

Nine-Dragon 1181

Chapter 1181: Four Great Killers

“If you insist on visiting, we will assist you secretly.” Seeing Su Yu’s determination, the deities could only compromise.

Whether the plan would succeed all depended on whether Su Yu’s trip was smooth-sailing.

“No! Not only must you not leave, you should stay in the Pirate Deity’s cavern world,” Su Yu said. “As newly arrived pirates, the Pirate Deity will surely invite us to join his camp, and before the invitation, he will certainly order a thorough investigation of your identities.”

“We can hide under the identity of the Tuoba family for a while, but it will not be effective for long, so you should try to avoid going outside as much as you can. That way, those with ulterior motives don’t recognize you.”

As renowned deities of the Great Eastern Alliance, it would be completely normal if someone in the World of Divine Remains recognized them.

“Then you should be careful on your own, and inform us immediately of any mishap.” The All-Access Merchant God handed a jade pendant, which contained a full-force attack of his, to Su Yu. It could also be used to deliver messages. If Su Yu was in any difficult situation, they could hurry over instantly.

“Thanks a lot.” Su Yu accepted it and disappeared from the house like a puff of green smoke, only bringing along the Black Phoenix.

Somewhere not far from where they had encamped, Ah San was staring coldly at the inn, his hands behind his back.

Behind him, a Peak Mortal Fairy who was adept at the Path of Invisibility was half kneeling.

“Have they done anything suspicious?” Ah San asked.

The Peak Mortal Fairy was an expert in collecting information. “Reporting to Lord Ah San,” he replied, “they have not made any major moves since their encampment, but their leader, Tuoba Yun, has left the inn.”

“Left? Where is he now? Whom has he come into contact with?”

The Peak Mortal Fairy said, “He hasn’t met with anyone, but he has gone all the way to the divine-level transmission port and is heading for the cavern world of the Netherworld Faction.”

What? Ah San was surprised. “The Netherworld Faction? You’re saying that he hasn’t hesitated once and has headed straight for the Netherworld Faction? He didn’t make any stops along the way?”

“Exactly!” The Peak Mortal Fairy said.

Ah San pondered for a moment and nodded deeply. “Alright, keep watching his every move.”

As he spoke, Ah San disappeared from the house in an instant. The next moment, he had appeared at the harbor, right by the side of the Pirate Deity.

“Reporting to Pirate Deity, it was just as you expected. The purpose of their visit is somewhat strange. The leader Tuoba Yun has headed straight for the Netherworld Faction after just a short rest and has not made any stops along the way. They have most probably come to the World of Divine Remains this time to visit the Netherworld Faction.”

The Pirate Deity kept his gaze pinned on the galaxy and scowled lightly. “The Netherworld Faction... Is this sorehead third son thinking of hiring killers to finish off his big brother and seize control of the Tuoba family?”

“If he was that childish, he wouldn’t have survived until now. Keep checking! What is their reason for going to the Netherworld Faction? Besides, figure out a way to verify their identities.”

“It is kind of coincidental that the second son’s henchmen and related family members fled to the World of Divine Remains after the second son was killed. Invite them over and have them verify their identities.”

“Yes!” Ah San replied. He hoped that bunch of people were impersonators, so he could openly detain them and that sexy, mesmerizing little beauty.

Ever since he had seen the Sheng Deity, Ah San had been dreaming of her day and night. Her figure was stuck in his brain and could never be removed again.

Swish!

After a few divine-level transmissions, Su Yu arrived at the Netherworld Faction cavern world half a day later.

This was a world created by the Death Deity, but the creatures here had no clue about where the Netherworld Faction was. All they knew was that it was a mysterious yet powerful organization.

When they found themselves in front of a village with smoke spiraling from the chimneys, Su Yu was slightly astonished. “I never expected the universally renowned Netherworld Faction, whose name terrifies people, to be located in a small village like this.”

The village was serene and tranquil. At dusk, the cattlemen led their cattle back home, and the elderly people took leisurely strolls at the entrance to the village.

“True isolation means hiding in a bustling city. This is the reason the location of the Netherworld Faction’s headquarters has remained a mystery till this day,” the Black Phoenix explained.

“But you were an exception.”

“Yes, so I am going to die soon,” the Black Phoenix said.

As she finished, a gruff, hoarse voice sounded out of nowhere, “It is best that you have that awareness, so we don’t have to raise a hand!”

The voice resonated in the bleak heavens and quickly condensed into four beams of light, befalling in the surroundings of the Black Phoenix and Su Yu and besieging them.

Four early-stage Prospective Deities!

“Green Dragon, White Tiger, Rosefinch, Tortoise, long time no see.” The Black Phoenix stepped forward soundlessly to keep Su Yu behind her.

Tortoise was the one who spoke just now. He was staring coldly at the Black Phoenix. “Having failed the mission and brought unprecedented shame upon the Netherworld Faction, you should have sought redemption by death!”

“But you betrayed the Death Deity and sought survival by becoming a servant to the Feather Deity! And now, you were daring enough to bring strangers to the headquarters of the Netherworld Faction and even to divulge our secrets. You deserve to be killed a thousand times over!”

The Black Phoenix looked indifferent. “I have come to meet the Death Deity this time.”

“Don’t waste your effort! Even if you had not betrayed the Netherworld Faction, you wouldn’t get a chance to meet the Death Deity. Now that you have become a traitor, you certainly never will. The Death Deity will not grant you amnesty.” Tortoise thought that the Black Phoenix might be thinking of pleading with the Death Deity for mercy.

The Black Phoenix said, “I have my reason for meeting the Death Deity.”

“Reason? Even if you die a hundred times, the Death Deity will not take another look at you!” Tortoise growled and prepared to strike.

“I have brought the person who made me fail my mission,” the Black Phoenix stated unhurriedly.

What? The four Prospective Deities were taken aback as their eyes fell upon Su Yu who was standing behind the Black Phoenix. “He is the Feather Deity of the Great Eastern Alliance? Black Phoenix, you really have guts don’t you? You revealed the location of the Netherworld Faction’s headquarters to the Great Eastern Alliance!”

With that, not just Tortoise, the Green Dragon, the White Tiger and Rosefinch all gave off murderous vibes all at once.

Just as they were about to strike, a nonchalant voice floated from the desolation. “You aren’t qualified to meet the Death Deity yet. Return and forget about this place.”

The “you” that he mentioned was referring to Su Yu.

Upon hearing that, the four great Prospective Deities shuddered at the same time. “Lord Xiaoyao!”

The Black Phoenix put on a look of reverence. "Black Phoenix here, meeting Lord Xiaoyao."

Although the man hadn't appeared, he gave Su Yu a sense of oppression that far exceeded the early-stage Prospective Deities.

"The one from the Great Eastern Alliance, you may go." The voice paused. "But Black Phoenix stays."

The Black Phoenix quivered. If she stayed, a death sentence awaited her.

Su Yu asked, "What if I don't let her stay?"

"The will of the Death Deity has no grounds for bargaining! You may live not because the Death Deity has mercy on you, but because the Black Phoenix is going to die on your behalf, do you understand? If you insist on taking her away, you have to stay too."

Su Yu smiled. "I don't plan on taking her... but neither am I planning to let her stay!"

"Kill them both then," Xiaoyao ordered indifferently.

Green Dragon and the three others snorted coldly. "Looking for your own deaths!"

Swish!

The four Prospective Deities charged forward. With a low growl, the Black Phoenix flashed to stand in front of Su Yu and attacked without any hesitation. At the same time, she said, "Master, I'm afraid we won't get to meet the Death Deity today. Please go back on your own and forget about me."

As a deity controlled by Su Yu, the Black Phoenix would willingly sacrifice herself for him.

As she spoke, she was caught up in a fight with the four Prospective Deities.

She ranked first among the top ten early-stage Prospective Deities and they were no match for her in any one-to-one duels.

But being confronted by four opponents at once, she got into a position of disadvantage very soon.

The Green Dragon seized the upper hand and charged brutally, launching the Green Dragon's Growl and emitting sound waves with the divine energy gathered in his body.

With a flip of her hand, the Black Phoenix conjured up a vortex transformed from divine energy in front of her and dissolved the sound waves.

But the White Tiger seized the opportunity and divine energy surged on his left palm. His human palm turned into a pale tiger's claw all of a sudden, and he dragged it down with a lacerating force, tearing the Black Phoenix's body apart.

Right at that moment, the Black Phoenix opened her mouth and spat out a small dagger the size of a finger which was smeared with poison, aiming right at the White Tiger's face.

The White Tiger was caught unawares and had no choice but to recoil.

However, Rosefinch transformed into a fiery bird at that moment and penetrated the Black Phoenix's body with the force of a bright shadow.

In the blink of an eye, streaks of fiery red flames surged from the Black Phoenix's body, setting her entire body ablaze.

The Black Phoenix furrowed her brows deeply with a look of anguish on her face. All of her black flames rose from the Black Phoenix's body to resist the red flames from Rosefinch, barely keeping her on her feet.

Nonetheless, right at that moment, a shocking enormous force bombarded like an Almighty God, shattering her entire body.

It was Tortoise. Patterns of a tortoise shell emerged on both of his fists, and there was a taunting look of contempt on his face. "Opposing the Netherworld Faction is bringing destruction upon yourself!"

Praaa!

The shattered body of the Black Phoenix went up in black flames. She was on the verge of a Rebirth from Fire.

Tortoise chuckled and went forward to step on the flames, extinguishing them. No matter how the flames were rekindled, the Rebirth just wouldn't happen.

Tortoise lifted his head and looked at Su Yu. "When we asked you to leave, you refused. Did you really think the Black Phoenix could protect you? In the face of the Netherworld Faction, the Black Phoenix is nothing more than a speck of dust that could perish anytime. Even if you wish to leave now, it will be too late."

As he spoke, the shell patterns on Tortoise's palm slammed towards Su Yu's chest from across the air, carrying the gigantic force of the heavens and the earth.

Su Yu had a placid look on his face. With a grasp, he got hold of a blade of silver-white long sword and swung it right in front of his chest.

With a slashing sound, the silver sword struck Tortoise's arm, giving off a sound of metals colliding. Shortly after, a string of sparks went up.

"Middle-grade fairy sword, but too bad your cultivation is too weak, and you can't unleash any substantial force!" Tortoise was totally unruffled. He stuck out his hand and slapped it towards Su Yu's chest. His palm didn't even need to get near Su Yu to kill him with the vibration.

Su Yu asked, "A single sword didn't work, but how about nine of them?"

Praaaa!

All of a sudden, eight blades of silver swords shimmering with a glorious silver light floated around Tortoise. With the one in Su Yu's hand, there were nine blades altogether, forming a sword formation.

Nine blades of silver swords struck all at once forming many streaks of silver trajectories.

By the time the sword formation stopped operating, Tortoise stood on his spot. He had lost all of his vitality and was standing motionless. Apparently, his soul had perished as well.

Having slaughtered a Prospective Deity with just a few simple moves, Su Yu kicked the dead body away with a placid look on his face, so that the Black Phoenix could be reborn from fire.

After withdrawing the nine swords and shaking off the remnant blood on them, Su Yu shook his head calmly. "Worse than I imagined and at least far weaker than Black Phoenix. What a careless move to try and kill me."

The Green Dragon and the two others were petrified!

Tortoise wasn't the only careless one. They had been careless too. Having thought that Tortoise could destroy him easily, they had stood aside and watched. Who could have known...

"Green Dragon's Growl!" The Green Dragon's face changed dramatically, and he unleashed a deafening growl!

A green wave pounced forward, aiming straight at Su Yu.

Su Yu was unhurried, and he conjured a long bow with the Power of All Creations in his left hand. He placed a golden-yellow arrow on it and gently loosened his grip.

Swish!

The Fairy-Destroying Arrow carried streaks of divine energy with it as it stirred through the winds and clouds and pierced right through the sound wave. It penetrated the Green Dragon's body between breaths.

Layers of golden light lit up in the Green Dragon's body as he turned into golden dust just as the Central Prefecture's King had done.

The White Tiger and Rosefinch gasped in extreme terror and shock!

Chapter 1182: Nine-Star Honored Guest

"White Tiger's Transformation!" the White Tiger bellowed. It wasn't just his palm; his whole being had transformed into a colossal white tiger, emitting faintly discernible divine energy.

The tiger slammed its paw at Su Yu, that single blow landing like a mountain.

Su Yu was unruffled. All he did was touch his arm. A beam of emerald light flickered, and Shengge emerged with the Penta-Colored Chaotic Butterfly on her shoulder.

The butterfly fluttered its wings gently, and the humongous body of the white tiger shattered abruptly like porcelain. Its godly spirit also perished!

At that exact moment, the fiery bird transformed from Rosefinch pierced right through Su Yu's body.

The fiery red flames set Su Yu on fire very rapidly, gradually turning him into ashes.

But very creepily, the emerald heart did not stop beating amidst the dust and the ashes, and they condensed into a complete body all over again.

Rosefinch was in shock and before she could react, Su Yu, whose body was intact once again, was holding a long spear containing Evil Fatal Energy in his hand. It penetrated Rosefinch's body in a fraction of a second.

With a "pow", Rosefinch turned into ashes too.

In just a few short breaths, the four great Prospective Deities had been butchered unceremoniously.

Rosefinch had died the most unjustly. He had obviously killed Su Yu, yet immense vitality rose from the dead man's body out of nowhere, repairing his being and enabling him to deliver a fatal blow to Rosefinch.

Su Yu extracted the Evil Fatal long spear and shook his head in disappointment. "Were these really the early-stage Prospective Deities from the Netherworld Faction? They were much worse than I have expected."

In comparison with the Black Phoenix, they were far weaker than her in all aspects.

Previously, Su Yu had used all of those techniques combined on the Black Phoenix alone simply to tame her.

Despite her stupefaction, the Black Phoenix's face changed drastically. "Master, we have to leave right now! You have killed the Four Great Killers, and the Death Deity will not forgive you!"

Su Yu ignored her and raised his head to look up at the heavens. "Did I pass the trial then?"

The trial? The Black Phoenix was startled for a moment.

The figure of a human emerged slowly from the desolation. He was clad in a blue robe and had black hair and was looking at Su Yu with a small smile on his face.

"The Four Great Killers were indeed a trial for you. The Death Deity really wished to know how the first-ranking Black Phoenix and the second-ranking Jingang failed. Now I finally know the reason, and you have passed the trial!"

"However..." The black-haired, long-robed middle-aged man switched his tone swiftly, iciness glinting in his eyes. "However, the reward for passing the trial is... death!"

Wasn't the greatest reward that a Deity Deity could afford death?

"The Death Deity only ever sees two kinds of people: first, dead people and second, people who are about to die at his hands," Su Yu muttered to himself, with a placid look on his face. "It is indeed true."

The middle-aged man was slightly taken aback. Dispassionately, he said, "It's great that you understand."

Swish! Swish!

Four figures strode out from the interior of the village. They were the Four Great Killers that had passed away!

Su Yu wasn't surprised at all. He said, "The will of a Death Deity is truly unique. Whoever he wants dead has to die no matter what and whoever he wants alive will stay alive no matter what."

In the face of a deity who could manipulate life and death, Su Yu wasn't surprised that the Four Great Killers who should be dead were standing before him unscathed now.

Perhaps the Death Deity had made a change to their deaths.

"A Death Deity walks the Path of Death. They can endow one with death and can also deprive one of death. Brat, I was careless just now. Let us start again, and I will make sure you die this time!" The Green Dragon stared at Su Yu, with no hint of contempt in his eyes anymore.

Su Yu closed his eyes slowly and stood motionless on his spot. "Black Phoenix, step aside."

"Yes."

When he opened his eyes again, Su Yu looked at the four of them with indifference. "Let us begin!"

"Formation of Four Guardians!" The four Prospective Deities contributed their respective Divine Paths, and the virtual shadows of a green dragon, a white tiger, a rosefinch and a tortoise materialized vaguely behind them.

At that moment, the auras, divine energies and wills of the four of them formed a union, reaching a perfect state of four-in-one harmony.

"Infinite Formation of Four Guardians!" The four of them performed the skill simultaneously, and the virtual shadows behind their backs merged into one, conjuring into the nondescript figure of a peculiar beast.

The beastly shadow contained the combined divine energies and the consciousness of all four of them and slammed down with a furious growl.

The slam made the entire world grow dimmer, and the winds and clouds stirred in chaos. It far exceeded the power of early-stage Prospective Deities and was almost nearing the powerful standard of middle-stage Prospective Deities.

However, Su Yu still had a placid, unruffled look on his face as if nothing in the world could sweep him off his feet. With a flip of his palm, he retrieved a small rock the size of a palm and hurled it into the air.

All of a sudden, the Five Elements Mountain unleashed an intense wave of Power of Five Elements, and penta-colored brilliance shrouded the peculiar beast, freezing it in place and rendering it motionless.

The Five Elements Mountain the size of a palm struck its body.

The light blow that seemed completely haphazard abruptly shattered the peculiar beastly shadow into countless smithereens.

As they performed the skill, the faces of the four early-stage Prospective Deities changed theatrically, and they spat out mouthfuls of blood as their faces turned as pale as papers.

Shortly after, a Five Elements Mountain that was expanded by a hundred times descended with a thunderous boom, pressing down on the Four Great Killers.

Much to their terror, the Power of Five Elements unleashed by the mountain was unusually heavy, rendering them completely immobile and could not budge even an inch.

Su Yu stood on top of the Five Elements Mountain, and remarked calmly, "I'm still not planning to change my opinion that the early-stage Prospective Deities of the Netherworld Faction are just good-for-nothings."

The middle-aged man in a blue robe with black hair gazed at Su Yu, as his dispassionate look was replaced by a hint of fear. The mysterious Five Elements Mountain, in particular, had worried him.

Right at that moment, a genuinely spine-chilling, old and weathered voice seeped into every corner of the sky like a whiff of a breeze.

"Since you insist on dying at my hands, let us meet." With a sigh, a shocking wave of divine energy surged forth.

The next moment, Su Yu had appeared in a dark, vast hall.

There was a gargantuan sculpture of a deity in the vast hall. It was a maitreya that was pitch-black in color.

In front of the maitreya sat a cross-legged old monk in a regal cassock. He was fiddling with chanting beads in his left hand and gently knocking a wooden fish with his right.

The place was filled with the dense aroma of sandalwood and a Buddhist atmosphere. It was hard to imagine that this was the dwelling of the Death Deity, the most heartless and terrifying killer god.

Even more unbelievably, the malicious, gruesome and cold-hearted Death Deity was in fact, a monk.

"Greeting Death Deity," Su Yu said.

The old monk set down the wooden fish and turned around slowly, revealing his benevolent, kind senile face and the noble temperament of a Buddhist worshiper. It was truly hard to believe that the man before him was the famous Death Deity.

"Are you surprised?" The old monk asked placidly as he poured a cup of tantalizing tea for Su Yu.

Su Yu shook his head. "The co-existence of Buddha and demon, the body of a Buddha and the heart of a demon! It is still within my ability to comprehend."

The old monk put on a transcendental smile that made him as if he had risen above all worldly matters. "Throughout all these years, you are the only man who has seen me but wasn't surprised. Alright, tell me, you exchanged the chance to meet me with your death. What is that you want to talk about?"

"It's not because I want to say something. I am here to strike a deal with you." Su Yu tasted the tea calmly. "I came here as a guest this time."

The old monk nodded placidly. "The Netherworld Faction runs a business, and we never refuse anyone. Tell me, what deal do you wish to strike with me?"

Su Yu smiled and explained the matter through telepathy.

When he finished listening, the old monk's serene look was replaced by a solemn, grave one.

"This is not a small deal." The old monk heaved a gentle sigh after a long while and looked unwaveringly at Su Yu. "Young man, your opinion amazed me. Shall I call you overconfident or ambitious?"

Su Yu chortled. "I will take the latter."

The old monk fell silent. With the wisdom and experience of the Death Deity, he was thinking deeply about Su Yu's proposal. Only after a long moment did he nod. "The Netherworld Faction accepts your deal but will you keep your word?"

"Of course I will. All the deities of the Great Eastern Alliance have agreed to my suggestion." Su Yu retrieved the jade pendant from the All-Access Merchant God.

The old monk took one look at it and understood. Slowly, he nodded. "Fine, we accept the deal. After it is over and done with, I will come and collect my chips."

He wavered his sleeve when he finished, and Su Yu appeared outside the Netherworld Faction where he had just been standing. It was as though he had never left.

At that moment, a spine-chilling voice resonated from the Void.

"List this man as the nine-star honored guest of the Netherworld Faction. He has been granted permission to meet me without having to report."

Upon hearing that, the middle-aged man in the blue robe, the Four Great Killers, and the Black Phoenix were all astonished.

"Nine-star honored guest!!"

The middle-aged man couldn't help but look Su Yu up and down in utter disbelief. Apparently, he did not believe him.

The Four Great Killers were even less convinced.

The Black Phoenix was stupefied too. Astounded, she said, "Master, the honored guests of the Netherworld Faction are divided into nine grades. Even the nine deities of the World of Divine Remains are only qualified as seven-star honored guests."

"The King of All Gods of the Great Eastern and Western Alliances are only qualified as eight-star honored guests, and there is only one person who is on par with you!"

"The Demonic Emperor!"

"You are the second nine-star honored guest of the Netherworld Faction, Master." The Black Phoenix couldn't seem to appease the shock waves in her heart. She had not a single clue as to what kind of deal Su Yu had struck with the Death Deity within the brief moment that they had met.

Not only did the Death Deity forgive all of his wrongdoings, but he had also walked out totally unscathed as well and was even listed as a nine-star honored guest!

Even if the deal between them was for the Death Deity to destroy the World of Divine Remains, it wouldn't have added up to the standard of a nine-star honored guest either.

Just what kind of an earth-shattering deal had they agreed upon?

Swish!

With a light tap of his feet, Su Yu took back the Five Elements Mountain and released the Four Great Killers. With his hands behind his back, he said, "I will take the Black Phoenix with me."

When he finished, he left with the Black Phoenix by his side without ever turning back again, gradually disappearing into the distance.

Staring at Su Yu's back, the black-haired middle-aged man in a blue robe, as well as the Four Great Killers, could not seem to recover from the astonishment even after a long while.

The privilege of a nine-star honored guest was to be treated just like the Death Deity!

They had to obey all his orders, even letting him take the Black Phoenix, unless the Death Deity disallowed it.

In the distance, a black silhouette that had been silently observing Su Yu all this while vanished into the bleakness.

Half a day later, in the cavern world of the Pirate Deity.

Su Yu did not meet up with the deities immediately. Instead, he strolled around the most boisterous central part of the cavern world, the pirates' outlet, and observed.

This place was unsurprisingly the center of the black markets of the galaxies. Any prohibited items and the treasures of deities' families were sold in abundance. Some people were even selling humans.

"Qin Feichen and Sheng Yuanxin could be sold at a good price, I suppose," Su Yu jested.

Su Yu caught sight of a familiar figure all of a sudden. It was Ah San!

He was leading a gang of pirates that were escorting a group of men and women in ragged, tattered garments.

All of them looked extremely disheveled and miserable regardless of their ages.

"Ah San? Why is he escorting those people?" Su Yu doubted. "Black Phoenix, go find out what Ah San has captured them for."

Reasonably, it could be expected that Ah San should be accompanying the Pirate Deity in guarding the harbor. They were still expecting the deities from the Great Eastern Alliance so how could he have sent Ah San here alone?

This place was the center of the black market and was teeming with merchants that traded information. Before long, the Black Phoenix returned.

The Black Phoenix had an anxious look on her face. “Master, bad news! The people caught by Ah San are the Tuoba family members that are in exile here. They have escaped here because of the second son’s mishap! Ah San must have seized them under the Pirate Deity’s order, and they are going to confront our identity as Tuoba Yun!”

Su Yu raised his brows upon hearing her words. Was it such a coincidence that the people of the Tuoba family were present in the World of Divine Remains?

Things had become troublesome!

Once exposed, the Pirate Deity owned nine sets of God-Destroying Crossbows, and it was no laughing matter.

Chapter 1183: Treating People With Kindness

“There’s no other way now. We have to abduct those people first.” The unexpected development troubled Su Yu, but they were fortunate to have discovered it early, and it could still be rectified.

The Black Phoenix had come from the Path of Invisibility and was most adept at assassination and infiltration.

No one was more suitable than her when it came to killing, but she wasn’t exactly proficient in rescuing people.

“I’ll accompany you.”

A moment later, Su Yu and the Black Phoenix caught up with the group. Altogether, nine people were being escorted, and it was rather inconvenient for them to use the transmission port. Therefore, their journey had been slowed down.

“You deal with Ah San. I’ll take care of the rest. Don’t get recognized.” Su Yu gave the instruction.

The Black Phoenix nodded. Her facial muscles wriggled, and she adopted a whole new appearance in an instant. Her black dress was changed into a pink one, and she looked totally different from her usual self.

The Black Phoenix turned into a dark silhouette and quickly caught up with Ah San.

Ah San was also a Prospective Deity and even though the Black Phoenix’s Invisibility was incredible, how could it escape his perception?

“Who’s there?” Ah San bellowed, staring sharply behind him.

The other escorts saw nothing at all. Ah San was the only one who could decipher the Black Phoenix's Invisibility. He clearly saw a woman in a pink dress standing behind him.

The pink-dressed woman said nothing, but her eyes were filled with iciness as she charged forward in a flash with a dagger smeared with poison in her hand.

Her skill was swift and uncompromising, cruel and meticulous. Ah San tensed up and he dared not be careless as he growled, "Ah San's Hand!"

All of a sudden, shocking murky air was unleashed from his hand, scaring the pink-dressed woman off a little.

Rumor had it that Ah San came from a mysterious cavern world, where the creatures were fond of rubbing their buttocks with their left hands. As time passed, their left hands began reeking terribly, and Ah San was outstanding among them. With training, he turned it into a Divine Path and rose as a Prospective Deity.

Swish!

Although the pink-dressed woman recoiled, a poisonous needle shot out from her palm, piercing through the poisonous mist and penetrating Ah San's palm.

The intense poison made Ah San shudder, and he immediately began to suppress and dissolve it with his divine energy.

The Black Phoenix took the opportunity to get near him once again and struck at him like a phantom.

Ah San was anxious. This woman had about the same cultivation as him, but she was hard to shake off. Even the pirate Ah San who was no stranger to the battlefield found it challenging, and he had to fight her with all his might.

However, Ah San did not neglect the woman's intention. Vigilant, he ordered, "Escort the people to the transmission port right away and seek protection from the local guardians of the formation. Go now!"

With three great Peak Mortal Fairies leading the way, they escorted the Tuoba family members and quickly headed for the transmission port.

Before long, they disappeared from Ah San's line of sight. And right at that moment, Su Yu attacked.

A wave of Power of Five Elements headed down from the sky, and the immense oppressive force froze the three Peak Mortal Fairies and the other Mortal Fairy strong men in place. They were rendered immobile.

Shortly after, strong winds blew, and before they could clearly discern the attacker's appearance, the Tuoba family members had been taken away.

The Black Phoenix received Su Yu's command in her mind and stabbed Ah San with the dagger till he retreated. Then, she turned into smoke and dissipated.

Ah San dared not chase after her and quickly caught up with the group instead, but all that greeted him was a scattered mess.

In a deserted, bleak corner, Su Yu looked at the group of people who were huddled up with one another. They were clad in ragged, tattered clothes and had experienced much suffering and torture.

If Ah San hadn't been escorting them in person, it would be hard to believe that they once belonged to a deity's family.

"You are the people of the Tuoba family?" Su Yu asked.

Their cultivation wasn't high in general, with the highest among them being only a Third State Mortal Fairy. It was a delicate and comely young boy.

He was unexpectedly quite talented.

Upon hearing Su Yu, the young boy stepped forward and prepared to speak, but the elderly man beside him who was barely holding onto his life pulled his shirt and shook his head, hinting to him to keep quiet.

The boy seemed to be around fifteen years of age. Despite his petite size, he had a very clever mind. He said, "If he intends to kill us, he wouldn't have rescued us in the first place. Yes, we are people of the Tuoba family. Thank you so much for saving us."

It was never tiring to talk to clever people. Su Yu smiled. "Have you any idea why Ah San captured you?"

The boy replied, "I do. I overheard the discussion of the Pirate Deity's divine servants along the way, saying that there was a group of imposters who were pretending to be my third uncle, and we were needed to go forth and verify their identities."

Upon hearing that, Su Yu was slightly surprised. "Oh? You're the second young master's descendant?"

"My name is Tuoba Qingshan, and I am one of the descendants of the second heir of the Tuoba family, Tuoba Liuyun. All my other siblings were killed by my older uncle as we fled. I was the only one who got away, under the loyal protection of my people."

Su Yu said, "So that was it. It seems like you people weren't doing so well in the World of Divine Remains."

Despite his young age, Tuoba Qingshan had a mature character that didn't quite match his age. "We were living under someone else's roof and had no supportive background. Of course, in the World of Divine Remains, we ended up as a fat piece of meat in everybody's eyes."

"When we first came here three years ago, there were a hundred of us, but we are all that are left now. The rest of our people were either sold or have unfortunately died, and the young females of our family were all kidnapped and have not been heard of since."

"With only this handful of us left now, we are deteriorating day by day, roaming in the streets with nowhere to live, and it is only a matter of time before every last one of us perishes."

It was quite tragic, but of course, it was none of Su Yu's business.

The Black Phoenix's eyes were glimmering with an icy gleam as she said, "Master, shall we kill them all?"

Their existence was a latent crisis to Su Yu and all the other deities.

Tuoba Qingyun bit his lips hard. He had fathomed that the duo before him were the people who assumed his uncle's identity.

For safety purposes, their existence was a big threat.

Hence, their imminent fate was to be murdered!

"My savior, we are willing to be your followers."

Su Yu couldn't help but chuckle. What a bright, quick-witted little guy! Was he trying to survive by saying that?

He took a glance at the rest of them. All of them were trembling with fear and panic, their eyes filled with a piteous pleading look.

No one wanted to die, even when they were living a tragic, miserable life and were struggling every moment.

"Haha, there's no need for that," Su Yu said with soft laughter.

Tuoba Qingyun's heart sank as his eyes were filled with despair. Was he still going to murder them all?

Clink!

With a soft noise, Su Yu tossed a space ring in front of him.

"You have suffered an unnecessary disaster because of me; it wasn't my intention to kill you in the first place. However, I can't allow you to show your faces in the public anymore and risk the Pirate Deity finding out."

"These resources will suffice for a very long time. Before the resources get consumed, find yourself a deserted secret chamber to quietly recuperate in," Su Yu said.

He wasn't a bloodthirsty person. How could he kill the innocents?

Su Yu saw himself reflected in Tuoba Qingshan. In the past, when the Xianyu Prefecture was devastated, he had suffered the same depraved, anguished fate as the emperor's son-in-law.

Tuoba Qingshan's shrewdness had also gained his favor. That was why he had gifted them some resources.

Upon hearing that, Tuoba Qingshan was in disbelief. He had thought that they were going to be murdered but had received a great number of resources instead, with the mere condition that they had to be in hiding.

Tuoba Qingshan was touched by the unexpected outcome.

It wasn't that kind people did not exist, but in a place full of hidden dangers and evil everywhere like the World of Divine Remains, the kind people had become the corpses and skeletons at the roadside.

Having encountered Su Yu, Tuoba Qingshan felt genuinely grateful.

Su Yu waved his sleeves and departed gracefully. Before leaving, he reminded them, "Remember, do not show your faces in public."

"Yes!" Tuoba Qingshan bowed to offer his gratitude. They really had come across their benefactor today.

In the distance, the Black Phoenix heaved a faint sigh. "Master, you're being too merciful. Although these Tuoba people used to be kind, they have experienced three years of life in the World of Divine Remains. It was enough to change some of them. The World of Divine Remains is a place where no kindness is allowed to exist."

Su Yu replied placidly, "I know."

What? You knew? The Black Phoenix was startled for a few seconds. She could not understand Su Yu's rationale for doing that at all. He left the danger running wild, which could pose a threat to the safety of the deities and his own safety.

But having gotten along with him for some time now, the Black Phoenix knew that there was always a reason behind Su Yu's deeds and actions.

Although he had showered his mercy on those people today, he must have contemplated it beforehand; otherwise, he would never have dealt with the Tuoba people so perfunctorily.

In a derelict secret chamber, the people of the Tuoba family had found their new foothold. It was secluded and secure, a place suitable for hiding.

"Young Lord, we have run into a good man today," Tuoba Qingyun's old servant mused. "Having been in the World of Divine Remains for three years, this was the very first time I met a kindhearted person."

"Yes! We were very fortunate today!"

"Right, first he saved our lives, and then he let us go and even gave us loads of resources!"

Many people were grateful to Su Yu. Even though it was just some meager bounty, it was as glorious and valuable as the light of a matchstick in the darkness.

"Young Lord, I have a suggestion!" a thin, gaunt All Creations strong man with scars on his face who had obviously been through tremendous suffering said thoughtfully.

Tuoba Qingyun took a look at him, his eyes filled with trust. "Tuoba Jing, we are a family here. Just say whatever you have in mind."

Tuoba Jing glanced around at the family members and said in a low voice, “Have you people ever thought whether our lives would change after all these resources are depleted?”

No! They would return to their depraved homeless life and fall victim to people everywhere all over again, never seeing any hope for the rest of their lives.

“Right now, the opportunity to succeed in life is right in front of us. Why should we let go of it?” Tuoba Jing questioned.

Oh? The people realized what Tuoba Jing meant in an instant.

“The Pirate Deity needs us to point out the imposters of the Tuoba family. Why don’t we take the initiative and help him with it? It is said that the Pirate Deity is fair and just in meting out rewards and punishments. If we make a contribution, we shall be rewarded.”

“We could request a Divine Bone Ship from him and leave the World of Divine Remains and head for the faraway Great Eastern Alliance. It is way better than staying in the World of Divine Remains and continuing to deteriorate and perish.”

They had had enough of the tormenting life in the World of Divine Remains and regretted their decision to come to this place.

If they left for the Great Eastern Alliance, their circumstances would perhaps improve marginally. At least they wouldn’t be abused and mistreated by others like they were now.

Many people were moved, except for Tuoba Qingyun, whose face darkened. “We have been here for three years. Everyone had tried to swallow us alive, yet we never had the guts to confront them despite our anger!”

“Today, someone has shown us kindness and compassion, yet we are trying to bring harm to him! What will be the difference between us and the people of the World of Divine Remains whom we resent so much if we do that?”

“Even though we are deprived and impoverished, the blood of the Tuoba family will always run in our veins. I believe that the Tuoba Deities of the past generations would never want to see their descendants ending up like that!” Tuoba Qingyun stared coldly at Tuoba Jing. “This matter needs no further discussion, otherwise, don’t blame me for being heartless!”

Tuoba Jing shut his mouth, but his heart was filled with resentment. “Your cultivation is the greatest, and you’re the one with the highest status among us, when have you ever suffered any great tragic fates? Of course you could make such high-sounding remarks!” he thought.

He did not say anything, yet a determined look flickered in the depths of his eyes.

Today would be the day he freed himself from the sea of suffering, and he would never let the opportunity slip. As for Su Yu’s kindness, humph, doing charity in the World of Divine Remains was idiocy. He was seeking his own death!

The next morning.

“Young Lord, bad news! Tuoba Jing and a few of our people have not returned since they went out on the pretext of going on a patrol last night.” The old servant roused Tuoba Qingyun from his meditation.

Upon hearing that, Tuoba Qingyun was full of rage. “Da*n it! Our benefactor is in danger!”

“Young Lord, then shall we...”

“Does it need more explanation? Of course, we have to inform him! If Tuoba Jing gets his way, not only will our benefactor face disaster, but the rest of us who covered up for him will be destroyed by the Pirate Deity as well.”

At the harbor, the Pirate Deity listened quietly to Ah San’s report.

A moment later, the Pirate Deity kneaded his beard and sneered. “The people were taken away, and the woman who attacked seemed like a killer from the Netherworld Faction... Haha, they really are problematic!”

“If my speculation is right, the woman who attacked must be the black-dressed woman beside the alleged Tuoba Yun. She has traces of a killer on her indeed.”

“Then shall I take some people with me and seize them all now?” Ah San was fervent as the sexy, alluring figure of the Sheng Deity streaked across his mind.

The Pirate Deity shook his head. “If we swallow them without evidence, word of the Pirate Deity swallowing the influences that came to seek refuge will get around. In the future, who else would dare to seek refuge again? And this is prohibited by our Alliance of Nine Deities.”

“But since they are under suspicion, we could imprison them for now and broadcast their portraits to the Pirate Deity’s cavern world. Anyone who recognizes them will receive a hefty reward.”

Ah San nodded. “Yes!”

Just as he exited with some disappointment and frustration, a divine servant sprinted over to report.

Upon hearing the news, the Pirate Deity flashed a smile. “Interesting! Let them in.”

Before long, Tuoba Jing and three other young members of the Tuoba family were brought to the Pirate Deity by the divine servant.

“You’re willing to point them out for falsely assuming Tuoba Yun’s identity?” The Pirate Deity questioned.

Tuoba Jing replied, “Yes! We are willing to share your worries, Pirate Deity.”

“Alright then, if you make a contribution, I will certainly reward you,” the Pirate Deity said. There were several powerful Prospective Deities among Su Yu and his people, whom even the Pirate Deity had to watch out for.

Tuoba Jing was overjoyed. All they needed to do next was to point out the youth who had rescued them yesterday, and they could, perhaps, leave the World of Divine Remains.

The Pirate Deity ordered, “Ah San, summon all of Tuoba Yun’s people here. I have some questions for them.”

Ah San was exhilarated. “Yes!”

Su Yu had returned to the inn not long ago. He met up with the nine deities and told them about his meeting with the Death Deity.

He had concealed the details about the deal with the Death Deity and about the nine-star honored guest of course, not mentioning a word about those things.

“I did not expect you to return safe and sound,” Sheng Yuanxin marveled as she glanced Su Yu up and down.

Su Yu said, “Not exactly safe and sound, I ran into some problems along the way, I found Ah San escorting the people of the Tuoba family, so I rescued them and released them afterward.”

What? All the deities gasped in shock. They had an ominous feeling when the Tuoba family was mentioned, yet Su Yu had released them, which made them feel even more insecure.

The deities could still manage to keep their cool. With Su Yu’s acumen, there must be a reason for his actions.

But Sheng Yuanxin raised her brows and exclaimed in shock, “My goodness, how could you release those people? Weren’t you digging your own grave? Did you really believe that your secret would be safe with them?”

Su Yu shook his head gently. “Of course I did not believe! If there were only a couple of them, perhaps I would have believed them to keep my promise. But there was a group of them, and there would always be one or two with different opinions. Some of them will certainly expose us to the Pirate Deity.”

“You knew it, but still you...” Sheng Yuanxin was befuddled. What was Su Yu really trying to do?

Su Yu said broodingly, “I have intentionally allowed them to expose us. If not, it’ll take quite some trouble to meet the Pirate Deity.”

Knock! Knock!

Before long, it was just as Su Yu had expected. Ah San had come forth, leading a team of Mortal Fairy strong men. He was smirking mirthlessly. “Our Pirate Deity has invited you people over.”

The deities exchanged glances with each other. None of them had a clue what Su Yu was planning.

Once their identities got exposed, the nine God-Destroying Crossbows of the Pirate Deity would be no joke.

The deities kept their calm as they followed Su Yu to the harbor to again meet the Pirate Deity.

The Pirate Deity stood with his hands behind his back. Tuoba Jing and the others were standing side by side behind him, looking down at Su Yu and the rest with indifference.

“Pirate Deity, what is your purpose in summoning us here?” Su Yu asked placidly, shooting a glance at Tuoba Jing.

The Pirate Deity sneered and kneaded his beard. “If you really are the third son of the Tuoba family, Tuoba Yun, how could you not recognize your family members standing behind me!”

Su Yu shot them a glance and said, “Just a few pathetic people of the Tuoba family? It is not surprising if they turn against me for their own benefits.”

“Stop pretending!” Tuoba Jing’s lips curled into a scornful smile. “When you took us away yesterday, you should have murdered us all. Your stupidity in deciding to release us should be blamed!”

The Pirate Deity narrowed his eyes. “Oh? You were the one who took them last night? Do you have anything to say about that?”

Just as Su Yu was about to speak, another divine servant scurried over anxiously.

The Pirate Deity was surprised, and he thought for a moment. “Let them in.”

Before long, the divine servant led a group of people inside. There were over twenty of them, with Tuoba Qingshan taking the lead.

When they arrived in front of the Pirate Deity, Tuoba Qingshan offered the Pirate Deity his respect first and then knelt before Su Yu along with his people. “Third uncle!”

What? Apart from Su Yu’s quick response in understanding Tuoba Qingshan’s intention, the rest were taken aback.

Tuoba Jing even yelled, “Tuoba Qingyun, what nonsense is this? Since when has he been the third son of the Tuoba family?”

Tuoba Qingyun did not look at him but bowed to the Pirate Deity. “Pirate Deity, there have been several degenerates in my family lately. They intend to gain the Pirate Deity’s favor by betraying my third uncle. I hope Pirate Deity makes a fair decision for the Tuoba family.”

Ah San’s eyes went saucer wide. Things had been smooth-sailing so far. Why had another batch of the Tuoba family appeared out of nowhere?

Most strangely, they confirmed Su Yu’s identity as Tuoba Yun.

“Dare you take responsibility for your own words?” Ah San berated. He was more anxious than anyone else because now he was going to lose the beauty.

Tuoba Qingyun was neither servile nor snobby. “Dare I ask Lord Ah San, do you believe the words of a few ordinary members more, or the descendant of the second son of the family like I am?”

Ah San was vexed. Anyone with clear vision could see that Su Yu and his people were problematic.

“Then how are you going to explain him taking you away last night?” Ah San asked threateningly. “Lying to deities means a death sentence. You’d better consider it properly before saying anything!”

Tuoba Qingyun replied without a second thought. “Taking us away? Did such a thing even happen? I hope Lord Ah San has looked into the matter properly.”

Ah San was exasperated yet he dared not act arbitrarily. He turned to look at the Pirate Deity instead.

The Pirate Deity chuckled, his eyes filled with iciness. “Interesting, I never thought someone would actually recognize a thief as their uncle. This is the very first time throughout my adventures around the world!”

As he spoke, the Pirate Deity shot out a wave of divine energy that penetrated Tuoba Qingyun’s mind, performing a Soul Search on his memory.

The faces of the Tuoba people behind him turned ashen grey as they watched the scene.

Lying to a deity was indeed a serious matter.

But if they hadn’t come and had allowed Tuoba Jing and his people to succeed, what awaited them was still death. Thus, Tuoba Qingyun took the gamble decisively.

It was a pity that a defeat was still bound to happen even when success was within reach.

The Pirate Deity kept his eyes closed and obtained Tuoba Qingyun’s memory with complete ease. When he opened his eyes again, they were filled with intense coldness. “How dare you make a fool of me! Haha, this is entertaining!”

His laugh was filled with fury as he spoke. Mere petty insects trying to deceive deities, how dauntless!

His eyes fell upon Su Yu. “Imposters of Tuoba Yun, regardless of who you are, the need for an interrogation has arisen! Ah San, detain them all and subject them to torture before interrogation! Having lied to me, you have to suffer before anything else!”

Su Yu was calm and composed, unruffled and unhurried. He was about to speak when another black figure came in and whispered something in Ah San’s ear.

When he finished listening, Ah San had a look of surprise on his face. It was quickly replaced by terror. His gaze fell upon Su Yu, filled with stupefaction and dread.

The Pirate Deity noticed. “Shadow guard, you have collected some information. What happened?” he asked indifferently.

Ah San hurriedly informed him via telepathy. “Lord Pirate Deity, it is news about Tuoba Yun, no, it is about this impersonator of Tuoba Yun!”

“What news?” The Pirate Deity kept his cool. The unusual look on Ah San’s face made him feel insecure.

Ah San’s voice trembled. “He succeeded in meeting the Death Deity!”

What? The Pirate Deity’s pupils constricted as he looked Su Yu up and down all over again.

Even as a deity of the World of Divine Remains, the Pirate Deity hardly ever got to meet the Death Deity.

The legendary King of Killers, with a power so horrifying it could shake the entire galaxy. He was the greatest support of the World of Divine Remains, and also a silhouette that lurked in the heart of every deity.

In the past when he slaughtered the four deities of the Great Eastern Alliance all by himself, his figure had been imprinted deep in their hearts.

It was extremely unusual for Su Yu to meet the Death Deity.

As the Pirate Deity looked at Su Yu, the stern look in his eyes disappeared, replaced by an amiable look. Before he could get clear about the relation between them, it was best to leave them alone for now and keep them in captivity.

Just as the Pirate Deity prepared to speak, Ah San continued, "The Death Deity has given the order to treat this man as an honored client."

An honored client? The Pirate Deity had dread in his eyes. He didn't have the guts to imprison the honored guests of the Netherworld Faction.

And the Pirate Deity had lost all interest in investigating their identities.

Almost no one who came to the World of Divine Remains to visit the Netherworld Faction would ever use their true identities. That was presumably why the group of people before him assumed Tuoba Yun's identity.

The Pirate Deity was relieved now. Not only would he not inflict any harm upon them, he even had the intention to liberate them.

But still, he asked out of curiosity, "Honored guest of how many stars? An honored guest whom the Death Deity designated himself must be at least five stars?"

This was also a reason the Pirate Deity was reluctant to insist on looking into the matter. The important guests whose grades were designated by the Death Deity himself were rare and every one of them was a big figure.

Ah San's voice trembled forcefully. "Nine...nine stars!"

Creak!

The Pirate Deity was flabbergasted, and he lost control of his vast divine energy momentarily. It leaked out and injured Ah San, who was near.

He got up abruptly, with a face full of shock and terror. "Nine stars? Are you sure the shadow guard has delivered the right message?"

Ah San replied with bitterness, "I was suspicious too; how could it be nine stars? Apart from the one from the Demonic Dimension, who else could have the privilege to be designated a nine-star honored guest by the Death Deity?"

The Pirate Deity's eyes flickered intensely. Looking at Su Yu's youthful figure, he had a profound sense of oppression.

“Send my order. Dispatch someone to the Netherworld Faction to confirm the matter!” the Pirate Deity commanded sternly.

Chapter 1185: Successful Enlistment

Ah San was so terrified he did not even dare to breathe. Dragging his severely injured body, he headed for the Netherworld Faction to ascertain the matter.

In fact, they all knew that it couldn't be wrong. But the matter came as too overwhelming a shock and without repeated confirmation, it would be unbelievable.

The deities of the Great Eastern Alliance exchanged baffled glances. The Pirate Deity and Ah San were conversing through telepathy, and they had no idea what the two of them were talking about. But somehow the look in the Pirate Deity's eyes kept changing capriciously and eventually, he actually looked fearful.

The Pirate Deity sucked in a deep breath to conceal the unusual look on his face. Taking a glance at the groups of people led by Tuoba Qingyun and Tuoba Jing respectively, malice glinted in his eyes.

Tuoba Jing's heart skipped a beat. He stepped forward and suggested, “Pirate Deity, since they were daring enough to deceive deities, they should be sentenced to death without mercy. Please do not exempt them for their sins!”

“You are right, deceiving deities is a death sentence with no chance of reprieve. I am truly glad that you think that way,” the Pirate Deity said with a tender smile.

Tuoba Jing looked pleased, and he shot a cold glance at Tuoba Qingyun and his people. “Don't blame me for being cruel,” he thought. “If you stay alive, how are we going to leave the World of Divine Remains?”

However, Tuoba Jing's face turned stiff the next moment because the Pirate Deity said, “In that case, the four of you, get ready for your punishment!”

With a flick of his sleeve, a wave of divine energy pinned Tuoba Jing and the three other young informants from the Tuoba family on the ground.

The sudden scene shocked Tuoba Jing, Tuoba Qingyun and even all the deities of the Great Eastern Alliance.

Weren't Tuoba Qingyun and the people of the Great Eastern Alliance who had deceived him?

The Pirate Deity had even ordered his servants to imprison them all.

“Pirate Deity, haven't you done the Soul Search and confirmed that Tuoba Qingyun and his people are the sinners that lied to you? Why are you punishing us now?” Tuoba Jing asked in great shock.

The face of the Pirate Deity was cold and stern. “Humph! From the Soul Search, I found that Tuoba Qingshan wasn't lying. You were the one who fooled me instead! You have accused Lord Tuoba Yun falsely for your own personal gain!”

What? Tuoba Jing explained hurriedly, “I did not fool you; he really isn't Tuoba Yun...”

He could not go on, because the Pirate Deity had used his divine energy and reduced the four of them to ashes.

Only then did the Pirate Deity walk up to Su Yu, forcing a cordial smile onto his fierce face. "Sorry for causing you grief Lord Tuoba. I was nearly deceived by those cunning people, and I have wronged you."

Erm...

The deities of the Great Eastern Alliance, as well as Tuoba Qingyun and his people, had no idea of what had just happened to make the Pirate Deity's attitude change completely.

The crisis had been resolved. Su Yu and the others left one after another.

"Please stay for a while, Lord Tuoba. I wish to talk to you alone," the Pirate Deity called out to them.

Su Yu's lips twitched into a smile. "Great!"

When it was just the Pirate Deity and Su Yu, the Pirate Deity asked, "May I know who you lot really are? As a nine-star honored guest of the Netherworld Faction, you must have a noble and honorable status."

Su Yu was half-smiling. "What if I tell you that we are the deities of the Great Eastern Alliance whom the Pirate Deity has been trying to ambush?"

Swish!

The Pirate Deity's face changed and his pupils shrank, his divine energy surging all over the surface of his body. Alarmed and discreet, he asked, "Are you kidding me, Lord Tuoba?"

"What do you think?" Su Yu smiled placidly.

The Pirate Deity was thoroughly shaken. In that case, the people who had disguised themselves as Prospective Deities were very likely the deities from the Great Eastern Alliance!

They had come to the Pirate Deity's cavern world!

Recalling how he had faced all those deities alone not long ago, he couldn't help but break out in cold sweat.

"Why didn't you strike just now?" The Pirate Deity had a bitter look on his face. If they had struck just now, he would have been killed instantly.

"Because we are presenting you with an opportunity," Su Yu said.

"What opportunity?"

"To rely on the Great Eastern Alliance for support!"

"Impossible!" the Pirate Deity refused decisively.

"Why? Even the Death Deity collaborates with the Great Eastern Alliance. How much longer do you think the World of Divine Remains can stand?"

Boom!

Because of the shock, the Pirate Deity lost control of his divine energy once again, sending tremors across the galaxy.

He couldn't believe it, but he had to, or how else had the news about nine-star honored guest arisen?

An honored guest who could be designated as such a high class by the Death Deity was certainly planning on something groundbreaking.

"Did the Death Deity agree to..."

"Right! He agreed to aid the Great Eastern Alliance by getting rid of the eight other deities, and obliterating the World of Divine Remains! The deal we made is that the Death Deity gets to join the Great Eastern Alliance and gains legal status."

The Pirate Deity was stupefied once again. As deities who roamed in the dark, they had gathered in this place because of the hostility and repugnance by various cavern worlds and had no choice but to seek support from the demon race's influence, so as to gain a balanced footing in the middle.

The nine deities were clear that once the war between the demon race and the galactic cavern worlds broke out, the balanced footing which they had enjoyed would no longer exist no matter which party won the ultimate victory.

If the demon race won, they would end up as the precious nourishment to the demons because they were deities. The ravenous demons would never show any mercy or kindness to any of them.

If the cavern worlds triumphed, they would be the common enemy of all cavern worlds because they were traitors and would certainly be annihilated.

Hence, if they could gain the recognition of the Great Eastern and Western Alliances before the great war, their past sins could be exempted, and they would be free of worries if they joined any of the parties.

And they could clearly sense that the demon race was starting to get restless. The galaxy was on the brink of a major war.

Because of that, the Pirate Deity didn't exactly find it inconceivable that the Death Deity had turned to the Great Eastern Alliance for support, It was quite reasonable at the moment.

If he was the Death Deity, he would also carefully consider the Great Eastern Alliance's attempt to enlist him.

"What if I don't agree to get enlisted today? And what if I kill you right here and now?"

The Pirate Deity narrowed his eyes, which were glinting with a hidden murderous intention.

Su Yu was totally unruffled. "Very simple, the Death Deity will bring us your head when he comes to the Great Eastern Alliance to show his loyalty."

Hiss!

The Pirate Deity sucked in a cold breath. He could either ignore the presence of Su Yu and the others or accept their offer of amnesty and enlistment.

“You don’t have much time to consider because the Death Deity will start taking action anytime soon. He will carry the heads of everyone who opposes our enlistment and come to the Great Eastern Alliance to prove his loyalty!”

“While you consider, I will get in touch with the other seven deities. If you give your reply too late, I can’t really guarantee that they won’t bring me your head as a token of loyalty.” Su Yu chuckled in a relaxed manner and turned to leave.

The Pirate Deity was frozen on his spot as a thousand thoughts jostled in his mind.

Right at that moment, Su Yu tossed him another string of words. “Apart from the Death Deity, you are the first one to be offered enlistment. If you could take an exemplary role, I believe it will be easier for you to gain the approval of the Great Eastern Alliance, and vice versa. Take your time to consider...”

Upon hearing that, the Pirate Deity’s hesitance died down completely. “Fine! I accept your offer of enlistment, but with the precondition that I have to ascertain if you have really enlisted the Death Deity!”

“That’s for sure, but you could go ahead and ask.”

Upon returning to the inn, Su Yu was instantly bombarded by the inquiries of all the deities.

“Feather Deity, what did you actually do? Why did the Pirate Deity’s attitude change so drastically? He actually covered up our fake identities!”

“Right! We have been secretly communicating just now. We are all ready to rob the ship and leave the World of Divine Remains!”

Even the All Access Merchant God and the Sheng Deity cast a deep gaze at Su Yu. How on earth had Su Yu done that?

Su Yu chortled softly. “Rest assured, everyone, the Pirate Deity has only spared us and covered up for us because of his fear of the Death Deity.”

Was that so? The deities were dubious about it.

The All-Access Merchant God gazed deeply at Su Yu. Intuition told him that Su Yu had kept something about the Death Deity from them.

But since he did not mention it, the All-Access Merchant God couldn’t keep pressing him either.

“We have secured our footing for now, but the next challenge remains unsolved. How are we going to find the hiding spot of the Book Deity and the Rakshasa Deity?” the All-Access Merchant God asked.

The Sheng Deity looked over at Su Yu. “The imperative task at hand is to find the two of them as soon as possible. Su Yu, As for your plan of obliterating the World of Divine Remains, it has to be further discussed after we get rid of the two of them.”

Su Yu did not oppose the suggestion. "Yes, the World of Divine Remains cannot be destroyed overnight. It cannot be accomplished with one stroke. Indeed, we have to get rid of the two disasters first. Now is the time Qin Feichen comes in handy."

The deities' eyes lit up with curiosity. They had had doubts about Su Yu's intention of taking Qin Feichen along. Now it seemed Su Yu had made his preparations early on.

"Are you trying to lure the snake out of its cave? I'm afraid the Book Deity won't be fooled." The Sheng Deity cut Su Yu off ruthlessly. "You said yourself that the Book Deity is extremely shrewd. Such a petty trick won't be able to deceive him but will expose our presence instead."

Su Yu smiled, looking completely at ease. "Luring the snake out of its cave? Haha, it depends on who's doing it! What if it's the deities of the World of Divine Remains helping us to lure him out?"

Swish! Swish!

All of a sudden, nine pairs of eyes shot towards Su Yu and pierced right through him.

"What did you just say?" The All-Access Merchant God stared at Su Yu in disbelief. Could the deal that Su Yu had agreed upon with the Death Deity be his help in finding the Book Deity and the Rakshasa Deity?

Su Yu smiled placidly. "You did not hear the wrong thing, Merchant God. A deity from the World of Divine remains will assist us with all his might."

"Who?" All the deities looked at him at once.

"The Pirate Deity!"

"Impossible! Although he fears the Death Deity's relationship with us, he will never agree to help us obliterate those two deities because it means betraying the World of Divine Remains!"

"You'll just have to wait and see."

Seven days later, an unexpected guest showed up at the inn.

"Lord Tuoba, I am here to request a meeting with you." The Pirate Deity stood outside the secret chamber.

Inside the secret chamber, the deities who had been quietly waiting for seven days put their guards up. After exchanging glances with each other, they were all prepared to charge.

"Please come in," Su Yu said.

The Pirate Deity entered the secret chamber, and his glance swept across the ten people in the room. Su Yu was sitting on the seat at the far end, and a one-eyed middle-aged man took the main seat, followed by a sexy, attractive woman.

The Pirate Deity understood it all now. They must be the deities who were responsible for enlisting them, otherwise, Su Yu wouldn't be sitting at the far end.

However, they did not display their divine cultivation, so the Pirate Deity pretended not to know as well. Staring at Su Yu, he asked, "I have made my decision now. Is this a suitable place to speak about it?"

Su Yu looked at the vigilant deities smilingly and said, "They are all my people. Feel free to speak about anything at all!"

"Great!" The Pirate Deity had a mirthful grin on his face. "I agree to be enlisted by the Great Eastern Alliance, and I am willing to aid you in clearing the World of Divine Remains."

He had visited the Death Deity in person in the past seven days. The Death Deity, who never simply met anyone, agreed to meet him with alacrity. This was way beyond his expectations.

When he inquired about the offer of enlistment, the Death Deity said, "I will support him wholeheartedly."

With that promise, the Pirate Deity cast away all his worries. Following the most powerful deity of the World of Divine Remains would not go wrong.

The All-Access Merchant God and the rest who were all tensed up and ready for a fight were stupefied.

What? An offer of enlistment?.

Chapter 1186: Luring the Snake out of its Cave

The Pirate Deity had come to surrender before they even took any action? The deities couldn't believe what they were hearing!

Eyes filled with surprise were pinned on Su Yu. It was just like Su Yu had expected, the Pirate Deity had proactively come to surrender!

Looking at the calm and placid Su Yu, the deities were delighted. Su Yu was truly capable and competent! Without making a sound and attracting any notice, he had tamed the Pirate Deity!

Despite their shock, none of them gave their emotions away.

As far as the Pirate Deity could see, they had all been informed about the plan the entire time.

Su Yu got up with a smile on his face. "Great! On behalf of all deities, I accept your sincerity! Once the matter with the World of Divine Remains is over and done with, you can bring your cavern world to the Great Eastern Alliance."

Having gained Su Yu's promise, the Pirate Deity couldn't help but look over at the nine other deities, especially the most powerful Sheng Deity and the Merchant God, waiting for them to speak.

The Merchant God unintentionally revealed a streak of his divine energy and smiled with gladness. He got up and walked over to the Pirate Deity. "I am the All-Access Merchant God. On behalf of the Great Eastern Alliance, I welcome you to our league."

The All-Access Merchant God? The Pirate Deity gasped in shock, and hastily gave a junior's salute to him. "The Pirate Deity here, greeting All Access Merchant God!"

As a galactic pirate, how could he not have heard about the extraordinary capabilities of the All-Access Merchant God? He had business deals all across the galaxy, and his influence was massive!

Even the Pirate Deity's troops rarely had the courage to take raid the All-Access Merchant God's cargo vessels.

He never expected the one-eyed man in front of him would be the well-known All-Access Merchant God. The Pirate Deity could put his mind at complete ease now. "If the All-Access Merchant God has any commands, I am willing to assist you to the best of my ability."

The Sheng Deity walked over. Unlike her usual sexy and flirtatious self, she said in a demure manner, "I am the Sheng Deity, and I also welcome you to join the Great Eastern Alliance."

The Deity of Ebony? The Pirate Deity was inwardly shocked. This was the powerful deity who was ranked third in the Great Eastern Alliance!

"Greeting Sheng Deity!"

The Sheng Deity nodded lightly. She was surprised yet angered at the same time.

She was surprised that the Pirate Deity had surrendered.

This wasn't the first time the Great Eastern and Western Alliances had used the tactic of offering amnesty and enlistment to their supposed enemies, in the hope of resolving the crisis posed by the World of Divine Remains. However, all of their attempts had failed.

As the powerful deity who managed the nine God-Destroying Crossbows, the Pirate Deity was one of the most important targets. But every single time, the Pirate Deity had sternly rejected any emissaries sent to offer him enlistment and had killed them then and there.

The Pirate Deity could be considered the most difficult deity to be enlisted, yet he had taken the initiative to come and surrender today.

What angered her was that Su Yu had kept so many things from them!

Having gained the deities' recognition, the Pirate Deity laughed. "I was thinking of coming to meet all of you a few days ago, but in order to prepare some gifts, I have delayed my visit till today."

With a flip of his palm, the Pirate Deity retrieved a stack of documents. "I presume this is something that all of you Lords want."

Without any pretense, Su Yu accepted them and began flipping through the documents on his own, ignoring all the other deities beside him.

Such behavior could be considered disrespectful to the deities. However, having been through so many things together, they were deeply impressed by Su Yu's intelligence, and somehow, Su Yu had taken over the position of dominance.

Therefore, they weren't bothered despite seeing Su Yu's attitude and waited smilingly for Su Yu to finish.

The Pirate Deity was inwardly stunned... What was the matter now? Wasn't he an emissary that should be listening to the deities' commands? Why did he appear to be the leader of the deities now?

All along, he had thought that Su Yu was a nobody who ran errands for the nine deities.

But the scene before his eyes had overturned his opinion, and he was stupefied. Did this young, silver-haired man have an exceptional status in the Great Eastern Alliance so that even the nine deities had to obey his orders?

When he finished studying the documents, Su Yu exhaled a murky breath and said, "There are two pieces of information in the documents. Firstly, the detailed information about the rest of the deities of the World of Divine Remains."

"Where they came from, which cavern worlds they have offended, their capabilities and so forth are all written in it. This is something that not even the black market could get hold of. Your effort is much appreciated, Pirate Deity!"

"Secondly, there is news about the Book Deity and the Rakshasa Deity. They are hiding in the cavern world of the second-ranking deity of the World of Divine Remains, the Misfortune Deity."

"The Misfortune Deity is inclined to solicit the two of them, and he is offering shelter and protection to them! Having the Pirate Deity guarding the harbor and murdering us is also an order from the Misfortune Deity."

The second piece of information made the deities scowl. They had indeed heard the name of the Misfortune Deity.

Rumor had it that he had risen as a deity with misfortune and could bring upon misfortune and bad luck to people unbeknownst to them, which was truly eerie and intangible.

Once, a deity of the World of Divine Remains did not believe in the power of misfortune which the Misfortune Deity possessed and had vied with him for the same territory.

Consequently, while he was wandering in the galaxy three days later, he encountered a divine-level wild beast that was only seen once in a thousand years and was devoured till nothing was left of him!

There was also a deity who had conflict with the Misfortune Deity, and as a result, the deity got entangled with a divine-level creature of the Demonic Dimension all of a sudden and was relentlessly hunted down.

It was the Death Deity who finally came forward. Only then did the Misfortune Deity restrain his madness. Eventually, the misfortune suffered by the deity dissipated, and he got to escape from the mouth of the divine-level demonic creature.

All in all, the Misfortune Deity was a terrifying deity preceded only by the Death Deity.

The All-Access Merchant God creased his brows. "It's quite troublesome if it's this deity. His misfortune is shapeless and formless, and there is no way to guard against it. If the Misfortune Deity intends to cover up for the two deities, we have to pay a high enough price to eradicate them both."

“Haha, what’s so troublesome about it? What can the Misfortune Deity do to us if we don’t step foot in the Misfortune cavern world?” Su Yu chortled. “All we need to do is to lure the Book Deity and the Rakshasa Deity out.”

The deities’ eyes glinted as they gazed at Su Yu simultaneously. “Feather Deity, it’s up to you to make arrangements for what we are doing next. We will assist you to the best of our abilities.”

Feather Deity? The Pirate Deity was taken aback again. He only had the mere cultivation of an All Creations, yet he was named the “Feather Deity”?

The deities at the scene were also apparently looking to Su Yu for instructions. The Pirate Deity fathomed that Su Yu must be an extraordinary entity in the Great Eastern Alliance, like the prince of the Demonic Dimension.

“Great! This matter requires the united efforts of all deities, as well as the assistance of the Pirate Deity.”

The Pirate Deity offered his respect and said, “I’ll adhere to the Feather Deity’s arrangements.”

Half a day later.

A small ship came sailing towards the galaxy. On it were the deities from the Great Eastern Alliance. The All-Access Merchant God, the Sheng Deity and the others were attempting to furtively infiltrate the World of Divine Remains.

However, what they had not expected was that the Pirate Deity had set up precautions early on, and he managed to see through them and activated the ambush in time.

The deities of the Great Eastern Alliance were caught unawares. They retaliated with all their might, abandoned the Divine Bone Ship and fled in separate directions across the galaxy.

The Pirate Deity couldn’t catch up with them, only managing to capture the non-deity strong men on the Divine Bone Ship who were on the verge of being devoured by the wild beasts. One of them was the captive of the Great Eastern Alliance Qin Feichen, and the other was the trainee Sheng Yuanxin.

The Pirate Deity escorted the two of them back and then sent them to the auction house run by himself. He put them on sale as his war trophies.

This matter shook the entire World of Divine Remains like an earthquake.

Hearing that the Great Eastern Alliance had come to attack, the creatures of the World of Divine Remains were unnerved, only heaving a big sigh of relief when they heard that the Pirate Deity had defeated them all and had even brought back two captives.

“The Great Eastern Alliance really was relentless. They sustained great losses and casualties when they attacked us the last time, and this time they chose to infiltrate us stealthily but still suffered a major defeat.”

“Hey! They were fortunate to have escaped in advance this time having discovered the Pirate Deity’s ambush. Otherwise, if the God-Destroying Crossbow was launched, there would have been a deity or two left behind.”

“Haha, it wasn’t a complete loss on our part either. I heard that there were two of them left behind. One of them is the daughter of the Sheng Deity of the Great Eastern Alliance, a Prospective Deity!”

“The other was a captive they brought along, a person named Qin Feichen or something. Both of them have ended up as the war trophies of the Pirate Deity and will be sold at the auction house by the Pirate Deity today!”

“He’s so keen on selling them? Sheng Yuanxin is the daughter of the prestigious Sheng Deity after all, and a Prospective Deity. She’s also fairly good-looking. If he makes a big sensation out of it, great buyers from the galaxy will surely come forth and purchase. Why is he so anxious?”

“Haha, are you an idiot? It is exactly because she is the Sheng Deity’s daughter that she has to be disposed of early, or else what is he to do if the Sheng Deity infiltrates the place and wreaks havoc in the Pirate Deity’s cavern world?”

“Erm... You have a point.”

At the dwelling of the Misfortune Deity.

The news that was bustling in the streets was delivered to the Book Deity and the Rakshasa Deity at the first moment.

“Hahaha! Book Deity, you really do have a prophetic eye! You can predict events with such divine accuracy. They have really attempted to infiltrate the World of Divine Remains unnoticed!” The Rakshasa Deity couldn’t help but burst out laughing.

After so many days of waiting, they had finally launched a head-on, brutal blow on their enemies.

The Book Deity was unruffled, but there was doubt flickering in his eyes.

He wondered why Qin Feichen was there. He hadn’t been sentenced to death by the Great Eastern Alliance!

“Oh right, I heard that nephew Feichen was on their Divine Bone Ship too. What a surprising delight! I think they have most probably seized Qin Feichen to use him as a bait to lure you out, Book Deity,” the Rakshasa Deity said. “Too bad, they have contributed to your reunion with your son, without any benefits in return.”

Trying to lure the snake out of its cave? The Book Deity brooded. Based on his understanding of the deities, it didn’t seem quite like their style.

Was it a conspiracy of theirs? The Book Deity had an unsettling feeling deep inside, but when he thought about the fact that even Sheng Yuanxin had fallen into the hands of the Pirate Deity, his doubts were resolved.

“Book Deity, the Pirate Deity doesn’t know about your relationship with Qin Feichen yet. Once he gets sold out, there’ll be substantial trouble,” the Rakshasa Deity reminded him.

The Book Deity nodded. “I will ask the Misfortune Deity to come forward and ask for Qin Feichen back.”

“It’s too late! They’ll be auctioned today. The process is probably underway at this moment. Even with the Misfortune Deity’s reputation, it is unreasonable to take him away while the auction is ongoing.”

“It is best that you make a trip there in person and buy Qin Feichen back,” the Rakshasa Deity said with nonchalance. “Unless there are deities vying with you, no one else can compete with you.”

Leave the Misfortune Deity’s dwelling? The Book Deity got an instinctive sense of insecurity at the thought of that. But Qin Feichen was his only descendant. If he didn’t rescue him, the Book Deity’s family would have no more offspring.

“Since you are free, you could keep me company.” The Book Deity cast a look at the Rakshasa Deity, an uncanny gleam in his eyes.

The Rakshasa Deity thought for a moment and nodded in agreement. “Alright!”

The two deities left the Misfortune Deity’s cavern world and arrived at the auction house in the Pirate Deity’s cavern world.

The Pirate Deity detected their arrival at the first moment. He laughed, “Lord Feather Deity is truly a prophet! They have actually been lured out of the Misfortune Deity’s cavern world! I think we can begin the game now. Let us slaughter both of them right here!”

Su Yu waved his hand. “Hold on before you act!”

His eyes narrowed slightly. “With the Book Deity’s character, I’m afraid he has prepared the means of retreat to free himself before we block his path of retreat. Do not act recklessly! I want them to be finished off once and for all. Now that they are here, none of them can ever leave my grip!”.

Chapter 1187: The God of Doom

When the Book Deity arrived, the auction of Sheng Yuanxin and Qin Feichen was already underway.

Although the auction was put together in a hurry, a large number of speculative merchants were present. Such people were always flooding into the Pirate Deity’s Cavern world and many of them had learned that the Shang Deity’s descendant from the Great Eastern Alliance was being sold at auction. They treated her as a strange commodity.

At present, the auction price of Sheng Yuanxin had reached 80 million Alliance Coins. Although Qin Feichen’s identity was not as prominent as Sheng Yuanxin’s, many auctioneers were interested in him because of his family, and his price reached 10 million Alliance Coins.

The Book Deity watched the two people being auctioned. They were blocked off from the others by the Pirate God's divine power. He finally chose to speak and said. "Qin Feichen, 20 million Alliance coins."

On stage, Qin Feichen couldn't move, and he could only listen and watch. He couldn't speak, and his face could not even convey any expression.

"What, twenty million?" The Book Deity's bid caused a stir amongst the auctioneers.

To spend 20 million to buy a descendant of the gods would not leave one with much profit at all.

On the other hand, Sheng Yuanxin's current price was 80 million. Even if she cost several hundred million, it would still be worth it. This was not only because of her identity but also because she had the Great Path Divine Origin. This meant that one would get a Deity seat.

One after another, the people bidding for Qin Feichen gave up. Just then, however, there was a loud noise. "Qin Feichen, 30 million."

The Book Deity's eyes glanced through the crowd, and he saw that the person who had casually raised the price was a silver-haired young man with an indifferent smile.

"Forty million." The Book Deity was no different and casually raised it to forty million.

"50 million!" However, as soon as he made his bid, the silver-haired youth continued to raise the amount.

The Book Deity frowned slightly. "60 million!"

"70 million!"

"80 million!"

"90 million!"

"You win." When the Book Deity bid the astonishing amount of 90 million, Su Yu smiled and walked away.

The Book Deity glanced at Su Yu with deep thoughts.

In the backstage area of the auction house, Su Yu thought about the 90 million Alliance Coins paid by the Book Deity. "The Book Deity really is a problem!"

He suddenly appeared and rejoined the auction, not because he coveted the Alliance Coins, but simply to test the Book Deity.

The Book Deity was intelligent enough to suspect that something was amiss when a mysterious man suddenly appeared and immediately increased his bid.

However, from beginning to end, the Book Deity was very calm and not at all worried.

"It's almost time to start." Su Yu couldn't figure out what the Book Deity intended to do, but time wouldn't wait for him.

The Book Deity successfully bid on Qin Feichen, and immediately went backstage to carry out the exchange. Then, he left, walking side by side with the Rakshasa Deity.

Only when they reached the Cavern world of the God of Doom did the Book Deity unlock the divine power surrounding Qin Feichen.

However, at the moment of his release, Qin Feichen immediately began to yell, “Hurry up and leave! This is all a plot by Su Yu!”

Unfortunately, it was an instant too late.

When the magic power was released, a jade pendant on Qin Feichen’s chest was also activated.

Boom-!

There was an extremely deep and powerful force, much like when a volcano erupts.

It was so powerful that only the top two ranking Gods, such as the All Access Merchant God in the Great Eastern Alliance, would be able to activate such a power.

The heavy blow struck very suddenly, and the Rakshasa Deity was hit by the blast at the same time.

What!

Screaming violently, the body of Rakshasa Deity was covered with layers of copper coins, and golden blood leaked wildly from the injuries on her body.

That was the blood of the Rakshasa Deity!

In the time it took for her to take three breaths, more than half of the Rakshasa Deity’s blood was lost. Even worse, her Great Path Divine Origin also flowed out from the holes.

“It is the stance of the All-Access Merchant God!” The Rakshasa Deity’s complexion changed drastically. She did not understand what had just happened. Why Qin Feichen suddenly had used something which had been left on him by the All-Access Merchant God, she did not know.

At the critical moment, the Rakshasa Deity shouted. Behind her, a ghost image of herself, somewhat resembling a demon, appeared.

Under the shadow of the ghost, the passing of Rakshasa Deity’s blood and the Great Path Divine Origin out of the holes on her body slowed down.

“Book Deity, what the hell is going on!” the Rakshasa Deity roared sharply, but in front of her there was no Book God at all! There was only one worn book floating in front of her.

It was this book that had accompanied the Rakshasa Deity to the auction house.

“Book God, you used me!!!” the Rakshasa Deity screamed, understanding what had happened.

Knowing the dangers of this trip, the Book Deity had concealed himself and had deceived the Rakshasa Deity with a book to help him bring his son back.

The worn-out book was smashed by the fierce blow from the All-Access Merchant God. However, hidden in the pages of the book were several indestructible divine powers that encircled Qin Feichen.

Not only did he never show up, but he also successfully took his son home. All the risks were borne by Rakshasa Deity.

The Book Deity was crafty!

Brush!

With only a few soft beeps, nine gods, including the All-Access Merchant God and others who should have been defeated by the Pirate God, appeared instantly, besieging the Rakshasa Deity.

Rakshasa Deity's face was as dead as soot, and she grinned, "You all really set up a terrific trap! The all-mighty Pirate God has been quietly used by you and cooperated with you to kill me! I can now face death in peace."

She has to admit that her opponents are too smart! So smart that they caught her by surprise!

Perhaps the Book God felt the same dangers as well, but he never would have thought that the Pirate God would turn to the enemy and rebel!

The All-Access Merchant God looked indifferently at the dying Rakshasa Deity. A killing intent flashed in his eyes, and he lifted a finger and swallowed the Rakshasa Deity.

"It's a pity that the Book Deity ran away, and Qin Feichen was rescued." The All-Access Merchant God frowned slightly.

Su Yu's plan was seamless, but the wisdom of the Book God was beyond absolute.

"Saved? Oh, how can it be so easy?" Su Yu rushed over and smiled indifferently.

In the God of Doom's Mansion, a secret room.

Two strands of divine power, which were holding Qin Feichen between them, teleported into the secret room.

"Father, your child is incompetent, and almost made you get into trouble and be tricked by Su Yu!" Qin Feichen burst into tears upon seeing the Book Deity. In just two years, he had been degraded from being the master in his own home to being auctioned off. Now, he had even nearly involved his father.

The Book Deity smiled kindly. No matter what, he was the only blood relative he had left in the world. Even if the kid was beyond repair, he still must try.

"Feichen, you ..." The Book Deity beckoned Qin Feichen over. Suddenly his eyes narrowed and he frowned.

As he listened to Qin Feichen's body, a slight clicking sound could be heard as if there was something broken. Then, a beam of light broke from Qin Feichen's body and devoured the Book Deity.

Qin Feichen could not react in time, and he was turned instantly into bloody rain.

The Book Deity let out a few groans of pain!

When the light was gone, the Book Deity was covered with all kinds of books and was safe and sound.

Those books had protected him from the light, blocking off a string of copper coins.

Looking at the bloody rain, the calm face of the Book God was no more. He screamed, “Su Yu!”

Needless to say, Su Yu was the silver-haired young man who had been bidding for Qin Feichen!

The plan to draw him out of the hole was definitely this man’s plan.

“You destroyed my family line of Book Gods, destroyed my last son-in-law, and the treasure house of Book Gods built over the ages was also destroyed at your hands! Su Yu, what did my family ever do to offend you?” The Book Deity looked up at the sky and sighed, expressing hatred.

From this point onwards, the bloodline of the Book Gods had ended.

“You collaborated with the Pirate God in an attempt to divide the land of the gods, so that they could kill each other and you could take advantage of the situation! I will now come out and test you, to see if you do indeed have this ability!” The Book God was really angry. He stood up to meet the God of Doom.

The God of Doom was a dry and short old man. His face was very old, as if he had lived for countless years.

“God of Doom, I need you to help me kill someone!” the Book Deity said.

“The one who killed your son?” the God of Doom asked indifferently as he closed his eyes.

The Book God replied, “Yes, killing while remaining invisible, only you, the God of Doom, can do it!”

With his eyes still closed, the God of Doom said, “I refuse.”

“Our deal is just that I merely let you stay here so you can give me the insight of the wordless book, and I have no obligation to help you kill a man.”

The Book Deity exclaimed, “I’m willing to help you gain insights into three more chapters of the wordless book!”

Humming could be heard.

The God of Doom suddenly opened his eyes, and they filled up with light. “Deal!”

Standing up, the God of Doom’s body began to flow with an unusually obscure breath. He was invisible, but he was also very uncomfortable.

Even the Book Deity took a few steps back, afraid to get too close.

“His looks, breath, age, cultivation, location.”

The Book Deity immediately passed the details to the God of Doom.

He nodded a little and the God of Doom did not look back before he disappeared.

The Book Deity looked at the departing God of Doom and stood still for a moment, shaking his head slightly. "He can't come back, but there is just enough time for me to arrange a death trap for Su Yu and the nine other gods!"

"My son is not a good target to choose to kill. I am an even worse target!" Leaving a lifetime of sighs in the air, the Book God also disappeared and headed to his own Cavern world.

The God of Doom arrived at the place where the nine gods gathered.

However, there was no one there except for Su Yu.

"That's odd. They all have left, but you have stayed behind." The God of Doom looked at the silver-haired youth in front of him. This was the person he was aiming for.

Su Yu said calmly, "They have made other arrangements. I'll stay here alone to face you, the God of Doom."

"Oh? So you do know that I am the God of Doom, and you also knew that I was coming?" The old face of the God of Doom revealed a keen interest in Su Yu's insight.

Su Yu said, "Well yes. I knew that you would come, so I stayed here and waited for you. I advise you not to be fooled by the Book Deity. If you don't believe it, go back and see. The Book Deity must have left your Cavern World by now."

The God of Doom was amused and smiled, and the smile wrinkled his calm face. It was a little scary. "I know he is using me to deal with you, but he gave me the chips I want, so I am willing to be used."

"On the premise that you stay alive to get those chips," Su Yu replied calmly.

"Hehehe ... What an interesting little guy. I haven't talked to a junior like you for a long time. If it wasn't for the Book God wanting to kill you, I might change my mind and let you live," the God of Doom said. He laughed. "It's a pity no one else can give the chips that the Book God can give, so I can only kill you. "

Su Yu said, "Try it."

Doom smiled. "I have already started! You just haven't noticed it."

As the most mysterious of all the gods, no one had much clarity about how the God of Doom operated.

However, seeing a faint dark spot appearing on Su Yu's eyebrow, it was clear that he was constantly penetrating Su Yu's body.

"This is the Doom of the Body. You will suddenly go berserk within three breaths and explode and die."

He wasn't lying, because Su Yu did find that the powerful force was making his body lose control, and within him, his power was rolling about crazily and expanding in all directions. He was going to completely destroy Su Yu from the inside.

This was the strange power of the God of Doom. It could cause people to perish in various unreasonable circumstances.

However, Su Yu's face was extraordinarily calm, and he said lightly, "It is indeed the God of Doom. It is a complete doom if ordinary people meet you. They probably will not be able to escape. Even Gods can't escape either. Alas... you met me."

Chapter 1188: The Gluttonous Pupils Sky Eater

Grunt!

With a faint sound, the gap between Su Yu's eyebrows cracked vertically, and a silvery-white pupil gradually appeared and began to flash.

Greed, fierce, ancient. These three flavors merged into one, and the radiation from the pupil grew more intense.

The God of Doom only took one look, then his face changed abruptly. "Gluttonous Eyes?"

According to rumors, amongst the starry sky, there were terrible creatures born with the gods.

"Gluttonous Pupils Sky Eater!" Su Yu said slowly. The black mark on Su Yu's eyebrow was pulled outwards and caught by the Gluttonous Eyes which pulled it in.

A trace of satisfaction, a trace of excitement, a trace of unsatisfied greed. It was as if had just been resurrected and was simply eager to taste the world.

The Gluttonous Pupils Sky Eater ate everything!

Even doom!

The God of Doom recovered his composure and gave a dignified nod. "So it's true that the Gluttonous Pupils Sky Eater eats everything. Even doom can also be swallowed up. No wonder you are not afraid of me, the God of Doom... But you forget that I am still a god, and it will be easy for me to kill you! "

As soon as he said that, the God of Doom extended a finger and pointed it at Su Yu's chest.

Suddenly, his body felt a terrible feeling of collapse.

At that moment, a long laugh interrupted the divine power of the God of Doom. "Why is the God of Doom so anxious?"

The Pirate God, three quasi-gods, and ninety-nine Spire Mortal Fairies, as well as nine giant God-Destroying Crossbow, appeared silently and surrounded the God of Doom.

The God of Doom stared at the Pirate God and the God-Destroying Crossbow. His attitude towards the latter was even more solemn.

“What is the meaning of this, Pirate God? I am, after all, a god within the Great Eastern Alliance just like everyone else,” the God of Doom said with a frown.

The Pirate God laughed. “Since the God of Doom knows that everyone here is with the Great Eastern Alliance, why don’t you think about how they entered the land of the gods?”

That’s right; why weren’t they beaten back by the Pirate God?

Unless... The God of Doom’s face changed even more. “So that’s it! The Book Deity concealed the rebellion of the Pirate God from me! Does he want me to be his cannon fodder like the Rakshasa Deity?”

The Pirate God did not speak, standing firmly beside Su Yu.

“God of Doom, you have a chance now.” Su Yu smiled, and the Pirate God secretly began channeling his spirit.

The old face of the God of Doom managed to squeeze out a smile. “Do you want me to join your side? Much like the Pirate God has?”

He didn’t give Su Yu the time to speak and shook his head gently. “I’m sorry, but I am old and I’m not that interested in the Great Eastern Alliance. Your resentment is with the land left by the Gods, and I have no interest to participate either.”

He chose to be neutral.

“No, you’re wrong. I never thought about asking you to join us. There is only one way in front of you now: death! Just the difference between death now and death later! The opportunity I give you is to let you die later!” Su Yu said coldly, giving an answer that surprised the Pirate God.

The God of Doom had never expected that Su Yu would say such a thing and could not help but smile. “Young man, me being willing to take a step back is already a blessing to you. There is only one person who can seek to control my death: the God of Death. There isn’t another person who can! ”

Su Yu said calmly, “You are wrong again! The decision was never in your hands, but in my hands!”

“Kill!” Su Yu uttered the word rather indifferently.

The God of Doom smiled with anger, wondering as to why he was speaking these words. As the God of Doom, many ordinary people avoided him, but the boy in front of him behaved in the opposite way. “You must be a newborn calf that is not afraid of tigers yet!”

Turning around, the God of Doom stared at Su Yu. “Do you really think that an immature eye could save you?”

Humph! With a loud humming, the Spire Dust Fairies behind the Pirate God suddenly screamed, and with the energy of the Spire Dust Fairies rolling in their body, their powers surged violently.

Bang! Bang!

The intensive blasting muffled sounds lingered in the void. With nearly ninety-nine Spire Dust Fairies releasing their powers, the air was instantly filled with fresh blood.

They had momentarily lost control of the God-Destroying Crossbows!

The Pirate God's face turned blue. "Ah Da, Ah Er, and Ah San, you guys control three of the God-Destroying Crossbows and look for opportunities to destroy this old thing!"

He roared, flew forward, and confronted the God of Doom.

The God of Doom smirked. "No sense of shame!"

The God of Doom did not react. When the Pirate God flashed forward, an unmanned God-Destroying Crossbow coincidentally aimed at the Pirate God!

Ah Da, who was in charge of the operation, did not know why. The ghosts sent the gods to instill the power of the God-Destroying Crossbow and launch it, but Ah Da was completely unaware that this extinction crossbow was in fact aimed at the Pirate God!

This was the power of the God of Doom!

The Pirate God burst into a cold sweat. He wanted to order the guys to stop it but was stunned to discover that he couldn't open his mouth. Perhaps he was too excited, and his divine power had malfunctioned, causing his throat to be blocked.

The horrible scene was staggering.

Scrutinizing the danger facing the Pirate God, Su Y's eyes flashed, and he once again cast the Gluttonous Pupils Sky Eater to devour the power of doom attached to Ah Da and the Pirate God.

Ah Da suddenly looked up as if aware of it and found that he was actually aiming his crossbow at his own Pirate God. He was shocked and immediately aimed it at the God of Doom.

The Pirate God's divine power also began to work normally. Staring at the God of Doom, he said secretly, "This old monster is terrible!"

He no longer hesitated and did not give the God of Doom a chance to secretly launch the power of doom once more. The Pirate God approached him and took out a pair of Meteorite Hammers as gifts for him.

The God of Doom glared at Su Yu angrily. Now, he had to deal with the Pirate God with all his strength.

The two gods were fighting invisibly. Although the God of Doom had the force of doom, with Su Yu keeping on clearing it, the Pirate God was no longer in danger and was almost equal to this terrible old monster.

The Pirate God was excited and inspired. To be honest, in the past, he would not have even dared to touch this old monster at all.

His experience earlier illustrated the problem. Anyone who did not believe in evil would die under his own doom.

However, with help from Su Yu, the power of the God of Doom was suppressed, and he was now the equivalent of an ordinary god. He might even be weaker than a Pirate God who was giving it his all.

Sensing the opportunity, a pair of Meteorite Hammers filled with the Pirate God's divine power smashed into the chest of the God of Doom.

His flesh was smashed into pieces, leaving only his soul holding his Great Path Divine Origin to escape.

Suddenly, his spirit immediately sensed the existence of three extremely terrible things that were coldly aimed at him.

"Destroy the crossbow!" The God of Doom trembled and looked back. He finally felt the threat of death.

"Wait!" the God of Doom shouted. He stared at Su Yu again. "I will immediately withdraw from the Land of God's Legacy and will take no interest in the matters of the Eastern Gods Alliance and the Land of God."

Su Yu shook his head without thinking. "No! You are more dangerous than the Rakshasa Deity and I can't let you off, even if you stay neutral."

"It's not possible even if I surrender to the Great Eastern Alliance?" The God of Doom once again took a step back.

Su Yu still shook his head. "No!"

"Why can the Pirate God do so but I can't?" the God of Doom asked reasonably.

Su Yu said, "Because, I really let you off; you are someone who surrendered himself to the Great Western Alliance twice but went through two rebellions with them. Each time a rebellion happened, a great deal of fresh blood was spilled, enough to create a river."

The Gods of the Land left by the Gods were not safe.

Poverty was extremely vicious, seductive, dark and perverted, and it must not be forgotten that they exist.

According to the information provided by the Pirate God, the God of Doom was a vicious and venomous deity. Any forms of death had been repeatedly related to him.

This person simply couldn't be allowed to stay alive!

The God of Doom's eyelids twitched. One of his eyes was covered by more than half as if he was squinting hard. "What do you mean by early and late death?"

"Early death is to die now. Late death is to let you live for a while and when I need you, you shall appear and thereafter die."

The God of Doom's eyes narrowed further. "When will you need me?"

"To kill the Book Deity!" Su Yu said. "The Book Deity deceived you, used you and sent you here to die so he could escape. Don't you hate him?"

The God of Doom slowly closed his eyes. Of course, he hated them all! He hated Su Yu, hated the Pirate God, and hated the Book Deity who had sent him to his death!

“You die now, and you can’t kill any enemies. However, if you die later, although you can’t kill me, you can kill the Book God, and you can kill more enemies before you die.” Su Yu’s words were very reasonable.

The God of Doom asked sternly, “So what you are saying is that I have to die, no matter what?”

“Yes, you only have three breaths to consider. You will either die now, or you will die with the Book God.”

The God of Doom stared at Su Yu angrily, and his killing intent was obvious. “Okay, I promise you, I will die with the Book God! Next, what do you intend to do with me?”

Brush!

Su Yu had long been preparing to take out a nine-color mark, like a badge. “Release your soul. This mark, which contains the power of nine gods, will be imprinted on your soul. It cannot be removed by your powers alone.”

With this imprint, in one thought, he could destroy the spirit of the God of Doom.

“Okay, I promise!” The God of Doom released his soul, and a slit opened in the soul’s chest, enough to punch the mark into it.

Seeing this, the Pirate God secretly breathed a sigh of relief. The old monster had finally lowered his head...

Alas, he had not completed his thought, when a very sharp dark blade suddenly shot out from the opening. Using the force of extreme doom, the God of Doom fired it at Su Yu’s eyebrow. “Divine Meteor Doom!”

The dagger in his soul that managed to catch his opponent off guard was the ultimate doom to destroy the gods!

The god who suffered a tragic death that year had been killed by the Divine Meteor Doom!

If he used it on the gods, the doom would last for a few days before it exploded. However, if he used it on Su Yu, he would immediately erupt and die on the spot!

In terms of the degree of danger, it was not weaker than the God-Destroying Crossbow!

“Not good!” The Pirate God’s face changed suddenly. He never thought that this old monster would cheat and kept a secret card.

Su Yu couldn’t respond quickly, so he couldn’t use his eyes.

“A kid who courts death even if he did not know it; you have pushed me to this point, so you can be glad to die first!”

Exterminating and killing Su Yu would remove the Gluttonous Pupils Sky Eater, so he could deal with the Pirate God and the three quasi-gods easily. He only needed to implant one idea and he could easily exert his doom and make them kill each other.

In fact, he had never intended to surrender.

However, what made God of Doom's mind slightly uneasy was that Su Yu's mouth suddenly had a strange smile.

Chapter 1189: Killing Doom

A palm-sized Five Elements Mountain flew out of Su Yu's sleeve. It swelled in the wind and expanded.

With a soft bang, the dagger launched by the God of Doom hit the Five Elements Mountain and immediately broke into black mist.

The black mist seemed to have a life of its own. Unable to hit its target at the first try, it divided into ten million strands to bypass the Five Elements Mountain and headed straight for Su Yu who was hiding behind it.

However, the Five Elements Mountain suddenly burst into bright light. If the five-colored light could not resist the attack, the black mist would be suppressed on the top of the mountain.

Looking from far, there was more black light on top of the five-colored Five Elements Mountain.

"Ha! Even my will can be suppressed! What the hell is this mountain?" The God of Doom's old eyes narrowed sharply.

Even the God of Death was not able to suppress the will of the God of Doom. After all, the so-called Doom was his very soul.

The Pirate God also took in a breath. Su Yu's eyes had surprised him, and the mysterious Five Elements Mountain made him even more shocked by Su Yu's lofty identity.

Su Yu raised his hand and made a grabbing motion. The Five Elements Mountain returned to Su Yu's palm, and he stared indifferently at the God of Doom. "You are indeed a slave who has repeatedly rebelled and betrayed his alliance. The rumors are indeed believable!"

The God of Doom shuddered. "You... you were prepared for my fake surrender?"

"Yes, because you had not even performed your final trick before you surrendered, so I thought you must be conspiring and awaiting the right moment." Su Yu was a little disappointed. "Originally, I wanted to allow you to live a little longer, but you, right now, don't want to live. If that's so..."

The God of Doom's heart twisted into knots; he was really panicked now. "Wait! I will accept the imprint of the divine power!"

"Too late!" Su Yu winked at Ah Da, Ah Er, and Ah San.

Three God-Destroying Crossbows were launched at the same time!

With a roar from a seemingly inexplicable beast, three weird monster heads burst out of the God-Destroying Crossbows. They seemed to be in the shape of a soul. They came out of the crossbow and rushed towards the God of Doom.

The roar from the beast's head could only be described as shocking.

Su Yu was far away, but he also felt as if everywhere was violently trembling. His body was trembling, and the earth at his foot was shaking as if there had been an earthquake. Even the entire Cavern world of the God of Doom was slightly shaking.

When the three roars were stacked one after another, the multiplier effect of the roars increased dramatically. With the three crossbows at the center, the entire Cavern world of the God of Doom fell apart, revealing large cracks.

The endless Xing River poured into the Cavern World through the cracks, accompanied by the beasts in the Xing River. Wherever the Xing River passed, the beasts swallowed everything in its path!

Su Yu was startled. What a terrible roar! It could entirely destroy a Cavern world!

When the roar headed for Su Yu, the Pirate God flashed over, and a powerful divine power emerged on the surface to shelter him and Su Yu.

Ah Da, Ah Er, and Ah San were not so fortunate. They were hit straight on by the shockwaves from the release from the crossbow. Ah Da and Ah Er were relatively more stable as their Great Path Divine Origin was abundant and they could release enough divine power to protect themselves.

Alas, Ah San was unlucky and had insufficient power. He screamed, and his body was shattered into pieces. Even with the divine power he had, he was still hit hard.

With a damaged Great Path Divine Origin, whether he could recover in the future was doubtful.

The God of Doom was extremely solemn, and he was full of shock and hatred. "Pirate God! Su Yu! You..."

Roar!

Another roar shook the Xing River, drowning out the God of Doom's voice.

The heads of the three beasts besieged the God of Doom and opened their mouths to bite.

What was strange was that no matter how the God of Doom resisted, the beast head could always severely tear a big piece of his soul. It was as if they were intangible.

In just three breaths, the spirit of the God of Doom was almost eaten!

"Die for me now!" The God of Doom was terrified, and the power of doom was launched between the roars. "Bad doom! Chaos doom!"

Alas, he was trapped by the beasts and struggled to send out any sources of doom, each of which was enough to kill a god.

However, to these beast heads, it was nothing. They ferociously devoured the God of Doom.

Seeing this scene, even Su Yu felt that his scalp was sweating buckets.

What the hell were those beast heads? Looking at the Xing River, the creatures that could ignore the power of the gods were probably non-existent. It would even be difficult for the rumored Demon Emperor.

He originally thought that the God-Destroying Crossbow was some kind of powerful weapon. However, now that he had seen it he knew that it was an unknown and terrible beast. It should be said that they were just souls.

Amongst the roar and hissing, the God of Doom was eaten alive by three brutal beasts and no trace of his soul was left.

Even his Great Path Divine Origin was swallowed up by the three beast heads.

At this point, the three beast heads were satisfied and turned their heads to stare at the Pirate God and Su Yu.

In that look, there was a sense of brutality that had not disappeared, and their eyes turned. It seems that their next target was the Pirate God.

The Pirate God looked calm, but Su Yu noticed that his palms were shaking.

Finally, after the three beast heads looked at one another, they flew back into the crossbow without looking elsewhere.

Their eyes were filled with contempt and arrogance as if they were looking down at the Pirate God.

The Pirate God was relieved, but Ah Da and Ah Er were still frightened. When the beast heads returned, they sealed the crossbow immediately.

“Pirate God, what are those beast heads? Why haven’t we heard of them before?” Su Yu had spent quite a lot of time at the Xing River and had collected quite a lot of secrets pertaining to it. However, he had never heard of such terrible beasts.

The Pirate God’s soothing expression stiffened yet again, and he turned back and said, “It is better that you do not know.”

“Tell me about it.” Su Yu was even more curious. Could they have special origins?

The Pirate God stared at Su Yu’s eyes and said, “They were the spiritual pet of the demon emperor!”

Su Yu shuddered. Spiritual pet?

“How did such an awesome spiritual pet fall into your hands?” Su Yu asked.

The Pirate God laughed. “Awesome? These nine pets are discarded by the demon emperor! This is because the demon emperor has nine more powerful spiritual pets! They were discarded because they were too weak!!”

Su Yu was shaking. Such terrible beasts shattered the god with every strike, but they were actually abandoned spiritual pets!

“This beast is called Chaos. It is one of the many wild beasts. It was born with a god-level power. Back in those days, the Emperor found a total of eighteen, but for some reason, he could only raise nine. Therefore, he let the eighteen chaos kill each other. The survival of the fittest concept allowed him to select the nine strongest, and the weakest nine emerged. However, the Demon Emperor could not kill them, they could not be destroyed, and could not be trapped. They could only be exiled to the galaxy, endangering the land. Finally, the first deities of the earth discovered them. After fighting for thousands of years, they finally reached an agreement with them, and they voluntarily entered the crossbows for our use. ”

Chaos? To think that actually there was such a history, and even the demon emperor cannot kill, extinguish, or trap them. From the fact that the God of Doom attacked them and was directly ignored by them, Su Yu was afraid that the story was true.

“If that’s the case, why do you own the nine crossbows? The other gods have no opinion on that?” Su Yu asked.

The Pirate God smiled proudly. “This is because our agreement with Chaos is that they must no longer take the initiative to cause trouble and they can assist us if necessary, but we must feed them food regularly! A god soul must be fed to them every ten years and a quasi-god once every three years, in addition to the quasi-soul spirit and the heaven and earth treasures. The lowest consumption in a year is the value of tens of billions of Alliance Coins. With such a huge price tag, which god will possibly be able to raise them, apart from me with my perennial looting of the galaxy? Once their needs can’t be met, Chaos will tear up the agreement and break out of the God-Destroying Crossbow. The first one to be harmed is, naturally, the god that cares for them. Therefore, who would dare to raise them? ”

Su Yu secretly marveled at what he heard. Feeding them a god once every ten years, and quasi gods once every three years! As many as 10 billion Alliance Coins were consumed every year!

The pressure was not merely on the Pirate God. For them to be raised by the entire Great Eastern Alliance would also bring pressure to others.

“Therefore, although I have plundered many things, my resources are not as abundant as the other eight deities.” The Pirate God laughed at himself. More than 90% of what he plundered was consumed by the nine crossbows.

However, Su Yu didn’t agree. “For your efforts, you get nine very powerful crossbows. If you did some calculations, you would be the most powerful in the land left by the Gods.”

“Of course!” The Pirate God shook his head. “You saw it earlier on the battle with the God of Doom. If you had not taken out the power of the God-Destroying crossbow, you would have been killed! The gap between the gods is very difficult for external forces to fill unless it is a royal sacred artifact. However, do you know how rare a royal sacred artifact is? The God of Death is the only one who possesses the royal sacred artifact in the entire land. ”

Su Yu bowed his head. Indeed, although the power of the God-Destroying crossbow was great, after all, it needed to be artificially exerted.

He stared at the God-Destroying crossbows. Su Yu had a lot of dignity in his heart. The nine chaotic beasts were already so fierce. How powerful might the nine around the demon emperor be?

As he thought about the situation of internal and external troubles in the Great Eastern Alliance, Su Yu had a thick shadow in his heart.

He sighed lightly. Su Yu looked at the Five Elements Mountain in the palm of his hand. The God of Doom's doom did not disappear simply because of his death but was still firmly attached to the Five Elements Mountain.

“Surprisingly, these dooms will be able to exert their unexpected effects.” Su Yu was smiling.

Then, Su Yu cleaned up the corpse of the God of Doom from the ground and collected ten drops of scattered blood. The remaining blood was dim and had lost its divinity.

“Ten drops! According to past experience, that should be enough for me to start a new dragon, right?” Su Yu secretly thought. He looked forward to experimenting.

Now that he had mastered time, space, soul, and life, what could be the next crystallized dragon be?

After an hour, the All-Access Merchant God and others returned from all directions.

“The Book Deity fled! We blocked nine places in the nine directions of the God of Doom Cavern World according to your instructions, but he somehow managed to escape!” The Sheng Deity was slightly puzzled. They had sought to execute Su Yu's plan to its tee and cut off the escape path of the Book God. Alas, though the plan was good, the people who executed the plan still failed.

It seemed that the Book Deity had already made arrangements for his escape and therefore could escape even with nine gods surrounding him.

Su Yu was disappointed, but he had partly expected it and he comforted everyone. “It doesn't matter. As long as he doesn't escape into the demon world, we will have the opportunity to seize him again.”

At the same time, a Divine Bone Ship came silently into the port.

On the boat, there was a cold and gorgeous woman with purple lips and white hair. She had a beautiful face and a smile on the corner of her mouth. “If you are in the Great Eastern Alliance, the gods bless you. I won't dare do anything funny towards you. Alas, you decided to come to the World of Divine Remnant. In this case, I will take back the Demonic Body!”

With a chuckle, the woman disappeared into the port.

Chapter 1190: The Counterattack on the Alliance

In the Wolf Deity's Cavern World.

“Foreign god, you want me to let you use me just by saying a few words? You might think too highly of yourself.” The Wolf Deity stared blankly at the Book Deity in front of him.

The Book Deity said, “This is bad! The gods of the Great Eastern Alliance are coming over, and the plot that they are carrying out is very big!”

“How big can it be? I merely need to hand you over and they will leave.” The Wolf Deity’s dark eyes were cunning.

The Book Deity calmly said, “If the Wolf Deity does this, will the other gods agree? Can the creatures in the land left by the gods agree? Handing over the alliance traitors means that you bow your head to the alliance. How will you gather the hearts and minds of your followers in the future?”

“Also, even if you surrender me to them, will the Alliance Gods really leave? I don’t think so!”

The Wolf Deity sneered. “Won’t they dare leave? Did they forget the serious casualties they suffered?”

“Oh. That was then, and this is now. At this moment, the Pirate God who has nine God-Destroying crossbows is taking refuge with them. Can you still rest so peacefully?”

Ah? The Wolf Deity’s eyes suddenly sharpened, emitting a dangerous light. “Book Deity, speak carefully. If the unity between the gods of the land left by the gods is destroyed, I will spare you, but the other gods will not.”

“Hahaha ...” The Book Deity chuckled. “How do you think the gods of the Great Eastern Alliance got to the land of God’s relics safely? Without the Pirate God’s permission, can they get in?”

The Wolf Deity was unmoved. “Whether the Pirate God relies on them, I will investigate. I will not believe you, whatever you say now.”

“Haha, by the time you investigate, I’m afraid that the God of Doom would have already encountered unexpected events.”

Just then, something dramatic happened.

A large beast roared from the Xing River, passed through the entire land of the gods, and shocked all the deities.

Then, a divine light indicating that a god had fallen radiated throughout the land left by the gods.

“What? The God of Doom has fallen!” The Wolf Deity stood up, his eyes flashing with shock.

As the third deity in the land of the gods, the God of Doom had actually fallen!

“Ah, it seems that they succeeded,” the Book Deity sighed. “Starting from the God of Doom, they will leave none behind and remove you all.”

Hearing this, the Wolf Deity’s face had a drastic change of color. He stared at the Book Deity.

“Okay, I promised you that I will invite the rest of the gods to come and discuss the matter. However, I am not sure that I can invite the God of Death here.”

The Book Deity frowned slightly. As the strongest existence of the land left by the gods, the will of the God of Death could be said to sway everything. If he blocked it and stood in the way...

He thought for a while. The Book Deity shook his head slightly; the God of Death had no reason to stop him.

The land left by the gods had almost been invaded by the outside world, and the God of Death would never protect them even if he did not intervene.

Suddenly, at this point, the Book Deity felt at ease.

Half a day later.

There were five more gods in the secret room. They were all there except the Pirate God and the God of Death.

“You must have learned about the fall of the God of Doom, but I’m afraid the details are not clear yet.” The Wolf Deity looked at everyone coldly.

The gods said, “Does the Wolf Deity know anything? Please tell us why the God of Doom fell!”

His death was not a bad thing for the rest of the gods. After all, he was a tad too dangerous.

However, because of how dangerous the man was, they were paying more attention.

What could cause such a god, second only to the God of Death, to fall?

“It’s Chaos!” The god frowned. “It’s just that even if you can hold the God-Destroying Crossbow, it’s still hard to kill the God of Doom. Would the Pirate God be able to do it?”

The Wolf Deity flashed. “Of course it can be done! This is because the Pirate God has nine gods to help him! The nine gods of the Great Eastern Alliance!”

The gods were all surprised, and the light on their bodies was disordered.

“Do you speak the truth?”

“Besides this reason, what other explanations do you think are plausible?”

There was silence in the room. The rebellion of the Pirate God was not good for them, for he was a powerful god holding nine God-Destroying Crossbows.

Based on mere strength, the Pirate God could only be ranked sixth. However, with the God-Destroying Crossbows, no one can be sure that they can defeat him, except for the Wolf Deity.

“What do the gods of the Great Eastern Alliance want to do? Is it just the Pirate God that they are after?”

The Wolf Deity sneered. “To this day, people still dream such dreams? The Pirate God is the gateway to the land of the gods. Since he has fallen, it means that the portal of the land of the gods is wide open. What reason do they now have to let you and me off the hook?”

The gods did not speak and realized that their situation was serious.

Unlike in the past, the land left by the gods was likely to suffer an impact now, unless of course, the God of Death took action.

However, many gods thought differently. "Since the Pirate God can be made to switch sides, why can't I too? I might as well wait and see and then join forces to destroy them later."

"Hum! I urge you to stop being so naive. If the gods of the Great Eastern Alliance really wanted you, wouldn't you have heard from them by now?"

The gods thought for a while, and their hearts went a little cold. Yeah, if the Great Eastern Alliance really wanted them, then it would make sense for them to have already been in contact before the cleansing had begun.

Now, they had killed the God of Doom and had started a bloodbath. Where would they want them?

"So, don't be imaginative anymore! Besides, when are the gods of this land left by our gods afraid of a few passersby? Are you merely a few foreign gods? If we cooperate, it will not be difficult to kill them and return home!" The Wolf Deity licked his lips excitedly.

One of the gods said, "It won't be that difficult to bring out the killer machine from the olden. However, at this moment, the Pirate God has nine God-Destroying Crossbows, which are extremely dangerous in a confrontation. I am afraid the threat is great! It may be better to invite the God of Death out of the mountain to deal with that killer machine. That would be enough to kill all enemies in the future. "

The Wolf Deity sneered. "Pirate God, what is he without his God-Destroying Crossbows? Rest assured my gods, I have a plan to ensure that none of the nine God-Destroying Crossbows will be used!"

"As for the God of Death, I have sent someone to invite him, but I don't know..."

Just then, a messaging jade on his body flashed, and a message emerged.

A touch of regret emerged around them. "The God of Death said that he will not act for the time being and will only come out when he was needed."

Hearing this, the gods were disappointed.

Alas, as things stood, they would have to fight.

The Wolf Deity said, "Go back to your Cavern Worlds and prepare for war in one month!"

He stood up and licked his lips excitedly. "The land of the gods has not been involved in a war for a long time. The gods of the two major alliances seem to forget the agony of the past!"

The gods reached a tacit understanding of what to do and rushed back to prepare for war.

At the same time, they were all still a little hopeful that Su Yu would come to persuade them to jump ship.

The mansion of the Pirate God, the All Access Merchant God and the Sheng Deity were alas, out of reach.

It had been half a month since the death of the God of Doom. According to Su Yu's plan, he should try to acquire as many gods as possible, attract whoever he can, and divide the land of the gods, causing it to fall into inner strife. This was so that they could kill off the land of the gods without spilling much blood.

However, as of now, Su Yu had no intention to move.

"Black Phoenix, is Su Yu still in retreat?" the Sheng Deity couldn't resist asking.

"Yes," Black Phoenix said.

"Let him come out; this is not the time to retreat!" The Sheng Deity was annoyed. The moments of life and death must be arranged as soon as possible.

Black Phoenix responded expressionlessly. "The master said that the gods should be calm and not impatient and should not act unnecessarily. We should always respond to changes, and the situation is currently still in his grasp."

The Sheng Deity was annoyed. She had heard this sentence for the third time, but the more she heard it, the more anxious the gods were.

The situation was deteriorating sharply, but Su Yu remained indifferent. It seemed that he was leaving the remaining seven gods to unite and deal with the issue themselves.

From the information intercepted by the Pirate God, six deities are preparing for war, and various resources and soldiers were being moved around.

The Cavern Worlds of the remaining regions had also gradually suspended their connections with the Pirate God Cavern World. Seals were transmitted and the border was guarded heavily by soldiers.

This was clearly a sign of impending war!

Alas, Su Yu did not have anything to say about it.

The All-Access Merchant God also frowned deeply. As a businessman, he was more sensitive to the importance of having an overall picture of things than the other gods were.

According to common sense, after Su Yu killed the God of Doom, the situation was extremely clear. Killing the God of Doom sent a strong signal and would encourage other gods to jump to the alliance. It was like killing two birds with one stone.

However, Su Yu had merely sat around and watched the other gods unite. Now, the gods had no intention of surrendering. The All-Access Merchant God was afraid that those gods who had wanted to join them would have no choice but to prepare for war.

The situation in the land of the Gods can be said to have changed from being very good to being highly precarious.

An impatient deity said, "All-Access Merchant God and Sheng Deity, we can't wait any longer. It would be better for the nine of us to go to the other Cavern Worlds to lobby the gods. This can alleviate the situation."

The Sheng Deity shook her head. "No, Su Yu must have a plan. If we act blindly we may disrupt it."

“Oh! Couldn’t we have done anything without Su Yu? Seeing that the situation is getting worse for us, we do not act?”

The Sheng Deity was silent for a while. It was true that since they had come to the Xing River, they had always listened to Su Yu’s instructions.

As a god, the Sheng Deity would be lying if she said she was satisfied with what she realized.

But Su Yu had produced some incredible miracles, one after another. They couldn’t fail to be enticed by it.

However, now the situation was worsening, but Su Yu merely stood on the sidelines. This was making everyone anxious.

“Everyone be calm. I believe that for Su Yu not to move, there must be some reason.” The All-Access Merchant God finally came forward to appease everyone. “Trust Su Yu. He has already created so many miracles for us, perhaps his choice of action has another meaning?”

After all, the All-Access Merchant God was a businessman. In this mission, he was like a leader. Although the gods had grievances, they had to hold them back.

The Pirate God was watching from the side, and he frowned deeply.

On the other side of the mansion, Ah Da and Ah Er were busy preparing for the war, ordering the pirate forces from all sides to gather together for a big battle.

“Brother, with so many forces, and with only half a month left to integrate them, it is very difficult. Ah San also happens to be seriously injured!” Ah Er complained.

Ah Da sneered. “Serious injury? Serious injuries can allow him to play with women?”

Since his body was shattered by the roar of chaos, Ah San had been recuperating in the back room.

A few days ago, Ah San ordered someone to bring in a few beautiful women from other places and had fun with them in the back room.

In this regard, they were not surprised. Ah San’s best trait was his desire for females, and he liked them strong. Before he was recaptured by the Pirate God, he was the leader of a pirate ship and plundered along the way. He especially liked plundering women. In the cities, many women had been violently raped. Many Cavern World cities were scared of him. They called Ah San’s pirate ship the “Rape Boat” and its name became famous throughout the galaxy.