

My Master 1641

Chapter 1641:

They were clearly experts who had reached ninety feet on the Immortal Mountain, yet at this moment they realized they and Cao Zhen seemed to be people of two different cultivation realms; they were in the Longevity Period, while Cao Zhen was an existence that had entered the Indestructible Period!

Cao Zhen's sword was clearly meant to kill that fierce beast, but as the longsword swept over, Cao Zhen's attack incidentally cleaved apart the surrounding Sect Tribulation as well!

This was the last day's Sect Tribulation, an enhanced Sect Tribulation!

This Cao Zhen, simply too terrifying!

They recalled the topics they had discussed previously.

Longevity Period Limit!

People hadn't spoken of a Longevity Period Limit because no one had ever reached the Longevity Period Limit.

The main reason is that the Longevity Period and the Golden Core Period are different.

After all, the existence of the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth could last a hundred years, and for many geniuses, a hundred years is enough time to begin cultivating and advance to the Perfect Completion Golden Core with Ten Different Phenomena.

At that time, coinciding with the Reversal Mini Epoch Period, without the ability to break through, they could only cultivate, causing those geniuses to reach the limit of the Golden Core Period.

But the Longevity Period is different, after the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth ends, the Longevity Period, as the highest combat power period, is far less than a hundred years long, and moreover, the Longevity Period is already the Earth Immortal Realm, making cultivation slower.

So no one has ever reached the Longevity Period Limit.

After all, it's also not possible to stop at the Longevity Period accumulating without breaking through.

Yet Cao Zhen, they truly felt that Cao Zhen reached the limit of the Longevity Period.

As the crowd was marveling, suddenly a voice came over.

"Duo Duo junior sister, Bei Yan junior brother, enter my Formation Map, I have trapped three fierce beasts."

Ling Xi realized her Supreme Unparalleled Formation Diagram is not only effective against cultivators but can also weaken the power of these fierce beasts transformed from Sect Tribulations.

With the help of the Formation Map, the three quickly slaughtered these three fierce beasts.

Besides that, other disciples from the Four Treasures Peak, including Li Ke, Liè Yàn, and others, also exerted their power, exterminating fierce beasts transformed from the Sect Tribulations one by one, leaving these fierce beasts unable to transform into even stronger entities through other Sect Tribulations, quickly being slain.

However, the Immortal Jiu Yang and other Earth Immortals who had come still looked grave.

This was just the beginning, as Sect Tribulations were still falling from the void, gradually strengthening, and though everyone was in the Longevity Period, their immortal power was limited.

Gradually, Immortal Jiu Yang felt her pressure increasing; at first, she could handle the fierce beasts one by one, but now, she needed the disciples of the Four Treasures Peak to occasionally come and assist her.

But it's not just her, most people needed others to help, and some had even started teaming up with another person to fight a single fierce beast.

However, the several disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect were truly terrifying.

Xiang Ziyu, on the other hand, needn't be mentioned; he walked the Way of Yin and Yang, with Yin Yang Qi endlessly replenishing extremely quickly.

But Ling Xi, Bei Yan, and Duo Duo, the mana of these three seemed infinite, not at all affected.

This is the terror of the Ancient Immortal Body, and this is why many proclaim that within the same cultivation realm, the Ancient Immortal Body is invincible.

The Ancient Immortal Body not only possesses more power but also has more abundant immortal power.

It was understandable that Ling Xi, Bei Yan, and Duo Duo, being Ancient Immortal Bodies, weren't weakened.

But what about the other disciples of the Four Treasures Peak?

The Ruo Yun Immortal seemed to be a reincarnated Great Ability, having more immortal power was understandable, perhaps having special means.

But the disciple named Yi Sheng was perplexing.

She had also specially understood the Four Treasures Peak beforehand, Yi Sheng being the fifth disciple there, yet among the many disciples of the Four Treasures Peak, her presence was not strong.

Many even said Yi Sheng was inferior to disciples who joined the Four Treasures Peak after her.

Furthermore, some said she was the weakest disciple of the Four Treasures Peak besides the One-Man Army.

Just like the Ruo Yun Immortal, who fights with spell application almost to the extreme, her power never diminished, which has much to do with her suitable spell application and reasonable allocation of immortal power.

As for Yi Sheng, she was a brute, madly releasing one flame breath after another, asking herself, should she cast spells like that, her immortal power might not last till now, yet Yi Sheng's immortal power did not weaken at all.

She even had a feeling Yi Sheng seemed like a Pill, continuously refining, with the surrounding spiritual energy of the world being various medicinal ingredients, madly replenishing her immortal power.

Though she consumed quickly, she supplemented just as fast!

Not to mention, with such an astonishing rate of immortal power replenishment, that is called the weakest?

Yi Sheng was already brute enough, but the seemingly simple-minded disciple Zhu Peng from Four Treasures Peak was even more brute, entirely like a fierce beast, much like the legendary Kylin.

Moreover, Zhu Peng seldom used spells, relying more on his physical body to fight, with very little consumption of immortal power.

Only Linghu Gudu was similar to them, obviously showing signs of excessive consumption.

As for Cao Zhen, she couldn't understand; from the first day, Cao Zhen went with Xiang Ziyu to rescue and intensely consumed power, yet now, ten days later, she still couldn't detect excessive consumption of Cao Zhen's immortal power.

Cao Zhen was not an Ancient Immortal Body, and even if he were, such consumption wouldn't sustain.

And Cao Zhen wasn't like Yi Sheng, able to rapidly replenish. Furthermore, Yi Sheng's replenishment was noticeable, with consumption, even Xiang Ziyu showed signs of consumption, albeit not obvious.

But as for Cao Zhen, it genuinely seemed there was no loss at all, as if his own immortal power were infinite.

Even in the Earth Immortal Realm, and even in the Immortality Regainment Realm or True Immortal Realm, immortal power cannot be endless; she truly couldn't comprehend how Cao Zhen managed it.

Immortal Jiu Yang, surprised in her heart, quickly scanned the surroundings with her eyes. She couldn't hold on anymore; she needed to find someone to team up with against a fierce beast transformed from the Sect Tribulation.

Chapter 1642:

Immortal Jiu Yang was still looking for the right person to join forces with when a sudden cold aura attacked her, the icy chill as if it could freeze her very soul, causing her body to uncontrollably quiver slightly.

In the next moment, she suddenly widened her eyes, as in the void, a bolt of lightning fell, striking the fierce beast before her that resembled a giant bear.

If it were just one bolt of lightning, it would be fine, but for some reason, the sect tribulation in this space she was in suddenly increased, with drops of heavy water, gusts of fierce wind, and scorching flames all descending onto the fierce beast.

In an instant, the aura of this fierce beast skyrocketed at an astonishing speed!

Not good!

Immortal Jiu Yang was in a panic; the more sect tribulations a tribulation beast devours, the stronger it becomes. If an extremely powerful beast appears, they would need to gather more people to deal with it, which means they wouldn't be able to take care of the other beasts, thus affecting everyone's rhythm in resisting the sect tribulation.

Their strategy had always been to prevent the emergence of overly strong tribulation beasts.

They had maintained it well, but unexpectedly, a problem occurred on her side. Who would've thought the sect tribulation in her area would suddenly increase?

And at this moment, in the void, even more sect tribulations were falling, heading towards the beast.

Seeing that the beast was about to strengthen again, the people around also noticed something was wrong and took action to block the sect tribulations from falling from the void, but everyone also had beasts to fight, and they couldn't fully stop the tribulations falling towards the giant bear.

Amidst the void, a scorching flame slipped through the gaps of everyone's spells, falling towards the giant bear, seemingly about to enter its body, when suddenly, a figure enveloped in black and white light appeared, blocking the flame's path.

Xiang Ziyu?

Jiu Yang suddenly widened her eyes. What is Zi Yu doing? Is he trying to use his body to block the sect tribulation?

Is he crazy?

This is the last day of the sect tribulation, not the first day!

In a breath, the flame descended, while on Xiang Ziyu's body, the black and white lights rapidly rotated.

In an instant, the black and white lights suddenly shattered!

His Record of Deities and Demons was just a divine skill, not a spell. He had been too busy lately, needing to cultivate various spells, practice the Eight Nine Mysterious Art, and improve his cultivation base.

Modifying the Record of Deities and Demons into a spell was unexpectedly difficult, and he hadn't fully figured it out yet.

With the Record of Deities and Demons shattered, the scorching flame instantly enveloped Xiang Ziyu.

Yet Xiang Ziyu seemed unaffected by the attack, instead waving his hands to heavily strike the beast before him.

On his left and right hands were fifty-four prayer beads each, totaling one hundred and eight beads, half white and half black, with pure Yin Yang Qi gushing out wildly from each bead.

The Yin Yang circulated but did not merge, rather giving an impression of rejection, generating a terrifying repulsive force.

The force was so strong that it seemed to tear Xiang Ziyu and the space where the beast was into two separate parts.

In the next moment, a loud boom echoed in this space, as if unable to withstand the repulsion, it completely exploded, revealing a pitch-black crack in the void, seemingly forming a spatial vortex.

Amidst the loud boom, Xiang Ziyu and the fierce beast were blasted in two different directions.

The beast's body appeared as if it was about to be split in half, with even one head blown apart, leaving only half.

The reason he blocked the descending sect tribulation with his body was to free his hands to attack the beast.

From his past experience assisting the Five Sounds Sect's heavenly tribulation, he learned the lesson; the tribulation beasts must be killed in the cradle!

In the next moment, a sliver of silver light flashed in the void as Cao Zhen pierced through with one sword, directly slaying the heavily injured beast.

The main reason was Xiang Ziyu's frighteningly powerful spell; Cao Zhen's sword was merely a finishing touch.

However...

Cao Zhen looked speechless at Xiang Ziyu, who was also blasted away. Why does this kid like to come up with these self-harming spells when he's fine?

This spell wasn't something he taught Xiang Ziyu. What he taught were the spells of Zhang Daoling, Lu Ya Daoist, and others, all serious spells without such mutually destructive and self-harming spells.

Clearly, this spell was something Xiang Ziyu figured out by studying who knows what.

Fortunately, he taught Xiang Ziyu the Eight Nine Mysterious Art, and Xiang Ziyu had been practicing it all along. Otherwise, just now Xiang Ziyu would have been half-crippled!

All around, several Earth Immortal Realm experts who came to support the Hundred Peaks Sect looked at Xiang Ziyu, who was blasted back, spewed a mouthful of blood, with his flesh torn, yet stood up as if nothing happened, resuming battle with another tribulation beast, completely stunned.

This... is he really in the Longevity Period, and not the Indestructible Period?

The biggest difference between the Indestructible Period and the Longevity Period is the strength of the body and soul.

They saw clearly, with the spell Xiang Ziyu cast just now, both Xiang Ziyu and the beast took a hit, with the beast almost being killed.

After swallowing several sect tribulations, even the enhanced beast was bombarded like this, yet Xiang Ziyu, although his flesh was torn, managed to keep fighting. Indeed, looking closely, Xiang Ziyu's injuries only looked frightening but weren't fatal at all, his bones were not even exposed, despite having withstood a heavenly tribulation attack earlier!

Chapter 1643

In the end, Xiang Ziyu was still able to fight as usual, which was terrifying!

If it were them, suffering such a horrific impact, they might have been severely injured, let alone fighting!

Xiang Ziyu was only at the Longevity Period, how could his physical body be so terrifying?

Immortal Shuanghua released a chilling icy breath, freezing a ferocious beast resembling a Bi Fang in front of her, and glanced at Xiang Ziyu in the distance, instantly recalling what Cao Zhen had said in their Dragon Chant Sect back then.

He said that he had a secret divine skill that was unparalleled in the world in body tempering methods.

Xiang Ziyu's physical body was so strong, probably because of that divine skill.

She had thought before that Xiang Ziyu and Cao Zhen could, through that divine skill, achieve the peak of the Golden Core Stage during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, and in her heart, she imagined that divine skill to be incredibly powerful.

But now, seeing Xiang Ziyu's powerful physical body with her own eyes, she realized she had underestimated that divine skill.

She now fervently hoped that the mysterious rank spells taught by Cao Zhen were fake, so that their Dragon Chant Sect could obtain that divine skill.

However, this possibility was almost zero, she thought.

Cao Zhen couldn't possibly teach such a terrifying divine skill to their Dragon Chant Sect, so the mysterious rank spells he taught must be real.

As the heavenly tribulation continued to intensify, slowly, people also began to get injured.

And she further discovered that the disciples of Four Treasures Peak, along with Immortal Bi Yue and Li Ke, although their physical body strength hadn't reached the terrifying level of Xiang Ziyu, still far exceeded others.

Clearly, these people had also cultivated the divine skill Cao Zhen mentioned.

However, their cultivation of the divine skill was not as deep as Xiang Ziyu's. As for Cao Zhen, she couldn't tell for now; Cao Zhen still wasn't injured, even to the limit!

Unknowingly, the sky had completely darkened.

Mortals were filled with fear of the night.

Even cultivators, compared to the night, preferred daylight more eagerly.

But within the Hundred Peaks Sect, one after another, cultivators who had gone through the nearly exhausting ten days and nine nights of Sect Tribulation, as they looked at the descending night, their faces gradually revealed smiles.

"The night has come, as long as we get through this night, our Hundred Peaks Sect will become a Great Teaching!"

"Four and a half hours remaining!"

"Hold on!"

“Senior brother, you rest for a while, I’ll cover for you, and then you can support me later.”

“Great Teaching, we’re about to become a Great Teaching!”

On the peaks of each mountain, within the Hundred Peaks Sect, cultivators who had almost reached their limits burst with new strength, the strength of faith.

Time passed little by little, the void outside the Hundred Peaks Sect was already pitch black, night was deep.

But the void above the Hundred Peaks Sect was brilliant due to the continuous fall of Sect Tribulation, becoming the most dazzling existence in the entire Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

Within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, practitioners from various sects had gathered together. When the relics of the Hundred Peaks Sect appeared earlier, they wanted to help the Hundred Peaks Sect seize more treasures, but Cao Zhen, relying on his own power, collected all the treasures, and they couldn’t help at all.

Now, as the Hundred Peaks Sect undergoes tribulation, they naturally came here.

They knew that whenever a Great Teaching endures the tribulation, if that Great Teaching suffers heavy losses, other Great Teachings would attack it.

Even if they were just sects, even if their power was limited, they also came to help.

This was to be the first Great Teaching in the Eastern Wasteland!

Even Star Lord Hao Yue and Ax Madman stopped cultivating, stood amidst the crowd, and looked at the Hundred Peaks Sect in the distance.

“Hundred Peaks Sect is stable.” After a long time, Star Lord Hao Yue suddenly broke the silence, “Look, formations still exist within the Hundred Peaks Sect, especially the Great Formation where the Sect Tribulation is most concentrated is still there, evidently they haven’t been affected.

Now, with two and a half hours until dawn, even now, if the Great Formation of the Hundred Peaks Sect is completely destroyed, they can hold on desperately until the end of the Sect Tribulation.”

“So, the Eastern Wasteland will soon give birth to its first Great Teaching?”

An elder in the crowd sighed deeply: “Unbelievable, truly unbelievable, that the first Great Teaching of the Eastern Wasteland is actually the Hundred Peaks Sect. I wonder how those old ones of the Hundred Peaks Sect will react when they wake up and find their sect has become a Great Teaching.”

The Sect Tribulation was about to end, and at this moment, it was the most terrifying time of the tribulation.

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, atop the peaks, one Great Formation after another began to collapse under the relentless Sect Tribulation.

One Man Army led the support team, rescuing here and there, but gradually, even he was struggling to keep up, as Heaven seems to have gone mad due to the impending end of the Sect Tribulation.

Cao Zhen wanted to go elsewhere to rescue other disciples, but he simply couldn’t leave.

On Ascension Peak, which reached ninety zhang high, situated in the sect, the formations were starting to be damaged and even showed signs of being destroyed, apart from Yan Yourong and Little Yin Dragon.

“Protect the formation!”

Cao Zhen suddenly soared, landed on top of the formation; the reason they were able to suppress those Sect Tribulation beasts so far was certainly due, in part, to having enough experts there, and in part, due to the presence of the formation.

Chapter 1644:

The light barrier of the Great Formation can resist the falling Sect Tribulation from being devoured by those demonic beasts, so there have never been ultra-powerful Sect Tribulation beasts. Once the Great Formation is completely destroyed, it would not be enough to rely solely on them to completely block the falling Sect Tribulation, naturally leading to the birth of those ultra-powerful beasts.

He single-handedly blocked one Sect Tribulation after another, and the Great Formation gradually recovered and reformed the light barrier.

Slowly, the light barrier became increasingly bright.

The sky was becoming brighter!

In the distance, people from the Demonic Sect sighed helplessly.

"It's over; the sky is about to brighten. From now on, the Righteous Path's Great Teaching has one more member!"

"Those in the Righteous Path's Great Teachings are all here; there's no chance for us to make a move."

"There's no opportunity left; let's go!"

The people from the Demonic Sect sighed helplessly and turned to fly away into the distance.

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, Cao Zhen distinctly felt that the falling Sect Tribulation in the void was diminishing, and above his head, the tribulation clouds gradually began to dissipate.

In the East, a hint of sunlight fell.

A new day has arrived!

After the sun appeared, it did not rise slowly as usual, but rose rapidly, instantly reaching the zenith above everyone.

This day, it seemed to leap past the morning to reach noon instantly.

With the rising of the sun, the surrounding tribulation clouds instantly vanished, disappearing without a trace.

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, everyone looked at the disappearing tribulation clouds, momentarily stunned. Some disciples looked around, even feeling a sense of disbelief.

"Has the Sect Tribulation ended?"

"We... our Hundred Peaks Sect has become a Great Teaching?"

"Did we resist it?"

Suddenly, cheers came from the direction of the back mountain.

"We resisted; we are now a Great Teaching!"

"From today, we are no longer the Hundred Peaks Sect; we are Hundred Peaks Teaching!"

"We have become the first Great Teaching of the Eastern Wasteland!"

Cascades of cheers echoed, and from the direction of the back mountain, disciples rushed out from the mountain, shouting freely.

On various peaks, even the Earth Immortal Realm cultivators looked at the vanishing tribulation clouds and the sun overhead, some followed with cheers, some were exhausted beyond measure, and some simply sat down on the ground, utterly fatigued.

For they had tirelessly resisted the Sect Tribulation for ten days!

And some of them sobbed, holding onto corpses around them.

"Senior Brother, we made it, our Hundred Peaks Sect became a Great Teaching, Senior Brother, wake up, take a look."

"Master... we are now a Great Teaching, Master..."

During the prior Sect Tribulation, they had clearly suffered severe injuries, yet now they ignored their wounds, hugging corpses and crying loudly.

Ascension Peak.

Even the top experts from the Immortal Mountain, reaching ninety zhang, have now fallen from the void to the ground, gasping heavily.

"Ling Xi, you..." Cao Zhen looked at the heavily panting Ling Xi, just as he was about to say something, a golden light fell from the void. This golden light was filled with sacred, noble, and inviolable power.

Power of Heavenly Dao!

The golden light completely enveloped the Hundred Peaks Sect, and within the Hundred Peaks Sect, the blown-apart mountains, craters blasted into the ground, severed rivers, all rapidly restored visibly to the naked eye.

At the same time, this golden light fell onto the mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect, into every corner of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

At that moment, Cao Zhen felt a surge within himself, his prosperity beginning to agitate rapidly, as if trying to break through some shackles, yet at the same time, this prosperity seemed to be obstructed by something, preventing further breakthrough.

Only...

As the Hundred Peaks Sect transformed into a Great Teaching, the Hundred Peaks Sect naturally grew stronger, thus his prosperity, which included the Hundred Peaks Sect, also grew stronger, with abundant enhancement.

Yet, he was already at the limit of the Longevity Period, so the Heavenly Dao couldn't allow him to grow stronger, blocking the breakthrough of his Age of Prosperity Qi like a shackle.

Cao Zhen didn't care, as in a few years, when the Indestructible Period arrived, he would still be able to break through, and this prosperity's power wouldn't just vanish by then.

However, at the next moment, a peculiar expression appeared on his face.

Inside him, the force trying to block was paradoxically conflicting, seemingly trying to block, yet not willing to block it, caught in a contradiction.

Cao Zhen was puzzled, how could this be? The Heavenly Dao surely wouldn't permit power beyond the Longevity Period's limit, why wasn't it trying to block...

Could it be because the Hundred Peaks Sect enhanced as it became a Great Teaching, as it passed through the Sect Tribulation, and adhered to the Heavenly Dao?

Thus, the Heavenly Dao didn't want to stop it, but after adhering to the Heavenly Dao, his power would surpass the limit of the Longevity Period, which the Heavenly Dao couldn't allow, so it wanted to hinder.

For a moment, Cao Zhen noticed his internal power in a bizarre state, enhancing yet unable to break through the shackle, seemingly the Longevity Period's limit.

The power gathered more and more, and his expression grew increasingly grim.

"Master, what do you want to say?" Ling Xi looked at her master in front of her, full of astonishment. The next moment, a worried expression appeared on her pretty face, "Master, what's wrong? Why do you look so pale, Master..."

Chapter 1645: The Fourth

Ling Xi instinctively wanted to support her master, but as soon as her palm touched him, a terrifying force surged out. The power was so immense that even she couldn't withstand it and was instantly flung back, crashing heavily into the wall of the Hall of Infinity Doors behind her.

"Ling Xi?"

"Senior Sister, Master? What's wrong with you?"

The surrounding crowd immediately noticed something was wrong and turned their gazes over.

"I... I'm fine. You all stay here for now, I'll handle it..."

Cao Zhen quickly turned his head and flew towards a distant room, feeling the power within him growing stronger, as if it was about to erupt.

If this continued, he felt like the power inside him would burst him apart!

And just when Ling Xi touched him, he felt as if his power found an outlet to discharge, and a part of it poured out instantly.

It discharged uncontrollably.

Fortunately, Ling Xi was blown away, otherwise, he felt that all of his power could have been fully transferred into Ling Xi, and she would likely explode instantly.

"Discharge the power... I can create another clone and channel the excess power into the clone."

Currently, the only solution he could think of was a clone.

Because there were too many people outside, and not all of them were from the Hundred Peaks Sect, so he had to find a place.

"It's just a pity that this power will probably go to waste!"

Cao Zhen sighed, and with a thought, one of his hidden clones exploded violently.

This clone was equivalent to the early period of the Longevity Period, and its self-destruction left his main body somewhat unable to bear it, spitting out a large mouthful of blood.

But feeling the turbulence inside, he ignored everything else, quickly gathered his immortal power, and started to form a new clone. Instantly, a flow of Era Prosperity Power, generated by the transformation of Hundred Peaks Sect into a Great Teaching, found its outlet and rushed towards the clone in front of him.

The clone in front of him became more and more solid.

"This isn't right, something's wrong!"

Gradually, Cao Zhen noticed that something was off; he could only condense two clones himself, and each had only the power of the early Longevity Period. But now, his clone's power reached mid Longevity Period levels, yet the Age of Prosperity Qi inside him kept surging in.

In the blink of an eye, the clone's power had reached the Peak of the Longevity Period, but the Age of Prosperity Qi was still flooding in.

Cao Zhen's face slowly showed a trace of joy.

"Previously, I thought as long as I found a place to release this power, it would work. I could create clones, but each clone only had the power of the early Longevity Period, requiring self-destruction of one clone after another to continue."

That inevitably meant wasting some power.

But now, it seemed I don't need to do that anymore, this clone's power... is so strong, it's about to reach the peak limit of the Longevity Period!"

Finally, when the clone reached the peak limit of the Longevity Period, it was completed, and at the same time, the newly generated Age of Prosperity Qi in him disappeared completely.

"The peak limit of the Longevity Period? Now I have another clone at the peak limit?"

Cao Zhen looked at his clone, momentarily stunned, so after the breakthrough of Hundred Peaks Sect into a Great Teaching, his Age of Prosperity Qi increased so much, inexplicably adding another power equivalent to the peak limit of the Longevity Period.

But my clone was supposed to only have the power of the early Longevity Period, how could it keep increasing to the peak limit?

"Could it also be because Hundred Peaks Sect became a Great Teaching, and the power emerged in line with the Heavenly Dao? So it can keep upgrading? Actually, figuring it out wouldn't be difficult, just experiment with another clone. But now's not the time."

The Hundred Peaks Sect had just become a Great Teaching, and there were many affairs that needed his attention.

He quickly flew out of the room.

In Ascension Peak, everyone looked at the room Cao Zhen entered with confusion, filled with doubt and puzzlement, wondering why Cao Zhen suddenly behaved like that?

It felt as if he had a problem in cultivation, being counterattacked?

But the problem was, Cao Zhen had been facing his Heavenly Tribulation, and he wasn't cultivating, so how could it backfire?

Moreover, he, a reincarnated great ability, was just in the Longevity Period now and shouldn't suffer a backlash.

As everyone was bewilderedly considering this, suddenly, Cao Zhen reappeared.

Immortal Bi Yue, Li Ke, and the disciples of Four Treasures Peak immediately approached with concern and inquiries.

"Master? What happened to you?"

"Blood? Master, you coughed blood?"

"Master, you..."

Cao Zhen waved his hand towards them, saying: "No need to worry. I am fine. Just now, I felt an insight during the Hundred Peaks Sect's Heavenly Tribulation, and had signs of a breakthrough. But now, the Heavenly Dao doesn't allow power beyond the Longevity Period, so it suppressed my power, causing a backlash."

"Fortunately, I've managed to suppress that power now."

"I see."

"It's good that Master has suppressed the power."

The surrounding people understandingly nodded.

Li Ke quietly transmitted her voice to Cao Zhen: "What's really going on with you? Don't try to deceive me with those words you tell others." She was the only one who knew that Cao Zhen was not a reincarnated great ability.

Chapter 1646:

Cao Zhen said helplessly, "Why would I lie to you? What I just said is true. I really experienced a surge of power that was so strong it was about to explode within me. I had no choice but to seek help from Dragon senior, Long Aotian."

When Li Ke heard the name Long Aotian, she immediately became excited and asked, "Did Dragon senior reveal himself?"

Cao Zhen casually bluffed, "Naturally, but Dragon senior said he's currently being closely watched by the Heavenly Dao. After hastily helping me settle the aura within me, he disappeared and told me not to seek him out unless necessary."

"No wonder Dragon senior hasn't appeared recently," Li Ke sighed. Just as she was about to speak again, golden rays of light fell from the void, converging toward Ascension Peak. In the midst of these golden rays, one could clearly see treasures, Immortal Mines, and Immortal Herbs...

After the Sect Tribulation, the resources rewarded by the Heavenly Dao have descended!

"The resources are the reward from the Heavenly Dao!"

"So many resources!"

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, the disciples eagerly flew towards Ascension Peak, eyeing the resources granted by the Heavenly Dao.

Cao Zhen, Ling Xi, Xiang Ziyu, and Bi Yue had previously helped Five Sounds Sect overcome their Sect Tribulation and witnessed the resources rewarded to them afterward.

Now, in comparison, they realized that the resources bestowed by the Heavenly Dao were ten times more than those given to Five Sounds Sect after their tribulation, and that was just in terms of quantity. Although they hadn't looked closely, they could immediately perceive the difference in quality.

Back when Five Sounds Sect had passed their tribulation, the Heavenly Dao had also descended with significant amounts of Divine Thoughts, with the thickest being over a zhang in diameter.

But now, not only are there more Divine Thoughts, even the thinnest one is a zhang in diameter!

These are Divine Thoughts, and the thicker they are, the more information they contain. The more information they contain, the stronger the Divine Skills or Spells within!

In no time, the resources rewarded by the Heavenly Dao had covered Ascension Peak.

All around, including Immortal Jiu Yang and Immortal Shuanghua, began examining each treasure, ready to choose which one to take.

Cao Zhen glanced around before clapping his hands towards the members from the Dragon Chant Sect, Yin Yang Sect, Cloud Reaching Sect, and the Grand Preceptor's disciple, Shi Shoujiang. "Thank you all for coming to assist. According to our previous agreement, our Hundred Peaks Sect will select thirty treasures. The remaining treasures, each of you may choose one. Of course, those Divine Thoughts are not to be selected."

Allowing the others each to select a treasure amounted to the Hundred Peaks Sect effectively giving away ten treasures, which was indeed painful. But since they had promised, they naturally had to honor their commitment.

In reality, he realized that without these ten people's help, the Hundred Peaks Sect could have probably handled the Sect Tribulation themselves. However, doing so might have cost many disciples their lives.

He would rather give away ten treasures to ensure the safety of the Hundred Peaks Sect disciples.

"State Preceptor." Suddenly, Shi Shoujiang stepped forward from the crowd and said to Cao Zhen, "Congratulations to the State Preceptor. The Hundred Peaks Sect is now a Great Teaching. Henceforth, we should refer to the Hundred Peaks Sect as Hundred Peaks Teaching. Since your sect has successfully overcome the tribulation, I will now take my leave."

"Hmm?" Cao Zhen almost instinctively pointed to the surrounding treasures, "You're not going to wait a little while and select a treasure before leaving?"

Shi Shoujiang shook his head, "I came to help overcome the tribulation only because it was the sect of our Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty's State Preceptor going through the tribulation. I did not come seeking anything."

As Shi Shoujiang said this, he flickered and flew directly out of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

All around, Immortal Jiu Yang and others were completely stunned.

This person, did he truly say he came just to help and wanted no treasures at all?

This was a tribulation that occurs once in a million years, and the Heavenly Dao's rewards after it are incredibly generous, yet he really refused it?

He was just a cultivator from a place like the Eastern Wasteland, without even a sect backing him.

She had also heard there was a so-called Grand Preceptor in the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty; this person was his disciple, so one could consider him a Loose Cultivator.

A Loose Cultivator who could reject such temptation just to help out?

She was now even more interested in the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty's Grand Preceptor, who had not yet awakened. She really wanted to know what kind of person could train such disciples, able to suppress all the sects within the Dynasty and even have someone as powerful as Cao Zhen willingly help this Dynasty.

As Shi Shoujiang departed, one by one, the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect flew up to Ascension Peak. They eyed the treasures cautiously, before shifting their gaze to those from the Dragon Chant Sect, Yin Yang Sect, and Cloud Reaching Sect, their eyes full of wariness.

These were all treasures belonging to the Hundred Peaks Sect. Now that they were lying on the ground, what if these people got greedy and stole the treasures when they were not vigilant?

They must keep a close watch on them.

Cao Zhen had already directed his gaze along with the others to the ground full of treasures.

They would first select thirty types of treasures, so naturally, they would choose the most valuable ones first.

Generally speaking, the most valuable treasures are certainly the Treasures.

Chapter 1647:

Among the many treasures, there were ten that shone with dazzling brilliance, exceptionally conspicuous.

"Only ten mystical rank treasures? Just ten?" Xiang Ziyu looked at the treasures before him, full of dissatisfaction. "I remember back when we helped the Five Sounds Sect transcend their tribulation, the Heavenly Dao bestowed upon them three mystical rank treasures.

The Five Sounds Sect only faced a one-day tribulation, and it was merely a ten-thousand-year sect tribulation. Our tribulation lasted ten days, a million-year sect tribulation. By right, the Heavenly Dao should have bestowed thirty mystical rank treasures, so why only ten?"

"Ahem..." Ruo Yun coughed lightly and said, "Senior Brother, the Heavenly Dao bestowing ten mystical rank treasures is quite normal. The mystical rank treasures given to the Five Sounds Sect during their tribulation were likely lower-grade mystical treasures. Among our ten mystical treasures, there are three upper-grade mystical treasures and three middle-rank mystical treasures.

Additionally, with fewer treasures, there must be highly valuable immortal mines and herbs among other riches!"

Ruo Yun explained to everyone, "For the same type of sect tribulation, the value of the bestowed items is actually quite similar."

Cao Zhen had already walked to a piece of immortal field, roughly ten acres, containing first-grade, second-grade, third-grade, fourth-rank, and even one acre of fifth-grade immortal field.

He felt that, from all the treasures bestowed by the Heavenly Dao this time, aside from the divine thoughts, these immortal fields were the most valuable as well. The Hundred Peaks Sect had only two acres of immortal fields obtained from the Five Sounds Sect, and this time it compensated for the sect's lack of immortal fields.

Around, everyone quickly began to search for the treasures.

In fact, the members of the Hundred Peaks Sect have cultivated for a relatively short time and had limited experience. Though Tu Zhuque and others had been cultivating for a long time, their cultivation base wasn't exceptionally high and had been confined to the Eastern Wasteland, so their insight was also limited.

Fortunately, they had Ruo Yun, who was a truly reincarnated great ability.

Her knowledge was extensive.

Under Ruo Yun's selection, the group soon chose thirty treasures.

It quickly came to Immortal Bi Yue and the others to choose treasures, and all nine chose treasures.

After Cao Zhen and the other nine finished choosing, they collected all remaining treasures and then looked at Bi Yue and the others, saying, "Bi Yue, our Hundred Peaks Sect has just passed a tribulation, and there are many things to handle. If you wish to leave, you can leave the sect, or if not, you may stay, though we may not have much time to accompany you."

Although Bi Yue wanted to stay at the Hundred Peaks Sect, she knew that having just become a great sect, the Hundred Peaks Sect had many affairs to attend to, and staying might be inconvenient, so she chose to leave.

With Bi Yue gone, the other experts of the Dragon Chant Sect naturally chose to leave together, and soon the members of the Yin Yang Sect and Cloud Reaching Sect also left the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, everyone began to tally their gains from this time.

On Ascension Peak, Cao Zhen looked at the high-ranking members of the Hundred Peaks Sect and shared his thoughts: "This time, we have a total of ten mystical rank treasures, a hundred yellow-grade treasures, and two hundred mortal rank treasures. Among these treasures, all mortal rank treasures will be distributed to each peak based on their situation. As for the yellow-grade treasures and mystical rank treasures, I intend to store them temporarily in our sect's treasury until the Sect Leader awakens before making further decisions. What do you think?"

Everyone knew the Sect Leader referred to Bai Fengzi, and since these were his words, they had no objections.

"And all the immortal mines and herbs, I will also place them in the treasury, but the ten acres of immortal field are a bit special." Cao Zhen said to everyone, "I plan to plant them on Four Treasures Peak, for easy monitoring of the fields by me.

Of course, I am only taking care of the fields; these fields still belong to the Hundred Peaks Sect, not our Four Treasures Peak."

Mainly, besides him, no one in the Hundred Peaks Sect knew how to tend to the immortal fields. There was a peak within the sect proficient in the path of agriculture, but that peak was adept at cultivating spirit fields, not immortal fields, as the sect previously had none. Naturally, they wouldn't know how to cultivate the immortal fields either!

Upon hearing this, everyone hastily spoke up.

"Sect Leader, there's no need to explain."

"Sect Leader, you've contributed enough to the Hundred Peaks Sect. Without you, the sect wouldn't have become a great teaching today. Those fields, even if you took them, we'd have no complaints!"

"Indeed, Sect Leader, your contributions far outweigh the worth of those ten acres of fields."

"Sect Leader... in fact, we shouldn't call you Sect Leader anymore; you should be referred to as the Hierarch."

"Yes, and now, we shouldn't call it the Hundred Peaks Sect, but the Hundred Peaks Teaching!"

Hearing the title Hierarch, Cao Zhen felt awkward, and he waved his hand, "No need to call me Hierarch. Currently, I'm merely temporarily overseeing the Hundred Peaks... Teaching. Just call me Sect Master.

As for our sect, it indeed needs a name change. From today onward, the name Hundred Peaks Sect is history; henceforth, the world shall know of Hundred Peaks Teaching!

Now, let us assist each peak in aiding injured disciples and arranging them uniformly within Spirit Mountain."

Saying this, Cao Zhen sighed softly. Though the Hundred Peaks Sect successfully passed the tribulation, many disciples perished during it.

Outside the Hundred Peaks Sect, with their successful tribulation, the demonic path's great sects dispersed, but the righteous path's grand sects did not disperse and instead flew towards the sect, as the Hundred Peaks Sect was considered a righteous sect. Celebrating the successful passing was imperative.

As the golden light dissipated and the tribulation faded, everyone finally saw the current mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

"What a grand mountain gate!"

"This gate is larger than the gates of our great sects!"

"Speaking of which, I'm curious, which great sect did the Hundred Peaks Sect absorb?"

Chapter 1648:

The news that the Hundred Peaks Sect had become a major sect quickly spread throughout the Eastern Province.

While the major sects of the Eastern Province discussed the Hundred Peaks Sect, they were also curious about which major sect the Hundred Peaks Sect had merged with.

After all, the only suitable major sect, the Void Breaking Sect, had not been devoured by the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Soon, the Wanxiao Sect released some information.

The Hundred Peaks Sect had devoured the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect!

The news instantly shocked the entire Eastern Province. Whether it was the demonic sects or the grand righteous sects, they all became deeply wary.

"The Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, it was the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect!"

"The Ten Thousand Immortals Sect that flew away back then was discovered by the Hundred Peaks Sect people!"

"What... what should we do?"

"The most terrifying thing is that Sky Encompassing Ten Thousand Immortals Star Gathering Formation. If the Hundred Peaks Sect merely devoured the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, it might not matter, but if they merged with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, what then? In that case, they would certainly possess the Sky Encompassing Ten Thousand Immortals Star Gathering Formation. If given time to slowly repair it, then..."

"Most likely, they merged with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect."

"Indeed, if it were us, would we pass up the opportunity to acquire the Sky Encompassing Ten Thousand Immortals Star Gathering Formation?"

"This is really a headache. The Ten Thousand Immortals Sect was supposed to be wiped out, but now, another Hundred Peaks Sect has arrived, and it is very likely they inherited the Sky Encompassing Ten Thousand Immortals Star Gathering Formation from the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect!"

"What should we do?"

"What else can we do? We are, after all, a grand righteous sect. Are we going to make a move to destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect?"

"Those from the demonic sects are even more anxious than we are; they will definitely take action."

Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

Ever since they failed several times against the former Hundred Peaks Sect, especially when Cao Zhen led a group of disciples to destroy them outside the ruins, causing the Weeping Blood Demon Sect to suffer heavy losses.

In the conference hall, the Bloodless Demon, with a sinister expression, looked at everyone below and said coldly, "Hundred Peaks Sect, no, it should now be called the Hundred Peaks Sect. They are truly courting death, daring to swallow the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect."

It doesn't matter whether they swallowed or merged with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, we should spread the rumor that they merged with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect. I want to see if other demonic sects will get anxious!

It might not even take the intervention of the indestructible period experts; other major sects will join forces to destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect now.

Oh, and that Bleeding Tears Assassin, isn't it said that no one knows his identity? Then let's spread the news that the Bleeding Tears Assassin is Cao Zhen!"

"He's Cao Zhen?" Below, a pale-faced man with a noticeable knife scar on his face heard this, frowned, and said, "Senior brother, I understand what you mean. But the Bloodcry Demon uses the spell of our Weeping Blood Demon Sect, and his aura clearly shows he's cultivated our sect's technique. Saying he's Cao Zhen, I'm afraid no one will believe that!"

"Whether others believe it or not depends on how we say it. Cultivation techniques are too simple..." The Bloodless Demon turned to look at the Love-Blood Devil not far away, and said in a low voice, "Love-Blood Devil, you tell them."

"Yes." The Love-Blood Devil stood up from his seat, looked at everyone, and said in a deep voice, "We all know I come from the Eastern Wasteland, and moreover, I come from the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty. Back then, our Weeping Blood Demon Sect did indeed have an inheritance that was passed to the Eastern Wasteland.

That inheritance was obtained by the Grand Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, and it was through this that he became the top figure in the Eastern Wasteland.

And Cao Zhen is a State Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty. Everyone, do you think, given their connection, the Grand Preceptor would have passed on our Weeping Blood Demon Sect's inheritance to Cao Zhen?"

Around the room, everyone became excited upon hearing this.

"What? The Grand Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty obtained our Weeping Blood Demon Sect's inheritance? Is this really true?"

"Love-Blood Devil, did you make this up, or is there truly such an event?"

The Love-Blood Devil said seriously, "Naturally, it is true. Moreover, the Grand Preceptor still has disciples, and those disciples are particularly righteous. However, there is one interesting point: they never lie. We can let others ask them and easily find out the truth."

"This... So it seems very possible that the Grand Preceptor would have taught our Weeping Blood Demon Sect's techniques and spells to Cao Zhen!"

"Indeed, as for Cao Zhen cultivating immortal Qi, that guy is a reincarnated great ability, who possesses many methods. If he can make the Ancient Immortal Body reach the Earth Immortal Realm, what's so strange about him cultivating demonic Qi?"

"Exactly, people whose Demonic Mountain exceeds ninety-five zhang are extremely rare. How could the world suddenly have a person with a Demonic Mountain reaching a hundred zhang for no reason?"

"Apart from Cao Zhen and that Bleeding Tears Assassin, no one's Immortal Mountain or Demonic Mountain has reached a hundred zhang!"

"In that case, it's really possible that it is Cao Zhen!"

"Everyone knows Cao Zhen and our Weeping Blood Demon Sect have a grudge. It's not surprising at all that Cao Zhen would use that identity to deliberately kill other demonic sect members to frame our Weeping Blood Demon Sect!"

"With this in mind, have you noticed that Cao Zhen and the Bleeding Tears Assassin have never appeared at the same time.

When the Bleeding Tears Assassin is out killing, Cao Zhen never left the Hundred Peaks Sect. Even if he secretly leaves, no one would know!"

"Yes, later when the Hundred Peaks Sect prepares to undergo the heavenly tribulation, Cao Zhen is active outside, but then the Bleeding Tears Assassin suddenly disappears."

Chapter 1649

“From this perspective, Cao Zhen really is likely to be the Bleeding Tears Assassin.”

“Regardless of whether he is or not, we must claim he is the Bleeding Tears Assassin. He has killed quite a few people from the Demonic Sects, and if the other Demonic Sects knew that Cao Zhen is the Bleeding Tears Assassin, and that the Hundred Peaks Sect still merged with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, how could the leaders of those grand sects sit idly by!”

“Sect Hierarchy, what a cunning plan. We shall spread the word immediately!”

Quickly, as the Hundred Peaks Sect became the Hundred Peaks Sect, another piece of news spread throughout the Eastern Province.

Initially, no one believed it, after all, what Cao Zhen exhibited was immortal power, while the Bleeding Tears Assassin cultivated demonic qi.

But as one piece of evidence after another and many coincidences emerged, more and more people started to believe that Cao Zhen was indeed the Bleeding Tears Assassin.

Even within the Hundred Peaks Sect, there were some who began to question Cao Zhen if he was the Bleeding Tears Assassin.

“It’s the Weeping Blood Demon Sect causing trouble again. If it was earlier, I wouldn’t have had any way to refute it, but now...”

Cao Zhen sneered inwardly. Previously, he had split his incarnation to the extremely peak of the Longevity Period.

Now, he can use his incarnation to stir up some things.

No, he could leave the incarnation in the Hundred Peaks Sect and venture out himself.

The Hundred Peaks Sect, having become a grand sect, officially renamed the Hundred Peaks Teaching, had many affairs to attend to.

They had also merged with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, which, although annihilated, still left behind some legacies. During the past two years, the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect were focused on cultivation and had no time to explore.

Now, it was time for the disciples to explore the remnants of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect.

As the Sect Master, Cao Zhen was even busier.

However, when those grand sect leaders came to celebrate the Hundred Peaks Sect's rise to a grand sect, he had no choice but to make an appearance and exchange pleasantries.

He genuinely disliked such courteous formalities, so leaving his incarnation seemed like the best solution for him to leave.

Moreover, in doing so, others would testify that he was indeed within the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Very soon, Cao Zhen left his incarnation reaching the peak of the Longevity Period and secretly departed from the Hundred Peaks Sect with another incarnation at the initial phase of the Longevity Period.

Previously, he had experimented. Indeed, under special circumstances, that particular incarnation had reached the peak of the Longevity Period, while under normal conditions, his incarnation could only achieve the initial phase of the Longevity Period.

Upon arriving in the Eastern Province, he immediately sent his incarnation to a You Sha Society outpost, obtained many talismans of missions, and began a frenzy of assassinations against those notorious individuals listed!

In fact, it could no longer be termed assassination; with his prowess at the peak of the Longevity Period, he was outright openly killing people.

Soon, the news of the Bleeding Tears Assassin's reappearance spread throughout the Eastern Province.

"Have you heard? The Bleeding Tears Assassin has appeared again, and this time he is even more frenzied than before, killing everywhere."

"I've heard. Previously, the Bleeding Tears Assassin didn't kill people from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, but now he has started killing them as well."

"By the way, what about Cao Zhen? Wasn't there news before that Cao Zhen is the Bleeding Tears Assassin?"

"Cao Zhen? Cao Zhen is still at the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"So, Cao Zhen is not the Bleeding Tears Assassin!"

Within the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, the Bloodless Demon listened to the reports from his subordinates. Always regarded as rational and fearless, he could no longer contain his fury and slammed the stone table before him into pieces!

"The Bleeding Tears Assassin has appeared again? For such a long time, he hadn't appeared, and the moment we spread the news claiming he is Cao Zhen, he instantly reappears to prove he isn't Cao Zhen!"

Not far away, several Earth Immortals from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect exchanged glances silently until one seemed to think of something and asked the reporting disciple: "By the way, what about Cao Zhen?"

"Reporting to the Elder, Cao Zhen has always been within the Hundred Peaks Sect."

“He claims he’s within the Hundred Peaks Sect, so he is? Has anyone else seen him in the Hundred Peaks Sect? If no one has seen him, we can continue claiming that Cao Zhen is the Bleeding Tears Assassin.”

“Elder, many have witnessed Cao Zhen, many have indeed seen him. After all, the Hundred Peaks Sect became a grand sect, with representatives from the Five Sounds Sect, Cloud Reaching Sect, and other Grand Righteous Sects, as well as sects from the Eastern Wasteland, all visiting the Hundred Peaks Sect to offer their congratulations. Cao Zhen has been constantly appearing to welcome them.”

“Welcoming others? Couldn’t that be a fake Cao Zhen? After all, Cao Zhen is a reincarnated great ability, who knows if he has special skills like disguise?”

“Elder, during the time Cao Zhen was welcoming guests, he even sparred with others, revealing his immortal mountain that soared a hundred zhang.”

The Elder who asked the question fell silent immediately. Even if Cao Zhen were a reincarnated great ability with disguise techniques, he couldn’t fabricate another immortal mountain reaching a hundred zhang.

The reporting disciple, however, did not depart but continued: “However...”

“However what?”

“However, in recent days, Cao Zhen has not been entertaining any guests, and the Hundred Peaks Sect claims they have certain affairs to address and have closed their doors to visitors.”

“Closed doors to visitors? What are they planning to do now?”

Cao Zhen had the Hundred Peaks Sect close their doors to visitors, but he discreetly left the Hundred Peaks Sect with a group of disciples from the Four Treasures Peak towards Wansheng City.

“We have completely offended the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, and soon, those at the peak of the Indestructible Period will awaken. When that time comes, these two grand sects are bound to send experts at the earliest opportunity to attack our Hundred Peaks Sect, so we must quickly enhance our strength. The only way is for you all to directly reach the peak of the Indestructible Period.”

Chapter 1650

While flying, Cao Zhen said to his group of disciples, “I need to continue refining pills, but as you know, the herbs required for those pills are extremely precious.

Even though our Hundred Peaks Sect has become the Hundred Peaks Sect, and the Heavenly Dao has given us many rewards, those herbs combined are still not enough for our needs.

The only way for us to gather enough herbs is to rob them. Although the Weeping Blood Demon Sect has already lost many disciples, they are still a great teaching, and it won’t be easy for us to rob them.

Therefore, my target is the Rare Treasures Commerce Association. After all, the Rare Treasures Commerce Association is our mortal enemy; if we rob them, so be it.

This time, I’m planning something ruthless, to directly rob all their resources within the Rare Treasures Commerce Association headquarters!”

Cao Zhen had previously come to rob in Wansheng City once, and he had already been wanted by the city. However, such a warrant doesn’t really have any effect on him.

Cao Zhen and his disciples gazed at the towering gates of Wansheng City, and instantly released their battle power. A line of immortal mountains emerged, flying toward the headquarters of the Rare Treasures Commerce Association.

Eleven figures flew out, immediately attracting the attention of cultivators within Wansheng City.

“So many Earth Immortal Realm cultivators!”

“Over there, eleven Earth Immortal Realm cultivators, ten of whom have immortal mountains over ninety feet, the only one not reaching ninety feet still has his immortal mountain over eighty feet!”

“Silver and orange wings, that’s Cao Zhen!”

“It’s Cao Zhen and his disciples!”

“Didn’t the Hundred Peaks Sect just become a great teaching? Why have Cao Zhen and his disciples suddenly appeared in Wansheng City?”

“What do they intend to do?”

Cultivators affiliated with Wansheng City quickly reported the news to their young city lord.

“Young City Lord, it’s not good, Cao Zhen is here with his disciples!”

“Young City Lord, we found that Cao Zhen seems to be heading to the Rare Treasures Commerce Association. What should we do, Young City Lord?”

“Young City Lord, you’ve already issued a warrant for Cao Zhen. Now that he has broken into our Wansheng City, should we go...”

At the City Lord’s mansion, the young city lord of Wansheng City furrowed his brow tightly as he listened to his subordinates’ reports, saying coldly, “Go for what? Cao Zhen is a being whose immortal mountain reaches a hundred feet high, and those disciples of his have immortal mountains over ninety feet, being the most top-tier of the Longevity Period.

What could we do? Go send ourselves to death?”

“But if we do nothing, Wansheng City’s reputation...”

“Don’t bother with that. With the strength of Cao Zhen and his followers, let alone our Wansheng City, even the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, as great teachings, are slaughtered by them like chickens.

The great teachings can't deal with them, and neither can we in Wansheng City. Just pretend nothing happened and ignore them."

Since the last robbery by Cao Zhen when he forcibly took a medicinal herb treasury, the Rare Treasures Commerce Association has significantly strengthened their headquarters' defenses.

Cao Zhen remembered that when he first came, there were only two Golden Core Stage guards, but now he saw two rows of guards, with the leader being at the Longevity Period.

Almost simultaneously, at the gates of the Rare Treasures Commerce Association, the Longevity Period guard noticed the eleven approaching Longevity Period cultivators and the towering immortal mountains.

"Cao Zhen!"

The Longevity Period guard was instantly terrified; why had Cao Zhen returned, and with so many people?

When Cao Zhen visited last time, he wasn't at the headquarters; in fact, he wasn't even part of the Rare Treasures Commerce Association at that time.

Later, the Rare Treasures Commerce Association felt their guard strength was inadequate, so they spent a lot to recruit many experts, and he joined during that period.

In truth, deep down, he was grateful to Cao Zhen. If not for him, he would have remained a small loose cultivator without many resources, not even possessing a treasure.

It was because Cao Zhen caused such an uproar at the Rare Treasures Commerce Association that they started recruiting and providing so many resources.

Yet, he never expected that, not long after, Cao Zhen would raid the Rare Treasures Commerce Association again, could it be he intends to rob it once more?

He didn't have time to think, quickly retreating and entering the great formation.

Since being robbed by Cao Zhen, the Rare Treasures Commerce Association immediately hired experts to set up a great formation, and they genuinely had the money for the formation, which was kept on standby.

As soon as an Earth Immortal Realm cultivator entered, the formation would activate immediately.

As the formation operated, golden rays of light rose up, enveloping the entire Rare Treasures Commerce Association within.

Around the light were dots of silver stars.

As the formation ran, momentarily, within the Rare Treasures Commerce Association, numerous Earth Immortal Realm cultivators woke from cultivation or stopped sparring, all flying toward the gate.

"The great formation is activated?"

"Is someone attacking the Rare Treasures Commerce Association?"

"Who dares attack the Rare Treasures Commerce Association, courting death!"

The Rare Treasures Commerce Association, although large, consisted of Longevity Period cultivators who instantly flew to its gates.

Immediately, eleven figures entered their view.

Among them, some were new recruits to the Rare Treasures Commerce Association, while others were present during Cao Zhen's last attack on the association.
