

My Mate Chapter 66 - Tips

Hope

I stood by the car feeling a bit overwhelmed why had all these people come to greet me and why were they bowing?

Zayn was standing a few feet away talking to his father and my father but he kept glancing at me. There was a line of black Hummers lined up one after the other that screamed for adventure and I had a feeling my adventure was just about to start. A good kind of adventure. I had so many questions that needed answering but right now was not the time.

“Honey don’t be afraid nobody is going to hurt you” I heard my mother say I guess she noticed how tense I was. My mother. Saying it in my head sounds crazy. I looked at her still feeling oddly uncomfortable I didn’t know what to say so I just nodded my head

“Come on let’s get in” She opened the door I hesitated for a few seconds I knew I was safe but I was reluctant to get in right away so she climbed in first and tapped the seat next to her “You’re okay honey I promise” She said

“Princess are you ready to get going?” My father was standing beside me now smiling. I felt safe with him by my side he had the warmest smile

“Everything is going to be okay we’re going home now I promise” He continued

I looked back at Zayn he was talking to Emily’s boyfriend when he saw me looking at him he walked over held my hand and squeezed lightly those tingles taking over my body once more “Let’s go home” He said and helped me in I slide in next to my lookalike mom. She took my hand and rubbed it lovingly.

Zayn got in in the driver’s seat and soon after we pulled out I noticed the line of Hummers behind us. I noticed how Zayn kept looking back at me in the rear view mirror which made me want to reach over and take his hand or better yet climb over and sit on his lap. But of course I couldn’t.

I felt myself blush as I thought of our k!ss and how he was able to leave me wanting more when he touched me. This man is pure seduction but had I been too rash by giving in to him? No absolutely not all my visions my memories were mostly of him. And that deep voice I would hear in my head is one I'll never forget. I still needed answers as to how we could talk through telepathy.

"Princess I can't tell you how happy your mom and I are right now our pain and suffering has ended now that you're back" My father said from the passenger seat

"I'm sorry I put you all through so much" I said

"You have nothing to be sorry for. None of this was your fault" Zayn said strictly I smiled at him for that. "If anything it was my fault for trusting that son of a b***h"

"We all trusted him" My father said "But he will be dealt with accordingly" My father's voice came out strong and powerful

Mom pulled me into her I leaned my head on her shoulder and kept my eyes on the handsome driver. She ran her fingers through my hair I closed my eyes allowing myself to relax.

About an hour later we turned off the main road onto a dirt road for about five miles all I could see was a thick dense forest on both sides of the road. At the end of the dirt road was a paved road and soon we reached a huge metal and brick wall which was actually a security gate that was heavily guarded by electrical machines and instruments. Once in Zayn stopped the car for the security guards

"Alpha" He bowed "We're happy you have returned with your mate" Zayn thanked them before he drove on by. The vast forest seemed to go on and on forever until we reached what looked like a modern village with a vintage appeal. There were many houses that looked like cottages different in size but very similar in style. We kept going until we reached a huge white mansion. The estate where Alex kept me was nothing compared to this one. The rest of the cars behind us all went down into what looked like an underground parking lot. This place was breathtaking.

When the car came to a stop my father was first to open his door and climb out. I saw a beautiful woman run down the stairs towards us crying.

"Mom please easy she's tired" I heard Zayn say. She opened my door and jumped in engulfing me with her arms.

"Hope" She cried she took my face in her hands "Oh thank Goddess you're okay and back home" She hugged me again

"Mom let her go she's tired" Zayn said She laughed then let me go

"I'm sorry" She wiped her eyes "It's just so good to see you again"

Zayn helped me down not that I needed help but having his arm around me felt good so I didn't mind. A huge group of people all gathered in front of the mansion. Zayn took me by the waist "Let's go inside then I'm taking you to the hospital. When we reached the top of the rock steps that lead inside the mansion Zayn's father stopped and turned around to face the crowd everyone was quiet all of a sudden.

"Ever since your future Luna, Hope was taken away from us a dark cloud has been hanging over our lands. But that is no longer the case today we have our Luna back" Everyone cheered and howled?

Zayn pulled me against his chest I tried to get out of his grip but that only made him hold me tighter. There were too many people not to mention his parents and mine. That didn't seem to bother him. He lifted my chin up and kissed me with passion. It felt like he was claiming me in front of everyone as the crowd erupted into cheers.

Zayn

I'm so grateful to be back home and to have found her I can finally breathe again. It was fucking*g hard trying to focus on the road with her sitting in the back. She is so fucking*g sweet. Her voice alone gave me a hard on. I had a taste of her today but I need more. I need her. Hunter was finally relaxed

I still have to make a trip back to Maine I want to.... No I need to go see where he was keeping her all this time. There was one question that I was dreading asking her. It would kill me if she said she had slept with him. I need to think about something else or thinking about him with her will definitely not end up well. I'll have to remember to send someone over to take care of the mess I made at the penthouse the last time I thought of that asshole with her.

I still have a lot of questions for fvcker Alex and the rogue I still have locked up in the dungeon. He said he would tell me where to find Edward. I'll get it out of him and then I'm going after Edward and his pack. But right now I had to make sure my baby was okay. We sat in the private area of the pack house with her parents and mine. I had made sure to tell them not to ask her any questions.

I could have killed Matt and Kyle when they picked her up and swung her around. Right now she is sitting in between her parents near the fire. I want her all to myself but I can't be selfish at least not today. They tried getting her to eat but she said she wasn't hungry she only had some fresh orange juice. I watched her take small sips of her drink and lick her lips every once in a while ... She has to accept me and allow herself to be with me once again because whether she is in touch with her wolf or not she has no choice I will never leave her or let her leave me. Sounds nuts but that's just how I am. There's only so much I can take.

I stood up her eyes instantly caught mine "I want to take you to the hospital"

"That's a good idea" Her mom said as she stood up.

The doctor said Hope was perfectly healthy from the outside but on the inside was something else all together. The most important thing was that she had to stop taking the drugs mother fvcker Alex had put her on asap. She said only time will tell when Hope would regain her memory but she also said that it's very likely that when she gets her wolf back she will instantly get her memory back.

Of course the doctor told me the part about her wolf in private because right now Hope has no clue that she's a werewolf and I don't want to freak her out she's been through a lot because of the mother fvcker. Which reminds me I have to go torture the fvck then kill him but I had to make sure she was settled in first.

"Honey we are going to go home it's late and the doctor said you need to rest" Katherine told my baby. We had just come back from the doctor

"Oh okay let's go then" Hope got up. Her mom looked at me

"Baby" I walked up to her and gently turned her face towards me "We live here together in our private wing. But if you want to stay at your parents house

I understand” I said. She looked at me her cheeks flushed. fvck she has to stop with all those innocent looks.

“I think I’d like to go home with them” She said making me clench my jaw but I couldn’t be angry not too much at least.

“Okay whatever you want...I’ll walk with you” I walked her home holding her hand the whole way. Brian and Katherine walked ahead of us. When we reached her front door I lifted both her hands up and k!ssed each one softly never taking my eyes off hers. She stood frozen just like she had all those many months ago when I first found out she was mine. I took her face in both my hands and slowly closed the distance between us as I brought her mouth to mine plunging my tongue into her mouth wanting to feel her warm tongue on mine. She tastes like fvcking*g heaven. I really want to fvck her I miss her n.aked body under mine.

“Baby” I whispered “If you don’t stop me now I won’t be able to stop myself from taking you against the door”

She pulls away breathing heavy and I can’t help the smile on my face. fvck this is going to be a long night.

My Mate Chapter 67 - Tips

Zayn

I left Hope with her parents but mind linked Brian on my way out that I was going to the dungeon. He knows what I’m going to do so he responded right away

Zayn for the love of all things holy do what you will but I want to be the one to k!!! him. Make him pay Just try to make sure he’s still conscious when you’re done with him I want to make sure he dies by my hands.

“Zayn please remember we grew up together we are friends I made a mistake” Alex said when he saw me walk in.

“You made a mistake?” I sneered

“Yes I’m sorry”

“You put the letters in her locker?” It was more of a statement than a question

"Yes it was a harmless joke" The fvck! I clenched my jaw, I had to get more information out of him

"You said you knew where Edward was"

"Yes, I'll tell you ev.."

"HOW do you know?" I cut him off. He put his head down before he spoke

"I am his son" I was shocked! the fvck? I have known this fvcker ever since he was just a kid. I thought his parents were dead we took him in the bastard! I couldn't help the anger that was building up inside me. I stared at him for a moment.

"You were behind all this the whole time? I stood up

"Zayn I was a kid it's his fault he came up with the plan" I couldn't believe what I was hearing

"He used you to spy on us" I said casually finally fitting all the pieces together

"Yes he had his hopes on you getting together with Stephanie and making her your Luna after that he would have her convince you to merge your pack and his into one that way he would be invincible." He paused I couldn't wait to strangle him

"I fell in love with Hope when she was little. I couldn't help it." What a sick mother I took a seat and put my head down I took a deep breath trying to calm Hunter and myself down.

"You kidnapped my mate... how did you erase her memory? Who helped you?"

"They helped me. Edward and Stephanie both did that's where his pack is hiding now in Maine. We used a witchcraft and wolvesbane"

"How does Gavin fit in this?" I asked in a low calm voice. He was being very cooperative because he's a coward and because he thinks I'll forgive him if he does.

"He knows about us werewolves and he wants to change I promised him I would help him change become one of us if he helped me. There is no Kain or leader of the rogues I made that up to create a diversion you so you wouldn't ever suspect me. I told her his name was Kain so his real name wouldn't ring a bell because she kept having visions of from your life together" fvcking*g hell I could only imagine what he put her through. I got up and grabbed the rogue in the next cell by the neck

"Do you know him?" I pointed to Alex and squeezed at his neck. The rogue coughed he was sick from the humidity and could barely stand on his own

"Yes he helped the woman let us out. He wanted take your mate but the woman wanted her dead" His voice cracked as he spoke I glared back at Alex at the same time Brian walked in. His large frame made the rogue cower I let him drop on the floor.

I dragged Alex out of his cage "I never hurt your daughter or even touched her or forced myself on her" He told Brian

"The moment you took her away from me, from her family you HURT HER you fvck" I raged out at him tired of playing games with him I bashed his head on the wall.

"Forgive me don't k!ll me" He screamed begging for mercy he wasn't going to get

"You plotted with Crystal then you kidnapped her, you wiped out her memory with fvcking*g wolvesbane and witchcraft you fed her bullsh!t about me when I treated you like a brother we took you in when you were a pathetic little fvck" I bawled "so no I won't spare your life or anyone who helped you plot against me." I threw him down at Brian's feet

"He's all yours let me know when it's done" I walked out without looking back.

I felt relieved as I walked over to see my Baby. I hope she didn't think I'd let her sleep alone. I was almost at her house when I saw her sitting on the steps. I jogged over to her. Why the hell is she sitting outside alone? My heart beat faster and Hunter sighed in longing when he saw her. Her eyes lit up when she saw me.

"Baby what's wrong why are you outside alone" I picked her up then sat down with her on my lap. She tried to get up but held her down. Her scent fvckingd with my head again, she was wearing short shorts and a tang top. fvcking*g little c0ck tease for me

“What were you doing out here?”

“Nothing I couldn’t sleep, I heard the voice again and I can’t sleep because of it” She looked right at me and leaned into me just a little bit. I smiled to myself when I felt her melt into me without her even realizing it. This is our mate bond at its finest she melts into me without any recognition and can’t sleep without me.

“The voice will soon go away and all this will make sense to you soon baby”

“But I have something that can help you sleep” She looked at me wide eyed and tried to get up I laughed at the look she had on her beautiful face.

“Baby get your head out of the gutter” I k!ssed her forehead “That’s not what I meant but if you want that did always help you sleep better” That is exactly what I meant

“Oh my God” She hit my arm and tried hiding her face. I love that she’s being so playful right now.

“I meant your lib.rary where you like to read and eventually fall asleep” I ran my hand through her hair at the same time she traced her finger over my eyebrow. My c0ck was getting hard.

“My lib.rary?” She asked smiling and bewilderment in her eyes. I !cked my bottom l!p and nodded

“Come on I’ll show you” I picked her up bridal style and walked towards the pack house. She kicked her feet up and down

“I can walk by myself” she giggled

“I like carrying you” I lifted her a.ss and turned her towards me she wrapped her legs around my walst

“Why does this feel no natural?” She asked in a low voice as she ran her fingers through my hair.

“Because you’re mine and I’m yours” I squeezed her a.ss and k!ssed her neck at the same time.

Her breath hitched when she saw our private part of the mansion. I watched her look around in awe at our little sanctuary.

“Isn’t this room the same as the one downstairs?” She asked about the living room

“It’s your favorite room so I had a replica made just for us” She looked surprised

“Wow who does that?”

“I do. I would do anything for you” I meant every word. I stared at my baby until she walked off exploring

“Why are these two rooms empty?” She asked me peeking in through the door

“We left these empty for when we had pups” She looked at me with that look on her face. fvck. Her cheeks turned the cutest shade of pink “You know... babies” I pulled her by the waist and lead her away

“And here’s our library”

“Oh my God it’s beautiful I love reading” She walked in looking up and down at all the wooden shelves on the walls but my attention was on her.

“I know that’s why we have this room just for us.”

I walk up from behind her and wrap my arms around her waist. She surprises me by turning around to face me and wraps her arms around my neck. Her cleavage was on full display for me. fvck.

I dipped my head down a little and took her bottom lip between my teeth then kissed her. She kissed me right back slow and teasingly coming together then apart I couldn’t resist sliding my hand down to her ass and squeezing it. She whimpered melting into me. My erection was fucking*g leaking by now... The things I wanted to do to her.

“I want you...will you stay with me tonight baby?” I dipped down to her neck and sucked on my mark. I felt her tingles shoot through my body making my cock grow harder.

She trembled in my arms and moaned a sexy as hell "Yes" That's all the invitation I needed. I lifted her up a little and she wrapped her legs around my waist as I rushed us out

"Where are we going?" She giggled

"Bedroom"

"Zayn" I cut her off with a passionate kiss against our bedroom door

"Do you want me to fuck you tonight baby?" I mumbled to her between kissing her lips and pulling her shirt over her head

"Because I fucking miss you" I pulled back from her to take a look at her. She blushed under my stare

"I love you" I assured her before I slid my hand behind her and unclasped her bra it quickly fell off her shoulders I groaned as she held it up blocking her tits from my hungry eyes.

"Are you sure this is a good idea" Her voice sexy and turned on

"I've never been more sure about anything in my life" I told her before bringing her hands down and ripping her bra off her body exposing her full tits to me. Holy fuck. I bent my head to her breasts and licked her hard nipples before covering one with my mouth and the other with the palm of my hand.

She arched her back and grabbed my head closer when I lightly pinched her nipple, she gripped my hair. I have to fuck her now it's been too long I'll make time for more foreplay on our next round.

"Zayn" She moaned I love the sounds she makes and I've missed hearing her call out my name when she creams over my cock. We break apart she lifts my shirt over my head and moves her hands up and down my torso then fiddles with my belt. I hurry her along by undoing my belt and dropping my jeans the desire to fuck her is driving me mad. I pulled down both her shorts and panties and go down on her. I open her pussy lips apart using my thumbs and slide my tongue up and down the middle of her soaking wet pussy. fuck she turns me into an animal.

"Oh my god" She screamed I stopped and looked up at her

“I only want to hear you scream my name” I lifted her over to the bed and lay her down. My eyes rake over her body before I drop my boxer briefs my c0ck hard and fvcking*g dripping for her pvssy.

“Mine” I growl and climb in bed to hover on top of her.

“I love you more than anything I say before spreading her legs and lining up my c0ck to her entrance. She’s looking at me with adoration I bring my mouth down on to hers and push my tongue into her mouth. She’s m0aning and whimpering and I love it!

I thrust into her and she screams into my mouth but I can’t go slow it’s been too long. I sat up on my knees, grab on to her h!ps and pound into her hard and fast hitting deeper with each thrust. again and again.

“I need to hear you baby tell me how it feels”

“So good yes more” she m0aned then lifted her a.ss up as she arched her back and screamed my name as she tighten around my d!ck and came all over me. She climaxed just in time for my release I grunted out everything I’m going to do to her and came inside her filling her to the brim. Ropes and ropes of c.um shot into her, I hovered over her she wrapped her arms around my shoulders and I k!ssed her slowly before collapsing next to her.

My Mate Chapter 68 - Tips

Zayn

I felt like the luckiest bastard on the face of this earth I had the woman I love safe in my arms not to mention she was b.utt n.aked. Just like I told her she fell into blissful sleep.

I got a mind link from Brian that the deed was done and that I was needed at the hospital, Gavin had been asking to see me.

I told him that Hope was with me and didn’t want to leave her alone.

Zayn the kid could die he’s asking for you. Is Hope asleep?

I looked down at his daughter n.aked and satisfied.

Yes she's asleep. I moved a strand of hair off her face as I answered his question

She'll be fine then but if you're worried you could always carry her home.

She's been through a lot physically and emotionally I wanted her to sleep and honestly I didn't want her to leave our bed. So I got up got dressed and walked out but the farther away I got from her the more anxious I became. I knew she was safe but I had just gotten her back and I'll be a damn mother fvcker if I let anyone take her away again.

Gavin was a gory mess his eyes were swollen over black and blue, his nose is smashed and his jaw broken. He tried to open his eyes as best as he could. Brian was already in his room standing by his bed.

"You wanted to see me?" I stood by him feeling a little sorry for the kid

"Yes" His voice was hoarse and he sounded like he needed water.

"Get him some water" I ordered the nurse

"I want to explain about Hope" He spoke like he was being choked

"Why?" I asked calmly

"Because I don't think I'm going to make it and I want to make sure things are clear."

"Go on" Brian stood by listening

"I met Alex at school. He came up to me one day after school and asked if I was the one who followed Hope home. Anyway he asked me to keep hara.ssing her and he would make sure I could change he even gave me a wolf name "Kain" that's what he called me. He said it's the name I should go by"

He paused in pain for a short while the nurse came in with a cup and bottle of water. She poured some and helped him drink when he was finished

"Continue" Brian ordered him coldly

"I didn't know he was planning to kidnap her. One day at school he came up to me he said he wanted to warn me that I had to leave because you were coming after me. I was scared so I agreed to leave and join his pack. When we got to Maine I was shocked to see Hope there. She was freaking out he had her in chains when I tried to help her he beat the sh!t out of me.”

I ran my hand through my hair then down my face as I let out a sh!tload of curses at the thought of her chained up freaking out.

“I hope you t0rtured him before k!lling him” I growled at Brian

“Let’s just say he’s in pieces”

“The next time I saw her he had her hooked up to all kinds of machines there were two women there one was his sister the other was some kind of black magic spell worker and his father ” His voice broke and tears rolled down his face.

“She called out for you” I felt my heart break when he said that. I cannot imagine the hell he put her through. Hunter howled out in misery.

“But he told her not to fight it that it was inevitable. He told her he wanted to make her forget about everything. And he did.” He paused again in pain

“I tried to remind him she’s your Luna and you wouldn’t stop till you found her but he didn’t care he’s crazy so is his family.”

“I tried to get him to stop I told him she would forget her own name but he didn’t care he wanted to get rid of her wolf and make her forget about wolves and mates he wanted her to forget about you forever. He said she could take the pain that she’s strong” He winced in pain of just speaking then continued while my heart broke for my baby she had been put through so much.

“She is very strong” He let out a huffed laugh “She kicked my a.ss every day”

“Why didn’t you send a message sooner?” I asked him my voice low

“I was too scared and I was already framed and in too deep I was scared because I knew you’d k!ll me you wouldn’t believe me but it doesn’t matter now I’m dying anyway, I just wanted you to know.”

“Why did you stay there why didn’t you leave?” Brian asked him

I stayed there because I couldn't leave her there with him. She thought he was taking care of her because she had no family. He told her that he killed her family and that he was out to get her. She trusted him and he took advantage of that. He told her that him and I were brothers but he beat the sh!t out of me every day because he saw us getting closer or when I mentioned you. So I pretended to be on his side until I could leave and get help." I growled at him when he said they were getting closer

"Not like that yeah I liked her at first when we were in school but after the time we spent together she became something more to me. I've never had a sister or brother so Hope became like a sister to me" His tears were pouring out now and his voice was barely comprehensible.

"One day after training I decided to tell her we were sitting in the training room but I saw Alex hiding listening in on our conversation." He winced again and paused Brain got closer to him

"She asked me who killed her parents and I said your name because I knew he was listening. I wanted to leave I had the chance so many times but I couldn't leave her with him." He was bawling now "I would hear her screaming at night because of her nightmares it broke my heart" He wept

"Why did he do this to you and lock you in the dungeon?" Brian asked him

"He heard me telling Hope that I was leaving for a few days. He knew I was going to tell her friends from school"

"I'm sorry he hurt her I'm sorry for everything. The nurses told me she's fine. I'm glad she doesn't deserve what happened to her."

"You were also played and hurt" I said "We're going to do everything we can to help you through this" This kid has been beaten over and over again the evidence was on his skin old bruises and cuts all over his body. There was sadness and pain in his eyes, heaviness and sorrow that slowed his speech. Every word Gavin confessed was truth. Brian looked at me

There is only one way to get him through this or he's going to die. He mind linked me. He was right if I wanted to save Gavin we would have to change him. He would have to become a wolf.

I made sure Gavin had the best care I promised him that he would live to see his parents again. He was just a kid he didn't deserve this cruelty. Alex got what he deserved and so would Gavin.

I hurried back to the pack house and took the private elevator up to my part of the house with my baby. I opened the door to our bedroom and my heart tightened in my chest. Hope was sitting in bed with her legs curled up against her chest rocking back and forth. She was still naked with only a sheet around her. When she saw me walk in her tears spilled.

"Hope" I ran over to her side

"Baby what is it?" I sat down next to her picked her up and put her on my lap. She buried her head into my neck

"Did you have a nightmare" She pulled the sheets around her tighter but cuddled into me

"Hope tell me so I can help you"

"It's nothing I'm okay"

"I'm sorry I left you I had to go to the hospital"

"Is he okay?"

"Who Kain?"

"No Gavin" I tried to pull her head back so I could look into her eyes. But that only made her hold on to me tighter "I remember what Alex did" Her voice broke me

I pulled her up gently and cupped her face "Baby do you remember everything?"

"Yes..I remember" She cried "Where were you?" She sobbed "Why didn't you come for me sooner?"

My heart broke from the pain shooting through me. It was her pain I could feel. I almost doubled over from the pain and agony I felt. She grabbed on to my shirt. I held her tight as I stroked her hair softly trying to calm her down while I whispered apologies in her ear

“Baby I looked for you every day I tried my best but the fvcker had the upper hand” I cupped her face “Baby I went through hell without you I looked for you night and day.” I looked into her eyes she was still missing her wolf. “Alex has been taken care of he got what he deserved.”

“What about Stephanie? and Edward they were there too I’m going to k!ll her!” She cried breaking my fvcking*g heart over and over

“I promise you every person who schemed to take you away from me and hurt you will suffer. They will all pay for what they put you through”

She stayed quiet clinging on to me tight. The sheet had fallen off her upper body I held her tight rubbing my hands up and down her back as she held on to me like I was going to disappear. I’m going to murder every last one of them.

“I’m sorry I know it’s not your fault” She finally said her arms still wrapped around my neck as she cried.

“Don’t apologize ever this was not your fault. We were played by the fvcker for a long time”

“Jenna isn’t back. Do you think she’ll come back?”

“Of course baby she just needs time she was traumatized too” Hunter sighs longingly. She pulls back from me and k!sses me.

“I missed you so much I love you so much” she said

“I love you too Baby” I whispered as I held her tight

My Mate Chapter 69 - Tips

Zayn

“Where were you?....”Why didn’t you come for me sooner?”

After Hope finally fell asleep I couldn’t stop thinking about what she said. Did she actually think I would not do everything in my power to look for her. Does she not know what she is to me. Doesn’t she know that without her I am the biggest a.ssh0le and can’t stand to be around any other woman but her. What she said with what Gavin told me had me up all night.

“She was freaking out he had her in chains”

“The next time I saw her he had her hooked up to all kinds of machines”

“She called out for you”

I was haunted with what he told me she went through. Is this the Moon Goddess punishing me for how I used to treat women? Is this Karma hitting me in the fvcking*g balls?

I never wanted a serious relationship or any kind of relationship I was too busy taking care of our businesses and our allies. I was twenty seven and done playing the field so I had women I would just fvck. They knew it was nothing permanent and they accepted it. If a woman got too clingy or started calling me her boyfriend, I would cut her off completely. I never had to take out a woman or spend time listening to her about her feelings or whatever. Basically I was with a woman long enough to fvck her, get off and then go our separate ways.

I never wanted a mate either. When I was younger I didn't mind the idea but the older I got, I thought for sure I would reject any mate if I was ever to find mine. But when I first saw Hope by the pool in that god forsaken bikini and she tried to push me away I was hooked. It was the first time a woman had denied me anything. I was always the one being chased, women would give me whatever I wanted right away but with Hope I'm the one doing the chasing and she's my prey. Even after she turned of age and became in touch with her wolf she still drives me fvcking*g crazy and makes me chase her increasing my desirability. And that's why I'm almost always turned on when she's near me.

For example, she still leaves me to spend time or go out with her friends even if I beg her to stay with me she won't which drives me up the fvcking*g wall and she still sleeps at her parent's house. Other mates don't do that they are constantly together that's the norm. But whether she goes out with friends or sleeps in her old room I always follow her. Like I said I'm the chaser and I have to admit I fvcking*g love chasing her.

Before Hope I wasn't interested in watching a woman sleep, or listen to her heart beat. What a feisty little se.xy thing. I thought to myself as I sniffed her hair. Strong as hell though, I can't wait to start training with her again. For now I want to wait until she was okay emotionally and she had Jenna back. Right now she's fast asleep I have her up against me spooning her. I bring my head down to her neck and place a soft k!ss.

"Why are you up" She said turning to face me. Damn I didn't want to wake her

"I haven't been able to sleep" I k!ssed her cheek

"Are you okay? What's wrong?"

"Nothing I'm just happy to have you back" I leaned down and k!ssed her full l!ps.

"I'm happy to be back I wish none of this ever happened" fvck. I wanted to ask her what she meant by none of this. Had she had enough of being with me? First it was the rogue attack by Crystal then the bracelet by Stephanie and then Alex kidnapped her with help from Stephanie. Did she resent the fact that I was her mate?

"I'm sorry all this happened to you because of me" She looks up at me

"That's not true" She sits up to check the time on her phone

"I want to go see my parents and then everybody else" Now that her memory was back she was excited to see her family and friends but I didn't want her to leave.

"Baby it's early your parents are still asleep and so is everyone else except for the omegas." She giggles

"I don't want to sleep if you haven't slept all night" She smiles at me and has a se.xy as hell look on her face. My c0ck twitches "I have something that can help you sleep"

"Yeah what's that?" I ask wanting to see what she'll do next

"I can think of a few things" My se.x kitten sits up then settles between my legs.

Hope

I felt bad that Zayn was blaming himself for what happened to me. He's not to blame at all. I was on my hands and knees between his legs. I reached for his boxers and tugged them down his big thick manhood springs out erect and ready. I licked my bottom lip

"mmm I love sucking you" My whole body was instantly on fire. I felt tingles run down my spine making me wet for him.

"fvck" He said as I took his long thick manhood in my hand and pumped him a few times before taking him into my mouth.

"You taste so good"

"fvck baby you look so sweet sucking my cock" His hands find their way to my hair and he grips lightly pushing my head down while he lifts his hips up and fucks my mouth. I smiled batting my lashes knowing the affect I had on him. A string of curses escape him as I swirl my tongue around the tip. He rolled his head back with a hiss when I took him deep again and started palming his balls.

"fvck you're going to make me cum" He grunted out "Good I like tasting your cum"

"shit baby you're such a fucking*g sexy tease" He continues fucking*g my mouth "Get on your hands and knees I want to fvck you from behind so I can see that ass of yours"

I let go of his manhood needing to feel him inside me. The physical chemistry between us is incredible it's like our bodies move in synch he's my perfect match and I adore him. The heat between my legs is rising and I'm dying for release something only he could ever give me. I can't help the moan that escapes me eager for him to take me hard and deep. I bend over like he wanted me to and feel him line his body up behind me. He grips my ass and lines up his dick to my wet core. He rubs the tip over my clit before plunging into me with one hard thrust. I scream out in pleasure as his big thick dick stretches me. He begins to pull out only to slam back in to me with force.

"So fucking*g tight I love fucking*g your tight little pussy" Zayn talking dirty is such a turn on for me. I could feel myself dripping with desire for more of him.

"Zayn!" I whimpered as he pounded into me without mercy.

"Tell me baby do you like me fvcking*g you from behind?" Oh my Goddess he's so hot and all mine. I nodded feeling light headed. I couldn't find the words he wanted to hear

"I can't fvcking*g hear you" He growled as he pounded harder and deeper

"Yes I do" I moaned out loud I felt myself tighten around him

"You do what baby?" His voice was soft but his pounding hard and fast

"I like you taking me from behind"

"I know you do you like me fvcking*g you and making you scream as you c.um" He grips my hips I could feel myself getting close

"Zayn I'm going to .." He stops

"Lay down on your back and spread your legs" He demands He lifts one of my legs and starts placing kisses from my toes all the way up to my core.

"You're so fvcking*g beautiful" He said and I gasped as his tongue ran from the bottom of my se.x through my middle and up to my clit. "Oh my Goddess" I moaned

"Only my name baby" He said. I arched my back wanting more friction

"Don't move can you do that for me baby"

"Yes" I whispered

"Good girl" He started licking and sucking me I was lost in him. I bit my lip hard he reached up and grabbed my breast rubbing my hard nipple. My entire body was shaking from the tingles and feeling of pure ecstasy. Zayn was humming and growling as he ate me out like there was no tomorrow until I screamed out his name and came hard onto his tongue. He got up on his knees then hovered over me. I ran my nails down his back then felt him thrust into my pussy again.

Zayn

I was in a fvcking*g frenzy I couldn't help it her gorgeous body did this to me. I roughly slammed into her again and again she screamed and clawed at the sheets as her second orgasm hit her hard.

"I can't fvcking*g lose you ever" I told her as I pounded hard until I finally emptied inside her with a growl of her name. "I love you" I said before dropping by her side

I held her tight "Hope stay with me" I said before drifting off to sleep.

My Mate Chapter 70 - Tips

Hope

As soon as I made sure Zayn was fast asleep I slipped out of bed and headed for the shower. Then got ready and took our private elevator down to the main floor. Zayn was out cold for sure because he usually wouldn't let me leave the bed even in his sleep.

I got off the elevator and took the hallway down to the foyer and came face to face with my parents they must have just come up to the pack house.

"Mom" I shouted and jumped at both my parents.

"Princess" I heard dad's voice break

"It's so good to have you back" Mom says hugging me tight. I could hold on to them forever. A few seconds later and Zayn's parents are also hugging me

"Is Zayn coming down soon?" Zayn's father asked after the hype between Luna and mom had settled down.

"I don't think so he actually fell asleep about thirty minutes ago"

"Oh what was he up doing all night?" I hear a very familiar voice mock me. It was clear that my memory was back because of how reserved I was when I first saw everyone at the airport and this morning I'm all smiles and hugging everyone here and there.

"Kyle!" I turn and hug him tight ignoring his perverted question

My father walks away with the Alpha "I'll see you later princess"

My heart lights up when I see Jason walk in with Skylar. They must be coming to get breakfast he's smiling and looks so happy. His eyes meet mine and I cannot help the huge smile plastered across my face. He runs over and I hug him tight. Skylar growls at me and I laugh at how cute she is.

"I love your mate so much he's always been a brother to me." I tell her laughing

"I'm sorry Luna my wolf can't control her jealousy" She says as Jason puts his arm around her and kisses her forehead. I'm loving how happy he is.

"Hope you and your memory are back just in time for prom" Jason says

"Oh I can't wait I just have to convince my date to come along" I wink at him and walk off when I see Axel and Emily coming down the stairs

"I'm so happy you're still here" I tell her

"I wouldn't leave you when you were acting like a lunatic" She laughs

"I'm sorry I was a b***h to you on our flight back" I say hugging her

"His sister could never be my friend let alone best friend" She repeated what I said to her in a silly voice trying to mimic me. Axel and I laughed at her

It felt so good to be back home with my family and friends and to remember each and every one of them. Axel excused himself to go make some calls and Emily and I met with our friends outside where we would always gather around either to just hang out or to make plans or to ditch some boring dinner party. It felt good to be just us again. I love Zayn he's my life but these guys are the people I grew up with they knew everything about me and I knew everything about them. We all had our mates except for Amy but she didn't mind. Amy reminds me of a female version of what Zayn used to be. I just hope her messing around so much and breaking hearts doesn't cause dilemma after dilemma between her and her mate when she finds him like it did to me and Zayn.

"So are we taking our mates to prom or are we asking someone else? Derek earned himself a nice hard smack from Cara when he joked like that.

"I wouldn't dare" Jason said

"It's easy for you guys but I'm going to have a hard time convincing Axel to come." Emily says

“Yeah me too but we can still go if they don’t want to”

“Convince me to come where” Axel hugs her from behind.

“I’ll tell you later” She turns around and kisses him. They are such a cute couple

“Are you guys leaving today” I ask hoping the answer is no

“Yeah I just need to meet with Zayn before we leave”

“Okay well I have to go check on Gavin I’ll see you guys later” I’m about to walk away when I hear Luna call me for breakfast. But there was no way I was having breakfast before visiting him in the hospital. Gavin stayed and put up with Alex for my sake I know he did. But he still had some explaining to do. Right now I really didn’t care I just needed to know he was going to be fine.

Our hospital was built long ago, like the rest of the houses and buildings inside our territory but they were all very well kept and what needed remodeling was renovated immediately. I generally don’t like visiting hospitals because of the way they smell but our hospital has a pure fragrance not sterile, just very clean.

The receptionist helped me find Gavin’s room. I walked in feeling a sense of sadness take over me. “Is he awake?” I asked the nurse inside

“Luna are you feeling better?” She looked surprised to see me

“Yes I’m fine my memory is back”

“Would you like me to call a doctor to examine you quickly?” She looked genuinely concerned.

“I’m fine there’s no need thank you”

“How is he?” I asked walking over to Gavin’s side. I felt so many different feelings watching him. He was no longer the arrogant football star of the school trying to get me to go out with him. He was now a friend that I cared a lot about.

“He’s fighting for his life” I heard my father say.

"I don't want him to die" I could feel myself tear up. I remembered how nice he was to me how we had created a friendship. He and I would talk for hours in the training room. He was never perverted or tried anything he was always just there for me. I had him to talk to. My father told me everything Gavin told Zayn and my heart broke again. So much pain and suffering because of me. I held my friend's hand

"What can we do to save him he doesn't look like he has much time"

"His only option is to change him but an unmated she wolf has to do it."

I already knew what dad was talking about. In order for Gavin to survive an unmated she wolf would have to be willing to mark him and then they would essentially become mates after he swears allegiance to our pack.

I'm still holding Gavin's hand when I hear him call my name almost as if he was whispering. I got closer to him he opened his swollen eyes

"Hope I'm sorry I should have told you" His voice was barely audible

"Don't I understand why you didn't, just please try to relax" I was in tears now

I had to think fast who would be willing to mark him and lose their chance at meeting their true mate? I thought to myself. Gavin is very handsome any girl would be lucky to have him especially now that he wasn't acting like a complete j.erk. The more I thought only one name would come to mind. Amy.

"I wish I could talk to him about this and see if he'd like Amy to be his mate" I spoke mostly to myself.

She's beautiful and very nice to hang out with why wouldn't he like her. He's a player but so is she. I smiled to myself

"Dad I think I found someone who might be willing to mark him I'm not sure though"

"Okay you'll have to talk to her asap and I have to talk to Alpha about this but go have breakfast first" He k!sses me and walks out

I wasn't going to wait to talk to anyone Gavin needs help and he doesn't have much time. I called Amy and asked her to come meet me at the Hospital and she came right away. I explained everything to her.

“Hope, Gavin has been hitting on you all year he’s never looked my way” She was absolutely right

“I can’t tell you what to do all I can do is ask and pray he makes it” I paused “He saved my life in more ways than one and I want to save his”

“And we will baby” Zayn said from behind me. He wrapped his arms around my waist and kissed the top of my head.

“Can I think about it Hope?”

“Of course I don’t want you to feel pressured I can find someone else” I told Amy before she walked away with her head down. In all honesty I was desperate Gavin didn’t look like he had too much time. I was in my own head thinking when Zayn buried his face in my neck.

“When are you going to start listening to me?” He asked sounding so cute not like his usual bossy self

“I have no idea what you’re talking about” I laughed

“Well I do. I remember telling you to stay with me”

“Oh I don’t recall you saying that” I giggled

“Let me refresh your memory it was right after I fvcked your...” I turned around and put my hand over his filthy mouth. Oh my Goddess he has no shame. He chuckled then kissed the palm of my hand. I love this filthy dirty minded man.

I filled Zayn in on what Amy and I were talking about but I told him she was in doubt.

“I can find someone that will mark him” Zayn said.

“Who?”

“There are plenty of she wolves baby”

“Oh please not another one of your friends with benefits I’ve been hurt one too many times by them”

I didn't mean to hurt him. But it was true both women that he had relationships with had tried to hurt me and Gavin was also a victim this time. Zayn didn't say anything right away I expected he would be angry but he just kissed my forehead and left the hospital. I wanted to go after him and take back what I said but I couldn't right now Gavin needed me.

All of a sudden Jenna's sweet voice echoed through my head warming my soul.

Hi Beautiful I'm sorry I was too hurt and weak to help you when you needed me most.

"Jenna! Oh my Goddess Jenna I'm so sorry for all that's happened to you." I finally had my wolf back. I had my other half back

You don't have to be sorry for anything it's not your fault. But It's time for revenge I hope you're ready.

"I've never been more ready in my life." I said to my wolf

This was one war that was inevitable. No matter what I would be a part of it even if I had to go all the way to Maine on my own.

Zayn

What she said was true. Two of the women I had sex with over a period of time did end up hurting her. One I had already taken care of and the other, well once I go for her father we'll see what happens but one thing is for sure if Hope thinks she can reject me she has something else coming.

I walked away and left the hospital not wanting to say something I might regret but she was right and I didn't know how to defend myself in situations like this without getting angry. I've been feeling like crap since the first day when Crystal had the rogues attack her in attempts to kill her. I knew both women before Hope. I didn't think my actions would have such grave consequences. I didn't think they would turn out to be crazy bitches and I didn't think I would ever care so much for a woman.

I don't give a fuck though Hope can never leave me or there will be hell to pay. But right now I had to take care of Gavin's issue.
