and she didn't spot anyone entering the Assassin Guild. Yet, when she re-entered, the elder she had seen before handed her more than ten talismans and a mask.

Previously, the branch of the Assassin Guild had been eradicated, but those who destroyed it didn't discover these masks and talismans inside. So, it was proven that only when someone wanted to join did the Assassin Guild dispatch the talismans and masks.

She had been watching for three days and hadn't seen anyone enter the guild.

So, who was it that delivered the talismans and masks to the Assassin Guild? How did they do it?

She knew there were people skilled in escape techniques who could possibly elude her notice!

But the issue remains: this is merely a single branch of the Assassin Guild in the Great Jin Dynasty. There are countless such branches across the Eastern Wasteland. They couldn't possibly have someone skilled in escape techniques stationed near each branch, could they?

Chapter 1504:

In the Eastern Province, many factions have attempted to find Kill Society. Some sent people to join Kill Society, hoping to slowly infiltrate the higher ranks, but they all failed.

Although the assassins of Kill Society are divided by rank, even the top elite assassins don't know where Kill Society is located. Apart from the high price of their killings and taking on any task, they are no different from ordinary assassins.

Others tried to locate Kill Society through the persons collecting the payments. After all, Kill Society charges for killings; one has to collect the money somehow.

As it turned out, people discovered Kill Society collects payment directly using treasures. They send a beam of light to retrieve the valuables from a distance.

The Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth is special, yet, for some reason, the treasure of Kill Society can still be used. This has puzzled everyone since, under normal circumstances, the power required for such remote collection would definitely exceed the Golden Core Period Limit.

Ultimately, every faction in the Eastern Province tried all methods, but none were able to locate Kill Society.

After obtaining the talisman, Yan Yourong quickly departed, returning to the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Within Hundred Peaks Sect, Cao Zhen had been modifying treasures for a while, and only after finishing improvements for all the disciples' treasures did he take a brief rest. Then he was surprised to find Yan Yourong was no longer at Hundred Peaks Sect.

"What did You Rong do? Does no one know?"

Cao Zhen was deeply curious, and with a thought, he connected to China Cloud. Soon, Yan Yourong's figure appeared in his vision.

In a dense forest, Yan Yourong was engaged in battle with a cultivator he had never seen before.

This was You Rong pursuing an Earth Immortal Realm cultivator. Why did You Rong want to kill this person? What grudge was there? Furthermore, why did You Rong not use the Five-thunder Righteous Method or the treasure he gave her, not even using that large seal? The sword she wielded was merely a treasure of Common Low Grade that she excavated from a living grave of an Earth Immortal Realm in the Heaven Prayers Sect.

In Cao Zhen's vision, although Yan Yourong merely used a Common Low Grade treasure for a year and didn't cast any powerful spells, she suppressed the opponent with just her sword technique.

As a beam of blade light flashed by, the strange Earth Immortal Realm cultivator fell to the ground.

Yan Yourong kept the opponent's Qiankun Bag, but did not immediately leave. Instead, she took out the Grieving Anger Dragon Blade, which had already been upgraded to Yellow Level Upper Grade, and beheaded the opponent, placing the head into the Qiankun Bag.

Cao Zhen's brows furrowed instantly. Killing is one thing, but why take the opponent's head? There are only two reasons for taking someone's head: one is to use the opponent's head to honor predecessors, which clearly doesn't apply as their sect's grudges have been settled.

Then it must be the second reason: to collect money.

Just as Yan Yourong was about to leave, her master's voice suddenly sounded in her mind: "You Rong, what are you doing? Shouldn't you explain this to your teacher?"

Yan Yourong sighed inwardly at once; she was discovered by her master. She knew her master had special cultivation techniques, allowing him to investigate the disciples at any time. She just didn't expect her master to accidentally see her killing someone.

Originally, she planned to quietly investigate by herself, hoping to conceal it for a while longer. But now, given that her master had already seen it, she had nothing to hide, so she honestly confessed, "Master, I joined Kill Society. However, rest assured, I won't indiscriminately kill innocents; I'll only kill those who deserve it."

"Kill Society? You want to find out Kill Society's location?" Cao Zhen immediately guessed Yan Yourong's intention. After all, Kill Society had just assassinated him, and Yan Yourong joined Kill Society right after. Anyone could guess what Yan Yourong wanted to do with just a toe.

"Kill Society has been around for so many years without anyone finding their lair. Thinking you can locate it is a bit idealistic. Besides, killing is dangerous; if not done well, one could be killed in return.

Forget it, as your master, I know your personality well. Since you've joined Kill Society, all the persuasion will be in vain, and you won't quit. So, hurry back, I'll teach you some more spells, at least they'll enhance your self-defense abilities a bit."

Previously, it wasn't that he refused to teach other spells to disciples. It's mainly because they hadn't mastered the Five-thunder Righteous Method yet; if he taught other spells, it wouldn't make sense.

Xiang Ziyu, that young lad, could learn other spells, but he has been busy researching his own treasure lately, claiming he doesn't have time to cultivate spells.

Nowadays, the disciples on Four Treasures Peak, apart from Wan Ren Di, have mostly cultivated the Five-thunder Righteous Method well, so the next batch of spells can be taught.

In the next few days, Cao Zhen found the disciples at Four Treasures Peak and began teaching spells.

Seven days later, Yan Yourong returned to Four Treasures Peak.

Seeing Yan Yourong, Cao Zhen immediately inquired, "What's the situation with Kill Society?" He was also filled with curiosity about Kill Society.

"The assassins of Kill Society are divided into five levels: from highest to lowest they are Jia, Yi, Bing, Ding, and Wu. After squeezing into Kill Society, the society determines an assassin's level based on the cultivation base. I'm at Earth Immortal Realm, so I was assigned as a Ding-level assassin."

Yan Yourong relayed her experiences: "After I arrived, they once had me await three days, saying that they'd bring the talisman and mask to me. During those three days, I lingered outside Kill Society's branch, but never saw anyone enter or exit. After three days, the items appeared in Kill Society."

Chapter 1505:

After receiving the talisman, I actually wanted to see if there was a mission to assassinate my master, but I could only see ten missions. Not to mention the tasks concerning our Hundred Peaks Sect, I didn't even see any tasks related to our Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty."

"Wait a moment..." Cao Zhen interrupted Yan Yourong, saying, "Are you talking about a talisman? Are all your missions displayed on the talisman?"

"Yes, Master, do you want to take a look?" Yan Yourong said, then took a talisman out from her chest.

Cao Zhen was bewildered, why don't you put the talisman in the Qiankun Bag? Why keep it in your chest?

"I'm not interested in the talisman. Put it away for now. A girl shouldn't carry things like that in her chest. Listen to me and put it in the Qiankun Bag. Alright, now come with me, I will teach you some spells."

As Cao Zhen said, he casually added, "By the way, remember to give the Qiankun Bag to your senior sister. You know the rules of our Four Treasures Peak. All acquired resources must be collected together, and later I will distribute them to you based on your needs."

Yan Yourong was suddenly stunned. When did their Four Treasures Peak have such a rule?

However, under her master's signaling gaze, she still put all her talismans into the Qiankun Bag and handed it to her senior sister.

Then, Cao Zhen motioned Ling Xi to put the Qiankun Bag down, before recruiting them, and led them out of Four Treasures Peak, flying to a nearby uninhabited mountain peak.

Once Yan Yourong landed, she asked full of suspicion, "Master, why did you ask me to put down the Qiankun Bag? Is there something wrong with my Qiankun Bag?"

Cao Zhen shook his head and said, "It's not your Qiankun Bag, but maybe your talisman has a problem."

Yan Yourong became even more perplexed, "What could be wrong with the talisman?"

"Those talismans might have listening functions, capable of hearing our conversations." Cao Zhen recalled the mobile phones from his previous life, explaining to them, "Actually, not only that, the talismans might also have locating functions. Didn't you say that the tasks you saw didn't include those of our Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty? Have you previously brought the talisman to our Hundred Peaks Sect? And stayed for some time?"

Yan Yourong nodded mechanically and answered, "That's right, I did return to Hundred Peaks Sect before."

"That explains it. Think about it, if the talisman has locating capabilities, the assassins could naturally determine that you are from Hundred Peaks Sect.

And being a female at the Earth Immortal Realm, who uses a sword, they can easily deduce your identity. Knowing your identity, they certainly wouldn't assign tasks about me to you. They also know our attitude toward mortals, regarding the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, so they don't push those tasks to you."

In Cao Zhen's view, those talismans can select tasks, and after completing them, one can directly notify the assassins through the talisman, which obviously has some functions of mobile phones from his previous life.

In the previous life, mobile phones had data push notifications. During chats, it would suggest things based on your conversation.

Mobile phones could eavesdrop back then, so it's possible these talismans also have listening capabilities, and just like mobile phones could pinpoint locations, these talismans might also possess locating features.

Of course, you can't blame Yan Yourong and the immortals of this era for not realizing this. Mainly because they had never experienced electronic products like mobile phones, so naturally they wouldn't think of this.

In fact, when he first dealt with the Pinbao Business Association, he considered having Ling Xi make such talismans that displayed various goods.

But they had too many products, how many talismans would be needed to handle that? Unless one talisman could flip pages by itself, which with Ling Xi's current cultivation base and talisman-making skills, was far from achievable.

Besides, there's another big issue, which is the 'server!'

They need a top-tier treasure to support it, to serve as this server.

Right now, they don't have such a treasure.

As for the assassins, their ability to create such talismans suggests they must have a top-notch treasure serving as a server.

Only, during the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, and even now, although the era has normalized, not all experts have awakened.

That means the world is still under celestial suppression, and power can't be fully displayed, so how can the assassins' top-notch treasure function?

Cao Zhen found it very strange.

The Heavenly Dao laid down rules, punishing those who break them, like the True Immortals and Earth Immortals awakening during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth.

However, there are circumstances where the Heavenly Dao allows breaking these rules.

He has some vague insights into the Heavenly Dao's rules, but he can't fully ascertain them yet.

Listening to her master's analysis, Yan Yourong's face changed dramatically, showing a hint of self-blame as she said, "So does that mean by bringing the talismans back to Four Treasures Peak, everything happening inside is known to them?"

"That might not be the case." Cao Zhen shook his head and comforted her, "First of all, everything is just my speculation. Even if it is true, the talisman would only be able to eavesdrop sounds nearby, not sounds from afar, so you don't have to worry too much. Just find a place to put the talisman away usually. However, the likelihood of your identity as a Disciple of Four Treasures Peak being exposed is high. Later, you can check, I estimate tasks concerning our Hundred Peaks Sect or the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty might not be given to you at all.

Chapter 1506:

Right, Ling Xi, when you return, you can also take a look at those talismans, study them, and see if there's anything special about them."

He was becoming increasingly interested in this Kill Society. If he could acquire the crafting methods of these talismans, and even the treasures used as servers, then his Pinbao Business Association could take off immediately.

Or perhaps?

If Yan Yourong is exposed, then what about himself?

At that time, he could find an opportunity to join the Kill Society to see what it's like. However, he must consider carefully how to deceive them, ideally making the Kill Society believe he is someone from the Demonic Sect.

Cao Zhen was pondering these thoughts as he returned to the Four Treasures Peak.

Yan Yourong quickly took out a talisman for Ling Xi to study, while the remaining talismans she buried deep in her cave mansion to ensure they couldn't overhear their conversations.

Though Ling Xi had the Ancient Talisman Immortal Body and was highly skilled in talismans, she still couldn't figure out how these talismans were made. To understand the key to them, she must see the treasures behind these talismans.

In the following days, Cao Zhen taught Yan Yourong spells and then crafted a pill for the Seven-Colored Splendid Bird to break through to the Earth Immortal Realm, before he began to forge his own treasures.

Though they had gathered a lot of materials, during this period, he was busy crafting treasures for the disciples, modifying the Golden Light Array, and preparing treasures for others on the Four Treasures Peak, consuming almost all the materials they had gathered.

And he hadn't even crafted his Heretical Golden Core yet.

In the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, power had its limits. The limit was the Golden Core Period Limit, so in this current world, since there are still masters who haven't awakened, perhaps there is also a power limit, whether it's the Longevity Period Limit.

So he decided to hold off on crafting the Heretical Golden Core for now, to see if he could reach that limit.

In fact, during the Golden Core Stage, he could win effortlessly, but not often, only against some divine skills.

But now it's different. After his disciples grew stronger in the Immortal Mountain, when he ran the effortless victory techniques, the peaks on his Immortal Mountain would also change accordingly and grow stronger.

This is the true effortless victory.

If he could win like this effortlessly, then there was no need to craft the Heretical Golden Core right away. It can be done when all the sleeping people have awakened.

And there's the Prosperous Age Picture Record.

This time, realizing the talismans in Yan Yourong's hand might pose a problem reminded him of something.

If talismans can possibly detect messages, then what about people?

The Hundred Peaks Sect has recruited many disciples over these years; whether all those disciples are wholeheartedly devoted to the Hundred Peaks Sect is uncertain.

Cao Zhen opened the Prosperous Age Picture Record to observe.

"Huh? These three points, their Age of Prosperity Qi, I cannot utilize, which means these three people do not consider themselves as disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect."

Cao Zhen sighed inwardly; these three people are likely traitors to the Hundred Peaks Sect.

But thinking about it, it's quite normal; no sect or great teaching can guarantee all disciples are of one mind. The Hundred Peaks Sect, having recruited so many disciples over the years, with only these three not being wholeheartedly devoted, is already an extremely low probability.

Based on the changes in the Prosperous Age Picture Record, Cao Zhen left the Four Treasures Peak to investigate.

Through the points of prosperity on the Prosperous Age Picture Record, he identified the identities of the three within a day.

Among them, two disciples were recruited after the connection of the Eastern Wasteland and Eastern Province, one being Jiang Chuanwang from Lightning Peak, and the other Xu Shiqing from Azure Pheasant Peak.

These two disciples had decent talent for immortal cultivation and had both broken through to the Golden Core Stage, with Xu Shiqing from Azure Pheasant Peak having condensed eight Golden Cores, each a variant Golden Core.

"This Xu Shiqing is even an Immortal Body. It's unknown whether he was recruited by someone after joining our Hundred Peaks Sect, or came with a purpose when he joined. If the latter, the opposition invested deeply, sending an Immortal Body directly; even the worst Immortal Body is still an Immortal Body!"

Cao Zhen looked at the last traitor and sighed heavily; compared to the first two, the last person disappointed and saddened him the most.

The last disciple, Xiao Zhifeng, had joined the Hundred Peaks Sect before the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth. When he first checked the Prosperous Age Picture Record, all disciples were wholeheartedly devoted to the Hundred Peaks Sect, and at that time, Xiao Zhifeng had not betrayed.

But now, Xiao Zhifeng has indeed betrayed!

He didn't know what promises were made to Xiao Zhifeng, causing someone who joined the Hundred Peaks Sect even before himself to betray.

"Among these people, there might be members of the Love-Blood Devil. The Void Breaking Sect was destroyed in part because the Love-Blood Devil had planted two undercover agents within, who transferred all information to the Love-Blood Devil and even allowed outsiders to enter, preventing their Mountain Protection Array from activating!"

Looking at it from this perspective, the Love-Blood Devil seems to favor planting people in other sects and great teachings. Since she left the Eastern Wasteland, it is highly likely one of these three belongs to her."

Chapter 1507:

Cao Zhen pondered for a moment, but did not immediately deal with the three people. He already knew there was a problem with them, so he could simply guard against them and even use them to provide false information to the opponent.

As time passed day by day, the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect either immersed themselves crazily in cultivation, striving to break through into the Earth Immortal Realm as soon as possible, or familiarized themselves with their treasures and spells.

With the passage of time, more and more disciples within the Hundred Peaks Sect broke through into the Earth Immortal Realm.

Unknowingly, it was already time for the Hundred Peaks Sect to recruit disciples.

Recruiting disciples is a very important matter for every sect, and even for a great teaching.

In fact, in any sect or great teaching, disciples die almost every year. If new blood is not recruited, the disciples will only become fewer and fewer. Moreover, you might even recruit a peerless genius at some point.

Under normal circumstances, it wouldn't be an issue for the Hundred Peaks Sect to recruit disciples.

But the problem is that the situation this time is too special.

In the Conference Hall of the Hundred Peaks Sect, Cao Zhen frowned as he looked at the crowd and said, "Our Hundred Peaks Sect recruits disciples every ten years, without interruption. This year cannot be an exception either.

However, this time, when we recruit disciples, there is a great crisis awaiting us. Everyone knows that there are three great teachings hostile to our Hundred Peaks Sect. Now the Void Breaking Sect has been annihilated, but the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and the Weeping Blood Demon Sect still exist. They are both great teachings and have not acted, likely waiting for an opportunity. For them, our disciple recruitment is the best chance."

Below, the Peak Masters all heard this and their expressions immediately became solemn.

"As the Sect Master put it, they indeed pose a significant threat to us. If we proceed as usual and send people to recruit disciples, even dispatching someone of the Earth Immortal Realm might be in vain against their attempts to kill."

"Not only would the Earth Immortal we send abroad be at risk, but the disciples we recruit might also be killed, or worse, taken away to become their disciples."

"Then should we send more Earth Immortals?"

"How many Earth Immortals suffice for a significant deployment? We cannot possibly send all Earth Immortals we have; what about the defense of our Hundred Peaks Sect then?"

"What you are suggesting renders us without solutions. Should we cease disciple recruitment for the time being?"

"Stopping disciple recruitment isn't an option. Firstly, our recruitment period is fixed, and the mortals in various cities trust us deeply, waiting for us to recruit them as disciples. If we don't go, their trust in us would decline.

Currently, the Eastern Province has already connected to the Eastern Wasteland. Without going far, you've seen the situation with the Town Immortal Imperial Dynasty and how other Immortal Sects recruit disciples. Some disciples with outstanding cultivation talent even refuse recruitment, preferring to wait to join a great teaching in the Eastern Province.

As of now, our Hundred Peaks Sect hasn't faced such a situation, because they trust us. If their trust in us wavered, perhaps even we would face the scenario where talented disciples with excellent cultivation aptitude refuse to join us.

Moreover, it's not feasible to cease disciple recruitment indefinitely."

"So, what should we do?"

For a moment, everyone was troubled and looked towards Cao Zhen for guidance.

Cao Zhen looked at everyone and said, "Ladies and gentlemen, firstly, disciple recruitment cannot be delayed. Therefore, we need to send people to recruit disciples. Not only send people but also dispatch a large number of experts. This time, we'll need to take away ninety percent of our Earth Immortal Realm experts. All disciples of Four Treasures Peak will be sent out, leaving only Ling Xi to guard the Hundred Peaks Sect."

Upon hearing this, everyone was shocked and began to advise earnestly.

"Sect Leader, dispatch ninety percent of our Earth Immortal Realm?"

"Indeed, Sect Leader, if that's the case, what about our mountain gate? Who will defend it? What if they attack our mountain gate?"

"Sect Leader, our mountain gate is of utmost importance compared to disciple recruitment!"

Listening to the persuasion from the crowd, Cao Zhen gently waved his hand, waited for the voices to subside, and then raised his hand to speak, "The likelihood of them attacking our mountain gate is much lower.

Consider it, everyone, if they choose to act at this time, it's bound to target our disciple recruitment team. If they attack the mountain gate, they still have to face our Mountain Protection Array.

While outside, they won't need to confront our Mountain Protection Array. Besides, how would they know that we've dispatched so many Earth Immortals?"

Cao Zhen, as he spoke, looked at Wàn Rén Dí in the crowd and said, "You all know that my young disciple Wàn Rén Dí is adept at escape techniques. So, we can let Wàn Rén Dí open the path below, hiding. Ostensibly, only Xiang Ziyu is going, though in truth we've dispatched a significant number of Earth Immortals.

This time, everyone going will be concentrated together, moving from city to city! Furthermore, we can set off early, starting with the farthest cities for disciple recruitment and then move to the closer cities last.

They won't foresee us recruiting disciples in advance, so when they arrive, we'll have already recruited from the closer large cities. Then, even if they really attack the mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect, we can still make it back in time to provide reinforcements.

Alright, everyone, go back and make arrangements for preparation."

Having said that, Cao Zhen stood up and walked out. He deliberately did not ask everyone to keep it a secret, just to have this news spread out.

Chapter 1508:

After everyone dispersed, he also returned to Four Treasures Peak. Just as he got back, Ten Thousand Enemies began to complain: "Master, you really overestimate me. How many Earth Immortal Realm practitioners do we have in Hundred Peaks Sect now? We have over a hundred Earth Immortal Realm practitioners, and if you want me to lead ninety percent of them, that's a hundred people.

Master, I'm just at Earth Immortal Realm. It's manageable for me to lead two or three people, but with that many, the disciple truly can't accomplish it!"

At the time of the first attack from Void Breaking Sect, they didn't have so many Earth Immortal Realm practitioners, but during this period, a surge of disciples accomplished Pill Fusion, breaking through into Earth Immortal Realm, and now the number of Earth Immortal Realm practitioners in Hundred Peaks Sect has nearly doubled compared to before.

Cao Zhen looked at Ten Thousand Enemies with disdain and said: "I know you can't do it. I didn't really mean for you to take so many people away; I just wanted to deceive them."

"Deceive? They are all our Earth Immortal Realm practitioners of Hundred Peaks Sect. Why deceive them?" For a moment, Ten Thousand Enemies was stunned, but soon he reacted and whispered, "Master, do you mean to say there are spies among our Earth Immortal Realm practitioners in Hundred Peaks Sect?"

"There are no spies among the Earth Immortal Realm practitioners, but there are indeed spies within Hundred Peaks Sect, and quite possibly there are people from Weeping Blood Demon Sect involved. That's why I purposely said so, to let them spread false information and lure them into attacking us at Hundred Peaks Sect."

He let the opponent come to attack Hundred Peaks Sect so that he could use the Mountain Protection Array of Hundred Peaks Sect and his reformed Golden Light Array, and also to protect those ordinary people.

If the opposition acts in a big city, should the people from Hundred Peaks Sect intervene or not?

Nowadays, everyone is at Earth Immortal Realm, and when they act, the power becomes more terrifying. With people fighting against each other, the whole city might be destroyed!

"A traitor!" Yan Yourong heard this, suddenly a chilling killing intent flashed through her eyes, and she coldly said, "In Hundred Peaks Sect, every disciple is treated equally, every peak treats each of its disciples as family, and yet they dare betray Hundred Peaks Sect! Unforgivable! Master, after they finish delivering the information, please allow the disciple to strike and kill them!"

"Alright, then you shall strike when the time comes, after all, you were originally the Law Enforcement Elder." Cao Zhen nodded gently in agreement, realizing that after using this opportunity, the opposition should be aware that the spy is compromised, and holds no useful value.

To those who betray Hundred Peaks Sect, death is the only outcome!

After saying this, Cao Zhen turned his gaze to Xiang Ziyu and said: "Zi Yu, this time you're in more danger. Because you're the one who needs to go out openly.

The opponent might try to probe us and attack you. If you encounter their people, don't... No matter, you make your own decision."

Logically, the one attracting people outside should be him, as his Silver Feather Wings allow faster speed. If Hundred Peaks Sect is attacked, he can promptly return to aid.

However, he is most likely targeted by the assassins, and if he goes outside, the assassins might block him at crucial moments.

Currently, he is unsure whether Ling Xi or Xiang Ziyu is stronger, but Xiang Ziyu has a stronger physical fortitude, better survivability, and this kid's luck is extraordinary. In such a hazardous task of choosing between two, naturally, Xiang Ziyu should go.

Upon hearing this, Xiang Ziyu immediately became excited: "Master, you finally acknowledged my halo as the protagonist! I must say, this is the wisest decision you've made this year, only the protagonist, such as myself, can handle dangerous tasks like this.

If my prediction is correct, they will definitely send people to hunt me down, then I will escape all the way and counterattack them all the way. And of course, master, if you struggle to find me for a long time, don't worry, because as the protagonist, I will surely be fine.

I will venture into some dangerous places, encounter major opportunities, dramatically increase my strength, and wipe them all out alone, resolving this crisis for Hundred Peaks Sect."

"Alright, I trust you, but take your senior sister's Sound Transmission Talisman, so you can inform us if you have any gains."

Just two hours later, nearly a hundred Earth Immortal Realm practitioners from Hundred Peaks Sect gathered at the sect's entrance. While the disciples of Hundred Peaks Sect watched on, Ten Thousand Enemies dug open the ground and led everyone underground.

This is a Flying Boat Treasure, not a common Flying Boat.

Underground, when the multitude of Earth Immortal Realm practitioners of Hundred Peaks Sect entered, they were curious about how Ten Thousand Enemies could lead them forward alone, and were surprised to discover their Sect Leader turning to look at them.

"Everyone, restrain your aura." Cao Zhen looked at everyone with a solemn expression and said, "What I said before wasn't true. We don't need to leave Hundred Peaks Sect, we need to stay in Hundred Peaks Sect, stay underground! Because there are three traitors within Hundred Peaks Sect!"

Chapter 1509:

Cao Zhen informed everyone of the reasons for his actions, then looked at the group and said, "Everyone, please bear with this for now and stay underground temporarily."

The sky gradually turned dark.

That night, messages from Hundred Peaks Sect spread quickly, soon reaching the Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

Though it was already dark, a group of high-level members gathered in the hall of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

On the high seat, the Bloodless Demon saw that everyone had arrived and solemnly began, "I've received information. The Hundred Peaks Sect has set out today and begun recruiting disciples ahead of schedule. They will..."

He soon revealed the actions of the Hundred Peaks Sect and then looked at everyone asking, "What do you all think of this matter?"

"Sect Hierarch..." Below, an elder dressed in blood-red robes rather than the usual black sect attire spoke in a low voice, "I also know the Innate Escaping Body, suitable for various escape techniques, but an Earth Immortal Realm Innate Escaping Body leading nearly a hundred people underground is somewhat excessive, isn't it? Can they achieve this?"

Before the Bloodless Demon could respond, someone below spoke up, "Under normal circumstances, certainly not. But don't forget, Cao Zhen is a reincarnated great ability with numerous means at his disposal."

Our various sects are aware of the Ancient Immortal Body, yet no great sect has managed to make the Ancient Immortal Body break through to the Earth Immortal Realm, but Cao Zhen accomplished it!

Moreover, Cao Zhen can let their disciples perform Mysterious Rank spells even in the early stages of the Longevity Period... Cao Zhen has special methods to teach his disciples, making it normal for them to lead so many in escape."

As the words fell, everyone around nodded in agreement.

"Since no one has any objections, I'll inform the Love-Blood Devil to join with the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and directly attack Hundred Peaks Sect."

Although Love-Blood Devil comes from a branch sect and has a lower status, she leads a significant number of awakened Earth Immortals in this operation.

Her previous plan, in conjunction with other demonic sects, to attack Void Breaking Sect brought enormous benefits to our Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

It was the three major demonic sects that attacked Void Breaking Sect, but the resources weren't evenly distributed; whoever could seize them kept them.

The plan was originally proposed by our Weeping Blood Demon Sect, and among the three major sects, we were the strongest, ultimately seizing the most resources.

Just based on that plan, her status within the entire Weeping Blood Demon Sect rose directly to just below the Bloodless Demon!

Both Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and Weeping Blood Demon Sect have lost important disciples to Hundred Peaks Sect, revenge is natural.

Previously, we didn't take action partly because we were digesting the various resources seized from Void Breaking Sect, like retraining treasures for better compatibility or learning certain spells.

On the other hand, Love-Blood Devil suggested directly attacking Hundred Peaks Sect, though we could capture Hundred Peaks Sect, inevitable losses might occur.

Rather than attacking now, she suggested waiting for a moment, knowing Hundred Peaks Sect would recruit disciples every ten years. As someone from Eastern Wasteland, she was familiar with the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty and various Immortal Sects and suggested acting at this time.

Since leaving Hundred Peaks Sect, Xiang Ziyu brazenly headed towards Vast River City, the farthest from Hundred Peaks Sect, genuinely hoping for attacks from Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and Weeping Blood Demon Sect, yet even after reaching Vast River City, he encountered no attacks.

"What's going on with them? Why haven't they acted? If they don't move soon, I'll end up recruiting disciples, then if attacked while piloting the flying boat, as the protagonist, I'll be fine, but the newly recruited disciples will be in danger."

Xiang Ziyu watched the not-so-populous city, then piloted the marked Hundred Peaks Sect flying boat to land.

In the city, the inhabitants saw the flying boat landing and felt huge surprise.

"Such a large flying boat, is an Immortal arriving?"

"It's a Hundred Peaks Sect flying boat; why has it directly landed in the city?"

"Hundred Peaks Sect only lands flying boats in the city during disciple recruitment, are they recruiting now?"

"Usually, when Hundred Peaks Sect recruits in Vast River City, it's not this early!"

"Right, though the recruitment days aren't fixed exactly, it's usually within two days, but this time they've arrived ten days early!"

Amongst the discussions, the flying boat in the void folded away, and an Immortal descended slowly.

The crowd, more astonished than before, recognized the Immortal.

"It's Xiang Ziyu, Sect Leader Cao's disciple!"

Currently, within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, Cao Zhen's influence among mortals has surpassed the Grand Preceptor, his Immortal statues exist in many places, and many worship him during festivals.

In the area controlled by Hundred Peaks Sect, the original few disciples following Cao Zhen gained significant fame; though their Immortal statues aren't present, portraits circulate.

Yet soon, everyone noticed something amiss.

"Something's wrong, why did he land alone?"

"Exactly, during recruitment there should not be only one Immortal!"

"Right, is it truly not recruitment?"

Amidst the crowd's confusion, Xiang Ziyu began to speak, "Everyone, I..."

He came anyway, couldn't possibly refrain from recruiting disciples. But just as he spoke three words, his master's voice echoed in his mind: "Return to Hundred Peaks Sect immediately, both Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and Weeping Blood Demon Sect have attacked, two major demonic sects with over two hundred Earth Immortal Realms!"

Xiang Ziyu's expression instantly tightened, looking at the crowd below, "Everyone, I'm just passing by here, sensed genius disciples in the city, so I came to take a look. Please don't mind. Well, I have matters to attend to, I'll leave now, and after some time, I'll personally come to recruit disciples."

Chapter 1510:

The Love-Blood Devil had not returned to the Eastern Wasteland for quite a long time. Now, stepping onto its soil again, and especially arriving once more at the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, her heart couldn't help but ripple slightly.

In fact, this time, she originally wanted to have more people sent by the Great Teaching, but since she wasn't the Sect Hierarchy, in the end, she only brought a hundred Earth Immortal Realm, and on the other side, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect that joined hands with them also dispatched a hundred Earth Immortal Realm.

After receiving the command of the Sect Hierarchy, both parties merged and flew towards the direction of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

They had set off earlier, arriving at the outskirts of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, and shortly after that, flew to the mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Gazing at the Hundred Peaks Sect in front of them, which had already activated the Mountain Protection Array, they weren't surprised. With so many of them arriving, it would be surprising if the other side didn't notice.

On the side of the Love-Blood Devil, the Soul Ghost Demon leading the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect took a glance towards the direction of the Hundred Peaks Sect's mountain gate, noticing the dozen or so Earth Immortal Realm on the mountain gate, he revealed a cruel smile, turned his head, and praised the Love-Blood Devil: "The Love-Blood Devil is truly cunning. The current Hundred Peaks Sect only has these dozen or so Earth Immortal Realm. We can conquer this Hundred Peaks Sect in no time.

By the time the main forces of the Hundred Peaks Sect receive news and return, their sect will be no more. At that point, they will be like the people of the Void Breaking Sect, or perhaps even worse, only able to flee everywhere."

Although the Soul Ghost Demon's words were very courteous, even somewhat flattering, the Love-Blood Devil showed no favor in response: "You are being too optimistic. Having left the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, I know the Hundred Peaks Sect better than you do. If the Hundred Peaks Sect is destroyed, their people will only fight us to the death when they return, and not flee.

Moreover, we haven't even destroyed the opponent's mountain gate yet."

With a cold expression, she said, "Don't waste time, attack swiftly."

The Soul Ghost Demon showed a trace of displeasure on his face upon hearing this. The reason he was so courteous was simply because the Love-Blood Devil had led them to seize a large amount of resources the last time, not because he feared her.

With a cold snort, he no longer looked at the Love-Blood Devil and instead turned to the others behind him, saying: "Destroy the mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect. During the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, Cao Zhen and Xiang Ziyu seized many treasures, rush in, these treasures will be ours."

As he finished speaking, the disciples of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect at the rear all spoke up, and in an instant, spells shot out towards the Mountain Protection Array of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Simultaneously, the people of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect also made their move.

With the combined forces of two hundred Earth Immortal Realms, as everyone struck simultaneously, the space in this area was instantly torn apart by the terrifying impact, creating cracks in the void, with chaos of void vaguely falling out from these cracks.

Atop the mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect, although everyone knew that Cao Zhen and the others hadn't left and remained here, seeing the arrival of Earth Immortal Realm from the two great Demon Sects, and facing these two hundred Earth Immortal Realms, each person's expression grew solemn.

The opponent's Earth Immortal Realm count was double theirs, and their Mountain Protection Array...

The Mountain Protection Array of the Hundred Peaks Sect had just been raised, but under the attack of two hundred Earth Immortal realm experts, cracks quickly appeared on the array.

Then, the second wave of the opposing side's attack fell.

Although the remaining members on the mountain gate retaliated, trying to fend off the spells, their numbers were indeed too few. In just a short time, the Mountain Protection Array was completely shattered.

"The Mountain Protection Array is broken, rush in!"

"Charge in, treasures, whoever gets them owns them!"

The Earth Immortal Realms of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect surged towards the Hundred Peaks Sect.

"Charge!"

Everyone, being Earth Immortal Realms themselves, naturally recognized this as an array, but so what? They had broken the Mountain Protection Array of the Hundred Peaks Sect, how could a small array stop them?

No one paid attention to this array, each person still charging forward, and in a flash, they entered the Treasure Mirrors.

In the next moment, those twenty-one Treasure Mirrors suddenly began to vibrate; with the vibration, the blazing sun above the void seemed to become even brighter. The sunlight, falling and reflecting from one Treasure Mirror to another, strengthened the golden light with each reflection.

Before long, one of the brightest golden beams became extremely dazzling, even causing the Earth Immortal Realms who had entered the array to squint slightly.

Suddenly, one of the golden beams, after reflecting ten times, swiftly shot towards the nearest Earth Immortal Realm.

"Such powerful might!"

This Earth Immortal Realm sensed the terrifying power within the golden beam and quickly dodged to the side.

He was known for his speed. Although the golden beam was extremely fast, he narrowly avoided it, almost brushing past the edge of the golden beam.

After missing its target, the golden beam didn't dissipate; instead, it struck another Light Mirror and was reflected once again. With each reflection, the aura contained in the golden beam became even more terrifying, and its speed increased.
