

Chapter 18 How do I care? How can I care?

The assistant didn't understand, "Mr.Karl, you mean..."

Albert smiled contemptuously, "Go and bail Lacey out."

That poisonous lipstick did not cause casualties but made people unconscious for a few days. As long as Albert wanted to bail her out, it was easy.

.....

On the afternoon of the third day, Lacey was taken to Albert's office.

At this time, Lacey was very sad and rushed to Albert's arms, "Albert... Fortunately, you are there, otherwise, I don't know how long I will stay in the cell."

Albert put his hands in his pants pocket and did not respond to her movements.

But he said faintly, "You tell me the truth. Is it you planned the lipstick incident and you were 'violated', as well as the affairs of Aaron and Susan?"

Lacey stiffed.

Not saying a word.

Albert was waiting for her answer.

Lacey also hated the mysterious man who cooperated with her. He clearly said that he would let Albert marry her. Now, he directly sent her to the police station.

Damn it!

But how could she tell Albert about such a thing now?

If he knew that she set up him and Susan, would he be angry?

Seeing that she didn't answer for a long time, Albert smiled, "Lacey, I know you wouldn't come up with so many tricks. The poisonous drugs on the lipstick can't be bought by ordinary people. You can't get such a moderate amount of drugs and imperceptible colorless and tasteless things."

It turned out that Albert had already doubted, and Lacey was a little afraid, "Albert, L..."

Albert continued, "Tell me the truth, or I can't save you."

As soon as she heard that she had to go back to the police station, Lacey immediately cried.

"L... I just love you too much. Although you are with me, you never divorce Susan. I'm afraid. When I get old, you won't marry me... I want you to divorce Susan..."

"So?"

"A mysterious man found me. He said that as long as I cooperate with him, you and Susan can get divorced... Pretending to be violated was to make the contradiction between you and Susan bigger. Later, I broke out the information about the relationship between the three of us, and then I did the lipstick incident now. If Susan does such a thing, the Karl family will abandon her. Then you will divorce her, and then I can be with you forever... But... "

"But I didn't expect that the mysterious man didn't show up for some reason. I didn't expect that Susan would have Aaron to help her get out of danger. It seems that the mysterious man is also useless..."

Albert face's became fierce, "So once this is investigated, you are the scapegoat. That man plays a good trick."

Albert pushed away Lacey, "Give me your cell phone!"

Lacey trembled and handed her phone to Albert.

Albert called the assistant in, handed the mobile phone to him, whispered a few words in the assistant's ear, and then let him go out.

Lacey didn't understand, "What are you doing with my mobile phone?"

"You don't have to worry about this. You have to listen to me next. Otherwise, no one can save you!"

Lacey hugged his arm. "I'm afraid of nothing if you are with me. I just want you to accompany me."

Albert lightly put away her hand, "I still have job to do. You can sit on the sofa."

After about half an hour, the assistant came in again and returned the phone to Lacey.

Albert said, "You go back first. I have other things to do."

.....

As soon as Lacey left, a cold smile appeared on Albert's face.

He touched his chin, turned his chair, saw the sunshine outside in the early autumn afternoon, then got up, picked up his coat, and went out of the door.

He came to Susan's company.

At this time, Susan was sitting in the office in a daze. Now everything was normal.

If they don't divorce quickly, Albert would find this child's existence easily.

The door of the office was opened suddenly.

Susan looked over and saw a clean and handsome man.

At the same time, she frowned, "What's the matter?"

Albert had a light smile on his face. "I come for my wife."

He came towards her little by little, Susan just looked at him quietly.

The man who wanted to strangle her that day, how could he come for her today?

As long as they quarreled, he would never take the initiative to talk to her, and now.....

Not only spoke to her, but also came in person, and such a gentle tone?

What happened to him?

Susan was a little confused and looked up at the man who had come to her. "What do you want?"

Albert leaned over and his handsome face was very close to her.

Albert pinched her chin and forced her to turn to face him. His deep eyes locked on her face.

"Stay away from Aaron!"

It turned out to be this thing. Aaron just helped Susan's company. How could she keep a distance from him?

They were good friends now.

Although he may not regard her as a friend, in Susan's heart, he was her friend.

"He is my friend and has helped me a lot. I can't have no intersection with him at all."

"Oh? Do you think you have met your prince?"

"Albert, if you have something to say, just say it. Don't be weird."

Albert leaned close to her, "I'm weird? Did you forget your identity because you were spoiled by him?"

Susan was a little annoyed. "There is nothing between Aaron and me, but there is everything between you and Lacey. Why can you make love with other women and not allow me to make friends with other men? You are not good to me, and I can't accept others' kindness to me?!"

"I'm not good to you? How good are you to me?"

What have you done in addition to forcing our marriage?"

"Did you regard yourself as my wife? What qualifications do you have to ask me to treat you well? Who do you consider me as?"

Susan met his eyes and was in a bad mood. "How do I care? How can I care? Is it enough for me to think of myself as your wife? Will you admit it? Will you?"

"How do you know I won't admit it? Huh?!"

His anger was completely exposed, and the veins in his forehead could be seen.

Susan was frightened by his roar and didn't understand the meaning of his words. Her whole person was freaked.

Before she had a clear idea, her lips were kissed hard.

No, it was not a kiss, it was a bite.
