

My Master 74

Chapter 74: The Play Isn't Good_1

"The four directions form the field..." Situ Fengzhan launched another Heaven Origin Strike, blood already trickling from the corner of his lips, and at the same time, his sword brows shot up! He knew the moment to counterattack had arrived! His opponent probably didn't even have the strength to lift a sword now! This time, he would use his opponent's Sword of Dodging to defeat the opponent! A single Sword Qi should suffice!

Situ Fengzhan looked up confidently, his longsword nearly activating, but then he saw his opponent slash out a third web of swords!

How is this possible? Situ Fengzhan's scalp went numb, and he forcefully gathered strength to wield the Heaven Origin Strike, barely managing to shatter the sword web, spitting out a large mouthful of blood.

This has to be the end now, right? As that thought sprouted in Situ Fengzhan's mind, he saw a thick bolt of lightning crash down, following Yan Yourong's raised hand!

The Five-thunder Righteous Method! In the sky above, the Five-thunder Righteous Method, far more powerful than Sword of Dodging, thundered down.

Divine Skills! And it's of the best quality! Situ Fengzhan's eyes widened, struggling to bring up some True Yuan for another Heaven Origin Strike. After the collision between the two formidable powers, the strength of the Heaven Origin Strike was instantly blasted apart by the Five-thunder Righteous Method, then that powerful Thunder Law smashed into his body, lightning snaking wildly around the platform like dragons. freewebnovel.com

In an instant! Situ Fengzhan's hair was completely gone, and his body, scorched black, barely managed to stand in the pit, grateful that his green robe was also a Magic Artifact; otherwise, he feared his life may have ended there.

Gulping for air, he asked, "Which peak does this junior sister hail from? It's only because I am injured today that I lost. Once I have recovered, I will visit your peak to learn from you."

"Four Treasures Peak's Second Disciple, Yan Yourong!"

As Yan Yourong revealed her identity, Situ Fengzhan felt another searing pain in his chest, spewing blood once more, and fell straight backward. The last thought before he fainted was, "Damn! Four Treasures Peak again! This peak is my bane!"

Only then did the crowd begin to realize that one of the Hidden Dragon Three Sons, Situ Fengzhan, had been defeated! And his defeat was extremely miserable! Does this not mean that a new member of the Hidden Dragon Three Sons has emerged?

The rules of the Hidden Dragon Observatory state that one automatically becomes a new Hidden Dragon Three Sons member upon defeating an existing one.

However, what the crowd didn't know was that this defeated Hidden Dragon Three Sons member had recently been severely injured by this woman's master.

"Next!" Yan Yourong didn't even glance at the fainted Situ Fengzhan, looking towards the others instead with an air of intent to not stop until she had taken down each and every one, as if to live up to Four Treasures Peak's esteemed reputation.

The crowd below the platform scoffed. Fight what? Fight, my ass! The only ones who could defeat a Hidden Dragon Three Sons member were the Hidden Dragon Three Sons members themselves.

Seeing this situation, Cao Zhen recognized that if the fighting continued, it might embarrass everyone, and afterwards, how would Yan Yourong get along in the Hundred Peaks Sect? The wonderful fate of Four Treasures Peak, beloved by everyone, flowers blooming at the sight, all could be destroyed by her.

"Yourong, why have you come?" Cao Zhen's shout instantly relieved the crowd below the platform.

There were those in the crowd who wanted to teach Cao Zhen a lesson, but ended up being taught one themselves, so their impression of Cao Zhen wasn't good. But at this moment, they realized... the Peak Master of Four Treasures Peak... is pretty handsome! And very nice!

Yan Yourong saw Cao Zhen and quickly sheathed her sword, not bothering to continue challenging the others, and moved in two strides to Cao Zhen, bowing with folded fists, and said, "Greetings to Master, I have come at the order of Hidden Dragon Observatory."

Cao Zhen immediately understood that Yan Yourong's displayed fighting power during the tournament must have also reached the ears of Hidden Dragon Observatory, so naturally, they would invite her to advance her cultivation.

"Master, please wait, your disciple hasn't finished competing in the ring." Yan Yourong said as she turned around to step back into the ring, "Allow your disciple to defeat everyone here and glorify Four Treasures Peak at the Hidden Dragon Observatory, taking the first step to fame for the Hundred Peaks Sect!"

"Fame for the Hundred Peaks Sect?"

Cao Zhen grabbed Yan Yourong's wrist and pulled her back, asking, "Our Four Treasures Peak doesn't need to seek fame within the Hundred Peaks Sect. The teaching of Four Treasures Peak is 'to love peace'! All you need to do is cultivate properly! Everyone already knows you can fight, so how am I supposed to go out and deceive others into challenging us to the ring? And how can we make a fortune from gambling? Isn't our life with plenty of money and lavish meals great?"

Those around the ring looked at Cao Zhen, thinking to themselves that this Peak Master's values were questionable! Teaching his disciple in such a way, wouldn't he be looked down upon and despised by his disciple? This could ruin a Master's dignity!

"Master's teaching is correct! Your disciple was wrong," Yan Yourong admitted with a bowed head and clenched fists, then she forced out a bit of fresh blood from her mouth, covered her chest with her hand, and looked towards Situ Fengzhan who had just awakened from being struck by lightning and feigned, "Such powerful Sword Qi! It left such a deep hidden injury, I've only just realized..."

Cao Zhen placed his hand on his forehead, feeling ashamed, were all four of his disciples abnormal? Who would believe your act at this moment? By doing this, aren't you becoming...

An insult! When Situ Fengzhan saw Yan Yourong's performance, he felt insulted! The other party was actually mocking him like this, and he, having just regained consciousness, couldn't help but spit out another mouthful of blood and fainted again.

In the last moment before he fainted, the only thought in Situ Fengzhan's mind was: Four Treasures Peak! Situ Fengzhan will not let this go!

Cao Zhen sighed and continued to educate, "Look, you've angered him until he passed out again. Your performance just now was too fake... It will actually make people hold grudges against us, and bring disaster to Four Treasures Peak."

Yan Yourong nodded in acknowledgment while whispering, "If Master is worried that he will hold a grudge against Four Treasures Peak, then I'll find a secluded place later to take him out, and we have so much land behind the mountain of Four Treasures Peak - just burying him there would do."

Cao Zhen began to miss his eldest disciple, Ling Xi, at least this disciple would admit his mistakes immediately upon being reprimanded, although in a very peculiar way, it was still better than this second disciple who was ready to bury someone at the drop of a hat.

"You haven't had the chance to visit your dwelling yet, have you? Go check your residence first, then come to the Five-Element Pill Ground to find me," Cao Zhen decided, since the second disciple had arrived, he might as well take advantage of the materials at the Five-Element Pill Ground to refine another batch of pills for his disciple to make another breakthrough.

Yan Yourong, who was usually of few words, immediately went to her quarters after bowing and disappeared from everyone's sight in the blink of an eye.

Cao Zhen was about to head to the Five-Element Pill Ground when he saw Chang Tiance running from the crowd to block his path.

"Peak Master Cao, long time no see, you seem even more impressive than before, and the disciple you taught casually is so outstanding! I assume it won't be long before you enter the top fifty... No! The top ten peaks!" Chang Tiance greeted with a bow and cupped fists, his entire demeanor exceedingly respectful, laced with the air of a sycophant because of the autograph.

Cao Zhen had no patience for the other's superfluous talk. Time is money, time is pills. He patted Chang Tiance on the shoulder and sped up toward the Five-Element Pill Ground.

"Peak Master Cao, you're heading to the Five-Element Pill Ground? Then there's no need to waste time and effort," Chang Tiance said hastily as he followed, "The Five-Element Pill Ground has just announced maintenance of the Pill Furnaces and will be temporarily closed, with the reopening time to be notified later."

Cao Zhen suddenly stopped, stomping his foot in frustration, he had come back too late! The excuse of the Hidden Dragon Observatory was too lame! It was all too familiar! Wasn't this just like when his server had been hacked, unable to beat the hacker, he simply shut down the server temporarily to avoid the attack?

Otherwise, why maintain it at this time and not any other? Maintenance just had to happen now?
