Chapter 1121: Break the Cocoon and Become a Butterfly

“Brother Su Yu, don’t worry! Sister Jingyu told me she had predicted her destination before her departure. Maybe we will meet her at an unexpected place. Her life jade plate is still intact as well!” Qin Xian’er said.

Surprised, Su Yu asked, “Where did she go? And why did she leave?”

Hearing this, Qin Xian’er paused for a moment and said hesitantly, “Sister Jingyu told me she must be your Tribulation of Affection. If she didn’t leave, you would die. So, she chose to leave alone and tried to find a way to solve your Tribulation of Affection!”

“Is she my Tribulation of Affection?” Su Yu was totally surprised by Xian’er’s words.

He was surprised because he thought Xian’er would be his Tribulation of Affection.

Su Yu worried about Jingyu very much. Luckily, her life jade plate was still intact, which meant her prediction which was made half a year ago was correct. Also, she was safe right now.

“Xian’er, I...” Su Yu, who felt relieved after going through great danger, decided to tell Xian’er what was on his mind.

However, Qin Xian’er placed her slim finger on Su Yu’s lips and said shyly, “Don’t say it! I wasn’t asleep when you were talking, so I heard what you said!”

What? Su Yu was surprised by her words again.

“I was so glad to hear it!” Qin Xian’er gathered the courage to look up at Su Yu’s eyes affectionately, “I always feel I owe you and sister Jingyu. I know both of you love each other deeply. But I still managed to become your wife! I am so selfish!”

“I am so happy that sister Jingyu was able to forgive me. I won’t ask for any more from you. I was so happy to hear what you said that day. However, I also worry a lot about whether a selfish girl like me deserves your love!”

Hearing this, Su Yu held the tearful Qin Xian’er in his arms tightly as he said affectionately, “What a stupid girl! Have I ever cheated you?”

Xian’er wiped her tears away and lowered her head. “I am less beautiful, gentle and helpful than Sister Jingyu!” she said. “So, Brother Su Yu, did you say that because you really love me or you just wanted to console me?”

It turned out she was suffering from self-abasement in her heart.

For Su Yu, Xia Jingyu was just like a precious jade which was so extraordinary. No other woman could rival her in Su Yu’s heart.

Jingyu was still the number one girl in his heart.

“But you can rival her in one thing!” Su Yu said as he wiped the tears away Qin Xian’er’s face.

Qin Xian'er looked up. "What is it?"

"Your love for me!" Su Yu said as he poked her chest with a smile.

Through her tears, Qin Xian'er smiled in satisfaction. Then, she blushed and buried herself deep into Su Yu's arms as she said shyly, "You... you touched my bosom just now..."

Her words reminded Su Yu who had realized his finger had touched something so soft.

After half a day's break, Su Yu's soul went into the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl.

He found Sheng Ge who was idly teasing a colorful butterfly beside the nursery garden.

Su Yu was slightly surprised because he hadn't put any butterflies into this place.

"Hey, Master! Good to see you!" Seeing him, Sheng Ge jumped up delightedly. The colorful butterfly landed on her shoulder fondly. It seemed it liked her very much.

However, the butterfly was quite wary of Su Yu.

"What's this?" Su Yu asked as he looked at the butterfly.

Sheng Ge replied blissfully, "Congratulations, Master! The Chaos Multicolored Butterfly has broken out of its cocoon!"

Ah! Su Yu was surprised by her words. He fixed his eyes on the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly because it was a rare ancient spiritual worm that couldn't be found anywhere in the galaxy!

They found it in the seed of the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo. Then, it had spun a thread that had helped Su Yu a lot.

Su Yu hadn't expected it to transform into a butterfly from a caterpillar after so many years.

Sheng Ge accompanied it when it became a butterfly by breaking its cocoon. Therefore, it was very close to Sheng Ge.

"Master, it is quite powerful. It told me it can eat anything!" Sheng Ge said delightedly.

Hearing that, Su Yu turned around to check the nursery garden. His face darkened. What the butterfly had said was correct!

A lot of the precious herbs, which had been in the garden for over 1,000 years, had been eaten by it.

Even the Incredible Feather Spiritual Pomegranate Tree which had lived for over 10,000 years had been devoured by the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly.

The entire nursery garden was in a mess!

Fortunately, the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo, which had lived for around 700 to 800 years, hadn't been gnawed by it yet.

Sheng Ge stuck out her tongue and said, "You ordered me to carry out a mission last time. When I came back, the place was just like this. When the butterfly was about to eat the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo, I stopped it just in time. So, I had to feed it with something else. However, that's all I could find in this valley..."

Blue veins appeared on Su Yu's forehead. He stared at the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly angrily. "You are the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly! Where is your dignity? Why have you evolved into a foodie?"

Although most of the herbs in this garden were useless to Su Yu, he had transplanted these precious herbs from the Glittering Jewel Wonderland and had planned to cultivate them in his nursery garden for at least 1,000 years. He hadn't expected they would be eaten up.

Also, he hadn't expected this lazy caterpillar would have acquired so much intelligence after becoming a butterfly. It figured out the meaning of Su Yu's words and angrily flapped its wings towards Su Yu.

Its angry reaction amused Su Yu. However, his expression changed abruptly the next moment.

His body of a Mortal Fairy, which was outside the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl, was broken into several parts!

This was so unexpected!

Seeing that, Sheng Ge shouted immediately, "Stop! What are you doing? How dare you attack my Master?"

Hearing this, the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly closed its beautiful wings reluctantly as it stared at Su Yu proudly.

Su Yu was surprised. He restored his body by pumping out life energy from his Heart of Eternity.

When he looked at the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly again, his heart was full of shock. This insect could destroy the body of a peak Mortal Fairy by flapping its wings! Could it destroy the soul and body of a peak Fairy by flapping its wings with all its strength?

Sheng Ge was shocked by what has just happened. She apologized anxiously, "Sorry, Master! Please punish me!"

Su Yu waved his hand with a smile. "Hah! Hah! Hah! You didn't make any mistakes! You've rendered outstanding service by taking such good care of the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly!" After pondering it for a while, Su Yu sealed all his Mortal Fairy strength into the head of Sheng Ge before his level started to drop.

"The strength of a Mortal Fairy should be enough for you to reach the level of All Creation expert!"

Hearing this, Sheng Ge was overjoyed. All the strength of a peak Mortal Fairy was more than enough for her to become an All Creation expert! Maybe she could reach the level of a peak All Creation expert!

"Since the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly likes you very much, please take good care of it!" Su Yu said.

Sheng Ge rolled her eyes. “Master, the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly told me it could attack after absorbing enough energy. Just now, its attack was the result of absorbing the energy of those precious energies!”

Is that so? Su Yu was not surprised. The butterfly’s horrible attack couldn’t have come from nowhere. It was feasible that it had attacked with the energy absorbed from those precious herbs.

“OK! I will leave you in the Glittering Jewel Wonderland. You can place all precious items into the nursery garden. And you are responsible for the cultivation of the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly in the future!”

Hearing this, Sheng Ge was overjoyed again.

Su Yu started to modify the layout of the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl. He placed the Supreme Growing Soil and the cottage of the nine-tailed white fox’s remnant soul into a closed small space. The remaining space could be used for the other people.

He still had six days left, which was enough for him to settle them down.

When his soul returned to his body, Su Yu walked to the Ghost Clan’s Great Emperor with a worried frown and asked, “I have a question. Could you answer it?”

Hearing this, the Ghost Clan’s Great Emperor’s eyes lit up. He knew the Sacred Kylin’s plan. Su Yu was the one who had obtained the ship ticket. So, Su Yu would decide whether he would leave together with the Ghost Clan’s Great Emperor.

“Please tell me what is on your mind, Mr. Su!” the Ghost Clan’s Great Emperor replied humbly.

Su Yu said, “Could you tell me why you insist on helping the Central Prefecture?”

As a member of the Ghost Clan, the Ghost Clan’s Great Emperor had fought more bravely than many people of the Jiuzhou Continent.

Hearing this, the Ghost Clan’s Great Emperor replied with a wry smile, “Because there is no way back for me!” My father is the deity of the Ghost Clan. He has three sons, and I am the youngest. All three of us are being tested by our father. The one who passes his test will get his help to become the new deity of the Ghost Clan!”

“It is a pity that I am the most slow-witted one and cannot rival my two elder brothers. They are gaining recognition from my father. I have no option but to choose the most difficult task of helping the Jiuzhou Continent, which has been approved by my father because the deity of the Ghost Clan and the Sacred Kylin are old friends. However, I didn’t expect the situation of the Jiuzhou Continent to be so complicated. This time, I failed to provide essential help to the Jiuzhou Continent. I’m afraid I won’t gain recognition from my father when I go back to my clan!”

It was quite like the competition for the throne among the princes!

“Why do you rely on your father’s help? You can become a deity through your own efforts!” Compared to ordinary people, the Ghost Clan’s Great Emperor, who had a divine bloodline, would become a deity easily. Su Yu didn't understand why he insisted on obtaining the help of his father.

Hearing this, the Ghost Clan's Great Emperor was quite stunned. Then, he murmured in his heart that it was never easy to become a deity! It would be quite difficult for him to become a deity even if he could get the full help from the deity of the Ghost Clan. It was almost impossible for him to become a deity alone!

However, he didn't know what to say when he saw Su Yu standing in front of him.

Su Yu had managed to reach such a high level from being an ordinary person, which was almost as difficult as becoming a deity alone!

After pondering it for a while, the Ghost Clan's Great Emperor straightened out his thinking at last.

If he went back to his clan, it would be impossible for him to gain recognition from his father. So, he preferred to toughen himself in this world. If Su Yu could do that, why couldn't he?

"Mr. Su, thank you for your precious advice! I will be very grateful if you could allow me to go with you!"

Su Yu replied with a smile, "You are welcome! You have fought for the Jiuzhou Continent for 100 years. I will definitely leave here with you!"

He knew nothing about the extraterrestrial world. A son of the Deity of the Ghost Clan would be quite helpful for him.

In this way, Su Yu made arrangements for the Ghost Clan. Then, he walked to the Black and White Mortal Fairies.

"Seniors..." Su Yu said as he was about to drop down to his knees. But the two Mortal Fairies stopped him.

"Su Yu, your kowtow is too much for us!" the White Mortal Fairy said with embarrassment. Su Yu had saved their lives. Also, he was the hero who had killed the Central Prefecture's King, and the Great Oriental Family was counting on Su Yu to leave here. How could they accept Su Yu's kowtow?

Chapter 1122: Meeting the Tree Goddess Again

Su Yu wasn't pretentious either. Succinctly, he asked, "May I know how many people of the Great Oriental Family are left now?"

The Black Dust Immortal had a grave, aggrieved look on his face. "Only a few thousand."

Although about ten thousand people had previously fled through the transmission portal, more than half of them had perished due to the excessive extraction of their godly demon power by the transmission portal. Eventually, only a few thousand were left.

"Don't worry, elders. Please gather the remaining people and prepare to leave the Jiuzhou cavern with me in a few days' time. I believe that with the distance, the effect of the curse will weaken accordingly."

“You can grow your scales quietly, and I suppose the Great Oriental Family will be able to recover its strength.”

The two elders were surprised and delighted that Su Yu was willing to take them.

“How... how should the Great Oriental Family repay you for your immense kindness?”

The White Dust Immortal cast a look at the silent, sheepish Dongfang Yue who was standing behind them, and she heaved a silent sigh.

She had still stood a chance of marrying Su Yu before this, but now, how could Yue-er be a match for him? He was a married man with a family, which made it even less feasible.

All of a sudden, the White Dust Immortal caught a glimpse of the Five Elements Mountain behind them. The Black Dust Immortal did too.

The two of them exchanged a glance and nodded gently. Despite their years of study, they had never ventured into the mountain’s belly, and the Power of Five Elements of the mountain had not brought them great benefits either.

However, it seemed like Su Yu had benefited greatly from training in the mountain’s belly.

They made a joint decision. This was the most suitable gift they could afford.

“Su Yu, the Great Oriental Family has no affinity with the Five Elements Mountain, but it benefits your training. On behalf of the Great Oriental Family, we are presenting this mountain to you as a gift. We hope you won’t reject it.”

Of course, Su Yu wouldn’t reject it! The Five Elements Mountain was useless to them, but it was a priceless treasure to him!

After a round of insincere refusal, Su Yu took possession of the Five Elements Mountain, much to his pleasure.

Even though this mountain was incapable of shrinking in size, it could be accommodated by the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl. Therefore, it saved him a great deal of trouble.

Seeing Su Yu take the mountain, the Black and the White Dust Immortals were stunned. This mountain could not be contained by any spaces, not even the spaces created by them as Mortal Fairies.

“This young man even possesses his own portable cavern world. What other treasures would he fall for? I’m afraid that he has even accepted the Five Elements Mountain out of politeness.” As they recalled Su Yu’s refusal, they laughed with bitterness. It seemed like Su Yu really was reluctant...

The Great Oriental Family had been dealt with.

Next, Su Yu had the Severed Fairy Cliff Master and the Ancient Bronze Tree Men to deal with.

After some contemplation, Su Yu used the divine-level transmission portal and traveled to the Northernmost region.

On a mountain cliff that soared into the clouds, Su Yu saw the Severed Fairy Cliff Master, who was recuperating.

“I never thought you would really succeed. It looks like my business deal wasn’t a bad idea after all.” the Severed Fairy Cliff Master laughed.

Su Yu had certainly come to fulfill his promise.

When Su Yu considered the people who had helped him the most in the Ordeal of People, the Severed Fairy Cliff Master was the first on his list.

Without this king of darkness holding the Central Prefecture’s King up for five whole days, history would have been rewritten already.

“In Six days, come to the ruins of the Central Prefecture City, board the ship, and leave.”

Upon hearing that, hints of excitement gleamed in the Severed Fairy Cliff Master’s eyes. Plaintively, he sighed, “Finally, I can leave the Jiuzhou cavern.”

Su Yu caught a hint of hatred stealthily flickering across his pupils.

It seemed like the Severed Fairy Cliff Master hadn’t come to Jiuzhou with simple intentions.

“Alright, farewell then,” Su Yu said.

The Severed Fairy Cliff Master called out to him, “Hold on! I’ve brought Wuxie back; do you want to meet up with her?”

The little devil? Su Yu smiled gently. “She’s back from the Desolate Evil Jungle? She’s not angry with me, is she?”

He had left the little devil in the Desolate Evil Jungle that day and had told her that he would come back for her after finishing his errands. Who would have expected such twists and turns?

He had almost forgotten about her. With that little lady’s temper, she must be gritting her teeth in rage right now.

“Erm...The girl, yep, she only carved your name on a tablet, and prayed every day. Yes, she must be praying.” The Severed Fairy Cliff Master forced a smile.

Su Yu’s lips twitched. “That must be a memorial tablet, right? She’s cursing me, isn’t she?”

Feeling amused, Su Yu thought for a moment before retrieving the Glittering Jewel Fairy Scepter. It was covered in cracks and seams and could be used one more time before becoming completely decrepit.

“This is the Glittering Jewel Fairy Scepter that I previously promised to get for Wuxie. I hope it helps her resolve the medicinal effect of the Spiritual Grass of Immortality.”

The Severed Fairy Cliff Master’s eyes shone as he accepted it, gratified. “Thanks a lot, Master Su. I hope it brings helps my girl.”

In fact, how could he not know that the medicinal effect of the Spiritual Grass of Immortality wasn't something that could be simply resolved by this fairy artifact? But it wouldn't necessarily be useless, it was always worth a try.

"Then I'll excuse myself." Su Yu tore open the Void and left.

The next moment, Su Yu arrived in the Desolate Evil Jungle, directly emerging in the depths of the valley.

Yinmu hurried forward immediately. He was worried about a foreign invasion. When he found out that it was Su Yu, he exclaimed, "You accomplished the Peak Mortal Fairy state so quickly? Incredible, incredible!"

The way he strove to make his stiff face look surprised was truly hilarious.

The Desolate Evil Jungle had no access to news from the outside world, so he knew nothing about what had happened out there recently.

"I'd like to meet the Tree Goddess and see if my current cultivation will be able to help her," Su Yu said. Last time, he had only been a petty fairy. Now that he was a Peak Mortal Fairy, he wasn't certain if he could move that long spear that was concentrated with Evil Fatal Energy.

Yinmu nodded, pleased.

He came to the underground lava once again. A young, golden-yellow tree grew amidst the lava.

Su Yu's arrival instantly jolted the remnant soul of the Tree Goddess clinging on the small tree. But based on Su Yu's knowledge now, it should be called a remnant of godly spirit left behind by the Tree Goddess.

"Open the divine realm," Su Yu said.

The young tree opened its eyes. Seeing that Su Yu had come, it was elated. "How many hundreds of years have passed? Or thousands? You have achieved such cultivation?"

Being a state of deep dormancy, she had not a single clue about the passing of time.

Su Yu chuckled bitterly and did not say anything. When the divine realm opened, he entered immediately.

Just like last time, a beautiful young woman was sitting on a throne. She had a fine layer of emerald muslin covering her willowy, dainty body, and she was peacefully and adorably asleep.

A long spear had pierced her abdomen. The spear was covered in dense Evil Fatal Energy, which penetrated her body from front to back.

With Su Yu's current eyesight, he could clearly sense that the inside of the Tree Goddess' body was filled with the Evil Fatal Energy. Luckily, the godly spirit in her body was continuously generating godly energy, keeping out the Evil Fatal Energy.

The Evil Fatal Energy belonged to a force of the deity level. The Milky Way Star Sand did not have its artifact spirit, and could only unleash less than one-tenth of its power. It was thus unable to absorb the Evil Fatal Energy.

She could only rely on an external influence to extricate the long spear by force.

Su Yu stepped forward and grasped the long spear. The Evil Fatal Energy on the long spear began roiling turbulently all of a sudden and surged into Su Yu's body.

Su Yu dared not be reckless. He gathered his Mortal Fairy power and firmly defended himself against the Evil Fatal Energy, barely resisting it. But it wouldn't last long!

Keeping a tight grip on the long spear, Su Yu applied great force and pulled it outwards abruptly.

Creak!

With a dull noise, a portion of the long spear was forcefully removed.

The long spear that had initially penetrated the Tree Goddess' body was only partly jammed in her abdomen now.

The godly spirit of the Tree Goddess was overwhelmed with joy and surprise. "It's out, it's out!"

Su Yu was speechless. It wasn't like he was giving birth to a baby!

However, when Su Yu attempted another pull, the long spear did not budge. It couldn't be retracted further.

"Young man...long time no see." Suddenly, a bleak voice sounded from inside the young woman's body. She was still in a state of deep sleep, yet she could speak.

The Tree Goddess had awakened!

Compared with her intermittent speech last time, the Tree Goddess could speak very fluently this time. It seemed like her consciousness had awakened thoroughly!

Finally, after some fluttering of her eyelashes, those eyes that had been closed for countless ages opened slowly,

Her grorgouse emerald eyes were glimmering with bright, glorious brilliance.

With her youthful, exuberant appearance, she exuded an inexplicable vigor and vitality. Just one look at those eyes would chase away the dark clouds in one's heart.

Su Yu knew that this was the aura of the Divine Path naturally emanated by deities. It could easily influence the cognition of the people around them. Therefore, he acted right away, guarding his surroundings with Mortal Fairy's Strength.

"I can finally see you, young man." The young woman began speaking slowly. Her voice was melodious and pleasant, like a graceful flute.

She scrutinized Su Yu with her bright, beautiful eyes, and her lips curved into a gentle smile. "So this is what you look like. Last time, when my consciousness woke temporarily, I could not sense the concrete entities around me."

"Hence, when I fell into a deep sleep, I kept thinking what kind of person you are, what race you are of, how you look."

Su Yu dared not look into her eyes. With indifference, he said, "Sorry for letting you down, Tree Goddess."

“No, judging with the eyes of a God, you have a beautiful appearance, I like it a lot.”
The Tree Goddess wasn’t stingy with her compliments.

Su Yu was slightly embarrassed. This Tree Goddess was indeed forthright. He thought for a while, and said, “The continent has shifted, and the Jiuzhou cavern is about to become barren.”

“I’m here to inform you that six days from now, I will take you and your people to board the ship, enter the galactic world, and leave this place. That’s if your people are willing to leave.”

The Tree Goddess rubbed her temples with her fair fingers, and said, “So that is it. When I was asleep, I felt someone tampering with the ley lines of the Jiuzhou continent. So, it turns out that the entire continent is about to be shifted. If that’s the case, am I going to be homeless soon?”

When she spoke, her emerald, enchanting eyes were staring at Su Yu, glistening.

Honestly speaking, the last thing Su Yu wanted to do was to take the Tree Goddess into the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl.

With the Tree Goddess’ sensorium, the Supreme Growth Soil wouldn’t slip under her radar. As a deity of the wood line, the Supreme Growth Soil would be too alluring of a temptation to her.

He couldn’t guarantee that she wouldn’t do something overboard, like claiming the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl as her own.

As a deity, she wouldn’t be that shameless, would she?

Furthermore, the long spear in her abdomen hadn’t been fully extracted, so she couldn’t possibly be so audacious.

“Erm...I have a miniature cavern world, but I’m not sure if Tree Goddess and your people would be willing to rough it...”

“I’d like to!” the Tree Goddess replied without the slightest bit of hesitation. Smilingly, she said, “Wherever you take me, I’m willing to go!”

Looking at the Tree Goddess, who made no effort to act humble or gracious, Su Yu held back the words on the tip of his tongue. Intuition told him that this Tree Goddess had a personality that did not match her temperament.

“Fine, but my cavern world is rather small, and I’m afraid that it can’t accommodate too many of your people, and your Original Form...”

“None of that matters!” The Tree Goddess waved her petite hand. If she wasn’t still nailed to the throne, she would have stood up and started giving orders. “We’re so close! Just leave the small matters to me. Give me a moment.”

Looking at the goddess who was engrossed in performing her sorcery, Su Yu was truly speechless...So what about her self-restraint as a goddess? And her decorum? What was the matter with this bold, carefree and neighborly Tree Goddess?

Su Yu felt that the enchanting imagination he had about an elegant, gentle, and reserved Tree Goddess had gone down the drain in an instant.

“Hey, young man, I’m done!” The Tree Goddess simply weaved several signs and declared good-humoredly.

So fast? Su Yu reached out to detect beyond the divine realm, and his lips twitched.

Was there any trace of underground lava? Where were the Ancient Bronze Tree Men? Even the surface of the land was scraped off, let alone the trees, leaving behind a humongous, profound pit that was ten thousand feet deep.

Even the Original Form of the Ancient Bronze Tree God, the boundless, gargantuan tree whose roots covered the entire underground domain had disappeared without a trace.

All that was left of the Desolate Evil Jungle in the past now was a small, golden-yellow tree that was suspended in the Void.

The young girl blinked, and replied with a look that seemed as if she was looking at an idiot, “Of course back into my cavern world, where else do you think they could be?”

Erm...

Su Yu wasn’t sure whether to criticize.

“Alright, take me away now.” The Tree Goddess did not treat herself as a guest lodging under another person’s roof at all. Instead, she was like a haughty pet, hurrying Su Yu to bring her back home quickly.

Su Yu’s mind was cluttered. He left the divine realm and withdrew the small golden-yellow tree in the air into the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl.

The moment he placed it inside, Su Yu’s soul attached in the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl was instantly startled by a shriek of surprise.

“Ah! So much Supreme Growing Soil, wahahaha, I’m rich now! From now on this place will be my home, I’ll fight against whoever tries to evict me!”

“Wow! The Penta-colored Butterfly of Chaos! It looks like it’s worth an awful lot, how about making it into a specimen?”

“Hey, the little ghost girl over there, serve me tea! What, how dare you refuse? Don’t go, are you bullying me for not being able to stand? Humph!”

As he heard the chaos and commotion going on inside the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl, Su Yu's face darkened. Was that the king of some mountain that had run down from some bandits' den?

Right when Su Yu was about to return to the Central Prefecture, the Tree Goddess's voice sounded in his ears, "Young man, you have to be careful with the curse imprint on you."

Su Yu was slightly afraid. Before his demise, the Central Prefecture's King had crafted a curse with all of his Godly Demonic Power and imprinted it on Su Yu's chest.

Due to the nature of the Godly Demonic Power, even the Milky Way Star Sand failed to remove it.

"The origin of the Godly Demonic Power seems to be a terrific demonic God, if he finds you by trailing this imprint, you'll die really fast," the Tree Goddess taunted.

Su Yu asked, "Isn't this curse used to harm my Original Form?"

"Of course not, this is an identification imprint crafted from the Godly Demonic Power, as long as you're present in a certain area around the demonic God, he'll be able to sense your presence."

Su Yu was dispirited, he asked in a deep voice, "From how far away can he sense this imprint?"

"Not far, perhaps from half a galaxy away, unfortunately, you're within his detectable area," the Tree Goddess gloated, "I think he's on his way here for you."

What? Su Yu's face became solemn all of a sudden!

"But rest assured, I have sealed up your imprint already. Unless he's face to face with you, he won't be able to sense your presence," the Tree Goddess added.

Su Yu's glanced at it with his Transparent Eye and did not see the imprint with the demon skull. It was concealed by a piece of a golden leaf.

When did she do it? He did not notice it at all! Su Yu could not help but feel inwardly awed.

Even for a Mortal Fairy at his Peak, when he was standing before a deity, even ones that couldn't stand, he would be just like a vulnerable infant?

"Yep, the chest muscles are sturdy, I'm just not sure if it's sturdy down there too," a voice ridiculed.

Su Yu's face went red, and he gritted his teeth in rage. "You are a...scum among people...among trees!"

Peals of laughter that sounded like tinkling bells answered him.

Upon returning to the Central Prefecture in a despondent mood, Su Yu assessed his current plight once again.

The father of the Central Prefecture's King, a deity who was called terrific by another deity, had cast his eyes upon him. Despite having the Tree Goddess, oh, the female scum, covering up for him, it was still extremely precarious.

On his journey back, Su Yu's cultivation finally slid from the level of Peak Mortal Fairy and was further regressing at an ever faster speed.

It would eventually return to the initial cultivation, ninth-grade fairy.

Apart from that, there was no big deal.

All he needed to do was quietly wait for six days, the day the continent relocated, and he could board the ship and leave.

What Su Yu didn't know was, his accidental move had raised a considerable commotion in the galaxy.

In the vast, desolate and dark galaxy, countless wild beasts roamed, devouring all living creatures that walked out from the cavern world.

There were two people on board. One of them of a youth who had entered Jiuzhou to enforce the law with the arrogant law enforcers, who had a fair complexion and an air of elegance and politeness.

At the moment, he was sitting on the boat with his face full of sorrow, as he hung his head low and stared at the body of the arrogant youth.

The soul was gone, leaving behind an empty shell of the body.

"Meng Ke, have you guys encountered any powerful individuals in the Jiuzhou cavern world?" Opposite to him sat a glum-faced, middle-aged man clad in a hemp garment, his cultivation had attained the terrifying fourth state of Mortal Fairy!

Meng Ke said, "Commander, I've returned immediately upon receiving your order, I grabbed the soul of the Withered Bones Demonic God and teleported back on the boat."

"I have not investigated the strong men of the Jiuzhou cavern world in-depth, but along the way of capture, I have indeed sensed the presence of several Mortal Fairies, with the highest cultivation among them being only the second state of Mortal Fairy."

The middle-aged man shook his head in equanimity. "Impossible, even if besieged by many second-state Mortal Fairies, Qin Kuo wouldn't have escaped even with his soul. In the Jiuzhou cavern world, there must be powerful individuals at the absolute peak who are stronger than I am!"

Meng Ke was stupefied. "What makes you say so? In that Jiuzhou cavern world, deities have perished for ten thousand years, the living creatures in it live and die on their own. Theoretically speaking, it should be getting weaker and weaker, how could there be entities with cultivation above you?"

The middle-aged man sighed. "While you crossed worlds and executed your mission, I sensed the two undulation waves of Peak Mortal Fairies. Despite their faintness due to the isolation of the cavern world, it can't be wrong! Even Qin Kuo's soul did not escape. He has most likely fallen into the hands of the two Peak Mortal Fairies."

“Hiss...In such a declined cavern world, Peak Mortal Fairies still exist?” Meng Ke gasped lightly. He felt fortunate that while enforcing laws in Jiuzhou, he had kept a very low profile. Otherwise, he would have roused the wrath the two Peak Mortal Fairies. Qin Kuo was the best lesson.

The middle-aged man cast a cold glance into the dark depths of the galaxy and sneered. “Why do you think so few of the dozens of boats hidden in the vicinity when we came are left then? They were all frightened off by the two undulation waves of the Peak Mortal Fairies!”

That was also the reason the man had delivered an urgent message to summon Meng Ke back.

The seemingly depraved Jiuzhou cavern world was, in fact, a swamp with giant crocodiles lying in ambush!

“But what about Qin Kuo? Perishing in the process of enforcing laws as a law enforcer, we can’t absolve from the responsibility as his colleagues. Worse still, he came from the Qin Family,” Meng Ke said.

The middle-aged man heaved a deep sigh. “What more can we do? I have asked for instructions from the Senluo law enforcers who are the nearest to this place. They’ll deal with the matter. We just have to observe quietly.”

Upon hearing about the Senluo law enforcers, the muscles on Meng Ke’s face shuddered.

The law enforcers of the alliance were divided into many categories, and most were like them, whose primary mission was to eradicate the infiltrating demons. Anyone among them as a powerful individual, who led a couple of slightly weaker ones in their execution of a mission.

However, a small minority of law enforcers had unique identities, who were in charge of other unique missions.

An example being the Senluo law enforcers, who were emissaries that overrode the ordinary law enforcers. Their mission was to handle emergencies, and they had the power to take charge of any missions of the law-enforcing squads, and punished the squad members who broke the rules, even if it meant acting first and reporting later!

The ordinary law enforcers were kept silent out of fear for this particular law-enforcing team.

“Very, very well, let them handle the matter,” Meng Ke said. He caught a glimpse of the fine drops of nervous sweat on the middle-aged man’s forehead.

Su Yu, who was quietly training, had revived five people on the first day. That was the limit of the Divine Palm of Life.

They were Gang Dalei, An Yurou, and her pupil, Zi Donglai, and his daughter, respectively.

On the second day, it was the Fengming Cabinet Mistress, Long Juexin, Lin Yunhe, Qiu Ningshui, and Elder Liao.

On each subsequent day, Su Yu would revive a batch of people.

Until the sixth day, he had revived 30 people, all of his old friends in the past had come back to life. It was the day Su Yu felt most satisfied throughout the six days.

If only he had acquired the reviving ability earlier, Revered Master Li Guang in the past could have been revived, too, couldn't he?

Su Yu observed Guang Dalei closely for a while. Su Yu was befuddled that apart from his golden skeleton, there was nothing unique about him.

After the revival, Su Yu sent them to the Zhenlong City, and it raised a massive commotion.

How did the dead imperial figures come back to life? Despite their stupefaction, they understood the privileged power of being a Peak Mortal Fairy.

At their level, Peak Mortal Fairies were totally out of their reach. After all, they were extremely mysterious figures.

Having set down the heavy rock in his heart, only did Su Yu have the mood to check on his own condition.

After six full days, Su Yu's cultivation had deteriorated to Stage One All Creations.

He had retained this state for an entire day and had not undergone any change and was just pondering about it.

"Hehe, brat, congratulations, you have pulled through the Three-Nine Ordeals, and have completely skipped the Almighty levels," the long-gone voice of the Evil God sounded in his mind.

Su Yu was taken aback. "The Three-Nine Ordeals are over? Impossible, there are three more days until the ordeal of relationships! How could it have finished in advance?"

"Should be the girl who had a crush on you, since the ordeal has manifested upon her, and she has left, the ordeal has gone by itself," the Evil God blabbered.

Su Yu was in deep thoughts. "Will ordeals disappear on their own?"

The Evil God shook its head. "Of course ordeals won't disappear, I only said that it had left you, I did not say that it disappeared."

Su Yu gasped in shock and terror. "You're saying that the ordeal has been shifted onto Xia Jingyu?"

"That's the only explanation." The Evil God had an envious look on its face. "It's difficult enough to find a woman who will be infatuated with you and even risk her life for you, but you have two of such women, what a blessed man you are."

Chapter 1124: Big Trouble

Su Yu calmed down. The life jade plate of Xia Jingyu was intact, which meant she had safely made it through the Tribulation of Affection.

Despite this, Su Yu still worried about Xia Jingyu because he was unable to see her at this moment.

"Jingyu, where are you?" Su Yu murmured.

“Ahem, ahem...” the Evil God said as it interrupted Su Yu’s thoughts at this inappropriate time. “Young man, I really appreciate the souls you brought to me, including the souls of four Mortal Fairies!”

Su Yu had promised the Evil God that if he agreed to help Su Yu realize the Nine Dragons Body, Su Yu would provide him with souls, including souls of Mortal Fairies!

This time, Su Yu had brought the souls of four Mortal Fairies to him.

“Normally, I would be thanking you. However, one of the four Mortal Fairy souls you brought me this time was too dangerous for me to devour!” the Evil God said in a perplexed tone.

Hearing this, Su Yu was slightly stunned. “Which one?”

“The soul of the law enforcer you captured!” the Evil God said seriously. “Why did you capture a law enforcer from the Great Eastern Alliance? Do you know you are in big trouble now?”

Su Yu was surprised by what he heard. For him, those so-called law enforcers were people who maintained order for the alliance. Why couldn’t he kill them?

From the law enforcer’s behavior, Su Yu knew that he would be in big trouble if the law enforcer was alive.

The Evil God knew what was on Su Yu’s mind according to his expression and sighed. “Alas! Young man, come in and let’s talk. Since you are about to leave the Jiuzhou Continent, let me tell you something you should know. Otherwise, you will make big trouble for yourself without even realizing!”

Hearing that, Su Yu went into the Soul Space. He was shocked by what he saw.

The Evil God was so frail now and was only as large as a drop of blood!

Su Yu remembered that the Evil God had used his divine strength to help him to accelerate the refining of the Cultivation Deity’s bloodline seven days ago.

Did that mean that the Evil God was weakened to this size because he had lost that divine strength?

Su Yu let out a cry as he stared at the drop of blood.

“Hah! Hah! If you want to express your gratitude, just say it!” the Evil God said as he laughed. Su Yu’s grateful stare made him uncomfortable. “Don’t worry!” he continued. “The three Mortal Fairy souls you brought to me are enough for me to reach a higher level. Actually, I got good luck out of misfortune!”

However, it was impossible for the Evil God to predict the result of the fight between Su Yu and the Central Prefecture’s King at that time. Also, he didn’t know whether Su Yu would bring him the souls of Mortal Fairies even if he was victorious.

Su Yu didn’t know when the two of them had become frienemies.

“OK! Tell me what happened!” Su Yu had made clear the conditions that the four Mortal Fairies souls were in.

The souls of the three prefecture kings, which had been gnawed, were quite frail now. However, the soul of the law enforcer was still intact, which meant that the Evil God didn’t dare to devour it.

Even the Evil God was terrified. Su Yu realized he had underestimated the law enforcement officials.

“Can you let it go?” the Evil God asked directly.

After pondering it for a while, Su Yu replied by shaking his head slowly. “No! If I let him go, he will cause me a lot of problems in the future!”

“OK! I hope you are prepared for what I will say later!” the Evil God said seriously. “The Great Eastern Alliance is an alliance of many deities, which covered 1/4 of the Star River. 100 deities have joined this alliance!”

100 deities? Su Yu gasped in surprise.

“So, the Great Eastern Alliance is also called the Alliance of 100 Deities!” These deities share the same interests. All their worlds are connected into a vast world of deities!” the Evil God said.

Su Yu thought about it for a moment. “Then,” he said, “does the Jiuzhou world of the Sacred Kylin also belong to the Great Eastern Alliance?”

The Evil God replied with a smile, “Yes! However, when the Sacred Kylin passed away, his world was removed from the alliance. Since then, the Jiuzhou world started to drift about in the Star River.

“Those 100 deities, who always trained in isolation or traveled in other places, didn’t concern themselves with the business of the alliance. However, they established 100 law enforcement teams with powerful experts in their world. One law enforcing team represents one deity. All these teams enforce the law in the vast alliance world!”

Now, Su Yu started to figure out the meaning of the Evil God’s words.

“You mean those law enforcers are not terrifying. However, the deities behind them are extremely powerful, aren’t they?” Su Yu said.

The Evil God nodded his head seriously. “Exactly! The law enforcers hold high positions. They are representatives of the deity behind them. Other deities have no right to punish them unless law enforcers violate the law constituted by the 100 deities!”

“Once a law enforcer is killed, a special group of law enforcers will be sent to investigate the case! The name of this special group is the Senluo Law Enforcing Team, and it is composed of 100 deity descendants. All of them are descendants of those deities and have divine bloodlines. They have all reached the level of Mortal Fairy! Some of them have reached the third stage of a Mortal Fairy. You can also find Stage Four Mortal Fairies among them!”

“It is said that the captain of the team is a Prospective Deity!”

“In the Great Eastern Alliance, this Senluo Law Enforcing Team is the most powerful law enforcing team and is second only to those deities! This team has the right to supervise all the other law enforcers. They also have the right to act first and report afterward!”

Hearing this, Su Yu was shocked. A law enforcement team composed of 100 deity descendants could be regarded as the praetorian guards of those deities!

“If one law enforcer disappears, a small group of Senluo Law Enforcers will begin an investigation. As deity descendants, all of them have obtained special skills from their bloodlines. If they know you killed that law enforcer, things will end badly for you because they are even more dangerous than the Central Prefecture’s King!”

Su Yu looked worried by the Evil God’s words. He hadn’t expected to offend so many powerful enemies!

“So, are you still going to kill him?” the Evil God asked seriously.

Su Yu thought over it for a while. Then, he asked, “I have kidnapped him, so if I let him go, how will the Senluo Law Enforcing Team punish me?”

The Evil God was speechless for a while. Then, he said in a low voice, “Those who repent their error of imprisoning law enforcers will be imprisoned for 100 years. Among them, those who behave well could be released!”

100 years? There was no difference between this punishment and the death penalty! The law enforcers whom one had imprisoned could kill the one who imprisoned him as easily as killing an ant!

Also, it seemed the law enforcer captured by Su Yu was quite narrow-minded.

Su Yu would be killed no matter whether he was captured by the law enforcement team or he surrendered himself voluntarily. So, it should be quite easy to make a decision now.

“Just eat his soul and don’t leave any trace!” Su Yu said. His eyes were full of ferocity.

Hearing this, the Evil God sighed. “As expected, you are asking me to eat him. OK! Don’t worry! I will get rid of it! But you should prepare yourself for all possible consequences. Those deity descendants, who have all kinds of special abilities, might see through your trick!”

Su Yu went back to the outside world. He was quite frustrated.

The Senluo Law Enforcing Team!

Swish!

Just then, the Sacred Kylin walked up and said, “Hey! Your level has been stabilized. You have now reached the level of All Creation expert, haven’t you?”

“I didn’t expect... You are not the first one who crossed the Tribulation of Three Nines in my world. However, I’ve never seen a man who could reach the level of All Creation expert directly before!” the Sacred Kylin said in surprise as he walked around Su Yu,

Hearing this, Su Yu smiled. Just now, all his vital energy, which had been turned to the strength of All Creation, was being saved in a small figure inside his belly.

The small figure looked quite like Su Yu. Now, it was sitting in his belly quietly.

It must be the primordial spirit of an All Creation Old Monster!

His vast Dantian had been replaced by this vivid primordial spirit!

However, Su Yu found eight holes in his primordial spirit, which worried him a great deal. Did it mean that his rapid progress had caused problems in his primordial spirit?

“What? An Eight-Aperture Primordial Spirit?” It seemed the Sacred Kylin, who was looking at Su Yu carefully, had found something. He was totally surprised.

An Eight-Aperture Primordial Spirit? Hearing this, Su Yu calmed down. It didn’t seem to be a bad thing.

“You can always surprise me! Tell me, how big was your Dantian when you were at the Fairy Realm?” the Sacred Kylin asked in surprise.

After pondering it for a while, Su Yu replied, “I remember my Dantian was 80 times larger than the average level of the Dantian of an ordinary Stage Nine Fairy!”

“80 times!” The Sacred Kylin stuck out his tongue. “No wonder you could have the Eight-Aperture Primordial Spirit! My God! Only the top 10 worlds could create primordial spirits with multiple apertures! I didn’t expect one could be created in my world!”

“Are primordial spirits different from each other?” Su Yu asked.

Hearing this, the Sacred Kylin rolled his eyes. “Of course! An aperture is a passage to absorb vital energy between the heaven and the earth and turn it into the strength of All Creation. It could also halve the time of training! An ordinary All Creation Old Monster only has one aperture. Only a few All Creation Old Monsters have two apertures. An All Creation Old Monster who has three apertures could be regarded as a genius. Those who have four apertures are the most powerful heaven rulers! In my world, only Zhan Wushuang has five apertures!”

Su Yu asked, “Was Zhan Wushuang created by your Celestial Energy Sphere? Why is he so powerful?”

Hearing this, the Sacred Kylin shouted, “You were born in a small world created by me! You have eight apertures! How could you doubt the origin of someone who has five apertures?”

The Sacred Kylin stared angrily at Su Yu.

“However, it is just my speculation. I don’t know how many apertures he will have when he reaches the level of All Creation expert!”

Hasn't he reached the level of All Creation? Su Yu had a vague memory that Zhan Wushuang was suppressing his level. Did it mean he was trying to obtain a primordial spirit with many apertures by increasing the fetal crystals of a divine master like me?

Then, Su Yu remembered another person who also suppressed his level.

"In half a day, the All Access Boat will arrive in Jiuzhou. Just prepare yourself. When the ship arrives, I will move the entire continent. Then, you should board the ship and leave here. We should all make these preparations quickly!"

Su Yu nodded his head. Then, he gathered the Ghost Clan, the Great Oriental Family, and the Severed Fairy Cliff, so that they could go into the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl one after another.

The Sacred Kylin was also waiting patiently for the ship. He had broken the partitions in the Martial Art Tower and made it into a world that was far larger than the Jiuzhou Continent. When the ship arrived, he would move the Jiuzhou Continent into this new world.

All of them were busy preparing everything.

In a dark corner of the Land of Far West, Zhan Wushuang, who was wearing golden armor, was standing on a small black boat that was full of divine aura. The boat seemed to be made from the bones of deities and could sail across the Star River.

Chapter 1125: The Senluo Law Enforcement

Two other people were also on the boat.

One of them was Han Xuan who looked very sad. The other one was...Gu Taixu!

"Senior Brother, how was our Master killed? Who killed him?" Han Xuan asked. She had been captured by Qin Xian'er and her Cultivation Deity bloodline had been taken away. After that, Zhan Wushuang appeared and saved her.

In surprise, Gu Taixu replied, "Brother Zhan, was our Master killed by those two extraterrestrial experts?"

He remembered that the Central Prefecture's City had been destroyed by one sword. If Zhan Wushuang hadn't sensed the attack and taken him away in advance, he would have died in that city.

Standing at the prow of the boat, Zhan Wushuang snorted as he placed his hands behind his back. "Our master was killed because he was too weak! I don't think we should avenge him!"

Both of them had been hiding in the Land of the Far West and didn't know what had happened in the outside world.

Zhan Wushuang knew who killed the Central Prefecture's King, but he didn't want to avenge his master.

For Zhan Wushuang, the Central Prefecture's King was killed because he was defeated. So, Zhan Wushuang didn't feel sorry about the death of the Central Prefecture's King at all.

"Let's leave here now! I found this boat in the Land of the Far West when I was ten. I hid it here till now! As trusted followers of the Central Prefecture's King, we can't stay in the Jiuzhou Continent anymore. I'm afraid we will be found by them if we don't leave here immediately!" Zhan Wushuang said.

Han Xuan said nothing but grasped the side of the boat tightly. Actually, she was not very sad. When Qin Xian'er forced her to acquire the Jade Maiden Heavenly Frost Art to the top level, she understood the intention of the Central Prefecture's King. She knew she was just a tool for him.

She was sad because someone she was familiar with died.

Without any ties to the Jiuzhou Continent, Han Xuan was indifferent about the death of the Central Prefecture's King.

Gu Taixu clenched his teeth resentfully. "What a pity!" he said. "I obtained the Body of Nine Spirits with great difficulty. I really want to fight Su Yu, and I really hate to let him go in this way!"

Hearing this, Zhan Wushuang glanced at Gu Taixu and shook his head slightly. "I suggest you avoid any conflict with him!"

What? Gu Taixu looked at Zhan Wushuang in surprise. I have reached the level of All Creations! Won't I be able to defeat Su Yu now?

"Since both of you have no objection, let's leave here now!" Gu Taixu activated the small boat and prepared to leave.

However, a large cloud of dense fog gushed the area. It had driven away a lot of Wild Beasts.

Zhan Wushuang narrowed his eyes and saw an enormous ship sail out of the fog, crushing many Wild Beasts. Then, the big ship stopped in front of them.

On the prow of the big ship stood a pretty woman who was wearing a cape made of green feathers. The woman looked quite aloof and arrogant.

A lot of young men who were wearing the same clothes were standing reverently behind the woman.

All the young men were as powerful as the prefecture kings of the Jiuzhou Continent.

Zhan Wushuang was surprised by the woman. He could see her, but he was not able to sense her on the ship.

"All people of the Jiuzhou world, this is the Senluo Law Enforcing Team. We came here to investigate the case of a missing law enforcer. Before we come to a conclusion, no creature in this world is allowed to leave!"

Half a day passed quickly.

The Sacred Kylin started the journey nervously.

A pillar that reached the sky rose up from deep underground. Apart from the desolate western continent, the other continents were all affected.

Su Yu was surprised by the pillar of the central continent. It was not located in the Central Prefecture but the outer sanctum of the Red Blood Palace!

This pillar was very familiar to Su Yu because it was the stone pillar with the pattern of carp leaping over a dragon that had been on the gate outside the outer sanctum.

Su Yu was quite surprised. Now, he knew why the outer sanctum attached so much importance to that pillar. When the army of the Ghost Clan appeared, Mo Tianxuan had destroyed the outer sanctum but didn't touch that stone pillar.

So, this was the answer!

Four skyscraping pillars, which looked like a dragon claw, lifted up the entire Jiuzhou Continent.

Instantly, the space around the Jiuzhou Continent was crushed. The entire world was collapsing.

Deep in the sky, a gigantic tower appeared. The Jiuzhou Continent was brought into a pitch-dark hole at the bottom of the tower made by the four pillars.

All creatures on the Jiuzhou Continent weren't aware of the abrupt change on this continent. However, they were surprised when day suddenly became night.

When the entire Jiuzhou Continent went into the world of Martial Art Tower, those creatures could see light again.

"Did a solar eclipse just take place?"

"This is so weird! Why did the sky turn dark for a short while?"

Many people were talking about this sudden change. However, those who lived at the edge of the continents were totally shocked.

"Ah! What? Why has the sea disappeared? How could such a large continent appear in front of us?"

"Hey! Look! What's that beast? Why haven't I seen it before?"

Now, the entire Jiuzhou Continent had been moved into the world of the Martial Art Tower.

Su Yu also moved the four families and factions into his Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl.

To his surprise, Mo Tianxuan was rejected by the world of the Martial Art Tower.

"What are you looking at?" Mo Tianxuan said as she jutted her white chin forward defiantly.

Su Yu shrugged his shoulders and said, "It seems you have to go into my Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl if you want to leave the Jiuzhou Continent! Is it really a good time for you to act arrogantly in front of me?"

Su Yu and Mo Tianxuan were used to quarreling with each other in this way. Both of them looked at each other. Neither wanted to give way.

"Ahem! This is not a good time to flirt! The ship is about to leave. What are you waiting for here?" the Sacred Kylin said as he stood in the sky with a small tower in his mouth. It was the Martial Art Tower which contained the entire Jiuzhou Continent.

"Flirt?" Mo Tianxuan said as she grinned at the Sacred Kylin.

Seeing that, the Sacred Kylin trembled a bit and said timidly, “Anyway, just hurry up! We have planned everything for 100 years, and this is the make-or-break moment! Let’s go to the Land of Far West first!”

Su Yu nodded his head. He dashed towards the Land of Far West together with the Sacred Kylin and Mo Tianxuan.

Now, the entire Jiuzhou Continent had become a pitch-black void except for the places occupied by the Wild Beasts and the Star River.

From now on, the world of Jiuzhou Continent would be an empty shell.

As soon as they arrived at the Land of the Far West, Su Yu immediately began to frown.

“Something is wrong! When I came here last time, this place was full of Wild Beasts! Why can’t I sense energy waves of any life form now?” Su Yu, who had a Heart of Eternity, had an extraordinary perception for life.

Mo Tianxuan, who was a Stage Three Mortal Fairy, didn’t sense the problem in this place. However, Su Yu managed to sense it easily.

The Sacred Kylin also frowned. “Right! I also have a weird feeling. The Land of the Far West is different this time!”

Hearing this, Mo Tianxuan became more vigilant. She narrowed her eyes to look around carefully. Suddenly, her eyes lit up, and she shouted, “Who is over there? Show yourself!”

Crack! Crack! Crack...

The sound of trees being pushed down came closer to them.

Just then, they saw an enormous ship sailing towards them out of the dense fog.

A small black boat was hung on the side of the big ship.

The next moment, they saw a young woman who was wearing a cape made of feathers. Behind her were several powerful young men at the level of Mortal Fairy.

Three other people stood on the stern of the ship. They were Zhan Wushuang, Gu Taixu and Han Xuan who had been arrested.

The enormous ship approached, putting great pressure on Su Yu, the Sacred Kylin, and Mo Tianxuan.

“We have been waiting for you for a while!” The woman who was wearing a feather cape stood at the prow and looked at Su Yu, Sacred Kylin and Mo Tianxuan coldly.

When she saw the Sacred Kylin, she seemed as if she had found what she was looking for. “Wow!” she said. “The deity of Jiuzhou Continent is here! Only you are able to move the entire continent! I greet you, Senior! My name is He Xianran, and I am the descendant of the Crane Deity!”

She called the Sacred Kylin senior as she stood there with her hands behind her back. Apparently, she didn’t respect him at all.

Those young men standing behind her smiled sarcastically.

“Lady Xianran, you will scare this deity away if you call him senior!”

“Hah-hah-hah!” I guess he is quite happy to hear that. He died 10,000 years ago, but someone still knows him now!”

He Xianran waved her hand to silence those young men with a faint smile.

Seeing this, the Sacred Kylin’s face darkened. He Xianran continued to say calmly, “Sacred Kylin, I am member No. 80 of the Senluo Law Enforcing Team. I have come here to investigate the case of a missing law enforcement officer. I hope you can be cooperative!”

As a time-honored deity, the Sacred Kylin was quite magnanimous. He didn’t reply angrily but said coldly, “You mean the law enforcer Qin Kuo? I’ve sensed two strange auras, but I don’t know when and where he was captured!”

He Xianran’s black eyes flashed, and she said harshly, “Sacred Kylin, do you think I would wait here aimlessly as you moved away the entire continent?”

“Are you going to confiscate the world of the Martial Art Tower?” the Sacred Kylin asked warily.

He Xianran replied with a smile, “No! Since all creatures are in the world of the Martial Art Tower. I guess the suspect is also in it! So, we have to take away the Martial Art Tower and interrogate all the creatures in it. When we finish everything, we will return it to you!”

The Sacred Kylin clearly understood that it would be impossible for him to take it back once it was taken away by the Senluo Law Enforcing Team. Nobody would take a deity who died 10,000 years seriously.

Maybe He Xianran was trying to take possession of the Jiuzhou Continent in this way.

They had just eliminated the Central Prefecture’s King. Now, they had to face the challenge of He Xianran.

And the identity of He Xianran was more troublesome!

“You can carry out your investigation! But are you really going to interrogate all creatures in it? You could name the suspect, and I will bring it to you from the tower!” The Sacred Kylin tried his utmost to defend the world of the Martial Art Tower.

However, to his surprise, He Xianran agreed by nodding her head. “As a junior, I should show due respect to the Sacred Kylin. Otherwise, my father will punish me because of my rudeness to a former deity of the alliance!”

“I think there are three suspects!” He Xianran said with a smile.

Hearing this, the Sacred Kylin’s eyes lit up. “Who are they?”

He Xianran replied calmly, “You, and the two people beside you!”

The Sacred Kylin was totally annoyed after hearing that.

This was totally outrageous!

If the three of them were arrested, the world of the Martial Art Tower would still be taken away!

“Lock them up. I will interrogate them when we go back to the alliance. Oh, by the way, check their belongings carefully and don’t miss anything!” He Xianran said calmly as she arranged her hair coquettishly. Then, she turned around and walked towards the cabin gracefully.

Chapter 1126: Nine Dragons Body

Kill intent was flashing in Su Yu’s eyes. For him, there was no law enforcers who was completely righteous in this world.

As a Senluo Law Enforcer, He Xianran and her followers who tried to rob a world from Sacred Kylin, were just like those rascals who were wandering outside the Star River.

Swish!

3 young men sneered coldly as they jumped down with strength of Mortal Fairy.

One of them walked towards Su Yu. At the same time, 2 green wings could be seen behind his back vaguely. It seemed this one was not a human being.

Is he a demon? Su Yu murmured in his mind.

Clang!

The young Mortal Fairy took out a shackle and dropped it in front of Su Yu’s feet. Then, he said calmly as he looked at somewhere else, “Lock yourself up! Don’t force me to hurt you!”

For him, a Stage One All Creation expert was not worthy of being treated seriously by him at all.

To his surprise, he felt a gust of energy was flying towards him rapidly.

The young Mortal Fairy, who was quite responsive, defended himself with his palm by colliding with the one who attacked him directly before turning his head back.

When the young Mortal Fairy turned around and saw the one who attacked him, he was slightly surprised, “What? How dare you attack me?”

The young Mortal Fairy didn’t expect a Stage One All Creation expert dared to attack a Mortal Fairy.

He smiled hideously. Then, the young Mortal Fairy tried to ruin Su Yu’s hand with the strength of Mortal Fairy.

However, when their hands touched, the young Mortal Fairy found the palm of his opponent was covered by a layer of golden scale. Then, a gust of horrible golden strength gushed out from that palm.

The young Mortal Fairy’s strength of Mortal Fairy was scattered like a plume of clouds. The golden light beam penetrated his palm and flew out from his shoulder after smashing his arm. If he didn’t dodge the attack in time, his head would also have been pierced by the golden light.

Nevertheless, the right arm of the young Mortal Fairy had been totally ruined.

As followers of He Xianran, these young Mortal Fairies were not members of the Senluo Law Enforcing Team. However, they had carried out a lot of dangerous tasks, which toughened their strength and responsiveness effectively.

The next moment, he tore open the void with his left hand and jumped into the void immediately. Then, he appeared in a safe place instantly.

Now, he started to restore his right arm with the strength of Mortal Fairy.

During this period, the young Mortal Fairy fixed his eyes on Su Yu. His reaction revealed his extensive experience in combat.

Now, contempt had disappeared from his face completely. He stared at Su Yu's arm which was covered by scales seriously. Then, he said calmly, "You got Real Spirit Dragon Veins in your body, right? I underestimated you! But this fight will end now!"

Swish!

The young Mortal Fairy appeared in front of Su Yu instantly and attacked with his finger.

This time, the young Mortal Fairy concentrated 70% of his strength of Mortal Fairy in his finger. Apparently, he tried to defeat Su Yu once for all.

At this moment, most of his strength was concentrated on his finger. Su Yu would be seriously wounded unless he could dodge this attack.

Su Yu said calmly, "Two Dragons Body!"

He didn't use a lot of strength of the Real Spirit Dragon Veins during the fight with the Central Prefecture's King. At that time, he was a peak Mortal Fairy who was able to defeat the Central Prefecture's King with the strength of one dragon.

Now, Su Yu was just an All Creation expert. Therefore, he had to fight with the strength of Nine Dragons Body.

When the Two Dragons Body was activated, 2 powerful golden veins appeared on his 2 arms.

Then, he punched out with the horrible strength in his arms.

Bang! Along with a dull sound, the young Mortal Fairy, who was knocked back for several steps, changed his expression.

"Your Real Spirit Dragon Veins are extraordinary!" The young Mortal Fairy realized he really underestimated Su Yu.

"Fine! I haven't fought in full strength for a long time!" The young Mortal Fairy whipped his aching finger as he took a breath. All strength of Mortal Fairy was raging in his body.

Then, the aura of the young Mortal Fairy was totally changed. He shouted in a low voice, "Monster Subduing Ring!"

Instantly, all his strength of Mortal Fairy was turned to a light ring in his palm. Then, he threw out the ring towards Su Yu's chest.

Su Yu said calmly, "Three Dragons Body!"

The large golden dragon vein on his chest was lit up and shot out a dazzling golden light beam.

Meanwhile, Su Yu threw out another 2 golden light beams with his 2 fists. Then, the 3 light beams formed a large light beam as they flew towards his opponent.

The light ring of the young Mortal Fairy was crushed by the light beam instantly.

The young Mortal Fairy was totally surprised, "What kind of dragon veins are in your body?"

He knew the dragon veins of a peak Mortal Fairy couldn't be so powerful.

It was impossible for him to know these dragon veins came from a divine dragon who was a Prospective Deity.

Su Yu didn't answer but murmured in a low voice, "Four Dragons Body!"

Then, another dazzling golden light beam gushed out from his right leg.

The next moment, 4 golden light beams landed on the chest of the young Mortal Fairy heavily.

Although he tried to defend himself with his strength of Mortal Fairy, the golden light beams destroyed his defense and smashed his chest directly.

Without any hesitation, Su Yu smashed the body of the young Mortal Fairy with his 2 palms. The young Mortal Fairy's soul managed to escape in time.

He Xianran, who was about to walk into her cabin, said by furrowing her eyebrows slightly, "What?"

Then, she turned around and looked at the fight coldly.

When she saw Su Yu, she was quite angry. She didn't expect an All Creation young man could smash the body of his follower.

"What are you waiting for?" She said in a low voice. Then, another 3 young Mortal Fairies at the prow jumped off from the ship immediately.

Seeing that, Sacred Kylin changed his expression slightly, "Ms. Mo, Su Yu is in danger now!"

Mo Tianxuan replied calmly, "Don't worry! He won't die!"

Then, she forced back 2 young Mortal Fairies who were rushing towards them by slashing out her sword.

Inexplicably, Mo Tianxuan, who was powerful enough to kill those 2 young Mortal Fairies, didn't do that.

Those 2 young Mortal Fairies, who didn't realize this truth, thought this woman in black robe was quite weak.

3 young Mortal Fairies were rushing towards Su Yu at the same time. Although all of them were just Stage One Mortal Fairies, Su Yu was no longer a peak Mortal Fairy now!

"Five Dragons Body! Activate!"

"Six Dragons Body! Activate!"

“Seven Dragons Body! Activate!”

Su Yu activated the Seven Dragons Body. Now, his body was covered by dazzling golden light. A gust of engorged dragon strength was rolling in his Meridians.

The 3 young Mortal Fairies, who didn't dare to underestimate him, attacked with all their strength.

Their cooperation was pretty good. 2 of them performed close combat with Su Yu. The rest one attacked Su Yu with a crossbow which was a low-grade fairy artifact from a distance.

7 golden light beams gushed out from Su Yu's body. 3 of them flew towards the Mortal Fairy who was attacking with the crossbow. The rest 4 light beams attacked the 2 Mortal Fairies who were trying to flank Su Yu from 2 directions.

Bang!

The 2 young Mortal Fairies who were very close to Su Yu shattered the 2 golden light beams and tried to attack Su Yu's vital parts. Apparently, they tried to kill Su Yu.

Seeing this, Su Yu smiled.

Then, a gust of aura which could terrify Mortal Fairies gushed out from the array. When people heard the dragon roar in it, they felt their heart missed a beat.

After that, a beam of black light appeared in the array. The next moment, the young Mortal Fairy under the array disappeared directly.

A gigantic demonic dragon, which was over tens of thousands of meters long, appeared in the place where the young Mortal Fairy used to stand just now.

This demonic dragon was extraordinarily large!

On its neck, people saw 9 dragon heads!

That young Mortal Fairy was being gnawed by the 9 heads at the same time. Instantly, he was torn into small pieces. Even his soul was also devoured.

Su Yu was also surprised. The demonic dragon he summoned before was just formed by demonic energy. However, it seems the demonic dragon in front of him...was an alive dragon!

“The nine-headed demonic dragon of the demon realm! Are you a member of the Demon Clan?” He Xianran squinted her eyes because she sensed something dangerous.

Even Su Yu didn't understand how he could summon the nine-headed demonic dragon in the demon realm directly when he acquired the highest level of this technique.

He couldn't help but to remember the words of Yun Yazhi. This technique was far more complicated than Su Yu expected.

However, it was not a good time for him to consider this issue. The young Mortal Fairy on the right side of Su Yu attacked by clenching his teeth after being stunned for a short while.

Puff!

After killing 2 Mortal Fairies, Su Yu appeared in front of the Mortal Fairy with the crossbow instantly.

The young Mortal Fairy was doing his best to defend himself from the 3 golden light beams. When he saw Su Yu appeared in front of him after killing 2 Mortal Fairies, he was totally terrified and stepped back immediately as he shouted in terror, "Lady Xianran, help me!"

Su Yu snorted as he shot out 7 golden light beams, which gathered together and flew towards that Mortal Fairy rapidly.

When the light beam was about to catch up with that Mortal Fairy, a strand of white light appeared. He Xianran, who was standing at the prow, lifted her feather cape. Then, she appeared in front of the young Mortal Fairy and started to wave her arms up and down like a graceful crane.

Faintly, people could see a white crane was flapping its wings.

When the wings were flapped, a gust of magnificent strength of Mortal Fairy flew towards the incoming light beam like many waves.

This strength of Mortal Fairy was not very powerful. But it could shatter the light beam continuously under the regulation of the wings. At last, the entire light beam disappeared in front of this strength of Mortal Fairy.

Then, the remaining strength of Mortal Fairy continued to fly towards Su Yu.

Su Yu realized the subtlety of this strength when he tried to defend himself. Before he could resolve the first wave of the strength, the second wave had arrived. At last, he would be knocked down by the overlapped strength of Mortal Fairy.

So, he had to break her strength of Mortal Fairy forcibly before the strength was overlapped.

However, it seemed it was still not enough!

"Nine Dragons Body! Activate!" Then, the right eye of Su Yu was covered by golden light.

All the 8 dragon veins in Su Yu's body had been activated.

Instantly, the entire body of Su Yu was wrapped up by dazzling golden light. Then, he shouted and shot out 9 golden light beams at the same time.

This was the real strength of the Nine Dragons Body!

Chapter 1127: Board the Ship Subtly

Bang!

Along with a deafening dull sound, He Xianran's strength of Mortal Fairy was penetrated by the golden light beam, which landed on her chest heavily.

He Xianran cried miserably as she stepped back. Her cold face was full of terror.

A Stage Two Mortal Fairy was defeated by a Stage One All Creation young man!

She wouldn't believe it if she didn't try it herself.

"Let's go!" He Xianran turned around and jumped onto the ship. The rest young Mortal Fairies also retreated by following her.

Mo Tianxuan didn't chase them. It seemed she was worrying about something.

Su Yu didn't chase them either because he had more urgent thing to deal with now.

The All Access Boat was about to arrive.

Now, they could hear the horn of the ship from afar. The horn was used to remind the passengers who was about to leave to prepare themselves.

Sacred Kylin said, "That's enough! After all, she is the descendant of the Crane Deity who is a Demonic God. If you kill her, Crane Deity won't let it go at that easily!"

Then, the Sacred Kylin took out the boat ticket and the world of Martial Art Tower from his mouth and said, "Just get ready to board the ship. Ms. Mo and I will go into your Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl..."

However, before he could finish his words, a strand of white light appeared in front of them suddenly.

It was so fast that even Mo Tianxuan, a Stage Three Mortal Fairy, didn't have time to react. When she realized something was wrong, she yelled as she attacked with her sword. Meanwhile, she grabbed back something from the void.

Then, they heard a groan and found several white feathers which were stained by red and golden blood.

The next moment, He Xianran, who was covering her bleeding right arm, appeared on the prow of the big ship with a cold smile.

She captured the Sacred Kylin!

Even worse, the boat ticket was still in Sacred Kylin's hand.

He Xianran stared at Mo Tianxuan vigilantly. When she saw the Martial Art Tower in Mo Tianxuan's hand, she darkened her face.

He Xianran captured Sacred Kylin with the extraordinary skill of Crane Deity.

She planned to seize the boat ticket and the Martial Art Tower when she captured Sacred Kylin.

However, this woman in black robe managed to conceal her real level of Stage Three Mortal Fairy. She wounded He Xianran and grabbed back the most important Martial Art Tower.

He Xianran stared at Su Yu and Mo Tianxuan coldly. But she didn't want to trade the world of Martial Art Tower with the Sacred Kylin. She gave an order to her followers, "Leave here and inform the nearest Senluo Law Enforcing Team! Without the boat ticket, they are not able to leave the world of Jiuzhou Continent!"

He Xianran didn't want to spare the life of Su Yu and Mo Tianxuan. She tried to mobilize all strength to eliminate both of them once for all!

What a vicious woman! Su Yu and Mo Tianxuan had nothing to against her. But He Xianran insisted on killing them!

When the big ship was sailing away, Su Yu and Mo Tianxuan were not able to board it because this place was filled with Wild Beasts when the ship left.

Without the boat ticket, they were not able to leave this place. Then, they would be killed by members of other Senluo Law Enforcing Teams summoned here by He Xianran.

Mo Tianxuan said as chilly light flashed in her eyes, "Crane Deity? You really have a good daughter!"

Su Yu raised his eyebrows, "Do you have a method to catch up with them?"

"No!" Mo Tianxuan said angrily. Then, she sat down on the ground with her legs folded as if she was about to fight desperately with those who were summoned here by He Xianran.

Seeing this, Su Yu was quite disappointed. Mo Tianxuan was very powerful. However, she revealed her real level at the last moment. Their enemies would definitely take precautionary measures against her!

Also, Su Yu didn't know how the Sacred Kylin was now.

Although Sacred Kylin was captured, Su Yu saw clearly that he threw out the world of Martial Art Tower at the last moment. In this way, Mo Tianxuan managed to take it back.

The world of Jiuzhou Continent was the life of the Sacred Kylin. He would rather lose his last Celestial Energy Sphere than lose the world of Jiuzhou Continent in the Martial Art Tower.

"Sacred Kylin..." Su Yu murmured with concern. As the deity of the Jiuzhou Continent, the Sacred Kylin cared deeply about the Jiuzhou Continent after his death. Su Yu would never leave Sacred Kylin for dead!

The longer Sacred Kylin was imprisoned by their enemy, the greater danger he would face.

So, they had to find He Xianran as soon as possible. But they were not able to leave the Jiuzhou Continent without that boat ticket!

Woo! Woo—

The horn of the All Access Boat was clearer. They could barely see a gigantic ship was sailing towards them slowly.

This ship was 100 times larger than the ship of He Xianran.

Looking from afar, it was just like a city floating in the sky.

The ship arrived. But they didn't have a ticket!

If the ship couldn't sense the aura of a ticket, it would leave the Jiuzhou Continent without hesitation.

A moment later, the horn of the ship faded away. Su Yu was quite anxious at this time. Ticket! I need a ticket...

Suddenly, an idea occurred to Su Yu like a flash of lightning.

Then, he took out a scroll painting from the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl immediately. After opening the scroll, an extremely beautiful woman could be seen on the painting.

The scroll was very old. But the aura of this scroll was very obvious.

Mo Tianxuan said as she stared at Su Yu, "Why do you take it out? It is not a ticket..."

Before she could finish her words, they heard the horn of the ship, which was fading away, became clearer again!

Then, a gigantic shadow came closer after passing through the dense fog.

It was a jade white ship. On its hull, the words of "All Access" could be seen.

Then, a long rope ladder was dropped down in front of Su Yu.

Mo Tianxuan stared at the scroll painting in Su Yu's hand curiously. This is definitely not a ticket! How could it summon the ship?

"Just get into the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl!" When Mo Tianxuan went into the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl, Su Yu boarded the ship through the rope ladder.

2 Stage Two Mortal Fairies were guarding the entrance. After glancing at Su Yu expressionlessly, they took back the rope ladder and didn't check Su Yu's ticket.

The ship had an array to detect the tickets. So, nobody checked tickets seriously. When the guards were in a bad mood, maybe they could check the tickets. When they were in a good mood, they didn't check the tickets at all because the array on the ship hadn't found any fake ticket till now.

Su Yu let out a sigh of relief secretly. If those guards really wanted to check his ticket, it would be quite difficult for him to explain how he board the ship with that scroll painting.

When Sacred Kylin showed the ticket to Su Yu, he felt the aura of the ticket was quite familiar.

Just now, Su Yu, who had quick wits in an emergency, remembered the portrait of Xia Jingyu had same aura with the ticket of the ship.

This scroll painting was found by a deputy Region Master of the Heavenly Knife Region in the Land of Far West accidentally.

But why did it have the same aura with the ticket of the All Access Boat?

Sacred Kylin told him that the ticket couldn't be replicated because a kind of special material was used in the ticket.

Does it mean the scroll painting was also made from the same material?

In front of so many people on the ship, Su Yu was not able to check the scroll painting immediately. So, he walked into a cabin by looking steadily forward.

There were a lot of empty cabins on this ship, which could be used by passengers for free. Su Yu chose a larger cabin and walked into it.

When he walked into the cabin, he took out Mo Tianxuan immediately.

“What do you know about this ship?” Su Yu asked directly.

Mo Tianxuan knew it was not a good time to quarrel with Su Yu. So, she said, “This ship will arrive at the Great Eastern Alliance after 6 months!”

Hearing this, Su Yu lit up his eyes, “If they intercept this ship, will the owner of this ship give us to them?”

Mo Tianxuan replied without hesitation, “Sure! The Senluo Law Enforcing Team has the right to arrest anyone. If they try to arrest us on this ship, the owner of this ship won’t stop them!”

Su Yu asked again, “Then, is there anything on this ship the Senluo Law Enforcing Team has no right to take away?”

Mo Tianxuan was stunned a bit by his question. Then, she said, “The Senluo Law Enforcing Team is only allowed to take away people on this ship. The merchant ship is an important belt to connect the Great Eastern Alliance and the rest worlds in the Star River. Even the deities don’t dare to ask their descendants to harass the business of the merchant ship. So, they are not allowed to dispose anything on the ship except for people. Any violation of this rule will result in the deprivation of the membership of the Senluo Law Enforcing Team!”

Is that so? Su Yu started to think over it after hearing her words.

One month later

The Land of Far West in the world of Jiuzhou Continent which had become an empty hull

He Xianran returned together with a big ship and a small boat.

On the small boat, Meng Ke and a middle-aged man who was wearing a linen robe.

Another Senluo Law Enforcer and his underlings were standing on the big ship.

It was a short, fat and ugly young man who was in his 20s. He was not able to open her left eye because of a sarcoma on his face. So, he could only use his right eye.

However, this young man was quite powerful because he had reached the level of Stage Three Mortal Fairy.

The middle-aged man in linen robe was a Stage Four Mortal Fairy. Together with He Xianran who was a Stage Two Mortal Fairy and around 10 underlings who were at the level of Stage One Mortal Fairy, this team was quite powerful.

“Where is he?” He Xianran asked as she scanned the Land of Far West. But she didn’t sense the aura of Su Yu and Mo Tianxuan at all.

The one-eyed young man said in a hoarse voice, "Fairy He, are you sure they don't have a boat ticket?"

He Xianran nodded her head after hearing that, "I have searched the soul of the Sacred Kylin. He only has 1 ticket which has been obtained by me! Moreover, there is no other divine bone boats which could sail across the Star River.

He Xianran lit up her eyes as she looked at the shattered void, "Send all underlings to search the entire world of Jiuzhou Continent! It is highly possible that they are hiding in the void!"

Swish! Swish! Swish!

All their underlings rushed out. Now, only He Xianran, the one-eyed young man and the middle-aged man in linen robe were still on the ship.

The one-eyed young man complimented, "Fairy He, you are so smart and so skillful in startle the snakes by beating the grass! You sent your underlings to startle them. It is highly possible that they will try to escape by robbing our ships. In this way, we could stay here to wait for windfalls!"

"Lord Jing, you flattered me. This is just a small trick which doesn't deserve your praise!" He Xianran replied in a respectful but vigilant way.

This man was the No. 70 member of the Senluo Law Enforcing Team. More importantly, his father had entered the top 50 among the 100 deities of the alliance.

Crane Deity, who was the father of He Xianran, relied on Jing Deity who was the father of this Lord Jing.

So, she had to treat him reverently.

"You flattered me! I have admired you for a long time, Fairy He..." the one-eyed man said as he approached He Xianran, so that he could smell the fragrance on her body. Then, he said intoxicatedly, "I suggest we could find a quiet place to enjoy the wine and moon after handling this issue. Is it OK for you?"

Actually, He Xianran didn't like this man at all. He tried to pursue her long ago. The Jing Deity also suggested to enhance the relationship of the 2 families through the marriage between his son and He Xianran. Crane Deity was also interested in this marriage. However, the 2 families hadn't reached an agreement yet.

Chapter 1128: Imputation

However, it was only a matter of time!

When He Xianran thought she was about to marry a man who was so ugly, greedy and lascivious, she really hoped this man could die soon.

Suddenly, they heard a miserable cry in the void.

One of their underlings who was at the level of Stage One Mortal Fairy had been killed!

"Here they come!" He Xianran said seriously.

The one-eyed man squinted his eyes as he said seriously, "It seems they are quite powerful as you said. One of them is a Stage Three Mortal Fairy. The other one, who is only an All Creation expert, is able to rival a Stage Two Mortal Fairy like you!"

The next moment, they heard another miserable cry.

"As expected, they are heading towards us!" The one-eyed man said harshly, "I haven't seen people who are so reckless for a long time! I didn't expect they dare to challenge the Senluo Law Enforcing Team!"

He Xianran shouted vigilantly, "Cang Tieyi, I'll leave that woman who is a Stage Three Mortal Fairy to you. Lord Jing and I will handle that All Creation young man!"

The name of the man who was wearing a linen robe was Cang Tieyi. He was the captain of a deity's law enforcing team. Now, he was transferred to the Senluo Law Enforcing Team temporarily to arrest Mo Tianxuan.

Cang Tieyi, who didn't agree with what He Xianran said, said as he looked at the void by furrowing his eyebrows, "My lords, I think something is wrong! If they try to rob our ship, why do they kill our underlings undisguisedly? They could definitely sneak into this place and attack us directly!"

His words were reasonable. He Xianran and the one-eyed man also felt something was wrong.

When they were looking around suspiciously, a white-haired gorgeous woman with purple lips and red eyes walked out of the dark void with a chilly smile.

Blood could still be seen on her lips.

Cang Tieyi, He Xianran and the one-eyed man recognized this woman immediately.

"A demon!!" All of them were shocked by this woman.

"Heh! Heh! Heh! Thank you so much for the nourishment of the 2 Mortal Fairies you sent me. Otherwise, I won't be able to defeat you!" With the nourishment from the hearts and souls of the 2 Mortal Fairies, Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy recovered over half of her energy. Now, she was walking towards the 3 of them with a cold smile.

Cang Tieyi dashed towards the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy as he shouted, "Demon! How dare you act wildly in the world of human being?"

As a Stage Four Mortal Fairy, Cang Tieyi toughened his skill in many combats with the Demon Clan in these years.

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy knew she was facing a powerful opponent. So, she fought with Cheng Tieyi carefully.

After several rounds, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy only gained upper hand but couldn't defeat Cang Tieyi.

"Get lost!" Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy shouted as she forced Cang Tieyi back. Then, she dashed towards the 3 divine bone ships.

She knew she would be in great trouble if she continued to fight with these people here. If another group of law enforcer came here, it would be very difficult for her to escape.

“Oh, no, she is going to rob our ships!” Cang Tieyi shouted as he rushed towards the ships.

At this moment, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy had jumped onto the ship of He Xianran. Without hesitation, she attacked He Xianran with her palm.

It was impossible for He Xianran to resist the attack of a peak Mortal Fairy!

However, Cang Tieyi was too far away to save her at this moment.

At this dire moment, a strand of viciousness appeared in the eyes of He Xianran. Then, she grabbed the one-eyed man back and placed him in front of her as a shield.

He Xianran used the skill of the Crane Deity. So, the one-eyed man, who had no time to dodge, was placed in front of her to withstand the attack which would kill He Xianran.

Puff!

The one-eyed man’s eyes dimmed down. Before he could defend himself, his body and his soul were smashed by the palm of the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy.

Then, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy was about to kill He Xianran again. But she was stopped by Cang Tieyi who had approached her.

So, she had to give up the attack. After forcing back He Xianran to the ground with her sleeve, the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy sailed the ship into the Star River immediately.

When Cang Tieyi arrived at this place, it was impossible for him to catch up with the ship. So, he went back to check the one-eyed man. His body, which was thrown into the Star River by He Xianran, had been devoured by many Wild Beasts.

“Fairy He, how could you...” Cang Tieyi looked at the woman in front of him. The viciousness in her eyes even made him shiver.

He Xianran, who had regained her graceful and elegant appearance, said calmly, “October 4th, 1,003,500 the Alliance Calendar, in the world of Jiuzhou Continent, a law enforcer was killed by creatures in this world and resisted the investigation of the Senluo Law Enforcing Team. Lord Jing was killed in this chaos. The 2 suspects escaped. Need reinforcement from the alliance!”

Hearing this, Cang Tieyi couldn’t help but to gasp. What a vicious woman!

Su Yu was discussing with Mo Tianxuan about the plan to save the Sacred Kylin. They knew they had to be very careful in this operation. Otherwise, they would also be captured or even killed.

Su Yu had the world of Martial Art Tower. He Xianran, who tried to obtain this tower, wouldn’t kill Sacred Kylin casually.

On the deck of the ship, Su Yu was looking at the vast Star River.

Most of the places in the Star River were quiet, cold and dark. Except for the Wild Beasts, no other life forms could be found in it.

Su Yu could see stars which were giving off dim light from time to time.

He knew they were not stars but worlds. Most of these worlds had been abandoned.

As the deities became more and more stronger, they would create many worlds. The old worlds would be abandoned and become an empty hull after creatures in them were moved away, like the world of the Jiuzhou Continent.

In the past several million years, numerous worlds had been abandoned. Now, they were drifting in the Star River. Because they couldn't be ruined, more and more abandoned worlds were left in the Star River. They could only provide dim light to this dark place like stars.

In front of such a vast Star River, Su Yu exclaimed how insignificant one creature was in this universe.

Woo! Woo—

Suddenly, the horn of the ship came in.

Su Yu was not surprised because the ship would stop in a world monthly.

A sailor on the ship told him the route to the world of the Jiuzhou Continent would be canceled after 10 years, just like the other worlds which were abandoned gradually.

The world they stopped at now, which was almost as large as the Jiuzhou Continent, was quite dim.

The brightness of a world in the Star River could be used to judge the flourishing degree of it. The brighter a world was, the more flourishing it would be and vice versa.

When the ship approached this world, people on the ship could smell dense smell of blood. The Mortal Fairy sailors who were standing at the entrance of the rope ladder started to guard the ship vigilantly against any unexpected creatures.

The rope ladder was the only entrance to board the ship. All the rest places on the ship were isolated by arrays set up by a deity. Nothing could board the ship from these places unless a deity tried to board the ship forcibly... However, a deity, who was powerful enough to cross the Star River, didn't need the divine bone ships at all.

The blood smell also went into Su Yu's nostrils. So, he couldn't help but to frown. Although most of the blood smell were from human being, he could still sense the aura of demons in this smell.

It seemed the Jiuzhou Continent was not the only world which suffered from the Demon Clan.

"Alas! This is another world plagued by the demons! I guess it is the world of Shan Deity who passed away 3,000 years ago, right? It was also ruined at last!" An old Mortal Fairy who was guarding the rope ladder sighed.

"Right! Now, more and more abandoned worlds were slaughtered by the Demon Clan. They are more and more rampant recently, which is quite worrying!" These Mortal Fairy sailors had seen too many worlds like this as they travelled with the ship.

Splash—

A lot of people rushed out of the exit of the world. Behind them, a swarm of horrible black crows, which were full of demonic energy were chasing them.

These birds were the big demonic crows in the realm of demons. It was very difficult to defeat these birds which were blood-thirsty, ferocious and deft.

Among these crows, a giant demonic crow, which was a Stage Four Mortal Fairy, was extraordinarily powerful. Its body was wrapped by pitch-dark flames, which made it quite horrible.

The 2 Mortal Fairies who were guarding the rope ladder changed their expression, “A demonic crow which is at the level of peak Mortal Fairy! Gasp! I guess the demon which controls it must be more powerful!”

The demonic crows, which were quite wild and intractable, only obeyed the order of someone who were more powerful than them. So, a horrible demon should be behind these crows.

Among those human beings who were retreating as they defended themselves against those demonic crows, a young man attracted the attention of Su Yu.

This young man was fighting against that demonic crow at the level of the peak Mortal Fairy alone with his hammer.

He could crush a lot of demonic crows with his hammer easily. Without his protection, the rest people would have already been torn up.

“Board the ship now!” The young man with the hammer shouted without turning around as he fought back those demonic crows.

The survivors took out their tickets and were about to board the ship.

Now, there were less than 300 survivors left. All of them were quite powerful. Among them, the most powerful experts had reached the level of Stage One Mortal Fairy. While the weakest had also reached the level of Divine Master. All of them were the remaining creatures of this abandoned world.

When the rope ladder was dropped down, they started to board the ship.

However, the young man with a hammer was outnumbered by the demonic crows. The next moment, countless demonic crows had arrived at the rope ladder.

Those people who hadn’t boarded the ship were killed immediately. The Mortal Fairies who were guarding the rope ladder did nothing although they really wanted to help them. Their task was to prevent any unexpected creatures from boarding the ship.

As more and more people were killed by the demonic crows, an old Stage One Mortal Fairy turned around and started to fight against those demonic crows.

“Just board the ship! I’ll hold them back!” The old Mortal Fairy said resolutely as he fought against those demonic crows with his strength of Mortal Fairy.

However, he was facing several demonic crows which were at the level of Stage One Mortal Fairy and many crows at the level of peak All Creation. So, the old Mortal Fairy was not hold them back for a long time. Soon, he was surrounded by many demonic crows. More and more wounds appeared on his body as he lost the strength of Mortal Fairy rapidly. Maybe he would be devoured by the demonic crows in a short while.

At the same time, the rest demonic crows started to attack those who hadn't board the ship.

Many people cried miserably. Although they did their best to defend themselves, they were not able to rival those demonic crows at all!

Su Yu sighed in his heart. If Sacred Kylin didn't seal the entrance of the Jiuzhou Continent before his death, the creatures on the Jiuzhou Continent would have been wiped out by the demons like these people.

"Seniors, if I go down to help them, could I go back to the ship afterwards?" Su Yu asked. He didn't have a ticket. It would be very troublesome if he was not able to board the ship again after getting off the ship.

The 2 old Mortal Fairies felt relieved when they heard Su Yu's words. However, they rejected Su Yu politely, "Theoretically, you can't. But you can go back to the ship again because we can testify for you. However, please don't do that. They appreciate your kindness. But you can only make trouble for them if you get off the ship..."

Chapter 1129: Boarding Inspection

Troublesome? It is not considered to be. Su Yu touched his nose, and in a flash, jumped off the boat in front of the two dust fairies.

When Su Yu made his move, golden light was released, slaughtering the magical crows of multiple layers, one of which was a siege of Dust Fairy Realm who besieged the Elder of the Dust Fairy. he was stabbed by three golden lights directly and died on the spot, screaming.

Then, it is the Great Sun Punishment Fairy Picture. The nine rounds of the dark sun are like a grinding disk. It swept across the entire area and it was burnt to crisp.

As a smart and highly developed Demonic Crow, he immediately escaped once his task is completed.

The people who were surrounded on all sides were immediately saved.

Many people were grateful, but when they looked at Su Yu and saw that his single attack could severely injure the two dust fairies on board, they were stunned.

Wait, everything's...fine?

"Let's all go up." Su Yu stared at the crowd of Demonic Crows in front of him. He stepped on the body of Demonic crows without looking back and rushed to the old dust fairy.

Under the wreath of the nine dragons, all these Demonic crows have lost their lives.

The old dust fairy, having been rescued, was overjoyed. He retreated to Su Yu's side before bowing down and said. "Thank you for your help. I, your senior, have no idea how to repay you... uh ..."

He looked up and determined that this person was indeed Su Yu, he was stunned as well. He thought it was a senior on the boat who saw the unbalanced power play and disembarked to help, but how could it be someone of his standards?

At the time of him preparing his counterattack, Su Yu was already at the forefront of the battle.

Although the boy was fierce in his attacks, he was also surrounded by enemies.

The King of the Demonic Crows involved him in difficulty in getting out quickly. He got deeper and deeper in the encirclement and nevertheless continued. Without the King of the Demonic Crows to intervene, the other ordinary crows would have been able to take him on as well.

With such a thought, from Su Yu's sword box, out flew the three Tianzhu Silver Bamboo Swords.

Now that they have arrived at the Domain of All Creations, the realm of the soul has moved beyond a major realm and once again started to perform the Tri-Solar Sword Formation. They seemed to have fully mastered the formation and its power can be displayed to the fullest.

"Brother, don't get involved now, get away quickly!" Su Yu's loud voice penetrated the crew group, and the three-handed Tianzhu Silver Bamboo Sword submerged into the void, quickly arranging around the center of the Demonic Crow King.

At the same time, Su Yu plunged through the Devil Crows and opened up a path through the group.

The boy with a hammer has long noticed that he is in danger, but no one can help him. He can't get away at all and was feeling anxious about his situation. Suddenly, Su Yu appeared and intervened.

A tunnel was opened behind him. As for the Demonic Crow King ...

Suddenly, a muffled sound came from behind and the Demonic Crow King suddenly made a fierce and screaming sound. Three blood holes flashed across his body.

Only three silver swords emerged at this time.

With his eyes brightened by what he saw, the boy holding his hammer screamed, "Good swordplay! Sharp, with the power of the void, a rare sight in the cavern world."

While the Demonic Crow King was wounded, the hammer-bearing boy was like a phantom and quickly withdrew from the siege. grinned at Su Yu and said. "Thank you for your help, I am Yang Tai."

Su Yu nodded slightly, and returned to the soft ladder first, and then boarded the ship without any further incident.

Yang Tai took the initiative to talk and merely got a cold response from Su Yu. He couldn't help but touched his nose and said, "This kid is not from the Alliance, I don't know him at all."

With a smile, Yang Tai went to the battlefield with a hammer.

Until they saw his face clearly, the two Dust Fairies in a soft state were immediately startled. They had a shocked expression and wanted to be polite, but were instead stopped by Yang Tai's hand gesture. "Come on, what kind of courtesy is this? Isn't I your master decisive enough on this matter?"

The two dust fairies sweated buckets, visible on their foreheads. They appeared rather weak.

“Well, the passenger who interfered was an outsider. When we get ashore, please do take care of him. Do it well. Hehe, hum hum.” Yang Tai said that with a weird expression on his face.

“Yes, young master.” The two dust fairies did not dare to breathe and have a feeling of regret in their hearts. It had been known that their young master was performing the task here in the area, and they should have come in to put on a performance to assist him. Instead, this glory was given cheaply to Su Yu.

However, the command from the young master, they did not dare to not act on it.

After killing the Demonic Crow, Su Yu returned to the cabin without any further incident. This is an unfamiliar place and he did not want to talk to strangers too much so as not to expose any unnecessary information. After all, he was also being followed by a law enforcement team.

Four months are needed to reach the alliance.

Senluo’s law enforcement team wants to catch up with them, but that will take at least two months. If he uses this time and practice well, he may have the chance to successfully rescue God Kylin.

As soon as he thought about it, in Su Yu’s mind emerged a mysterious array of formation patterns, and a finger-sized snake emerged from it. Its body was surging with magic power, a trait only possible for something from the Realm of Demons.

“This [Nine Dragons Devil Subduing Art] is indeed mystical. Upon successfully practicing it, it becomes a summoning skill in the end.” Within a two-month exploration, Su Yu discovered the essence of what the Nine Dragons Devil Subduing Art is. He can now control the strength of the creatures summoned by his will.

If he needed something strong, the nine-headed dragon can come immediately, and for something weaker, will be this small snake in front of him.

They are all living beings. After half an hour, they will be summoned back by the formation method.

“It seems that this magic was created by the Demon Buddha of the human race. This, however, is likely a fake story. It is more likely that he accidentally got this magic work, but he claimed to have created it himself.” Su Yu played with the little snake for a while and then turned to put it back.

Soon after, Su Yu thought a little and took out the bluestone board

The third realm of the Style of Sky Gaze, the phantom soul realm, has been cultivated for a while by now. Now that they had broken through the Domain of All Creations and the soul strength soars, and it should be able to cultivate much further and into bigger realms.

With that, Su Yu immediately fell into the realization.

Time passes in a flash and two months flew by.

The All-Access Merchant Ship, as always, sails peacefully in the silent Star River.

Yang Tai and the old dust fairy have visited him in the meantime. However, as he was in retreat, he did not see them.

On this day, a large ship from the depths of Star River came by, churning with it huge wind and waves. The size of the hull was not inferior to that of a merchant ship.

On both sides of the hull, majestic dust fairies, hundreds of them, neatly-dressed and appeared strong, stood by. On the bow, there were two more young men, one man and one woman, and another two hundred men.

The leader of one hundred of them is Cang Tieyi, and the leader of the other one hundred is a shriveled old man. He looked around with two eyes, but he did not dare to look at the crane fairy in front of him. This seems to be the Dust Fairy Realm!

For those two hundred people, there is only one dust fairy realm and everything else pales in comparison to it.

The woman is a crane fairy, and the man is a cold-looking, strong fairy who emits an aura that suggests he is indeed powerful and of top status.

The one-eyed dragon, the son of the god of the sky, caused a wave in the alliance by throwing a stone in the calm lake and causing splashes and ripples.

Since the establishment of the alliance, within the jurisdiction of the alliance, the law enforcement agents of Sun Luo have sometimes faltered. This is, for example, when they encountered the demons.

However, this time around, they did not falter at the hands of the Demons, but at the hands of humans!

His death, enraged Sun Luo, the law enforcement messenger himself!

Even more offended is the Jing Deity!

There are not many descendants of the Jing Deity. The most complete inheritance of his blood is Jingbai.

For Jingbai, Jing Deity cultivated him as an heir to the gods. However, alas, when performing the task in Jiuzhou, he was actually killed by the human race!

Therefore, even before Sen Luo's law enforcement team responded, Jing Deity has ordered the law enforcement team belonging to him to be recalled and instead ordered the Crane Deity to assist in the arrest of the perpetrators.

Midway, she encountered the law enforcement team Sen Luo, led by the murderous youth, Xiao Xuan.

Xiao Xuan's ranking in the Sen Law Enforcement Team is higher than Jing Bai, and his strength is not weak at all. Rarely can he meet someone who can rival him within the Three Realms of the Dust Fairy, and with the blood of the gods running through his veins, he is indeed a strong contender and can easily win any battle.

He condensed into a huge force and in this way, chased for three months, before finally catching up with the All-Access merchant ship passing through Jiuzhou that day.

“Sen Luo Law Enforcement Team is here, the merchant ship must stop and is now under inspection!”

The two elders of the Dust Fairy changed their faces slightly, and looked at them. The two law enforcement teams were aggressive, and they couldn't help looking at each other and hurried back to the cabin. “Master, the law enforcement team is here. Why don't you go out, take a look, and let them, board? ”

Yang Tai was lazing around in the cabin and said. “I'm too lazy to deal with them, um, stop the ship and let them check. The law enforcement team of Sen Luo appears, and they will not stop until they find their target.”

They obeyed the instruction and the merchant ship stopped.

The giant ship of the Sen Luo Law Enforcement Team also approached and two hundred law enforcement officers rushed in and surrounded the merchant ship like a flood.

“Sen Luo law enforcement team; arrested the suspects! First, notify all people who boarded the ship to stand on the deck, and be investigated! Second, get the account book of the base, we have to check the list of people that have been disembarked along the way.”

If so requested, merchant ships naturally cooperate.

Not long after, people and account books arrived.

“There is no disembarkation record on the account book, so he must be still on the ship.” Crane Diety's eyes narrowed, and she looked coldly at the more than 300 people.

She glanced around for a long while but there is no sign of Su Yu and Mo Tian Xuan.

She also then brought in a master who knows all the mysterious skills and formations that can possibly be used for disguise, but she did not find anyone who did so.

“Law enforcement officers, check all cabins!”

She waited for them to check but alas, they found nothing.

“Where is he?” the Crane Diety frowned, and said, “Sir, this is a cunning human being. I'm afraid that he realized that we will come after him regardless and have already figured out a way to hide from us.”

Xiao Xuan stared at Crane Diety and said coldly, “I hope everything you said is true!”

When he is staring at her like this, Crane Diety's heart was empty, but her face had to pretend to be calm. “Jing Bai's death is indeed related to them. I can confirm it! They must be on the boat.”

If it is someone else, why can't they see a person when he is on board, and cannot find a dead body when he is dead? Obviously, he was on the boat but cannot be found alive. Thus, perhaps the Crane Diety does not necessarily know where they are hiding.

But knowing that Su Yu is holding the Martial Arts Tower in his hand, wouldn't it be easy for him to hide in this manner?

As long as Su Yu hides in the Martial Arts Tower, he disappears.

Therefore, when you find the Martial Arts Tower, you will find Su Yu as well!

However, the Crane Diety did not dare to speak of the existence of the Martial Arts Tower. For one, she coveted Martial Arts Tower. Also, she did not dare to let Su Yu be caught by Xiao Xuan. Under interrogation, these matters are likely to be exposed. If so, she will arouse the greatest amount of suspicion, which is not good for her at all.

Once the gods are angry, it will be difficult for the Crane Diety to resist the pressure from them as well.

Therefore, she had to be cautious, and she must kill Su Yu ahead of time while quietly getting the Martial Arts Tower at the same time.

"I suspect there is a small Cavern world where the suspects are hidden. Take out your magic weapon, we have to check every one of them; one by one!" Crane Diety shouted.

Chapter 1130: The Great Thousand Cavern Worlds

Everyone on the deck wiped out their magic weapon, but none of them was the Cavern World.

How precious the Cavern World is; it is not something ordinary people will have in their possession.

The Crane Diety pointed to the cabin path below: "The cargo in the cabin, we have to check it and make sure there is no Cavern World inside."

However, what this got were the two dust fairy's indifferent objections. "If you are willing to remove your status as the messenger of the Sen Luo law enforcement team, you may then check it forcibly."

Merchant ships, including the cargo on board, must not be inspected without the consent of the owner, or the Sen Luo law enforcement team will be fired.

Crane Diety was not upset, and flashed her eyes, saying: "Okay, I'll follow the rules, let's go!"

Before Xiao Xuan left, he glanced into the cabin of the ship, and there was a special secret room, which was used by the captain. Outsiders were not allowed to enter.

Alas, the captain had already been summoned to the deck, but there seems to be someone in the back room. The only thing the law enforcement officers had not checked just now was this door.

"Who's inside? Why don't you open the door?" Xiao Xuan came over and said coldly.

Crane Diety's heart jumped. Secretly in her heart, she thought, could Su Yu be hiding in the back room? If caught by Xiao Xuan ...

The two Dust Fairies said lightly, "Master Xiao, it's better not to know, he doesn't want to see you."

"Hehe, who has such a big ego as not to appear in front of the Sen Luo Law Enforcement Team? Except for the gods, who can disobey us?" Xiao Xuan coldly.

Creaking—

There was a squeak and the door of the backroom opened, and a lazy voice came from within:
“Well, I am not a god, and naturally I can’t disobey you. Come in if you want to check.”

This voice ... Xiao Xuan and Crane Diety, even Cang Tieyi and the shriveled old man, at the same time, had a look of confusion across their faces. This voice seems very familiar.

Xiao Xuan ignored the doubt, glanced at it, but only with one glance, Xiao Xuan and Crane Diety changed their faces. Can Tieyi and the old man, as well as the more than two hundred subordinates behind them, bowed immediately.

“The law enforcement team, Cang Tieyi, pay his respects to Lord Yang!”

The law enforcement team has a high status. Only outsiders bow down to worship them. At the moment, they are kneeling down to worship Yang Tai.

Even the murderous Xiao Xuan complied, bowing down and worshiping him. “I pay my respects to Brother Yangtai.”

There is only one possibility to make the law enforcement team, and even the two law enforcement team members so respectful.

A fellow law enforcement officer!

Whether it is an ordinary law enforcement team or a Sen Law enforcement team, there are thousands of people within them. In addition, adding their respective law enforcement officers, and their followers, and their attachments ... seemingly a simple law enforcement team, will have with them, more than 100,000 members? Perhaps more than a million.

With such a huge number of people, to assign tasks, distribute items, record intelligence ... Can there be no unified management organization?

The organization that manages the law enforcement team, called the Alliance Hall, has nine law enforcement officers who are responsible for managing the affairs of the entire law enforcement team.

Nine law enforcement officers, six of which are quasi-gods, who are actually in positions of power.

The remaining three will be the ones that select from the Sen Law Enforcement Team who the law enforcement officers are. They are to be the strongest three, to choose who will represent the Alliance Hall.

The three of them usually do not manage actual affairs, but their names are out there. Who dares to belittle them?

If they really have any requests, if they do so as to plead in front of the six quasi-gods, can the quasi-gods choose not to do them the favor?

Therefore, the status of the three of them is even higher, and no one is willing to offend them.

Yang Tai is the third strongest player in the law enforcement team of Sen Luo. He is a man of strength and it is difficult to meet rivals in the realm, except for the second and first players above him. The descendants of contemporary gods are the strongest, followed by him.

“Now come, check it since you are here.” Yang Tai squinted at Xiao Xuan and Crane Deity. He saw that they were almost going to cry; how would they dare to search the law enforcement officer’s bedroom?

Crane Deity said quietly: “If we knew that Brother Yangtai was on the boat, then we would not have come. Since Brother Yangtai is here, the rascal would most definitely not be here.”

Her words are loaded with meaning. In it, it is a form of justification, in case of accusations of not doing her job properly. It was also, a sort of compliment. With such a choice of words, it was a beautiful and elegant way to move forward from the situation.

However, used on Yang Tai, it was merely like the air landing on his skin, and he merely waved. “If you have nothing else, please leave.”

Crane Deity was secretly disappointed. Yang Tai was a big man in the league. His strength and status are one thing.

The most important thing, however, is that his father, All-Access Merchant God, is a big man in a rich and powerful alliance. A quarter of the wealth in the alliance is under the control of the All-Access Merchant God.

If you only think that All-Access Merchant God is a big-bellied coppery sly businessman, then you are totally wrong!

How can you control such an invincible business empire, and can live to this day without harm? Without the strength from the Star River, how can it possibly be alive till today? They would have, if without the river, been attacked by a group of hundreds of deities, and their property divided up.

All-Access Merchant God is the god of commerce, a supernatural, and amongst the hundred gods of the alliance, he is well within the top three!

The deities at the tail end of the ranking system; they became gods with the help of the All-Access Merchant God. They have to pay him respect every time they meet him!

The family of idle gods and other gods also fully relied on the commercial empire of the All-Access Merchant God, to say nothing else. Breaking the business road would be enough to isolate the opponent’s Cavern World from the alliance.

No one can match its transcendent status.

Therefore, in the eyes of many goddesses, Yang Tai is the best golden turtle they can get.

When you marry into the All-Access Merchant’s family you are flying into the sky and becoming a god for free.

Alas, Yang Tai himself is an uninformed clog. Except for fighting and killing, he is not very interested in women and the like, or at least, Crane Deity can’t excite his interest.

But she knew very well that, as a descendant of the All-Access Merchant God, would Yang Tai be as dull as his appearance?

The other side of Yang Tai is an extremely intelligent man who is proficient in calculations and terribly meticulous. She faintly heard from her father that Yang Tai is a terribly clever child. When it comes to planning and strategy, only his father, the All-Access Merchant God, is above him.

Whilst waiting for the law enforcement boat to leave, Yang Tai calmly said, "Investigate what happened in the Jiuzhou Cavern World, and check who got on board."

"Yes." The two old elder Dust Fairies replied and respectfully retreated.

Two months later, the ship and arrived at the Great Eastern Alliance.

Standing on the ship, looking far away, there are bright lights upfront, one after another, dazzling the entire area. They were very close to each other and even clustered together. Together, they illuminated the entire dark galaxy.

This is the Milky Way that you see when you look up from the mainland of Jiuzhou!

A river-like wonder of the Cavern World, formed by hundreds of Cavern Worlds.

If you look closely, you will find that each Cavern World is tightly connected, and the world barriers between them are opened, all connected together.

Standing in the starry sky, you can clearly see the vast expanse of Divine Continent.

Every huge merchant ship is as huge as the Jiuzhou Cavern World, and they were constantly entering and leaving the Divine Continent.

The commercial ship that Su Yu was riding on, compared to it, was nothing more than a very small ship.

Merchant ships docked, and the cargoes in the cabins were successively removed and continuously transported in all directions.

Hiding onshore, hundreds of law enforcement officers hidden in the secret, watched the whereabouts of the goods closely.

Every time a batch of goods is transported, a law enforcement member keeps up quietly, always keeping his sight on the goods for a good half a minute.

In a wine shop somewhere, the corner of Crane Diety's mouth is frosty, like a cat that catches mice, and it is full of drama. "How can he possibly escape from my palm?"

She had long anticipated that Su Yu would load the Martial Arts Tower into a certain cargo, and he would hide in Martial Arts Tower, so as to avoid the search by law enforcement officers and successfully reach the Alliance mainland.

"Poison Dragon, is everything done?" Crane Diety said coldly.

Poison Dragon said: "Miss, rest assured, all of them are done! I have cultivated these law enforcement officers and followers by myself. They are loyal to the Crane Diety and will never leak the news out. We must be able to kill off those two people from Jiuzhou and take the Martial Arts Tower before the rest of the Sen Luo Law Enforcement Officers arrive. "

Crane Diety flashed a cold glance and said. “The person who killed Jing Bai that day, has that issued been settled?”

The poisonous dragon said: “Miss, please rest assured, they can’t speak of it any further. However, there is only one person, which is slightly tricky.”

“You mean, Cang Tieyi?” Crane Diety looked cold, with a thorn in her heart.

“Exactly, he belongs to the Book Deity. There a law enforcement team formed by the Book Deity, and he is the leader of the team. In addition, his strength is very high. If we fail to kill him, it will cause him to escape. Not only will this offend the Jing Diety, but the Book Diety will also be offended as well.”

Crane Diety said coldly: “I know, so all the more I should kill him! The Book Diety is bright and well-known, once known as the gentleman’s god. Once he knows of this, he will definitely speak up about Jing Bai!”

After speaking, Crane Diety took out a bottle of black powder. “This is the poison prepared by the Poison Diety. It is more than enough to kill him!”

Poison Diety? The poison dragon scratched his face. Although he was known as a poison dragon, how could he dare to compare himself with the Deity who poisoned him with poison?

This batch of goods was ordered by a small shop. When the shop owner opened it and took out a large number of refined elixir materials, he found a small bronze tower.

The shop assistant opened it and didn’t care much and set it aside. When he put the materials into the warehouse and came back, he suddenly found that the tower was missing.

The Cavern World of the Alliance was the central fork of all the Cavern worlds. Thus, the auras of the major worlds are evenly distributed in all regions.

Any of these Alliance Cavern Worlds is far better than the prosperity of Jiuzhou, so the prosperity of the aura has made Su Yu from Jiuzhou feel like a villager entering the city.

Look at the streets, there are all kinds of creatures, not just humans, but also beautiful girls with cats and they look cute and stupid at the same time. There are also giant rock, as well as human-like creatures such as sparrows and crocodiles. There seems to be no human who was walking in downtown.
