

My Master 1701

Chapter 1701: The Hidden Legacy

She had no feelings for the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, and if there was a chance, she would personally destroy the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

Back then, when the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect transitioned from a sect to a great teaching, the two strongest people within the sect were two close friends.

Among them, the sect leader was the ancestor of the current most inherited branch of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, while the other was the ancestor of her branch!

One man and one woman, they were close friends but not companions.

Because the Soul Breaking Sect Leader back then was stronger than her branch ancestor, he naturally became the sect leader, and her ancestor became the Vice Sect Hierarch.

After becoming a great teaching, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect developed very well.

Until their ancestor felt her life was nearing its end and ventured into dangerous places.

Even for the top experts, life also has its limits.

And their ancestor accidentally gained a tremendous opportunity while in the dangerous land.

But even though the ancestor obtained that opportunity, she could not advance further because her cultivation talent was insufficient. The opportunity required innate allure bone and innate allure body.

The ancestor was neither born with allure bone nor allure body.

Helpless, the ancestor chose to reincarnate!

Reincarnation does not allow one to choose the era themselves; unexpected things often occur after reincarnation.

Yet their ancestor was very fortunate, reincarnating only ten thousand years later.

Ancestor naturally returned to the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and disclosed her identity, and she even found someone with the innate allure bone and body to possess their body.

Then, the ancestor rapidly advanced, reaching her previous peak cultivation base in only fifty thousand years, even surpassing her pre-reincarnation strength.

Everything seemed to be heading in a better direction.

Though the founding of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was brief, because of the dominance of the sect leader and her ancestor, even the top great teachings at the time dared not provoke them lightly.

But no one expected that the ancestor's close friend would attack her at this moment.

After the ancestor's death, the sect leader of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect ruthlessly slaughtered disciples of their branch.

Because the sect leader of the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was afraid!

His lifespan was nearing its end, and he feared that after his death, no one could suppress the ancestor, worrying the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect would fall into the ancestor's hands.

He believed their branch did not resemble a demonic sect!

Because the ancestor's legacy seemed more like the immortal path's legacy.

For this reason, their branch was completely exterminated.

But no one anticipated that their branch still had a legacy within the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, and this legacy remained hidden, waiting for a chance to take over the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

You were afraid of us controlling the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, so you wiped out our branch?

Fine, then we will keep the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and turn it into our great teaching.

But now, there seems to be no opportunity.

Before they could act, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was facing annihilation.

In some ways, the Hundred Peaks Sect also helped them!

Moreover...

Her master, and her ancestor's living grave weren't even located within the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect!

Generally, those backed by great teachings built their living graves within the sect while in slumber.

But there were exceptions, as in the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, many masters also had living graves built outside.

Her master and ancestor were worried at the time, that building the graves within the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect would alert the sect leader.

After all, the cultivation techniques of their branch were special, as were the constructed living graves. Then, if the sect leader thoroughly investigated the living graves, something might be discovered.

"Now, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect is finished. We can only temporarily cultivate outside and then find the master's grave, waiting for her awakening."

Mesmerizing Demon muttered softly to herself, quickly flying away.

The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect had been completely conquered, and its disciples were utterly slain.

"Ruo Yun, Bei Yan, go to the various treasuries. I'll check those living graves."

Cao Zhen discussed with the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect, whoever kills claims the treasures, and the treasuries will be divided, so someone must oversee them when transformed.

The more significant living graves, too, whoever opens them will have ownership.

In this scenario, he naturally aimed to seize the living graves.

After shouting, Cao Zhen unfolded his silver wings and swiftly flew toward the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's rear mountain.

Surrounding him, experts from the Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect also flew toward the rear mountain, but the distance between them and Cao Zhen kept increasing.

By the time they could glimpse the grave, Cao Zhen had already landed atop one of the living graves, channeling a burst of immortal power from his body and breaking open the largest grave.

"Not good!"

"That Cao Zhen, he directly broke open the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect Leader's living grave!"

"Retreat quickly!"

"That's a True Immortal Realm existence!"

"Everyone, retreat, don't advance!"

After breaking open the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect Leader's living grave, Cao Zhen immediately retreated to the rear. Back when he was at the Golden Core Stage, he broke open the Heaven Prayers Sect Leader's grave, almost getting himself killed in the resulting explosion.

Although he is now at the Indestructible Period, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect Leader's self-destruction could produce even greater power than what the Heaven Prayers Sect Leader did when exploding at the Golden Core Stage.

Chapter 1702:

However, the physical body in the Indestructible Period is already much stronger than in the Golden Core Stage. Although he hasn't reached the peak of the Indestructible Period, even if the Soul Breaking Sect Leader self-destructs, the power released might exceed the limits of the Indestructible Period, but the excess should be limited.

Besides, he is so fast now that retreating immediately should help him avoid the Sect Leader's self-destruction.

Moreover, the Soul Breaking Sect Leader might not self-destruct!

Just after the massive mausoleum of the Soul Breaking Sect Leader exploded, all the mausoleums in the back mountain began to frantically tremble.

In just a moment, all the mausoleums on Gao Shan detonated one after another, releasing an overwhelming aura from each mausoleum, powerful enough to make the swiftly retreating Cao Zhen feel suffocated. The pressing demonic qi surged in waves, making his body feel incredibly heavy, almost causing him to fall from the air.

The next moment, a shadow of immense size flew out from the giant mausoleum.

Cao Zhen glanced at the figure, and in that instant, he felt his entire soul tremble.

He could clearly see the figure's appearance, yet it seemed as though he saw nothing, only a vague blur.

The next moment, he suddenly found himself seeming to fall through the void, flying through space, across the universe, landing on the Blue Planet which was once familiar but now felt so foreign, returning to his Earthly hometown.

At the same time, every mausoleum released the dormant demon heads within, who flew out one after another.

Each emitted endless demonic qi, their fierce aura blanketing the entire sky above the Soul Breaking Sect, turning the world pitch black.

The next moment, an oppressive force descended abruptly in the void—Heavenly might fell!

So many experts surpassing the Indestructible Period emerged from the mausoleums, instantly attracting the Heavenly Dao's attention, and terrifying heavenly might descended, wildly suppressing the Soul Breaking Sect experts.

"Boom!"

In the void, a Heavenly Punishment Thunder burst forth, scattering the darkness with golden lightning, enveloping the world in golden light.

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader cast his gaze around, his eyes blazing with furious flames.

His mausoleum had been blasted open, indicating only one possibility: their Soul Breaking Sect had been annihilated.

In the distance, those people were clearly from the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect!

Was their Soul Breaking Sect destroyed by these two Great Teachings?

He couldn't understand why these two top sects, whose relationship had always been ambivalent, suddenly collaborated to attack their Soul Breaking Sect!

But he didn't have time to delve into it now; he only knew that their Soul Breaking Sect was wiped out.

Now, he wanted everyone present to die!

Even if those in the distance couldn't be killed, the one closest to him must die!

Could the Indestructible Period Immortal Mountain reach two hundred ninety-five zhang?

In his memory, no one in the Indestructible Period had achieved such a height for the Immortal Mountain!

But so what?

Even if this person's Immortal Mountain reached three hundred zhang, they would still have to die!

From the Soul Breaking Sect Leader, an endless torrent of demonic qi surged, enveloping the surroundings as every Soul Breaking Sect expert's demonic qi poured uncontrollably into the Sect Leader's body.

"Die!"

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader sensed the oppressive force around him, maddeningly stirred the demonic qi within him, and for a moment, the demonic aura overpowered the Heavenly Dao.

A boundless, eerie, terrifying, dark aura surged outward.

Cao Zhen, closest to the back mountain, suddenly woke up feeling the eerie demonic qi closing in!

No good, he was hit by the opponent's Soul Attack!

He hadn't retreated but remained in place.

In the next moment, a resounding boom—the loudest explosion he had ever heard—sounded, so terrifying that it caused pain in his ears, nearly reaching the limit of the Indestructible Period.

The Soul Breaking Sect Leader self-destructed!

Chapter 1703

Cao Zhen originally planned to shatter the largest grave mound and then fly away immediately. He never expected that just by glancing at the Soul Breaking Sect Leader, he would fall prey to the latter's spell, entering an illusory realm.

When he awoke from the illusory realm, the Soul Breaking Sect Leader had already self-destructed.

Even though the multicolored light descended from Heaven in the void blocked this self-destructive power, the force that surged forward was still incredibly terrifying, as if it could destroy the heavens and the earth, striking him in an instant.

His clothing burst apart instantly, and the terrifying force sent him flying backward, an audible crunch resounding throughout his body.

In an instant, countless bones had been shattered, leaving him a bloody mess, and he felt that his internal organs were completely crushed!

His consciousness even began to blur.

The power of the Soul Breaking Sect Leader's self-destruction was truly too terrifying.

Previously, he faced the Heaven Prayers Sect Leader's self-destruction, though back then during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, the power allowed by the Heavenly Dao was limited to the Golden Core Stage, far weaker than the current power allowed.

But a person's aura cannot be changed.

He could clearly feel that the aura of the Soul Breaking Sect Leader was far stronger than that of the Heaven Prayers Sect Leader.

In his haze, he felt someone catch his body, followed by Bi Yue's concerned voice.

"How are you?"

Cao Zhen wanted to open his mouth but found himself unable to summon the strength to speak. Then he felt a soft sensation on his lips, and his mouth was gently opened, a pill falling inside.

Before the pill could fully dissolve, Xiang Ziyu's voice suddenly sounded from the side.

"Master's Wife, as long as you're taking care of Master, I'm reassured. I must say, the grave mound was opened by my Master, and he ended up like this. If anyone tries to snatch it, I'm prepared to fight."

While Xiang Ziyu spoke, he was the first to rush into the largest grave mound.

The surrounding crowd moved as well, flying toward the other grave mounds.

As for the largest grave mound, that was the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect Leader's grave mound! They also wanted to snatch it! But as Xiang Ziyu mentioned, it was opened by Cao Zhen, and Cao Zhen was so badly injured that if they went to snatch it, people from the Hundred Peaks Sect would likely fight them to the death!

To be fair, Cao Zhen was indeed frightening; even such terrifying self-destruction didn't kill him.

Previously, the experts who had been sleeping in the grave mounds were all flown out only to be suppressed to death by the Heavenly Dao. Now, whoever flies into a grave mound occupies it.

Not just them, but many disciples from the Hundred Peaks Sect rushed into the grave mounds as well.

Especially Wanren Di, whose fighting power was weak but whose speed was even faster than Xiang Ziyu, directly flying into the grave mound next to the Soul Breaking Sect Leader's.

Although Cao Zhen's consciousness was blurred, he didn't fall unconscious. Furthermore, he could feel the pill's potency starting to nourish his body as it dissolved.

His own Chaotic Power also began to surge, restoring his injured body.

This is the second level of the Earth Immortal Realm, referred to as the Indestructible Period. As long as he isn't pulverized instantly or beheaded, even his shattered internal organs can recover.

However, his injuries were indeed severe. While not unconscious, he still needed care and couldn't allocate the spoils.

There was no other way, so Xiang Ziyu and Ruo Yun would take over to divide the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's spoils with the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect.

The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's members had all perished, and no one guarded the treasure trove's Great Formation. Even though the trove was sturdy, with the power currently allowed by the Heavenly Dao limited, everyone together forcibly broke open one treasure trove after another.

They had agreed on dividing the treasure trove, but specifics and values required mutual agreement.

Moreover, the treasures varied widely across the troves. Generally, the most important were not the resources but the divine thoughts; however, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect being a demonic sect cultivated Demonic Qi.

As for the Dragon Chant Sect, Hundred Peaks Sect, or Yin Yang Sect, they all cultivated Immortal Qi. Though some spells from the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect might provide reference or even be usable, using Immortal Qi to cast spells meant for Demonic Qi would greatly lessen the power.

And that was only true for a few.

Most spells were impossible for them to cultivate or use.

As for the cultivation techniques, they were even less likely to be used.

Cultivating demonic arts with Immortal Qi seemed like seeking death?

So, everyone looked at the divine thoughts, with no one willing to claim them.

Eventually, someone from the Yin Yang Sect proposed, "Everyone, there are ninety divine thoughts in the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's treasury. Should we each sect take thirty divine thoughts and divide them all?"

The leader from the Dragon Chant Sect nodded slightly, agreeing, "That seems fine. Dao companions from the Hundred Peaks Sect, what's your opinion?"

Just as Ruo Yun Immortal was about to nod, Xiang Ziyu's voice had already sounded first, "Frankly, these divine thoughts aren't very useful to us at all.

Chapter 1704:

"We want these Divine Thoughts, but we can't cultivate them. We can't just hold onto them and ask the Demonic Sect people to exchange their Divine Thoughts suitable for our prestigious Grand Teaching, right?"

"So, Taoist Xiang, what do you mean? Are you saying you don't want to distribute these Divine Thoughts?"

"Taoist Xiang, not only do you not want these Divine Thoughts, but we also don't want these Divine Thoughts."

Xiang Ziyu looked at everyone and nodded, saying, "If you don't want these Divine Thoughts, then it's just right to hand them all over to our Hundred Peaks Sect."

Recently, while cultivating the new Record of Deities and Demons, he discovered an issue. Inside the Hundred Peaks Sect, where he was cultivating, the energy was exclusively Immortal Qi, which led to a consequence: the divine component of his Record of Deities and Demons far surpassed the demonic component, causing some imbalance.

Currently, with so many Demonic Sect Divine Thoughts, there's a chance of unexpected gains upon returning with them.

As soon as Xiang Ziyu finished speaking, the gaze of the surrounding people towards him changed immediately.

"Taoist Xiang, even though these Divine Thoughts don't hold much meaning for us, who knows, maybe there are spells suitable for cultivators like us to practice."

"Yes, Taoist Xiang, giving them directly to your Hundred Peaks Sect seems a bit inappropriate."

"Taoist Xiang, we know that your Hundred Peaks Sect has accumulated little, and if you really desire these Divine Thoughts, it's not impossible. But your Hundred Peaks Sect must exchange some treasures for them."

"Indeed, Taoist Xiang, even if you can't provide treasures, you should at least trade some resources."

If they had attacked a Righteous Sect instead of a Demonic Sect right now, they would not agree to trade treasures and resources for Divine Thoughts; however, the Divine Thoughts of the Demonic Sect are truly useless to them. If they can exchange for some treasures and resources, it would be quite nice.

"Exchanging treasures and resources? My treasures and resources are limited, I only have these. You can see if it's enough." Hearing this, Xiang Ziyu directly took out the Qiankun Bag and poured out each treasure along with some resources.

The people around were stunned, wondering if he was exchanging these things. "This is not what we meant, Taoist Xiang. You don't need to provide these resources; wasn't your Hundred Peaks Sect supposed to distribute quite a few resources this time? We haven't evenly divided the treasures and resources yet. What we mean is that when distributing resources, a portion of your Hundred Peaks Sect's should be directly deducted."

"Senior brother, you're making it too complicated. Simply put, your Hundred Peaks Sect should acquire more Divine Thoughts and acquire fewer treasures."

They had heard that Xiang Ziyu, though a genius, had rather unique thoughts. Although a normal person wouldn't agree to exchange their soon-to-be-distributed treasures for these Divine Thoughts, Xiang Ziyu was different.

"But those resources and treasures were owned by our Hundred Peaks Sect, not by our Four Treasures Peak, nor were they mine."

Xiang Ziyu looked at everyone with a serious face and said, "I only wish to exchange these Divine Thoughts on my behalf, and obviously cannot use our Hundred Peaks Sect's resources to exchange, only my own resources. I have only these resources on me, do you agree or not?"

The resources he possessed were gained from killing the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect along his journey.

The people from Yin Yang Sect and Dragon Chant Sect hesitated, knowing these resources were too few for an exchange.

"Taoist Xiang, these are Divine Thoughts, although they are Demonic Sect Divine Thoughts, maybe there are some we can use. If even one is usable, exchanging with you would be quite a loss.

Or perhaps, Taoist Xiang, could you add a bit more?"

"Yes, Dao Companion, please add some more."

Although Ruo Yun didn't know why Xiang Ziyu wanted to exchange a bunch of Demonic Sect Divine Thoughts, she still took out the Qiankun Bag gained from destroying Soul Breaking Demonic Sect disciples along the way and threw it out: "Then add these things, it's already quite a lot."

Ruo Yun's capability in battle was no less than Xiang Ziyu's, and among the Hundred Peaks Sect members, the number of demonic cultivators she killed could definitely rank in the top three.

The people from Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect checked the treasures inside Ruo Yun's Qiankun Bag, exchanged glances, and nodded: "Alright, these Divine Thoughts belong to you now, let's distribute the treasures."

Generally, except for Divine Thoughts, treasures were the most valuable.

Although Demonic Cultivator's treasures couldn't be directly used, with some modifications they could be utilized.

Moreover, at worst, they could be melted down.

Everyone claimed to evenly distribute, but this division wasn't easy at all.

The strongest treasures in the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect's treasury were of Earth Level, and there were two of them.

However, they were three Great Teachings, so how could they distribute?

"Everyone, what should we say? Among our three Great Teachings, one is destined not to obtain Earth Level treasures."

Afraid that her senior brother Xiang Ziyu might suddenly speak up with odd words, Ruo Yun immediately spoke, "This time, it was our Hundred Peaks Sect's idea, and our three Great Teachings joined forces to break through the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect."

Everyone, surely you can't let our Hundred Peaks Sect make sacrifices?"

"Ruo Yun Immortal's words are misplaced. Had it not been for our two Great Teachings helping you, your Hundred Peaks Sect couldn't have withstood Soul Breaking Demonic Sect and Weeping Blood Demon Sect."

Chapter 1705:

Ruo Yun remained firm and said, "This Dao Companion, saying it like that is meaningless. You came to help, and our master also helped you by refining pills. Moreover, you did gain something in the end."

"But, in this way, the Hundred Peaks Sect is indeed short one enemy."

"Yes, and I think this time your Hundred Peaks Sect has already gained Earth Level treasures. All the treasures from the Soul Breaking Sect Leader's burial ground have fallen into your Hundred Peaks Sect's hands."

In his burial ground, there should also be Earth Level treasures."

Although Ruo Yun didn't know what was in the Soul Breaking Sect Leader's burial ground, upon hearing this, she shook her head directly and said, "There's no connection in this. We obtained that burial ground because our master opened it."

If you are not convinced, after we conquer the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, we can offer you the chance to open the Weeping Blood Sect Leader's burial ground first."

All around, people from the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect couldn't say a word upon hearing this. How could they refute?"

They saw the power of the Soul Breaking Sect Leader's self-detonation clearly. Only Cao Zhen could withstand it; anyone else would likely be blown to pieces!

The two great teachings were silent for a moment before someone finally spoke, "Ruo Yun Immortal, you mentioned we are not just attacking the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect; we also plan to attack the Weeping Blood Demonic Sect.

Weeping Blood Demonic Sect is stronger than the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, and the treasures in their great teaching are likely stronger. By then, if there are more treasures, let your Hundred Peaks Sect select first."

Ruo Yun Immortal quickly reacted, shaking her head immediately, "Us selecting first? But if there are three Earth Level treasures, each of our three great teachings takes one, we'd still be at a loss!"

"Then among the three great teachings, one must not acquire the Earth Level treasure, right? Ruo Yun Immortal, if we receive these two Earth Level treasures, we can let you take more treasures."

Both the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect attempted to persuade the Hundred Peaks Sect to give up the Earth Level treasures first.

After all, both great teachings are top-tier, and they know well the other side would absolutely not give up such Earth Level treasures.

It can be said, they also want Yellow Grade treasures but do not lack them.

But Earth Level treasures are different; no great teaching lacks Earth Level treasures.

Earth Level treasures can be used by their top-level experts, enhancing their greatest combat strength.

Ruo Yun Immortal listened to the endless persuasion from these top experts, her brows tightly knitted.

Suddenly, her master's voice, Cao Zhen, echoed in her mind.

"Ruo Yun, let them choose the treasures, we want resources, all kinds of resources."

Although Cao Zhen's consciousness was blurred, he remained aware, and the recovery speed during the Indestructible Period is indeed astounding.

As he listened to their quarrels, he gathered a sliver of immortal power and transmitted a message to Ruo Yun.

Currently, he couldn't refine Earth Level treasures, but he had China Cloud, which could continuously enhance crafting realm; someday he could refine Earth Level treasures.

Since that's the case, rather than fighting for Earth Level treasures, it's more pragmatic to demand resources.

Moreover, there's the mountain bandit stronghold version of the Immortal Slayer Flying Knife he wanted to craft.

Cao Zhen continued to transmit, "Also, among the resources, if there's a gourd, not a crafted gourd treasure, but an innate gourd, keep an eye out for it, as it's useful to me."

"Yes, master, disciple understands."

Listening to her master's secret transmission, Ruo Yun Immortal was filled with awe. Those are Earth Level treasures, yet her master proactively chose other treasures; there's only one reason for it—he can refine Earth Level treasures!

Although the master exists at the Golden Immortal level, not all Golden Immortals can refine Earth Level treasures.

Moreover, she always believed her master's strongest skill was alchemy, yet now it appears he can also craft Earth Level treasures.

What else can her master accomplish?

Despite her inner shock, Ruo Yun Immortal deliberately showed an impatient expression, waving her hand, "Enough, no need to speak further. It's not impossible for you to desire those two Earth Level treasures.

However, for our Hundred Peaks Sect to select resources first, those Immortal Mines should also be chosen by us, as well as those Immortal Herbs, and the Immortal Fields from the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect should also be chosen by us first."

Upon hearing this, the opposing party immediately frowned, "Ruo Yun Immortal, your demands seem excessive, don't they? It's not a problem for you to choose Immortal Mines first, but to choose everything except the treasures first..."

Ruo Yun seemed truly impatient this time, interrupting directly before they finished, "If any of your great teachings feels it's unfair, you can swap with our Hundred Peaks Sect, you choose those Immortal Mines, Immortal Herbs, and Immortal Fields first, and give us the Earth Level treasures instead?"

As she spoke, a domineering aura of an authority figure emanated from her, gazing at them, "The way I'm speaking to you now, with such politeness, is because I'm a disciple of the Hundred Peaks Sect. After all, you did help the Hundred Peaks Sect, so our sect can make some concessions.

But don't push it too far. You are just Earth Immortal realm after all; you have only heard about the power of Earth Level treasures, but who among you truly wielded them, experienced their terrifying might?

Chapter 1706

And I, in a previous life, possessed an Earth-level treasure, so I am more aware of the terror of Earth-level treasures than any of you.

I have already conceded a lot. If you are still not satisfied, then the three great teachings will each send someone to spar. Whoever wins will choose first, do you agree?"

Upon hearing this, the people of Dragon Chant Sect and Yin Yang Sect quickly spoke up.

"Immortal Ruo Yun spoke heavily, we three great teachings are now allied, and we still need to attack the Weeping Blood Demon Sect together, how can we directly fight?"

"Indeed. Immortal Ruo Yun, you also mentioned just now, we are merely in the Earth Immortal Realm and have not used Earth-level treasures before, so we were unaware of their might and made an error in judgment. Immortal, please understand.

Now that you've spoken, we agree to your previous conditions."

How could they not know the terrifying value of an Earth-level treasure!

But they now represent their great teachings, and they all wish to fight for more benefits.

What a pity...

The head of the Yin Yang Sect sighed in his heart and secretly sent a sound transmission to the leader of the Dragon Chant Sect: "Now that Cao Zhen is seriously injured, if the Hundred Peaks Sect didn't have Ruo Yun, their people's knowledge is limited, and we two teachings could benefit.

But now with Ruo Yun, we cannot take advantage."

"That Ruo Yun is a reincarnated great ability, her knowledge surpasses us; let's not even think of gaining an advantage, just avoid suffering losses." The leader of the Dragon Chant Sect also sighed inwardly. How did someone like Immortal Ruo Yun, a reincarnated great ability, join the Hundred Peaks Sect?

He had heard that Immortal Ruo Yun in her previous life should have been a peak True Immortal existence. Such a figure, looking across the entire Eastern Province, all great teachings, she could join any teaching she chose, but she did not.

Moreover, after joining a great teaching, she surely can get whatever resources she wants.

As a result, Immortal Ruo Yun chose to join the Hundred Peaks Sect instead.

The only unique aspect of the Hundred Peaks Sect is Cao Zhen.

Both are reincarnated great abilities, yet Ruo Yun joined the Hundred Peaks Sect because of Cao Zhen, even willingly becoming Cao Zhen's disciple.

Clearly, Cao Zhen was stronger in his past life than Immortal Ruo Yun.

Immortal Ruo Yun was already at the peak True Immortal Realm, so what about Cao Zhen?

The legendary Golden Immortal?

He agreed to help the Hundred Peaks Sect initially because of this realization; if Cao Zhen was the legendary Golden Immortal in his past life, then their alliance with the Hundred Peaks Sect would have no issues.

With Immortal Ruo Yun stepping back, allowing Dragon Chant and Yin Yang Sect to choose Earth-level treasures, distributing among them became much easier.

Furthermore, in choosing treasures, the Hundred Peaks Sect typically has the first choice.

Since she doesn't want the Earth-level treasure, it would be unjust not to let others choose from the other treasures.

Ruo Yun, a peak True Immortal existence in her previous life, has insight above everyone else, and naturally, she is responsible for choosing treasures for the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Soon, her eyes landed on a green and a purple gourd.

These two gourds were not treasures, but innately formed gourds, from which strands of celestial energy surged.

Ruo Yun recalled her master's instructions and immediately pointed at these two gourds, saying: "We, the Hundred Peaks Sect, also want these two gourds."

"Both?" A person beside her frowned slightly, "Immortal Ruo Yun, we of the Yin Yang Sect, regarding these treasures..."

"No, we want them." Ruo Yun interrupted unyieldingly before the other could finish and then continued selecting other treasures.

The people of the Hundred Peaks Sect found that when Immortal Ruo Yun handled such matters, she was indeed much stronger than them. Her insight was one thing, but Immortal Ruo Yun was truly domineering.

Gradually, everyone divvied up all the treasures in the treasury, and the other disciples had also scoured the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect entirely, having cleared out all the cave mansions, and nearly everything movable had been taken.

"Now, we can set off for the Weeping Blood Demon Sect."

Although Cao Zhen was seriously injured, they had the flying boat, so it did not have much impact.

Moreover, with such powerful combat ability, they would not even need Cao Zhen to act.

As they drew nearer to the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, the bloody aura became more and more intense.

Many even furrowed their brows.

“Such a strong bloody aura.”

“This is... the bloody aura of the Blood River?”

“Strange, with the Weeping Blood Demon Sect here, there shouldn’t be such a large Blood River.”

“Such a thick bloody aura cannot come from an ordinary Blood River, nor even from one or two Blood Rivers. But around here, I recall there being no large Blood Rivers.”

“Previously, we encountered quite a few demonic beasts on the way. Although there are Blood Rivers in our Eastern Province and occasionally demonic beasts emerge from them, these are rare occurrences. So why have we encountered so many demonic beasts on this journey?”

The more they flew, the more puzzled they became, and the bloody aura kept growing thicker.

Suddenly, cries of alarm rang out.

“What is that?”

“A Blood River, how could there be such a massive Blood River!”

“What’s with these Blood Rivers, why are there so many!”

“Such a surging Blood River!”

Though it only took a few days to fly from the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect to the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, Cao Zhen had recovered significantly, at least no longer in a confused state.

Chapter 1707:

He stood on the flying boat, gazing ahead, and all he could see were rivers of blood!

He had seen too many blood rivers in the Eastern Wasteland, and in the Eastern Province, he had also seen many blood rivers, but those in the Eastern Province were usually in remote areas.

In places where the great teachings resided, blood rivers were basically absent; even if there were any, they would be suppressed.

Previously, he had also visited the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, in front of which there was also a blood river, but that blood river had already been suppressed by the Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

Moreover, around the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, there was only that one blood river.

But now, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect was surrounded by blood rivers, not just one, but countless blood rivers.

From a distance, it even gave the impression that these blood rivers had merged into a sea, while the Weeping Blood Demon Sect seemed like an island amidst this blood sea.

Each blood river was surging and boiling like boiling water, and from afar, people could clearly see blood-colored demonic beasts crawling out from these blood rivers, rushing outwards.

The people finally realized where those blood-colored demonic beasts were coming from.

"How could this be? Why did so many blood rivers suddenly appear!"

In their amazement, the crowd discovered that after the demonic beasts flew out of the blood sea, they didn't charge towards the Weeping Blood Demon Sect in the center of the blood sea, but instead rushed elsewhere, seemingly leaving the Weeping Blood Demon Sect unaffected.

"That's not right, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect is surrounded by a blood sea, why aren't those beasts attacking the Weeping Blood Demon Sect!"

"There's only one possibility then! The Weeping Blood Demon Sect has reached some sort of agreement with those beasts?"

"Reaching an agreement with the beasts? Is that possible?"

In the crowd, Immortal Shuanghua suddenly whispered, "Could that be true, there have been rumors before that the Weeping Blood Demon Sect has some connections with the Boundless Bloody Hell. Now it seems, it's not just empty talk."

"The Weeping Blood Demon Sect knew we were going to attack them, aware they couldn't stop us, so they conjured up so many blood rivers?"

"If we want to attack the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, we must first get through the blood rivers. With so many blood rivers, demonic beasts constantly flying out, how can we attack?"

"The problem now isn't whether we can attack the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, but with so many blood rivers, demonic beasts from the Boundless Bloody Hell will continuously enter our Eastern Province through them."

"Damn Weeping Blood Demon Sect, are they even human anymore? With so many blood rivers, our entire Eastern Province will be affected."

"These blood rivers haven't been here long. The demonic beasts in the Boundless Bloody Hell need time to enter the blood rivers, but as time goes on, there will be more beasts in the blood rivers, and more of them will infiltrate our Eastern Wasteland!"

"Madmen, they're simply a bunch of madmen!"

The crowd looked at the Weeping Blood Demon Sect surrounded by blood rivers, each one could only helplessly turn around and retreat to the distance.

Soon, it spread throughout the Eastern Province that the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, in order to hold off the Dragon Chant Sect, Yin Yang Sect, and the Hundred Peaks Sect, had never before created so many blood rivers outside their great teaching, and the demonic beasts in those rivers began to enter the Eastern Province on a large scale.

For a while, around the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, village after village, city after city, and even sect after sect suffered disaster.

Furthermore, the affected range continued to expand.

"Madmen, everyone in the Weeping Blood Demon Sect is indeed mad!"

"They brought in so many blood rivers, all the villages and cities around their great teaching will be destroyed. Then, how will they recruit new disciples?"

"It's not just about how, recently we've discovered that no one from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect has left.

Even though those beasts won't attack the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, if someone from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect wants to leave, they will still face attacks from the beasts in those blood rivers!"

"So, they're essentially trapping themselves within countless blood rivers now?"

"This group of madmen, we are one of the closest great teachings to the Weeping Blood Demon Sect, and those sects can't stop the beasts from the blood rivers. If those beasts keep advancing, they will certainly reach our great teaching. Notify the disciples outside the teaching to temporarily return."

"Madmen, truly madmen. They created so many blood rivers, even if they want to seal and suppress them, they can't seal and suppress those blood rivers!"

"And the Hundred Peaks Sect, they're too cruel, directly collaborating with the Yin Yang Sect and the Dragon Chant Sect to annihilate the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

If the Weeping Blood Demon Sect hadn't summoned so many blood rivers, it would probably have been destroyed too!"

"In truth, it's still the Hundred Peaks Sect's fault. If they hadn't acted, the Weeping Blood Demon Sect wouldn't have been forced to conjure these blood rivers!"

"The crux of the problem is, it's possible the Hundred Peaks Sect has merged with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, they truly might have the Sky Encompassing Ten Thousand Immortals Star Gathering Formation.

Now that they have also conquered the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, they must have acquired a lot of resources, and if they repair the Sky Encompassing Ten Thousand Immortals Star Gathering Formation, that would be truly terrifying!"

"Yes, if the Hundred Peaks Sect were just a stable great teaching, that would be one thing, but they are so aggressive, who knows when they'll strike because of a conflict with another great teaching. What if they use the Sky Encompassing Ten Thousand Immortals Star Gathering Formation?"

"We should team up, all the demonic sects, while the power allowed by the Heavenly Dao is still limited, and the Sky Encompassing Ten Thousand Immortals Star Gathering Formation can't exert its full power, we should first destroy the Hundred Peaks Sect!"

Chapter 1708:

"Nowadays, I fear the Demonic Sects won't take any action. After all, within the Hundred Peaks Sect, there's no shortage of experts at the peak of the Indestructible Period, especially Cao Zhen, who's so terrifying.

But once the Indestructible Period ends and the Immortal Path Domain experts awaken, it will be different."

"We don't need to take action, otherwise, if the Hundred Peaks Sect gets wind of it, they might become desperate and try to perish together with us.

Just wait, naturally, there will be some Demonic Sect that can't bear it and will unite with other major Demonic Sects."

"Indeed, before the Heavenly Dao completely opens its power, there will definitely be a Demonic Sect that can't bear it and strikes against the Hundred Peaks Sect."

Currently, throughout the Eastern Province, not only the various prestigious Great Teachings, but even some of the Demonic Sects are heavily cursing the Weeping Blood Demon Sect.

Although they are Demonic Sects, they are also human cultivators, yet demonic beasts are not human!

Cao Zhen and the others have already returned to the Hundred Peaks Sect.

The recovery speed of a physical body at the Indestructible Period is truly astonishing; having suffered such severe injuries, after returning to the Hundred Peaks Sect, it only took half a month for the wounds to completely heal.

Now, their Hundred Peaks Sect's two greatest enemies, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, have been destroyed!

As for the other enemy, the burial mound of the Rare Treasures Commerce Association's Indestructible Period expert, during the Longevity Period, Cao Zhen led people to level it.

They don't have any experts at the Indestructible Period, and now the entire Rare Treasures Commerce Association has started to contract. Others not giving them trouble is already good, do they dare to trouble the Hundred Peaks Sect?

"After being busy for so long, I can finally take a break for now."

Cao Zhen lay between two large trees on Four Treasures Peak, tied some strings to make a hammock, and lay on it, gazing at his peak, his whole body relaxed.

The past period was truly exhausting, not only physically but also mentally.

Currently, there are only ten disciples on Four Treasures Peak. Although it's more than before, the former Hundred Peaks Sect was already a Great Teaching, and now within the Hundred Peaks Sect, the number of disciples on all the peaks has increased a lot.

Four Treasures Peak is still the peak with the fewest disciples in the Hundred Peaks Sect.

This aligns with Four Treasures Peak's ranking, as during the last Hundred Peaks Grand Competition, Four Treasures Peak did not participate, hence it is still only ranked one hundred.

"Hmm, the rules of the Hundred Peaks Grand Competition should be appropriately revised. Previously, our Hundred Peaks Sect was just a sect, so the intervals for the Hundred Peaks Grand Competition were short, which was normal.

But now it's the Hundred Peaks Sect, and everyone's cultivation base is growing higher, with so many more experts at the Earth Immortal Realm.

If it's still the same as before, the frequency of the Hundred Peaks Grand Competition would be too frequent. Holding it once every ten thousand years should be about right.

These changes should be finalized once Bai Fengzi awakens, after all, she is the true sect master, I am just a temporary sect leader."

Cao Zhen basked in the sunlight, gently swaying on the hammock, and murmured softly to himself. Modifying the time of the Hundred Peaks Grand Competition was suggested to him by Nie Jie, and he also felt the time needed to be adjusted.

"By the time of the next Hundred Peaks Grand Competition, we should not abstain from participation. After all, Four Treasures Peak has never been glorious, and the ancestors of Four Treasures Peak certainly wish to see its prestige, as does Elder Copper Plate. If I fail to improve Four Treasures Peak's ranking next time, he might directly take up residence on Four Treasures Peak, nagging me every day, saying things like how I let down my master and the ancestors of Four Treasures Peak.

Speaking of Elder Copper Plate, he's also getting old and needs to breakthrough soon."

Thinking about Elder Copper Plate, Cao Zhen took out a pill from his embrace and left Four Treasures Peak, entering the Ministry of Works Immortal Palace.

Though he had helped the Hundred Peaks Sect refine many treasures, he rarely went to the Ministry of Works Immortal Palace.

Within the Ministry of Works Immortal Palace, one disciple after another was utterly surprised to see the sect leader appear.

"Sect Leader?"

"Greetings, Sect Leader!"

"Sect Leader, what brings you to our Ministry of Works Immortal Palace?"

Cao Zhen glanced at everyone, flashed a smile, and softly said: "I came to the Ministry of Works Immortal Palace just to find someone, no important business, you all continue with your affairs, just pretend I haven't come."

Saying this, he headed towards Elder Copper Plate's cave mansion.

Behind him, several young disciples watched Cao Zhen's disappearing figure with a look of confusion on their faces.

"The sect leader came to find someone? Who could he be looking for?"

"Yeah? Do you think, maybe the sect leader discovered a particularly talented disciple in our Ministry of Works Immortal Palace and wants to take them as a disciple?"

"Probably, otherwise, why would the sect leader suddenly come to our Ministry of Works Immortal Palace?"

Beside them, a disciple at the Golden Core Stage chuckled and gently knocked a few heads of the junior disciples: "What are you thinking? The sect leader came to our Ministry of Works Immortal Palace to find someone, clearly, he is going to find Elder Copper Plate."

"Elder Copper Plate?" They became even more puzzled.

"Elder Copper Plate doesn't seem particularly special."

"Yeah, Elder Copper Plate isn't especially proficient in the six arts either, and his talent in immortal cultivation is average. Why would the sect leader be looking for Elder Copper Plate?"

"Speaking of it, I also find it odd. Elder Copper Plate seems quite ordinary among our elders in the Ministry of Works Immortal Palace, but I feel like everyone in our Ministry of Works Immortal Palace respects him a lot."

"It's not just people from our Ministry of Works Immortal Palace. A few days ago, our Ministry of Works Immortal Palace had some misunderstandings with people from the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace.

Everyone knows how domineering the people from the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace are. Although our Hundred Peaks Sect has rules, the people from the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace don't dare to act recklessly, but since they are enforcers, no one wants to easily provoke them.

At that time, our Ministry of Works Immortal Palace's prodigy, Lu Chuanwen, made a slight mistake, which wasn't even serious, yet was caught by the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace, saying he would be detained for a while.

I was with Lu Chuanwen at the time and saw him being taken away without any means to stop it.

It happened that Elder Copper Plate passed by, and upon learning about it, he directly asked the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace to release him. Everyone knows that the elders of the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace are disciples of Sect Leader Yan Yourong; they never show any face.

But once Elder Copper Plate asked for the person, they straightforwardly released them, treating Elder Copper Plate with unknown amounts of respect.

Furthermore, it seemed as though they were afraid Elder Copper Plate would get angry."

Hearing this, several young disciples around immediately found it unbelievable and said: "What? Even the people from the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace show this much respect to Elder Copper Plate? You must be kidding."

"I can't believe what you're saying!"

Chapter 1709

Within the Ministry of Works Immortal Palace, just after everyone voiced their doubts, an older disciple interrupted, "He's right. Although I haven't witnessed everything he mentioned, I absolutely understand that the people from the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace would definitely not dare to anger Elder Copper Plate."

As soon as he spoke, everyone around looked over, faces full of astonishment.

"What?"

"Senior Brother, you're saying that even the people from the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace wouldn't dare provoke Elder Copper Plate. How is that possible?"

"If Elder Copper Plate gets angry, what would happen? Would it be severe?"

Beside him, another older disciple nodded in agreement, saying, "It would be extremely severe. Elder Copper Plate is quite old now, and his lifespan is almost up. If Elder Copper Plate gets angry and something happens... The people from the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace will be buried alive by Elder Yan Yourong.”

“Ah?”

“What... What’s the relationship between Elder Copper Plate and Elder Yan Yourong? I’ve never heard that Elder Copper Plate and Elder Yan Yourong have any ties.”

The people around were even more puzzled.

Their senior brother looked at everyone’s curious expressions, glanced around, and still explained, “There isn’t a direct relationship between Elder Copper Plate and Elder Yan Yourong. Let me put it this way, if Elder Yan Yourong were to cause some problem for Elder Copper Plate, he would have to bury himself.”

“What?”

“Senior Brother, but that’s Elder Yan Yourong. Saying it like that—be mindful...”

Everyone found it hard to believe their senior brother. Elder Yan Yourong is one of the top experts in the Hundred Peaks Sect, and she’s the sect master’s second disciple. It’s impossible that Elder Yan Yourong would fear Elder Copper Plate!

“Why not?” Their senior brother looked at them, showing a look as if they knew nothing and said, “The sect master, when he comes to our Crafts Department looking for someone, he’s only likely looking for Elder Copper Plate.

You all joined our Hundred Peaks Sect recently, so you’re unaware, but everyone who’s been here in our Crafts Department for a while knows about the relationship between Elder Copper Plate and the sect master.

The sect master has always treated Elder Copper Plate with the deference due to a younger generation.

Do you know, the way the sect master addresses Elder Copper Plate when he sees him? He calls him 'Uncle Master.'

Back when the sect master just became the Peak Master of Four Treasures Peak, Four Treasures Peak was ranked the last within our Hundred Peaks Sect. It was truly the last. Elder Copper Plate was always helping the sect master, often visiting Four Treasures Peak.

I've heard that Elder Copper Plate once gave all his belongings to support our sect master.

And since our sect master values relationships greatly, he has always remembered the goodness of Elder Copper Plate, treating him as his most respected elder.

Given this relationship, would anyone dare make Elder Copper Plate angry? If Elder Copper Plate really encountered some issue, even Elder Yan Yourong couldn't bear the consequences. How could people from the Law Enforcement Immortal Palace possibly provoke Elder Copper Plate over some trivial matter?"

All the young disciples around were completely stunned.

"What?"

"There's such a relationship between Elder Copper Plate and the sect master?"

"Why have we never heard anyone mention it before?"

The other senior brother among them heard and visibly admired, "That's exactly why Elder Copper Plate is so respected. If it were someone else with such a relationship, they'd be eager for others to know.

But Elder Copper Plate doesn't want anyone to spread word of his relationship with the sect master.

He said he didn't want to influence the sect master because of him. He wants everyone to view him as just an ordinary, Crafts Department elder.

Therefore, over time, people didn't deliberately spread this, and new disciples like you wouldn't know about the relationship between Elder Copper Plate and the sect master."

"I see."

"However, why did the sect master come to see Elder Copper Plate this time? What's the matter?"

Arriving at the entrance of Elder Copper Plate's cave mansion, footsteps sounded from within.

Elder Copper Plate's cave mansion hadn't been remodeled, the soundproofing was average. Even standing outside, with his current cultivation base, he could hear sounds emanating from inside.

Soon, the door of the cave mansion was pushed open from within, and Elder Copper Plate's aged figure appeared in his view.

Upon seeing Cao Zhen standing outside, Copper Dish naturally showed a pleased expression, alongside some curiosity.

"Sect Master? Why have you come?"

Listening to Elder Copper Plate's address, Cao Zhen's face showed slight impatience, "Uncle Master, please don't call me that way, I am merely your junior."

With a look of reverence, Copper Dish replied, "But you are the sect master, I must uphold your dignity as sect master."

"Alright, alright, Uncle Master, you can call me sect master, but please drop the formal 'you'," Cao Zhen corrected, seeing Copper Dish was about to continue lecturing, quickly pointed inside the cave, "Uncle Master, since I'm here, won't you invite me in?"

"Yes, yes, come in, before anyone sees," Copper Dish said, murmuring as he walked inside, "Sect Master, you shouldn't have come to find me. Now that you've come, everyone knows I know you."

Cao Zhen surveyed Elder Copper Plate's cave mansion, casually saying, "So what if they know?"

Elder Copper Plate sighed, "Once people know, they might come to seek my help. You know, I have a soft heart and can't stand seeing others in trouble. If I soften, I'll turn to you, which might cause trouble for you."

Chapter 1710: (Part 2)

"What's the trouble? If they really need my help, I'll help them. After all, we're all disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect."

While speaking, Cao Zhen looked at Elder Copper Plate's face, already lined with wrinkles, and said softly, "Uncle-Master, I came to find you this time specifically to bring you a pill."

As he spoke, he took out a pill and said, "This pill, once you take it, Uncle-Master, you will surely achieve a breakthrough and be able to extend your lifespan limit."

While he spoke, he handed the pill in front of Elder Copper Plate, but Elder Copper Plate stretched out his hand to block the pill.

"Sect Master, I appreciate your kind intentions. But there really is no need to give me a pill. I know my talents are limited. Even if I break through with the pill, I won't progress much in this lifetime.

Moreover, my existence doesn't contribute much to the Hundred Peaks Sect.

You should keep this pill for those gifted disciples within our Hundred Peaks Sect."

"Uncle-Master, this pill actually doesn't consume much resources." Cao Zhen looked at Elder Copper Plate's refusal, helplessly explaining, "Our Hundred Peaks Sect is not like before; we have ample resources now.

Our disciples can't lack resources, so please take it, Uncle-Master."

Elder Copper Plate still shook his head and said, "Even so, there's no need to give me the pill. Even if it consumes little resources, it still costs some resources. Don't persuade me anymore; I know you're doing this for my sake, wanting me, an old man, to live a little longer.

But me continuing to live doesn't really contribute much to the Hundred Peaks Sect."

Seeing Elder Copper Plate so concerned about resources, Cao Zhen could only deceive him: "Uncle-Master, this pill was specifically refined for you. If someone else takes it, it'll be a waste of the medicine's efficacy. Uncle-Master, if you don't use it, this pill will be wasted."

"Don't lie to Uncle-Master; Uncle-Master knows your level of alchemy. This pill, even if what you said is true, specifically made for Uncle-Master, you can always incorporate it when refining other pills.

You could even refine it into a new pill along with other pills. I've heard you say that the highest level of alchemy isn't about combining different herbs to make a new ingredient, but combining different pills to make a new pill."

Cao Zhen was completely speechless; so having high-level alchemy skills is a mistake?

Seeing the value of the pill couldn't persuade, he could only switch a method, continuing to persuade: "Uncle-Master, but your experience is right here. You've been in the Ministry of Works Immortal Palace for so long, our new disciples in the Hundred Peaks Sect need your guidance."

He's not someone who likes to be sentimental, but now he had to: "Moreover, don't you want to see our Hundred Peaks Sect become even more glorious?"

"What do I teach?" Elder Copper Plate pointed at himself, "I'm just an ordinary elder. If it wasn't for my age, I wouldn't have become an elder. There are more skilled people than me in the Ministry of Works Immortal Palace, it's not my place to guide others.

Moreover, I've already seen our former Hundred Peaks Sect become the Hundred Peaks Teaching, seen how glorious our Great Teaching is, even if I reach life's end now, I'm satisfied."

As Elder Copper Plate spoke, he looked at Cao Zhen, paused for a moment, and said, "My only regret might be not seeing you settle down."

Cao Zhen blinked, staring dazedly at Elder Copper Plate, wondering how the conversation suddenly turned to him; the transition was too unexpected.

In his ears, Elder Copper Plate's voice continued.

"By the way, when are you going to hold the Dao Companion ceremony with Li Ke of Vermilion Bird Peak?" Elder Copper Plate seemed to suddenly remember something, purposely raising his voice, "Speaking of which, if you become Dao companions, and have children, I can help you look after them. Now I'm old, not thinking about the path of immortal cultivation, but instead, longing for the joys the elderly enjoy in the mortal world.

I have no children of my own, and the only one I'm concerned about in the Hundred Peaks Sect is you. Back then, your master left early and entrusted you to me; I've regarded you as my own nephew.

If you have children, they would be my grandchildren... I know you're the Sect Master, and you're quite busy. But this old body can still help you take care of your children; if need be, I'll take the pill you gave me so I can continue looking after your children until they grow up."

Cao Zhen finally reacted; all this time, the refusal to take the pill was about wanting him to quickly find a Dao companion and have a child.

"Uncle-Master, this... why must you use such words to pressure me." Cao Zhen was completely speechless, curiously asking Elder Copper Plate, "Uncle-Master, why did you suddenly think of all this?"

"What do you mean suddenly thought of all this." Elder Copper Plate looked at Cao Zhen, saying, "Chief Tu from Vermilion Bird Peak came to find me, asking about you and his disciple Li Ke.

Back before the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, you were already with Li Ke, and back then, Chief Tu was preparing to hold the Dao Companion ceremony for you, but it was delayed due to the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth.

Now that the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth is over, and Chief Tu has been awake for quite some time. Now, our Hundred Peaks Sect's enemies have been resolved too; shouldn't you give others an explanation?"
