

My Master 1691

Chapter 1691

I never expected, never expected to die in this Eastern Wasteland!

Even more surprising is that despite bringing so many experts, I couldn't annihilate the Hundred Peaks Sect. The Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect actually came to help the Hundred Peaks Sect.

These two Great Teachings, it can't possibly be just because Cao Zhen and the Hundred Peaks Sect promised them some benefits that they'd step in to assist; there must be larger gains involved.

That advantage is likely tied to our Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect!

Initially, our Weeping Blood Demon Sect was able to use the opportunity to join forces with the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and the Sect of Ten Thousand Beasts to destroy the Void Breaking Sect, so naturally, the Void Breaking Sect can seize this opportunity to wipe us or the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect out.

If we had known this earlier... We...

In Blood Book Demon's eyes, filled with despair, the thunderbolt had already crashed heavily onto him. Previously, under Xiang Ziyu's strike, his meridians had ruptured, rendering him unable to gather demonic qi. He could only watch as the thunderbolt pounded down upon him.

Already severely injured and on the brink of death, he exploded with a violent crash under the attack of the Mysterious Rank spell, dead beyond any semblance of life.

Subsequently, a voice echoed in the void, "I killed him, his treasures are all mine, don't try to snatch them!" Little Beiyuan shouted, as another purple thunderbolt appeared in his palm, striking towards the disciples of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect nearby.

Earlier, he witnessed Third Martial Brother severely wound Blood Book Demon without hesitation, and immediately followed up with another bolt of thunder.

Beside him, a chilling cold breath swept across, directly freezing two disciples of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect in the Indestructible Period next to Bei Yan. Then, Linghu Gudu's disdainful voice carried over: "Fourth Martial Brother, how shameless of you, this person was clearly already severely wounded by Third Martial Brother, and you took advantage of it."

"Taking advantage? Is this what you call taking advantage? Didn't you see that your Third Martial Brother was injured? I was worried he couldn't act in time and that guy would escape, that's why I had no choice but to intervene." Bei Yan retorted, and then directed thunder towards the two frozen disciples of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect in front of him, yelling, "These two are also killed by me, their loot is mine too."

Linghu Gudu actually dared to look down on him, even dared to provoke him?

Initially, he hadn't planned to take advantage of Linghu Gudu, but now, since he wanted to talk more, he decided to snatch his share too.

Cao Zhen looked from afar at the direction of Bei Yan and Linghu Gudu for a moment, shaking his head helplessly. He really didn't expect that even in the midst of battle, a situation would arise where they would fight over credit.

But when it comes down to it, in any large-scale battle, such situations of fighting over credit are bound to occur.

And Bei Yan's situation isn't too bad, after all, he is only fighting over credit among his own people, not from others, otherwise, it might actually lead to internal conflict.

After all, the rule in the Immortal Cultivation World is that whoever kills the person gets that person's Qiankun Bag and treasure.

Under the Earth Immortal Realm, there aren't many treasures, but in the Earth Immortal Realm, everyone possesses treasures. Even if a treasure isn't suitable, it can be traded for resources, or worst-case, melted down.

So, in large-scale battles, everyone places high importance on spoils of war.

Many people in the Earth Immortal Realm may only have one treasure, or even none. If you randomly snatch credit and loot, can others not get anxious?

So, in Bei Yan's case, if he were to snatch credit from other members of the Hundred Peaks Sect, others might not say it, but they would surely feel unhappy inside.

If he were to snatch credit from the Dragon Chant Sect or Yin Yang Sect, others definitely wouldn't be pleased and would confront him directly, affecting cooperative relationships at that point.

However, Bei Yan this little guy snatching credit from his own peak, that isn't much of a problem. They're all brothers, and they really don't lack those minor spoils.

At least each of them has more than one treasure.

Only, the strength of the masses from the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect greatly surpassed that of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, with the addition of the members from the Hundred Peaks Sect.

The Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect didn't even bother to resist and madly fled.

But the crowds from the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect were encircling them from behind, leaving them nowhere to escape, as one disciple after another from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect fell.

Facing these demonic cultivators, Cao Zhen didn't hold back. He's been in this world for far too long and has gradually become a part of it.

If it were when he first arrived in this world, he might have softened at such a scene, but now, these people, including those in the Longevity Period, came here to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect.

If the other side had won, these demonic cultivators would have shown no mercy to the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect; in that case, why should he?

In this brutal Eastern Province, kindness towards enemies is cruelty towards oneself.

The disciples of the two Great Demonic Sects continued to fall, with some desperately trying to transmit messages to their Great Teaching as they fled.

Although many were killed before they could deliver their messages, even more managed to send them out.

The Weeping Blood Demon Sect and Soul Breaking Demonic Sect received the messages almost simultaneously.

"What? The Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect are also participating in the fight? Why are they participating? Why are they helping the Hundred Peaks Sect? Why would they offend us two Great Teachings without cause, they..."

Chapter 1692:

"No, their objective definitely isn't just to help the Hundred Peaks Sect fend off our attack so simply. Their target is us!"

The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's Sect Hierarch instantly realized, and for a moment, he was in complete panic.

The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect had dispatched many experts. If the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect, along with the Hundred Peaks Sect, annihilate these disciples, and then send people to attack their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, how would they block it?

The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect... is it going to be destroyed by his own hands?

Or should he just escape now?

But even if he flees, where could he go? How long could he escape?

He was the interim Sect Hierarchy of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. While others could flee, could he also escape?

Moreover, even if he truly flees, what then? Their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect has only five thousand years left until the Sect Tribulation. Even if he escapes, when the Sect Tribulation arrives, he will still die!

Suddenly, the Ten Thousand Miles Sound Transmission Mirror of their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect shook.

He frowned slightly and pointed a finger. A wisp of demonic qi surged into the Communication Mirror, and instantly the reflection revealed the familiar face of the Weeping Blood Demon Sect Hierarchy. The other party's expression was as grave as his own.

"Soul Breaking..." the Weeping Blood Sect Hierarchy's heavy voice resounded, "You should have received the message from the disciples we dispatched."

The Soul Breaking Sect Hierarchy nodded slightly, showing a helpless expression, and sighed, "I just got the message. I'm afraid not many of our people will return."

"The issue now isn't about how many can return, nor is it about our defeat once again, but that both our Weeping Blood Demon Sect and your Soul Breaking Demonic Sect are in danger."

The Weeping Blood Sect Hierarchy said in a deep voice, "This time we sent out too many experts. We've dispatched more than half of our experts. After they are exterminated, neither of our Great Teachings will have many experts left."

And the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect, though they are top Great Teachings, would not recklessly attack our two Great Teachings without sufficient benefit.

So the only possibility is that they intend to act against us! Although our two Great Teachings have the Mountain Protection Array, you know that the current Mountain Protection Array cannot unleash its full power.

If we were evenly matched with them, the Mountain Protection Array could play a significant role. However, facing so many experts attacking, our Mountain Protection Array would be of little use.

We cannot withstand their assault."

"So? Do you have any solution?" The Soul Breaking Sect Hierarch showed a hint of dissatisfaction. The strategy of attacking the Hundred Peaks Sect had always been at the Weeping Blood Hierarch's behest. If not for the Weeping Blood Hierarch, he wouldn't have sent so many disciples to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect. Even if their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's disciples were annihilated, they wouldn't suffer such severe losses, and their Great Teaching's safety wouldn't be threatened.

The Weeping Blood Sect Hierarch looked at the displeased Soul Breaking Sect Hierarch without getting angry, and instead advised, "Soul Breaking, I know you resent my previous decision, but think about it. If we hadn't sent so many disciples back then, would the Dragon Chant and Yin Yang Sect have intervened after the Hundred Peaks Sect blocked our second attack?"

Our two Great Teachings were slaughtered by the Hundred Peaks Sect in front of so many Great Teachings. This enmity must be avenged. We still need to continue sending experts to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect.

If we do it many times, the loss of experts won't be insignificant, and the final result will be the same. Of course, I'm not trying to excuse myself.

I just believe that, in the current situation, blaming each other is meaningless. Now, what we need to do is find a way to solve the current problem."

The Soul Breaking Sect Hierarch knew as well that now wasn't the time to accuse each other; he just needed an outlet. Hearing the Weeping Blood Hierarch taking the initiative to explain, he calmed down and asked, "Then Weeping Blood, do you have any solutions?"

"I have a solution," the Weeping Blood Sect Hierarch said. "Our individual Great Teaching's power may not be able to defend, but if our two Great Teachings unite, there is a chance to repel their assault."

Once they realize that we've united, even if they could annihilate us, it would require a tremendous cost, sacrificing numerous experts. Then naturally, they wouldn't attack us again."

"Two Great Teachings unite? How would our two Great Teachings unite?" The Soul Breaking Sect Hierarch frowned tightly, "Do we gather all our experts in the middle of our two Great Teachings? The distance between our two Great Teachings is not close!"

"Naturally, it can't be that way." The Weeping Blood Sect Hierarch looked at the Soul Breaking Sect Hierarch and said gravely, "What I mean by uniting is for all the disciples of our two Great Teachings to enter one Great Teaching. Combining the two Great Teachings into one, your Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's people would enter our Weeping Blood Demon Sect."

"Impossible!" The Soul Breaking Sect Hierarch coldly stared at the Weeping Blood Hierarch, and said in a chilling tone, "Once our people go to your Weeping Blood Demon Sect, are they still our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's people? And what about our sleeping experts? If we leave, could the Dragon Chant Sect refrain from digging up the graves of our Great Teaching's experts?"

Moreover, our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect still has five thousand years to go until the Sect Tribulation. By then, the heavens will have long returned to normal.

If we go to your Weeping Blood Demon Sect, even if our experts survive, when the Sect Tribulation arrives after five thousand years, how will we withstand it? By then, we'll all die!

Chapter 1693:

If we truly want two Great Teachings to merge, why not have your Weeping Blood Demon Sect people join our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect? At least, your Weeping Blood Demon Sect won't face Sect Tribulation for thousands of years."

No wonder the Bleeding Tears Sect seemed to show weakness; they were waiting for him here, wanting the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect people to join the Weeping Blood Demon Sect to help guard them.

What was he thinking!

"Different." The Bleeding Tears Sect Hierarch shook his head and said, "I called you here to help your Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. Actually, even without your Soul Breaking Demonic Sect people, we in the Weeping Blood Demon Sect have ways to hold off the other side. It's just that we don't want to use those methods lightly."

The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect Hierarch grumbled, "Then you can guard by yourselves. Our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect isn't without friendly Great Teachings. We can ask other Demonic Sects to come help. I believe the other Grand Teachings in the Eastern Province wouldn't want to see our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect easily eradicated by the Great Teachings of the Righteous Path. They don't want the Eastern Province to lose another Grand Demonic Sect."

"Finding other Demonic Sects for help?" The Bleeding Tears Sect Hierarch looked at the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect Hierarch as if he was a child who hadn't grown up, and said, "Soul Breaking, you're also from a Demonic Sect. Don't you know the character of people from Demonic Sects?"

Other Great Teachings will help defend you? You surely can't rely on just one, other Great Teachings need to protect their own sect gates. You'd need to find at least three Demonic Sects to help.

The nearest Demonic Sect to your Soul Breaking Demonic Sect is only one, the other two are farther from you than the Hundred Peaks Sect.

By the time they arrive, I'm afraid your Soul Breaking Demonic Sect will have already been overwhelmed by the Hundred Peaks Sect.

At that time, sending them to attack the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect would be a deadly offense to these two Great Teachings; will they do it? Moreover, they might not even be able to save you.

Even if they do manage to save you, your sect gate will have been breached, and you'll welcome other Great Teachings inside.

The next to act will be the Demonic Sects you found for help. After all, offending the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect requires substantial benefits. Only destroying your Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and dividing its resources will provide enough for them to risk offending two top Great Teachings simultaneously.

In the end, your Soul Breaking Demonic Sect will also be eradicated, and you, your disciples, and family will all perish."

The Bleeding Tears Sect Hierarch tempted, "But now, if you bring your people to our Weeping Blood Demon Sect, you might survive another five thousand years. Among your disciples and descendants, there must be some who joined our Weeping Blood Demon Sect under a thousand years ago, so even if your Soul Breaking Demonic Sect can't survive the Sect Tribulation, they will have defected early, joined another sect, and won't be affected; they can live."

"Finished talking?" The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect Hierarch sneered, "You think I'm an idiot? Bringing people to your Weeping Blood Demon Sect, in five thousand years we'll be dead, and all of our resources will be yours.

Moreover, your Weeping Blood Demon Sect is the most brutal among all Demon Sects. Can my descendants and disciples live under your rule?"

The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect Hierarch, after speaking, did not wait for the Bleeding Tears Sect Hierarch to reply and directly cut off communication. Though he ended the call staunchly, looking at the now-quiet Ten Thousand Miles Sound Transmission Mirror, he sighed again.

He knew the Bleeding Tears Sect Hierarch was correct, and the only way out for the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was to take all resources and join another Great Teaching.

But sooner or later, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect would be doomed.

Besides, he was only an acting hierarch, not the true hierarch, so even if he agreed to enter another Grand Teaching, the people from Soul Breaking Demonic Sect couldn't all agree.

By then, before others even attacked, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect itself would be chaotic, just like the Praying Heaven Sect before.

Therefore, now he must act quickly, sealing the entire Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, and forbidding anyone from leaving.

But before doing that, he needed to find a way out for his descendants.

The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect Hierarch took out a jade pendant, and quickly transmitted a voice command: "Wu Xia, come to the Ancestral Elder quickly."

Within the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, amid a waterfall, a handsome man gazed at it as if it fell from the heavens, when suddenly his jade pendant vibrated. He opened it and heard the voice of the Ancestral Elder, showing confusion on his face.

"Why did the Ancestral Elder suddenly call for me? If he needed me, I'm within the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. Why send for me using the jade pendant? What urgent matter has happened?"

While he wondered, behind him, ten Golden Core anomalies formed a massive Pill Fusion, flying swiftly towards the Ancestral Elder's location.

The people of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect also knew Wu Xia's relation to their hierarch, and nobody stopped them. Soon, he entered the Ancestral Elder's chamber and curiously asked, "Ancestral Elder, you summoned me..."

Chapter 1694:

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader didn't wait for him to finish speaking. He waved his hand, directly closing the door, then conjured a sound isolation spell around them, urgently saying, "Now, don't speak, listen to me. Our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect is in grave danger. The Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect have already joined hands to assist the Hundred Peaks Sect. They will likely attack our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and the Weeping Blood Demon Sect next.

But the Weeping Blood Demon Sect seems to have some means, so they will definitely attack our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. Our sect cannot withstand it.

And you are still young, barely over two hundred years old now. Among our branch, you are the most talented person, even the most gifted disciple in our family's history.

So..."

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader waved his hand, placing a Qiankun Bag in front of Wu Xia, solemnly saying, "This contains all my resources, my treasures, my Immortal Stones, and even a divine thought left by our lineage. Now, take these things and leave, go as far as possible, live your life incognito, and live a good life."

"Ancestral Elder, you..." Wu Xia's eyes instantly turned red.

"Don't think about revenge. You will be the only seed of our lineage. Remember that in the future, you are no longer living for yourself but for our lineage.

I hope you reach the Immortality Regainment Realm, become a True Immortal, and even a legendary Golden Immortal! Expand and flourish our lineage! Go, I will soon close the sect. Before I do, quickly leave the Great Teaching."

Others may spread the word, deliver the message to him, or possibly use special means to inform others. Perhaps now, within their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, it's not only himself who knows about the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect attacking them.

He had to make Wu Xia leave quickly and then close the mountain gate.

"Ancestral Elder, rest assured, I will continue our family, and glorify it. I will become a True Immortal, become a Golden Immortal, and I will restore the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. By then, I will flatten the Hundred Peaks Sect, the Dragon Chant Sect, and the Yin Yang Sect!"

Wu Xia heavily kowtowed three times to the Soul Breaking Sect Leader, then got up, turned around, and flew towards the exit of the Great Teaching.

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader did not see him off.

Although Wu Xia is a genius, he is after all only at the Golden Core Stage now, and there wouldn't be much attention if he left the Great Teaching.

However, if the Soul Breaking Sect Leader were to send him off, people would definitely notice him. At this time, being as low-key as possible is naturally best.

Wu Xia quickly flew to the mountain gate of their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. At this time, there were still two people flying out of the mountain gate.

"Senior Brother Liu? Sister Mei Hun?"

Wu Xia glanced at the two, merely nodding to them before flying out.

Just as he was about to leave, Senior Brother Liu's voice rang out, "Junior Brother Wu, where are you going?"

Wu Xia's heart immediately tightened, his advancing steps paused slightly. Senior Brother Liu, Liu Dao Kong was just like him, existing at the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, and even for a longer time. According to what he knew, Liu Dao Kong would soon break through to the Wind Fire Tribulation.

In terms of strength, Liu Dao Kong was stronger.

What did Six Paths Void want by stopping him at this time?

Was it just casual chatter, or did he know something?

Wu Xia could only act nonchalant and say, "Nothing much, recently discovered a place that seemed to have some treasures, so I'm preparing to explore it."

"Oh?" Liu Dao Kong immediately became interested, "That's a coincidence. I also found a place that's quite interesting, perhaps rewarding, Junior Brother Wu, why not go and explore together?"

"Thanks for the invitation, Senior Brother, maybe next time. There's another friend of mine waiting for me there." Wu Xia grew increasingly vigilant, what did Senior Brother Liu mean? Could he be so kind as to invite him to a place with treasures, and still bring him along!

This Liu Dao Kong might also have realized the current situation facing the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, and since he is not yet a thousand years old, he naturally can leave the sect.

It is likely that Liu Dao Kong, like him, received a large amount of resources from his elders and was told to leave. And Liu Dao Kong must have guessed that he got the Ancestral Elder's resources, so he wanted to intercept him.

Liu Dao Kong did not give up but continued, "The friend Junior Brother Wu invited, can they be trusted? After all, Junior Brother Wu, your Ancestral Elder is the temporary Hierarch of our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, I'm worried..."

Before Liu Dao Kong could finish his sentence, the voice of the Mesmerizing Demon, who was about to leave together, interrupted him, "Since Junior Brother Wu has matters to attend to, why must Junior Brother Liu insist on having Junior Brother Wu go with you?"

Junior Brother Wu, quickly leave."

Hearing this, Wu Xia was just about to fly away, but his steps paused again, Mesmerizing Demon was leaving too? Mesmerizing Demon was someone at the Longevity Period.

Mesmerizing Demon was the most talented of the existing disciples of their generation, and for this reason, Mesmerizing Demon did not follow to the skill method of Hundred Peaks Sect this time but stayed in their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

After all, attacking a Great Teaching, even if they have the strength advantage, the disciples going to attack might die, especially involving battles at the Indestructible Period, which makes it even more dangerous during the Longevity Period.

Chapter 1695: Betrayal

Talents like Charm Soul Mo Wang must be retained.

If Charm Soul Mo Wang also learns of the news and gets his hands on the resources, preparing to leave, then Charm Soul Mo Wang will definitely attack him.

If Liu Dao Kong takes action, he still has a chance to escape, as although Liu Dao Kong is stronger than him, he too is only at the Golden Core Stage and has not broken through to the Wind Fire Tribulation.

But Charm Soul Mo Wang is in the Longevity Period!

However, the next moment, he felt relieved, as Charm Soul Mo Wang did not pay attention to the two of them and flew away directly. It seemed that Charm Soul Mo Wang was simply coincidentally leaving.

Wu Xia exhaled gently and followed Charm Soul Mo Wang, flying off in another direction.

Behind, Liu Dao Kong, seeing Wu Xia fly away, became anxious and quickly chased after him.

Wu Xia quickly noticed Liu Dao Kong trailing behind and, feeling him getting closer, glanced back towards the direction of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, cursing inwardly. He abruptly turned his head and looked at Liu Dao Kong, coldly saying, "Senior Brother Liu, why do you keep following me? Do you have some ulterior motives?"

As he spoke, he was already prepared to fly toward the direction of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

This Liu Dao Kong definitely has a problem!

If he continued to leave and flew far away, Liu Dao Kong would definitely make his move.

Now, he was still close to the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. If he returned to the sect, Liu Dao Kong wouldn't dare make a move, as the people at the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's mountain gate would notice, and Liu Dao Kong wouldn't dare to act!

Go back!

The best course now was to go back, inform the Ancestral Elder of the situation, and have the Ancestral Elder stop Liu Dao Kong!

Seeing Wu Xia about to move, Liu Dao Kong glanced around and said urgently, "Junior Brother Wu, you must have gotten the news too, right? I don't fear revealing it now; my Ancestral Elder is the current Vice Sect Hierarchy of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. The Ancestral Elder has received the news and has given me all his resources; I must also flee.

Since we both have to leave, why not go together? That way, we can look out for each other?"

Wu Xia's face tensed; indeed, Liu Dao Kong was also planning to escape. As for Liu Dao Kong's words, they might be true, but they also might be false.

He couldn't trust Liu Dao Kong's words.

He bore the burden of his entire family; he didn't dare to take risks.

"I don't know what Senior Brother Liu is talking about." Wu Xia said, then flew toward the direction of the Soul Breaking Sect.

In the shadows, Charm Soul Mo Wang watched Wu Xia's movements, a look of urgency suddenly appearing on his face. Damn Liu Dao Kong for ruining his plans.

If Wu Xia returned to the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, who knows what might happen.

Now is the only, and best, opportunity.

He could only take the risk!

He glanced at the distance between the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and Wu Xia, his figure shifted, and he suddenly flew out of the shadows, reaching Wu Xia in just a breath's time.

Flying, Wu Xia suddenly felt a figure flash before him; Charm Soul Mo Wang had appeared in front of him.

In an instant, Wu Xia's pupils shrank suddenly!

Charm Soul Mo Wang!

Hadn't she flown away earlier? Why was she appearing in front of him now, with such murderous intent? Charm Soul Mo Wang also got the news and intended to make a move against him!

Terrified, Wu Xia wanted to circumvent Charm Soul Mo Wang, but before he could make a move, Charm Soul Mo Wang had already raised her hand sharply in his direction. In an instant, a stream of pitch-black Demonic Qi shot out from her finger.

The pitch-black aura was filled with intense heat, like Hellfire flying out from the Nine Netherworld, and it instantly landed on Wu Xia.

In less than the time it takes to breathe, Wu Xia's entire body had turned to ashes!

Although Wu Xia was a genius among the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills, Charm Soul Mo Wang was also a genius, being in the Longevity Period. As a genius, no Golden Core Stage could withstand an existence of the Longevity Period.

Everything happened too fast. Like Wu Xia, Liu Dao Kong only saw Charm Soul Mo Wang, and the next moment, Charm Soul Mo Wang had already made her move, exterminating Wu Xia.

It was only then that he realized and wanted to escape towards the direction of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, but Charm Soul Mo Wang's attack landed once again.

Again, like the flames from the Nine Netherworld, it descended and burned him to ashes instantly.

After instantly killing the two, Charm Soul Mo Wang swiftly raised her hand to draw in the Qiankun Bags from their bodies. Without even glancing at the treasures inside, she immediately flew off into the distance!

Behind, on the mountain gate of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, as they had dispatched numerous experts outside, there had always been Indestructible Period experts at their mountain gate.

Almost when Wu Xia made his move, the Horrified Demon suddenly widened his eyes and roared in fury: "Charm Soul, what are you doing? Damn you, are you betraying the sect?"

His figure suddenly burst forth, chasing after Charm Soul Mo Wang.

Although Charm Soul Mo Wang was a genius, she was only at the early stage of the Longevity Period, whereas he was at the later stage of the Indestructible Period.

The distance between the two of them closed at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Suddenly, the next moment, Charm Soul Mo Wang turned her head around sharply, her previously unremarkable face now incredibly alluring.

Horrified Demon had seen many beauties in the Eastern Province, even the Immortal Bi Yue. But at this moment, he somehow felt that he was seeing the most beautiful woman he had ever seen, beauty enough to dazzle and mesmerize him.

And Charm Soul Mo Wang smiled seductively, slowly removing her outer garment.

As Horrified Demon watched the gradually revealed fair skin, he became completely entranced.

From a distance, on the mountain gate, everyone also saw Charm Soul Mo Wang make her move, but seeing Horrified Demon pursuing her, they did not take any action.

Horrified Demon, being at the later stage of the Indestructible Period, could surely catch up with Charm Soul Mo Wang, but after catching up, for some reason, he stopped in place, allowing Charm Soul Mo Wang to fly off into the distance.

"What happened to Senior Brother?"

"You all guard the mountain gate, I'll go check it out!"

Among the crowd, a demonic cultivator swiftly flew out, reaching Horrified Demon, and loudly asked, "Senior Brother, what happened to you?"

Horrified Demon was watching Charm Soul Mo Wang slowly remove her clothing, about to see her entire body exposed, when suddenly a voice reached him, and he instantly awoke, only to find himself in an empty Void, utterly stunned.

Chapter 1696:

The Horrified Demon gazed into the Void before him, his heart filled with unspeakable fear; had he just succumbed to the Mesmerizing Demon's Charm Technique?

Their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, as the name suggests, excelled at spells targeting the three souls and seven spirits.

However, they were merely at the Indestructible Period now, making it challenging to cast such spells. How had the Mesmerizing Demon managed it?

Moreover, he was an existence at the Indestructible Period, while the Mesmerizing Demon was only in the early stage of the Longevity Period; even without any defenses, ordinary spells shouldn't have affected him unless it was a Mysterious Rank Spell!

The problem was, how could the Mesmerizing Demon, at the early stage of the Longevity Period, cast a Mysterious Rank spell, especially such a Charm Technique?

He couldn't comprehend it at all, and at this moment, he had no time to ponder; he must quickly inform the high-ranking members within the Great Teaching about everything that had just occurred before him.

The Mesmerizing Demon had actually slain the disciples of their Great Teaching right outside their sect gate; this was clearly an act of defecting the sect!

And the people the Mesmerizing Demon killed were Wu Xia and Six Paths Void, one of whom was the Ancestral Elder of their temporary Sect Hierarchy, and the other, their temporary Vice Sect Hierarchy.

This was indeed a major issue.

He really didn't know why the Mesmerizing Demon would kill these two out of the blue.

The Horrified Demon quickly returned to the Great Teaching and had just planned to report this matter when suddenly, a figure appeared in his field of vision.

"Sect Leader?"

The Horrified Demon softly exclaimed, just as he was about to speak, the voice of the Sect Leader had already resounded.

"Now, seal the mountain gate of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect."

The Horrified Demon immediately wore a look of astonishment: "What? Seal the mountain gate?"

"Yes, seal the mountain gate." The Soul Breaking Sect Leader nodded heavily at the Horrified Demon, "Are you responsible for the mountain gate today? Go and seal the gate now; from this moment, no one is allowed to leave the Hundred Peaks Sect."

After speaking, he watched the Horrified Demon, who still stood motionless, frown slightly in displeasure and said, "What are you standing there for? Hurry and seal the mountain gate!"

"Sect Leader?" The Horrified Demon hesitated for a moment but still pointed in the direction of the mountain gate, "Wu Xia is dead."

"What!" The Soul Breaking Sect Leader's eyes abruptly widened, and his voice was even filled with a trembling sound, "Wu Xia is dead? How did he die? Where is he?"

"Right above the mountain gate, I was just going to report to you, and then..."

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader did not wait for the Horrified Demon to finish; he immediately flew off into the air, landing above the gate in the blink of an eye and at once saw the two corpses laid side by side together.

"Wu Xia!"

Looking at the familiar face, the Soul Breaking Sect Leader seemed to age instantly, and his previously straight back hunched over all at once.

Wu Xia had actually died.

His hope was dashed, and the most promising individual from their family had just died like this!

"Who, who killed him? Where did you find Wu Xia?" The Soul Breaking Sect Leader suddenly turned his head, looking at the Horrified Demon as if driven mad.

For an instant, as the Horrified Demon's gaze met the Sect Leader's, he couldn't help but feel a wave of terror, promptly lowering his head to avoid the Sect Leader's eyes and whispered, "It was the Mesmerizing Demon. The disciple personally saw the Mesmerizing Demon kill Wu Xia and Liu Dao Kong outside."

Right now, he had only one feeling: their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was about to encounter major trouble, otherwise, why would the Sect Leader seal the sect, and before sealing it, Wu Xia had left their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

Was Wu Xia, the most talented disciple of the Sect Leader's branch, intentionally sent away in advance by the Sect Leader?

Had the Mesmerizing Demon learned something, thus killing Wu Xia?

"Mesmerizing Demon! Damn it! Where is she? Where is she?" The Soul Breaking Sect Leader glared at the Horrified Demon, a boundless murderous aura surged from within, freezing the very space due to his killing intent.

He had given all his resources to Wu Xia, pinning all his hopes on him.

But now, his hope had been shattered like this!

The Mesmerizing Demon had actually killed Wu Xia!

Right, Wu Xia's Qiankun Bag, although Wu Xia was the most talented disciple in his branch, there were other juniors. As long as the resources remained, there was still hope, and he could delay closing the Great Teaching's gate, dispatching other juniors instead.

Qiankun Bag...

The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect immediately began searching Wu Xia's body, but the Qiankun Bag was nowhere to be found.

The Qiankun Bag was missing?

That was supposed to contain all his resources.

Without resources, what use was there in sending those descendants out?

Suddenly, he thought of something and turned back to stare at the Horrified Demon, "Where is the Qiankun Bag? Where is the Qiankun Bag from Wu Xia's body?"

Speaking, his extremely intense killing intent surged even more fiercely from within.

Even without directly looking into the Sect Leader's eyes, the Horrified Demon felt a shiver in his heart. The Sect Leader's murderous aura almost gave him the illusion that the one who killed Wu Xia wasn't the Mesmerizing Demon but him, a delusion that the Sect Leader might act against him.

Terrorized, he quickly spoke, "Subordinate did not see the Qiankun Bag; it seems the Qiankun Bag was taken by the Mesmerizing Demon... Yes, she took it. She took Wu Xia's and Liu Dao Kong's Qiankun Bags and then ran."

"What? Ran away!"

Because of Wu Xia's death, the Qiankun Bag being taken, and his hope being dashed, all the Soul Breaking Sect Leader's fury at this moment was vented entirely onto the Horrified Demon, roaring, "Why did you let her escape? You saw her killing fellow sect members, why didn't you capture her?"

Chapter 1697: Seal the Sect Gates (Part 2)

The Horrified Demon, despite being in the Indestructible Period, now facing the Sect Hierarchy's fury, felt like a young scholar making a mistake in front of his master, bowing his head and quietly saying, "Sect Hierarchy, I went to capture, but did not succeed."

The anger of the Soul Breaking Sect Leader showed no sign of diminishing, and he said angrily, "Did not succeed? You, a dignified being in the Indestructible Period, couldn't capture the Mesmerizing Demon, who's merely in the early phase of the Longevity Period?"

The Horrified Demon helplessly replied, "Sect Hierarchy, I initially could have captured her, but she suddenly cast a sort of Charm Technique, after which I fell under its spell. When other disciples woke me up and I tried to chase her again, she had already fled far away."

He knew that such words were hard to believe. If it were him hearing someone in the latter stage of the Indestructible Period saying they'd fallen for a Charm Technique from someone only in the early phase of the Longevity Period, he wouldn't believe it either.

"Charm Technique?" The anger in the Soul Breaking Sect Leader's expression immediately dissipated upon hearing, and a trace of fear appeared in his eyes as he muttered, "Charm Technique? Could it be that lineage? No, how could she have inherited that lineage, and although she is a woman able to use such a charm technique, her appearance couldn't possibly conjure such a spell."

The Horrified Demon, listening to the sect leader's mutterings, recalled when the Mesmerizing Demon turned to gaze at him, the unrivaled beauty he saw, and involuntarily said, "Sect Hierarch, when she turned back then, I felt I saw another face, an unmatched beauty, that gave me the feeling that she was the most beautiful woman in the world.

I don't know if that's her true appearance or if it's the effect of her Charm Technique."

"What!" The Soul Breaking Sect Leader suddenly looked up at the Horrified Demon, and in the next moment, his face revealed a frightening expression as he whispered, "Is it really that lineage? Has that lineage's heritage indeed remained, surviving until the generation of the Mesmerizing Demon?"

It was only after becoming the temporary sect leader that he learned some secrets.

Although the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was not very ancient among the Great Teachings, they were incredibly formidable in talent.

Not to mention the current Weeping Blood Demon Sect, even the top Great Teachings like Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect wouldn't dare provoke them easily.

The reason the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was so formidable is that they harbored a lineage of immense strength, skilled in attacks targeting the three souls and seven spirits, and various charm techniques.

Even beings in the True Immortal Realm could fall prey inadvertently.

But that lineage demanded extremely strict conditions for successors. Besides needing to be a woman, one must be a national beauty with Innate Allure Bone.

Furthermore, there seemed to be requirements for the qualification in Immortal Cultivation, namely the Immortal Body; only the Charm Body could cultivate that lineage's spell.

Later on, for some unknown reason, that lineage became a traitor to their Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, but the specific reason remains unknown to him.

In the end, that lineage vanished from the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, and at the time, they thought it had entirely disappeared.

Yet who knew that later, the current generation of Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's leader discovered that the lineage had not vanished but stayed within the sect, hiding so well that even the hierarch hadn't identified who the successor is.

The sect leader, before going into reclusion, even left a document instructing every temporary sect leader to keep an eye on that lineage, ensuring to imprison the successor once discovered, waiting for the hierarch's awakening for personal interrogation.

Within it, the sect leader also described some characteristics; the strongest aspect of that lineage was indeed the Charm Technique, allowing even beings in the early phase of the Longevity Period to employ Mysterious Rank spells using their Immortal Body and Innate Allure Bone.

The Horrified Demon, being in the latter stage of the Indestructible Period, falling for the Mesmerizing Demon's Charm Technique, must have been a Mysterious Rank spell.

The Mesmerizing Demon could likely be the successor of that lineage.

According to the document left by the old sect leader, he should now send people to capture the Mesmerizing Demon, but given the current state of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, how could he proceed?

Moreover, even his most talented descendants are dead, and he has given all resources to Wu Xia, leaving them depleted now.

Having finally vented his anger, he regained some rationality with the Mesmerizing Demon's emergence.

He looked around, then reluctantly waved his hand, saying, "Seal the mountain gate, from now on, forbid anyone from leaving the Great Teaching."

Subsequently, he turned and left the mountain gate position.

During his flight, one could clearly see his figure became much more hunched. He genuinely felt that his heart had turned to ashes.

Before long, all the experts of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect had gathered within the Conference Hall.

"That's how the situation stands. Our people likely aren't coming back, and even if they escape, the forces of Dragon Chant Sect, Yin Yang Sect, and Hundred Peaks Sect will immediately pursue them afterward. Thus, all we can do now is to seal the mountain gate and prepare for a deadly battle."

Among those below, some had received the news beforehand, but many learned it for the first time, causing the solemn Conference Hall to explode into chaos, with countless exclamations echoing.

"Damn it, Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect people are actually helping Hundred Peaks Sect!"

Chapter 1698:

"They may not necessarily attack our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect; they might attack the Weeping Blood Demon Sect instead. Compared to our sect, their hatred for the Weeping Blood Demon Sect is even greater!"

"No matter which great teaching they attack, they will attack our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect inevitably; it's just a matter of time."

"We can't just sit and wait for death. Since the Hundred Peaks Sect can seek help from other Grand Righteous Sects, why can't we seek aid from other Great Demonic Sects?"

"Seek help from other great teachings? But we are facing the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect; what great teaching would help us?"

"It's no use to just find one great teaching; we need at least three great teachings to help us defend!"

"If other great teachings and those demonic sects come, they might drive away the Yin Yang Sect and Dragon Chant Sect first, but they would probably turn on us next."

"Then what should we do? Are we all going to sit and wait for death?"

"Perhaps, we should open our treasury."

Someone in the crowd suddenly spoke up: "We can't hold out. Since it's like this, why don't we preserve the last spark of our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect."

We will open all our treasuries, even those we do not have the right to open, and distribute all the resources to the disciples who have been with the sect for less than a thousand years, and let them leave.

In this way, our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect can leave a spark behind, and maybe ten thousand years later, or even hundreds of thousands of years later, a genius might emerge among them, who can then lead our sect to rise again!"

The man's words had barely fallen when many around immediately voiced their agreement.

"Elder Zhao speaks reasonably."

"Indeed, I also agree with Elder Zhao's approach. Since we can't hold out, why don't we send the disciples away in advance?"

"Yes, we can't withstand the great teachings, and in the end, all of our sect's resources will be quickly benefited by the Dragon Chant Sect, Yin Yang Sect, and Hundred Peaks Sect. In that case, we might as well take all of our resources with us. Even if they break our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, they will get nothing!"

"Sect Leader, what do you think?"

Before the Soul Breaking Sect Leader could speak, a heavy thud sounded from the side.

An old man with hair and beard as white as snow slammed the table heavily, shouting furiously:
"Nonsense, we haven't even fought yet, and you all want to send everyone away! How do you know for sure that we cannot hold out?"

Immediately, those who had previously spoken up began to retort: "How can we possibly hold out, with so many experts, how do we defend?"

"Yes, Elder Zhou Zhang, do you think we want to see our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect perish? But we can't withstand it."

"Elder Zhou, rather than leaving the resources to these three great teachings, why not divide all the resources and let our disciples take them away?"

"Elder Zhou, do you not wish for our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect to preserve its flame?"

Before Elder Zhou could speak, another old man beside him had already opened his mouth.

"Preserve the flame? Tell me, how to preserve the flame? Let those who have been part of our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect for less than a thousand years leave?

They've been with our sect for less than a thousand years; how much sense of belonging can they possibly have?

After they leave, they won't be able to gather together. If they do, they will inevitably be targeted by other great teachings and eliminated.

They can only hide their names and spread out. They can't even use our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's spells and cultivation techniques, for if they do, their identities are exposed.

Others will immediately come to kill them and rob them of resources.

Under such circumstances, who do you think can grow, who can rebuild our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect?

Moreover, most of them are only at the Golden Core Stage, with very few at the early Longevity Period; what inheritance have they received?

After they leave, without enough of our sect's inheritance, how can they be considered people of our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect?"

"Right, letting them take the resources away is no different from giving them to others!"

"What do you mean? No matter what, they are still our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's people. How do you know for sure that none among them will rejuvenate our sect, that none of their descendants will emerge as such figures!

"Exactly, no matter what, they are our people. Leaving resources for our descendants is better than leaving them for those three great teachings!"

"Elder Li, everyone knows your branch has the most disciples, and your family has the most descendants. Don't think others are fools; clearly, you're using the pretense of acting for our sect's benefit to hoard more resources for your descendants."

"Conservative, you people are too conservative."

"Conservative? I think you're just afraid of death!"

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader listened to the endless bickering of the two factions around, painfully rubbed his temples, knowing that this situation would arise.

The sect is so large; how could everyone possibly be of one mind?

Moreover, he is only an acting sect leader, not the true leader, and he can't directly command everyone.

"Enough!"

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader finally shouted helplessly, stopping everyone, his gaze sweeping across them with a look of helplessness: "I know, some of you have the sect's best interests at heart, wanting everyone to stay and defend our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. I also understand that another part is thinking for the sect."

Chapter 1699: (Part 4)

Since that's the case, let's compromise. Disciples who have joined the Great Teaching for less than a thousand years are of little use staying here, so let them leave.

As for those experts who have been with our Soul Breaking Demonic Sect for over a thousand years, even if they leave our sect before the five-thousand-year Sect Tribulation comes, they will also perish, so let them stay in the Great Teaching to guard it.

As his words fell, everyone around nodded one after another.

"Then what about the resources? Sect Leader, should we open the treasury and give them the resources?" Someone proposed again to open all the treasuries.

As soon as these words fell, opposing voices rose around again.

"No way!"

"Give them the resources in the treasury? Impossible!"

"So you want to just watch as our Great Teaching is breached, and then let those people from the three major sects take away the resources in our treasury?"

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader saw that both sides were about to argue again, and interrupted them, rubbing his temples with some headache, saying: "You can give all of your own resources to your disciples and let them leave. But the resources in the treasury must not be touched."

Some agreed to open the treasury, while others did not, so the treasury could not be opened, because it required him and many Elders to open it together, and as long as one disagreed, the treasury couldn't be opened.

The remaining treasuries containing even more important resources couldn't be opened by all of them combined, unless they used external force to break them open.

However, since some disagreed, they naturally couldn't forcibly break open the treasury.

He paused slightly and suggested: "As for those treasuries, my suggestion is still to open them. We can take out the treasures within to strengthen our power and fight them to the death!"

"Good, let's do it this way."

"Follow the Sect Leader's instructions."

Soon, the mountain gate of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, which had been closed for a while, opened again, and disciples who had joined the sect for less than a thousand years flew out one after another.

With the Soul Breaking Sect Leader's orders given, almost all the disciples who had been in the Great Teaching for less than a thousand years chose to flee; since they had the chance to save their lives, why would they stay to die?

But not long after, these disciples who had just left the mountain gate returned in a panic.

Looking at the already sealed gate, they shouted loudly.

"Open the gate!"

"Uncle, open the gate, we were attacked!"

"The Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect had already set up a trap around us. As soon as we got out, we were attacked!"

"Uncle, quickly inform the Sect Leader and have him send experts to exterminate them."

The mountain gate of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was not opened, but the disciple guarding the gate quickly relayed the message back to the Great Teaching.

All at once, many disciples or Earth Immortal Realm experts with many descendants became outraged.

"Damn it, the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect are determined to exterminate us!"

"They had prepared early on and calculated that we might let the descendant disciples leave with resources, so they set up an ambush beforehand."

"It's good that we didn't open all the treasuries. Otherwise, the resources in those treasuries might have fallen into the hands of those two major sects."

"Now what? Are we just going to let them blockade our Great Teaching?"

"Go out and fight them!"

"Fight, with what? Moreover, if we rush out now, we might fall into their trap. These are top-tier sects, no one knows how strong their foundations are and how many experts they actually have.

Especially the Dragon Chant Sect, if they wish, they can even mobilize all their experts, as they have the Dragon Clan to guard them.

If we charge out now, what if they attack our Great Teaching in the meantime?"

"Attack? Let them attack; I say we should take out all the treasures from the treasury and let the disciples leave with them."

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader felt genuinely troubled at this moment.

In the end, he could only attempt to send out some Indestructible Period experts to escort their young disciples out, but soon these Indestructible Period experts returned, and only half of them made it back.

The people arranged around by the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect far exceeded their expectations.

"There's no breaking through; the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect have too many people, and they are led by top experts. Even if we send out all our experts, not many could break through."

"Those two are top-tier sects; they certainly anticipated we would try to take out the resources of our Great Teaching and leave with them, and they were well prepared."

"Given the situation, let's take out the resources from the treasury, guard the mountain gate, and fight them to the death!"

Outside the Hundred Peaks Sect, the people from the two demonic sects were utterly defeated.

After clashing with the people from the Hundred Peaks Sect, Dragon Chant Sect, and Yin Yang Sect, they quickly cleaned up the battlefield, while Cao Zhen left behind half of his disciples and some Indestructible Period experts, taking most of the Indestructible Period experts from the Hundred Peaks Sect towards the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

It's not that the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Realm people insisted they go; on the contrary, the people from the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect even said that the Hundred Peaks Sect didn't have to go.

Chapter 1700

After all, what they had previously discussed was that after destroying the two major demonic sects, the treasures within the treasury would be split evenly, but the treasures outside the treasury and in the life tombs would belong to whoever killed and seized them.

They did not want the Hundred Peaks Sect to compete with them for the treasures.

Moreover, if the Hundred Peaks Sect did not send people, they naturally would not be able to share the treasures in the treasury.

During the flight, Bi Yue suddenly flew to Cao Zhen's side and whispered, "The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect is in chaos. Their younger generation has all fled from their great teaching."

"Hmm? I suppose you and the people from the Yin Yang Sect stopped them," Cao Zhen did not believe that the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect were unprepared.

"That's right, we stopped them all." Bi Yue nodded slightly, "However, the resources they had weren't particularly much, so this is good news for your Hundred Peaks Sect."

"Indeed, it is good news." Cao Zhen nodded slightly. If the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect had opened all their treasuries and allowed all their disciples to leave with those resources, it would only benefit the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect in the end.

Now, since the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect did not allow their disciples to leave with the treasures, it would finally benefit the Hundred Peaks Sect along with the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect.

With the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect participating in the battle between the Hundred Peaks Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, the major forces in the Eastern Province quickly learned of this news.

It seemed that because it involved the top-tier great teachings of the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect, other forces did not make any moves.

Cao Zhen and the others flew all the way and reached the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect as quickly as possible.

He hadn't been to the Yin Yang Sect before, but he had been to the Dragon Chant Sect many times. However, he hadn't visited the Dragon Chant Sect since reaching the Indestructible Period.

Now, seeing the gathering of Indestructible Period experts from the Dragon Chant Sect here, he had a new understanding of the strength of these top-tier great teachings.

The Dragon Chant Sect actually had so many Indestructible Period experts, it seemed the dormant Indestructible Period members in the Dragon Chant Sect were no less than those in the Longevity Period.

He did not believe that the Dragon Chant Sect could dispatch all their Indestructible Period experts, leaving only the Dragon Clan to protect their Dragon Chant Sect.

Fortunately, the Dragon Chant Sect was on good terms with our Hundred Peaks Sect. If our Hundred Peaks Sect had offended the Dragon Chant Sect, even with more methods and having more people becoming experts at the peak of the Indestructible Period, they might not have been able to withstand the Dragon Chant Sect.

Now, he truly understood why Bi Yue was so arrogant back then, and why people from other great teachings would tolerate whenever possible when facing Bi Yue.

The gap in strength between great teachings was truly vast.

And this was only the Indestructible Period; there was more to come with the Immortal Path Domain and the Immortality Regainment Realm. Once those experts awaken, the gap between great teachings would be even more apparent.

The current Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was completely surrounded.

The great formation of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect had long been activated, and on the mountain gate, the people of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect held treasures one by one, releasing the Demonic Mountain, watching vigilantly as the alliance of the three teachings approached.

Yet every person had an expression of utter defeat on their faces.

The number of experts sent by the three great teachings was overwhelming, especially the disciples from the Yin Yang Sect and the Dragon Chant Sect. Although the people of the Hundred Peaks Sect were fewer, they had enough top-tier experts.

How could they stop their opponents?

Suddenly, as purple thunderbolts descended, experts from the three great teachings took action. Countless spells converged in the void, surging like an endless torrent.

Above the Soul Breaking Sect, the Mountain Protection Array shook violently in an instant. In just a moment, clear cracks appeared on the light screen of the great formation.

On the mountain gate, although the people of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect were also releasing spells to block the attacks, their spells were shattered as soon as they flew out by the torrents!

The next moment, the sound of shattering echoed above their heads, and the great formation shattered with a roar!

Spells rained down.

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader, looking at the falling spells, tried to dodge, but every corner of this void was filled with appalling spells, leaving no place to evade.

“Bang!”

A gigantic mountain formed of flames smashed heavily onto him, causing his treasure in front to sway uncontrollably. In the next moment, at least five spells hit simultaneously, instantly obliterating the treasure in front of him.

But the spells descending from the void did not cease, as more spells came down and instantly obliterated him!

The experts of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect discovered it wasn't a battle at all, but a one-sided massacre.

The opponents had too many people compared to them, and their experts were stronger. Each person had to face countless spell attacks simultaneously. Many had just defended against one spell when the second and third attack had already landed, instantly wiping them out.

From a distance on the battlefield, Charm Soul Mo Wang, watching as the crowd surrounded the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, suddenly flew out from the shadows, retreating swiftly into the distance.

After leaving the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect earlier, she realized the sect was completely surrounded, and forcing a way out wasn't possible. The only way was to hide first, waiting for the opponent's attack on the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect before escaping.

Now was the best opportunity to escape!

As for the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, let it perish.
