

My Master 1891

Chapter 1891:

As for the Demon Clan, or rather the small world of these fox monsters, it seems much sunnier, with lush greenery in front of them. Further in the distance, they could see verdant hills, and the fragrance of flowers wafted from nearby, with the chirping of insects filling the air.

The three members of the Demon Clan seemed to have other matters to attend to. After placing the crowd here, they rose into the air and flew away.

Here, apart from Cao Zhen and the more than two hundred people who had just arrived, there were also a large number of humans, and without exception, they were all ordinary people.

After being placed here, the crowd went from panic to gradually getting accustomed.

One person looked around and, seeing no fox monsters, boldly said, "Everyone, it seems there are no fox monsters guarding us here. Let's go!"

As soon as he finished speaking, many of the newly captured people responded immediately.

"Right, it's just us here. Why should we stay? Why not run?"

"Let's go!"

A few people spoke and then stood up, ready to run into the distance. But soon, those ordinary people who had been here for some time spoke up.

"You want to leave? Where would you go?"

"Do you think we haven't tried? You can't get out at all. Do you even know where this is? According to them, this is the world of their clan. This is no longer the world we were in; you can't leave no matter what."

"Don't think about escaping. Even if you run five miles away, you'll find there is no exit, and you'll have to come back. We've all tried it. Moreover, consider this: if they brought us here, how could they possibly let us escape? Even if no one watches over us, we can't get away."

Those who had planned to escape stopped upon hearing this and asked, "What's the situation here?"

"Indeed, you came here earlier than us. Do you know what these demon foxes intend to do with us?"

Some stopped, but a few did not believe the elders and still got up to run outside.

Cao Zhen only glanced outside before withdrawing his gaze. Although he had concealed his aura, making himself appear as an ordinary person, he could sense a Formation here. While the Formation would not be difficult to break and any Earth Immortal could shatter it, to ordinary people, the Great Formation was enough to trap them here for life.

These people would not be able to escape.

At this moment, among their group, a sturdy-looking man suddenly pointed to another similarly sturdy man not far away and shouted, "Old Wu, you are here too. You were captured as well, tell us, what's going on."

All the people were from Broken Wall City, so it was normal to see familiar faces.

Old Wu glanced at the sturdy man and shook his head slightly, saying, "I don't know what they want with us either."

"What else could they want!" An elder not far away shook his head, saying, "Haven't you heard the legends of the demon foxes? They must want to capture us, drink our blood, and use us for sacrifices."

As his words fell, many people visibly shuddered, fear appearing on their faces, and some children began to cry in terror.

"Not necessarily." A young man with a cap in the crowd gently shook his head and rebutted, "If they wanted to sacrifice us, they wouldn't treat us so well. You see, they haven't even tied us up. I think they probably don't want to sacrifice us."

The elder retorted, "Then what would they want to do? Do those fox monsters want to steal your essence? Dream on."

Everyone speculated about what the fox monsters wanted, but no one could figure it out.

Soon enough, another Flying Boat appeared in the void. This one was significantly larger than the one that had brought Cao Zhen and the others.

As the Flying Boat descended, another thousand people arrived, and many recognized familiar faces among them.

These people were different from the previous ones; they weren't from Broken Wall City but were from villages in the suburbs around it.

In the following hour, more Flying Boats arrived, dropping off clusters of regular people, most from villages near Broken Wall City.

The members of the Demon Clan came and went quickly, leaving as soon as they dropped the people off.

Gradually, the number of people gathered here increased.

Unbeknownst to them, nearly a hundred thousand people had gathered here, and in the sky, Flying Boats continued to arrive.

Finally, when Cao Zhen felt this area could no longer hold more people, silhouettes of the Demon Clan appeared in the sky. This time, after their appearance, they did not leave immediately but stayed high above, looking down at the crowd.

The next moment, a magnetically charged female voice resonated.

"You don't have to be so afraid. We won't harm you. On the contrary, we will help you, allow you to live a better life."

As the voice fell, a female demon fox appeared in the crowd's sight. Cao Zhen's gaze fell instantly on her tail; he had seen three types of demon foxes before — some had ears like a fox, some had a fox's tail, and others had both the ears and the tail.

But no matter which type, they each had only one tail, while the female demon fox before them had three tails.

Chapter 1892:

Cao Zhen discovered through observation that these Fox Monsters seemed to judge strength by the number of tails. Those without tails were the weakest, and among those with tails, those with particularly peculiar ears were also weaker. The more tails, the stronger.

After the three-tailed Fox Monster appeared in front of everyone, it did not launch any attack but looked kindly at everyone and said, "You are all ordinary humans. Actually, the matters of the Cultivation realm have little to do with you.

However, there's no choice. The world is in chaos, and you too are affected.

You may not know that currently, there are a total of six great races in your world. Among these six, aside from us, the Demon Clan, the other five races are extremely brutal. The Prison clan that appeared here before, I think you have also been attacked by them and know that the Prison clan does not see your lives as lives.

Now, although those of the Prison clan have disappeared, who knows when they might reappear, or when the Beast Clan or the Evil Clan might arrive here.

If you continue to stay outside, you will die if slightly affected."

She paused slightly, looked at the crowd below and said, "Now that we have moved you here, we can provide you with new housing and protect you. Instead, you are safe.

Actually, we are helping you."

Below, a group of ordinary people looked up at the three-tailed, incredibly beautiful Fox Monster in the sky, but no one spoke.

Suddenly, in the crowd, an old woman abruptly raised her head and shouted with disbelief, "Are you so kind-hearted to help us for no reason?"

As her words fell, the people around nodded one after another. Indeed, they didn't believe the Demon Clan would be so kind as to help them!

Beside the old woman, a few young people, possibly her family members, were shocked upon hearing her speak. They hurriedly pulled the old woman, not letting her say more, fearing the Demon Clan would be angered and act.

In the void, the face of the three-tailed Demon Clan did not show the slightest hint of anger. She even gently shook her head at the young people, saying, "You don't have to worry. I won't harm her. If we wanted to harm you, we would have already acted. Why bother bringing you here?"

Whether you believe it or not, we are indeed helping you. I have been to the city where you lived before. The environment of that city, I don't need to say much about it.

Actually, wherever you are, your goal is to live, so why not live well when we provide you with a place?

Here, you can live even better than before. We can build more cities for you, provide you with larger houses, and even offer you seeds of the crops you grow, as well as some seeds from our world.

Here, I can assure you, as long as you do not provoke our Demon Clan, no Demon Clan member will casually kill you.

Moreover, we can even provide you with Cultivation Techniques later, helping suitable children among you to cultivate.

In short, we have no ill intentions towards you; you can live here with peace of mind."

Below, upon hearing the words of the three-tailed Fox Monster, the people still had faces full of vigilance. Giving them bigger houses, giving them food, and even helping them cultivate?

Why are these Demon Clan members so kind-hearted?

The three-tailed Fox Monster, seeing everyone's expressions, was not surprised at all. She continued, "I know you are still not at ease.

However, you still need to live, don't you? Now, we will help you build your own cities.

Such cities, we will build many. Those will be your human cities, so you can interact with each other."

As the three-tailed Fox Monster spoke, she raised her hand and waved forward, and immediately, waves of celestial power surged out, falling to the ground.

In an instant, the entire ground rose abruptly, and following that, other Demons in the void also began to act one after another.

Ordinary humans do not know how much manpower and material resources it would take to build a city, nor how much time, but for those involved in Cultivation, using celestial power to build a large city is not difficult.

Soon, a large city emerged, and these Demon Clan members did not stop; they continued to unleash power, raising buildings on the ground.

"Alright, these houses now have no owners. You can enter the city and choose any house. Once you enter, the house belongs to you. One family can choose one house."

Below, listening to the words of the Fox Monster, some were still hesitating, but some young people couldn't help but step forward and rush into the city. They had just seen that these houses were different in size and appearance.

Moreover, the different locations of the houses meant they had different values. In this situation, they certainly wanted to rush in first and select better houses. What if they were late and the good houses were taken by others!

As these people began to act, one by one, the ordinary people rushed out as well. They didn't dare think about what these Demon Clan members' motives were; they only knew they could choose houses now.

Chapter 1893: Housing Allocation (Part 2)

Cao Zhen looked at the crowd, who had suddenly gone mad, and sighed helplessly in his heart. Sure enough, no matter what time it is, for an ordinary person, a house is always an irresistible temptation.

He, not wanting to appear too special, followed the crowd's actions and ran forward, and beside him, there was a little kid trailing closely.

Together, the crowd charged towards this place. Even though the newly built city had four city gates, the number of people rushing into the city was just too many. The scene inevitably turned chaotic, and some of the elderly and children were trampled to the ground.

Suddenly, in the next moment, a force descended from the void at the city gate, blocking all the people outside. Then, the voices of three fox monsters rang out.

"Trampling each other like this could lead to deaths. Don't worry, there are plenty of houses inside. All of you will have a house to live in. Now, queue up to enter, don't push and shove."

The fox monsters even began organizing the people into lines to enter. Under their organization, the people had no choice but to line up orderly and enter the city one by one.

Cao Zhen was not among the first to move; he was considered one of the last to enter the city.

By that time, most of the houses already had owners.

He looked around and randomly chose a house that seemed to have nothing special about it and went in.

Though it was ordinary, this house had a front yard and a backyard, and even three rooms, which was quite spacious.

Beside him, the little kid who had been following him also ran into the courtyard he had chosen.

Cao Zhen turned back, looking full of curiosity at the child in front of him, the same child who had hidden behind a tree next to him in the dense forest earlier, and asked curiously, "Little friend, why are you following me? Where are your family members?"

"I don't know." The child shook his head vigorously and said, "All the adults in my family died. I used to live with my uncle. But we got caught, and I don't know where my uncle is."

She looked up, pitifully at Cao Zhen, and said, "Uncle, can I follow you? I'm scared on my own."

Cao Zhen didn't nod in agreement. Instead, he continued asking, "Hmm? You're scared, so why follow me? I see many others who look kind, you could go with them."

Under different circumstances, taking a kid like this wouldn't matter, but upon entering here, it's not like he could really listen to the fox monsters and settle down in the city like others. He intended to explore this small world, and who knows when he would leave. If so, the child would be on her own again.

"But you were the first person I encountered," the child looked at Cao Zhen, glanced around, and then, with a mysterious face, said, "I also know you're not from our village or city, you rushed in halfway."

Upon hearing this, Cao Zhen squatted down, full of puzzlement, and asked, "So what? I'm from somewhere else, shouldn't you be more afraid of me?"

"I'm not afraid of you. I know you're a good person." The child looked at Cao Zhen earnestly and said, "Besides, I know you're more powerful than any of them, so I want to follow you."

"More powerful than others? How do you know that?" Cao Zhen found the child increasingly interesting, even though he hadn't revealed any of his cultivation base.

The little girl straightforwardly walked to Cao Zhen's side and solemnly said, "Because when we were caught, you weren't afraid at all. They all looked scared. Only you weren't scared one bit."

"You observe things quite closely." Hearing this, Cao Zhen gave a faint smile, never expecting such a child to see through him; however, those demon clans hadn't noticed him, given the number of people. How could those fox monsters pay attention to everyone?

"Then let me ask you, how do you know I'm a good person?"

The little girl said matter-of-factly, "Because earlier, when I was almost pushed down by others, you helped me up. Uncle, let me follow you, please. I have nowhere else to go."

"But uncle can't stay here forever, either." Cao Zhen was about to refuse again, but looking at the little girl's pitiful face, he sighed helplessly and said, "Fine, you can stay here."

This little girl, although she had deliberately smudged her face all black, on closer look, you could tell she was a charming little girl.

Having this little girl go to someone else, it's not just a matter of whether others would take her in; even if someone did, who knows what their intentions are.

Whereas he, being alone here, might indeed attract some attention.

On the contrary, having a little girl around made things seem more normal.

As for leaving suddenly, isn't there still a clone?

Although they found a house, inside it was empty, with no beds or furniture.

Fortunately, not long after, voices from those demon clans in the void echoed again.

Cao Zhen noticed that these fox monsters were quite considerate, not only preparing houses but also furnishing them with beds and other furniture.

With the fox monsters distributing houses and providing furniture, the people became less afraid than before.

Chapter 1894

Cao Zhen lay on the simple wooden bed, looking out through the paper window, his eyes filled with confusion and puzzlement. He still couldn't understand why these fox monsters wanted to bring everyone here and then build a city and houses, clearly wanting people to take root here and live and thrive for a long time.

What is the meaning behind their actions?

Could it be that these Demon Clan members want to assimilate humans?

But, humans are humans and demons are demons. How can two different species be assimilated?

However, as the second day came, he realized that it seemed these fox monsters truly wanted to assimilate everyone, as they continued to help the ordinary people perfect their homes.

For three consecutive days, these demon clans made everyone's homes look decent, and they even allocated fields and seeds to them. For those who didn't want land, they offered shops or even other things to encourage commercial activities.

Moreover, in the city, there were only a few demon clan members, seemingly only to maintain order, and otherwise, these demon clan members didn't disturb the people at all.

Originally, Cao Zhen had been a farmer and had cultivated fields, so as not to seem too special, he too asked for three acres of land like everyone else and went out to work the fields, appearing no different from an ordinary human.

Additionally, he found that these fox clans did a great job. Although it had only been three days, people were no longer afraid of these fox clans, and some young men and women even dared to boldly look at these fox clans.

After all, these fox clans, by human aesthetic standards, were truly handsome men and graceful women.

Although some fox clans had tails, a portion of them didn't, and only their ears were somewhat special. If they covered them with their hair, it was difficult to distinguish them from humans.

He even sensed that the higher-ups of these fox clans indicated for these fox clans to chat with humans, and he saw some humans conversing with the fox clans.

Cao Zhen worked until late at night before returning to his temporary home.

Although it had only been three days since moving in, the neighbors around him had already become familiar with him.

After all, some households still had elderly women who would watch over the children and chat about family matters, and in less than half a day, they could inquire about the situation of each household and become familiar with everyone.

As Cao Zhen just walked onto his street, a group of neighbors warmly greeted him.

“Little Cao is back!”

“Little Cao, congratulations, really congratulations!”

“Little Cao, your Rui Rui has an outstanding cultivation talent!”

“It’s not called an outstanding cultivator, but having an outstanding cultivation talent!”

“It’s the same, it’s the same!”

“Little Cao, you might enjoy good fortune in the future!”

“I always said that little Rui Rui, just by looking at her, you can tell she’s smart.”

Cao Zhen looked at everyone in confusion. What was going on? Cultivation talent? What happened while he was away?

Rui Rui mentioned by everyone was naturally the little girl with him, named Tang Xiaorui. He told everyone that he was Xiaorui’s uncle.

The problem was, wasn’t Xiaorui going to school?

The demon clan members said last night that all children over the age of six must go to school.

People have always respected those with knowledge, and in this world, there is a belief that only studying is noble, so although the teaching was by the demon clan, everyone still sent their children to school.

When Cao Zhen first heard about this, he felt that these demon clan members truly wanted to assimilate ordinary humans.

But now it seemed not only that; on the very first day, they began testing cultivation talents.

As he responded to everyone casually, he quickly returned to his home.

The sky was not yet completely dark, and in a corner of the yard, at a stone table, the little girl was intently writing. When she saw Cao Zhen return, she immediately lifted her head, her little face showing a proud expression, as if wanting to show off something, but she quickly held it back.

Cao Zhen casually placed the hoe at the door and waved to Tang Xiaorui, saying, "Xiaorui, stop writing for now. Come here and tell uncle what happened today. Uncle heard others say you have outstanding cultivation talent. What's going on with this?"

Xiaorui seemed to have been waiting for this question. Hearing it, she quickly dropped the pen and ran over to stand in front of Cao Zhen, looking up with pride and saying, "We went to school today, and in the school, not only were there humans like us, but also children from the demon clan.

As for cultivation talent, the first thing we did at school today was to check our cultivation talents.

The demon clan teacher said that if you have a cultivation talent, you can be taught cultivation. Then they began testing."

Tang Xiaorui said, holding up four fingers, "Among all the children in our school, only forty have the talent for cultivation, and I'm one of them."

As she spoke, she looked at Cao Zhen, as if saying, come on, praise me, praise me.

But she was only met with a light "Oh" from Cao Zhen.

Tang Xiaorui immediately felt unsatisfied in her heart, just that little reaction? Do you even know what having a cultivation talent means?

Chapter 1895

Alright, let's see if you can remain this composed after hearing the next piece of news!

She lifted her head proudly, looking at Cao Zhen and said, “Besides, I also possess the Immortal Thunder Physique. You might not know what that is, but I can tell you, it belongs to the Immortal Body category! And, just like Immortal Bodies, there are strong and weak ones. My Immortal Thunder Physique is among the strongest, it’s a High Level Immortal Body!

In short, Cao Zhen, you’ve hit the jackpot, you know? Someone like me with an Immortal Body is certain to undergo Immortal Cultivation, and moreover, my cultivation speed would surpass that of anyone else.

Do you know? In this city, I’m the only one with a Top Immortal Body. Those from the Demon Clan have already said that tomorrow they will teach me a cultivation technique, allowing me to cultivate.”

A High Level Immortal Body...

Cao Zhen looked at Tang Xiaorui and longed to tell this little girl that he already had ten disciples, five of whom possess High Level Immortal Bodies, while the remaining five have Ancient Immortal Bodies.

High Level Immortal Bodies, he had seen many, so much so that he no longer held much feeling towards them.

However, if one were to really count, High Level Immortal Bodies are exceedingly rare.

The crux of the matter is, why is Tang Xiaorui a High Level Immortal Body?

He just wanted to keep a low profile, to investigate what those fox demons were truly up to, and yet, a little girl insisted on following him, and she just happened to be someone with a High Level Immortal Body!

With the emergence of a High Level Immortal Body, he couldn’t believe those fox demons wouldn’t fix their attention on him.

Is it really this hard to lie low?

Cao Zhen pondered for a moment and asked, "They're teaching you martial arts? You're human, they're fox demons, what kind of cultivation techniques are they teaching you? Is it a fox demon cultivation technique or a human one? If it's a fox demon cultivation technique, can you learn it?"

"I don't know, I'll ask them tomorrow." Tang Xiaorui seemed especially excited.

"Oh, right, didn't you say there were fox demons in your school? What are their names, and what do they look like?"

Cao Zhen quickly started cooking, and while eating, he chatted with Tang Xiaorui, though it was mostly Tang Xiaorui doing the talking while he listened.

The next day, Cao Zhen went out to cultivate the fields as usual, returning only at dusk.

In the courtyard, Tang Xiaorui was not writing as she did yesterday; instead, she was sitting cross-legged on the ground, seemingly engaged in some form of cultivation, yet there was no flow of energy around her.

"What are you doing?"

Cao Zhen put down his farm tools, casually asking Tang Xiaorui while secretly probing the energy around her.

Soon, he had a judgment in his heart.

A mere mortal!

There were no traces of cultivation on Tang Xiaorui.

But didn't Tang Xiaorui say the Demon Clan wanted her to cultivate? Being a Top Immortal Body, it shouldn't be difficult for her to cultivate energy.

“Of course I’m cultivating.” Tang Xiaorui frowned and said, “But for some reason, although they’ve taught me the method of cultivation, no matter how much I cultivate, I can’t feel the energy they mentioned.”

“Maybe it just takes time.” Cao Zhen walked slowly to Tang Xiaorui’s side, gently comforting her before starting his preparations, no longer inquiring about Tang Xiaorui’s cultivation matters.

After dinner, he asked Tang Xiaorui about what happened at school today, then casually added, “Could it be that you guys are too dumb? How is that cultivation technique supposed to be practiced? Tell me about it and let me see if I can cultivate it.”

Tang Xiaorui glanced at Cao Zhen, then shook her head, saying, “You? You’re so old, there’s no way you can cultivate it.”

Hearing this, Cao Zhen immediately resorted to provocation, “Who are you looking down on? I was just delayed back then. Let me tell you, I’m not just ordinarily smart. Tang Xiaorui, are you afraid that I can cultivate while you can’t, and that’s why you’re deliberately not telling me?”

“I’m afraid of you? I’m afraid you’ll succeed? Come, come, I’ll tell you how to cultivate, and let’s see how you manage to succeed.” Being young, Tang Xiaorui couldn’t hold back from being provoked and divulged the cultivation technique she had learned.

As Cao Zhen listened to Tang Xiaorui’s explanation of the cultivation technique, his brows furrowed deeply. No wonder Tang Xiaorui, despite being a Top Immortal Body, couldn’t cultivate any bit of energy after training for a day. This wasn’t a cultivation technique, or rather, it wasn’t a human cultivation technique at all.

It should be a fox demon cultivation technique.

Are they trying to make humans cultivate their techniques?

So that’s their goal?

But what's in it for them if they do this? Are they trying to use this opportunity to deduce how to cultivate human techniques?

Cao Zhen felt he might slowly be deciphering the motives of these demons.

In the following three days, Tang Xiaorui tirelessly practiced the cultivation technique imparted by the Demon Clan every day. Tang Xiaorui even mentioned that during school, a master fox demon personally instructed her in cultivation.

Yet even so, she still couldn't feel any energy at all.

On the fourth day, like everyone else, Cao Zhen left the city and went to the fields to begin farming. When he was tired, he too lay on the ground like everyone else, though his gaze quickly scanned the surroundings.

After ensuring no demons or people were watching him, he immediately got up and vanished from everyone's sight.

Prior to this, he had already left a clone at home.

He had been there long enough and now needed to investigate the situation here.

Chapter 1896:

After leaving for a short time, his mana condensed, causing his ears to transform into fox-like ears, and then he headed off into the distance.

Although in the city built by those fox monsters, fox monsters were rarely seen, once outside the city, the number of fox monsters increased.

Fortunately, when these members of the Demon Clan sensed the aura emanating from him and saw his ears, they did not question him.

Even if some clan members conversed with him, he easily deceived them with lies.

Among Tang Xiaorui's classmates, there were members of the Demon Clan. From Tang Xiaorui, he learned a lot about the Fox clan, such as information about various fox demon families and which fox demons were stronger.

He continued flying deeper into this part of the world.

He discovered that the Fox Monster Clan had built quite a few cities, where they lived just like humans.

If it weren't for looking at the ears and tails of these fox monsters, he would almost doubt that they weren't fox monsters, but humans.

However, they are not completely like humans; at least, the Fox Monster Clan has a very strong sense of hierarchy.

The more tails a fox monster has, the more powerful they are. He even saw a Golden Core Stage fox monster with five tails scolding an Earth Immortal Realm fox monster because that Earth Immortal Realm fox monster only had one tail.

He walked through the city ahead, stepped forward just as he was about to fly off into the distance, and suddenly, from his side, a figure flew over.

Cao Zhen turned his head to glance at this fox monster. It was a tail-less fox monster, clearly of the lowest class within the fox monsters.

Although this female fox monster was extremely beautiful, even among the fox monsters, it was the most beautiful fox monster he had seen.

But no matter how beautiful, it didn't change the fact that this was just a tail-less fox monster.

He glanced at this fox monster, ignored her, and flew ahead. But slowly, he discovered that this fox monster was actually flying in the same direction as him.

He even felt that this fox monster was following him!

But the problem was, he had randomly changed his appearance. There was no fox monster with his current appearance within the Fox Monster Clan; it was impossible for him to run into a familiar fox monster.

Why was this fox monster following him?

Discovered a problem with him?

That was even more impossible.

He used Chaos Qi, which could also disguise the aura of the Fox clan. Furthermore, when they were outside the city, this female fox monster had already seen him. If she really discovered a problem, she should have acted outside the city, not followed him all the way.

Could it really only be a coincidence?

While he was still puzzled, suddenly, a crisp voice sounded from beside him: "All right, stop. Any further, and you'll be entering the forbidden area of our Fox Monster Clan. I can't let you go further."

Cao Zhen's advancing body suddenly stopped, and he turned with suspicion and looked at the female fox monster before him. There were only the two of them here, and the words were clearly addressed to him.

Also, the meaning behind her words indicated that she knew he wasn't a fox monster. Otherwise, she wouldn't say "our Fox Monster Clan."

Had he been exposed?

How had he been exposed?

And this fox monster, after discovering an outsider like him, actually followed him all the way to this desolate place to reveal herself?

"Are you curious about how I discovered you?" The female fox monster looked at Cao Zhen and a light mirror suddenly appeared in her hand. As she held the light mirror towards Cao Zhen, Cao Zhen's original appearance appeared in it.

"I must say, your methods are truly brilliant. If it weren't for this artifact, I wouldn't have discovered you were human."

The female fox monster's face showed no trace of anger. Instead, she looked at Cao Zhen as if he were a friend, and asked, "I'm curious, for you to enter our small-chill world alone, what do you think of our Fox Monster Clan on this journey?"

Cao Zhen shrugged lightly, "I'm not sure. After all, I haven't entered your forbidden territory to take a look."

The female fox monster shook her head lightly, "Forbidden territory is called forbidden for a reason; not even any member of our Fox Monster Clan can enter regardless, so naturally, we can't let an outsider like you enter."

"Oh, hearing you say that makes me even more curious." Cao Zhen glanced around, and suddenly a cold glint flashed in his eyes, "This place is desolate, apart from us, there's no other fox monsters here.

If I were to make a move here and kill you, probably no other fox monster would know I've killed you! By then, no one could stop me."

The female fox monster felt the killing intent emanating from the human opposite her, but there was no trace of fear on her face. Instead, she looked intrigued and said in a low voice, "You're right, if you killed me here, you naturally wouldn't be exposed.

However, you'll also need the ability to kill me.

I'm also curious, just how powerful is a cultivator who could deceive us and enter our small-chill world."

With the last word of strength, a terrifying aura erupted from the fox monster before Cao Zhen, a dense demon breath he had never encountered before, suddenly swept through this area.

Behind the female fox monster, one tail after another suddenly emerged.

One, two, three...

Chapter 1897: Part 6

Cao Zhen stared at those fox tails, his eyes suddenly widening. Behind this female fox demon were actually nine tails!

A nine-tailed fox demon?

The highest-ranking fox demon he had seen before, with the most tails, only had five, yet this female demon had nine!

At the same time, behind her, an Immortal Mountain emerged, rapidly growing. In just a moment, it reached a height of 480 zhang.

A 480 zhang Immortal Mountain!

Aside from his own, this was the tallest Immortal Mountain he had ever seen!

No wonder this female fox demon was so confident. After discovering he was human, she still dared to follow him all the way here.

With such power, in the Immortal Path Domain, she could indeed be said to be invincible.

However, she has encountered him.

As Cao Zhen looked at the female fox demon before him, a thought suddenly came to mind: What if he killed her or took her away?

A female nine-tailed fox demon must be a high-ranking figure in this fox clan, perhaps even a saintess or princess.

Even though her 480 zhang Immortal Mountain was incredibly tall, if he attacked with all his might, it would take only a few breaths to take her down.

Before he could decide whether to make a move, a chilling murderous aura suddenly surged forward.

The female fox demon had already attacked.

With just a wave of her sleeve, the soft garment swung as if a sharp blade capable of shattering mountains was slashing down.

From the sleeve's cuff, faint silver lights glowed, as if countless stars had converged there.

As the sleeve descended, it gave the illusion of an outer cosmic galaxy falling.

Simultaneously, beneath her, a gigantic domain illusion emerged.

At that moment, Cao Zhen felt as if nine fox demons materialized in the void, each with unique prowess.

The nine fox demons charged forward in unison with the female's attack.

Some had enormous bodies, swiping down with sharp claws. Though they were fox demons, their strikes shook the earth and moved mountains, sweeping stones with the wind. Others exuded a scorching aura, akin to a blazing flame...

For a moment, Cao Zhen even felt as though he was facing ten fox demons.

The next instant, behind Cao Zhen, an Immortal Mountain towering 500 zhang suddenly appeared. Although he had previously manifested a clone, that clone possessed only a minuscule fraction of his power, nearly negligible.

At the same time, a sharp sword materialized in his hand. Against the descending attack, waves of boundless immortal aura surged around him like a raging tide.

Even with just the aura sweeping through, it sent the air around him into a frenzied tremor, seemingly shattering the void!

The turbulent Chaos Qi within Cao Zhen surged into the sword, and in an instant, it radiated a brilliant light, so dazzling that even the blazing sun above lost its shine momentarily.

The blinding light even made the female fox demon of the Immortal Path Domain involuntarily squint. Staring at the towering 500 zhang Immortal Mountain, her enchanting eyes filled with awe.

A 500 zhang Immortal Mountain?

This human had reached the pinnacle of the Immortal Path Domain?

She was currently the temporary clan leader of their own clan and the strongest among them.

Even among countless demon clans, theirs ranked in the top ten!

She was also one of the top existences in the entire demon clan, but even she hadn't reached the peak of the Immortal Path Domain.

She even doubted that their demon clan currently had anyone at the peak of the Immortal Path Domain, yet now she encountered a human who had!

At that moment, she finally understood why he had the courage to venture alone into their demon clan's small world.

Because he was at the pinnacle of the Immortal Path Domain!

In her eyes filled with shock, the human before her swung his sword down. It appeared to be just an ordinary sword strike, but as the sharp blade cut through, it instantly split the void, revealing a pitch-black fissure. In the void, the Sword Qi stirred up by that sword resembled a tornado, sweeping through, with qi waves so strong they lifted all the tails behind her.

The opponent's sword seemed simple, yet it contained countless changes, holding unfathomable Sword Intent.

Even if his Immortal Mountain were not 500 zhang, just matching her 480 zhang, she had no confidence in blocking this sword, let alone with his higher cultivation base!

As the sword struck, slicing into her sleeve, a soft tearing sound echoed, the sleeve ripping apart instantly, and the sword continued towards her.

Not good!

In a fright, the female fox demon condensed endless demon breath before her, and a moment later, an ancient bronze bell materialized, shielding her like a shield.

The next moment, the sharp sword struck the bell, causing it to tremble violently, emitting clear, crisp sounds—whether it was the sword clashing against the bell or the bell's own resonance was unknown.

Subsequently, with each blast of fierce Sword Qi, the bell deflected them, shooting in all directions.

Every strand of Sword Qi was filled with boundless sharpness, capable of easily destroying a mountain. As the Sword Qi hit the ground, it carved deep ravines, and the trees and wild grass instantly turned to ashes.

And after a burst of radiant flame on the bell, a clear crack appeared, and the bell retreated back.

With just one sword strike, the bell was blasted back to its original form.

The female fox demon's body suddenly trembled, though she had used the Treasure to block the attack, the terrifying Qi Wave still sent her blood and energy into turmoil.

Before she could recover, the opponent's sharp sword descended once more.

Though it was just a single flying sword attack, in an instant, a hundred of the opponent's figures appeared before her, each striking simultaneously.

The previous sword was terrifying enough, but the current one was even more frightening.

Gazing at this sword, inside she felt a sense of having nowhere to dodge, not even knowing how to block it.

Chapter 1898:

The nine-tailed fox demon gazed at the sword formed by hundreds of sword shadows, with demon breath surging wildly within her body. Behind her, the nine tails were growing rapidly, completely enveloping her.

Cao Zhen's sword, as if capable of destroying heaven and earth, descended, feeling as though it was striking into a pile of cotton with nowhere to exert its force. Simultaneously, waves of force constantly attacked, reducing the power of his sword.

Even so, the sword's power remained terrifying.

However, after a brief moment, under the impact of the sword qi, all nine fox tails were flung away.

"Pfft..."

The nine-tailed fox demon spat a mouthful of crimson blood, her body flying backward. An expression of paleness appeared on her beautiful face, and her eyes were filled with horror.

She had never imagined facing an opponent of the same cultivation realm, she could be injured in just two moves.

Cao Zhen looked at the nine-tailed fox demon sent flying away, slightly nodded imperceptibly, and softly praised, "Indeed, an opponent from the 480-zhang Immortal Mountain is different. After two swords, I've only injured you and not severely wounded you.

You are the only opponent I've ever not killed or severely injured after striking with two full-force swords."

The nine-tailed fox demon's face showed a hint of self-mockery upon hearing this: "So can I take it as a compliment from you?"

As she spoke, her eyes, filled with endless allure, glanced at Cao Zhen.

Among the demon clan, the fox monsters' physical bodies were not only weak but among the weakest.

And their Five Elements Techniques, at best, could be said to be average, yet they are always among the top ten strong clans of the demon clan because of their Charm Technique.

The human opposite seemed to be certain of his victory, even stopping the attack to converse with her, giving her the perfect opportunity to use her Charm Technique.

An unseen and untouchable demon aura shot out, instantly entering Cao Zhen's forehead.

Cao Zhen immediately felt his mind shaking violently, followed by the frantic surge of the Age of Prosperity Qi within his body.

In less than the time of a breath, the demon breath that entered his body was completely dissipated without a trace.

After releasing the Charm Technique, the nine-tailed fox demon did not continue to attack but turned and flew towards the distance. The opponent was a presence at the peak of the Immortal Path Domain. Even if her Charm Technique could incapacitate him, it wouldn't last long, nor could it reverse her defeat.

Her goal was simply to escape.

This time, she was really careless. Previously, when she discovered this human, she was genuinely curious about what this human wanted to do.

She had no concern that the opponent would be adverse to her!

She was a being whose Immortal Mountain had reached 480 zhang; there weren't many opponents in the world now.

But who knew she'd encounter a presence at the peak of the Immortal Path Domain?

Now, she could only choose to escape.

But, just as she turned around, her eyes suddenly widened in disbelief, gazing ahead of her.

That human was now standing right in front of her.

"You... you're actually unaffected."

The nine-tailed fox demon looked at the human before her, unable to comprehend. She knew the opponent's cultivation was high, but no matter how high, against a soul-targeting attack like hers, which was a top-level Fox clan technique of the Mysterious Rank.

No matter how strong the opponent is, they are still in the Immortal Path Domain and have not yet reached the Immortality Regainment Realm.

Even if the opponent were in the Immortality Regainment Realm, without caution, they would be affected. How could he, standing before her, be entirely unaffected?

Cao Zhen looked at the astonished nine-tailed fox demon, with a face of inscrutable mystery, "Strange, isn't it? Can't figure out why I'm unaffected? In truth, your attack was quite good, it even made me feel its presence."

He truly discovered that soul-based attacks didn't seem to have much effect on him.

Even back in the ruins, the black qi affecting the mind was quickly expelled by the Age of Prosperity Qi after entering his body.

Though he did not know why the Age of Prosperity Qi could counteract soul-targeting attacks, it didn't prevent him from acting enigmatic.

Cao Zhen, as if looking at a sacrificial lamb, gazed at the nine-tailed fox demon across from him, "Do you have any other methods? If not, I'll give you a suggestion, bind your own hands. After all, whether you struggle or not, you'll be captured by me. Rather than getting hurt, you might as well obediently bind yourself."

"Why do you want to bind me?" the nine-tailed fox demon quickly shook her head and said, "You should see, I harbor no ill will towards you, I..."

Before she finished her sentence, her voice abruptly stopped, as before her eyes, in the human's hand, clusters of violet lightning were converging, ready to crash down in the next moment.

"No need to do anything." The nine-tailed fox demon quickly extended her hands, "I yield."

If she could escape, she would naturally resist, but the problem was she had just fought back and realized she was far from being the opponent's match. Given this, as the human opposite said, the outcome of resisting or not is the same — being captured by the opponent. So why resist?

Moreover, this place is indeed remote, unlikely any clan members would arrive shortly. Even if some arrived, how could they be a match for a peak presence of the Immortal Path Domain? So she wisely chose to surrender.

Chapter 1899:

"You are very wise." Cao Zhen watched the nine-tailed fox demon's actions, the thunder in his hand dissipating. The next moment, in a flash, he appeared at the nine-tailed fox demon's side, placing his hand on her neck, and said in a low voice, "Do not resist."

Immediately, waves of spiritual energy surged into her body, leaving a restriction.

"Alright, now we can have a proper talk."

Cao Zhen grabbed the nine-tailed fox demon who was under restriction, flying outward as he asked, "Speak, why have you captured so many mortals? What is your true intention?"

"We didn't intend to do anything," the nine-tailed fox demon replied softly, "You have visited our clan's city before, you should be able to see that we long for human life, especially the lives of these mortals.

We bear them no malice; we capture them only to observe their way of living, so we can live like them."

"Hmm?" Hearing this, Cao Zhen's brow immediately furrowed, staring fiercely at the nine-tailed fox demon, "Do I look like a fool to you? Do you think I'm that easy to deceive? Or are you insulting my intelligence?"

Stop trying to fool me with stories that wouldn't even trick a three-year-old! Tell me, what are you really planning to do!"

The nine-tailed fox demon retorted without hesitation, "I'm truly not lying to you. They are just ordinary humans; capturing them is of no use to us."

"Is that so? It seems applying a bit of force on you doesn't work." Looking at the nine-tailed fox demon before him, Cao Zhen suddenly said, "However, I believe that using torture for confessions is quite a crude method; I won't forcefully interrogate you."

The nine-tailed fox demon heard this, and her heart slightly relaxed, but the next moment, the human's voice rose again.

"You are actually quite good-looking, for a little fox. I think there are many strange beasts who might be interested in you.

Especially in my Great Teaching; let me tell you, my Great Teaching raises quite a few pigs. What do you think would happen if I took you back and threw you into the pigsty?"

Upon hearing this, the nine-tailed fox demon seemed to momentarily go insane and shouted loudly, "What do you intend to do! You, a being at the peak of the Immortal Path Domain, how can you do something so undignified! I tell you, I am from the Demon Clan, not the Beast Clan! You can't do that!"

As she spoke, the nine-tailed fox demon began to twist her body frantically, the movements so intense that even the arm with which Cao Zhen was holding her was swaying.

"Behave yourself." Cao Zhen casually smacked the nine-tailed fox demon's rear heavily.

Truth be told, the nine-tailed fox demon, having nine tails, gave quite a good feeling when slapped.

"If you don't want to be thrown into the pigsty, then tell me what you're really planning!"

"I didn't lie to you."

Cao Zhen immediately sneered, "Didn't lie to me? Then why don't you tell me, what were you planning to do when examining the spiritual talent of those human children? It seems you really want to experience what it's like to be thrown into a pigsty."

The nine-tailed fox demon's body shuddered upon hearing this; this human knew they were examining the immortal cultivation talent of the children, suggesting he had been hiding in the human city for quite some time.

Startled as she was, she explained quickly, "We assessed their cultivation talent to help them.

Besides, aiding them in cultivation isn't harmful to them."

"Are you truly helping them with cultivation?" Cao Zhen slapped the nine-tailed fox demon's tail hard once more and said coldly, "If you really intended to help them, why did you teach them your demon clan's cultivation techniques? Why not teach them human cultivation techniques?"

The nine-tailed fox demon was utterly stunned; this human even knew which cultivation techniques their demon clan imparted to those children.

How does he know so much?

She sighed lightly and said helplessly, "Since you already know, I won't hide it anymore. Indeed, we have given your human children our demon clan's cultivation techniques.

Actually, we just want to see if humans can cultivate our demon clan's techniques..."

"Alright, enough. I will take you away and throw you into the pigsty."

Cao Zhen was done speaking with the nine-tailed fox demon, heading directly out of the small universe.

Though he could capture this nine-tailed fox demon, this was, after all, their small universe; they could call for support at any time.

Having been exposed, why stay here instead of leaving promptly?

Besides, he had already captured a skilled opponent, which wasn't a small gain.

Oh, and then there was Tang Xiaorui; that little girl was a high-level immortal body, and having fatefully crossed paths with him, he couldn't leave her to these demons, so she must come along as well.

Cao Zhen made up his mind, flying towards the path from which he came, while notifying his clone to find an opportunity to take Tang Xiaorui away.

When he arrived, he was disguised as a Golden Core Stage demon clan; he flew all the way here like this, and now, returning?

Cao Zhen directly opened the nine-tailed fox demon's Qiankun Bag, finding a flying boat in no time, and without hesitation, he drove it back towards where he had come from.

Along the way, steering the flying boat, he traveled smoothly past one fox demon city after another.

Chapter 1900:

Finally, at dusk, he returned to the city where he first arrived.

Inside the city.

Tang Xiaorui, as usual, came home from school, pushed open the courtyard door, and saw Cao Zhen standing in the courtyard. Her eyes showed a hint of surprise, as Cao Zhen used to return home later than her.

"Cao Zhen, you were slacking today! You came back so early! Is it because I can cultivate immortality now, so you think you can rely on me from now on and stop working hard?"

Cao Zhen, that's not right. Although I will definitely become an immortal, for now, I haven't cultivated any aura. If you want to slack off, you should wait until I've cultivated some aura before you slack off!"

"Cultivate aura? Continuing like this, you won't be able to cultivate any aura." Cao Zhen's avatar shook his head gently upon hearing Tang Xiaorui's words.

Tang Xiaorui widened her watery eyes, pouted, and shouted defiantly, "Cao Zhen, who do you look down on? Let me tell you, I have a high level immortal body, the best cultivation talent, and I will definitely be able to cultivate aura.

Forget it. Talking to you is pointless, you won't understand."

Tang Xiaorui looked at Cao Zhen, as if to say he understood nothing.

Cao Zhen sighed helplessly and said softly, "I'm telling you why you can't cultivate aura; it's because there's a problem with your cultivation technique. Not just you, none of you can cultivate aura because you're all practicing the demon clan's techniques, which aren't human techniques. Humans can only cultivate aura by practicing human techniques."

Tang Xiaorui was stunned, and after a long while, she raised her head to look at Cao Zhen and asked, "How do you know we're practicing demon clan techniques instead of human ones? No, you once asked for the techniques I practice.

So, at that time, you wanted to see what technique I was practicing? You can tell I'm practicing a demon clan technique, so... you can cultivate too? Are you also a practitioner?"

Tang Xiaorui shook her head and said softly, "No, my demon clan classmates said they checked and all the captured ones are mortals; there wouldn't be any cultivators. If you are a cultivator, those demons would definitely be able to find you."

"That's not necessarily true; there's an exception to everything." Cao Zhen's avatar glanced around the courtyard and finally fixed his gaze on the stone table before him. He extended a finger and lightly tapped on the stone, causing a burst of immortal power to shoot out and hit the stone table.

In the next moment, the entire stone table suddenly exploded and turned into dust.

Although the power in this avatar of his was very limited, it had reached the level of the Longevity Period, so breaking a stone table was naturally not an issue.

Tang Xiaorui was completely dumbfounded, looking at the table that had turned into dust, and then back at Cao Zhen beside her, her small mouth so wide open it could almost fit an egg.

"Alright, you've seen it. Now do you believe I'm a cultivator?" Cao Zhen waved his hand, and the dust on the ground scattered away into the air.

Tang Xiaorui finally came to her senses upon hearing Cao Zhen's words.

"You really are a cultivator. You're amazing. Such a big stone, and you just shattered it. What's your cultivation realm?"

Cao Zhen smiled and asked, "Immortal Path Domain, do you know it?"

"Of course I know it. Right now, the strongest ones are in the Immortal Path Domain. You don't mean to say you're a presence from the Immortal Path Domain, do you?" Tang Xiaorui suddenly looked up at Cao Zhen, "I heard that those in the Immortal Path Domain have domain projections. Where's your domain? I didn't see your domain just now."

"I... you will see my domain later." Cao Zhen wasn't able to explain the domain to Tang Xiaorui at the moment, so he quickly said, "Alright, we don't have much time now. There is something I want to ask your opinion on."

Cao Zhen said as he pointed to the ground below, "I've been exposed, a fox monster discovered me, so we need to leave here. Would you be willing to leave with me?"

Of course, once I take you away, you can take me as your master, and I will teach you human techniques."

"Leave here? Sure." Tang Xiaorui nodded quickly. Although she was quite happy staying here, she knew that this wasn't truly her home; it was a place of the fox monsters.

If she had the choice to leave, she naturally wanted to leave this place too.

"Alright, since you want to leave, now let's go outside the city and wait."

Cao Zhen's avatar finished speaking and took Tang Xiaorui's small hand, walking out of the city.

Outside the city, there were quite a few fox monsters. Although the fox monsters said they wouldn't interfere with the humans' lives, it was obvious that these fox monsters were overseeing the humans in the cities.

At this time, it was exactly when everyone was returning to the city, so the two, one big and one small, walking out of the city, immediately caught the attention of a few fox monsters. However, they only observed the two from a distance and did not approach.

Suddenly, a flying boat approached from a distance, and the gazes of several demon clan members immediately fell on the flying boat.

"That flying boat... that's the clan leader's flying boat!"

"What's the clan leader doing here?"

"The clan leader's flying boat stopped, right at those two mortals' location. What's happening?"

"Strange, those two mortals entered the clan leader's flying boat."
