

Nine-Dragon 1081

Chapter 1081: Prohibition of Traffic

Su Yu's eyes glanced around nervously before returning to the master of the Ouyang Family. "So... how many have fled?" he asked.

Just then, Chen Xian showed himself. He was just about to teleport to Zhongzhou City.

"Not many. Perhaps a hundred or so, all in rapid succession," he said to Ouyang.

A hundred or so? In a regional center, where the population was doubtless in the hundreds of millions, wasn't this an insignificant number?

"An adult such as yourself ought not to underestimate a hundred people!" Ouyang shot back. "Zhongzhou, both the region and the city are highly developed and are within reach of all the other regions. Every scared and inadequate group will of course, then, choose to flee to here! The Tiandao group is probably nearly within reach of us, and they're probably only one percent of the total! When you factor in all of the other crowds that are likely fleeing toward us right now, we could be dealing with tens, even hundreds of thousands of people! It will be a huge, huge mess!

Even a group of a hundred thousand was much smaller than the total population of Zhongzhou, yet his reasoning that their arrival would cause a commotion was not unfounded.

"With that in mind, it seems that the Blood Demon King must be only fueling a minor rebellion;- otherwise, the people would be in a panic, and the numbers fleeing would not just be in the hundreds. If I were to leave right this moment, and rush off in any direction, chances are I would not encounter the Blood King," said Chen Xian.

Su Yu breathed a sigh of relief. Unless his luck was to truly bottom out, Chen Xian would not have to meet with the fearsome king.

"I commend your kindness. Now, I must ask you to make haste. Tiandao is not a region to linger in for long." Su Yu gracefully bid Chen Xian farewell and ordered his troops to leave.

Then, in the blink of an eye, Su Yu teleported straight to Zhongzhou City.

This city was the imperial capital and regional center of Zhongzhou. Chen Xian served as the emperor's guard.

Su Yu arrived outside the imperial palace, and a quick glance revealed that the gathered crowd was quiet and collected. There was no rioting. "Could the news we received be false?" he thought.

Then, a harsh voice suddenly rang in his head. 'Little one, why have you come to Zhongzhou City, to the home of your rivals? Are you not afraid of being captured and imprisoned?'

Calmly and reassuringly, Su Yu replied, "They are looking for me as I once was, not as I am now. No-one here should recognize me, so what do I have to fear?"

“And as for returning to Zhongzhou...’ he let out a resigned sigh under his breath. “The heavenly struggle has already come to pass, so naturally, now is time for the earthly struggle to begin. Master Zeng once told me that in order to persevere through a struggle of men, there would need to be help from a phoenix. That was his word, and he said that it would be of great importance.”

“I don’t know much of places, but I do know a lot about people, and my knowledge of people tells me that the phoenix – in other words, the queen that we seek – is to be found here, in the east. But she could be anyone. She could be a commoner! So, as Yun Yazi pointed out, there is an eight in ten chance that the queen is here, in the east, and if she isn’t, well, then she is at least somewhere on the eastern continent.”

The harsh voice laughed cruelly, and spat back, “Well, then you had better set out soon! That old codger wasn’t very much help, was he?”

Hearing the Evil God’s voice, Su Yu realized something. “It seems like he already knows about Yun Yazi, so does that mean Yun Yazi knows about him as well?”

“Hahaha...”

Su Yu turned over one of his hands. In his upturned palm, there was a small crystal shard. Engraved on the crystal, in minuscule detail, were the nine regions, and the locations of the teleportation portals.

On this chart, Su Yu could see that Zhongzhou had a few spread out portals.

He could see that there were two of them at opposite ends of the city: one for arriving, and one for departing.

The arrival portal was to the north of the city – precisely where Su Yu was.

The departing portal was to the south – precisely where he wanted to reach as quickly as possible...

From there, he could find a teleportation portal so ancient and powerful that it could take him over to the Eastern Continent in no time.

Suddenly, a voice burst out from behind Su Yu, and he felt somehow illuminated by someone’s gaze. “This is an important place; it’s not for intruders such as you! Leave here at once!”

Su Yu turned around and found the voice belonged to an old man, with a long and wise white beard, and an aged complexion.

“What he just said...” he thought. “It’s like he knows everything! Is he a Three-fold all-knowing being?”

Of course, an ancient and powerful hub of teleportation was bound to be home to an ancient and powerful creature.

Su Yu thought, “So, what kind of teleportation portal is this? Supreme-level? God-level?”

Su Yu’s heart dropped. He took the Master’s words very seriously.

At first, it had been the Blood King who knew everything, and now this old master before him? Su Yu had not expected that reaching the Zhongzhou teleportation hub would be such a serious matter.

“My humblest apologies,” he said, bowing to the old man. He then ducked away and continued walking.

The old man looked after Su Yu as he left. There was a strange light in his eyes.

Entering the city, Su Yu looked around and observed the people on the streets. “No one seems to be in a panic about the Blood King!” he thought.

“How big is this city, in all? From north to south, isn’t it at least as vast as the Shenlong Continent? Doesn’t it take dozens of hours for news to spread here?”

“Well, then, perhaps the Blood King may still cause problems here yet.”

As Su Yu looked around, his eyes came to a halt when they reached the sky over the south of the city.

“Everything seems calm down there too. It seems to be nothing like the scenario Chen Xian was suggesting.”

If the Region of Devouring Beasts had decided to lash out and use all of its power, this certainly would not be the result.

With doubt clouding his mind, Su Yu hurried on towards the palace.

In the midst of its Golden Age, Zhongzhou City was a thriving metropolis. Its palace was bustling with activity, with crowds of people filtering in and out all day. Its teleportation spot was quite exceptional compared to others.

“There are portals of all sizes, and not one is ready for use!”

As Su Yu looked around, he saw that every teleportation hall was home to its own crowd of prospective users.

The exception was one old and decrepit portal, which had no one near it whatsoever and looked as though it had been that way for quite some time.

Yet this was the ancient portal, capable of taking someone to any of the other ancient portals. In total, there were nine of them.

Su Yu did not immediately rush forward though. Instead, he stood and waited, keeping an eye on the crowds.

That was until a group of silvery figures emerged from a teleportation portal and glided over to him. They stopped quite nonchalantly.

“How may I help you, masters of the palace?” Su Yu asked. He tried to look at the face obscured within the orb but found it was just out of reach. Each figure wore a conical hat.

“We were sent here by our superior, a Five-fold all-knowing ancient being, who sits here in this city.” The figure who spoke to Su Yu raised its conical hat, and he could see that the person’s skin truly did shine like silver.

‘A five-fold all-knowing ancient being?’ Su Yu frowned. This whole time, he had been leaning on a small fence outside of a restaurant.

If he were somehow able to ascend to the same level as this ancient being, it would require untold, impossible strength.

Such was the problem he faced those days. His losses were many, and his task grew ever-harder.

He wanted to make a fortune, and the price of doing so was not small.

“Do you have any proof of rank?” he asked. His fear was that he would have to painstakingly figure out everyone’s rank one-by-one, as he had done in Tiandao.

Since Su Yu was perhaps unfamiliar to most of the people around, his hope was that perhaps the ancient guardian had not been shown his portrait in advance, “Report back to the master that Xiao Bai is unable to ascertain the facts because the portal is closed, barring entry,” one of the group said.

“What? Entry is barred?” Su Yu asked, his brow furrowed into three deep lines.

“A declaration was posted in the palace. It said that the ancient portal was to be closed for a fortnight, so as to bar the forces from Tiandao from using it to escape the Nine Regions.”

Hearing this, Su Yu sneered. ‘So, this is all to hold onto a thief!

“The King of Tiandao is probably locked up deep beneath the imperial palace, in a dungeon so remote and dark that escape would be a miracle. So, why do they feel the need to block off the ancient portal? It must be to keep everyone else from the Nine Regions from using it.’

“So then, where is the supreme portal?” he asked. Supreme portals allowed one to teleport to neighboring regions.

“Also barred, for the same reason I just told you. It’s also protected by high-level guards.”

“Oh, this is all very deliberate,” Su Yu thought.

Gazing up at the transportation hall, he thought things over for a time.

“Entering by force is out of the question. All of Zhongzhou’s expert guards are gathered here, keeping watch. And among them, there’s a Five-fold All-knowing Ancient Being. Surely alerting even one of these guards means facing the combined strength of the lot of them.”

The Evil God knit his own brow, too, and his voice sounded in Su Yu's head. "Well, little one, it looks like your path is blocked. What are you going to do now?"

Chapter 1082: The Royal Token

Su Yu shook his head gently. "There isn't anything I can do! The eastern continent is hundreds of millions of kilometers away from the middle continent. It will take years for my wooden bird to fly there! It is only reachable by using the divine transmission portal. And if even that is not good enough, then it needs the use of the super transmission array several times in a row in order to reach the eastern continent completely before the coming of the nine days of disaster. "

The Evil God let out a sigh. "But this road is impassable. Our best solution is to break through it."

"I've already thought about it. You can rest at ease and help me to refine the ten dragon tendons," Su Yu said quietly.

The Evil God was surprised. "You have a solution to this problem?"

Su Yu nodded gently.

They looked for an inn to rest in until sunset. Suddenly, a dark shadow flitted outside the door and passed underneath the gap of the door like a piece of paper.

Su Yu took a deep breath, grabbed the shadow into his hand, unfolded it, and smiled happily as he looked at it.

In the darkness of the night, Central City was still ablaze with light.

Su Yu turned into a dark shadow and slipped into the dark alleyways leaving no trace of sound or smell.

There was a house in the narrow alley.

Standing in front of the house, Su Yu raised his fist and began to knock on the door. The door opened a crack, revealing a beautiful young girl who surveyed the space with her dark eyes. She crisply said. "Elder, may I ask, who are you looking for?"

Without a word, Su Yu flashed the purple jade pendant hidden in his palm. It had two characters carved onto it.

The young girl's crystal eyes brightened. "Please come in."

Stepping into the courtyard, Su Yu found that there was nothing else there. The interior layout was luxurious and was like a palace.

Several martial artists of different ages sat quietly in the courtyard. They talked in a low voice in groups of two and three. Suddenly, Su Yu came in and lowered his voice. His face was full of vigilance.

"Please wait, sir. When the time comes, it will start."

Su Yu nodded in acknowledgment, looking for a quiet corner in which to sit alone.

“Haha, Central City is really domineering. The divine-level transmission portal is sealed. It doesn’t give us any time to prepare for other mainland warriors. Now if you want to go back, you have to rely on special channels!”

“In my opinion, Central City is guilty of theft. Soon after the powerful Jiuzhou entered Central City, they actually closed the super transmission portal and the divine level transmission portal. The Heavenly Knife Region colluded with the Ghost Race, and the shadow of the Central Prefecture’s King is vital!”

“Don’t you understand? How can a domain master suppress this matter for a hundred years without leaving any trace? In other states, the king knows that his heart is clear, but he is not afraid to make trouble because of the identity of the Central Prefecture’s King. ”

“Yes exactly, who in Jiuzhou doesn’t know that Central Prefecture’s King is colluding with the Ghost Race? It’s just that there were heavy casualties from the earlier war between Jiuzhou and Linlang. It’s inconvenient to fight Central Prefecture’s King right now. They’re just pretending not to know, that is all. ”

“Alas, the Central Prefecture’s King is a disciple of Lord Shen Yichen. I can’t believe that he can think of betraying my beloved Jiuzhou. This is really unexpected!”

“It’s not that you and I can be involved in the affairs of Jiuzhou. It’s better to take the information we have found back to our respective states as soon as possible.”

In the midst of the honest conversation, hearty laughter came from outside the door.

“I’m sorry to keep you waiting,” said a middle-aged scholar in a plain robe as he pushed the door open to enter.

All the people in the hospital were immediately alert with caution.

“Everyone, I’m Wen Yiqing, the person in charge of Duanxian Cliff’s garrison here.” The middle-aged scholar had a clean face and a brilliant smile. He brought out a jade pendant hidden near his waist. On it was carved the word “Duanxian.”

His token was actually green in color!

“I do hope that you will show your own identification card to allow us to check your identity. It’s a big deal, and I don’t think you would want to make any mistakes. ”

Everyone in the courtyard silently took out his token. Most of them were blue in color. There was another one that was green, and other than that, one that was purple in color.

The token colors of Duanxian cliff represented the level of its owner.

Purple was ranked the lowest, followed by the blue color, and then above all of them was green.

The token color represented the members of Duanxian Cliff and their corresponding high and low statuses of contribution.

The middle-aged scholar paused slightly at the owner of the green jade pendant and the owner of the purple jade pendant, showing some signs of surprise.

For the former, it was a surprise of shock, and for the latter, a surprise laced with curiosity.

Many people in the courtyard looked curiously at the owner of the green jade pendant. It was a middle-aged woman with a humble appearance, who carried an aura of culture and wisdom that came with experience.

For a member of the Duanxian Cliff to upgrade from purple status to green status required an astronomical amount of financial contribution!

The crystal that Su Yu was using cost no less than 100 million and he had not even been promoted to the blue color!

To rise into the green status, at least one billion crystals must have been used.

How could she have amassed such a large amount of financial resources?

Then, they glanced at Su Yu with side-eyes of dismissal and unimportance.

“Very well, everyone is here to use the teleportation.” The middle-aged literati were open-minded.

He was right. The path that Su Yu wanted to take was this one of the Duanxian Cliff.

The super teleportation array and divine teleportation array were closed. Su Yu was not the only one who wanted to use this route.

They had to try their best to find underground channels, and Duanxian Cliff was the existence with an underground force.

Su Yu had sent out a message through the Tianya order and had received a notice half a day later informing him to gather here.

Like Su Yu, they were all contacted by Wen Yiqing, who was stationed in the Central City.

“Haha, from the looks of it there is no problem,” Wen Yiqing smiled and said. “To be honest with you, in order to use the channel of God level transmission array you must be able to afford the price tag on it.”

“Chueh Chueh...” The group of strongmen were either indifferent to what he had just said, or they sneered at it.

“Aren’t you getting a little ahead of yourself? At least show us some proof to let us believe that your channels are true, and then you are entitled to raise the price. If you are so anxious, I don’t think it will be possible.” An old woman with a cold face smiled coldly.

Wen Yiqing was not upset. “Haha! As the person in charge of Tianya City, how could I deceive you? Otherwise, everyone knows the rules of Duanxian cliff. I wouldn’t want to bear the fate of being hunted.”

Again the old woman spoke up, sneering and shaking her head. “This time, that time! In a time like this, the mainland is in turmoil, the ghosts and demons are all showing themselves, and Duanxian Cliff is full of soldiers. Even if you really deceive us, I’m afraid that Duanxian Cliff might not be able to chase you all the way, so I would rather show some caution.”

Wen Yiqing was angry, but sighed, “Well, since you have doubts, I will show you something, and I believe that you will be able to make a rational judgment from there.”

At the end of the speech, Wen Yiqing took out a golden token, which contained a unique flavor that could not be imitated.

“The order of the Central Prefecture’s King?” The indifference in the old woman’s eyes faded slowly. This was an object that she recognized.

Su Yu’s eyes also lit up. The Central Prefecture’s King had actually granted him the order of power to allow them to violate some prohibitions and to do things in a way that was convenient for him.

For example, he was able to disregard the prohibitions, such as not to move in the Void or not to use force. In other words, he had privileges.

“Royal power order. That can overcome the ban of closing the divine level transmission portal?” said the old woman suspiciously.

With a smile, Wen Yiqing said, “I’ve tried it myself recently. It’s unimpeded! See this order, the forerunner of the array guard. It will be released automatically. There is no obstacle in its way! ”

Hearing this, all the people present showed surprise.

Following this, a leisurely light voice rang out. “I have another question, and I don’t know if I should ask it now or not?”

“Please speak your mind.” Wen Yiqing did not despise Su Yu because he was the only lowly purple member. On the contrary, he showed special respect for him, his eyes sparkling bright with interest.

Chapter 1083: Plotting an Escape

Su Yu asked, “Your excellency, how did you manage to get the Central Prefecture’s King royal order? This royal order is issued by the Central Prefecture’s King, and it is not transferable to anyone. Are you the King’s man? If that is the case, I’m afraid I have to be worried about your excellency’s intentions.”

There had always only been one way to obtain the royal order from the Central Prefecture’s King, and that was to receive it personally!

Besides that, if it were to land in the hands of an outsider, the royal order would shatter into pieces on its own.

The eyes of the crowd all looked over. This was the burning question that they wanted to ask as well. Everyone glanced at Su Yu, impressed with him. Even though his cultivation was of an ordinary level, he had been very meticulous.

Wen Yiqing sneered. "Not only am I the Central Prefecture's King's man, but I am also the person he trusts the most, the son of the Heavenly Knife Region's Chief Deputy Region Master!"

Upon hearing that, everyone's expression changed slightly.

Heavenly Knife Region? Isn't... isn't that the region that colluded with the Ghost Clan?

The Chief Deputy Region Master was second only to the Region Master. He definitely was involved in the collusion with the Ghost Race as well!

But what about his son?

Su Yu suddenly came to a realization. This was actually the Deputy Master's son!

Among the crowd on the day that Su Yu was being hunted down, a few of the deputy region masters participated as well. Only the Chief Deputy Region Master was absent. Otherwise, it would be unpredictable who would have died that day.

"This command token was given to me when my father brought me to see the Central Prefecture's King a few years ago because the king acknowledged my ingenuity." Wen Yiqing kept a smile on his face, but it was a wan smile, "You must be wondering why someone like me, who is closely related to the Central Prefecture, would be helping you, right?"

This was what everyone was worried about.

"I know that you are all from the great authorities of Jiuzhou. I will use this command token to release all of you from Central Prefecture. However, please take back a message to your respective region masters. This is the price that I ask for in return of this favor, to take back an important message." Wen Yiqing's face twitched gently as if he was suppressing agony.

Just take back a message? What message could be so important?

"Please convey the message to your respective authority. The Glittering Jewel Demonic God is in the Central Prefecture! Right in... the royal palace!!!" Fear, hatred, and sorrow flashed across Wen Yiqing's eyes.

Everyone present began to stand up after they heard his words. They could feel a sudden chill down their spines.

"Did... did you say that she... she's in this city?" The old woman suddenly stood up, her aged face revealing fear.

Ever since the Royal Beast State was turned into a ghost town, who would not fear the terrifying demon race that devoured the souls and hearts of humans?

The rest of the All Creation Old Monsters turned pale.

“What you said, is it true?” There were some whose voices were trembling.

Wen Yiqing looked at the sky with a sorrowful smile. “My father was eaten alive by this demon. Do you think I’m lying or telling the truth?”

“Please explain in detail.” This incident was too shocking. The demon’s race Glittering Jewel Fairy, who was severely injured by the prefecture kings’ joint attacks, was unexpectedly hiding in this city. Furthermore, she was hiding in the royal palace where a prefecture king was living. Just listening to this would cause them to tremble with fear.

Wen Yiqing said, “My father was summoned to the royal palace with the reason that the Central Prefecture’s King wanted to see him. Two hours later, the life token shattered into pieces, with a message revealed that the Glittering Jewel Demonic God was in the palace!”

Everyone gasped as they heard his words.

If this were true, it was truly horrifying!

They began to shudder at the thought that the Glittering Jewel Demonic God was nearby.

What was more terrifying was that this would mean that the Central Prefecture’s King was not only colluding with the Ghost Clan but also... the Demon Clan!

They would have asked for the chance to take this piece of news back to their respective prefectures, even if Wen Yiqing did not request it!

“Excuse me, did you fabricate the news of a bloodthirsty demon king that devours hearts and souls in the Central Prefecture?” Su Yu tried to find out more. Could it be all a deliberate act because Wen Yiqing wanted to spread the news?

However, Wen Yiqing furrowed his eyebrows and shook his head. “No, that was not fabricated. It is true. Today, somewhere nearby the South City, there indeed appeared a bloodied existence with deadly aura, who seemed like it just came out from hell. It was digging out hearts, devouring hearts and souls at the sight of people. It was extremely cruel! It later escaped after being defeated by the highly skilled warriors and could not be found. This was most definitely not planned by me.”

Everyone was stunned when they heard those words.

If it was the Glittering Jewel Fairy, how could it be banished by ordinary highly skilled warriors?

It must be an existence that also happened to devour hearts and souls.

“For self-protection, I remained silent and pretended that I was unaware of anything. I attempted to leave the Central Prefecture to spread the news, but I have no connections or foundations on the other continents. Nobody would believe me. However, you’re different because if the news were to be brought back by you, it would catch the attention of the authorities.” Wen Yiqing got on his knees and bowed. “This is the message from my father right before his death. Even at the brink of his death, he must be worried about the safety of the continent. Please be sure to convey this message when you return, so that my father didn't die in vain!"

His words somehow touched their hearts. Besides, they had the responsibility and obligation to take the news back.

"Comrade Wen please get up. We are duty-bound to get involved in this matter anyway."

Su Yu asked, "Comrade Wen, I would like to know when we will be leaving?"

"Tomorrow," Wen Yiqing said. "I will use executing missions as the reason, and the rest of you will pretend to be my followers. Everything should work out fine."

Everyone took a moment to consider this and gradually nodded their heads.

Back at the inn, Su Yu meditated with no expression on his face. He was practicing his cultivation calmly.

"Hey kid, you are really composed," the evil god sniggered.

Su Yu's eyes remained closed. "Leaving the Central Prefecture will definitely be a success!"

The evil god replied, "Hopefully everything goes well."

Hopefully.

The next morning, Su Yu woke up and went into the city to find a shop that sold two-thousand-year spiritual herbs.

The item he wanted gave the shopkeeper a shock. Spiritual herbs were not high-tier items, and they could be bought in the city.

What surprised the shopkeeper was the age of the spiritual herbs requested. They were exactly two thousand years old. They were rare items that could only be seen every several years and were of great value.

Su Yu easily got his hands on one hundred middle-grade crystals, which were equivalent to ten thousand crystals when converted to low-grade crystals. That would be enough for the consumption to activate the Transportation Spell Divine Level twice.

As agreed, Su Yu arrived at the yard to meet up with the people who had been present yesterday and Wen Yiqing. Everyone disguised themselves as the men of Wen Yiqing and arrived at the hall of the Transportation Spell Divine Level.

"Stop right there. Transportation is temporarily not allowed." The guard was a short but ingenious, sharp-chinned old man. His cultivation base was abnormally terrifying.

A pair of sharp eyes scanned them, and a few of the All Creation Old Monsters trembled as they felt a tremendous amount of pressure.

"Elder You, this is the royal order. Please take a look," Wen Yiqing said with a slight smile as he handed the command token over.

Elder You frowned slightly. “You just came yesterday! What is your purpose for activating it again today? What mission requires you to travel twice? And also, who are these people?”

These questions put everyone on tenterhooks.

Wen Yiqing smiled politely and replied smoothly, “The mission is a direct order from the Prefecture’s king. I am currently unable to reveal it. If Elder You would like to know about it, I will personally explain it to you once the mission is over. How about that? As for these people, the reason why I’m back this time is that I realized that we were lacking manpower. That’s why I came to dispatch more people from the palace.”

Unexpectedly, the old man whose surname was You stood up and laughed coldly. “People from the palace! What a joke! I’ve been in the palace for so many years; how come I’ve never seen any of them before? If you want to lie, you’ve got to do a better job at covering it up!”

Traces of murderous intent were released from the body of Elder You!

Not good!! The color of everyone’s faces changed dramatically. He had seen through their plans!

Chapter 1084: Death Trap

“Huhuh, relax Elder You, relax.” Wen Yiqing moved forward, displayed a high-quality crystal, and stuffed it in the elder’s hands.

Only then did Elder You’s face ease a little. He took the crystal without turning a hair as his eyes glanced at the others.

Seeing this, they sighed with relief. It turned out that he had deliberately been making things difficult to extort some benefits.

Everyone smiled as they presented valuable gifts to Elder You, putting a sprinkle of joy on his face. He loosened his lips. “You may proceed.

”

What baffled everyone, including Wei Yiqing, was that Elder You did not demand any gifts from Su Yu and treated him as if he didn’t exist.

But peculiarities aside, they were reluctant to complicate things at this crucial moment, and thus, entered the teleportation station alongside Su Yu.

After inserting the crystal, the teleportation portal slowly began spiraling, and they felt a deep sense of relief.

Pssshu!

There was a thud, indicating they had been successfully teleported.

However, they felt something strange was going on.

“This isn’t right! The prefecture I live in is very far away. The teleportation would at least go on for an hour, why would it...

”

“Beware everyone! This is a short-distance teleportation spell!! It is not the divine-level teleportation spell!”

...

Within the Great Teleportation Hall, Elder You revealed a cruel smirk at the corner of his mouth as he retrieved a hidden magical treasure from an inconspicuous corner of the teleportation station.

The magical treasure was a simple teleportation portal capable of being disguised.

They had all believed they were stepping on a divine-level teleportation portal. Little did they know that they had actually stepped onto a simple teleportation portal that had been swapped out.

The place they were teleported to was naturally not the prefecture they had wanted to go to.

They were panic-stricken. They quickly sized up their surroundings, only to find a scene that sent chills down their bones.

They had not been teleported to any recognizable part of Jiuzhou. They had been sent into a dark chamber.

In the chamber, corpses were lying all over the ground. All their hearts had been dug out, and their souls had gone astray!

The soaring stench of blood accompanied by the strong putrid smell of death was extremely uncomfortable.

“Huh-uh, so many have arrived. How thoughtful of you, Yiqing.” A hoarse yet pleasant voice came from a murky corner.

A demonic lady came toward them with light footsteps. She had streaming white hair, purple lips, and bloody eyes!

Her face was ethereal, but a demonic aura was emanating from all over her body!

Seeing this person, everyone’s heart sank.

“The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy!!”

No one had seen her in person, but they had seen her portrait that had been circulated across the realm!

With astonishment, they realized that the person in the chamber was the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy herself!

“Wen Yiqing! Y... you betrayed us! The previously apathetic old woman was trembling, either in anger or fear.

Wen Yiqing was respectfully kneeling in front of the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy. His back was facing the crowd and without even looking back, he said indifferently, “How great an honor it is to supply the master with your flesh and blood and to become one with her splendor!”

“You! Have you been lying to us all along? Have you forged the story of your father’s death too?”

Wen Yiqing stood up, turned around, and looked at the crowd with compassion. “Of course that is true! It is just that after I received the message about my father, I felt that we should all turn to the master. No good will dawn upon us if we were to oppose her. Hence, I wished to go with the current, aiding the master by subtly gathering all the aces from the city for her to replenish her Primordial Qi.”

“To gain your trust, I had to put up a better act in everything, whether important or trivial.”

Hearing his words, the crowd felt iciness in their limbs!

This was simply a trap that had been set for them!

Who would care about the whereabouts of those powerful individuals who had left the Central Prefecture?

Even if someone discovered their disappearance, it had not happened within the boundaries of the Central Prefecture!

“You, scum, devoid of conscience, to hell with you!” The old woman surged with killing intent and jabbed her crutch at Wen Yiqing.

In the next moment, her body was abruptly blown up like a balloon, and she became a pile of flesh!

A beating heart appeared in the hands of the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy who was standing in the same spot as if she hadn’t moved at all. Amidst a bloody smile, she devoured the beating heart!

The scene struck fear into the crowd, depriving them of even the courage to resist as they waited to be slaughtered.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy was indulging in pleasure as she acclaimed, “Well done. Carry on your work in luring those aces from the city. When my Primordial Qi recovers, aiding you into becoming a mortal fairy will be a cakewalk.”

Wen Yiqing wore a passionate expression but was slightly surprised after he glanced at Su Yu behind him. “Master, are you not planning to feast on that person?”

“Hm? Is there someone behind you?” The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy looked around. There was no one.

Wen Yiqing was shocked. He turned his head around to look at Su Yu who was right in front of his very eyes and turned back to look at the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy with a bewildered expression.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy narrowed her eyes slightly. “Could I not see the person that you could?”

“Who are you?” Wen Yiqing asked Su Yu, coming to his senses.

In spite of that, Su Yu just stood in front of him. He was motionless and his hands were clasped behind his back.

Feeling that something wasn’t right, Wen Yiqing yelled and charged towards Su Yu. His attack pierced through his body. Su Yu’s body of blood and flesh crumbled, splattering blood everywhere.

Wen Yiqing became even more confused. Could he have seen a ghost?

“Master, I...” Wen Yiqing was unable to comprehend what had just happened.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy closed her eyes. When she reopened them, a slender ray penetrated Wen Yiqing.

Wen Yiqing was abruptly possessed. His vision rippled as if something was dispelled.

“Ah! His corpse is missing!” Appalled, Wen Yiqing discovered that Su Yu’s body had vanished into thin air. Even the bloodstains on his body were all gone.

“You have run into a master in illusionary techniques,” the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy said faintly. “What I lifted from you just now was an illusion technique. I’m afraid that this person has already seen through your luring schemes.”

Wen Yiqing was shocked. “What? An illusionary technique? Was what I saw of him an illusion all along?”

He suddenly recalled that Elder You who was looking after the teleportation station had also disregarded Su Yu’s existence entirely.

At first, he thought that Elder You had been looking down on his cultivation and so, was treating him most contemptuously, not even bothering to ask him for some benefits.

Thinking about it now, it was because Elder You was not under an illusionary technique. Hence, he had never seen Su Yu!

In the meantime, he and the rest of the All Creation Old Monsters were all put under an illusion and thought that Su Yu was around.

In fact, Su Yu’s actual-self had already retreated long ago when he placed all of them under an illusion.

They had not discovered anything about him from the beginning until the end!

“So where is he now?” said Wen Yiqing in dismay.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy said, “We’ll find out presently. Our plans have almost succeeded. We should leave via the divine-level teleportation portal.”

“What? Wouldn’t we mess things up in this way? Master, your existence might be exposed, drawing powerful individuals from all across Jiuzhou.” Wen Yiqing turned pale.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy, however, said casually, “I have recovered 30% of my Primordial Qi. If it isn’t at least two Mortal Fairies working together, whoever comes to me will become mere supplements to my Primordial Qi!”

Hearing that, Wen Yiqing was slightly relieved.

“There is still someone in here, but I’m afraid that she has also escaped,” the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy said indifferently while pointing at an unsightly woman.

"This body has long withered and has already been taken away. I presume that she is already close to success in using the divine-level teleportation portal by now."

Wen Yiqing was drenched in cold sweat as he dropped to his knees. "Please forgive me, Master! My incompetence has allowed two people to escape!"

"Your cultivation is too low. You're not to be blamed. Um, are you aware of the identity of the two?" the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy asked. After the emergence of the divine energy outburst, she had been cautious. She relocated herself to the chamber and had completely sealed her aura.

Now that two suspicious individuals had appeared, she couldn't resist asking about them as she had always felt uneasy on the inside.

"I'm not quite sure about that woman, but I do recognize that young man! Speaking of which, you would've recognized him too, master. My original intention was to bring him back for you as a surprise."

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy was surprised. "Oh? Who is he?"

"Su Yu."

"What? Him?!" In an instant, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy's white hair rose into the air as a terrifying aura rippled across her body with her demonic face inundated within rage and bitterness. The expression on her face was just like that of a malicious spirit!

"Hahahaha, Su Yu, Su Yu. You refuse to walk on the path of heaven but have chosen to break into hell with no door!!!" The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy lifted her head unleashing a sinister laugh, while awe-inspiringly ejecting chilling demonic energy from her fingers as she morphed into an inky mist and vanished within the chamber.

Chapter 1085: Using the Enemy's Strategy against Them

Outside the temple, within a restaurant, sat a handsome young man. His presence shone like the full moon on a clear night. Confidence adorned every aspect of him.

"Wen Yiqing is likely to show his face soon. Is he in conflict with those that fell for the trap?"

Su Yu looked coldly on. He did not suspect Wen Yiqing's position as the Heavenly Knife Region's Great Deputy Region Master nor did he doubt what had befallen the previous Great Deputy Region Master. What he feared was Wen Yiqing's motive.

At first, it had sounded logical. But as one thought deeper, things began to unravel.

First, it was too coincidental. Just when they needed to use the Transportation Spell Divine Level, they had run into Wen Yiqing, the terribly distressed victim of Glittering Jewel Demonic God? Su Yu believed in coincidences, but his experience told him that this was too circumstantial.

Su Yu had another reason to distrust the situation. He had firsthand knowledge of the terrors of fighting with the Glittering Jewel Demonic God. Su Yu could not understand how the Great Deputy Region Master, while facing imminent death, could still use his soul to return the message. This might have fooled the others, but not Su Yu.

And so, Su Yu felt that Wen Yiqing was hiding something. After a night of contemplation, he decided to let go of this opportunity.

Sure enough, from within the spell Elder You used, Su Yu had found a hidden simple transportation spell which confirmed Su Yu's suspicions.

Su Yu had good reason not to let everyone know of his doubts.

This whole matter was still guesswork without a shred of evidence. Would they even believe him if he told them this was a trap?

Also, Su Yu risked alerting the enemy. Wen Yiqing was aware of Su Yu and if his identity was revealed, it would put him in danger.

So, Su Yu chose to use illusory techniques to monitor the situation.

"I hope they can get themselves out of danger. I should also get moving." If Wen Yiqing were to harm them, Su Yu would use Wen Yiqing's own move against him. He could take advantage of Wen Yiqing's strategy and leave by using the Transportation Spell Divine Level.

Su Yu's eyes flickered in the strange waves of light as he used the illusory techniques of the Illusionary Soul Realm.

Now everyone would see him as Wen Yiqing!

At the temple's door, Su Yu ran up and smiling, said, "Elder You."

Elder You lifted his head and saw Wen Yiqing. His face brightened as he spoke expectantly, "Ah, my nephew... how are things?"

Su Yu promptly responded, "Thanks to Elder You, I was able to fool them. The Master is extremely happy."

"To make the Master happy, my little effort is not important. I only hope that the Master does not forget me."

"Haha, do not worry, Master's Primordial Qi has recovered greatly. With several more people, she will recover peak condition and will be able to guide you in your practice. It will not be a problem to break through to the Mortal Fairy Realm. I, as your junior, am sincerely envious!"

The words invigorated Elder You. His face was flushed red and his eyes revealed his great excitement. "Hahaha... who is junior? Who is senior? Have I not said earlier, just call me Elder... sigh, my dear nephew, I still hope you speak well of me in front of the Master."

As he spoke, Elder You took out some gemstones and with a beaming smile, stuffed them into Su Yu's palm.

Su Yu accepted the gemstones with a smile. His expression showing a guarded understanding of the situation.

“That’s right. Elder You, the Master has ordered me to go to Eastern Continent. I have to take care of a certain matter,” Su Yu said matter-of-factly.

Elder You was taken aback by this news. The Eastern Continent?

However, without suspicion, Elder You hurriedly responded, “You cannot be slow with Master’s orders. I will not keep you. Quickly, borrow the Transportation Spell.”

As he spoke, Elder You helped Su Yu begin the Transportation Spell.

“Thank you for your help, Elder You,” Su Yu clasped his fist in his palm, then took his leave and jumped into the portal.

Accompanied by the spell’s motion, the Void’s power enveloped Su Yu and transported him.

Su Yu inconspicuously wiped his brow. Fortunately, he had made it through.

Normally, Su Yu’s illusory technique would not fool a Fifth Level All Creation Old Monster. The highest being his technique could successfully fool was at the Third Level.

However, Elder You was deep within Central Prefecture, and his alert was low and vigilance was not on his mind. He also wanted to please Wen Yiqing and likely overlooked any gaps in Su Yu’s illusion.

Moreover, Su Yu had conversed fluently and did not make any obvious mistakes. Only with all of this combined was Su Yu able to fool the Fifth Level All Creation Old Monster.

The Transportation Spell opened and at the same moment, a person entered the temple.

The person’s body shape was slightly round. His eyes were narrow and long and made him look especially wicked. It was the old Heavenly Knife Region Master!

His form drifted over as his voice roared, “Has Su Yu been found?”

Elder You turned his head and solemnly replied, “Your underling is glad to see you, Region Master.”

He smirked, unable to control a face that revealed contempt at the appearance of the diminished Region Master. Only in the present company would the Region Master have any room for arrogance. In front of the other Central Prefecture Kings, he would not have been able to even lift his head.

However, this was a serious matter. Elder You did not dare to fake his obedience and directly responded, “As per my King’s orders, I have diligently watched the Transportation Spell to prevent Su Yu from using it as a means of escape.”

As they hunted for Su Yu, the Central Prefecture’s King had been prepared.

In order to keep Su Yu from coming into Central Prefecture City and using the Transportation Spell, the King had specifically asked Transportation Spell Protectors to be vigilant in watching for Su Yu.

They had all seen Su Yu’s image. Even if only ash remained of Su Yu, they would recognize him.

Once Su Yu appeared, he would be caught immediately.

“Hmm, if he hasn’t then that’s good. A message came from North City that someone looking like Su Yu had come to Central Prefecture City. I came to investigate,” said the Heavenly Knife Region Master.

Elder You shook his head. “He has not appeared. The transportation port never opened.”

The Heavenly Knife Region Master released his breath. His cold stare once again reflected the fury he felt inside. He was a Region Master! How had it come to this? Like a dog without a home, the Region Master had hidden within the Central Prefecture City, buried in humiliation. The only way to rid himself of this shame and anger was to reduce Su Yu to bones and ash.

As to coming out to investigate, that was just a formality.

He did not believe that Su Yu would have the audacity to come alone to Central Prefecture, straight into the lion’s mouth.

This was the stronghold of the Central Prefecture’s King!

Having heard Elder You’s response, Heavenly Knife Region Master was nonchalant as his glance passed over the still moving portal. Curiously, he asked, “Who has used the transportation portal? Didn’t you say it was closed?”

“Ah, it is the Master’s new assistant, Wen Yiqing, acting on orders to go to the Eastern Continent.”

The Heavenly Knife Region Master did not take the sound of that name lightly. He looked over, coldly smiled and nodded his head to acknowledge the Elder.

However, his simple reaction did not show the thoughts that went through him at that moment.

The human form within the portal had long silvery hair, a tall frame, and a handsome face. Who could it be but Su Yu?

He felt himself being sucked into an illusion. Biting his tongue and staring intently, he said in shock, “Su Yu!”

At his side, Elder You jumped up in agitation. “Su Yu? What is Master saying? Where is he?”

Elder You looked all around him and not finding anything reminiscent of Su Yu, confusedly stood still.

The Heavenly Knife Region Master, in a frenzy, stared hard at Elder You and roared, “You useless dog! How dare you hide a wanted criminal right under my eyes?”

Annoyed at the Region Master’s behavior, Elder You wondered whether the Heavenly Knife Region Master’s mind was affected. How could he accuse someone with no reason?

Just as his anger at the Region Master reached boiling point, Elder You suddenly felt that something was wrong. He thought again of Su Yu.

He had not doubted Su Yu’s identity before because he did not realize the illusory technique that he was under.

However, when the Heavenly Knife Region Master had shown up, he began to wonder.

As a Fifth Level All Creation Old Monster, once he had doubts, the illusory technique no longer held his mind.

He looked again at Su Yu, standing within the portal. Where was Wen Yiqing? This was a stranger!

The young face was exactly the one that Central Prefecture's King needed to be captured, Su Yu!

Su Yu could only sigh silently as the Heavenly Knife Region Master broke into the portal at the last moment.

Chapter 1086: Identity Debunked

"Ah! Su Yu!!" Elder You was greatly surprised. Now, he had realized that he had been tricked by an Illusionary Technique!

He was shocked and totally annoyed. An important criminal had almost escaped on his watch!

On second thoughts, he was pleasantly surprised.

Since the Central Prefecture's King had ascended the throne 100 years ago, he had seldom bothered about trifling matters. However, he offered a great reward for this person, which meant that this person had attracted the attention of the King.

"If I could kill him, I guess the King will definitely think highly of me! Maybe I will be appointed as the Master of a Region!"

"Little rascal, you've fallen into my hands today! You will never be able to get away!" Elder You shouted as he immediately ran over. Then, he viciously attacked the transportation portal which he had activated

He had made up his mind to knock down Su Yu ahead of the Heavenly Knife Region Master to scramble for credit and make amends for what he did before.

The attack of a Stage Five All Creations Old Monster was horrible! His powerful attack shocked the transportation portal which was still running. Then, the transportation was interrupted.

Su Yu sighed in his heart. "It seems I have to defeat him quickly. Otherwise, I will be held up by the experts who will come to this place later," he thought.

With an aggressive light flashing in his eyes, Su Yu waved his palm. Three silvery swords started to fly around in the sky behind his back. Then, the swords disappeared into the Void and started to prepare something under the control of Su Yu.

"Be careful of that sword formation!" the Heavenly Knife Region Master reminded Elder You as he started to attack Su Yu from the other side.

"Humph!" You Xin snorted. He thought that the Heavenly Knife Region Master was trying to create fear deliberately so that he could get the credit for killing Su Yu.

He didn't believe Su Yu could be very powerful!

Being attacked by two people at the same time, Su Yu managed to defend himself and even fight back without hurry or bustle.

“The Great Sun Punishes Fairy!” A black blazing sun appeared in Su Yu’s two palms. It looked like Han Fei’s Heavenly Demon Black Sun. However, it was much more powerful!

Seeing this, Elder You’s expression changed abruptly. The Heavenly Knife Region Master also stepped back immediately in terror.

“What’s this?” Both of them were shocked.

They sensed great danger from those blazing suns as if they would be evaporated after being touched by the flames.

Apparently, those suns were formed by the thunderous fiber in the Tribulation of Thunderous Feather left from the Great Sun Punishment Fairy Picture.

Yesterday, Su Yu had tried to perform this technique in training. Maybe the Thunderous Fibers he stored were very powerful, and the progress of his training was pretty good. He had reached Stage one successfully. Now, he was able to use a little of the Thunderous Fibers in it.

Therefore, his attack could not only terrify the All Creation experts but also force Mortal Fairies to take evasive action.

Su Yu had planned to use it as his secret weapon to surprise his opponents. However, Su Yu had to use it now to avoid a prolonged fight.

“This can kill both of you!” Su Yu shouted coldly. Now, he just wanted to kill his two opponents with magnificent strength. Then, he would leave by using the Legendary Transportation Portal.

“Oh, no! Just ask Zhan Wushuang to come here!” Elder You shouted as his expression once again changed abruptly. He prepared to leave in terror.

Those horrible black suns had terrified Elder You completely. His instinct told him that those things were extremely dangerous and could even kill Mortal Fairies!

Now, the most powerful expert in the city was Zhan Wushuang, who was an unprecedentedly powerful king.

The Heavenly Knife Region Master felt his eyelids twitch rapidly. He couldn’t help but curse secretly in his heart. He hadn’t expected this guy to obtain such a dangerous and powerful weapon after a few days!

After a short hesitation, the Heavenly Knife Region Master stepped back and shouted, “You go back and inform the experts in the Imperial Palace. I will cover you!”

He knew the black sun was very dangerous. However, if he could stay away from Su Yu, the black sun was harmless.

All in all, Su Yu’s strength was not powerful enough. Otherwise, he could catch up with the Heavenly Knife Region Master, who could never keep a distance from him.

Elder You stepped back and was about to leave without any hesitation. He tore the Void open and was about to leave the transportation hall so that he could find reinforcements from the Imperial Palace to kill Su Yu.

“Do you think you can leave here?” Su Yu said calmly as a purple light flashed in his left eye.

“Time Freeze!” Su Yu shouted in a low voice. Then, You Xin and the Heavenly Knife Region Master were covered in the purple light.

Their bodies were frozen at the same time. Now, they were not able to move their limbs at all. The only part of their bodies that were still functional were their brains.

Compared to You Xin, the Heavenly Knife Region Master could break away from the restraint of the Time Passage. He shouted in surprise, “Time Passage! How... how could you...”

The Heavenly Knife Region Master was totally shocked when he saw Su Yu’s palms which were flying towards him rapidly. He knew he had to dodge the attack immediately. So, he tore the Void open and escaped by jumping into it.

However, the Time Freeze managed to slow the Heavenly Knife Region Master down. His movements were very slow.

“Humph!” The Heavenly Knife Region Master heard a cold snort from Su Yu as he tried to hit his back with a black blazing sun.

Instantly, the Heavenly Knife Region Master sensed the smell of death.

However, his survival instinct was activated at this crucial moment. The Heavenly Knife Region Master let out a powerful roar as he placed a cone that was full of spiritual pressure behind his back to stop the black blazing sun in Su Yu’s hand.

Apparently, it was a rare fairy artifact!

Chi! Chi! The blazing sun landed on the fairy artifact and made some noises as if it was corroding the artifact. Then, the fairy artifact was burnt to ashes by the black blazing sun bit by bit.

At the same time, the black blazing sun was also being weakened gradually.

When the fairy artifact was half-ruined, the black blazing sun disappeared completely.

However, there was another black blazing sun in Su Yu’s left hand.

After using up the black sun in his right hand, Su Yu attacked with his left hand without hesitation.

After a short while, the half-ruined fairy artifact was turned to ashes completely.

The Heavenly Knife Region Master took this opportunity to jump into the Void and escape successfully.

Elder You, who had witnessed the destruction of the fairy artifact, was totally shocked. What the hell was that thing?

Just at this moment, Su Yu stared at Elder You and coldly said, “I didn’t want to kill you and I just wanted to leave the Central Prefecture. You forced me to fight my way out! So, don’t blame my cruelty!”

Scratch!

With a dull sound, the remaining power of Thunderous Fibers in Su Yu’s left palm flew towards the Elder You’s back rapidly.

At this crucial moment, You Xin’s survival instinct was also activated. He managed to break away from the restraint of the Time Freeze and tried to jump into the Void like the Heavenly Knife Region Master.

However, he was too slow. The next moment, Su Yu’s palm landed on his back heavily.

Puff!

Along with a dull sound, the remaining power of the Thunderous Fibers, which had failed to turn Elder You into ashes, penetrated his heart and destroyed his soul directly.

Elder You rolled his eyes and died. His body fell out of the Void and landed in front of Su Yu.

Su Yu removed his Space Ring and jumped onto the Legendary Transportation Portal immediately. Then, he activated the portal and prepared to leave.

The noise in the area startled the experts in the city. Now, a lot of experts were rushing towards the transportation hall.

When they rushed into the hall, they saw Su Yu who was about to be transported.

Most of them didn’t know Su Yu’s young face. However, one of them managed to recognize Su Yu.

“It’s him! Su Yu! He is an important criminal wanted by our King! Anyone who can kill or capture Su Yu will be received by the King and can request the King to grant a wish! The King might even agree to accept this guy as his apprentice...” Someone who recognized Su Yu shouted in surprise. However, when he realized he shouldn’t share this precious information, it was too late!

The next moment, all the people in the hall started to stare at Su Yu greedily.

Chapter 1087: Waves of Enemies

The silence was broken by a weapon that hit the spell heavily.

Instantly, the running spell was once again stopped by it.

Even if it was a Legendary Transportation Spell, it still couldn’t stand any interference by an external force.

The transportation had failed again, which greatly disappointed Su Yu.

As expected, his worst fears were being realized!

He had played his trump card, but the noise he had made had startled the powerful enemies in the city and attracted them to this place.

Killing intent was raging in Su Yu's eyes. He didn't want to resort to force to solve his problems. However, at the moment, things were tending to turn out just the opposite of what he wished.

"You are seeking your death!" Su Yu shouted coldly as he looked at the person dashing towards him. He weaved signs with his hands to summon a vast lake full of Demonic Energy under his feet. Then, a gigantic Demonic Dragon jumped out from the lake with a deafening roar.

The person running towards Su Yu was just a Stage One All Creation Old Monster. In an instant, he was crushed by the sudden attack of the Demonic Dragon. It was all over before he could even scream.

Su Yu's attack shocked most of the martial artists here. However, some famous All Creation Old Monsters were still itching to try their luck against him.

"Humph! Let me knock you down!" a Stage Two All Creation Old Monster shouted as he shot out ten strands of light, which looked quite substantial, from his index finger. These light beams penetrated the gigantic Demonic Dragon's body like sword energy.

The Demonic Dragon struggled but failed to free itself from the sword energy light beams. The Demonic Energy began to dissipate, and the Demonic Dragon let out one more angry roar before exploding. The explosion ruined the entire transportation hall.

Su Yu was quite calm. He lifted his right hand as a strand of long and silvery sword energy appeared in his palm. Then, he started to wave the sword energy in the air.

The Stage Two All Creation Old Monster who had just destroyed the Demonic Dragon sensed a strand of silvery light was rapidly flying towards him before he had time to celebrate his victory.

"Get lost!" The Stage Two All Creation Old Monster, who didn't know what he was facing, crossed his index fingers to weave a fine net. It was made from ten strands of substantial light and the warrior tried to use it to rebound the strand of silvery light.

However, when the silvery light touched the net, the ten light beams were splintered like bubbles.

His body was also penetrated by the silvery light, and he was cut into two halves across his waist!

A mighty Stage Two All Creation Old Monster was killed in such an unconventional way. It seemed that even his soul had been eliminated.

After killing two enemies, Su Yu managed to intimidate the first batch of powerful opponents who had arrived from outside the hall.

Finally, these people remembered Su Yu was that powerful person who had fought the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy and had killed the talented Demon Devouring Emperor from the Second Starry Sky!

Nobody could underestimate his strength!

All at once, all those people were terrified and nobody dared to step forward!

“What a group of cowards! Will he be able to defeat all the powerful martial artists in the Central Prefecture of the continent alone?” Someone in the crowd tried to instigate people to act.

A greedy light appeared in those frightened eyes again.

Anyone who could kill Su Yu could present himself before the Central Prefecture’s King and have all his requests satisfied! Indeed, this was an unprecedented opportunity for everyone here.

Su Yu was extremely dangerous, but it was impossible for him to defeat everyone in this area.

If all of them attacked Su Yu at the same time, he would definitely run out of physical strength soon.

And the luckiest one among them would strike a deadly blow.

Compared to the risk, the rewards would be extraordinarily high!

Man proposes, God disposes! Whether we will rise in this world or not will be decided today! Let’s attack him together!” The same sinister voice tried to instigate the crowd again.

The martial artists of the Central Prefecture who had already been stirred up started to walk towards Su Yu with their teeth clenched and their eyes fiery.

One, two, three...

At last, several hundred people were all dashing towards Su Yu, including a Divine Master and dozens of All Creation powerful experts.

In their eyes, Su Yu was a big bounty.

At this moment, numerous powerful experts were also heading straight for the transportation hall. They encircled Su Yu in a number of rings.

Among these people, Su Yu sensed many horrible auras.

Standing in the ruins of the transportation hall, Su Yu glanced at the innumerable martial artists who were staring at him with knife-like eyes.

After taking a deep breath, Su Yu lifted up his head and ran fearlessly towards his enemies!

A gigantic Demonic Dragon was flying behind him. The sword energy in his right hand started to sweep across the area.

A large number of martial artists from the Central Prefecture who were rushing towards Su Yu were killed like moths darting into a flame.

However, as their casualties grew heavier, the greedy flames in these people’s eyes became more rampant.

“This nefarious murderer, who has killed too many martial artists from the Central Prefecture, is unforgivable. Anyone has the right to kill him! What are we waiting for? Kill him!”

“The one who is wanted by our unparalleled King is definitely a villain! As righteous men of the Central Prefecture, we shall kill him to coincide with God’s will and save the people of the world!”

Su Yu’s attack didn’t intimidate these people but stirred up their murderous desires. They continued to run towards Su Yu as their ridiculous reasoning echoed through the air.

This group of corrupt and unprincipled guys considered themselves as righteous men!

Su Yu’s eyes were icy. He was not influenced by the craziness of these people but just continued to kill them.

The Divine Master and many All Creation powerful experts were killed by Su Yu’s sword energy. Some of them even lost their souls when they were killed.

In a short while, the ruins of the teleportation hall were soaked in blood. Over 100 people had been killed. The entire area was full of corpses.

The people of the Central Prefecture hadn’t seen such a bloody fight with such a high number of casualties for many years.

Despite this, more and more enemies were still continuing to head straight for Su Yu!

More and more people who couldn’t resist the temptation participated in this bloody fight.

Like a small boat in the tempestuous waves, Su Yu was about to be devoured by his ferocious enemies.

Scratch!

With a deafening sound, the Void was torn open above these people’s heads. Several extremely powerful auras appeared from the gap in the Void!

One aura was from the returning Heavenly Knife Region Master. Three white-haired old men were standing beside him.

The people were surprised that these old men were also high-ranking experts who were as powerful as the region masters!

When he saw Su Yu’s current situation, the Heavenly Knife Region Master was pleasantly surprised.

The Black Blazing Sun used by Su Yu just now was extremely terrifying and even caused lingering fear in his heart.

When he saw Su Yu was about to run out of strength, he couldn’t help but smile hideously. Su Yu, Su Yu! Why did you rush into the Central City as the Central Prefecture’s King expected you to do?. This time, you will definitely die without a burial place!

“My fellow region masters, please calm down. Let’s just enjoy his performance. When he is about to run out of strength, we will knock him down easily!” the Heavenly Knife Region Master said as he spread his hands and gestured to those old men.

Apparently, the three white-haired old men used to be the master of a region in the Central Prefecture. When they stepped down, some of them chose to leave the Central Prefecture and tried to find an opportunity to break through the limitations of the Mortal Fairy. Some of them chose to stay and became guards of the Central City.

Also, the Heavenly Knife Region Master couldn't rival these old region masters at all!

"Is he really as powerful as you said?" the dark-skinned old region master who was standing on the left asked as he looked Su Yu up and down carefully with his tiny eyes. When he saw the number of fresh corpses, he became speechless.

Their eyes were quite sharp. The remnant aura of the thunderous feather on those fresh corpses surprised all of them slightly.

The three old men became serious as they stared at the fight below them quietly.

"Just let these reckless people attack Su Yu! It will be much safer to attack Su Yu when he has run out of strength."

"Just hold on! He is already exhausted!" the person who had been instigated others shouted loudly again.

At this time, Su Yu, who was as pale as a ghost, had already killed over 300 people.

However, Su Yu had almost used up all his strength in doing so. Now, people could see the exhaustion on his face.

"Murderer, just die!" An ugly Stage Three All Creation woman attacked Su Yu as he killed a Stage Two Old Monster.

She took out the hairpin from her hair and rubbed it with her hand. An instant later, many sharp sword feathers flew out from the hairpin.

Each sword feather was full of terrifying energy at the level of Stage Four All Creations. Now, over 100 sword feathers like this were flying towards Su Yu who had nowhere to hide.

At this key moment, everyone here was doing their best to fight desperately!

Chapter 1088: Death and Suffering

"Return of Ten Thousand Swords!" Su Yu took a deep breath, as dull sounds resonated in his Dantian. Boundless silver sword energy covered all corners of the world like a thousand rays of brilliance.

The sword feathers came striking, colliding with each other and destroying all, while the silver sword energy surged towards the hideous middle-aged woman.

She gritted her teeth and retrieved a gourd bottle despite the excruciating pain. Once it was opened, the eerie sounds of ghosts wailing and howling were unleashed.

Numerous ghastly skeletons swooped out. They shrieked insanely, forming a layer of blood clouds that shielded her body. They engulfed the endless silver sword energy that came charging toward her.

The remnant blood clouds closed in with an imposing force as the bloodthirsty skeletons flailed their claws and fangs in the air. They were extremely monstrous and ferocious.

Su Yu was fearless. He raised his right hand with an icy look on his face. The silver long sword condensed from sword energy in his palm forcefully struck forth, cutting the clouds in half.

The all-destroying sword energy thoroughly eliminated the blood clouds.

However, behind the blood clouds, a palm that was covered in a pitch-black glove stretched out and slammed down onto the silver long sword.

Praa!!

The palm shattered as it slammed down on to the ground, but the pitch-black gleam on the glove had contaminated the silver long sword. It spread along the sword body, creeping up Su Yu's arm.

And the sword that was condensed out of the sword energy was continuously being corroded!

It was such a powerful toxin!

Su Yu acted decisively. He let go of the sword and stepped back.

"The time is now!" a voice bellowed loudly. The ugly middle-aged woman who was the owner of the black palm then teleported to just a foot away from Su Yu. Her black palm pressed rapidly and brutally onto Su Yu's chest.

At such close distance, Su Yu was extremely vulnerable. Having lost his weapon, the blow was now inevitable.

"Dauntless savage, you should kneel and prepare yourself for death!" the ugly woman yelled stridently. Ruthlessly, she pressed her hand into Su Yu's chest.

However, at the critical moment, wine-red brilliance flickered in Su Yu's eyes, and a space vortex appeared out of nowhere.

The blow from the ugly woman's palm was aimed at Su Yu's chest, but she ended up slamming it into the vortex.

With a deafening sucking sound, her entire body was drawn into the vortex. Her face turned pale with terror as she growled and strove to escape the force which was drawing her in.

For a moment, her body was actually frozen in front of the vortex.

But this brief moment of freezing was enough!

With a lift and a wave of his hand, a streak of silver sword energy condensed at the tip of Su Yu's fingers and sliced across the ugly woman's neck.

All of a sudden, her shot skywards, and blood splattered everywhere. In the meantime, a transparent spirit escaped her headless body. The spirit carried a sense of bitter, poisonous vengeance.

As Su Yu was finishing off the ugly woman with one strike of his sword, he felt an extremely cold air behind his back.

Su Yu's heart was pounding. He did not hesitate and dodged the attack with a flash of his figure.

An icy pricking pain suddenly began to throb in his back.

He turned to look. A dwarfish martial artist with a dark face and a cunning smile on his face was toying with a pitch-black dagger in his hands. "Hehe, you do respond quickly!"

As he heard the voice, an icy shine glinted in Su Yu's eyes. "You're the one who was instigating the crowd!"

The voice belonged to the person who had repeatedly encouraged the crowd to act.

They had joined hands to besiege Su Yu, but he hadn't expected someone to assault him so stealthily.

"No no no, you are a man of extreme evil, and everyone loathes you. People would gladly kill sly people like you, so why would they need my instigation?" the dwarfish martial artist sneered nonchalantly.

Su Yu wiped the dark-colored blood from the corner of his mouth. The sword was obviously embedded with acute poison. He stared at the dwarf coldly and shot cold glances at the numerous people before him who seemed like the waves of the ocean.

"Sly person? I, Su Yu, admit that I'm not a kind person, but have I ever killed an innocent? Have I ever brought any bit of harm to Jiuzhou?" Su Yu asked coldly. His voice wasn't loud. but it thundered in everyone's ears.

He had never slaughtered any innocent people and had never endangered Jiuzhou in any way.

He had stopped the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy from re-seizing her demonic body, delaying the catastrophe of Jiuzhou's downfall, and he had even revealed the evidence of the Heavenly Knife Region's collusion with the Ghost Race.

Nothing he had done should lead him to being called a "sly person".

There was a moment of silence in the crowd, but the dwarfish martial artist sneered immediately as he taunted Su Yu. "What a joke! Do you mean that Jiuzhou is hopeless without you?"

"Even without you, there would have been masters and experts to contend with the advent of the Glittering Jewel Demonic God!"

"As for being a sly person, humph! Your background is unknown, and rumor has it that you aren't a resident of Jiuzhou at all!, Anyone who isn't one of us certainly has a treacherous heart. What more do you have to say?"

If only he had taken the time to ask himself honestly, he would have known that without Su Yu's intervention, Jiuzhou really would have been hopeless when faced with the Glittering Jewel Demonic God.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy had thoroughly defeated the alliance of the Prefecture's Kings. if the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy had re-seized her demonic body and came to them as a demonic God...

“Anyone who isn’t us has a treacherous heart?” Su Yu’s heart turned cold. He glanced at the people present at the scene. As he saw the countless pairs of unfair, bloodthirsty eyes, all he could feel was a profound coldness inside.

“Haha...” Su Yu looked up at the heavens and laughed. His laughter was deep, desolate and cold. His starry eyes were filled with profound disappointment. “So, I am just an outsider in your eyes.”

He couldn’t help but think of the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy and Bi Lingtian. They had both invited Su Yu to join them, but he had rejected them because he belonged to the human race.

“Humph, what are you laughing about? Anyone who isn’t a citizen of Jiuzhou is an outsider. That is exactly the reason our King has ordered your arrest. Once you are killed, the loyalty of people will return!” the dwarfish, black-faced martial artist interrupted him with a cold bellow.

“That’s right! I heard that he came from a foreign continent, and I’ve long suspected that he’s an outsider! He surely has something up his sleeve to wreak havoc in Jiuzhou!”

“Whatever they said about him battling the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy and exposing the collusion with the Ghost Race are all made-up fantasies and tricks to fool people!”

People were indignant and righteous, and they all voiced their own opinions, as though Su Yu, whose background was unknown, had become their common enemy. It seemed that they were absolutely irreconcilable.

Most of them were finding excuses for their behavior, but many were speaking out of their jealousy for this prodigy of the era who had emerged from nowhere like a shooting star.

If he were an outsider, they would have no qualms about killing him, and they could face Su Yu’s excellence with a clear conscience.

The mentality of believing their own lies had led them into a morbid state of willfulness.

Su Yu had never ever expected that the reveal of his origins would attract such a crowd of people.

Seeing the crowd speaking in unison, Su Yu shut his eyes gently, and the look on his face was gradually replaced by tranquility. When he opened his eyes again, he was cold and detached. “Yes, I am an outsider, so I guess I’ll do what an outsider does.”

Su Yu’s body trembled, and black blood mingling with acute poison oozed out from his hair follicles, soaking his white, pristine robe.

His starry eyes were filled with solemnity. “Those who intend to kill me, come within a hundred thousand feet of me! Otherwise, step a hundred thousand feet away from me!”

His sudden tirade incited peals of clamorous laughter from the crowd.

“Has he gone mad from fear? He’s like a dog drowning in the water, yet he’s still so insane...”

Before the heckler could finish, his words were cut off.

“In three breaths time, those within a hundred thousand feet will die, and no trace of them will be left behind! Those a hundred thousand feet away get to live!”

When he finished speaking, Su Yu slowly closed his eyes and began counting down.

In an instant, the entire scene fell silent.

As they stared at Su Yu, who was trapped by a heavy siege and seemingly at a dead-end, for some reason, many of them felt slightly insecure.

After all, he was a powerful individual who had fought the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy!

One breath had passed. No one moved.

Two breaths had passed. Still, no one moved.

Only when the third breath had taken place did a couple of cautious individuals retreat a hundred thousand feet back surreptitiously. They stood right at the border a hundred thousand feet away.

Su Yu slowly opened his eyes. He glanced at the hundreds of thousands of motionless martial artists. Some of them had even crept in closer. He heaved a silent sigh deep inside as his heart went cold.

“I acquired this technique a long time ago, but I have never been willing to put it into use because I didn’t want to hurt innocents even when my own survival was at stake,” Su Yu sighed quietly. “This is your own choice.”

When he finished, he looked up at the bleak heavens. A magnificent, spectacular divine aura was bearing down like a painting, blanketing the skies and lands of a hundred thousand feet.

An atmosphere that shook people’s souls soundlessly reverberated between the sky and the earth.

Chapter 1089: Deprivation of the Soul

The master of the Heavenly Knife region felt something stir in his heart. This feeling was familiar. It was a kind of deja vu. He instinctively turned his gaze up towards the sky.

A pair of incomparably large eyes spanned the width of the vast sky.

The people standing under the pair of large eyes saw there was no end in sight. The eyes were as boundless as the horizon.

“This... Is it his divine will?” Su Yu was being hunted by the Heavenly Knife Region. He had been forced into a situation that led to a moment of strange and deep meaning. On that day, he had sat within the city, not knowing how far away he was from it, yet still sensing the presence of the pair of large eyes.

Later, he was surprised to hear that several of the Regional Masters who had escaped from the war had spoken of a similar story.

Seeing it today with his own eyes, Su Yu was in shock and awe at the tremendous feeling he got from it.

“It’s the ultimate purgatory, and yet it seems to mix with the rest. Have you ever seen anything like it?” The three old domain masters were surprised that it was really a God-level skill, and that it had reached the peak level of cultivation!

Amongst the people of the present day’s young generation, Su Yu was the only one who could get rid of Gu Taixu.

“You are not mistaken. It is indeed the spirit of returning to the truth at its peak, and it has merged with other methods. It’s weird and unpredictable, even though it’s not as good as Gu Taixu. I’ve seen it with my own eyes. It has a very strong power of devouring space, and it can transfer people to a faraway area, but it doesn’t have the power to inflict much harm. The impact that it could have on us is close to zero.” The master of the heavenly knife region held his hands in his sleeves and a smile emerged from the corners of his mouth.

From the looks of the situation that had just played out, he seemed to have already run out of oil, light, and card tricks.

“It is rare to find someone as talented at the divine methods as he is, but it’s a pity that he is of a foreign race. Well, death is not a pity,” the three old domain masters muttered.

Out of fear of Su Yu, even they did not start their plan at once. Instead, they had planned to wait for Su Yu to be exhausted and be drained of the power to fight back. Only then would they would use thunder to kill him.

The sky’s huge eyes gradually formed. The Central City was filled with gasps of surprise, and every pair of eyes turned to watch the sky’s eyes.

The only people who did not were the martial artists in the House of Masters. They wore calm looks on their faces, and their eyes were ablaze with the visions of destruction that they saw.

The Master of the Heavenly Knife Region, who was waiting for the last strike, suddenly knitted his brows in a frown. This pair of eyes, and the pair that he had seen the other day, bore a strong resemblance to the descriptions that those who had escaped had brought back.

The pair of eyes that had the terrible space vortex were huge wine-red eyes. In front of him, were pale eyes that reverberated with the ripples of samsara.

“Three old domain masters, there seems to be something suspiciously wrong.” The master of Heavenly Knife Region leisurely pulled out his hand from his sleeve. There was a dignified look on his face.

He was hesitating as to whether he should alert the people of Central City on the ground below to escape. The huge eyes in the sky were already activated.

The eyes were full of ripples and gyrations. Shaped like an eye of samsara, they exuded breath of the soul.

All of a sudden, the ripples in his eyes started turning into themselves. They were shrinking in circles, like an abyss that kept sinking.

Flop!

An old man, who was only a ninth level flying immortal, suddenly fell to the ground.

His complexion was pale and completely lacking in color.

Soon after, with some disturbances in the sky, more ninth level flying immortals from amongst the strong masters fell to the ground.

Next, it was the turn of the first level God, then the second level God, the third level God, the fourth level...

Like an invisible pestilence, people in the House of Masters successively fell to the ground according to their grades.

Standing at the angle of the four Vientiane monsters were a large number of Central City people. Like wheat fields that have been squashed flat, one by one they fell down.

And a soul invisible to the naked eye, struggling, frightened and roaring, was forcibly dragged from their bodies and inhaled by the great reincarnation eyes of the sky.

The faces of the four changed dramatically!

Their souls had been swallowed by this huge eye!

In today's world, there was no magic power that could forcibly strip the soul from the body unless the body takes the initiative.

But the eyes of reincarnation were extremely domineering, and were actually able to directly drain their souls away, leaving just the body behind!

"Everyone, quit immediately, no, it's 30000 feet away!" the old domain leader yelled loudly, waking up the dazed Central City people with a loud and clear voice.

The three masters of the Old Kingdom could not believe it. It turned out to be as the Ghost Race had said. The House of Masters was completely wiped out!

It was horrific to see the people around you, one by one, falling down, losing their energy and control of their bodies, and then to see their transparent souls struggling in fear as they were being drawn into the huge eyes in the sky.

The boundless fear finally subdued their greed. As though it had been covered by a huge shadow, their bodies were all stiff as they tried to retreat.

But it was too late to leave now.

The power of the huge eyes in the sky slowly reached their limit and exploded!

In an instant, not only the souls of the Gods but also the souls of all things were swallowed up.

“Ah! No! ” A bunch of Vientiane old masters hesitated for a while, and then they were shocked to find that, as Vientiane people, their souls were also swallowed by an invisible force and pulled recklessly out of its bodies.

They wailed in panic, but there was nothing they could do to save the situation. With a whoosh, their souls practically materialized. Lifelike, they were frightened as they roared and struggled.

Next, there were two stacks of Vientiane.

Next, there were three stacks of Vientiane.

The face of the dwarfish martial artist changed dramatically. He was standing on the edge of the House of Masters and was about to escape. However, his soul was shackled by the swallowing power from the sky and seemed about to be separated from the body.

He only stayed attached to his body by his strong and determined will. Otherwise, he would have been swallowed up by the terrible eyes like the others.

At this moment, there was not a strand of humanity on his face. He was filled with a look of horror and desire. “Let go, let go of me!” he said. “Do you want to make another mistake?”

Su Yu didn’t speak and went straight to the center of the ruins. He kicked away the ruins and exposed the transition portal.

No wonder it was a divine-level transmission portal. Even in the midst of such a destructive battle, it had not been damaged at all.

Squatting down, Su Yu used the crystal stone to restart it. “Isn’t this the result that you wanted?” he said. “It’s not natural for me to think that I’m of a different race. As a different race, it’s not natural for me to do something to kill people. ”

“It was wrong for me to have tried to save you. You don’t hurt when you are killed.”

“Ah!! Stop at once, or the people of the Central City won’t let you go! ” The dwarfish warrior was fierce, but his face was no longer treacherous. He felt panic and anxiety because his soul was threatening to leave him.

Su Yu slowly closed his eyes and said without expression, “Even if I stop, you people won’t let me go.”

Whish!-

With a scream, the soul of the dwarfish warrior was suddenly stripped from his body, and he was drawn in the Void with a panicked shriek.

Looking at it, the House of Masters was indeed completely wiped out. No one was alive, and no one had escaped!

Even the famous murderer, Black Seven Knives, was not spared.

Black Seven Knives was in fact as fierce as the true blood emperor, and their strength was very similar.

Unexpectedly, today, he was killed as easily as a frail plant.

The people of the Central City people standing outside the House of Masters were breathing quickly in panic, especially the three people who had left the place cautiously at first. Their backs were chilled and sweaty, and their legs could not help shivering.

Everyone in the House of Masters was dead.

Everyone outside was alive.

How dare the people of the Central City who were standing outside, with their teeth chattering and feet freezing in the winter's air, take even one step in?

Even a few old masters with four stacks of Vientiane cultivation were hiding in the crowd, not daring to come forward.

So, under the gaze of 100,000 eyes, Su Yu stood in the area of the dead and opened the transmission portal.

When the space vibration was activated again, he could be transported far away from Jiuzhou with only five breaths.

At the moment, everyone was silent, and no one dared to stop him.

They did not dare to. There was no one who dared to.

“Kill my people, and just like this you think you can leave?” The three old domain masters' faces were as cold as ice.

Su Yu slowly straightened up and gazed at them as they hid deep in the clouds. It was inconvenient for them to show themselves in public. Indifferently, Su Yu said, “You can try to stop me if you are not afraid of death.”

Time was fixed to cooperate with the big sun to kill the immortals and kill the top Vientiane. Even if the cooperation was good and the timings were right, it might not succeed.

If the three old domain masters had the courage to fight, they would have already started. How could they still threaten him with words now?

What really put them in a spot was that if they didn't show up, they would be blamed by the Central Prefecture's King.

“He's evil! Can we let it go?” Sure enough, they just yelled at each other, but they didn't dare to get too close. They were awed by the nine deadly experiences of the Master of the Heavenly Knife Region, especially the new corpse lying on the ground.

They didn't want to fight with Su Yu, but they had to pretend. In fact, they were the ones who were eager for Su Yu to leave immediately.

There were still four breaths left.

Su Yu was counting silently. So were the three old domain masters.

The Master of the Heavenly Knife Region was stunned. He could not help but scold the others. “You three old people are greedy for life and afraid of death!”

The old domain masters who had lived for thousands of years could see more clearly than the Master of the Heavenly Knife Region. What was the most important thing in the world: skill, elixir, or opportunity?

No, it was life!

Now, they had reached the peak of Vientiane. The Central Prefecture's King himself was just a fairy, and he couldn't give them the chance to be a fairy.

So, why were they using their lives as an exchange for the reward of the Central Prefecture's King?

Looking at this scene, the master of Heaven Dao Domain was very upset. He had known this before. He really shouldn't tell the truth.

So, a very strange scene appeared.

Three venerable old domain masters of Central City stood in front of Su Yu and threatened him with indignation. Su Yu's ears seemed to close the gate halfway, but he closed his eyes and said nothing.

Three more breaths were left.

Two breaths!

The three old domain masters were all nervous. They wished they could help to speed up the operation of the transportation portal.

One breath!

The three men were secretly relieved. They looked at each other and tacitly smiled. Who wanted to kill who?

Bang!

A muffled sound was heard.

However, it was not the successful operation of the transportation portal, but the sudden destruction of it!

The faces of the three men were stiff. They stared at Su Yu in disbelief.

Su Yu had broken the transportation portal!

With his finger pointing at the portal, some Qi could make it stop working.

"Well, you're here at last." Su Yu closed his eyes, then slowly opened them, and looked into the Void above his head.

Chapter 1090: An Old Friend from the Demon clan

Whoosh!

Suddenly, people saw a white-haired figure amongst the silent hill of dead bodies.

Her face was stunningly beautiful. The charming curve of her attractive body could be seen through her close-fitting robe.

Her purple lips shone with a glamorous light. Two fiery-red pupils were glittering in her eyes like two dazzling rubies.

However, this gorgeous woman also looked incredibly evil!

Almost everyone in the vicinity knew who this woman who had appeared so suddenly was.

The expressions of the three old Region Masters and the Heavenly Knife Region Master simultaneously changed to ones of terror.

“The Glittering Jewel... Mortal Fairy!” they shouted in a hoarse voice, their eyes widened in disbelief.

Maybe the other people here didn’t recognize the face of the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy. As the most powerful All Creation experts, they would be her preferred targets. How could they stay calm at this moment?

“How... How could she appear in this place?” The four of them started to tremble violently as their hearts became dominated by fear.

Everyone here was completely terrified when they heard that the woman in front of them was the notorious Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy!

The fear was spreading rapidly in people’s hearts like the plague. The next moment, the people who had been gathered together started to run for their lives in all directions.

Immediately, this place was full of screams, cries, and roars and was in chaos.

The Heavenly Knife Region Master’s expression changed abruptly. He ignored Su Yu and immediately escaped.

The three old Region Masters were even faster. They tore the Void open and jumped straight into it to escape.

Only Su Yu remained standing on the Transportation Portal. He was speechless.

“Ah!”

Suddenly, a scream echoed in Central City.

A Void Crack appeared 50,000km away in the sky. The crack was changing its shape rapidly, which meant the space there was extremely unstable.

A massive amount of blood flew out of the crack along with many torn clothes.

The clothes and the blood of powerful All Creation experts told people that the three 3 old Region Masters had been seriously wounded or even killed.

At the same time, several other cracks appeared in the Void. Then, the Heavenly Knife Region Master and two old Region Masters fell out from the cracks like drowned mice.

All of them fixed their eyes on that white-haired she-devil with terror and hatred.

A moment later, a large number of Void Cracks appeared, from which many All Creation experts fell out.

“She has locked an area of 100,000km in diameter!” a Stage two All Creation Old Monster, who looked quite pale, said with lingering fear.

Those who bumped into the wall in this locked space would end up like the old Region Master who was crushed in the Void Turbulences caused by Space Disorder.

When those experts arrived at the border of this locked space, they were surprised to find an invisible barrier that stopped them from leaving this area.

Now, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy, who was standing there motionlessly, scared all these people out of their wits.

Su Yu was looking at the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy attentively. He hadn’t expected to meet this devil here!

If he hadn’t stopped the transportation in time just now, he would also have been killed as miserably as the old Region Master had been. He couldn’t help but exclaim, “I didn’t expect you to have such a secret relationship with the Central Prefecture’s King! This is so unexpected!”

No wonder the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy had been able to conceal herself from the joint search performed by the kings of the other prefectures!

It turned out that she had been hiding in the Central Prefecture under the protection of the Central Prefecture’s King!

“Heh! Heh! Last time, I spared your life. I didn’t expect we could meet again so soon!” the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy said with a thoughtful smile as she walked over.

Last time, she said she would show no mercy when she met Su Yu again.

“You know what I want! Just give it to me!” the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy said.

Su Yu knew what she wanted was the Demonic Body.

Su Yu glanced at the people of the Central Prefecture who were trapped in the locked area. The total number of them was greater than 300,000!

All of them had been attracted by the noises in this place. They had never expected they could be caught by the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy here!

“Are you going to kill all of them?” Su Yu sighed.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy looked at those people as if she was looking at some ants. Then, she said indifferently, “To me, they are food as animals are to humans! So I take the fact that I can eat all of them for granted!” Then, she glanced at Su Yu and ridiculed, “To them, you are just a member of the Yi Clan who can be killed by any of them. Why do you insist on protecting these people?”

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy pointed at Su Yu with her jade-like finger. “You are the only human I don’t want to kill!” she said. “Just give me what I want, and I will let you go! As for these people, you really don’t need to worry about them at all!”

Su Yu glanced at the people of the Central Prefecture who were trapped here. After a short hesitation, he shook his head and said, “Sorry, I can’t leave them behind!”

Su Yu didn't make this decision because of his mercy. He knew not all people in the Central Prefecture treated him as a member of the Yi Clan.

At least, the people of the Red Blood Palace and the Blessed and Heavenly Lands had never discriminated against him as an outsider.

Some prejudiced people didn't represent all people in the Central Prefecture!

"This is so disappointing! But I am not surprised by your answer!" the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy said appreciatively. She shook her head with a faint smile. All hesitation had disappeared from her eyes. Now, her fiery-red pupils were full of chilly light.

"Then, you can die now!" The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy sighed as she looked up at the sky. Crack! The next moment, the monstrous big eye which had locked the place up broke into countless small pieces.

After that, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy pointed her finger at Su Yu. Then, a strand of horrible Mortal Fairy's strength gushed rapidly towards him.

Just at this moment, several silvery swords, which had suddenly appeared in the Void, surrounded the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy from different angles.

In the face of this familiar Sword Formation, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy took back the Mortal Fairy's strength and said indifferently, "This Sword Array again? What a pity! But you can no longer use it to terrify me!"

Swish!

The Tri-Solar Sword Formation was activated. Three swords flew towards the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy as the powerful sword energy surged through the Void.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy reached out her finger with a sarcastic smile. She easily managed to take hold of a silvery sword which was flying rapidly towards her.

At the same time, she widened her eyes. The two other silvery swords which were flying in the Void started to tremble but were not able to move forward anymore.

Su Yu's expression changed a little.

She had become stronger! She was much stronger than before!

But the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy's calm expression also changed. After knocking the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo Sword, she jumped back immediately.

At the same time, strands of pitch-dark thunder gushed out from the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo Sword like ferocious snakes.

"The Divine Tribulation of Thunder?" The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy restricted her fiery-red eye pupils. Her eyes were full of terror and disbelief.

As a fairy, she understood the terrible energy of the Divine Tribulation of Thunder clearly! Even the Peak Mortal Fairies had to take evasive action in front of it!

Now, she was still a Mortal Fairy who was not able to challenge the Divine Tribulation of Thunder at all!

If her senses were not good enough, she would have been defeated by this young man!

“You know your Sword Formation is useless in front of me. So, you prepared this move for me, right? Or, did you prepare this Sword Formation and the Divine Tribulation of Thunder for me?” The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy was totally annoyed. She didn’t want to kill Su Yu, but Su Yu always put her in jeopardy.

Horrible lights started to flash in her eyes.

“The Sword Formation and the Divine Tribulation of Thunder were prepared for any contingency. They were not meant for you but another dangerous guy!” Su Yu blinked as he stomped on the Transportation Portal under his feet. “Sir, you’ve enjoyed the show. If you want to activate this portal, you’d better do something now!”

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy furrowed her eyebrows and asked, “Who are you talking to?”

Did it mean that Su Yu was on his guard against this guy?

The next moment, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy saw a lump of blood-red light rising up from the Legendary Transportation Portal under Su Yu’s feet. Then, a hoarse and sinister voice sounded. “My lady, I didn’t expect I would meet an old friend here!”