

My Woman 651

Chapter 651 (Qing Tiandi's Dilemma)

The crowd became curious. What is this demoness talking about? Weren't you the one showing off just now and criticizing others? Your surroundings are filled with corpses...

However, amidst the corpses, one person slowly stood up, giving rise to a glimmer of hope!

There are actually survivors! That's great!

This is actually a vicious cycle, from hope to despair, and then hope rises again, but it's estimated that despair will follow soon.

At this moment, the camera focused on Qing Tiandi, wondering if he feels embarrassed.

To actually lie on the ground and play dead, it takes great courage to do so.

Fortunately, nobody paid attention to this detail. What they care about is whether Qing Tiandi can defeat the witch. After all, everyone else is dead, and he's the only one pretending to be dead.

Qing Tiandi must be feeling quite frustrated right now...

He has completely lost face today. It's entirely his own calculation error. His most proficient formation was unexpectedly blocked by her chest!

What is she trying to prove? Is she lacking silicon implants?

She can guarantee that it's completely natural and soft, with an amazing touch.

At this moment, Ye Hua also saw Qing Tiandi. In fact, Ye Hua hadn't seen him before, but that's the feeling he got.

"Look, this is our opponent. I have to take a screenshot and post it on Tieba, then gather some keyboard warriors to criticize him until he spits blood." Ye Hua felt proud. When facing the real deal, you probably don't even know your own surname. I really don't know where he found the courage. Learning how to sing "Courage" is true courage. [Baidu Tieba is a Chinese online forum hosted by the Chinese web services company Baidu. Courage is Malaysian Chinese Mandopop artist Fish Leong's second studio album. It was released on 2 August 2000 by Rock Records.]

Qing Ya took a careful look. "Is this Qing Tiandi? He looks so..."

"Yes, we were actually framed by him. It's really embarrassing," Donghuang Baizhi said with a speechless expression. She didn't expect her opponent to be this kind of person.

Ye Hua sneered a few times. "I let him loose a bit to see what tricks he could come up with. I didn't expect this incident would force him to show up in person. This Qing Tiandi is quite impressive."

Upon hearing her husband praise Qing Tiandi again, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi's faces stiffened.

Ye Hua also noticed that something was off with these two women recently. Why didn't this phenomenon exist before?

It can only be said that Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi are worried that Ye Hua might have an affair, so they are sensitive to such things.

But at least Ye Hua wouldn't poach his subordinates.

To put it bluntly, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi are slightly stronger than Qing Tiandi, thanks to their overall performance and unique temperament.

Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin also didn't expect Qing Tiandi to personally join the battle. It shows how much Qing Tiandi values this.

Jiu Ye, of course, also saw Qing Tiandi. His mind began to spin wildly. 'If this master also perishes, it seems I'll have to seek refuge elsewhere.'

This Jiu Ye, he lacks everything except for a master. Don't believe me? Just take a look at my contacts on WeChat.

As Qing Tiandi stood up, the whole scene instantly exploded. It was as if a giant had risen, and everyone forgot that this guy was just playing dead.

"Handsome guy! Kill this demoness, and my girlfriend will sleep with you!"

"That's right! As long as you kill this witch, my boyfriend won't mind because he wants to stay alive."

"Get rid of her, and I'll hit the bars and flirt with girls."

Countless men began to roar, placing all their hopes on Qing Tiandi. However, Qing Tiandi was not in a good state right now.

Li Hun retracted the colorful divine sword in her hand and extended her slender index finger, with red nail polish coating her nails, looking very enchanting.

"You must be their leader. Kneel down and repent, and I will spare your life!" Li Hun was so arrogant. If placed elsewhere, she would be the antagonist, while Qing Tiandi would be the protagonist who defies the heavens.

Of course, Qing Tiandi would never admit that he was the leader. Only a fool would admit it!

'But this woman is really audacious, actually asking me to kneel down and repent. She hasn't witnessed my true abilities!'

'Wait a minute!'

Qing Tiandi looked towards the helicopter in the sky. If he reveals his true abilities, won't he expose himself? What's the point of revealing all his trump cards if he does!

Should he play it safe for now? Find another opportunity to turn the tables later. That's a good plan...

'No! A strong individual must have their dignity. How can I kneel down!'

'But as a real man, one must be flexible, adaptable, and capable of being big or small. What is such humiliation? It's nothing! If need be, I'll wash away this shame with blood!'

'Still, no! As a real man, standing tall and firm is what it means to be dignified. This head may be severed, blood may flow, but dignity must not be compromised.'

"It's been five minutes. When are you going to make up your mind?" Li Hun became a bit impatient. At least say something! It shouldn't take this long to think about a question of survival.

Just as Li Hun grew impatient, the earpiece buzzed.

"Little Hun Hun, Your Honor said this man should not be killed but can be crippled." Dou Fushi had just received Wei Chang's command and quickly transmitted it to Li Hun. Don't mess up Your Honor's plan.

"Understood," Li Hun whispered softly.

But no matter how softly she spoke, Qing Tiandi heard it. 'This woman!!!'

'There's someone above her!!!'

'Who is giving orders to this woman? It must be Voidless Realm!'

'Damn, Voidless Realm is so ruthless, forcing me to this extent. They're vicious!'

Qing Tiandi calculated everything, but he didn't calculate that Li Hun would suffer an attack on her backside from Dou Fushi. If it weren't for that attack, Li Hun would definitely not be able to withstand that huge sword, and she would be injured, waiting to be beaten up.

So, it's safe to say that Dou Fushi's fart was well-timed.

Qing Tiandi straightened his back, his gaze firmly locked on Li Hun. His demeanor exuded an overwhelming sense of dominance, as if he could control everything and even disdain the world.

In one word, he was imposing.

Suddenly, Li Hun's eyebrows furrowed!

Her delicate figure swiftly moved, displaying rapid agility.

She turned her head to look at her skirt, which had unexpectedly been sliced open.

"Not bad! No wonder you didn't kneel, you've got some skills!" Li Hun became a bit unhappy. This was her newly bought skirt, and Dou Fushi had only seen it once, praising her good taste. And now it has been slashed!

'Son of a bitch!'

Her gaze shifted to Qing Tiandi, causing him to pause...

'What's going on? Why did she suddenly get angry? She wasn't even harmed. Why is she losing her temper? Is she crazy or something!!!'

The audience was in an uproar once again. This demoness actually evaded! She actually managed to dodge! This was a tremendous development. If someone made her dodge, it meant she was afraid herself!

A tremendous aura of hostility erupted from Li Hun's delicate body: "You! You! I'm going to crush your head with my high heels!"

Speaking of high heels, it was actually something Dou Fushi enjoyed seeing Li Hun wear. He found it particularly charming, as every step she took had a unique charm. Especially when Li Hun approached with graceful cat-like steps, the feeling was simply unparalleled.

Chapter 652 (I Have Many Secret Weapons)

Because Dou Fushi liked it, Li Hun also started to enjoy wearing high heels, so every sentence had high heels in it.

Li Hun's delicate figure flashed, and Qing Tiandi didn't dare to be careless, standing still in his original position.

A mysterious shadow hovered around Qing Tiandi, as if countless invisible small knives, or more accurately, blades formed by powerful gusts of wind.

Xiao Yi had died under this move, instantly killed.

But Li Hun was not Xiao Yi. Her elusive body technique allowed her to continuously evade, leaving Qing Tiandi dumbfounded. How could this woman dodge his attacks? It was impossible!

Qing Tiandi had only seen people defend against this move using weapons, but he had never seen someone dodge it, let alone evade for so long.

"Shadowless Green Light!" Qing Tiandi shouted loudly, and his body instantly emitted waves of spiritual energy, reaching the pinnacle of his power!

The surrounding gusts of wind gradually turned green, becoming even faster! This also meant they were sharper!

Li Hun, who had turned into a phantom, snorted, "Did you really think you could block me? You're seeking death! Golden Scale Fist!"

Qing Tiandi's expression tightened as he suddenly felt tremendous pressure and saw the golden fist shatter his gusts of wind!

'This was too powerful!'

"Shield of Oblivion!" Qing Tiandi roared, and a black iron shield appeared in his hand. Don't underestimate this shield; it was an ancient divine artifact designed to counterattack. The greater the opponent's strength, the stronger the feedback!

Li Hun didn't think too much and fiercely struck the shield with her fist, instantly creating a shockwave and resounding booms.

When Li Hun's punch collided with the shield, she realized something was wrong. A powerful force was retaliating against her!

Boom!

Li Hun's delicate body was sent flying dozens of meters away, and a pair of red high heels left a deep imprint on the ground, but the heels were still intact.

It could be seen that the quality was excellent. After this battle, these high heels would be sold out.

Seeing Li Hun being knocked back, the crowd first stood in shock, then erupted into cheers.

"Dear audience! I'm here to tell you good news. This deminess has been repelled! She was defeated by this hero! A hero has descended from the heavens, and we are finally saved..."

Some men, upon witnessing this scene, were overwhelmed with joy and tears. It was truly a rare sight. They could finally go shopping with their wives without fear.

Li Hun slowly straightened her body and stared at Qing Tiandi.

Qing Tiandi spoke indifferently, "As for this shield..."

Before he could finish speaking, Qing Tiandi felt his shield creaking, visible to the naked eye. Cracks began to appear on its surface, growing more and more, as if it was about to shatter!

Qing Tiandi quickly threw the shield into the sky!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The Shield of Oblivion exploded in the air, forming a huge mushroom cloud. The terrifying shockwave instantly descended, causing all the trees to be uprooted. The scene was horrifying.

Although Li Hun was struck back by the shield, she also shattered the ancient divine artifact with a single punch, indicating her monstrous strength.

"What were you about to say?" Li Hun curiously asked.

Qing Tiandi felt embarrassed. He had just wanted to boast about his shield, but now it had been blown up by a single punch. Indeed, she was a formidable woman!

"My shield is actually not my most powerful weapon!" Qing Tiandi said in a deep voice. The Shield of Oblivion was one of his reliable weapons, easily capable of delivering a counterattack.

However, this woman had been retaliated against, yet she could still stand and speak.

'She must be pretending. In reality, she had suffered internal injuries! She's pretending quite well, but did she really think I, Qing Tiandi, wouldn't see through it?'

"Spirit Beast Rampage!" Qing Tiandi remained composed. He didn't want to reveal too much of his abilities, just in case someone discovered it. It was necessary to appear weak if needed!

Qing Tiandi flicked a piece of parchment, and a faint light flashed. A bull's head, with an enlarged and imposing shape, floated in the air!

Yes, it was a bull's head, but this bull's head was incredibly massive. It was panting heavily, and steam emitted from its nostrils.

Li Hun found it repulsive, especially the corrosive effect of the mucus dripping from the bull's mouth when it fell to the ground!

"Hmph! This is a prehistoric beast, witch! It seems your end is near!" Qing Tiandi felt it was about time. Both the Shield of Oblivion and Spirit Beast Rampage were his secret weapons, and he had used them all to deal with a demoness.

Hopefully, they will be effective!

If it were in the past, it would surely have an effect. Even if Li Hun didn't die, she would suffer severe injuries, especially from the counterattack of the Shield of Oblivion, which was not something an ordinary person could endure.

If it wasn't for the issue with hardness, it would definitely have a hundred percent counterattack.

"Dear audience! Did you see that? This man actually summoned a prehistoric beast. My goodness, this is the first time I've seen such a spirit beast. Even flying in the air, it evokes a sense of fear! It seems the witch is truly doomed."

Just as the host finished speaking, Li Hun glared fiercely at the bull's head, and her beautiful eyes emitted a sinister light!

"Death Stare."

The bull's head paused for a moment, and its expression changed from excitement to fear. Without hesitation, it turned around and fled.

Who would be so despicable as to release Mr. Bull to fight the monster, especially when it couldn't win? Damn you!

At this moment, Qing Tiandi's mind was a bit overwhelmed. The prehistoric beast he had summoned actually ran away. 'How was this possible? Wasn't it supposed to have 100% loyalty? Those four scammers! They deceived me!'

It wasn't that Brother Bull had low loyalty, but Li Hun's Death Stare was too terrifying. This was the difference in power. A single glare would reveal the consequences.

The scene now focused on the fleeing bull's head, and the host didn't know how to continue. It was quite awkward...

Qing Tiandi was feeling quite uneasy. He forced an explanation, "That bull was a gift from someone else, and we're not very familiar with each other."

"I can tolerate you tearing my clothes, but bringing out something so disgusting!" Li Hun erupted in an instant. Qing Tiandi was caught off guard. This woman actually fought without any regard for the rules of the martial world. Before fighting, there should at least be a warning to the opponent.

Qing Tiandi couldn't afford to be careless. He once again took out an ancient divine artifact and smashed it on the ground, instantly releasing a burst of purple smoke!

Quickly, Qing Tiandi put on a gas mask. This toxic version of an ancient divine artifact was extremely rare and required a great deal of effort to obtain. It was originally intended to be kept for a life-threatening situation, but now it had to be used!

"Demoness, this is highly poisonous. Once smelled, it will render your entire body weak, limbs stiff, and unable to move. That's why it's called the Limb Killer!" Qing Tiandi felt proud. This was his killer move.

Just as Qing Tiandi finished speaking, he suddenly felt that his gas mask had disappeared. His face turned pale, and he immediately covered his nose and mouth!

Chapter 653 (Voidless Realm Appears)

Standing beside Qing Tiandi, Li Hun said, "Oh? There's another poison like this? Then you should taste it yourself!"

Saying that, Li Hun forced open Qing Tiandi's hands. Qing Tiandi held his breath, as if refusing to inhale the poison.

Li Hun sneered and delivered a hook punch directly to Qing Tiandi's abdomen. Qing Tiandi couldn't hold it in anymore and took a breath.

Seeing Qing Tiandi inhale the poison, Li Hun felt relieved.

But Qing Tiandi coldly smirked; fortunately, he had the antidote. Otherwise, he would have been done for today!

Taking out the antidote, Qing Tiandi revealed a triumphant smile.

'In the end, I, Qing Tiandi, will triumph over the heavens!'

Just as Qing Tiandi was about to raise his cup and drink, a huge shadow rushed forward and collided with his arm!

Qing Tiandi dumbfoundedly watched as the antidote was shattered, and the bull's head had already disappeared.

'How could this happen? That was the only antidote, and it was actually knocked away by the summoned beast!'

'Why is everything going wrong today? Can such a thing even happen?'

Qing Tiandi could feel his limbs gradually stiffening. Being poisoned by his own ancient artifact would become a joke if it got out.

The key point was that his antidote was shattered by the summoned prehistoric beast's collision with the ground...

'I didn't check the almanac before leaving today. If I had known, I would have come another day.'

Gradually, the smoke dissipated, and Li Hun's figure appeared, followed by Qing Tiandi's figure.

Qing Tiandi had already felt his limbs becoming stiff. 'Damn it!'

Fortunately, the demoness was in the same situation as him! It was unfortunate but fortunate at the same time. This could be considered going down together.

"Demoness, now that neither of us can move, someone will come to kill you soon!" Qing Tiandi had a way to recover; otherwise, he would have exploded with anger. Could he still remain so calm?

These words spread through the streets and alleys, and this time, there was truly jubilation. This man had really taken care of the demoness!

It was truly a relief. Hurry up and send someone to kill the witch. Let's not have any more unexpected incidents!

A wicked smile curved at the corner of Li Hun's mouth. "Who told you that I am the same as you?"

Only to see Li Hun shaking her hands, even spinning around, her skirt fluttering in the air.

Dou Fushi decided that when they returned, he would talk to her seriously. She should be careful not to spin around while wearing a skirt, or she might accidentally expose herself!

Looking at Li Hun still being able to spin around, Qing Tiandi's jaw almost dropped to the ground. 'Why is this woman unaffected?'

'She didn't even wear a gas mask, and she was talking just a moment ago. How is it possible that she didn't inhale the poison? This can't be!'

The crowd, who had just been celebrating fervently, instantly deflated. Their mood today was like a roller coaster, up and down, terrifyingly unpredictable.

"How did you do it!" Qing Tiandi couldn't accept it. They were supposed to go down together, so why was she completely unharmed?

Li Hun pursed her cherry lips and said, "Perhaps this is strength. You wouldn't understand."

Qing Tiandi: "....."

Despair... The men were in despair. Even in such a state, they still couldn't defeat this woman. Why does the heavens treat men this way...

"It's time to settle the score for you tearing my clothes and disgusting me!" Li Hun approached Qing Tiandi with a sinister smile.

Qing Tiandi, unable to move his limbs, quickly said, "Stay away! I'm telling you, you will regret it!"

Li Hun chuckled lightly and delivered a punch directly to Qing Tiandi's face, dislocating his jaw. Qing Tiandi was sent flying like a cannonball, crashing into various buildings, raising a cloud of dust.

This was one-sided torment, and Qing Tiandi's figure was flying around in the amusement park.

Li Hun's attack was accurate, ensuring she didn't harm him fatally. It was agreed to only leave him crippled.

Watching Qing Tiandi being completely overwhelmed, everyone fell into a lifeless silence. If only someone would stand up now...

Perhaps the heavens heard the people's call. A golden light suddenly flashed in the sky above the amusement park, instantly dispelling the darkness!

The scene immediately shifted to this miraculous moment.

The host was stunned, his words becoming incoherent as he shouted, "Audience... friends, there's a sudden disturbance in the clouds! Could it be that a celestial being is about to appear? It seems that the heavens haven't abandoned us. A celestial being has descended!"

This time, no one cheered. Who knows if they will be pinned to the ground and rubbed by the witch again? It had happened several times already, and they couldn't withstand such blows.

Suddenly! Figures appeared in the clouds!

They were dressed in golden robes and silver armor, standing in three rows, forming an arc. With the shining "special effects," they resembled heavenly soldiers and generals!

Although the aura emitted by these thousand people wasn't as terrifying as Li Hun's, it was filled with radiance and righteousness. Each person's face was brimming with explosive confidence because they all knew it was time to act and showcase their acting skills.

The scene also shifted to several flags!

When people saw the characters on the flags, they gasped in cold air!

These people were actually from the Voidless Realm!

An existence even more formidable than this demoness. The host was left speechless. He originally thought they were reinforcements, but it turns out they were another demon!

This time, leading the troops was none other than Tang Yu!

His armor was different from others. It was entirely golden, with a lifelike dragon pattern on the chest.

He gave off a strong sense of righteousness, making people not perceive him as a villain!

Li Hun let go of Qing Tiandi, who was now completely battered and unrecognizable under her torment. If those four individuals saw Qing Tiandi in this ghastly state, they would surely be ecstatic. They had met their match!

"Who are you people? Do you want to kneel down and lick my high heels!" Li Hun arrogantly shouted. Of course, she knew this was little Dou Dou's task, and she just needed to cooperate properly. She couldn't be too exaggerated. If little Dou Dou were punished, she would feel sorry.

Dou Fushi looked at the crowd in the sky, thinking that Your Honor had quite the grand display. There were at least several thousand people, and it looked spectacular!

"Demoness! You have brought calamity to the world and violated the laws of the Voidless Realm! Today, the Voidless Realm shall apprehend you and enforce justice on behalf of the heavens!" One had to admit that Tang Yu's performance at this moment was indeed impressive. His handsome appearance had captivated the hearts of many young ladies.

Qing Tiandi, who was already on the verge of collapse from the torment, cursed shamelessly. "Voidless Realm, just wait for me! I will kill all of you sooner or later!"

Li Hun suddenly let out a seductive giggle. "More do-gooders. Once I kill each and every one of you, you'll understand what righteousness truly means!"

The crowd hadn't even fully processed the situation. Wasn't the Voidless Realm an evil organization? Why were they here to arrest people? This was quite strange.

However, the situation hadn't reached its conclusion, so the crowd refrained from making wild speculations.

"Demoness! Surrender your weapons and submit! The Voidless Realm will handle your crimes with leniency!" Tang Yu shouted loudly, resembling a judge and making it hard not to be convinced.

Chapter 654 (Lady Empress Shall Reign for Ten Thousand Years)

Li Hun gently flicked her hair, and with just this small movement, it stirred up a commotion in the hearts of many men. When this woman looked beautiful, that hair flick was incomparable.

Dou Fushi felt deeply proud. His little soul was obedient, powerful, and, most importantly, incredibly beautiful. Her figure was explosive, and in his mind, she was perfect.

However, when he thought of the two esteemed ladies, his little soul fell short in terms of temperament and presence. But that was normal. Those two were esteemed ladies, so how could they be compared? That would be seeking death.

In his mind, his little Hun Hun was the most perfect woman.

Indeed, Li Hun possessed such charm that even facing the Voidless Realm now, she wouldn't show any fear.

But this was all just acting. As a subordinate of the Supreme Overlord, if she couldn't even act, that would be unacceptable.

Li Hun coldly stared at Tang Yu in the sky. Once again, a multicolored divine sword appeared in her hand, and her aura burst forth.

The momentum of the thousand members of the Voidless Realm clashed with Li Hun's, as she single-handedly resisted the entire group. This kind of courage was truly admirable, especially to those who were watching the live broadcast.

Ye Hua looked at Li Hun and smiled. "Her acting skills are pretty good, don't you think?"

"Hmph."

"Hmph."

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi expressed their unhappiness. They looked at Ye Hua and thought, "You've praised her countless times today, but you've never praised us like this!"

Ye Hua also felt helpless. What jealousy was this? Li Hun was indeed impressive, on par with Zi Shan. They would become the two mainstays in the future.

It felt like these two women were more reliable than their own men. He could confidently entrust them with certain tasks.

Tang Yu in the field was also shocked. He didn't expect this woman to be so powerful. Fortunately, she was on their side. If she were an enemy, victory would be completely out of reach.

Of course, this was only in terms of strength. If the Empress's treasures were brought out, then...

Tang Yu extended his palm! A Purple Forest Pagoda appeared in his hand!

The Purple Forest Pagoda was also one of Ye Hua's countless collections, more than enough to deal with Li Hun.

When the Purple Forest Pagoda appeared, the sky rumbled, causing ringing in the ears. A colorful cloud hung in the air, emitting radiance!

That intimidating aura surged towards Li Hun with a ferocious momentum.

Li Hun saw the Purple Forest Pagoda in Tang Yu's hand, and her beautiful eyes widened. This wasn't a pretense; she was genuinely astonished!

The things Qing Tiandi had brought out were mere toys, nothing to be feared. But the treasures this person had brought out truly made her apprehensive!

"Demoness! Today, the Voidless Realm will show you what righteousness truly means!" Tang Yu spoke softly.

Li Hun regained her composure, and the multicolored divine sword in her delicate hand emitted a radiant glow. "Let's see whose path is righteous!"

"Divine Warrior of the Bright Moon!" With Li Hun's soft shout, her entire being seemed to dance gracefully. Waves of immense sword qi crisscrossed around her, and with her movements, a tremendous spiritual pressure emanated. The ground seemed unable to withstand such pressure, collapsing and being engulfed by the sword qi, which resembled pink flowing mist, swirling around Li Hun.

Tang Yu's gaze darkened, and he instantly threw the Purple Forest Pagoda in his hand. The oppressive aura emanating from the primordial divine artifact instilled even greater fear. The size of the pagoda gradually increased, enveloping Li Hun's head!

The terrifying aura made it difficult for Li Hun below to catch her breath. She was astonished, wondering what kind of treasure this was. From the released aura, she could deduce that it belonged to the primordial realm!

Now, let's see how powerful this treasure truly is!

With Li Hun's melodious shout, numerous multicolored divine swords converged, launching an onslaught toward the airborne Purple Forest Pagoda with a devastating force!

Tang Yu burst out, "Descend!"

The suspended Purple Forest Pagoda descended with a majestic pressure, instantly pressing down on Li Hun's body.

The formidable sword intent that had just filled the air dissipated under the pressure of the Purple Forest Pagoda.

Li Hun couldn't believe it. She found herself utterly powerless beneath this Purple Forest Pagoda!

The live broadcast captured Li Hun's unwillingness and terror-stricken expression. This wasn't an act; Li Hun genuinely felt this way.

Boom!!!

The Purple Forest Pagoda landed on the ground, capturing Li Hun within!

Dou Fushi was now extremely nervous. He hoped his little Hun Hun would be safe. That pagoda looks incredibly powerful.

'Your Honor, she's one of us. Don't be too harsh...'

Everyone watching the live broadcast held their breath, hoping not to witness the demoness breaking free from the pagoda.

Tang Yu extended his palm once again, and the Purple Forest Pagoda flew towards him, gradually shrinking... until it disappeared into the palm of Tang Yu's hand.

At this moment, the camera focused on Tang Yu, and he also knew he was being watched.

"The brilliance of the Voidless Realm shall envelop the earth! The glory of the Voidless Realm cannot be tarnished by anyone! Lady Empress shall reign for ten thousand years!"

Thousands of warriors behind him shouted in unison, "Lady Empress shall reign for ten thousand years!"

These words reached everyone's ears, leaving them somewhat bewildered. Their first thought was that the Voidless Realm was righteous, falsely accused. The Voidless Realm had never come forward to explain themselves. However, this time, by eliminating a menace, didn't it prove something?

The various plazas once again erupted in jubilation.

"Long live the Voidless Realm..."

"Long live Lady Empress..."

"Lady Empress shall reign for ten thousand years..."

People are like that. Whoever can give them a happy life, they will recognize as the boss. The Voidless Realm has achieved this and changed everyone's perception of the Voidless Realm. Regardless of its conspiracies and tricks, the Voidless Realm helped resolve the crisis.

Ye Hua pursed his lips and reached out to give a pat on the raised buttocks of Donghuang Baizhi.

"What are you doing? That hurts..." Donghuang Baizhi exclaimed shyly.

Ye Hua calmly said, "Just trying the feel of Lady Empress's touch. It's quite nice."

"You~" Lady Empress was quite angry with her husband's teasing. She snorted and turned her head away, ignoring Ye Hua. He was being naughty.

With a wave of Tang Yu's hand, the soldiers of the Voidless Realm vanished into thin air, and everything returned to calm, except for the amusement park below that was destroyed and the shattered Qing Tiandi.

Dou Fushi saw the Voidless Realm leave and immediately made his escape, filled with worry.

"Alright, everything is resolved. I even gave a good beating to Qing Tiandi. You can calm down now." Ye Hua pinched the cheeks of his two wives, but they turned their faces away, playing a little temper.

Ye Hua didn't stop them from showing their small temper. After all, women can regulate their emotions by playfully showing a little temper.

"Let's go and see today's heroes." Ye Hua stood up and walked towards the outside.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi quickly followed, fearing that their husband might have an affair.

Ye Hua only appreciates Li Hun's dedication to her work. How could he possibly have any other thoughts? That's impossible.

Chapter 655 (Ye Hua's Distress)

In the Voidless Realm,

Now, he only has some thoughts about his sister-in-law. Having an affair can be a very interesting thing, something that ordinary people find hard to understand. After all, it takes courage to do so, and one must be prepared for the consequences if caught.

Ye Hua arrived at the front of the mountain peak, and Tang Yu and others quickly appeared before him. Although Ye Hua was standing in the front, these people were the servants of Lady Empress, and in their hearts, Lady Empress was the true master of the Voidless Realm.

They all shouted in unison, "Greetings to Lady Empress, greetings to Master Ye!"

Qingya didn't hold any position in the Voidless Realm, so everyone didn't know what to call her.

Donghuang Baizhi changed her expression and calmly said, "You all did well!"

Everyone half-knelt on the ground and shouted, "We will serve Lady Empress, even in death!"

Tang Yu respectfully handed over the Purple Forest Pagoda, and Ye Hua waved his hand, catching the pagoda.

He needed to release Li Hun from inside. He didn't want her to suffocate in there.

With a flash of golden light, Li Hun's delicate body appeared on the ground, seemingly unconscious.

Being trapped inside the Purple Forest Pagoda must have caused some harm to her, but for the sake of realism, Ye Hua decided to use this treasure.

He swung his hand, and a golden radiance enveloped Li Hun on the ground. Gradually, Li Hun opened her beautiful eyes.

Ye Hua said lightly, "Don't move, just stay still."

Li Hun looked puzzled but felt the healing effect of the golden radiance. So, she crossed her legs and sat down.

Donghuang Baizhi signaled for Tang Yu to leave with the others.

Tang Yu understood and immediately left.

Not long after, Wei Chang and Dou Fushi arrived in the Voidless Realm. They knelt down, one after the other, and said, "We pay our respects to Your Honor and the two Ladies!"

Ye Hua said softly, "Rise."

Wei Chang and Dou Fushi stood up, and Dou Fushi saw Li Hun sitting there unharmed, which relieved him.

"Dou Fushi, you must treat Li Hun well from now on!" Qing Ya said sternly.

Donghuang Baizhi echoed, "If we find out that you're treating her badly, we'll break your legs!"

Dou Fushi was completely confused. He had no idea why the two Ladies had such a reaction towards him. It seemed like he was special to Li Hun. Could it be because Li Hun had performed exceptionally well?

"Don't worry, both Ladies. I will definitely take good care of Li Hun," Dou Fushi said. Of course, he would treat Li Hun well and care for her attentively.

Ye Hua felt a little relieved. Dou Fushi was dragging down the entire team, but his wife ranked among the top performers, so it balanced out the overall average.

Not long after, the golden radiance disappeared, and Li Hun slowly opened her beautiful eyes. When she saw Dou Fushi, her expression immediately changed.

"Little Dou Dou~" Li Hun transformed into a graceful figure and directly embraced Dou Fushi, even engaging in a passionate long kiss.

Dou Fushi was scared and trembling. 'Little Hun Hun, you should consider the timing. His Honor is still here. This is too hasty!'

Ye Hua didn't expect Li Hun to be so open-minded, and Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi were also surprised. This was too passionate.

When Ye Hua thought about himself, it seemed like he hadn't been that passionate for a long time. It appeared that they had become an old married couple, and some of the passion was gone.

Wei Chang hurriedly cleared his throat a few times. "If you want to be intimate, go home! You're doing it right in front of Your Honor and even in front of the Ladies..."

Dou Fushi finally pried Li Hun off his embrace and quickly bowed, saying, "I've acted inappropriately, Your Honor."

Li Hun clung to Dou Fushi's arm, looking pleased with herself.

Dou Fushi quickly nudged Li Hun, at least not being so intimate in front of His Honor.

Li Hun pouted and let go of Dou Fushi, looking at the man before her and the Purple Forest Pagoda in his hand.

"Li Hun, you did well today. This deity appreciates it," Ye Hua praised, making Wei Chang envious. It had been a long time since Your Honor praised him.

Li Hun didn't quite understand the value of this praise, so she just said in a coquettish voice, "Thank you, Your Honor."

"In the future, the two of you will temporarily stay in the Voidless Realm and not show yourselves," Ye Hua said calmly. Li Hun definitely couldn't go out. If she were discovered, all their efforts would be in vain. After all, Li Hun was too outstanding, and the plum blossom mark between her eyebrows was easily recognizable.

Both of them respectfully agreed, "Yes!"

"Go and rest," Ye Hua said softly.

Upon hearing that Ye Hua gave them permission, Li Hun became excited. She grabbed Dou Fushi and ran off, shouting loudly, "Little Dou Dou, I want it~"

Ye Hua and Wei Chang twitched at their mouths upon hearing this. This woman was indeed unrestrained.

"Your Honor, I'll take my leave," Wei Chang said.

Ye Hua nodded.

As Wei Chang left, Ye Hua looked at his two women and said in a low voice, "Look at how sensible Li Hun is. You two really..."

Ye Hua didn't know what else to say. He was actually feeling frustrated by his subordinate's subordinate's subordinate. 'Look at how proactive Li Hun was, while you two acted as if you were afraid to make a move. Sigh...'

'Having a sister-in-law is still better.'

Watching her husband leave, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi stomped their feet. "We're both still pregnant with your children, and you still want to do what? It's not like we haven't satisfied you before."

"Qing Ya, it seems that after we give birth to this child, we need to stabilize Ye Hua properly," Donghuang Baizhi said seriously. 'Men have needs, after all. We can't let the Supreme Overlord fulfill his desires with his own hands.'

Qing Ya nodded. "Yes, when the time comes, we'll do it together, and Ye Hua will be happy."

"He will definitely be happy. He dreams of that."

The two women felt a bit embarrassed when they thought about such a scene.

Meanwhile, Ye Hua went to have an affair with Qing Yutong again. Yutong was increasingly winning the favor of the Supreme Overlord. She was becoming more skilled, making him quite comfortable.

If Ye Hua were to rate them, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi combined would only get a score of 100, while Qing Yutong alone would get 100.

After all, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi were both at the receiving end and wouldn't be too proactive. But Qing Yutong was different. She went all out to make the Supreme Overlord comfortable.

So, no matter how good a wife is, she can't compare to a sister-in-law.

On the other side, Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin were ordered to clean up the battlefield. Qing Tiandi, who was knocked out, was taken to the hospital for treatment.

However, it seemed that everyone had forgotten about the unconscious warrior and was cheering for the Voidless Realm.

Qing Tiandi soon regained consciousness and asked them to take him back. 'What's the point of going to the hospital? Are you crazy?'

'Do cultivators need to go to the hospital? What's wrong with your heads?'

Qing Tiandi was transported to his room, wrapped up like a mummy. Feng Tian, who had been in seclusion, also came to Qing Tiandi's room to check on him.

Wang Dabao let out a sigh. "Feng Tian, look at our brother Qian. He remains calm even after being hammered like this. Look at yourself, you've been in seclusion for months."

Chapter 656 (Big Pig Trotters)

Qing Tiandi took a deep breath and walked out of the room, continuing his self-isolation.

Qing Tiandi's state of mind was indeed much better than that of Feng Tian. They both had been beaten by women, so why was there such a big difference?

Mainly because Ye Zizi was just a child, which made Feng Tian feel extremely embarrassed to be defeated by a child.

Qing Tiandi didn't show much disappointment on his face, staying within the normal range.

This puzzled Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin. Why was he able to maintain such a state of mind despite being beaten into this state?

Qing Tiandi had his reasons.

"You two, leave first," Qing Tiandi said calmly.

After hearing this, Wang Dabao persuaded, "Brother Qing, don't be discouraged, don't do anything foolish."

This statement angered Qing Tiandi, who shouted angrily, "Get out!"

Wang Dabao was relieved; this was the normal reaction.

The couple left the bedroom, while Qing Tiandi frowned tightly. After a long while, he took a deep breath, seemingly making a decision!

The blanket covering Qing Tiandi's body was lifted, and the bandages on his body instantly burst open, revealing limbs that were dark and venomous.

Qing Tiandi's gaze became focused, and a pair of giant Qilin arms appeared suspended in the air, exuding a terrifying aura. The sturdy muscles swelled with thick veins, and the arms were adorned with "tattoos" that gleamed with red dots.

Suddenly, another pair of feet appeared!

These feet looked like an animal's, but definitely not Qilin's. They resembled big pig trotters.

Don't be deceived by their appearance; these were treasures obtained by Qing Tiandi. They were the feet of primordial divine beasts, possessing astonishing power!

In fact, Qing Tiandi had wanted to make this change long ago, but he lacked the courage. Now, with all his limbs disabled, if he wanted to stand up, he could only make this transformation—there was no other choice!

Watching his floating limbs, Qing Tiandi made up his mind and released a burst of Qi.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Qing Tiandi used his own Qi to sever his limbs. The once pristine white bed was instantly dyed red. Qing Tiandi tightly furrowed his brows and clenched his teeth, without uttering a single word.

Under Qing Tiandi's control, the severed limbs fell and connected at the wounds.

A green light curtain surrounded the junctions of the limbs, and Qing Tiandi closed his eyes, carefully experiencing this immense power!

It was unknown how much time had passed, but Qing Tiandi suddenly opened his eyes wide. If anyone saw him, they would surely be startled.

Because his eyes were no longer human pupils; they resembled those of a feline creature!

Qing Tiandi raised his arms and glanced lightly at them. Although they were a bit ugly, their strength was dozens of times greater than before. If he were to confront Li Hun, he could definitely blast her with a single punch!

Standing up, Qing Tiandi looked at his own legs, the trotters...

It was truly difficult to accept, but what other choice did he have to settle this grudge?

He must seek revenge!

Qing Tiandi clenched his fist with a thunderous roar, causing the air to explode. It was evident that Qing Tiandi's current power had reached an unimaginable level!

Then, Qing Tiandi stood for a moment and continued to lie on the bed, seemingly pretending to be disabled...

He truly was a scheming man.

Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin had already gotten into the car. Seeing Qing Tiandi being tortured like this today, they were both shocked.

"Wife, what should we do? The Justice League and Peace Association are going to take the blame for this." Wang Dabao was very worried because someone from the Illusory Realm had said that he was framed, and who could have framed him? It must be these two organizations.

The Voidless Realm didn't bother to come forward and explain, as they considered it beneath them. At the same time, they displayed absolute strength today, easily resolving matters that the two major organizations couldn't handle.

Bai Cixin was well aware of this. Now that Qing Tiandi had ended up like this, it was likely that it was all over, and many high-ranking members had died, instantly causing their power to decline significantly. They couldn't turn the situation around.

The Voidless Realm was so powerful, how could they possibly defeat them!

They simply couldn't budge the Voidless Realm.

If they wanted to bring down the Voidless Realm, they would have to find another way!

At this moment, Bai Cixin thought of Director Shi. She wondered if he had any way to bring down the Illusory Realm...

"Wife? What are you thinking? You're not still thinking about how to bring down the Voidless Realm, are you?" Wang Dabao was really worried about his wife. They simply couldn't bring down the Voidless Realm...

Seeing his wife silent, Wang Dabao continued persuading, "Wife, the Voidless Realm is cruel to us, but as you saw today, their power has surpassed our imagination. Who knows if there are even stronger forces out there? Let's swallow our pride for now."

If Bai Cixin had listened to her husband's persuasion, the ensuing tragedy would not have happened.

"Dabao, I can't swallow it! I really can't swallow it! The Voidless Realm destroyed all my efforts in an instant. I'm unwilling to accept it!" Bai Cixin's hatred towards the Illusory Realm had reached its peak. If she didn't let out her anger, she would probably never be happy in her lifetime.

Hearing his wife's words, Wang Dabao knew he couldn't persuade her.

Bai Cixin took out her phone and called Director Shi.

"Director Shi, how about meeting up?" Bai Cixin said in a solemn tone.

Director Shi was playing a QQ game when he heard Bai Cixin's words, and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

"Alright, where?"

"The KFC at Gao Hai City Square."

"Okay, it's been a long time since I had a burger."

After hanging up the phone, the couple headed straight to KFC. Along the way, Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin didn't say a word.

Bai Cixin, who was driving, spoke softly, "Dabao, I'm sorry."

Wang Dabao let out a sigh and forced a smile, "We've been a couple for so many years. What's there to apologize for?"

"Dabao, let's get a divorce." Bai Cixin had actually considered it for a long time. Her husband would only be implicated by staying with her, and facing the colossal machinery like the Voidless Realm, one small mistake could lead to a dead end. Her husband had sacrificed too much for her.

Wang Dabao was stunned upon hearing this, and his face suddenly turned fierce. "Bai Cixin! What nonsense are you talking about? Have you gone crazy?"

"Dabao, you should understand what I mean. I'm just too dominant." Bai Cixin said helplessly.

"I like your dominance. Am I cheap?" Wang Dabao rebuked angrily. They had been a couple for so many years, and at this critical moment, she wanted him to leave and become a coward. How was that possible!

When Bai Cixin heard her husband's words, tears immediately welled up in her eyes. She parked the car by the roadside, sat on her husband's lap, kissed him passionately, and even started unbuttoning his pants.

"Oh my god, wife, calm down! We're on the roadside!" Wang Dabao exclaimed. Did she have to be this intense!

Bai Cixin waved her slender hand, and the entire car seemed to turn invisible, then they continued...

"Wife! You also made an appointment with Director Shi."

"It's fine, you'll be quick."

Wang Dabao: "....."

This was a challenge to a man's dignity, and Wang Dabao would not back down! He had to prove with his strength that he was not a weakling!

Chapter 657 (Time-Space Bureau Sends People)

However, when Wang Dabao saw his wife bow down, he exploded...

Five minutes later...

Bai Cixin continued driving on the road, while Wang Dabao wore a look of despair. Life had become unbearable.

Meanwhile, Bai Cixin, who was driving, had a slight smile on her lips.

The two quickly arrived at KFC, with Bai Cixin holding onto Wang Dabao's arm as they walked in. They truly gave off a feeling of being a talented and beautiful couple.

However, Wang Dabao's mood wasn't great. He had been too hasty earlier...

Mainly because his wife was skilled.

They chose a seat and ordered some food, quietly waiting.

"Wife, I don't think Director Shi can do anything about the Voidless Realm either," Wang Dabao said casually while eating his fries.

Sipping on her cola, Bai Cixin whispered, "Let's ask him first."

Wang Dabao nodded, realizing that it was their only option for now.

In just a few minutes, Shi Zhengao appeared. He was dressed in formal attire today, looking energetic in his black suit.

"Miss Bai, Mr. Wang," Shi Zhengao greeted with a light smile. He then sat across from them, not being too polite, and took a bite of his chicken burger, finding it quite tasty.

"Director Shi, you look handsome today," Bai Cixin coquettishly complimented.

"In the face of a beauty's praise, I usually don't feign modesty," Shi Zhengao chuckled lightly.

Wang Dabao remained stern-faced, unable to believe that Shi Zhengao was flirting with his wife right in front of him.

"Director Shi, I'll get straight to the point," Bai Cixin didn't mind this and saw toppling the Voidless Realm as the main issue.

Putting down his hamburger, Shi Zhengao curiously asked, "Miss Bai, are you facing difficulties?"

"My request may be a bit excessive, but I still want to ask Director Shi," Bai Cixin said softly.

Shi Zhengao also became curious, "What request?"

"What are your thoughts on the Voidless Realm, Director Shi?" Bai Cixin asked in a low voice.

Shi Zhengao's eyebrows gradually furrowed, then he chuckled, "My Time-Space Bureau is only responsible for apprehending 'time travelers.' We don't get involved in worldly conflicts."

"Oh, I see. In that case, I won't take up any more of Director Shi's time," Bai Cixin showed disappointment. It seemed that Shi Zhengao wasn't interested. Was the Voidless Realm really that powerful?

Shi Zhengao took a sip of his cola and said, "Miss Bai, are you planning to take down the Voidless Realm?"

"That's right," Bai Cixin didn't hold back and said it directly.

"What can Miss Bai offer me in return?" Shi Zhengao asked in return.

Upon hearing this, Bai Cixin's disappointed gaze flickered with a glimmer of hope, and even Wang Dabao next to her became serious.

Bai Cixin asked eagerly, "What does Director Shi want?"

"To be honest, my request is quite simple. I hope both of you will work under my command," Shi Zhengao replied.

Upon hearing such a simple request, Bai Cixin and Wang Dabao were a bit stunned. It was too simple compared to what they had asked for. It was like night and day.

Bai Cixin asked seriously, "Director Shi, do you have any way to topple the Voidless Realm?"

"Don't worry about that. I have my own methods," Shi Zhengao said confidently, raising the expectations of Bai Cixin and Wang Dabao.

They were curious about what method Shi Zhengao had to bring down the Voidless Realm.

Of course, Shi Zhengao wouldn't rely on his own power, that would be impossible.

But if it was the Director-General, that would be a different story!

Shi Zhengao had received clear news that the Director-General, Ji Yang, was coming to inspect their work.

Their work couldn't be explained, but they needed a scapegoat. The man of the Voidless Realm Empress, who was a "time traveler," might not be as powerful as the Director-General, although his true strength was unclear.

Moreover, it wasn't just the Director-General coming this time. It was said that several high-ranking officials would be accompanying him. With their power, toppling the Voidless Realm would be a matter of minutes.

Of course, adding some embellishments was inevitable.

After finishing the hamburger in his hand, Shi Zhengao wiped his hands and stood up, saying, "Enjoy your meal, I won't keep you company."

"Director Shi, thank you."

"Miss Bai, I look forward to your future performance," Shi Zhengao said before leaving.

The couple glanced at each other, their eyes filled with doubt.

"Wife, could Director Shi be deceiving us?" Wang Dabao asked in a deep voice because things were too simple, so simple that it was hard to comprehend.

Bai Cixin also couldn't understand Shi Zhengao and said softly, "If he's deceiving us, what benefit does he gain? His only request is for us to join."

"Yeah, these people are all strange. Their thinking is completely incomprehensible," Wang Dabao felt that it was the case with Qing Tiandi and now Shi Zhengao. The thinking of these powerful individuals was truly beyond his understanding.

Moreover, it seemed unreasonable to poke a hornet's nest for the sake of two strangers. Or perhaps he had intended to make a move from the beginning, and they happened to walk right into it.

The couple seemed to have arrived at the same point, looking at each other with astonishment in their eyes.

Having lived together for so long, Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin were in sync and understood each other's thoughts.

"It seems like I was too hasty," Bai Cixin shook her head. If Shi Zhengao had planned this from the beginning, then their plea for help would only be like delivering a package.

Wang Dabao embraced his wife. "Forget it, if it can fulfill your wish, I'll do anything."

"Dabao, why are you so good to me?"

"Are you silly? You're my wife. If I'm not good to you, then who should I be good to?"

Bai Cixin smiled softly and nestled in her husband's arms, feeling the warmth of his embrace.

Ye Hua probably didn't expect that he would soon meet familiar faces, and moreover, they would be such distant acquaintances. Their meeting should be very joyful.

At this moment, Ye Hua lay on the bed, holding a tablet in his hand, while Qing Yutong leaned beside him, pouting.

"Brother-in-law, don't I look better than a tablet?" Qing Yutong asked playfully. She glanced at her brother-in-law's profile and thought he looked extremely handsome.

Ye Hua didn't answer, watching the major news stories. All the headlines were favorable towards the Voidless Realm.

Some even said that the Justice League and the Peace Association were useless and that it was crucial for the Voidless Realm to step in and stop the situation.

Some people even claimed that these two organizations were big liars, misleading everyone about the Voidless Realm. Some "experts" even suggested that the thirty thousand people weren't killed by the Voidless Realm, but rather by the spirits of the Yellow Sands.

Such conclusions gained the agreement of many people.

A large number of internet trolls began to support the Voidless Realm and hurl insults at the two organizations. This made Ye Hua smile.

Qing Tiandi, why are you competing with this avatar of mine? What gives you the right?

With just a tiny bit of calculation from this avatar, your conspiracy falls apart completely. What else can you do now?

If I were to take action, you might die comfortably, but as long as I use my brain, you probably wouldn't even know what horrors you would have to experience.

"Brother-in-law, sniffle~ pay attention to Yutong, okay?" Qing Yutong started acting cute again. Now, her favorite thing to do was to act cute in her brother-in-law's embrace.

Chapter 658 (Ye Hua is Anxious)

Ye Hua closed the tablet and wondered what Qing Tiandi would do next. He was actually a little excited and hoped that Qing Tiandi wouldn't disappoint him too much. He should confront him sometime soon.

"Brother-in-law! Are you even listening to me?" Qing Yutong directly straddled Ye Hua, living up to her title as a female knight.

"Stop messing around, get off!"

"I won't!"

"Are you getting off or not?"

"I won't get off, lalala~"

Sometimes Ye Hua quite liked Qing Yutong's fearless personality. If it were Qing Ya or Donghuang Baizhi, they would have gotten off long ago.

Patting his sister-in-law's butt, Ye Hua whispered, "Alright, get down quickly."

This time, Qing Yutong knew to get down, showing a sense of restraint.

"Brother-in-law, sister and Sister Baizhi's palace is right next door. Aren't you afraid?" Qing Yutong curiously asked, clinging tightly to Ye Hua's arm.

Ye Hua sneered, "Am I afraid of them? What a joke!"

"Really?" Qing Yutong teased.

"Nonsense, this deity is a strong and fearless man. The idea of being afraid of my wife doesn't exist!"

Just as Ye Hua finished speaking, Qing Ya's call came from outside, "Yutong, sister is coming in."

"Oh my god! Brother-in-law, run!"

Ye Hua didn't have time to think much. He picked up his clothes and shoes and disappeared from the bed in an instant, not forgetting to take the tablet with him.

Watching her brother-in-law's hurried appearance, Qing Yutong suppressed her laughter. He said he wasn't afraid, but he's acting like this.

Her brother-in-law is good in every way, except that he's stubborn and likes to show off.

Ye Hua was currently in a panic. He had never been this panicked before and was truly scared.

This unusual feeling excited Ye Hua. So this is what fear feels like. It's really powerful. This avatar wants to continue having an affair. It's so damn exciting.

Qing Yutong immediately laid down and pretended to be asleep.

"Yutong?" Qing Ya looked at her sister who was pretending to sleep and softly called her.

Qing Yutong, worthy of being an actress, slightly opened her hazy eyes. "Sis, what's wrong?"

"Did you see your brother-in-law?" Qing Ya curiously asked. He disappeared right after scolding himself and Baizhi. She didn't know where he went.

Qing Yutong helplessly said, "How did you end up coming to me to find your brother-in-law? I'm speechless."

Qing Ya chuckled, "Alright, sleeping in broad daylight. Get up quickly."

"No, women should sleep more. That's how we maintain our youthful appearance." Qing Yutong rolled over and continued pretending to sleep.

Qing Ya shook her head and turned to leave.

At this time, Ye Hua was sitting in the bedroom on the second floor of Leisure Bar, dressed in clothes, looking anxious. He was really scared.

If he were caught on the spot, they would probably be furious with him.

Putting on his clothes, Ye Hua thought about where to go, trying to calm himself down, but he was still a bit panicked.

It's been a long time since he checked on Jue Tian's situation. He didn't know how things were going now.

He arrived at the Dongfang family.

A strange sound came up, it should be... the cry of a cat. Did Jue Tian wake up?

Just as Ye Hua was puzzled, a cat scrambled and climbed onto the eaves, in a panic.

Behind it were three women chasing after it.

"Jue Tian, be good, we'll give you a bath~" Dongfang Yuer softly called.

Brittany gave a glare, "Jue Tian, come down or I'll have to catch you."

"Jue Tian, my little cutie, come into my arms~" Guan Yanxin teased with full provocation.

Jue Tian stood trembling on the eaves. Since waking up, life has become more unbearable with each passing day. These three women were simply inhuman. They almost squeezed the life out of him and even used fish to tempt him. Did they really think he was just a cat!

"Jue Tian, if you don't come down, I'll be angry! Smell yourself, you are stinking!" Brittany put her hands on her hips and scolded.

"Meow~"

Imperial translation: "Get lost! I won't come down!"

They said he smelled. He took three baths a day and even used a super-powered hairdryer. His head was almost dizzy from all the blowing.

After getting dried, they would play with him, treating him like a pet. He almost suffocated to death at night with three women on top of him. He really couldn't continue living like this.

"Jue Tian, you're forcing my hand!" Brittany shouted, and her figure flashed.

A miserable and heart-wrenching cry sounded. Powerless Jue Tian was completely at the mercy of others. He was no match for Brittany at all and couldn't escape.

Being held in Brittany's arms, Jue Tian shouted for help. When he saw the figure of the avatar, it was as if he saw hope. The cry became even more piercing.

Brittany and the other two women also saw the avatar and immediately prostrated on the ground, shouting, "We pay our respects to Your Honor!"

As Brittany let go, Jue Tian recklessly ran towards Ye Hua and then hugged his thighs, watching his three women with vigilance. They were ruthless! Too damn ruthless. How did he not notice this fetish of theirs before?

Seeing Jue Tian being bullied like this, Ye Hua felt relieved. This man, if he's not bullied by women, he wouldn't know his place.

'Just this deity is an exception. Even if they had hundreds of times the courage, they wouldn't dare to defy this deity. This deity wouldn't fear them either.'

What just happened was merely a strategic retreat.

"What are you doing?" Ye Hua asked calmly.

Brittany respectfully said, "Your Honor, we were about to give Jue Tian a bath, but he didn't want to take a bath."

"Meow~"

Imperial translation: "Your Honor, it's not bathing. They're subjecting me to violence. My body is going to be ruined by them."

Ye Hua grabbed Jue Tian by the back of his neck and lifted him up, saying in a deep voice, "You don't even want to take a bath. What are you planning to do?"

Jue Tian felt desperate now. Looking at Your Honor's stance, it seemed like he had no intention of helping him at all.

'Your Honor! I am your subordinate, the brains of the team. If I'm ruined by them, how can I strategize for you in the future?'

Ye Hua tossed Jue Tian in his hand, and the poor cat let out a miserable cry as it arced through the air and landed in Brittany's arms.

"Thank you for your mercy, Your Honor." Brittany's face was filled with joy as she pinched Jue Tian's cheeks and held him tightly.

She used to squeeze him like this. Jue Tian felt like he was suffocating. This woman was clearly retaliating against him. He might meet his demise one day.

'Your Honor, you're about to lose a subordinate...'

Watching the three women squeezing Jue Tian, Ye Hua paused for a moment. After all the bullying Jue Tian had done to others, it was time for them to vent their frustrations.

'Don't blame this deity. This deity is doing this for your own good, Jue Tian.'

Listening to Jue Tian's miserable cries, Ye Hua disappeared from the scene. He didn't know where to go. He felt bored.

He really wanted a powerful opponent to appear, but unfortunately, the heavens didn't give him that hope. It made him unable to have a proper fight. Their strength was too weak.

The only ones who could fight the avatar were a few of his subordinates. Should he invite Ye Zizi for a fight? He felt a bit restless with nothing to do.

Chapter 659 (They've Arrived...)

Back at Leisure Ba, Ye Hua really went to find Ye Zizi. Pushing the door open, he saw Ye Zizi playing games with Yun Lang lying next to her.

Yun Lang was currently enjoying this kind of life, eating and sleeping, going out for a stroll at night, teasing some female dogs. He was living a carefree life.

This situation was very similar to how Lie Gu lived back then. What's wrong with being a dog? How fortunate!

Don't think it's embarrassing, think of it as honorable. Then everything will be perfect.

"What game are you playing? Come and fight with me," Ye Hua said calmly while sitting beside her.

Ye Zizi tilted her eyes and looked at the avatar, then continued playing her game. "No."

"Ye Zizi, you've become quite bold now, daring to defy my orders!" Ye Hua said in a deep voice.

Ye Zizi was taken aback for a moment, took off her headphones, then pounced into Ye Hua's embrace and playfully punched his chest with her small fists before continuing to play her game. "Alright, I'm done."

Ye Hua: "..."

"Ye Zizi!" Ye Hua scolded lightly. This was too much!

"Your Honor, I can't beat you anyway, so please don't bully me," Ye Zizi wouldn't dare to fight Your Honor. Last time was an accident. Now that her mind was back to normal, how could she lay a hand on him?

This would be rebelling against him. She wouldn't even use her true strength in a fight, making it even more impossible to win.

Ye Hua lay on his sister-in-law's bed, lit a cigarette, and understood why Ye Zizi wouldn't fight him.

Ye Zizi glanced at him and whispered, "Your Honor, we're all so bored. Why don't we go over there earlier so we can have some action?"

Ye Zizi's suggestion was indeed tempting, and Ye Hua had considered it, but he wanted to wait until the children grew up a bit before going back. It was still too early to go back now.

"Play your game. The plan remains unchanged," Ye Hua said lightly. He no longer felt like smoking and extinguished the cigarette before lying down on the bed to sleep.

Ye Zizi sighed softly. Besides games, it seemed like there was nothing else that made her happy. She really wished these five years would pass quickly. It was really boring.

It wasn't just Ye Zizi who felt this way. The other subordinates were all the same, exploding with boredom and feeling uncomfortable all over.

In the following month, Ye Hua continued to be bored. He occasionally had secret affairs with his sister-in-law, seeking some excitement, and then waited for trouble to come knocking on his door.

But there was a problem!

Now that the Void Realm's situation had been rectified, that meant...

No one came looking for trouble anymore. So why was he still doing all these things? Although it made Qing Tiandi suffer, it also made him feel frustrated. It was really annoying. Only his sister-in-law could help him vent his anger.

Unexpectedly, Qing Yutong was particularly skilled at pleasing Ye Hua. She obediently did whatever he wanted, just like a little kitten. It was a level of enjoyment that couldn't be found with Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi.

Qing Yutong was completely different from Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi. It made him quite pleased. It wasn't in vain to have her as his sister-in-law.

However, Qing Yutong was feeling depressed. She had done so much, but her brother-in-law didn't pay attention to her. It was frustrating. He only cared about his own comfort and never considered her feelings. He was really rotten to the core.

And on this day, a major event was about to occur!

The personnel from the Time-Space Bureau were coming to inspect their work. Shi Zhengao led everyone in waiting for the arrival of the director of the bureau.

However, no one expected that the office of the Time-Space Bureau was actually quite ordinary, just a typical office building.

Three Cayenne SUVs could be seen approaching from a distance, making Shi Zhengao even more nervous. The person behind him, Wu Liu, kept his head low, stealing glances. He had no idea what kind of person the director of the bureau was.

As the Cayenne vehicles parked steadily downstairs, Shi Zhengao was the first to get out and open the car door. Several bodyguards got out of the two cars in front and back, dressed in plain attire.

Two familiar faces stepped out of the cars, faces that Ye Hua would definitely recognize if he were here.

One was Ji Yang, the director of the Time-Space Bureau, and the other was Zhuang Hong, one of the Three Great Martial Kings.

"This planet is really backward," Zhuang Hong murmured softly after getting out of the car, a hint of disdain in his expression.

Shi Zhengao didn't know how to respond to that comment, but he thought that since he could sit in a car with the director of the bureau, his status should be quite high.

"Director, hello, I am in charge here, Shi Zhengao," Shi Zhen Gao respectfully said to the silent Ji Yang.

Before Ji Yang could speak, Zhuang Hong chuckled and said, "Shi Zhengao, your name is quite interesting."

Shi Zhengao looked embarrassed. He really didn't know what to say this time. These people were completely out of his league.

Ji Yang stood with his hands behind his back and said calmly, "Lead the way, let's go inside and take a look."

"Please, Director," Shi Zhengao bowed and said.

Ji Yang and Zhuang Hong walked in front, followed by the bodyguards. Of course, there were also the nervous Shi Zhengao, Wu Liu, and others.

Zhuang Hong walked beside Ji Yang and leaned over, saying, "You actually wanted to come and see this trashy planet. What suffering."

"Can you please stop talking?" Ji Yang furrowed his brow. Originally, his inspection visit had nothing to do with Zhuang Hong, but the president insisted on having Zhuang Hong accompany him, claiming it was for support, but in reality, it was for surveillance.

It seems that after that incident, the president's trust in himself has plummeted. This is very bad. He even sent someone to accompany him during the inspection, talking incessantly along the way. It's like my brain is about to explode from all the chatter.

Zhuang Hong smiled and shrugged, "Director Ji, if you have too much pent-up frustration, just find a way to release it. Although this planet is a bit backward, there are still women here. Don't hold it in."

Ji Yang took a deep breath, clearly getting quite angry.

Seeing Ji Yang silenced by his words, Zhuang Hong didn't continue to provoke him. It was better to stop at an appropriate time.

Shi Zhengao, who was trailing behind, overheard some of the conversation. 'Who exactly was this man who didn't take Director Ji seriously? And it seemed that Director Ji didn't want to pay any attention to him either.'

But was it because he didn't want to or because he didn't dare to? Shi Zhengao couldn't figure it out. It was best to stay out of these high-level matters and just prepare for the upcoming discussions.

The group of people ascended the stairs under the curious gazes of others.

"Director Ji, please."

"Take me to have a look," Ji Yang said calmly.

Shi Zhengao had originally wanted to please him with some words, but he didn't expect Director Ji to directly want to see the progress of his work.

It seemed that he couldn't easily deceive him.

They arrived directly at the office.

"Director Ji, please have a seat," Shi Zhengao said respectfully.

Ji Yang sat on the boss chair and skillfully turned on the system, slowly conducting his inspection.

Shi Zhengao stood anxiously by the side, waiting for feedback.

Zhuang Hong sat beside him, sipping tea with a hint of a smile on his lips.

"Director Shi," Ji Yang said calmly.

Shi Zhen Gao's heart skipped a beat, and he quickly asked, "What instructions do you have, Director Ji?"

"There are issues with your work," Ji Yang turned off the system and reprimanded him sternly.

Chapter 660 (Young Man, You're Overthinking)

This was within Shi Zhengao's expectations. Over the years, they had only been catching small fry, not a single big fish. If Director Ji showed no reaction to this, then something was truly amiss.

Shi Zhengao hurriedly explained, "Director Ji, you're not aware of the situation here. We're short-staffed, and the welfare benefits are poor. Many people are unwilling to work. It was said that equipment would be distributed, but we still haven't seen anything."

"They haven't been distributed yet?" Ji Yang said in a low voice.

"Yes, it's been delayed all this time."

Zhuang Hong chuckled lightly, "Your Time-Space Bureau is really corrupt, one pit after another. Once you're here, there's nothing left. Or... is it because of you, Director Ji?"

"Zhuang Hong! That's enough," Ji Yang reprimanded Zhuang Hong. He didn't know how many negative things he would have to report to the president this time.

"Director Ji, no need to get angry. It's quite normal," Zhuang Hong disregarded it and continued.

Ji Yang wished he could just stab Zhuang Hong to death.

Shi Zhengao, standing on the side, seemed to have figured something out. Could it be that this man was here to supervise him? That's why Director Ji didn't dare to provoke him.

After a while, Ji Yang calmed down and continued to ask, "Even if there are issues with the equipment and welfare, it shouldn't result in such little progress!"

"Director Ji, you may not be aware, but this planet, although backward, is at the center of time-space chaos. Countless 'illegal regressors' choose to come here, so the situation is very complicated. There are numerous powerful individuals, and our bureau has suffered heavy casualties. We truly have the will but lack the capability."

Upon hearing Shi Zhengao's words, Zhuang Hong sneered, "Powerful individuals? It's just an excuse. No matter how powerful these regressors are, with your capabilities, it should be more than enough. Unless it's because Director Ji is turning a blind eye?"

Bang!

Ji Yang slammed the table, "Zhuang Hong! Do you believe I'll report you to the President?"

"Oh, now you're angry. Seems like you're feeling a bit guilty," Zhuang Hong taunted.

Shi Zhengao felt that an opportunity had arisen and respectfully said, "Sir, it's true. This planet has many powerful individuals. I'm not lying."

"Oh? Then give me an example," Zhuang Hong curiously asked.

"Voidless Realm, it's the most powerful force on this planet, and there are also regressors within. But I can only watch from the sidelines," Shi Zhengao seemed to want to shout out in frustration at his own powerlessness.

Zhuang Hong crossed his legs and smiled, "Director Ji, your subordinate is facing difficulties. How about lending a hand? We've been traveling together for months, and I've been so bored. Let's have some action. It'll also let you show off your might in front of your subordinates."

Ji Yang's chest heaved up and down. He really wanted to chop off Zhuang Hong's head so that the world could be peaceful.

Hearing these words, Shi Zhengao felt a sense of relief. If the two of them took action, they would definitely be able to overthrow the Voidless Realm.

As for why they wanted to eliminate the Voidless Realm, Shi Zhengao felt that the Voidless Realm's prestige was growing larger and even surpassing that of the Time-Space Bureau.

Previously, the three major powerhouses coexisted peacefully, and everyone seemed to be on an equal footing. However, the situation has changed now, and the Voidless Realm has gained overwhelming dominance. This is something Shi Zhengao doesn't want to see.

Therefore, he wants to use someone else's hand to overthrow the Voidless Realm, thereby solidifying his own position. It's actually a psychological need for stability because the Time-Space Bureau cannot afford to expose itself. But Shi Zhengao doesn't want to see others becoming powerful, as it would make him appear incapable.

"Have you said enough?" Ji Yang's voice sounded stern.

Zhuang Hong calmly took a sip of tea and said, "Director of the Time-Space Bureau, did I speak the truth just now?"

Shi Zhengao quickly shut his mouth. It's better to stay out of this battle. However, he secretly agreed with Zhuang Hong's words. He wanted them to take action, but he couldn't say it out loud.

How could Ji Yang possibly interfere in their affairs? But upon hearing Zhuang Hong's words, he felt especially displeased.

Moreover, he had been holding back his anger recently. Even if he didn't teach Zhuang Hong a lesson, he had to vent his frustration on someone!

"Alright! Zhuang Hong, you can go and warm up your hands!" A ruthless glint flashed in Ji Yang's eyes. It would be a pleasant surprise if Zhuang Hong met his demise in battle.

Thinking of this, Ji Yang seemed to have made up his mind. If he let Zhuang Hong go, he might end up speaking ill of him in front of the President. It would be better to eliminate him directly.

Moreover, it was Zhuang Hong who suggested it himself. In a battle, casualties were inevitable. When the time came, Ji Yang would make some arrangements, and Zhuang Hong would lose his life on this so-called mediocre planet!

"With me, Director Ji, taking action, all the problems are no longer problems. Isn't that right, Director?" Zhuang Hong chuckled softly, a hint of malicious intent hidden deep in his gaze.

It seemed that Zhuang Hong was not only here for supervision but also had other motives involved.

Ji Yang wanted to kill Zhuang Hong, and perhaps Zhuang Hong also wanted to kill Ji Yang. Maybe it was even an order from the President. Otherwise, why would Zhuang Hong keep provoking Ji Yang? There must be some conspiracy behind it...

Shi Zhengao couldn't figure out the intricacies of the situation, but as long as they were willing to go, he had no reason to worry. What else could he do?

"Of course, with Director Ji taking the lead, everyone else will have to step aside." Shi Zhengao flattered, giving up any thoughts of promotion.

Ji Yang's voice turned heavy as he asked, "What is this Voidless Realm?"

"The Voidless Realm is one of the three powerhouses on this planet, and it has a long history. Its leader is a woman, and her man is a regressor."

Upon hearing this, Zhuang Hong burst into laughter. "Long history... do we have a long history?"

Shi Zhengao respectfully said, "Of course, we don't have a long history."

Ji Yang stood up and said in a low voice, "Then let's go and deal with this matter, let you stretch your muscles!"

"Let's go and stretch our muscles," Zhuang Hong stood up and shrugged his shoulders.

Shi Zhengao hurriedly said, "Director Ji, don't we need to understand the situation better?"

Before Ji Yang could speak, Zhuang Hong boldly said, "Understand the situation? Is it a dangerous place? Is it a one-way trip? Young man, you're overthinking. Look at the entire galaxy, who can..."

Zhuang Hong froze before he could finish his sentence.

Ji Yang sneered, "Who can?"

Zhuang Hong's mouth twitched slightly, and he quickly remembered that day...

It was the day of national humiliation when an individual suppressed the entire Canglie Star. They were powerless to fight back, and even the President was forced to kneel before the opponent.

It was such a disgrace, as if their dignity was thrown on the ground and brutally trampled upon.

Shi Zhengao looked at the reactions of the two and was also puzzled. What was happening?

Their expressions seemed to carry fear and unwillingness...

"Lead the way," Ji Yang said calmly.

If he knew that their target this time was that man again, his expression would probably be quite spectacular.
