

My Master 1631

Chapter 1631: Part 2]

Since they joined the Hundred Peaks Sect, their masters and their senior brothers and sisters have taken care of them like family; the Hundred Peaks Sect is their home.

Now, their home faces danger, how could they possibly hide at the back!

"Alright!" Cao Zhen sighed in his heart, reluctantly interrupting the crowd. Although these disciples wish to contribute their strength to the Hundred Peaks Sect and are not afraid of death, he could not possibly agree with such ideas.

If conforming to these people's thoughts, those with cultivation base above the Golden Core Stage fivefold entering the formation together, chaos would ensue.

How do you prove you're more powerful than Golden Core Stage fivefold?

Do we need to arrange for people at Golden Core Stage fivefold to fight with them before they undergo the Sect Tribulation?

"Regardless of your cultivation base, those below Golden Core Stage fivefold, temporarily hide in the rear mountain. Naturally, I'm not asking you to completely hide and not come out, even if hiding at the rear mountain, you should hide at the forefront of the cave."

Cao Zhen looked at the crowd and said, "In the most unfavorable circumstances, should we fail to withstand the Sect Tribulation, all disciples above Golden Core Stage will enter the formation to resist the Sect Tribulation! As for those below Golden Core Stage, under no circumstance, are you to leave the cave!"

After speaking, Cao Zhen looked down at Ruo Yun and asked, "The era I belong to is too distant from now, and the changes in the Heavenly Dao are too great. Ruo Yun, you are much closer to this era, next, tell us how to deal with the Sect Tribulation, do you have any suggestions?"

Ruo Yun is truly a reincarnated great ability, with a better understanding of the Sect Tribulation than anyone else, so naturally, he listened more to Ruo Yun's opinion.

"Master," Ruo Yun analyzed, "our main force against the Sect Tribulation is the Earth Immortal Realm. We have a hundred peaks with inheritances, when the Sect Tribulation descends, it will definitely target these hundred peaks, every peak will face the bombardment of the Sect Tribulation, so, every peak must have Earth Immortal Realm to resist the Sect Tribulation."

She knows that among the hundred peaks of the Hundred Peaks Sect, many lower-ranking peaks do not have Earth Immortal Realm experts.

"A hundred peaks? All suffer the Sect Tribulation?" Among the crowd, Lan Pili listened to Ruo Yun's words and curiously asked, "Then, given that the strength of our hundred peaks differs, the power of Sect Tribulation each peak faces should differ too, right? Or do all peaks suffer from the same level of power from the Sect Tribulation?"

"Of course it differs." Ruo Yun began explaining while recalling, "Before, there were situations like ours in other great teachings with several types of inheritances. In such scenarios, naturally, the stronger the peak, the stronger the Sect Tribulation it faced.

However, the difference in strength isn't exactly proportionate to the disparity in power between peaks. For instance, if one peak's power is a hundred times that of another, the power of the Sect Tribulation these two peaks face wouldn't differ by a hundred times either. I can't truly say how large the disparity is, but at the very least, each peak must have Earth Immortal Realm to possibly withstand the Sect Tribulation."

Cao Zhen nodded slightly in agreement and said, "Fine, I will arrange for every peak to have Earth Immortal Realm members. Even one Earth Immortal Realm might not be enough, each peak should have at least two Earth Immortal Realms.

After all, this time we are facing Sect Tribulation to become a great teaching, equivalent to a million-year Sect Tribulation. A hundred thousand-year tribulation lasts only a day, a two hundred thousand-year tribulation spans two days, a million-year Sect Tribulation lasts ten days!

This time, the Sect Tribulation will last ten days; it's a protracted battle, so we must split into two groups to alternate the defense!"

"Sect Leader." From Flying Immortal Peak's direction, Nie Jie looked at Cao Zhen and quietly inquired, "Our Flying Immortal Peak has more Earth Immortals, shouldn't we send part of our Earth Immortal Realm to assist other peaks in guarding?"

"No need, your Flying Immortal Peak is stronger and will definitely encounter a more terrifying Sect Tribulation, so Flying Immortal Peak should focus on guarding its own peak. As for the other peaks," Cao Zhen surveyed the surroundings and said, "we can have our Hundred Peaks Sect elders go to other peaks for assistance."

In Hundred Peaks Sect, upon reaching Earth Immortal Realm, you can leave your peak and become an elder. These elders don't strictly belong to any one peak but are directly affiliated with the Hundred Peaks Sect.

He meant for these elders to go guard the peaks without Earth Immortal Realm.

The surrounding Earth Immortal experts exclaimed immediately: "Sect Leader, if the elders go guard other peaks, what will happen to Ascension Peak?"

"Yes, Sect Leader, Ascension Peak is the core of our Hundred Peaks Sect. Whether Hidden Dragon Immortal Palace or the Conference Hall, they're all situated on Ascension Peak! The Sect Tribulation Ascension Peak will face is the most powerful one; it needs enough experts for guarding!"

"Sect Leader, our priority is to secure Ascension Peak." Nie Jie proactively suggested again, "Sect Leader, we truly have a surplus of Earth Immortals on Flying Immortal Peak; we can dispatch a few Earth Immortal Realms to help guard other peaks. Let the elders go guard Ascension Peak."

"Don't worry about Ascension Peak." Cao Zhen waved his hand and said, "We have invited ten experts to assist with the Sect Tribulation, and they will be stationed on Ascension Peak."

Chapter 1632: The Sect Tribulation Arrives (Part 3)

All around, everyone spoke in unison, "But this is not enough!"

"Indeed, Sect Leader, these ten experts alone are still too few."

Cao Zhen pointed in the direction of the Four Treasures Peak and said, "There are also our Disciples of the Four Treasures Peak who will enter the Ascension Peak."

"Disciples of the Four Treasures Peak?"

"Sect Leader, do you not need to defend the Four Treasures Peak?"

"Sect Leader, although the Four Treasures Peak is currently ranked hundredth in the Hundred Peaks Sect, it is only because they didn't participate in the last Hundred Peaks contest. But we all know the strength of Four Treasures Peak. They need to keep a lot of experts to guard too."

During the previous Hundred Peaks contest, Cao Zhen did not let the Four Treasures Peak's Disciples participate. Mainly because the Disciples of the Four Treasures Peak were too busy, and the contest couldn't be postponed due to their busyness, so they simply didn't participate, and their ranking naturally remained at the hundredth position.

"Actually, our Four Treasures Peak doesn't need that many experts to guard." Ruo Yun explained as she heard the voices around, "The power of the Sect Tribulation descending from the Heavenly Dao is determined by how many Great Formations and Disciples, as well as the cultivation base of Disciples within each peak.

We have fewer Disciples at the Four Treasures Peak, so although the Sect Tribulation will also be strong, it shouldn't be terrifyingly so."

As she spoke, she looked at Cao Zhen. The specific arrangement for defending the Four Treasures Peak would depend on her master.

Cao Zhen pondered for a moment, then said softly, "You Rong, stay at the Four Treasures Peak. Everyone else, go to the Ascension Peak for defense." The Four Treasures Peak still had Little Yin Dragon and Little Peacock. Especially Little Yin Dragon, not much weaker than Yan Yourong, should be enough to guard the Four Treasures Peak.

Subsequently, Cao Zhen, along with other high-ranking members of the Hundred Peaks Sect, began to allocate specific defense tasks, such as who would go to which peak and lead which Formation.

In the blink of an eye, three days passed.

Inside the Hundred Peaks Sect, streams of pure celestial energy began to rapidly dissipate. As the sun rose on the fourth day, all the celestial energy dissipated, transforming into spiritual energy.

The golden glow condensed by the Instant Millennium Pearl also dissipated.

Even though the sun had risen and it was light, the void above the Hundred Peaks Sect suddenly plunged into darkness, darker than night. At least during the night, the moon and stars in the sky would emit light.

But now, layers of tribulation clouds covered the sky above the Hundred Peaks Sect, making the entire area so dark that you couldn't see your fingers.

At the same time, waves of terrifying pressure descended from the void, as if to crush the entire Hundred Peaks Sect. The air around could not withstand this pressure, emitting a series of thunderous roars like mountains bursting.

"The Sect Tribulation has finally arrived!"

From afar, personnel from various great teachings observed the direction of the Hundred Peaks Sect from afar.

"In terms of timing, the Hundred Peaks Sect is the first great teaching in the Eastern Province to undergo a tribulation after the Minor Epoch of Qiankun Reversal ended."

"Great teaching? They are still not considered a great teaching now."

"It seems they soon will be. Although the current strength of the Hundred Peaks Sect can't compare to the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, which used the Instant Millennium Pearl to become a great teaching, passing through the Sect Tribulation shouldn't be a problem."

"Indeed, majorly due to Cao Zhen. Although the Hundred Peaks Sect's foundation is small, who knows what means Cao Zhen may have? He can elevate someone from the early Longevity Period to the peak in a short time, a feat even an Ancient Immortal Body can achieve!"

In the eyes of the people, from afar in the piece of pitch-black darkness, a muffled sound suddenly reverberated, so loud that even from a great distance, it felt as if it exploded right next to their ears.

Then, countless blue lightning bolts suddenly appeared in the endless darkness, tearing through the blackness and crashing toward the direction of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

The Sect Tribulation descended.

Generally speaking, whether it is a Sect Tribulation or Sect Tribulation, except for special tribulations like the Wind Fire Tribulation, the first calamity to descend is always lightning.

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, all Disciples were already prepared. Disciples below the fifth level of the Golden Core Stage were all hiding in the back mountain, while those at the fifth level of the Golden Core Stage and above, who had not yet achieved the Earth Immortal Realm, entered the Great Formation.

At the moment the tribulation clouds emerged, they madly channeled their power into the Great Formation they were in.

These Great Formations, which Cao Zhen redeployed over two years, all contained at least one expert at the Earth Immortal Realm.

These formations couldn't be activated relying solely on Golden Core Stage Disciples; they must have Earth Immortal Realm Disciples to fully activate the Formation.

Cao Zhen had previously helped the Five Sounds Sect through their Sect Tribulation, but at that time, it was assisting another great teaching, whereas now, it was their Hundred Peaks Sect undergoing the Sect Tribulation.

Gazing at the countless lightning bolts descending from the void, he couldn't help but feel a sense of tension.

During the Five Sounds Sect's tribulation, it was the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, and the power of the Sect Tribulation was referenced to the Golden Core Period Limit. Even though those tribulations' power surpassed the Golden Core Period Limit in the end, it didn't surpass by too much.

But now, it's a Longevity Period Sect Tribulation!

The lightning from the void was several times more powerful than during the Five Sounds Sect's tribulation, and even more densely packed.

Chapter 1633: Tribulation of the Sect

The Hundred Peaks Sect is now large enough, but in the void, thunder fell one after another, forming a continuous sheet that enveloped the entire sect.

The thunder streaked across the void, instantly illuminating the originally dark sky with a bright blue. Before the thunder fell, its terrifying power had already arrived, making each bolt of lightning feel as though it could easily destroy mountains and evaporate great rivers.

The next moment, just as these bolts were about to crash down on the Hundred Peaks Sect, protective barriers rose all around.

These barriers sometimes took the form of the Four Holy Beasts—the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird, and Black Tortoise—guarding a space.

On some of the barriers, golden dragon-tiger imagery appeared.

As a bolt of lightning fell, before it could touch the barrier, the dragon-tiger imagery inside soared into the sky, emitting the sounds of tigers roaring and dragons chanting, as if the true Divine Dragons and ancient giant tigers had awakened, opening their mouths to devour the thunder, swallowing it whole.

The formation laid down by Cao Zhen heavily referenced the formation of Dragon and Tiger Mountain.

In the distance, people from various Great Teachings watched the dragon-tiger imagery in the void and began to discuss in low voices.

"Everyone, have you noticed that much of the Hundred Peaks Sect, or rather, Cao Zhen's heritage, is related to dragons and tigers? And I took special notice, before he reached the Earth Immortal Realm, many of Cao Zhen's divine skills also featured dragon-tiger imagery. Now, their formation also has dragon-tiger imagery."

Among the crowd, a middle-aged man clad in a blue long robe with a goatee and wise eyes looked around and said, "Therefore, Cao Zhen's previous sect must be related to dragons and tigers.

Has anyone heard of any great sects of dragons and tigers?"

"There are many great sects with dragons, like the Dragon Chant Sect, and there are some with tigers, but in our Eastern Province, there is no great sect with both dragons and tigers."

"In the past, there seems to have been no such great sect, but in the Central Continent, there is a Wind Cloud Sect whose spells also feature dragon-tiger imagery."

"Cao Zhen shouldn't have any relation to the Wind Cloud Sect, right?"

Amidst their discussions, the lightning in the void fell more frequently, and the dragon-tiger imagery on the barriers gradually began to dissipate under the thunder's assault.

Without the obstacles from the dragon-tiger imagery, the thunder crashed directly onto the barriers, sounding like a torrential rain hitting the roof, creating a dense resonance that only grew louder!

Above the entire Hundred Peaks Sect, the barriers shook violently.

Within the sect, one by one, disciples at the Golden Core Stage poured their mana into the formations like crazy.

Though they had already pushed their powers to the limit, they continued their relentless efforts.

Even so, the barriers in the void shook more and more intensely.

The sect tribulation thunder was simply overwhelming.

"Invest the Spirit Stones and Spirit Veins!" In the formations, the Earth Immortal Realm figures, seeing the formations barely holding, hurriedly spoke up.

After all, the Hundred Peaks Sect was not a Great Teaching, with limited resources. Although there were plenty of Spirit Stones and Spirit Veins around each formation, even Immortal Stones, these resources were used sparingly, only when absolutely necessary.

This was everyone's first time crossing a sect tribulation. Though they had mentally prepared, when the tribulation came, they found it far more terrifying than expected. They had to use Spirit Stones and Spirit Veins shortly after the tribulation began.

As chunks of Spirit Stone and even Spirit Veins entered the formations, their power surged instantly. The formations, once shaking from the assault, gradually stabilized.

But the thunders continued to fall from the sky, and they were slowly getting stronger. Although the increase was not fast, it was indeed growing stronger!

Time passed breath by breath. As the thunder intensified, the people in the Hundred Peaks Sect below remained highly tense, focusing their efforts against the heavens.

Though they could use Spirit Stones and Spirit Veins, most of them were only at the Golden Core Stage. Gradually, their states began to decline.

As a result of this ebb and flow, the barriers above the sect swayed once more under the thunder's blows.

"Switch out!"

"If you can't hold on, stop trying to endure it."

Within the formations of the Hundred Peaks Sect, the Earth Immortal figures, feeling the fluctuating states of the Golden Core Stage disciples, quickly reminded them aloud. Even so, many disciples who had clearly declined did not leave!

They had to both pour their strength into the formations and remind those behind them.

"If you feel your state worsening, withdraw at once and let other fellow disciples take over. Now is not the time for heroics. If you withdraw, no one will say you're cowardly. It's all for the sake of the Hundred Peaks Sect!"

"Withdrawn disciples, recover quickly."

"Kongyuan, what are you doing? Your aura... quickly get out of the formation and let someone else take your place."

Chapter 1634:

"Secret technique? Why are you using a secret technique? Foolish, do you think mastering a secret technique is a good thing? The sect tribulation has just begun. If you use the secret technique, you may hold on for a while, but what will happen after the effect wears off? You will suffer backlash, and this sect tribulation lasts for ten days. You can hold on only for half a day, maybe not even that long. What will you do with the remaining time?"

Listen up, the sect tribulation has just begun. It's forbidden for anyone to use a secret technique. If you must use one, wait until the last day!"

In the Hundred Peaks Sect, disciples began to take turns replacing one another.

However, when substituting disciples, someone would leave the great formation and then enter again. Even if one person left, the formidable power of the formation would be affected.

Meanwhile, the thunder power in the void continued to intensify. Amidst the barrage, many formations' protective screens started to crack when disciples exchanged places under the falling thunder.

Immediately, Earth Immortal Realm cultivators guarding the outside of the formations acted, sending spells flying into the sky to block the thunder crashing in one particular region, giving the disciples within the formation time to recover more quickly.

In just a moment, the formations were restored to their original state.

In the distance, Earth Immortal Realm experts from Eastern Province's grand righteous sects observed the still intact formations above the Hundred Peaks Sect, nodding slightly, with many even smiling.

"Indeed, as I suspected, Sect Leader Cao of the Hundred Peaks Sect is a reincarnated great ability with some strategies. Now it seems their formations are even stronger than we anticipated. So far, their formations have had no issues."

"It's indeed impressive. Their Earth Immortals only slightly intervened and still preserved their strength."

"In the future, the righteous path will gain another great teaching!"

"Gentlemen, let's not celebrate too soon. There are ten days in total, and the sect tribulation has just begun. So far, it's only thunder; the other tribulations have not yet arrived!"

"Yes, when the second kind of sect tribulation arrives, that's when the true test begins."

"The first day is already almost over. I imagine the second kind of tribulation will arrive soon."

The sect tribulation of a million years features a different tribulation each day. However, when the second day arrives, the first day's tribulation does not disappear; instead, both tribulations descend.

Thus, the further along in the sect tribulation of a million years, the more tribulations are faced, and the more difficult it becomes.

As they conversed, above the Hundred Peaks Sect, with thunder continuously crashing down, the sky turned a deep blue. Suddenly, patches of fiery red light appeared, and everyone felt the surrounding temperature rapidly rising.

Skyfire descended!

Masses of flame pressed down from the sky, forming a continuous sea of fire, as if an endless inferno was descending from beyond the nine heavens.

In an instant, the pressure on the disciples within the formation increased dramatically!

In just a moment, masses of flame landed on the formation's light screen, causing a series of hissing sounds, and the formations visibly thinned.

Some formations quickly stabilized and were restored to their original state, but others visibly struggled to withstand the pressure.

They had previously allocated people to guard various formations, but some locations faced stronger tribulation power and greater pressure.

On Ascension Peak, One-Man Army looked at the distant, wildly shaking formation, which seemed like it could barely hold, and said softly, "Master, that formation is struggling. Should I go and support it?"

No great teaching can perfectly handle every detail during a sect tribulation. After all, no one knows the strength of the tribulation powers that will fall upon each place; they can only make a rough estimate.

There are always areas where their judgments aren't precise, so during a sect tribulation, each great teaching sets aside a portion of people as a support team, ready to assist where needed.

Because One-Man Army specializes in escape techniques, he's faster, so he leads the support team.

"No need, just conserve your strength. This time, I'll go myself." Cao Zhen murmured, as the silver wings on his back suddenly flared, and he flew out swiftly.

In his view, the most difficult aspect of the million-year sect tribulation is its ten-day duration. Even for those in the Earth Immortal Realm, there will be instances of insufficient immortal power by the end.

However, he uses Prosperous Age Skills and can draw from the Age of Prosperity Qi of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, so he won't face such a shortage of immortal power. At this time, naturally, he takes matters into his own hands.

In the distance, a wildly shaking formation was guarded by an Earth Immortal Realm cultivator who said deeply, "Hold on! If it gets too bad, use immortal stones!"

"Immortal stones?" A disciple cultivating Wind Fire Tribulation within the formation immediately shouted, "Senior Brother, it's only the second day, and you want to use immortal stones? Most of our immortal stones are brought by the sect leader; we can't waste them like this! Besides, if we use immortal stones on the second day, what will we do in the following days? Our Hundred Peaks Sect doesn't have that many immortal stones to squander!"

"But if we don't use immortal stones, we might not be able to hold on!"

Chapter 1635: Day 6

The crowd roared as they frantically channeled their energy into the Great Formation, but the formation they maintained continued to be devoured by flames, and after each lightning strike, a crack appeared atop the formation!

Just as the crack began to show signs of spreading, suddenly, a figure flew down before him, accompanied by a grand Immortal Mountain a hundred feet tall emerging before them.

Everyone widened their eyes instantly.

"Sect Leader?"

"Wasn't the Sect Leader at Ascension Peak? How did he suddenly appear here?"

Before the crowd could regain their senses, dazzling brilliance suddenly appeared in Cao Zhen's hands. As he rotated his hands, the air before him began to swirl, forming an air vortex!

Sun, Moon, Star Rotation!

In the next moment, he fiercely pushed his hands toward the sky!

The air vortex shot out swiftly, rushing out from the formation's light curtain.

The light curtain may block the Sect Tribulation from outside the Hundred Peaks Sect, but it does not hinder spells cast within the Sect.

The vortex instantaneously made contact with flames and lightning, causing them to spin wildly and be blocked outside.

At this moment, the formation's light curtain no longer endured the Sect Tribulation's attack.

As the crowd continued pouring their mana into the formation, it began to visibly restore itself.

Although the Sun, Moon, Star Rotation vortex only lasted about two breaths before detonating, scattering the Sect Tribulation's power around, the crack in the formation was mostly repaired.

Cao Zhen waved his hands again, sending dragon and tiger lights shooting out to block the descending lightning and flames. Even though they couldn't completely stop the Sect Tribulation falling onto the formation, they could block part of it.

In just a moment, the crack on the formation was completely restored.

Within the formation, after getting a moment to breathe, everyone finally stabilized.

"Don't be stingy with resources. Use them if needed."

Cao Zhen quickly left a word and looked at another slightly shaking formation in the distance, speeding over to help the people inside stabilize the light curtain.

Outside Hundred Peaks Sect, members of the Yin Yang Sect were gathered. The Yin Yang Sect was a Grand Righteous Sect, and their relationship with the Hundred Peaks Sect was amicable, so they sent some people to the Eastern Wasteland.

Jiu Yin Immortal had left the Hundred Peaks Sect before the Sect Tribulation descended, joining the Yin Yang Sect members.

Suddenly, she heard a series of praises from beside her.

"That spell, it must be the Hundred Peaks Sect's Cao Zhen, the Sect Leader casting spells. No wonder he is such a strong figure on Immortal Mountain reaching a hundred feet. Even at the moment the Sect Tribulation descends, he helps the Hundred Peaks Sect's people defend every Great Formation alone!

Nowadays across the Eastern Province, few could achieve what he does!"

"Indeed terrifying, he feels as strong as a formation himself!"

"Cao Zhen is strong, but now he is a bit unwise." A calm cultivator among the crowd sighed, "The hardest part about the million-year Sect Tribulation is its duration of ten days.

Cao Zhen is the strongest in the Hundred Peaks Sect. He should reserve his mana to defend the sect's most crucial areas during the Sect Tribulation. Now, as the Sect Tribulation has just begun, only a day has passed, he has expended his mana, what if he can't maintain full strength when real danger comes?"

Many nearby nodded in agreement.

"Yes, supposedly Cao Zhen is a reincarnated great ability, he should know this."

"Moreover, Cao Zhen seems to have helped the Five Sounds Sect through the Sect Tribulation, he should know how to handle it, why act now?"

The crowd looked at the void full of questions.

In the next moment, the crowd once again cried out in shock.

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, it was clear another top-tier practitioner besides Cao Zhen had taken action.

"Who is that?"

"Xiang Ziyu, it must be Xiang Ziyu, with so many different spells, and among those spells are black and white shadows, that is Yin Yang Qi."

"This, what is the Hundred Peaks Sect thinking, Xiang Ziyu also expends himself early, he..."

The Yin Yang Sect members were left speechless.

Xiang Ziyu cultivated Yin Yang Qi, and it's said his Yin Yang Qi had reached the fusion and eternal cycle level, so the loss of immortal power from early intervention wasn't concerning.

As the Sect Tribulation lasted longer, many formations within the Hundred Peaks Sect began showing signs of struggling, unable to handle it completely. Xiang Ziyu saw, even the effort of his master alone couldn't cover all formations entirely, so he had to act.

With the effort of both individuals, for the time being, the formations within Hundred Peaks Sect were once again stabilized.

Unbeknownst to all, another day passed.

With the third day's sunrise, fierce winds swept the void, introducing the third kind of Sect Tribulation!

Yesterday, only two kinds of Sect Tribulation descended simultaneously, causing many formations to struggle and cracks to appear. With the third kind now descending, over half the formations within the Hundred Peaks Sect began shaking, displaying evident cracks on the light curtain.

Inside each formation, disciples frantically channeled their energy within, seemingly about to burst themselves.

"Hold on, it's only the third day, we must hold on!"

"If our formation can't sustain, those Sect Tribulations will land inside our Hundred Peaks Sect, if they fall, disciples might die!"

"Immortal Stone, invest Immortal Stone!"

Having no choice, everyone threw in Immortal Stones to sustain the formations, but when the fourth kind of Sect Tribulation arrived, with lightning, flames, fierce winds, heavy water simultaneously assailing from the sky, even investing Immortal Stones couldn't hold the Tribulation.

Cao Zhen, having no choice, commanded everyone to activate the hundred houses he brought from ruins, simultaneously Ascension Peak activated the Hundred Doors Transcendence Hall, gigantic palace shadows emerged above the Hundred Peaks Sect, simultaneously corresponding with Four Treasures Peak, Flying Immortal Peak, Five Elements Peak...

On the Hundred Peaks, house shadows appeared, remotely echoing with the Hundred Doors Transcendence Hall.

From afar, the watchers were astounded one by one.

"Hundred Doors Transcendence Hall?"

"Is this the treasure Hundred Peaks Sect obtained from ruins, they used such a treasure so soon?"

"In just four days, they have employed so many methods, there are still six days of Sect Tribulation left, how will they cope next? Does the Hundred Peaks Sect have more measures?"

Chapter 1636:

On the fifth day, the Sect Tribulation turned into five kinds. Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, even Earth Immortal Realm individuals outside the formations had to take action.

But by the sixth day, as the Sect Tribulation intensified again, even though everyone took action, one great formation after another began to fail, developing cracks. Even with Cao Zhen and Xiang Ziyu scrambling back and forth for repairs, it was barely enough.

On the seventh day, the great formations within the Hundred Peaks Sect finally couldn't hold on any longer, and one by one, the barriers of light began to shatter!

In the distance, the onlookers gazed at the barriers of light over the Hundred Peaks Sect continuously breaking apart, and they marveled one after another.

"The Hundred Peaks Sect is indeed stronger than we imagined. They actually managed to hold on until the seventh day!"

"The Hundred Peaks Sect's formations are strong, and their disciples are also stronger than we expected!"

"Don't forget, they've been cultivating in immortal energy for almost two years!"

"On the seventh day, the barriers of the formations only broke then. With this, the Hundred Peaks Sect should be able to survive the Sect Tribulation, right?"

"It still depends on the last day! The last day is the most difficult."

The barriers breaking doesn't mean the formations have completely broken. It's just that the great formations can no longer sustain the barriers, merely keeping all the Sect Tribulation outside the Hundred Peaks Sect.

In the void, a series of lightning, flames, and wild winds poured into the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Within the great formations, Earth Immortal Realm individuals directed everyone to reconverge and gather the energy of the formations to restore the barriers!

"If we can't maintain such a large barrier, then let's reduce the area."

As soon as his words fell, a disciple exclaimed in alarm: "The Spirit Field, our Spirit Field, it's the only Spirit Field of our peak!"

Following his words, everyone hurriedly looked towards the distant Spirit Field!

In the void, a massive flame fell directly on this Spirit Field, immediately setting it ablaze. In the void, even more wild winds blew, fanning the flames, and the immature spiritual medicines let out a series of hissings.

In just the span of a single breath, the entire Spirit Field had turned into a sea of fire!

"The Spirit Field, our Spirit Field!"

"This is our only Spirit Field!"

"It was brought back by the Peak Master, risking his life!"

Within the formation, one disciple after another was glaring with rage, and some stepped forward intending to rush out of the formation to save the Spirit Field.

But before they could rush out, someone beside them already grabbed their arms tightly.

"Are you looking to die?"

"If we lose the Spirit Field, as long as we're still alive, we have a chance to find a new one. What good is leaving behind a Spirit Field if we're dead?"

"We're now overcoming the Sect Tribulation. As long as we get through it, our Hundred Peaks Sect can become a Great Teaching. Nothing is more important than the Sect Tribulation!"

"Calm your minds, sustain the formation!"

"Quickly, sustain the formation. Outside the formations are our fellow disciples, and they don't have the protection of the formations!"

"Quickly, help block for them first!"

Each formation is guarded by two groups of people, with many Golden Core Stage individuals outside. Without the protection of the formations, they simply can't withstand the terrifying Sect Tribulation.

Within each formation, people hastily gathered their mana to first help the many outside Golden Core Stage individuals resist the Sect Tribulation.

However, as time ticked away and the types of Sect Tribulations in the void increased, even though they reduced the area of the barriers, slowly, some formation barriers once again began to shatter.

"Bang!"

A dull thud echoed as the barrier of the Seven Star Peak's formation shattered with a loud crash, accompanied by heavy strikes of lightning on the great formation.

Immediately, the entire great formation began to shake violently.

Within the formation, the Golden Core Stage disciples, due to the shaking of the formation, were all stirred into a tumult of qi and blood, their faces turning pale.

And outside the formation, the Golden Core Stage disciples had to face the various falling Sect Tribulations from the void directly, without the barrier's protection!

"Damn it!"

Chao Zi looked at the falling lightning bolts, his internal energy surging wildly, and a fiery red light appeared all around him.

The next moment, this fiery light soared into the sky and fell above the heads of the disciples outside the formation.

The fiery light, at this moment, was like an opened large umbrella, resisting the falling Sect Tribulations from the void!

These disciples included those from their Seven Star Peak and others from different peaks. Even though over the years, with Cao Zhen's intentional help, his strength had increased significantly, some people also joined their Seven Star Peak alongside his rise in power.

In the most recent Hundred Peaks grand competition, their Seven Star Peak ranking even rose a bit, but their rise had been a bit late, and they still had fewer disciples. Even the disciples from their Seven Star Peak alone couldn't occupy the formation at Seven Star Peak, having to rely on disciples from other peaks to assist.

But regardless of whether they were disciples of their Seven Star Peak or from other peaks, they were all disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect. He absolutely couldn't let these disciples die before his eyes.

In the void, with more and more Sect Tribulations falling, every lightning strike possessed enormous weight, and each frost invasion seemed capable of freezing thousands of miles...

The flame he consolidated seemed ready to break at any moment under the impact of these Sect Tribulations.

Finally, taking advantage of the moment he resisted the Sect Tribulations, many disciples within the nearby formation, forcing themselves to endure the raging qi and blood within, once again expanded the formation, raising a barrier to block the falling Sect Tribulations.

Chapter 1637:

Yet even so, they still found it extremely difficult to persist.

Not just the Seven Star Peak, at this moment, the Little Zen Peak, Lightning Peak, Military God Peak, Puppet Peak...

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, formations on one peak after another began to sustain damage.

Cao Zhen gazed into the void, at the series of disappearing light screens, sighing helplessly in his heart, suddenly spoke, transmitting his voice throughout the Hundred Peaks Sect: "All disciples below the Earth Immortal Realm, stop maintaining the formations and hide in the nearest safe place!"

Since the great formation could no longer hold, what he needed to do now was to ensure the safety of those Golden Core Stage disciples.

The Golden Core Stage disciples could play a role within the great formation, helping to resist the Sect Tribulation, but without the great formation, facing the Sect Tribulation, these Golden Core Stage disciples couldn't even withstand a lightning bolt.

In every peak, there is a cave mansion, there are caves.

Although after the Sect Tribulation falls, it would strike at each position within the Hundred Peaks Sect, potentially hitting every part of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

However, the Sect Tribulation prioritized attacking those standing outside.

So, by hiding in cave mansions and caves, one could ensure a certain degree of safety.

This Sect Tribulation can be said to have come because of him.

If he did not bring the Instant Millennium Pearl, there wouldn't be a Sect Tribulation.

Thus, he wanted to protect the Hundred Peaks Sect disciples' safety to a greater extent.

Not far away, Jiu Yang displayed a look of confusion on his face, what was Cao Zhen doing? Although some formations within the Hundred Peaks Sect had already been breached, there were still some that remained intact; the Golden Core Stage disciples could still play a role within the formation, helping to resist the Sect Tribulation.

Why was Cao Zhen letting everyone evacuate so early? This way, with only the Earth Immortal Realm left here, the pressure would be immense.

Cao Zhen's decision was, in truth, quite unwise.

Over the years, although Cao Zhen hadn't dealt much with the matters of the Hundred Peaks Sect, leaving most of them to be handled by Nie Jie, his prestige within the Hundred Peaks Sect continued to elevate.

The Hundred Peaks Sect disciples dared not disobey Cao Zhen's orders, and would even fight to the death against anyone who dared to disparage Cao Zhen's name.

Yet now, as Cao Zhen's order fell, none of the disciples within the formations showed any intention of leaving.

At Vermilion Bird Peak, the strongest Li Ke was not defending her own Vermilion Bird Peak, but had gone to Ascension Peak; at this moment, Vermilion Bird Peak was guarded by Peak Master Tu Zhuque.

While resisting the Sect Tribulation falling from the sky, she turned back to the disciples within the formation, shouting loudly: "What are you doing? Didn't you hear the Sect Leader's words? Why haven't you left yet?"

All around, whether inside or outside the formation, none of the disciples spoke up.

"What, you won't obey the Sect Leader's words, nor listen to me, your Peak Master?" Tu Zhuque glared at the disciples.

The Vermilion Bird Peak was originally a major peak of the Hundred Peaks Sect; within the peak, whether at Earth Immortal Realm or Golden Core Stage, all were disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Indeed, they even dispatched many disciples to support other peaks.

Within the formation, each disciple fervently channeled their internal mana, infusing it into the formation, while shouting loudly: "Master, our formation hasn't been breached yet; we can still hold on!"

"Yes, Uncle-Master, let us continue to resist the Sect Tribulation!"

"Grandmaster, we are also disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect; now that our sect is going through a Heavenly Tribulation, how could we possibly retreat?"

"Master, we will hold on a bit longer. When we really can't endure it anymore, then we'll retreat."

"Yes, Grandmaster, the Sect Leader asked the Golden Core disciples to retreat, he meant those from the breached formations; since our formation isn't breached, we don't need to leave."

"Master, this is our Vermilion Bird Peak, this is our home. If we leave, without the formation, the Sect Tribulation will surely bombard the buildings of our Vermilion Bird Peak. We can't stand by and watch our home be destroyed!"

"You all..."

Tu Zhuque looked at the disciples showing no intention of retreating, gritted her teeth fiercely, and turned her head to look elsewhere. These were her disciples from Vermilion Bird Peak; naturally, she didn't want them to die. She also understood that the Sect Leader asked the Golden Core disciples to leave for their own good; the Sect Leader did not wish to see the Golden Core Stage disciples perish.

Nonetheless, just as the disciples said, they are also disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect; they also wish to contribute their strength to the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Tu Zhuque turned to look at the disciples outside the formation, shouting: "They are inside the formation; and you? You outside the formation can't contribute, so quickly retreat!"

Outside the formation, the disciples immediately shouted loudly in response.

"Master, we wish to replace them!"

"Exactly, they've been in the formation for a long time, and the mana of the senior sisters is seriously depleted."

Outside the formation, each disciple responded to Tu Zhuque while looking at the formation, shouting.

"Senior Sister Ying Jia, you're injured; quickly, step out and let junior sisters replace you!"

"Senior Sister Jing Fei, you've been in the formation for a long time. During the last replacement, you didn't switch out; Senior Sister, go rest for a while!"

Inside the formation, some disciples indeed appeared somewhat pale, and some of their auras were already unstable, yet they still steadfastly held their ground within the formation.

Chapter 1638: The Last Stand at Zixia Peak

Some disciples were explaining to the disciples outside the great formation that they were fine, while others ignored the same senior and junior sisters outside, frantically channeling their mana into the formation.

Tu Zhuque watched the disciples inside the great formation stand their ground one by one, and had no choice but to speak again: "You can remain within the great formation, but injured disciples and those who have over-exhausted their mana must withdraw from the formation!"

I know, you want to contribute to our Hundred Peaks Sect. But you are no longer in optimal condition. If you continue to stay in the formation, you will only weaken its power, and in doing so, harm our Hundred Peaks Sect and other disciples.

Now, listen to my command, all injured disciples, and those who have over-exhausted themselves, retreat immediately and enter the mountain cave in the distance."

Not only at the Vermilion Bird Peak, but also among the other mountains, not a single disciple at the Golden Core Stage left the formation as long as it stood undamaged.

In the direction of Ascension Peak, Immortal Jiu Yang looked at the distant, continuously rising light curtains, her face revealing a moving expression.

As the Sect Leader, Cao Zhen had clearly instructed those at the Golden Core Stage to hide, yet now, with the formation light curtains rising continuously, it was apparent that the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect hadn't hidden at all.

The Sect Tribulation might attack the caves, bombard the structures within the great teaching, but with so many caves, if they avoided, they would certainly hide in the deepest, safest caves, thereby decreasing their chances of being struck.

However, in those formations, once they were damaged, everyone within would inevitably suffer severe injuries. When the formation was completely destroyed and could no longer function, those remaining outside at the Golden Core Stage would surely meet their death.

These disciples at the Golden Core Stage of the Hundred Peaks Sect clearly could hide and let the Earth Immortal Realm experts resist the Sect Tribulation, yet they remained within the formation, paying no regard to their own danger.

She always believed their Yin Yang Sect was united enough, and firmly believed they would never end up like the Heaven Prayers Sect, fleeing before the Sect Tribulation even arrived.

However, for a situation like the Hundred Peaks Sect, where all disciples are fighting to the death against the Sect Tribulation, she doubted their Yin Yang Sect could achieve the same.

Purple Dawn Peak!

Among the Hundred Peaks Sect, Purple Dawn Peak has always ranked extremely low among the peaks.

Not a single Earth Immortal expert resided in the entire Purple Dawn Peak, and even the Golden Core experts were scarce. At this moment, nearly half of the Golden Core Stage individuals guarding the formation were experts from other peaks.

Logically, given Purple Dawn Peak's low ranking within the Hundred Peaks Sect, it should face only minimal Sect Tribulation might. Yet inexplicably, the Sect Tribulation targeting Purple Dawn Peak was stronger than those faced by peaks ranked higher!

"Boom!"

The formation light curtain of Purple Dawn Peak had already been breached, and several streaks of thunderbolts struck down directly towards the formation.

"Not good!"

Outside the formation, a disciple watching the thunderbolts falling towards the great formation had a look of determination on his face.

Behind him, five Golden Cores rapidly expanded, as if about to explode, and his entire aura surged drastically.

In the next moment, his body soared into the sky, flying directly above the formation, and the five Golden Cores behind him exploded.

Self-detonation!

He was going to protect this formation by self-detonation!

The mighty power of self-detonation burst forth like an endless river, surging towards the thundering void, but in an instant, this might was completely dispersed upon touching the thunderbolts.

Even though he self-detonated his Gold Core, he was, after all, only at the fifth level of Golden Core!

However, almost immediately after him, another figure shot into the sky, still wearing a determined expression, and the seven Golden Cores behind him also expanded violently.

Self-detonation!

He too chose to self-detonate to protect their formation!

After these two soared one after another, more figures shot up from below, charging straight towards the formation!

"Everyone, sustain the formation! As long as the formation stands, our Purple Dawn Peak can be defended!"

"Protect the formation at all costs; we are merely at the Golden Core Stage, without the formation, we cannot contribute our strength at all!"

In the crowd, cultivators at the Golden Core Stage shot into the sky, choosing to self-detonate to block the Sect Tribulation descending from the void; if one wasn't enough, then two, if two weren't enough, then three!

Outside the formation, the Earth Immortal experts who came to assist Purple Dawn Peak watched the Golden Core Stage disciples fly up one by one, frantically shouting: "Stop, all of you stop! Didn't you hear the Sect Leader's words? Everyone find a place to hide!"

But no matter how he shouted, none of these Golden Core Stage disciples stopped, continually flying towards the void to self-detonate their Golden Cores!

In the crowd, a disciple at the sixth level of Golden Core continued to shout aloud while flying, "This is Purple Dawn Peak, our Purple Dawn Peak; it's already shameful enough that we aren't strong enough and need you to help guard the peak. How can we then act cowardly and retreat!"

"We are aware that our strength is limited, the only thing we can do, is to self-detonate our Golden Cores to protect the formation!"

Chapter 1639:

Outside the formation, the Earth Immortal Realm looked at the Purple Dawn Peak Golden Core Stage disciples continuously flying into the void, his eyes unconsciously moistening.

"You all, come back! You're sending yourselves to death!"

Seeing that he couldn't persuade them at all, he could only shout towards the Purple Dawn Peak Master, "Purple Dawn Peak Master, why aren't you quickly recalling your disciples from Purple Dawn Peak? Do you want the legacy of your Purple Dawn Peak to end?"

The Purple Dawn Peak Master didn't respond but instead frantically channeled his own aura to maintain the operation of the great formation.

But even though one by one, the Golden Core Stage disciples of the Purple Dawn Peak were self-detonating to buy time for those within the formation to recover a bit, slowly they could no longer hold on.

Several bolts of lightning fell from the void, heavily striking the great formation, and in an instant, the entire formation emitted muffled sounds, and the jade stones forming the formation shattered with a roar!

The great formation completely failed!

Within the great formation, the Golden Core Stage disciples were churned by the authentic aura, and many were directly knocked to the ground.

Even the Earth Immortal in charge of the formation within the great formation had a face that turned deathly pale.

Although he was an Earth Immortal, he was responsible for the great formation. Positioned at the formation eye, when the formation was smashed, the backlash he suffered was stronger than anyone else's!

Outside the formation, another Earth Immortal flew above the crowd, continuously releasing spells towards the descending sect tribulation, while shouting to the people within the formation, "Retreat, all Golden Core Stage beings leave, the great formation is broken, you should quickly leave this place."

As he spoke, he frantically gathered the immortal power within him, casting spell after spell to block the descent of the sect tribulation.

But after all, he was alone, and with one tribulation after another descending, his spells dissipated in mere moments, with an enormous spear-like spike piercing straight at him. But he still did not dodge, standing guard as the spike fell, piercing through his body.

"Pff..."

He opened his mouth, spurring a large mouthful of crimson blood, but the next moment, he took a deep breath and once more unleashed spells towards the direction of the void!

Within the shattered formation, the Earth Immortal guarding Purple Dawn Peak saw the injured companion, his forehead veins bulging, and shouted at the people around, "What are you still doing here? Do you want my senior brother to die? This great formation has shattered! The attack just now, with senior brother's cultivation base, he could have dodged it, but he didn't, and it's because of you!

Because if he dodged, you all would be heavily injured and might even die at that time!

Senior brother has been injured because of you, and you still won't leave? Do you have to see senior brother die before you're satisfied? Hurry and leave!"

With a roar of rage, he left the great formation and soared into the sky.

In the broken formation, the Purple Dawn Peak Master saw the two Earth Immortals soaring into the sky and suddenly turned back, saying to everyone, "Quickly, withdraw from here. Staying here not only doesn't help, but burdens the two Earth Immortals. Go back quickly!"

Within the formation, the crowd looked at the two Earth Immortal experts desperately resisting the sect tribulation to protect them, understanding that staying here after the formation was broken would indeed become a burden, and they had no choice but to fly towards the distant mountain cave.

When Cao Zhen set up the great formation, he had considered the safety of the disciples within the formation if they had to leave, so he chose to place the formation not far from the mountain cave.

But even if the distance is close, there is still a gap, and it requires time.

One by one, the Golden Core Stage disciples had already entered the mountain cave, but from the void, meteors as large as mountains were falling towards the last few Golden Core Stage disciples in the group!

"Not good!"

The Golden Core Stage disciples who had already entered the mountain cave were instantly terrified, frantically gathering their own mana in an attempt to use their divine skills to block the meteors falling from the void, but how could their divine skills be faster than the sect tribulation!

Seeing the huge meteors about to fall on the last few disciples at the mountain, suddenly, a figure soared into the sky.

After seeing the appearance of the other party, everyone was even more shocked and cried out loudly.

"Peak Master!"

"Peak Master, what are you doing!"

"Peak Master, come back!"

The Purple Dawn Peak Master had a resolute expression on his face, rushing rapidly towards the meteors, while frantically urging the Golden Core behind him to expand more and more.

In flight, he shouted loudly, "I am not a good Peak Master, the rank of Purple Dawn Peak has been falling under my care.

And with my talent being like this, I don't have many years left, and if I die, then I die. The only regret is not seeing our Hundred Peaks Sect become the Hundred Peaks Church!"

As he spoke, he had already flown beneath the meteor, and the Golden Core behind him exploded abruptly.

There was another colossal sound of Golden Core self-destruction.

"Live well for me, I don't want our Purple Dawn Peak's rank to fall again!"

Although he had not become an Earth Immortal, over the years, he had completed Pill Fusion, and under self-detonation, the terrifying might pushed the meteor in the void to deviate to the side.

Below, one by one, the disciples who would have been crushed by the meteor stared blankly at the direction of the void where the Peak Master self-destructed.

Chapter 1640 The Tenth Tribulation Day

"Why are you still standing there? Hurry and come in."

"You three, do you want the Peak Master to sacrifice in vain?"

Shouts and reprimands echoed from the direction of the cave, and the three finally came to their senses, rushing into the cave.

But the moment they stepped into the cave, all three fell to their knees on the ground.

"It's us, we killed our master!"

"If it weren't for saving us, the Peak Master wouldn't have had to die!"

"Peak Master..."

The three had already broken through to the Golden Core Stage, and their ages were over a hundred years, yet now, they were like children, staring at the direction where the Purple Dawn Peak Master had self-destructed, crying uncontrollably.

They hated, hated themselves for running so slowly; if only they had been faster, the Peak Master wouldn't have needed to sacrifice.

They hated their cultivation base for being so weak!

As time passed, the battle within the Hundred Peaks Sect grew more fierce, and more formations began to be damaged.

On every mountain peak, disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect started to die.

Even the Four Treasures Peak was no exception.

The disciples of Four Treasures Peak were at the Longevity Period, but Four Treasures Peak also had formations, guarded by other disciples.

With the arrival of the tenth day of the Sect Tribulation, a tenth type of tribulation appeared in the void.

Not only was there one more tribulation, the power of the original nine types also increased.

The blue thunder had transformed into purple thunder, flames became more intense, and the wind had turned into a tornado.

Some Golden Core Stage individuals had retreated to safety, but a few inside the formations continued to hold on.

Outside the formations, individuals at the Earth Immortal Realm desperately guarded the great formation, refusing to retreat despite injuries, even serious ones!

Today marked the last day of the Sect Tribulation; if they could endure it, the Hundred Peaks Sect would be able to ascend to the Hundred Peaks Teach!

This was the pinnacle pursuit of countless generations of the Hundred Peaks Sect!

Now, they just needed to hold out for this last day!

In the direction of Ascension Peak, the tribulation clouds in the void underwent wild changes, lightning, flames, heavy water, and gales clashed and formed shapes resembling ferocious beasts.

Cao Zhen's expression instantly turned solemn; when helping the Five Sounds Sect with their tribulation before, the lightning only collided with other lightning and the flames with other flames... Only similar tribulations colliding would form ferocious beasts, but now all tribulations were mixed; for instance, when lightning collided with fire or wind, it turned into a ferocious beast!

These beasts resembled Saint Beast Kylin, Divine Dragon, Phoenix, Pixiu... Some had bizarre appearances, as if composites of various beasts.

But regardless of their form, each beast emitted a terrifying aura, each surpassing the strength of ordinary Longevity Period cultivators.

These beasts exuded the majesty of the Heavenly Dao but were full of savagery, ferocity, and wildness!

"One person, one beast, quickly eliminate them; do not let these beasts be hit by other tribulations!"

These beasts were most terrifying in that, if struck by tribulations, they wouldn't be harmed; instead, any damage would be repaired, and their strength would increase.

In the distance, members of the Demonic Sect, along with gathered figures from the Grand Righteous Sect, also noticed the changes in the tribulation clouds above the Hundred Peaks Sect, specifically above its central location.

“The real test of the Sect Tribulation has arrived.”

“Whether the Hundred Peaks Sect can successfully overcome the tribulation depends on now.”

“I wonder how many experts the Hundred Peaks Sect has left in their center. From observing over the past nine days, the Hundred Peaks Sect supported for so long, dispatching many hands elsewhere, implying few are left in the center.”

“Do they have such faith in their experts?”

“They might be a bit too confident; this final test isn’t easy. They’re all at the Longevity Period, on the Immortal Mountain reaching multiple heights; if the Hundred Peaks Sect deployed too many people elsewhere, leaving too few in the center, leading to the death of an expert, the loss would be massive!”

At Ascension Peak, as soon as those tribulation beasts appeared, everyone acted.

Behind Cao Zhen, the towering Immortal Mountain fully emerged, as he faced the mountain-like Grey Ape, he abruptly slashed his sword.

Instantly, in the void, a hundred images of Cao Zhen appeared, each with silver and orange wings on their backs.

They simultaneously struck, and instantly a hundred streams of sword qi emerged in the void, seemingly converging into one sword.

As the sword light passed, the void in front of him unfolded abruptly, even where the sword fell, impacting various tribulations, causing them to shatter.

The next moment, the sword struck the ferocious beast heavily.

Instantly, the giant Grey Ape exploded violently.

Not far away, experts from Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect who came to assist swallowed hard; even though the tribulation was already on its tenth day, it was the first time Cao Zhen had acted on Ascension Peak. There were enough experts gathered there, not requiring Cao Zhen to act to withstand the tribulation.

Previously, Cao Zhen shuttled between peaks to provide aid. Now, it was the first time he struck on Ascension Peak; they saw Cao Zhen's full-force action for the first time. That feeling!
