Chapter 1091: Demonic God of Withered Bones

The lights flickered and transformed into the blood-red mass of a dwarfish human figure the mere size of a palm.

The dwarf's face was clearly discernible. He had a pair of pitch-black, sharp horns on top of his head and sharp fangs protruding from the corners of his mouth. His extremely hideous blood-red eyes resembled the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy's.

At that moment, the dwarfish elder had his hands behind his back and was looking the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy up and down with great interest, half-smiling.

Linlang's gorgeous face changed. "You're the... Demonic God of Withered Bones?"

"Hehe, it seems like you still remember me," the Demonic God of Withered Bones said with a smirk.

Upon hearing that, the crowd was stupefied!

This person was also a demonic God? The faces of the people of the Central Prefecture who were confined within the nearest hundred thousand miles turned pale with fright.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy's eyes were full of complicated emotions. Slightly clutching her dainty fists, she questioned in a low voice, "Why are you here in Jiuzhou? And why are you left with only your soul and godly spirit?"

Her crystal-like eyes were gleaming, and they were filled with suspicion and doubt.

"You don't need to know about that," the Demonic God of Withered Bones sneered in a mocking way.

The two of them exchanged remarks that no one else understood. They did not seem to have a relationship of acquaintances of the same race, but more of an intimate one that no outsiders could understand or intervene in.

"Do you need any help? After all, we've known each other for a long time." Linlang was twirling a strand of hair that fell in front of her chest with half a smile on her face.

A soundless, dangerous look crept into Linlang's eyes. It was rather unsettling.

"Hehe, it's not like you're in good shape now. With your physical body missing, all you can do is attach your godly spirit to this strange body. My suggestion is that you just take care of yourself," the Demonic God of Withered Bones said with nonchalance.

They stared at each other, and even the outsiders could feel the murderous vibes erupting between them.

And just like that, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy abandoned Su Yu. Her cold stare was fixed on the Demonic God of Withered Bones as a hesitant look filled her eyes.

The Demonic God of Withered Bones merely sneered, as though he wasn't bothered in the least bit. Seeing the two of them with daggers drawn and on the brink of a fight, the Demonic God of Withered Bones seemed to have sensed something. He shot a furtive glance at the edge of the sky, and a worried look flashed across his eyes.

Somberly, he said, "Let me be honest with you, I have come here as I run away from my killers. They have arrived just outside of Jiuzhou now, and I need to use the divine-level transmission port to leave this place very soon and find a place to hide. If you don't want them to find you, you'd better leave as soon as possible too."

When he finished speaking, he stepped back and flew over to the transmission portal by flight. His eyes were firmly fixed on Linlang and seemed extremely tense.

"Who's hunting you down?" Linlang's face changed.

The Demonic God of Withered Bones looked at the edge of the sky again, his face turning more anxious this time. "Who else do you think would hunt down a demonic God?"

"It's them?" Linlang was skeptical.

The Demonic God of Withered Bones howled, "It's up to you to decide whether to believe me! I'm going to leave this place right now. If you wish to die, you can take your own sweet time waiting here. Just don't drag me with you!"

As he spoke, he simply hurled out several crystals, preparing to activate the divine-level transmission portal.

The look on Linlang's face kept changing, indecisive. After a brief moment, she shook her head and bellowed coldly, "I still can't let you go with him!"

Swish!

She had no second thoughts before striking. Slamming her sleeve down in midair, the attack landed close to where Su Yu was standing.

"Idiot!" The Demonic God of Withered Bones was vexed. With a tap of his left hand, he shattered the space lock in the perimeter of a hundred thousand miles with ease. In the meantime, he grasped Su Yu's armor with his right hand, helping him to teleport to dodge the blow.

Shortly after, a blood-red tentacle shot out from the surface of his body. It was shaped like a long whip and lashed a significant portion of the Void of the Central Prefecture City into smithereens.

The Void emerged suddenly. Not only was the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy's blow engulfed, but even half of the Central Prefecture City couldn't escape the calamity as it was taken into the Space Vortex, leading to a great number of deaths and injuries.

Before the Demonic God of Withered Bones could power up another blow, Linlang snorted coldly, her silver teeth glinting with a wild icy light.

“It seems like you’re weaker than I expected, I suppose even your Godly Dharma Portrayal has perished! Haha, luck is on my side! I can’t believe you’ll meet with such a fate!”

Boom!

In the cracked sky, an extremely humongous figure suddenly appeared. It was ten thousand feet in height, with a clear physical form. It was an entirely red demonic God.

Su Yu’s pupils constricted when he saw it. Wasn’t it... Wasn’t it the original Glittering Jewel Demonic God that had been sealed in the martial tower? How had it appeared here?

But Su Yu quickly discovered that it was only a virtual shadow, a Godly Dharma Portrayal.

The demonic God was staring down at the mundane lives below it with coldness in its eyes. Its blood-red pupils were full of indifference and disdain as it shot a look at the Demonic God of Withered Bones.

The body of the Demonic God of Withered Bones that was condensed from blood light flickered nearly into non-existence. Several drops of golden blood spluttered from its mouth.

The golden blood was the divine blood that contained his godly spirit!

Su Yu’s eyes were filled with agitation as he stared closely as the three drops of golden blood trickling onto the ground. But he was being seized by the Demonic God of Withered Bones, so he couldn’t just go over and collect them on the spot.

“Linlang! Do you really want to fight me till we meet our deaths?” The Demonic God of Withered Bones bellowed with ferocity as he wiped the golden blood from the corners of his mouth.

Linlang’s face was icy. It was as if she resented him down to her very bones. “It is thanks to you that I ended up in this condition today! I wasn’t able to kill you before I became a God, and I still can’t kill you even after I became a God. Now that the opportunity is right in front of me, how could I let it slip away?”

Without another word, Linlang struck again. The Godly Dharma Portrayal in the sky moved along with her figure, and every move induced an uncanny phenomenon in the world. The lands in the nearest million miles were sucked dry and became a barren land.

Even the ley lines buried deep under the ground had their vitality sucked away, becoming lifeless.

The Central Prefecture City was originally a precious place rich with the spiritual energy of the heavens and the earth, but having sustained two blows from the Godly Dharma Portrayal, the spiritual energy dried up and withered, and the ley lines became dead.

It would take nearly a hundred years for the place to recover.

The Royal Beast State had presumably suffered the same fate as what was happening before their eyes right now.

Having taken another blow from the Godly Dharma Portrayal, the Demonic God of Withered Bones could withstand it no longer. A dull whimper escaped his throat, and another drop of golden blood oozed out, making Su Yu so excited that his eyes were shimmering.

It was too bad the Demonic God of Withered Bones hissed, and then sucked the divine blood back in, greatly disappointing Su Yu.

However, the three drops of divine blood on the ground remained uncollected!

With the benefits brought by the Divine Dragon Blood, how could Su Yu not know what a treasure divine blood was? It was worth even more than a hundred fairy artifacts!

Seeing that he wasn't a match for Linlang, the Demonic God of Withered Bones was exasperated and resentful.

He turned to glare at Su Yu instead, and quickly bellowed, "Brat, we're now crickets on the same rope! Linlang is too powerful, and I'm no match for her. Isn't her physical body with you? Give it to me, and I'll be able to kill her."

Yun Yazhi used to say that as long as it belonged to a deity, the body of the Glittering Jewel Demonic God could be manipulated by souls and godly spirits, and display power that exceeded a Mortal Fairy's. It would be only slightly less powerful than a deity's.

The Demonic God of Withered Bones was left with only a remnant soul and a godly spirit. He could indeed possess the Glittering Jewel Demonic God's body.

"Don't be fooled!" Linlang yelled, her heart sinking when she heard what the Demonic God of Withered Bones was saying. But then she thought of Su Yu and felt relieved. With his intelligence, Su Yu would be able to sort out the gains and losses involved?

The look on her face softened a little, and Linlang said, "Su Yu, this is a battle between Withered Bones and me. I hope that you don't get involved."

How could Su Yu not make sense of it?

Since he had refused to hand the body to Linlang, he definitely wouldn't hand it to another strange demonic God.

With a small turn of his eyes, Su Yu said, "My life is in his hands, and I'm in no place to decide. I'll take the body out, and the two of you can fight for it."

"No way!"

"Great!"

Withered Bones and Linlang uttered at the same time. One was anxious, and the other overjoyed.

Su Yu was in Withered Bones' clutches. Who had the best chance of getting the body?

Apart from that, Withered Bones was a pure soul body, and he could occupy the physical body of a demonic God with great ease.

On the other hand, Linlang already had a body, and she had united with another soul of the same origin not long ago. If she were to merge with the demonic God's body, it would take quite a long time. How could she fight Withered Bones?

“The Demonic God of Withered Bones standing in front you is one of the most ruthless demonic Gods. He has slaughtered humans! He’s ten thousand times more evil than I am.”

“Once you release the demonic God’s body, you’ll lose your value to him, and he’ll kill you instantly. While you still have the demonic God’s body with you, he won’t act recklessly or harm you just yet. You have to consider this carefully!” Linlang’s pristine face was full of worry.

Su Yu couldn’t help but roll his eyes. “You’re not ashamed to call someone else evil. I don’t remember ever seeing you being kind.”

Linlang was stunned for a second before saying with resentment, “Have I... Have I ever laid a finger on you? I only devoured the souls and hearts to replenish my energy. He’s different! He kills humans for entertainment.”

“Brat, I can swear to the inner demons. If you hand over the demonic God’s body, I will not put you in a difficult position. How about that?” Hints of slyness were visible on Withered Bones’ face.

“Besides, if I get killed by her, won’t it be easy for me to use you as a shield?”

Upon hearing that, Su Yu’s eyes kept flickering as if he was thinking deeply.

After a brief moment, Su Yu gritted his teeth. “I’ve made up my mind! I... will hand over the demonic God’s body!”

When he finished, Su Yu tapped his chest with a palm. An ancient bronze tower emerged on his palm, and with a move of his thoughts, the hundredth story of the ancient tower was opened abruptly.

The Demonic God of Withered Bones was on cloud nine. He could clearly sense the scent of the demonic God’s body.

“I’m about to release it!” Su Yu bellowed. He squeezed the martial tower with both hands, and a mass of shocking demonic energy was unleashed turbulently all of a sudden.

“You!” Linlang was petrified, she wasn’t bothered about killing Withered Bones anymore. By teleportation, she reached out to grasp the demonic God’s body that was on the verge of flying out.

The Demonic God of Withered Bones couldn’t help but burst out laughing. With a pinch of his fingers, he took control of the roiling enormous demonic energy and caught it in his hand. “Hahaha, Linlang, thanks for the body...”

Suddenly, Withered Bones whimpered as an old, weathered hand emerged from within the demonic energy and pressed down on his skull.

With a crack, Withered Bones' soul body was smashed into countless fragments as he recoiled ten thousand feet away with golden blood the size of a fist. He condensed into a blood-red human figure all over again but was obviously much weaker than he had previously had been.

His hideous face was full of terror and anger. "Who did that?!"

An old, worn figure of a human strode out from the demonic energy with his hands behind his back, staring indifferently at the Demonic God of Withered Bones before him.

Upon closer inspection, the Demonic God of Withered Bones' face fell drastically. This person was the spirit of a God that carried godly spirit.

Linlang stopped in her tracks, as an unnoticeable, taunting smirk danced at the corner of her lips. She shot Su Yu a glance of praise.

This brat had endless shady schemes up his sleeve!

When Su Yu was about to unleash the demonic God's body, she already knew that Su Yu was playing a trick. Her anxious gestures were merely an act to keep up with Su Yu's performance, to lure Withered Bones into the trap.

She had not believed that Su Yu would really release the demonic God's body.

"Another remnant soul of a demonic God," Yun Yazi remarked with boredom as he gazed at the Demonic God of Withered Bones.

Withered Bones stared at the elder before him, extremely fearful. The reason that the blow did not kill him just now was that this remnant godly soul had limited capabilities, but it was still a powerful enemy.

If this person teamed up with Linlang, Withered Bones would probably perish completely today, and his godly spirit would be killed too.

"Who are you?" Withered Bones asked nervously.

Yun Yazi glanced at him and Linlang and took a few steps back, keeping Su Yu behind him. Placidly, he said, "It doesn't matter who I am. I don't plan to get involved in your love and hate. You can decide for yourselves."

As he spoke, he brought Su Yu onto the transmission portal and started it.

The Demonic God of Withered Bones heaved a slight sigh of relief, his eyes glancing over stealthily as he stared at the portal that had entered a state of transmission.

Linlang held back the words on the tip of her tongue. She wanted to stop Su Yu from leaving but did not do so amidst her hesitation.

If Yun Yazi was forced to stay, he would certainly join hands with the Demonic God of Withered Bones to fight against her, so she might as well deal with Withered Bones by herself, and Yun Yazi later.

After weighing up the benefits and the disadvantages, Linlang stared at the portal but did not reach out to stop them.

Three breaths were left now, and the portal was about to perform a complete transmission.

Two breaths!

One breath!

All of a sudden, the Demonic God of Withered Bones moved, suddenly transforming into a mass of blood light and dashing towards the portal. It turned out that he was attempting to flee with the help of the residual waves of the transmission port!

Chapter 1092: Visitors from Another World

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy fixed her eyes on Su Yu. She would never allow him to run away! She laughed coldly as her Divine Lakshana Power descended like a collapsing sky. It was about to crush the Demonic God of Withered Bones into pieces.

The Legendary Transportation Portal would also be crushed by the Divine Lakshana Power of the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy.

Seeing this, Yun Yazhi became quite serious. He waved the sleeves of his robe and covered the transportation portal with a mysterious force.

As the Divine Lakshana Power descended, several clicking sounds could be heard from the transportation portal. Then, thickly-dotted cracks could be seen.

Nobody knew what method Yun Yazhi was using. He used his divine power in the portal but didn't hinder the running of the portal at all.

At last, the transportation portal was activated successfully. Along with a flashing of a beam of light, Su Yu disappeared in the portal.

Before being taken away, Su Yu managed to extract the three drops of divine blood which had been left on the ground into his hands.

The Demonic God of Withered Bones roared as the Divine Lakshana fell down. His skin was covered by the golden liquid flowing out from his body. The next moment, he had become a golden figure which was doing its best to resist the falling Divine Lakshana Power.

However, the divine blood on his skin was evaporating continuously, and he was suffering from heavy blood loss. It seemed that he would not be able to resist the attack for long.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy couldn't help but laugh loudly. "Hah! Hah! Hah! Withered Bones, I will take away your Celestial Energy Sphere today to vent my hatred!"

Then, she prepared to crush the Demonic God of Withered Bones completely with the Divine Lakshana.

Just at this moment, a majestic divine force descended from the sky and became an enormous divine sword. It quickly flew towards the two Demonic Gods.

The Demonic God of Withered Bones' expression changed drastically. "Oh, no, they have arrived!"

The smile on the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy's face was frozen. She who shouted in surprise, "They are really here!"

The next moment, the divine sword lacerated the Void above the Central City and created a horrible vibration. It seemed that the space where the entire Jiuzhou Continent was located was almost smashed by this divine sword.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy gave up her attempts to kill the Demonic God of Withered Bones. She did her best to overcome the fear in her heart by clenching her teeth. Then, she tried to resist the divine sword using the Divine Lakshana power.

The Divine Lakshana Power roared angrily as it attacked the divine sword with both of its tremendous hands.

However, the Divine Lakshana was not able to rival the mighty power of the divine sword. The next moment, the powerful Divine Lakshana was cut into two halves by the divine sword.

When the Divine Lakshana was destroyed, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy turned pale as she spat out a mouthful of golden blood. Then, her body was blasted into small pieces!

After the explosion of her body, a small Demonic God, who was only half as tall as Su Yu, ran away by tearing the Void open. She carried a lump of golden blood in her arms.

The Demonic God of Withered Bones also ran away when the Divine Lakshana resisted the divine sword.

Swish!

After a short while, two beams of divine light descended from the sky. Then, two young Soul Bodies appeared.

Their Soul Bodies were very substantial, which meant they had at least reached the level of Mortal Fairy.

“What a pity! The Red Dust Swordmaster failed to kill the Demonic God of Withered Bones who managed to run away!” The tanned young man on the left was quite arrogant and intractable.

With a small golden fan in his hand, the young man on the right was quite handsome and graceful. With a gentle smile, he said, “If the Red Dust Swordmaster attacked him personally, Withered Bones would have been killed. It is a pity that he can not come here. He had to send his clone to attack them. Also, another Demonic God was hiding here just now. If she hadn’t sacrificed her Divine Lakshana Power, the two Demonic Gods would have already been killed!”

“Right! That she-devil was also seriously wounded. Now, both of them are on the run. Let’s split up to hunt them down!” the arrogant young man said.

The gentle young man nodded his head. “OK! I will continue to chase Withered Bones. That she-devil is yours!”

Instead of starting their chase immediately, they looked around the area.

“Let’s find a body for our Soul first. Alas! We can’t enforce the law with our bodies when we come across to another world. And we have to take possession of other people’s bodies every time!” The gentle young man sighed with embarrassment as he glanced at the Central City.

Their attack just now had ruined the bustling Central City completely. Luckily, most people in this city had been frightened away, so, their attack hadn’t caused serious casualties.

“Is nobody here?” The gentle young man frowned. Then, his eyes lit up because he spotted a figure who was frantically running away millions of kilometers in the distance. With a faint smile, he said with, “Let me borrow your body temporarily!”

He simply waved the small golden fan in his hand slightly. Then, the Heavenly Knife Region Master, who was running in the Void millions of kilometers away, was devoured by an invisible space force. The next moment, a gap appeared in the Void in front of the gentle young man, and the Heavenly Knife Region Master fell out.

The Heavenly Knife Region Master was totally shocked by this young man who could bring him, a peak All Creation expert, to this place easily. So, he asked in terror, “Who are you?”

The gentle young man smiled but said nothing. Then, he flew into the body of the Heavenly Knife Region Master like a beam of light.

The next moment, a Soul Body who was terrified and angry was forcibly pushed out from the body of the Heavenly Knife Region Master.

His body had been possessed! His body had been possessed by someone forcibly.

The Heavenly Knife Region Master was so terrified that he ran away immediately because he didn’t have the guts to get his body back.

At the same time, the arrogant young man also captured a man who was one of the old Region Masters. Then, he took possession of the old Region Master’s body in the same way.

When the Soul Body of the old Region Master was pushed out, he kept yelling in terror and was about to run away.

The arrogant young man punched his Soul Body with a disdainful smile. In this way, the Soul of a mighty peak All Creations expert was smashed.

The gentle young man furrowed his eyebrows and said, “Why did you insist on killing him? Anyway, he was a person of the Jiuzhou Continent!”

Casually, the arrogant young man replied, “Anyway, the deity in this world is dead. Without the protection of a deity, I can kill anyone in this place! Also, our identity remains secret. We can’t let others know we are here!”

Hearing this, the gentle young man sighed as he left by jumping into the Void.

The arrogant young man snorted disdainfully when he saw the gentle young man leave. Then, he also jumped into the Void and started to hunt down the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy.

The Central City was ruined within a day. Two Demonic Gods had started a fierce fight, which attracted the mysterious experts to come to the Jiuzhou Continent. The news spread across Jiuzhou like wildfire.

In a bustling city on the Eastern Continent, the Legendary Transportation Portal which had been silent for several days was lit up in the transportation hall.

The All Creations Old Monster who was guarding this place was a Stage six All Creations woman. This elegant and poised woman was wearing a purple waistcoat and a long silk dress. Now, she was performing training with her eyes closed and her legs crossed.

Suddenly, the transportation portal started to glow and tremble slightly.

The woman opened her eyes as she said in surprise, “Oh? From the Central Prefecture? Nobody from the Central Prefecture arrived in the Eastern Continent in the last few days!”

She was slightly surprised. Then, she closed her eyes and continued to train as she ignored the person who had just arrived through transportation.

In the halo, Su Yu showed up. Then, he felt the long-lost dizziness.

This extra-long transportation had lasted for one hour and had really made him feel terrible.

However, Su Yu didn’t have time to pay attention to his pale face at this moment.

Shortly after his transportation, the space of the entire Jiuzhou Continent vibrated violently. The transportation passage of the Legendary Transportation Portal was cut off by a magnificent divine force.

Then, horrible space vortexes started to sweep across the Void. The situation was extremely urgent.

Yun Yazi stopped the space vortexes in the passage and had bought enough time for Su Yu to leave successfully.

He managed to arrive on the Eastern Continent. But Yun Yazi was still trapped in the Void and nobody knew he was alive or dead.

“What happened? What caused such a serious space disorder?” Su Yu felt an upsurge of emotion. Now, his mind was full of concern about the safety of Yun Yazi.

If Yun Yazi had been killed by the space vortexes, Su Yu would live with the regret for the rest of his life.

“Young man, stop making blind and disorderly conjectures. Your old master is an extraordinary expert who will never die in the space vortexes!” The Evil God’s ridicule came into his mind.

The Evil God’s firm tone influenced Su Yu, whose heart was put at rest when he thought of Yun Yazi’s mysterious strength.

“I will stay here for one more day. If he could arrive here in time, he will find me easily!” Su Yu thought to himself.

The Evil God didn’t care about the time at all. Then, he said with a smile, “Young man, thank you for the feast you prepared. Over 10,000 Souls! Tsk! Tsk! They look so delicious!”

Helplessness and worry appeared on Su Yu’s face.

Su Yu didn’t want to feed the Evil God with these Souls because it would definitely strengthen the Evil God remarkably.

The Soul Space was very strong, but Su Yu was not sure whether the Soul Space could restrain the Evil God when he finished devouring these souls.

“Why do frail deities like you enjoy devouring the Souls of creatures so much?” Su Yu said in disgust.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy, the Demonic God of Withered Bones and the Evil God recovered their Primordial Qi by devouring Souls. The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy and the Demonic God of Withered Bones even had to devour hearts for that.

“Is it very difficult to understand? The Souls of creatures in the living world were created by the Deities with Celestial Energy Sphere. So, their Souls are very pure and clean. Therefore, we can resupply Celestial Energy Sphere by devouring the Souls of creatures. Although their Soul only has a little Celestial Energy Sphere, every little makes a mickle. Otherwise, how could the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy become stronger in such a short time? She absorbed a lot of Celestial Energy Sphere by devouring the Souls of all creatures in the Royal Beast State!” the Evil God said casually. He took it all for granted.

A strand of anger flashed in Su Yu’s eyes. He said seriously, “What are the Souls of creatures for deities like you?”

“Eh, I guess they are nourishments...” the Evil God said with a smile. “Calm down! When you are able to create life, your attitude towards life will be changed. For most deities, lives are just small Celestial Energy Spheres! They could create and recycle them at any time!”

“The Sacred Kylin of the Jiuzhou Continent also thinks in this way. For him, life is also a Celestial Energy Sphere. So, they killed the geniuses on the Jiuzhou Continent with an easy conscience!”

Hearing this, Su Yu felt powerless!

The creators of life, including the Sacred Kylin, treated life with indifference.

The Sacred Kylin used to say the death of the geniuses on the Jiuzhou Continent was for their own good. Su Yu could never forget his words.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy also agreed that their death was for their own good.

Now, Su Yu had got a broad understanding of the meaning of these words.

“What are you waiting for? You can’t stay around the Legendary Transportation Portal for a long time!” the well-dressed woman said calmly without even opening her eyes.

Her words surprised Su Yu who jumped out of the portal. He folded his hands at the woman. “I will leave here immediately!” he said.

When he walked out of the transportation hall, Su Yu narrowed his eyes and looked at the transportation portal. The next moment, a Space Nail in his sleeve disappeared.

When Su Yu left the hall, the well-dressed woman glanced at him from behind casually. Then, her eyes lit up. “Is this guy...”

The woman was radiant with joy. She stood up and ran out of the hall as she murmured delightedly, "It's him! I didn't expect he would come to the Eastern Continent! He really saved me a lot of time!"La

Chapter 1093: Sealing the Portal

Lady Hua rushed out to follow Su Yu, but there was no sign of him.

Within the crowd, an elder with the air of otherworldliness suddenly turned his head towards the temple. He had seen the woman out of the corner of his eye as she raced out.

"Have the criminals wanted by the Central Prefecture's King come to Jiuzhou?" Su Yu thought to himself. Fortunately, he had been quick to use the Power of Time to change his entire appearance. He would have been in trouble if he had attracted an All Creation Peaks Level Old Monster.

While looking for a place to stay, Su Yu quietly waited for Yun Yazi.

If Yun Yazi was unharmed then he should find Su Yu's aura and follow it here within a day. But if harm had come to him...

Shaking his head, Su Yu turned his palm to take out the three golden drops of blood, the Demonic God of Withered Bones' divine blood.

Staring at the blood, Su Yu's expression brightened as he lifted the drops to his forehead.

All of a sudden, the Divine Nine-Dragon Cauldron deep within his spirit absorbed the drops of blood into the cauldron. It was as if it were conscious.

Only a thin layer of red liquid remained, and then a little more came out.

Su Yu furrowed his brows. Before, a single drop of Divine Dragon Blood had allowed the Divine Nine-Dragon Cauldron to leave behind a layer of divine blood equal to about ten percent of the cauldron's capacity.

How was it that three drops of divine blood produced the same result?

Remembering the Evil God's words about a particularly strong Divine Dragon, Su Yu reasoned that perhaps divine blood also had different levels of strength.

Staring earnestly at the Divine Nine-Dragon Cauldron, he felt satisfied that the cauldron had delivered on its promise. It shook for a moment as a bit more divine blood flowed out.

When it flowed over the Emerald Dragon, it again allowed a third of the dragon body to crystallize. Including the last time, two-thirds of the body had now been crystallized.

Its heart was beating with waves of warmth as the Emerald Dragon in his left palm became even more bright and clear, shining with crystal light.

At the same time, a strange message entered his mind.

"Everlasting heart..." Su Yu felt confused. Surprise gradually appeared in his eyes, and they widened in a deep glow.

Su Yu's heart was a jade-green crystal, and it was beating non-stop. It was incredibly full of life power.

If this was Lord Yinmu's life source, it would still not compare to the richness of Su Yu's life power.

Moreover, even if spent entirely, it could still continuously reproduce until the heart shattered.

With this heart to support him, anytime Su Yu used time retrogradation, he would not need to be concerned.

"The Dragon of Life Crystallization formed in such a short time! It was due to the divine blood. I took the right step!" Su Yu was pleased.

Continuing to search within himself, Su Yu discovered two other kinds of energy.

He was familiar with one of them. It was dragon energy. The other energy was foreign to him.

The dragon energy must have come from the dragon blood which had entered Su Yu's veins.

The foreign energy was the Demonic God's blood, and it contained the Demonic God's energy.

Out of the two kinds of energy, the dragon energy was clearly superior to the ordinary Demonic God energy. But even the lesser energy was far beyond a human's power.

Also, this time with the divine blood, a tremendous amount of power had rushed into his Dantian.

After his power expanded with Divine Dragon Blood last time, Su Yu's Dantian had become enormous. It was eighty times the size of a Stage Nine Fairy's. This time, however, the power that came into him was easily absorbed, and it did not explode like before.

"I will forever sacrifice everything in search of Divine Blood. Revealing the potential of the Nine-Dragon Divine Cauldron is the right path." Su Yu's hand rested on his chin as he reflected deeply.

After the brief rest, Su Yu turned his hand over and took out the Nine Dragons Devil Subduing Art and Five Elements Divine Prison.

Before the divine ordeal, he had learned to break through on the spot. But sometimes his will would get in the way and he would not be able to do so. Often, he would waste the effects of the Honey of a Hundred Flowers.

However, the training for both was very similar with only a hair's difference between the two.

Slowing his heart, Su Yu made time accelerate. He was striving to complete the training for both within a day.

Dusk was growing near. Demonic energy surrounded Su Yu's body, with wispy tendrils of it materializing in thin air.

Fortunately, the strange forms quickly disappeared and did not leave a mark.

After a long while, Su Yu's eyes fluttered as a dark mass of demonic energy spewed out. At first glance, it seemed as if the Demon Clan was training.

Looking down at his chest, Su Yu felt strange. "Previously, when training a Demonic Dragon entirely, there would be a dragon howl. But today, despite my success, there is only silence?"

Situated on a busy street, the inn's Isolation Spell was not advanced. Su Yu did not want to reveal his powers in the public space.

"Yun Yazi was very impressed by this cultivation technique. I wonder how it has changed since the training was completed," Su Yu thought to himself. Yun Yazi had told him before that this cultivation technique was not simply a legendary demonic technique and that Su Yu must complete the entire training.

Holding off his eagerness to use the technique, Su Yu calmed his heart to practice Five Elements Divine Prison.

He had one hundred Demon Clan inscriptions to comprehend and was able to use ten percent of Five Elements Divine Prison's power to do so. He now understood ninety-nine. The last inscription still escaped him.

Looking at the last of the inscriptions, Su Yu's mind melded into the words, making sense of the mysteries within them.

Time raced by.

The next afternoon, Su Yu abruptly opened his eyes and raised his hand to grab at the air in front of him.

A ray of gray light shined from a crack in the void. Su Yu grasped it in one hand.

"Surprise attack?" the Evil God, who was vigilantly watching the outside world, asked.

Su Yu shook his head. "No, it has the aura of the master."

Spreading open his palm, he saw a soul transforming spot of light bearing a message.

His heart and face reflected concern as Yu Yazi's voice entered his mind. "Otherworldly incredible sword shattered Jiuzhou. Something mysterious has landed outside of Jiuzhou. I will go to investigate. Do not worry about me."

Su Yu opened his eyes, slightly bewildered. Something mysterious has happened outside of Jiuzhou. What could it be that the master had to go investigate himself?

However, he relaxed knowing that his master was safe.

Holding the Five Elements Divine Prison in his hand, Su Yu furrowed his brow and took a deep breath. "I am still blocked by a layer. I cannot comprehend this last bit. What am I missing?"

He had failed to understand the final inscription several times. Su Yu began to think that perhaps he required more than his own insight. He needed help from somewhere else.

"Boy, did you say that your master is alright? What will you do next? Go directly to the Great Oriental Family? To find that two-faced girl?" the Evil God said, teasingly.

Su Yu shook his head. A space nail slid out from his sleeve.

"I still have to seal the Transportation Spell Divine Level." The space nail was saved specifically to handle this moment.

The Evil God's eyes focused on Su Yu. "Is this to stop the Central Prefecture's King from attacking?"

Su Yu's eyes gleamed. "Yes, judging from the current situation, my tribulation is already in the hands of the Central Prefecture's King."

"And it is now two days since the Heavenly Disaster. According to the Tribulation of Three Nines, the pattern is one tribulation per nine days. The tribulation will take place in seven days. We might meet face to face then."

The Evil God responded, "What is your strategy? From what I know, it doesn't matter whether the Tribulation of Three Nines is real or fake. It cannot be avoided. You had urged the Duanxian Cliffmaster to help you hinder the Central Prefecture King for nine days. I think that will be difficult."

"I did not expect him to." Su Yu sighed knowingly. "The Central Prefecture's King has a lot of resources hidden away. Despite having superior power, the Duanxian Cliffmaster cannot hold the Continent's Eleven Mortal Fairies off for nine days. But it will buy me several days' time and that should be enough."

"And I have this space nail, it can prevent the Central Prefecture's King from going to Jiuzhou for a short while. This will give me a couple more days." Even for Mortal Fairies, it would take a day to cross a continent. It would take at least two days to travel from the Central Prefecture to the Eastern Continent.

The Evil God snickered. "And so, your remaining faith is in the hands of the girl of the Great Oriental Family?"

"No!" Su Yu vehemently shook his head. "I draw faith... from myself!"

Touching the space ring, Su Yu's face turned cold. "If the tribulation is not from him then all is well. But if it is, I have a gift for him!"

Outside the Divine Level Transportation Temple, Lady Hua kept careful watch over the portal, remaining steadfast in her post. Her eyes showed regret. "What a pity that I have not found Su Yu, however..."

As she speculated, a youth in a silver mask stepped into the portal.

Lady Hua glanced up then without any reaction then turned her eyes away.

The silver masked youth ran up to the Divine Level Transportation Portal then positioned several pieces of gemstones as he prepared to operate it.

Unexpectedly, the silver-masked youth reached out his hand, shooting a space nail into the portal from his palm into the.

Even though Lady Hua did not look over, she secretly took notice of the person using the portal. She realized that he was using the space nail, a forbidden item. Within her calm expression was a hint of annoyance as she said, "Why are there always nonsensical people? They keep trying in vain to seal the Divine Level Transportation Portal."

She felt numb to these actions since it had happened before.

Her wide sleeves and light gown moved, and a light wind blew across, enveloping the silver-masked youth in the Void's power. He could not move. The space nail in his palm noiselessly flew to the woman's hand.

Her bright eyes quietly looked at the youth. Gently shaking her head, she said, "Who directed you..."

And then, a divine harmony trickled out as a giant hand suddenly brushed over the land, freeing the silver-masked youth from the Void's power.

The youth used this opportunity to take out the second space nail from his sleeves and shoot it into the portal.

Lady Hua's face began to show anger. "How dare you!"

She suddenly got up, her face a cold, ghastly color. It was better to keep some distance between them.

All of a sudden, the intimidating All Creations Power tossed away the silver masked youth and the space nail.

As she prepared to intervene a second time, a kind of void energy appeared that enveloped the silver masked youth and the space nail. It appeared suddenly and then disappeared.

"Huh!" Lady Hua's face was cold. A single hand tore at the void, chasing the youth doggedly.

She did not know that right after she left her post, the ground expelled bursts of ghost energy. They were caused by an adorable little girl who belonged to the Ghost Clan.

The girl felt around cautiously, and a wisp of smoke stuck onto the portal. Smiling, she took out a space nail and shot it into the portal.

At the same moment, the color of her face changed. She lifted her head to look over and saw a face, close to hers, that looked neither happy nor unhappy

"With all my years guarding this temple, how can a 'lure the tiger out of the mountains' distraction tactic fool me?" Her face was cold. If this was not Lady Hua, then who was she?

"You are the one pulling the strings? Ghost Clan, huh..." A veil drew down across Lady Hua's face, and her eyes stared out intently. Sheng Ge sighed as if she had been knocked upside down by a heavy hammer.

Her response was extremely fast. She changed into a cloud of ghost energy and seeped into the deep ground.

Lady Hua stared down coldly as if she could see deep into the ground. Her sight went from within the temple to outside.

Sighing indifferently, Lady Hua stepped into the Void to chase Sheng Ge.

Upon her departure, an otherworldly elder walked importantly into the temple, a slight smile on his lips. "Luring the tiger away from the mountain is not worth a mention but what if it's used in succession?"

Within his palm was another space nail. His eyes narrowing, Su Yu shot it into the portal.

However, as the space nail was about to enter the portal, a pale, smooth palm suddenly reached out of the Void and easily caught it. A voice said, "That distraction tactic does not even work when used successively!"

Su Yu's face froze. Staring hard at the pale, smooth palm, he softly replied, "Are you not afraid of scaring people when you suddenly reach out your hand,?"

There was silence in the Void. Lady Hua had never thought that Su Yu would say such a thing.

Chapter 1094: Mass Blind Date

A figure emerged from the Void. The elegant woman looked Su Yu up and down with a measuring glance. She had ascertained that Su Yu was the real manipulator behind the scenes, whereas the two before had only been covering up for him.

When she heard Su Yu's words, she chortled. "Shouldn't you be the one to feel guilty, now that your trick has been exposed?"

Indeed, she was curious that he was daring enough to stand before her so brazenly after being exposed, instead of running away.

"I'm helping the Great Oriental Family to test the security of your divine-level portal. Why should I feel guilty?"

The woman was speechless.

The reason he gave was too...

The elegant woman was amused and embarrassed at the same time. She hid the surprise on her face and scrutinized Su Yu calmly.

"You're quite an interesting person," she said. "Forget it, I'll let you live today, and send you to the Great Oriental Family for interrogation. Then, my people can deal with you."

As she spoke, she assumed a stance that indicated she was about to captivate Su Yu with the Power of Space.

But Su Yu was calm and unhurried. Standing near to her, he suddenly activated Time Freezing and froze her on the spot.

Despite being a Peak All Creations, she was influenced by the Power of Time, and her moves became slow and stagnant.

“Hehe, you are fooled, auntie!” Shengge, who had obviously run away, appeared from beneath the formation all of a sudden and brutally slammed the Space Nail in her hand into the portal.

In a flash, the talisman on the divine-level transmission port turned dull and died out immediately. It was now unable to operate.

The woman attempted to stop it but it was too late, and the realization struck her all of a sudden. This was their last ace!

They caused her to let her guard down after seizing Su Yu, the real manipulator behind the scenes, and took the opportunity to hammer in the Space Nail.

Staring at the smug Shengge, the woman ground her silver teeth. She was extremely vexed and frustrated. “Who did you call auntie? I’m only 200 years old!”

Shengge’s eyes went saucer wide.

“Alright, let’s get out of here!” Su Yu rolled his big sleeves up and took Shengge into the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl again. He transformed himself into a sharp arrow and shot towards the crowd outside the palace.

After the passing of ten breaths and the effects of Time Freezing disappeared, the woman regained her mobility.

She turned to glance at the divine-level transmission portal that had gone completely still and dysfunctional. There was no hope it could be repaired in less than a fortnight.

“Jerk!” The woman was exasperated. She glowered in the direction in which Su Yu had escaped and immediately chased after him.

But as she moved in the direction Su Yu had gone, all she found was a garment with remnants of Su Yu’s scent at an inn.

“God da*n it!” Deeply resentful, the woman burnt the garment to ashes in and weaved signs to create imprints before vanishing into the Void.

Not long after, nine figures of Stage Three All Creations broke the Void apart and arrived.

“Greetings, South Mansion Mistress,” the nine of them said with great respect.

The woman raised a hand and pointed, and a drawing of Su Yu was copied in the Void. An elderly man with an air of holiness and long white hair floated on the paper.

“Remember what he looks like and command the South Mansion to search the whole city and arrest him! This person destroyed the divine-level transmission portal and has malicious intentions. Once he is found, seize him and bring him to trial right away!”

The nine figures were startled. They exchanged glances of awe and shock.

If he had actually managed to destroy the transmission portal right under the South Mansion Mistress's nose, just how powerful was he?

The woman's face was flushed red. How could she say that she had been tricked?

"He... He is proficient in the magical power of Time. His power is terrifying so don't be careless! Whoever lets him get away due to carelessness will be punished by the law of the House!"

The nine figures shuddered. It turned out that he had the legendary magical Power of Time, so it was no wonder that even the South Mansion Mistress slipped up.

"Dare I ask, South Mansion Mistress, do we need to inform the North Mansion so that they get involved too?"

The woman stared at him. "Do you want to invite them to watch the joke? Keep it from them for now. Let's wait till we seize that evil thief! Besides...I need to head for the North Mansion now. There's a matter that I need to discuss with them, and this can be saved for later."

The figures disappeared one after another, joining the arrest team.

This city was named the Sacred Oriental City, and it was the place where the Great Oriental Family had its origins. In terms of scale, it was even grander and more magnificent than the Central Prefecture.

With the divine-level transmission portal at the center, the city was divided into two. The North Mansion was in the North, and the South Mansion in the South.

Both the North and the South Mansions belonged to the Great Oriental Family, and each was held by a Mortal Fairy strong man.

The two mansions governed the Sacred Oriental City hand in hand. Unless events of great significance took place, the two mansions would not keep in touch frequently.

A white-haired elderly man was standing at the door of the North Mansion. Despite his old age, he had a transcendental air about him, making him extremely eye-catching.

"Brat, did you just come to the Great Oriental Family to look for that little girl?" the Evil God asked.

Su Yu nodded. "Yes, the ordeal of people is right around the corner. I can feel the suppression from the ordeal approaching."

"If Dongfang Tianfeng really is the key to resolving the crisis of the ordeal of people, the suppression will naturally be relieved. I just need to meet her once to be sure if she's the one I'm looking for."

"If she is, then I'll figure out a way afterward; if she isn't, it will be just a visit, and I'll excuse myself."

The Evil God chuckled. "Then shouldn't you beware of the woman you met just now? She shoulders the responsibility of guarding the formation, so she is certainly an important figure of the Great Oriental Family."

"If you just barge into the Great Oriental Family so recklessly, aren't you walking right into the trap?"

"Not necessarily. Since I was brave enough to come, I have investigated matters beforehand." Su Yu smiled with confidence. "That aristocratic woman is the Mansion Mistress of the South Mansion, Dongfang Yu."

"This place is the North Mansion. If there aren't any important matters between the mansions, the important people will not be sent to visit, so you need not worry too much."

With a smile, Su Yu stepped forward to offer his greetings.

The people guarding the door were two adorable, lovely-looking teenage girls. Seeing Su Yu coming from afar, they smiled and asked, "Old Senior, how can we help you?"

Casting a glance at the two exquisite ladies, Su Yu felt strange. For such a great family, the guards at the door weren't ferocious, robust men, but two sweet, lovely teenage girls.

"Oh, I'd like to visit your family. Please, could you allow me to..."

Before he could finish, the lively girl on the left giggled. "We knew your intention from the start. It's so obvious."

Su Yu was slightly stunned. They knew he was here to visit Dongfang Tianfeng?

"Old Senior, there's an age requirement for entering our Great Oriental Family. One should be below 30 years of age." The two girls were smiling strangely.

They hadn't expected such an old, worn fellow to visit the Great Oriental Family so blatantly.

Even the passers-by could not help but snicker.

"Hey, look at that old fellow! He's so old but has come here to sow his wild oats! He's not even ashamed!"

"Haha, such a rare sight. It's common to see old fellows hitting on the women of the Great Oriental Family, but it's rather new to see one who does it so openly. Let's see how he gets thrown out."

The street was boisterous, and there were voices everywhere. Su Yu did not pay attention to what they were saying. He touched his chin, and asked, "There's an age restriction for visitors of the Great Oriental Family?"

"That's... fine. I'll follow the local customs. In fact, I'm not that old; I'm only about 20 years of age."

Twenty? The two girls' mouths hung open. Luckily, they were people of the Great Oriental Family and had rich experience of the world, so their shock quickly subsided after a brief moment.

After retrieving a round plate made of green bronze, the lively girl gestured toward Su Yu. "Contribute a drop of blood, and we'll see."

Su Yu did not hesitate. He drew a drop of essence blood and dropped it onto the round plate.

All of a sudden, the essence blood on the plate dissipated into a few dozen blood fibers, which condensed into numerical figures on their own. They formed a 20.

"No problem! You may enter. The people inside will look after you." The cheerful girl grabbed the round plate and hung it on her waist with a look of taunting interest in her eyes.

Su Yu touched his cheek. He had a strange feeling.

Upon entering, a middle-aged woman of around 40 years of age shot him an appraising glance and measured him up for a brief moment. "Come with me," she said. "There are two other young lords waiting."

Erm...

"I'm not here to meet any young men!" Su Yu thought to himself.

"Senior, I came here to look for..."

The woman turned to glance at him, and snorted. "I know who you're looking for! Just listen to me."

Ah? Did all the women of the Great Oriental Family have the ability to predict things?

Befuddled, he was taken to a living room by the middle-aged woman. Two youthful, good-looking young men were in there, chattering and laughing secretively.

When they saw Su Yu and the woman enter, they immediately sat upright and still, and then stood up to greet the middle-aged woman with very gracious manners.

The middle-aged woman nodded indifferently. She seated herself at the master's chair and stared at each of them before discussing the matter at hand. "Thank you for coming, three young lords."

"I don't plan to say much about the rules of the North Mansion. The lady's chamber has three levels. Whether you get to see Miss Dongfang depends on your own performance."

Miss Dongfang, wasn't that Dongfang Tianfeng? Su Yu heaved a soft sigh of relief. He felt rather stunned inside. The people of the Great Oriental Family really could predict things. They knew he was here to look for Dongfang Tianfeng.

Having been reassured, he asked, "Dare I ask, Senior, what did you mean by the three levels of the lady's chamber?"

The middle-aged woman and even the two young men cast him a look of surprise.

"Erm, I came from... the Central Prefecture," Su Yu said.

The middle-aged woman understood right away. “So that is the case. Yes, the three levels of the lady’s chamber refers to three great assessments. Only if you excel in each of them will you be qualified to see Miss Dongfang.”

Assessments? Su Yu was dazed again. Was it because Dongfang Tianfeng had so many visitors? Was that why they had to be assessed before they got to meet her?

“You guys, follow me. The other young lords have been waiting for a long time too.” The middle-aged woman stood up, passed through the back hall, and walked straight ahead.

The other...young lords. The corners of Su Yu’s mouth twitched.

He had passed through many obstacles and had come all the way here. Why would it hurt to wait patiently for a while? All he needed was to take a look at Dongfang Tianfeng from afar, and he would know if she was the one he was looking for.

When he saw the other young men, Su Yu was taken aback.

Beyond the back hall was an enormous backyard of the North Mansion, full of mountains, lakes and pavilions.

But the backyard was full of people! There were more than a hundred young men with high grades of cultivation.

Any of those young men could be considered to have valuable talents in Jiuzhou. Most of them were less than twenty years of age, but ninth-grade Almighty were everywhere! There was even a youth aged 25 or 26 who had broken through the realm of All Creations!

Nowadays, Jiuzhou was in an unprecedented state of exhaustion, so the birth of All Creations strong men was extremely difficult.

At the age of around 25 years, this person had apparently only been promoted recently.

Su Yu couldn’t help but cast another look at him. He was clad in green clothing and was occupying a pavilion all by himself. His eyes were intent as he looked straight ahead. He was drinking on his own, paying no attention to the people around him.

The others dared not step forth to vie for the well-located pavilion. Although some were pacing back and forth near it, they were only trying to fake relations with him.

“That is the first expert of the Heavenly Mortal Region, Liu Chen. Since the training at the Glittering Jewel Wonderland, he came across the serendipity to break through the level of All Creations.”

One of the young men that came with Su Yu smiled and explained matters when he saw Su Yu staring at Liu Chen. Enviously, he continued, “Now, he can even rival the four starry sky elites.”

It wasn’t hard to notice that they were quite curious about Su Yu’s background and had the intention of befriending him.

Among the five continents of Jiuzhou, the Central Prefecture was where the martial path flourished with the most glory.

Liu Chen? Su Yu couldn't quite recall, but he had probably been some insignificant ninth-grade Almighty in the Glittering Jewel Wonderland.

"I am... Su Zhenlong. Dare I ask, two brothers, what are we doing here?" Su Yu looked at the numerous young elites. Even for someone truly foolish, they would have known that this wasn't just a meeting with Dongfang Tianfeng.

"I'm Zheng Kuan from the Southern City." The one who had initiated the conversation with Su Yu was Zheng Kuan. "This is my brother, Wang Shuo from the Northern City."

Wang Shuo greeted him with cupped fists and forced himself to smile thinly in greeting.

"Brother Su, didn't you come here to meet Miss Dongfang?" Zheng Kuan stared at Su Yu with surprise.

In a daze, Su Yu nodded. "Yes. Are all these people here just to take a look at Miss Dongfang's gorgeous face?"

Upon hearing that, Zheng Kuan and Wang Shuo exchanged glances and couldn't help but smile. Zheng Kuan laughed. "This is a selection of Miss Dongfang's possible fiancés. Could Brother Su have come here accidentally without knowing anything?"

Ah? Dongfang Tianfeng was looking for a fiancé?

It was no wonder that the girls at the door and the woman in the mansion could predict the purpose of Su Yu's visit.

Could any of the young elites have come here for reasons other than participating in the selection of Dongfang Tianfeng's fiancé?

Su Yu opened his mouth, feeling speechless.

Since he was here, the imperative thing was to find a way to approach Dongfang Tianfeng.

"Oh, I understand now." Su Yu smiled.

Zheng Kuan rolled his eyes. "May I know which part of the Central Prefecture Brother Su comes from? I suppose you are from the Central Prefecture City?"

"I heard that the Central Prefecture is full of outstanding people. There was the destined absolute ruler Zhan Wushuang, and then there's the treasure fairy boy Su Yuxian. Tsk tsk, I yearn to be there just thinking of it! Brother Su must be the elite of a region as well, right?"

The treasure fairy boy? Su Yu couldn't help but chuckle. He hadn't expected to gain such a nickname after the great war in the Glittering Jewel Wonderland.

However, the ordeal of destiny had destroyed almost all of Su Yu's treasures, leaving only two or three behind. That was even worse than an ordinary martial artist, so wasn't it more appropriate to call him the broke fairy boy now?

“I came from the northern part of the Central Prefecture, the Blessed and Heavenly Lands. It is a remote area. How dare I address myself as an elite?” Su Yu remarked humbly.

Zheng Kuan laughed. “Brother Su, you’re being too humble. I can’t even identify your cultivation, but you must be at least an eighth-grade Almighty, I guess?”

Upon hearing that, Wang Shuo also looked at him out of the corner of his eye.

Su Yu’s mind was as clear as a mirror. So the two of them had mistaken Su Yu for some masterful, extraordinary elite in the Central Prefecture, and they were trying to get a grasp on Su Yu’s background.

“Haha, I just became a ninth-grade Fairy not long ago, I’m not even an Almighty, so how can I compare to the two of you?” Su Yu revealed his meager capacity with “honesty”.

Zheng Kuan’s face became stiff. Initially, he hadn’t been able to determine Su Yu’s cultivation so had mistaken him for some prominent figure.

But it turned out...

Forcing a smile, Zheng Kuan greeted him with cupped fists. “So that is it. Erm, since you are here, Brother Su might like to stroll around the backyard. Brother Wang and I mustn’t disturb you anymore. Goodbye.”

When he finished, he left hurriedly without turning back again.

Wang Shuo was stunned for a second. He looked at Su Yu and sneered scornfully as he flicked his sleeves and left.

Looking at their backs, Su Yu shrugged nonchalantly. He then began intently scrutinizing his surroundings, only to find that the backyard was full of prohibitions.

With his ability, it wouldn’t be impossible for Su Yu to barge in. But to do that without alarming the masters of the Great Oriental Family would be absolutely impossible.

He had come to meet Dongfang Tianfeng. There was no need to cause such a commotion.

As Su Yu glanced around leisurely, his face changed slightly all of a sudden, and he covered the Five Elements Divine Prison in his sleeve.

Hints of shock and suspicion filled his eyes as he stared in a particular direction with fascination. He was looking at the summit of a mountain of five colors, situated in the depths of the North Mansion. It was entirely sleek and shiny and free of any weeds.

And at that moment, the Five Elements Divine Prison in Su Yu’s sleeve was trembling slightly, as if it were resonating with the penta-colored summit.

When he moved further away from the mountain, the Five Elements Divine Prison returned to its peaceful state.

“What kind of place is that?” Su Yu’s eyes flickered, as shrewd brilliance shone in them.

Suddenly, the people standing in the backyard heard the beautiful sound of a Guqin.

The plinky-plunk sound was so melodious that it was just like crystal-clear mountain spring water flowing past the old and quiet mountain rocks.

Anyone who heard this music would get a refreshing feeling of walking in the quiet forest.

The young talents stopped talking and started to enjoy the beautiful music. Even Liu Chen, who was sitting up straight, also looked around with a faint smile.

When the music stopped, the young talents started to praise it unanimously.

“We are so lucky that we can enjoy our lady’s beautiful music! Even if we don’t see her this time, it has made our visit worthwhile!”

“This music, which could only be enjoyed by the deities, is so rare in this mortal world! What a perfect combination of instrument, music, and player!”

Su Yu sighed with embarrassment. Indeed, the music was very beautiful. However, it would be an exaggeration to describe it as heavenly music. Those young talents had praised it too much!

At the peak of a colorful mountain, a pretty maidservant smiled as she pressed the strings of a Guqin with her fingers. Then, she turned around looked at the beautiful woman behind her mischievously. “My lady,” the maidservant said, “most of those young talents believe that you played the Guqin just now. I guess they must be complimenting you!”

The beautiful woman behind her was leaning against a pavilion.

Her white dress fluttered in the breeze and outlined her hour-glass figure. The beauty of her youth was fully demonstrated by her slender waist and straight legs.

This extremely beautiful woman’s crystal-clear eyes were full of an amorous light.

Now, she was leaning against the handrail of the pavilion like a graceful fairy.

The woman in the white dress sighed as she looked at those young talents from afar. “All of them only dwell on a beautiful face, high position, and great wealth! How ridiculous and pathetic they are!”

“Where the needle goes, the thread follows! Yun’er, you will be responsible for the following tests. I’m tired!” The woman in the white dress closed her eyes.

Yun’er giggled as she covered her mouth with her hand. Then, she started to ponder deeply and rolled her eyes.

The young talents in the backyard stopped talking and became prim again when the sound of the Guqin stopped.

They knew the music of the Guqin was the signal that the test was starting.

There was no fixed program for the test. During similar tests performed by the Great Oriental Family before, a candidate might be kicked out by hidden judges because of any improper words or behavior.

So, nobody dared to make a racket before figuring out the rules of the test.

Su Yu looked around and found a lot of young talents were in this place. Then, he covered his face with a silvery mask, ensuring that nobody would pay any attention to him. This would allow him to avoid any unnecessary problems if he was recognized by someone here.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

A cute little girl walked up from outside the seal with a scroll in her hands. Seeing that, the young talents here couldn't help but stand up and throw out their chests.

"The first test..." the little girl said in a mysterious way with a naughty smile. "Scale that mountain!"

She pointed at a mountain which was to one side of her.

Swish! Swish!

Hearing that, those young talents rushed towards that mountain after taking a quick look at it.

Scale that mountain? Su Yu also flew gracefully to the top of that mountain as he murmured in his heart suspiciously. What the hell was this test?

"Now, come down the mountain!" the pretty little girl said when all the young talents had reached the top.

"Since we have reached the top of the mountain, it is quite natural that she would ask us to go down the mountain."

Most people rushed down that mountain for fear of lagging behind the others.

Su Yu walked down the mountain gracefully again.

When all of them reached the foot of that mountain, the little girl said with a smile, "Now, climb the mountain again!"

Again? People became hesitant. After a short while, they rushed up to avoid being kicked out.

Su Yu frowned slightly as he stood at the foot of the mountain. He was quite unhappy when he saw the people who were pushing and cursing each other on their way.

Are they going to treat these candidates like monkeys?

Su Yu closed his eyes as he stood there motionlessly.

"Come down the mountain!" the little girl said with a smile. As she did so, she couldn't help but notice Su Yu with her big eyes.

Only this young man was ignoring her instruction.

“OK! Climb that mountain again!” the little girl turned around and said as she looked at the rest people disdainfully.

What? Climb that mountain again? Some young talents were quite angry because they were being teased by a maidservant before they could see Miss Dongfang.

However, they didn’t dare to disobey the instruction, even though they had already been annoyed.

At last, some proud young talents, who couldn’t stand it anymore, chose to stand at the foot of the mountain like Su Yu.

“This test is finished!” the little girl said with a smile. Then, she pointed at Su Yu and the rest of the young talents who had disobeyed her instructions. “What’s wrong with you? How dare you disobey my orders? Do you know the consequence of your disobedience?”

This maidservant, who was in charge of the test, was actually the examiner and had the right to kick out any candidate.

When the rest of the young talents saw the little girl’s unhappy expression, they couldn’t help but gloat as they secretly let out a sigh in their hearts. What a weird test!

Anyway, the trophy of this test was Miss Dongfang. So, they would obey all kinds of instructions no matter how strange they were. A little grievance was nothing when it gave them a chance of gaining both fame and a beautiful wife.

However, just as these people were waiting for the little girl’s declaration that Su Yu and those who had disobeyed her instructions were to be kicked out, the little girl said to Su Yu and those who were standing beside him with a lovely smile, “Congratulations! You have passed the first test! Now, you will take the second test! Please follow me!”

What? The people who had been planning to enjoy the show were dumbfounded on the spot.

Those who had disobeyed the instruction had passed the test while those who obeyed the instruction were kicked out!

“Young lady, why is that? Could you tell me the reason?” A young man, who was quite powerful, was not happy about being kicked out in the first round.

The little girl sneered at him. “My lady is looking for a husband, not a monkey who can only follow orders obediently!”

With a lovely smile, she continued, “Don’t worry. We won’t let you down since you have come here from afar. Later, you will have a chance to choose another girl from our family to be your wife!”

The lovely little girl led Su Yu and the rest of the young talents who had passed the first test into another yard, leaving those dumbfounded young men who were seized with remorse behind.

When they entered this yard, they found it was a Siheyuan.

There were nicely-decorated and aromatic rooms on all four sides of the courtyard. Apparently, they were boudoirs for the ladies.

Clap! Clap!

The little girl clapped her hands. Then, four girls walked out from their room.

All of them were well-dressed, slim, and quite beautiful.

These 4 four girls, who were rare beauties, even surprised Su Yu.

The other people with Su Yu were also impressed by the beauty of these girls. Maybe it was not difficult to find a pretty girl. Only a time-honored great family like the Great Oriental Family could provide four beautiful girls at the same time.

The four girls started to dance. Their beautiful performance provided the audiences with a visual feast.

Su Yu heartily enjoyed their dance and nodded his head from time to time approvingly.

The people beside him were quite nervous. Unlike Su Yu, they didn't dare to express their thoughts and feelings. It was as if they were facing a formidable enemy.

And the second test hadn't even started yet!

"OK, the second test will be... the evaluation of these girls!" the little girl said.

Evaluate these girls? People were confused by this test.

The first test focused on self-esteem. Does it mean the second test was being performed to check their mentality?

They were candidates who could become Miss Dongfang's future husband. If they spoke highly of these girls, they would be considered frivolous and immature.

"They are good!" someone replied in an ambiguous way.

"Please give your detailed evaluation of their appearance and performance!"

Apparently, the little girl was not satisfied with his ambiguous reply.

Instead, the man said, "My heart belongs to Miss Dongfang. These girls are just like female ghosts for me. Their appearance and performance didn't impress me at all!"

"What about you?" The little girl started to ask the candidates one by one.

Most of them replied in a way similar to the first guy. They didn't criticize the girls, but they didn't compliment them either. In other words, most of them replied in a perfunctory way.

The little girl stood in front of Su Yu and asked, "So, give me your evaluation!"

Without thinking, Su Yu said frankly, "The four girls are extremely beautiful. Their dance is also extraordinarily graceful. I guess it is very difficult to find a combination of perfect dancers like them in this world!"

His words surprised the little girl a bit. Then, she moved on to ask the rest of the candidates.

Possibly, the rest of the candidates were influenced by Su Yu's reply, and they also praised the girls honestly.

When all of them had finished the test, the little girl pointed at the first five candidates with a smile. "Congratulations..." she said.

Hearing this, those people put their hearts at ease because the little girl had chosen those who had passed the first test in the same way.

“You’ve been kicked out...” The little girl’s belated words shocked these people.

Before they had time to ask the reason, the little girl snorted, “You even don’t know how to appreciate beauty. If my lady marries any of you, she won’t be cherished, and her life will be full of grievances! You are unqualified! You can leave now!”

After the departure of these frustrated candidates, the little girl turned around and said with a smile, “Please stay here for a while. I will request further instructions from my lady!”

Then, the little girl left rapidly.

“Mr. Liu, I didn’t expect you to answer her question fluently. You must know the purpose of these tests. I guess you will be the final winner this time. So, please accept our congratulations in advance!” Zheng Kuan said as he looked warmly at Liu Chen who was standing beside him.

Wang Shuo, who was on the other side of Zheng Kuan, had a complaisant smile on his taciturn face. “I also believe Mr. Liu will pass the next test successfully!” he said.

The two of them had also managed to pass the second test.

Hearing their compliments, Liu Chen replied by folding his hands at them casually with an indistinct arrogant smile.

Liu Chen clearly understood that Zheng Kuan and Wang Shuo were trying to flatter him. He also knew that he had passed the second test because of Su Yu’s example.

The second test had checked the candidate’s mentality. The candidates needed to stay calm in front of beautiful girls. However, those who tried to flatter Miss Dongfang by depreciating those girls would also be kicked out.

Without Su Yu, all of them would have been kicked out because of their perfunctory replies.

Zheng Kuan and Wang Shuo were a little bit unhappy when they saw Liu Chen’s arrogant smile.

They didn’t expect Su Yu, who was a hillbilly, to pass the first test and set an example to them during the second test.

It seemed Su Yu sensed he was being looked at by someone. He looked to his side.

Zheng Kuan and Wang Shuo turned around and pretended that nothing happened. Wang Shuo even snorted to show his disdain.

“Old man, you wouldn’t be favored by Miss Dongfang even if you could stand in front of her. I suggest you leave now, and I will give additional compensation!” Liu Chen said as he walked over and looked at Su Yu.

The insinuation behind Liu Chen’s words was that Su Yu was his most threatening opponent. Zheng Kuan and Wang Shuo were not even worth mentioning.

Therefore, the two of them were quite unhappy to hear that.

The hillbilly despised by them was considered to be a threatening opponent by Liu Chen.

Su Yu looked up and said with a faint smile, "Thank you for your kindness, Mr. Liu. I know I will never be favored by Miss Dongfang. However, I hope that I can catch a glimpse of her, and then this trip will be worthwhile!"

Liu Chen, who didn't take Su Yu's words seriously, nodded his head indifferently. "I hope so!" he replied.

His words sound threatening!

Chapter 1096: Five Elements Divine Mountain

Swish!

At this moment, the maid who left earlier came back, "Five young masters, please follow me to the Five Elements Mountain. The final test will be carried out in the mountain."

The Five Elements Mountain was the five-colored mountain that caused the tremor in the Five Elements Divine Prison.

Standing at the foot of the mountain, the Five Elements Divine Prison's sensitivity was even more intense. If Su Yu did not keep the Five Elements Divine Prison within the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl in time, it would have been blown out of his sleeves.

"The third test is to climb the mountain. This time you will climb the mountain for real." The young lady blinked playfully, "If you can reach the top of the mountain, then you'll get to see the young mistress. Whether the young mistress is picked, in the end, would depend on whether you're able to win her favor."

Looking up at the Five Elements Mountain, Su Yu's heart was filled with curiosity as he took a step up the mountain.

As the sole of his feet touched the Five Elements Mountain, Su Yu just felt his whole body become a little heavier, nothing unusual. He then began to make his way up the mountain nonchalantly.

Among the other four, Liu Chen was still doing well. He furrowed his brows and began to climb the mountain.

However, the color on the faces of the other three changed. The moment they stepped on the Five Elements Mountain, they felt that their bodies were ten times heavier, causing them to walk with extreme difficulty.

Moreover, there was a restriction on the Five Elements Mountain. Flying was not allowed, only climbing on feet was allowed.

The three of them just started to take a few steps, and they were already struggling to walk, their foreheads were full of sweat.

Zheng Kuan spoke with strenuous effort, "There is something weird about this mountain. It seems like you need to practice the Strength of Five Elements to go up."

Wang Shuo, whose face slowly began to turn pale, nodded his head and forced a smile, “Also, you probably have to be at the middle stage of the Strength of Five Elements, or carry the All Creation Realm, to be able to walk up.”

“Sigh, it seems like only Liu Chen can win. I am just here to act as a foil to him.” Zheng Kuan summoned a peal of forced laughter. The words earlier were coming true. The person who would eventually return with the beauty would be Liu Chen.

He subconsciously raised his head, but his face suddenly froze in shock, “Wait, he, how is it possible?”

Wang Shuo followed the directions of his gaze and gasped.

Su Yu seemed relaxed, with both arms behind his back, climbing up the mountain as if he was walking on flat ground, without any pressure exerted on his body.

Most importantly, he was walking in front of Liu Chen.

Liu Chen’s face seemed like he wanted to catch up, but the distance between them was gradually growing apart!

“This, this... did he discover some kind of trick to this?” Wang Shuo felt embarrassed immediately. If a miserable mere nine-stage fairy country bumpkin could even climb the Five Elements Mountain to meet the beauty, how could he, as a Heaven Ruler of the Eastern Continent, admit defeat?

Gritting his teeth, Wang Shuo’s neck turned red as he growled, and forced himself to climb the mountain.

However, the more he traveled, the stronger the Strength of Five Elements became. After six steps, the great Strength of Five Elements came crashing down on Wang Shuo, causing him to turn over on the steps. He rolled over a few times and eventually rolled down to the feet of the mountain and vomited blood. It was a pathetic sight.

After Zheng Kuan tried to take five steps, he realized that he could no longer force himself to continue, so he retreated with a wry smile.

Looking up at Su Yu, who was halfway up, feelings of regret filled his heart. If he had known that this person was going to excel in this test, why did he distance from him from the beginning?

“I can’t accept this!” Wang Shuo’s gritted teeth were filled with blood.

Liu Chen was an extremely young All Creation strong martial artist who was incomparably gifted. So, he would be able to accept wholeheartedly if Liu Chen were to reach the top of the mountain and win the beauty’s heart.

But Su Yu? A mere stage nine fairy, an untamed brat from the barren area, how could he accept this?

On the mountain, Su Yu walked with his eyes closed. The higher he went, the stronger the Strength of Five Elements. Not only did he not feel any pressure, but his eyes were also filled with joy.

Under the Strength of the Five Elements, Su Yu felt some inspiration regarding his understanding of the final piece of Demon Clan inscriptions in his mind. Even though it is weak, but it is far better than trying to understand on his own.

If he was given a few days to cultivate on the mountain, he would definitely be able to reach a breakthrough and understand a hundred pieces of Demon Clan inscriptions thoroughly to gain control of the Five Elements Divine Prison.

With a happy expression, Su Yu kept moving upwards. The higher he went, the faster he walked, gradually like a horse galloping, leaving traces of afterimages on the mountain.

At the foot of the mountain, the young lady stared in bewilderment. In her eyes, it seemed that he was not being pressured by the Strength of Five Elements. Rather, it seemed like Su Yu was chasing after a more powerful Strength of Five Elements.

“This lad’s achievements in the Five Elements seem very impressive,” the young lady exclaimed. In the Oriental family, there are no more than ten people who could run like this on the Five Element mountain.

Immediately, a pair of curved crescent eyes showed a mischievous expression, “Hehe, seems like young mistress is going to be troubled this time.”

Su Yu’s mind was getting clearer and the distance from the last layer of enlightenment seemed to be getting closer. His heart was filled with the indescribable feeling of ease like he was treading on air.

However, just as he was immersed in the feeling of extreme comfort, where the Strength of Five Elements disappeared, the feeling of almost reaching enlightenment was forcibly interrupted.

This feeling was like a couple was in the middle of making love and the man was suddenly impotent.

Su Yu was secretly annoyed. He opened his eyes and realized with a wry smile that he had reached the mountain summit.

It was the result of the seal on the mountain summit that was restraining the Strength of Five Elements.

“If only the Strength of Five Elements were stronger. Understanding the Demon Clan inscription would yield twice the result with half of the effort,” Su Yu was exceptionally disappointed.

However, he did not forget the purpose of this trip.

He scanned the surroundings, thinking of meeting Dongfang Tianfeng in person.

In the end, Dongfang Tianfeng was not in sight. Instead, a handsome young child was standing at the mountain summit.

Dressed in plain clothing, carrying a sword, handsome facial features and charismatic...At first glance, he looked like a celestial in heaven.

The sight of such a handsome and high-spirited person caused Su Yu to tremble in fear for a moment.

What the hell!

Was that not him?

The young child was none other than Su Yu himself!

With a closer look, Su Yu came to realize that it was an illusionary image that was created by a group of Strength of All Creation.

How did his own illusionary image appear here? Su Yu was feeling anxious and fearful in his heart.

Phew!

A heavy panting could be heard from behind him. Liu Chen reached the summit with great difficulty.

Staring at how relaxed Su Yu looked, the look in Liu Chen's eyes became fierce. He had never regarded Su Yu as competition, and he was very confident in this competition for the bride.

When he persuaded Su Yu to leave earlier, he never took him seriously.

In the end, as an All Creation strong martial artist, he struggled to climb the mountain but Su Yu did it with ease.

The sense of crisis suddenly rose in his heart.

But at the next moment, his gaze was attracted by the illusionary image. His eyes widened as his voice caught, "Su Yu!"

Back then at the Glittering Jewel Wonderland, he traveled with Dongfang Tianfeng. Su Yu did not recognize this insignificant number one martial artist within his region but he recognized Su Yu!

To enter the martial tower to clear the stages, he also once succumbed to Su Yu's Ancient Book of Heart's Oaths.

After witnessing Su Yu's various feats, he was in awe.

An outstanding talent from Jiuzhou like the Demon Devouring Emperor was still being pressed on the ground and killed, let alone him?

Even if he were to make a breakthrough in the All Creation today, Liu Chen did not think that he could fight against even the little finger of this new generation of supreme talent that could cut the starry sky of Jiuzhou.

Hence, the moment he saw Su Yu, he felt a sense of guilt and fear in his heart.

When he realized that Su Yu was an illusionary image, Liu Chen heaved a sigh of relief, and murmured to himself, "It was just an illusionary image."

He recognized the image of the old man Su Yu and the real appearance of Su Yu that he heard from the Central Prefecture that he had also seen before.

Not only him, but as a supreme talent of his generation that shocked Jiuzhou overnight, second only to the great existence of the destined emperor, the information of him was disseminated in extraordinary speed.

Especially the younger generation, whoever took part in the Glittering Jewel Wonderland, the challengers who had witnessed Su Yu's powers all inquired about Su Yu's real identity with feelings of admiration.

It was no doubt that he was the ruthless man who killed the blood emperor.

And also, the present Su Yu was far more powerful than in the past.

Swish!

The seals in the mountain were all activated. The Strength of Five Elements was being restrained, and the maid flew up to the mountain and announced happily, "Congratulations to both of you for passing the third test. Now for the fourth test..."

"Hold on!" Liu Chen spoke strenuously, "Why is there a fourth test? Shouldn't it be three?"

The maid rolled her eyes at him, "There are two of you. We can't possibly split young mistress into two, and let you each own half of her, right?"

This... Liu Chen hesitated for a moment, gently took in a breath, and calmly looked over at Su Yu, "Seems like a showdown is inevitable, bring it on!"

Before Su Yu could answer, the maid spoke as she glared at them, "Who said that your opponent is each other?"

Liu Chen pointed at Su Yu and said, "There are only the two of us around here if I don't pick him, who else should I pick..."

However, once his eyes met the gaze of the young lady who seemed to be smiling, Liu Chen seemed to realize something. He turned his neck with extreme difficulty, like a rusty metal puppet, towards Su Yu and sighed, "Could it be that the fourth test is actually a challenge, to challenge the Treasure boy, Su Yu?"

What he received was a harmless smile from the young lady, "Yes, the people that young mistress admired the most were the two great heroes of the current world, Zhan Wushuang, and Su Yuxian, oh, now it's been changed to Su Yu. Only by winning their illusionary image will you be acknowledged by the young mistress."

Liu Chen's face turned pale like he was just thrown into an ice stellar. His face turned blue, and his body became stiff. After a while, he became annoyed and questioned, "Are you joking? How could I possibly win him? He, he's an elite of the Starry Sky that was on par with the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy?"

The maid shrugged her shoulders, "I'm not asking you to challenge the real person, but an illusionary image. The illusionary image only has half the ability of the real person."

Who knew that Liu Chen's brains were rocking like a rattle-drum, "No, no, even if it's only fifty percent, it's still not possible for me to fight against!"

His mind took a turn as he suddenly came upon a realization, became annoyed, and asked, "Wait, your young mistress wasn't looking for a groom, right? Coming up with such a difficult fourth test, may I know who else besides the real Zhan Wushuang and Su Yu would be able to pass the test?"

The maid pursed her lips and giggled. He was right. The young mistress never intended to get married. However, under the pressure of the clan, she had to take it upon herself and come up with a fourth test that no one would be able to pass.

In this world, among the younger generation, besides Zhan Wushuang, it seemed that only the real Su Yu would be able to pass the test.

At the thought of this, the maid couldn't hold back anymore and chuckled as she covered her mouth, "Young mistress method is superb. All these young men who worked hard to pass the test, it would be a surprise if they're not mad. "

"Where's your young mistress? I want to ask her in person. Despite my sincerity, I was still fooled! I'm unable to accept this!" Liu Chen shouted, obviously unwilling and feeling very annoyed.

The commotion at the mountain summit caught the attention of the people at the bottom of the mountain. They all began to climb and when they reached the summit and understood the situation, they were all furious as well.

Even though they were unable to take part in the final test, they still felt like they were cheated.

The maid who was still laughing earlier, her face turned cold suddenly, "I don't accept it? This is the Oriental family, if you're not satisfied, you can report about me. Both of you only have one choice, either you take up the challenge, or you give up. You have to answer within three breaths. Otherwise, we'd treat it as surrender!"

"I want to see the young mistress!" Liu Chen shouted angrily, "I don't believe that you actually thought you're not in any wrong? In the future, who else would still have the courage to compete for the bride from the Oriental family?"

Chapter 1097: Mistakes and Misunderstanding

Upon hearing that, the female servant dared not to keep provoking. The females of the Great Oriental Family had a short lifespan because of the spell cast on them.

Hence, to ensure the proliferation of their family, they often recruited young, talented men to marry the young women in the family and give birth to new members to the family.

If this matter was made a big deal, it would be a disadvantage to the women of other families to recruit candidates for marriage.

"My lady has gone to rest. If you pass the challenge successfully, she will come out and meet you," the female servant said. She muttered inwardly...she really has gone to rest, because no one can possibly pass this challenge.

"Alright, three breaths' time, you can start choosing," the servant added, "If the two of you waive your rights of competition, you can choose one of the four ladies from the second assessment to be your fiancé."

“They are all unmarried, pristine women, despite having lower statuses than the two ladies in the Great Oriental Family, they are more than enough to be a match for you.”

Upon hearing that, Zheng Kuan and Wang Shuo were tempted. The four breathtaking beauties were a rare sight to behold. It wouldn't be a great loss to them after all.

If it were them, they would certainly choose to waive their rights of competition.

“Humph!” How could Liu Chen bear with the resentment? He'd rather be the head of the chicken but not the tail of the phoenix. Even if he lost to Su Yu's virtual shadow hand, he would never settle for anything less than that.

“Miss Dongfang, I, Liu Chen, will remember this!” Liu Chen remarked with great animosity as he held the sword and charged forward, heading for Su Yu.

He had given all his might to this sword attack, bracing himself for an undoubted loss, hence the attack was simple and forthright.

Su Yu's virtual shadow was exactly the same as it was in the martial tower, closely imitating his performance in the martial tower. He started off with the Meteor Light Stream Great Formation, followed by the Five Elements Heaven Distinguishing Formation, and a blow of the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo Sword.

With a miserable scream, Liu Chen did not manage to resist even three attacks before he threw up blood and flew backward, collapsing onto the ground on his back.

He was disheartened and indignant at the same time, the people of the Great Oriental Family were bullies!

Right at that moment, a plaintive sigh sounded, “Let me give it a try, but I'll inform you upfront: I just want to meet your lady once, as for the marriage arrangement, I can see that your lady is rather reluctant. If I pass the challenge, I will not force her.”

The servant was surprised. Hadn't this fellow come to become the lady's fiancé? Then what was he here for?

But it was alright. It suited the lady's wish.

“Haha, thanks for your consideration towards my lady, I thank you on her behalf.” The servant bowed and went on to watch Su Yu's challenge leisurely. Anyway, she never expected any other outcomes.

Su Yu stepped forward, laughing bitterly inside.

He was actually going to challenge his own virtual shadow, how ridiculous and absurd.

Looking at the virtual shadow, Su Yu walked up to it, totally unprepared.

“Is he looking for death? Su Yu's several strikes comprise both attack and defense. If one doesn't initiate the fight, there is no way one will stand a chance.” Zheng Kuan's mouth hung open, his face full of bafflement.

Wang Shuo chortled scornfully. "It's not easy that he has muddled his way to this stage, of course, he's not willing to expose his inferior capabilities, so if he gets defeated by Su Yu, he can find himself a reasonable excuse to avoid humiliation."

Even the female servant was full of doubt. She had heard the lady say, to withstand at least three strikes from Su Yu, one had to master three essentials- speed, accuracy, and brutality.

They had to defeat Su Yu before the third strike, where the sword energy would come surging. Otherwise, they stood zero chances of winning.

She didn't understand what Su Yu was planning. Thus all she did was sit back and relax, with a hand cupping her chin, watching the challenge with amusement.

However, in the next moment, a petrifying scene unraveled before their very eyes.

Su Yu had walked up to the shadow, but Su Yu's shadow did not move at all. Precisely speaking, it wanted to move, but could not budge.

The Meteor Light Stream Formation could be faintly seen- it was vibrating in an attempt to operate, but seemed to be frozen by some unknown force, and rendered immobile.

And just like that, Su Yu walked up to it as though nothing happened, and gently slammed his palm on Su Yu's virtual shadow, completely shattering it.

On the summit of the mountain, only the soft, whizzing sounds of wind could be heard, and everything else was in dead silence.

Su Yu was the only one that wasn't bothered at all. It was no wonder that he knew himself best.

Of course, Su Yu understood the ways to contend with the techniques, enabling him to tame the opponent with a single Time Freezing trick.

"Ah!" The female servant was the first one to come out of the trance. She exclaimed in stupefaction but accidentally bit her tongue.

She clasped a hand over her mouth, her eyes full of shock and terror, and the tears of pain. She tried to speak, but she was faltering incoherently because of the bitten tongue.

She stomped her feet and ran down from the mountain frenziedly. Her face was so pale one would have thought it was the end of the world.

And the rest of the people on the mountain summit had their eyes wide and mouths hanging open in disbelief.

Su Yu's virtual shadow was simply shattered by this old fellow that was unheard of?

If Su Yu had discovered secret techniques that they hadn't been able to discover in time for the three previous levels, then there was no way any secret techniques could have been employed to fight against this worldly renowned Su Yu in the fourth assessment.

"I refuse to accept this!" Wang Shuo was in total disbelief. He refused to believe that this peasant whom he looked down on had defeated Su Yu's shadow.

“Take my blow, Dragonfly on the Water!” With agile footsteps, Wang Shuo dashed to Su Yu’s front in a stream of continuous remnant shadows and pointed to his chest with a finger.

His finger moved as fast as a bolt of lightning, with all of his Vital Energy gathered on it.

This technique was precious for causing great damage with its minimal surface area, by gathering all his Vital Energy onto a single point, inflicting enormous impact.

As an eighth-grade Almighty, not even most of the ninth-grade Almighty dared resolve this technique by force.

However, Su Yu did not move at all. He simply allowed his finger to touch his chest.

Wang Shuo flashed a cold sneer of contempt. “That’s all to your power...”

However, before he could finish his sentence, Wang Shuo’s face changed suddenly.

With a deafening screech, accompanied by the inward surging of an excruciating pain that tore at his heart and lungs, the finger that was placed on Su Yu’s chest was brutally snapped, as if it had landed on a sturdy fairy artifact!

Causing great damage with minimal effort surely was a plausible technique, as if destroying a thousand kilos with meager strength, but what if it was more than a thousand kilos?

Su Yu’s Dantian was 80 times larger than an ordinary ninth-grade fairy’s, the Vital Energy contained within would terrify even a ninth-grade Almighty, how could the Vital Energy of a mere eighth-grade Almighty possibly move him?

“Ah! My hand! You, you played dirty!” Wang Shuo was furious. He still thought that Su Yu was playing some dirty tricks.

“Get lost!” With a slight frown, Su Yu swept at him with his sleeves, feeling disgusted.

It was just a slight touch of his sleeve, but when it landed on Wang Shuo, it was like a hundred thousand giant mountains had crumbled on him, sending him flying all the way into the clouds. Along the way, blood splattered everywhere, and no one knew if he was dead or alive.

An eighth-grade Almighty, sent flying to the heavens by a touch of a sleeve? This, this was...

Zheng Kuan’s teeth were chattering. He was in extreme dread. At this moment, how could he still believe that Su Yu, whose cultivation couldn’t be deciphered, was only a ninth-grade fairy?

Not even a ninth-grade Almighty had the power of sending someone flying out of this world with just a sweep of their sleeve.

Could he, could he really be an All Creations Old Monster?

When Su Yu looked his way, Zheng Kuan was apprehensive and bashful. He bent slightly and flashed an apologetic smile. “Senior, Senior Su, please forgive me for offending you earlier.”

Su Yu nodded dispassionately and walked to the pavilion while ignoring everyone around him, waiting in silence.

That female servant had run off in haste. She must have gone to inform Dongfang Tianfeng.

“My lady! My lady, bad news!” The female servant scurried all the way through, losing one of her shoes on her way. But she didn’t have time to care, with one of her feet bare, she hurried to the lady’s chamber.

The lady in the white dress was leaning against the bed, with a book of techniques in hand, studying intently.

Upon hearing it, she did not even raise her head. Indifferent, she inquired, “What happened? What made you so anxious?”

“My lady, something bad happened to the fourth assessment!” The servant was so anxious she was puffing out smoke.

The lady in white was calm and serene. “They must be causing trouble because they can’t accept the results? Let them be, if it gets out of hand, inform the people to chase them out, do you need my advice on such a small matter?”

“No, it’s not that...” The servant was panting heavily. She gasped deeply before saying in great urgency, “Someone has passed the fourth assessment that you designed, my lady!”

Pop!

With a dull thud, the lady’s hands trembled, and the book in her hands dropped onto the floor. She looked towards the servant with gleaming eyes, and her willowy body got up abruptly. The calmness on her face was replaced by shock and surprise.

In great disbelief, she questioned, “You’re saying that Su Yu’s virtual shadow has been defeated?”

The servant nodded earnestly. “Yes, I saw it with my own eyes, that shadow of Su Yu was like a dumb penguin, it was totally motionless, and got shattered by that man with a slam of his palm!”

The lady in white had a terrified look on her face. Her eyes were filled with reluctance and grievance. Her eyes went dull and crestfallen as she sat down on the edge of the bed. With great sorrow and misery, she said, “I still can’t escape the misfortune of the Great Oriental Family after all!”

Her snowy white hands were tightly clasped together, her nails digging into the flesh of her palms.

The servant was saddened by the sight. She tried to comfort her, “My lady, why do you still pin your hopes on Su Yu? He has never seen you before and has no feelings towards you. He knows nothing about your admiration for him. This is a waste of time.”

The servant knew how proud and dignified a person her lady was. She wouldn’t marry anyone who wasn’t a world hero.

Among the four starry sky elites, Zhan Wushuang and the Demon Devouring Emperor were the most outstanding ones.

But Zhan Wushuang was a destined monarch, the last disciple of the Central Prefecture’s King, someone whom she could never dream of being with.

The Demon Devouring Emperor, on the other hand, was brutal and cruel in nature and had the appearance of a beast. She would never be willing to marry him.

And then there came a distinguished heaven ruler that overpowered the starry sky elites, whom her younger sister, Dongfang Tianfeng, kept singing praises about as if he was out of this world.

It piqued her interest, with his true appearance and his many triumphant deeds, he suited all her requirements for an ideal future husband.

It was a pity that their future was doomed to be in vain.

Seeing that her lady was at the brink of tears, the servant suddenly had an idea. "Oh ya, that man said he's only here to meet you, he values your wish, and said that he wouldn't force you into marriage even if he wins."

When she heard that, the lady in white lifted her gaze suddenly, surprised, she asked, "Did he really say that? Were there any witnesses?"

"Yes, Mister Liu Chen and three other strangers could prove it." The servant nodded obediently, her face beaming with joy. How could she forget this part?

Even though the Great Oriental Family was recruiting a son-in-law, that man had given his word. Hence it didn't matter if the engagement was canceled.

"Alright, I'll meet him then to fulfill his wish." The redness had returned to the lady's cheeks as she headed for the Five Elements Mountain cheerfully.

From afar, she saw an elderly man with a silver mask waiting quietly in the pavilion.

"Why is it an elderly man?" The lady was surprised.

The servant shrugged. "Probably just the looks, the Great Oriental Family has men in their twenties looking like old men in their sixties and seventies too, isn't it?"

The Great Oriental Family was cursed, thus the people aged very quickly. They were considerate towards people who looked too old for their age like Su Yu.

"Yes, remember to remunerate him, don't let him come all the way here for no reason." The lady in white had made up her mind, she sauntered to the pavilion gracefully and offered her greetings, "Nice to meet you, Mister Su."

Su Yu was meeting this woman for the first time. He was slightly impressed, and could not help but praise, "What a fairy you are, with a dress as gorgeous as the snow."

He had seen many beautiful women before, and the one before him could be ranked in the top ten.

Hearing his compliment, the lady in white was worried. She thought to herself...I hope he won't break his promise after seeing my looks. It'll be troublesome then.

"You are a man of matchless talents. I truly admire you." The lady intended to divert Su Yu's attention somewhere else.

Su Yu only took one look at her and had lost all interest. He had seen way too many beautiful women. Hardly anyone could move his heart now.

“I am Su Zhenlong, may I know where is Miss Dongfang? Are you her servant?”

Everyone at the scene was startled by his question.

Not just Liu Chen and Zheng Kuan, even the gorgeous servant was taken aback.

The lady in white slightly froze, looking embarrassed. She couldn't help but glance at Su Yu... This man really was, he really was blunt, wasn't he? How could he mistake her for a servant?

She was displeased. Even if she didn't care much about her status, still, she couldn't bear to be mistaken for a servant.

It was the pretty young girl who saved the scene for her lady. Embarrassed, she said, “Mister Su, this is Miss Dongfang right here, I suppose you have not met her before. You have come here to meet her, as you wish, my lady has come to meet you in person...”

Su Yu was befuddled for a moment, and then he came to a realization. He shook his head and said, “It's not her that I want to meet.”

Chapter 1098: Home Delivery

After hearing Su Yu's flippant reply, the other people on the summit of the mountain became speechless.

Liu Chen was also dumbfounded. “What are you talking about? You even don't know who the person you want to visit is! How could you take this test so rashly?” he thought.

Although the woman in a white dress was polite and well-educated, she was still annoyed right now.

This test related to her marriage which was one of the most important events of her life. How could this guy be so rash?

Therefore, the woman in the white dress, who was angry and embarrassed, stared at Su Yu indignantly. “My name is Dongfang Yue, and I am the elder daughter of the Great Oriental Family. Please tell me who you are looking for? And why are you participating in this test?” she asked.

The woman's angry reaction surprised and embarrassed Su Yu, so he hurriedly apologized. “I didn't mean to cause confusion in the test. I came here to visit Miss Dongfang. I remembered that everybody calls her Miss Dongfang, and she is also a member of the Great Oriental Family. Her name is Dongfang Tianfeng. I don't know why I was brought to you!”

Hearing this, the other people were totally embarrassed on his behalf, and they began to snigger. Even Dongfang Yue laughed like an extremely charming snow lotus.

The pretty little maidservant also laughed out loud. “My lord,” she said, “you know the Great Oriental Family has two daughters, right? The elder daughter is standing in front of you. The other one is the younger daughter!”

“Wait!” Suddenly, Su Yu thought of something which shocked him. He seemed to remember that the people in the Glittering Jewel Wonderland had called Dongfang Tianfeng the younger lady.

“Does that mean I've made a serious mistake?” he thought.

Although Su Yu believed that he would remain indifferent whether granted favors or subjected to humiliation, he couldn't help but blush at this moment.

"Mr. Su, why do you want to see my younger sister?" Dongfang Yue asked curiously after putting her heart at rest. Since this guy was not here to compete to be her husband, he would never marry her, which meant she didn't need to worry about him.

"Oh, Miss Dongfang and I were acquainted with each other in the Glittering Jewel Wonderland. I am here to pay an official visit to her!" Su Yu gave an ambiguous reply.

Dongfang Yue didn't doubt his reply. She knew her younger sister, who was different from her, was active and had a lot of friends who visited her from time to time.

But nobody had paid a visit to Dongfang Yue's test before.

"My younger sister is at home now. Let me take you to her!" Dongfang Yue decided to show a friendly gesture to Su Yu without extra cost to herself. In this way, she could make a clean break with Su Yu.

Su Yu stood up. "Thank you, my lady!" he said.

When Su Yu was taken away, Liu Chen and the rest of the people also left this place with mixed feelings.

The two daughters of the Great Oriental Family were born of the same mother. They were very close to each other and even lived side by side.

When Dongfang Yue and Su Yu arrived at the courtyard of Dongfang Tianfeng, they didn't find her there. Upon making inquiries, they were told that Dongfang Tianfeng had been summoned by the North Mansion Mistress.

"Let's wait for a while. She will be back soon!" Dongfang Yue said as she sat down and looked at Su Yu curiously. "Could you tell me how you defeated the Su Yu's Virtual Shadow? I have studied this carefully, and I only know of a few people in the younger generation who could defeat Su Yu's Virtual Shadow. Besides Zhan Wushuang, only Su Yu is certain of doing so! So, where are you from? Why haven't I heard of you before?"

She didn't believe an expert with such tremendous strength could be nameless!

Su Yu was embarrassed by her question, but he couldn't tell her he was Su Yu now. So, he said, "I am from an isolated region of the Central Prefecture. I always perform training alone and seldom show my face in public!"

"Is that so?" Dongfang Yue thought. She looked at Su Yu with her sparkling eyes. Then, she started to think things over as her eyes ranged over the sword box behind Su Yu's back from time to time.

Su Yu's heart skipped a beat. Had she recognized him?

Luckily, they heard the sound of light and hurried footsteps coming from outside the yard.

One of those approaching was Dongfang Tianfeng. She looked like an innocent girl but was actually quite crafty. Several elders were walking beside her.

Su Yu's eyes lit up. Finally, he had managed to meet Dongfang Tianfeng.

However, when he was stood in front of her, the pressure caused by the Ordeal of People was not alleviated, which disappointed Su Yu a lot.

Dongfang Tianfeng was not the right person!

The woman who could resolve the Ordeal of People for Su Yu mentioned by Yun Yazhi was not Dongfang Tianfeng!

After expending so much energy, he realized the one he found was not the correct person! Disappointment was a natural reaction at this moment!

Fortunately, he still had seven days to continue his search.

"Hey, what brings you here, elder sister? Who's he?" Dongfang Tianfeng asked. She had run into the yard briskly to see her elder sister standing with a stranger.

Dongfang Yue worried that Su Yu would say he was the final winner of her test. So, she said hurriedly, "This is your friend. He came here to visit you... Wait! Don't you know him?"

Dongfang Yue realized that something was wrong and stared at Su Yu vigilantly as she walked over to her younger sister. Then, the elders walked up to protect them.

"I don't know him!" Dongfang Tianfeng replied as she blinked her eyes in puzzlement.

"Who are you?" Dongfang Yue asked seriously. This guy said he was her younger sister's friend. How could Dongfang Tianfeng say she didn't know him?

"Yue'er, what's going on?" Behind them, two middle-aged elders were standing vigilantly.

A middle-aged woman, who had a majestic and imposing appearance, asked Dongfang Yue to explain what was going on.

Dongfang Yue told the woman everything, including the things that had happened during the test. She believed that this guy, who had pretended to be Dongfang Tianfeng's friend, must have other intentions.

"Sir, I really admire your courage. However, you've offended the Great Oriental Family. I'm afraid you can't leave here easily!" the middle-aged woman said as she looked at Su Yu calmly.

The other middle-aged woman who was standing beside her looked at Su Yu with a puzzled expression.

After being misunderstood, Su Yu didn't want to cause conflict with the Great Oriental Family. The woman in front of him, who must be the North Mansion Mistress, was a peak All Creations expert.

“Ahem! Miss Dongfang, you really forget things easily!” Su Yu replied with a wry smile. Then, he took off his mask to show Dongfang Tianfeng his old face.

It was the appearance he had used when he was in the Glittering Jewel Wonderland.

Dongfang Tianfeng felt the sword box behind Su Yu’s back was quite familiar. When he took off his mask, she widened her mouth in surprise and said, “Su... Su Yuxian?”

She never expected that Su Yuxian would pay an official visit to her!

She clearly knew the gap in strength between her and this man after the fight in the Glittering Jewel Wonderland.

In front of Zhan Wushuang, who was the second most powerful expert, her talents were nothing!

Now, her heart was full of mixed feelings like surprise, joy, and satisfaction. She blushed with excitement and shouted, “What made you think of visiting me?”

Su Yu didn’t want to tell her that he had tried to solve his Ordeal of People by visiting her. So, he said calmly, “I thought of you on my way through the Eastern Continent, so I decided to visit you on the way back!”

Their conversation shocked the other people watching.

Even the North Mansion Mistress, who was always calm, was surprised. She immediately asked, “So, you are Su Yuxian who is the rising star of the Jiuzhou Continent, right?”

Su Yu knelt down as he folded his hands at her. “Mistress, please forgive my sudden visit!”

The North Mansion Mistress was quite bold and generous. In some ways, she was like a man. She tried to pull Su Yu up and laughed loudly, “You fought heroically with Tianfeng. You are always welcome to visit us! I am so happy about your arrival. Please get up!”

Such an outstanding young expert from the Jiuzhou Continent had visited the Great Oriental Family. How could she stay calm?

As an experienced expert, she clearly knew that Su Yu, who might not yet have reached the level of the Mortal Fairy, would absolutely reach the summit of All Creations in the future!

Such a rough diamond would always be welcome to keep a friendly relationship with the Great Oriental Family.

More importantly, all members of the Great Oriental Family had a favorable impression of this young man who solved the crisis of Demonic Gods by fighting against the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy.

Without Su Yuxian, the Great Oriental Family would have been the first family wiped out by the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy.

Now, the Great Oriental Family would do its best to treat him with warm hospitality.

The only concern in her mind was whether this man could become a member of her family. Then, she looked at her two daughters and secretly sighed in her heart as she looked at her elder daughter.

The middle-aged woman beside her sneered suddenly. “As I expected, it’s you!”

What? Who are you talking about? Su Yu had only paid close attention to Dongfang Tianfeng and hadn't checked the other people here carefully. Hearing that, he turned around and changed his expression. Then, he said with embarrassment, "What a coincidence, South Mansion Mistress!"

The other middle-aged woman was the well-dressed lady who had been guarding the legendary transportation portal!

Su Yu remembered that the mistresses of the two mansions wouldn't visit each other unless there was something urgent!

What had brought the South Mansion Mistress here?

"Younger sister, do you know him?" The North Mansion Mistress was surprised when she heard her younger sister's words. It seemed she also knew Su Yu.

The South Mansion Mistress didn't want to tell her she had been fooled by this young man or that the legendary transportation portal had been sealed. At last, she clenched her teeth with embarrassment and replied. "No!"

The North Mansion Mistress was puzzled by her reply, but she didn't want to make a detailed inquiry because she knew her younger sister shouldn't bear a deep grudge against Su Yu. So, she turned around and looked at Su Yu thoughtfully. "Heh! Heh! I remember you have another identity! Is that right?" she asked.

Of course, his other identity was Su Yu!

Because of his identity change, not everyone knew that Su Yuxian was actually Su Yu.

"I have issues with the Central Prefecture's King. So, I have been forced to change my appearance. Please forgive my abruptness!" Su Yu said as he resumed his young appearance.

Ah!

Dongfang Yue suddenly shouted out in surprise as she fixed her eyes on Su Yu in disbelief.

When her younger sister said that this guy was Su Yuxian, Dongfang Yue had doubted his identity till this moment.

"It's you!" The South Mansion Mistress was also surprised. Then, she said delightedly, "Hah! Hah! Hah! The one I saw that day was you as expected!"

Then, she looked at Dongfang Yue in relief.

The next moment, the two mistresses made eye contact in excitement.

The South Mansion Mistress telepathically said, "My elder sister, this is really a windfall! I thought Yue'er would never get the chance to marry Su Yu. Now, it seems their marriage is predestined!"

The North Mansion Mistress smiled but said nothing. As Dongfang Yue's mother, she knew her daughter very well.

Her elder daughter appreciated Su Yu who had saved the Great Oriental Family. As an extremely powerful expert, Su Yu had also successfully won her heart.

Although Dongfang Yue had not mentioned it, her reaction just then had revealed her secret.

The North Mansion Mistress hadn't thought about the possibility before. Su Yu, who was in the Central Prefecture, hadn't established a friendly relationship with the Great Oriental Family yet. And it was impossible to force him to marry Dongfang Yue!

In order to stop Dongfang Yue from her one-sided love, she arranged the tests to choose a husband for Dongfang Yue. She believed Dongfang Yue would be dragged out of her fantasy after marrying another man.

They never expected Su Yu would deliver himself to their gate!

Therefore, Su Yu was the best candidate on the Jiuzhou Continent to become Dongfang Yue's husband, as well as becoming a member who could enhance the strength of the Great Oriental Family.

"Elder sister, this issue needs further consideration. Although he is here, he has nothing to do with Yue'er. We can't force him to marry Yue'er. Otherwise, we could get the opposite outcome!"

The North Mansion Mistress said with an unfathomable smile, "Heh! Heh! My younger sister, don't you forget how he got into this courtyard?"

Chapter 1099: Mysterious Mountain

"Accidentally selected...you're saying?" Only then did the South Mansion Mistress recall what her niece said. He was the one who succeeded in passing four assessments, becoming the first choice of a fiancé!

He had even attained the status now, so whether he was willing or not, he was now the son-in-law-to-be of the Great Oriental Family!

As she thought of that, the South Mansion Mistress was beside herself with joy. She stared at Su Yu from head to toe with a measuring look, and the more she looked at him, the more she liked him. At such a young age, he had achieved such matchless competency.

The Great Oriental Family hadn't come across many of such all-rounded elites in ten thousand years, Yue-er was blessed.

Su Yu felt chills cascading down his spine as the South Mansion Mistress looked him up and down.

"Mansion Mistresses, you should get going if you're preoccupied, I'll leave. I'll visit again if I have the chance." Su Yu had an ominous feeling, so he quickly took off.

However, the North Mansion Mistress put a hand on his shoulder with an amiable smile. "My dear son-in-law, you're here already, where else are you going?"

Dear...dear son-in-law? Su Yu couldn't quite register the transition from dear nephew to dear son-in-law. His mind was muddled.

“Haha, you came here from a million miles away for Yue-er, it must have been tough for you.” The North and South Mansion Mistresses advised benevolently, standing on both sides of Su Yu and trapping him in between.

Both of them were looking at him as if he was a valuable treasure, examining every single inch of him.

How could Su Yu have known that the Great Oriental Family had the idea of making Su Yu their son-in-law from way earlier on? He was silly to have run headlong into the Great Oriental Family, and even more coincidentally, rising as the first among the candidates.

He was like a fat pig that had run into the butcher’s house, becoming the piece of meat that went knocking on their door.

How would Su Yu be sloppy about the major event of his life? Hurriedly, he explained in a somber manner, “Mansion Mistresses, this is a misunderstanding. I have taken part in the fiance selection uninformed, and I have no intention of holding up your daughter’s marriage.”

“I urge Mansion Mistresses to take your daughter’s happiness as the priority, and not to make hasty decisions.”

The two Mansion Mistresses exchanged a glance and smiled. The North Mansion Mistress was cordial beyond words, as if she couldn’t wait to become Su Yu’s mother-in-law.

“Hehe, Su Yu, the moment you emerged as the best candidate and became the only one to pass all the assessments, you are announcing to the world that you will soon become the fiance of Dongfang Yue.”

“This matter is decided. Yue-er’s reputation and integrity depend upon you now, and she can’t marry anyone else. But now you’re evasive, are you trying to land my Yue-er in a predicament?”

Su Yu got anxious. He hurriedly explained, “I only took the challenge for the fourth assessment because I heard that Miss did not want to match-make. And I have promised her that even if I passed the challenge, I would not force her into marriage. Many people can prove this.”

The North Mansion Mistress was like a cat that had just caught a fresh, delicious mouse, that even her smile was sly and covetous. “You said that Yue-er didn’t want to be match-made? Yea, who said that? Did Yue-er say that herself?”

“No...” Su Yu felt bitterness in his mouth.

The North Mansion Mistress said again, “You said you promised not to force Yue-er into marriage even if you won, words don’t count, have you any documents to prove yourself? Did you sign with your essence blood? Do you have witnesses?”

“No...” Bitterness was oozing out from Su Yu’s face.

The North Mansion Mistress said again, “So you have nothing, and you chose to take the challenge, weren’t you prepared to take Yue-er as your wife then?”

Su Yu felt so wronged and helpless. He glanced around and saw Dongfang Yue, who was hanging her head low in silence. His eyes gleamed with hope, and he called out hurriedly, "My lady, you can justify for me."

She was reluctant to get married. This was a certain fact.

As long as she shook her head, this matter would be put to an end.

However, for some reason, Dongfang Yue hung her head low all the while and did not say a word.

Su Yu got anxious. "My lady, you can't be reckless with your marriage. I hope you can make your decision as soon as possible."

Seeing how Su Yu was seeking help from Dongfang Yue as if holding on to his last lifeline, the South and the North Mansion Mistresses both flashed a teasing smile of sympathy...This fellow, he doesn't seem to know Yue-er's heart.

Dongfang Yue was hanging her low because her gorgeous face was written all over with shyness and nervousness.

Her usual placid self was nowhere to be found. Stammering, she said, "I, I...I'll comply with my mother's arrangements."

After saying that, she ran away with brisk steps, leaving Su Yu alone at the scene, perplexed and dumbfounded.

Su Yu was stunned. He felt as though he had fallen victim to a premeditated scam.

The North Mansion Mistress burst into laughter, and said, "My dear son-in-law, just put your mind at ease and stay, your wedding ceremony will be held a few days from now."

To prevent matters from confounding further, the Mansion Mistresses exchanged a glance, and ruthlessly arranged the wedding ceremony on short notice.

Feeling the severity of the situation, Su Yu uttered sternly, "No way! I have two things, and it seems like I have no choice but to spill them now."

"Firstly, I have a family. Hence I will absolutely not marry the lady!"

What he didn't expect was, both Mansion Mistresses were calm and composed as if they had predicted it earlier. "So what? You're a man of excellence. We'd be surprised if you don't already have a family."

This was an era where the world worshiped power, what was so strange for a heaven ruler like Su Yu to marry a few women at the same time?

This, this doesn't matter? Su Yu gritted his teeth. "Fine. Secondly, I cannot stay in the Great Oriental Family! Otherwise, I will invite tremendous disasters to your family!"

"How tremendous are the disasters? Tell us." The two of them said with amusement, as they kept glancing at Su Yu with the look of assessing a son-in-law. It seemed like they couldn't care less about the disasters that Su Yu mentioned.

"The Central Prefecture's King is hunting me down. He'll be here in seven days, at the latest!"

The faces of the Mansion Mistresses froze suddenly. The North Mansion Mistress questioned in a low voice, "Is this true? Is it not just a pretext to reject us?"

Su Yu shook his head. "To be honest, I'm going through the Three-Nine Ordeals. The next is the ordeal of people. This ordeal will be manifesting on the Central Prefecture, and is extremely dangerous."

"I only came here because I received a clue to look for things related to phoenix in order to resolve the crisis, that is why I came to meet the second lady, but it is a pity that she isn't the one I'm looking for."

"Due to the time constraint, please forgive me for not being able to stay any longer. I will excuse myself here."

Seeing how Su Yu was speaking sincerely and did not seem to be lying, the North and the South Mansion Mistresses began hesitating but dared not detain Su Yu.

The matter concerned the Central Prefecture's King. If he was drawn here, the Great Oriental Family had to carefully consider if it was worthwhile to resist the Central Prefecture's King for a young member of the family.

Su Yu secretly heaved a long sigh of relief. He had finally convinced them.

However, right after Su Yu walked out of the yard, he was blocked by an intangible force out of nowhere and was catapulted back.

"So what if it's the Central Prefecture's King? Who can steal the son-in-law that the Great Oriental Family has its eyes on?" The hoarse voice of an old lady floated from the Void.

The Mansion Mistresses felt reassured, their faces beaming with joy. "Yes, we will adhere to your command, Ancestor."

The voice in the bleakness disappeared. The identity of its owner was clear without saying. She was one of the two great Mortal Fairies of the Great Oriental Family.

"Dear son-in-law, let us have a talk." The North Mansion Mistress flashed a smile.

Su Yu wanted to leave, but with the intense, predating looks of the two Mansion Mistresses, getting away was a great challenge, let alone the Mortal Fairy keeping an eye on him secretly.

He did not understand what was so valuable about him, that made the Great Oriental Family willing to take the risk to go against the Central Prefecture's King for him.

It would be way too risky if they were just keeping him to be their son-in-law.

Su Yu laughed bitterly, pretending to be helpless, but gleams of indistinct shrewdness were shining in the depths of his eyes.

...

In the dead of night, Su Yu took out the wooden bird and started it surreptitiously.

However, right when the Void was torn open, the North Mansion Mistress's leisurely voice sounded from within, "Dear son-in-law, where are you going?"

Su Yu's heart skipped a beat. Embarrassed, he said, "Hehe, I'm just going for a walk, what a coincidence that you're here too, Mansion Mistress."

"Really? How about going on a walk with me?" Before Su Yu could keep it, the wooden bird was confiscated with a whooshing sound, and peals of soft laughter sounded from the Void.

Su Yu wasn't discouraged. Not long after he left, he walked out of the house stealthily, heading outside the mansion.

However, before he could leave the yard, an elegant figure appeared at the entrance of the yard, leaning against the gate.

"Hey there, strolling in the middle of the night?" The South Mansion Mistress asked with half a smile.

Su Yu replied, "Yes, the weather is so wonderful, and the scenery is beautiful, how could I miss out on it?"

"Oh, but only ghosts come out in the middle of the night, you have to be careful," the South Mansion Mistress said smilingly and turned to leave.

What? So she let me go? But right at the moment, the Void behind Su Yu was torn open, and the South Mansion Mistress' hand stuck out from within, gently tapping an imprint on Su Yu's back.

All of a sudden, Su Yu felt the presence of an imprint inside his body. He couldn't help but exclaim, "What is this for?"

"The Dongfang Mansion is too big. I'm afraid you'll lose your way. Thus I have left an imprint on you. Hehe, now go for a walk."

The green veins on Su Yu's forehead leaped. Su Yu tried to remove the imprint with his Vital Energy, only to find that it was embedded deep inside his body as if ironed into it and would not budge an inch.

Ordinary methods were unable to remove the imprint.

"This, this woman!" Su Yu wasn't sure if he felt angry or hilarious. It was like spying on him, no matter where Su Yu went, it would not escape their radar.

Was he getting a bride now? This was, obviously, a forced marriage!

Upon returning to the house, Su Yu took his time to layout plans.

After today, the nine-day term had passed by three days, and the oppression of the ordeal of people was more profound now.

But still, he couldn't seem to comprehend the word "phoenix." Who was it referring to, or was it an object?

He couldn't stay any longer at the Great Oriental Family. He had to leave as soon as he could manage.

As for the imprint on him, was there really an "impurity" in this world that could hold back the Milky Way Star Sand?

A small smile danced on Su Yu's lips.

The next morning, upon daybreak, the servants of the mansion had begun getting busy with embellishing the mansion.

Because the Great Oriental Family was about to welcome a new son-in-law.

Standing at the door, Su Yu's face was full of hopelessness.

"Sir," the beauty in a white dress sauntered gracefully towards him, her face was gorgeous like the snow, her cheeks were flushed slightly red, and her watery eyes were looking at him with shyness.

Su Yu sighed, "My lady, have you really decided to marry me? If you insist not to marry me, the ceremony can be canceled."

Judging from the way she had designed the fourth assessment that was impossible to succeed, Dongfang Yue certainly wasn't a weak woman without opinions of her own. Instead, she was a decisive, independent woman.

"Marriage is an important matter, and I will listen to my mother." Dongfang Yue's eyes were glimmering like crystals, serenely, she asked, "Sir, do you dislike me?"

Looking at the breathtaking fairy in white before him, Su Yu smiled with bitterness. "My lady, your looks and personality are impeccable, you're absolutely outstanding among all the rest."

"However, I don't wish to get the Great Oriental Family involved in my affairs, and I certainly don't wish to invite disasters for your people. If possible, please convince your mother."

Upon hearing Su Yu's compliments, Dongfang Yue's qualms were eased. With reddened cheeks, she said, "Please rest assured, Mister Su, with the two Ancestors around, the Central Prefecture's King won't necessarily have the courage to offend."

The Central Prefecture's King had unrivaled power, he was the strongest among the Mortal Fairies, but if two Mortal Fairies joined hands in battling him, he wouldn't necessarily triumph.

But Su Yu knew better than anyone else, that the ordeal of people was impossible to avoid, a fight was bound to happen six days from now.

Su Yu gave a silent sigh and did not say another word. All he could think of were his plans to escape the Great Oriental Family.

"Should you need anything in this mansion, sir, you can tell me. It is the Ancestor's wish to fulfill all of Mister Su's requests as best as we can," Dongfang Yue said.

Requests? Su Yu cast a look at the faintly discernible Five Elements Mountain in the distance, and said, "I wish to train with the help of the Power of Five Elements of that mountain, is it possible?"

"Training..." Dongfang Yue's eyes turned dark. Was he trying to get away from her with the excuse of training?

Nonetheless, she did not express her disappointment, she got up quickly and said, "Of course, that mountain was discovered by the two Ancestors in the Westernmost region, and serves great benefits to the people training the Power of Five Elements."

"Hence, they moved it back to the family. The insides of the mountain have been developed into a training site, is Mister Su wishes to train, there shouldn't be a problem."

Seeing that Su Yu was interested in the Five Elements Mountain, Dongfang Yue said while walking, "The Five Elements Mountain contained the Power of Five Elements."

"The closer you get to the belly of the mountain, the stronger the Power of Five Elements. Even our two Ancestors have never been to the core of the mountain's belly."

Su Yu was surprised. "Even Mortal Fairies can't penetrate this mountain?"

"Not just them. Our Ancestor said this mountain has mysterious origins. When they discovered it, the skeletal remains of a demon was oppressed underneath it." Dongfang Yue's face grew slightly somber.

"The Ancestors brought it back for identification, and found that the bones are the remains of a God!"

The remains of a God? Su Yu was stunned. He stared at the Five Elements Mountain, feeling fascinated.

Could this mountain kill a deity?

"But it was too long ago, with at least several hundred thousand years of history. The remains of the devil God have lost their divinity. Otherwise, it would be a precious treasure." Dongfang Yue said regrettably.

Having heard such an exclusive tale, Su Yu was even more interested in the Five Elements Mountain. He was also curious about the mysterious westernmost region. There seemed to be filled with exotic items that Jiuzhou never had.

A straight passageway was dug in the Five Elements Mountain, leading directly to its belly.

From the marks and traces on the mountain wall, it definitely wasn't excavated in a short while, but a very long time ago.

As he caressed the stony wall, Su Yu immediately felt the sturdiness of the Five Elements Mountain, as the tips of his fingers were secretly emanating small whiffs of silver sword energy.

Much to Su Yu's surprise, the unassailable sword energy of the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo gave off a trail of sparks when it slashed on the stony wall, but not a single trace was left on the wall.

Noticing Su Yu's move, Dongfang Yue smiled gently. "The material of the Five Elements Mountain is extremely sturdy. The Ancestors have not been able to identify its constituents even until now."

"All that is known is, it does not belong to Jiuzhou. The two of them can't even extract bits of stone from the mountain, despite extensive efforts."

Dongfang Yue did not know that Su Yu was using the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo that was crowned the greatest divine bamboo of Jiuzhou. Theoretically, it could sever even fairy artifacts, but it did not leave a single trace here...

The sturdy material alone could be considered an extremely precious treasure of the world!

The Great Oriental Family had really found a treasure of great worth from the westernmost region.

"My Power of Five Elements is rather shallow. I'll send you up to here. If you feel that you can't withstand the Power of Five Elements any longer, remember not to venture any further," Dongfang Yue said, as she slowly retreated.

Su Yu headed for the depths of the cavern all by himself. Slowly closing his eyes, he tried to break through his final level of comprehension with the aid of the increasingly dense Power of Five Elements.

In the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl, inside the Five Elements Divine Prison.

In the endless dimness, a green-black water dragon was continuously extracting the glory emitted from the demonic words, morbid excitement shimmering in its eyes. "Almost there, just a little bit more, that brat is about to comprehend a hundred levels! Finally, success is here!"

"I was really fortunate to come across a substitute with a nature-defying tendency to enlightenment. I'm finally going to be free! Brat, please don't ever let me down!" The greenish-black water dragon snickered with slyness.

But right at that moment, as Su Yu entered the Five Elements Mountain, the water dragon's face changed slightly. "This feeling is...is that thing?"

Fear crept into the dragon's eyes. "Impossible, wasn't that mountain taken into the land of divine relics already? How, how could it have come to Jiuzhou, with the Five Elements Divine Prison?"

Chapter 1100: Deep within Five Elements Mountain

Su Yu was not aware that each step took him deeper into the mountain.

The Five Elements Power became increasingly stronger as Su Yu's mind worked to decipher the one hundred Demon Clan inscriptions. His comprehension clearer and clearer as he went through the inscriptions.

He continued walking until he reached the center of the cave, where the strength of the Five Elements Power was strongest and close to reaching the limits of Su Yu's capability. He stopped and sat down cross-legged in quiet contemplation.

Very quickly, Su Yu entered into a carefree state of mind. He felt the same way before when he walked up the mountain. He could feel it, the one hundred Demon Clan inscriptions, his breakthrough would happen here.

A day passed. He was five days away from the Tribulation of Human.

"Yue'er, is he still training in isolation?" frowning slightly, North Mansion Mistress inquired at the cave.

At the entrance, Dongfang Yue had stood guard for a day. Her delicate beauty slightly marred by the dismal look on her face as she replied, "Mother, I think it better to stop. I can see that he has no feelings for me."

After a day of reflection, Dongfang Yue had calmed her previous fury.

She definitely admired Su Yu as a dragon among men. Her heart's desire was to marry him. But by such means, would it be proper?

"Yue'er.....," North Mansion Mistress lightly sighed, "I know you have a kind heart and doing this would be difficult. However, our ancestors already knows of this matter. We can no longer end this here. Whether or not you are willing, the Great Oriental Family must have this dragon among men in their pocket."

Ancestor? Dongfang Yue's heart tightened.

His will, the Great Oriental Family cannot defy it.

With regret, Dongfang Yue's sorrowful eyes searched deep within the mountain cave.

Two days passed. Four days left until the Tribulation of Human.

Blessed and Heavenly Land had almost half of its districts in ruins. All due to the unending battle of two Mortal Fairy warriors.

The battle between the two was a never before seen sight on Heaven and Earth. Easily destroying the mountain village, cutting off the earth energy channel. Wherever they passed, it would take at least a century to recover.

Equally wretched was Duanxian Cliffmaster, having maintained his foothold for a painful five days. Compared to his previous boldness, his current spirit was crushed and devastated.

At his chest was a bowl-sized hole, it ran frighteningly through his chest and opening at the back.

His soul was barely there, trying in vain to stay with his physical body.

The Mortal Fairy power within him was entirely depleted.

At his side was a cluster of shattered magical treasures.

Despite all of this, his eyes coldly looked upon the imperially robed youth, he did not retreat a single step.

Central Prefecture King had also spent much of his energy but he was not injured. He was incredulous as he spoke, “Unbelievable! What has he promised you that you do not care about your life? Battling me for five days!”

Dunxian Cliffmaster solemnly replied, “You do not need to know.”

As he spoke, his palm turned splitting the void behind him, he slipped into it.

He sighed, thinking to himself, “Central Prefecture King’s ability is stronger than I expected. I had hoped to last six days. I have used everything and could only hold on for five days. Kid, this Cliffmaster has done what I could, what follows is up to you.”

Glancing at all the magical treasures around him, Dunxian Cliffmaster’s gaze showed his distress. But the thought of his promise with Su Yu, brought hope back to his eyes. If that kid could stay alive, this trade was not a loss.

Upon Dunxian Cliffmaster’s retreat, Central Prefecture King did not stop him.

Even as a Peak Mortal Fairy, he was not capable of taking Dunxian Cliffmaster’s life. Once in the Mortal Fairy realm, to kill him would not be easy.

Besides, he had more important matters at hand.

His cold glare swept in front of him and his heart thumped, “What? Eastern Continent? When did he escape to there?”

Swish——

Half an hour, above Central City, appeared the shadows of imperial robes.

Staring at the rubble of Central City, its destruction by a single sword stroke, Central Prefecture King’s face was dark with anger, his pulsing pale veins interspersed under his skin.

Icily sweeping his gaze forward, Central Prefecture King’s eyes looked down at the ruins, shouting, “Come out!”

After a moment, a cloud of dank ghost energy rose up through the rubble. Splitting into two, it formed the blurry outlines of a man and a woman.

“Do not misunderstand, I am looking at all the corpses. What a waste! Using the Ghost Clan army, this is not what I would do.” The man and woman opened their mouths at the same time. Their footsteps were in sync. Even their tone of voice was exactly the same, as if only one person were speaking.

Central Prefecture King’s frowned, “How did you get here?”

“Oh oh... with the plan exposed, we had to figure out how to convene with you,” replied the man and the woman.

He had known about Ghost Clan’s exposure. Coldly, he replied, “I had ordered Zhan Wushuang to receive you, where is he?”

The man and the woman were intricately in sync with their movements. Both shrugging their shoulders, they replied, “This was all like this when we arrived. Your man is likely underneath this rubble.”

Despite hearing this, Central Prefecture King felt no anxiety. Firmly shaking his head, he said, “A powerful divine being can only be killed by the heavens. A commoner of this world is unable to kill him. He must have left Central Prefecture. Sigh..... speaking of which, do you know who is responsible for this?”

The man and the woman shook their heads simultaneously, “We don’t know.”

When this place was destroyed, they had not yet arrived.

Central Prefecture King, hiding his anger, said, “Forget it! Jiuzhou is in my pocket anyway, it is just one Central City!”

The remaining light revealed a slight sense of worry on his face. Where was Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy?

This woman, whom he called Master, was his greatest fear.

Now with her disappearance, this would not be a bad thing.

Thinking for a moment, Central Prefecture King said, “You will keep the Ghost Clan army here. I have to take care of an urgent matter. If resolved quickly, it will be a couple days. If not, it will be half a month.”

After he spoke, he came to the Transportation Spell Divine Level, its surroundings completely destroyed leaving only the Transportation Spell still intact.

He stood within the Transportation Spell, his pupils hardening to a cold stare, “You dirty ants, you have lived long enough.”

Right before he activated the spell, he noticed that the spell was quiet and his face froze, “Another part of the spell has been sealed?”

Anger flitted to his eyes but he immediately cooled down, “I will allow you to exist for another day!”

He ripped into the void and hastened to Eastern Continent.

Su Yu, deep in thought, felt his heart jump and awoke from his training.

A chill came upon him without warning.

He breathed lightly to calm his emotions, the chill surrounded him and would not dissipate.

“Only managed a short five days?” Su Yu’s eyes narrowed. This chill had to be from Central Prefecture King. His arrival was unexpectedly fast and early.

He could not stay in the Eastern Continent.

Staring hard at the Five Elements Divine Prison, Su Yu’s eyes showed the struggle he was under.

After two days of comprehension, the last Demon Clan inscription was almost broken. If Su Yu had two more days’ time, he would have had his breakthrough. But time is not his friend, it’s too late!

Looking into the recesses of the cave, his only strategy for now was to go deeper within, use a stronger Five Elements power and break through the inscription.

If Five Elements Divine Prison was an emperor-based saint artifact, using its power to wipe out the Tribulation of Human had to have its benefits.

Activating his chi, Su Yu took a step deeper into the mountain.

Tong——

A sound rang out. Exceeding the pressure that he could handle, Su Yu was crushed by the power of Five Elements. A stream of blood spurted out of his mouth as the immense pressure bombarded his body.

“Difficult to exceed the limits, no wonder the Mortal Fairy was also blocked,” Su Yu said through gritted teeth. He could not simply use brute force to continue.

If it was possible to force one’s way past their limit, then the Great Oriental Family’s two Mortal Fairy Old Monsters would have already entered the deep recesses of Five Elements Mountain and found the hidden secrets within it.

After pondering for a while, Su Yu’s eyes flashed as he took another step.

At the same time, his skin shone with gold and black light, the two lights interlaced as they danced. The two lights split on the right and left side of Su Yu, making his body appear strangely.

Divine Dragon Power, Demonic God Power, both flowing to Su Yu’s legs.

Five Elements Mountain erupted with a powerful repulsion force of the Five Elements Power.

And yet, this did not push Su Yu back.

Using the two kinds of strength, Su Yu quickly took nine steps and went into a space that few people have entered. This ground was only accessible by Spire Mortal Fairies, it required ten times as much Five Elements Power.

Under such great pressure, Su Yu’s mind was able to comprehend at an incalculable rate.

“Still not enough.” Su Yu shook his head, under this pressure, he may be able to finish his training within a day.

But, in one day, Central Prefecture King would arrive.

Looking deeper into the dark cave, Su Yu quickly thought.

If he continued forward, he would reach the place of the Mortal Fairy Warriors. At this level of pressure, the Five Elements Power would kill.

Many Mansion Mistresses have tried the same, they would enter the front area and immediately suffer tremendous harm. Their lives in danger, they had no choice but to quickly leave.

Su Yu touched his chest. He held his stern gaze ahead as he took another step forward.

In an instant, his body was filled with a sense of imminent destruction. From outside to inside, it was like his entire being was pulverized.

Streams of blood flowed out of cuts all over Su Yu’s body. His physical body had reached its limit. This was a sign that his body was about to be obliterated and it kept getting worse.

However, at the moment of approaching danger, within Su Yu's chest, an emerald colored heart began to quicken its pulse, releasing an incomparably pure life energy.

The blood stained cuts all over his body immediately healed.

Gritting his teeth, anticipating the pain, Su Yu walked forward several steps, coming to the dark recesses of the cave.

On the ground, Su Yu felt energy leftover from a Mortal Fairy and saw the claw prints along the stone wall.

A Mortal Fairy had gripped the stone wall in order to overcome the Five Elements Power from pressing her back.

Here! Here was where the Mortal Fairy Old Monsters could not surpass!

Su Yu's heart beat rapidly. His heart leapt up as if it wanted to rip itself out of his chest. This was very uncomfortable.

"The Five Elements Power here can allow me to finish in half a day's time," Su Yu was satisfied.

Ignoring the pain in his heart, Su Yu sat down cross-legged as he prepared to go through the one hundred Ghost Clan inscriptions.

He glanced even deeper into the cave, even Mortal Fairy warriors could not enter this space, the real center of the cave.

This was not how he had imagined it, the center of the cave was not pitch dark, instead it emitted rays of gold light, like a fog, it was blurry and could not be seen clearly.

It was only supposed to be a glance but suddenly, Su Yu spied something in the brief light. Su Yu gaped at it and looked in the same direction but there was nothing inside.

"Is it my eyes?" Su Yu did not want to doubt himself, maybe his heart was beating too fast and he was seeing things.

However, when Su Yu recovered his sight, he again saw a faint light moving about.

Su Yu was stunned. Rising suddenly, he went towards the cave's deep recesses to look.

After looking carefully, Su Yu discovered the reason for the movement. It was a golden colored skeleton!

At the same moment, the skeleton turned its head, a pair of jade green flames looked straight at Su Yu.

The shape of the skeleton made Su Yu draw breath, "It's you.....how, how can this be?"

We have reached the end today, we will make up for it tomorrow.
