

My Master 1741

Chapter 1741: Seeking the Aura of Chaos

A middle-aged man, slightly plump with the sharp eyes of a businessman, yet exuding the aura of a cultivator, looked helplessly at the man dressed in black beside him, who was relentlessly trying to sell him something.

Cao Zhen glanced at the man in black. It was obvious that this man was a demonic cultivator. Under normal circumstances, a demonic cultivator encountering a righteous cultivator might lead to conflict.

But it was different at the Immortal Market.

Especially since they were clearly not those who specialized in combat, but rather resembled businessmen.

Every Great Teaching had such a group of cultivators, responsible not for combat but for commerce, for whom the distinction between the righteous and demonic paths mattered little.

They could do business with the righteous path, but also with demonic cultivators from the demonic path.

The man in black appeared to be the person responsible for commerce for the Sect of Ten Thousand Beasts, and he should be trying to sell the store on behalf of the Rare Treasures Commerce Association.

"What are you afraid of? The Rare Treasures Pavilion has been abandoned for so long, and since you bought it from us, if the Rare Treasures Commerce Association were to cause trouble in the future, they would come to us first, not directly to you.

Let me tell you, such a good location for a store, if you miss it, you won't find another like it. Think about it carefully."

The demonic cultivator paused for a moment and lowered his voice: "Let me be honest with you. It's not just in Lion Tiger City.

Ever since Cao Zhen led people to destroy the headquarters of the Rare Treasures Commerce Association, its many Rare Treasures Pavilions outside were attacked, some even obliterated.

Moreover, the life tombs of those Earth Immortal Realm experts within the Rare Treasures Commerce Association were directly dug up. There's no Earth Immortal Realm expert left in the Rare Treasures Commerce Association.

Now, it's hard for them to just survive, let alone manage these Rare Treasures Pavilions.

In many cities, the Rare Treasures Pavilions have changed ownership. Such prime store locations can't remain vacant indefinitely, can they?

The Rare Treasures Commerce Association would need the revival of Immortality Regainment Realm experts to turn things around, and who knows when that will be?

What's more, many have already taken over the Rare Treasures Commerce Association's shops; can the association go after so many people for trouble then?

What are you worried about?"

"I..." The middle-aged man was evidently swayed. He hesitated for a bit, then finally spoke solemnly, "Let me think about it, I'll give you an answer by tomorrow."

Cao Zhen glanced at the two and continued forward. He didn't know how many years the Rare Treasures Commerce Association had been laying its foundation in the Eastern Province, to have built a Rare Treasures Pavilion in each city.

However, after he led people to destroy the headquarters of the Rare Treasures Commerce Association, everyone knew that the association lacked masters.

In a short time, all the Rare Treasures Pavilions everywhere were destroyed.

Currently, there aren't many Rare Treasures Pavilions left in the Eastern Province.

Soon he arrived in front of a pitch-black building.

All-knowing Building.

Cao Zhen glanced aside; next door was the branch of the assassination agency.

Well, it's convenient to gather intelligence first, then publish a task at the assassination agency.

Cao Zhen stepped inside.

Compared to the assassination agency, the All-knowing Building was much larger.

Inside the room, a young man promptly came up for a warm welcome as soon as he saw someone entering, politely asking, "Guest, are you here to gather intelligence? What kind of information do you want to inquire about?"

Cao Zhen glanced around the room. There weren't many people; just three, two of whom were ordinary mortals, while the young man here was the only cultivator.

The assassination agency dealt with the business of killing, sending disciples to various places, where they'd be killed the same day they arrived.

But the Wanxiao Sect differed; they specialized in providing intelligence, which everyone needs sometime, so even if the Wanxiao Sect dispatched disciples to cities everywhere, they wouldn't be in danger.

Cao Zhen nodded slightly, with no intention of hiding his purpose, and stated solemnly, "I want to gather information about Chaos Qi. Tell me where there is Chaos Qi or who possesses artifacts that can condense Chaos Qi."

"What? Chaos Qi!"

The young Wanxiao Sect cultivator's eyes widened in shock as he stared at the man before him, wondering if he had misheard.

Chaos Qi, these four words were not something he heard often; rather, he might almost never hear them.

As a cultivator, he knew of Chaos Qi's existence, but there were only a handful of people cultivating it in this world.

Three people were known to him, all of whom were powerful figures in top Great Teachings.

Furthermore, all three were in deep slumber.

Who was this man before him, coming to the Wanxiao Sect and immediately inquiring about Chaos Qi!

Although surprised, his gaze towards the man turned respectful at once; anyone inquiring about Chaos Qi definitely was not simple.

"This Immortal, please wait a moment, I will inquire immediately."

The man spoke and quickly left the room, turning into another room and bringing out a pile of talismans.

There were talismans of different colors: white talismans, silver talismans, golden talismans, and a rare purple talisman.

Among them, white talismans were the most numerous, while purple was the least, with only one.

He picked the sole purple talisman from among them and began writing.

Entering the All-knowing Building wasn't a punishment; with good fortune, one might earn quite a lot of rewards too.

Chapter 1742: Chaotic Qi Intelligence

After all, those people came to them to inquire about information, which they passed on to the Great Teaching, allowing them to earn commissions based on the value of the information.

Ordinary information brings little commission, but high-value information yields very considerable earnings.

Half a year ago, a fellow senior he was very close to once used a Golden Talisman to convey a piece of information and received a significant reward.

And now, the information he was about to convey absolutely warranted the use of an even more precious Purple Talisman!

"A message delivered by a Purple Talisman, I wonder what kind of reward it would garner. Rumor has it that for delivering such information, the Great Teaching might even reward a treasure!"

As the young man thought about the reward he was about to receive, he couldn't help but tremble, his hands shaking as he lit the Talisman.

Wanxiao Sect, Wanxiao Hall.

This was not the conference hall of the Wanxiao Sect; within the hall gathered numerous disciples of the sect, and there were also four huge light mirrors.

Messages continually appeared from the light mirrors.

Among the four mirrors, the rightmost one displayed the most messages while the further left one had fewer and fewer words.

In fact, on the leftmost mirror, not a single message appeared.

Suddenly, the main mirror vibrated abruptly, with characters emerging on its surface.

In an instant, everyone's gaze turned towards it.

"This is someone inquiring about Alpha Class Information!"

"Alpha Class Information hasn't been inquired about since the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth started."

"Now, just with people from the Immortal Path Domain awakening, how could someone release Alpha Class Information."

"Chaos Qi? Someone wants to inquire about Chaos Qi information!"

"Could it be someone has cultivated Chaos Qi? Merely in the Immortal Path Domain, and someone has cultivated Chaos Qi?"

The entire Wanxiao Hall suddenly became noisy.

"Silence!" Suddenly, a voice full of authority resonated, and with the command, the whole hall immediately quieted down.

An elder with a majestic appearance swept his gaze around; in the hall, everyone who made eye contact with the elder felt as if their eyes were being pierced by a sharp blade and quickly bowed their heads.

"Everyone, continue with your tasks." The elder left a single sentence before turning around and flying out, entering a separate hall behind Wanxiao Hall.

After Cao Zhen, who was in the All-knowing Building, left the room, he no longer manipulated his avatar but instead opened China Cloud and quickly connected with Demonic Lord Qing Shi.

This Grand Hall was larger than the front Wanxiao Hall, yet within the entire hall, there was only one person and a giant copper mirror.

"Sect Hierarchy."

Upon entering the Grand Hall, the elder respectfully bowed towards the front, saying, "A disciple just transmitted a message..."

"I am aware." The person in front of the Grand Hall turned around, revealing a beautiful face.

In her eyes, there seemed to be endless charm, and just with a glance, one could feel a sense of being enamored.

Seeing the Sect Hierarchy turn around, the elder quickly bowed his head, not daring to look directly at her. Although Wanxiao Sect's temporary hierarchy was young, not even a thousand years old, her cultivation base was terrifyingly strong, reaching the Immortal Path Domain before the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth. Among all in the Immortal Path Domain of Wanxiao Sect, there was no one to rival her, not even close.

Even more terrifying was her method, which could unconsciously trap people in her spell.

"Inquiring about Chaos Qi, indeed interesting, truly interesting."

Lord Wanxiao looked at the elder and said, "To inquire about Chaos Qi, surely means he has also cultivated Chaos Qi. I wonder who, in the Immortal Path Domain, has obtained Chaos Qi and started cultivation."

Isn't he looking for information about Chaos Qi? Tell him that within the River of All Realms in the Qian Sky Dangerous Land, there is Chaos Qi.

As for the exact location within the River of All Realms, he will have to find it himself, as we, the Wanxiao Sect, cannot determine the precise spot either."

Through China Cloud, Cao Zhen looked at the woman before him, slightly frowning, wondering if she really knew where Chaos Qi could be found.

However, the address given was too vague.

Though he hadn't been to the River of All Realms, he had heard others speak of it. The River of All Realms is a place within the Qian Sky Dangerous Land, and it is not just a single river; there are countless rivers. It's named so because of the various demonic beasts and non-human races found there.

The area of the River of All Realms, it is said, is even larger than a province of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty; how could one search for it?

"Understood by your subordinate." In the grand hall, the elder respectfully responded and inquired, "Then, Sect Hierarch, how much should we charge for the information fee?"

The Sect Hierarch casually replied: "Twenty Yellow Level Mid Grade Treasures or equivalent valuables."

"What?" The elder raised his head abruptly, looking at the Sect Hierarch in shock, and exclaimed, "Sect Hierarch, isn't this price a bit too low."

Twenty Yellow Level Mid Grade Treasures aren't of low value, but the issue is that the inquiry is about Chaos Qi. Such information isn't something that can be paid with Yellow Level Treasures. At the very least, it would require treasures at the Mysterious Rank.

Upon hearing this, Cao Zhen's face immediately showed an expression of clear understanding. Was Demonic Lord Qing Shi worried he couldn't provide enough valuables, deliberately lowering the price?

Chapter 1743: Delegation

She wants me to go?

Why would she do that? Or is this place too vast, making it difficult for her as well to locate where exactly the Chaos Qi is, so she wants me to go instead.

Or perhaps, there's some danger related to the Chaos Qi here, and she wants me to take the risk first.

"Are you questioning this Sect Hierarchy?" Lord Wanxiao looked at the elder with a smile, but upon seeing her smile, the elder involuntarily shivered and instantly knelt down on the ground, "Subordinate dares not, subordinate dares not, subordinate absolutely has no intention of questioning the Sect Hierarchy."

"Why are you kneeling? Could this Sect Hierarchy eat you?" Lord Wanxiao took a few steps forward and halted in front of the elder.

The elder, with his head lowered, could only see a pair of fair, jade-like feet, yet even a pair of feet exuded a sense of extreme perfection.

But in his heart, there was no sense of desecration, he didn't even dare to look at those jade feet, his whole face almost pressed against the ground.

Suddenly, in his ear, the Sect Hierarchy's voice, full of magnetism, sounded: "Stand up."

The elder, who existed within the Immortal Path Domain, trembled violently upon hearing those three words.

Soon, the Sect Hierarchy's voice came again.

"What's wrong? Still not standing up, do you want me to say it a second time?"

"No, subordinate was wrong, subordinate was wrong."

Hearing this, the elder hastily stood up, yet his head remained lowered, not daring to look at the woman.

Lord Wanxiao gently shook her head, sighed, and said: "You are, after all, an existence within the Immortal Path Domain, and you rank among the top five in our Wanxiao Sect, with your demeanor, how can I entrust the Wanxiao Sect to you?"

"What? Sect Hierarch you..." The elder, hearing the last few words, turned his head in astonishment towards the incredibly beautiful woman in front of him.

"What's there to be surprised about? This Sect Hierarch has matters to deal with and must leave for a while. Among the masters of our Wanxiao Sect, the one I trust most is you.

Therefore, naturally, Wanxiao Sect is entrusted into your hands."

Cao Zhen suddenly felt a jolt, for this woman to leave, it must be to go to the River of All Realms, indeed, this woman wants him to go there.

The elder was utterly stunned, for a moment he didn't know what to say, as the woman in front of him, being the temporary Sect Hierarch of Wanxiao Sect, was supposedly not allowed to leave casually.

Seeing her wanting to leave, who dares to stop her? Who dares to utter a word against!

However, the woman claiming that she trusted him the most was sheer nonsense.

Indeed, he was one of the top five strongest in the Wanxiao Sect currently, but apart from him and the Sect Hierarch, there were three others.

One of them was extremely mysterious, and it's unknown what things they did.

He had no authority to inquire.

But the remaining two were direct disciples of the Sect Hierarch, one of them even being the Sect Hierarch's uncle, how could she trust him more?

The only possibility for the Sect Hierarch to let him temporarily manage the sect is that the Sect Hierarch and the other two masters would all be leaving Wanxiao Sect.

They have just awoken, why would the Sect Hierarch and they be in such haste to leave Wanxiao Sect?

Is it a plan long in the making, or is it because of some sudden news, because someone is seeking Chaos Qi?

He dared not speculate, knowing too much was of no benefit to him.

Suddenly, the Sect Hierarch's voice came again.

"You may go now."

Upon hearing the voice, the elder felt like he had been given a reprieve and promptly turned to leave the grand hall.

As the doors closed once more, a middle-aged man quickly stepped out from a side chamber in the hall, looking at the woman with some concern and asked: "Sect Hierarch, will Elder Dong suspect that we are going to the River of All Realms to seek Chaos Qi?"

"So what if he does?" The woman revealed a cruel smile, looking at the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man immediately understood, nodding repeatedly: "Subordinate knows what to do."

"Uncle..." The woman shook her head helplessly, "You are my own uncle, calling me Sect Hierarch is fine, but why still refer to yourself as subordinate."

By the way, has there been any news regarding the person I sent you to investigate, who possesses an Innate Allure Bone and is also a Charm Immortal Body?"

"No." The middle-aged man shook his head helplessly and said, "Previously, we had some information that within the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, there was a Charm Shadow Demon who seemed to have an Innate Allure Bone and was also a Charm Immortal Body.

However, the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect was soon destroyed, and there has been no further news of the Charm Shadow Demon.

However, we can confirm that the Charm Shadow Demon is still alive."

"Since she is still alive, then seek her, remember, I want her alive." Lord Tianshao had been wearing a faint smile, and only after the middle-aged man disappeared did the smile fade, her eyes revealing a complex expression.

"The Soul Breaking Demonic Sect is just gone, and those people of yours are useless, after so long, they still haven't taken over the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

As for the Chaos Qi, I'd like to see who has cultivated Chaos Qi within the Immortal Path Domain!"

She stretched out her slender fingers, gently rubbed her forehead, murmuring to herself: "And also, Immortal Ying Shao, since awaking, she vanished.

She has her own mission, even I don't know what she's up to. Wanxiao Sect really does have many secrets.

And that's just Wanxiao Sect's presence in the Eastern Province, in the Central Continent, Wanxiao Sect's might is even greater."

As her words fell, she headed towards the back, seemingly preparing for departure.

Chapter 1744: The Price of Chaos

Cao Zhen was completely stunned. This woman, is she also related to the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect? A spy? Or what's going on?

And what does she want with someone with an Innate Allure Bone?

Mesmerizing Demon?

He himself didn't know anything about a Mesmerizing Demon in the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect.

His incarnation in the All-knowing Building waited for a quarter of an hour before the young disciple who had entered the room earlier finally returned.

"Sorry to keep you waiting, Immortal." He clasped his hands at Cao Zhen and said, "Our Wanxiao Sect has sent back a message. If you provide twenty Yellow Level Mid Grade Treasures, or equivalent resources, we can tell you where the Chaos Qi is."

"Hmm?"

Cao Zhen deliberately showed a look of surprise in his eyes, as if he was shocked. The other party really knew where the Chaos Qi was.

Then he deliberately shook his head and sighed, "That's too much. I can't afford it. Can you make it a bit cheaper?"

The disciple in the All-knowing Building instantly widened his eyes. Can't afford it? And still wants a discount?

"Sorry, Immortal, our Wanxiao Sect's rule is never to bargain." If this person can't afford it, it means he won't be receiving any reward.

How can he come to seek information without being able to pay!

Without money, what information is he seeking!

"Forget it, since that's the case, I'll go back first to collect it. Twenty Yellow Level Mid Grade Treasures is really too expensive."

As Cao Zhen spoke, he sighed again deliberately, turned and walked out of the All-knowing Building, then left at the fastest speed. After hiding in a secluded cave, he once again opened the China Cloud, observing Demonic Lord Qing Shi, who apparently was preparing to leave the Wanxiao Sect. He wanted to see whether Demonic Lord Qing Shi would leave the Wanxiao Sect after learning that he had no money to buy information.

At Wanxiao Sect, Elder Dong entered the main hall again. If he could choose, he really didn't want to face their Sect Hierarchy, but the following news he had no choice but to report.

"Sect Hierarchy, that person did not buy our information."

"What?" Demonic Lord Qing Shi, who always had a smile on his face, showed a look of surprise, "He didn't buy our information, what did he say?"

Elder Dong immediately replied, "Reporting to the Sect Hierarchy, he said the price was too high, and he didn't have enough money to pay."

"Not enough money?" Demonic Lord Qing Shi was completely baffled, never expecting such an answer.

"Someone who has cultivated Chaos Qi can't afford twenty Yellow Level Mid Grade Treasures? How is that possible!"

This is interesting, really interesting.

Is the other side deliberately trying to test our Wanxiao Sect, or what?"

Demonic Lord Qing Shi muttered to himself, his face once again showing a hint of a smile, instructing Elder Dong, "Let's just wait a bit longer. If the other party comes after seven days, then give the information to them. If they don't come..."

Since they don't spend money to buy this information, let's just send the information to them.

Spread the location of the Chaos Qi."

"What?" Elder Dong couldn't help but exclaim, such important information, the Sect Hierarch is going to let everyone in the world know.

Then, he suddenly realized, hurriedly shouting, "I understand, I'll go do it right away."

"No need to rush." Demonic Lord Qing Shi gently waved his hand, uncharacteristically taking the initiative to explain, "I know you're puzzled, but actually, it's nothing.

Even our Wanxiao Sect only knows that the Chaos Qi is in the River of All Realms, but how vast is the River of All Realms!

Originally, I also wanted to use them to narrow down the area. But since they're not going, let's just disclose this information.

Don't worry, they won't get the Chaos Qi. Instead, they'll help us narrow down the area, and finally let us know the exact location of the Chaos Qi. Go on."

"Yes, I understand, Sect Hierarch is wise!" Elder Dong hurriedly retreated upon hearing this.

"Wise?" Cao Zhen shook his head slightly, this explanation is too far-fetched. If that's the case, why didn't Demonic Lord Qing Shi announce it earlier, and why only have it spread after I didn't buy the information?

Moreover, she still wants to wait another seven days.

On the surface, it seems she wants to see if there's a chance to make a profit, but in reality, no matter how I see it, it seems she wants me to go.

She wants me to go, but I'm just not going.

However, this woman too, she's spreading such information recklessly. Isn't she afraid that when someone from Ten Thousand Immortals Sect's Immortality Regainment Realm awakens, they'll come looking for trouble with her?

What is her backup plan?

Not long after, another woman appeared in the room. This woman's figure was very similar to Demonic Lord Qing Shi, even with a face eight or nine parts alike, and both had distinctly charming features.

The only difference was that Demonic Lord Qing Shi's charm was natural, born into the bones, while this woman's allure seemed later acquired.

The woman, upon seeing Demonic Lord Qing Shi, immediately knelt down below, respectfully saying, "Senior Sister."

"Hmm, you saw everything from behind just now." Demonic Lord Qing Shi looked at the woman and said, "Now, immediately take people to the River of All Realms, that person will definitely go to the River of All Realms."

Even if the matter is strange, since he just inquired about the information and now the news is spreading, he still won't resist going.

Anyone who has cultivated Chaos Qi cannot resist the temptation of Chaos Qi."

"Can't resist temptation?"

Cao Zhen sneered, I'm just not going, let's see what you can do.

Unknowingly, seven days had passed.

The intelligence network of Wanxiao Sect was indeed powerful. Although he was in the Eastern Wasteland and Wanxiao Sect was in the Eastern Province, in just a day, news had been transmitted from the Eastern Province to the Eastern Wasteland.

Even his disciple had found him.

"Master, I'm going to leave Four Treasures Peak." Xiang Ziyu looked at Cao Zhen, full of excitement, "Disciple just got the news, within the Qian Sky Dangerous Land's River of All Realms, there is Chaos Qi, which is the oldest breath between Heaven and Earth.

And I, as the protagonist, am bound to obtain the Chaos Qi. Master, you just wait for me to acquire the Chaos Qi, and then ascend all the way..."

Xiang Ziyu hadn't finished bragging when outside, the voice of Wanren Di had already arrived.

"Master, disciple needs to leave Hundred Peaks Sect for a trip." As soon as the words landed, Wanren Di burst into the room and, seeing Xiang Ziyu standing to the side, was momentarily stunned, "Senior Brother, you're here too, you... you wouldn't also want to go to the River of All Realms, right?"

Chapter 1745:

Cao Zhen thinks it's quite normal for Xiang Ziyu and Wan Ren Di to want to go to the River of All Realms. After all, unless Xiang Ziyu is deeply studying spells, otherwise, he absolutely can't stay idle.

Although Wan Ren Di is timid and has the weakest cultivation base among all the disciples, this guy is greedy and loves to adventure everywhere, so it's normal he wants to go too.

But the problem is, after these two, every one of their Four Treasures Peak disciples came one by one, all ten disciples came to him, requesting to go to the River of All Realms.

"No, why do you all want to go to the River of All Realms?" Cao Zhen looked at his group of disciples with disbelief, not to mention Ling Xi and Yi Sheng, who are not people who like to run around everywhere, yet they also want to go.

All around, as soon as the disciples heard him, they immediately began to respond.

"Master, that's Chaos Qi, we surely want to go."

"Yeah, Master, so many people are going, we also want to join the fun."

"Right, when treasures appear, isn't it normal for us to adventure?"

Looking at Ling Xi and others whose expressions were clearly unusual, suddenly Cao Zhen understood.

"It seems you all know I possess Chaos Qi."

He hadn't told all the disciples that he possessed Chaos Qi, but he had previously revealed to Ling Xi and a few others that he had Chaos Qi.

Evidently, these disciples wanted to go help him acquire Chaos Qi?

"Ling Xi, was it you who told everyone that I possess Chaos Qi?"

Cao Zhen looked at his senior disciple.

Ling Xi looked down, staring hard at her shoetip, not daring to lift her head to look at her master, indeed it was her who told this news to some junior brothers and sisters.

If it were during the Indestructible Period, she wouldn't have shared this with everyone.

After all, her master was powerful enough during the Indestructible Period, if Chaos Qi appeared, her master alone would be enough to seize the Chaos Qi.

But now, it's the Immortal Path Domain.

And her master seems unlikely to have broken through.

When they broke through and formed their own domain, everyone could sense the domain's presence, yet the master was always on Four Treasures Peak, and they couldn't feel the master's domain.

Thinking back, no matter during the Longevity Period or the Indestructible Period, her master would always break through immediately and far ahead of them.

But on the first day the Immortal Path Domain arrived, the master also didn't break through.

Overall, their master possibly indeed hasn't broken through.

Although she believes her master will definitely breakthrough sooner or later, the master now is after all only in the Indestructible Period, how could the master seize Chaos Qi.

All along, it was the master helping them.

Now they finally have a chance to help the master a little bit.

Cao Zhen looked at Ling Xi who was silent with a lowered head, then at the disciples all around, he was moved but also gently shook his head, "I understand your intentions, but currently it's not suitable to enter that dangerous area. There's definitely something very wrong with that dangerous area.

I can tell you, the reason this news spread is also because of me.

Previously, I went to All-knowing Building to inquire about the news of Chaos Qi, Wanxiao Sect people also said they knew where Chaos Qi was. Just their asking price was too high, I couldn't afford it, so I refused.

After that, within a few days, this news spread all over the world.

Clearly, they're trying to get me to go to the River of All Realms. They might not know who I am, but they must have guessed that I have cultivated Chaos Qi, they need someone who has cultivated Chaos Qi to go.

There's definitely a hidden motive on their part.

Also, to obtain Chaos Qi, probably someone who has cultivated Chaos Qi must go.

You haven't cultivated Chaos Qi, so whether you go or not doesn't have much significance.

To get Chaos Qi, I must go myself."

For a moment, everyone was stunned.

"So, the news about Chaos Qi at River of All Realms was spread by Wanxiao Sect." Bei Yan scratched his head in confusion, "But, they spread this news, letting the news originally only known to Wanxiao Sect become known to everyone, what's the benefit.

Moreover, they're not afraid if the master goes and really takes away the Chaos Qi?

Unless, they're sure, that even if the master has cultivated Chaos Qi, he still can't take away the Chaos Qi from River of All Realms."

"Why think so much, just go see it to know." Xiang Ziyu looked at his master, "Master, you know me, I'm the protagonist, things others can't get, as the protagonist I can certainly get.

At that time, my senior sister, junior sister, and junior brother shouldn't go, after all, they're not protagonists, going there is dangerous.

As for master, you should stay well in Hundred Peaks Sect, waiting for me to bring Chaos Qi back to you."

"Third senior brother, I may have stronger cultivation base than you, but when it comes to searching for treasures, I'm more skilled. But when I search for treasures, there usually are dangers. So, it's best to have a rather skilled senior sister to help me."

Linghu Gudu said while looking around, especially at Ling Xi and Ruo Yun.

After they entered the Immortal Path Domain, they hadn't compared notes yet, but judging from their cultivation bases when they were on Four Treasures Peak, he reckons that the strongest disciples on Four Treasures Peak should still be Xiang Ziyu, Ling Xi, and Ruo Yun.

Chapter 1746:

Xiang Ziyu likes to wander around by himself. He doesn't expect to hang out with Xiang Ziyu, and even if Xiang Ziyu invites him, he wouldn't dare to follow. Xiang Ziyu is too wild, and he's afraid that following him around would lead to his own downfall.

So, the best choice would be to join Ruo Yun and Senior Sister Ling Xi.

Of course, if Senior Sister Yan Yourong and Senior Sister Duo Duo could join too, that would be perfect.

Ling Xi, feeling Linghu Gudu's gaze, gently shook her head and said, "I won't go with Junior Brother. Ten Thousand Enemies Junior Brother has already invited me and Junior Sister Yan Yourong to join him."

Ten Thousand Enemies?

Linghu Gudu instantly glared at Ten Thousand Enemies with hostility.

Ten Thousand Enemies smugly raised an eyebrow at Linghu Gudu, inwardly chuckling. You think you're the only one who knows how to latch onto a big shot? Do you think I don't know how?

Besides, look at you, you don't even know how to latch onto a big shot properly.

You're aiming to latch onto the two thickest thighs at once.

What are you thinking?

Senior Brother Xiang Ziyu is on his own. The two strongest, Senior Sister Ling Xi and Senior Sister Ruo Yun, are together. What about the rest?

The two of them should be separated.

Then, Senior Sister Ling Xi and Senior Sister Yan Yourong, the earliest disciples of Four Treasures Peak, are more emotionally connected. I invited both sisters, and naturally, they agreed.

Linghu Gudu secretly gave Ten Thousand Enemies a "just you wait" look, then turned to invite Ruo Yun, "Senior Sister Ruo Yun, join me?"

He knew Ruo Yun even before they joined Four Treasures Peak. They joined together, so Ruo Yun wouldn't refuse him, right?

Without Senior Sister Ling Xi, being with Senior Sister Ruo Yun would be enough.

"No," Ruo Yun gently shook her head and said, "I plan to go by myself. In fact, before the news of Chaos Qi in the River of All Realms, I had already planned to go there. I'm quite interested in the myriad races of the River of All Realms. This time, I won't go with everyone."

Saying this, she cast a surprised glance at her teacher.

Her teacher is a reincarnated Great Ability, and in a previous life, a Daluo Golden Immortal. How could her teacher be stuck in the Immortal Path Domain?

Even if her teacher is walking a different path than others, it shouldn't be like this.

She couldn't figure out what path her teacher chose, to be trapped in the Immortal Path Domain.

However, she believes her teacher can break through eventually. Her teacher was a Daluo Golden Immortal in a past life!

"What?"

Linghu Gudu was completely dumbfounded. Ruo Yun refused too?

So, out of the three big shots at Four Treasures Peak, he didn't gain favor with any.

Bei Yan looked at Linghu Gudu, who was repeatedly rejected, and couldn't help but burst into laughter: "Linghu Junior Brother, people often say there's no wrong title, just wrong names. I find not even your name is wrong; you're destined to be solitary.

Otherwise, change your name to Linghu Chengshuang or Linghu Xuduo?"

Cao Zhen looked at his noisy disciples and sighed helplessly: "Wait a moment. I've already told you, the Chaos Qi in the River of All Realms can only be acquired by those who cultivate Chaos Qi.

And I've warned you it might be a trap, yet you're still going? Xiang Ziyu is... well, he's always like this, let's not talk about him.

Ruo Yun wanted to go before, so she's not concerned. But what about you guys, what's this all about?"

Ling Xi heard this and lowered her head again, trying to find her toes, while Yan Yourong glanced at Ten Thousand Enemies, signaling him with her eyes to speak up.

Ten Thousand Enemies, feeling Yan Yourong's gaze, immediately started to defend: "Master, we also planned to go out exploring. You know my cultivation base is weak, so bringing along two Senior Sisters is reasonable, right?"

Linghu Gudu heard this and quickly nodded in agreement: "Yeah, yeah. That's what we thought, we wanted to venture out for an adventure.

As someone in the Earth Immortal Realm, to grow, we must take risks and find our opportunities."

"Don't say 'we'," Bei Yan ruthlessly interrupted, "you're by yourself, don't use 'we'."

Cao Zhen was really at a loss with these disciples.

"So, you still want to go. I can't persuade you otherwise. Since that's the case..." Cao Zhen glanced at Bei Yan and said: "Bei Yan, you go with Linghu Gudu."

Bei Yan was taken aback, incredulously pointing at himself and asked, "Me? Master? I've already planned to go with Jing Yao. We're going together."

He planned to venture with Qiao Jingyao and enjoy their time alone. Adding Linghu Gudu unexpectedly, what's that about?

Beside him, Linghu Gudu looked at Bei Yan, as if swallowing a fly, feeling uncomfortable. Instantly, his mood brightened, and he eagerly said, "Yes, Senior Brother Bei Yan, let's go together. With you, I'll feel more at ease."

You just mocked me, now it feels good, doesn't it?

"Alright, no more discussions, it's settled."

Since these disciples insist on going, he can only ensure their safety as much as possible. Since he hasn't broken through yet, his combat power might not be better than the disciples' now, so he must ensure their team combinations are more reasonable.

Chapter 1747:

Among all the disciples, Linghu Gudu is definitely the most dangerous one. Seeking fortune in danger is unpredictable, and he definitely can't do it alone.

As for Bei Yan's strange evil chicken, it actually has the ability to foresee danger, so pairing Bei Yan with Linghu Gudu is the best choice.

Or perhaps...

He looked next to Yi Sheng and said: "Yi Sheng, you should go along with them."

With that, the four of them would be enough.

As for the remaining Zhu Peng, there's no need to think; he will definitely be with Duo Duo, and they should also look for Liao Youdi from Azure Pheasant Peak.

These three have been together ever since joining the Hundred Peaks Sect.

"Remember, it's different now. Although you've entered the Immortal Path Domain, you're far from its peak and can't act as recklessly as before."

Cao Zhen, seeing everyone about to leave, still felt uneasy and offered some advice.

"Master, rest assured, I will take good care of them. When I return, I'll definitely become the extreme existence of the Immortal Path Domain, after all, I'm the protagonist."

As Xiang Ziyu spoke, he turned around and flew out from Four Treasures Peak, having successfully improved his spells.

The disciples from Four Treasures Peak quickly left the Hundred Peaks Sect, flying toward the distance.

At the same time, many disciples from within the Hundred Peaks Sect also prepared to try their luck, but upon learning that the disciples from Four Treasures Peak had already gone out, many top experts decided to stay.

Flying Immortal Peak.

Since meeting Shen Lidi, Wang Yijian had focused all his energy on Shen Lidi, who was the hope of Flying Immortal Peak.

Although Liè Yàn was also strong and talented enough, what he cultivated wasn't particularly suitable to guide Liè Yàn.

But soon, he realized that Shen Lidi wasn't the most orthodox Flying Immortal Peak inheritor.

Initially, Shen Lidi did cultivate the techniques and spells of Flying Immortal Peak, but after the merger of the Hundred Peaks Sect and Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, Shen Lidi found a legacy in the cave mansion of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect that was extremely fitting for him.

Thus, Shen Lidi's cultivation techniques and spells began to change.

Then Wang Yijian thought, even if he couldn't directly guide, he was still an existence within the Immortal Path Domain, with years of experience to guide Shen Lidi on how to consolidate his Immortal Path Domain.

As it turned out, Shen Lidi, with the formation map refined by Cao Zhen in his hand, consolidated his Immortal Path Domain in no time.

This peak master and mentor, he didn't have a chance to guide at all.

However, upon discovering Shen Lidi had no intention of going to the River of All Realms, he felt that as a mentor, he finally had a chance to be useful.

"Lidi, you really should visit the River of All Realms. After all, in the path of cultivation, you can't always stay in your own sect and bury yourself in cultivation; you need to constantly go out to seek your opportunities."

"Yes, disciple knows and should go out to find opportunities. But now is not suitable," Shen Lidi gently shook his head, "The disciples of Four Treasures Peak have all gone out, and our Hundred Peaks Sect has far fewer top experts. We must keep enough experts to guard against accidents.

Just right, I've just made a breakthrough and need to continue honing myself. When they return, the disciple will go out to dangerous places to seek my opportunities."

Not only Shen Lidi, but also Liè Yàn, Li Ke, and they all chose to stay in the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Li Ke even specially went to the Hundred Peaks Sect, looking at Cao Zhen with a strange expression: "I've been observing the situation at Four Treasures Peak all along, but I find that I haven't seen your domain emerge from Four Treasures Peak. Don't tell me you haven't broken through to enter the Immortal Path Domain?"

Facing Li Ke, Cao Zhen immediately entered an extremely relaxed state, saying with exasperation: "You know it, then don't say it out loud and rub salt into my wound."

Throughout the Hundred Peaks Sect, even the entire Eastern Province, almost everyone knows he is a reincarnated great ability, but the problem is, he's not a reincarnated great ability at all, and to maintain this persona, he has to forcibly disguise as a reincarnated great ability.

Keeping up this facade is truly exhausting.

Only when facing Li Ke is it different, after all, Li Ke is the only one who knows he's not a reincarnated great ability, making him most relaxed when facing Li Ke.

"You really haven't broken through," Li Ke asked with some confusion, "How come you haven't broken through? Hasn't Long Aotian senior helped you?"

Over the years, with Cao Zhen doing one astonishing thing after another, especially with Long Aotian senior never appearing, she even doubted whether Cao Zhen really is a reincarnated great ability, or if there might not even be a Long Aotian senior, perhaps Long Aotian is also an invention of Cao Zhen.

After all, Cao Zhen has a special method to communicate directly with his disciples.

Then why can't Cao Zhen use this special method on himself?

However, now, she sincerely believes that Cao Zhen is not a reincarnated great ability. If Cao Zhen were a reincarnated great ability, would he still be confined by the Immortal Path Domain?

"To let Long Aotian senior help me, I also have to find him," Cao Zhen began to make things up, "Tell me, now that the Heavenly Dao is allowing more powerful forces to exist over time, theoretically Long Aotian senior should appear more frequently, but in recent times, his appearances have become less and less frequent.

Chapter 1748:

Since he taught me to refine those formation maps, he completely disappeared. You know, my cultivation is quite chaotic. Long Aotian, the senior, said earlier not to worry, that he could help me condense my own domain. But now, he has directly vanished."

Cao Zhen spread his hands and said, "What can I do? I can only keep waiting. I can only hope now that Long Aotian did not encounter any accident, otherwise, I might really be trapped in the Immortal Path Domain for a lifetime."

"No way, Long Aotian senior has so many means, how could he suddenly die? Perhaps Long Aotian senior had some urgent matter, once he's done, he should contact you." Li Ke could only comfort Cao Zhen in this way.

She chatted with Cao Zhen for a while, until the sky darkened, then left Four Treasures Peak and returned to Vermilion Bird Peak.

Previously, at one time, there was a crowd of disciples on Four Treasures Peak, making it extremely lively. But now, as the disciples left, and Li Ke returned to Vermilion Bird Peak, Cao Zhen felt a rare sense of solitude.

Little Yin Dragon was still on Four Treasures Peak, but Silverdim Dragon also had his little peacock.

"Truly lonely."

Cao Zhen gazed at the moon in the sky, opened China Cloud, and observed one by one the users he had connected to.

His parents were currently traveling, over the years they had visited every mysterious place on Earth, places like Bermuda, Tianshan, Shennongjia... they had traversed them all.

He did not disturb his parents and quickly began to check on his disciples.

Ling Xi and others were on their way.

Star Lord Hao Yue was cultivating in the Eastern Wilderness Sect.

As experts in the Immortal Path Domain awakened, Star Lord Hao Yue handed over the position of Sect Hierarch and focused solely on cultivation. Currently, the sect leader of the Eastern Wilderness Sect was the former Sect Leader of the Divine Dao Sect, Shen Daozi.

The Supreme Elder of the Hundred Peaks Sect had said before, that the strongest person in the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty was the Grand Preceptor, and the first person below the Grand Preceptor should be Shen Daozi.

"Speaking of it, the Grand Preceptor hasn't awakened yet. I thought the Grand Preceptor would awaken in the Immortal Path Domain after all the Grand Preceptor once self-mutilated a few times, but has yet to awaken. Obviously, after self-mutilation, the Grand Preceptor exists in the Immortality Regainment Realm.

Perhaps, the Grand Preceptor is the only one in the Eastern Wasteland in the Immortality Regainment Realm.

After self-mutilation, still in the Immortality Regainment Realm, to what extent did the Grand Preceptor reach in the Immortality Regainment Realm before self-mutilation?

When the Grand Preceptor awakens, things will be much easier for me too."

Cao Zhen thought for a moment, then connected to the Demonic Lord Qing Shi through China Cloud, wanting to see what Demonic Lord Qing Shi was up to.

"Hmm? Demonic Lord Qing Shi has entered our Eastern Wasteland?"

Cao Zhen observed Demonic Lord Qing Shi rapidly advancing under the night sky, with a look of surprise on his face. Demonic Lord Qing Shi had gone through so much trouble to lure him into the River of All Realms, should she not be ambushing by the River of All Realms? Why has she instead come to the Eastern Wasteland?

Is she heading to the Eastern Wilderness Sect?

What is she doing at the Eastern Wilderness Sect?

Cao Zhen was curious and simply kept watching Demonic Lord Qing Shi instead of attending to other matters.

Soon, he furrowed his brows again.

After arriving outside the Eastern Wilderness Sect and waiting for a while, Demonic Lord Qing Shi did nothing, then turned and left.

"What kind of maneuver is this? She went such a long way to the Eastern Wilderness Sect, only to take a look and then leave? It's impossible that she just came to have a look at this time.

Is there something or someone in the Eastern Wilderness Sect she cares about?"

Cao Zhen couldn't figure it out.

He found that this Demonic Lord Qing Shi hid too many secrets.

As the news of the Chaos Qi at the River of All Realms spread, one great teaching after another, experts rushed towards the River of All Realms.

It's not just the experts of the Immortal Path Domain, even those in the Indestructible Period and Longevity Period began to fly towards the River of All Realms.

After all, that is Chaos Qi.

In the legends, it is the earliest existence of qi in the world, all qi evolved from Chaos Qi.

After three more days, Cao Zhen finally couldn't resist anymore.

"No, I still have to go and see. Anyway, I've connected to Demonic Lord Qing Shi, I know all her schemes, I know all her arrangements, what do I have to fear?"

At worst, I just won't go as Cao Zhen."

He quietly let an avatar from the Hundred Peaks Sect stay at Four Treasures Peak, and he himself quietly left the Hundred Peaks Sect, changed his appearance, and headed towards the Eastern Province.

If others saw him, especially if they realized he hadn't entered the Immortal Path Domain, who knows how many would make a move on him.

After all, he was too famous in the Eastern Province, everyone in the Eastern Province knew he was a reincarnated great ability, and a terrifying one at that.

A reincarnated great ability not yet in the Immortal Path Domain, in others' eyes, wasn't it just a walking treasure trove?

However, not appearing as Cao Zhen also had some troubles, he couldn't cast the Five-thunder Righteous Method and other spells, nor could he use treasures like the Silver Light Wings.

Even his Immortal Mountain, he dared not let it stand too high.

The Eastern Wasteland is quite far from Qian Sky Dangerous Land, even with his current cultivation base, it still took him a month of flying to reach the Qian Sky Dangerous Land. Of course, if he flew with all his might, it wouldn't take so much time, but the issue was, he didn't dare to fly with all his might.

Qian Sky Dangerous Land, like the Fourth Dangerous Terrain, also has multiple pathways, and now outside the Qian Sky Dangerous Land, there are Earth Immortal Realm beings constantly flying into the dangerous land, and all are entering through one channel into the Qian Sky Dangerous Land.

Chapter 1749: The Fifth Danger Zone

The Qian Sky Dangerous Land is different from the Fourth Dangerous Terrain. The Qian Sky Dangerous Land has been explored countless times. Although no one has explored the entire dangerous land, they know which route to take to enter the dangerous land from the River of All Realms, the closest way.

Cao Zhen followed the group into the dangerous land.

Like him, those who haven't yet entered the Immortal Path Domain but enter the dangerous land alone are not many, but not nonexistent, so no one paid attention to him.

The name of the Qian Sky Dangerous Land reportedly originates because this dangerous land is so vast, aside from the Fourth Dangerous Terrain in the Eastern Wasteland that appeared later, Qian Sky Dangerous Land is the largest among the other three dangerous lands.

He never understood why no one in the Eastern Province could explore the entire dangerous land and how they determined that Qian Sky Dangerous Land was the largest Immortal Land.

But once he entered the Qian Sky Dangerous Land, he also felt that this was indeed the largest dangerous land in the Eastern Province.

Upon entering the dangerous land, what lay before his eyes was an endless desert, with clouds in the sky appearing exceptionally high above the desert.

It felt like the heaven here was exceptionally high, exceptionally vast!

He even got a feeling that this dangerous land was much larger than the entire Eastern Province.

Even though it was a desert, and people could fly everywhere, everyone flew in the same direction.

The cultivators entering this place were obviously drawn to the Chaos Qi in the River of All Realms, and upon meeting, there were no conflicts; everyone flew towards the distance.

Gradually, Cao Zhen felt increasingly hot, and beads of sweat began appearing on his forehead.

Even though he was in the Earth Immortal Realm, normally he wouldn't be affected by external environments, unless it was truly too hot here.

Looking around, many of the flying cultivators also had beads of sweat on their faces, and some of those in the Longevity Period were sweating profusely.

"What kind of ghost place is this, really?"

Not far from Cao Zhen, among five cultivators flying together, one complained while flying: "We are clearly in the Earth Immortal Realm, yet we feel hot in this desert."

"The Qian Sky Dangerous Land is like this, and that's just during the day. At night, it will be exceedingly cold," a somewhat older cultivator next to him reminded, "That's why I suggested bringing more warm clothing and firewood."

This cold could freeze someone alive below the Earth Immortal Realm. Moreover, this air feels peculiar, as if it isn't truly at the extreme of coldness.

It's as if this world is special.

After entering this world, our immortal qi and demonic qi are not affected, nor is our physical strength.

Yet somehow, we seem to have become like ordinary mortals, fearful of cold, vulnerable to heat, even experiencing hunger."

Cao Zhen quickly learned just how cold it was that the cultivator mentioned.

As soon as the sun disappeared from the horizon and the moon rose, the previously scorching world drastically cooled.

Cold air swept in from all directions, making him shiver involuntarily.

Such a chill that even he could feel cold would freeze the air, but oddly enough, not even the sand grains on the ground held any frost.

It made one wonder if this cold air surged directly from inside their bodies.

Thus, as the cultivator said, here, all cultivators became like ordinary mortals, afraid of cold, afraid of heat.

With cold winds blowing all around, he instinctively wrapped himself tighter in his clothes and descended to the ground after flying a few more breaths.

At this moment, many flying cultivators around also descended to the ground.

After all, the cold is unbearable at high altitudes, the higher you fly, the colder it gets.

Despite being cultivators in the Earth Immortal Realm, they all walked on the desert sands, many shivering from the cold.

Numerous cultivators stopped, ignited firewood, and proceeded with torches in hand.

Some cultivators released spells to summon flames, but soon they ceased their spells.

"Still releasing spells?" A handsome man with a proud look glanced at several cultivators ceasing their spells, sneering at his companion, "These people clearly are entering this dangerous land for the first time.

Here, no spell can provide any warmth, only the most primitive torches and firewood can work."

Saying this, he looked ahead, "We're close, we should not be far from the oasis. Once we reach the oasis, it won't be as cold."

Cao Zhen again felt the vastness of the Qian Sky Dangerous Land. Ever since he entered this dangerous land, he had been flying, and even when night fell and he walked on the ground, his speed didn't slow much.

From entering the dangerous land till now, it has been eight hours, and he still hasn't crossed this desert.

After walking for an additional hour, he finally saw an oasis.

Though within this dangerous land, he felt cold like a mortal, feared heat, felt hunger, his physical strength remained unaffected, and his skills were unaltered. Even at night, he could clearly see the oasis.

Chapter 1750:

In this oasis, there were unexpectedly giant makeshift houses, but it was unknown who built them.

Inside these houses, the lights were bright.

After being frozen for a long journey, everyone quickened their pace upon seeing these houses and hurried inside.

Cao Zhen randomly picked a house and slipped in.

As soon as he entered the room, a wave of warmth enveloped him.

This was a very simple house, looking somewhat like those dilapidated temples, but different in that there were tables and chairs here, likely brought by some cultivators.

On many of these tables, food scraps were visible.

At the center of the house was a massive stove, beside which a cultivator continuously tossed firewood into it.

Meanwhile, there were several cultivators grilling skewered meat over the flames, turning them constantly with a delicious aroma wafting through the air.

"You, throw the torches out!"

"Hurry up, throw all the torches and firewood out, you want to choke us to death?"

As soon as Cao Zhen glanced around after entering the house, dissatisfied voices rang out, and each cultivator entering had already thrown their torches outside.

After entering this dangerous place, despite their cultivation base and physical strength remaining, they became like ordinary mortals, fearing the cold, heat, choking, and even hunger.

As cultivators of the Earth Immortal Realm, they could go a month or even half a year without eating, but now, the cultivators who just entered the house were famished, and upon smelling the aroma of grilled meat, many quickly sat down and started devouring various foods.

They apparently knew about the situation here and had prepared food early.

However, these foods were already cold, and though the house was warmer than outside with a lit stove, it still remained cold, making the food even colder when taken out.

Just as Cao Zhen found a place to sit, beside him, a cultivator took a bite of a cold roasted chicken, frowned slightly, gazed at the distant stove, and stepped towards it, saying to the few by the stove, "Excuse me, may I borrow the stove for a moment to warm this chicken?"

"Warm chicken? No problem." The man responsible for roasting meat by the stove looked back at the approaching cultivator, smiled, and said, "In exchange for a thousand liang of Immortal Stone."

"What!" The man holding the cold roast chicken widened his eyes, "I'm just borrowing the stove for a moment, and you ask for a thousand liang of Immortal Stone?"

The man sitting by the stove heard this, immediately showed dissatisfaction, rubbed his ears irritably, and said, "Your voice is too loud, you're annoying me; now it's two thousand liang of Immortal Stone."

Suddenly, another person sitting by the stove spoke with a fierce laugh, "What? Unconvinced? If you're unconvinced, go outside and settle it. You can't make a move in the house; otherwise, if you destroy it, everyone has to shiver in the cold."

Cao Zhen glanced at a few people; those around the stove wore identical attire.

People from the Sect of Ten Thousand Beasts.

Clearly, their strength was formidable, occupying the best spot.

Among the Sect of Ten Thousand Beasts, two had extremely strong auras, likely from the Immortal Path Domain.

Cao Zhen looked at the food he brought, feeling a headache for a moment; he always maintained the habit of eating, so his Qiankun Bag often contained food. But in this cold weather, these foods were far less appetizing than grilled meats.

If he were in the Indestructible Period now, he wouldn't hesitate to directly tell them to move aside.

But now...

If only he brought his disciples, they could have shared a bite.

As he felt troubled, a low whistling suddenly sounded.

In the next moment, their house shattered with a bang.

An icy, bone-chilling cold wind blew in.

Not just the house he was in, but all the houses in the desert were blown apart.

The wind started!

The most dangerous sandstorm in the desert!

A terrifying tornado, swirling with countless sand particles, swept in, instantly engulfing the entire oasis.

Cao Zhen immediately circulated mana, planting his feet firmly on the ground.

In just a breath, he was caught in the tornado, the gale howling. Though unable to be swept away, the icy cold breath attacked, making him involuntarily shiver.

"Damn, encountering a sandstorm!"

"We can't stay in this area; rush through!"

"Charge through the sandstorm!"

One by one, cultivators circulated mana, rushing forward to escape this sudden sandstorm; with their cultivation, they naturally feared not the sandstorm.

But the cold breath from the tornado was unbearable.

However, in the next moment, amidst the darkness, shadows suddenly appeared from afar. They resembled humans but were clad in armor darker than night, revealing only blood-red eyes.

Moreover, they had four arms!

"Four-armed beings, it's the Night Stalker Clan!"

"Not good!"

Once these Night Stalker Clan members appeared, they didn't immediately attack but surrounded everyone, constantly adjusting their positions, seemingly waiting for something.
