

My Master 1681

Chapter 1681:

The people below gasped in cold breath; if it was just sending out one hundred and fifty experts of the early and mid-indestructible periods, it wouldn't matter. But now, there are fifty experts at the peak of the indestructible period.

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader, after speaking, looked at the crowd below who were filled with surprise and confusion, paused slightly, and explained: "I know many of you think I am sending out too many people, that it isn't needed to destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect with so many people.

But think back, whether it was during the Reversal Mini Epoch Period or the Longevity Period, our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and Weeping Blood Demon Sect, during these periods, had sent people to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect, but what were the results?

We all ended up failing, and even this time, before our two great teachings could unite, our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was ambushed by the Hundred Peaks Sect and had to retreat.

We have failed time and again because we underestimated the Hundred Peaks Sect! Every time we sent a number of people, we felt we could destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect, but in the end, we found the Hundred Peaks Sect had other tricks.

This kind of situation has happened more than once or twice; haven't we learned our lesson?

Even this time, when the Hundred Peaks Sect came to attack our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, do they think that after this attack, it would be once and for all? Do they think thus our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect would be unable to deal with them? This is clearly impossible.

Therefore, the Hundred Peaks Sect certainly has other tricks. If we still attack the Hundred Peaks Sect with as few people as before, the result will definitely be we would fail again.

So this time, we simply do it big, and must ensure the destruction of the Hundred Peaks Sect!

I do not believe it; this time, our two great teachings, with three hundred experts of the indestructible period, still cannot destroy their small Hundred Peaks Sect!"

While speaking, the Soul Breaking Sect Leader turned his head to look at the white-haired elder who had just spoken up: "Senior Brother Hun Fei, I am the sect leader and cannot move easily, and others, I do not trust. So this time, I trouble you to personally lead the team."

"Also, this time, we won't gather at the previous spot. Our Soul Breaking Demon and Weeping Blood Demon Sect will gather at the place between our two great teachings, and after the reunion, proceed together to the Eastern Wasteland, to the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"Alright." The elder nodded slightly.

The people around were not surprised at all. This time, the sect leader is sending fifty experts at the peak of the indestructible period; usually, no one can suppress these many experts. There are only two people in the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect who could suppress them: one is the sect leader, and the other is Vice Sect Hierarch Hun Fei Demon.

Actually, these senior brothers all know Hun Fei Demon's cultivation, does not fall below that of the sect leader.

The reason why he was not the temporary sect leader during the indestructible period is because Hun Fei Demon's line is not particularly close to the sect leader's line.

After Cao Zhen led the people to clean up the battlefield, he quickly returned to the Hundred Peaks Sect with everyone.

This time, they planned deliberately while the other side couldn't match their top strength, so they completely overwhelmed the other side in this battle. Although some were injured within the Hundred Peaks Sect, no one died.

Everyone returned to the Hundred Peaks Sect to rest for a day, and then Cao Zhen immediately brought all the Earth Immortal Realm experts from the Hundred Peaks Sect, as well as experts from each Peak, and the most talented disciples from each Peak, all of them came before the treasury of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Cao Zhen stood in front of the treasury, looking at everyone, saying: "Previously, when our Hundred Peaks Sect passed through the sect tribulation, many people also saw that our Hundred Peaks Sect obtained many divine thoughts. I know you have always been concerned about these divine thoughts.

Today, with our Hundred Peaks Sect's people complete, I will open all the divine thoughts.

At that time, for those divine thoughts directly recognizing the master, I have no way. For other divine thoughts, I will seek suitable individuals, or directly bestow them according to the characteristics of the divine thoughts."

Divine thoughts differ, some divine thoughts, upon opening, will choose their suitable individuals based on the surrounding people's aura and proactively enter their minds.

In fact, this type of divine thought is not chosen by people, but divine thoughts choose people.

Another situation is when the divine thought is opened, a part of the aura is revealed, people can judge what type of divine thought it is according to this aura and then select suitable individuals, just like normal situations where people choose divine thoughts.

Of course, there's a third situation where no aura is released when the divine thought is opened.

No one knows what divine thought is inside.

Casual viewing of this kind of divine thought can be dangerous.

If the divine thought contains cultivation techniques and spells, when opened and found unsuitable, one can choose not to cultivate them.

But divine thoughts don't just contain cultivation techniques and spells; some divine thoughts contain insights into the Heavenly Dao.

If one happens to see suitable insights, it is fine. But if the Heavenly Dao insights are too profound, and the person receiving the divine thought is too far removed from understanding these insights, it is easy to become lost, at worst, leading to going astray, or at worst leading to their body doomed to explode.

Soon, the treasury opened.

Chapter 1682

Strands of divine thought appeared before everyone; Cao Zhen's gaze swept over the many divine thoughts, first settling on a few of the thinnest strands.

Then, he raised his hand and pointed at one strand among them, instantly, a brilliant light shone from the treasure on that strand of divine thought, and a phantom image of a pen emerged from it, with an intent of calligraphy surging forth.

"This is a divine thought of the Dao of Calligraphy."

"This divine thought is suitable for the Calligraphy Mountain."

Everyone immediately looked towards Immortal Pen Peak and Wonderful Pen Peak, etc., the calligraphy peaks.

Song Xianbi, sensing the aura emanating from the divine thought, gently shook his head and said, "Although this divine thought emanates the aura of the Dao of Calligraphy, the Dao of Calligraphy is divided into many styles. Some are wild, some forceful, some unrestrained. The calligraphy aura emitted by this divine thought doesn't match the style of our Immortal Pen Peak."

His meaning was clear, he chose to withdraw!

He also knew that this was a divine thought descending from the Heavenly Dao, and moreover a calligraphy divine thought, even if it wasn't particularly suited to their Immortal Pen Peak, it would still greatly benefit them.

If it was outside, and there was a chance to compete for this divine thought, he would never give up.

But now, they were inside the Hundred Peaks Sect, where there were other calligraphy peaks besides their Immortal Pen Peak.

He understood even more that the reason the Sect Master gathered everyone was to hand these divine thoughts to those who were more suitable, only in this way could the divine thoughts be utilized more effectively.

Therefore, even though he very much wanted to obtain this divine thought, for the sake of the Hundred Peaks Sect, he had to temporarily give it up.

As soon as he finished speaking, another voice sounded beside him.

"This divine thought is also not suitable for our peak!"

"The Wonderful Pen Peak is most aligned with the aura of this divine thought, better to give it to Wonderful Pen Peak."

"Indeed, I also believe Wonderful Pen Peak is the most suitable."

Hearing everyone directly suggest that the Wonderful Pen Peak should receive the first divine thought, He Miaobi was rather embarrassed.

Cao Zhen looked at the divine thought that had already started to waver and promptly reminded, "Peak Master He, since everyone says your Wonderful Pen Peak is more suitable, you should quickly receive this divine thought, or it might disperse."

Before the divine thought is imbued with immortal power or demonic qi, it can be stored for a very long time, even tens of thousands of years.

But once it is imbued with immortal power or demonic qi, it must be absorbed quickly; if not absorbed, some divine thoughts will directly dissipate, some will fly away, and others will enter the nearest person's body.

Upon hearing the Sect Master's reminder, He Miaobi didn't dare delay, quickly bowing to everyone, "Thank you all."

Then, he swiftly flew to the divine thought, exerted his internal immortal power, and touched it, causing the divine thought to enter his mind immediately.

Compared to the cultivators transmitting divine thoughts with condensed immortal power, the absorption speed of these divine thoughts was much faster.

In just a short moment, He Miaobi opened his eyes, and those around him eagerly asked, "Peak Master He, what kind of divine thought is it? Spell or cultivation technique?"

He Miaobi's face bore a bright smile as he replied, "A cultivation technique. It's a technique very suitable for our peak, and many disciples will need to change their cultivation techniques."

Apart from extremely scary spells, in most cases, the value of a cultivation technique is higher than that of a spell.

After all, the cultivation technique can be considered as the foundation of everything.

A better cultivation technique allows for faster cultivation and reaching greater heights.

Cao Zhen nodded slightly; he had some spells for the calligraphy peaks, but suitable cultivation techniques were really rare, so obtaining a cultivation technique indeed was a good thing.

As the first divine thought was unraveled, soon, the second and third divine thoughts were opened, one after another.

Some of these divine thoughts were cultivation techniques, some were spells, and they were mostly passive, allowing others to choose. There never appeared any divine thought that actively selected people or couldn't be discerned what type it was.

The divine thoughts in the treasure vault were becoming fewer, but these divine thoughts were also getting stronger and thicker.

As one divine thought was revealed, a sudden scorching aura swept across the entire mountain peak. Even though this aura disappeared in a single breath, everyone felt the temperature rise, and in the distance, on several weaker mountain peaks, those disciples who had not reached the Earth Immortal Realm had their clothes drenched instantly under the high temperature.

They even had the illusion that if the scorching aura persisted for another breath or two, their entire body would ignite.

“Such a scorching aura, is this a spell or cultivation technique of the fire system?”

“Fire system...”

Everyone's gaze immediately turned to Vermilion Bird Peak and Azure Pheasant Peak.

Previously, it also happened that a divine thought emanated an aura suitable for several peaks, and at that time, people would choose the most appropriate peak.

If these peaks were all suitable, those that hadn't received a divine thought before would be prioritized.

If none had received a divine thought, then it would be given to the peak that was stronger and whose talents were more outstanding.

Chapter 1683: Blaze of Contention

However, the Fire system is different.

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, the strongest Fire System Peaks happen to be two.

Before this, both Vermilion Bird Peak and Azure Pheasant Peak each acquired a trace of the Divine Thought, and they can continue to choose to take the Divine Thought.

Moreover, these two peaks are among the Top Ten Peaks of the Hundred Peaks Sect, and their strength is comparable.

Additionally, these two mountains each possess top-tier power at the Peak of the Indestructible Period, so this Divine Thought could go to either of these peaks.

Mainly, it depends on the Peak Masters of these two peaks.

Tu Zhuque felt the lingering flame aura in the air, glanced at Chen Qingluan in the distance, and then looked at everyone and said, "With such a blazing aura, if we, Vermilion Bird Peak, take this Divine Thought, no one would object, right?"

The people around stayed silent. Anyway, this Divine Thought belongs either to Vermilion Bird Peak or Azure Pheasant Peak, so you two can fight it out while we just observe silently.

Upon hearing this, Chen Qingluan immediately frowned and said, "Tu Zhuque, what do you mean by that? When it comes to the intensity of the flame, naturally, our Azure Pheasant Peak is superior."

"What? Azure Pheasant Peak superior? Even though your Azure Pheasant Peak is also a Fire Peak, the flames you cultivate pursue the quantity and change of the flame, not the temperature of the flame.

If we are to talk about the temperature of the flame, it should be our Vermilion Bird Peak."

"Tu Zhuque, you're talking nonsense with your eyes open. Are you claiming that the temperature of the flames at your Vermilion Bird Peak is higher than those at our Azure Pheasant Peak?"

All around, everyone was unsurprised, as expected, these two would only not argue on the first day they awakened; a few days later, they've started again.

Cao Zhen looked at the two with no small amount of helplessness, his gaze falling on Nie Jie by the side, and said sternly, "Alright, if you two keep competing like this, the Divine Thought will fly away. You don't need to keep vying for it. Lie Yan, who also cultivates the Fire system, you go and absorb it."

Lie Yan, due to his past as a traitor, always endeavored to speak less and do more within the Hundred Peaks Sect, striving to minimize his presence, and there were many things he chose not to fight for, if possible.

Upon seeing this Flame Divine Thought, although he was tempted, he showed no intention of vying for it. Little did he expect the Sect Master to directly assign him to obtain the Divine Thought.

After being slightly stunned, he quickly stepped forward and infused immortal power into the Divine Thought.

He never disobeyed the Sect Master's orders.

"Lie Yan?"

Tu Zhuque and Chen Qingluan did not expect the Sect Master would directly allocate the Divine Thought to someone else. If it were any other Great Teaching, a temporary Sect Hierarch making such a decision would certainly cause dissatisfaction.

The authority of a temporary Sect Hierarch is not necessarily so great.

However, within the Hundred Peaks Sect, not a single person would question Cao Zhen, for the Hundred Peaks Sect could become the Hundred Peaks Sect entirely because of Cao Zhen, who made countless sacrifices for it.

Although the two would not question it out loud, their gazes were fixed on each other. The implication was clear: it's your fault for competing with me; if you hadn't, the Divine Thought would have been mine. At worst, I'd have taught it to you afterward. Now, it's benefited someone else.

Though this trace of Divine Thought was substantial, Lie Yan finished absorbing it in no time.

Tu Zhuque and Chen Qingluan continued to glare at each other, but their peripheral vision always tracked Lie Yan. At the disappearance of the Divine Thought, they simultaneously asked, "Lie Yan, what was that Divine Thought? A cultivation technique or a spell?"

"Reporting to the two Peak Masters, it's a spell." Even though Lie Yan was now at the Peak of the Indestructible Period, there was an involuntary tremor in his voice as he said, "It is a Lower Profound Grade spell named 'Blazing Fire Burning Sky'!"

All around, upon hearing this, people could not help but exclaim.

"A Profound Grade spell!"

"A Profound Grade spell has finally appeared!"

"As expected, among so many Divine Thoughts, there was bound to be a Profound Grade spell!"

Previously, many Divine Thoughts contained spells, but most were Yellow Grade spells; this was the first appearance of a Profound Grade spell!

Cao Zhen looked at Lie Yan, his heart stirred: "Since it's a spell, Lie Yan, you may teach this spell within the Hundred Peaks Sect to experts who have reached the Indestructible Period.

Afterward, this spell will belong to the Hidden Dragon Immortal Palace, and anyone wishing to acquire this spell must contribute to the Hundred Peaks Sect. Those who obtain the spell are prohibited from freely disseminating it."

Spells below the Profound Grade can be spread within the Hundred Peaks Sect without issue.

However, the indiscriminate transmission of Profound Grade spells poses a danger because when experts from the Immortality Regainment Realm awaken, they might covet certain Profound Grade spells and use special Soul Searching spells to forcibly obtain them.

Besides, this is a Profound Grade spell; freely teaching it would lead the Hundred Peaks Sect disciples to not cherish such spells.

Why do all Great Teachings have requirements for disciples to cultivate spells? It's also to motivate the disciples' drive for improvement, prompting them to strive harder in cultivation and cherish the spells more.

Previously, the Hundred Peaks Sect had insufficient accumulation, so they had no choice but to directly impart many Yellow Grade spells.

Once the Hundred Peaks Sect overcomes this difficult period, it will gradually establish systems and conditions for cultivating certain spells.

As for storing the spell in the Hidden Dragon Immortal Palace.

Profound Grade spells cannot be simply passed down orally; they must be transmitted through Divine Thought.

With an Earth Immortal Realm cultivation base, Divine Thought can directly pass spells to others, but it cannot condense Divine Thought for storage and extended preservation.

Only the Immortality Regainment Realm can achieve such a feat.

Therefore, while this Profound Grade spell belongs to the Hidden Dragon Immortal Palace, others wishing to cultivate it will need to seek Lie Yan or someone who learned 'Blazing Fire Burning Sky' for teaching.

Upon hearing this, Lie Yan immediately cupped his hands and said, "Yes, Sect Master. However, I need a day or two to familiarize myself with the spell before I can teach it to the other uncles."

A spell doesn't have to be fully mastered before being taught. Otherwise, when Cao Zhen imparted many spells back then, he hadn't learned them himself.

But, to impart a spell, one must have a sufficient understanding of it first.

Lie Yan needs time to first understand 'Blazing Fire Burning Sky'.

Cao Zhen nodded, then stopped focusing on this particular spell, and instead again released immortal power, opening another trace of the Divine Thought.

As one trace of Divine Thought after another was opened, soon, only the three largest traces of the Divine Thought descended by the Heavenly Dao remained.

Chapter 1684:

Cao Zhen looked at the remaining three strands of divine thought before him, and immortal power surged from within him, entering one of the divine thoughts.

Under everyone's watchful eyes, this divine thought suddenly burst out with a flash of black light!

Black?

Everyone around immediately frowned. Normally, the light of divine thoughts is gold. Of course, some divine thoughts may appear in different colors based on the type of spells or cultivation techniques they contain, such as a divine thought containing fire system magic or cultivation techniques often emits a red glow, while one with wood attribute spells or techniques appears green.

However, black divine thought is generally suitable for demonic cultivators.

Though Hundred Peaks Sect is a diverse sect, they don't have a single demonic cultivator. This was a reward from Heavenly Dao to help them survive the Sect Tribulation. Logically, the bestowed divine thoughts should suit Hundred Peaks Sect only. Why would one suitable for a Demonic Sect appear?

The next moment, everyone's complexion turned even more unpleasant. This divine thought emitted not only a black glow but also a powerful demonic aura, and it was extremely dense.

"No, something's wrong."

After a moment, everyone furrowed their brows again. Although the divine thought emitted demonic qi, they couldn't sense any evil intent within it. They even had an absurd feeling, sensing that it was a righteous and magnanimous demonic aura.

Demonic aura, how can it have a righteous, magnanimous vibe?

Moreover, no matter what, it was still demonic qi.

Doesn't this mean this strand of divine thought has to be discarded?

This was one of the three strongest strands of divine thought obtained by Hundred Peaks Sect, this...

No, it seems there's a faint trace of Yin Breath in the demonic qi.

Yin Breath from Yin Yang Qi.

Yin Yang Qi?

In an instant, all eyes turned to Xiang Ziyu. In the Hundred Peaks Sect, the only one proficient in Yin Yang Qi was Xiang Ziyu.

Xiang Ziyu also sensed the demonic aura emanating from the divine thought, turned to look at his master and said, "Master, I..."

"Alright, no need to say more, go ahead and take it." Fearing Xiang Ziyu would blurt something like 'I'm the protagonist' again, Cao Zhen didn't wait for him to speak and directly told Xiang Ziyu to proceed.

As Xiang Ziyu acted, the divine thought quickly entered his brain.

"What's inside? A spell or a divine ability?"

"A spell." Xiang Ziyu turned to look at Cao Zhen and said, "It's a defensive spell, and I feel it's an advanced version of my Record of Deities and Demons. Master, you know that my Record of Deities and Demons is merely a divine skill, not a spell. I've always wanted to transform it into a spell, and I was just a step away from succeeding. With this reference, I think I can quickly refine the Record of Deities and Demons."

Cao Zhen was instantly speechless, thinking to himself: You really have a vivid imagination; your Record of Deities and Demons is clearly two distinct divine skills you've forcibly merged into one.

Now you've obtained a spell and claim it's an advanced version of your Record of Deities and Demons, isn't that absurd? You!

As Cao Zhen internalized his thoughts, Xiang Ziyu's urging voice came from the side.

"Master, the Record of Deities and Demons divides into two parts: the demonic and the divine. I have a feeling that the remaining two strands of divine thought contain a divine part, which is the Yang component. Quickly, unveil another strand of divine thought."

At the location of Four Treasures Peak, Bei Yan covered his forehead with his hand, looking embarrassed as he exclaimed, "Third senior's condition is getting worse. I think after we're finished here, Master should quickly check on third senior. How can the remaining divine thought be a part of the divine and Yang? Who does he think he is, the heavenly son's illegitimate child? The reward of Heavenly Dao was for Hundred Peaks Sect, not just for him. He...!! What is this!"

As Bei Yan spoke, he was completely dumbfounded. His master had already opened the penultimate strand of divine thought, and immediately, a ray of pure white light burst forth, filled with an unparalleled aura of kingly might, carrying a trace of Yang Qi.

All around, the disciples of Four Treasures Peak, and indeed all of Hundred Peaks Sect, were utterly stupefied. Did Xiang Ziyu really predict correctly?

Was this remaining divine thought truly filled with Yang Qi or Yin Yang Qi?

"Master, you see, I told you. I'm the protagonist, so this remaining divine thought must be as I said. Besides me, no one else in Hundred Peaks Sect cultivates Yin Yang Qi. So, Master, I'll absorb this divine thought too."

Seeing his master's mechanical nod, Xiang Ziyu immediately stepped forward and began absorbing this penultimate strand of divine thought.

Below, Bei Yan's mouth seemed big enough to stuff a fist inside, gaping wide for a long time before muttering to himself, "The third senior actually predicted it right, could he really be the illegitimate child of Heavenly Dao?"

Cao Zhen was equally puzzled. This was clearly a reward given by Heavenly Dao to the Hundred Peaks Sect. Why did the divine thoughts fit Xiang Ziyu so well?

Even if what Xiang Ziyu said was nonsense, it was impossible for the spell to be an advanced version of his Improvised Record of Deities and Demons.

After all, the Record of Deities and Demons was Xiang Ziyu's magic-modified divine skill.

But the problem is, the aura of the previous divine thought and this one, when combined, matched Xiang Ziyu's aura too closely.

It felt as if this was indeed a special reward granted by Heavenly Dao to Xiang Ziyu.

These two strands of divine thought were given to Xiang Ziyu, and no one was displeased, given that no one else could use these two strands anyway.

Chapter 1685

Moreover, Xiang Ziyu is among the three strongest in the Hundred Peaks Sect aside from Cao Zhen, and they also hope Xiang Ziyu can enhance his strength.

Lv Chaoqiong, looking at Xiang Ziyu who had absorbed the divine thought, asked curiously on behalf of everyone, "Elder Xiang, what is the grade of these two spells?"

Currently, Xiang Ziyu is still the elder of the teachings in the Hundred Peaks Sect, so others address him as Elder Xiang.

"Two spells? This is clearly one spell, a spell of the upper-grade Profound Level." While Xiang Ziyu spoke, his face showed an indifferent expression. After a slight pause, he exuded a strong sense of confidence and said, "That doesn't matter anymore. I feel there's something wrong with this spell. Once I return, after making some adjustments, it will definitely become an Earth Level spell."

People around completely ignored Xiang Ziyu's latter statements, focusing instead on his previous words.

"Upper-grade Profound Level?"

"A spell of the upper-grade Profound Level?"

"So, these two spells are both of the upper-grade Profound Level?"

"But didn't Elder Xiang say it's one spell?"

"But these spells clearly came from two different strands of divine thought!"

"Anyway, no matter what, it's true that this is a spell of the upper-grade Profound Level!"

“Over there, there’s an even thicker strand of divine thought!”

“This is already a spell of the upper-grade Profound Level, so wouldn’t the last divine thought be a spell of Earth Level?”

“It might even be divine skills.”

Everyone’s gaze turned toward the last and thickest longest strand of divine thought.

Under everyone’s gaze, a wave of immortal power surged out from Cao Zhen’s hand, falling toward the last strand of divine thought. In an instant, within that last divine thought, but the next moment, there was no light emitted from it before everyone’s eyes.

No one even sensed any light emanating, but in the next moment, this strand of divine thought suddenly flew up and surged into Cao Zhen’s body.

“This strand of divine thought made an autonomous choice!”

“It’s the Sect Master!”

“How strange, this divine thought clearly emitted no light and no aura, yet it made a choice?”

“What kind of divine thought is this?”

Everyone looked in amazement in the direction of Cao Zhen.

Cao Zhen, feeling the information coming from the divine thought, showed a peculiar expression in his eyes. The previous divine thought did not emit light, but merely an invisible light, nor did it emit no aura. At least he, being the closest to the divine thought, sensed the breath, the breath of Chaos Qi.

Everyone guessed correctly; this divine thought indeed contained a type of spell, and it is an Earth Level Mid Grade spell.

More peculiarly, this spell can be performed only with Chaos Qi!

If there was a divine thought among the rewards of the Heavenly Dao that required Chaos Qi to perform, he wouldn't find it strange.

But the problem is, the two previously appearing spells were extremely suitable for Xiang Ziyu, and the remaining spell was suitable for himself.

It seemed as if these spells were deliberately prepared by the Heavenly Dao for himself and Xiang Ziyu.

This is peculiar.

Why would the Heavenly Dao do such a thing?

After fully accepting this strand of divine thought, facing everyone's curious gazes, Cao Zhen solemnly said, "Indeed, there is an Earth Level spell among them, but this spell is not suitable for the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect to cultivate."

"It really is an Earth Level spell?"

"Indeed, I said there would definitely be an Earth Level spell after the Profound Level spell!"

"Our Hundred Peaks Sect also has an Earth Level spell now!"

"But the Sect Master said this Earth Level spell is something we cannot cultivate at all."

"Do you think, if we can't cultivate it, maybe the Sect Master can?"

“It should be possible, otherwise, that strand of divine thought wouldn’t enter the Sect Master’s body.”

The disciples of Hundred Peaks Sect were talking in whispers, with the focus of their discussions entirely on the Earth Level spell.

Earth Level spells are incredibly precious, even among major teachings in the Eastern Province, some only possess one Earth Level spell.

Cao Zhen waited for a long time before the discussions gradually quieted down.

He looked at the crowd and said, “All right, although we have initially repelled the forces of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect attacking the Hundred Peaks Sect, the opponent will not give up easily and will certainly have further actions. Hence, we must not let our guard down.

For now, all disciples within the Hundred Peaks Sect are prohibited from leaving, and patrols at the mountain gate should be intensified. All right, now everyone return to cultivation.”

After signaling everyone to leave, Cao Zhen led a group of disciples back to the Four Treasures Peak.

Even though he obtained an Earth Level spell, in his current Indestructible Period, he couldn’t cultivate Earth Level spells.

In fact, for some spells, he originally wanted Xiang Ziyu to cultivate a spell specifically for attacking the soul, so he could just ride to victory, but with the two upper-grade Profound Level spells Xiang Ziyu obtained, he is now immersed in studying those Profound Level spells and isn’t interested in any other spells, so he had to give up that idea.

For now, cultivation won’t have much of an effect, after all, the disciples have just broken through and need time to consolidate their cultivation base; as their cultivation base improves, he can, naturally, ride another victory.

The spells can wait until Xiang Ziyu cultivates them, and then benefit from it.

As for the great formation of the Hundred Peaks Sect, he could indeed enhance it, but enhancing such a formation requires time. By the time the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect attack, the great formation might not be completed in time.

Chapter 1686: Counterfeit Immortal-Slaying Flying Blade

Alchemy?

Such a short time doesn't allow for the refining of any pills.

For a moment, he realized he seemed to have nothing to do.

"The main issue is still being poor! I'm connected to Lu Ya Taoist, known for crafting magic weapons like the Nail-Headed Seven Arrow Book and the Immortal Slayer Flying Knife."

The Nail-Headed Seven Arrow Book looks very much like a sinister treasure from the Demonic Sect. Although it's troublesome to use, requiring twenty-one days, knowing the target's voice and appearance, making straw figures and praying, then shooting arrows.

Yet this treasure's power is terrifyingly potent, harming without a trace, and there's no distance limitation; even a Daluo Golden Immortal can't withstand it.

As for the other, the Immortal Slayer Flying Knife, with just one phrase, 'Treasure, please turn around,' it immediately annihilates the opponent. The Eight Nine Mysterious Art practiced by me and the disciples is already terrifying enough, allowing one to avoid attacks in battles within the same cultivation realm. As for the physical strength after cultivating the Eight Nine Mysterious Art, it's needless to say. Moreover, the Eight Nine Mysterious Art has countless transformations, making it impossible for others to discern the real self.

Even Yuan Hong, who cultivated the Eight Nine Mysterious Art to a high level, was instantly killed by the Immortal Slayer Flying Knife. What a powerful treasure this is!

The problem is, I can't refine these two treasures. The material requirements for crafting them are too harsh.

Not to mention myself and the Hundred Peaks Sect, I think even top-tier teachings like the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect probably can't refine these two treasures.

"These two treasures, it's almost impossible to counterfeit the Nail-Headed Seven Arrow Book, but as for the Immortal Slayer Flying Knife, there might be a possibility for imitation. However, I need to get two gourds first."

Cao Zhen started researching how to counterfeit the Immortal Slayer Flying Knife.

It's tragic to say, although he can craft the original Immortal Slayer Flying Knife, he can only make a counterfeit.

Three days later, Cao Zhen quietly left Hundred Peaks Sect and went into the surrounding mountains, where he met with the people from the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect. After some discussions on both sides, he quietly returned to Hundred Peaks Sect.

Although he hadn't been cultivating these days, the height of the Immortal Mountain increased slightly thanks to the disciples' cultivation.

When Xiang Ziyu, Ling Xi, and Ruo Yun's six Immortal Mountains had just broken through, they reached a height of two hundred and fifty zhang, with all six Immortal Mountains having the same height at that time.

Now, however, there's some disparity in the height of their Immortal Mountains. Bei Yan's is the shortest at two hundred and sixty-one zhang, while the tallest belongs to Ruo Yun, reaching two hundred and sixty-five zhang.

As for Yi Sheng, Li Ke and others, after breaking through with pill assistance, their Immortal Mountains are two hundred and twenty zhang high.

Because their Immortal Mountains are shorter than Xiang Ziyu and the others, their cultivation made their mountain heights increase quickly.

When attacking the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect earlier, their Immortal Mountains had reached two hundred and thirty zhang.

After that time, the rate of increase slowed a little, but even so, their shortest Immortal Mountain is at least two hundred and thirty zhang high.

Thanks to everyone, Cao Zhen's Immortal Mountain increased by another five zhang, to reach a height of two hundred and ninety-five zhang!

Meanwhile, in the Eastern Province, news of Hundred Peaks Sect's ambush and killing of several Earth Immortals from the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect had already spread.

Furthermore, numerous cultivators saw the Flying Boats of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and Weeping Blood Demon Sect gather and take to the skies.

"The Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect joining forces clearly means only one thing, attacking the Hundred Peaks Sect!"

"So many flying boats, just how many experts have they dispatched?"

"Even though Cao Zhen has many methods, Hundred Peaks Sect has just become a great teaching. There's no way they can stop these two great teachings!"

"Indeed, the reason Hundred Peaks Sect succeeded in ambushing the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect previously was due to them not expecting Hundred Peaks Sect to dare to make the first move. Now that the two Demonic Sects are joining, Hundred Peaks Sect stands no chance."

"It seems likely that this newly born great teaching will soon disappear."

"Hundred Peaks Sect might go down as the shortest-lived great teaching in the history of the Eastern Province."

Before the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's flying boats even reached Hundred Peaks Sect, news of their attack had already spread across the entire Eastern Province.

Hundred Peaks Sect knew these two great teachings would attack them, and above the mountain gates, at least two Indestructible Period experts and several Longevity Period experts were always stationed.

When the flying boats of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect arrived, the great formation of Hundred Peaks Sect activated immediately.

"Is that all?"

"This formation? A formation from the Longevity Period?"

"How does a respectable great teaching not have a formation from the Indestructible Period?"

One by one, Earth Immortal realm cultivators from the two Demonic Sects flew out from their flying boats, looking disdainfully at the great formation of Hundred Peaks Sect, as if this weak formation could actually stop them!

As the sounds of ridicule echoed around him, Blood Book Demon's face turned cold, and he stated solemnly, "Do not be careless; after all, they are a great teaching. This time, we must ensure the complete eradication of Hundred Peaks Sect!"

On the other side, Soul Flying Demon also looked gravely at the disciples of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, sternly reminding them, "Do not forget how our brethren fell."

Chapter 1687:

After the reminder, he suddenly raised his voice and said, "Prepare to act, everyone, unleash your battle power, and spread out to surround the Hundred Peaks Sect!"

On the other side, the Blood Book Demon also issued orders. As the voices of the two fell, disciples from the two major demonic sects formed a fan shape, surrounding the mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect while simultaneously releasing their own demonic mountains.

In an instant, multiple demonic mountains soared into the sky.

Among them, the Blood Book Demon's demonic mountain even reached a height of 260 zhang.

On the other side, the Soul Flying Demon's demonic mountain also reached a height of 260 zhang.

Besides the two of them, the two major demonic sects included twelve experts whose demonic mountains reached about 230 zhang.

Previously, when the Hundred Peaks Sect ambushed the Illusion Soul Demonic Sect, they dispatched over a dozen experts whose immortal mountains reached 230 zhang.

The reason they were defeated so quickly at that time was because among their deployed forces, there were too few experts capable of stopping those individuals, allowing Ling Xi and others to slaughter their disciples recklessly.

This time, they dispatched so many experts; although their number is still slightly less than the top experts of the Hundred Peaks Sect, they have other masters.

They have over eighty experts whose demonic mountains reach 200 zhang.

These are all beings at the peak of the Indestructible Period!

Even if the people from the Hundred Peaks Sect are strong, can they defeat two beings at the peak of the Indestructible Period?

Note that their Indestructible Period peak forces are so numerous, does the opponent still think one person can defeat ten?

Furthermore, the two great teachings have dispatched a total of three hundred Indestructible Period individuals, besides these one hundred peak Indestructible Period beings, there are two hundred Indestructible Period masters, followed by a large number of Longevity Period disciples!

With such power, aside from the small Hundred Peaks Sect that merely circumvented the Sect Tribulation cleverly during that special period, even some standard great teachings would find it difficult to resist!

Inside the Hundred Peaks Sect, everyone knows that people from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect may attack at any time, and they've been preparing continuously. Upon seeing the Mountain Protection Array activated, hundreds of Longevity Period and Indestructible Period experts flew to the mountain gate at the fastest speed.

"This..."

"Are they crazy? Sending so many people!"

"These two major teachings, don't they need to defend their own mountain gates?"

Qiu Wuxing looked at the distance, observing the demonic cultivators thoroughly surrounding the mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect, seeing those towering demonic mountains, only feeling a numbness in his scalp.

With so many experts, how can the Hundred Peaks Sect resist!

Suddenly, at the next moment, the distant demonic cultivators unexpectedly made their move, and streams of spells shot toward the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Though the Hundred Peaks Sect already activated their great formation, it was after all a Longevity Period array. In merely an instant, it was destroyed!

Within the two major demonic sects, many disciples had a murderous gleam on their faces.

"This time, let's see how they can resist!"

"Facing so many overwhelming spell attacks, even if Cao Zhen is strong, it's pointless!"

"One's power is ultimately limited, in such a situation, he can't charge through!"

Amidst cynical laughter, suddenly, above the Hundred Peaks Sect, a human figure shot out.

"Cao Zhen?"

"Does he really intend to charge across!"

"Courting death!"

There's no need for a leader among them to speak; everyone instinctively redirected their spells towards Cao Zhen.

In the void, the silver feather wings behind Cao Zhen fluttered rapidly, and behind him, an immortal mountain emerged, merely in a blink of an eye, this immortal mountain reached a height of 295 zhang!

In an instant, there was endless astonishment in the hearts of the demonic cultivators across as they stared at the towering immortal mountain!

"What!"

"Isn't Cao Zhen's immortal mountain over 260 zhang? How is it in just a few days his immortal mountain has reached over 290 zhang in height! Increased by 30 zhang!"

"How is this possible! The taller the immortal mountain, the harder it is to increase its height. Once it reaches 220 zhang, gaining just one more zhang is as hard as climbing to the heavens, let alone over 260 zhang!"

"How did Cao Zhen achieve this!"

"Concealing strength, he must have hidden his strength before!"

Following their shock, quickly realizing the situation.

"Hidden strength? Even if he hid his strength, it's useless with so many spells; let's see how he passes through!"

Before Cao Zhen's eyes, spells were shooting closer almost connecting into a solid layer.

However, no matter how seemingly connected, there were always some gaps between these spells.

Cao Zhen flew rapidly, threading through the gaps between the spells.

After all, he practiced the Eight Nine Mysterious Art, and Yuan Hong could dodge opponents' spell attacks within the same cultivation realm; although his mastery of the Eight Nine Mysterious Art hadn't reached Yuan Hong's level, his cultivation base far exceeded these individuals, not to mention he had the silver feather wings!

"Dodged!"

"How is that possible? How could he be so fast!"

"Not good, he's coming through!"

Amidst frantic exclamations, Cao Zhen's figure already appeared in front of them.

At the mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect, Xiang Ziyu, after his master's dash, also charged towards the demonic cultivators of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

Behind him, a 163 zhang tall immortal mountain emerged; during this period, he had always been cultivating the Eight Nine Mysterious Art or studying those two spells, leaving not much time for enhancing his immortal mountain.

Chapter 1688 Reinforcements from the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin-Yang Sect

Otherwise, as the protagonist, how could the height of the Immortal Mountain be surpassed by Ruo Yun?

Although his speed was not as fast as Cao Zhen, with Cao Zhen attracting their attention upfront, he also quickly closed in on them.

Almost the next moment, everyone noticed the approaching Xiang Ziyu.

"Xiang Ziyu is charging in too!"

"A hundred and sixty-three feet Immortal Mountain, this Xiang Ziyu. Indeed, stronger than the other disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect!"

"They're only two people, what are you afraid of!"

In the crowd, the Blood Book Demon shouted loudly: "Stop him, first block Cao Zhen!"

The information they received was that the strongest in the Hundred Peaks Sect, Cao Zhen, had an Immortal Mountain two hundred and sixty-five feet high. He and the Soul Flying Demon were not a match for Cao Zhen, but together they would definitely be able to block Cao Zhen and even suppress him.

Their plan was indeed for the two to block Cao Zhen, and then, the peak Longevity Period individuals would attack the remaining high-level members within the Hundred Peaks Sect, quickly kill Cao Zhen's disciples, leaving the Hundred Peaks Sect vulnerable to their slaughter!

But as soon as both sides engaged, their plan was disrupted.

Cao Zhen's Immortal Mountain reached a height of two hundred and ninety-five feet.

They didn't know how high the extreme height for the Indestructible Period could reach, as no one had ever reached it, but the speculation was three hundred feet.

In other words, had Cao Zhen, shortly after entering the Indestructible Period, approached its limit?

At this rate, it seemed Cao Zhen would also reach the Indestructible Period's limit during his time there.

Golden Core Stage reaching the Golden Core Stage's limit, Longevity Period reaching the Longevity Period's limit, Indestructible Period reaching the Indestructible Period limit.

This Cao Zhen, could he easily reach the limit in any cultivation realm?

A two hundred and ninety-five feet Immortal Mountain! Many experts, even after breaking through to the Immortal Path Domain, didn't possess mountains this tall!

Although, the combined height of his and Soul Flying Demon's Demonic Mountains were certainly taller than Cao Zhen's, the battle strength on each side couldn't be compared this way.

They couldn't block Cao Zhen with just the two of them, so additional help was needed.

Once Cao Zhen closed the distance with the opponent, the spells they cast had a shorter distance to travel, reducing the space available for her to evade, and facing the barrage of incoming spells, he had to turn aside and fly away again.

But because the opponent focused much of their energy on him, at the gates of the Hundred Peaks Sect, Ruo Yun, Ling Xi, and others took flight one after another, this time without concealing their power.

So many people flying drew the attention of both Demonic Sects' members, who immediately spotted the Immortal Mountains behind Ling Xi and the others.

"What's happening?"

"Two hundred and sixty feet Immortal Mountain?"

"Weren't their Immortal Mountains supposed to be two hundred and thirty feet? How come Ling Xi, Ruo Yun, and Yan Yourong have mountains over two hundred and sixty feet!"

"Damn it, Cao Zhen's methods are even more terrifying than we imagined. All his disciples had previously concealed their strength!"

"So what if they hid their strength? No matter how strong they are, this is all the numbers they have! We have so many experts that we can completely crush them..."

"If we had sent experts based on their estimated strength to annihilate the Hundred Peaks Sect, it might have failed.

However, the forces we've sent this time completely overpower them! Even if their strong individuals doubled, they would still not be a match for us!"

"Everyone hold steady, form into groups of three!"

"Annihilate their experts first!"

Although surprised, the demonic cultivators from the two major demonic sects did not feel much fear; they never doubted their ability to destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect.

The strength of the Hundred Peaks Sect's disciples was indeed stronger than they had imagined, but this time, they had sent enough people. As soon as the battle ensued, they continuously pushed the people within the Hundred Peaks Sect back, even Cao Zhen and Xiang Ziyu had to retreat.

Meanwhile, the members of the two major demonic sects quickly regrouped and accurately penetrated into the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Suddenly, just as they were very close to the Hundred Peaks Sect's gates, behind them, in the void, came a series of resounding cracking sounds, so loud that they seemed like sonic booms!

Just flying through the air could break the atmosphere?

Among the crowd, the Blood Book Demon abruptly raised his head, looking towards the rear, and the next moment, his eyes widened with a look of astonishment.

Behind, a sky full of cultivators was flying in, and these people were all Indestructible Period cultivators, with the leading individuals being the top elites among them.

The opposing side, with just individuals who had Immortal Mountains over two hundred and twenty feet, numbered over forty, and the experts with mountains around two hundred feet seemed comparable in number to their two major sects!

Dragon Chant Sect, and Yin Yang Sect!

These two great teachings, why did they send so many experts here!

The experts they sent alone surpassed the combined forces of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect...

They intended to eliminate our two sects!

In the heart of the Blood Book Demon was overwhelming shock. How could these two top-tier great teachings be helping the Hundred Peaks Sect so much!

It wasn't just him, many experts from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect also noticed the situation at the rear and were frightened by the aggressive experts from Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect.

Chapter 1689:

Soul Flying Demon further shouted towards the rear, "What are you doing? Our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and Weeping Blood Demon Sect hold no grudges against your Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect.

Today is a battle between our two Demonic Sects and the Hundred Peaks Sect, why must you muddy the waters with your involvement! Although your Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect are strong, you don't need to risk yourselves for a Hundred Peaks Sect, right?"

From afar, Immortal Bi Yue heard this and let out a cold laugh, "You Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect are demonic sects, we are the righteous teachings, upon seeing you, we naturally wipe you out! Attack!"

With her words, the people of Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect instantly launched attacks; in a brief moment, spells fell like thunderbolts.

Blood Book Demon looked behind Immortal Bi Yue at the towering Immortal Mountain over 230 zhang tall, then glanced around the crowd, suddenly coming to a realization.

Immortal Bi Yue was previously only in the Longevity Period, even if she broke through to the Indestructible Period she would just be in the early Indestructible Period, couldn't possibly be at the peak of the Indestructible Period.

And Immortal Jiu Yang, Immortal Shuanghua, and others, these people were all previously in the Longevity Period, couldn't possibly all reach the peak of the Indestructible Period at once!

Unless...

Cao Zhen!

They, like Cao Zhen's disciples, have all reached the peak of the Indestructible Period, it must be Cao Zhen's handiwork.

And Cao Zhen might help Immortal Bi Yue breakthrough, certainly wouldn't help so many people breakthrough without reason; clearly, they had long since formed an alliance!

No wonder, Cao Zhen dared provoke our two great teachings, turns out he was waiting here!

Only the experts from these two great teachings already surpassed them, coupled with the Hundred Peaks Sect, now the tables have turned against them!

At the gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect, Qiu Wuxing gazed at the arriving Indestructible Period experts, watched the already charging Cao Zhen amidst the two demonic sects crowd, his eyes filled with admiration; turns out the Sect Master had such a strategy!

Thus, the Hundred Peaks Sect is surely saved!

As for now...

"Kill!"

From within Qiu Wuxing, a murderous aura burst forth, directly charging toward the masses of the two demonic sects, daring to invade Hundred Peaks Sect, today none shall leave alive!

The Indestructible Period is indeed more robust than the Longevity Period, but in the face of overwhelming power, even robust bodies are useless.

Cao Zhen rushed into the crowd, every bolt of lightning fell enough to severely harm an Indestructible Period individual, or even crush them to dust.

In just a brief moment, over five Indestructible Period experts fell at his hands.

Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, under the assault from both sides, instantly broke into disarray!

"Retreat, retreat to the Great Teaching!"

Blood Book Demon shouted loudly, ordering everyone to retreat, under these conditions, if they fight to the death, fear none will survive here. Moreover, he suddenly realized an extremely perilous point.

Whether it's their Weeping Blood Demon Sect or Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, they've dispatched a significant number of experts, if they all fall here, what becomes of their Great Teaching's defense?

They must not perish here, they must preserve strength to return to the Great Teaching, for what they face next is terror not attacking Hundred Peaks Sect, but defending!

His voice had just fallen, when there in front of him, the figure of Xiang Ziyu appeared, and simultaneously a stick, eerie in appearance, like a fire poker yet studded with treasure beads, came crashing towards him.

From Blood Book Demon's hand, a sheet of Xuan paper instantly emerged, ordinarily Xuan paper is white, but his paper was blood-red, seemingly condensed from countless blood.

As the blood paper appeared, his surrounding area instantly turned into a vast ocean of blood, a thick, pungent smell of blood surged all around.

Next moment, the blood sea abruptly rose, enveloping Xiang Ziyu within, and all that blood further condensed into the form of a giant book, entrapping Xiang Ziyu in the middle, while the pages folded in, like two mountains crashing towards the center, intending to crush Xiang Ziyu alive.

Suddenly, from within Xiang Ziyu, torrents of power surged into the strange treasure in his hand, atop the stick, among one hundred and eight treasure beads, sixty-four abruptly shot forth dazzling brilliance, momentarily shooting various spell lights.

At this moment, Blood Book Demon felt as if confronting sixty-four different spell attacks, although each of these spells was not as horrifying as his, yet these spells resonated with each other, their powers seemed to have stacked together.

In an instant, a world-destroying force erupted outwards, Blood Book Demon's blood book was instantly shattered, reverting to a sheet of blood-colored Xuan paper, flying backward towards Blood Book Demon!

And upon Blood Book Demon's face, a pallor appeared, as crimson heartblood trickled from his mouth, his eyes showing astonishment.

Xiang Ziyu's Immortal Mountain might be taller than his Demonic Mountain, but not to such an extent!

What he displayed was already a Lower Profound Grade spell, further aided by his treasure, yet Xiang Ziyu instantly shattered his spell, reverting his treasure to its original form.

What kind of spell did Xiang Ziyu use!

Middle-Rank Mystical Level? Upper-grade Profound Level spell?

Watching Blood Book Demon only suffer recoil from having his treasure struck back to form, Xiang Ziyu's face showed dissatisfaction, the power was still lacking.

Once at Golden Core Stage, he followed his master's steps, integrating different Divine Skills into beads.

Upon becoming Earth Immortal Realm, he continued researching embedding spells into beads.

Yet, despite embedding spells, upon release, their power pales compared to direct release through immortal power.

Seems more study is required, else how can he defeat his master.

He's the protagonist, and his goal has always been to be number one under the heavens, in each Cultivation Realm of course.

Previously in the Longevity Period, his master surpassed him; now in the Indestructible Period, nothing shall surpass him again!

His gaze fell back upon Blood Book Demon, now it's time to test the power of two other spells.

Chapter 1690:

Xiang Ziyu had researched many spells himself, but these spells were so powerful that they were really not suitable for experimenting on his fellow disciples.

Now, finally, a person with considerable strength appeared in front of him. How could he miss such a good opportunity?

Suddenly, a black and a white phantom appeared on his body, and then his whole body was surrounded by a black and white glow. The black light was as dark as ink, yet within the darkness, there was a pure white light point without any other color.

In the other white glow, there was a black light point, but these two light points seemed to merge with the surrounding glow!

Pure Yin Yang Qi filled the black and white lights, swirling around his body.

Record of Deities and Demons!

Although he had not absorbed Divine Thought for long, the spells within it were definitely an upgraded version of the Record of Deities and Demons.

In just a few days, what had always failed to transform his spells, the Record of Deities and Demons, had been modified. But it was only just completed, and he felt that there was still room for improvement. Now he was just seizing the opportunity to test the power of the Record of Deities and Demons.

As the Record of Deities and Demons appeared, he suddenly dashed out and appeared in front of the Blood Book Demon in an instant, while beads embedded in the short stick suddenly flew out.

A total of one hundred and eight beads, floating in mid-air above his hands respectively, and each hand held half white beads and half black beads.

The Yin Yang Qi within them flowed in two different directions, and rather than merging, they felt like mortal enemies, creating an intense feeling of repulsion!

In an instant, the space around Xiang Ziyu and the Blood Book Demon suddenly cracked, and the air resounded with sonic booms.

At this moment, the void completely shattered, revealing several dark space rifts!

The next moment, from the center of the repulsion came another shocking explosion.

Amid the explosion, the bodies of Xiang Ziyu and the Blood Book Demon flew backward.

Even as a Peak of the Indestructible Period being, the entire torso of the Blood Book Demon was torn apart by the sudden force.

His indivisibility, and even his veins, his internal organs, were completely torn apart!

The terrifying force hadn't vanished, instead it surged through his body, seemingly trying to shatter all his bones, to tear his whole being apart!

He even had the illusion that Xiang Ziyu's strike was not meant to tear him apart, but to tear apart this whole world!

He had lived for over ten thousand years, but he had never seen anyone at the Indestructible Period able to unleash such a terrifying attack.

He even felt that this attack did not belong to the Indestructible Period, but was a more powerful, sinister attack that comprehended the Immortal Path Domain.

Moreover, the physical speed of the Indestructible Period should have been astonishing.

However, when this force struck, it created terrifying repulsion, a result of Yin Yang Qi. He didn't know how Xiang Ziyu managed it; this Yin Yang Qi repelled everything else, even restorative forces.

Now, he could clearly feel that his body showed no signs of recovery.

As for the extent of his injuries...

He even felt life slipping away, felt the approach of death.

With just one strike, Xiang Ziyu almost annihilated him!

On the other side, the Immortal Technique God Demon Record that Xiang Ziyu had just researched also shattered instantly, the black and white qi dissipating. His whole body, in flight, had his clothes explode, his chest suddenly tore open, and bright red blood sprayed from his body.

"Puff, puff..."

Xiang Ziyu spat out two mouthfuls of bright red blood, looking up at the Blood Book Demon who flew back and fell heavily on the ground, creating a bottomless pit in the earth below, with a look of disappointment on his face.

"Not enough, still not enough, even with improvements, I still get hurt."

Around the two, a few disciples from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect were merely affected, but even they were blasted to pieces, with bright red blood flying up to the sky.

In the distance, Cao Zhen looked at Xiang Ziyu, who seemed to have a mutual destruction feeling with the opponent, with a helpless expression on his face. Xiang Ziyu had used that move again.

During the previous Sect Tribulation, Xiang Ziyu had used this move, and now, as Xiang Ziyu used it again, he could feel the changes Xiang Ziyu made, yet this move still connected the attacks to both Xiang Ziyu and his opponent, expanding the damage to include everyone around them.

However, although Xiang Ziyu was injured, his injuries were clearly much lighter than those of the Blood Book Demon. It's unclear if it's entirely due to Xiang Ziyu's terrifying physique or the impact of his improved spells.

Xiang Ziyu's injuries didn't seem to affect his ability to continue fighting.

Meanwhile, in the giant pit, the Blood Book Demon had not yet gotten up. At this moment, a purple thunderbolt had descended from the void.

Looking at the falling thunderbolt, with despair in his eyes, knowing he was already heavily injured, how could he possibly block this Mysterious Rank spell!?
