

My Master 1601

Chapter 1601:

Everyone around nodded in agreement at the sound; the conditions were indeed very favorable.

Being able to cultivate amidst the immortal energy, just this point alone was highly attractive. As for Cao Zhen's proposal, after the Hundred Peaks Sect selected their thirty treasures, there would be no issue at all with others choosing afterward.

The trial the Hundred Peaks Sect was attempting to pass was that of becoming a Great Teaching's Sect Tribulation!

The rewards for such a Sect Tribulation were incredibly terrifying, comparable to rewards from a million-year Sect Tribulation. So, it was natural for the Hundred Peaks Sect to first choose thirty treasures.

Just as Cao Zhen finished speaking, a burly man with a flushed face in the crowd immediately spoke in a booming voice, "In that case, I, Lao River, will go."

As his voice fell, to prove his prowess, a massive Immortal Mountain appeared behind him. Rivers snaked around the Immortal Mountain, with faint dragon roars echoing from the rivers.

The Immortal Mountain soared to a height of ninety-one zhang.

Cao Zhen nodded slightly, clasping his hands toward him and said, "Thank you, Dao Companion Lao River."

Soon, another voice rang out, "The two of us brothers can also go."

Following the voice, two identical men from the high ranks of the Dragon Chant Sect stepped forward, releasing their Immortal Mountains.

Compared to Lao River's Immortal Mountain, theirs were shorter, barely reaching ninety zhang in height.

Immortal Bi Yue's face lit up with joy as she saw the two speak. She quietly transmitted to Cao Zhen, "These two are Senior Brother Feng Bing and Senior Brother Feng Huo. Although neither of them could individually match Senior Brother Lao River, they excel at fighting together. If they team up, even two Senior Brother Lao Rivers might not be their match!"

She worried that Cao Zhen might discriminate against the two for their Immortal Mountains being just ninety zhang and thus hurriedly reminded him.

Hearing this, Cao Zhen nodded slightly, bowing to the two, "Thank you, Dao Companions."

In the next moment, a crisp female voice rang out, "It's perfect timing, I'm free recently, and I would also like to cultivate in the immortal energy. I'll go as well."

Turning his head, Cao Zhen saw Immortal Shuanghua, who had previously been bargaining with him, speaking up.

As her voice fell, a ninety-three zhang tall Immortal Mountain emerged behind her.

The Dragon Chant Sect Hierarch was surprised as he saw Immortal Shuanghua speak up. He was very familiar with her and understood her nature; she disliked leaving home. He never expected that she would also want to go to the Hundred Peaks Sect and spoke quickly, "Since you're going, Shuanghua, I won't stop you."

However, considering the Dragon Chant Sect currently has experts stationed at various perilous sites, and now with the four of you heading to the Hundred Peaks Sect, our high-end combat strength is somewhat lacking."

As he spoke, he glanced around, though his words were unspoken, the meaning was clear.

We've already sent four experts; the rest of you shouldn't go. If you go and there's an unexpected event, our Dragon Chant Sect would be short on high-end combat power.

Although nobody would be reckless enough to attack the Dragon Chant Sect, what if some other unforeseen event occurs?

What if some peerless relics emerge, or a problem arises with the Demonic Sect, giving them an opening?

Even though the Dragon Clan within the Holy Mountain would guard the Dragon Chant Sect, they couldn't command those dragons to fight outside.

The remaining high-ranking members of the Dragon Chant Sect nodded but did not say anything further.

Cao Zhen nodded slightly. With the Dragon Chant Sect sending four people, and including Bi Yue, there were already five. That was quite a number.

Later on, they could have Xiang Ziyu recruit some experts from the Yin Yang Sect and the Cloud Reaching Sect. The Dragon Chant Sect, as a Great Teaching, could contribute five people; the other two Great Teachings together should be able to provide five experts. That shouldn't be difficult.

The immortal energy within the Hundred Peaks Sect would last only until the Sect Tribulation. Any delay now would mean one less day of opportunity to cultivate in the immortal energy.

No one lingered; the Dragon Chant Sect promptly produced the resources Cao Zhen required.

Then they set off, piloting their flying boat directly back to the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Along the way, they encountered no unexpected events; no one laid an ambush for them.

Which was only to be expected. Cao Zhen's current prowess was known throughout the Eastern Province. Moreover, traveling to the Dragon Chant Sect from afar was clearly to gather experts for the Sect Tribulation.

With Cao Zhen and the Dragon Chant Sect's experts, only those with reckless abandon seeking death would provoke them.

Soon, they flew to the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Initially, after the Hundred Peaks Sect was enveloped in a golden light, some curious onlookers approached, but upon realizing the light repelled outsiders, they quickly left.

The Hundred Peaks Sect was about to face the Sect Tribulation; to force entry now would be to forge a deadly enmity!

Yet, even as they approached the Hundred Peaks Sect's exterior, they saw two figures: Yu Tuoyu, disguised as a man, and another unfamiliar face.

"Yu Tuoyu at the Hundred Peaks Sect? What brings her here? Has something happened to the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty?" Cao Zhen's heart stumbled as he swiftly descended from the flying boat, landing before Yu Tuoyu.

Before he could speak, Yu Tuoyu had already bowed to him, saying, "Greetings, State Preceptor!"

Chapter 1602:

She is the Grand Preceptor's disciple, and Cao Zhen is the State Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty. Although Cao Zhen does not attend court and rarely manages the affairs of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, within the dynasty, aside from the emperor, all officials have to pay respect to him, as does Yu Tuoyu.

Beside Yu Tuoyu stood a man with a solemn expression, clad entirely in pitch-black chainmail, emanating an aura of iron-blooded military spirit. Upon seeing Cao Zhen, he too bowed and said, "Shi Shoujiang, greets the State Preceptor."

Shoujiang?

Upon hearing this name, Cao Zhen immediately reacted, realizing that he was also a disciple of the Grand Preceptor.

Meanwhile, Yu Tuoyu spoke again, "State Preceptor, Brother Shi is the only one among our senior brothers who has entered the Longevity Period in slumber. After awakening, because our Eastern Wasteland is already connected with the Eastern Province, our Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty is deeply affected, so Brother Shi has been stationed in the Capital City, hence he hasn't visited the State Preceptor.

Now, having heard that the Hundred Peaks Sect is going to undergo the Sect Tribulation, Brother Shi has rushed here specifically to assist the Hundred Peaks Sect in overcoming the tribulation!"

"Oh? That's quite a favor from Dao Companion Shi." Hearing this, Cao Zhen immediately smiled. There was no doubt about Shi Shoujiang's strength; he was a disciple of the Grand Preceptor and the sole disciple left in the Longevity Period — could there be any doubt!

Moreover, his flourishing era had already enveloped the entire Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty. In observing this flourishing era previously, he had discovered an immensely powerful aura in the Capital City.

The aura obviously outstripped anyone within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

Clearly, that individual must be Shi Shoujiang!

Unexpectedly, a disciple of the Grand Preceptor would voluntarily come to aid the Hundred Peaks Sect in its tribulation. It seemed the two had been waiting outside for quite some time, and the reason for Yu Tuoyu's arrival was likely because the people of the Hundred Peaks Sect hadn't previously interacted with Shi Shoujiang, while Yu Tuoyu had familiarity with the Hundred Peaks Sect.

"State Preceptor, there's no need." Shi Shoujiang, far from resembling an Immortal, was more akin to a General. In earnest he said, "Were it not for the State Preceptor, our Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty could have been in chaos. Furthermore, the Hundred Peaks Sect has consistently safeguarded the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty over the years. With the Hundred Peaks Sect about to undergo the tribulation, as a disciple of the Master, it's only natural for me to come and assist."

Cao Zhen knew that all the Grand Preceptor's disciples revered him immensely. Hearing Shi Shoujiang speak thus, he refrained from saying more, instead turning to Yu Tuoyu with a glance, inviting, "Dao Companion Yu, since our Hundred Peaks Sect is currently abundant with Immortal energy, why not join us for a period of cultivation within the Hundred Peaks Sect?"

"No thank you." Yu Tuoyu shook his head, "There are still many matters within the dynasty requiring my attention."

Although she also wished to enter the Hundred Peaks Sect for cultivation, with her senior brother entering, many external affairs required her management.

Looking at Cao Zhen before her, she couldn't help but recall her first meeting with him, back when he hadn't even reached the Golden Core Stage.

They were trapped in a perilous situation by a demonic beast.

Who could have imagined that, within a short span, Cao Zhen would have reached such heights.

The odd sensation she had always felt towards Cao Zhen lingered, since he had once saved her and had seen her true appearance...

Yu Tuoyu quickly departed while Shi Shoujiang followed Cao Zhen into the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Though the mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect was not yet fully constructed, it could still serve its purpose.

As for the Formation, others could not enter, but since Cao Zhen was the one who released the Instant Millennium Pearl, would there be any barrier for him?

Entering the Hundred Peaks Sect, he immediately sensed the abundance of Immortal energy permeating his surroundings, even feeling for a moment that he wasn't within the Hundred Peaks Sect but had entered the fabled Immortal Realm.

Even he had the illusion that with each breath, he could feel his inner qi increasing.

Since the Hundred Peaks Sect was under the protection of the Instant Millennium Pearl, there was no need to station guards at the mountain gate, allowing all disciples to seize this precious opportunity and cultivate fervently.

Cao Zhen, holding various resources, traversed to crucial locations within the Hundred Peaks Sect, beginning the allocation of resources. Though he had procured abundant resources from the Dragon Chant Sect, and Wan Ren Di had scavenged a substantial amount from the Cave Mansion of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, the current Hundred Peaks Sect was vast beyond compare, unable to set up Formations across every area as they did in the Five Sounds Sect.

Moreover, when the Five Sounds Sect underwent its tribulation during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, the maximum power of their Formation only reached the Golden Core Period Limit, yet now it had progressed to the Earth Immortal Realm, with the limit being the Longevity Period Limit, demanding different resource allocation.

"Time is rather pressing, with just me arranging Formations — it's unlikely I'll finish." Cao Zhen sighed inwardly, swiftly investing additional cultivation experience, rarely utilized over the years, from the idle disciples into the Formation.

Suddenly, the voice of China Cloud was heard.

"Array Level increased, adding one designated user, one random user, please specify."

Without any hesitation, Cao Zhen said directly, "I designate my disciple, Linghu Gudu."

Among his disciples, only Linghu Gudu had yet to be designated.

User: Linghu Gudu.

Chapter 1603:

Gender: Male.

Cultivation Base: Peak of Longevity Period.

Qualifications: Kunpeng Immortal Body!

Kunpeng Immortal Body?

Cao Zhen recalled when he first met Linghu Gudu, Linghu Gudu had displayed a Divine Skill, revealing a whale's phantom, which seemed quite normal.

However, what does the following expertise refer to?

Expertise: Seeking fortune amidst danger!

Does this mean that Linghu Gudu easily discovers treasures, but every time he wants to gain something, he has to go through danger?

Thinking back to his experiences with Linghu Gudu, indeed, every time he was with this guy, they always managed to discover valuable treasures, similarly, each time was extraordinarily dangerous.

Back when he obtained the Prosperous Age Picture Record, he nearly lost his life, but the gains were immensely huge, yet he couldn't even judge the rank of the treasure of the Prosperous Age Picture Record!

And later on, this time, it was also with this guy that he discovered the Unknown Immortal Demon Bead, which led him into the small world of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect.

Moreover, those were dangerous situations in the small world; had he not reached the limits of the Longevity Period, had he not exerted himself fully, who else could defeat those two demonic cultivators at once!

So the fortune seeker seeks is not just ordinary fortune, and the danger faced is not just ordinary danger.

While Cao Zhen was pondering, suddenly Hua Yun's voice was heard again.

"User randomly connected, Du Kang connection complete."

What?

Du Kang? Wine Saint?

Cao Zhen was momentarily speechless; Du Kang's fame was certainly large enough, but what's the use of connecting with Du Kang? Brewing wine?

He casually flipped through Du Kang's document, and indeed, Du Kang is human, but his wine brewing is at full level MAX.

Under normal circumstances, he might brew some wine, but now, he doesn't have the time for that.

About half a year later, Xiang Ziyu left the Hundred Peaks Sect, heading towards the Cloud Reaching Sect and Yin Yang Sect.

He wanted to cultivate for a longer period, but during the Hundred Peaks Sect's crossing of the Sect Tribulation, Heavenly Dao also descended leaving behind the relic for the Hundred Peaks Sect.

They didn't know when this relic would arrive, so feeling the time was right, Xiang Ziyu left early, with hopes of arriving in time for the relic, and entering it.

Being an honorary elder of the Cloud Reaching Sect, the sect gave Xiang Ziyu a lot of respect, however, the number of experts in the Cloud Reaching Sect who reached ninety feet tall in their Immortal Mountain was not plentiful. The Cloud Reaching Sect wasn't like the Dragon Chant Sect, having a group of dragons to guard the mountain gate.

The Cloud Reaching Sect could only dispatch one expert whose Immortal Mountain reached ninety feet tall to go to the Hundred Peaks Sect to cross tribulation.

As Xiang Ziyu needed to head to the Yin Yang Sect next, he could only let the expert from the Cloud Reaching Sect go by himself to the Hundred Peaks Sect, while he himself quickly traveled to the Yin Yang Sect.

This was his second visit to the Yin Yang Sect, he was quite familiar with the place.

Upon arriving at the Yin Yang Sect's Immortal Gate, after announcing his arrival, someone quickly went to inform Jiu Yin and led him into the Yin Yang Sect.

Jiu Yin looked at Xiang Ziyu, her eyes filled with grievance, and just grievance; in the Eastern Province, she was also a well-known Immortal, and within the Yin Yang Sect, there were countless people waiting to become her Dao partner.

Yet Xiang Ziyu treated her like a brother!

Since their separation at the Void Breaking Sect, she had only seen Xiang Ziyu once.

"So you have come this time to invite our Yin Yang Sect's experts to help your Hundred Peaks Sect cross Sect Tribulation?" Jiu Yin was not surprised upon learning Xiang Ziyu's intention.

"Helping your Hundred Peaks Sect with the tribulation allows one to cultivate directly within your sect and acquire the treasures that Heavenly Dao descends upon. Many might be interested in this. It shouldn't be a problem, just wait a moment, I can inform others."

Unlike Cao Zhen, who was accompanied by Immortal Bi Yue to directly meet the top members of the Dragon Chant Sect, although Jiu Yin was greatly valued as a genius in the Yin Yang Sect, her status was not comparable to Bi Yue's status in Dragon Chant Sect, she could not directly lead Xiang Ziyu to meet the top members of Dragon Chant Sect.

Xiang Ziyu waited outside for a long time, before Jiu Yin notified him to proceed to the Conference Hall of the Yin Yang Sect.

Soon, he saw the current leadership of the Yin Yang Sect and explained his purpose.

At the head seat, the current interim Sect Hierarch of Yin Yang Sect did not speak, but rather the female sitting closest to the Sect Hierarch, who appeared stunningly beautiful and mature, stood up and asked Xiang Ziyu, "I know your Hundred Peaks Sect has annexed a Great Teaching and is preparing to cross tribulation.

Moreover, I know that your Hundred Peaks Sect has already sought out the Dragon Chant Sect and invited their experts, in fact, immediately after annexing the Great Teaching.

Yet you took half a year before coming to our Yin Yang Sect to invite experts.

One of your offered rewards is that those assisting with the tribulation can cultivate within your Hundred Peaks Sect.

The Immortal Qi within your Hundred Peaks Sect lasts about two years, and yet our Yin Yang Sect's people have half a year less couching time compared to those from the Dragon Chant Sect.

It seems that the reward given to us, the Yin Yang Sect, is different from that given to the Dragon Chant Sect."

Those around initially didn't think much of it, but after hearing the woman's statement, they reacted and spoke up.

"Jiu Yang Deputy Sect Master is correct, the rewards are not equitable!"

Chapter 1604:

"Indeed, your Hundred Peaks Sect must increase the rewards."

"Xiang Ziyu, what further rewards can your Hundred Peaks Sect offer?"

They were not particularly courteous to Xiang Ziyu, after all, they were part of a Great Teaching, while Xiang Ziyu's Hundred Peaks Sect was merely a sect.

Although Xiang Ziyu was quite famous in the Eastern Province, that fame was accumulated during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth.

Now is not the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, now is the reign of the Longevity Period.

No matter how talented Xiang Ziyu was at the Golden Core Stage, entering the Longevity Period still required time to accumulate, compared to them, Xiang Ziyu was still far behind. They gathered so many high-ranking officials here because of their cooperation between the Yin Yang Sect and Hundred Peaks Sect, and because Xiang Ziyu is a genius, showing a lot of face.

Originally, Xiang Ziyu wanted to seek help from the two Great Teachings for the Hundred Peaks Sect, but his master advised him to cultivate first, until his strength was strong enough before venturing out.

His master always felt he was too adventurous, insisting that he must have enough strength to protect himself before leaving the sect gates, which delayed it until now.

In any case, the Hundred Peaks Sect now uses all its resources to deal with the Sect Tribulation, unable to offer any additional resources to others; the only resource it can offer is the celestial energy within the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Xiang Ziyu observed the others, and with a spark in his heart said, "This is easy to resolve; do you feel you wasted half a year?"

Our Hundred Peaks Sect currently needs three experts to assist with the Heavenly Tribulation. Three people together make a year and a half; right now, our Hundred Peaks Sect's celestial energy can sustain another year and a half. So, we can let you send one more person to our Hundred Peaks Sect and cultivate before the Dao Tribulation arrives. In this way, it would make up for the time lost."

"This..." The crowd was momentarily stunned upon hearing this, instinctively wanting to refute, but thinking of Xiang Ziyu's words, seemed reasonable.

"Sending one more person? You are now merely compensating, it's not enough," Immortal Jiu Yang continued to shake her head, looking at Xiang Ziyu with a trace of hostility and dissatisfaction, "Also, your Hundred Peaks Sect sent the Sect Leader to the Dragon Chant Sect, yet it's you who comes to our Yin Yang Sect, are you looking down on our Yin Yang Sect?"

Xiang Ziyu's eyebrows furrowed instantly; this Immortal Jiu Yang was someone he was meeting for the first time, having never offended her before, why bothers targeting him everywhere?

Could it be she aims to attract the protagonist's attention deliberately, hence behaving this way?

Beside him, Jiu Yin looked at her senior sister, who treasured Xiang Ziyu, sighed helplessly, and quickly spoke, "Senior sister, the Hundred Peaks Sect sent Xiang Ziyu over because he and I are relatively familiar, perhaps feeling communication would be easier."

She said while secretly transmitting a message to Xiang Ziyu, "Zi Yu, don't take it to heart; my senior sister is just trying to stand up for me because of what she knows about us, hence her behavior; actually, she is quite nice."

Immortal Jiu Yang, witnessing her junior starting to speak, revealed a look of disbelief on her face and scolded, "He hasn't even given a response yet, and you speak for him?"

Speaking to Xiang Ziyu again, she said, "Tell me, when will you give my junior sister an explanation, when will you become Dao companions and cultivate the Way of Yin and Yang together!"

Xiang Ziyu glanced at Jiu Yin beside him, then at Jiu Yang, curiously pointing at Immortal Jiu Yang asked, "Your name is Jiu Yang, so you must practice the Way of Yin and Yang, mastering the Yang aspect?"

Immortal Jiu Yang immediately snorted coldly, "Nonsense."

"Then isn't it simple?" Xiang Ziyu pointed at both and said, "One of you practices Yin, and the other practices Yang. Wouldn't it be perfect for you two to practice the Way of Yin and Yang together? Why do you need to seek me out?"

"Scoundrel!" Immortal Jiu Yang was instantly furious, "We are both women, how can we practice the Way of Yin and Yang together, if I were a man, it wouldn't be your turn! Are you insulting the two of us!"

Xiang Ziyu earnestly responded, "Who says two women can't do it? I believe everything needs to be tried; I can help you research it thoroughly."

He truly felt that the methods of practicing Yin and Yang could be modified, why must it be necessarily between a man and woman? Why must one become Dao companions to practice?

Listening to Xiang Ziyu's continued words, Immortal Jiu Yang's face was already covered with frost, her chest, under intense rage, heaved violently.

She pointed a finger at Xiang Ziyu, her tone frost like, "Brat, you are insulting us! No, this is insulting our Yin Yang Sect; today, you must be taught a lesson!"

Nearby, Jiu Yin saw Immortal Jiu Yang incensed and quickly mollified, "Senior sister..."

"No need to speak... Rest assured, considering your connection with him, and cooperation between our Yin Yang Sect and the Hundred Peaks Sect, I won't kill him, but the necessary lesson must be given!"

All around, people did not speak, yet they nodded in agreement.

Indeed, Xiang Ziyu's earlier words were excessive and were clearly insulting; he deserved a lesson.

Xiang Ziyu was speechless, how did he insult anyone, he clearly was trying to assist them. Yet he helplessly looked at Immortal Jiu Yang saying, "You... you all are quite dangerous, don't you know? I am helping you; instead of thanking me, you provoke me."

Chapter 1605:

"Do you know that all villains die like this?"

"Thank you?" Immortal Jiu Yang laughed in exasperation, "Alright, let me properly thank you. Come with me to the Fighting Technique Peak, and I'll show you my gratitude. If you can block three of my moves, I'll spare you today."

Xiang Ziyu sighed helplessly and muttered to himself, "Indeed, those who provoke the protagonists always say things like blocking three moves, but in the end, they often can't even block those three moves."

His voice wasn't soft, and among the people in the city, the weakest cultivation base was at the early Longevity Period, making his words clear to everyone around.

Instantly, Immortal Jiu Yang seemed about to explode, her chest heaving wildly, "I can't block three of your moves? Alright, I'd like to see how you defeat me with three moves!"

With that, she stood up and flew off into the distance.

Now, she needed to give this insolent fellow a proper lesson!

She knew Xiang Ziyu was a genius, but who wasn't a genius?

She was also an outstanding genius, and she was at the peak of the Longevity Period. As for Xiang Ziyu, how long had it been since the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth passed? He was merely at the early Longevity Period. What would he use to fight her with?

Xiang Ziyu shook his head helplessly, "I came here to invite you to help our Hundred Peaks Sect with a Heavenly Tribulation, so why do we have to fight again? I wanted to remain low-key, but you keep provoking me.

Indeed, as a protagonist, it's impossible to stay low-key no matter where you go."

Beside him, Jiu Yin also felt helpless; at this moment, Xiang Ziyu was still going on about being a protagonist or not.

Indeed, while the Immortal had been a genius at the Golden Core Stage, now it was the realm of the Longevity Period! She also believed that once Xiang Ziyu entered the Longevity Period, he would undoubtedly be a terrifying presence among those at the early stage.

Moreover, she had heard that the people from the Void Breaking Sect attacked the Hundred Peaks Sect and were all repelled, illustrating that Xiang Ziyu's strength was quite formidable, significantly stronger than a typical late Longevity Period practitioner.

But the problem was, as strong as he was, he was only at the early Longevity Period; how could he compare with her senior sister?

"Be careful," Jiu Yin couldn't help but advise Xiang Ziyu, "My senior sister awoke after the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth ended. She is at the peak of the Longevity Period, and in our Yin Yang Sect, one of the top within the same period!"

"Peak of the Longevity Period?" Xiang Ziyu dismissively said, "Who isn't at the peak of the Longevity Period!"

With those words, he was already following Immortal Jiu Yang into the outside world.

Jiu Yin was stunned, could Xiang Ziyu also be at the peak of the Longevity Period? How could it be?

Previously, news had said he was only at the early Longevity Period, so how could he suddenly break through to the peak so quickly!

In the hall, members of the Yin Yang Sect murmur with surprise.

"What, he's reached the peak of the Longevity Period?"

"How is that possible? The Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth ended not long ago; how could he break through to the peak so soon?"

"Then why did he say that?"

"Well...I just felt like his brain might not be working right, maybe he's just talking nonsense."

While they discussed, everyone quickly followed along.

The Fighting Technique Peak is a place specifically for disciples of the Yin Yang Sect to spar.

As a Great Teaching, the Yin Yang Sect had many disciples, resulting in daily sparring matches at the peak. There were even some disciples who didn't spar but instead came to watch others.

Suddenly, a crowd of disciples in the midst of watching matches looked up, eyes filled with surprise at the approaching figures.

"Immortal Jiu Yang?"

"Aunt-Master Jiu Yang has come to the Fighting Technique Peak, is she here to spar with someone?"

"Who could spar with Aunt-Master Jiu Yang? The Sect Hierarch or the Vice Sect Hierarch?"

"Aside from those two, there's nobody in our Yin Yang Sect who could spar with Aunt-Master Jiu Yang!"

"Today, we're going to witness a most top-tier Longevity Period experts' duel!"

As Immortal Jiu Yang arrived, the onlookers hurriedly stepped aside; even those already engaged in sparring ceased and turned to watch in anticipation.

The next moment, their gaze fell upon an unfamiliar figure.

"Who's that?"

"Seems like Xiang Ziyu from the Hundred Peaks Sect, he must be here to request assistance crossing a Sect Tribulation."

"What's he doing? Sparring with Immortal Jiu Yang?"

"No way! Sparring with Immortal Jiu Yang would be seeking death!"

"It really is him; look, it seems they are going to duel."

Amid the crowd's astonished stares, Xiang Ziyu stood opposite Immortal Jiu Yang, who, without drawing any treasure or releasing her Immortal Mountain, merely said, "Go ahead, otherwise, I fear you won't even have the chance, you are, after all, the apple of Jiu Yin's eye, and losing disgracefully in front of all these people will humiliate her too."

Hearing this, Xiang Ziyu couldn't help but shake his head and sigh softly, "Why do all villains enjoy such things, saying stuff like wait to take action until you have no chance? They're letting me strike first; I'm honestly afraid she won't get a chance to strike."

With these words, behind him seemed to manifest two conjoined Immortal Mountains, one black and one white like the Yin and Yang poles.

At the same time, they felt like two ancient Immortal Demons, one mountain representing immortality and the other demonic, radiating an overwhelming aura of dominance, authority, mysticism, and majesty.

As these mountains materialized, they surged ferociously towards the sky within moments.

Around them, people watched the constantly ascending mountains, utterly dumbfounded.

"Thirty Zhang...fifty Zhang...eighty Zhang, the mountains still rise..."

"Ninety Zhang, it's already ninety, yet the mountains haven't stopped rising!"

"This is... Ninety-five Zhang!"

"No, it's still rising, ninety-six Zhang!"

"How can there be mountains this tall!"

"Peak of the Longevity Period, Xiang Ziyu is at this level!"

On the Fighting Technique Peak, one by one, the Yin Yang Sect disciples, even the high-ranking members trailing behind, were all left in a stupor.

Chapter 1606:

Yin Yang Sect, Fighting Technique Peak.

The Immortal Jiu Yang looked at the Immortal Mountain ahead that towered ninety-six zhang high, completely stunned.

Wasn't Xiang Ziyu, like her junior sister, someone who only broke through to the Earth Immortal Realm and entered the Longevity Period after the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth ended?

How did he manage to break through in such a short time and become an existence at the peak of the Longevity Period like her?

And this Immortal Mountain, it was unexpectedly two zhang taller than hers!

Although it's just a height difference of two zhang, every ten zhang of the Immortal Mountain represents a significant barrier.

After reaching ninety zhang, every additional zhang is another barrier!

It seems just a two zhang difference, but in reality, it's two barriers!

Moreover, his dual cultivation of Yin Yang, while she only cultivates the Yang energy within the Yin Yang Qi.

Yet she told him to make the first move?

Cao Zhen's disciples all know the Mysterious Rank Thunderbolt Technique, what if Xiang Ziyu uses it first?

Now countless disciples of the Yin Yang Sect have gathered around, if Xiang Ziyu crushes her, where would the Yin Yang Sect's reputation be?

The Immortal Jiu Yang no longer cared about her previous words, her mana surged rapidly within her, and behind her, on her ninety-four zhang tall Immortal Mountain, the highest peak, emerged a blazing sun, overlapping with the sun in the sky, seemingly merging into one.

In her hands appeared twin golden wheels, and as immortal power infused into them, they suddenly burst into a dazzling radiance.

As the light scattered, the temperature of the whole world rose suddenly, the air around seemed to ignite, in the distance, disciples with lower cultivation bases couldn't control the beads of sweat appearing on their foreheads due to the oppressive heat.

Behind the Immortal Jiu Yang, the blazing sun on her Immortal Mountain had begun to burn like a flame, and in just an instant, her entire Immortal Mountain started to burn and crashed toward Xiang Ziyu!

Yellow Level Upper Grade Spell - Scorching Sun Like Fire!

Where the flame passed, the void ignited instantly, leaving a distinct trail of burning, and the oppressive heat spread in all directions.

The lower cultivation disciples far away felt a burning sensation in their throats even in mere breaths, feeling as if they were inhaling heat waves, and their whole body seemed to get burned.

Xiang Ziyu looked at the descending flame mountain and even nodded slightly, the falling flame appeared intensely hot, but the scarier part was the Pure Yang Qi contained within!

This flame seemed not to be mundane fire but the fire of the blazing sun, and the blazing sun originally symbolizes pure yang!

This Pure Yang Qi could be lethal to members of the Demonic Sect, but for him, it wasn't enough, especially since this spell obviously had a weakness.

Xiang Ziyu looked at the falling flame, and behind him, from the two Immortal Mountains, the one as white jade surged with pure Yang Qi, covering his hands.

"Pure Yang Qi?"

In the distance, the high-ranking members of the Yin Yang Sect frowned, knowing that Xiang Ziyu cultivated the Yin Yang Qi, which is naturally stronger than mere Yang Qi.

Yet now, facing the Immortal Jiu Yang's attack, Xiang Ziyu merely used pure Yang Qi, clearly showing disdain for the Immortal Jiu Yang!

Indeed, his Immortal Mountain was taller than the Immortal Jiu Yang's Immortal Mountain.

But the height of his Immortal Mountain was due to his cultivation technique of Yin Yang Qi, and now Xiang Ziyu discarded the Yin energy, relying solely on Yang energy to face an expert at the peak of the Longevity Period with a ninety-four zhang tall Immortal Mountain!

Arrogant, truly arrogant!

Everyone knows that Cao Zhen possesses Mysterious Rank spells and has taught them to his disciples.

Additionally, Cao Zhen has also passed many Yellow Grade spells to the Hundred Peaks Sect, including the Yellow Level Upper Grade spell.

They absolutely do not believe that Cao Zhen would pass Yellow Level Upper Grade spells to others and not to his own disciples.

Xiang Ziyu obviously possesses Mysterious Rank spells, and Yellow Level Upper Grade spells but didn't use them; instead deployed a Yellow Level Mid Grade spell, combined with not using Yin Yang Qi, only Yang Qi.

This isn't just arrogance; it clearly looks down on people!

At that moment, the white dragon shadow shot by Xiang Ziyu touched the flaming falling Immortal Mountain, causing the flame mountain to erupt wildly, emitting a sizzling sound as if it completely consumed and burned away Xiang Ziyu's emitted light.

In the distance, a watching Earth Immortal Realm cultivator, upon seeing the quickly dissipated white light, showed a delighted expression, loudly saying, "Xiang Ziyu is too arrogant, using a Yellow Level Mid Grade spell and only pure Yang Qi.

Look at the result, now he has paid the price. His spell was instantly broken by Senior Sister Jiu Yang's spell!"

Chapter 1607:

"That's not right!" A high-ranking member of the Dragon Chant Sect suddenly frowned deeply.

The Earth Immortal Realm figure who spoke turned his head in surprise upon hearing this, and asked in confusion, "Senior brother? What's wrong?"

As his words fell, the flames released by Immortal Jiu Yang began to spin wildly. With the spinning, even the shape of the Immortal Mountain could no longer be maintained, turning into a ring shape instead.

All around, each Earth Immortal Realm widened their eyes in astonishment, staring at the burning flame with suspicion.

Many of them, although unable to cultivate Yang-like flaming techniques due to different qualifications or lack of eligibility, but since it is one of the strongest spells that can be cultivated during the Longevity Period in their Yin Yang Sect, how could they not recognize Yang-like flaming? Even if they couldn't perform it, they had seen the experts in their sect perform it.

Although the same spell might have slight variations in the hands of different people, the overall appearance of the spell does not change.

They had never seen anyone who could perform Yang-like flaming in a way that made it rotate and burn like a fire ring.

Furthermore, they felt that the flame's combustion seemed not to be actively controlled by Immortal Jiu Yang, but rather due to Xiang Ziyu's spell?

Suddenly, in the next moment, this rotating flame spun faster and faster, finally separating, becoming clusters of flame that explosively shot out in all directions.

The Yin Yang Sect members, completely bewildered, were at a loss.

"What is happening?"

"Immortal Jiu Yang's spell was broken?"

"That was a Yellow Grade Upper Level spell of our Yin Yang Sect, broken by a Yellow Level Mid Grade spell?"

"Why did it happen like this?"

The crowd couldn't figure out what was going on at all.

Luckily, the disciples with weaker cultivation who were observing from a distance knew the battle involved two Earth Immortal Realm figures, and stayed far away, so they weren't affected by the aftermath.

Xiang Ziyu, after breaking Immortal Jiu Yang's spell with one strike, did not attack immediately. Instead, he looked at everyone, and began to boast, "A spell isn't necessarily better because of its higher grade. While what you cast was a Yellow Grade Upper Level spell, you're not proficient with it.

When you cast this spell, the flame power and Pure Yang power within it didn't perfectly fuse together. Moreover, you cultivate Pure Yang Qi, so your spell should be centered around Pure Yang Qi. However, you performed a spell centered around flame, which makes this spell unsuitable for you. Also, the flaming qi in your spell is already abundant, yet you insist on using a fire element treasure. Aren't you just causing yourself unnecessary trouble? Are you cultivating flame or Pure Yang?

Therefore, I only needed to target this point and separate these two powers. Naturally, your spell would be broken."

On the face of Immortal Jiu Yang, once filled with mesmerizing beauty, there was now solemnity written all over. Her Yang-like flaming, while not her most practiced spell, was considered competent enough in her eyes and presentable at the very least.

Previously, when she practiced against other experts of the Yin Yang Sect in this era, she also performed Yang-like flaming, and no one ever felt her mastery was inadequate, let alone broke her spell.

But Xiang Ziyu broke her spell so easily!

This was the first time Xiang Ziyu witnessed her perform this spell. How did he manage that?

Around them, the high-ranking members of the Yin Yang Sect listened to Xiang Ziyu's words, each heart filled with shock. Many had sparred with Immortal Jiu Yang, but never noticed any flaws in her Yang-like flaming.

And yet Xiang Ziyu, an outsider, spotted the flaw at a glance and even broke it. The terror of this is unimaginable!

Xiang Ziyu made it sound simple, but to actually separate Immortal Jiu Yang's spell was not that easy!

After finishing his explanation, Xiang Ziyu continued to gaze at the opponent, waiting for Immortal Jiu Yang to attack again. He came to invite someone to help the Hundred Peaks Sect through a Sect Tribulation, not to genuinely challenge them, so how could he attack actively?

He is the protagonist, after all. Isn't the protagonist supposed to win by moral persuasion?

Otherwise, why would he explain how he broke the opponent's spell?

But the problem is, after all this time, why hasn't Immortal Jiu Yang made a move?

He was in a time crunch, after all. Once he found someone, he still needed to hurry back to the Hundred Peaks Sect and continue cultivating since he hadn't cultivated to the limit yet.

His master had said that the Longevity Period has its limits. How could he not reach the limit as the protagonist!

Since Immortal Jiu Yang wasn't acting, he decided he would.

Within Xiang Ziyu, streams of pure Yang qi surged, permeating his entire body. Under the gathered lights, it seemingly ignited like a roaring flame, looking from afar as if he wore a cloak of fire.

In the distance, people sensed Xiang Ziyu's change, all frowning. Was Xiang Ziyu going to attack? Again, using only Yang qi without utilizing his Yin qi? Furthermore, using flame after Immortal Jiu Yang just applied flame? This was obviously deliberate.

In the next moment, the flames around him gathered, forming a fire sword which rushed towards Immortal Jiu Yang.

Chapter 1608:

Although it was also a flame being shot out, compared to the spell cast by Immortal Jiu Yang before, when his spell was released, the surrounding temperature did not rise significantly. People felt as though it wasn't a flame, but purely the Power of Pure Yang!

Although Immortal Jiu Yang had never seen this spell before, from the power of the spell, she instantly judged that it was a Yellow Level Upper Grade spell!

Her eyes focused, and the immortal power within her rapidly surged. From the center of the golden wheel in her hand, a golden light suddenly shot out, connecting into a sheet, like a vast golden ocean, falling upon Xiang Ziyu's spell.

Yang He Awakens the Insects!

She mastered two Yellow Level Upper Grade spells in total, and this was the other one. Compared to the fierce midday sun, her Yang He Awakens the Insects was even more proficient!

The golden light repeatedly washed over, constantly dissolving the Flame Sword shot out by Xiang Ziyu. In just a short moment, the flame sharp sword seemed about to completely dissipate.

But in the next moment, this Flame Sword suddenly burst out with an incomparably bright light, the flames on the sharp sword exploded with a thunderous bang, and the violent aura pushed back all the golden light around it. The flame-disappearing sharp sword, like a bolt of lightning, suddenly shot out, aiming straight for Immortal Jiu Yang's face.

The change happened so quickly that Immortal Jiu Yang didn't even have time to cast another spell, and the Pure Yang sharp sword had already flown in front of her.

At that critical moment, in front of her, the golden wheel began to spin rapidly, and streams of flame shot out from this golden wheel. In an instant, a wall of flames was formed, enveloping Immortal Jiu Yang entirely within it.

It was just a wall of fire, yet it seemed to consist of countless layers. As the Pure Yang sharp sword fell into it, it was weakened layer by layer and disappeared without a trace in an instant.

Looking at the dissipating sword light, Immortal Jiu Yang's face showed no sign of joy. This was just one spell attack from the opponent, and yet she had used a Yellow Level Upper Grade spell, followed by her own treasure, to block Xiang Ziyu's attack.

Moreover, Xiang Ziyu had only simply used the Power of Pure Yang, not the Yin Yang power. What if Xiang Ziyu exerted all his might using the Yin Yang power?

Xiang Ziyu hadn't used any treasure at all. What if Xiang Ziyu also used a treasure?

Earlier, she had boldly claimed that if Xiang Ziyu could withstand her three attacks, he would be considered victorious, but now it seems that if Xiang Ziyu unleashed his full force, she might be severely injured even if she blocked three of his attacks!

Although Xiang Ziyu's Immortal Mountain was only two zhang higher than hers, the power disparity between them was not just two zhang short!

After releasing the spell, Xiang Ziyu even took the initiative to explain: "This spell was taught to me by my master. Actually, it wasn't particularly suitable for me, because this spell primarily focuses on flames. However, I modified it slightly to focus on Yang energy, making it immediately very suitable for me.

See, just making a small change can produce a world of difference. When cultivating spells, you can't always be so rigid; you need to learn to adapt."

All around, people were shocked by the terrifying nature of Xiang Ziyu's spell. Suddenly hearing Xiang Ziyu's theory, they were left speechless. Listen, what is this talk? Is this human speech?

What do you mean by making a slight change?

Can spells be modified at will? Making a small change to a spell, if lucky, the spell's power might decrease, or the spell might fail to cast. If unlucky, it could directly backfire!

Not being rigid and needing to adapt?

That's not adapting, that's courting death!

Yet they couldn't refute it, because in the recent battle, Xiang Ziyu was clearly in the dominant position, and Xiang Ziyu indeed easily broke Immortal Jiu Yang's spell, while Immortal Jiu Yang couldn't break through Xiang Ziyu's spell.

They really couldn't understand how, since the reversal of the Little Millennium just ended recently, in such a short time, how Xiang Ziyu could cultivate to the Peak of the Longevity Period, which was already astonishing enough. How were his spells also so proficient?

Cultivation of spells also takes time. Spells aren't divine skills; they take a very long time to cultivate.

In such a short time, how did Xiang Ziyu manage to cultivate spells to such a profound level?

They also knew that there were geniuses in the world, and all of them were considered geniuses by others. But just the spell Xiang Ziyu had displayed, that level of mastery, was the talent of talents, a genius among geniuses. Without three or five decades, it shouldn't have been possible to cultivate to such an extent!

How did Xiang Ziyu manage to cultivate his cultivation realm to the Peak of the Longevity Period, and at the same time, cultivate his spells to such a deep level?

And these were just two spells; they didn't believe that Xiang Ziyu only cultivated these two spells.

On Four Treasures Peak, there was also a Lower Profound Grade spell. It was impossible for Xiang Ziyu not to cultivate that spell!

They finally somewhat understood how Xiang Ziyu could, at the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills stage, bring both his spells and physical body to the Golden Core Period Limit.

This was simply a prodigy among prodigies!

As Xiang Ziyu's words fell, the surrounding area plunged into silence.

One by one, disciples of the Yin Yang Sect could not believe everything they had just seen. Although the battle between Xiang Ziyu and Immortal Jiu Yang had yet to be decided, it was apparent to all of them that Xiang Ziyu was clearly in the dominant position. If it were a life-and-death duel, Immortal Jiu Yang would likely have been severely injured, or even killed!

Chapter 1609:

Immortal Jiu Yang, yet she is the pinnacle of the Yin Yang Sect, but compared to Xiang Ziyu, she's lacking so much.

And Xiang Ziyu is merely from one sect!

For a long time, the voice of Immortal Jiu Yang broke the silence.

"Now that three moves have passed, I admit defeat, and if it weren't for Brother Xiang sparing me, I would have been severely injured!"

With a complex expression, Immortal Jiu Yang looked at Xiang Ziyu. When she saw Xiang Ziyu's Immortal Mountain towering at ninety-six zhang, she knew she wouldn't be his match. After all, she merely cultivated Pure Yang Qi, while Xiang Ziyu cultivated Yin Yang Qi.

Yin Yang Qi is undoubtedly much stronger than mere Yang Qi.

She simply hadn't expected to be defeated by him so thoroughly, just by his Yang Qi alone. Xiang Ziyu hadn't even used Yin Breath; he...

Suddenly, the disappointment on Immortal Jiu Yang's face vanished completely, and her gaze towards Xiang Ziyu became increasingly ardent, as if looking at a rare and precious treasure.

Xiang Ziyu cultivated Yin Yang Qi, so whether with someone cultivating Pure Yang Qi or Pure Yin Qi, he could engage in dual cultivation...

Jiu Yin could dual cultivate with him, and she could too!

Moreover, Junior Sister Jiu Yin has already fallen behind; she is only at the early stage of the Longevity Period, while she has reached the peak, as has Xiang Ziyu. Clearly, she is more suitable.

If she could dual cultivate with Xiang Ziyu, she could also possess Yin Yang power.

In the Yin Yang Sect, to ultimately reach the Great Dao, one must cultivate Yin Yang power.

Thinking this, she suddenly spoke: "Brother Xiang, you mentioned before that this time, the Hundred Peaks Sect is looking for those whose Immortal Mountain exceeds ninety zhang to assist in crossing the Sect Tribulation, correct?"

It so happens that my Immortal Mountain is over ninety zhang; I'm willing to go to the Hundred Peaks Sect to help cross the Sect Tribulation."

Xiang Ziyu immediately smiled, indeed, the protagonist is the protagonist. He barely acted, yet immediately impressed his opponent, making Immortal Jiu Yang voluntarily go to the Hundred Peaks Sect to assist in crossing the Sect Tribulation.

After Immortal Jiu Yang spoke, a surprise flashed across the faces of those around her. You were targeting Xiang Ziyu before, so why are you the first to offer help at the Hundred Peaks Sect now?

No, the Hundred Peaks Sect has Cao Zhen and someone as powerful as Xiang Ziyu. Chances are the Hundred Peaks Sect can pass the Sect Tribulation, meaning, by going there, it almost guarantees the selection of a Heavenly Dao-bestowed treasure.

The sect tribulation of the Hundred Peaks Sect is one to become a Great Teaching, and Heaven's rewards won't be inferior to those of an outer decamillennial tribulation. Moreover, helping at the Hundred Peaks Sect not only allows cultivation amid Immortal Qi but is also a certain gain.

Several experts from the Yin Yang Sect quickly reacted, speaking up one after another.

"I'm also willing to go to the Hundred Peaks Sect to assist in crossing the Sect Tribulation."

"Count me in too!"

"I haven't ventured out in ages; this time is perfect for some activity."

"Now that you mention it, I've never been to the Eastern Wasteland, I'll join you!"

As Immortal Jiu Yang finished speaking, four experts spoke one after another, while they released their Immortal Mountains to prove theirs exceeded ninety zhang.

Xiang Ziyu glanced at the crowd and gently shook his head, saying: "I'd love for everyone to assist us at the Hundred Peaks Sect, but Heaven allows only ten people to help cross the tribulation. We've already selected seven, so we can only choose three more."

"What? You've already selected seven people?"

"Why didn't you mention it sooner?"

"Wait... Taoist Xiang, this time is about finding people to help cross the Sect Tribulation, it's a significant matter, and naturally requires those with sufficient cultivation base." An elder with an Immortal Mountain at ninety zhang proactively advised.

Nearby, another cultivator with an Immortal Mountain equally ninety zhang high quickly responded in agreement: "Indeed, Taoist Xiang, since it's about selecting people to assist with the Sect Tribulation, it's naturally important to choose the strongest. It's essential not to let good relationships influence the choice—select based on strength alone.

Besides, given the relationship between the Yin Yang Sect and your Hundred Peaks Sect, you needn't worry that our sect would intentionally sabotage."

With five individuals from the Yin Yang Sect offering to go to the Hundred Peaks Sect to help cross the tribulation, and they were the ones with the shortest Immortal Mountains, Xiang Ziyu taking away three would inevitably eliminate them, making them anxious.

In normal circumstances, when Great Teachings sought help for crossing tribulations, they'd seek those in the Immortality Regainment Realm, especially the elites therein; such opportunities were rare for them to participate in the tribulation for a piece of the Heavenly Dao's treasure.

Finally having such an opportunity, how could they miss it!

Xiang Ziyu glanced at the two speakers, shrugged helplessly, and said: "Naturally, we're looking for the strongest, and the additional seven we've chosen all have Immortal Mountains exceeding ninety zhang."

"What? You've already found seven with Immortal Mountains over ninety zhang?"

"This..."

Momentarily speechless, the two couldn't find the words, being outmatched, what could they say?

Having concluded choosing, everyone quickly proceeded to head towards the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Chapter 1610:

And the number of people they brought directly decided, it was Jiu Yin, after all, Jiu Yin and Xiang Ziyu were familiar, and Jiu Yin herself was also highly valued as a genius by the Yin Yang Sect.

Jiu Yin was originally quite happy to go to the Hundred Peaks Sect, but slowly, her expression became extremely ugly; her senior sister, Immortal Jiu Yang, actually wanted to dual cultivate with Xiang Ziyu!

"Senior sister! What are you doing!" Jiu Yin was completely at a loss, "Good for you, Jiu Yang, you kept saying earlier that Xiang Ziyu was bad here and bad there, saying you would teach him a lesson to vent my anger, but now you see Xiang Ziyu is a genius, and you turn around and want to compete with your junior sister for a Dao companion!"

"Have you forgotten what Master said when he was asleep, telling you to take good care of me, is this how you take good care of me?"

"Junior sister, don't be agitated, rest assured, senior sister will surely find you a suitable Dao companion." Immortal Jiu Yang comforted Jiu Yin, then turned to Xiang Ziyu, just about to continue discussing the benefits of dual cultivation, but Xiang Ziyu's voice interrupted first.

"Dual cultivation? Why must it be dual cultivation? Or rather, why does dual cultivation have to be between Dao companions? One of you is Yin and the other is Yang, although your cultivation bases differ now, this difference isn't large, at least you both are at the Longevity Period. Actually, I think you two can dual cultivate as well... don't look at me like that, the dual cultivation I'm talking about is different from what you understand.

I don't understand your dual cultivation either; once our Hundred Peaks Sect gets through the Sect Tribulation, and I have time, we can study dual cultivation together."

Xiang Ziyu was very interested in the Yin Yang Sect's so-called dual cultivation, not dual cultivation, but one cultivates Yin Breath and the other cultivates Yang Breath, then merging them together for mutual supplementation, he wanted to know what principle that was.

Beside them, two other Longevity Period experts from the Yin Yang Sect on the flying boat suddenly had strange expressions—three people together? Nowadays, the younger generation, really impressive.

They're old, truly old.

As Xiang Ziyu and others returned to the Hundred Peaks Sect, the invited experts within the sect had already gathered.

Just ten days after Xiang Ziyu's return to the Hundred Peaks Sect, the originally clear and boundless void suddenly dimmed without warning, and in the next moment, the void became extremely bright, then darkened again.

In this way, the entire world flickered, and in the void, the sun and moon emerged, besides a gigantic apparition, a relic apparition!

This apparition appeared not far from the Hundred Peaks Sect!

As the apparition appeared, alongside the Hundred Peaks Sect, then Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, followed by the Eastern Wasteland, and then Eastern Province, one cultivator after another noticed the changes in heaven and earth.

"Heavenly phenomenon and a relic apparition, a peerless relic has appeared!"

"This is... the direction of the Eastern Wasteland!"

"Within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty!"

"Hundred Peaks Sect, it must be the Hundred Peaks Sect! The Hundred Peaks Sect has annexed a Great Teaching and is going through a Sect Tribulation; this is the glimmer of hope left for the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"Such a relic is not to be missed; let's head to the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"Yes, although we may not obtain anything useful for us, if we get something the Hundred Peaks Sect needs, we can sell it to them at a high price."

"Sell to Hundred Peaks Sect? They are just a sect; probably don't have much money to buy, right?"

"They may not have money, but Cao Zhen is a reincarnated Great Ability; if they don't have money, they can give pills, right?"

"Let's go, to the Hundred Peaks Sect!"

In Eastern Province, experts from various Great Teachings at the Longevity Period began to take action, and even some at the Golden Core Stage were eager to try their luck at the relic.

Inside the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, experts from various sects were also preparing to set out.

"This is the opportunity the Heavenly Dao gave to the Hundred Peaks Sect, but experts from across the Eastern Province will vie for the treasures inside. Without the Hundred Peaks Sect, our sects might have already perished, and at this time, we cannot sit by!"

"That's right, actually even for ourselves, we must go. Our Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, even our Eastern Wasteland, needs a Great Teaching.

Only in this way can we stop the relentless intrusion from the powers of Eastern Province. As for the Hundred Peaks Sect becoming a Great Teaching and its impact on us, the impact is not significant.

Hundred Peaks Sect is not a sect with a strong desire for conquest, as for the mortals, when they see Hundred Peaks Sect becoming Hundred Peaks Teaching, wanting their children to join hundred peaks teaching, we can't stop them.

Moreover, even now some children with good cultivation talent choose not to join our sects but strive to join the Great Teachings of Eastern Province, rather than benefiting those Great Teachings, I would prefer to benefit the Hundred Peaks Sect. At least, Hundred Peaks Sect is one of us, when we encounter trouble, Hundred Peaks Sect will also help us."

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, many disciples of Hundred Peaks Sect began to take action, flying towards the mountain gate's direction, but before they could fly out, a voice from the gate stopped them.

"What are you intending to do?" Cao Zhen stood atop the mountain gate, where the formation had yet to be set up, looking toward the disciples of Hundred Peaks Sect flying in.

"Sect Leader, the relic has appeared. This is the chance the Heavenly Dao left our Hundred Peaks Sect; naturally, we must go to the relic, to vie for the treasures inside, to fight for our survival!"
