

My System 62

Chapter 62: Miss, What is This

Bai Shuxuan's cultivation was completely sealed, leaving her with nothing but her relatively strong physical strength, indistinguishable from that of an ordinary woman without any cultivation.

That's why Cheng Guang dared to approach her so closely.

Even so, as Cheng Guang drew near to Bai Shuxuan, the burly Great Han behind him twitched slightly, not daring to be careless. He was fully alert, watching Bai Shuxuan intently.

It seemed that if Bai Shuxuan made any move, he would immediately strike to kill her.

As for Bai Shuxuan, upon hearing Cheng Guang's words, she was momentarily stunned.

Charming abilities?

What charming abilities was the Princely Heir referring to?

Were it the Charm Eyes, or her fascinating body?

She had never used her Charm Eyes from the beginning to the end.

Could it be that the Princely Heir was referring to her fascinating body...

This...

How could that be possible.

Bai Shuxuan's beautiful eyes flickered, she felt a great shock inside, and due to the overwhelming surprise, she froze in place.

The fascinating body was extremely difficult to detect and had even disappeared for thousands of years in the long history of the Green Hill fox clan.

The fact that she possessed a fascinating body was not very well known among the members of the Green Hill fox clan.

Only a few powerful individuals within the clan knew...

How did Cheng Guang come to know of it?

Bai Shuxuan stood still, gazing blankly at Cheng Guang, her lips slightly parted, but no words came out.

Cheng Guang was indifferent to the changes in Bai Shuxuan's expression and leisurely walked up to her. He looked her over with interest, her well-proportioned figure drawing a smile in his eyes.

"I know you probably still have some means of escaping from here. If I ask you what they are, you definitely won't tell me, so I plan to try and make you tell me voluntarily."

Cheng Guang said something cryptic.

The two statements were contradictory.

Upon hearing this, Bai Shuxuan's gaze towards Cheng Guang became odd.

You ask me, and I won't tell you, yet you expect me to tell you voluntarily?

Madness!

And how did Cheng Guang know she still had a means?

A guess?

For some reason, as Bai Shuxuan looked at Cheng Guang and noticed an inexplicable gleam beginning to sparkle in his gaze, her pupils contracted slightly.

A sudden, uneasy premonition rose in her heart.

Just as she was about to avert her eyes, she saw a strange light burst from the depths of Cheng Guang's pupils.

No one other than Bai Shuxuan in front of him saw it.

The activation of his Divine Power was very subtle.

Bai Shuxuan's body stiffened, sensing the power emanating from Cheng Guang. Her eyes trembled, and her body involuntarily started to shake from shock.

"This, this can't be possible, this can't be possible."

Bai Shuxuan's body froze, but her heart was engulfed by a storm of shock.

“This can’t be possible. That is actually the Charm Eyes!”

“Let alone the fact that the Princely Heir’s cultivation is far from the Fourth-grade Divine Realm. Even if he had reached it, he would definitely not be able to master the Bloodline Divine Powers of the Green Hill fox clan!”

Instinctively, Bai Shuxuan wanted to resist, but the power of the Divine Power Marks started to flood into her Primordial Spirit, invading her mind.

Compared to the subtle influence of her fascinating body, Cheng Guang’s Charm Eyes were much more domineering when deployed.

The Divine Power forcefully barged through the gates of her heart, prying them open and penetrating deep.

Bai Shuxuan tried to resist, but she quickly realized that the Charm Eyes displayed by Cheng Guang were more powerful than her own or those of any others within the Green Hill fox clan.

It contained an unknown power they did not possess.

It was as if...

Cheng Guang's Charm Eyes were the most orthodox Divine Power of the Green Hill fox clan, and theirs were just inferior versions...

Moreover, Cheng Guang's Divine Power seemed to be a kind of higher-dimensional power, forcefully suppressing both her fascinating body and her mind.

Making her instinctively submit.

Bai Shuxuan was terrified beyond measure.

Her gaze could no longer move away from the depths of Cheng Guang's profound eyes.

Her mental resistance began to steadily weaken.

Until at last, Bai Shuxuan's body went limp, she collapsed powerlessly to the ground, her beautiful eyes rolling back as she fainted.

By Bai Shuxuan's side, the weak Hong Zhu, seeing what happened, cried tears of desperation, forced herself to get up, and with a hoarse voice cried, "Mistress..."

"Princely Heir, what have you done to my mistress?"

Cheng Guang paid no mind to Hong Zhu, taking deep, coarse breaths with beads of sweat forming on his forehead and sliding down his face.

His body was hit by waves of weakness, and his legs wouldn't stop trembling.

Cheng Guang leaned against the wall, looking over at Bai Shuxuan on the ground, feeling a surge of relief in his heart.

It looked like it had been a success.

Using Divine Power was still too much of a strain for him at the moment.

Even though Bai Shuxuan had little resistance, and even though he had only used the surface level of Charm Eyes' Divine Power.

Applying the Charm Eyes Divine Power on Bai Shuxuan was still a significant burden.

Fortunately, his Spirit Dao cultivation had broken through to the Yin God Realm; otherwise, even if he had exhausted all his power, he might not have been able to leave any mark on Bai Shuxuan's Primordial Spirit.

The burly Great Han behind Cheng Guang noticed his unusual state and hurried to support him.

“Princely Heir, are you alright?”

Cheng Guang shook his head, “I’m fine.”

The burly Great Han, hearing Cheng Guang say so, was still a bit worried.

He had just seen the Princely Heir looking well, so how had he suddenly become so exhausted, almost to the point of collapsing?

He hadn’t seen Bai Shuxuan make any move at all.

If the Princely Heir was just a little exhausted, then Bai Shuxuan was in an even worse state, having directly fainted.

Had the Princely Heir used some kind of method?

The burly Great Han felt like he understood something in that moment, wisely keeping his gaze and inquiries to himself.

Matters of their superiors were not his to interfere with.

He just had to ensure that the Princely Heir would not be harmed by Bai Shuxuan.

Cheng Guang didn't pay attention to the rich inner turmoil of the burly Great Han beside him, leaning against the wall, pondering as he looked at Bai Shuxuan on the ground.

Although he had left a trace of Divine Power Marks on Bai Shuxuan's Primordial Spirit, which could influence her mind, how effective it would be, whether Bai Shuxuan would obediently listen to him and serve him, was still unknown.

He needed to verify it further.

Time passed, and after roughly half an hour,

Bai Shuxuan suddenly opened her eyes, sitting up lazily, stretching her body gracefully like a waking cat.

When she saw Hong Zhu by her side, there wasn't much change in the light of her eyes.

But when she looked at Cheng Guang, a subtle emotion flashed through her beautiful eyes.

Respect, loyalty, and a deep admiration... like twinkling candlelight, flickering in her eyes.

Bai Shuxuan gently curved up the corners of her mouth, revealing an intoxicating smile.

“Princely Heir.”

She spoke softly, her voice tender and enchanting.

Her lovely body bent down, lying at Cheng Guang’s feet, her fingers gently caressing the hem of Cheng Guang’s robe, conveying a sense of supreme reverence and humility.

This scene stunned Hong Zhu.

She became like a wooden person, eyes widened in shock.

“Mistress...”

“Mistress, what are you...”

The burly Great Han beside them was also surprised, eyes widening slightly, mouth agape. After a glance, he quickly turned his head away, his expression slightly panicked.

He couldn't calm his mind.

"This method of the Princely Heir is simply too terrifying..."

"To be able to change this devil woman to such a state in such a short time..."

The burly Great Han murmured to himself, his original respect for the noble Princely Heir now tinged with fear.

He had already decided to keep everything he saw today to himself.