

My Master 1921

Chapter 1921:

"We don't know what the True Immortal Realm is like, but I'm afraid all of us combined can't stop a True Immortal, right?"

"The other party probably doesn't only have True Immortal Realm cultivators. I'm afraid they also have those in the Immortality Regainment Realm. Currently, our Hundred Peaks Sect doesn't even have a presence in the Immortality Regainment Realm."

"No, isn't it true that Immortal Ruo Yun has already broken through to the Immortality Regainment Realm?"

"But it's only Immortal Ruo Yun, just one person."

The crowd looked at Ruo Yun, standing beside Cao Zhen. Ruo Yun was a reincarnated Great Ability. Previously, she had reached the peak of the Earth Immortal Realm, and after the Heavenly Dao no longer suppressed the cultivators' cultivation bases, she naturally broke through to the Immortality Regainment Realm. But she had just entered the Immortality Regainment Realm.

"We fear that even if we exert the full force of our sect, we can't resist them."

"Then what? Should we run? If we run, how can we hold our heads up in the future?"

"Running is better than sacrificing in vain. Didn't the Sect Hierarch once say? 'As long as the green hills remain, there will be no shortage of firewood.'"

"But we need those green hills. If our entire sect leaves, can we still call ourselves the Hundred Peaks Sect? Where will we find a new mountain stronghold? Without a suitable mountain stronghold, our cultivation progress would be extremely slow.

Moreover, we might not even find a stronghold. We can't learn from that Death River Sect and seize another sect's mountain stronghold, can we?"

"Then what do you suggest we do? Send everyone to their deaths? Eventually, our Hundred Peaks Sect might be truly destroyed. No matter what, as long as we leave, our legacy can continue. We would then have a chance for revenge!"

"Right, I also support leaving. There's no way you look at it; we're not a match for a powerful sect. We can temporarily retreat, and I believe that under the leadership of the Sect Hierarchy, we will continuously grow stronger and eventually surpass that Death River Sect. Then it will be our chance to take revenge!"

"What you say is true, but once we retreat this time, the morale of our sect will scatter."

For a time, the middle-aged man argued.

"So, do you have any other ideas? If we don't retreat, do we just stay here and wait for death?"

"Perhaps, there might be other ways to stop them?" Suddenly, someone in the crowd looked at Cao Zhen and asked, "Sect Hierarchy, can we possibly ask for help from experts of other great sects to intimidate the members of the Death River Sect? For instance, experts from the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect?"

As the words fell, the surrounding crowd reacted one after another.

"Right, our Hundred Peaks Sect has always maintained good relations with the Dragon Chant Sect and the Yin Yang Sect. Both of those great sects have experts in the True Immortal Realm! If they step in, I suppose the Death River Sect wouldn't attack us so rashly."

"The key is whether they would help us."

"It's hard to say for the Yin Yang Sect, but the Dragon Chant Sect should help, right?"

"That's also uncertain." Nie Jie looked at Cao Zhen's slightly furrowed brow, sighing softly, "If they have no benefit, they probably won't offend a great sect from the Central Continent lightly."

Besides, asking others for help would incur debts of gratitude."

He glanced at Cao Zhen but didn't verbalize a particular thought, knowing that people spoke of the Dragon Chant Sect stepping in due to the relationship between the Sect Hierarch and Immortal Bi Yue of the Dragon Chant Sect.

The problem is, although Immortal Bi Yue holds a high position in the Dragon Chant Sect, it's because of her family and her master. After all, she is still a junior and not personally powerful. In matters of major sect importance, she might have little say.

Cao Zhen slightly furrowed his brows. If he personally asked Bi Yue, Bi Yue would certainly help. Given her status, it's likely the Dragon Chant Sect would make a move. But whether they could block the other party is another question.

Even if the Dragon Chant Sect made a move, they might only dispatch one or two experts. But what if the other side resolves to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect?

In such a case, the Dragon Chant Sect might not be able to stop them.

Moreover, having the Dragon Chant Sect help would undoubtedly come at a significant cost for the Hundred Peaks Sect.

If there were other ways, he really wouldn't want to ask the Dragon Chant Sect for help.

"As you mention seeking help from the Dragon Chant Sect, it reminds me, should we inform the whole world about this current situation? Let everyone know of the Death River Sect's behavior, that they seize other sects' strongholds even now, rather than focus on dealing with the six great alien races! This way..."

"This way, the Death River Sect may become infuriated and could act recklessly, perhaps even attacking us prematurely."

"Indeed, even if we inform the world of the Death River Sect's actions, what would that achieve? Other great sects might at most criticize them, but they wouldn't engage in a death battle with a great sect for our sake."

"In our Eastern Wasteland, and even the entire Eastern Province, the human cultivators have no unified alliance hierarchy; everyone fights individually, with maximum cooperation as nearby sect alliances. Thus, in such a situation, there is no enforcing sect."

"This method won't work. Are there any other ideas?"

"Are we really unable to stop them?"

In the crowd, Bei Yan looked at the increasingly troubled people, recalling the Bead of Time and Space in Xiang Ziyu's hand, and suddenly spoke: "Master, doesn't senior brother have half of the Bead of Time and Space? He and the White Tiger have never used that bead. Do you think if the third senior brother convinces the White Tiger to give you the Bead of Time and Space, using it would grant you a thousand years of cultivation time?"

Chapter 1922:

Master, can you directly break through within a thousand years and return to the level of your past life? Or perhaps, directly break through into the True Immortal Realm?

As he finished speaking, the gazes of everyone around once again fell upon Cao Zhen. Some seemed not to know what the Canghai Sangtian Pearl was and began asking about its function.

Listening to Little Beiyan's words, Cao Zhen gently shook his head. He was no reincarnated great ability; this was not about restoring his cultivation base. He also had to break through step by step, with the only special trait being that he could directly lie down and win.

But the problem was, lying down to win also required time. Currently, besides Ruo Yun, none of his disciples had broken through to the Immortality Regainment Realm. How much could he lie down and win?

Even if he were to spend all the accumulated extra experience from before, he might still be unable to enter the True Immortal Realm.

However, he couldn't speak this truthfully.

Feeling the gaze of the crowd, he just shook his head helplessly and fabricated, "No, my cultivation in this life is completely different from my previous life; I have taken another path. Now, I can no longer follow the path of my previous life. Thus, my cultivation is like yours: slow cultivation and slow breakthroughs."

The people around, upon hearing this, immediately darkened their expressions.

"Even the Sect Hierarch can't do it?"

"Then what should we do? Can we only escape or seek help from the Dragon Chant Sect?"

"If the Sect Hierarch can't, then what about Immortal Ruo Yun?"

Someone suddenly realized, and as his words fell, the rest also quickly reacted. Besides the Sect Hierarch, Bai Feng Sect had another reincarnated great ability.

"Immortal Ruo Yun, if given a thousand years, could you break through into the True Immortal Realm?"

Ruo Yun sighed softly and said helplessly, "Although I have preserved a certain path from my previous life, the path I walk in this life is not completely identical to that of my previous life.

You all know that once you've set your path, you must steadfastly follow it. My Immortal Mountain is already determined; if I were to temporarily change now, to purely follow my previous life's path, it would already be too late and impossible to break through to the True Immortal Realm.

I must continue on the path of this life to break through to the Guardian Immortal Realm, and some paths in this life I haven't traveled before in my previous life, so I don't know how much I can comprehend in a thousand years.

Moreover, besides personal effort, cultivation requires all sorts of resources.

I also need various pills and need to travel to different places for enlightenment. But after using the Canghai Sangtian, I can only stay within that specific space and cannot go anywhere for much insight.

With that, even given a thousand years, I couldn't break through to the True Immortal Realm either."

"So we have no other way? Should we only seek help from the Dragon Chant Sect?"

Everyone began to feel a headache.

Suddenly, Qiu Yixue, the once Bai Fengzi, who had never spoken, slowly opened her mouth, "Perhaps, there's one method. Don't forget, we merged with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, which still has the Sky Encompassing Ten Thousand Immortals Star Gathering Formation. Moreover, the former Ten Thousand Immortals Sect also left behind several living tombs."

Qiu Yixue looked at Cao Zhen and said, "Back then, when the power of Heaven and Earth fully unleashed and the experts awoke, Sect Hierarchy, you were not within Bai Feng Sect, while I remained within Bai Feng Sect, where I witnessed the awakening of Ten Thousand Immortals Sect's experts.

On that day when their experts awoke, although the formation covered them, I, being nearby Ten Thousand Immortals Mountain, felt an especially powerful aura, suggesting that the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect should have experts in the True Immortal Realm."

As her words fell, everyone started to react.

"Right, there's the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect!"

"The Ten Thousand Immortals Sect was once a truly great teaching."

"Because of the merger with our Bai Feng Sect, their experts did not die! Now their Ten Thousand Immortals Sect and our Bai Feng Sect have integrated as one!"

"Right, have the people from the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect take action!"

While everyone was excited, Qiu Yixue spoke again, "However, contacting them might not be straightforward. If the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect's experts intended to help us, they would have already acted, not stayed inactive.

Also, I've been worried all along, that if they do have someone in the True Immortal Realm, would they tolerate our Bai Feng Sect merging with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect?

Though we call it a merger, the place is still called Bai Feng Sect, not Ten Thousand Immortals Sect. With their revival, might they not want to reclaim control of the great teaching?"

With Qiu Yixue's words said, everyone regained composure, brows furrowed with concern.

If it were them, if Bai Feng Sect were merged by another great teaching, and if they had enough strength, upon realizing the other's strength was inferior, they too would want to reclaim control of the great teaching.

"No matter what, we now see hope." Nie Jie pondered, and looking at Cao Zhen, softly said, "Sect Hierarchy, should we go and negotiate with them?"

"Very well." Cao Zhen fell silent for a moment before nodding slightly, "Continue your cultivation; I will go to look into the matter with them."

With those words, he stood up and flew toward the back of Bai Feng Sect.

The rear mountain of Bai Feng Sect was once the territory of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, where many of its peaks were connected to those of Bai Feng Sect.

But the main peak of the former Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, Ten Thousand Immortals Mountain, and some other important peaks, at the strong insistence of the formation spirit, were not joined with the peaks of Bai Feng Sect but were entirely relocated to the rear mountain's location.

Chapter 1923:

When Cao Zhen moved to the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, he discovered several graves in the back mountain, indicating that some masters of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect had survived.

Now that the Heavenly Dao no longer restricts the power between Heaven and earth, all the masters have awakened, naturally including the masters of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect.

However, after awakening, they did not step out of the back mountain, and people from the Hundred Peaks Sect generally wouldn't go to the back mountain either.

Therefore, as of now, they don't know how many people have awakened in the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, nor have they seen anyone from the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect.

Cao Zhen flew over one mountain peak after another and landed in the back mountain where the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect was located.

This back mountain also belongs to the Hundred Peaks Sect, but once inside, it feels as if entering another Great Teaching.

The Hundred Peaks Sect, although lacking top masters, now only has Ruo Yun, an Immortality Regainment Realm presence, and no True Immortal Realm.

Nevertheless, in recent years, the development of the Hundred Peaks Sect has been very rapid, because Cao Zhen is strong enough, and other masters on Four Treasures Peak, whether in the Longevity Period, the Indestructible Period, or the Immortal Path Domain, are extremely strong. Additionally, because of the strength of the Hundred Peaks Sect, many geniuses have chosen to join the Hundred Peaks Sect.

In recent years, the Hundred Peaks Sect has recruited more and more disciples.

In terms of disciple numbers, although the Hundred Peaks Sect cannot compare with some top Great Teachings like the Dragon Chant Sect or Yin Yang Sect, compared to some weaker Great Teachings like the Five Sounds Sect, their disciples' numbers are catching up.

With enough disciples, every place and every peak of the Hundred Peaks Sect is full of vibrant vitality.

But the back mountain lacks this vitality and is filled with a desolate atmosphere; ruins are everywhere as you walk into the back mountain.

Obviously, the awakened masters of the Hundred Peaks Sect have not cleaned up the ruins from when the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect was nearly extinguished.

Cao Zhen hadn't been walking in the back mountain for long when a sound came from afar.

"What are you doing in the back mountain of my Ten Thousand Immortals Sect?"

The voice was harsh and filled with faint hostility. Understandably, anyone would be dissatisfied seeing their original Great Teaching transformed into another's.

With this voice, a figure appeared in the void.

Cao Zhen turned his head and was surprised to find it was a female cultivator. The other party, perhaps to deliberately shock him, revealed an Immortal Mountain of seven hundred zhang tall, accompanied by terrifying energy rushing towards Cao Zhen, causing the surrounding air to pulsate violently, and mountain winds rose.

Immortality Regainment Realm.

Indeed, these people hadn't awakened before because they were all in the Immortality Regainment Realm.

The Immortality Regainment Realm and Immortal Path Domain or Earth Immortal Realm don't seem very different; the biggest difference may be the Immortal Mountain.

Previously, when someone broke through to the Immortal Path Domain from the Earth Immortal Realm, the Immortal Mountain might only be three hundred zhang.

Cao Zhen even saw some Immortal Mountains of the Indestructible Period are less than one hundred zhang tall.

In the Earth Immortal Realm, Immortal Mountains from the Immortal Path Domain are not as tall as those of the genius Indestructible Period, and ordinary Indestructible Period are not as tall as the genius Longevity Period Immortal Mountains.

But the Immortal Mountain of the Immortality Regainment Realm is definitely taller than that of the Earth Immortal Realm.

Once breaking through to the Immortality Regainment Realm, the height of the Immortal Mountain will definitely exceed that of the Earth Immortal Realm.

Cao Zhen felt the pressure from the air, and a sharp look arose in his eyes. In the next moment, a five hundred zhang Immortal Mountain emerged behind him, though not as tall as the other, his momentum was in no way inferior.

Opposite, the female cultivator sensed the pressure coming head-on. Looking at the other's robust and expansive Immortal Mountain, a deep surprise rose in her eyes — how could this person's Immortal Mountain be so vast? This is more like a mountain range than an Immortal Mountain.

Moreover, why does this Immortal Mountain have everything on it? Such chaos — how did he manage to break through into the Immortal Path Domain? And reached its extreme!

Though she never left the back mountain, some disciples of the Hundred Peaks Sect occasionally approach the back mountain for activities, and sometimes she hears their conversation.

From the disciples' conversations, she already knew that the current Sect Hierarchy of the Hundred Peaks Sect was a reincarnated Great Ability, and moreover, this Sect Hierarchy reached the pinnacle of the Golden Core Stage and the pinnacle of the Earth Immortal Realm.

Though surprised, she understood as reincarnated Great Abilities having some means is normal.

But upon truly seeing the other's Immortal Mountain's scope, she was shocked!

Cao Zhen glanced at the female cultivator in the void with a hostile expression, saying: "This place belongs to the Hundred Peaks Sect and I am the Sect Hierarchy. I don't need to notify anyone of where I go."

"You!" Upon hearing Cao Zhen's words, the female cultivator's face instantly turned ashen — this place used to belong to their Ten Thousand Immortals Sect!

The Hundred Peaks Sect claimed to merge with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, yet now, many peaks, buildings, and even cave mansions once belonging to the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect are part of the Hundred Peaks Sect. The Great Teaching here is called the Hundred Peaks Sect, having no relation with the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, how is this different from annexation?

Chapter 1924:

Cao Zhen mentioned it again, emphasizing that this is the Hundred Peaks Sect.

The female cultivator's face showed a hint of displeasure, waves of chilling killing intent surged from her body, her eyes were as sharp as blades, staring fixedly at Cao Zhen, she said coldly, "Can I assume that you're provoking our Ten Thousand Immortals Sect? And those who provoke the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect must be punished."

While speaking, a sharp sword appeared in her hand, the blade entirely emerald green, faintly accompanied by a dragon's roar emanating from the sword, seemingly ready to strike in the next moment.

From afar, another voice was heard.

"Bi Qing, do not be rude."

As the voice fell, a middle-aged beautiful woman appeared in the void.

Bi Qing listened to the voice coming from above her head, glared fiercely at Cao Zhen, then put away the sharp sword, turned to the beautiful woman appearing in the void, and said, "Elder Sister, I just wanted to have a spar with this so-called reincarnated Great Ability, the Sect Leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"What are you going to spar about, you in the Immortality Regainment Realm with someone in the Earth Immortal Realm? You call that sparring?" The beautiful woman glared at her junior sister, then looked at Cao Zhen and said, "Sect Leader Cao, is it? Since you've come to our Ten Thousand Immortals Mountain, you must have some business with us. Her Excellency is in the main hall, come with me."

As she finished speaking, she hadn't even released the Immortal Mountain, but with a single step forward, the next moment, she was already in front of a towering building in the distance.

Cao Zhen had a feeling that this beautiful woman, even if she hadn't reached the True Immortal Realm, was probably a top expert in the Immortality Regainment Realm.

Soon, she and Bi Qing both flew into the hall.

Although other places in the Ten Thousand Immortals Mountain were neither repaired nor even cleaned, this Conference Hall had evidently been newly refurbished.

Cao Zhen walked into the hall, and with one glance, he was surprised to find that, in addition to Bi Qing and that beautiful woman who had appeared earlier, there were a total of six people in the hall, and all of them were women.

So, was it the case that after the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect was annihilated, the survivors were all women?

After sweeping his gaze around the people present, his eyes quickly fell on the quite aged old woman among them, sitting prominently amongst those present.

This old woman not only appeared aged but also withered, her hands seemingly just a layer of skin, and her face filled with bluish blotches.

Clearly, this old woman hadn't turned into this appearance because her life was ending, or due to the Five Decay of Heaven and Man, she had some internal injuries!

Even though this old woman appeared so weak, and even though she didn't release any aura, just by seeing her, Cao Zhen felt that this old woman was the strongest of them all.

In fact, even combined, they were no match for this old woman.

As he looked at the old woman, she also looked over, her slightly cloudy eyes meeting his. But at the first glance, Cao Zhen felt as if he wasn't looking into a person's eyes but witnessing an endless river of history.

Immediately, his gaze involuntarily shifted aside, and at the same time, his heart uncontrollably started beating wildly, as if it were about to leap out of his body or even explode.

The next moment, the Age of Prosperity Qi in his body started circulating crazily, flows of this qi coursing through his body, finally restoring his heart to a normal rhythm, and his gaze returned to the old woman.

The old woman sensed the change in the young man's gaze and suddenly a flash of brilliance shot out from her cloudy eyes. In an instant, Cao Zhen felt as if the entire world's light was focusing on the old woman. At this moment, the pupils in those eyes seemed like two brilliant stars.

"Interesting, just an Earth Immortal Realm, yet capable of meeting my gaze."

The old woman gently nodded, the light in her eyes completely receded. At this moment she seemed to transform into an ordinary dying elder, leaning slightly back into the chair, as if only resting against the back could support her sitting up. She slowly spoke, "I have already heard of the situation your Hundred Peaks Sect encountered.

A Great Teaching wants to seize your mountain gate, and you cannot resist, so you've come to seek aid from our Ten Thousand Immortals Sect."

There was no surprise in Cao Zhen's eyes. If this old woman was a True Immortal Realm existence, she would naturally be aware of what happened outside the Hundred Peaks Sect's mountain gate.

And based on his observation just now, this old woman must be of the True Immortal Realm. If she were only in the Immortality Regainment Realm, she wouldn't exert such pressure on him.

As long as the other party is in the True Immortal Realm, all is negotiable.

He nodded slightly and said, "Yes, I indeed wish for your assistance, and I think you will help, won't you?"

"That's right, I indeed can act," the old woman looked at Cao Zhen and gently turned her head, "Because your Hundred Peaks Sect merged with our Ten Thousand Immortals Sect? Because if you are annihilated, we will also be annihilated."

As her words fell, the other six female cultivators of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect in the hall turned pale, hurriedly trying to dissuade her.

"Master Aunt, you cannot take action!"

"Master Aunt, your injuries, if you take action, then perhaps..."

"Perhaps what? Perhaps I will die, is that it? No need to mention perhaps. With my current injuries, if I take action, I will surely die! However, if I do not act, the Hundred Peaks Sect will either fight to the death or leave this place.

Chapter 1925: [6]

Whatever the outcome, it is not what I wish to see.

After all, this is not only the mountain gate of the Hundred Peaks Sect but also of our Ten Thousand Immortals Sect. I do not want to see our sect's mountain gate being occupied by others again."

The old woman gestured to the other five women, indicating they should remain silent, and then turned to look at Cao Zhen again, "I will take action, but your Hundred Peaks Sect must pay a price.

My demand is simple: I will help you fend off those great teachings' attacks, and your Hundred Peaks Sect must change its name to Ten Thousand Immortals Sect."

Saying this, she pointed at the young woman who appeared earlier, "She will become the Sect Hierarchy of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect."

"Impossible!" Cao Zhen immediately shook his head, "In that case, our Hundred Peaks Sect would become the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect."

"That would be better than your Hundred Peaks Sect facing extermination, or having to abandon this mountain gate. You are a reincarnated Great Ability, and you should clearly understand that once a great teaching loses its mountain gate, its fortune greatly diminishes, making survival impossible. When the next Sect Tribulation comes, your Hundred Peaks Sect will surely be wiped out.

But if you change your sect's name to Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, your Hundred Peaks Sect still exists, your disciples are alive, and your legacy continues."

"I have other ways to ensure the survival of the Hundred Peaks Sect." Cao Zhen spoke slowly, looking at the old woman, "Our Eastern Province has more than just one True Immortal. If I pay a certain price, naturally, there will be True Immortals to take action. And no matter what the price, it will be less than what you require."

"Turning to other great teachings?" The old woman shook her head again upon hearing this, "You go to another great teaching for help, paying a price, and then what? Your Hundred Peaks Sect's strength is evident to everyone, and they all know you have no True Immortal experts.

This time, you fend off the Death River Sect, but what if Black Spring Sect or Yellow Mountain Sect attacks next? Will you go to another great teaching for help again? After a few times, will you still have enough treasures to invite their help?

Moreover, how do you know they won't set their eyes on your Hundred Peaks Sect, aiming to annex it?

However, allowing Yao Feng to become the Sect Hierarch changes things."

The old woman pointed at the beautiful woman, "She is already at the Peak Immortality Regainment Realm, and the only reason she hasn't broken through is a lack of resources. As long as you make Yao Feng the Sect Hierarch and provide her with sufficient resources, don't you have the Instant Millennium Pearl? With that treasure bead, she can surely break through into the True Immortal Realm within a hundred, or even fewer, years.

In that way, even if I fall, your great teaching will have a True Immortal, and then you can provide more resources for the Formation Spirit to restore some of the power of the Sky Encompassing Ten Thousand Immortals Star Gathering Formation.

Then, naturally, no one will be able to threaten this great teaching again."

Cao Zhen still shook his head, "But in that case, this great teaching won't be called the Hundred Peaks Sect anymore, it would be the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect."

"That is still better than being exterminated." The old woman stood up abruptly, looking at Cao Zhen, and said word by word, "You have no choice, this is the only path to survival for your Hundred Peaks Sect.

If you do not agree to my terms, our Ten Thousand Immortals Sect cannot recover, then I would rather watch your Hundred Peaks Sect perish, followed by our Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, and I will not take action!"

"Are you threatening me?" Cao Zhen rose angrily, "I..."

Before he could finish his sentence, suddenly, the sky outside turned dark, then bright again, and the next moment, turned pitch black once more.

This way, outside the sky, day and night alternated wildly, repeating like this ninety-nine times. Finally, the sky turned completely black, no longer changing.

And in the void, sun, moon, and stars simultaneously appeared.

Heavenly Phenomenon?

Cao Zhen looked with astonishment into the distance, wondering what had happened to cause a heavenly phenomenon.

Meanwhile, the old woman from the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect had unknowingly descended from her seat, stepping to the window, looking out into the distance, and murmured to herself, "Heavenly phenomenon, this aura, has someone broken through to the Guardian Immortal Realm?"

True Immortal Realm?

Has someone broken through?

Cao Zhen, full of surprise, looked towards the distance, seemingly the place where the heavenly phenomenon was most evident, in the direction of the Capital City.

Capital City?

Could it be, the Grand Preceptor?

The next moment, high above in the void, a beam of light suddenly shot up from the pitch-black distance, seemingly engulfing all the light in the world. Even at an immeasurable distance, even to someone of Cao Zhen's cultivation base, just one glance caused his eyes to ache.

Following this, the light gradually softened, and at the same time, a familiar figure appeared in Cao Zhen's line of sight.

Grand Preceptor!

Indeed, it's the Grand Preceptor!

Is he breaking through to become a True Immortal?

But the issue is, wasn't the Grand Preceptor in the Immortality Regainment Realm? Previously, the Grand Preceptor had even self-inflicted several wounds, causing his cultivation base to drop significantly.

Upon awakening, shouldn't he first restore his cultivation base?

How is he directly breaking through to True Immortal?

Not only him, the entire Hundred Peaks Sect, the entire Eastern Wasteland, everyone noticed the heavenly phenomenon, noticed the figure in the light beam.

Hundreds of years ago, even mortals within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty would have recognized this figure, but now, within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, mortals who saw this figure just found it familiar, not knowing who it was.

But within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, cultivators of some age, looking at the figure in the sky, let out a series of exclamations.

"Is that the Grand Preceptor?"

"It's the Grand Preceptor. This heavenly phenomenon, could it be that the Grand Preceptor is breaking through to True Immortal Realm?"

"True Immortal Realm? How did he achieve that? The Grand Preceptor at this point should only be in the Immortality Regainment Realm, not even at the peak. How is he breaking through to True Immortal Realm?"

Under the watchful eyes of everyone in the entire Eastern Province, including cultivators, including all kinds of mortals, the Grand Preceptor crossed the air, taking a step onto the brilliant star river.

At this moment, all the light between heaven and earth converged onto him, making his figure all the more striking in the night, with divine light flowing around him. From afar, he seemed like an Immortal descending to the world.

Chapter 1926:

The entire Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, even the entire Eastern Wasteland, and even the Eastern Province, countless mortals and cultivators were gazing at the void.

The Grand Preceptor stood upon the starry river, with an Immortal Mountain rising behind him, stretching endlessly upwards.

And at the very top of the Immortal Mountain, slowly, a mountain peak began to shake wildly, and slowly on this mountain, a massive palace began to appear.

This palace was enshrouded by clouds, making it indistinct, but even from a great distance, Cao Zhen could feel the ancient and mysterious aura emanating from that palace.

Immortal Palace!

"It's the Immortal Palace!"

"Indeed it's the Immortal Palace, the Grand Preceptor has become a True Immortal Realm existence!"

"Only an existence of the True Immortal Realm can condense an Immortal Palace!"

"The Grand Preceptor must have just awakened not long ago."

"So, the Grand Preceptor must have previously reached the Peak Immortality Regainment Realm to break through so quickly into the True Immortal Realm!"

In the Eastern Wasteland, older cultivators gazed at the figure in the void, their hearts filled with emotions.

Previously, the Grand Preceptor, by his own strength, suppressed the entire Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, and even cultivators from surrounding dynasties. Initially, some were discontent, and even later, some cultivators tried to unite to resist the Grand Preceptor.

Now, seeing the Grand Preceptor having broken through into the True Immortal Realm, they suddenly felt how ridiculous they must have been!

None of them had even reached the Immortality Regainment Realm; the strongest were only at the Peak Earthly Immortal Realm within the Immortal Path Domain.

They still foolishly attempted to deal with someone who had reached the Peak Immortality Regainment Realm, wasn't that courting death?

Initially, they even felt the Grand Preceptor was too overbearing, but now, seeing the Grand Preceptor's breakthrough, they realized the Grand Preceptor was truly merciful, or that he had his own principles, respecting the rules enough. Otherwise, if the Grand Preceptor truly wanted to kill them, it would have been as easy as lifting a finger.

Within the Hundred Peaks Sect, after his initial shock, Cao Zhen quickly revealed a smile on his face. With the Grand Preceptor's breakthrough, their Hundred Peaks Sect, or rather the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, finally had backing.

The Grand Preceptor's rules were for everyone; even cultivators within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty had to comply with his rules.

If the so-called Death River Sect dared to trouble the Hundred Peaks Sect, the Grand Preceptor would surely intervene.

However, the Grand Preceptor has just broken through and is alone; who knows if he can withstand the True Immortal Realm from the other side.

Although he knew the Death River Sect had True Immortal Realm experts, he didn't know how many True Immortal Realms there were in the Death River Sect, nor did he know how many Immortal Palaces they possessed.

Suddenly, in the void, atop the mountain behind the Grand Preceptor, a second peak began to tremble, and on this peak, the shadow of another palace slowly emerged.

The second Immortal Palace!

In the Conference Hall, the old woman of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect's eyes widened sharply, filled with incredulity.

Beside her, the other five disciples of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, each one, faces filled with shock, stared into the distant void.

"He... he's still condensing Immortal Palaces!"

"After the breakthrough, he actually condensed two Immortal Palaces!"

"Normally, breaking through to the Path True Immortal Realm is extremely difficult, let alone condensing two Immortal Palaces right after the breakthrough!"

"Yes, in this world, those who can immediately condense two Immortal Palaces after breaking through are rare indeed; even in our Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, only the Sect Hierarch and Vice Sect Hierarch could condense two Immortal Palaces right after breaking through!"

"Who exactly is this person? To have such talent, condensing two Immortal Palaces right after breaking through!"

"Wait a moment, what's with his Immortal Palace, what's that? Is it a spectacle?"

"It's a Spectacle Immortal Palace, not an ordinary Immortal Palace!"

In the void, the Immortal Palace behind the Grand Preceptor was gradually taking form, but now, this palace no longer looked like a palace but like a massive military camp!

Within the camp, waves of battle cries kept emerging, as if countless celestial troops and generals were gathering within this Immortal Palace. And within the Palace, there was more: a figure donned in armor, wielding a sharp blade, the silhouette of a battle-hardened General overlapped with this Immortal Palace, merged as one.

"A Spectacle Immortal Palace, it truly is a Spectacle Immortal Palace!"

"Fang Yi broke through and condensed two Immortal Palaces, and one of them is a Spectacle Immortal Palace! What talent does he possess; how much accumulation did he have before!"

"Incredible!"

Within the Conference Hall of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect, one disciple after another couldn't help but exclaim in astonishment.

Cao Zhen knew about the Spectacle Immortal Palace; just like the Golden Core Stage's golden core, there are ordinary golden cores and phenomenon golden cores, the same applies to Immortal Palaces; there are Spectacle Immortal Palaces which are naturally stronger and rarer than ordinary ones.

However, unlike the Golden Core Stage, where the phenomenon golden core is formed from a previously condensed Phenomenon Pill during the Inner Core Stage, indicating the possibility of condensing a phenomenon golden core by the Golden Core Stage.

In the Inner Elixir Vessel, if there's no Phenomenon Pill condensed, a phenomenon golden core can't be achieved during the Golden Core Stage either.

Moreover, once the golden core is condensed, it either is or isn't a phenomenon core; it is very challenging to transform an ordinary golden core into a phenomenon one afterwards.

But for the True Immortal Realm, it's different. In the True Immortal Realm, most newly condensed Immortal Palaces are ordinary, but later, through continuous cultivation and insights, there is a chance to transform ordinary Immortal Palaces into Spectacle Immortal Palaces.

Yet now, the Grand Preceptor has just broken through, and his palace is already a Spectacle Immortal Palace, and it condensed two Immortal Palaces at once.

Chapter 1927:

Something's not right...

Cao Zhen's eyes suddenly widened as he looked into the distance. In the void, behind the Grand Preceptor, within the Immortal Mountain, the third peak began to shake violently.

"No way!"

"He... he's going to manifest a third Immortal Palace!"

"He just broke through, and he can already manifest three Immortal Palaces?"

"How is this possible? It's already rare for someone to manifest two Immortal Palaces upon their first breakthrough, but I've never even heard of anyone manifesting three at once."

"Could it be? It seems he really is about to manifest it!"

"No, he's already manifested it!"

In the void, on the third peak, the Immortal Palace was gradually taking form. This was a very special Immortal Palace; it had two palaces, with a long, ruler-like stone pillar in the middle as if the two palaces were hanging on it.

No matter how Cao Zhen looked, the two palaces seemed more like a balance scale.

And in the middle of these two palaces, there were shadows that seemed to hang from the ruler-like stone pillar. Upon closer inspection, these shadows were actually various torture instruments!

"A phenomenon!"

"This Immortal Palace also has a phenomenon!"

"This is also a Phenomenon Immortal Palace!"

"This person is terrifyingly gifted; Fang Yi broke through and manifested three Immortal Palaces, two of which are Phenomenon Immortal Palaces! What kind of talent is this? What a prodigy!"

"Something's not right..."

Suddenly, an elderly woman who had been watching the far distance extended a withered finger, pointing at the first Immortal Mountain manifested by the Grand Preceptor in the void, her face full of shock. "His first Immortal Palace seems to also be a Phenomenon Immortal Palace..."

"Phenomenon Immortal Palace?" The crowd turned their heads toward the first Immortal Palace the Grand Preceptor manifested upon hearing this.

"Uncle Master, how come we couldn't see that it was a Phenomenon Immortal Palace?"

"The fog surrounding the first Immortal Palace is too dense; we can't see inside at all, not even its shape."

The elderly woman did not respond immediately but stared at the Grand Preceptor's first Immortal Palace for a while longer before slowly speaking, "Indeed, it is a Phenomenon Immortal Palace. Once you enter the Earth Immortal Realm, you will naturally be able to see clearly."

I never imagined there still existed such a remarkable person in this world. Just entered the True Immortal Realm and managed to manifest three Immortal Palaces, all of which are Phenomenon Immortal Palaces.

I've never heard of such a prodigy!"

The people around were similarly shocked and bewildered upon hearing this. Why would such a person exist within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty?

Or had the peerless figure from Central Continent come to the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, and today just happened to be the day of their breakthrough?

Amidst the shock, someone softly inquired, "Uncle Master, what is the phenomenon of this person's first Immortal Palace exactly?"

"His phenomenon? I can't see clearly either; vaguely, it seems to be a whirlpool..." The elderly woman said, watching the heavenly phenomenon gradually disappear in the void, she let out a sigh of relief. Thankfully, this person had finally stopped. If they had manifested a fourth Immortal Palace, she might have gone mad. Even now, she was somewhat questioning her own existence.

To manifest three Immortal Palaces in one breath, and all of them Phenomenon Immortal Palaces, how could such a person exist in the world!

Still reeling from the shock, Cao Zhen's voice suddenly rang out.

"This... I don't even know how to address you. In any case, our Hundred Peaks Sect doesn't need to invite masters from other Great Teachings anymore; we now have our own master at the True Immortal Realm."

"What?"

The elderly woman was brought back to her senses upon hearing this, looking at Cao Zhen in disbelief, "What did you just say? You have a master at the True Immortal Realm? Was that person from your Hundred Peaks Sect?"

Someone just broke through, and then Cao Zhen said they wouldn't need a master at the True Immortal Realm anymore, clearly implying that person was one of theirs from the Hundred Peaks Sect.

"No, wait!" she realized something wrong just as she finished, "If that person were from your Hundred Peaks, their Living Tomb should be within your sect, not outside."

The Hundred Peaks Sect was already formidable. If they had such a master, they wouldn't have allowed this master's Living Tomb to be built outside but rather within the sect!

Cao Zhen straightforwardly nodded, "Indeed, he's not from our Hundred Peaks Sect."

As soon as he finished speaking, Bi Qing instantly showed a disdainful expression, "Then why did you say you have your own master at the True Immortal Realm?"

"What I said isn't contradictory." Cao Zhen smiled, "You've been awake for a while now; have you ever heard of the Grand Preceptor?"

"Grand Preceptor?" The crowd shook their heads upon hearing this.

Cao Zhen was slightly taken aback by their reaction, then realized that at the advent of the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, people from the Hundred Peaks Sect, and others from the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, whether cultivators or ordinary people, frequently mentioned the Grand Preceptor.

But as he continually rose and time went on, people began to forget about the Grand Preceptor, and few mentioned him anymore. The people from the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect hadn't been awake for very long, and since no one in the Hundred Peaks Sect had mentioned the Grand Preceptor, naturally, they were unaware of his existence.

After a brief moment of thought, he softly said, "The Grand Preceptor is the Grand Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty; everyone within the dynasty must abide by its rules, including cultivators."

Chapter 1928:

"What?"

"Cultivators must also adhere to the dynasty's rules, what kind of rule is this! Are mortals to govern cultivators?"

Several people from the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect shook their heads immediately upon hearing this.

Cao Zhen looked at their reactions and chuckled softly, saying, "Why not? Not only that, but within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, everyone is equal, whether they are nobles or ordinary civilians, or even cultivators. If a cultivator violates the laws of the dynasty, they must also endure punishment."

"Impossible!"

"Punish cultivators? To have those mortals punish cultivators? This is simply a joke!"

"Why should cultivators face mortals' punishment?" Bi Qing looked at Cao Zhen and asked in return, "Are you saying that even if someone from your Hundred Peaks Sect violated the so-called rules of the Guardian Immortal Dynasty, they would also face punishment?"

"Of course, I said before, within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, everyone must abide by its rules, no one can defy them. The reason for these rules is because of the Grand Preceptor! Because of just one person, the entire dynasty is suppressed." Cao Zhen raised his hand and pointed into the void at the disappearing figure of the Grand Preceptor, saying, "The person you see is the Grand Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty."

"He is the Grand Preceptor?"

"He..."

Upon hearing this, everyone was at a loss for words.

After a while, the old woman slowly opened her mouth and said, "He alone is truly enough to suppress this place. Only someone of his caliber could establish such rules of equality between mortals and cultivators."

"But, Uncle Master, if he is such a charismatic figure, why would he want to help the Guardian Immortal Dynasty, and help the mortals?" Bi Qing still couldn't understand.

"Why not help the mortals?" Cao Zhen looked at Bi Qing in front of him, speaking in an educating tone, "Don't forget, all of you, every one of you, were once mortals, you were not born as cultivators."

"You..." Bi Qing was left speechless once again and suddenly, as if thinking of something, she said, "So what? Even if the Grand Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Dynasty is a True Immortal, does he necessarily have to help your Hundred Peaks Sect? Would he offend a major sect for the sake of your Hundred Peaks Sect?"

"Why wouldn't he?" Cao Zhen withdrew his gaze from the distant horizon and looked at the six from the All-encompassing Sect in front of him, "I have said, everyone within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty must accept its rules.

And the Death River Sect is no exception. They want to seize the mountain gate of our Hundred Peaks Sect, which violates the rules of the Guardian Immortal Dynasty, so the Grand Preceptor will naturally take action."

Bi Qing still expressed disbelief, saying, "Just for this reason? Is it possible that if any random mortal in the Guardian Immortal Dynasty offended a major sect, the Grand Preceptor would also take action?"

"Naturally." Cao Zhen emphatically nodded, this was the charisma of the Grand Preceptor.

"Why does he do this?" Bi Qing shook her head, unable to understand.

Next to her, the old woman sighed deeply, face full of lamentation as she said, "This must be the reason he is able to become such an extraordinary figure."

In the crowd, the previously silent Beautiful Wife Yao Feng suddenly asked aloud, "Now that he has awakened, he can naturally suppress everything, after all, he is the only True Immortal in your Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty and the entire Eastern Wasteland."

But what about before he awakened? Before the arrival of the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, he was presumably asleep, during that time, how did he ensure everyone adhered to his rules? Were there not those who wanted to unearth his burial site?"

As her words fell, Bi Qing and the others also realized.

"Yes, he's not part of any major sect, and even if he has disciples or even a sect obeying his commands, during the era shift, he could not suppress all cultivators alone."

"Exactly, I don't believe all the cultivators in your Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty willingly listened to him. There would certainly be many cultivators wanting to resist; if they united, they could even find the Grand Preceptor's burial site and excavate it to kill him!"

Cao Zhen nodded slightly at them and said, "You're right, many cultivators indeed wanted to kill the Grand Preceptor. However, although the Grand Preceptor was asleep, the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty still had a State Preceptor."

As he spoke, Cao Zhen pointed to himself, saying, "And I am the State Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty. With the Grand Preceptor absent, I was still enough to suppress everything. Now that the Grand Preceptor is awake, it's his turn to suppress everything."

All the people around immediately fell into silence.

The recent breakthrough was by the Grand Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, and Cao Zhen is the State Preceptor. Even if the Grand Preceptor wasn't like Cao Zhen described, actively helping sects or mortals in the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty when difficulties arise, still, if the State Preceptor's Immortal Sect had troubles, the Grand Preceptor would unquestionably take action.

Thus, would Cao Zhen still seek their help?

For a moment, everyone fell silent.

The old woman also fell silent for a moment before speaking again, "The Grand Preceptor you mentioned is indeed a rare extraordinary figure seen only once in ten thousand or a million years, yet after all, he has just broken through. Currently, he only has three Immortal Palaces.

The Death River Sect comes from the Central Continent, a great teaching; within their sect, there might be more than one True Immortal.

The Grand Preceptor alone may not be able to keep your Hundred Peaks Sect safe."

Cao Zhen's heart suddenly sank; what this old woman said was the truth. During his five or more years in the Central Continent, he had heard of many great teachings, and they indeed had more than just one True Immortal.

Chapter 1929:

If possible, having two True Immortal Realm experts from the Hundred Peaks Sect assist would be ideal, but the demands of these Ten Thousand Immortals Sect people are too excessive, and he cannot agree to them.

Cao Zhen deliberately let out a light chuckle, and retorted, "Is that so? Then you mentioned earlier that you stood alone against the opponent, at that time the Grand Preceptor had not awakened, and you were alone and already injured."

The old woman, upon hearing this, suddenly started to laugh, though the laughter lacked strength, the voice was filled with strong confidence, "Indeed, this Immortal Lord is alone, and indeed I am injured, but I possess the existence of seven Immortal Palaces! Do you think this Immortal Lord cannot stop them?"

Cao Zhen looked at the old woman in front of him, revealing a trace of surprise in his eyes.

The old woman continued, "My condition remains the same, as long as your Hundred Peaks Sect changes its name to Ten Thousand Immortals Sect and allows Yao Feng to become the Sect Hierarch, this Immortal Lord will act."

Cao Zhen looked the old woman up and down and said, "Act? And then die, is that so?"

"Impudent!"

"Do not be disrespectful to the Martial Uncle!"

In the hall, several other disciples of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect were angered upon hearing this.

Cao Zhen seemingly unfazed by their anger, looked at the old woman and asked, "You've worked hard to cultivate to your current cultivation realm, are you willing to die just like this?"

The old woman's eyes revealed a hint of unwillingness, but she sighed and said, "This Immortal Lord has not yet seen our Ten Thousand Immortals Sect restored, naturally, I do not want to die now. However, this Immortal Lord knows her own body's condition. Even if I refrain from acting, I am afraid I will not live for a hundred years."

Cao Zhen gently shook his head, "Under normal circumstances, indeed, you would not live much longer, but there are some pills in the world that could save you."

"Does this Immortal Lord not know there are pills that can heal my injuries? However, my injury, in this world, only one kind of pill can heal it, and that is the Four Holy Rejuvenation Pill!

To refine such a pill requires the legendary blood of the Four Holy Beasts: Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Black Tortoise, and Vermilion Bird. Such a pill, how could it possibly be refined?"

Cao Zhen looked at the old woman and extended two fingers, "But your previous statement was not entirely accurate; besides the pill you mentioned, there are two other types of pills that can treat your injuries, one of which is the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill."

"You actually know of the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill." The old woman looked at Cao Zhen in surprise and then realized, "I almost forgot, you are a reincarnated person, knowing the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill is not unusual."

But you should also know the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill has been lost for years. No one in the world can refine it, not even in the Central Continent!"

"Others may not be able to refine it, but that does not mean I cannot." Cao Zhen said calmly, "The Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill is not particularly difficult to refine."

"What, you can refine the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill!"

Around him, five other disciples of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect instantly surrounded Cao Zhen at these words.

"You really can refine the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill? Are you not lying?"

"If you can refine the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill, how can you prove it?"

Even the old woman was no longer as composed as before, and Cao Zhen could clearly feel her breathing become rapid.

"I have no reason to deceive you, you have been awake for some time, you should have heard many of our Great Teaching's disciples mention I am skilled in alchemy."

I have five disciples who are Ancient Immortal Bodies; you should also know that Ancient Immortal Bodies cannot break through, but my five disciples are now all at the peak of the Immortal Path Domain. Their ability to reach this point, apart from their own efforts and talents, is also because of the pills I refined.

I was able to help Ancient Immortal Bodies break through to the Immortal Path Domain; refining a Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill should not be too challenging, right."

At these words, the five were instantly moved; they knew well that the Ancient Immortal Body could not break through, not to mention reaching the Earth Immortal Realm, even the Golden Core Stage was almost impossible.

Yet, Cao Zhen could use pills to help his five disciples all break through into the Immortal Path Domain, such a method was indeed remarkable.

At least, as far as they knew, in the entire Eastern Province, no one else could achieve this.

So, is Cao Zhen truly an Alchemy Master, is he really capable of refining the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill?

The outspoken Bi Qing directly asked, "Tell us, what conditions will make you agree to refine the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill."

Hearing this, Cao Zhen gently shook his head and said, "I will not help you refine the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill."

"You! You are courting death!" Bi Qing heard this, and a vein suddenly bulged on her forehead, this Cao Zhen, first informed them he could refine the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill, and then said he would not refine it for them, if this was not a provocation, then what was!

Within her body, waves of immortal energy surged up, and around her, murderous intent condensed further.

Seeing she was about to act, a gentle aura emanated from beside him, soft to the point that it felt like a breeze, giving a sense of a gentle breeze caressing the face, yet this aura instantly dispelled the terrifying murderous intent surrounding Bi Qing.

Yao Feng took a step forward, standing between Bi Qing and Cao Zhen, raised a hand to stop the impending action of Bi Qing, and looked at Cao Zhen, speaking softly, "Then, may I know what pill you might help the Martial Uncle refine?"

Chapter 1930:

She clearly heard Cao Zhen say that besides the Four Holy Rejuvenation Pills, there are two other pills that can heal the injury of their martial uncle.

Cao Zhen, being the Sect Hierarchy of the Hundred Peaks Sect and a reincarnated Great Ability, would not deliberately claim he can perform alchemy and not do it just to upset us, as that would be of no benefit to us or the Hundred Peaks Sect.

So most likely, what Cao Zhen can help to refine is the third type of pill.

Cao Zhen gave Yao Feng an approving glance and nodded slightly, saying, "The Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill can indeed address your martial uncle's injury, but it requires an abundance of medicinal ingredients. To be blunt, using such a pill to save your martial uncle would be somewhat wasteful."

In truth, it mainly comes down to the ingredients; the materials needed to refine the Transcend Tribulation Immortal Pill are so many that the Hundred Peaks Sect definitely cannot amass enough for such a pill.

"The pill I intend to refine for your martial uncle is the third type of pill, the Samadhi Azure Pill. And coincidentally, within our Hundred Peaks Sect, we actually possess the necessary ingredients to refine such a pill.

However, the Samadhi Azure Pill will not completely heal your martial uncle's injuries in one go, but a single Samadhi Azure Pill can at least allow your martial uncle to live a thousand more years without issues. The second Samadhi Azure Pill must be taken a thousand years later, and its efficacy will be halved, allowing your martial uncle to live another five hundred years. Then, the third pill must be taken five hundred years after that, with efficacy halved again to two hundred and fifty years, and the fourth for one hundred and twenty-five years.

Then, when she takes the fifth Samadhi Azure Pill, the efficacy can actually increase again, reaching two hundred and fifty years, and so on repetitively.

When she takes the tenth Samadhi Azure Pill, her injuries will be completely healed."

Cao Zhen finally revealed the pill he planned to refine. Speaking of the true Samadhi Azure Pill, the injuries of the old woman before them could actually be fully healed with just three pills.

But the problem is, the Hundred Peaks Sect's herbs really cannot produce the complete Samadhi Azure Pill. He can only settle for second best and refine a less genuine version of the Samadhi Azure Pill.

Moreover, directly treating the old woman—who knows what she might do once her injuries are healed? She claimed to be a True Immortal Realm expert with seven Immortal Palaces. Currently, even the Grand Preceptor isn't her match. I need some means to restrain her and keep her in check.

"Samadhi Azure Pill? How come we've never heard of such a pill?"

Several disciples of the Ten Thousand Immortals Sect frowned in unison.

"It's normal for a pill's effect to diminish after being taken multiple times; there are many pills that are only effective the first time. The second time, they have no effect at all.

But what you mentioned, where the effect diminishes then increases again, we have never heard of that."

"You've never heard of it simply because you're ignorant." Cao Zhen glanced at them and said, "I have no reason to deceive you. Anyway, whether it works or not, once I refine the pill and let your master take it, she'll naturally know."

Upon hearing this, the few exchanged glances, pondering. What Cao Zhen said made sense. Whether it works or not will be determined once the pill is refined and their martial uncle tries it.

The old woman, hearing Cao Zhen say he could refine a pill to heal her injuries, was no longer as composed as before, though she didn't show it too obviously.

She pondered over the pill Cao Zhen just mentioned and suddenly asked, "Does the Samadhi Azure Pill have anything to do with the Samadhi True Fire in legends?"

"You're truly a True Immortal Realm expert to have guessed the Samadhi True Fire. That's right, the Samadhi Azure Pill is indeed related to the Samadhi True Fire, as it can't be refined with any other flame. It must be using the Samadhi True Fire."

"Do you also possess the Samadhi True Fire?"

The surrounding people, upon hearing this, looked at Cao Zhen with even more peculiar eyes. The Samadhi True Fire is a truly legendary flame.

According to their Great Teaching's records, in the entire Eastern Province, only two people have ever wielded the Samadhi True Fire. Those two had disciples, but for some reason, their disciples couldn't wield the Samadhi True Fire. Since the sequential fall of those two, the Samadhi True Fire was lost.

Now, Cao Zhen claims that a pill must be refined using the Samadhi True Fire. Does that mean he possesses the Samadhi True Fire?

Suddenly, among the five, a female cultivator in a fiery red robe exclaimed: "That's not right. The Samadhi True Fire can only be cultivated upon reaching the Immortality Regainment Realm, and you're only in the Earth Immortal Realm. How can you have the Samadhi True Fire?"

"Indeed, I am currently in the Earth Immortal Realm, but breaking through to the Immortality Regainment Realm isn't difficult for me. Once I enter the Immortality Regainment Realm, I can naturally cultivate the Samadhi True Fire."

As Cao Zhen spoke, a proud smile appeared on his face. In fact, many pills require the Samadhi True Fire for refining, and Old Zhang, as an Alchemy Master, naturally knows how to refine the Samadhi True Fire.

Furthermore, Old Zhang's method of refining the Samadhi True Fire is quite special. Normally, to refine the Samadhi True Fire requires not only top-notch aptitude but also many extremely rare resources.

That's why those capable of handling the Samadhi True Fire are so few in the world. Some people possess the method to refine the Samadhi True Fire, but they lack the resources.
