

My Master 1531

Chapter 1531:

In this way, even if his aura hits others, they will think it was demonic qi that struck them.

Saying this, the opponent was already struck by the demonic qi.

"Demonic Mountain!"

"What is that? Hundred Zhang Demon Mountain!"

The next moment, the three of them focused their gaze on the towering demonic mountain.

"Hundred Zhang Demon Mountain? How can someone in the Mid Longevity Period possess a Hundred Zhang high demonic mountain!"

"Forget about the Mid Longevity Period, even at the Peak of the Longevity Period, no one could achieve a Hundred Zhang tall demonic mountain. I've never heard of anyone in the Longevity Period who could make their demonic mountain reach a hundred zhang in height!"

"This person, what is this situation? Even beings in the Indestructible Period might not have a demonic mountain a hundred zhang tall!"

In an instant, not just the three Heart-eating Demons, even the two from the distant Killing Society widened their eyes in shock.

"A demonic mountain a hundred zhang tall? Senior Brother, have you ever heard of such a record?"

"No, no one in the Longevity Period could make a demonic mountain this high, not even an immortal mountain. Who is this person, what kind of existence is this?"

Amid everyone's astonishment, Cao Zhen had already drawn a jet-black longsword. Since he was now pretending to be a member of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, he couldn't use the Thunder Light Sword anymore.

Fortunately, during his travels in the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, he encountered a member of the Demonic Sect, whom he casually slew, acquiring a treasure.

Although it was a Common Low Grade treasure, it happened to be a treasure of the Demonic Sect member.

Looking at the three people before him, blood-red light gathered around him, a bloody aura converged around him, the aura seemed solid, gathering together like a Blood River, flying in the void.

In just the blink of an eye, the Blood River abruptly exploded, and in an instant, numerous blood-colored demonic beasts suddenly flew out.

At this moment, everyone even felt an illusion, that the blood-colored river was the Boundless Bloody Hell, and terrifying demonic beasts from the Blood Prison flew out from this Blood River.

Some were like ferocious Blood Lions, others like Blood Tigers, and even Blood Dragons and blood-colored Kyllins. Countless blood-formed demonic beasts flew out, swooping toward the three Heart-eating Demons.

Each one was filled with ferocity and brutality, each seemed comparable to the existence of an Earth Immortal Realm!

And now, these demonic beasts were so dense, they obscured the entire sky.

Though it was noon when the sunlight was strongest, at this moment, the entire void turned blood-red!

With one strike, the heavens shook and the earth trembled, the sun and moon lost their light!

This was a spell from the Love-Blood Devil.

Previously, when the Love-Blood Devil attacked the Hundred Peaks Sect, he had seen the Love-Blood Devil perform this spell.

This was also the strongest spell the Love-Blood Devil mastered, a Yellow Level Upper Grade spell.

The Love-Blood Devil was his designated user, however, the spell level was the same as the Love-Blood Devil.

But his power far exceeded that of the Love-Blood Devil. Using the same spell, he didn't know how much more terrifying his performance was compared to the Love-Blood Devil!

As the blood-colored demonic beasts flew below, the surrounding void continuously shattered, and the massive stone slabs of the mountain gate he was at crumbled loudly.

In just an instant, the entire mountain gate completely exploded, turning into dust!

"Blood Transformation into Evil Technique!"

"He's indeed from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect!"

The three watched these terrifying beings descending like blood-colored demonic beasts and simultaneously cast spells.

Behind the Heart-eating Demon, a demon mountain over thirty zhang, nearing forty zhang in height appeared. The entire shape of this demon mountain was actually like a heart, and once it appeared, it beat frantically, like an enormous heart pounding. With each beat, the surrounding world seemed to beat along, making one's mind restless.

Below the mountain gate, the Golden Cores that were sent flying by Cao Zhen's qi wave shook uncontrollably in sync with the beating demon mountain.

A Common High Grade spell, Soul Shaking and Soul Capturing!

A black aura transformed into black smoke, flying toward Cao Zhen.

Beside him, behind the Black Crow Demon, a demonic mountain also appeared. This demon mountain was almost the same height as the Heart-eating Demon's, with a giant black crow carved atop its highest peak.

As he opened his mouth, the crow on the demon mountain behind him also opened its mouth, emitting hair-raising shrieks. Waves of visible sonic magic shot out, causing the void to tremble continuously, and the piercing sound filled the entire world.

Among the three, the Ultimate Wind Demon's demonic mountain was even taller than the other two's, reaching forty zhang high.

Behind him, a pair of wings appeared, and as he waved his arms, the wings suddenly opened. At this moment, he seemed like an immense bird, soaring high with a mere wing flap, like a massive Kun Peng, ascending ninety thousand li.

As the wings flapped, they shot out fierce gales, howling and sweeping, giving off an unmatched sharpness.

As the gales swept through, it seemed to tear open the void instantly, revealing clear cracks, and in the blink of an eye, collided with the blood-colored demonic beasts. Instantly, terrifying beast roars echoed, and the blood-colored demonic beasts turned into pools of blood, while the gale visibly shrank rapidly.

Beside him, the sound waves emitted by the Black Crow Demon also continuously diminished.

Chapter 1532:

The black smoke shot out by the Heart-Eating Demon didn't even fall upon Cao Zhen before being devoured by the blood-colored demonic beasts.

The blood-colored creatures seemed endless, rapidly charging towards the three, appearing as if they would swallow them alive.

In the distance, two members of the killing society instantly widened their eyes!

"What's happening!"

"It's just one person, facing the combined spells released by three, yet able to crush them!"

"This is terrifying! Is this really someone at the Longevity Period mid-stage? No, should I say, is this something anyone at the Longevity Period can do?"

Countless blood-colored creatures fell, as if endless blood had descended, instantly landing on the three.

In an instant, all the clothes on their bodies exploded, and their skin was blasted with wounds, with their internal blood and energy roiling uncontrollably from the impact.

"Puh..."

The Heart-Eating Demon opened his mouth and spouted a large mouthful of crimson blood, and then his eyes widened abruptly. In his sight, a person from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect had already appeared in front of him with a sword, while the other's black sharp sword was already swinging.

As the sword fell, boundless demonic qi had already descended, this sword seemed to have flown out from the Nine Netherworld, filled with eerie, dark, and terrifying aura.

The angle of this sword was extremely tricky, making him feel that this sword might be the most terrifying and sharpest sword under Heaven.

This sword was just simply a killing sword!

He wanted to dodge, but it was already too late.

In the next moment, a sharp pain struck his neck, and crimson blood shot up to the sky.

His head was severed by a single sword strike.

Until death, he couldn't understand how someone at the Longevity Period mid-stage could be so strong. He hadn't offended anyone from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, so why did they come to kill him?

Although Cao Zhen couldn't use the Heavenly Illusion Sword Technique, his disciple Duo Duo was cultivating swordsmanship. He could use other sword techniques, and with his current cultivation base, he didn't even need to pursue sword moves. Just imbuing some sword intent into the sword, a casual strike was enough to kill the opponent.

After slaying the Heart-Eating Demon with one sword, he turned his gaze towards the nearby Black Crow Demon, and the next moment, he waved his hand. Suddenly, a blood-colored palm appeared in the void, crushing towards the Black Crow Demon.

As the palm descended, it was as if an endless Blood River overwhelmed, sealing all escape routes of the Black Crow Demon utterly.

Under the previous attacks from Cao Zhen, the Black Crow Demon was already injured. Now, staring at the falling palm, he could only frantically gather his demonic qi, forming a massive shield in front of him.

But when the blood-colored giant palm fell, the shield formed by demonic qi instantly shattered, and subsequently, his whole body was torn to pieces.

Among the three demons, the Ultimate Wind Demon had already turned around quickly, flying away at a rapid pace. Too terrifying, this person from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect was the most terrifying and powerful Longevity Period he had ever encountered!

Even if the three of them joined forces, they couldn't stop the opponent.

He even felt that the opponent could kill them as easily as chopping vegetables.

He finally understood why the opponent was so arrogant, because he possessed such strength!

He could only flee, his greatest skill being speed, and now, while the opponent was killing the other two, it was his only chance to escape.

Cao Zhen watched as the Ultimate Wind Demon fled into the distance, but he didn't chase after him. He could tell that the opponent was someone skilled in speed; with his current strength, even without using the Silver Light Wings, he could catch up to him instantly.

But after catching up and killing him, who would spread what he had done? How would others know that a mysterious expert from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect killed members of the Heart Captivating Devil Sect?

Originally, he planned to kill all three and leave the Golden Core Stage people to spread the word.

But the Heart-Eating Demon's spell affected them, shockingly killing all those in the Golden Core Stage, leaving only this person.

Cao Zhen casually placed the Heart-Eating Demon's head into the Qiankun Bag, then pulled out the Qiankun Bags of the Heart-Eating Demon and the deceased Black Crow Demon, collected them, and entered the Cave Mansion to pillage it before leaving.

After assassins from the killing society kill someone, the opponent's Qiankun Bag naturally becomes theirs.

Those are their spoils of war.

In the distance, the two members of the killing society looked at the disappearing terrifying existence from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, exchanged a glance, and both noticed that a layer of sweat had already surfaced on the other's forehead.

That Earth Immortal Realm was really too terrifying.

They came from the Great Teaching as well and had seen many experts, but they had truly never seen anyone so formidable at the Longevity Period.

"The Weeping Blood Demon Sect actually has such a formidable expert!"

"The Weeping Blood Demon Sect is hidden so deeply, we truly never knew they had such a terrifying existence."

"Speaking of which, during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect was also hidden very deeply. Remember, they had a Golden Core Period Limit named Blood Drink, and they even wanted to use Blood Drink to kill Cao Zhen, but unexpectedly, Cao Zhen's physical body breakthrough reached the Golden Core Period Limit and ended up losing Blood Drink."

"If the Weeping Blood Demon Sect still has such experts, wouldn't that be too terrifying?"

"But speaking of which, do you find anything strange?" The female cultivator looked at her senior brother in amazement, "He took away the Heart-Eating Demon's head in the end, could it be possible that he is also an assassin from the killing society, tasked with killing?"

Chapter 1533:

"How is that possible?" the male cultivator instinctively said. "A being of such existence has absolutely no need to be an assassin."

Even though the talismans from the Assassin Guild are miraculous, they only allow you to view tasks. Once a task is accepted, you can't notify members of the Assassin Guild; you must complete the task yourself, sever the opponent's head, and return to the guild to claim your reward.

That's why it's not uncommon for the guild to witness the same task being accepted by two teams, or even three teams.

The guild doesn't care about how many accept the task, nor do they intervene if you fight amongst yourselves after accepting a task. As long as the task is completed, that's all that matters.

The female cultivator also believed such a master would not take on such missions, but soon found herself surprised to discover that the task of assassinating the heart-eating demon had disappeared from the talisman.

With the task vanished, someone must have completed it.

So, that person really did join the Assassin Guild.

Though she couldn't understand why someone of such existence would become an assassin, she knew that once the guild had an assassin this terrifying, the entire cultivation world would likely be on edge.

After Cao Zhen killed the heart-eating demon, he didn't go to the guild himself but sent his avatar with the head to submit the task.

Yet, he was puzzled by the fact that even though he let one escape deliberately, there was no rumor about him spreading throughout the world.

With no choice, he continued his role as an assassin.

Moreover, he targeted only those in demonic sects. It's just that those people were indeed scum, villains, allowing him to kill without any qualms.

He certainly couldn't kill a good person for no reason.

"Have you heard? The Soul Pulling Demon of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect is dead!"

"The Soul Pulling Demon? Isn't he a being at the peak of Longevity Period? Moreover, among the current experts of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, he's ranked in the top ten. Who killed him?"

"It's said to be someone from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect!"

"I also heard that ten experts of the Longevity Period from the Burning Sky Demon Sect were killed, also reportedly by someone from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect."

"And two elders from the Sect of Ten Thousand Beasts were killed by someone from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect!"

"It's really unexpected that the Weeping Blood Demon Sect has such an expert. A hundred zhang Demonic Mountain; such a strong Longevity Period expert has never appeared in the history of the Eastern Province!"

"Indeed, now many are saying that person from the Weeping Blood Sect has reached the Longevity Period Limit."

"Longevity Period Limit; previously, there were talks of Golden Core Stage Limit, but never has anyone mentioned Longevity Period Limit. This is the first time someone has talked about the Longevity Period Limit!"

"But that person truly is too terrifying!"

"However, what do you think the expert from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect is thinking? Such an existence, within the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, lacks no resources, so why become an assassin?"

"Being an assassin, maybe it's purely because he enjoys slaughter? After all, everyone knows the Weeping Blood Demon Sect is extremely cruel and ruthless within demonic sects."

"It's understandable if he enjoys killing, but why does he keep targeting people from demonic sects? Their own Weeping Blood Demon Sect is also considered a demonic sect, and by killing people from major sects like that, isn't he creating trouble for the Weeping Blood Demon Sect?"

Throughout the past year, a terrifying assassin's legend has spread across the Eastern Province.

In this year, it's unknown how many have died at the hands of this terrifying assassin.

Other assassins usually kill in various covert ways, but this person always makes kills openly with his mighty cultivation base, striking targets head-on, and leaving calmly afterward.

During this year's time, it's unknown how many tasks he has taken, how many times he has acted, never failing once!

People even agree that the assassin from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect is now the top expert in the world.

Yet everyone wonders why he wants to go around killing people, and there's another thing: doesn't the Weeping Blood Demon Sect have a grudge against the Hundred Peaks Sect? With such a master, why don't they lead people to destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect?

This year's time has also put the Weeping Blood Demon Sect in the spotlight.

Within the conference hall of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, high-level members of demon sects are gathered, each with complexion darker, each angrier than the other!

"Those demonic sect people, one more foolish than the other!"

Among the crowd, an elderly man with a narrow face and extremely high cheekbones angrily said: "Earlier, members of the Sect of Ten Thousand Beasts asked what we meant, asked us why we killed their two elders, asked us if we want to go to war with them!"

And they said we should return their two strange beasts, the Hundred Chirping Bird and the Thunder Roc, entirely to them.

Return what? I don't even know they have those two strange beasts! They claim our Weeping Blood Demon Sect killed their two elders!

They even said if not for our previous cooperation, they would have declared war on us already!

Are they mad? We have no reason to kill their people! That so-called Bleeding Tears Assassin is absolutely not one of our people from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect!"

"Not only the Sect of Ten Thousand Beasts; this past year, the so-called Bleeding Tears Assassin has killed too many people, many demonic sects came to us seeking an explanation!"

Among the people, a man with a face full of beard angrily said: "What explanation? That's not our man, their people being killed has nothing to do with us!"

"But everyone claims the Bleeding Tears Assassin is one of ours, given he's used many spells from our Weeping Blood Demon Sect. Especially the Blood Transformation into Evil Technique, our hidden secret technique which only our Sect Hierarch and the Love-Blood Devil can perform."

Yet the person can execute spells like the Blood Transformation into Evil Technique—when we claim he's not from our sect, no one believes!"

"Yes, and the opponent's aura, that dense bloody scent, even their style of conduct, it absolutely seems like he's from our Weeping Blood Demon Sect!"

"Sect Hierarch, what should we do now?"

Chapter 1534:

The Bloodless Demon was quite troubled. He had already plotted out how to assassinate Cao Zhen. He believed that even if Cao Zhen kept hiding within the Hundred Peaks Sect, under his plan, Cao Zhen would definitely leave the Hundred Peaks Sect.

However, just as he began to implement his plan, a Crying Blood Assassin showed up.

Now, all the various demonic sects are demanding an explanation, and those major immortal sects have become increasingly wary. He even heard that some people from the major immortal sects are discussing whether to take action against their Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

He has repeatedly stated that the assassin is not from their Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

The response from people of other great teachings is also simple: the fact is that the other party is using the spells of your Weeping Blood Demon Sect. If you say it isn't, then go kill the other party. Otherwise, we will hold your Weeping Blood Demon Sect accountable.

In the cultivation world, if a great teaching or sect's cultivation technique, or spell, is leaked, this force would immediately seek out the other party to either cripple their cultivation base or kill them.

If they don't do this, it's an admission that the other party can use their spells and cultivation techniques, admitting the other party is one of theirs.

But the problem is, the whereabouts of that assassin are not only uncertain, but he is also considered the number one expert in the world today. How can they kill him!

Moreover, it's baffling. Their Weeping Blood Demon Sect shouldn't have much inheritance circulating outside. How could this person know their sect's spell?

And, such a strong Longevity Period person, why was there no mention of him before?

This person just seems to have suddenly appeared out of nowhere. Everything about his origins is a mystery, and perhaps only the people of You Sha Society know something, but the problem is, the people of You Sha Society cannot possibly disclose this information to anyone.

Now, first there's the Hundred Peaks Sect situation that hasn't been resolved, and now a Crying Blood Assassin has appeared.

If the Crying Blood Assassin is indeed from their Weeping Blood Demon Sect, the first thing he would do is send him to annihilate Cao Zhen.

Cao Zhen...

Things have to be done one at a time.

The Crying Blood Assassin has formidable strength and is extremely mysterious, and no one knows where he is. Trying to deal with him is really too difficult.

But Cao Zhen does have a weakness, and his weakness is the Hundred Peaks Sect.

He doesn't know what reason makes Cao Zhen, a reborn great ability, so invested in the Hundred Peaks Sect, teaching the Mysterious Rank spells to his disciples, and also imparting so many Yellow Grade spells to the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

He only needs to know that Cao Zhen cares about the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Cao Zhen cares so much about the Hundred Peaks Sect, he certainly wants the Hundred Peaks Sect to become a great teaching!

Becoming a great teaching would change the entire sect's fate, and not to mention, what rich rewards the sect can obtain after passing the sect tribulation to become a great teaching.

He has also inquired about the Hundred Peaks Sect, knowing that the Hundred Peaks Sect now has only a history of twenty to thirty thousand years. Under normal circumstances, the Hundred Peaks Sect would need a very, very long time to become a great teaching!

However, there's also an abnormal situation.

In this world, there's a thing called the Instant Millennium Pearl!

Extremely scarce in quantity, possessing the Instant Millennium Pearl, afterward, you can search for an already extinguished great teaching and swallow its fate.

After completion, as the sect passes each day, it's as if passing through a thousand years of history. Of course, this millennium time is only the entire sect gaining a thousand years of accumulation, and the disciples of the sect will also be affected, but this impact is a very positive influence.

During this period, instead of spiritual energy, there will be celestial energy!

During this period of cultivation, it cannot merely be described as getting twice the result with half the effort.

After using the Instant Millennium Pearl, even a sect with the shortest founding time would only need about a thousand days to pass the sect tribulation.

Of course, this kind of Instant Millennium Treasure Bead is extremely scarce, and generally, neither a great teaching nor other sects would use such a treasure bead.

After all, to become a great teaching, one must pass the sect tribulation. And the sect tribulation is not that easy to pass.

When a sect or great teaching forcibly undergoes tribulation through the Instant Millennium Pearl, if it does not possess matching strength, the end result can only be defeat and extinction.

However, there are exceptions during a special period, that is, the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth period, and a period after the Mini Epoch of Reversal of a Thousand Caverns, even though the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth period has ended, there are still experts in slumber, which means Heavenly Dao is still suppressing the power of cultivators worldwide.

Thus, the power of the sect tribulation would not be so terrifying!

And the Hundred Peaks Sect, being able to withstand the attacks from Void Breaking Sect, subsequently deflecting assaults from both their Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, is merely the strength the Hundred Peaks Sect has shown. No one knows if the Hundred Peaks Sect has hidden strength, and judging from various signs, if the Hundred Peaks Sect undergoes tribulation during this special period, it is very likely to become a great teaching.

No sect can resist the temptation to become a great teaching, and he believes that the Hundred Peaks Sect and Cao Zhen would be no exception.

Moreover, now they also have a great teaching to swallow fate, which is the Void Breaking Sect!

Like the previous Heaven Prayers Sect, the entire great teaching has already been annihilated. They failed the sect tribulation, and their fate is completely gone.

But the Void Breaking Sect is different, for they didn't fail the sect tribulation, but instead were extinguished by the joint efforts of the three major demonic sects. To be precise, the Void Breaking Sect has not yet been completely destroyed.

Chapter 1535:

Therefore, if the Hundred Peaks Sect possesses the Instant Millennium Pearl, theoretically, it could indeed quickly become a Great Teaching!

If Cao Zhen finds out that there is news about the Instant Millennium Pearl, he would definitely be tempted!

What he needs to do is to make Cao Zhen believe that a certain danger zone contains the Instant Millennium Pearl!

The Instant Millennium Pearl can only be born in danger zones.

During the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, all the danger zones were closed, and now that this era has ended, the danger zones have reopened.

The reason why they are called danger zones is because they are extremely perilous.

Even the Great Teachings of the Eastern Province send people to explore these danger zones, yet none dare claim they have fully mapped out a danger zone or completely investigated it!

Let alone in the Earth Immortal Realm, even those in the Immortality Regainment Realm and True Immortal Realm die in the danger zones!

Currently, the Tai Chi Sect, an extremely powerful Great Teaching in the Eastern Province, once the most elite Great Teaching, declined instantly when their Sect Hierarch ventured into one of Eastern Province's three great danger zones, Absolute Nihilism, and never returned.

However, their Weeping Blood Demon Sect, though lacking a complete map of Absolute Nihilism, has mastered a detailed map of the western peaks of Horizon Peak within Absolute Nihilism.

Horizon Peak is not a single mountain but a range of peaks. The immensity of the Absolute Nihilism danger zone makes it seem boundless, even though a single area of it is already vast.

Being able to grasp the map of the western peaks of Horizon Peak has been exceedingly difficult for them.

This map has been painstakingly explored by countless predecessors of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

Moreover, this map is top secret within their Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

In any Great Teaching, maps of danger zones are top secret!

After all, the danger zones are too crucial. Although filled with peril, many still venture into them due to the abundance of treasures within.

No one knows how these danger zones formed; everyone only knows that they are filled with fortuitous encounters.

There are even legendary Heavenly Ranked Treasures, Earth Level Treasures within!

Most of the dangers inside the danger zones don't stem from the intruders but from the zones themselves.

Perhaps a place looks plain and unremarkable, but once you enter, you'll find yourself in a tiny world, perhaps filled with countless terrifying beasts ready to shred you to pieces, or it might resemble a cage trapping you inside.

Many suspect that the old Sect Hierarch of the Tai Chi Sect is trapped in one such small world.

Of course, it's also possible that once you enter a cave, you'll find void vortexes everywhere, sucking you in at once.

In summary, you might encounter any danger within the danger zones.

Thus, the maps are more precious!

With his cultivation base, he doesn't qualify for this map, but due to the Weeping Blood Demon Sect appointing him as a temporary Sect Hierarch during this transitional period, he was granted this map.

His task is to spread the news, making Cao Zhen believe that an Instant Millennium Pearl has appeared in the Absolute Nihilism danger zone, then gradually lure Cao Zhen and others to the western peaks of Horizon Peak, where he will have laid an ambush in advance.

Previously, they all left to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect. The Hundred Peaks Sect had prepared in advance.

Now, they lay traps in advance. Even if Cao Zhen is a reincarnated Great Ability, no matter how strong, he has no chance of escape. They don't even need to launch a strong attack. By luring Cao Zhen into a trap, he can die beyond doubt!

He has already begun spreading rumors of the Instant Millennium Pearl found in the western side of Horizon Peak.

In a spacious underground palace within the Eastern Province, three robed individuals, all wearing masks, gathered together.

Suddenly, among the three, a person in a blue robe spoke, "Senior Brother, have you confirmed the identity of the Bleeding Tears Assassin?" The voice was clear and melodious.

"Couldn't confirm." Among the three, the person in a black robe sighed helplessly, "The other party has never visited our assassin guild, nor have they taken our guild's masks and talismans. The ones claiming the bounty with our masks and talismans are all at the Golden Core Stage. Also, I suspect this person is not part of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect."

He paused slightly, then looked at the other two, "Not all the people this person killed were from the Demonic Sect, but they all have one thing in common: they were all evil-doers."

He seems more like those so-called justice-driven cultivators who joined our assassin guild specifically to kill wrongdoers. Even if the Weeping Blood Demon Sect people are eccentric, they wouldn't have such a person.

I even suspect that this person might have a vendetta against the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and intentionally wants to harm them."

The clear voice said, "However, his spells are indeed from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, and he cultivates demonic qi, not immortal power!"

Among the three, a voice from a purple-robed person spoke.

"Let's not worry about his identity for now."

We only need to know that currently, he is part of the assassin guild, and as long as he completes the guild's tasks, that's sufficient.

Chapter 1536:

As for the rest, we don't need to bother. This period won't last long, in just a few years, the Earth Immortal of the Indestructible Period will awaken, and then we can naturally know his identity.

Also, hasn't the mission to assassinate Cao Zhen, the sect leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect, always remained incomplete? Let him see the task involving Cao Zhen on the talisman and see if he will take it."

After the previous assassination attempt on Cao Zhen failed, they also discovered that Cao Zhen's strength was stronger than imagined and informed the people at the Treasure Pavilion that if they wished to continue the assassination attempt, they would need to pay more.

Of course, the people at Treasure Pavilion could choose not to pay more, but if they did, then no one would probably take the task to continue the assassination of Cao Zhen.

In cases like these, where the fee has already been charged, and after an assassination attempt, the demand for an increased fee occurs, this isn't the first time it's happened.

After all, it is unlikely that people will expose their trump cards for no reason.

Those who assassinate always have unknown means, and if those unknown means are many, the price of assassination will naturally be different.

In such situations, the price is always increased.

If because of this, you think the assassin society is too shady, then by all means, go kill someone yourself, don't come to ask the assassin society.

Cao Zhen has worked as an assassin for a year now, and slowly, he discovered a pattern; at first, his avatar would view the talisman and see tasks around his vicinity.

However, as he killed more people, the tasks appearing on the talisman were no longer near his activity range, and moreover, most of the tasks offered by people were to deal with those of ill-repute.

Just like how a phone from the previous life would recommend items based on personal likes.

This is proper big data.

Except today, when his avatar checked the talisman, he was surprised to find a task to assassinate himself.

He looked at the task's introduction about himself out of curiosity to see how the assassin society evaluated him.

"Cao Zhen: Sect Leader of Hundred Peaks Sect, reincarnated great ability, early Longevity Period, yet his combat strength can't be judged by ordinary early Longevity Period standards, recommended for Longevity Period peak-level assassins to take the task, and multiple assassins are suggested.

He has numerous means, possessing a mid-grade Yellow Level treasure Silver Light Wings and an upper-grade Yellow Level treasure Orange Light Wings, and a common high-grade treasure Thunder Light Sword.

However, he is skilled in artifact refining and likely has other treasurers but has never showcased them before others.

Skilled in utilizing a lower profound grade Thunder System spell.

Other spells, unknown.

Excellent swordsmanship.

Reward: Two Yellow Level treasures, thirty thousand Immortal Stones."

"That's really stingy, only two Yellow Level treasures, and they didn't even specify the grade, definitely Yellow Level low-grade treasures. This amount of bounty, who are they looking down on!"

Cao Zhen muttered sarcastically to himself as his gaze inadvertently shifted downwards, and suddenly, his eyes paused sharply; he saw a familiar name.

"Linghu Gudu: Early Longevity Period, Loose Cultivator. Uncertain movements, proficient in water system magic, possessing a Yellow Level low-grade treasure Water Gathering Pearl. Bounty reward: one common low-grade treasure."

Cao Zhen checked carefully, ensuring it was indeed the Linghu Gudu he knew.

"What's with this kid getting targeted too? This bounty for pursuing and avenging someone of his early Longevity Period level is quite high too. What did he do to get the assassin society to chase him down? The problem is, this kid is running all over the place; nobody knows where he's gone, can't even rescue him."

Cao Zhen even suspected that Linghu Gudu's bounty was so high precisely because he kept running around.

Moreover, the assassin society isn't professional enough; normally they provide clues of the person to be assassinated, but now, they've failed to provide any clues!

Where am I supposed to find Linghu Gudu!

Cao Zhen sighed helplessly. Initially, he and Linghu Gudu embarked on exploring relics together, and that's how they obtained the Prosperous Age Picture Record, and later, when the Hundred Peaks Sect faced danger, Linghu Gudu even went to the Hundred Peaks Sect for assistance.

He truly wants to save Linghu Gudu, but he doesn't know where to go to rescue him.

Moreover...

Suddenly, whether it was his main body or his avatar, Cao Zhen simultaneously discovered the entire void violently shaking.

Above the void, sun, moon, and stars simultaneously emerged, and beams of solar, lunar, and stellar light gathered in the void and then flew toward the distance.

"What's happening? A heavenly phenomenon, is there another peerless relic appearing?"

Cao Zhen stared blankly at the distance, but no matter how he looked, it didn't feel like a peerless relic was appearing; it even felt more massive than the commotion made by a peerless relic!

But soon after, the void presented an image, that of an endless sea, abruptly the void kept fracturing, and then fracturing again, giving him the feeling that a world was appearing out of thin air.

Cracks emanated from the horizon continuously downward, extending everywhere above the sea, and these cracks gradually began to stabilize, viewed from afar they seemed like countless channels connecting with the void.

Cao Zhen counted one by one and discovered that these channels appear to number ninety-nine, some wide, some narrow.

"This scene, how it's so reminiscent of the legendary dangerous places? Could it be, a new dangerous place has come into being!"

Having stayed in the Eastern Province for so long, he also came to know that there are three major dangerous places in the Eastern Province, each has ninety-nine channels, entering the dangerous place through different channels leads to different areas within the dangerous place.

Chapter 1537:

Just as he was surprised, the scene in the void quickly changed again. The size of the images in the void did not change, but the scope kept expanding. Gradually, islands, peaks, and cities appeared in the scene.

"This... isn't this the Eastern Wasteland! This is the Southern Ocean of the Eastern Wasteland! It seems to be truly a dangerous place, the fourth dangerous land of the Eastern Province has appeared, and it's in the Eastern Wasteland! The Eastern Wasteland is about to be in chaos!"

Cao Zhen's expression immediately tightened!

Although he hadn't entered any danger lands, he knew that the dangerous lands were filled with endless perils, yet they also held countless treasures.

And the newly emerged dangerous land was unexplored; the first batch of pioneers bravely venturing in might face dangers, but their opportunities would be even greater!

Currently, the three major dangerous lands of the Eastern Province have all been explored; undoubtedly, the treasures on the outermost parts of these lands have already been snatched away.

But this new dangerous land is entirely fresh, and who knows, upon entering the dangerous land, one might bend down to pick up a treasure!

With the appearance of a new dangerous land, the cultivators of the Eastern Province are bound to rush madly into the land to search for treasures!

So many cultivators pouring into the Eastern Wasteland, how could the Eastern Wasteland not be in chaos!

He originally wanted to continue creating trouble for the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, but now, he must return to the Hundred Peaks Sect immediately.

Cao Zhen maneuvered the flying boat and swiftly headed towards the Eastern Wasteland, while contacting his disciple Yi Sheng through China Cloud. Yi Sheng was usually within the Hundred Peaks Sect practicing alchemy and rarely ventured outside.

Indeed, the scene of Yi Sheng appeared in his mind, and it was indeed at Four Treasures Peak.

In the scene, Yi Sheng was not practicing alchemy, but standing atop Four Treasures Peak, gazing far towards the Southern Ocean.

In the Eastern Province, he only saw the images in the void, but at Four Treasures Peak, one could faintly see the cracks appearing on the distant horizon.

"Yi Sheng, notify the disciples of Four Treasures Peak to gather quickly, I have something to say."

After saying this, Cao Zhen no longer contacted Yi Sheng, only instructing him to notify the disciples of Four Treasures Peak.

He continued flying the flying boat and after some time, felt the disciples of Four Treasures Peak should have gathered together, then contacted his disciple Ling Xi through China Cloud once more.

He had already contacted Yi Sheng before and could only contact one disciple once a day, so this time he naturally needed to contact someone else.

Soon, in his view appeared individual disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect, even Xiang Ziyu, who had been secluded in closed-door cultivation, appeared in his view.

Cao Zhen looked at the disciples and transmitted to Ling Xi: "You should have all heard and seen the commotion just now, right."

Ling Xi was long accustomed to being contacted first when all disciples were present, being the senior disciple, it was normal for the master to contact her. She nodded slightly and said: "Yes, Master, everyone in our Hundred Peaks Sect has noticed the change, even the junior disciple who was in secluded cultivation was startled awake.

Based on some rumors we've heard, it should be a dangerous land appearing."

Cao Zhen knew the junior disciple Ling Xi referred to was Xiang Ziyu; even though Ling Xi couldn't see him, he habitually nodded saying: "Our Eastern Wasteland has been connected to the Eastern Province for a long time; you should also know of the existence of dangerous lands and understand what the emergence of a new dangerous land means.

I am well aware some of you will want to enter the dangerous land, there are those among us in the Hundred Peaks Sect who want to enter the dangerous land. I know I can't stop you.

If you want to enter the dangerous land, then go ahead, but there's one thing, I hope you can organize yourselves and leave a portion to safeguard the outside!

After all, we still have enemies; although, they are likely to send experts into the dangerous land, unlikely to attack us now, we still need to have some safeguards."

Ling Xi immediately nodded to express: "Master, the disciple knows, rest assured, I will stay to safeguard the Hundred Peaks Sect."

Hearing Ling Xi's resolute voice and seeing her face filled with a sense of responsibility, Cao Zhen felt deeply comforted, yet also a bit distressed for Ling Xi.

Since he left the Hundred Peaks Sect to venture outside fifty years ago, Ling Xi rarely left the sect for, as Xiang Ziyu needed to venture outside, she chose to stay behind to guard the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Though Xiang Ziyu gained from his ventures, Ling Xi and Xiang Ziyu's cultivation differed, their immortal bodies were different, and Xiang Ziyu's opportunities were mostly related to himself.

Could it be that Ling Xi does not want to venture out, or search for opportunities belonging to her?

She does, but for the Hundred Peaks Sect, she chose to stay.

Once the Hundred Peaks Sect is stabilized and safe, he certainly would want Ling Xi to freely venture out to find her own opportunities.

After giving a few more instructions to Ling Xi, their contact time came to an end and they disconnected.

Ling Xi turned to look at the surrounding junior brothers and sisters and began: "I know everyone wants to explore the newly appeared dangerous land, but Master said some of us must stay to safeguard the Hundred Peaks Sect. I will stay, yet with only myself, our safeguarding force is too small. I hope at least three more people will stay with me to guard the Hundred Peaks Sect."

Chapter 1538:

Yan Yourong was the first to speak: "Senior Sister, I'll stay too."

"Hmm?" Ling Xi showed a hint of surprise in her eyes. Yan Yourong had a rather adventurous nature; she hadn't expected her second junior sister to voluntarily choose to stay behind.

"I've been pondering sword techniques lately and don't want to go out for a while," Yan Yourong explained briefly and then fell silent. She was indeed practicing sword techniques, and since someone needed to stay, she decided to stay.

Xiang Ziyu saw that both the first and second senior sisters had chosen to stay and said, "Senior Sister, if you're staying, then I can be at ease. You know, as the main character..."

"Stop right there!" As soon as Yan Yourong heard Xiang Ziyu's main character talk, she immediately felt a headache, and she had already drawn half of her newly reforged Grieving Anger Dragon Blade.

"Alright, I won't say it, I won't say it. After all, you are my senior sister." Xiang Ziyu saw that his second senior sister was already angry, so he could only sigh in his heart. It's because you're my senior sister; if it were someone else daring to draw a blade at me like this, they'd have seen the King of Hell by now.

The first and second senior sisters and the third senior brother had spoken, and everyone's gaze suddenly fell on Little Beiyang.

Little Beiyang, under everyone's gaze, shrugged helplessly and said, "Then I'll go and take a look."

"Hmm?"

Everyone looked at Little Beiyang with astonishment. Among the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect, if you had to choose someone most afraid of death, it would probably be Bei Yan and Wani Di.

Wani Di, who couldn't really be considered afraid of death, after all, had weak combat power, and Wani Di's style was to run.

Leaving Wani Di aside, the most scared of death would be Little Beiyan. Issues like those remnants, Little Beiyan would avoid them if he could, so why was he willingly going to a dangerous place this time?

Little Beiyan, under everyone's gaze, sighed helplessly and said, "Do you think I want to go? I don't want to, but Jing Yao is definitely going, and since she is going, I naturally have to accompany her."

"Oh, I see."

Everyone nodded in sudden understanding, then looked at Yi Sheng.

"I'm not going either. I still have to stay and do alchemy," Yi Sheng lightly shook his head and then looked at Duo Duo and Zhu Peng.

"I'll go, Zhu Peng, you stay." Duo Duo gave Zhu Peng a glance and volunteered. Although Zhu Peng had entered the Earth Immortal Realm, he was still a bit simple-minded. It was a newly emerged dangerous land inside, too dangerous indeed, so letting Zhu Peng go to the dangerous land made her a bit worried, so she volunteered to let Zhu Peng stay.

Wani Di counted those who stayed and immediately showed a smile on his face, saying: "Senior Sister, you said to find three people to stay with you and guard the Hundred Peaks Sect, now that three people have been chosen, then I'll go too."

Wani Di was also a peculiar one. Clearly, this guy was very cautious. Even within Four Treasures Peak, they knew that in Wani Di's Cave Mansion, there were three passages leading outside.

Moreover, earlier, when Bei Yan was wandering around Four Treasures Peak, why he was wandering they didn't know, but in the end, Bei Yan discovered a special passage. At that time, even the disciples of Four Treasures Peak were tense, and it turned out that the passage was also made by Wani Di. They didn't even know how many passages Wani Di had opened in Four Treasures Peak!

Wani Di was clearly afraid of death, yet this guy was extremely greedy. A year ago, someone discovered a small relic in the Eastern Wasteland. Wani Di volunteered to go.

Indeed, every time Wani Di heard of some special place, he would have to take a look. This guy was extremely greedy.

In the face of greed, he feared no death!

Soon, the disciples of Four Treasures Peak had already decided who would go to the relic, and throughout the Eastern Province, the Great Teachings, and each sect also started holding meetings, discussing who should head to the newly emerged dangerous land, and soon, they began setting off to the Eastern Wasteland. However, no matter how fast they were, they couldn't be faster than the Eastern Wasteland people.

Just after the Four Treasures Peak people decided who would embark, soon, the Earth Immortal Realm members of the Hundred Peaks Sect also gathered together.

Xiang Ziyu looked at the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect standing before him, ready to head to the dangerous land, especially as they were mostly the older generation of Earth Immortal Realm members. For a moment, he was dumbfounded: "No, why are you all going to the dangerous land? It's very dangerous there."

"We are naturally aware of the danger in the dangerous land. However, at the same time, this danger also signifies opportunity. We can't just stay in the Hundred Peaks Sect all the time, allowing the Sect Leader, you folks from Four Treasures Peak, to seize resources for us, making you take on the risks!

We, too, are in the Earth Immortal Realm; we too are members of the Hundred Peaks Sect. Since the dangerous land has appeared at our doorstep, we naturally have to go. You all need not persuade us anymore, as we have already thought this through thoroughly."

"Indeed, the path of Immortal Cultivation is inherently rugged, destined to be filled with danger. Only by bravely charging through thorns, facing life and death repeatedly, can we forge our own way. If we always hide in the Hundred Peaks Sect, relying on the Sect Leader and you to provide us resources, what kind of Immortal Cultivation are we doing, how can we comprehend our own path!"

"Exactly, we've laid out everything properly, and this time, not everyone is leaving; quite a few Earth Immortal Realms are staying behind."

"We've already come this far; if we don't go out exploring further, seeking our own path, in this lifetime, we fear we may never advance another step!"

Chapter 1539:

"Also, after we enter the dangerous terrain, we'll follow the guidance in our hearts to seek treasures. You don't have to travel alongside us."

Xiang Ziyu listened to the elders of the Hundred Peaks Sect speak, at a loss for words, and could only join the others in flying toward the South Ocean.

At the same time, within the Eastern Wilderness Realm, Earth Immortal Realm from various sects began to move as well.

Xiang Ziyu and the others arrived just at the Fourth Dangerous Terrain and saw the Earth Immortal Realm moving and flying into the perilous area.

Although the Hundred Peaks Sect is relatively close, it is still not as close as those sects in the South Ocean.

Though there are ninety-nine passages through the dangerous terrain, most Earth Immortal Realm enter the perilous place through nine specific passages.

The passageways in the dangerous terrain vary in size. Previously, everyone from the Eastern Province judged from the three major perilous terrains that the thicker the passage, the more dangerous the position one will be in after entering; conversely, the thinner the passage, the relatively safer it is inside.

And for this fourth perilous terrain, there are nine passages significantly narrower than the others.

"Everyone, choose a passage to enter."

In the crowd, Tu Zhuque spoke up and flew toward one of the passages. But she had barely flown a bit when she abruptly stopped, turned her head, and glared unhappily at Chen Qingluan beside her, shouting, "Chen Qingluan, why are you following me into the same passage!"

Chen Qingluan immediately furrowed her brows and retorted, "What do you mean I'm following you into the passage? I certainly wasn't behind you. I saw clearly that you chose the same passage after seeing me heading there."

Seeing the two argue once more, everyone around fell silent. These two had been at odds all their lives, and now they're still arguing about entering the passage.

Behind them, Li Ke noticed her master seemed likely to argue with the Azure Pheasant Peak Master. She quickly intervened, saying, "Master, this perilous terrain has just appeared. Although some have ventured in, the number isn't large. If we delay, others may seize the opportunities that should be ours. Let's hurry in."

On the other side, behind Chen Qingluan, Liao Youdi also advised, "Master, let's go into the perilous terrain first."

"Hmph!"

Tu Zhuque and Chen Qingluan snorted almost simultaneously, then entered the passage without further delay.

This time, Li Ke didn't go with the others from Four Treasures Peak but followed her master.

Duo Duo initially wanted to invite Liao Youdi to join them, but seeing her follow her master into the passage, she said nothing more.

Then she glanced at her Third Senior Brother.

Xiang Ziyu, feeling Duo Duo's gaze, immediately shook his head and said, "Don't look at me; I'm the protagonist and must walk a path different from yours. For you to accompany me would be very dangerous. You all should safely enter those nine passages."

He genuinely wanted his junior brothers and sisters not to walk with him, as the dangers he faced as the protagonist would be far greater.

Maybe the master could barely keep up, but for the other junior brothers and sisters, it would be too perilous to walk with him.

Duo Duo widened her eyes in shock and exclaimed, "Senior Brother, what do you mean? You're not going through those nine passages? The other passages are obviously much thicker, which is too dangerous."

"Dangerous? Precisely because it's dangerous that I must go. Forget it, Junior Sister, though you are very talented, you are not the protagonist. You don't understand the world of the protagonist.

The protagonist must be different, must walk the unconventional road."

Xiang Ziyu said, then took off toward another passage, much thicker than the nine.

There were eight more such thick passages here.

Bei Yan watched Xiang Ziyu enter a passage and turned back to the group, scoffing, "He talks about being the protagonist. I thought he'd fly into the thickest passage, but he just chose the second thickest. It seems he's still somewhat sane.

Don't worry about him. Though Third Senior Brother is not the brightest, he is fortunate and resilient. We shouldn't worry about him. Let's go in too."

Bei Yan led Duo Duo, Wan Ren Di, and Qiao Jingyao into the passage. Without the eldest sister or third senior brother, or even the second senior sister, leading them put quite some pressure on him.

Cao Zhen casually changed his appearance as he flew toward the Fourth Dangerous Terrain. As he flew, he intermittently contacted his disciples. Seeing the nine significantly narrower passages, he randomly picked one that his disciples hadn't entered.

The people of the Hundred Peaks Sect chose nine different passages to enter.

Clearly, the Earth Immortals of the Hundred Peaks Sect believed they were closer to this fourth perilous terrain and were among the first batch to enter, deliberately spreading out to increase their chances of obtaining treasures.

Among these people, his disciples were considered quite strong, so he chose a different passage from his disciples to enter.

He flew along the passage, and in just the span of a breath, he felt like he had entered another world, much like when he entered those relics before.

Raising his eyes, he saw towering mountains in the distance, and below him lay an endless sea.

In the sea, islands were scattered like stars.

On the nearest island, he could see numerous corpses.

"So many bodies—one, two, three... sixteen bodies! We've just entered the perilous terrain, so why are there so many corpses? Could any of them be from the Hundred Peaks Sect?"

Some of these bodies lay face down, making it impossible to see their faces.

Cao Zhen moved his body and appeared above the small island in an instant. The next moment, a terrifying suction force came from the small island below, seemingly grasping his legs with invisible large hands, pulling him downwards uncontrollably towards the island.

Cao Zhen's expression hardened, and he rapidly circulated immortal energy within him, taking a sharp breath to fly out of the island's range. Yet in the next moment, he felt his immortal energy suddenly halt, and even though it was only a fraction of a breath, his body abruptly plummeted onto the island.

Chapter 1540:

As soon as Cao Zhen landed on the island, he immediately felt the land under his feet surging wildly.

"Boom!"

A loud noise like the shattering of a mountain erupted, with endless dirt soaring into the sky, as if the entire island had been turned over. Underfoot, a gigantic bloody mouth appeared, and a strong stench of blood filled the air.

This mouth looked as big as a room, filled with two rows of scythe-like sharp teeth, seemingly ready to swallow him whole.

Behind Cao Zhen, the Immortal Mountain suddenly appeared, and the huge mouth below was struck hard by a fierce palm.

This palm did not utilize any spells, but was a simple condensation of immortal power. Even so, with his cultivation base now at the peak of the Longevity Period, the power contained in this palm was already strong enough!

A vast and boundless power descended, like a mountain crashing down, heavily blasting the giant mouth, and terrifying power surged through the open mouth into the opponent's body.

The next moment, the giant mouth trembled violently and fell downward.

Cao Zhen widened his eyes; the attacker was not a fierce beast, but a plant. The gaping maw resembled a flower, with slender roots and stems extending below.

Man-eating Flower?

Cao Zhen glanced at the falling flower, and the ground below surged once more. Many Man-eating Flowers sprang from the earth, opening their house-sized mouths to bite toward him.

Every Man-eating Flower had reached the Earth Immortal Realm.

Looking across the island, it was densely packed, completely covered in Man-eating Flowers, some still stained with blood, and even some pieces of cloth hanging from their teeth.

No wonder so many Earth Immortals died here. Although these Man-eating Flowers barely reached the level of Earth Immortals, their sheer number made them overwhelming when they attacked together...

A solemn expression flashed across Cao Zhen's eyes. These Man-eating Flowers intended to tear and consume people directly, but if the island were entirely composed of Man-eating Flowers, the corpses of those people couldn't possibly remain so intact.

Therefore, there must be other existences on this island, more terrifying than the Man-eating Flowers, deterring them from devouring the corpses.

Behind Cao Zhen, the Immortal Mountain expanded even more, with flames roaring around his body. Among the people he was connected to, many were adept at using fire system magic, and he had an extensive range of fire spells to fall back on.

Man-eating Flowers are plants, naturally most fearful of flames.

Within Cao Zhen, immortal energy surged wildly, his whole body aglow with fiery light. From afar, he appeared like a massive burning fireball, with torrents of flames shooting from him, landing on the Man-eating Flowers below, igniting them instantly. For a moment, the entire island seemed ablaze, with columns of black smoke rising into the sky.

The crackling sounds of burning continually echoed.

The spells he cast were at least Yellow Level Mid Grade, and with his presence at the peak of the Longevity Period, these Man-eating Flowers, having just reached the Earth Immortal stage, were completely ignited under his flames.

Amidst the sky-high flames, suddenly, a very sharp aura approached.

A pitch-black figure appeared before him. It looked somewhat human-like but compared to a human, it was as black as charcoal, with wings on its back, and a pair of horns above its ears.

This human-like mysterious figure appeared too suddenly, seemingly ignoring the existence of space, instantly appearing before Cao Zhen, holding a black spear stabbing toward him.

The sharp aura emanated from this spear.

Cao Zhen, always on guard against other potential dangers here, was not exerting full strength. Upon seeing the sudden appearance of this strange figure, a longsword appeared in his hand, thrusting forward aggressively.

This sword strike was full of an indomitable momentum, as if to pierce through the heavens and shatter the sun and moon.

He had comprehended the swordsmanship of the Heaven Illusion Sword Monarch and also observed the sword intent of a great master in the relics over the years, never forgetting the cultivation of swordsmanship.

Even without using the Heavenly Illusion Sword Technique, this sword strike was still terrifyingly powerful.

The void was torn apart instantly, and the longsword slashed down, directly striking the opposing spear.

Instantly, a counterforce traveled up his sharp sword, while the mysterious figure in front of him trembled violently. A terrifying and horrifying sword intent surged into its body, wreaking havoc.

He was an existence at the peak of the Longevity Period; no one could simply rely on immortal power to contend with him at this time.

Moreover, this sword strike contained the essence of Wu Jianzi's sword draw but was somewhat different, as this sword technique was not just one strike but two successive strikes!

After Cao Zhen slashed with one sword, the immortal energy within him surged more frantically, like a vast ocean of immortal energy flowing into his hands, into his longsword, and throughout his whole body.
