

My Master 2001

Chapter 2001:

Yet when Cao Zhen entered these sects and expressed his desire to visit those forbidden lands, none of the sects he visited refused him.

The only pity was that many of these sects accommodated other sects from the Central Continent, and even from the Great Teachings of the Central Continent. Those sects or Great Teachings, for the sake of the sects that sheltered them, allowed Cao Zhen and her to enter the sects or Great Teachings, but their forbidden lands were off-limits to Cao Zhen and her.

Cao Zhen discovered that during these years of his seclusion, the outside world had changed tremendously.

Because the Great Teachings have many people, the sects that accommodate the Great Teachings can only accommodate one Great Teaching.

However, if they are accommodating sects, many sects accommodate two at a time, and some even accommodate three sects from the Central Continent.

Fortunately, none of the sects he remembered were wiped out, which he thought was because the Grand Preceptor awakened early, and also because the sects and Great Teachings from the Central Continent arrived. Some sects or Great Teachings might want to seize others' mountain gates, but it's not that easy to grab them.

However, although there wasn't much contact, he also found that these Great Teachings and sects did not highly recognize the Eastern Province or the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty; they merely saw it as a temporary station.

Moreover, these sects and Great Teachings are not all as amicable as the Extreme Formation Sect. Some sects, despite entering the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, are not that courteous to the sects of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

Especially those sects accommodating Great Teachings, some Great Teachings even have the intention to reverse the roles of guest and host.

However, some are more peaceful or emphasize the well-being of all humanity; they maintain a reasonably harmonious relationship with the sects of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

Some sect leaders even told him that after the arrival of sects from the Central Continent, although the other party wouldn't directly impart spells as he did, their disciples could spar with these sects from the Central Continent or Great Teachings, naturally benefiting immensely from the experience.

Sometimes, when they encountered difficulties or issues during cultivation, if an expert from those sects or Great Teachings was in a good mood, they might also offer some guidance.

In general, for the many Great Teachings of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, the sects and Great Teachings from the Central Continent brought more benefits than harm.

Cao Zhen further discovered that beyond these sects, the world of mortals was much more stable than he'd expected, most likely due to the efforts of the Grand Preceptor.

This time, his journey was also thanks in large part to being accompanied by Immortal Lord Jue Zhen.

After the Thousand Caves Door and other sects merged into a Great Teaching, although they moved with their Immortal Mountains to the new Great Teaching, the places remained, and the spiritual energy there was much denser than usual areas.

When some Great Teachings from the Central Continent arrived, the two Great Teachings with the densest spiritual energy each accommodated a Great Teaching, and couldn't accommodate another one. They didn't want to share a mountain gate with other sects, so they established their mountain gates in these places left by the Thousand Caves Door and other sects.

The people of these Great Teachings didn't recognize Cao Zhen, so naturally, they wouldn't let him enter.

If not for the presence of Immortal Lord Jue Zhen, Cao Zhen wouldn't even be able to find the entrances to these Great Teachings, as the first thing they did after establishing their mountain gates was to set up formations.

Even people in the early or mid True Immortal Realm often found it challenging to locate a Great Teaching's mountain gate.

Fortunately, with Immortal Lord Jue Zhen present, a top-notch expert with possession of eight Immortal Palaces and expertise in formation arts, finding a mountain gate wasn't difficult.

While others might not recognize Cao Zhen, they surely recognized Immortal Lord Jue Zhen, and naturally, they had to give face to an expert like Immortal Lord Jue Zhen, letting them enter the mountain gate.

Cao Zhen and Immortal Lord Jue Zhen advanced along the way, recording everything they saw, and before they knew it, they arrived in front of a grand mountain gate.

"Eastern Wilderness Sect, speaking of which, ever since this Eastern Wilderness Sect was established, I haven't really visited it many times."

Cao Zhen gazed at the magnificent mountain gate before him, putting away the Mountain Leading Talisman. Previously, he could come and go from the Eastern Wilderness Sect as he pleased, but after the Beast Riding Sect arrived and modified its mountain gate, the Eastern Wilderness Sect's gate wasn't as easy to find.

However, compared to those unfamiliar Great Teachings, he was much more familiar with the Hundred Peaks Sect and the Eastern Wilderness Sect. Both Great Teachings retained guiding talismans that could be activated to locate their mountain gates directly.

The mountain gate was jointly guarded by the disciples of the Eastern Wilderness Sect and the Beast Riding Sect, with the person in charge being someone from the Beast Riding Sect.

There was no choice; to ensure the mountain gate's formation could be activated at any time, experts in at least the Immortality Regainment Realm were needed, and there were only three such experts in total within the Eastern Wilderness Sect. One of them was Star Lord Hao Yue, and another was a former sect leader of the Divine Dao Sect.

Among the ten immortal sects of the original Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, the strongest was the Divine Dao Sect.

Besides these, the remaining one was the Axe Madman.

The Axe Madman had previously disappeared for a time, and Star Lord Hao Yue had been searching for him all along, yet never found him, leading everyone to suspect the Axe Madman might have met with some misfortune.

Chapter 2002:

As a result, after the chaos in the Central Continent, the Axe Madman appeared, and he even returned to the Eastern Province, joining the Eastern Wilderness Sect.

After all, Axe Madman was a reincarnated powerhouse, his cultivation speed was far faster than ordinary people. Quickly, he broke through to the Guixian realm.

Even counting the Axe Madman, the Eastern Wilderness Sect only had three in the Guixian realm, so the Beast Taming Sect took on the task of guarding the mountain gate.

The crowd noticed that someone appeared, but they didn't show any worry, nor did they become vigilant.

After all, relying solely on one's understanding of formations and one's own cultivation to find someone else's mountain gate is different from finding it through a Hosting Guide Talisman.

This difference is very obvious.

Entering the mountain gate through a Hosting Guide Talisman is like using a key to open the door, while the other way is like forcibly breaking into someone else's house; naturally, it's different.

The other party, being able to enter through a Hosting Guide Talisman, was clearly an acquaintance.

Above the mountain gate, the disciples responsible for guarding the gate saw the two figures below, their eyes suddenly widened, showing a hint of surprise, and they exclaimed softly: "It's Immortal Lord Jue Zhen from the Extreme Formation Sect; why has she come here? Could it be that she's here to see Immortal Lord Xuan Gui? Was the Hosting Guide Talisman given by Immortal Lord Xuan Gui to Immortal Lord Jue Zhen?"

Immortal Lord Xuan Gui was a very close senior uncle, and his master was the direct junior brother of Immortal Lord Xuan Gui, so he was very well-acquainted with Immortal Lord Xuan Gui, knowing that Immortal Lord Jue Zhen was a close friend of his senior uncle, Immortal Lord Xuan Gui."

As he exclaimed softly, several cries of astonishment also erupted nearby.

"That's Sect Leader Cao!"

"Why has Sect Leader Cao come!"

"Wasn't it said before that Sect Leader Cao was always in seclusion?"

"Your information is too outdated; I heard that Sect Leader Cao has already emerged from seclusion and has visited many sects. It's about time for him to arrive at our Eastern Wilderness Sect."

"Azure Snake Honored One, quickly open the mountain gate."

Although the people of the Eastern Wilderness Sect were guarding the mountain gate alongside the Beast Taming Sect's people, the method to open the gate was controlled by masters in the Guixian realm, and they were unable to open the gate.

"The Hundred Peaks Sect Leader?" Azure Snake Honored One glanced curiously at Cao Zhen; during his time at the Eastern Wilderness Sect's gate, he had inevitably heard many mentioning the Hundred Peaks Sect Leader, Cao Zhen.

He had also heard people say that the Hundred Peaks Sect Leader was a reincarnated powerhouse.

And within the Eastern Wilderness Sect, there were also two reincarnated powerhouses, namely Sect Leader Hao Yue and another, the Axe Madman Venerable.

Though both reincarnated powerhouses were people of the Eastern Wilderness Sect, and even Hao Yue was the sect leader, he felt that those people from the Eastern Wilderness Sect respected Cao Zhen of the Hundred Peaks Sect even more.

Thus, he had always been very curious about Cao Zhen.

Now finally seeing Cao Zhen, with one look, he didn't notice any particularity about Cao Zhen.

Listening to the voices urging him from around, he didn't open the mountain gate immediately. Instead, he extended his hand, channeling his internal immortal energy into the nearby great formation. As the formation started to operate, two gentle beams of light shot out, falling upon the two individuals, but their bodies showed no change with the light shining on them.

Seeing this, Azure Snake Honored One nodded to himself. Following this, the mountain gate of the Eastern Wilderness Sect opened, and he also instructed the two disciples next to him, "Quick, inform the Sect Leader and Immortal Lord Xuan Gui that Immortal Lord Jue Zhen is visiting, and the Hundred Peaks Sect Leader is also here."

Though Cao Zhen was a sect leader of a great teaching, that was after all an Eastern Province great teaching, and Cao Zhen was just like him, in the Guixian realm. In his eyes, Immortal Lord Jue Zhen was more important.

Moreover, even if Cao Zhen wasn't as crucial in his eyes, his status was far higher, beyond his capability to greet, so he naturally had to notify the high echelons within the great teaching.

Cao Zhen and Immortal Lord Jue Zhen swiftly flew to the summit of the Eastern Wilderness Sect's mountain gate, where Azure Snake Honored One hastily came up to greet them, giving a disciple's salute to Immortal Lord Jue Zhen before speaking: "Please forgive the disciple, Immortal Lord. Given the special period, one has to be cautious and prudent."

Immortal Lord Jue Zhen was a friend of his senior uncle, and moreover, her cultivation realm was higher than his, so he naturally had to pay her junior's respect.

He apologized because he had previously controlled the two beams of light emitted by the formations, knowing that as cultivators' capabilities increased, their methods became more varied, including some special techniques to alter one's aura or naturally change appearance.

The two beams he had previously controlled to emit from the formation were to verify whether the visitors had changed their appearance and aura, posing as someone else.

"No problem," Immortal Lord Jue Zhen nodded understandingly. It wasn't just the Eastern Wilderness Sect; the formations left by the Extreme Formation Sect in the Hundred Peaks Sect would also verify whether someone was posing as someone else.

Seeing that Immortal Lord Jue Zhen didn't blame him, Azure Snake Honored One continued, "Immortal Lord, I've informed the experts in our great teaching; Immortal Lord Xuan Gui and the others should be here shortly."

"Oh? Are you a disciple of the Mysterious Turtle lineage?" Immortal Lord Jue Zhen took a look at the Guixian realm disciple of the Beast Taming Sect in front of her, stepping back slightly, and introduced, "This time, it's the Hundred Peaks Sect Leader."

The disciple before her from the Beast Taming Sect had been incessantly explaining to her, which made her somewhat dissatisfied. If it weren't because he was a disciple of the Mysterious Turtle lineage, she might have already shown her annoyance.

Chapter 2003:

Sect Leader Cao is her pathfinder, yet this Disciple keeps mentioning her constantly. How can she not be annoyed?

A pathfinder is akin to half a master. Ignoring the master when they are present is greatly improper!

Immortal Lord Qing She looked perplexed upon hearing this. He naturally recognized the leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect standing beside him, but the leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect couldn't compare to Immortal Lord Jue Zhen.

The Hundred Peaks Sect is merely a great teaching from the Eastern Province or even the Eastern Wasteland, far inferior in cultivation base to Immortal Lord Jue Zhen. What's wrong with placing Immortal Lord Jue Zhen at the forefront when speaking?

Yet, why did Immortal Lord Jue Zhen's expression turn unsightly? Why did He specifically mention that Cao Zhen is the leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect, making it very obvious for others to respect Cao Zhen?

What's more, Immortal Lord Jue Zhen even stepped back a little, appearing to follow the lead of the leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

If Cao Zhen were Sect Leader of the Extreme Formation Sect, this behavior would be perfectly reasonable. But why does Immortal Lord Jue Zhen hold such respect for Cao Zhen, who is merely the leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect?

He was surprised, yet he still turned his head to clasp his hands toward Cao Zhen and said, "Hundred Peaks Sect Leader, the higher-ups of our two great teachings are about to arrive..."

Oh, Sect Leader, they have already arrived."

From afar, figures flew through the void.

The leading figure was a dignified middle-aged man, whose every move conveyed a sense of oppression despite not emanating any aura.

Half a step behind him followed a venerable elder with a celestial bearing and flowing white hair, accompanied by four others whose presence was slightly weaker yet still formidable.

Immortal Lord Jue Zhen glanced at them briefly and then transmitted a message to Cao Zhen, “The leader is the Beast Taming Sect Leader, and the elder following him is their Grand Elder, Immortal Lord Fei He.

The Beast Taming Sect Leader possesses nine Immortal Palaces, and Immortal Lord Fei He has eight. Besides them, another Supreme Elder in the Beast Taming Sect hasn’t appeared, who is even older than my Martial Uncle.”

Cao Zhen nodded lightly. Regardless of the situation, he was the leader of a great teaching. Usually, when a leader visits another great teaching, the host’s leader personally receives them as a sign of mutual respect.

After all, all are sect leaders, and respecting sect leaders is universally acknowledged.

With the guest sect leader arriving, whether the Supreme Elder appears is inconsequential.

The Beast Taming Sect Leader descended, and instead of greeting Immortal Lord Jue Zhen like Honored Azure Snake, he first clasped his hands toward Cao Zhen and said, “Hundred Peaks Sect Leader.”

Cao Zhen clasped his hands in return, “Beast Taming Sect Leader.”

“I’ve long heard of the Hundred Peaks Sect Leader’s name, and now finally am meeting you.”

Cao Zhen listened to the Beast Taming Sect Leader's praise, feeling it was difficult for him. After all, he was merely in the Immortality Regainment Realm, making it challenging for the other to offer flattering remarks, especially since the other was also a sect leader.

Meanwhile, the Grand Elder of the Beast Taming Sect looked toward Immortal Lord Jue Zhen and kindly asked, "Jue Zhen, how is your Martial Uncle doing?"

Immortal Lord Jue Zhen nodded slightly and replied, "Thank you, Elder, for your concern. My Martial Uncle is well."

"That's good to hear. It has been a long time since I've seen her."

The Beast Taming Sect's Grand Elder sighed. Among the group, the only female cultivator approached Jue Zhen with a big smile, saying, "Jue Zhen, congratulations on finally breaking through. It seems I must hurry to catch up with you."

Jue Zhen smiled softly and looked at Cao Zhen, "I could break through thanks to Sect Leader Cao."

"Sect Leader Cao?"

Everyone turned to look at Cao Zhen in surprise. While they knew the leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect bore the surname Cao, and that Cao Zhen was a reincarnated great ability, they never heard Cao Zhen excel in formation crafting.

Moreover, being aware that Jue Zhen pursued the path of the Formation Map, a path considered too difficult even by the Extreme Formation Sect to reach the end, how could Cao Zhen help Jue Zhen break through?

How did Cao Zhen assist Jue Zhen?

While everyone was puzzled, Star Lord Hao Yue also led the upper echelons of the Eastern Wilderness Sect to fly over. After all, being merely in the Immortality Regainment Realm, their flying speed can't match those in the True Immortal Realm.

Before the group reached close, Immortal Lord Jue Zhen had already turned to look at Cao Zhen, respect evidently showing on his face as he spoke again, "I have acknowledged Sect Leader Cao as my pathfinder. Without Sect Leader Cao, I couldn't have broken through or found the road ahead."

"What!"

Even the True Immortal Realm experts were utterly shocked upon hearing Immortal Lord Jue Zhen's declaration. Immortal Lord Jue Zhen was a True Immortal Realm being, not an ordinary True Immortal Realm but one possessing eight Immortal Palaces!

Such an expert would never lightly recognize someone as their pathfinder!

The disturbance caused by Immortal Lord Jue Zhen's previous enlightenment was immense, noticed by all cultivators within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty. Subsequently, witnessing the creation of the eighth Immortal Palace by Immortal Lord Jue Zhen, they naturally observed it.

Now, Immortal Lord Jue Zhen claims Cao Zhen is her pathfinder. Could it be that Immortal Lord Jue Zhen reached enlightenment thanks to Cao Zhen?

But even though Cao Zhen was a reincarnated great ability in his past life, he is merely in the Immortality Regainment Realm now. How did he enable Immortal Lord Jue Zhen's enlightenment?

Chapter 2004: Part 6

"Does his understanding of formations really surpass that of the entire Extreme Formation Sect?"

The Star Lord Hao Yue and others were momentarily stunned by Immortal Lord Jue Zhen's words. They had already witnessed Cao Zhen's mastery of the six arts many times before and thought they estimated his abilities very highly. Yet, Cao Zhen, time and again, with his actions, showed them that they had still underestimated him.

Now, even Immortal Lord Jue Zhen could achieve enlightenment because of Cao Zhen.

“Could Cao Zhen’s formations be as terrifying as his alchemy?”

Many recalled how they once discussed the Dao with such a person... Cao Zhen didn’t find their level insignificant and still conversed in Dao with them.

Cao Zhen, sensing the gaze of the crowd, waved his hand nonchalantly and said, “It was a coincidence; I just happen to understand a tiny bit of the path Jue Zhen is walking.”

The crowd was instantly speechless. “Just happen to understand a tiny bit?” Are you calling the path to reach the late True Immortal Realm a mere coincidence?

Seeing that the crowd still looked dumbstruck in the void, Cao Zhen had to speak up: “Everyone, I came here this time simply to see the outside world, to observe the major sects, and I’m wondering if it might be convenient for you?”

The first to recover was Star Lord Hao Yue, who said, “Without you, our major sects might have long been destroyed, let alone the founding of the Eastern Wilderness Sect. By all means, explore our Eastern Wilderness Sect as you please.”

All around, the high officials of the Eastern Wilderness Sect had no objections. Indeed, Cao Zhen and the Hundred Peaks Sect had helped them a lot. The techniques Cao Zhen had taught were still being passed down to their disciples, so they couldn’t possibly refuse such a request.

Cao Zhen looked toward the direction of the Beast Taming Sect. He knew that the people of the Eastern Wilderness Sect could not refuse, so his question was mainly directed at the Beast Taming Sect.

The Beast Taming Sect Leader nodded slightly and said, “We would certainly welcome Sect Leader Cao to take a look.”

It was just a visit to their Great Sect; this was nothing major, especially after knowing that Immortal Lord Jue Zhen achieved enlightenment because of Cao Zhen. After his breakthrough, he naturally wanted to maintain good relations.

Moreover, he had heard that when the Eastern Wilderness Sect had to choose between the Beast Taming Sect and the Pure Moon Sect, the Hundred Peaks Sect had helped convince them in favor of the Beast Taming Sect, so they owed them a favor.

However...

The Beast Taming Sect Leader thought before adding, "But the back mountain is somewhat inconvenient. It's not that we don't want Sect Leader Cao to go; it's just our Sect Guardian Beast resides there. Ever since our old Sect Leader passed away, it has become quite irritable and volatile.

Especially after coming to the Eastern Wilderness, its temper has worsened.

It's not just outsiders; even our Beast Taming Sect disciples, and the strange beasts we tame, dare not venture to the back mountain.

There are times when it knows it gets easily enraged, but it says it just can't control itself.

So, Sect Leader Cao, you may visit any place except the back mountain."

In fact, they were among the first batch to migrate from the Central Continent to the four continents. Although they weren't the farthest from the Eastern Wilderness, the journey was delayed due to the troubles caused by their Sect Guardian Beast.

After arriving in the Eastern Wilderness, its bouts of rage were more frequent than when in the Central Continent.

Out of the twelve hours a day, it was angry for about eight hours.

Apart from him and the Supreme Elder, no one else dared go there. When the Sect Guardian Beast was enraged, it would attack anyone, and even the Grand Elder had been attacked.

Cao Zhen heard this and was slightly taken aback, instinctively saying, "Becoming more irritable? Isn't this typical acclimatization issues?"

Around him, members of the Beast Taming Sect looked at Cao Zhen with peculiar expressions, some even turning away, afraid they might burst out laughing.

Indeed, Cao Zhen was a reincarnated expert, and he even helped Immortal Lord Jue Zhen break through, proving his deep understanding of formations.

However, the Beast Taming Dao and the Formation Dao have no connection.

"Acclimatization issues!"

Truly, some strange beasts might experience acclimatization issues, but once they reach the Earth Immortal Realm, such issues don't occur, let alone for a Protector Beast of that kind!

"Ahem..."

Among the Beast Taming Sect's late True Immortal masters, someone couldn't help but cough, laughing as they explained, "Sect Leader Cao, our Sect Guardian Beast is an exceptionally powerful existence, comparable to a half-step Golden Immortal! It's too powerful to experience acclimatization issues."

A being on par with a half-step Golden Immortal?

Cao Zhen marveled at the strength of a great sect from the Central Continent. Even the entire Extreme Formation Sect had no such beings.

Nevertheless, the formations of the Extreme Formation Sect are stronger; no clear assertion of superiority between the two sects can be made.

He slightly shook his head, saying, "Not only strange beasts comparable to half-step Golden Immortals, even those comparable to Golden Immortals could experience acclimatization issues."

“Impossible!” The other party shook their head in response, “Sect Leader Cao, you are indeed a reincarnated expert, and I’ve heard about your prowess in alchemy and formations. However, the Beast Taming Dao has nothing to do with Alchemy Dao.

Most pills in Alchemy Dao are tailored for human cultivators, and many pills have no effect when used on strange beasts. Similarly, many of our human medical techniques don’t work on strange beasts either.

Acclimatization issues frequently occur among mortals, but once a cultivator reaches the Earth Immortal Realm, such problems don’t occur, and the same goes for strange beasts.

As for strange beasts comparable to the Golden Immortal Realm, it’s even more impossible; their physical bodies are too formidable! Sect Leader Cao, perhaps you haven’t interacted with strange beasts of the Golden Immortal Realm.”

Cao Zhen responded without hesitation: “Haven’t interacted with them? Never contacted Golden Immortal Realm beasts? Let alone contacting, I’ve even ridden strange beasts of the Golden Immortal Realm.”

Chapter 2005:

The Beast Taming Sect follows the path of beasts, yet even the sect’s guardian beast is equivalent to only a half-step Golden Immortal.

As for strange beasts comparable to the Golden Immortal realm, the sect leader and other top experts have seen them before, but never within their own sect.

Yet now, in front of them, Cao Zhen claims to have ridden a beast of the Golden Immortal realm.

If an ordinary sect leader from the Eastern Province or another Immortality Regainment Realm cultivator were to claim they had ridden a Golden Immortal realm beast, they might likely kill the person on the spot.

Wouldn't that be insulting their intelligence!

However, Cao Zhen's words...

This is someone who enabled Immortal Lord Jue Zhen to have an enlightenment and find a new path of cultivation.

Moreover, he is a reincarnated Great Ability.

Even though they came from the Central Continent to the Eastern Wasteland, countless times they heard from the Eastern Wilderness Sect disciples about Cao Zhen's legendary feats.

So upon hearing Cao Zhen's words, their first reaction wasn't skepticism but shock, imagining how strong Cao Zhen must have been in his past life to ride a Golden Immortal realm beast.

For a moment, everyone fell silent.

After a while, Immortal Lord Xuan Gui, who is on good terms with Immortal Lord Jue Zhen, looked at Cao Zhen with a face full of surprise and asked, "Cao... Sect Leader Cao, may I ask, what was your cultivation realm in your previous life?"

"Me?" Cao Zhen replied casually: "Daluo Golden Immortal." He was not some reincarnated Great Ability, the past life he fabricated was naturally aligned with Old Zhang's. As for riding a beast with cultivation equivalent to the Golden Immortal realm, Old Zhang did indeed ride one, though it wasn't Old Zhang's mount; his mount, the Black Tiger, was merely equivalent to a half-step Golden Immortal.

"Daluo Golden Immortal!"

Immortal Lord Xuan Gui's gaze instantly froze, her entire being dazed. She had previously heard people speculate that Cao Zhen's past life was in the Golden Immortal realm, and she even felt at the time that those speculations might have been wrong, thinking maybe Cao Zhen had obtained numerous legacies from a Great Teaching!

But upon hearing Immortal Lord Jue Zhen say she broke through because of Cao Zhen and acknowledged him as her pathfinder, she realized she was wrong, believing Cao Zhen to be an existence in the Golden Immortal realm.

But now, Cao Zhen claims to be a Daluo Golden Immortal!

A Daluo Golden Immortal is a legend!

In the history of the Beast Taming Sect, there has appeared an existence in the Golden Immortal realm; however, a Daluo Golden Immortal had never been heard of.

They existed only in legend, yet now a Daluo Golden Immortal stands before her!

She didn't doubt Cao Zhen's words at all, for someone of such stature wouldn't lie casually.

All around, many Immortality Regainment Realm cultivators, and even two True Immortal Realm disciples of the Beast Taming Sect, were at a loss.

"Daluo Golden Immortal?"

"What is that?"

They genuinely hadn't heard of a Daluo Golden Immortal. What is the difference between a Daluo Golden Immortal and a Golden Immortal? Is it the limit of the Golden Immortal?

The Beast Taming Sect Leader looked at Cao Zhen, who was calm, and even cupped his hands towards him again, saying: "May I ask how Immortal Lord should be addressed?"

Daluo Golden Immortal!

No wonder even Absolute-Formation acknowledged Sect Leader Cao as the pathfinder.

This is a Daluo Golden Immortal, mentioned only in legend. A Late True Immortal Realm, or even Peak True Immortal Realm, wanting to recognize a Daluo Golden Immortal as their pathfinder? A Daluo Golden Immortal might not even agree.

What's more, they would have to see a Daluo Golden Immortal first.

Immortal Lord Jue Zhen herself was puzzled. She acknowledged Cao Zhen as her pathfinder only out of gratitude for helping her find a new path; she didn't know that Cao Zhen was the reincarnation of a Daluo Golden Immortal!

Among the Eastern Wilderness Sect people, they were equally surprised. They had heard of the existence of Golden Immortals; that was after their Eastern Wasteland connected with the Eastern Province, learning from some Eastern Province cultivators that above True Immortals were Golden Immortals.

But what is a Daluo Golden Immortal?

Star Lord Hao Yue and Madman Axe exchanged a glance, their eyes full of astonishment. Both were reincarnated Great Abilities, naturally aware of the existence of Daluo Golden Immortals.

Unexpectedly, Cao Zhen was a Daluo Golden Immortal!

"Let's not mention my past life," Cao Zhen said with indifference, waving his hand, "My past life is my past life, this life is this life. I am now the sect leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect, unrelated to my past life. You need not regard me as a Daluo Golden Immortal."

Many disciples of the Beast Taming Sect grew increasingly puzzled, wondering what a Daluo Golden Immortal was, seeing their sect leader showing such respect upon hearing Cao Zhen was one?

The Beast Taming Sect Leader sighed, "Sect Leader Cao's mindset is beyond our reach."

He paused slightly, then changed the topic, asking: "Sect Leader Cao, earlier you mentioned our sect guardian beast was lacking. Do you have expertise in the way of beasts?"

Cao Zhen's face broke into a confident smile: "I know a bit."

Joking, his formation level was only eighty, yet it enabled Immortal Lord Jue Zhen's enlightenment. His mastery in beasts reached the ninety-ninth level.

Beast Taming implies nurturing, and the word nurture is very clear, how to raise them well?

How to treat those beasts when they fall ill is also a part of nurturing.

The Beast Taming Sect Leader, looking at Cao Zhen's confident demeanor, was delighted internally; Cao Zhen, being a reincarnated Daluo Golden Immortal with such confidence clearly indicated his great proficiency in the way of beasts. If Sect Leader Cao were to act, could he make the sect guardian beast normal?

Chapter 2006:

As for Sect Leader Cao's remark about knowing a little, that is surely a modest way of speaking.

After all, the stronger the being, the more they comprehend, the more they realize their own insignificance, and the more they feel the infinite changes of all things in heaven and earth, they instead feel they know less.

That's why Sect Leader Cao would claim to know just a little.

The Beast Taming Sect Leader quickly said, "Sect Leader Cao, although this is somewhat abrupt, I still want to ask, is it possible for you to help us take a look at the Sect Guardian Beast?"

Cao Zhen immediately chuckled inwardly. This is the change in reputation; it's still the same me. Previously, when I said their Sect Guardian Beast was not acclimatized, they secretly scoffed. But after learning I'm the reincarnation of a Daluo Golden Immortal, they promptly invite me to see the divine beast.

Cao Zhen, adopting the demeanor of an eminent figure, slightly nodded and said, "Then let's take a look!"

Why not look?

If I cure it, in such a grand sect as the Beast Taming Sect, how could they not show some gratitude?

Moreover, my Four Treasures Peak still has a Little Silver Dragon. I seemed to have promised Little Silver Dragon to catch more Strange Beasts for it. Later, due to being too busy, I hadn't caught any. Now I can just ask for some.

Besides, the Hundred Peaks Sect also has a path of beasts, Beast Training Peak. If Little Silver Dragon doesn't like it, I can hand it over to Beast Training Peak.

Upon seeing Cao Zhen agree, the Beast Taming Sect Leader was overjoyed. He quickly turned his head to the Grand Elder beside him and said, "Grand Elder, go and check whether the Sect Guardian Beast is in a rage. If it's not enraged, send a message immediately, and we'll head to the back mountain. If it is in a rage, then wait there until it calms down, and then notify us to go."

He had previously mentioned that when their Sect Guardian Beast is angry, it attacks everyone except him and the Supreme Elder.

Cao Zhen, being a stranger, would certainly be attacked by the Sect Guardian Beast if he went, so they could only go when the Sect Guardian Beast is not enraged.

"Let's go now," Cao Zhen shook his head and said, "To truly understand its condition, one must see it in its rage."

He simply couldn't believe it; even if the Sect Guardian Beast was equivalent to a Half-step Golden Immortal, if the Sect Guardian Beast got angry and the Beast Taming Sect couldn't subdue it, then they might as well rename themselves the Beast Control Sect.

The Beast Taming Sect Leader heard this and looked troubled, but soon, he turned to Immortal Lord Xuan Gui beside him and said, "Xuan Gui, go and invite the Supreme Elder. The rest shall wait outside the back mountain. If the two of us send a signal, immediately come to our aid."

The reason their Sect Guardian Beast didn't attack him is that it recognizes him as the Sect Leader. However, the Sect Guardian Beast wouldn't listen to him, so the Supreme Elder must first be called. This way, if the Sect Guardian Beast attacked Sect Leader Cao, the two of them could block it, as he alone couldn't stop an enraged Sect Guardian Beast.

The Grand Elder of the Beast Taming Sect and Immortal Lord Xuan Gui, upon hearing this, instantly disappeared from sight, while Cao Zhen followed the Beast Taming Sect Leader into the Beast Taming Sect.

Even though they were merely flying over the Beast Taming Sect, Cao Zhen soon caught whiffs of a foul stench, the smell of feces.

He glanced downward, seeing Strange Beasts running below, and immediately understood. Strange Beasts naturally eat, drink, and excrete, inherently causing odors.

The Beast Taming Sect Leader also sensed Cao Zhen's gaze and looked awkwardly, saying, "Sect Leader Cao, as you might know, Strange Beasts below the Earth Immortal Realm produce more feces. Although we have specifically assigned people to clean these faeces regularly, cleaning them is a hassle. After all, we can't just randomly dump these outside the grand sect. We need to process them in distant locations.

The outside is tumultuous right now, so we can't send disciples with weak cultivation bases. Consequently, we clean these faeces every three days. On the first and second days, the odor isn't very strong, but unfortunately, today is the third day, so it's a bit more pungent."

He then turned his head towards the back and said, "Give an order after a while for the Good Beast Department to handle this waste in advance."

“Do you have to take them to a far-away place?” Cao Zhen shook his head and said, “There’s no need for such trouble. Just transport these feces to the Immortal Fields and Spirit Field areas and use them as fertilizer.”

“Huh? As fertilizer?” The Beast Taming Sect Leader was dumbfounded, “But Sect Leader Cao, those Spirit Fields and Immortal Fields are different from ordinary farmland, and these Strange Beasts’ feces are different from regular livestock feces.

If we casually place these in the Immortal Fields and Spirit Fields, it might instantly destroy the fields.”

While saying this, he suddenly realized that he was speaking to a reincarnating Great Capability of a Daluo Golden Immortal, his heart skipped a beat, and he quickly corrected himself, “Sect Leader Cao, I didn’t mean to question you... you...”

“Never mind.” Cao Zhen waved his hand dismissively and said, “It’s not your fault that you don’t understand these matters. I have some methods I can teach you, and by then, you can naturally use these feces directly as fertilizer in the Immortal Fields and Spirit Fields.

These are excellent fertilizers, though the Strange Beasts in your Beast Taming Sect are simply too numerous. Even with the addition of the Eastern Wilderness Sect’s Spirit Fields and Immortal Fields, there will be too much fertilizer.

Chapter 2007:

Let’s do this, you can consolidate the remaining fertilizer so it doesn’t smell too strong, then transport it to our Hundred Peaks Sect every five days.

As for the rest, which our Hundred Peaks Sect won’t be able to use, you can sell it to the major sects and schools.”

“Ah? Can it really be directly used on the Immortal Fields and Spirit Fields?” The Beast Taming Sect Leader, even as the leader of a great sect, couldn’t help but show a look of surprise when he heard this.

If this were the case, it would certainly solve a significant problem for their Beast Taming Sect, as even they, as immortals, found the stench hard to bear.

Moreover, Sect Leader Cao also said that those wastes could be sold!

Their Beast Taming Sect would gain an additional source of income.

Now, they awaited Sect Leader Cao to impart this method to them, confident that, given Sect Leader Cao's status, he wouldn't deceive them.

At that time, if money was made from the sale, no matter what, they would have to share half of the proceeds with Sect Leader Cao, although Sect Leader Cao may not care for it, their Beast Taming Sect had to show some gratitude.

As the two conversed, they soon arrived at the location of the Beast Taming Sect's rear mountain, where everyone listened from outside, and at that moment, an elderly woman, appearing extremely decrepit, flew over.

Without waiting for an introduction from the Extreme Formation Sect Leader, the old woman proactively addressed Cao Zhen with a cupped fist salute, saying: "This old body is Fei Yin, the Supreme Elder of the Beast Taming Sect. Greetings to the Hundred Peaks Sect Leader."

Apparently, the Grand Elder had previously informed the Beast Taming Sect's Supreme Elder that Cao Zhen was a reincarnation of the Daluo Golden Immortal; otherwise, Fei Yin wouldn't have been so polite.

Cao Zhen found it strange why all the Supreme Elders of these great sects were women. The Extreme Formation Sect was like this, and so was the Beast Taming Sect.

Is it because female cultivators, like mortal women, tend to live longer?

"Elder Fei Yin." Cao Zhen returned the gesture with a cupping of hands and was about to say more when suddenly, a roar of anger was heard. The sound wasn't particularly loud, but it was filled with a terrifyingly violent air.

“It’s the Sect Guardian Beast. Its wrath has grown even greater.” Elder Fei Yin glanced at the Beast Taming Sect Leader and quietly suggested, “Going there recklessly now will certainly provoke its attack.

Hierarch, you and I should first go into the rear mountain together, greet the Sect Guardian Beast, and then have the Hundred Peaks Sect Leader come in. It might be better this way.”

Upon hearing, the Beast Taming Sect Leader was stunned for a moment. The former Grand Elder was the third most powerful person in their Beast Taming Sect, only ranked below him and the Supreme Elder.

But when the Sect Guardian Beast got furious in the past, it attacked the Grand Elder, and even when he arrived immediately, it didn’t heed his attempts to calm it, instead attacking the Grand Elder again, severely injuring him. Only after venting its rage did it gradually calm down so he could take the Grand Elder away.

It was evident that the Sect Guardian Beast wouldn’t listen to him, and Cao Zhen, as an outsider, was even less likely to be obeyed by it.

Though he didn’t understand why the Supreme Elder was saying this, out of respect for her, he nodded in agreement and flew into the rear mountain with her.

Outside, the roars of the Sect Guardian Beast didn’t seem particularly loud, but upon entering the rear mountain, these raging roars were earth-shattering, causing rocks to fall from the peaks and the mountains to shake crazily, with even the whole void trembling.

The reason they didn’t hear so many roars outside was that they had set up a formation in the rear mountain.

They had no choice; the roars of their Sect Guardian Beast were too terrifying. Without a formation, the weaker disciples would all drive themselves insane from hearing these frightening roars every day.

The massive Sect Guardian Beast roared wildly, seeming to want to vent something. It raised its paws, as large as small hills, as if wanting to crush the mountains before it and unleash itself, but as its paws fell, it seemed to recall something, withdrew them, its eyes bloodshot.

Even in its fury, it maintained a measure of reason, noticing the arrival of the Supreme Elder and the Beast Taming Sect Leader.

“You... leave!” Seeing people flying in, it instinctively wanted to attack, but it knew these two – one was the Sect Leader of the Beast Taming Sect.

It understood it was the Guardian Beast of the Beast Taming Sect, and the person back then was also the Sect Leader of the Beast Taming Sect. They are both Sect Leaders, so naturally, it couldn’t attack the Sect Leader of the Beast Taming Sect.

As for the other one, she was the first powerful fighter of the Beast Taming Sect. Should it attack the Supreme Elder, and someone comes to attack the Beast Taming Sect, the sect would be in trouble.

So it couldn’t attack the Supreme Elder either.

The reason it didn’t attack the Supreme Elder was never because of her status; it was because she was the best fighter of the Beast Taming Sect.

In its eyes, everyone in the Beast Taming Sect falls into two categories: one is the Sect Leader, and the other is everyone else.

It clearly wanted to vent, to attack, but the two people who arrived, it couldn’t attack either, making it more distressed and more irritable.

The Beast Taming Sect Leader sensed this increasingly irritable aura from the Sect Guardian Beast and looked back at the Supreme Elder, silently asking if they should withdraw first. The Sect Guardian Beast was clearly beyond reasoning at the moment, and they decided that after leaving, they wouldn’t bring Sect Leader Cao right away, as the Sect Guardian Beast was in its most furious state, and bringing Sect Leader Cao along would make it difficult for them to protect him.

Chapter 2008: Part 4

The Supreme Elder sensed the Beast Taming Sect Leader's gaze, but did not retreat. Instead, she bowed to their Sect Guardian Beast and then loudly proclaimed, "Divine Envoy, today, a reincarnated Great Ability has come to our Great Teaching. In his previous life, he was a Daluo Golden Immortal!"

"Daluo Golden Immortal!"

Upon hearing these four words, the Sect Guardian Beast, whose originally scarlet eyes were filled with endless fury as if it intended to destroy the entire world, suddenly contracted its fierce gaze. The ferocity vanished in an instant, and the overwhelming murderous aura it emitted disappeared completely in that moment.

Just four words, yet they made the Sect Guardian Beast return to normal immediately.

The Beast Taming Sect Leader was dumbfounded. Did simply saying this bring the Sect Guardian Beast back to normal?

It wasn't just him; the Supreme Elder was also stunned. She merely thought that when the Sect Guardian Beast was angry, it retained a sliver of rationality. So she considered trying to mention the Daluo Golden Immortal, hoping the Sect Guardian Beast would give some face.

But now, she realized she had perhaps misjudged the status of a Daluo Golden Immortal and underestimated the gap between a Half-Step Great Luo Immortal and a Daluo Golden Immortal.

She even noticed a clear hint of trepidation in the eyes of the Sect Guardian Beast.

"Daluo Golden Immortal! What is that Daluo Golden Immortal coming to our Beast Taming Sect wanting to do?" The Sect Guardian Beast looked down at the Beast Taming Sect Leader and the Supreme Elder.

"Divine Envoy, he bears no malice," the Supreme Elder Fei Yin quickly responded, "He is currently only in the Immortality Regainment Realm and, upon hearing of your presence here, expressed a desire to come take a look."

“He wants to see me?” Upon hearing this, the eyes of the Sect Guardian Beast, which had calmed, turned scarlet once again. It suddenly raised a massive hand and slammed it down toward the Supreme Elder.

In an instant, a giant palm fell like a mountain. Immortal King Flying Parrot, being at the peak of the True Immortal Realm, felt the surrounding space sealed off, leaving no room to dodge. In haste, she could only raise her arms in defense. But just as she was lifting them, before completely shielding herself, the giant palm had already descended.

With a loud crash as if a mountain had shattered, Immortal King Flying Parrot felt as if she had been struck by a meteor from beyond the sky, her body uncontrollably flung backward. It crashed heavily into a mountain peak, which collapsed with a thunderous boom, and great stones fell, burying her in dust and rubble.

“Elder!”

The Beast Taming Sect Leader was frantic, swiftly flying towards the cloud of dust, his heart filled with confusion. The Sect Guardian Beast was known not to attack him or the Supreme Elder, so why did it suddenly strike the Supreme Elder?

Suddenly, from behind him, the Sect Guardian Beast’s voice emerged.

“Don’t worry, she won’t die.” After delivering the strike, the Sect Guardian Beast’s mood seemed to brighten considerably. It looked at the worried sect leader and called out, “Fool, you’re utterly foolish. How could you believe he is the reincarnation of a Daluo Golden Immortal!?”

You don’t understand what a Daluo Golden Immortal represents. If he truly were one, would he need to come see me? He must be a fake Daluo Golden Immortal.

Now, don’t bother me anymore. You two go and kill him.”

What a joke, a Daluo Golden Immortal—what kind of being is that? It claims to be a Half-Step Great Luo Immortal, but compared to a Daluo Golden Immortal, what is it!

If a Daluo Golden Immortal intended to kill it, while not as simple as crushing an ordinary ant, it wouldn't be much harder.

And yet, that Daluo Golden Immortal said he wanted to see it? Impossible!

The Beast Taming Sect Leader finally understood why the Sect Guardian Beast had struck all of a sudden—it considered them both foolish. However, Cao Zhen might truly be a Daluo Golden Immortal!

“Cough, cough...”

Amidst the dust, Elder Fei Yin slowly rose, bloodstained at the corner of her mouth, and her face was pale, nearly devoid of color. Clearly, the injuries weren't light, though not too severe either, as she could still stand and didn't require immediate healing.

Hearing the Sect Guardian Beast, she hurried to explain, “Divine Envoy, we were wrong. We shouldn't have deceived you before.”

At this point, she could only admit the truth, “Previously, we mentioned your condition. The reincarnated Great Daluo Immortal said you were suffering from acclimation issues, so we wanted to bring him to see if he could help.

He's currently only in the Immortality Regainment Realm, so we worried that upon entering, you might harm him, thus came to inform you first.

Then, fearing your anger would intensify, we added a few compliments. He... he genuinely doesn't seem to care much for Golden Immortals. He... he even...”

The Sect Guardian Beast watched Elder Fei Yin hesitantly and got impatient, “What else? Speak!”

Elder Fei Yin gritted her teeth, deciding to spill the truth: “He even said, not to mention a Half-Step Golden Immortal, but even a strange beast equivalent to a Golden Immortal, he has ridden one. And he seemed utterly nonchalant about it.”

Upon hearing this, the Sect Guardian Beast didn't show anger but instead nodded approvingly, "That's more like it. For a Daluo Golden Immortal, what's riding a strange beast equivalent to a Golden Immortal?"

Chapter 2009:

"Now, tell me why you believe that person is a Daluo Golden Immortal."

"It's like this: that person has reached the peak in the Golden Core Stage, Earth Immortal Realm's Longevity Period, Indestructible Period, and Bottom Line Domain.

We've even heard that against him, other entities of the same realm are far from being opponents.

He speaks of Earth Immortal Realm as having no limits. And he has five disciples, all possessing Ancient Immortal Bodies, which you know is difficult to cultivate in this era, yet all his disciples have entered the Immortal Path Domain, supposedly due to his pill concoction.

Furthermore, there was an Immortal Lord Jue Zhen from the Extreme Formation Sect who had been stagnant for a long time but recently achieved enlightenment and then advanced to reach the Eight Immortal Palaces.

Today, Immortal Lord Jue Zhen has also arrived, stating that her enlightenment was due to that man, and because of him, she found a new path, even considering him a Pathfinder.

With all this, he claims he is the reincarnation of a Daluo Golden Immortal, so we believe him."

They share a sect entrance with the Eastern Wilderness Sect, and over the years, they've heard countless things about Cao Zhen, gaining more insight into him than other Central Continent Sects.

"Hmm..." The Sect Guardian Beast pondered for a moment, nodding slightly, "The way you put it does seem like a reincarnated Daluo Golden Immortal. However, such methods are not necessarily beyond some powerful Golden Immortals.

Let me go out and meet him. Whether he's truly a reincarnated Daluo Golden Immortal, I'll know in an instant."

As he spoke, the massive body of the Sect Guardian Beast suddenly shrunk, instantly transforming into an elderly figure with white hair. Being equivalent to a Half-step Golden Immortal, he naturally could take on human form, though he usually didn't care for it.

Soon, he followed the Beast Taming Sect Leader and Elder Fei Yin out of the rear mountain's domain.

Cao Zhen and the others were waiting for the return of the Beast Taming Sect Leader and Immortal King Flying Parrot when suddenly, three figures appeared in their view.

When they left, there were clearly only two people, but now there's an extra person.

No one outside of the Sect Leader and Supreme Elder could venture from the rear mountain unchallenged, so the identity of the additional figure seemed apparent.

The Sect Guardian Beast had flown away from the rear mountain!

The people from the Beast Taming Sect immediately reacted, offering grand salutations to the third figure.

"Greetings, Divine Envoy!"

Though they were top experts in the Beast Taming Sect and part of the higher echelon, most had only seen the Sect Guardian Beast from afar, never his human form.

The Beast Taming Sect's Sect Guardian Envoy?

Cao Zhen was momentarily stunned. Wasn't it said that their Sect Guardian Beast had gone berserk? But this didn't seem like madness.

The Beast Taming Sect's Sect Guardian Beast was also examining Cao Zhen, suddenly stating in surprise, "No, you're not in the Immortality Regainment Realm; you're in the Earth Immortal Realm."

Those around were confused, looking at Cao Zhen with bewilderment. They had heard from the Hundred Peaks Sect that Cao Zhen had already advanced to the Immortality Regainment Realm.

Immortal Lord Jue Zhen furrowed her brow and whispered, "Sect Leader Cao is clearly in the Immortality Regainment Realm. I've seen his Immortal Mountain; it's over five hundred meters tall, which only happens in the Immortality Regainment Realm."

The Sect Guardian Beast didn't spare Immortal Lord Jue Zhen a glance, focusing solely on Cao Zhen. Slowly, his brows furrowed and he whispered, "No, it seems like the Immortality Regainment Realm..."

He shook his head again, exclaiming, "No, no, it's the Earth Immortal Realm... Immortality Regainment Realm... Earth Immortal Realm..."

The Sect Guardian Beast continued to mumble as if bewildered, alternating between the Immortality Regainment Realm and Earth Immortal Realm.

Cao Zhen was astonished inside. Is this the insight of a Half-step Golden Immortal? Just by looking, he could determine he's not a typical Immortality Regainment Realm.

Though surprised inside, Cao Zhen's face remained composed, even displaying a subtle, profound smile, softly remarking, "Not bad, quite discerning."

In other's eyes, he was a reincarnated Daluo Golden Immortal; he couldn't act too startled. A Daluo Golden Immortal has seen all the realms, experienced all the storms, must always demonstrate composure.

Speaking, he even shook his head towards the Sect Guardian Beast, saying, "Well, that's all there is. I am indeed in the Immortality Regainment Realm."

There's no anger from the Sect Guardian Beast, even if the opposite isn't a Daluo Golden Immortal; the person was at least Golden Immortal Realm in their past life. Otherwise, upon entering the Immortality Regainment Realm, he would not have prevented it, leaving the Sect Guardian Beast unable to distinguish the realm.

Observing the change in the Sect Guardian Beast's expression, Cao Zhen continued, "The reason you think I'm not in the Immortality Regainment Realm is because my cultivation method is unique, not yet perfected to the realm's true level."

The Sect Guardian Beast still wore an puzzled expression.

Prompted by previous occasions where he convinced Ruo Yun Immortal, Cao Zhen continued the ruse, "You know of the Three Corpses Technique, right?"

Chapter 2010:

As his words fell, everyone present, including the Axe Madman, looked puzzled. Cutting off the three corpses, what kind of thing is that?

But Star Lord Hao Yue's expression changed significantly, did Cao Zhen actually know about cutting off the three corpses?

Had Cao Zhen's past life already reached that level? However, it seems plausible since it's said that above a Daluo Golden Immortal is a Saint, and cutting off the three corpses is related to becoming a Saint.

Everyone around noticed the change in Star Lord Hao Yue's expression, and they all looked over.

The Axe Madman whispered, "Hao Yue, what is cutting off the three corpses?"

We are all reincarnated beings of great ability, so why do you all know about cutting off the three corpses, and I don't?

“You ask me, but I don’t know either. I only know that cutting off the three corpses is related to becoming a Saint, but I don’t know exactly what cutting off the three corpses is.”

Star Lord Hao Yue truly did not know, he didn’t even know which were the three corpses.

“Becoming a Saint?”

The crowd was shocked again upon hearing this—how did it come to involve Saints!

The Sect Guardian Beast was also stunned; the other party knew about cutting off the three corpses, undoubtedly because in their past life they were at least an existence in the Golden Immortal Realm, after all, those in the True Immortal Realm rarely know about the three corpses. But this does not prove that the other party is a Daluo Golden Immortal!

Cao Zhen smiled gently as he heard the discussions around him and spoke, “One can become a Saint by cutting off the three corpses—every cultivator has three types of malicious desires.

In fact, the three corpses are the three corpses and nine worms.

The upper corpse worm is named Peng Hou, residing in the human head, causing ignorance and lack of wisdom.

The middle corpse worm is named Peng Zhi, residing in the human chest, causing troubles and delusions, preventing tranquility.

The lower corpse worm is named Peng Jiao, residing in the human abdomen, causing greed for lust and appetite.

Cutting off the three corpses means cutting off obsessions. Without obsessions, one can become a Saint.

Of course, cutting off the three corpses is just one method to become a Saint, or rather, it’s the most common method to become a Saint. Besides, there are two other methods—the first one is becoming a

Saint through great merit, which requires the accumulation of extensive merits, yet where in the world can one find so many merits!

Therefore, this method is even more difficult than cutting off the three corpses to become a Saint. Another method is proving the Dao through strength; as long as one's strength is sufficient, one can become a Saint, but clearly, this is the most difficult among the three methods."

The crowd, listening to Cao Zhen's explanation, felt as if they understood nothing and everything at the same time. They vaguely sensed that on the grand path ahead, there was a fine thread appearing. They desperately wanted to grasp this thread, but no matter what, they couldn't.

The Sect Guardian Beast was astounded; the path to becoming a Saint was indeed something he had heard before. That person had once spoken to him about it, and it was luck that allowed him to accidentally learn about the path to becoming a Saint.

The ways that person mentioned about becoming a Saint, the first two were the same as what Cao Zhen said: becoming a Saint through great merit and cutting off the three corpses.

Initially, that person also told him that ordinary beings in the Golden Immortal Realm couldn't access the path to becoming a Saint.

So, Cao Zhen really is the reincarnation of a Daluo Golden Immortal!

Moreover, Cao Zhen mentioned proving the Dao through strength, which was something that person hadn't mentioned; Cao Zhen even knew an additional path to becoming a Saint!

Who exactly is this Cao Zhen that he knows so much!

Does this mean that in his past life, he had already begun to strive towards becoming a Saint?

While the Sect Guardian Beast was in shock, suddenly, off to the side, there was a soft "puff" sound. He turned and saw Immortal King Flying Parrot spitting out a large mouthful of bright red blood, his entire aura becoming extremely chaotic.

“Reckless!”

The Sect Guardian Beast shouted suddenly, his voice not loud, yet like a great bell ringing in the hearts of everyone present. Instantly, all those in the True Immortal Realm were awakened, and in no time, their foreheads were drenched in sweat, their bodies soaked as if they had been fished out of a pond.

Just now, as they listened to Cao Zhen’s words, they began reflecting involuntarily, thinking of many things. Vague as it was, they also discovered a path ahead, yet that path seemed so far away from them, they were desperately trying to catch up.

They could feel that chasing after the distant road was much more exhausting than usual, but they couldn’t bear to stop, so they grew even more weary. At that moment, the shout from the Sect Guardian Beast woke them up, and they realized that their internal energy had become so chaotic that they were bordering on a state of inner demon disturbance.

All at once, everyone was alarmed; they had nearly fallen into a state like this just because of a few words from Cao Zhen. Had the Sect Guardian Beast not called out in time, they might have been demonized!

These people are all beings in the True Immortal Realm, based on a few words entering into such a dangerous state, how terrifying is that!

There was also the Supreme Elder...

Everyone turned towards the Supreme Elder, who merely waved his hand, indicating he was unharmed.

Seeing that everyone had regained their senses, the Sect Guardian Beast finally breathed a sigh of relief, then looked at them and reproached loudly, “Do you want to die? The path to sainthood is not something you can touch at present! Why did you try to comprehend that path?”

Luckily, I discovered it early. Had I been late, each of you would have been demonized!”

Those with weaker cultivation bases, such as those in the Immortality Regainment Realm, didn't quite grasp the gravity of the situation, but those with higher cultivation understood more—those closer to the realm of saints. For instance, those in the Golden Immortal Realm didn't face much danger.

It was precisely those in the True Immortal Realm, who could understand these words but whose cultivation base had not reached the necessary level to comprehend them safely, who were truly in peril.

He now genuinely believed that the Hundred Peaks Sect Leader was the reincarnation of a Daluo Golden Immortal, otherwise, how could he know so much? Yet he didn't quite understand why the Hundred Peaks Sect Leader would disclose such information, especially since there were followers among the True Immortal Realm who regarded him as their Pathfinder. Wouldn't that harm them?
