

My Master 48

Chapter 48: Master you are so amazing, disciple you are also very amazing_1

The Immortal Cloud Carriage whisked Cao Zhen and the others straight to Four Treasures Peak.

As soon as Yan Yourong boarded the carriage, she immediately turned around and bent her knees to kneel, but after witnessing Ling Xi's exceptional skills, Cao Zhen saw this motion from others as if in slow motion.

Before Yan Yourong could kneel, Cao Zhen had already extended his hand to support her and said, "What's with you always trying to kneel? What ailment do you have? Can't you learn something useful from your eldest disciple sister? Will I grow flesh or gain a few centimeters if you kneel? If there's something to say, just say it."

Yan Yourong was also a bit stunned. On regular days, this was exactly how her eldest disciple sister would kneel, she had simply copied the motion exactly. So why was it that when her eldest disciple sister knelt so easily, she herself was stopped by her master?

"Disciple has embarrassed Master! In tomorrow's battle, even if I have to burn my Tao base, I will withstand twenty moves undefeated!" Yan Yourong said earnestly, "I will surely not bring shame upon Master."

Cao Zhen sighed. Each of his four disciples was weirder than the last.

"There's no need to burn your Tao base," Cao Zhen said as he tousled Yan Yourong's hair, turning it into a messy bird's nest, "With your teacher here, there'll be no problems."

The driver of the Immortal Cloud Carriage inwardly sneered, Even the gods can't help! A waste body is a waste body!

The Immortal Cloud Carriage soon returned to Four Treasures Peak, and Cao Zhen led Yan Yourong by the wrist towards the "Day-Separating Cave." Seeing the disbelief still on his disciple's face, he couldn't help but say, "Today, you'll see just how powerful your master is."

Yan Yourong sat cross-legged as Cao Zhen had asked. When she saw the pills Cao Zhen took out, she immediately understood. Her master intended to enhance her powers through the pills, so she hurriedly shook her head.

"Master, let's forget it. Pills really don't work... It's not as if I haven't tried before..."

"Your teacher has been busy for so long precisely to break the shackles of your Ancient Immortal Body now turned into a Waste Body," Cao Zhen said, knowing it would be impossible to convince his disciple and instead asserted his authority as a teacher, "Be good, listen. Eat this red one first, then follow it with this blue one."

Yan Yourong dubiously took the red Deception Pill and placed it in her mouth, immediately feeling a strange power envelop every part of her body.

This power was odd; it didn't enhance any cultivation base, and her body did not show any impulse to absorb it. The force was like a cover enveloping her, separating her from everything else.

"Quickly, eat the blue one," Cao Zhen urged from her side. After all, he only knew the refinement methods and effects and had never actually seen the true effects before.

Yan Yourong swallowed the blue pill and immediately felt a robust power swirling within her body. Her heart pounded faster and faster, and the treasure vaults within her body began to open under the impact of the blue pill.

"Destroy your five Dao platforms!" Cao Zhen saw Yan Yourong's body radiating a vast amount of Five Elements Power and quickly directed her, "Those platforms aren't the Great Five Elements platforms; they're useless to keep."

At that moment, Yan Yourong couldn't care to analyze if what her master said was right or wrong. For years, constrained by her Waste Body, she hadn't felt the sensation of a breakthrough, but now, thanks to the two pills, she did. She began to follow her master's instructions.

The Foundation Establishment was entirely wasted! The small Five Element Pill absorbed all of the shattered Tao base's power before pouring it into her body.

For Yan Yourong, Heaven was no longer Heaven, Earth no longer Earth, and even her master sitting before her transformed. All in the world was comprised of the converging Five Elements Power—this was the true origin.

"Don't practice the old cultivation techniques I taught you!" Cao Zhen shouted again, "Listen to the new technique your teacher gives you! The Taoist Five Elements Technique, Heaven and Earth divide Yin and Yang, the Five Elements are everywhere in the world..."

Yan Yourong, without the luxury to ponder the origin of the technique, quickly channeled her internal power according to the new technique. Behind her, the first Dao platform appeared in the sky, radiating five-colored divine light!

With one sitting, her cultivation was achieved. Cao Zhen, without any delay, passed her the second Deception Pill, followed by the second Five Element Pill.

Yan Yourong felt that strange enveloping power fading from her body, and upon seeing the second pill, she hurriedly consumed it.

The second, the third... the fifth... the sixth...

The sixth! The sixth! Overwhelmed, Yan Yourong wanted to cry. She never thought she'd have a sixth Dao platform in her life, but her master had actually done it, and not only did she have six, they were all Great Five Elements platforms!

"Maintain your focus and continue! Crying is useless!" Cao Zhen interrupted Yan Yourong's excitement. He had not refined pills easily, and if they didn't take the chance to break through quickly, who would be blamed when the optimal timeframe passed?

The seventh, the eighth, the ninth, the tenth... the tenth platforms!

Perfect Great Perfection Great Five Elements Ten Dao Platforms!

Yan Yourong felt an urge to howl at the heavens, but she also knew this wasn't the right time. The effect of the Pill her master had given her hadn't worn off yet; she could still push forward!

Immortal Bridges! One...two...

As Yan Yourong broke through to the Immortal Bridge Realm, it was like flipping on a cheat switch. The treasure-like power contained within her Great Five Elements innate saint body, mixed with the power of the Pill, completely surpassed Cao Zhen's initial predictions and imagination.

In Cao Zhen's eyes, it would be at most five or six Immortal Bridges, about the same level as his own.

But...as the sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, and tenth Great Five Elements Immortal Bridges appeared, Cao Zhen truly witnessed the terrifying potential of the Ancient Immortal Body for the first time.

At that moment, Cao Zhen understood why the Hundred Peaks Sect had not given up on researching the Ancient Immortal Body for so many years; its power was even stronger than he had imagined!

Perfect Great Perfection Ten Dao Platforms, Perfect Great Perfection Ten Immortal Bridges!

Powerful! Yan Yourong felt she possessed an unprecedented power; every movement seemed to have the force to destroy heaven and earth.

How long had it been! For such a long time, no matter how hard she tried, she couldn't increase her power by the slightest, yet it all changed with each Pill.

Is this the power of Pills? Is this truly my master's capability?

Yan Yourong felt as if a shackle on her body was rapidly disappearing. A strange power from heaven and earth descended upon her. The opened treasury was quickly shutting, and the rapidly increasing power was brutally suppressed!

It felt like a fountain gushing forth from the ground, only for a mountain to fall from the sky and crush the fountain beneath it, leaving the clear spring water untouchable below.

The laws of heaven and earth, once again, took effect on her.

"Master..." Yan Yourong, who had been sitting cross-legged, was now kneeling; Cao Zhen raised his hand and cast the Five-thunder Righteous Method.

With the Perfect Great Perfection in two realms, Cao Zhen knew he couldn't really harm his disciple. Before Yan Yourong could fully complete the Hundred Peaks Sect's grand senior sister's ritual of kneeling and bowing, she felt the Five-thunder Righteous Method coming at her and quickly exhibited the Ten Dao Platforms and Ten Immortal Bridges, using all her power to protect her body.

Boom! Yan Yourong was blasted against the cave wall by the impact of the Five-thunder Righteous Method, shattering a large amount of rock, and she emerged somewhat dazed from the rubble, saying, "Master, why did you..."

"Having one grand senior sister is enough," said Cao Zhen, rolling his eyes at Yan Yourong. "Did you really think I couldn't stop each one of you?"

Yan Yourong felt her master was profoundly unfathomable! Not only had he brought her to a level of cultivation realm entirely beyond others' imagination, but now she couldn't even understand what he was saying. What did he mean by having one grand senior sister was enough? Could it be that the grand senior sister's cultivation was even more profound?

It's possible! Yan Yourong thought that since the grand senior sister had spent a night out with the master, and since the master had made it happen with her own body, then perhaps the grand senior sister could have too...

"Disciple understands! I will definitely work hard in my cultivation to catch up to the grand senior sister's realm!" Yan Yourong stood upright and seriously made a promise.

Cao Zhen felt there was something wrong with his second disciple's head. Why, at Perfect Great Perfection of two realms, did she insist on chasing after Ling Xi's 100% successful kneeling and bowing? What was so chase-worthy about that?

"Busy all night, and finally, there are some results," Cao Zhen changed the subject. "Go change your clothes; we're off to earn those two hundred Spirit Stones."

On hearing they were going to confront Lyu Yifeng, Yan Yourong's spirits lifted, and she quickly left the seclusion cave.

Because of the seclusion cave's Formation, people outside had no idea of Yan Yourong's current level of Cultivation.

Upon seeing Yan Yourong step out of the seclusion cave, Ling Xi quickly came up with concern, asking, "How did it go? What changed?"

"Master is so amazing..." Looking back towards the seclusion cave with a face full of admiration, Yan Yourong had a blissful smile on her face.
