

My Master 901

Chapter 901:

The Hundred Head Sect from the Great Liang Dynasty truly despised the Grand Preceptor.

When the Grand Preceptor was around, he constantly oppressed them and frequently raided their sect.

Now, with the Grand Preceptor in deep slumber, they naturally sought retaliation within the Guardian Immortal Dynasty, even contemplating not just reprisal but the outright annihilation of the Guardian Immortal Dynasty and the excavation of the Grand Preceptor's living grave.

If they did not destroy the Guardian Immortal Dynasty and dig up the Grand Preceptor's living grave, once a hundred years passed and the Grand Preceptor awoke, he would surely seek revenge against them.

Were they supposed to endure the Grand Preceptor's tyranny forever?

Therefore, taking advantage of the arrival of the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, they were determined to obliterate the Guardian Immortal Dynasty and uncover the Grand Preceptor's living grave.

They even believed that the people of each surrounding dynasty would surely think the same.

Thus, after the arrival of the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, after the Sun and Moon Demon Sect and the Red Refinery Demonic Sect approached them, even knowing that there was someone behind the two Demon Sects, they still chose to collaborate with them to attack the Guardian Immortal Dynasty.

With someone to lead the charge, why wouldn't they cooperate?

As for the forces behind the Sun and Moon Demon Sect and the Red Refinery Demonic Sect, it was irrelevant.

If that power truly had the strength to destroy the Guardian Immortal Dynasty and yet still possessed the power to annihilate them, why would it need to lurk in the shadows, hiding behind the two major Demon Sects?

Even if they destroyed the Guardian Immortal Dynasty, any plots or tricks these people had would be useless against them.

The only issue was which Immortal Sect from their respective dynasties would make the first move.

Those who exerted effort first would inevitably incur losses; no one wanted to be the first to act.

Then, unexpectedly, following Qian Jiao's initiative, Bai Sheng, their Vice Sect Master, took action directly.

Behind Bai Sheng, the giant Golden Core, formed from ten special phenomena, emerged. A tremendous aura surged around him, and in just a brief moment, rays of golden light burst forth from his body, transforming into what seemed like light arcs capable of piercing through mountains and flying towards Qin Yao. As the light arcs traversed the air, the space around them violently tore apart.

With Bai Sheng making his move, other disciples from the Hundred Head Sect also began to unleash their attacks.

In an instant, both sides plunged into a chaotic battle.

Just for a moment, the Sun and Moon Sect fell into a disadvantageous position, although it was one of the ten major Immortal Sects of the Guardian Immortal Dynasty, boasting three masters who had reached the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection within the sect.

However, the Hundred Head Sect was the strongest Immortal Sect of the Great Liang Dynasty, even more formidable than the Sun and Moon Sect, and this time, even without their Sect Leader, boasted three masters who had reached the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection.

Meanwhile, by the side of the Sun and Moon Demon Sect were two masters of the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, the Eclipse Demon and Qian Jiao.

After the Sun and Moon Sect's three Great Perfection Golden Core experts were tied up by the Hundred Head Sect's counterparts, no one was able to contend with Qian Jiao and the Eclipse Demon for the time being.

Although the Eclipse Demon appeared powerless in the presence of Yan Yourong and Ling Xi among others, without an adversary of Great Perfection Golden Core, he moved as if he were in a land devoid of people.

Qian Jiao's strength was clearly even a notch above the Eclipse Demon's.

In the midst of this great battle, a Flying Boat rushed over swiftly.

"Master, they have already engaged."

From within the Flying Boat, Ling Xi looked at the battling parties from afar. The phenomena of her Golden Core had already manifested behind her, and in her hands, the Heaven and Earth Bagua Talisman and the Supreme Unparalleled Formation also came into view.

"Remember, prioritize slaying Qian Jiao," Cao Zhen's voice fell, and he instantly withdrew the Flying Boat.

The next moment, Ling Xi suddenly flew out, and beneath her, the Unparalleled Formation Diagram unfurled instantly.

Light shone from each sector of the diagram, streaking towards the skies. Following that, the Heaven and Earth Bagua Talisman vibrated violently, as if responding in kind, also emitting beams of light.

Beams of light converged in the sky as the Formation Diagram and the Talisman connected at that moment. They were no longer simply two Divine Weapons but seemed to have fully integrated into one.

In the void, the Talisman, and on the ground, the Formation Diagram lit up with converging beams of light that fell upon Ling Xi. At that moment, her entire presence changed, as if she had transformed into someone else entirely.

The Supreme Unparalleled Formation wasn't solely targeted at one individual; theoretically, once the Formation was deployed, everyone within it would be affected by its influence.

However, doing so would reduce the impact of the legal enforcement upon each individual, and affecting everyone simultaneously would make the Formation much easier to break.

Moreover, Ling Xi clearly remembered her master's instructions were to kill Qian Jiao, so this time, her Formation targeted only one person—Qian Jiao herself.

As the Formation expanded, many people took notice of the shadow soaring towards them.

"Is that... Ling Xi from the Hundred Peaks Sect?"

"Ling Xi? Why is she here?"

Bai Sheng felt a sudden sinking feeling in his heart. Ling Xi was part of the Hundred Peaks Sect, allied with the Guardian Immortal Dynasty. With Ling Xi's sudden appearance and the ongoing battle, she would inevitably aid the Sun and Moon Sect.

The expressions of Qian Jiao and the Eclipse Demon drastically shifted, how did Ling Xi get here? And what about this Formation...

In an instant, Qian Jiao sensed an imposing aura all around her, and an invisible force gathered, clamping down on her like a pair of invisible hands.

The next moment, thirty-two Talismans suddenly flew out in the void.

Thirty-two!

Chapter 902:

Before Ling Xi, there had been only two occasions in which thirty-two talismans were gathered to strike someone: one was against Star Lord Hao Yue, a reincarnated Great Ability with the Perfect Completion Golden Core of Ten Different Phenomena, and the other was against an elder of the Earth Immortal Realm. Now, it was her third time gathering the thirty-two talismans!

Since her master had insisted on killing Qian Jiao, she was determined to gather the thirty-two talismans.

In an instant, thirty-two talismans converged to form an incomparably majestic and towering mountain.

The mountain seemed to connect the earth with the horizon, spanning endless rivers and mountains, falling from beyond the ninth heaven, smashing directly toward Qian Jiao.

This was an attack formed from the convergence of thirty-two talismans. Previously, when he faced Liao Kong, who was among those with the Perfect Completion Golden Core of Ten Different Phenomena, he had only deployed twenty-eight talismans, which had left Liao Kong without any strategies, ultimately forcing him to admit defeat.

Now, she was facing Qian Jiao, who was no match for Liao Kong, yet she released thirty-two talismans. How could Qian Jiao withstand this?

In just a moment, the massive mountain had already descended heavily with boundless force from above Qian Jiao's head. Instantly, Qian Jiao seemed to have been struck by a meteor falling from the sky; her entire body, whether flesh, bones, meridians, or internal organs, burst apart in an instant.

And in the last moment of her life, her gaze turned toward the Eclipse Demon. In that instant, scenes from her life flashed through her mind, all the way back to her childhood, to when she first joined the Sun Moon Demon Sect. The Eclipse Demon in her sight seemed to revert back to his younger form.

She opened her mouth, attempting to say something, but ultimately no words came out, and her breath was completely cut off.

An existence with the Perfect Completion Golden Core of Ten Different Phenomena thus perished!

For a moment, everyone around was taken aback with shock.

That was a being with the Perfect Completion Golden Core of Ten Different Phenomena! Her previous slaughter of disciples from the Sun Moon Sect felt as easy as slicing melons and vegetables, yet before Ling Xi, she was dispatched with such ease.

They all knew that among the four disciples of Four Treasures Peak with the Perfect Completion Golden Core of Ten Different Phenomena, Yan Yourong was the most adept at instantly killing her opponents.

And Ling Xi was never the type to kill her opponents instantly. Unexpectedly, when Ling Xi unleashed her power, she was not weaker than Yan Yourong at all.

Is this the terror of one of the top ten Immortal Generals of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty?

After Ling Xi instantly killed Qian Jiao, she did not pause, but gathered talisman after talisman, transforming them into more talismans that flew around.

The next moment, purple thunder gathered in her hands.

Five-thunder Righteous Method!

In a flash, innumerable thunderbolts fell from the void, each seemingly capable of effortlessly shattering mountains. The space around them seemed to be ripped apart, constantly vibrating and bursting. The entire sky turned a shade of purple.

Thunder Summoning Symbol!

What she had just released was the Thunder Summoning Symbol, and with its enhancement, it even summoned the Heavenly Tribulation Thunder.

In combination with the Five-thunder Righteous Method, this part of the world turned instantly into a realm of thunder.

One by one, the disciples from the Hundred Head Sect perished under the bombardment of thunder, turning into mere dust.

For a moment, disciples of both the Sun Moon Sect and the Hundred Head Sect were terrified to their very core. They knew the terror of a being with the Perfect Completion Golden Core of Ten Different Phenomena, but the one before them now was overwhelmingly powerful, far beyond their imagination.

Ling Xi first revealed her strength in front of the world at the Immortal Combat Meet of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty. However, even at the Immortal Combat Meet, she had never used her full strength.

Only in the final battle, when she fought against Star Lord Hao Yue, did she erupt with her full power.

Yet Star Lord Hao Yue was a reincarnated Great Being. Even though Ling Xi unleashed her full power, the battle did not make people feel too frightened, nor did it show how much of a gap there was between her and other beings with the Perfect Completion Golden Core, or others at the Golden Core Stage.

During the last attack by the Sun Moon Sect and the Great Lai Dynasty's three Immortal Sects on the Hundred Peaks Sect, people's attention was more drawn to Xiang Ziyu and Cao Zhen, who had displayed Secret Techniques, and Ling Xi wasn't the most noticeable then.

Now, it was truly the first time that Ling Xi was showing her invincible form before the world!

Cao Zhen didn't know now whether, without using Secret Techniques, Xiang Ziyu was stronger or Ling Xi was. However, when it came to crushing weaker opponents, Ling Xi was definitely stronger than Xiang Ziyu.

With the ultimate Wu Ji True technique and the Heaven and Earth Eight Trigrams, Ling Xi attacked those weaker than her, not needing to concentrate too many talismans at once, which allowed her to attack more people simultaneously.

In an instant, the people from the Sun Moon Sect and the Hundred Head Sect fell one after another.

Such was the terror of a top-tier being with the Perfect Completion Golden Core of Ten Different Phenomena during the Reversal Mini Epoch Period.

If the strength of the opposing sides was somewhat equal, having a top-tier being with the Perfect Completion Golden Core of Ten Different Phenomena, with no one to restrain her, she could inflict unimaginable damage.

As Ling Xi took action, one by one, the people of the Sun Moon Sect were greatly heartened.

"Experts from the Hundred Peaks Sect have come to assist us!"

"There, that's Cao Zhen!"

"Peak Master Cao, make your move quickly!"

"Now, he is no longer Peak Master Cao but Sect Leader Cao!"

Not just the people from the Hundred Peaks Sect, but the Eclipse Demon and Bai Sheng also noticed the distant Cao Zhen, who was observing the battle without intervening, as well as the woman by Cao Zhen's side.

Chapter 903:

Cao Zhen!

He was widely recognized as the strongest person in the world today.

Why hadn't he made a move? Was it because he had enough confidence in Ling Xi? Did he think there was no need to act?

They originally had the advantage, but suddenly, with the arrival of Cao Zhen and Ling Xi, that advantage turned into a disadvantage.

Just Ling Xi alone was already giving them a headache, let alone if Cao Zhen were added to the equation.

"Retreat..."

"Withdraw quickly!"

Bai Sheng made a snap decision, leading everyone to leave. Continuing the fight would not earn them any advantages. At this point, continuing would only mean needless sacrifices.

They had to withdraw quickly before Cao Zhen could act.

Seeing Bai Sheng leading the people of Hundred Head Sect to withdraw, the Erosion Sun Demon Eye also quickly shouted out and hurried toward the distance.

With Bai Sheng gone, the remaining people of the Sun and Moon Demon Sect were not enough for their opponents to slaughter.

These were all the remaining Golden Core Stage disciples of the Sun and Moon Demon Sect. If more died, although the Fourth Prince wouldn't abandon the Sun and Moon Demon Sect, the sect's standing in the eyes of the Fourth Prince would drastically decrease.

Moreover, in the future he needed to rely on these disciples of the Sun and Moon Demon Sect; they were the sect's last high-end force. He absolutely could not allow these Golden Core Stage disciples to perish.

Although the Sun Erosion Demon withdrew fast enough, considering they had previously slaughtered people from the Sun and Moon Sect, now that the Sun and Moon Sect had the upper hand, how could they let them go easily?

The Sun and Moon Sect swiftly chased after them, pursuing them for thousands of miles before, under the lead of Qin Yao, they returned.

"Thank you, Sect Leader Cao and Dao Companion Ling Xi for your assistance." After returning, the first thing Qin Yao did was to clasp her hands towards Cao Zhen to express her gratitude.

Especially in addressing Qin Yao, she also used 'Dao Companion.'

She had no choice, given that she now headed the Sun and Moon Sect, naturally considering Cao Zhen as a peer, and with Ling Xi being Cao Zhen's disciple, naturally he should be regarded as a junior to her.

But just now, Ling Xi had just assisted their Sun and Moon Sect, so she couldn't very well call him a junior disciple (generation below her), could she?

As she spoke, her gaze involuntarily fell on the beautiful woman standing next to Cao Zhen.

Qiao Jingyao.

She recognized this woman. Although, in the previous grand assembly of all immortals where countless Golden Core Stage disciples participated, she still remembered Qiao Jingyao.

Because Qiao Jingyao had been Cao Zhen's opponent.

As Cao Zhen was a reincarnated great being, everyone naturally paid attention to his battles; and Qiao Jingyao, having shown herself to be quite special, each of her Golden Core being a Phenomenon Golden Core, even though her Divine Skills were exceptionally weak, not even having a Divine Weapon.

Later, the Grand Preceptor even gifted Qiao Jingyao a Divine Weapon and Divine Skills, as well as a Cultivation Technique, making it difficult to forget about Qiao Jingyao.

Moreover, during a period before, she had also heard about Qiao Jingyao killing members of the Demon Sect everywhere, and the information she received stated that Qiao Jingyao had become a being of Nine Abnormal Phenomenon Golden Pills.

But, hadn't Cao Zhen gone into the relic?

She had gone into the relic too, but had just not seen Cao Zhen in there.

She also knew that Cao Zhen had most likely obtained the final treasure inside the relic, but after leaving the relic, shouldn't Cao Zhen have returned to the Hundred Peaks Sect? Why had Cao Zhen appeared here?

And together with Qiao Jingyao?

Even Cao Zhen hadn't made a move.

Her mind was filled with doubts.

Cao Zhen raised his hand, pointing in the direction of the Sun and Moon Sect, and said, "Sect Leader Qin, shall we head back to Sun and Moon Sect first?"

"I have indeed been negligent, Sect Leader Cao please..."

Qin Yao gestured invitingly and started flying towards Sun and Moon Sect, with Cao Zhen following closely behind.

Gradually, Qin Yao's expression displayed a hint of astonishment. Until now when they were flying, she hadn't noticed anything off, but she realized that Cao Zhen's aura was somewhat unstable, clearly indicating he had injuries.

"Sect Leader Cao, what happened to you..."

It made her recall an image she had seen in the relic, Cao Zhen being bombarded by many Heavenly Tribulations, until finally, a palace appeared and took Cao Zhen away.

So, Cao Zhen was injured, and after so long, he hadn't recovered?

Cao Zhen was a reincarnated great being, renowned especially for his alchemy.

During the grand assembly of all immortals, Cao Zhen's disciples, even Qiao Jingyao, had recovered quickly from serious injuries after taking Cao Zhen's pills. Cao Zhen going into the relic wouldn't have gone without bringing pills, and now that this much time had passed, his injuries hadn't yet healed?

"It's nothing, those injuries I sustained inside the relic, as you saw, came from the residual forces of the Tribulation Array. Recovery is a bit troublesome, but, it's just a bit of trouble, and it won't be long before I completely recover," Cao Zhen maintained his reincarnated great being persona, downplaying the severity of his injuries greatly.

Even though he hadn't encountered Qin Yao inside the relic, he had seen Qin Yao, Star Lord Hao Yue, and many other experts through those special walls, it was just that they hadn't met.

"I see." Qin Yao nodded, now understanding why Cao Zhen hadn't made a move just now, as it turned out he was injured.

If those people from the Hundred Head Sect and the Sun and Moon Demon Sect knew that Cao Zhen was injured, perhaps they wouldn't have retreated so decisively.

As Qin Yao flew, she politely said to Cao Zhen, "In any case, thank you so much, Sect Leader Cao. Since you are injured, why not rest a few days in our Sun and Moon Sect until you recover before departing?"

Chapter 904:

Cao Zhen cupped one hand in the other before his chest and said, "Then I will have to trouble Sect Leader Qin."

"Sect Leader Cao is too polite, if it hadn't been for you and your disciple arriving just in time, our Sun and Moon Sect would have been in trouble," Qin Yao flew alongside, her voice tinged with curiosity. "How did Sect Leader Cao know they were going to attack our Sun and Moon Sect?"

"I just happened to encounter them," Cao Zhen casually dismissed.

Soon, the group had arrived at the Sun and Moon Sect.

Cao Zhen was no stranger to the other great Immortal Sects, having previously attended a discourse at the Thousand Caves Door. The Thousand Caves Door and his own Hundred Peaks Sect were both from the Mixed Clan, whereas the Sun and Moon Sect was different.

There were no divisions into different peaks within the Sun and Moon Sect.

He looked up above his head, having heard rumors that within the mountain gate of the Sun and Moon Sect, the sun and the moon rose together regardless of day or night.

Now, however, he saw no moon, only the fierce sun hanging in the sky.

It seemed the combined radiance of the sun and moon was overpowering the Golden Core Stage, hence the moon was not visible.

As the Sect Leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect, and with Ling Xi being among those of the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, especially since they had just aided the Sun and Moon Sect, naturally, the Sun and Moon Sect would arrange for excellent hospitality. They provided a superior Cave Mansion immediately, and Qin Yao personally set up a sect feast, welcoming Cao Zhen with the highest standards.

But before the sect feast could commence, Cao Zhen suddenly sent a voice transmission to Qin Yao, "Sect Leader Qin, I have some matters I would like to discuss with you alone."

"Hmm?" A look of surprise crossed Qin Yao's face, but swiftly, she addressed everyone around her, "Prepare for the feast, please. I will speak with Sect Leader Cao privately about some matters."

"Yes."

The surrounding people echoed in agreement, and as they watched the two depart, someone murmured in a low voice, "Actually, our Sect Leader and Sect Leader Cao would make a good match."

"Indeed, they are both currently the heads of their respective great Immortal Sects, and our Sect Leader is also at the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection stage."

"Do you think the two of them could possibly—"

"What nonsense are you thinking? Sect Leader Cao is already searching for a cultivation companion, right?"

"But in our world of Immortal Cultivation, one may have more than one cultivation companion."

No sooner had these words fallen than someone retorted, "But that's our Sect Leader; how could she possibly share a cultivation companion with someone else!"

"That's right, don't let your mind wander. Sect Leader Cao has just aided us. Plus, it's during the Reversal Mini Epoch Period where the world is in chaos. I think our Sect Leader might be discussing how our two great sects could form a closer alliance or perhaps conspire to advance and retreat together?"

"It's highly likely," another agreed.

"Speaking of which, although the Hundred Peaks Sect is strong, with many experts at the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, the enemies of the Hundred Peaks Sect are numerous. It is not just the Demon Sect targeting the Hundred Peaks Sect, even Immortal Sects like the Void Breaking Sect within the Great Lai Dynasty dare to provoke the Hundred Peaks Sect.

If our Sun and Moon Sect were to stand with the Hundred Peaks Sect, an Immortal Sect like the Void Breaking Sect would hardly dare to provoke the Hundred Peaks Sect. Moreover, by doing so, how could the Hundred Head Sect dare to brazenly meddle with us!"

"If our two great Immortal Sects joined forces, that would indeed be beneficial," they discussed among themselves.

As the crowd buzzed with talk, Cao Zhen had already followed Qin Yao into a private meeting room.

Without waiting for Qin Yao to speak, Cao Zhen took the initiative, "Do you know why the Sun Moon Demon Sect and the Hundred Head Sect attacked you this time?"

Qin Yao looked up abruptly at Cao Zhen.

Cao Zhen didn't respond directly but continued to inquire, "Do you know of the remnants from the previous dynasty?"

Qin Yao's expression became grave, "The remnants of the previous dynasty? People from the Qi Tian Dynasty? Are you suggesting that this time, it was those remnants who instigated the Sun Moon Demon Sect and the Hundred Head Sect to attack our Sun and Moon Sect together?"

"Exactly," Cao Zhen nodded forcefully. "It seems you are aware of the Qi Tian Dynasty. In fact, earlier, the Sun Moon Demon Sect, along with the three major Immortal Sects of the Great Lai Dynasty, attacked our Hundred Peaks Sect, and it was also the former dynasty's remnants behind it.

Previously, in an ancient relic, the last person who contended with me for the relic was also from the Qi Tian Dynasty, and more specifically, the fourth prince of the Qi Tian Royal Family."

"What!" Qin Yao was thoroughly shocked.

After a long while, she began to speak slowly, "It looks like the Qi Tian Dynasty truly intends to take advantage of the arrival of the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth to stage a complete restoration. If they wish to restore their reign, they will definitely target our ten great Immortal Sects, not just us, but many of the ancient Immortal Sects within the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty will be attacked as well."

Understanding dawned on Cao Zhen instantly, and he asked, "So, what was the reason originally, why did they want to attack our ten great Immortal Sects?"

"You don't know?" Surprise showed on Qin Yao's face upon hearing him. She shook her head then added, "Right, you are a reincarnated being with great ability, not knowing about our epoch is normal. However, there should be records of these events in the annals of your Hundred Peaks Sect.

At the beginning of this epoch, our entire region was under the domain of the Qi Tian Dynasty; initially, there was no law and everyone respected the Praying Heaven Royal Family, who did not oppress the great Immortal Sects too much.

However, over time, members of various Immortal Sects noticed that powerful individuals were mysteriously disappearing.

Furthermore, whenever someone broke through to the Immortality Regainment Realm, they would vanish as well.

Eventually, a predecessor from the Divine Dao Sect broke through to the Immortality Regainment Realm and mysteriously disappeared, only to reappear half a year later, bringing back a piece of news."

Chapter 905:

After his breakthrough, he was hunted by the Qi Tian Dynasty. However, he had cultivated a special Divine Skill and used the Gold Cicada Escape Technique to elude the assassins from the Qi Tian Dynasty.

Latter, he secretly investigated and discovered that the experts and prodigies who had vanished from various Immortal Sects had also fallen victim to the Qi Tian Dynasty.

On the surface, the Qi Tian Dynasty did not target the great Immortal Sects. In reality, though, they were always limiting the development of these sects and secretly assassinating their experts and prodigies.

The former elder of the Divine Dao Sect was highly respected by all, and everyone believed his words, but given the significance of the matter, all the great Immortal Sects also conducted their private investigations and indeed, findings were consistent with what the elder had claimed.

Thus, the major Immortal Sects ultimately decided to join forces. Under the leadership of that elder, they stormed into the Imperial City of the Qi Tian Dynasty and annihilated it.

That battle caused severe losses for the great Immortal Sects, and even led to the cessation of the legacies of some sects.

Not all of the people from the Qi Tian Dynasty perished; some managed to flee.

Previously, the remnants of the Qi Tian Dynasty had always sought to restore their rule, but their losses were too substantial at the time, and the remaining forces too weak, while the great Immortal Sects were continuously hunting them.

Therefore, their space to survive kept shrinking, and they didn't reappear for a long time.

Only ten thousand years later did the Qi Tian Dynasty seem to regain its vitality and once again launched attacks. Every ten thousand years, the Qi Tian Dynasty would re-emerge to stir up trouble.

In fact, based on the frequency of the appearances of the Qi Tian Dynasty's descendants, they should have appeared a long time ago. However, our Town Immortal Dynasty had a Grand Preceptor.

Presumably, because of the Grand Preceptor's presence, the descendants of the Qi Tian Dynasty knew they couldn't easily restore their rule, so they remained hidden, waiting for the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth to come after the Grand Preceptor fell asleep. They then reappeared," Cao Zhen nodded, everything was almost as he had speculated. Back then, the Qi Tian Dynasty was indeed destroyed by a coalition of the ten great Immortal Sects and other powerful sects.

It was during the time when the seventh generation Sect Leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect was in power, after which the legacy of the Hundred Peaks Sect had many interruptions.

"So, if the remnants of the Qi Tian Dynasty seek to restore their power, they would definitely target our ten great Immortal Sects and those that had taken action initially. They will surely seek revenge and aim to annihilate us!"

"Exactly," Qin Yao nodded forcefully. "Therefore, although the ten great Immortal Sects of our Town Immortal Dynasty compete with each other on normal days, whenever people from Qi Tian Dynasty appear, we select an Alliance Hierarch and join forces to confront the remnants of the Qi Tian Dynasty."

Qin Yao paused briefly and sighed, "Although I don't want to bolster others' morale while undermining our own prestige, we have to admit that the legacies of our ten great Immortal Sects are much inferior to that of the Qi Tian Dynasty.

Otherwise, the great Immortal Sects wouldn't have been suppressed by the Qi Tian Dynasty initially. Of course, Sect Leader Cao, as a reincarnation of a Great Ability, your legacy is not necessarily inferior to the Qi Tian Dynasty's."

"Let's discuss the legacy issue later. Sect Leader Qin, I sought you out alone because I have something important to remind you. Your Sun and Moon Sect might have people from the Qi Tian Dynasty," Cao Zhen looked at Qin Yao earnestly, "Previously, we already discovered a traitor in our Hundred Peaks Sect, and moreover, the traitor was among our high ranks.

According to what you've said, if the remnants of the Qi Tian Dynasty are targeting our ten great Immortal Sects, then they wouldn't just plant people within our Hundred Peaks Sect; they would likely infiltrate all ten great Immortal Sects."

Qin Yao's expression instantly grew solemn; she understood why Cao Zhen had chosen to discuss this matter with her alone.

Qin Yao nodded heavily, "Thank you for the warning, Sect Leader Cao. I will be more vigilant."

After speaking with Qin Yao, Cao Zhen hurriedly excused himself. He still had to focus on two other matters: one was the current situation of the Hundred Peaks Sect and the other was the Sun Erosion Demon.

Upon returning to the cave mansion prepared for him by the Hundred Peaks Sect, he quickly connected with his disciple, You Rong, through the Zhonghua Cloud.

Soon, Four Treasures Peak appeared before him.

In Four Treasures Peak, You Rong sat cross-legged alone on a mountaintop, with the Grieving Anger Dragon Blade stabbed into the ground before her. She did not speak or move, just gazed intently at the Grieving Anger Dragon Blade, lost in thought.

"You Rong," Cao Zhen's voice soon resonated in You Rong's ears, "The remnants of the Qi Tian Dynasty are about to attack the Hundred Peaks Sect. Is the Hundred Peaks Sect prepared?"

Hearing this, although You Rong knew she couldn't see her master, she shifted her gaze from the blade and stood up, turning towards the east and said, "Master, the remnants of the former dynasty have already visited the Hundred Peaks Sect."

"They have already visited the Hundred Peaks Sect? In such a short time, they have left? So the battle ended so quickly? How is the Hundred Peaks Sect now?"

Cao Zhen was momentarily stunned. You Rong's demeanor indicated that the battle was over and, evidently, the Hundred Peaks Sect had emerged victorious, otherwise You Rong would not be meditating at Four Treasures Peak with the Grieving Anger Dragon Blade.

"Master, our losses at the Hundred Peaks Sect weren't severe. Mainly, it was Disciple Bei Yan who achieved meritorious deeds," You Rong quickly stated, "Disciple Bei Yan took the pill you had instructed to be refined earlier, breaking through to the Wind Fire Tribulation, and after successfully passing the Heavenly Tribulation, he did indeed not advance into the Earth Immortal Realm but continued to stay in the Wind Fire Tribulation."

Chapter 906:

"With this approach, as soon as the Disciple unleashes his combat power, the Wind Fire Tribulation will appear, and moreover, the Wind Fire formed by the tribulation will block the Divine Skills attacking Disciple. Thus, they nearly have no way to counter the Disciple."

"I see," Cao Zhen was secretly relieved, thankful that he had prepared Pills beforehand, thankful that his conjecture had been correct. Otherwise, the Hundred Peaks Sect might not have so easily withstood the assault from the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

While Cao Zhen was pondering, the voice of Yan Yourong reached him again.

"Master, we have also found the person within our Hundred Peaks Sect who leaked your information, it was Lie Yan."

"Lie Yan?" Cao Zhen's expression subtly changed, and he noticed that Yan Yourong didn't call Lie Yan a traitor.

Yan Yourong said with a complex expression, "Lie Yan's father is a man from the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty. Thus, when Lie Yan was accepted as a Disciple by our Hundred Peaks Sect, he was actually already affiliated with the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty."

Cao Zhen slightly nodded, this had not surprised him. If he was from the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, naturally, they would start planting spies in other Immortal Sects from an early age.

Yan Yourong continued, "Though Lie Yan leaked your whereabouts, he still wholeheartedly sided with the Hundred Peaks Sect. When the enemies approached, he immediately used a Secret Technique to launch a surprise attack from behind, killing the leader of the opponents. After that, he continued to use the Secret Technique, slaughtering a great number of enemies, but finally due to the backlash of the Secret Technique, his life was in danger."

Lie Yan had previously consumed a Nirvana Pill, which made him so strong. He had undergone Nirvana once already, and consuming another Nirvana Pill would no longer be effective, so Mistress gave the Nirvana Pill to support Lie Yan.

Lie Yan is currently undergoing Nirvana, and it is unknown when he will awaken.

Vice Sect Master Nie Jie said that since he is a senior brother of Nie Jie, it wouldn't be appropriate for him to judge Lie Yan. Everything must wait until you return, Master. After Lie Yan awakens, you will judge him and decide his guilt and punishment."

"Naturally, Lie Yan would not..." Cao Zhen was speaking when he realized that the time had come.

"Lie Yan, it turned out to be him. But his heart still lies with the Hundred Peaks Sect, otherwise, he would not have killed the enemy's leader."

Cao Zhen replayed the message from Yan Yourong in his mind and a smile of relief appeared on his face, so it can be said that there is no traitor in the Hundred Peaks Sect; Lie Yan is still a Disciple of the Hundred Peaks Sect! In the end, Lie Yan still chose the Hundred Peaks Sect.

If he were not the Sect Leader, he would have chosen not to punish Lie Yan.

But now, he is the Sect Leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect, and his decisions must be just.

Although Lie Yan leaked information, he ultimately did wrong, even though he also contributed to the Hundred Peaks Sect, even killing the leader of the opponents.

Merit is merit, fault is fault.

Merits should be rewarded, and faults need to be punished."

"As for punishment, when I return, I'll look into the rules of the Hundred Peaks Sect and consider some symbolic punishment - perhaps prohibiting him from leaving the Hundred Peaks Sect for many years, a punishment that might seem severe but actually has little effect.

Or perhaps, have him guard the Boundless Blood River?"

After realizing that the Hundred Peaks Sect was temporarily safe, Cao Zhen no longer thought about Lie Yan's matter but reconnected with the Sun Erosion Demon.

He had indeed ordered Ling Xi to kill Qian Jiao. Now, in the Sun and Moon Demon Sect, only Sun Erosion Demon remained as a Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection. No matter what, Sun Erosion Demon should ascend now.

Thus, Sun Erosion Demon should be able to make contact with the fourth prince now.

Soon, his vision filled with Sun Erosion Demon, along with six other Golden Core Stage cultivators who were clearly injured.

Six?

Cao Zhen shook his head helplessly; the Sun and Moon Demon Sect really suffered heavy losses. Initially, the Sun and Moon Demon Sect was merely a hall under Sun Erosion Demon, and he had many Golden Core Stage under him, but now, there were only these six Golden Core Stage left with him.

With such few Golden Core Stage cultivators, the place of Sun and Moon Demon Sect in the heart of the fourth prince will surely decline, at least for now.

"Sun Erosion Demon, this fellow, might not be able to get close to the core of the fourth prince."

Sun Erosion Demon led the six disciples of the Sun and Moon Demon Sect, and flew towards a remote area.

As Cao Zhen watched, he felt that the place where Sun Erosion Demon flew over was familiar.

"This place, isn't this the Qili Country where I was with Qiao Jingyao before? Right, Qiao Jingyao found out that there were many from the Demon Sect here, so this place is the old lair of the Sun and Moon Demon Sect? Is Sun Erosion Demon planning to bring people back to their old lair?"

Sun Erosion Demon continued to fly, looking very solemn. Qian Jiao had died just like that, and his mission this time had failed too. The entire Sun and Moon Demon Sect was left with only a few Golden Core Stage experts.

Just these few Golden Core Stage, not counting him as being a Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection, their current strength was less than many smaller Immortal Sects of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

After Sun Erosion Demon arrived in Qili Country, he no longer seemed to be fleeing for his life, but instead appeared somewhat high-profile. He directly led his men to constantly fly across the sky of Qili Country, from one side to the other, and then changed direction to continue flying.

All of Qian Jiao's belongings, which could have been seized back, were lost. He had nothing and couldn't even contact the fourth prince.

For now, he could only temporarily hide in Qili Country and wait for others to discover them.

This place is not the old lair of the Sun Moon Demon Sect but the chosen lair of the fourth prince. Although Qili Country isn't large, that's only relative to the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty.

He only knew that the fourth prince was in Qili Country, but he didn't know where exactly the lair of the fourth prince was. He could only hope that by flying this way, the other subordinates of the fourth prince would discover him.

He hadn't been flying for long when he heard a cold shout in his ears: "Sun Erosion Demon, weren't you supposed to attack the Sun Moon Sect? Why have you come here?"

And why are you flying so aimlessly? Are you afraid that people don't know that there is a Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection in Qili Country?"

As the harsh voice fell, a man wrapped in a gray robe appeared before Sun Erosion Demon.

Gray-robed man!

Sun Erosion Demon knew this person, Qian Jiao had told him about him, the most trusted by the fourth prince was a guy who wore a gray robe all day.

Qian Jiao had even told him, never offend this gray-robed man.

Even Dao Yi's status was below that of the gray-robed man!

Chapter 907:

All the princes of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty had their trusted confidants, among them, the third prince's confidant was a middle-aged man.

After the death of the third prince, that individual even disappeared without a trace, and no one knew where he went.

And the confidant of the fourth prince was a figure known only as Grey Robe, as no one knew his name, so everyone called him Grey Robe, and no one had even seen his face.

Grey Robe not only wore a broad grey robe all year round, but his face was also covered with a mask. Everyone knew only that Grey Robe was a man, but nothing more.

Although the Eclipse Demon could not see Grey Robe's expressions due to the mask, he could still feel the dissatisfaction emanating from Grey Robe's tone.

Now, in the height of summer, with the fierce sun blazing down upon the earth, the sound of Grey Robe's voice made the Eclipse Demon feel as though he had plunged into an ice layer that hadn't thawed for ten thousand years, making him shudder uncontrollably and bow his head to explain, "I have already been to the Sun and Moon Sect, and we even clashed with people from the Sun and Moon Sect, but... but an unexpected turn of events occurred en route; Cao Zhen and Ling Xi suddenly appeared, catching us off guard and killing us."

All members of the Hundred Head Sect had retreated, and we had no choice but to pull back as well. Additionally, Qian Jiao was killed by Ling Xi, and I had no way to contact the fourth prince to report this matter at that time. I could only come here and wait until you found us, and then report the matter to the fourth prince."

Qian Jiao was the person the fourth prince trusted and was the Sect Leader of the Sun Moon Demon Sect, who could get in touch with the fourth prince, but I was unable to do so.

"What?" Grey Robe's voice suddenly rose, his gaze shifting to the side, to the haggard disciples of the Sun Moon Demon Sect, as he demanded, "So, is this all that remains of you now?"

"Yes..." the head of the Eclipse Demon dropped even lower.

"Useless." Grey Robe uttered disdainfully, turning his head to look at the disciples of the Sun Moon Demon Sect around him and said in a cold tone, "Stay here, you come with me."

With that, he turned and flew off into the distance.

Behind him, the Eclipse Demon hurriedly followed.

Cao Zhen, using the China Cloud, watched the Eclipse Demon race to catch up and an excited glint appeared in his eyes. Who was Grey Robe taking the Eclipse Demon to meet?

The Eclipse Demon had allied himself with the fourth prince, so... was the fourth prince of the Qi Tian Dynasty also here?

Qiao Jingyao had mentioned that she suspected the presence of a significant number of Demon Sect people here, suspecting that this was the demon stronghold. So, could it actually be not the Demon Sect's lair but the fourth prince's stronghold instead?

If he knew where the fourth prince was, then he could completely take people and level the fourth prince's stronghold.

Although Qili Country was not large, it indeed had many mountains.

Grey Robe quickly led the Eclipse Demon into a range of mountains, and after a series of left turns, he suddenly stopped outside a valley and instructed the Eclipse Demon to wait there.

As soon as he finished speaking, he entered the valley.

Cao Zhen swiftly observed the surroundings of the valley. Although he had spent some time in Qili Country, he hadn't been there for very long and only knew that this place was within Qili Country, but he needed to search further for the exact location.

Grey Robe hadn't been in the valley for long when two figures suddenly burst out from within.

The fourth prince dashed in front of the Eclipse Demon and demanded coldly, "Did you see that Cao Zhen?"

It was not the first time the Eclipse Demon had seen the fourth prince, who had always given him the impression of being a master strategist, as if everything was under control.

Yet, this was the first time he had seen the fourth prince so agitated, so out of character.

The Eclipse Demon was even taken aback by a state he thought the fourth prince had never been in, and he showed a moment of surprise.

But after just a slight hesitation, he suddenly felt a coldness that seemed capable of shattering his soul come over him.

A chill ran through the Eclipse Demon's heart, and he hastily replied, "Yes, fourth prince, I saw Cao Zhen, and Ling Xi, and there was also a woman I did not recognize."

"An unrecognized woman?" A look of surprise crossed the fourth prince's face, but then he did not inquire further about the woman but instead asked, "Did you see Cao Zhen make a move then?"

"No." The Eclipse Demon shook his head decisively. "Cao Zhen did not make a move; it was Ling Xi who acted, and then the people from the Hundred Head Sect retreated. They may have been afraid that if Cao Zhen made a move, they wouldn't even have a chance to run."

"A bunch of cowards!" A surge of fury erupted from within the fourth prince as he stared intensely at the Eclipse Demon, "You also went to the ruin; did you not see that Cao Zhen was gravely injured there? Such wounds couldn't possibly heal quickly, could they? He can't make a move right now.

I ask you, do you know where Cao Zhen is now?"

The Eclipse Demon quickly answered, "Sun and Moon Sect, Cao Zhen should have gone to the Sun and Moon Sect."

"Sun and Moon Sect... All right, the prince understands now. Now, take your people and leave; the prince will seek you out when I need you to do something."

The fourth prince threw a sect's chart to the Eclipse Demon and swiftly returned to the canyon.

Cao Zhen also retreated from the China Cloud.

That canyon must be the fourth prince's stronghold, and evidently, the fourth prince only came out to find out one thing, to ask if I had taken action.

Once he found out that I hadn't acted, he would naturally realize that my injuries haven't healed. So next, the fourth prince will surely send someone to attack the Sun and Moon Sect.

Chapter 908:

However, the Fourth Prince had been consistently seeking trouble with him, and now that he knew the Fourth Prince's whereabouts, it was time to return the favor.

After pondering for a moment, Cao Zhen found Qin Yao again and they entered a room together.

"Sect Leader Qin," Cao Zhen got straight to the point, "if we know the whereabouts of a den of the Praying Heaven Dynasty's remnants, and if we alert the other major Immortal Sects to join together in wiping out that den, would the members of the other sects lend a hand?"

"Of course, they will..." Qin Yao suddenly looked up in surprise, staring at Cao Zhen and asked, "Sect Leader Cao, do you know where the lair of the remnants of the Praying Heaven Dynasty is?"

Cao Zhen nodded and said, "I know its approximate location, but I don't know how many people are inside. That's why I'm asking you about the other Immortal Sects..."

"The other Immortal Sects will definitely take action; you can be assured of that. I can contact them, but where shall we assemble?"

Cao Zhen voiced his concerns, "The assembly point could be at the Sun and Moon Sect. However, I fear there may also be elements from the Praying Heaven Dynasty within our sects, and I'm worried that the plan might be leaked."

Upon hearing this, Qin Yao immediately said, "I will warn the Sect Leaders of the different Immortal Sects. Those from the Praying Heaven Royal Family who intend to inform the Dynasty's remnants would have to do so through the Sect's chart or other means. As long as we make the Sect Leaders of the various Immortal Sects summon only those heading to our Sun and Moon Sect without informing others of the matter, and also, have everyone travel on the same Flying Boat, forbidding any person to enter a separate room alone. This way, we're all together and even if the traitor wants to destroy the sect's chart, they'll have no opportunity."

"Good, however, I now need to leave temporarily, at least on the surface I must leave the Sun and Moon Sect, otherwise, the remnants of the Praying Heaven Dynasty will definitely attack the Sun and Moon Sect.

In a while, I will pretend to have urgent matters and depart hastily from the Sun and Moon Sect. You might even let it slip that because the Hundred Peaks Sect was attacked, I can't wait a moment longer."

Once we leave the Sun and Moon Sect, we will return secretly; Sect Leader, do you have a way to bring us back?"

He needed a quiet place to recover, and also, once the people from the major Immortal Sects arrived, he would need to be there, so naturally, he would have to return to the Sun and Moon Sect.

"Then, tonight, during the hour of the tiger, I will personally bring you back."

Having quickly finished discussing with Qin Yao, Cao Zhen departed hastily, then hurried away with Ling Xi and Qiao Jingyao, accompanied by Qin Yao, towards the outside of the Sun and Moon Sect.

Their movements immediately caught the attention of the Sun and Moon Sect disciples, especially the Golden Core Stage cultivators, who quickly flocked over.

"Sect Leader Cao, where are you going?"

"Sect Leader Cao, what is happening?"

"Sect Leader Cao, the banquet is almost ready..."

Cao Zhen deliberately put on a hurried expression and said to everyone with a fist salute, "My fellow cultivators, the Hundred Peaks Sect has an urgent matter, and I won't be staying at the Sun and Moon Sect any longer. Once the world settles down, I will visit the Sun and Moon Sect again."

Without delaying any further, Cao Zhen headed to the gate of the Sun and Moon Sect, took out the Flying Boat, and together with Ling Xi and Qiao Jingyao, swiftly flew toward the direction of the Hundred Peaks Sect.

Everyone was stunned at that moment.

"What's going on with Sect Leader Cao? Wasn't he supposed to stay at our Sun and Moon Sect for a while?"

"Indeed, we had almost finished preparing everything."

"I even told my junior disciples to come in batches to seek advice from Sect Leader Cao, hoping for a chance at enlightenment. Why did he suddenly leave?"

Hearing everyone's confusion, Qin Yao sighed helplessly and said, "Sect Leader Cao did indeed plan to stay with us at the Sun and Moon Sect for a while, but the world is too chaotic now. Our Sun and Moon Sect was attacked today, and at the same time, the Hundred Peaks Sect was also under attack, facing even more enemies."

Although the Hundred Peaks Sect has repelled the attackers, Sect Leader Cao, upon receiving the message passed to him by his sect, remained worried about the Hundred Peaks Sect. As the Sect Leader of the Hundred Peaks Sect, he must hurry back immediately."

"What? The Hundred Peaks Sect was also under attack?"

"Within the same day, both our Sun and Moon Sect and the Hundred Peaks Sect, two of the top ten Immortal Sects, were simultaneously attacked?"

"Even though we are in the Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth, judging from the records, previous Minor Eras of Inversion of Heaven and Earth were not this chaotic!"

"This Minor Era of Inversion of Heaven and Earth has been strange from the beginning."

Not long after Cao Zhen left the Sun and Moon Sect, the Fourth Prince received the news, and at the same time, he was informed of another piece of news.

"What? The forces that attacked the Hundred Peaks Sect all failed? The Hundred Peaks' Bei Yan, after surviving the Wind Fire Tribulation, won't progress further? And Liè Yàn, he dared to betray me?"

Since leaving the ruins, the Fourth Prince's entire demeanor had changed, growing increasingly old and vicious!

"The damned Liè Yàn, if it weren't for me, if it weren't for our Praying Heaven Dynasty, could he have reached the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection? Could he have his current cultivation base? As a servant of our Praying Heaven Royal Family, he dares betray our royal family? He must die, and so must his father!"

"Fourth Prince..."

Within the resplendently golden Cave Mansion, a man concealed in a grey robe gently started to speak, reminding the prince, "The father of Liè Yàn is an Earth Immortal Realm cultivator."

Chapter 909:

"Damn it, damn this Earth Immortal Realm!" In a fit of rage, the Fourth Prince grew even more furious. Even though he was the Fourth Prince, he still could not deal with the Earth Immortal Realm, which was out of respect for the Earth Immortal Realm.

After leaving the Sun and Moon Sect, Cao Zhen rode his Flying Boat for a while before quickly putting it away. Accompanied by Ling Xi and Qiao Jingyao, he stealthily returned under the lead of Qin Yao back to the Sun and Moon Sect.

Following that, Cao Zhen began to recuperate.

During this time, the Hundred Peaks Sect had not suffered any more attacks, the Sun and Moon Sect had not been attacked, and he had not gone to see the Eclipse Demon either, preferring to focus on his recovery.

After more than twenty days, his injuries had long been fully healed, and it was finally Qin Yao who found him.

"Sect Leader Cao, all the major Immortal Sects have arrived; we can begin now."

"Good."

Cao Zhen stood up and walked outside.

Today, the Sun and Moon Sect's Conference Hall had already gathered experts from the top ten Immortal Sects, including the Sword Sect and the Scholar Dao Sect.

The disciples of the Sun and Moon Sect were utterly baffled; they did not understand what was happening or why so many experts from the major Immortal Sects were gathered here.

Now, everyone from the major Immortal Sects of the Guardian Immortal Dynasty, except for those from the Hundred Peaks Sect, had all converged to the Sun and Moon Sect, and they hadn't received any messages about it beforehand.

Suddenly, their eyes widened as four figures appeared, one of whom was their Sect Leader, Qin Yao. The other three, to their surprise, were Cao Zhen and his companions, who were supposed to have already left the Sun and Moon Sect.

As soon as Cao Zhen appeared in the hall, he immediately drew the attention of everyone present.

"Sect Leader Cao."

Everyone rose to their feet and clasped their fists in greeting, with respect evident on the faces of Wu Jianzi, Jiang Yan, Liao Kong, and others.

"Sect Leader Cao..." From the direction of the Bright Heart Sect, a young man bowed to Cao Zhen and said, "Sect Leader Qin of the Sun and Moon Sect mentioned earlier that you know where the remnants of the Qi Tian Dynasty are hiding, but didn't know the specifics. Now that we're all here, could you inform us of the details?"

"I intend to share with everyone," Cao Zhen said, looking at the crowd without concealment. "What I know is not the real lair of the Qi Tian Dynasty, but the lair of the Qi Tian Dynasty's Fourth Prince. However, I don't know how many princes the Qi Tian Dynasty has, but the ones behind the chaos in our Guardian Immortal Dynasty were the Third and Fourth Princes, and the Third Prince has been killed by the Fourth Prince."

A Golden Core Stage cultivator from the Divine Dao Sect spoke up: "So, the Qi Tian Dynasty, or rather the remnants of the former dynasty, are likely to be led by the Fourth Prince now."

"The remnants of the former dynasty continue their penchant for infighting, just like before. I've read in our Immortal Sect's records that whenever the remnants of a former dynasty resurface, they engage in vicious internal strife, even killing each other."

"Regardless of whether they keep killing each other, as soon as they are found, they must be eradicated. Sect Leader Cao, now that you are here, we should not delay and head out to destroy them immediately."

Nobody considered the possibility of failure as they had gathered experts from the ten great Immortal Sects of the Guardian Immortal Dynasty, as well as from several other major sects. Although it was impossible for all sects to dispatch all their experts, most of them were concentrated here.

There were more than twenty experts just at the Ten Different Phenomena of Golden Elixir Great Perfection level, and most of the others had also reached Pill Fusion.

In addition, there were two reincarnated beings of Great Ability: Cao Zhen and Star Lord Hao Yue.

United, who could stop them during the Reversal Mini Epoch Period?

"Gentlemen, there is no need to rush," someone in the crowd spoke up. "Before we head out, shouldn't we first discuss how we will divide the spoils of war after we have eradicated them?"

The Qi Tian Dynasty possesses a deeper foundation than all Immortal Sects within our Guardian Immortal Dynasty combined. Even if it's just one prince's lair, it will surely contain countless treasures. To prevent conflict once we gain them, we should agree on the distribution beforehand."

No sooner had these words been spoken, voices of dissent immediately filled the air.

"What kind of talk is that? Our purpose here is to exterminate the remnants of the Qi Tian Dynasty. We haven't even set out or made a move, and you're already thinking of dividing the spoils!"

"Talk of spoils can wait until after we've destroyed them," a somewhat elderly figure in the crowd declared. "With so many of us gathered here, we should first choose a leader to guide us, then we can take action."

"Then how do we choose a leader?"

"Perhaps, we could see which Immortal Sect has brought the most people and choose that one?"

"If you put it that way, then it definitely has to be your Sun and Moon Sect. This is the Sun and Moon Sect, who can outnumber people from the Sun and Moon Sect? It can't be anyone other than the Sun and Moon Sect."

"Then tell me, how should we choose?"

"Naturally, it should be whoever..."

Seeing the crowd that had arrived not immediately moving to attack the remnants of the Qi Tian Dynasty, but instead discussing the selection of an Alliance Hierarch and Vice Alliance Hierarch, Cao Zhen became furious, shouting, "What are you wasting time for at this juncture? I am the State Preceptor of the Guardian Immortal Dynasty. I shall serve as the Alliance Hierarch. Star Lord Hao Yue is a reincarnated being of Great Ability, and this place is the Sun and Moon Sect, so the Vice Alliance Hierarch shall be Star Lord Hao Yue and Sect Leader Qin. Does anyone object?"

Chapter 910:

Cao Zhen's words fell, and the crowd around him plunged into silence in an instant.

Who could object? The den of the former Dynasty's remnants was discovered by Cao Zhen himself, who was also the strongest among them, and aside from Cao Zhen, Star Lord Hao Yue was the second strongest presence. Since Sect Master Qin Yao was the host, naturally, no one had any objections.

"Since there are no objections, let's set out."

As Cao Zhen's voice dropped, he immediately led the crowd flying out from the Hundred Peaks Sect towards Qili Country.

All of them were among the top beings in the Golden Core Stage, and it took them only half a day to reach within the Qili Country. After flying for another two hours, they flew into a range of mountains and, under Cao Zhen's leadership, heavily surrounded the canyon.

"Gentlemen, the den of the fourth Prince of the Qi Tian Dynasty is right inside, but to prevent startling the snake by hitting the grass, I have not entered it. I also do not know how many remnants from the former Dynasty are inside, so I hope that after the battle, none of you will let a single person escape."

With Cao Zhen's words coming to an end, shadows rushed into the canyon from all around, and on the mountains above the ravine, numerous experts kept vigilant from high above, ready to strike down anyone who might burst out from the canyon at any moment.

The experts from the ten greatest Immortal Sects were gathered; at the current time, there really was no force that could withstand them head-on.

In just an instant, a continuous stream of screams echoed from within the canyon.

Inside the canyon, the people from the Qi Tian Dynasty didn't even have time to react to why so many experts had come before they were blasted to dust.

In the deepest part of the ravine, within a splendidly golden and glittering Cave Mansion.

The fourth Prince listened to the continuous loud noises coming from all around, full of shock, and asked loudly, "What's happening? Why is there such chaos? What's going on?"

"Fourth Prince." A man in a gray robe appeared in front of the Prince instantly. Even though there were only the two of them, he still wore a mask, and a series of deep voices came from beneath it.

"It's the people from the ten great Immortal Sects who have come to kill."

"The ten great Immortal Sects? How did they suddenly come here? We have our informants within the ten great Immortal Sects, why did no one send a message? Furthermore, how did they find this place? For so many years, we have never been exposed, so how did they suddenly discover this place? There must be a traitor among us!"

After returning from the ruins, the fourth Prince had changed a lot, the biggest change being his tendency to quickly fly into a rage.

Now, he was once again enveloped in his fury.

"Prince, now is not the time to search for the traitor; we need to leave as quickly as possible." The man in the gray robe urgently advised. "With the experts of the ten great Immortal Sects all out, it won't be long before they find this place. If we do not leave now, it will be too late even if we want to escape."

He never considered the option of resistance – this was an alliance between the ten great Immortal Sects and other large Immortal Sects. If they truly had the power to confront the major Immortal Sects of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty head-on, why would they need to plot so many schemes and intrigues?

Facing the Immortal Sects of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty that were close at hand, the only thing they could do was to flee.

"Flee? I, a dignified Prince of the Qi Tian Dynasty, I..."

The fourth Prince cursed under his breath, seemingly feeling endless humiliation at having to flee, and in his extreme anger, he even coughed up a large mouthful of bright red blood.

But still, he opened the secret passage of the Cave Mansion under the persuasion of the man in the gray robe.

This canyon had already been explored previously, and there was an obscure passage beneath his Mansion that led directly outside the ravine.

Indeed, the Qi Tian Dynasty had deep reserves; an untold number of people from the Dynasty had perished, particularly in the ruins where many of the fourth Prince's subordinates had been killed by Cao Zhen, Ling Xi, and Yan Yourong.

Yet now, within this canyon, there still gathered a considerable number of Golden Core Stage experts.

But under the united assault from the Immortal Sects of the Guardian Immortal Imperial Dynasty, one Golden Core after another fell.

In a brief moment, many people arrived outside the splendid Cave Mansion.

The opponent had clearly lived here for quite a while, with traces of life everywhere, and such a tightly sealed and splendid Cave Mansion was unique in this place.

Clearly, this was the den of the fourth Prince.

The crowd charged into the Mansion, but after scanning the area, they did not find the fourth Prince.

"There's a secret passage here!"

"The fourth Prince, he has already left!"

The crowd swiftly chased after him, but after searching the entire Qili Country, they failed to find the Prince.

"Enough, we have already killed their people; just a fleeing fourth Prince cannot stir up any trouble for the moment."

After realizing that they could not find the fourth Prince, the crowd returned to the canyon once more.

Inside the canyon, those from the Qi Tian Dynasty were all dead.

What was left to do was to divide the spoils of war.

At that moment, many eyes turned towards Cao Zhen.

Even if Cao Zhen was not a temporary Alliance Hierarchy, this place had been discovered by him first, so it was also fitting for Cao Zhen to speak first.

"I only want the medicinal herbs, and there is a Spirit Field here that I also wish to take. The rest of you can divide among yourselves, including the Qiankun Bags on their bodies, as well as the Divine Weapons and even the Secret Manuals here. Our Hundred Peaks Sect will not claim any further share."

Around him, many people frowned upon hearing this – that was a Fifth-grade Spiritual Field, but as soon as Cao Zhen's words were spoken, Liao Kong, Wu Jianzi, and others expressed their support, and no one opposed any further.
