

My Woman 713

Chapter 713 (I Was Wrong)

Lie Gu was a bit confused, feeling like a fish out of water.

It was terrifying to think that his future wife wanted to drown him with water.

However, Lie Gu was overthinking. The water from the wrapping actually seeped into his body!

In the blink of an eye, it disappeared.

Lie Gu stood dumbfounded in place, looking at the shocked and stunned Your Honor. 'This...'

'She was too impatient. Since we have merged and become one...'

'But if we've become one, who am I supposed to find? This move won't work. The other move is still awesome.'

Just as Lie Gu was happily thinking about it, he suddenly felt something was wrong...

When did his hand raise up and clench into a fist?

Bang!

Lie Gu's right hand punched himself directly, and his body slammed into the wall, piercing through the Nanwu Banner...

"My Nanwu Banner!" Kai Yun clutched his chest and exclaimed.

But it didn't end there. Lie Gu initiated a self-torture mode, torturing himself from the sky to the ground and from the ground to the sky. The entire Nanwu Banner was riddled with holes, shattering Kai Yun's heart.

Ye Hua's face was heavy, silently contemplating.

And Donghuang Baizhi gently held her husband's large hand, offering comfort.

This is the true form of Yue Hua! She can actually control others!

She even controlled Lie Gu, the embodiment of her seven sins. This true form is too terrifying!

If she were to control her true self... Ye Hua didn't know if she could resist. She felt that she had only touched the tip of the iceberg before. The shock brought by the Nanwu Banner this time was truly astonishing.

It wasn't known how long it took, but Lie Gu finally regained control.

His face was already beaten into a pig's head, covered in blood...

"Yue Hua, you've tormented me countless times, and yet, I still treat you as my true love," Lie Gu muttered, then coughed up blood.

Bang!

Another punch.

It felt like Yue Hua was taking revenge on Lie Gu.

Although Lie Gu was beaten badly by himself, it wasn't fatal, just some superficial injuries.

"Yue Hua, I really like you," Lie Gu's teeth were partially knocked out, and he spoke with a lisp.

Just as he finished speaking, Lie Gu punched himself in the stomach, almost popping his eyeballs out.

Lie Gu still didn't give up, "Yue Hua, even if you kill me today, I will still love you."

However, the following action sent shivers down the spines of all the men present.

Lie Gu performed a monkey stealing peaches move on himself. [An earthshattering move to crush one's testicals.]

This terrified Lie Gu, and he hurriedly said, "Yue Hua, let's talk. We mustn't do this. There are rules in the martial world. We can't attack below the belt." Lie Gu had no choice but to make up excuses. When your lifeblood is caught, any man would bow down and beg for mercy.

"Your Honor! Save me!" Lie Gu shouted towards Yuehua in the spectator stands. This woman is too perverted, daring to keep such a move in reserve.

Yue Hua ignored him directly, thinking that it would explode soon.

As he contemplated, Lie Gu, who had exploded his own body, was on the verge of going insane, and his true form was faintly about to be revealed.

Yue Hua sensed it and cursed Lie Gu silently.

Lie Gu couldn't control the situation. Any man would find it unbearable in such circumstances.

Nevertheless, Lie Gu felt that once he transformed into his true form, Yue Hua would lose control over him. Lie Gu believed that Yue Hua's control was directed only at human bodies.

At this moment, Yue Hua didn't want Lie Gu to reveal his true form. He spoke up, saying, "This fight is getting boring. Let's have the next round."

"What's boring about it? I find it quite entertaining. I want to see more, Yue Hua, don't stop," said Kai Yun with a snort. 'If you say stop, then stop. Wouldn't I lose face like this?'

Upon hearing Kai Yun's words, Lie Gu felt like he was done for and quickly said, "Yue Hua, I was wrong. I won't pursue you as my wife anymore..."

Surprisingly, after saying these words, Lie Gu felt much better.

Now he had to consider both Your Honor and winning. How could that be possible?

'Your Honor, the task you gave me is too difficult.'

Water stains appeared on Lie Gu's skin, slowly flowing to the ground, transforming into Yue Hua, still as beautiful as ever.

Lie Gu let out a sigh of relief. This woman is so fierce.

"Yue Hua, well done," Kai Yun applauded with a smile. He felt that Yue Hua had restored his dignity by making the other party apologize directly.

Yue Hua smiled lightly at Kai Yun and then coldly snorted at Lie Gu.

Although Lie Gu didn't admit defeat, saying "I was wrong" was no different from surrendering.

Donghuang Baizhi chuckled and said, "Why do I feel like they are flirting with each other?"

"Hehe..." Ye Hua felt unhappy. He brought Lie Gu and Ye Zizi here to achieve a complete victory, but unexpectedly, the opponent forced Lie Gu to reveal his true form.

If Donghuang Baizhi wasn't present, it wouldn't matter, but the fact was she was there, and she would see Lie Gu's true form. It would be better if he lost a match.

Ye Hua didn't want to try their passive-aggressive methods anymore.

With a bruised and swollen face, Lie Gu walked slowly to Ye Hua's side, feeling extremely embarrassed. Even the Death Mage could fight the Bai Gu to a draw, but himself... unexpectedly...

"Your Honor... I..." Lie Gu didn't know how to speak.

"Forget it, let's not talk about it," Ye Hua knew that Lie Gu was thinking for his sake and decided not to reprimand him. He reached out and gently touched him, and Lie Gu's injuries instantly healed, becoming completely new.

Lie Gu felt dejected as he retreated behind Ye Hua. Standing next to him, Ye Zizi made a grimace at Lie Gu and teased, "Shame, shame, shame."

Well, he was mocked by Ye Zizi...

"Young man, your subordinate is nothing special. I had planned to arrange Yue Hua for your subordinate, but unfortunately..." Kai Yun raised his index finger and shook it, full of pretentiousness.

Yue Hua sat behind Kai Yun again, holding him in her arms. Upon hearing the leader's words, her pretty face showed a hint of strangeness. It was indeed a bit embarrassing just now. If she hadn't done that, how would the other party have admitted defeat?

However, Yue Hua was also curious. Why didn't Lie Gu transform into his true form? If he had, she would have lost control over him, and he wouldn't have needed to admit defeat. At the very least, it would have been a draw.

Could it be that he was letting me off?

Thinking this, Yue Hua's gaze fell upon the aggrieved Lie Gu.

Ye Hua felt unhappy upon hearing such words, but he was helpless. He was a top existence in the realm of pretentiousness, yet today he had lost face.