

My Master 1751

Chapter 1751:

"The Murderous Night Clan, a unique race in the Qian Sky Dangerous Land, and they seem unaffected by it."

"We cannot let them wait any longer. If we keep waiting, we'll be increasingly hindered by the cold breath."

"They're waiting for us to become frozen stiff before making their move!"

"Everyone, let's strike together and eradicate these Murderous Night Clan members first."

From among the cultivators, voices rang out, followed by spells gathering and blasting towards the direction of the Murderous Night Clan.

At this moment, whether they were cultivators or demonic cultivators, they had but one identity, human.

Yet, those from the Murderous Night Clan, upon seeing the humans make their move, did not directly strike out but quickly fled toward the distance.

Even if the Hundred Peaks Sect and Eastern Wilderness Sect had a special relationship, even if the Hundred Peaks Sect had helped the Eastern Wilderness Sect numerous times, when it came to acquiring treasures, the rules remained the same.

All divine thoughts were to belong to the Eastern Wilderness Sect, and out of the remaining treasures and resources, after selecting thirty items, it was only then that those from the Hundred Peaks Sect could choose treasures.

Cao Zhen still remembered back when he and the others fought fiercely over a single treasure. Now, he barely reacted to treasures of the Yellow Grade.

As for immortal herbs and immortal mines, the Eastern Wilderness Sect had Star Lord Hao Yue, who was a reincarnated great ability. How could he not know the value of certain immortal herbs and mines?

The most valuable immortal herbs and mines had long been emptied out by that guy.

Moreover, the Hundred Peaks Sect contributed many immortal herbs and mines, and as per previous discussions with the Eastern Wilderness Sect, he possessed the right to first select corresponding grade immortal herbs and mines.

After casually selecting a Yellow Level Mid Grade treasure, Cao Zhen began choosing immortal mines and herbs.

Although they were the same grade of immortal mines and herbs, their values varied, and this time, the Hundred Peaks Sect could still make a modest gain.

For the current Hundred Peaks Sect, it was a modest gain, but for the former Hundred Peaks Sect, it was a huge resource acquisition.

After completing the selection, he left with the others from the Hundred Peaks Sect.

The Eastern Wilderness Sect surely had many matters to attend to, so there was no need for him to stay and disturb them.

Although the Hundred Peaks Sect had ten experts in total, aiding the Eastern Wilderness Sect, no other forces took the initiative to cause trouble for the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Upon returning to the sect, Cao Zhen took out a large amount of resources and began crafting formation maps.

Previously, he had crafted a formation map for Ai Yunqi. At that time, he had only crafted that one formation map and six basic Supreme Unparalleled Formation Diagrams for him and his disciples, which almost exhausted the resources of the Immortal Soldier Workshop.

But now, he needed to craft more formation maps, and they had to be stronger.

Ai Yunqi was only at the Longevity Period back then, but now he and his disciples were at the Indestructible Period.

"I can't just craft formation maps for my disciples; Little Silver Dragon also needs one for insight, and Li Ke and Lie Yan should continue working with the formation maps.

Also, Ru Wenlin, he's acquired the righteous breath.

After all, the stronger the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect, the better, since they all belong to the Hundred Peaks Sect, and if they grow stronger, my prosperity also improves.

And Bi Yue, what Li Ke has, Bi Yue must have too.

I also need to re-craft the Supreme Unparalleled Formation Diagram for Ling Xi. The Immortal Path Domain, that already possesses a domain.

The Supreme Unparalleled Formation Diagram itself is somewhat like a domain. Actually, when it truly reaches the Immortal Path Domain, can the true power of the Supreme Unparalleled Formation Diagram be unleashed!"

His disciples were very skilled in formations.

But ever since entering the Earth Immortal Realm, his disciples kept consuming pills to rapidly enhance themselves; they also needed time to settle and cultivate. Besides, they fully realized their potential after consuming those pills, but they had not yet reached their limits; the disciples still needed to cultivate further, Bei Yan included. Thus, he didn't ask Bei Yan for help but crafted the formation maps himself.

While crafting formation maps, he also notified Bi Yue to prepare to come to the Hundred Peaks Sect, to comprehend the formation maps once crafted, and once the Immortal Path Domain arrived.

However, Bi Yue was not at the Dragon Chant Sect but had entered the Fourth Dangerous Terrain along with experts from the Dragon Chant Sect.

Days passed by, and the formation maps crafted by Cao Zhen began to gradually take shape.

In the blink of an eye, another year had passed, and above the Four Treasures Peak, clouds of tribulation gathered.

"Tribulation clouds?"

"Tribulation clouds have appeared in the direction of Four Treasures Peak. Has the Sect Master crafted something again?"

"Whether the Sect Master crafted a treasure or a pill is unknown."

Everyone looked up toward the direction of Four Treasures Peak.

At Four Treasures Peak, Cao Zhen had already gathered all of his disciples.

Beyond the disciples at Four Treasures Peak, Li Ke, Lie Yan, Ru Wenlin, Liao Youdi, and Shen Lid along with other experts from the Hundred Peaks Sect, flew over upon witnessing the Sect Tribulation.

They knew the Sect Master's strength was formidable, but since a heavenly tribulation appeared, they were uncertain of its immense power, so naturally, they came to assist.

Yet, moments later, in the void, bolts of lightning began crashing down, and before Cao Zhen could make a move, spells and magical lights rose beside him.

Blazing flames, piercing frost, sword qi seeming to slice through everything...

Chapter 1752:

In an instant, the heavenly tribulation in the void completely disappeared.

Cao Zhen looked at the people who had taken action, a look of satisfaction flowing in his eyes, feeling that all his hard work in helping these fellows enhance their power had not been in vain.

Look at it now, not only can I effortlessly win with my own cultivation base, but I can even just lay back and do nothing.

The current limit of power allowed by the Heavenly Dao is the limit of the Indestructible Period, yet the power of the heavenly tribulation that descended didn't even reach the limit of the Indestructible Period.

With everyone's efforts, the heavenly tribulations were soon dealt with, and as the tribulation clouds disappeared, the formation maps that had already been refined appeared before everyone's eyes.

"Alright, since you're all here, you can all take these formation maps. These were refined by me based on your cultivation techniques and spells.

However, there's no need to look at them now. You should first continue to cultivate and accumulate. After the Immortal Path Domain arrives, then you can look at these formation maps, which can help you enter the Immortal Path Domain more quickly, and allow you to gain deeper insight into your own domain within the Immortal Path Domain."

"What?"

"Enter the Immortal Path Domain more quickly and even continue to gain insight within it?"

The people around, hearing Cao Zhen's words, each showed a look of amazement on their faces, as the Immortal Path Domain and the Indestructible Period are different.

Transitioning from the Longevity Period to the Indestructible Period is not difficult; generally, once one's cultivation base reaches a certain level, one can break through.

Even those with average talent, who can't break through immediately, can slowly cultivate. After all, the lifespan of the Longevity Period is long enough, and they can eventually break through into the Indestructible Period.

However, after entering the Indestructible Period, breaking through to enter the Immortal Path Domain becomes much harder, and many cultivators find themselves trapped in the Indestructible Period, ultimately exhausting their lifespan and dying.

In the name Immortal Path Domain, the word 'domain' suggests that one must, based on the immortal body formed from one's Golden Core, cultivation techniques, and spells, condense a domain.

There hasn't been any notion of condensing a domain during the Golden Core Stage, Longevity Period, or Indestructible Period.

Suddenly having to condense a domain, even with the guidance from mentors, how is one expected to condense it right away?

Moreover, one must comprehend!

They have now connected with the Eastern Province and have heard many stories and rumors from there.

It is said that many geniuses in the Eastern Province, after entering the Indestructible Period, have been unable to break through.

There's even one who was considered invincible in the Golden Core Stage and regarded as invincible in both the Longevity and Indestructible Periods.

After entering the Indestructible Period, he was never able to condense a domain, and in the end, he exhausted his lifespan and died.

It can be said that before the Immortal Path Domain, good cultivation talent naturally meant a good chance to push through to the peak of the Indestructible Period.

But starting from the Immortal Path Domain, true talent is not just about cultivation talent; it also greatly depends on one's comprehension ability.

Comprehension ability is something that's hard to quantify.

Some disciples who seem ordinary might suddenly become enlightened, soaring to great heights.

There are also examples of this in the Eastern Province.

Even within the Dragon Chant Sect, which has good relations with them, there is such a person.

This person in the Dragon Chant Sect was considered very ordinary, never seen as exceptionally talented nor strong within their cultivation realm.

He even took fifteen thousand years to reach the peak of the Indestructible Period.

By no means could he be considered a genius.

However, after breaking through into the Immortal Path Domain, he soared to great heights and, within merely a hundred years, broke through to the Immortality Regainment Realm.

Previously, they heard many rumors that said their Sect Master could use pills to help disciples enter the Immortal Path Domain.

But the Immortal Path Domain is different; the Sect Master absolutely cannot refine pills to help Bai Feng Sect's people break through.

Indeed, their Sect Master did not refine pills, but instead, the Sect Master refined formation maps.

And from what the Sect Master said, after using the formation maps, it could assure that they would enter the Immortal Path Domain, and even make rapid breakthroughs within it.

The Sect Master's methods are just too marvelous.

"We also have?" Shen Lid looked a bit surprised at the Sect Master. Previously, the Sect Master had refined pills for them twice: once because they needed to pass a Sect Tribulation, and the second time to face retaliation from the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect. Both times required a large number of experts.

But now, they neither need to undergo a Sect Tribulation nor have any enemies, so there is no need for the Sect Master to refine formation maps for them.

Yet now, the Sect Master still gave them formation maps, and they are not people from the Four Treasures Peak.

If they were in the Sect Master's shoes, they believe they wouldn't be able to achieve this level.

Although there are few disciples in Four Treasures Peak, the Sect Master could surely recruit more disciples and give all these resources to his own disciples without anyone saying anything.

But the Sect Master did not do this; instead, he continues to help them.

After Cao Zhen handed out the formation maps to everyone, he gave a newly refined Unparalleled Formation Diagram to Ling Xi, allowing everyone to disperse.

Actually, even after the end of the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, the remaining periods were still special periods, but they were not counted as part of the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth because these periods were very short.

Chapter 1753:

Half a year later, the anomalies across the Eastern Province surfaced again.

The Indestructible Period ended, and the Immortal Path Domain arrived.

At the Hundred Peaks Sect, at the back mountains, Cao Zhen and a group of experts gathered here.

Suddenly, among the four living tombs, one exploded, and the figure of the Flying Immortal Peak's master, Wang Yijian, emerged.

Flying Immortal Peak is the first peak of the Hundred Peaks Sect, and the cultivation base of its master Wang Yijian surpasses those of all other peak masters.

Among the peak masters of the Hundred Peaks, he alone has entered the Immortal Path Domain.

Wang Yijian flew out, looking at the familiar and unfamiliar faces around him, and smiled at the crowd.

Everyone is here, which means the Hundred Peaks Sect still exists, and that's enough.

Almost the next instant, two more living tombs simultaneously exploded nearby, and two figures flew out—one young and one old, both exuding a terrifying presence, their aura even stronger than Wang Yijian's.

"Grand Elder."

"Sect Leader!"

Seeing the two, everyone respectfully saluted: "Greetings to the Sect Leader, greetings to the Grand Elder."

"Good, very good." The Grand Elder looked at the numerous disciples in front of him with a look of gratification, mixed with surprise: how are there so many unfamiliar faces among these disciples?

Are they all from the Hundred Peaks Sect?

When did the Hundred Peaks Sect have so many people? And these people's aura, are all at the Earth Immortal Realm?

So many at the Earth Immortal Realm?

Back when he fell asleep, even combined, the ten major sects of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty did not have so many at the Earth Immortal Realm, right?

And it's only been over a hundred years, yet the Hundred Peaks Sect has so many at the Earth Immortal Realm?

Moreover, among these Earth Immortal beings, their aura obviously isn't the Longevity Period, but the Indestructible Period, with quite a few even at the peak of the Indestructible Period, their aura surpassing even that of Tu Zhuque, Qiu Wuxing, and others!

What's even more terrifying is that these people's life energy is extremely vigorous.

These people aren't even three hundred years old, some even much younger.

Being at the peak of the Indestructible Period before three hundred years old?

What kind of talent is this? Before, in the Hundred Peaks Sect, only one person had such talent, and that was their sect leader Bai Fengzi.

What's happening? How does the Hundred Peaks Sect have so many geniuses?

Bai Fengzi looked at the crowd around, also full of surprise.

Before she could speak to inquire, the last living tomb left also exploded, and an elderly figure, slightly hunched, appeared in everyone's sight.

"Greetings to the Supreme Elder."

Including Bai Fengzi, everyone respectfully saluted this figure.

This is the oldest existence in the Hundred Peaks Sect, and also the one with the strongest cultivation base in the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Although their former sect leader was Bai Fengzi, before Cao Zhen's rise, their spiritual pillar was their Supreme Elder.

The Supreme Elder scanned his eyes across the familiar figures surrounding him.

"Very good, you are all here, very good. As long as everyone is here."

Nodding slightly, suddenly his eyes widened, filled with confusion at the overwhelming aura of these people—all at the ultimate of the Indestructible Period.

Among them, the aura of Cao Zhen and a few beside him was even more terrifying than he remembered of the Indestructible Period.

He knew Cao Zhen, and those few were Cao Zhen's disciples, he also knew.

But what about the others?

These others were also at the peak of the Indestructible Period, and their aura extremely strong, even stronger than Tu Zhuque, Qiu Wuxing, and others.

He asked Qiu Wuxing beside him, "Qiu Peak Master, are these... disciples that our Hundred Peaks Sect recruited later?"

He knew that Qiu Wuxing had awakened before them, so naturally, if asking someone, it should be Qiu Wuxing.

Qiu Wuxing immediately responded respectfully, "Supreme Elder, these are our disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect, they..."

Just as Qiu Wuxing was about to introduce these people's origins, the Supreme Elder straightened his once hunched back and interrupted loudly, "What did you say? Say it again, our Hundred Peaks what?"

"Supreme Elder, disciple means our Hundred Peaks Sect. The Hundred Peaks Sect is now past, and we have become a great teaching."

The Supreme Elder, Grand Elder, Bai Fengzi, and Wang Yijian all froze in an instant.

"A great teaching? How is that possible?"

"How did we become a great teaching? Our Hundred Peaks Sect's history is far from becoming a great teaching."

The four looked at Qiu Wuxing, unable to understand.

Qiu Wuxing stepped aside, allowing Cao Zhen to come forward and explained, "Actually, after I awoke, our Hundred Peaks Sect had already become the Hundred Peaks Teaching. As for how we became a great teaching, it's all because of Sect Master Cao. Sect Master Cao obtained the Thousand Year Instant Orb..."

Qiu Wuxing stepped aside to let Cao Zhen explain, but as Cao Zhen remained silent, he continued to explain about what the Former Millennium Instant Pearl was, as well as how the Eastern Wasteland and Eastern Province connected.

The four listened to Qiu Wuxing's words, their eyes widening more and more.

"So many things happened while we slept?"

"Unbelievable, our Eastern Wasteland is actually connected with the Eastern Province!"

"So, our Hundred Peaks Sect really is a great teaching now!"

Chapter 1754: Becoming a Grand Sect (Part 10)

"Great Teaching, we have finally become a Great Teaching." Elder Zhang wept with joy, "Master, ancestors, can you see it? Our Hundred Peaks Sect has become a Great Teaching, your lifelong wish has been fulfilled!

A Great Teaching, we are a Great Teaching!"

As he spoke, he even lifted his sleeve to wipe the tears from the corner of his eyes, then looked towards Cao Zhen. In the next moment, with a plop, he knelt down on the ground.

"Although I have not witnessed it with my own eyes, I am aware, if it weren't for the senior, our Hundred Peaks Sect could never have become a Great Teaching so quickly."

He knew that Cao Zhen was a Great Ability who had reincarnated.

"Supreme Elder, please don't." Seeing the Supreme Elder kneeling before him, Cao Zhen's figure flickered and he instantly appeared in front of the Supreme Elder, intending to help him up.

The Supreme Elder instantly felt a gentle force trying to lift him up, and the celestial energy within him surged out. In a flash, an even stronger force pressed down.

His heart was filled with amazement, for Cao Zhen's power was too strong. Cao Zhen was at the peak of the Indestructible Period, yet he himself felt strained to suppress Cao Zhen.

Just how far has Cao Zhen reached at the Indestructible Period?

Cao Zhen felt the force coming from his hands, and retreated helplessly. After all, the Supreme Elder was in the Immortal Path Domain, while he was only in the Indestructible Period. If the Supreme Elder didn't want to get up, he couldn't rely on strength to pull him up.

"Supreme Elder, there is no need for this." Unable to use strength to lift him, he could only quickly retreat to the side and persuade, "Please don't call me senior. I've abandoned my past life.

Now I am just a disciple of the Hundred Peaks Sect, while you are my senior. I cannot bear your courtesy.

As for transforming the Hundred Peaks Sect into the Hundred Peaks Teaching, long ago I discussed with the Sect Leader that since I am a disciple of the Hundred Peaks Sect, I naturally must help, for the Hundred Peaks Sect is my root.

Supreme Elder, please rise."

As Cao Zhen spoke, he even made a move to kneel down.

The Supreme Elder immediately waved his hand, and in an instant, a projection appeared behind him, as if a gigantic Mysterious Turtle completely enveloped the space where he and Cao Zhen were.

Cao Zhen instantly felt as if he had entered another world, with even his own aura being subtly affected, feeling as though it was out of control.

Soon a gentle force came, not strong yet unstoppable, causing his body to uncontrollably stand up.

Although he stood up, all the disciples from the Four Treasures Peak and the disciples of the Hundred Peaks Teaching, upon seeing the Sect Master attempting to kneel, also knelt down one after another.

"You all..."

The Supreme Elder helplessly shook his head and could only stand up. He could stop Cao Zhen alone from kneeling, but could he stop everyone from kneeling?

If he had the ability, he wouldn't be just in the Earth Immortal Realm.

"Alright, all of you rise." The Supreme Elder waved his hand, but the crowd did not immediately rise, instead looking towards Sect Master Cao Zhen.

Seeing the Sect Master nod, they all began to rise.

Cao Zhen finally looked towards Bai Fengzi with clasped hands, saying, "Sect Leader, I can no longer call you Sect Leader, but rather Sect Hierarch. Since you have awakened, the position of the Sect Hierarch of this Hundred Peaks Teaching should be yours."

"No." Bai Fengzi gently shook his head, looking sincerely at Cao Zhen, "The Hundred Peaks Sect grew into a Great Teaching in your hands; naturally, you should be the Sect Hierarch, not I."

Cao Zhen hurriedly shook his head, "That won't do. I am merely a temporary Sect Master, and I am still only in the Indestructible Period. You are a strong one in the Immortal Path Domain, so naturally, it should be you to be the Sect Hierarch."

Having been a temporary Sect Leader and a temporary Sect Master for so long, even with Nie Jie's assistance, it was still burdensome.

He did not wish to be the Sect Hierarch again.

Just as he finished speaking, a thought stirred in Shen Lid in the crowd, and he suddenly spoke, "Sect Master, did you not refine a Formation Map for us? After comprehending the Formation Map, we can all enter the Immortal Path Domain, so naturally, you can also enter the Immortal Path Domain."

He was a disciple of the Hundred Peaks Teaching, though when he joined, Bai Fengzi and the others were already asleep.

In his heart, the leader of the Hundred Peaks Teaching, the Sect Hierarch, could only be Cao Zhen!

He knew the disciples of Four Treasures Peak must think the same, but because of their masters, they might hesitate to say such things, so he spoke up.

Just as he finished, Liao Youdi also spoke up, "Yes, Sect Master, it is simply because you were waiting for the Supreme Elders to awaken that you haven't broken through, otherwise, you would have already broken through by now."

Cao Zhen immediately glared at the two, having nothing better to do than to open your mouths?

Can't you see I don't want to be Sect Hierarch?

Are you trying to block all my exit paths?

Wang Yijian looked at these two unfamiliar disciples speaking and immediately showed a displeased expression, "Which peak's disciples are these, and since when is it your place to decide who should be the Sect Hierarch?"

What do these people mean?

Are they trying to seize power directly?

Even though he had just heard that it was because of Cao Zhen that the Hundred Peaks Teaching had reached where it was today, he could still accept if Cao Zhen continued as Sect Hierarch.

Chapter 1755:

However, deciding the Sect Leader is up to the senior members of the Hundred Peaks Sect. When did it become the place for these young disciples to speak?

Chen Qingluan originally didn't intend to speak, but suddenly, Wang Yijian turned his attention to her disciple. A look of dissatisfaction immediately appeared on her face. She stepped forward and pointed at Liao Youdi, saying, "This is a disciple of Azure Pheasant Peak, so what?"

"Azure Pheasant Peak?" Wang Yijian's eyes showed surprise. This was a disciple of Azure Pheasant Peak, not of Four Treasures Peak?

Before he could react, Chen Qingluan pointed to the first person who spoke, Shen Lid, and said, "As for him, he is a disciple of your Flying Immortal Peak."

Wang Yijian was momentarily stunned. He had just been dissatisfied because he thought both of these disciples were both from Four Treasures Peak, full of Cao Zhen's disciples. But as it turns out, neither were disciples of Four Treasures Peak, and the one who spoke first was even a disciple of their Flying Immortal Peak.

A disciple of Flying Immortal Peak, he...

Wang Yijian looked at the unfamiliar male disciple before him. Although the other party was not fully unleashing his power, he was not intentionally hiding his aura either. He could sense that this disciple's aura was extremely strong, definitely the aura of someone at the Peak of the Indestructible Period!

Moreover, this disciple was so young, a genius, an extraordinary genius!

The more Wang Yijian looked at this disciple, the more joyous he became. He even walked directly to the disciple's side and asked, "You are a disciple of our Flying Immortal Peak? Who is your master?"

"Master." At this point, Nie Jie finally had the chance to speak and interjected, "Junior Brother Shen Lid was taken in by us as a disciple, and we believe we don't have the capability to teach him."

"Oh? Taken in by the master?" Upon hearing this, Wang Yijian's smile grew even broader, "No matter. Now that I'm awake, I can properly guide him."

However, Nie Jie, although you've advanced to the Longevity Period, you've been surpassed by many junior brothers, which means you're falling behind."

Upon hearing this, Cao Zhen immediately spoke apologetically, "Nie Jie has been serving as the Vice Sect Leader and Vice Sect Hierarch. Previously, Nie Jie was handling all sorts of sect affairs for our Hundred Peaks Sect, delaying his cultivation."

"Oh? So that's how it is." Wang Yijian nodded slightly. Such an interruption made it difficult to bring up Cao Zhen and Bai Fengzi's standings as Sect Leader any further. However, when he looked at the Hundred Peaks Sect, a hint of embarrassment was evident in his gaze. After all, it was the disciples of their Flying Immortal Peak who had just spoken up in support of Cao Zhen.

Bai Fengzi had already turned to the Supreme Elder and said, "Elder, you say..."

The Supreme Elder gently stroked his beard and slowly said, "Sect Master Cao, let the position of Sect Leader continue to be held by you. From what I see, our disciples hold you in high regard.

As for Qiu Yixue, she can serve as the Vice Sect Leader."

Qiu Yixue is the name of Bai Fengzi. Every leader of Hundred Peaks Sect is called Bai Fengzi. Now that Qiu Yixue is no longer the Sect Leader, the Hundred Peaks Sect is no longer a sect, but a Great Teaching, and therefore, it's natural not to use the name Bai Fengzi anymore.

Upon hearing this, Nie Jie's face immediately showed a hint of joy. Finally, someone would take over as the Vice Sect Leader, and he could finally be relieved of the burden.

Just as the smile emerged on his face, Qiu Yixue shook her head and said, "Supreme Elder, disciple, I don't want to be the Vice Sect Leader anymore. Being an elder is sufficient for me."

"No need." The Supreme Elder shook his head, "I know you have good talent. Actually, appointing you as the Sect Leader before was kind of a waste of your talent.

But didn't Sect Leader Cao just say? When he was Sect Leader, the Vice Sect Leader handled the affairs.

And there can be two Vice Sect Leaders. Just focus on your cultivation, and we'll find another for the Vice Sect Leader position."

Listening to the Supreme Elder, Nie Jie suddenly had a foreboding feeling.

Before he could think of how to speak, the voice of the Supreme Elder had already sounded, "Nie Jie, since you were always the Vice Sect Leader of Hundred Peaks Sect, you will continue in this role."

"Supreme Elder, this isn't appropriate." Nie Jie hurriedly said, "Disciple is still young. Being an interim Vice Sect Leader is fine, but for the Vice Sect Leader position, disciple worries about not performing well. Disciple..."

The Supreme Elder interrupted directly, "You've been the Vice Sect Leader for many years, you have the experience, how could you perform badly? Ultimately, the future belongs to you young ones, so it's decided.

Alright, everyone can disperse. Continue as you were before, do not mind the waking of us few old fellows.

However, I'm not familiar with the changes in Hundred Peaks Sect over the years. Could you send a few young people to inform us?"

"The Supreme Elder is right." Wang Yijian's gaze immediately fell upon his disciple, Nie Jie, and he said, "Nie Jie, you come and explain to us."

As soon as his words dropped, the Supreme Elder's rebuke sounded in the air, "Wang Yijian, although Nie Jie is your disciple, he is also the Vice Sect Leader of our Hundred Peaks Sect. Mind your attitude and tone."

Wang Yijian: ...

Cao Zhen quickly returned to Four Treasures Peak and immediately took out a Formation Map he had crafted, channeling his celestial energy into it.

Instantly, he quickly entered a profound state.

He felt his entire being lifting from the void, floating above the Hundred Peaks Sect, floating above the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, and vaguely, it seemed he had returned to Earth.

Chapter 1756 Epiphany

At this moment, he felt as if he understood many, many things.

Enlightenment!

He finally achieved enlightenment too!

Suddenly, Cao Zhen felt his thoughts becoming clear once again. He felt as if he was still in the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, and more profoundly, he sensed around him a surge of energies, including the power of Talismans, the power of Five Elements Energy, the power of Sword Qi, and the power of Yin Yang Qi...

These were the powers of those he had connected with.

Cao Zhen calmed his mind, using the immortal cultivation knowledge from Zhang Daoling, Jade Cauldron True Person, and others, and considering his own situation, he began to condense the Chaotic Power within, using it to propel the Age of Prosperity Qi.

Though because of lying and winning, his power or domain had become somewhat chaotic, he nevertheless possessed the Era Prosperity Power, all of which were parts of his prosperous era.

Moreover, he still had Chaos Qi, the origin of all auras.

Otherwise, he wouldn't dare let his Immortal Mountain be so chaotic, filled with various forces.

Cao Zhen gathered his strength, condensing these forces behind him, but in the next moment, these powers suddenly dispersed.

“Failed?”

Cao Zhen frowned, wondering why he had failed as soon as he began to gather power.

The domain of the Immortal Path Domain is closely related to the Golden Core condensed within, related to his Immortal Mountain, his Immortal Body, the cultivation technique he’s practicing, and the spell as well.

“I’ve already achieved enlightenment and understood many things, so I should be able to break through. Yet in the end, I couldn’t condense the domain.

Could it be because both my Golden Core and Immortal Mountain are incredibly chaotic, especially the Immortal Mountain, which is because disciples constantly lie and win various powers.

So, should I let my disciples enter the Immortal Path Domain first, and only then should I break through?”

Cao Zhen muttered to himself, looking at his disciples.

Around Ling Xi, waves of Talisman energy gathered, and in just a moment, these Talismans gathered behind her, forming a massive Formation, which looked extremely peculiar. Even he couldn’t discern what kind of Formation it was, but he could feel ancient auras emanating from it.

The Talisman Formation projected downward, quickly spreading, and in an instant, it covered the space where Ling Xi was.

Domain!

Ling Xi’s Domain had already formed.

Cao Zhen looked to the other side, at Xiang Ziyu, around whom his black and white humanoid shadows were his projection, his domain.

Besides them, Ruo Yun, Yan Yourong, Bei Yan...

The disciples of the Four Treasures Peak one by one each condensed their domains.

“Is this the domain?”

“I feel that within my domain, everything seems to be under my control.”

“No, senior sister, after I enter your domain, I can feel that I’m also influenced by your domain? But at the same time, my domain should also be affecting you, right?”

“Yes, once our domains overlap, they influence each other’s domain, impacting each other, but the domains won’t disappear.”

For the first time, everyone was excitedly researching the unique aspects of their newly formed domains.

“By the way, Master, what is your domain like?”

“Yes, Master, what about your domain? Let us see your domain too.”

“My domain... my domain is rather special, you will naturally know in due course.”

Cao Zhen looked at each of his disciples, his brows furrowed tightly. Even after his disciples broke through, he still felt a sense that he couldn’t successfully condense the domain at this moment.

Could it be because the disciples just broke through?

Or perhaps because the number of people he connected was a bit too many, he needed to wait for them to all break through first, or was it due to the Prosperous Age Picture Record, requiring everyone in the Hundred Peaks Sect to break through?

Chapter 1757

Cao Zhen, in the Fourth Dangerous Terrain, once saw a strange alien race, and even then he thought those aliens had human-like high intelligence. Now, he realizes that the Murderous Night Clan before him is clearly smarter.

These Murderous Night Clan members did not retreat entirely. They let everyone see them and constantly exert pressure on everyone.

Everyone rushed forward, unconsciously running for the time it takes two incense sticks to burn, through the cold night.

Initially, everyone was running in one direction, but under the pressure of these Murderous Night Clan, many began to change their routes, hoping to avoid them by opting for a different direction.

However, even if they changed direction, members of the Murderous Night Clan continued to pursue them.

The number of the Murderous Night Clan was not much less than that of humans.

Cao Zhen glanced around, had a thought, and also changed direction, running toward the distance.

Switching directions may not evade the Murderous Night Clan, but fewer people would be around him, allowing him to fully reveal his strength.

However, there were indeed too many people around. Even after changing direction, there were still cultivators around him.

Like him, these cultivators trembled from the cold while running; many had purple lips and pale faces, and their movements became extremely stiff.

Suddenly, in front of them, the Murderous Night Clan members no longer stayed at a distance but charged directly at everyone.

Instantly, waves of blood-thirsty killing intent rushed forth, powerful enough to stir gusts of wind and sweep up countless sand and stones.

In a moment, a member of the Murderous Night Clan was already in front of Cao Zhen.

These Murderous Night Clan members wore thick armor, revealing only a pair of eyes outside. To him, they all looked the same.

Seeming to sense that he only existed in the Indestructible Period, the Murderous Night Clan member before him was equivalently a human with an Indestructible Period existence.

Its four hands each held a thick iron hammer, which smashed down heavily toward Cao Zhen.

In an instant, four terrifying qi waves suddenly assaulted him, and he felt as if the air in front of him was being explosively crushed by the hammer's horrifying power.

Under the opponent's attack, there were no Immortal Mountains or Demonic Mountains behind him; it seemed to rely purely on the opponent's own force to smash down, but the might was no weaker than the spells of Earth Immortal Realm experts.

Behind Cao Zhen, a two-hundred-seventy-zhang Immortal Mountain suddenly appeared.

He couldn't fully unleash his immortal qi here as there were others around. If he released an Immortal Mountain over four hundred zhang without deploying his domain, others would surely find it odd.

He couldn't always fight without assuming Cao Zhen's identity, and once he did, word would spread across the land about his situation.

If anyone survives here afterward, they'll immediately suspect, when they compare a four-hundred-zhang Immortal Mountain without a domain, that he is acting under a false identity.

They might even know he has avatars, given that he left one avatar behind at the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Thus, he could only use a two-hundred-zhang Immortal Mountain; after pondering, two hundred seventy zhang was the best choice.

The Immortal Mountain appeared almost simultaneously, and in his hand, a sharp sword emerged, slashing at the falling hammer.

Even though it was clearly one sword slash, in the void, four sword lights suddenly appeared, stabbing into the falling Giant Hammer at the same instant.

Immediately, a clear sound rang out, the clang of four sword lights striking in perfect unison.

Since witnessing the Martial Arts Secret Book of the Star Lord Hao Yue, he gained much understanding of Sword Dao.

The Secret Manual benefited him even more than it did the Star Lord Hao Yue, as he used a sword whereas the Star Monarch used a curved blade.

After repelling the opponent with one strike, he quickly glanced to the side.

Beside him, a massive domain unfolded, resembling a wolf-like projection covering the ground. Within the projection, a stern-faced man howled at the sky, and immediately the Murderous Night Clan member within his domain visibly trembled.

Clearly, this Murderous Night Clan member was influenced by his domain.

In the next moment, he seized the instant to shoot a golden sword light straight at the Murderous Night Clan member's head.

Seeing the golden light about to strike this Murderous Night Clan member, it suddenly awoke, and at the last moment, blocked its head with its hands.

The golden light fell upon its hands as if colliding against hard metal, producing a crisp ringing sound.

Simultaneously, its hands instantly became a bloody mess.

“Awooo...”

The Murderous Night Clan member let out an angry roar, its body was shaken back a few steps, and then it suddenly crouched forward, with its unwounded hands now wielding javelin-like weapons, stabbing fiercely toward that Immortal Path Domain expert.

The Murderous Night Clan has four arms; even if two hands are injured, it still has another pair.

Cao Zhen glanced at the battle on the other side briefly, then quickly refocused, as the Murderous Night Clan member before him continued to charge after its attack was blocked.

Chapter 1758:

Four enormous iron hammers swung down, as if four Earth Immortal Realm experts were attacking simultaneously.

Moreover, the being in front was clearly not a human, yet in their attack, the four iron hammers were full of various changes, demonstrating that their mastery in the art of hammers was exceptionally deep.

Cao Zhen watched the direction in which the iron hammers were falling, swiftly dodging to the side. Although the opponent’s hammer technique was ingenious, after studying the martial arts secret book of the Martial Immortal, his swordsmanship had become more exquisite, and his understanding of martial arts had reached another level. He had many ways to dodge the attack in front of him.

However, as soon as he moved, his body stiffened slightly.

It was too cold; the chill had made his body somewhat unresponsive.

The attack that he could easily dodge in ordinary circumstances ended up grazing him, the massive iron hammer brushing past his body; he could even feel the biting cold emanating from it.

Too cold.

If not for his physical strength far exceeding the Indestructible Period, if not for having cultivated the Eight Nine Mysterious Art, he would have been struck by the hammer just now.

If even he was affected, what about others?

Cao Zhen truly did not expect that after becoming an Earth Immortal Realm cultivator, he would one day be affected by such an environment, where the cold would influence his speed.

The Murderous Night Clan seemed incapable of casting spells like humans; they fought humans entirely relying on their own strength and the weapons in their hands.

In contrast, human cultivators relied on their spells to prevent the Murderous Night Clan from getting close.

But not far from Cao Zhen, a woman in a white robe with short hair was wielding two swords, battling a member of the Murderous Night Clan. Beneath her was a massive dual sword projection.

Despite the icy weather affecting her movements, making them somewhat stiff, she held her ground against the Murderous Night Clan member equivalent to a human in the Immortal Path Domain.

As her longsword clashed with the Murderous Night Clan, a brilliant spark erupted, exceptionally dazzling in the dark night.

The physical strength of those in the Murderous Night Clan was clearly much stronger than humans, yet after their intense clash of swords, she was only pushed back five steps, while the Murderous Night Clan had to retreat ten steps to steady itself.

Her physical strength was even superior to this member of the Murderous Night Clan!

She was far stronger than this Murderous Night Clan member, which should be the strongest among the clan in this area, roughly equivalent to a human in the late stage of the Immortal Path Domain.

And she was at the peak of the Immortal Path Domain.

Despite being affected by the surrounding cold, she could still suppress the Murderous Night Clan before her.

She even had the energy to glance around.

Hmm?

Suddenly, her gaze landed on a nearby stranger, the Indestructible Period cultivator, and her eyes widened in surprise.

This person, such speed.

This should be an individual at the peak of the Indestructible Period, and the Murderous Night Clan member opposite was also of the same level. They were all affected by the cold, their movements sluggish.

Yet, even so, this human managed to evade the Murderous Night Clan's attack!

And that was a Murderous Night Clan member of the same cultivation level.

Their inability to cast spells meant their strongest advantage was their physical strength.

At equivalent cultivation bases, the physical strength of a human couldn't possibly surpass the Murderous Night Clan, even in the All-encompassing Sect.

But this human before her, how could his physical strength possibly be stronger than that of the Murderous Night Clan?

His speed being so fast, his physical body must be incredibly terrifying!

A two hundred and seventy zhang Immortal Mountain?

In the Indestructible Period, those whose Immortal Mountain could reach such heights should be very few; she wondered which Great Teaching's genius he belonged to.

Hmm? Another Murderous Night Clan member?

The woman glanced once and then no longer looked at the unknown Indestructible Period cultivator. The Murderous Night Clan member she had earlier pushed back was already rushing towards her again.

Cao Zhen was dodging the attack from the Murderous Night Clan member in front of him when suddenly, another Murderous Night Clan member charged at him.

"You guys are lacking in martial virtue, two against one."

Cao Zhen took a quick glance around, then suddenly pushed his legs against the ground, accelerating again to run further away; he couldn't keep fighting like this.

Continuing would mean getting colder and more affected, and who knew if more Murderous Night Clan members would come.

He accelerated towards the outside to escape.

Not just him, but each cultivator realized the situation, and they all fled outward.

However, the Murderous Night Clan wouldn't just let them escape.

One by one, the Murderous Night Clan members pursued closely.

The human cultivators fled and fought all the way, and gradually, more and more humans fell to the ground.

Luckily, after killing a human cultivator, the Murderous Night Clan would not immediately chase the remaining ones. Instead, they would first search the human cultivator's Qiankun Bag, take away their treasures, and then crouch beside the fallen body, as if draining their blood.

Thus, the number of pursuing Murderous Night Clan members was significantly reduced.

"Hah..."

An air-piercing sound resounded.

Cao Zhen swiftly dodged to the side, turning to see a Murderous Night Clan member holding a long spear, and another with four arms wielding four long knives attacking him again.

Chapter 1759:

Previously, the Murderous Night Clan member with the Iron Hammer had been left far behind by Chaye as he continuously ran.

Cao Zhen glanced around once more; under the pitch-black night sky, besides these two Murderous Night Clan members, he saw no other Murderous Night Clan members or any other silhouettes.

"Since it's just the two of you, then... die..."

A sudden, chilling murderous intent flashed within Cao Zhen's eyes, and the Immortal Mountain behind him, initially over two hundred and seventy zhang, quickly soared, surpassing four hundred zhang in height within moments.

In an instant, his full combat power was completely revealed.

A vast and boundless aura surged outward, causing the air in the vicinity to tremble wildly. Before he even drew his sword, it seemed as if this air had already been pierced by countless sword lights!

In the next moment, his Longsword flashed suddenly, and in an instant, the brilliant light illuminated the surrounding darkness, making it as bright as day.

As the Longsword swung, an endless sharp aura filled the space, and as the Sharp Sword cut through, it easily tore the space apart, revealing distinct cracks.

With just a single slash, Heaven and Earth seemed to change color, and this part of the space was instantly split into two!

On the ground, grains of sand and stone affected by the Sword Qi instantly turned to dust.

In front of him, the two Murderous Night Clan members fell heavily.

He was so cold; he didn't even bother with the bodies of the Murderous Night Clan members and continued to run into the distance.

Cao Zhen didn't know how long he had been running. His whole body was numb from cold, and he had lost feeling in his hands and feet, yet he kept moving forward mechanically.

Although the Murderous Night Clan was no longer beside him, he still didn't stop.

While running, a sudden light appeared in his eyes.

An oasis!

He saw another oasis. Although it was much smaller than the previous one, an oasis was still an oasis, and this oasis even had a wooden house.

Cao Zhen quickened his pace and rushed into the house.

The house wasn't big and was rather simple, but inside, there were two wooden tables and benches. Most importantly, there was a stove inside the wooden house, along with flint and firewood next to it.

The stove had traces of wood that had been burned.

"Evidently, someone stayed here last night, and they were considerate enough not to destroy the house after using it."

Cao Zhen shivered as he lit the wood. Although the Flames rose and the house isolated the outside Cold Breath, he immediately felt his body warming up.

Subsequently, he opened his Qiankun Bag, took out an iron skewer, threaded the meat onto it, and placed it over the fire to roast.

Amidst the crackling sounds, suddenly, there was a light creak from the door, followed by a gust of Cold Breath. The door was opened, and three people, two women and one man, walked into the room.

It's them...

Cao Zhen looked at the three approaching individuals, his eyes showing a wary expression. These were the three people who had been fighting not far from him earlier.

These three belonged to the All-encompassing Sect, and most importantly, all three were in the Immortal Path Domain, with the strongest among them being at the Peak of the Immortal Path Domain!

He himself had not entered the Immortal Path Domain, and if these three troubled him, it would indeed be troublesome.

Among the three, the woman clearly recognized him too, even letting out a slight exclamation.

Did this person escape?

She looked at the man sitting in front of the stove, roasting skewer meat, with a curious look in her eyes. She remembered clearly that the man before her was on his own and was only at the Indestructible Period.

Earlier on the way here, she even saw several dead in the Immortal Path Domain.

If someone in the Immortal Path Domain could die, how could someone at the Indestructible Period escape alone and even reach here before them?

This person is really interesting.

Beside the woman, the other two also looked at the unfamiliar Cultivator before them. Soon, their gazes fell upon the skewered meat roasting in his hands.

The meat skewer was grilled to a golden brown, with droplets of oil falling onto the fire, producing crackling sounds, making the two feel even hungrier.

Suddenly, the female cultivator among the two looked in Cao Zhen's direction and asked, "Dao Companion, could you spare some food?"

While speaking, her cheeks involuntarily reddened. She never thought, as someone in the Immortal Path Domain, she'd one day ask someone for food.

But the problem was, she was really hungry.

Since she began Immortal Cultivation, she had even forgotten the feeling of hunger.

Now, she finally felt this suffering once again.

"Of course, there's no problem, but wait a bit, the meat's not done yet." Cao Zhen smiled at the three. These three were in the Immortal Path Domain, and they could surely sense that he was only at the Indestructible Period.

In such a situation, the three surprisingly didn't rob him, instead asking him for some food. Just for this reason, he wouldn't refuse them.

Cao Zhen even opened the Qiankun Bag, taking out more meat skewers. "I only prepared these for myself earlier, this one skewer, let's share it, and I'll grill more."

"Thank you, Dao Companion." The three from the Sect of Ten Thousand Beasts said as they slowly approached the stove, extending their hands to warm up.

Chapter 1760:

The woman who had earlier asked for food spoke again, "By the way, I still don't know how to address you, Dao Companion?"

As she spoke, she looked at the other person's clothing, but found that there was no insignia on his clothes.

Cao Zhen gave a bright smile and casually said, "Ye Liangchen, just a loose cultivator. And you all?"

"The three of us are disciples of the Sect of Ten Thousand Beasts." The woman said as she pointed to the one with the highest cultivation base, "This is my senior sister, the Dual Sword Immortal, and the other is Senior Brother Dual Whip. As for me, you can call me Xun Jian."

"Oh, Immortal Xun Jian." Cao Zhen lightly turned the skewer in his hand, and next to him, the voice of the Dual Sword Immortal came through.

"Taoist Ye, it's no easy feat to escape alone. On the road, I saw quite a few experts in the Immortal Path Domain killed by the Murderous Night Clan."

As she spoke, she looked into the other person's eyes.

Loose Cultivator?

Indeed, there are many loose cultivators who enter dangerous lands for adventures; it can even be said that all loose cultivators enter dangerous lands to seek adventure. After all, unlike disciples of great teachings, they do not have inheritance or resources, and they want to break through by taking such adventures.

But the problem is, the person in front of her doesn't seem like a loose cultivator at all.

The physical strength of the other person is not something an ordinary loose cultivator can achieve.

"Speaking of it, it was also my good luck." Cao Zhen intentionally showed a fearful expression and said, "The Murderous Night Clan seems to choose appropriate opponents according to our strength."

Those experts in the Immortal Path Domain faced Murderous Night Clan members equivalent to their domain, whereas I faced those of the Indestructible Period.

That's how I luckily escaped. If it were the Immortal Path Domain Murderous Night Clan attacking me, I would have probably died in this desert sooner."

But the Dual Sword Immortal just stared at Cao Zhen and said, "Oh? However, I saw you before, Taoist Ye, being attacked by two Murderous Night Clan members."

"That's why I say I was lucky." Cao Zhen casually made up a story, "Earlier on the road, I also encountered a Dao Companion of the Indestructible Period, and one of the two Murderous Night Clan members went off to chase that Dao Companion."

He sighed lightly and said, "I don't know if that Dao Companion survived."

"Since they haven't arrived here, they likely perished." The Dual Sword Immortal said this and simply sat down beside Cao Zhen. She was really interested in this cultivator, particularly in his physical strength, and she couldn't understand why he had such physical strength.

After first seeing him, she even had the urge to act directly and force him to reveal the cultivation technique he practiced.

But she held back.

Because she thought of a possibility: could this person be playing the pig to eat the tiger, or intentionally hiding his identity for some special reason?

The All-encompassing Sect is the foremost body refinement teaching in the Eastern Province, but even they can't make their physical strength far exceed that of the Murderous Night Clan at the same cultivation realm.

They couldn't do it, and in the entire Eastern Province, only the Four Treasures Peak of the Hundred Peaks Sect could achieve this.

It was only after waking up that she learned about the Hundred Peaks Sect and about Cao Zhen.

She had even heard that Cao Zhen and Xiang Ziyu, during the Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills stage, had physical strength reaching the Golden Core Period Limit.

Moreover, the All-encompassing Sect had learned from many of their friendly Dao Companions that the disciples of the Four Treasures Peak had an extremely terrifying physical strength, and they even felt that the people of the Four Treasures Peak were physically stronger than those of their own sect.

In other words, the cultivation technique for body tempering at the Four Treasures Peak was stronger than theirs!

Their temporary sect hierarch during the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, as well as those of the Longevity Period and the Indestructible Period, had thought about exterminating the Hundred Peaks Sect to acquire the body tempering cultivation technique from Cao Zhen.

After all, the foundation of their All-encompassing Sect was their physical strength.

Now that there was a power exceeding theirs in physical strength, how could they remain unmoved?

But every time, they refrained from taking action.

The Hundred Peaks Sect was capable of producing numerous top experts in every period!

Even the Weeping Blood Demon Sect and the Soul Breaking Demonic Sect, two great teachings joining forces to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect, could not destroy it. In fact, the Hundred Peaks Sect counterattacked, wiping out one of the great teachings and forcing the other to hide in the Blood River.

Today, with the awakening of those in the Immortal Path Domain, their new temporary sect hierarch also considered attacking the Hundred Peaks Sect.

But since the Hundred Peaks Sect is a Grand Righteous Sect and the All-encompassing Sect also belongs to a Grand Righteous Sect, attacking them without reason seemed unjustifiable.

Moreover, the Hundred Peaks Sect was also friendly with the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect, so they did not directly attack the Hundred Peaks Sect.

But even for the Four Treasures Peak of the Hundred Peaks Sect, it's impossible to ensure that their people surpass and far exceed the Murderous Night Clan within the same cultivation realm.

Therefore, the person in front of her could only be one possible case.

He wasn't really an Indestructible Period at all, but someone in the Immortal Path Domain like herself, which is why his physical strength exceeded an Indestructible Period of the Murderous Night Clan.

Someone had come, hiding their Cultivation Base and even their identity. What was this person trying to do?

Or perhaps, what did he know?

Her heart stirred, and she took the initiative to speak, "Being alone in this dangerous land does seem rather perilous.
