

My Master 1611

Chapter 1611: The Sect Master's Decision

"Indeed, Sect Leader, we absolutely cannot miss that relic."

Cao Zhen nodded slightly, but his tone was unusually stiff: "The relic has just appeared. What are you going there for? Such relics take a long time to open. What use is there in going now? Waiting outside the relic, wasting time for nothing? With this time, why not strive to cultivate?"

Saying this, he pointed to the group of young disciples in the distance and raised his voice: "And you, what are you, all in the Golden Core Stage, and some even in the Core Formation Stage, going to the relic for? To throw your lives away?"

"Sect Leader, we are not afraid of death!"

"Yes, Sect Leader, we are also disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect, and we want to contribute to the Hundred Peaks Sect as well. Our cultivation base is limited, and by the time sect tribulation comes, we might be of no use. So, we might as well go into the relic."

In the relic, it's not just strength that determines if you can obtain treasures. This relic is a chance given to our Hundred Peaks Sect by the Heavenly Dao, so the treasures within must be related to our Hundred Peaks Sect. Therefore, if we enter the relic, we might bring back some treasures and contribute to the Hundred Peaks Sect in this way."

"Yes, Sect Leader, we also know we've been impulsive. Since the relic won't be open now, we'll go when it opens."

Cao Zhen looked at those young faces, and a surge of warmth crossed his heart. These are the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect!

"You are all good disciples of our Hundred Peaks Sect, and I am proud of the Hundred Peaks Sect because of you," Cao Zhen said, his expression suddenly turning cold, "Do you think you are great, that what you're doing is meaningful?"

Foolish, extremely foolish!

You are right, in the relics, it's not just the strong who can acquire treasures. Our Hundred Peaks Sect indeed has an easier time getting treasures from them.

But does our Hundred Peaks Sect know this and think the other great teachings do not? Especially those from the Demonic Sect, do you know what actions they might take?

I have been to the relics twice before sect tribulation for great teachings.

I can tell you clearly, when others find you, they will want to eliminate you without fail.

Back then, whether it was the Musical Rhythm relic of the Five Sounds Sect or the relic of the Heaven Prayers Sect, it was the same. If others kill you, then our Hundred Peaks Sect people have to protect you. In the end, your masters, your uncles, your senior brothers and sisters might be killed because of you!

And have you ever thought that if you die in there, even if our Hundred Peaks Sect becomes a great teaching, so what? What about our future then?

What you need to do now is to cultivate well, take advantage of the celestial energy within our Hundred Peaks Sect, and train fanatically to elevate your cultivation bases.

Only by improving your cultivation can you help the Hundred Peaks Sect as soon as possible!"

After reprimanding these young disciples, Cao Zhen then looked towards those in the Earth Immortal Realm and said: "And you too, you don't need to go this time."

"What?"

"Sect Leader, we are in the Earth Immortal Realm, why are we not allowed to go!"

Upon hearing Cao Zhen's words, the crowd was instantly unsettled.

"Sect Leader, if none of us go, how will we seize the treasures within the relic?"

"Yes, Sect Leader, that relic is the chance given to our Hundred Peaks Sect by the Heavenly Dao. It cannot be abandoned."

Cao Zhen looked at the crowd, shook his head slightly, and said: "Who said I want to give up. Having helped the Five Sounds Sect through sect tribulation, I understand better than you how crucial the relics are to a great teaching about to undergo tribulation."

The crowd heard this and became puzzled.

"Sect Leader, since this is the case, why don't you let us go?"

Cao Zhen pointed to himself and said: "When the time comes, I will personally go. As for you, just focus on cultivating here. Like them, now what you need to do is to work hard to improve your cultivation bases."

Upon hearing this, the crowd became anxious and began to shout loudly.

"Sect Leader? You personally want to go?"

"Sect Leader, we know you are strong, but going alone also carries dangers. What if others besiege you?"

"Yes, Sect Leader, we are not questioning you, but going alone means the chances of obtaining treasures from within the relic are much smaller."

Cao Zhen shook his head slightly, pointing towards the direction of Four Treasures Peak, and said: "I am not going alone. When the time comes, I will take the disciples from Four Treasures Peak along to secure the treasures within the relic. Ultimately, they will belong to our Hundred Peaks Sect."

Back then, when I led the disciples to the relics of Five Sounds Sect and Heaven Prayers Sect, we didn't even have as many disciples as we do now from Four Treasures Peak, yet the most important treasures within those relics all ended up in our hands. The relics of Four Treasures Peak would be no exception.

Moreover, our Hundred Peaks Sect relics must be related to our Hundred Peaks Sect. At that time, whether it's music, chess, books, painting, or the Way of Dao, Confucianism, Buddhism, Sword Dao, Way of Blade Techniques... who in this world can compare with me?

Therefore, you don't need to worry about the relic. What you need to focus on is cultivation. Take advantage of this time when there is celestial energy to improve your own strength so that you can help our Hundred Peaks Sect to the greatest extent!"

Cao Zhen knew that the more people from the Hundred Peaks Sect went into the relic, the higher the chance of obtaining the relic's treasures. However, he truly couldn't feel at ease letting the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect enter the relics.

Just as he had said before, others also know that people from the Hundred Peaks Sect have an easier time acquiring the relics' treasures, so others would certainly target the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect. They do not want to see the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect just die in the relic.

Moreover, the Hundred Peaks Sect still has some enemies; those from the great teachings wouldn't want to see the Hundred Peaks Sect become a great teaching, such as the Bleeding Tears Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

If they were to unite and join forces with some demonic sects' powers to jointly kill the people of the Hundred Peaks Sect?

Back then, in the relics of the Heaven Prayers Sect, those from the great teachings always targeted, and mercilessly killed the disciples of the Heaven Prayers Sect, to ensure the failure of their tribulation.

Who knows if others would also do that!

So the best way is to let all the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect, whether those in the Earth Immortal Realm or the Golden Core Stage, stay to cultivate.

And he would lead the disciples of Four Treasures Peak to the relic.

With the strength of the Four Treasures Peak disciples, even if others wanted to target them, they could not.

In fact, he could directly target those from the great teachings, such as preventing them from entering the relic!

Chapter 1612:

The Bloodless Demon had been quite troubled lately, realizing that his luck had been exceptionally poor these days.

He had already planned how to secretly deal with Cao Zhen, but then, a Fourth Dangerous Terrain appeared. It was tolerable enough that the Fourth Dangerous Terrain emerged; once Cao Zhen left the terrain, the news he spread would inevitably lure Cao Zhen with the temptations of the Instant Millennium Pearl. The plan could still proceed, albeit later than anticipated.

The outcome, however, was unforeseen. Cao Zhen obtained an Instant Millennium Pearl from within the Fourth Dangerous Terrain and even annexed a great teaching.

Now, throughout the Eastern Province, the only great teaching that Cao Zhen could annex would be the Void Breaking Sect. Yet, the Void Breaking Sect remains intact. No one knows where Cao Zhen found another great teaching to annex.

Of course, these matters were no longer significant. What truly mattered was ensuring the Hundred Peaks Sect's failure in crossing the Sect Tribulation!

The Hundred Peaks Sect and their Weeping Blood Demon Sect were already arch-enemies. If the Hundred Peaks Sect succeeded in becoming the Hundred Peaks Sect again, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect would gain an additional great teaching as a mortal foe. Once the experts within the sect awaken, how would they see him?

However, if they used this opportunity to extinguish the Hundred Peaks Sect now, there would be no repercussions.

To ensure the Hundred Peaks Sect's failure in crossing the tribulation, the best and most direct method was to leverage the current relic.

In the Conference Hall of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, all the senior members gathered as the Bloodless Demon composed himself and addressed the assembly: "Everyone must be aware that the newly emerged relic is a lifeline left by the Heavenly Dao to the Hundred Peaks Sect. You all know the relationship between us, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, and the Hundred Peaks Sect.

We, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, must not allow the Hundred Peaks Sect to become a great teaching. For this relic, I've contacted the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. Once the relic opens, the experts of our Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect will enter with only one mission — to exterminate the people of the Hundred Peaks Sect!

Regarding the treasures inside the relic, if they can be taken easily, do so; if not, focus on slaughtering the Hundred Peaks Sect members! Although the Hundred Peaks Sect has strong practitioners like Cao Zhen, they remain a mere sect. Their Earth Immortal Realm numbers cannot compare with those of a genuine great teaching, and their cultivation bases are far below the average level of a great teaching's disciples.

By killing enough disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect, when the sect's tribulation arrives, they won't have sufficient members. No matter how strong Cao Zhen is, he won't be able to help the Hundred Peaks Sect withstand the Heavenly Tribulation!

Moreover, by slaughtering their disciples within the relic, the odds of the Hundred Peaks Sect obtaining treasures will greatly diminish."

The Bloodless Demon was not soliciting opinions but issuing his command.

His gaze swept over everyone until it settled on a middle-aged man with unremarkable features and slightly dark skin. He spoke, "This time, heading to the Hundred Peaks Sect will be assigned to Junior Disciple Blood Calling."

The last time they launched an assault on the Hundred Peaks Sect, it was led by the Love-Blood Devil. Though the subsequent failure could not entirely be blamed on the Love-Blood Devil, failure was failure. It obviously wouldn't be appropriate for the Love-Blood Devil to lead this time.

Furthermore, for this sortie, they intended to deploy more elite experts, which the Love-Blood Devil could not command.

The Blood Calling Demon was currently the second-most powerful expert within the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, beneath only him.

"As expected, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Void Breaking Demonic Sect would not pass up this opportunity with the opening of the relic."

Watching through the China Cloud the meeting of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, Cao Zhen's eyes flashed with a deep, cold killing intent. Killing the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect? Let's see who kills whom when the time comes!

Time passed day by day.

Outside the Hundred Peaks Relics, the crowd grew increasingly large. Earth Immortals from the Eastern Province and the Eastern Wasteland gathered around the relic.

In the blink of an eye, nearly three months had slipped by since the relic's appearance.

"It's about time for the relic to open; it's also time to set off."

Cao Zhen finished arranging the formation before him, looked toward the direction of the Four Treasures Peak, and called out with his immortal power, "Disciples of the Four Treasures Peak, come with me to the relic."

His voice echoed like rolling thunder throughout the Hundred Peaks Sect.

As the voice faded, within the Hundred Peaks Sect, eleven figures took to the sky, swiftly landing before Cao Zhen. Besides the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect, there was also Qiao Jingyao.

Before anyone could move, a shadow sped swiftly from afar, voice arriving ahead of the person.

"I'll go too." Immortal Bi Yue landed directly before Cao Zhen; she had nearly completed her cultivation in the Hundred Peaks Sect. Considerable time had passed since Cao Zhen used pills to help her achieve the Longevity Period's peak. Her cultivation base was nearly fixed, with little chance of rapid improvement in the short term. Since cultivation couldn't advance much further, it was better to head to the relic.

Currently, the Hundred Peaks Sect was large enough, with numerous unclaimed peaks. Among those who came to aid the Hundred Peaks Sect in crossing the Sect Tribulation were people from the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect, each finding a mountain peak for cultivation.

From a distance, on the Yin Yang Sect's mountain peak, Immortal Jiu Yang listened to Immortal Bi Yue's voice, a look of sudden realization appearing on her face. No wonder Immortal Bi Yue was with Cao Zhen. Look at her actions; she had the perfect chance to cultivate within the Hundred Peaks Sect, yet she passed up on this rare opportunity, choosing instead to aid Cao Zhen even if it meant halting her cultivation.

Chapter 1613:

Could Cao Zhen not be moved?

Since she can help Cao Zhen, why can't I help Xiang Ziyu?

Immortal Jiu Yang's heart stirred, her body suddenly soared, she was even afraid that Cao Zhen and the others might leave now, and shouted while flying, "Count me in, I'm going too."

As her voice fell, many in the Hundred Peaks Sect looked up with curiosity and wondered toward the void.

Everyone felt it was reasonable for Immortal Bi Yue to accompany, after all, everyone was aware of the relationship between Immortal Bi Yue and Cao Zhen. But what about Immortal Jiu Yang?

Immortal Jiu Yang landed in front of everyone, looking righteous, "Everyone, our Yin Yang Sect has always had close ties with the Hundred Peaks Sect. The matter of the Hundred Peaks Sect is the matter of our Yin Yang Sect. If the Hundred Peaks Sect is going to the ruins, our Yin Yang Sect must act."

She made her stance clear, saying that this time she wasn't going to seize treasures for herself, but to help the Hundred Peaks Sect find treasure.

After speaking, Immortal Jiu Yang gazed at Xiang Ziyu with affectionate eyes, "All this is for you; are you moved or not?"

As she arrived, another figure descended from the void.

Shi Shoujiang!

Although he did not speak, his attitude conveyed his sentiments.

Immortal Jiu Yang curiously glanced at Shi Shoujiang. Among those helping the Hundred Peaks Sect in their tribulations, whether from the Dragon Chant Sect or the Cloud Reaching Sect, she knew them all, but this person she had little knowledge of. She only knew he was a disciple of the alleged Grand Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

Cao Zhen nodded at everyone and was about to set off when in the distance more figures flew in.

Li Ke, Liè Yàn, Liao Youdi, Shen Lid, and Zi Zai also descended.

Liè Yàn cupped his hand towards Cao Zhen and said, "Sect Leader, we're going too."

Cao Zhen glanced at the five, hesitated slightly, then quickly nodded and said, "Alright, we will go together." This time, to the ruins, he only intended to bring those with the highest combat power.

Through pills, these five had directly elevated to the peak of the Longevity Period. As for their Hundred Peaks Sect experts leaving entirely, the safety of the Hundred Peaks Sect was nothing to fear.

Currently, outside the Hundred Peaks Sect, the power of the Instant Millennium Pearl remains to protect them, a force not easily breached. Besides, he left Little Yin Dragon within the Hundred Peaks Sect, and there are still the experts helping with the tribulations. Though they're here to assist with the tribulations, if the Hundred Peaks Sect were truly attacked, would they not intervene?

Moreover, the ruins are close enough to the Hundred Peaks Sect. They are all now of the Earth Immortal Realm, and it wouldn't take a day to return from the ruins, so there's no need to worry about the safety of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

As Cao Zhen's words fell, in the distance more figures flew in.

"Sect Leader, we're going too. We're old enough, and our talents are average. Continuing cultivation won't improve us much."

"Yes, Sect Leader, they are still young, and talented. Let them stay to practice; we'll go."

"Sect Leader, we're going too."

More and more figures flew from afar. Although Cao Zhen initially said only Four Treasures Peak disciples would go to the ruins, once they were about to depart, other Earth Immortal Realm members from the Hundred Peaks Sect couldn't resist flying over again.

"Nonsense." Cao Zhen watched as more Earth Immortal members flew in, his face turned cold, exerting the authority of a sect leader, "Stay within the Hundred Peaks Sect and cultivate. I have made the decision on this matter!"

Saying this, he felt his tone wasn't enough and added, "Anyone disobeying orders, leaving the Hundred Peaks Sect without permission, regardless of who it is, shall be treated as a traitor to the sect!"

With one sentence, the surrounding crowd fell silent.

Cao Zhen then turned and led the group away from the Hundred Peaks Sect, flying towards the ruins.

As he flew, he kept watching the situation with the Weeping Blood Demon Sect through the China Cloud Observatory. After all, such ruins have many entrances; he needed to find where the Weeping Blood Demon Sect people were, at which entrance.

"Hmm? The Weeping Blood Demon Sect members aren't grouped with the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect ones. They plan to enter the ruins from different entrances, increasing the chances of encountering our Hundred Peaks Sect disciples.

Moreover, these people..."

Cao Zhen glanced, noting about over a hundred Weeping Blood Demon Sect disciples where the Love-Blood Devil was. Over a hundred people, quite a number, but the number sent by the Weeping Blood Demon Sect to the ruins surely exceeds this.

"Troublesome, after slaughtering them, we'll have to find these two great sects' people again."

He would rather all these great sect members gather together, making them easier to wipe out in one sweep.

Because there are numerous entrances, these entrances are relatively not too far apart.

At one of the entrance sites, it was occupied by people dressed in black.

Near the entrance of the ruins, many glanced at the group of black-clad people, whispering among themselves.

"It's surprising that the Weeping Blood Demon Sect sent so many, directly occupying one entrance. On my way here, I also saw Weeping Blood Demon Sect members at another entrance. Previously, whether it was the Five Sounds Sect's relic or Heaven Prayers Sect's relic, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect never dispatched such a significant number."

Chapter 1614:

"This time, the power undergoing the Heavenly Tribulation is different. The Bleeding Tears Demon Sect and the Five Sounds Sect have no real enmity with the Heaven Prayers Sect. They merely sent people to the site, not even organizing experts specifically to the site back then."

"But the Hundred Peaks Sect is different. They have a mortal feud with the Hundred Peaks Sect. How could they watch the Hundred Peaks Sect become a Great Teaching without trying everything to create difficulties for them?"

"Yes, in the past, the Bleeding Tears Demon Sect rarely occupied an entrance like this."

"You think, with the Bleeding Tears Demon Sect people at this entrance and ours being too close to theirs, will we be affected once inside? Should we change entrances?"

"Change entrance? Why change entrances? Being close rather works in our favor," analyzed a man in a white robe holding a Yu Shan fan, full of scholar-like aura, quietly to his companions. "Think about it, when the Bleeding Tears Demon Sect people see the Hundred Peaks Sect's people, a conflict will surely arise. They'll be focused on the battle and won't have much energy to search for treasures, which is exactly our opportunity."

"That's true, but what's strange is, this is the site left by the Heavenly Dao for the Hundred Peaks Sect, yet they haven't arrived yet? At this moment, shouldn't they have already sent disciples to occupy several entrances?"

"They might want to spend more time in cultivation. After all, it's not Spiritual Energy in the Hundred Peaks Sect now, but Immortal Energy. Still, I suppose the Hundred Peaks Sect people would have already checked."

As they were talking, suddenly a low shout came from a nearby crowd.

"They're here! Look at that flying boat, it's the Hundred Peaks Sect's flying boat!"

Immediately, everyone, including the Bleeding Tears Demon Sect people, looked up into the void and were momentarily stunned.

"Just one flying boat?"

"This flying boat doesn't look big, seems to be a boat for twenty or thirty people!"

"What's going on? This is related to whether their Hundred Peaks Sect can pass the Sect Tribulation, why did they only send one flying boat?"

"What is the Hundred Peaks Sect thinking?"

"Perhaps there's another flying boat we haven't seen yet?"

"How is that possible? Once they send people, they'd send them all at once, not in batches? Their enemies aren't just Bleeding Tears Demon Sect, wouldn't they worry that other Great Teachings might trouble them if their forces are scattered?"

Filled with confusion, the crowd watched as the flying boat disappeared into the sky, revealing silhouettes one by one.

"Silver and orange wings, that's Cao Zhen!"

"And those are disciples of Four Treasures Peak."

"And those few young people, they're famous geniuses of the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"Is the Hundred Peaks Sect sending out all their experts?"

"Strange, why are there some unfamiliar faces?"

"And there's Immortal Bi Yue, she came with the Hundred Peaks Sect's people."

"It's not surprising for Bi Yue to be here, everyone in the Eastern Province knows of her connection with Cao Zhen. But why is Immortal Jiu Yang from the Yin Yang Sect here?"

The crowd looked in amazement at Immortal Jiu Yang following closely behind Xiang Ziyu.

Immortal Jiu Yang, who has a great reputation in the Eastern Province, is one of the top talents of the current generation of disciples in the Yin Yang Sect.

"Yes, I've heard about the Hundred Peaks Sect going to the Yin Yang Sect, probably seeking their experts to help with the Sect Tribulation. But helping with the tribulation doesn't include coming to the site to help seize treasures!"

"Strange, isn't it? The Yin Yang Sect's help for the Hundred Peaks Sect for the tribulation isn't limited to just one Immortal Jiu Yang, so why is only Immortal Jiu Yang here?"

"Didn't they say Immortal Jiu Yin was close with Xiang Ziyu, why is it Immortal Jiu Yang now?"

"That's not the strangest part," someone from the crowd voiced skeptically. "The Hundred Peaks Sect sent out all their experts. It's obviously to seize the treasures at the site, but why did they send their experts yet not any Earth Immortal Realm individuals? Isn't that contradictory?"

"Indeed, if the Hundred Peaks Sect sent out all Earth Immortal Realm members, I wouldn't be surprised. But they only sent exactly twenty people, what's that supposed to mean?"

"They can't expect just these twenty people to seize treasures in the site, can they?"

As they kept discussing, their voices gradually lowered as Cao Zhen descended from the void with a crowd to their location, or rather, to the location of the Bleeding Tears Demon Sect crowd.

The faces of the Bleeding Tears Demon Sect people instantly became solemn. Was Cao Zhen coming for them?

In the next moment, Cao Zhen's voice sounded by their ears.

"Everyone unrelated to the Bleeding Tears Demon Sect, please vacate this space. Otherwise, if you get caught up soon, it won't be good."

Upon hearing this, everyone's expressions turned peculiar. Is the Hundred Peaks Sect going to cause trouble for the Bleeding Tears Demon Sect before the site even opens? Aren't they afraid of losses?

Moreover, they only have a few people, even if Cao Zhen is strong, it's still not enough!

Despite their surprise, everyone started dispersing in all directions, because when you've been warned, staying might lead to unintended consequences!

Chapter 1615:

From the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, Blood Calling Demon's demonic qi was surging rapidly within him, and a Demonic Mountain towering ninety-three zhang emerged behind him.

As he moved, behind him, the members of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect released their Demonic Mountains, and in an instant, numerous Demonic Mountains surfaced. Among them, Love-Blood Devil's mountain reached the height of eighty-nine zhang.

She wasn't a reincarnated Great Ability, yet her cultivation progressed faster than that of a reincarnated Great Ability.

After all, reincarnated Great Abilities cultivate anew in a new body after reincarnation, while she simply severed several paths from her original cultivation, forcibly lowering herself to the Golden Core Stage.

Now, she was merely reclaiming her originally severed cultivation level. Her body hadn't changed, thus her cultivation was naturally faster.

As these Demonic Mountains rose, the crowd who had been approaching from afar retreated some distance further.

"These Demonic Mountains, what terrifying heights!"

"Has the Weeping Blood Demon Sect sent their elite? So many Earth Immortal Realm cultivators, the shortest of their Demonic Mountains is thirty zhang!"

"The Hundred Peaks Sect only has twenty people, how can they be a match!"

Cao Zhen gazed at the members of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, his killing intent surging explosively from within, his voice chilling as he said, "Today, this relic forbids entry to anyone from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. You have three breaths' time to disappear, or die!"

His voice reverberated across the world surrounding the relic.

He purposely said this to draw more people from the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, saving the trouble of searching for those people.

His words dropped, and immediately the surrounding area was in an uproar.

What did Cao Zhen just say?

He actually told the people from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect to get lost!

Was he openly declaring war against the two Great Teachings? With the Hundred Peaks Sect about to undergo the Sect Tribulation, was he going to thoroughly offend people from both Great Teachings to death? Was he mad?

These are two Great Teachings!

They hadn't heard of anyone or any power being so arrogant to directly tell people from two Great Teachings to get lost by name!

In the distance, at another entrance, many Earth Immortal Realm beings from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect listened to the voice coming from afar and instantly flew into a rage!

"Courting death!"

"How dare he tell us to get out!"

"Never has anyone provoked our Great Teaching in such a way!"

"Destroy him!"

"We initially worried about where to find people from the Hundred Peaks Sect, and now they bring themselves to us!"

"Kill!"

In an instant, the people from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect flew towards the direction from which the voice emanated!

Blood Calling Demon listened to Cao Zhen's arrogant words, his face instantly turning an iron shade: "Courting death, encircle them, slaughter them all, don't let a single one escape!" Cao Zhen was strong, but on their side, both he and Love-Blood Devil were present, they were enough to stop Cao Zhen.

Without Cao Zhen, how could the Hundred Peaks Sect match them? The only thing they feared was Immortal Jiu Yang, but Immortal Jiu Yang wasn't a part of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Blood Calling Demon turned to Immortal Xue Fu, advising: "Immortal Jiu Yang, this is a feud between us and the Hundred Peaks Sect, there's no need for you to be involved, and as for Immortal Bi Yue, could you step aside?"

He wasn't particularly wary of Immortal Bi Yue's cultivation base.

However, Immortal Bi Yue's identity was too special; he didn't want to provoke the Dragon Chant Sect.

Immortal Jiu Yang, looking at the disciples of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect surrounding her, showed a troubled expression. She merely came to help the Hundred Peaks Sect gain more treasures. Who would've thought Cao Zhen would be so brazen, confronting the Weeping Blood Demon Sect before even entering the relic!

What should she do?

Having come with the Hundred Peaks Sect, would she not act? What would be the point?

Wouldn't it have been better not to come at all?

But the problem was, she was from the Yin Yang Sect. If she acted, wouldn't that mean the Yin Yang Sect was directly acting against the Weeping Blood Demon Sect?

The Yin Yang Sect didn't fear the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, but there was no need to offend the Yin Yang Sect people without reason.

Or should she follow Immortal Bi Yue? Act together with her?

Just as the thought arose in her mind, Immortal Bi Yue's voice rang.

"The business of the Hundred Peaks Sect is my business, but my affairs are unrelated to the Dragon Chant Sect!"

People all around were speechless at Immortal Bi Yue's words. You say your business isn't related to the Dragon Chant Sect, but just because you say it doesn't make it so.

If you really were killed, see if the people from the Dragon Chant Sect wouldn't go mad!

Moreover, many turned their eyes to Cao Zhen, filled with envy. How fortunate must he be to have someone as talented and special as Immortal Bi Yue so devoted to him!

Jiu Yang was still hesitating over Immortal Bi Yue's words; however, Immortal Bi Yue's position in the Dragon Chant Sect was different from hers, and she couldn't be so willful.

She truly didn't want to provoke the Dragon Chant Sect unnecessarily.

Just as she was contemplating whether to back away, Immortal Bi Yue's secret voice transmission reached her mind: "Jiu Yang, what are you hesitating for? It's just the Weeping Blood Demon Sect. If they provoke Cao Zhen, things won't be pleasant for them, and soon, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect will become history.

I can only tell you this, Cao Zhen is far stronger than any of you can imagine."

Jiu Yang's brows furrowed, Cao Zhen stronger than they imagined; how much stronger could he be? No matter how strong, he was just one person, while the Weeping Blood Demon Sect was a Great Teaching.

Chapter 1616:

How could a Great Teaching possibly cease to exist because of offending one person?

Immortal Bi Yue, has she become blinded by her excessive admiration for Cao Zhen? She...

The next moment, Immortal Jiu Yang's eyes widened suddenly in disbelief as she looked at Immortal Bi Yue, who had already released her Immortal Mountain.

Peak of the Longevity Period? A ninety-four zhang high Immortal Mountain?

She knew Immortal Bi Yue came to help the Hundred Peaks Sect with the Sect Tribulation, but she thought Immortal Bi Yue was helping only because of her close relationship with Cao Zhen, and her presence occupied a slot due to this favor that Cao Zhen couldn't refuse.

Moreover, since Immortal Bi Yue always cultivated with people from the Dragon Chant Sect, she had never known Immortal Bi Yue's cultivation base, nor did she ever imagine that Immortal Bi Yue could be so powerful!

A ninety-four zhang tall Immortal Mountain, which was as tall as hers, how did Immortal Bi Yue achieve this?

She couldn't comprehend it at all!

And it wasn't just her; the Earth Immortal Realm onlookers and members of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, while looking at Immortal Bi Yue's Immortal Mountain and sensing the terrifying aura it emitted, gasped heavily, doubting whether they were experiencing an illusion.

"Peak of the Longevity Period? How is this possible! Immortal Bi Yue didn't awaken as an Earth Immortal expert only after the end of the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth. From the end of that era to now is just over ten years. In such a short time, how did Immortal Bi Yue leap from the mid, late stages directly to the peak of the Longevity Period?"

"And her Immortal Mountain, how could it be ninety-four zhang tall?"

"What kind of cultivation speed is this?"

"A miraculous encounter, Immortal Bi Yue must have had a heaven-defying encounter; otherwise, even if the Dragon Chant Sect gave her abundant resources, she couldn't have reached such heights!"

The Blood Calling Demon grew increasingly grim: Immortal Bi Yue's Immortal Mountain was actually one zhang taller than his Demonic Mountain; the fact that his opponent gained such a powerful asset was indeed troublesome.

Cao Zhen, observing Immortal Bi Yue who had already shown her might, turned to Immortal Jiu Yang and said: "Immortal Jiu Yang, there's no need for difficulty; this indeed is a grudge between our Hundred Peaks Sect and the Blood Qi Devil Sect, and you don't need to involve yourself."

He fully understood Immortal Jiu Yang's perspective, and even if she didn't join in, he wouldn't blame her. After all, others were merely here to help the Hundred Peaks Sect with the Sect Tribulation; that she gave up the opportunity to cultivate here to assist them in entering the relic was already noteworthy, and he had no further demands for her participation.

Moreover, with their current prowess, possessing or lacking Immortal Jiu Yang wouldn't make any substantial difference.

Cao Zhen turned to the masses from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, his intent to kill surging from within, coldly stating: "Three breaths of time have passed, and since you aren't leaving, then prepare to die!"

As his words fell, the individuals from the Hundred Peaks Sect behind him quickly unleashed their battle strength.

In an instant, terrifying auras spread out explosively in all directions, with Immortal Mountains soaring skyward.

All around, the onlookers still in astonishment watched as these Immortal Mountains ascended, and amidst them, waves of shock surged within.

"What is this? Peak of the Longevity Period, for the Hundred Peaks Sect members to all be at the peak of the Longevity Period!"

"What's happening? Why... why are their Immortal Mountains so tall? They're all over ninety zhang high, no, actually, all their Immortal Mountains surpass ninety-one zhang!"

"Wait, there are also two shorter Immortal Mountains, but even those two are over eighty zhang high!"

"That woman with the full heroic spirit, her Immortal Mountain has reached ninety-seven zhang! Who is that woman?"

"And another one, that man never seen before, his Immortal Mountain is also ninety-six zhang tall!"

"Excluding those two unknown individuals, the rest should all be Hundred Peaks Sect disciples, breaking through to the Longevity Period only after the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, how could they rapidly advance to the peak of the Longevity Period in such a short span, and achieve such tall Immortal Mountains?"

"Even Xiang Ziyu's Immortal Mountain has reached ninety-six zhang high!"

"Ling Xi and her group's Immortal Mountains are also ninety-five zhang tall!"

"What on earth is going on! How have they accomplished this?"

"Cao Zhen, what exactly have they done!"

"How could there possibly be so many prodigies within the Hundred Peaks Sect, not to mention, even if they were prodigies, such rapid cultivation speed is unimaginable!"

The crowd was utterly dumbfounded; these were Immortal Mountains over ninety zhang tall, even the most elite Great Teachings didn't have so many experts with Immortal Mountains reaching such heights within!

Moreover, with so many experts, they wouldn't dispatch them lightly.

Just like the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, they only dispatched one expert, the Blood Calling Demon with his over ninety zhang high Immortal Mountain!

What was happening within the Hundred Peaks Sect!

Throughout this period, Cao Zhen had been busy reorganizing and refurbishing a Hundred Peaks Sect formation. It was his first time seeing the heights of everyone's Immortal Mountains without any surprise.

Among them, only Chao Zi and Wan Ren Di didn't have Immortal Mountains reaching ninety zhang; Chao Zi's talent was ultimately limited, whereas Wan Ren Di purely indulged in the practice of Escape Techniques.

Given some more time, even Wan Ren Di's Immortal Mountain could reach the height of ninety zhang.

Chapter 1617:

Even Chao Zi Zai's Immortal Mountain has reached over eighty zhang in height, not to mention everyone else.

After all, aside from Chao Zi Zai, the rest are either supreme Immortal Bodies or Ancient Immortal Bodies. They took the pills he refined and cultivated in the Immortal Qi, so naturally, their breakthroughs were swift!

Even Ling Xi, Yan Yourong, Bei Yan, and Duo Duo's Immortal Mountains reached a height of ninety-five zhang.

As for that kid Xiang Ziyu, his talent is even more terrifying. Even after being sent out on an errand, his Immortal Mountain reached a height of ninety-six zhang.

Another whose Immortal Mountain reached ninety-six zhang was the Grand Preceptor's disciple, Shi Shoujiang.

As for the one who astonished everyone, the Immortal Mountain reaching ninety-seven zhang belongs to Immortal Ruo Yun, after all, Immortal Ruo Yun is a reincarnated Great Ability! Her cultivation is naturally faster than others, which is perfectly normal.

After everyone successfully condensed their Immortal Mountains, behind Cao Zhen, an Immortal Mountain towering at a hundred zhang rose into the sky!

During this period, though busy creating formations, thanks to his disciples lying low and winning by default, he merely activated his cultivation technique slightly. Even though he had to split some power due to his avatar, his Immortal Mountain still rapidly ascended to a hundred zhang, and his power reached the extreme of the Longevity Period!

He even planned, after this event was over, to teach the avatar technique to Xiang Ziyu, letting him cultivate it to a higher level so he could create more avatars, each with greater power. Then, by winning through lying low, he could reach the extreme of the Longevity Period.

In this way, it would be equivalent to possessing power far exceeding the extreme of the Longevity Period.

As for now, with just over a year left, the Hundred Peaks Sect will face the Sect Tribulation, and by then, he will certainly exert his full strength.

By then, his strength could no longer be concealed. Since that is the case, he might as well completely unleash his power this time!

Previously, the Immortal Mountains displayed by everyone were already quite astonishing, but as Cao Zhen's Immortal Mountain rose, everyone's attention turned entirely upon it.

"This... such a terrifying height!"

"A hundred zhang, it's a hundred zhang Immortal Mountain!"

"Cao Zhen's Immortal Mountain reached a hundred zhang; how did he achieve this!"

"This is too terrifying!"

"A hundred zhang Immortal Mountain! It seems in all Eastern Province, only Cao Zhen and that Bleeding Tears Assassin achieved an Immortal Mountain of a hundred zhang in height, right?"

Hearing the astonishment from the crowd, Cao Zhen suddenly turned toward the voices, confidently saying, "Bleeding Tears Assassin? His Immortal Mountain didn't reach a hundred zhang; it only appeared to be reaching a hundred zhang. In reality, there was a slight gap when I saw him."

What he said was true. When he went out under the guise of the Bleeding Tears Assassin, the Immortal Mountain hadn't reached a hundred zhang.

"What?"

"Has Cao Zhen met the Bleeding Tears Assassin?"

"Speaking of it, the Bleeding Tears Assassin hasn't shown up for a long time; could it be that Cao Zhen killed him?"

"Probably not, when Cao Zhen appeared before, his Immortal Mountain hadn't reached a hundred zhang!"

Cao Zhen no longer paid attention to the discussions around him but instead focused on the members of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, his expression turning solemn as he suddenly ordered, "Act!"

With his order, the members of the Hundred Peaks Sect took action one after another, all of them at the peak of the Longevity Period. Except for Wan Ren Di and Chao Zi Zai, their Immortal Mountains all exceeded ninety zhang. As they acted together, the air around them surged wildly, and even the surrounding space shook with the Immortal Qi emanating from their bodies.

The mere fluctuation of their auras shattered the clouds above their heads.

The next moment, thunder rumbled in the void.

Streaks of purple thunder descended from the sky, crashing down upon the members of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect!

The people of Four Treasures Peak all know the Five-thunder Righteous Method!

Since they came to kill, they naturally used their strongest spells!

All at once, a dozen or so individuals cast Mysterious Rank spells, and almost each one of them possessed an Immortal Mountain exceeding ninety zhang. In that instant, this entire world turned into a sea of purple. They even felt as if every inch of space was covered by thunder, and for a moment, it seemed as though they were undergoing the baptism of a Heavenly Tribulation!

The deafening thunder served as a reminder; even those at the Earth Immortal Realm felt their ears ache. Though they were already a great distance away, gazing at the purple thunder crashing down in the void filled them with horror, prompting them to retreat even further. That was, after all, a Mysterious Rank spell!

As Cao Zhen and others unleashed the Five-thunder Righteous Method, Shi Shoujiang, Liao Youdi, Shen Lid, and others also joined in, casting their spells to strike the disciples of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect one by one.

Immortal Jiu Yang watched as everyone took action, a golden wheel appeared in her hand, and the Immortal Mountain behind her towering at ninety-four zhang emerged, burning furiously like a flame.

The blazing sun was as fierce as fire!

Since everyone has already moved, what hesitation should she have?

The main thing was, the scene before her eyes was so overwhelming, she had never imagined that the people of the Hundred Peaks Sect could be this powerful. No wonder Cao Zhen was so confident before, declaring that merely twenty people could drive away the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect!

With twenty experts whose Immortal Mountains nearly all reached over ninety zhang acting together, who could withstand that!

Now, she finally understood why Immortal Bi Yue had such faith in Cao Zhen.

All these folks in the Hundred Peaks Sect reaching the peak of the Longevity Period, it must be due to Cao Zhen.

In such a short time, to bring so many to the peak of the Longevity Period, aside from Cao Zhen, who else in the Eastern Wasteland could achieve this!

No wonder Immortal Bi Yue declared, Cao Zhen far surpassed what people imagined!

She now hesitated to even imagine, what kind of existence Cao Zhen was in his previous life!

As she pondered, the enormous burning Immortal Mountain charged towards the female demon with an Immortal Mountain reaching eighty-nine zhang on the opposite side. Compared to the previous fight with Xiang Ziyu, the flame aura within her blazing sun was no longer as conspicuous, yet the Pure Yang Qi was significantly stronger!

Since arriving at the Hundred Peaks Sect, she had been pestering Xiang Ziyu with questions about her spell. Although Xiang Ziyu didn't know the Blazing Sun as fierce as fire, he helped her subtly adjust her spell!

Chapter 1618:

The Blood Calling Demon's Demonic Mountain stands at a towering ninety-three zhang. At such a height, regardless of the era during the Longevity Period, he would undoubtedly be one of the most top-notch powerhouses.

But at this moment, he was utterly terrified.

In the void, a shocking thunderbolt fell, with a terrifying aura that completely enveloped the space around him.

This is a Lower Profound Grade spell!

The demonic qi within him surged rapidly, and a pitch-black tower appeared in his hands. As the demonic qi poured in, the tower soared into the sky, becoming as gigantic as a mountain, hovering above his head, as if trying to unleash a haunting and terrifying aura from the pagoda.

This pagoda seemed to be formed by countless resentful spirits, emitting a series of piercing wails that made one's scalp tingle.

But the next moment, a thunderbolt crashed down heavily onto his pagoda. At once, the entire pagoda shook wildly, looking as if it might shatter at any moment.

Boom!

Suddenly, another muffled sound echoed, as another thunderbolt came crashing down directly onto his pagoda, instantly shattering it back to its original form. And this thunderbolt, unaffected, continued to strike down towards him.

Dammit!

The Blood Calling Demon cursed silently, with demonic qi gathering in his hands, trying to cast spells to fend off the falling thunderbolts. But in the void, a third thunderbolt fell once again.

He was the strongest person on the side of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect. When making a move, naturally, everyone would want to eliminate him first, so at this moment, it wasn't just one person attacking him; several people were targeting him simultaneously.

He didn't even know where these thunderbolts were coming from, but he knew they were all profound grade spells, cast by powerhouses with Immortal Mountains over ninety zhang tall!

Most had cultivation bases stronger than his, and they were casting profound grade spells. How could he resist?

With a look of horror still in his eyes, a thunderbolt struck heavily on him, causing his entire body to tremble uncontrollably. The skin on his body split inch by inch under the ravage of the Power of Thunderbolt.

Then, the second and third...

Thunderbolt after thunderbolt fell, all striking him. In just an instant, the ground in his area was completely shattered, with springs shooting skyward, and his whole being was utterly pulverized into dust.

Before making a move, Cao Zhen specifically instructed everyone not to attack the Love-Blood Devil. He could connect with the Love-Blood Devil, but if he unintentionally killed the Love-Blood Devil, wouldn't his connection be in vain?

The disciples of Four Treasures Peak had no issues, especially Ling Xi and the others. When they were chasing the Eclipse Demon earlier, their master had specifically instructed them not to kill the Eclipse Demon, because the master said there was a special method to monitor the Sun and Moon Demon Sect through the Eclipse Demon.

This time, the master said not to kill the Love-Blood Devil, certainly for the same reason.

As for Shi Shoujiang, that was even more straightforward.

Cao Zhen directly told Shi Shoujiang that there was some connection between the Love-Blood Devil and the Grand Preceptor, so not to harm the Love-Blood Devil.

Shi Shoujiang seemed to know himself as well about some relationship between the Love-Blood Devil and his master, so he naturally did not attack the Love-Blood Devil.

So, for a moment, out of the two strongest people from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, several individuals attacked the Blood Calling Demon, with not a single one targeting the second strongest, the Love-Blood Devil.

But what's the situation with this Love-Blood Devil?

Weren't you not supposed to fight? Calmly watch from the side; why did you make a move? You went ahead and attacked anyway, but why the Love-Blood Devil, and right away with a Yellow Level Upper Grade spell?

The demonic qi within Love-Blood Devil had already surged to the peak, looking at the many people from the Hundred Peaks Sect before her with endless astonishment in her eyes. She was someone from the Eastern Wasteland and had been in the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty. When the Hundred Peaks Sect was rising, she may not have appeared, but she always hid in the shadows, probing the situation of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

She knew the Hundred Peaks Sect better than anyone, understood them more thoroughly!

These people, just two or three years ago, were only at the early stages of the Longevity Period. How did they break through so much in just one or two years?

So many experts with Immortal Mountains reaching over ninety zhang tall, how could they defeat them?

Even if there were only a hundred of them, even two hundred, three hundred wouldn't suffocate them.

The gap between Earth Immortal Stages compared to Golden Core Stages is infinitely greater.

Run!

The Love-Blood Devil had no intention to fight to the death, watching flames falling down. Her body expanded rapidly, and in an instant, what was once a slender figure ballooned up like a balloon.

Almost at the moment the flames fell, with a bang, the Love-Blood Devil's body exploded, turning into streams of bright red blood, frantically flowing outwards.

Then, the flames fell, and under the fiery blaze, the blood evaporated instantly.

The remaining blood flowed ten miles away, gathering into the shape of the Love-Blood Devil. But her body was covered with burn marks.

Even her two arms were showing white bones, her pale face had almost no trace of blood.

Chapter 1619

But she had no other way; only by doing this could she possibly escape.

"Still trying to run!"

Immortal Jiu Yang's face turned cold, and the immortal power within her surged rapidly as she was about to give chase. Since she had already made a move, she wouldn't care about this or that anymore!

Beside her, Cao Zhen suddenly widened his eyes. What? You're still going to chase?

Hmm?

In the distance, suddenly, his gaze fell into the distance.

One figure after another was leaping toward them from afar.

It was the people of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

These people even leaped over the Love-Blood Devil and rushed toward them.

Cao Zhen secretly breathed a sigh of relief. Luckily, there were people throwing their lives away, blocking Immortal Jiu Yang's pursuit!

In the void, one after another of the Longevity Period members of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect flew towards the sound, and when they saw those Immortal Mountains from a distance, everyone was stunned for a moment.

What is going on?

Where did so many experts emerge from, with Immortal Mountains reaching ninety zhang high?

It's impossible for a common great teaching to find so many experts!

Are these people from the Hundred Peaks Sect?

How could such a small sect like the Hundred Peaks Sect have so many experts!

Oh no!

Suddenly, thunderbolts fell before his eyes with a roar.

"Since you've come, die together then!"

Cao Zhen's silver wings behind him gently flapped, and he suddenly rushed out, appearing instantly in front of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect crowd. Behind him, Immortal Ruo Yun, Shi Shoujiang, and others closely followed.

In an instant, spells fell one after another, into the crowd of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

All disciples of the Four Treasures Peak could perform the Five-thunder Righteous Method; moreover, Immortal Bi Yue and Li Ke could also perform the Five-thunder Righteous Method. For a moment, thunderbolts continued to fall, and with each bolt, a Earth Immortal Realm expert from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect or Soul Breaking Demonic Sect would surely die!

This was a Mysterious Rank spell, and all those who performed the Five-thunder Righteous Method, except for the one who could fight against ten thousand, all had Immortal Mountains reaching ninety zhang. How could they resist!

In just an instant, more than a dozen Earth Immortal Realm experts from the two Demonic Sects fell!

“Oh no!”

“Retreat quickly!”

The people of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect who dared to come were horrified as they looked at the intimidating Hundred Peaks Sect people in front of them. Each one exuded a terrifying aura, and they turned to flee into the distance!

So what if they had many people?

The opponents were experts with Immortal Mountains reaching over ninety zhang, how could they fight!

Previously, when they sent people to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect, the sect was clearly not this strong. How had the Hundred Peaks Sect’s people advanced to such an extent in such a short time!

Those were Immortal Mountains over ninety zhang tall!

The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, even combined, could not gather ten experts whose Demonic Mountains reached ninety zhang. Each opponent could instantly obliterate one of them. How could they fight?

So many experts gathered together, it was beyond mending with numerical advantage.

They could only run!

The people who had just arrived immediately fled into the distance.

However, the next moment, a huge formation map covered the void, trapping ten Earth Immortal members of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect within.

Surrounding Ling Xi, sheets of the Heaven and Earth Bagua Talisman had already appeared.

Her cultivation base far exceeded everyone, and even when trapping ten people simultaneously, she was not concerned they would break the formation map!

Moreover, given her cultivation far surpassed theirs, even though ten people were trapped, the suppression by the Supreme Unparalleled Formation Diagram on these people wouldn't decrease significantly.

In the formation map, everyone was immediately in chaos!

"Oh no, we're trapped!"

"This aura, I feel I'm being suppressed!"

"My power, my power seems unable to exert even ninety percent, maybe even less!"

"Break the formation map first. If the formation map is not broken, we'll always be at the mercy of others!"

For a moment, everyone began casting spells frantically, hurling them at the formation map in the void.

The next moment, a light golden flag was unfurled, and immediately, the entire formation map resounded with the sound of wind and thunder. Above everyone's heads, lotus shadow images appeared.

Spells struck the lotus, shattering the shadow images instantly, but there were as many as a thousand lotus shadow images in the void!

The spells fell, and after destroying all of these shadow images, their power was greatly reduced, only causing the formation map to shake.

Below, everyone looked at the undamaged formation map and gasped in shock. This was under the assault of power combined by ten people, yet it hadn't even cracked the map, nor even chipped a corner!

The next moment, talismans shot through the formation map, some transforming into thunder, some into flames, others as frost...

The talismans simultaneously attacked the ten people, aiming at each individual's weaknesses!

With just Ling Xi alone, relying on the Supreme Unparalleled Formation Diagram and the Heaven and Earth Bagua Talisman, she was able to suppress ten opponents!

In the void, Immortal Ruo Yun, Xiang Ziyu, Yan Yourong, and others, with each attack, a demonic sect individual would certainly fall!

The disparity between the two sides was simply too great!

In the distance, people from other great teachings and other sects watched as Earth Immortal Realm experts from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect fell, feeling as if it was a complete single-sided massacre!

Their hearts were filled with a sense of unreality!

Is this the kind of strength a sect can possess?

Chapter 1620:

Who is the Sect, and who is the Great Teaching?

They never thought that one day, a Sect could crush two Great Teachings without a second thought!

Now they finally understand why Cao Zhen was so arrogant before, directly telling the people of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect to get lost. With such might, not to mention these two Great Teachings, it seems that throughout the Eastern Wasteland, no other force can have so many masters!

Among the crowd, someone gazed from afar at the Immortal Sect behind the Hundred Peaks Sect crowd and couldn't help but marvel: "Those are masters with Immortal Mountains reaching over ninety feet! In our Sect, only the acting Sect Hierarch has an Immortal Mountain reaching ninety-one feet!"

"Some Great Teachings may not have anyone whose Immortal Mountain reaches the height of ninety feet!"

"Even the most elite Great Teachings can't find a dozen masters whose Immortal Mountains reach ninety feet!"

"How did the Hundred Peaks Sect suddenly produce so many masters with Immortal Mountains reaching ninety feet? I know, because of the Instant Millennium Pearl, their Spiritual Energy has turned into Immortal Energy, but even then, it shouldn't allow them to produce so many top-notch masters!"

"It's surely because of Cao Zhen, but I wonder what method he used!"

Someone gasped in shock, exclaiming, "Cao Zhen, what kind of existence was he in his previous life! His techniques are simply defying Heaven! If he can make these people into such masters, he naturally has the ability to make others into such masters. If given enough resources, wouldn't he be able to turn all the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect into such masters?"

"Impossible. Firstly, to create so many masters using such heaven-defying methods surely requires an immense amount of resources! Not just the Hundred Peaks Sect, but even the top Great Teachings likely couldn't provide so many resources!"

"Right, I recall rumors that Cao Zhen previously attacked the headquarters of the Rare Treasures Commerce Association and even stole all the herbs from one of their treasuries. It now seems that Cao Zhen risked entering the headquarters of the Rare Treasures Commerce Association to seize herbs precisely for these people's breakthrough.

Why doesn't he create more masters? It's obviously because the herbs are limited.

The Rare Treasures Commerce Association is such a prestigious existence. Robbing one of their treasuries to create these masters shows how terrifying the amount of herbs needed to create a master is!

So even Cao Zhen cannot create more masters!"

"It's more than just that. Perhaps you don't know the Hundred Peaks Sect well enough. I made a special effort to understand the Hundred Peaks Sect. These people were the most talented during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth period, and except for the person with an Immortal Mountain only over eighty feet, whom I am not familiar with, the others were at least close to the Golden Core Period Limit during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth period. It must be because they already had great talent, which allowed them to reach such heights in a short period.

Not everyone can have their Immortal Mountain reach such heights. It feels like Cao Zhen accelerated their growth, allowing them to achieve in years what they would normally take hundreds or even thousands of years to reach!

However, they must grow slowly by themselves to reach such heights."

"No matter what, this is terrifying enough!"

"With so many masters at the Hundred Peaks Sect, they will surely be able to survive the Sect Tribulation!"

"It's certain. Our Eastern Province will have yet another Great Teaching!"

Someone in the crowd worriedly said, "But this way, the Hundred Peaks Sect has completely offended the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect."

A young Earth Immortal Realm cultivator retorted, "Offended? So what?? The Hundred Peaks Sect already has a feud with these two great sects, what's the difference whether they're offended or not?"

"It's different." Beside, an elderly man with gray hair looked at the young Earth Immortal Realm cultivator with an expression suggesting the young man had little life experience, and said, "Although they had a feud before, they never openly confronted the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect."

Yet this time, they actually drove away the people from the two Demonic Sects, and did so outside the ruins, in front of so many people.

This is blatantly slapping the faces of the two Great Teachings, blatantly insulting them!

At least, I've never heard of anyone in the Eastern Province insulting two Great Teachings like this.

Although the people of the Hundred Peaks Sect are powerful this time, what about in a few years?

Once the masters of the Indestructible Period awaken, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect will surely dispatch a large number of masters to crazily attack the Hundred Peaks Sect and annihilate them.

Previously, even if the Hundred Peaks Sect hadn't insulted these two Great Teachings like this, they had attacked the Hundred Peaks Sect, but they hadn't dispatched a large number of masters.

After all, the two Great Teachings have their own arrangements; they need people to defend their Great Teachings and people to venture out into dangerous places.

So, they merely sent some people to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect and, having not destroyed them, didn't take further action.

But now, with the Hundred Peaks Sect behaving like this, once the masters of the Indestructible Period awaken, the two Great Teachings will surely disregard everything else and gather all their masters, leaving only a part to guard their gates while deploying as many other masters as they can to completely attack the Hundred Peaks Sect. Even if the Hundred Peaks Sect has become a Great Teaching then, they absolutely won't be able to withstand the attacks of these two Great Teachings!"
