

My Master 1671

Chapter 1671:

The Bloodless Demon heard the voice, hurriedly knelt before the Sect Hierarchy, and softly said, "The disciple awaits punishment, I shall go and reflect in seclusion."

"Wait..." On the high seat, the Crying Blood Leader raised a hand to stop the departing Bloodless Demonic Path, "Reflecting in seclusion isn't urgent for today, explain again the situation with the Hundred Peaks Sect and Cao Zhen in more detail."

"Yes..." The Bloodless Demon repeated the situation regarding the Hundred Peaks Sect and Cao Zhen, and finally added, "Actually, the disciple had already devised a plan, releasing news from within the dangerous terrain about the Instant Millennium Pearl to lure Cao Zhen to venture and seize it, then we ambush Cao Zhen."

Unexpectedly, the sudden appearance of a Fourth Dangerous Terrain completely disrupted the disciple's plan, and even more unexpectedly, Cao Zhen managed to acquire the Instant Millennium Pearl within it."

From his seat, the Crying Blood Leader nodded slightly, speaking in a deep voice, "Your plan was indeed correct, do you know where your mistake was? Your mistake was, after your revival, you should not have sent such a weak force to extinguish the then Hundred Peaks Sect, thus giving them a chance to grow."

He then looked around at everyone and said, "We must certainly destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect, and that Cao Zhen is indeed resourceful, we can't give them the opportunity to grow."

Bloodless, having interacted with the Hundred Peaks Sect multiple times, can you ascertain how many Indestructible Period experts they have now?"

"Returning to the Sect Leader, among the Hundred Peaks Sect, approximately twenty-five individuals have reached the Peak of the Longevity Period, and they all should be able to break through into the Indestructible Period."

There is no insurmountable gap between the Longevity Period and the Indestructible Period; given enough time, those who cultivate to the peak of the Longevity Period can mostly break through to the Indestructible Period.

Of course, if one wishes to advance from the Indestructible Period to the final Immortal Path Domain of the Earthly Immortal Realm, it is much more difficult, with countless individuals remaining at the peak of the Indestructible Period, unable to break through that final bottleneck.

The Crying Blood Leader nodded slightly and continued to ask, "So, do you know how many Indestructible Periods will awaken within the Hundred Peaks Sect?"

The Bloodless Demon shook his head and said, "The disciple does not know, however, I imagine the Love-Blood Devil would know for certain, after all, the Love-Blood Devil was once a person of the Eastern Wasteland and had contact with the former Hundred Peaks Sect."

Hearing this, the Crying Blood Leader looked towards the Love-Blood Devil beside the Bloodless Demon.

The Bloodless Demon had, as the previous interim Sect Hierarchy, caused the Weeping Blood Demon Sect's reputation to be tarnished, even bringing about an unprecedented humiliating disgrace, and thus deserved to take the blame.

However, the Love-Blood Devil was hardly affected and had even gained praise from the group of Indestructible Period experts for her suggestion to attack the Void Breaking Sect.

Feeling the Crying Blood Leader's gaze, she stepped forward immediately and replied, "Reporting to the Sect Leader, the Hundred Peaks Sect will awaken ten Indestructible Periods."

Beside her, the Blood Book Mage, upon hearing how quickly the Love-Blood Devil reported an accurate number, showed a curious expression on his face and asked, "Is it approximately ten, or is it confirmed to be ten?"

With great confidence, the Love-Blood Devil replied, "Reporting to the Elder, it is confirmed to be ten."

Cao Zhen, aware that all the Indestructible Periods would awaken today, specifically observed the Love-Blood Devil through China Cloud, intending to see the strategies of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

Initially, when he consulted with the Dragon Chant Sect to first attack the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, it was not only because the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was weaker and easier to eliminate, but also due to the presence of the Love-Blood Devil, allowing him to always know the movements and schemes of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

His China Cloud, though it could only allow one minute of conversation with specific connected users.

However, without using it for conversation, it could watch for a very long time.

Upon hearing the Love-Blood Devil's answer, he was immediately taken aback, how could the Love-Blood Devil know so much about the Hundred Peaks Sect?

He was certain that there were no traitors within the Hundred Peaks Sect currently, and even today, Qiu Wuxing and Lv Chaoqiong have only just awakened, even if someone wanted to send information, it couldn't be sent out.

So there was only one possibility; this was information the Love-Blood Devil had long possessed.

The former Hundred Peaks Sect was only one of the ten Immortal Sects under the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, with nothing particularly special, yet the Love-Blood Devil could grasp the situation of the Hundred Peaks Sect so accurately, this woman indeed has some capabilities.

"Ten people, that is to say, with an additional twenty-five people, the Hundred Peaks Sect has a total of thirty-five Indestructible Periods.

In that case, I plan to join forces with the Void Breaking Demonic Sect, having a major sect send out fifty Indestructible Period experts, attacking the Hundred Peaks Sect with three times the power."

He made a slight pause, looking below at the upper echelons of the Crying Blood Demon Sect in the Longevity Period, "At that time, if you had directly used more than three times the power of the Hundred Peaks Sect to eliminate them, there wouldn't be so many issues now, nor would the birth of the Hundred Peaks Sect happen again.

Remember, in facing the enemy, you must eliminate them with thunderous methods, not giving them the slightest chance to survive! Furthermore, Blood Book Junior Brother, you will lead the team this time."

The Blood Book Mage was slightly surprised upon hearing this but quickly nodded, "Yes Sect Leader, it won't be long before you hear news of the Hundred Peaks Sect's downfall."

All around, the faces of the crowd showed astonished expressions, the Blood Book Mage, in among those of their batch who awakened in the Indestructible Period, was ranked fifth in terms of personal strength.

The Sect Leader actually sent the Blood Book Mage directly!

"Fifty people, that is, the two major sects will send out a total of one hundred Indestructible Periods!"

Cao Zhen furrowed his brows tightly; previously in discussions with the Dragon Chant Sect, they assumed that the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect would send out at most thirty Indestructible Periods each, totaling sixty Indestructible Periods, giving him the confidence to eliminate them.

But unexpectedly, this Sect Leader of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect was so decisive, sending out fifty Indestructible Periods from the start.

A hundred Indestructible Periods, if they were all in the Early Indestructible Period, would be manageable, but with the leader being the Blood Book Mage.

Although he didn't know the cultivation realm of the Blood Book Mage, judging by the seating position among the group and others' reactions of astonishment, it was evident that this Blood Book Mage was among the strongest of the Indestructible Periods in the Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

In these circumstances, it was impossible for the Weeping Blood Demon Sect to send out only those in the Early Indestructible Stage.

This being the case, facing the Hundred Peaks Sect with forces thrice their own, although they could indeed eliminate the opponent, it might expose a lot of power.

If too much power is exposed, the opponent might not come to seek death again, which would completely affect his subsequent plans.

Perhaps, it's time to alter the plan again?

Chapter 1672:

Cao Zhen realized that he had to change his plan.

Since dealing with one hundred people at once is a bit too much, how about dealing with fifty people first?

The Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect sent out a total of one hundred Indestructible Period individuals, not one great sect sending out one hundred Indestructible Period individuals.

First concentrate on eliminating the people from one great sect, then turn around and eliminate the people from the other great sect.

He remembered that when he used the China Cloud to observe the Bleeding Tears Demon's team, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect people met at a place called Camel Connecting Mountain.

Knowing the place where the enemy congregates, one can naturally deduce their route and ambush them halfway.

He closed the China Cloud and then returned to the great sect. Using the Ten Thousand Miles Sound Transmission Mirror, he began notifying the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect to change the plan.

Primarily, because he would be leading a lot of experts out, the defense of the Hundred Peaks Sect would be weakened. Therefore, he hoped that people from the two great sects could come and help.

Under normal circumstances, besides the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, no other great sect should attack the Hundred Peaks Sect.

But what if?

Within the Yin Yang Sect, the senior members were dispatching experts to secretly head to the Hundred Peaks Sect while discussing in low voices.

A man in a white luxurious robe with a fair face whispered, "I didn't expect that the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect would value the Hundred Peaks Sect so much that they would send a total of one hundred Indestructible Period experts, even deploying experts like the Blood Book Demon."

"That's quite normal. After all, those two demonic sects have suffered many losses at the hands of the Hundred Peaks Sect, so they should have wised up by now. What occupies my mind is how the Hundred Peaks Sect knows about the Weeping Blood Demon Sect's actions and can accurately tell how many people were sent by the Blood Qi Devil Sect and who is leading the team." Even though the Yin Yang Sect is a Grand Righteous Sect, the speaker was dressed in a black robe, exuding a sinister air.

He looked at the others and smiled, "How many years has the Hundred Peaks Sect existed? How many years has our Eastern Province been connected to the Eastern Wasteland where the Hundred Peaks Sect is? The Hundred Peaks Sect might have inserted spies within the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, but such operations targeting the Hundred Peaks Sect would not be widely known within the Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

Only the high-level members of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect could know about this information.

And the Hundred Peaks Sect knows it too. Did they plant a spy in the Weeping Blood Demon Sect? Is that possible?" He was laughing, but it gave off a menacing feeling.

The others were accustomed to his sinister aura and showed no abnormal reaction. The previous speaker shook his head, saying, "Impossible. Even our Yin Yang Sect doesn't have the ability to plant a spy among the high-level of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, let alone the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"That's why I find it interesting. It's probably Cao Zhen's handiwork, but we don't know what method he used. Maybe Cao Zhen really lured one of the high-level members of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect into betraying and joining the Hundred Peaks Sect.

After all, Cao Zhen is a reincarnated great ability, and casually offering some spell, cultivation technique, or pill could easily tempt the other party.

Of course, perhaps it's an even more sophisticated method that we are unaware of."

"Indeed." The Yin Yang Sect Master slightly nodded from the high seat, saying, "The Hundred Peaks Sect knowing about the Weeping Blood Demon Sect's actions must indeed be Cao Zhen's handiwork."

He continued, looking at the high-level members from the Longevity Period: "This is also why, after learning of your cooperation with the Hundred Peaks Sect, I expressed appreciation towards you. On the one hand, the strength of our Yin Yang Sect has indeed been enhanced, allowing us to gain a lot of resources. Furthermore, another reason is Cao Zhen himself.

A reincarnated great ability, it's beneficial to maintain good terms with him. Considering the relationship between the Dragon Chant Sect's Immortal Bi Yue and Cao Zhen, the Dragon Chant Sect members must have already set off by now. Let's hurry up and move, too."

At the Hundred Peaks Sect, after notifying the Dragon Chant and Yin Yang Sects, Cao Zhen flew off into the distance to find Lv Chaoqiong and others.

After all, these people are the predecessors of the Hundred Peaks Sect, and back when he was just at the Core Formation stage, Lv Chaoqiong and Ai Yunqi also helped him a lot.

Though sometimes the help backfired, it was still help.

And Gu Chengyu, who was also someone he brought in.

Lv Chaoqiong, Qiu Wuxing, and others were genuinely curious about the current Hundred Peaks Sect. After waking up, they didn't even return first to the Hidden Dragon Immortal Palace or the Five Elements Peak; instead, they flew over the Hundred Peaks Sect, observing its current changes and listening to everyone narrate the major events that happened over the years.

The more they listened, the more amazed they felt, as if everything was indescribably magical.

"So, Cao Zhen, no, Sect Leader Cao. He reached the Golden Core Period limit when he was at the Golden Core stage, and that too when he was at Golden Core sixfold?"

It's also because of him that our Eastern Wasteland was united. Otherwise, perhaps without needing others from elsewhere to attack us, if the Praying Heaven Royal Family and those demonic sects along with other sects in Eastern Wasteland combined their forces, our Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty would have plunged into chaos, and countless disciples of our Hundred Peaks Sect would have died."

"Yes, because Sect Leader Cao revealed to us the information about Eastern Wasteland connecting with Eastern Province, we temporarily stopped fighting each other, and soon after, we repelled East Breeze's attack, even penetrating into East Breeze.

Chapter 1673

Later, after our Eastern Wasteland connected with the Eastern Province, it was the return of the Sect Master and others, and even enlisting help from the Dragon Chant Sect, that we managed to fend off attacks from the demonic sects of the Eastern Province.

We in the Eastern Wasteland fared relatively well, while East Breeze and the Eastern Border next door were ravaged beyond recognition by the demonic sects from the Eastern Province."

"Qiu Peak Master, the Qi Tian Dynasty you spoke of is actually the branch of the Heaven Prayers Sect in our Eastern Wasteland. The Heaven Prayers Sect has been exterminated now. They didn't succeed in their Sect Tribulation and perished completely. And..."

The crowd continued discussing the changes in the Hundred Peaks Sect over the years.

“What? In the current Hundred Peaks Sect, every expert in the Earth Immortal Realm possesses a treasure?” Qiu Wuxing looked at Nie Jie and the others full of astonishment.

Beside him, everyone looked at Qiu Wuxing with an expression of surprise and delight, saying: “Qiu Peak Master, we are now a Great Teaching, not just a sect! In a Great Teaching, there’s nothing strange about every Earth Immortal Realm member having a treasure. Moreover, many of the treasures in our hands are Yellow Grade treasures, not simply Common Low Grade ones.

Right now, there are still many treasures stored in the treasury of our Hundred Peaks Sect.”

“Yes, it’s not only Yellow Grade treasures. Today, many in our Hundred Peaks Sect in the Earth Immortal Realm also master Yellow Grade spells. Of course, these Yellow Grade spells were taught to us by Sect Master Cao.

Sect Master he...”

As everyone was recounting what Cao Zhen had done for the Hundred Peaks Sect over the years, suddenly, a figure appeared in their line of sight.

The opponent’s speed was unimaginably fast; just a moment ago, they had caught sight of a figure, but in the blink of an eye, the person had already appeared in front of them.

“Sect Master!”

Everyone recognized the newcomer and quickly paid respects, even Qiu Wuxing, Lv Chaoqiong, and others followed suit with their greetings.

“No, Lv Overseer, you don’t need to do this. I’m just a temporary Sect Master; otherwise, I wouldn’t have let everyone address me as Sect Master.

Now that you have also awakened, perhaps it is time for our Hundred Peaks Sect to elect a new Sect Master.

Though I'm not sure about others, I am very familiar with Lv Overseer, and I think Lv Overseer is quite suitable to be our new Sect Master."

He truly didn't want to be the Sect Master anymore; it was too exhausting.

Upon hearing this, Lv Chaoqiong immediately waved her hand and said: "I cannot take on this role as Sect Master. We've already learned from them what Sect Master Cao has done for the Hundred Peaks Sect over these years.

Frankly, without Sect Master Cao, not to mention becoming a Great Teaching, it'd be a question whether our Hundred Peaks Sect would even exist.

So, aside from Sect Master Cao, I don't think anyone else is capable of taking on the Sect Master position."

Ai Yunqi also nodded in agreement and said: "Indeed! Sect Master Cao, we've merely lived a little longer, but you're a reincarnated great ability; your experiences surpass ours, and your powers are greater, so this position of Sect Master should still be yours!"

"Yes, we agree as well, for Sect Master Cao to continue being the Sect Master."

Seeing everyone expressing their stance, Nie Jie felt a surge in his heart and quickly suggested: "Lv Overseer, since you also agree for Sect Master Cao to continue being Sect Master, why don't you take on the role of Vice Sect Master instead?"

Although Cao Zhen is the Sect Master, being the Vice Sect Master is even more tiring than being Cao Zhen.

Now that Lv Overseer and Qiu Peak Master have awakened, at least he could be relieved.

Upon hearing this, Lv Chaoqiong immediately waved her hand again and said: "There's no need, I think you're doing a great job as the Vice Sect Master, you should continue. Well, I have some matters to attend to, let me go check on the Hidden Dragon Immortal Palace."

Saying this, Lv Chaoqiong flew towards the Hidden Dragon Immortal Palace, thinking it was a joke; she had already heard everyone say that although Cao Zhen was the Sect Master and continuously helped the Hundred Peaks Sect, Cao Zhen acted more like a hands-off shopkeeper, often running around, leaving all affairs big and small of the Hundred Peaks Sect for Nie Jie to handle.

She did not want to be in a position where she could not dare to act on anything, managing the affairs of the Hundred Peaks Sect every day.

With Lv Overseer gone, then...

His gaze immediately landed on Qiu Wuxing, the two strongest individuals among them were Lv Chaoqiong and Qiu Wuxing, and in fact, Qiu Wuxing was even stronger than Lv Chaoqiong.

Qiu Wuxing noticed Nie Jie's gaze and reacted before Nie Jie could speak, declaring loudly: "I've woken up but still haven't returned to Five Elements Peak, I don't know if those disciples slacked off while I was asleep. You all carry on, I'm going to check on my Five Elements Peak first."

With the last sound of his voice, his figure had already appeared in the distant horizon.

Nie Jie was speechless for a moment; what's with this ridiculous display of high virtue? This is the position of the Vice Sect Master, not the Vice Sect Leader!

We're now the Hundred Peaks Sect; don't you all want to take on this Vice Sect Master role?

In resignation, he could only turn to another person and say: "Elder Gu, how about you become the Vice Sect Master?"

“Me? I’m not suited for it, I have to focus on alchemy.”

“Elder Ai Yunqi?”

“I’m not suitable either, I need to go check on the Immortal Soldier Workshop.”

“Elder Li?”

“I just woke up and am ignorant of external affairs. Nephew Nie Jie, stop being modest. Since Tu Zhuque and the others want you to continue being the Vice Sect Master, you surely have unique talents; continue in your role as Vice Sect Master.”

“Indeed, Nephew Nie Jie, look at how under your assistance, Sect Master Cao has led our Hundred Peaks Sect to such fine governance; it demonstrates your capabilities.”

Chapter 1674: Ambush on the Flying Ships

The crowd praised Nie Jie while speeding away.

Become the deputy Sect Master?

Deal with sect affairs every day? They definitely won’t do it!

Nie Jie watched as the crowd vanished in a blink, feeling helpless. So, after the Indestructible Period awakens, am I still destined to handle sect affairs daily?

This day quickly passed, and Tu Zhuque and others had all broken through into the Indestructible Period.

Qiu Wuxing and others roughly understood the situation of the Bai Feng Sect.

Early the next morning, Cao Zhen gathered everyone.

"Everyone, my previous plan was to first open the treasure vault and take out the divine thoughts we acquired after overcoming the Sect Tribulation of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

But I've received some news, different from what I anticipated. The Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect each dispatched fifty experts in the Indestructible Period intending to annihilate the Hundred Peaks Sect.

If we let them join forces, our Hundred Peaks Sect might face some trouble. So, we must eliminate them before they unite.

If we wait any longer, they will indeed combine forces. Thus, there is no time to lose. Xiang Ziyu, you stay to guard the Hundred Peaks Sect; all other Indestructible Period experts will depart to intercept the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's people. Oh, Zhu Peng, you stay as well to help your senior brother guard our Hundred Peaks Sect."

The main objective of heading out this time is to retain certain strength. If Zhu Peng were taken along, he might initially listen. But after two rounds, that kid would definitely go all out, which would give us away.

Qiu Wuxing widened his eyes in shock. They—the Hundred Peaks Sect—actually intend to strike proactively against a Great Teaching?

He worriedly asked, "Sect Master? If we actively attack them, what about the defense of our Hundred Peaks Sect?"

Cao Zhen replied casually, "With Xiang Ziyu and Zhu Peng here, we have a Dragon at the Four Treasures Peak. Any ordinary power coming to seek trouble can be blocked by them."

He refines pills, naturally he'd refine one for Little Yin too. After all, the pills refined for Little Yin are reimbursed, why wouldn't he refine them?

Then he added, "Moreover, our Hundred Peaks Sect also has allies, so there's no need to worry about the safety of the Hundred Peaks Sect."

Although the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and Weeping Blood Demon Sect are both in the Eastern Province, they are not close, so their chosen gathering point is actually at the border of the Eastern Wasteland, the nearest route.

This time, while fifty experts in the Indestructible Period were dispatched, they aim to destroy the entire Hundred Peaks Sect, not just those fifty experts, but also two hundred individuals in the Longevity Period.

Two hundred and fifty people, boarded five flying boats heading towards the Eastern Wasteland, with each flying boat having ten Indestructible Period experts and forty Longevity Period individuals.

And naturally, those steering the flying boats are in the Longevity Period.

On the foremost flying boat, a demonic cultivator with a string of skulls around his neck and disheveled hair gazed coldly at the nine Indestructible Period beside him, saying, "Our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's younger generation is truly worsening, being suppressed by a small sect from the borderlands, even allowing that sect to become a Great Teaching."

"Soul-locking Senior Brother, you're absolutely right. This time as we go to the Hundred Peaks Sect, it's about time for those young ones to know the gap between us and them.

To speak of it, it's merely a newly established Great Teaching sect; their foundation is still lacking, there's no need to send so many.

Our two Great Teachings, each sending out twenty Indestructible Period would be more than enough, there's no need for experts like Soul-locking Senior Brother to come."

"Indeed, I think the people of Weeping Blood Demon Sect are also scared; I really don't understand what there is to fear."

As his last word fell, suddenly, a loud explosion echoed, and the entire flying boat began to sway violently.

Upon entering the Earth Immortal Realm, everyone could use treasures, among which many are flying boats.

Thus, spell attacks are difficult to directly shatter flying boats.

"Damn it!"

"Someone attacked our flying boat!"

"Even daring to attack our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's flying boat, courting death!"

Everyone was instantly enraged, each rushing out of the flying boat fiercely.

Outside, in the void, figures were already waiting here. They didn't recognize these people, but those who had already awakened and interacted with the Hundred Peaks Sect recognized their identity at a glance.

"Uncle Master, it's people from the Hundred Peaks Sect!"

"Uncle Master, that person with silver and orange wings behind him is the Sect Master Cao Zhen of the Hundred Peaks Sect!"

"Hundred Peaks Sect?"

The leading Soul-locking Demon swept his gaze around, revealing a fierce expression, "A mere Hundred Peaks Sect with more than thirty people dares to actively attack our Soul Breaking Sect?"

Since they've come, leave them all behind..."

Before he finished speaking, a thunderbolt suddenly fell in the void.

"You talk too much!"

Cao Zhen gazed at the demonic cultivator opposite him, whose Demonic Mountain rose to a height of two hundred and fifty-five feet. Behind him, an Immortal Mountain suddenly appeared, and this time he didn't fully unleash his power but released an Immortal Mountain two hundred and sixty-five feet high.

Subsequently, a thunderbolt struck down fiercely.

There were so many Earth Immortal Realms on the other side; even if we went all out, we couldn't ensure that we'd keep them all.

That being the case, it's better to retain some strength and then give the opponent false information.

Chapter 1675:

"What a towering Immortal Mountain!"

The Soul-locking Demon's eyes flashed with fear. Wasn't this Cao Zhen at the Longevity Period before? At most, he had just broken through to the Indestructible Period, so why was his Immortal Mountain taller than my Demonic Mountain in just a few days?

How did he do it?

In the Indestructible Period, a Demonic Mountain reaching two hundred and twenty zhang was already considered extremely strong.

Like himself, his Demonic Mountain reaching two hundred and fifty-five zhang made him rank third in their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect!

Only their current Sect Hierarch and Vice Sect Hierarch had taller Demonic Mountains than him!

Explaining Cao Zhen, he had just entered the Indestructible Period, how could his Immortal Mountain be so high! How had Cao Zhen cultivated!

And the spell Cao Zhen cast!

Indeed, this spell was a Mysterious Rank spell!

In Soul-locking Demon's heart, with terror, the Demonic Qi within him surged rapidly, a vast amount of Demonic Qi wildly gushed out, gathering above his head into a pitch-black sphere. Although it seemed only the size of a human head, it gave the illusion of a world, a dark world with not a hint of light.

The small black sphere appeared, unable to cover the entire sky, yet the world right before him turned pitch-black, as if devoid of any light whatsoever.

Until the purple thunder fell, this world revealed a purple glow.

In the next moment, the Five-thunder Righteous Method clashed with the black sphere, as if colliding heavily on the vast earth, producing a terrifying echo, a sound so loud it seemed to break the surrounding void.

Streaks of purple thunder light and black Demonic Qi shot out in all directions, the horrifying aftermath causing the space to shake wildly, inch by inch shattering, and the earth below to crack abruptly, grasses, trees, and rocks turned to powder.

The black Demonic sphere continued to disintegrate visibly, while the purple thunder falling from the void also gradually dissolved.

Eventually, the black Demonic sphere completely dispersed, leaving only a shadow of purple thunder striking towards the Soul-locking Demon. Although the purple thunder hadn't dispersed, its power significantly waned, and its speed slowed considerably.

The Soul-locking Demon swiftly moved to the side, dodging, as the purple thunder barely missed his body, directly hitting the already cracked ground, creating a huge pit.

Mysterious Rank spell!

Not far away, the Longevity Period disciples of the Soul-stealing Demonic Sect, upon seeing Cao Zhen cast the Five-thunder Righteous Method, displayed expressions of terror.

Almost all of them had heard of the Five-thunder Righteous Method, and some had witnessed its horror firsthand.

But now, their Uncle Ancestor, had directly faced this Five-thunder Righteous Method!

"Mysterious Rank spell!"

"Now it's not just the Longevity Period anymore, not only Cao Zhen, but also the people from Four Treasures Peak can cast Mysterious Rank spells!"

Everyone looked at the Immortal Mountain behind Cao Zhen. Although still shocked at how Cao Zhen had cultivated to reach the peak of the Indestructible Period so quickly, his Immortal Mountain was so high!

It seemed, their current Sect Hierarch's Immortal Mountain was only two hundred and sixty-eight zhang high!

However, they still felt relieved.

The current Cao Zhen, although still terrifying, didn't have the unstoppable aura he had during the Longevity Period.

Although the Soul-locking Demon dodged Cao Zhen's attack, he didn't escape entirely. The side where his sleeve was touched by thunder was suddenly torn, exposing his equally black arm.

On the arm, thunder streaked, tearing the skin apart.

Yet the strong survival and recovery abilities of the Indestructible Period allowed his arm to rapidly recover visibly.

The Soul-locking Demon looked at the blasted earth beside him, his expression growing grave. This Cao Zhen, truly terrifying.

Even though Cao Zhen and his spells were both initial Mysterious Rank, it was clear Cao Zhen's spells were stronger than his.

Not only because Cao Zhen's Immortal Mountain was taller and his mana stronger, but also because of the inherent difference between the spells themselves.

Cao Zhen's spell, even among the lower Mysterious Rank spells, was very powerful, nearly approaching the middle-rank Mysterious Level!

Behind Cao Zhen, Immortal Ruo Yun, seeing her master Cao Zhen releasing a two hundred and sixty-five-zhang Immortal Mountain, was moved and released her own Immortal Mountain, two hundred and thirty zhang high.

At this moment, among the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect across, except for the leader whose Demonic Mountain reached two hundred and fifty-five zhang, the second tier of three people's Demonic Mountains had just reached two hundred and twenty zhang. Thus, her two hundred and thirty zhang Immortal Mountain was sufficient to suppress them.

The disciples of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect across were dumbfounded temporarily.

"What!"

"A two hundred and thirty zhang Immortal Mountain?"

"What's happening? It's not just Cao Zhen of the Hundred Peaks Sect breaking through to the peak of the Indestructible Period, his disciple has also reached the peak of the Longevity Period!"

"This aura is definitely the peak of the Longevity Period!"

"A two hundred and thirty zhang Immortal Mountain, second only to Soul-locking Ancestor's Demonic Mountain, taller than Soul-stealing Ancestor, Cloud Soul Ancestor, and Ancestor Daoshen's Demonic Mountains!"

Chapter 1676

"Not good, their... their Immortal Mountain!"

After Ruo Yun released his Immortal Mountain, the members of the Hundred Peaks Sect also released their Immortal Mountains one after another, especially Ling Xi and others, all releasing Immortal Mountains two hundred and thirty feet high.

Master said to retain some strength, but the specific amount to retain depends on the situation and the opponent's strength.

So they didn't rush to release their Immortal Mountains. Now seeing Ruo Yun release his, they naturally followed suit.

Ruo Yun is a reincarnated Great Ability, with more experience. Following Ruo Yun would not be wrong.

In an instant, one Immortal Mountain after another, towering two hundred and thirty feet high, appeared.

Only Chao Zi's Immortal Mountain was shorter, just releasing a two-hundred-foot Immortal Mountain. He knew his talent was not as good as Cao Zhen's disciples, nor as good as Liè Yàn, Li Ke, Liao Youdi, and others.

Not only did he know this, but the members of the Hundred Peaks Sect and even their enemies knew it.

If he fully released a two hundred and twenty foot Immortal Mountain, people would surely suspect that the members of the Hundred Peaks Sect were concealing their strength.

So he thought it over and decided it was more genuine to release a two-hundred-foot Immortal Mountain.

To the side, the ten thousand enemy glanced at Chao Zi and also released a two-hundred-foot Immortal Mountain.

Although it was also a two-hundred-foot Immortal Mountain, his combat power could not match Chao Zi's because he was not skilled in combat.

Opposite them, the demonic cultivators of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, looking at the Immortal Mountains over two hundred feet tall, suddenly felt a terrifying pressure, like the tribulation clouds of a Heavenly Tribulation, pressing down, making the surrounding air incredibly heavy.

These Hundred Peaks Sect people, why are their Immortal Mountains so high?

In this era, an Immortal Mountain two hundred thirty feet tall is definitely a master in any Great Teaching!

These people were clearly in the Longevity Period before, and they all only broke through after the Indestructible Period arrived. It's not difficult to break through the Longevity Period to the Indestructible Period as long as one's talent isn't too poor.

But the problem is, how did they go from the Early Indestructible Stage to the Peak of the Indestructible Period in just a few days?

Moreover, after reaching the Peak of the Indestructible Period, they are extremely powerful!

What methods does that Cao Zhen have?

Back when the Longevity Period arrived, although his disciples quickly broke through to the Longevity Period, it took them several years to reach the peak of the Longevity Period.

Now it's even more outrageous, turning into just a few days!

They now finally understand why the Weeping Blood Demon Sect people had a Great Teaching send fifty Peak of the Indestructible Period experts to destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect.

But now it seems, even if their two Great Teachings sent a hundred Peak of the Indestructible Period experts, it wouldn't ensure the destruction of the Hundred Peaks Sect. Even if they did destroy them, they would suffer heavy losses.

And now, they only have fifty Peak of the Indestructible Period experts.

The number of Hundred Peaks Sect people is small, but they initiated the attack first.

In Ruo Yun's hand, a saber and a sword, two Treasures appeared simultaneously, stabbing towards a demonic cultivator holding a long spear in front.

With just a single sword swipe, countless Sword Shadows suddenly appeared in the void, the friction between the sword body and the air producing terrifying sonic booms, like ferocious beasts roaring to the heavens, the sound shaking the sky.

The entire void trembled along with it, Sword Qi sweeping everywhere, an immeasurable sword net enclosing the demonic cultivator, Dou Hun Demon.

A single sword strike descended, filled with an invincible momentum capable of killing gods and slaying Buddhas, and each sword light seemed capable of easily piercing through mountains!

Dou Hun Demon was surrounded by Demonic Qi, like torrents of water, flowing into his long spear. In no time, the originally pitch-black spear's color became even darker.

Faintly, everyone felt like this was the darkest black in the world.

The spear spun, creating an illusion of turning the entire world, the air in front of him rapidly swirling into a massive black vortex!

The vortex exuded a sinister, eerie, and evil aura.

Countless sword lights shot into the vortex, emitting hissing sounds like burning flames, each sword light disintegrating.

At the same time, the vortex was also shattered by the Sword Qi.

In the rear, Ruo Yun's longsword suddenly shot down.

Dou Hun Demon looked grim, thrusting his spear towards the descending longsword.

In an instant, the spear tip and the sword tip collided.

Both spear tip and sword tip were sharp enough, but such a tiny contact point burst into resplendent sparks, the fire scattering and even igniting the surrounding air.

In the clash of spear and sword, Dou Hun Demon felt an overwhelming force transmit from his wrist throughout his body, his arms going numb.

What terrifying power!

This woman's physical body is more terrifying than mine!

His body uncontrollably retreated three steps, his eyes suddenly widened as, following Ruo Yun's sword thrust, her body swayed. Yet this sway seemed anticipated by her, as her body turned with the movement, the long saber in her other hand naturally slashing out!

Chapter 1677:

This second strike, compared to the First Sword she unleashed, was even more rapid and the sword light surged, seeming boundless.

The pupils in Dou Hun Demon's eyes instantly shrank like fine needles. This woman, under consecutive attacks, her power not only didn't diminish, it actually increased. How did she do it!

In a hair's breadth of time, a massive tombstone appeared in front of him. This tombstone had no inscriptions but was carved with numerous resentful spirits.

The instant the inscriptions emerged, eerie wailing of ghosts emanated, vaguely giving the illusion of countless resentful spirits flying out, clinging to Ruo Yun.

Ruo Yun sneered disdainfully, as boundless immortal power from her body rapidly poured into the longsword. The next moment, the blade light turned golden and was filled with a sacred and solemn aura.

Each resentful spirit that touched the golden light instantly vanished without a trace, as if they never appeared.

Then, the blade light, like a rolling river current, fell and slashed onto the tombstone, carving out visible cracks on the stone.

The aura within Dou Hun Demon trembled violently in response.

And before his eyes, the longsword in this woman's hand had suddenly disappeared, replaced by a long spear.

She gave no chance for a breather; the long spear attacked once more.

Dou Hun Demon's heart was filled with terror. What is with this woman? How does she have so many treasures, and what kind of cultivation has she undergone? How can she switch from using a sword to a saber, and now a spear?

Even more alarming is that this woman's swordsmanship, sword technique, and even her spear technique now are more terrifying than his own spear skills!

What kind of monster is this?

The spear came flying, like a Divine Dragon emerging from the sea, filled with an endless domineering aura, striking heavily on the tombstone in front of him, causing the entire monument to shake wildly, with a clear gunshot hole appearing on it.

But it wasn't over; Dou Hun Demon was startled to discover that the woman before him had replaced her long saber with a long staff, smashing it heavily towards the tombstone.

The long staff descended from top to bottom, like a Sky-Pillar crashing down, enveloping him with a presence that could seemingly obliterate the entire earth.

When the staff struck down, it seemed as if the entire Heaven and Earth were changing colors, as if the ability to reverse rivers was crashing down upon him, the tombstone in front crumbled under the relentless strikes, developing visible cracks along it.

Bam!

With a dull thud, the treasure was obliterated, returning to Dou Hun Demon's hand in its original form, while in Ruo Yun's hand, before he knew it, had another long whip, flailing towards Dou Hun Demon.

With his treasure broken, Dou Hun Demon's energy and blood boiled like boiling water, under the backlash, he spat out a large mouthful of crimson blood.

Before he could catch his breath, the long whip was already before him, seeming like the vine of an ancient tree existing for millions of years, filled with an ancient aura, yet also akin to a venomous snake spitting its tongue. It wrapped around Dou Hun Demon instantly, constricting ever tighter.

Dou Hun Demon instantly felt a suffocating feeling, desperately channeling all the demonic qi within him to break the whip, but under its bind, he was shocked to find he couldn't exert all his strength.

Yan Yourong raised the Grieving Anger Dragon Blade, looking at the demonic cultivator wielding a pitch-black long blade opposite her, and slashed out.

The opponent also wielded a blade, and their Immortal Mountain measured two hundred and twenty feet high, so she naturally chose him as her opponent.

With a slash, the surrounding air was torn open with a roar.

The terrifying sword energy shot out, causing the entire world to quiver violently, a clear black scar appearing in the void.

A convergence of five-colored light, representing the Five Elements Power, enveloped the blade of the Grieving Anger Dragon Blade.

Facing Yan Yourong, the Sword Spirit Demon looked at the descending strike, the battle spirit in his body surged skyward. He could feel that in this single strike, the opponent had poured all their accumulated knowledge and experiences.

Also a user of the blade, his Way of the Sword was equally resolved — one strike to determine victory or death!

"Kill!"

The energy within Dou Hun Demon had reached its peak, but at this moment, confronting the descending blade, with his internal battle spirit surging, his aura once again elevated a notch. With the pitch-black long blade in hand, he met Yan Yourong's strike head-on!

No fancy moves, just a simple strike, intending to meet force with force!

His blade must harbor a belief of no return; otherwise, the blade he strikes would no longer be sharp!

The two swung their blades simultaneously, their Way of the Sword equally fierce!

For a moment, this world seemed cleaved in two by their descending long blades.

Though there were countless Earth Immortal Realm experts present at the time, the two only had each other's blades in their sight!

The next moment, the two long blades clashed in the void.

At that moment, despite numerous Indestructible Period experts having engaged in battle, in the instant the two long blades collided, the sound of their blades drowned out every other sound in the world, whether the clash of treasures or the collision of spells, all were overshadowed by the sound of the two blade's collision.

The clang of the long blades felt as if one side of the sky collided with the other, the sound so intense it caused pain in the ears of several Longevity Periods present!

For a moment, it felt as if all were shrouded under the shadow of blades.

In that moment, the sun and moon lost their light, Heaven and Earth changed colors, and the universe was upturned!

On Yan Yourong's long blade, was the power of flames that burn everything, the weighty power of earth like a mountain, the infinitely uplifting power of wood...

The Five Elements Power was entirely integrated as part of the long blade, rushing towards the opponent.

While the opposing long blade emitted an endless demonic qi.

The collision of Five Elements Power and demonic qi produced terrifying explosions, causing the surrounding air to surge wildly, the air currents roiled.

Some of the energies vanished after the clash, but others didn't collide completely and instead shot directly towards the two of them and those around them.

Chapter 1678:

Yan Yourong and the Sword Spirit Demon both concentrated all their power into a single slash, not even considering their own defense.

Each streak of sword energy flew out, razor-sharp, seemingly able to sever rivers and shatter mountains.

In just an instant, both were covered in a crisscross of wounds.

On Yan Yourong's body, those sword scars were filled with a corrosive force, and around the split wounds, her fair skin noticeably festered.

Opposite her, the Sword Spirit Demon had even more and deeper scars than Yan Yourong, some wounds even laid bare to the bone. Some of these had burning marks around them, some were icy cold, and some seemed to be crushed, with a few wounds clearly shattered by the Five Elements Power...

All around, many cultivators at the Longevity Period were merely affected by this sword energy. Immediately, it felt as if they were directly pierced by the sharp long swords of the two, and gashes appeared on their bodies, so deep that they could see their bones!

They were just affected, so if they were directly hit...

The Sword Spirit Demon retreated, looking at the woman opposite with horrified eyes. He was at the peak of the Indestructible Period, his body was much stronger than those at the Longevity Period, yet the sword energy still left bone-deep scars on him.

This woman's sword was indeed vicious enough, but he was confident that his sword was not much weaker than this woman's. However, when his sword energy struck the woman, although it left wounds, none exposed her bones!

This woman's physique was stronger than his own!

As his astonished gaze watched, Yan Yourong raised her sword to slash again. She could use Mystical Rank spells like the Five-thunder Righteous Method, and had other spells to use, but she had no intention of using them.

After finally meeting someone whose sword technique was so exquisite and whose Way of the Sword matched hers so perfectly, she naturally wanted to use this rare opponent to verify her current Way of the Sword.

On the other side, Yun Hun Demon was also being oppressed by Duo Duo. Although Duo Duo's sword did not seek the ultimate strike like Yan Yourong's Way of the Sword, her sword was still incredibly dangerous, and her swordsmanship was ever-changing. She seemed to not only merge with the sword but also with this world.

Though he had lived nearly ten thousand years and seen many sword geniuses and masters, he had never witnessed anyone at the Indestructible Period reaching the level where man, sword, and world become one!

That this woman's swordsmanship was superb was one thing. Her Immortal Mountain surpassed even his Demonic Mountain, with a stronger aura, and in just a moment, he was completely suppressed.

Bei Yan, seeing that his junior sisters and senior sisters had already picked enough strong opponents, suddenly felt an upsurge of fighting spirit. His master and senior sisters had already taken the strongest opponents, so weren't these remaining opponents left for him to completely crush?

He wasn't averse to battle; he just didn't like evenly matched fights as they were too exhausting. However, he did enjoy those crushing battles.

He could find...

He was just about to find an opponent when nearby, he heard the voice of Senior Sister Ling Xi.

"Bei Yan, Ling Hu, come into my formation."

Their strongest spell now was naturally the Five-thunder Righteous Method. While all disciples of the Four Treasures Peak practiced the Five-thunder Righteous Method, currently aside from Xiang Ziyu, who had the highest level and was the strongest in this method, the strongest were Yan Yourong and Bei Yan.

Bei Yan, relatively speaking, was more suited than other disciples for cultivating thunder-based spells.

As Ling Xi's words fell, before her, the Unparalleled Formation Diagram and the Heaven and Earth Bagua Talisman all floated up, forming the three talents of heaven, earth, and human, tightly connecting with one another, faintly resonating with the heavens and the earth.

The next moment, three demonic cultivators were trapped within them.

Bei Yan and Linghu Gudu entered the formation map immediately, and within it, two talismans floated down, Same Array Talisman!

Instantly, the sense of constraint on them disappeared, while in front of Ling Xi, talismans shot out one by one.

In total thirty-six talismans shot out, forming an array that encircled the three.

On each talisman, the power of thunderbolt emanated.

Righteous Gathering Thunder Talisman!

After releasing the talismans, thunder lights flickered in Ling Xi's palm. After forming the three talents with the formation map and talismans and controlling the array plate, releasing talismans required almost no effort, allowing her to gather immortal power and cast spells after releasing the map and talismans. This was where her true terror lay.

And as Bei Yan and Linghu Gudu entered the Unparalleled Formation Diagram, they simultaneously released the Five-thunder Righteous Method.

In the void, three purple thunders as thick as palace pillars descended with endless might.

Below, each of the thirty-six Righteous Gathering Thunder Talismans shot a brilliant ray towards the three thunderbolts in the void.

Chapter 1679

In an instant, the three descending bolts of lightning grew thicker, seemingly doubling in size. These bolts, already filled with immense destructive power, now felt capable of annihilating the entire world.

More terrifyingly, the speed at which these three bolts of lightning fell was already incredibly fast, but with the amplification from the Righteous Gathering Thunder Talisman, their speed increased dramatically.

Just a moment ago, the three of them saw the lightning descend, and the next moment, these bolts were crashing heavily against their bodies.

Immediately, three explosive noises like entire mountains shattering resounded, with purple arcs of electricity crackling and linking together like a web, covering the ground entirely.

Before the three could react, another three bolts of lightning descended from the void.

The bodies of those at the Peak of the Indestructible Period were indeed much more resilient than those in the Longevity Period, and their recovery speed was incredibly fast, able even to heal blasted organs.

However, recovery, no matter how fast, requires time. As their bodies exploded, their internal organs ruptured, and another three bolts of lightning descended, reducing their bodies to powder.

Once reduced to dust, there was no way for them to recover.

With the four strongest experts of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect suppressed, the surrounding demonic cultivators at the Indestructible Period and Longevity Period also joined the fray, filling the void with spells.

The gap between the Longevity Period and the Indestructible Period was not as vast as that between the Longevity Period and Golden Core Stage, for those in the Longevity Period also cultivate immortal energy.

However, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect had many people, yet the cultivation base of the Hundred Peaks Sect members far surpassed them.

Especially after the four top experts were suppressed, no one could stop Ling Xi, Bei Yan, Yi Sheng, Li Ke, and others.

In the void, Yi Sheng, Li Ke, and Liè Yàn unleashed flames that seemed to ignite the entire sky, with just the three of them suppressing a dozen opponents.

Liao Youdi and Shen Lìfēi charged into those in the Longevity Period, slaughtering them wildly.

The gap between the Longevity Period and the Indestructible Period is not as significant as between the Golden Core Stage and Longevity Period, but it depends on the type of Longevity and Indestructible Period cultivators.

Liao Youdi and Shen Lìfēi were both at the peak of the Indestructible Period, and their Immortal Mountains exceeded two hundred feet!

They were terrifying enough, but soon they realized that the disciples of Four Treasures Peak were even more frightening.

“How are these people so fast that our spells can’t hit them!”

“Their bodies are too strong!”

“Not good, retreat quickly...”

“Quick, notify the sect hierarchy, inform the Bleeding Tears Demon Sect that we’ve been ambushed by the Hundred Peaks Sect.”

Although the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect had more people, they quickly realized they were far outmatched, completely suppressed by those from the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Many began retreating swiftly, some burning sect symbols to inform the Great Teaching of what had transpired.

Qiu Wuxing, while casting spells, observed the battle among the Hundred Peaks Sect disciples, his eyes filled with shock. Were these truly disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect?

He had heard before that Cao Zhen had taught the Hundred Peaks Sect disciples many Yellow Grade spells, but witnessing the battle firsthand made him understand the true extent of “many.”

The spells cast by the Indestructible Period members of the Hundred Peaks Sect were almost all Yellow Grade, and each spell was different.

“Boom!”

Suddenly, a loud explosion rang out as the Soul-locking Demon was finally unable to withstand Cao Zhen’s assault and was struck directly by a bolt of lightning.

No matter how strong his body was, he couldn’t reach an unbreakable and indestructible level, and the Five-thunder Righteous Method, being a Mysterious Rank spell, caused his entire body to shatter, revealing stark white bones while his internal organs were blasted open.

Before he could catch his breath, Cao Zhen’s figure descended once more, and simultaneously, a hundred Xu Ying of Cao Zhen appeared in the void, each wielding a sword.

The next moment, his head soared into the sky.

No matter how resilient his organs were, if his head was severed, he would still die.

With the Soul-locking Demon's demise and experts like the Dou Hun Demon and Sword Spirit Demon having died beforehand, Cao Zhen and Yan Youyong joined the battle unimpeded.

For a moment, the battle shifted from a one-sided situation, with Cao Zhen and the others slaughtering the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect members as if roles were reversed.

"Retreat, everyone retreat!"

"Leave this place, return to the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect!"

Seeing their strongest four had perished, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect members turned and fled into the distance.

They outnumbered their enemies, and if they focused on escaping, each member of the Hundred Peaks Sect would have to chase several of them, allowing them to flee.

With the Hundred Peaks Sect in pursuit, most focused on chasing those at the Indestructible Period within the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

In the blink of an eye, they had chased several thousand miles away.

Cao Zhen glanced into the distance and quickly ordered, "Enough, stop the chase. The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and the Weeping Blood Demon Sect will surely have received word, and their forces are likely on the way for reinforcement. If we continue the pursuit and get surrounded by them, it won't be good. Quickly clean up the battlefield, we're heading back to the Hundred Peaks Sect."

Chapter 1680:

Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, the Soul Breaking Sect Leader looked at each returning disciple with a steel-blue face.

"Damn it, the Hundred Peaks Sect has such nerve, actually daring to ambush us on the road!"

He really hadn't expected the Hundred Peaks Alliance would take the initiative. In fact, whether he or the other high-ranking members of the Soul Breaking Sect, or the people from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, they all believed that the people of the Hundred Peaks Sect should be cowering within their sect, praying that they wouldn't attack.

But now, they have actually lost so many experts.

He did not blame the disciples who fled back. According to what these disciples reported after returning, given the strength of the Hundred Peaks Sect, if these disciples did not flee, although they could kill some people from Hundred Peaks Sect, they would all die there.

"Cao Zhen... how exactly did he do it? It's been less than ten days since the Indestructible Period arrived, and they have already reached the Peak of the Indestructible Period?"

And it's not just him alone; many disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect have also reached the Peak of the Indestructible Period!"

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader truly couldn't understand how one person could possess such means?

Below, an elder with gray hair looked up at the Sect Leader and asked in a low voice, "Sect Leader, what should we do now?"

"What should we do? Naturally, revenge." The Soul Breaking Sect Leader looked below with a cold expression and said, "Previously, our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and the Weeping Blood Demon Sect were pursued by the people of the Hundred Peaks Sect outside the relics; this news has already spread throughout the Eastern Province. Now, our people have been ambushed by the Hundred Peaks Sect again. It won't take long for this news to spread throughout the Eastern Province as well. If we don't destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect, what will others think of our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect?"

By that time, what if others learn from the Hundred Peaks Sect? Will our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect members not be able to go out?"

The elder slightly nodded and continued to ask, "But Sect Leader, you have heard about their strength. How many experts should we send this time?"

When he heard the news, he was also terrified; he never expected that the Hundred Peaks Alliance had so many experts at the Peak of the Indestructible Period!

He finally understood why Cao Zhen, knowing full well that the Indestructible Period experts would soon awaken, still dared to offend their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and the Weeping Blood Demon Sect—he had such means to produce so many experts at the Peak of the Indestructible Period.

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader said gravely, "This time, we must destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect; we cannot fail again, and failure is not an option!"

Their top masters in the Hundred Peaks Sect are indeed numerous. In fact, within their Hundred Peaks Sect, the experts who have surpassed two hundred and twenty feet on the Immortal Mountain are even more numerous than our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect!

No, there should be three more of them! Doesn't the Hundred Peaks Sect also have a Xiang Ziyu and an idiot? I do not believe that everyone else has reached the Peak of the Indestructible Period, but Xiang Ziyu and that idiot have not. I suppose those two should be kept in the Hundred Peaks Sect to guard."

All around, everyone slightly nodded, even though they awoke shortly, they've heard of Xiang Ziyu's name and know he is the most talented disciple within the Hundred Peaks Sect. So if all of Cao Zhen's disciples have already reached the Peak of the Indestructible Period, then Xiang Ziyu must have reached the Peak of the Indestructible Period as well, and Xiang Ziyu is even stronger than those disciples!

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader paused slightly, looked at the crowd, and continued, "However, although the Hundred Peaks Sect has many top experts, aside from that group, the other Indestructible Period members in the Hundred Peaks Sect are much weaker."

He looked at several returning Indestructible Period people and said, "According to what you said, aside from the recent breakthroughs to the Peak of the Indestructible Period from the Longevity Period, the remaining strongest two Indestructible Period people in the Hundred Peaks Sect should have already awakened. The spells they used were mostly Yellow Grade spells, with very few Mortal Rank spells. Those two are not to be feared.

And the rest of the Hundred Peaks Sect people are even more not worth considering.

As long as we hold off that pinnacle group within the Hundred Peaks Sect, we can still exterminate them!

And the Peak of the Indestructible Period, not only does the Hundred Peaks Sect have it, but so do we!

Moreover, do not forget the Weeping Blood Demon Sect!

I have already communicated with the Sect Leader of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect before. This time, our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and the Weeping Blood Demon Sect will each send fifty experts at the Peak of the Indestructible Period!"

"What!"

"Sect Leader! Fifty experts at the Peak of the Indestructible Period!"

Everyone around was greatly shocked by the news, some even whispered, "Sect Leader, our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect only has a bit over sixty experts at the Peak of the Indestructible Period. If we send out fifty, what will happen to the defense of our great sect?"

"Indeed, Sect Leader, isn't this too risky?"

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader looked coldly at the two who had spoken. In an instant, both felt as though they were being watched by a venomous snake, or as though sharp knives were piercing their eyes, causing them to tremble and immediately latch their mouths shut.

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader did not stop and continued, "In addition, each of our two great sects will send another one hundred Indestructible Period members. Among them, experts from the early, mid, and late Indestructible Period must all be included! Our two great sects, one great sect, will totally send out one hundred fifty Indestructible Period members to ensure the annihilation of the Hundred Peaks Sect!"

"One hundred fifty?"
