

Nine-Dragon 1171

Chapter 1171: The Gods' Interception

"You finally came out. I thought you died in there," Sheng Yuanxin stood outside the tomb with her arms folded.

Su Yu said casually, "Have you found any clues?"

"Well yes, but also no," Sheng Yuanxin sighed. "I found some clues. As early as the sixth generation of the Glaze Fairy Deity family house, the families of the Glaze Fairy Deity and the Book Deity established a close relationship to handle a major event together."

Su Yu's gaze shifted to the side. He couldn't believe she found an actual clue.

After thinking for a while, Su Yu said, "When you say they handled a major event together, do you mean... to build a treasure house of books together?"

"Exactly!" Sheng Yuanxin nodded.

Su Yu said. "This was no accident. The Glaze Fairy Deity protects the treasure house of the Book Deity enough for us to see that she has an abnormal relationship with this thing. It is not like how the other gods treat it. To think that the original family of the Glaze Fairy Deity family home was also involved with its construction."

"So what does this have to do with this case?"

After remaining silent for a while, Sheng Yuanxin said, "I learned this from the funerary of the gods of the Glaze Fairy Deity family home by accident. They didn't suddenly think of building this treasure house of books, but..."

Su Yu continued where she left off, his eyes flashing with excitement. "Instead, they were instructed by the gods behind the scenes."

"Huh?" Sheng Yuanxin was startled, "You also found clues in the Book Deity's tomb?"

Su Yu shook his head and continued, "I didn't find any useful clues."

"How do you know then?" Sheng Yuanxin tilted her head in curiosity.

Su Yu said, "Take a wild guess. It's very simple. For such a taboo that probes the secrets of the gods and endangers the entire Great Eastern Alliance to even be established, how much pressure must be withstood? Without a strong god standing behind them, I'm afraid that it would've been destroyed by the many other angry gods when construction begins. How could it last up to today? "

Sheng Yuanxin angrily patted the dust of the tomb of God and glared at Su Yu. "Why didn't you say so earlier? I've been sullen in the grave for over two months."

"Would you believe me if I said that?" Su Yu asked, "Have you found out who the ambassador behind the scenes is?"

Sheng Yuanxin's face was serious, and she nodded slightly, "I found it."

Su Yu noticed that the tone was different. Su Yu's heart was a little surprised. It seemed that a great powerful figure was found.

"It is the fourth-ranked Rakshasa Deity family!" Sheng Yuan said.

Rakshasa Deity? Of course, Su Yu heard rumors that they were the strongest killing god among the hundred gods. It must be the human race!

The Rakshasa Deity force was cultivated to be fierce, its combat prowess extremely lethal. That explained why it was seventh among the hundred gods.

Su Yu also had some wild historical news about this god that hadn't been recorded in the official history.

The contemporary Rakshasa Deity of today was once captured by the demon god for ten years and later rescued by the Dakini.

It was rumored that when Rakshasa Deity returned, she had a son who was both devil and human.

What she experienced in the demon world was obvious.

After the heterogeneous combination of man and demon was born, he did not know where he went. Since then, it became a mystery. It was not stated in any of the historical records.

Su Yu's eyes narrowed, and Su Yu knew that the mother of the Central Prefecture's King was a god, just as he said before his death!

The Rakshasa Deity was the mother of the Central Prefecture's King!

A baby born from the demon world, a god family who had kept this a secret from all gods throughout the ages...

How simple was it to think that the existence of the Book Deity Treasury was just a harmless accident?

The existence of the Book Deity Treasury was to curb the secrets of the gods from being leaked, make them unsusceptible to arrest, and make their fatal weakness undiscoverable!

If the demons accessed these secrets and mastered all the gods' weaknesses, how much more superior would the gods' power be?

"The demon world is dead, but my heart is still alive. I can't believe that someone powerful has planted such a deep thorn in such a high ranking family of gods in the Great Eastern Alliance!" Su Yu felt a cold sweat emerging on his back.

However, this further strengthened Su Yu's determination. He needed to wash away the blood and the terrible hidden dangers of the Great Eastern Alliance!

"Yuanxin, what would the Sheng Deity do if he knew?" Su Yu asked.

Sheng Yuanxin drew on her palm. The situation had developed to the present level, which was more serious than originally expected. It involved not only great families such as those of the Glaze Fairy Deity and Book Deity but also the hidden puppet masters, the Rakshasa Deity family!!

“I don’t know. My mother can’t make this decision on her own. She will have to discuss it with the All-Access Merchant God and the Dakini. If the three gods all agree to it, it will be possible to uproot the fourth-ranked Rakshasa Deity family!”

It seemed that Sheng Yuanxin also speculated that the Central Prefecture’s King was the descendant of the missing demon and god from the past. Behind the scenes, the Rakshasa Deity was the one who controlled the rescue mission in Jiuzhou back then.

Su Yu groaned for a long time and sighed, “It would be easy if the three gods could all agree, but I’m afraid we have no chance to report to all the three gods.”

“What?” Sheng Yuanxin followed Su Yu’s eyes and looked out beyond the enchantment. Her face slightly changed.

As a quasi-god, she felt the existence of a god.

Moreover, it was the Graze Fairy Deity!

“It seems that they’ve figured out our intention,” Su Yu sighed. Of course, he knew that the Glaze Fairy Deity would come at him.

Sheng Yuanxin’s dignified heart sank a little. “Sure enough, I am involved in all of this as well!”

She raised a hand and a threaded stone appeared in her palm. “This was handed to me by my mother before I left. If the gods find you, use the stone to teleport to other Cavern Worlds. The other gods must not find out that we are in the Tomb World of the Gods. This stone can save our lives.”

Su Yu wasn’t surprised that the Sheng Deity allowed Sheng Yuanxin to enter her world, providing her with thousands of methods to do so.

“This is a part of my mother’s body. It contains the divine power of the Sheng Deity. It breaks the enchantment and lets us easily teleport out of here. But after leaving this place, the three of us will have to flee separately and seek support from familiar gods,” said Sheng Yuanxin.

The gift from the Sheng Deity was a stone that absorbed the essences of the sun, moon, and heaven and earth. It was called the holy stone.

The power it contained was unimaginable, for it was a part of the Sheng Deity.

Su Yu bowed his head. “Okay.”

Knowing that the two of them were moving, Jing Deity also reluctantly walked out of a tomb of a God to reunite with Su Yu. Of course, he naturally showed an elated look in front of Sheng Yuanxin but said intently, “We are surrounded. There are many strong men outside.”

Sheng Yuanxin nodded. “Don’t worry, my mother said that she will keep you safe. We leave and move separately. Don’t be caught by people outside.”

Jing Deity naturally agreed.

Upon activating the stones, the three were swept away by ripples and directly transmitted to another god’s realm as if there was nothing in the outside world.

While waiting for the ‘rabbits’ outside the Cavern world, The Glaze Fairy Deity suddenly looked up to the sky, and her face changed slightly. “This is the breath of the Sheng Deity... why was she in the tombs of the gods?”

But the Glaze Fairy Deity couldn’t think about it too much. At that moment, she saw her target, Su Yu!

Brush——

The Glaze Fairy Deity moved through an entire god realm in one thought, chasing after Su Yu and the others.

Her heart deeply sighed. After all, she had looked down on Su Yu and did not catch him outside the tombs of the gods when he emerged.

It didn’t matter, anyway. Su Yu was going to die now!

Call——

The three of them teleported to the adjacent water world and immediately fled in separate directions without saying a word to each other.

Although the Glaze Fairy Deity sensed the breath of Sheng Yuanxin and the Jing Deity, she had no time to think about it and caught up with Su Yu in one thought.

The Glaze Fairy Deity appeared in front of Su Yu and sneered, “We meet again, Feather God!”

Su Yu just smiled without showing any further expression.

Glaze Fairy Deity showed a playful expression instead. “Don’t you want to ask me why I’m chasing you, and what I’ll do once I catch up to you?”

With a slight smile, Su Yu said, “If you’re chasing me, does that mean you’re trying to court me? Catching up with me is fine, but I’m not ready to promise you any courtship. Even if you are a god, I won’t put down my pride as a man to be with you.”

“Hahahaha...” The Glaze Fairy Deity laughed angrily, “You can calmly laugh and crack jokes now. Were it not for the fact that we serve opposite sides, I would be like the other gods and have a good impression on you. Oh well, I guess you’ll have to die!”

“Because I have the secret of your collusion with the demons, you tried to expose me of petty crimes to the gods so I can be assassinated by you without any further explanation?”

The smile of Glaze Fairy Deity suddenly converged. “You knew all this?”

That was impossible! Did someone go to the Cavern world of the tombs of the gods and report it to Su Yu?

Was it Sheng Yuanxin and Jing Deity?

“How nasty. I can guess what you are thinking with just my toes!” Su Yu said lightly.

The Glaze Fairy Deity was a little surprised. She knew that this man was clever, but she didn’t expect him to be so smart.

Looking at Su Yu's calm expression, the Glaze Fairy Deity was uneasy as if things were not under her control. "Well, it doesn't matter how calm you are. Even if you want to find the gods one by one to ask for their support, you're a fool to think that would happen! Don't even think about it!"

Su Yu revealed the slightest clue. "Looking for gods to justify my actions? Sorry, I never thought of such a troublesome, dangerous and inefficient way from the beginning!"

Su Yu didn't know how many gods conspired with the Glaze Fairy Deity, the family of the Book Deity, and the Rakshasa Deity. If he happened to find one of them, wouldn't he have been simply offering himself up to the devil?

"You..." The Glaze Fairy Deity was anxious, unable to guess Su Yu's intentions.

Fortunately, Su Yu answered for her with a confident glow in his eyes when he said, "I want all these gods, all of them, to see me in person!"

What? The Glaze Fairy Deity couldn't help but feel shocked. Was it even possible for all the gods to see Su Yu of their own volition?

The anxiety in her heart became more and more intense. Staring at Su Yu, the Glaze Fairy Deity became more and more aware that despite all their calculations, the most important thing was ignored.

Su Yu was never the type of person who could be controlled.

"Then let me make you disappear from the world now!" Glaze Fairy Deity exclaimed coldly without hesitation. With a thought, she wanted to rip Su Yu's soul apart from his body, producing terrible shocks. Afterward, he would've been destroyed.

Through this idea, Su Yu resembled ants on the ground. No matter how much she resisted and fought back, it was futile.

Su Yu now fully knew the difference between God and man!

At that moment, a soft hum came from the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl. Accompanied by a natural clear emerald light, an elegant, noble, fresh and beautiful girl slowly floated out.

Chapter 1172: The Tree God Strikes

The boundless green light around him expelled the idea of destroying Su Yu from the Glaze Fairy Deity's mind.

"Why? I haven't been allocated the property of the commons. If you kill him, what about those properties? Anyway, give him some time and let him make a will for me." The elegant and natural woman spoke clearly. Although once she started speaking, she became the opposite of her physical image.

Glaze Fairy Deity's pupil shrunk. "A new god!"

Among the hundred gods, there was no Tree God. Despite this, the woman was a Tree God who had never appeared before her!

“If you know that I am a new god, why don’t you hurry and send me a red envelope or something to be a meeting gift?” The Tree God smiled and slapped the Glaze Fairy Deity’s face.

The Glaze Fairy Deity’s heart shook immensely. It was no wonder that Su Yu wasn’t afraid. It turned out that he managed to somehow find a god!

The power of this god was far greater than that of the Jing Deity!

“This deity, Su Yu is currently wanted by a hundred deities of my Great Eastern Alliance. No matter what relationship you have with him, we will not make it difficult for you if you give up now. Please just leave now. Go,” Glaze Fairy Deity urged.

The Tree God received no gifts from their first meeting and fiercely said, “Horrible ghost! You gave me little to nothing but want me to throw my owner away. I’m not that stupid!”

Owner... The Glaze Fairy Deity grinned; this was a godless spirit with no self-respect!

Although she thought the Tree God was crazy, the Glaze Fairy Deity couldn’t give up on her grand plan. “So, if that is the case, I am sorry to offend you!”

After all that, she took the initiative to strike first.

The battle between the gods was mostly done through Soul Concealment. It was invisible and intangible, hidden and cannot be realized.

Su Yu only felt that everything in front of him was a blur. The Tree God and the Glazed Fairy Deity then simultaneously disappeared into the sky, and he never felt any fluctuations in the air at all.

However, the extremely coercive divine oppression in the air told Su Yu that the two gods were fighting fiercely.

After a short while, the Glaze Fairy Deity appeared with a bang, the corner of her mouth was filled with golden blood.

She still stood in front of him without moving at all.

The Tree God’s elegant figure also appeared in front of him, but she had on a pink corset in her palm. She shook her hand, smiled and said, “I’m old, and I’m still wearing pink, hehe.”

From the other side, the Glazed Fairy Deity looked reddish and felt ashamed for her. “How shameless!”

Su Yu glanced at the red bellyband and remained silent for a while. Did the Tree God fight so shamelessly without a lower limit? Did she actually tear off a woman’s corset?

However, the confrontation between the two sides was clear at a glance. The Tree God, whose strength was restored, had been stabilized and was way above the Glazed Fairy Deity.

After all, the Glazed Fairy Deity was a powerful god ranked in the top dozens!

“Ha! With such low strength, I’m sorry that you even try to kill my owner. Let the two goons hiding in the dark come out together! I will strip you all out!” The Tree God swept coldly to the side.

The sacred light swept by, and a large piece of jade blue light suddenly flickered from the endless distance. Then, a towering giant tree covered almost the entire Cavern World!

The tree leaves were shot densely, and two gods were being extracted from somewhere!

“Water God, and Stone God?” Su Yu smiled calmly from the corners of his mouth. It was as if everything was planned as if his prey had finally stepped into his trap.

Both of them swept through the leaves and flew near the Glaze Fairy Deity and stood beside her, vigilantly watching the Tree God.

“Who the hell are you?” the Glaze Fairy Deity’s heart sank to the bottom of the valley. She thought that the god Su Yu found was a nobody. Who would have expected that she was no match for this god?

Base on intuition, the Tree God was strong enough to rank in the top nine in the Great Eastern Alliance.

The tree god casually threw the Glaze Fairy Deity’s corset to Su Yu. “Take it. When the night is quiet and lonely, it can be used to quench your thirst.”

Su Yu was nearly immune to her nonsense. However, after hearing this, he could not help but twitch his mouth.

The lower limit was something the Tree God always sought to breakthrough. Nobody could guess where her lower limit was.

“How shameless!” the Glaze Fairy Deity was very angry. “Water God, Stone God, this Tree God is strange. Attack her together while she’s restrained. I’ll have someone else take care of Su Yu!”

The three gods worked together, and their aura hit through the sky.

The Tree God wasn’t afraid. “Yeah, I have recovered, so let’s exercise with wasteful gods like you!”

After being nailed to the throne for thousands of years, the Tree God was in dire need to move around.

Suddenly, the four gods exchanged invisible blows.

The huge divine power in the air had more than doubled!

Even though he was accustomed to the power of the gods, Su Yu struggled with what he was now experiencing.

Call——

At the same time, several figures came from afar.

It was Liu Li law enforcement officer, Qin Feichen, and a law enforcement team of about 100 people.

As a law enforcement officer, Liu Li didn’t have a problem mobilizing law enforcement teams to arrest wanted criminals. If these one hundred people weren’t trusted confidants, they would have mobilized hundreds of thousands of people instead.

“Su Yu! You must die today!” Qin Feichen looked at Su Yu with a glimmer in his eyes.

But Su Yu didn’t even look at him. Why would he bother responding to a dead man?

“Attack and kill Su Yu!” Liu Li’s order was not to arrest him, but for him to be killed on the spot.

although they knew it was a violation of the Alliance Treaty of the Hundred Deities, one hundred law enforcement officers did not hesitate to execute the order.

After all, the order given by the gods was to slaughter and not kill. Still, it blatantly violated the orders of the hundred gods.

However, they obeyed Liu Li’s orders and rushed towards Su Yu.

Su Yu took out the Memory Jade Pendant and recorded down Liu Li giving the order as proof that the law enforcement team did not hesitate to react to her orders. Every detail was recorded.

“Well, it doesn’t matter if I kill you openly now!” Su Yu smiled slightly, taking out the Tower of Wuta from his arms.

He opened one of the layers. Suddenly, several channels of extreme immortal dust led to several strong people flocking out.

The strongest among them was only at the Three Realms of Dust Fairies whereas the weakest was only at the Vientiane realm.

The strength of a single person was far from enough to compete with these hundred people, but they could still win with as many as thousands!

They were the Crane Deity family’s resources that Su Yu borrowed and secretly cultivated in the Tower of Wuta. They mainly included the black and white dust fairy to upgrade their realm by one or two levels. The other domain masters also focused on training and created a large number of dust fairy powerhouses. As for the emergence of Vientiane realm powerhouses, their numbers are countless.

Jiuzhou creatures had been suppressing growth in the fading environment of Jiuzhou for a long time, and they have suddenly obtained the powerful resources of the Great Eastern Alliance. Thus, their strength had most certainly soared.

Against so many strong men, Liu Li and Qin Feichen both raised their eyebrows!

“Do you carry a Cavern World around with you?” Liu Li was a little surprised. As a descendant of the gods, it was easy to own one or two Cavern Worlds. As long as his father was willing to sacrifice a little bit of the Great Path Divine Origin, it could be easily created. However, the Cavern world in Su Yu’s hand didn’t seem like a small Cavern World.

The Jiuzhou strongmen answered his question.

Although the law enforcement team was strong, how would it fare against a team consisting of a lot more people? As soon as they fought, they were swiftly brought down and quickly showed signs of defeat. Fortunately, they were good enough people to quickly cease their attack, creating a stalemate with the strong souls in Jiuzhou.

“It looks like I have to get involved!” Liu Li snorted as she took out a spear from her palm, her slim body flickering in a flash.

Su Yu’s face was calm, and there was a chuckle in the Tower of Wuta as a huge black unicorn with three feet emerged from it.

Looking at God Kylin, Liu Li’s face changed dramatically. “The god of the Jiuzhou Cavern World, God Kylin?”

“Hey, you remember this old god. That’s something not many can do!”

Liu Li said, “Aren’t you only left with one bit of Great Path Divine Origins? How could you still be so powerful?”

The current God Kylin had a strong source of Great Path Divine Origins, and an early quasi-god was simply no match for her.

The situation was very different from what they were told!

Suddenly, Liu Li thought of something and was surprised. “Don’t tell me you plundered the Great Path Divine Origin in the tomb of the Gods ...”

Hearing this, Qin Feichen was also surprised and immediately stared at Su Yu with fiercely flashing eyes. “Su Yu, where did all this Great Path Divine Origin come from...?”

“Of course, I just reused the waste of all your ancestors,” Su Yu did not wait for him to ask and admitted very happily. “Anyway, it’s better to save a former god that lost some power. This is also a good thing for your ancestors to do. ”

What?! Qin Feichen felt like he was about to explode!

These Great Path Divine Origin have not been released for half a century, but it was for a good reason. These were rules set out by the ancient book gods. If one day the contemporary current Book Deity’s Great Path Divine Origin was damaged with an irreparable deficiency, he would go to the ancestral tomb and absorb the ancestors’ Great Path Divine Origin as a replacement source!

For hundreds of thousands of years, several Book Deities were in a similar situation. They had to sneak into the tomb of God to absorb the Great Path Divine Origin. Over the past ten Book Deities, only five of them have complete sources of God while the other five used up all of their power.

Alas, these Great Path Divine Origin prepared for the current Book God were taken away by this traitor, Su Yu!

“Because of Su Yu, I’m afraid that not a single bit is left for the Book God family home!”

“Ah, what? You should rush over here now,” Su Yu said lightly.

Qin Feichen’s tightly clenched his fists, but he forced himself to calm down without rushing into the situation. Su Yu easily defeated the son of the Sword God, and he was not Su Yu’s opponent at all.

God Kylin and Liu Li quickly fought, and both of them were early quasi-gods. However, God Kylin was a real deity in the past. Experience, supernatural powers, and reaction to the battle were far above that of a quasi-god who had lived for 100 years. They were therefore incomparable.

Liu Li had the practice and strength not to lose to the God Kylin, but the spear in her hand could hardly touch any part of God Kylin.

The two of them exchanged blows with one another. However, listening to God Kylin's laugh frightened Liu Li until she gradually fell into a downwind.

Just then, a scream came out suddenly and spread throughout the Water God's Cavern World!

The sky was a wave of golden light, and even the clouds turned golden yellow.

At the same time, the mountains, rivers, and living beings in the Water God's Cavern World all sent out their sorrows as if mourning the fall of a god.

The gods fell, and everything wept.

Layers of golden yellow rainwater descended from the endless blue sky to nourish the mountains, rivers, and all living vegetation.

Upon seeing everything, Su Yu felt overjoyed. The Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl opened and swallowed wildly, swallowing the golden rain falling from the sky.

This wasn't rain, but rather precious god blood!

Chapter 1173: The Rakshasa Deity Strikes

While she was busy fighting, Glazed Fairy Deity became dismayed. "What? The gods have fallen!"

She saw a spirit surrounded by the light of God. There was no Great Path Divine Origin within his body.

As a result, she was rolled back by a blue vine before she could escape. Accompanied by the scream of horror, a woman's chilling laugh rang out. "The psyche is very valuable. It is sold on the black market and has tremendous value. If you flee now, how else can I get my hands on it?"

Liu Li, who was down below, was horrified when she heard this. Who was this? What terrible god was strong enough to easily kill the Water God?

She was disoriented for a while. God Kylin's well-trained and seasoned eyes immediately spotted this flaw. A pair of God Kylin's horns above her head suddenly penetrated Liu Li's body and directly smashed through her body.

Liu Li's soul was instantly shocked. She quickly got hold of an unsteady group of quasi-gods and gods' Great Path Divine Origin and was about to escape.

Alas, God Kylin simply smiled and struck her with her paw. She was under her feet. "That boy Su Yu said that we in the Tower of Wuta are not short of anything except for a few quasi-gods. Your Great Path Divine Origin is very useful. I can't possibly let you run away."

Opening her mouth and sucking, God Kylin swallowed Liu Li's soul together with the quasi-god Great Path Divine Origin and stored it in her belly.

A roar rang out, but nobody knew where it came from. "How dare you!"

She was discovered by the Glaze Fairy Deity. Her daughter, the heir to the gods, was captured by the God Kylin. She instantly became infuriated.

“Well, the group fighting with me isn’t very attentive!” The Tree God let off a cold hum as the Glaze Fairy Deity returned a deadly howl. The blood of Gods suddenly splashed all over. The Glaze Fairy Deity’s body had cracks all over; she almost had her body broken by the Tree God.

Although she managed to escape, the Stone God was not so lucky. With a scream, he was sacrificed the same way the Water God was.

His body was destroyed and his soul was captured.

In the Stone God’s Cavern home, everything wept for him. The sky rained the blood of the Gods, washed throughout the Cavern world, and nourished billions of souls.

Two gods fell in the blink of an eye.

Huge fluctuations of their God Ripples quickly passed through the entire Great Eastern Alliance.

When the God Ripples of the Water God were released following his death, the other gods were shocked. The Water God still had a long life ahead of him. Why did he suddenly die?

It was only when the God Ripples of the Stone God came to them were the gods completely shaken and panicked.

What happened? Why did the two gods fall in succession? Who did it?

The expressions of the top nine gods changed dramatically, and they turned into divine lights and rushed to the source of the fluctuations.

The gods had experienced peace for so long, and the two gods fell like a meteorite blasting the entire once peaceful and calm lake.

All the gods were badly shaken!

Disregarding the invasion of the Demon Race, two gods have never fallen abnormally like that!

Something terrible must have happened!

Gods, descendants of the gods, and some masters who have hidden in the Great Eastern Alliance were also startled.

In front of a bamboo forest, Mo Tianxuan looked into the sky with slightly shocked eyes as he said, “With the fall of two gods, is this a prelude to the coming of troubled times?”

“Teacher of the Six Paths, should we set off for the Great Western Alliance?” Mo Tianxuan said respectfully into the hut.

In the hut, there came a murmuring voice that said, “No need, there is still some vitality left in the Great Eastern Alliance.”

Mo Tianxuan’s heart skipped a little. “You mean that now that the hidden danger of the Book God Treasury has been destroyed, the Great Eastern Alliance has a chance for revival?”

“No, vitality does not mean this, but something or someone else.”

Mo Tianxuan pouted his mouth. What else? What other people? What did it mean? Who was it?

“Anyway, the destruction of the Book God Treasury is good news for the Great Eastern Alliance.” From the time Mo Tianxuan returned to the Great Eastern Alliance, she focused on gaining insight into the world’s events instead of getting into trouble.

Even if she did not deliberately inquire, she could learn all of Su Yu’s actions, one by one. Especially with the destruction of the treasure house of the book god, she was very pleased with this.

“Is the Book God Treasury really destroyed? May not, rather not, perhaps not.”

What? Mo Tianxuan was startled. The Book God Treasury wasn’t destroyed? How could that be?

In the Water God Cavern world, the Tree God’s beautiful face bloomed with joy. She managed to harvest two spirits that could be sold for a high price.

Staring at the seriously injured Glaze Fairy Deity in front of her, the Tree God licked her lips. “Be good and stay still. Shall I let you three keep one another company together?”

How rude! Glaze Fairy Deity’s face was extremely gloomy; she finally knew why Su Yu was so calm!

She wasn’t ambushing Su Yu, but he was ambushing her instead!

He killed two gods in a row, and the God Ripples would overwhelm the entire Great Eastern Alliance. It would surely alarm all the other gods.

Now, Su Yu didn’t need to ask each god for support. All the gods on the mainland would come to see him!

The thought made Glaze Fairy Deity’s head go cold, and the current situation was really as Su Yu said it would be.

He wasn’t going to visit any god because he would let all the gods in the sky personally come to him!

As one of the gods, Glaze Fairy Deity felt a dreadful chill throughout her body as she stared at Su Yu. How deep and how far could this person see into the future?

Could they really kill Su Yu?

Now, she really regretted agreeing with Qin Feichen’s method!

Now that this happened, was it possible to go anywhere else? Was there still room for a retreat?

“Don’t think you won, it’s not over yet!” Glaze Fairy Deity wiped the golden blood off the corner of her mouth and crushed a jade pendant.

The Tree God frowned and sped towards Glaze Fairy Deity like lightning.

The severely wounded Glaze Fairy Deity did not have the power to resist anymore and was about to be killed by the Tree God. But just then, a terrible divine power suddenly came out of nowhere!

A space ripple was generated from the crushed jade pendant. From inside the ripple emerged a woman with a black complexion and a leather coat.

That is the god, the goddess, and the fourth powerful god: Rakshasa Deity!

Upon her dark face, there were natural runes. Her eyes were covered in red blood, her pupils exuding a violent aura. At first glance, she did look like a demon.

After all, the rumors that the Rakshasa family and the Demon Clan share the same source existed for a reason.

At this moment, the Tree God sped forward and the Rakshasa Deity snorted. Her black palms moved swiftly like lightning and landed on the Tree God's arm.

The Tree God retreated backward screaming as if struck by an electric shock, and her right arm instantly rotted, gradually withered, and turned into ashes.

With her arm trembling and her vitality restored, the Tree God snorted as the decayed and withered arm re-grown from where it had degenerated.

Based on the casual look on her face, no one knew where it went now. Instead, she was trying hard to be dignified. Her figure flickered back to Su Yu as she said, "This person is very dangerous. You must retreat quickly while I stop her."

"Escape? Where can you escape?" Rakshasa Deity slowly said, her cold tyrannical voice exuding an extremely dangerous breath.

The Glazed Fairy Deity's heart was much more at ease upon seeing this.

She didn't want to expose the Rakshasa Deity. However, since things had gotten to this point, she had no choice but to ask the Rakshasa Deity to come forward.

With her attack, she could clean up all of them before all the other gods arrived.

Rakshasa Deity's crimson eyes gradually narrowed. In an instant, she passed through the Tree God and appeared in front of Su Yu!

Before the Tree God could react, Rakshasa Deity had already struck and killed Su Yu with a mere thought.

The Tree God was horrified. Not only was the Rakshasa Deity even stronger than expected, but she was also too fast!

She was not as strong to fight back, so she turned desperately to rescue Su Yu only to discover it was too late!

For a God to be panicking like this for Su Yu, it was too late for him to react. He could only feel a violent breath on him but couldn't react.

Slam!

Su Yu died, and nothing was left behind.

Upon witnessing this scene herself, the Glazed Fairy Deity breathed a sigh of relief. Su Yu, the most dangerous person, was finally gone.

It would've been better if the Tree God was removed as well, but it didn't really matter.

Conversely, she could also blame Su Yu for the death of the two gods, claiming that he and the Tree God were working together.

The Tree God's widened eyes were disoriented for a moment. She couldn't believe that Su Yu was dead.

To her, Su Yu was a clever guy who had nothing to do with this. He could predict everything and prepare for what will happen next in advance. Why wasn't he prepared for when the Rakshasa Deity appeared?

Rakshasa Deity faintly looked to the Tree God and said, "Now it's your turn ..."

Before the Rakshasa Deity could even finish her sentence, she suddenly looked back at the dregs that Su Yu left on the ground.

She saw an emerald-colored dragon walking through Su Yu's remaining dregs.

Immediately afterward, there came a strong will to reverse the cycle of life and death.

The emerald jade was wrapped in light, and the remaining dregs of Su Yu re-condensed into a physical body of Su Yu.

In the blink of an eye, he was resurrected!

The Glazed Fairy Deity and the Rakshasa Deity were briefly stunned as they witnessed this happening.

The ability to resurrect someone from the dead wasn't unusual in this world since the rebirth of the Phoenix is widely known.

However, Su Yu's ability to resurrect had never been heard of.

Rakshasa Deity quickly returned to her senses, and said lightly, "What's the point of resurrecting? I can just kill you again."

With those words, her mind moved again, and Su Yu was instantly killed.

However, before she struck, Su Yu suddenly created a colorful mountain in front of him. It was the Five Elements Mountain.

The Five Elements Mountain stood in front of Su Yu. Even though the Rakshasa Deity was strong, she couldn't penetrate the Five Elements Mountain and was thus blocked by it.

"Oh? An Unusual mountain and rocks." Rakshasa Deity said softly, "But you're only delaying your own death."

Call ——

After the Rakshasa Deity quickly bypassed the Five Elements Mountain, she moved in front of Su Yu and started the thought of the gods again.

But with such a long buffer time, the Tree God also responded. She flew over and dissolved the thought of Rakshasa Deity before directly fighting the Rakshasa Deity.

However, it was a mere three moves before the Tree God spit out blood and retreated back.

Looking back at Rakshasa Deity, her eyes were indifferent, and she was touching her back with one hand. She had countered with only one hand.

“Forget it, I shall send you both on the road at the same time,” Rakshasa Deity put down the other hand and decided to use both hands to kill them at the same time.

The Tree God laughed and said, “This time I’m really going to lose a lot!”

However, she chose not to escape despite being able to do so.

With a look of indifference, the Rakshasa Deity attacked the two intending to kill them. “Now, die!”.

Seeing that they were about to die, a familiar evil suddenly appeared!

Probing out of the invisible void was a dog claw that shielded Su Yu from the attack.

There were two muffled sounds, and the Tree God shook back and forth. The golden blood coming out of the corner of her mouth was thick, and the owner of the dog’s claws was badly shaken by Rakshasa Deity’s attack as well.

The evil god must have decided to return instead.

Chapter 1174

: Dalei’s Biological Mother

“You came back anyway.” Su Yu chortled, helpless. He didn’t expect him to stay behind after giving him the godly spirit and asked him to free himself from the vortex soon. He was following Su Yu the whole time and saved him at just the right time.

The Evil God said, “What are you talking about? What did you mean by coming back? I was just lost and happened to run into you.”

He laughed, his heart filled with gratitude. Su Yu raised a hand and with a wave, retrieved the long spear of Evil Fatal Energy. “You can have this. The evil energy on it should work if you use it.”

The Evil God took the long spear ungraciously, and said with his head raised, “Don’t misunderstand, I just didn’t like that black fellow. After I chase him away, I’ll leave.”

As he finished his words, the Evil God and the Tree Goddess struck at the same time.

Over the past four months, the Evil God had melted the godly spirit. Judging from his energy, he was still a long way from recovering the state of deity. With the long spear of Evil Fatal Energy in his hand, he managed to unleash a power as strong as the Tree Goddess!

The Rakshasa Deity creased his brows as his face changed to a stern look. Staring at the Evil God, he yelled, “What kind of deity or saint are you?”

The creature before him hadn’t attained the state of deity, yet he made him feel unusually dreadful.

“I am the divine emperor that kills the heavens and slaughters the lands!” The Evil God chuckled as he charged forward with the Evil Fatal long spear in his dog paw.

The Tree Goddess gritted her silver teeth and fought alongside the Evil God.

With their combined strength, they managed to reverse their loss to a certain extent.

Although they were still steadily losing ground and becoming more vulnerable in the face of the Rakshasa Deity, it seemed like they could go on for quite some time.

They became anxious. The Glaze Fairy Deity’s eyes glinted with a cold shine and teleported to the front of Su Yu as she yelled, “Go to Hell!”

He could already feel that the deities were on their way. Once they arrived, the Glaze Fairy Deity wouldn’t have a chance to strike anymore!

Su Yu vanished into the deepest part of the Five Elements Mountain without hesitation, arriving before the Mortal Fairy barrier.

The mighty Power of Five Elements of the Five Elements Mountain was secluded from the consciousness of deities, thus preventing the circumstances of being killed by the consciousness in seconds.

Frustrated, the Glaze Fairy Deity followed him closely into the mountain’s belly. The Power of Five Elements inside did not affect a deity like her at all. She only needed to teleport to reach the deepest part.

As she beheld the secluding barrier before her eyes, the Glaze Fairy Deity wondered aloud, “What a powerful secluding ward. It’s as strong as the ward of the Graves of Deities.”

She was slightly astounded by the fact that Su Yu entered the other side of the ward and ventured into the depths of the cave.

“Humph, he’s at the end of the road!” The Glaze Fairy Deity snorted coldly in disdain and teleported in as well while the ward was being frozen in place by the Power of Time.

Between breaths, the Glaze Fairy Deity had reached the deepest, dark regions.

At the deepest part, there was a divine transmission port that stopped operating. At a corner beside the transmission port, a skeleton made of jade sat on the ground with crossed legs.

“Are these the skeletal remains of the Flood Dragon Devil God?” The Glaze Fairy Deity was surprised. The devil race of flood dragons did not exist in the Great Eastern Alliance.

Besides, judging from the scent lingering around the skeletal remains, this devil god was considerably powerful back when he was alive.

At the same time, she found Su Yu standing before the skeleton of the flood dragon and paying his respects.

“Pleading a dead man for help when death is looking down upon him? How amusing...” The Glaze Fairy Deity snorted. However, she suddenly remembered that Su Yu had worshipped the graves of all deities during the Carnival of All Gods.

As a result, the consciousness of many deities jumped out from their graves and protected Su Yu, beating up the consciousness of the Book Deity’s family.

Oh no! The Glaze Fairy Deity’s face changed as she realized Su Yu’s intentions.

But Su Yu had finished worshiping. Looking at the skeletal remains before him, streaks of Gang Dale’s bloodline energy coursed through his body. Even though it was just an imitation, it could still fool the deity’s consciousness.

“Hope I’m right about this,” Su Yu thought to himself.

The Glaze Fairy Deity teleported over. She gave Su Yu no chance of preparation at all before using her palm to direct divine energy onto Su Yu’s back.

The impact would’ve destroyed both his soul and godly spirit!

Boom!

Her palm couldn’t reach Su Yu and was clasped by a white hand that had long been dead.

Despite the divine energy in the Glaze Fairy Deity’s palm, she could not break free from the white hand.

From the eyes of the flood dragon’s skeleton, two emerald flames were burning brightly. A deity’s consciousness that was about to dissipate could be faintly seen, flickering into and out of existence. It adhered to the skeleton, manipulating it to grip around the Glaze Fairy Deity’s hand.

“Let go of me!” The Glaze Fairy Deity bellowed. All of her divine energy surged towards her arm like a deluge in a futile attempt to get rid of the skeleton and the deity’s consciousness.

Much to her terror and shock, the white bony hand only tightened its grip around her and had channeled all of his divine energy!

“How is that possible?” The Glaze Fairy Deity was in utter despair. There was no way it could be that powerful; despite having the deity’s consciousness adhered to it, the deity’s skeletal remains were still dead.

Just like Dakinis, the skeletal remains were from the ancestors in the past. Even though the deities’ consciousness was attached to them, they had never been strong enough to tame him!

From what the Glaze Fairy Deity could sense, the skeletal remains before him were no weaker than the Original Form of Dakinis!

If so, then how powerful must the flood dragon have been while it was alive?

“Chi...Child...” The pure white skeleton of the flood dragon stood up slowly. Its emerald eyes gazing deeply at Su Yu as the deity’s consciousness gave off affection, remorse, and heartfelt feelings.

Those were the emotions a mother would feel for a child whom she hadn't met in a long time.

Su Yu had an apologetic look on his face. Just as expected, the white skeleton of the flood dragon was Gang Dalei's mother. That explained why Su Yu could awaken the deity's consciousness in the skeletal remains by imitating Gang Dalei's bloodline power.

In the past, Old Wine found a child with the head of a flood dragon and body of a human at a derelict transmission port and raised him.

The derelict transmission port happened to lead to the belly of the Five Elements Mountain.

Earlier, Su Yu had speculated that the skeleton's identity was a member of Gang Dalei's family, most likely his mother.

Judging from the situation then, this Flood Dragon Devil God could have fled with Gang Dalei. However, she eventually decided to send Gang Dalei away, staying behind to deal with something.

Now, it seemed like she was dealing with another oppressed flood dragon that had died underneath the mountain: the Green-Black Flood Dragon.

What kind of person would sacrifice themselves for a newborn child?

Apart from the selfless love of a mother, nothing else would, right?

"I am sorry, but I am not your child." As his thoughts shifted, Su Yu opened up the martial tower world and summoned Gang Dalei forth.

There were six breaths left till Time Freezing, enough for the mother and her son to meet up.

Gang Dalei showed up with a bewildered look on his face. "Brother Su, why did you call me out..."

He stopped and stared at the skeleton of the flood dragon before him as if he was in a trance. He muttered under his breath, "This scent is familiar, but why can't I remember where it came from?"

He scratched his head, feeling extremely puzzled.

The flood dragon's skeleton turned to look at Gang Dalei. Upon feeling the genuine connection of blood, the flood dragon's skeleton trembled lightly as she extended a bony claw to caress Gang Dalei's head.

Gang Dalei thought for a moment but did not dodge away. His intuition told him that the skeleton before him with a dragon's head and a human's body wasn't hostile towards him.

When the palm touched his head, Gang Dalei somehow began to shiver as well as moisture welled up uncontrollably in his eyes.

"How weird, why does it feel so warm and cordial... Wait, why am I crying? I didn't think I would cry!" Gang Dalei wondered strangely.

That was a physical reaction. Although Gang Dalei did not understand it, his body had produced a response towards it.

"Child..." The consciousness of the flood dragon's body called out in a low trembling voice.

Gang Dalei instantly shuddered as some information filled his mind. His mouth hung open, and he gasped in shock, "Are you my mother?"

He suddenly recalled where the familiar scent on her had come from; it was the scent imprinted on his soul right when he was born.

"Poor child..." The finger of the flood dragon's skeleton tapped on Gang Dalei's forehead, delivering streaks of golden light as though it was some kind of inheritance.

Su Yu was so envious of Gang Dalei, whose mother was a deity. Her deity's consciousness was most probably passing down all that she had to Gang Dalei at the moment.

It was true that one should not compare with other people and risk angering them. Goods should not be compared with other goods, or they would have to be thrown away!

The Glaze Fairy Deity's eyes shone with shrewdness. While the flood dragon's skeleton was busy passing down her legacies, she cut off her arm. At the same time, her consciousness swept around as she never forgot to take this opportunity to kill Su Yu.

However, the flood dragon's skeleton only turned indifferently to shoot her a look.

Pow!

The scene made Su Yu inhale a sharp cold breath. As a dignified deity, the Glaze Fairy Deity's divine soul did not even manage to escape before it was destroyed on the spot!!

What on earth was the background of the flood dragon's skeleton? Why was it so terrifying? Her mere consciousness could easily obliterate a living deity. If she was revived, wouldn't she have annihilated the Great Eastern Alliance?

Amidst his astonishment, the flood dragon's skeleton had finished passing down her legacies.

Her deity's consciousness appeared even more vulnerable now, on the verge of dissipating.

In the process of inheriting the legacies, Gang Dalei closed his eyes slowly. With tears trickling down his face, he whispered, "Mother..."

With the ending of the inheritance, he went into a deep sleep too.

The flood dragon's skeleton turned to look at Su Yu. With a raise of hand, the Power of Five Elements that could destroy Mortal Fairies dissipated.

"Thank you...for bringing me...my child..." The flood dragon's skeleton said the words intermittently.

Su Yu replied, "I have taken advantage of your feelings to help me destroy my enemy. I can't accept your gratitude."

The skeleton said, "Never...never mind... My only hope before I died was to meet my child once again, to impart the Divine Path of my life to him, and to tell him about what happened to him... However, my deity's consciousness was at the brink of disappearing, I couldn't wait till he came back..."

Su Yu thought, "Gang Dalei had grown up in the cavern world of the Zhenlong continent after he was born. How could he have returned to this place?"

But he had returned after his demise, and Gang Dalei's skeleton was here.

It was a pity that he was only left with skeletal remains but not bloodline power back then, therefore not awakening the deity's consciousness of the flood dragon's skeleton.

"Therefore...thank you so much... for bringing him to me..." The flood dragon's skeleton said with pauses, "As a token of gratitude, this Five Elements Mountain...will be under your care now..."

A delicate imprint flew out from between the skeleton's eyebrows and vanished into Su Yu's forehead.

All of a sudden, it seemed like Su Yu and the Five Elements Mountain shared an intimate relationship now.

The Black and the White Dust Immortals had studied the Five Elements Mountain for countless years but had never managed to refine it all this time, the reason could lie in this imprint.

This imprint was the only thing that could allow someone to gain control of the Five Elements Mountain.

"Thanks a lot, senior!" Su Yu was beside himself with joy.

Chapter 1175: The Truth Came to Light

The flood dragon's skeleton nodded. After giving away the imprint, her deity's consciousness became even more tenuous, on the verge of dissipating.

"Finally...Beware...of the Five Elements Divine Prison...don't believe anything you learn there..." Just before its consciousness dissipated, the flood dragon's skeleton looked at Su Yu holding the Five Elements Divine Prison in his arms.

There was the soul of a flood dragon there; it was that of the Green-Black Flood Dragon!

Once she finished speaking, the flood dragon's consciousness dissipated thoroughly, leaving her skeletal remains scattered all over the ground.

Su Yu bowed and paid his respect before quietly picking up the flood dragon's skeletal remains to be buried in the world of the martial tower. With Gang Dalei by her side, she could rest in peace.

As for the Green-Black Flood Dragon... Su Yu never trusted him.

Meanwhile, in the outside world...

Blood heavily poured all across the Glaze Fairy Deity's cavern world as countless creatures wailed in misery.

The divine light signifying the downfall of a deity radiated across the entire Great Eastern Alliance.

Everyone was mortified by this news!

Three deities had perished in only one day!

The many creatures would never forget this day for as long as they lived!

The heavens were dropping tears of blood, and all the lives in the world were tearing.

With earnest and anxious looks on their faces, the deities hurried over.

Unless the demons invaded, how could the three deities have perished one after another?

The Rakshasa Deity struck continuously, attacking the Tree Goddess and the Evil God until they were gradually losing ground, both of them close to defeat.

But the Glaze Fairy Deity happened to perish at the same time!

The Rakshasa Deity's face changed dramatically as he stared at the belly of the Five Elements Mountain with great shock in his eyes. The moment the Glaze Fairy Deity passed away, the Rakshasa Deity felt a wave of terrifying energy flickering past.

The energy overrode even the Dakini!

With the advent of the immense aura of deities, the Rakshasa Deity knew that he wouldn't be able to kill Su Yu in time. Thus, he hastily retreated after defeating the two deities.

The Tree Goddess and the Evil God heaved a long sigh of relief.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Numerous dense beams of divine light struck down rapidly, surrounding the Tree Goddess and the Evil God at the center.

The Dakini, the All-Access Merchant God, the Sheng Deity, the Sword Deity, and even the lower-ranking deities closely watched the two of them.

Unfamiliar deities, unfamiliar vibes, and the Tree Goddess even carried the divine souls of two other deities!

"Where have you deities come from? How could you start a killing spree within the Great Eastern Alliance?" The Sheng Deity's eyes were murderous, especially when she sensed that these two deities were no amateurs.

The deity in the emerald dress appeared weak and delicate, but her capacity could be amongst the top nine deities. Apart from the top three deities, the other deities weren't so confident that they would triumph over her.

As for the giant dog... It made them fear even more.

Even though it hadn't passed the stage of Prospective Deity, the unusual feeling of dread it gave them was far greater than the female deity.

The Tree Goddess flared her nostrils. "Are you people insane? It was your deities who were chasing after us, besieging us, and blocking our way! A black man whose plastic surgery had failed appeared out of nowhere!"

The Evil God only smiled without saying a word. The evil energy that he emitted was enough to instill fear.

Right when the two groups of deities were prepared to fight, Su Yu walked out of the Five Elements Mountain. As his thoughts shifted to something else, the Five Elements Mountain obediently shrank to the size of a palm and fell into his hands, which he stored inside the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl.

“Su Yu!” All the deities gasped in shock.

Even the Sheng Deity was taken aback. She knew that Su Yu hadn’t run away, but was in the Graveyard of All Deities with her daughter and the Jing Deity.

It was because of that which surprised her even more. Why was he here? And what was his relationship with both this deity and the Prospective Deity?

The people exchanged puzzled glances and looked at Su Yu, then discussed their opinions with one another.

Logically speaking, Su Yu was a wanted criminal at the moment. They should’ve seized him upon seeing him, but no one was willing to act.

All the deities would always remember Su Yu’s kindness in destroying the Book Deity’s Treasury.

They were interrupted by the anguished man making a sound.

“Mighty deities above, Su Yu has murdered a law enforcer and breached the Alliance Treaty of the Hundred Deities. He should be sentenced to death here and now!” Qin Feichen growled to the heavens.

Chaos broke out where all the deities were gathered at once. It was way beyond his control, and he only hoped that the deities were decisive enough in acting.

If he did not speak, perhaps some deity was already all geared up to give Su Yu a clean death.

But hearing that the heir of the Book Deity’s family was urging for this to happen, they kept their hands in their sleeves and stood aside, looking serene and unbothered.

The awkward scene ensued followed by a brief silence before the head of all deities, the Dakini, eventually spoke.

“Su Yu, the Book Deity’s family has accused you of breaching the Alliance Treaty of the Hundred Deities and murdering a law enforcer. Is that true?” The Dakini gave off a pure, sacred brilliance as she always did.

Instead of immediately answering, Su Yu asked in response, “If I may, what would happen if a law enforcer himself had violated the laws and committed unforgivable crimes? Would a bystander be considered breaching the Alliance Treaty of the Hundred Deities for stepping forth and stopping the criminal?”

This particular point had been emphasized when the Alliance Treaty of the Hundred Deities was formulated.

The Dakini replied, “If the mistakes he had committed were more significant compared to murdering a law enforcer, then the crime of the culprit cannot be exempted.”

“Well, that’s a relief!” Su Yu said dispassionately, “You’re right, I killed Qin Kuo!”

The deities were unsurprised by upon hearing this since there was solid evidence that proved it.

The Dakini quietly retrieved a Light Returning Mirror and hurled it at Su Yu.

The scenes of Su Yu killing Qin Kuo were displayed in great detail.

"I am glad that you were brave enough to admit to your crimes instead of trying to absolve yourself from the responsibility," the Dakini said, "Since the charge has been validated, you will be punished according to the Alliance Treaty of the Hundred Deities."

Upon finishing, the Dakini maneuvered her will and prepared to kill Su Yu from across the air.

"Have you never thought of why there is only a brief scene of me killing Qin Kuo? Without any causes or effects shown?" Su Yu looked indifferent.

The Dakini asked, "Do you wish to defend yourself?"

"Why would I? I was never at fault," Su Yu responded.

Since the situation was getting worse, Qin Feichen chipped in hurriedly, "Lady Dakini, do not be fooled by his evil doctrine. He is saying this to get away with his crimes!"

"On behalf of the Book Deity's family, I sincerely plead Lady Dakini to adhere to the Alliance Treaty of the Hundred Deities and punish him!"

The Dakini shot a look at Su Yu and said, "If you have nothing else to say, then I shall execute you according to the Alliance Treaty of the Hundred Deities."

"What I have to say is very simple. As a law enforcer, Qin Kuo colluded with the demon race. While I was killing the demons, he stopped me with his identity as a law enforcer. When I insisted to kill the demons, he attempted to kill me instead!" Su Yu said.

Upon hearing that, all the deities raised their brows.

A law enforcer colluding with the demons? That was major news.

A law enforcer was a reliable and trustworthy person selected by the deities from their cavern worlds.

If a law enforcer had colluded with the demon race, what about the deity above him?

"What a joke. Words mean nothing without evidence. Do you think that you can calumniate the law enforcers of my family with mere nonsense?" Qin Feichen sneered.

If Su Yu wanted proof, he would have to head back to Jiuzhou to get the Light Returning Mirror.

It would've taken him more than half a year to go there then return.

"Do you have proof?" The Dakini asked.

Su Yu shook his head. "It isn't with me."

Qin Feichen sneered again. “You expect us to wait for half a year? Don’t brandish such a petty time-delaying trick in front of the deities. You’ll end up a laughing stock!”

Su Yu shot him a nonchalant glance and said, “I only said that the proof isn’t with me, but that doesn’t mean it is not with anyone else either.”

When he was done speaking, his gaze drifted afar to where the figures of a man and a woman were streaking across the sky and heading towards them.

“Feather Deity, the mission was accomplished,” The Great Emperor of Ghost Prison was calm and composed in the face of all the deities, even when his Ghost Deity father was among them.

Jian Wusheng had an air of indifference about her and did not do anything out of place. She only stood quietly behind Su Yu.

“Thank you both for your efforts,” Su Yu accepted the Light Returning Mirror from the Great Emperor of Ghost Prison and instilled a streak of All Creations Strength into it. An extended scene flickered into view.

Right when Su Yu was about to kill the Central Prefecture’s King, Qin Kuo showed up out of nowhere and pridefully demanded to take him away. His attitude was arrogant and unbridled.

The deities scowled upon watching the scene. Law enforcers were supposed to kill demons unless it was a specific demon that was wanted.

Otherwise, all of them should’ve been killed on the spot; in no circumstances should they have been captured alive and brought back for interrogation.

“Qin Kuo is crazy,” the deities thought to themselves.

Additionally, the words he said while sneering when the Central Prefecture’s King walked to Su Yu’s side were clearly captured by the Light Returning Mirror.

“The waters of Jiuzhou are deep~” It was a concise statement, but it revealed far too much important information. From Central Prefecture’s King’s expression, he might have known he had been saved!

Having watched the scene, the people almost believed all of it.

Then when Su Yu killed the Central Prefecture’s King, Qin Kuo fumed with rage out of shame. Not only did he insult Su Yu, but his murderous intention became clear to see.

By then, even an idiot would understand that Qin Kuo was extremely suspicious.

He was covering up for the demon race!

Some deities who abhorred evil like deadly foes growled in rage, “How dare he!” The existence of law enforcers was to destroy demons, but it turned out that a law enforcer was colluding with the demon race and even intended to release a demon.

Swish! Swish!

All of a sudden, countless pairs of eyes were glaring at Qin Feichen.

The Sword Deity squinted his eyes and sneered, his murderous intention clear on his face.

“One of your people had been colluding with the demon race, but you deliberately left out the truth, only keeping the scene in which Su Yu killed Qin Kuo, trying to kill a kind innocent life with the hands of all the deities! You, deserve to die ten thousand times for your sins!”

Upon finishing his words, the Sword Deity wanted to launch his attack, but Su Yu said, “Hold on, Sword Deity, the matter isn’t over yet!”

Among the deity’s descendants that later came forward, Sheng Yuanxin received the notion from Su Yu and her mother, displaying the evidence she gathered one by one.

“Reporting to all deities, I have been secretly investigating this matter for a long time and have ascertained that Qin Kuo headed for Jiuzhou to rescue the demons. This was no coincidence, and it involved the deities of our Great Eastern Alliance. This matter had occurred under their instruction,” Sheng Yuanxin explained.

The deities were stupefied. “So deities were involved in this after all! Tell us more!”

“Firstly, the Book Deity’s family instigated all of this; this can be confirmed by interrogating Qin Feichen! Secondly, the Glaze Fairy Deity’s family was involved; this can be confirmed by interrogating Law Enforcer Glaze since he traveled to Jiuzhou to execute missions! Both are under suspicion of colluding with the demon race!”

His game was now as good as lost. Cruelty flickered in Qin Feichen’s eyes as his lips moved as if he was chewing a certain kind of acute poison in his mouth, in an attempt to commit suicide right then to prevent embroiling the others.

Sadly, how could a small trick like that not be found out by the deities that disliked him from way earlier on?

Bang!

The Sword Deity’s eyes flashed as he shot out a pair of swords made of light, which pierced right through his neck and pinned him onto the ground.

The poison in his mouth flowed to his neck but was held back by the swords so the medicinal effect could not reach into his body.

At the same time, God Kylin also presented Glaze’s soul.

The deities began using their abilities to interrogated them on the spot. Just what exactly were the suspects hiding?

Things wouldn’t be unveiled without investigation, and all the deities at the scene were startled after the interrogation.

The deity that had been involved in the case included the fourth-ranking deity, the Rakshasa Deity!

She was the true mastermind behind the events!

Given the information that Sheng Yuanxin provided, the demon whom they rescued together was most likely the Rakshasa Deity's child who also had the mixed blood of demon!

Sheng Yuanxin shifted her gaze and met Su Yu's eyes before reporting another significant matter.

"The Book Deity's Treasury was also established because of the treaty which the Rakshasa Deity's family had signed with the Glaze Fairy Deity's and the Book Deity's families a few generations ago."

"With the Rakshasa Deity supporting them, the Book Deity's Treasury was successfully built to probe the secrets of all the deities and get hold of their weaknesses. How horrible!"

The deities felt chills cascading down their spines when they heard about the birth of the child of the Rakshasa Deity and the Demon God.

If the Rakshasa Deity had divulged their weaknesses to the demon race, then...

The mere thought of it made the deities ill at ease, as though a great crisis loomed over them.

Many among them had lethal weaknesses. If the demon race found out about them, they could be easily obliterated.

"The Book Deity's family had malicious intentions!" Some deities growled as they could not suppress their anger any longer, although the Dakini with mighty motherly love was around.

"We should have destroyed the Book Deity's Treasury together back then, but because of the warning by the Rakshasa Deity, we didn't act! So it turns out that she is one of the bad guys!"

"They are an ungrateful, treacherous deity's family that cultivates and thrives using our resources and conspired to harm the entire continent! They should die a thousand times with no chance of absolving from the blame!"

...

The crowd bustled with rage and agitation. Su Yu added, "I'm afraid it didn't just involve the three deities. Just a while ago, the Rakshasa Deity, the Glaze Fairy Deity, the Water deity and the Rock Deity have been chasing after me and hindering my way, trying to stop me from revealing the truth to all the other deities!"

"All deities should carry out a thorough investigation to find out if they have accomplices. These scumbags from the Great Eastern Alliance should be eradicated once and for all!"

The Water Deity and the Rock Deity had participated as well? As the thought occurred to them, the deities exploded in rage.

They never expected the demon race to have infiltrated the Great Eastern Alliance to such a terrible extent!

All deities looked over at the Dakini, waiting for her to make the final decision.

The Dakini glanced around at the deities and heaved a soft sigh. "As deities, is it necessary for us to be at one another's throats?"

It seemed that she did not have the heart to hurt anyone.

This time, the deities could not bear with the Dakini's compassion anymore.

One by one, they implored, "The demon race isn't horrendous, but what is horrendous is the remaining sinners of the demon race that have disguised themselves as our allies. Dakini, if you cannot bring yourself to do it, we can take it upon ourselves to get rid of these evildoers!"

One deity said that, and then two deities repeated it. Even if the Dakini was a Virgin Mary, she could only say, "Fine, it will be executed according to the Alliance Treaty of the Hundred Deities!"

Su Yu cast a stare at the Dakini and sneered inwardly. How could a motherly figure who couldn't even distinguish her enemies from her allies lead a bunch of deities?

Had they not found this out sooner, those traitors would act in concert with the enemies outside and slaughtered every last one of them once the demon race invaded with overwhelming forces.

By then, would the Dakini even have a chance to display her indiscriminate love for humanity?

When Su Yu was accused of murdering Qin Kuo a while ago, the Dakini didn't show him any mercy or forgiveness. She had ordered the Alliance Treaty of the Hundred Deities to be executed herself.

"She's merciful to the enemies but merciless to her own. Ha! What a hypocritical great mother she is!" Su Yu thought.

However, Su Yu knew this wasn't the appropriate time to reveal his hostility.

Once the deities took it upon themselves to carry out the investigation, was there anything they couldn't find out?

Aside from ascertaining the involvement of the Water Deity and the Rock Deity, they had found that three other deities' families were related to the case.

The three deities hoped that they could get away with it, only fleeing at the last moment when they were caught.

The consequences were clear; all of them were killed by the exasperated deities, with their bodies and souls perishing together!

A relentless downpour of blood befell the three cavern worlds.

The entire Great Eastern Alliance was seething in great shock, terror, and distress!

Six lofty, noble deities had passed away in a day!

It was like a blood purge among the deities. As Su Yu had said, he was going to cause an immense rain of divine blood in the Great Eastern Alliance to cleanse the filth and impurities of the hundred deities.

Meanwhile, the families of the six deities had suffered callous devastation!

The immediate heirs were slaughtered, with not a single one of them spared!

A massive amount of bloodshed that had not been seen in ages had arisen in the Great Eastern Alliance.

The only piteous part that should be considered was that the Rakshasa Deity had fled into the vast, desolate galaxies with a Divine Bone Ship which she robbed at the harbor, and the deities did not manage to hunt her down in time.

How frightening the fourth-ranking Rakshasa Deity did not need elaborate explanation. If she was lying in ambush somewhere and jumped out to wreak havoc all of a sudden, only a handful of deities would be capable of dealing with her.

To exterminate the crisis, the Great Eastern Alliance constructed a hunting squad of nine deities that went into the galaxies by riding the Divine Bone Ship, led by the All-Access Merchant God and the Sheng Deity.

While the nine deities were all excited to hunt her down, only one of them looked very reluctant judging from their gloomy expression.

“Why did you have to bring me?!” Su Yu was indignant.

In the conference of all deities, Su Yu was selected as an honored member of the hunting squad with 99% of the votes, with Su Yu himself being the only one who objected.

The deities smiled, deliberately ignoring Su Yu’s grudging look.

It was obvious that they did this because they were worried to leave Su Yu behind in the Great Eastern Alliance!

In just two years, how much commotion and havoc had he roused in the Great Eastern Alliance? Back then he incited the great war between the two deities Crane and Jing, and now he set off infighting among the deities.

If no one kept an eye on him, they were afraid that once they were gone, Su Yu would bring another major chaos upon the Great Eastern Alliance.

Therefore, they were afraid yet fond of this “disaster” at the same time, so their best option was to bring him along.

Sheng Yuanxin squatted before Su Yu with her hands beneath her chin. “Don’t get mad, we might need to venture through many regions during this hunt. The galaxies are vast; it is more than just the Great Eastern Alliance,” she comforted him with a smile.

The descendants of several deities had joined the hunt this time as well. They were not expected to bring any advantage, but to gain experience and widen their horizon.

Su Yu snorted. He was figuring out a way to get hold of those six cavern worlds of the deities in total, along with that of the Rakshasa Deity. But having been taken away while he was still planning, his displeasure was understandable.

Sheng Yuanxin giggled as she saw the look on Su Yu’s face. Casting a glance at Qin Feichen, who was all tied up and whose cultivation was disabled, Sheng Yuanxin blinked her pretty eyes. “By the way, why did you spare his life alone the other day?”

The deity's descendants who had participated in the conspiracy were bound for a death sentence. Even though Qin Feichen was certainly the biggest criminal, but Su Yu had pleaded to spare him.

Upon hearing that, Su Yu chortled rather callously, "Have you not heard of the saying? The roots of weeds must be eradicated, and evil must be thoroughly wiped out. Have you forgotten that the Book Deity is still wandering at large in this world?"

"You know where he is?" Sheng Yuanxin queried with curiosity.

Su Yu sneered. "If I'm right, we can find his footprints along with the Rakshasa Deity's at a particular place!"

"Where?" Sheng Yuanxin was energized all of a sudden.

She believed Su Yu almost unsparingly when talking to him now. All of their past experiences had proven that Su Yu's speculation had never been erroneous!

"The World of Divine Remains!"

Chapter 1177: Domain of Life

Su Yu stated the name of a place with confidence and certainty.

Sheng Yuanxin's crystal eyes flashed for a second. The World of Divine Remains was not only the darkest and most chaotic region in the galaxies but also one of the destinations of their trip this time.

According to the outcome of the discussion, the deities thought that the place that the Rakshasa Deity most likely escaped to was the World of Divine Remains.

That was the sanctuary of the traitors of all the cavern worlds. Nobody would dare step into to capture them, and the Great Eastern Alliance was no exception.

The World of Divine Remains was considered a paradise for sinners.

If the Rakshasa Deity wished to evade the hunting completely, she could only hide in the World of Divine Remains, a place forsaken by all deities.

But Sheng Yuanxin wasn't stupid either. She said with some doubt, "The Rakshasa Deity has most likely escaped to the World of Divine Remains, but the Book Deity..."

"I'm afraid he is unaware of what happened lately. He doesn't even know that the Book Deity's family has been annihilated."

"He could be heading back to the Great Eastern Alliance right now, so how can you be sure that he is at the World of Divine Remains?"

Su Yu smiled and pointed at his head. "Think from his perspective. If I were the Book Deity and have been secretly plotting against the alliance the whole time, then I would never leave the alliance behind and aimlessly wander out there. I'd have to at least be updated with the situation of the alliance and the important tidings."

“So unless this Book Deity is an idiot, he would most likely find ways to learn of the happenstances of the alliance continent. Since it has been seven days since the bloodshed of deities occurred, the news will reach the galaxies faster than us.”

“If the Book Deity knows about it, he would find the safest place in the galaxies. And that place, without a doubt, is the World of Divine Remains.”

When she finished listening to Su Yu’s analysis, Sheng Yuanxin blinked. She thought to herself that although it sounded kind of forced, it was quite reasonable and logical upon rumination.

Based on what Sheng Yuanxin knew, the Divine Path that all the Book Deities in the past walked on was the Path of Books. They were extremely knowledgeable and intelligent, the past Book Deities even more so. Not a single one wasn’t knowledgeable.

Therefore, the Book Deity could likely be hiding in the World of Divine Remains.

“In that case, did you abduct Qin Feichen here to lure out the Book Deity?” Sheng Yuanxin fathomed Su Yu’s intention, finally understanding why he spared Qin Feichen’s life.

What further frustrated Sheng Yuanxin was that Su Yu shook his head and said with half a smile, “With the Book Deity’s wisdom, an inferior trick to draw the snake out of the hole like that will only grant him the opportunity to strike. I have spared him for other purposes.”

“It’s so unfair how you can always correctly guess what others think while no one can guess what you think!” Shooting a vexed glare at Su Yu, Sheng Yuanxin got up and ran to the ship deck. She told the nine deities about Su Yu’s thoughts.

Su Yu shrugged. He got up and gazed into the pitch-black galaxies, his eyes filled with an intent brooding look.

He wasn’t completely helpless when he was forced to board the ship this time.

If he had stayed behind in the Great Eastern Alliance and the Rakshasa Deity had come to seek her revenge, no one could protect him. If he followed the nine deities instead, the Rakshasa Deity could do him no harm.

Another reason that made him join the squad was because of the Dakini!

For some unknown reasons, the deity made Su Yu feel deeply insecure. Su Yu’s intuition told him that he should keep a wide berth from the deity.

“Hope that the intelligence system that stays in the Alliance can find out enough information about this deity,” Su Yu thought to himself. Before leaving the Great Eastern Alliance, Su Yu had settled down in the Crane Deity’s family and entrusted Yang Tai and Wang Yunxuan to take care of him.

The intelligence system that he established on his own was lying in ambush, secretly investigating everything about the Dakini.

By the time Su Yu returned, there must've been adequate information already, and he could analyze this Dakini with mighty motherly love.

Qin Feichen stared at Su Yu with intense enmity as he remarked with contempt. "Su Yu! If you are trying to lure my father out with me, you can forget about it. You will never be as wise and clever as my father, he will not be fooled by you!"

Su Yu smiled brightly enough for someone to feel hints of iciness. "Why do you all think that I'm using you as bait? Haha..."

Looking at Su Yu's smile, Qin Feichen's heart skipped a beat as a great sense of insecurity set in.

Upon returning to the warehouse, three people were standing in Su Yu's house.

They were the killer of the Netherworld Faction Black Phoenix, and the Black and the White Dust Immortals.

"Have you finished thinking about it?" Su Yu stared at the Black and the White Dust Immortals.

The Black Dust Immortal exchanged a glance with the White Dust Immortal as they both knelt to the ground. "The two of us are willing to serve Mister Su."

"Great. In that case, you must now be transplanted with the godly spirits of Prospective Deities," Su Yu flashed a smile.

After careful contemplation, Su Yu had decided to pass Jingang's godly spirit and the daughter of the Glaze Fairy Deity's godly spirit to the two of them.

The person he anticipated the most was Xian-er.

After all, she was the one that he loved most. If she received the godly spirit of a Prospective Deity, she was guaranteed to become a deity in the future.

However, Xian-er declined. She had activated the bloodline of the dead phoenix, all she needed now was quiet training, and becoming a Prospective Deity wouldn't be too difficult for her.

Even though getting a transplant of godly spirit was a splendid shortcut to becoming a deity, the body's nature would be wasted. Even if one became a deity, they would have limited capabilities.

Besides her, he wanted to perform the transplant on the Great Emperor of Ghost Prison and Jian Wusheng.

The Great Emperor of Ghost Prison was tempted, but the properties of the two godly spirits did not match his own as he was the son of the Ghost God. Thus, the transplantation was not feasible.

Jian Wusheng was tempted as well but chose to give up in the end. She was still young and stood a chance of becoming a deity.

Finally, Su Yu found the Black and the White Dust Immortals. The two of them had selflessly and courageously aided him in the final battle in Jiuzhou, so they were worth Su Yu's trust.

Having been informed of Su Yu's decision, the Black and the White Dust Immortals were overjoyed.

At their age, they only managed to attain First State Mortal Fairy with years of training. Even with the resources provided by the Great Eastern Alliance, they could only accomplish Third State Mortal Fairy, which was far less efficient compared to younger ones like the Great Emperor of Ghost Prison and Jian Wusheng, who had attained Peak Mortal Fairy.

They dared not have unrealistic expectations of becoming deities. Now that Su Yu gave them such an opportunity, they were definitely in seventh heaven.

“Alright, you may divide between yourselves two godly spirits, each representing one type of Divine Path. I hope that when we next meet, you will surprise me,” Su Yu said.

The Dust Immortals were extremely grateful. Having accepted the godly spirits, they were ready to head back to the world of the martial tower to quietly refine and reinforce them.

All of a sudden, the look in the Dust Immortals’ eyes turned solemn. “Master, there is something that we need to report to you. We feel that the elapse of life has become more rapid lately.”

What? Su Yu raised his brows. The only possible reason for such an occurrence was that the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy was approaching.

“We’re thinking that the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy might also have left the Great Eastern Alliance and entered the galaxies already.”

The Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy... Complex emotions filled Su Yu’s eyes as he said, “Alright, I know now.”

Waving his sleeve, Su Yu sent the two Dust Immortals back into the martial tower world while recollecting his thoughts and starting his training in silence.

With the four months of training in the Divine Graveyard, a breakthrough into Stage Five All Creations was bound to happen.

A month later, intense waves of All Creations surged all over Su Yu’s body, and a concrete crown surrounded his head.

“Congratulations, Master, you are not far from Peak All Creations now. I believe that soon, you will be breaking into the stat of Mortal Fairies,” the Black Phoenix complimented tenderly.

Su Yu nodded. “Yes, my cultivation has gone up, but my overall capacity seems to not have risen conspicuously. It is time to try using the Divine Blood.”

Upon finishing, Su Yu retrieved a vessel filled with the divine blood he collected when the Water Deity perished and the blood rained down from heavens.

He had collected a vessel full of blood rain, but it had been condensed into ten drops of divine blood now. Those were the real essence of the Water Deity’s divine blood.

With the divine blood entwined around his fingers, he inserted the ten drops of divine blood into the spot between his brows. The divine blood was naturally absorbed into the Divine Nine-Dragon Cauldron, which had been dried up and withered for a long time.

The divine blood was diluted, filling a tenth of the divine cauldron.

The dilute divine blood which hadn't be seen for a long time trickled down the wall of the cauldron, flowing past the Dragon of Life, the emerald dragon. The remaining one-third was crystallized.

Up to this point, the emerald dragon was completely crystallized. A massive amount of unfamiliar information filled Su Yu's mind, apparently explaining the unique abilities endowed by the Divine Nine-Dragon Cauldron.

Back when a third of it was crystallized, Su Yu had gained the ability to bring things back to life. When it was two-thirds, he acquired the Heart of Eternity. Now that it was completely crystallized, Su Yu had obtained the Domain of Life.

This made Su Yu jump with excitement.

Chapter 1178: Encamping in the Divine World

The Domain of Life was built upon Revival and the Heart of Eternity. Once performed, a domain would materialize with Su Yu at the center. The person amidst the domain would be endowed with eternity and would neither die nor perish.

The domain could only be performed once a day and last for just a short time.

In other words, within that period, no one in the world would be able to kill Su Yu and those shrouded in the domain unless there came a force that surpassed that of the Divine Nine-Dragon Cauldron.

Having acquired such an ability, Su Yu was greatly surprised. If it was true, did that mean that he could be carefree for a short time even if deities came attacking him?

"It came at the perfect time," Su Yu thought to himself. The trip to the World of Divine Remains this time would be filled with perils everywhere, but he would gain the vantage point with such a life-saving skill.

Half a year had passed.

The battleship of the hunting squad had crossed half of the galaxy chasing after the Rakshasa Deity and arrived at the central region of the galaxy.

That was the darkest central area of the galaxy, the World of Divine Remains!

The World of Divine Remains was just like the Great Eastern Alliance, built from the alliance of many cavern worlds to form a broad expanse of territory that comprised of nine joint cavern worlds.

It was shaped like an island amidst the vast and desolate galaxies, giving off brilliance.

Somewhere in the World of Divine Remains, the Rakshasa Deity who fled all the way there had a dark face full of anger and hatred. Across from her sat the Book Deity, who looked calm and unruffled.

"How abominable! The plans we made these past decades have gone down the drain overnight!" The Rakshasa Deity emitted an air of menacing ferocity as she said in anger, "All thanks to that garbage heir of yours!"

“If he hadn’t been hellbent on having things go his way and discussed with me instead of deciding to get into a major war with Su Yu all by himself, we wouldn’t have been exposed!”

If Qin Feichen hadn’t taken the risk, things would never have turned out this way.

The Book Deity sitting opposite from her was calm and at ease. Although he had been informed of the destruction of the Book Deity’s family and that the Book Deity’s Treasury which he had spent years of efforts in building, he remained abnormally composed and placid.

“What Feichen did wasn’t with his influence, but him as a person. He was no match for Su Yu; despite having the upper hand, he was defeated beyond redemption. Even if an heir like him survived, he wouldn’t make a qualified Book Deity,” the Book Deity stated with indifference, “Since the problem has arisen, now it’s about how to rectify it.”

The Rakshasa Deity sneered. “Rectify? Our foundation has been obliterated! How are we supposed to rectify it?”

“The Demonic Dimension!” The Book Deity uttered three succinct words.

Upon hearing that, the Rakshasa Deity’s face grew solemn. In a low voice, she said, “We have indeed become planted agents of the demon race in the Great Eastern Alliance.”

“However, now that we have been expelled from the Alliance, I am afraid that what awaits us when we head for the Demonic Dimension isn’t a meeting. It will be murder because we have two lethal shortcomings.”

“As far as the Demonic Dimension is concerned, we have lost our worth for utilization.”

“Additionally, the Demonic Dimension could never trust us completely.”

The Book Deity’s eyes gleamed with calmness and wisdom. “What if we go forth with contributions?”

“Where would the contributions come from?” The Rakshasa Deity questioned in response.

The Book Deity replied placidly, “The Great Eastern Alliance must have sent deities after you. At this point, they should be here anytime soon.”

“If we manage to capture all of the deities who come here at once, that could prove our worth. The demon race is about to attack the Great Eastern Alliance, so they can’t afford to lose any loyal people with value.”

If they could carry the heads of all the deities to the Demonic Dimension, it could prove both their sincerity and the value of their capabilities.

The Rakshasa Deity shook her head coldly to what he said. “You are too naive. The deities who came after me are most likely to be the Sheng Deity or the All Access Merchant God, or they could have teamed up. Along with perhaps more than five other deities at their side, we can never cause them any harm just by our strength alone!”

The Book Deity flashed a placid smile. “Have you forgotten where this place is? Killing five deities is never a problem.”

This was the World of Divine Remains!

The Book Deity was taken aback for a moment before the corners of her lips slowly curled into a fierce, sly smile.

The Book Deity said calmly, “We shouldn’t fear that they’ll come, we should fear that they have no guts to come.”

Su Yu had been silently training for half a year and had touched the border of Peak All Creations. He would most likely attain Peak All Creations very soon.

“Su Yu, Miss Yuanxin has been here. If you’re awake, please head for the main deck. The deities are discussing the plan for disembarking,” the Black Phoenix notified him gently.

Had they arrived?

Upon arriving at the main deck, the All Access Merchant God, the Sheng Deity, and the nine other deities had discussed up to the ending part. Su Yu’s participation did not seem to be needed much.

They had never expected Su Yu to contribute much. After all, this was a war among deities.

“You’re here. Through the intelligence system of the All Access Merchant God stationed in the World of Divine Remains, we have found out that the Rakshasa Deity and the Book Deity have been hiding in the World of Divine Remains.”

The Sheng Deity was inwardly surprised as she looked at Su Yu. The other deities had praising looks on their faces as well.

Previously, when Su Yu thought that the Book Deity must be in the World of Divine Remains, they did not believe him completely.

It turned out that all of it was just as Su Yu had predicted. They had encountered the Rakshasa Deity and the Book Deity in the World of Divine Remains at the same time.

After a pause, the Sheng Deity said, “We will reach the World of Divine Remains in a couple of days.”

“Considering the hostility of the World of Divine Remains towards the Great Eastern Alliance, we have decided to abandon the ship and disguise ourselves as commoners to enter the World of Divine Remains to avoid raising commotion and alarming the enemies.”

They used to form an organization of deities to send a punitive expedition against the World of Divine Remains, which ended in them suffering a major defeat and fleeing. A handful of deities were sacrificed in the process.

The horrifying history had made them lose the courage to venture in again without careful preparation.

“Are you going to stay onboard or head for the World of Divine Remains along with us?” The Sheng Deity asked.

Su Yu nodded, “The rise and fall of an alliance is the shared responsibility of every individual. Of course I’m going to the World of Divine Remains myself.”

The Sheng Deity nodded. “Alright then. You should disguise yourself too and join us.”

What stunned the Sheng Deity and the rest of the deities was when Su Yu queried, “Disguise myself and accompany you as we suffer total destruction together?”

“What makes you say that?” The Sheng Deity was a little shocked.

The other deities were shocked as well. Luckily, Su Yu was a shrewd and resourceful man. Since there must be a reason behind his words, they quietly listened.

Su Yu chuckled as he asked, “Was it that hard to understand? If I were the Book Deity and the Rakshasa Deity, I would have expected your arrival! They have two options; either run away immediately or seek shelter in the Demonic Dimension.”

“If they chose to run away, they wouldn’t have waited until you found their footprints without taking any action. Thus, they obviously chose to seek shelter from the Demonic Dimension!”

“Having been expelled, they still have lost their value to the Demonic Dimension and cannot be trusted. If they have simply gone to the Demonic Dimension, they would probably end up as nourishment to the Demon God.”

“Therefore, if the Book Deity is smart enough, he would bring a gift along with him as he visits. In that case, aren’t you the best gift he could afford?”

When they finished listening to Su Yu’s explanation, the deities exchanged shocked and doubtful glances with each other.

The All-Access Merchant God had an admiring smile on his face. “Why are you so certain that they dare to attack us?”

“Because based on the former Book Deities’ act of creating the Book Deity’s Treasury, there are two common features of all the Book Deities!”

“Firstly, they are so clever that they could look down on all other deities! Secondly, they’re courageous enough to go against the rules of the world and built the Book Deity’s Treasury in a well-ordered, methodical way!”

“A clever man with great ambitions has an enormous shortcoming, however; they tend to take big risks!”

The All-Access Merchant God’s eyes glinted with brilliance, he couldn’t help but applaud and laugh. “No wonder you were the man recommended by my son Yang Tai! You are exceptionally clever indeed! You’re right, the greatest shortcoming of a clever and ambitious man is that they take big risks!”

He was extremely convinced because the All-Access Merchant God was that kind of person.

Su Yu said, “Not only would the Book Deity not run away, but he would also make you his targets instead. He is most likely setting up a trap for you to jump right into.”

Sheng Yuanxin felt unhappy seeing how Su Yu was presenting his ideas with perfect eloquence while the others were listening attentively.

She said, “But this time, we are going to disguise ourselves before entering the World of Divine Remains. Even if the Book Deity has set up a trap for us, how could he guard against us?”

Su Yu smiled. “Do you think that with the Book Deity’s wisdom, he wouldn’t be able to determine the way you’re going to enter? If I were them, I would certainly have expected you to come in guise and lay ambush at the harbor.”

“I would wait for you to disembark, thinking that your plan is seamless, and capture all of you at once! Even if it doesn’t go smoothly, detaining a couple of deities would work too.”

Upon hearing that, the faces of the deities grew somber.

Su Yu’s explanation was reasonable. The deities who joined the attack on the World of Divine Remains back then had thought that they were powerful too, but powerful dragons couldn’t beat the local snakes. Not only had they failed to wipe out the World of Divine Remains, but several deities had also even perished in the attack.

Up till this day, the Great Eastern Alliance still had a dark shadow in their heart that constantly reminded them of the matter.

“In that case, entering the World of Divine Remains in guise is not possible anymore,” After some contemplation, the Sheng Deity exchanged a glance with the Merchant God and gave up on the idea that appeared secure but was in fact precarious.

Perhaps Su Yu’s prediction was right in saying that they would suffer total destruction.

But if they didn’t secretly infiltrate the place, would they enter so flagrantly?

The World of Divine Remains harbored profound animosity towards the Great Eastern Alliance. Once they entered, they would probably rouse extreme nervousness among the enemies.

Before they could find the silhouettes of the Book Deity and the Rakshasa Deity, they would be attacked by the joint forces of the World of Divine Remains.

All the deities pondered with deep frowns, yet no one came up with a comprehensive plan.

“The secret way doesn’t work, neither does the open way. Are we just going to be deterred here before the World of Divine Remains, after the strenuous effort of chasing all the way here?” How could the deities reconcile with it?

Leaving the two traitors, the Book Deity and the Rakshasa Deity, at large would invite endless disasters to the Great Eastern Alliance in the future.

The All-Access Merchant God’s eyes flickered, and he looked to Su Yu with a smile. “Since you have ideas, you might as well share it with us so that we could muse over it.”

Swish!

Numerous pairs of eyes of the deities were pinned on Su Yu. The deities had recognized Su Yu’s acumen after all.

Su Yu smiled. “Entering the World of Divine Remains safely isn’t difficult. We just have to drive right into it.”

Just... drive right into it!

The deities were in great shock and disbelief, all of them trying to speculate what Su Yu meant.

“Right, drive into it openly and honestly with our flags conspicuous, so the World of Divine Remains would know that we have come for them!” Su Yu was smiling.

Huh? Sheng Yuanxin was flabbergasted. “Are you mad? Before we could drive into it, we would most probably be assaulted by the joint forces of the World of Divine Remains. I was expecting you to come up with brilliant ideas!”

Su Yu gave a thoughtful, profound smile. “Don’t worry. Not only will the World of Divine Remains not attack us, but they will also even allow our entry graciously and generously! All we need to do is change our identities!”

Change identities? The deities were startled. What kind of identities would make the World of Divine Remains put down their guards and let them in graciously and generously?

Chapter 1179: Who’s More Wretched Now?

An hour later.

Inside the main cabin, the faces of the nine deities were awfully dark.

The Sheng Deity shook the tight, revealing leather clothing that she was wearing. Her belly button, thighs and even half of her chest were exposed. Even her fair skin could be seen! It was outrageous!

Was that really the demure, elegant Sheng Deity with a noble status? Now she was apparently an alluring, promiscuous woman.

With the eight other deities staring at her, she was embarrassed and angered. Fiercely, she questioned, “What are you looking at? Are you people any better than me?”

The All-Access Merchant God touched his eye patch and laughed dryly, “I have become a one-eyed blind man, haha...”

The All-Access Merchant God, who was originally handsome and attractive, had lost all of his knightly temperament. With his disheveled, ragged look, he seemed like a vile creep now.

“That’s fine! Could anyone really be worse than me?” The blade of divine sword on the Sword Deity’s back was nowhere to be found; he was carrying a broom on his shoulder instead. With the shabby, slovenly clothes that he was wearing, he looked like a slave on the ship.

“Haha, are you more wretched than me now? Are you?” another female deity laughed almost hysterically. When she quivered, she emanated a pungent body odor, as though she hadn’t showered for a few months. With her make-up, she looked as hideous as a demon.

But under the disguise, she was the Deer Deity, a goddess known for her cuteness. The makeup had turned her into a ferocious demon that stank.

All the other deities had suffered the same fate, deprived of their temperament of deities and ending up as lowly, obscene characters.

“Yo, deities, is this a competition to see who’s more wretched?”

Thud, thud.

At that time, Su Yu walked in. Upon taking a look at their costumes, his eyes shone, and he praised the killer. “Black Phoenix, nice work.”

A killer was most adept at two things. The first was killing, and the second was disguise, thus the Black Phoenix was amazing at disguising herself as all kinds of people.

With her assistance, all the members on the battleship had undergone a complete change of appearance, becoming the dark, filthy people of the World of Divine Remains. This meant they could avoid being suspected.

The nine deities shot Su Yu a glare all at once, and the Sheng Deity was especially unhappy. “Why don’t you need to put make-up on?”

Su Yu was the only one on the scene with bright, shiny clothes, and he wore no trace of makeup. Standing among them, he looked like a crane that stood out among a bunch of chickens.

“Haha, of course I don’t need to. I’m the owner of this galactic pirate ship, the third son of the Tuoba Deity’s family that is in exile, Tuoba Yun.”

The Tuoba Deity’s family was a deity’s family of the Great Western Alliance that was situated across the galaxy.

Three years ago, the Tuoba Deity had perished in an accident, and his three heirs got into an intense fight for the inheritance of his legacy. The eldest son got the ultimate victory, while the second son was killed and the third went missing.

All that was known was that he had escaped into the galaxies and had not been found until now.

Only the Black Phoenix knew what happened to him. Three years ago, on one of the missions that she was executing, she witnessed the third son Tuoba Yun being killed by a gang of galactic pirates. They had no idea about Tuoba Yun's identity.

Thus, no one knew if Tuoba Yun was dead or alive to this day.

Hence Su Yu could assume his identity without a care, while the deities behind him could pretend to be Tuoba Yun's loyal servants.

The entire battleship was disguised as the galactic pirate ship, and they became the members of the Tuoba family that had been persecuted and forced to become galactic pirates.

The World of Divine Remains was never short of galactic pirates. It could be said that more than 90 percent of pirates in the galaxies treated the World of Divine Remains as their stronghold. Every day, new pirates came in to seek refuge. It was an everyday occurrence.

"No matter how great the Book Deity is at prophecy, he would never have predicted that the noble and dignified deities of the past have disguised themselves as pirates." Su Yu smiled brightly.

The Sheng Deity stared at Su Yu, and said in anger and shame, "If your plan fails, I will never forgive you..."

"Tsk tsk, not enough, my hot-tempered queen! Your tone of voice should be more fiery than this, but you should also be flirtatious and alluring at the same time. Only then will you fit the impression of a woman that is surrounded by a ship full of stinky men every moment," Su Yu cut her off and advised with great interest.

The green veins on the Sheng Deity's forehead were pulsating. She kind of regretted bringing Su Yu onto the ship. The clever ones would know that Su Yu was using the opportunity to take revenge on them for forcing him to board the ship and thus had given them such shameful costumes.

There must be better options than this!

However, they had to admit that they would never have thought of such disguises.

According to their plan, putting on minimal makeup and infiltrating the World of Divine Remains surreptitiously, in the guise of ordinary people, would be their furthest limit.

Their plan would never have led to the scene before their eyes right now. Even their temperament had been drastically changed, to the extent that not even their own parents would recognize them.

Thud, thud!

Someone was sprinting briskly while panting tenderly, "Su Yu, I'm done changing, what do you think..."

Sheng Yuanxin had hurried all the way here, and her gaze fell naturally upon the deities. She stopped dead in her tracks and exclaimed, "Who are you people? Why are you here?"

Only upon closer inspection did she find those people familiar. Her mouth hung open as she yelled, "Ahh! You people are..."

"Yuanxin, don't make this thing public..." the Sheng Deity reminded, embarrassed.

Before she could finish, she was abruptly cut off by Sheng Yuanxin, “Ahh! Su Yu, who is this lascivious woman? Her clothes are so shameful...”

Pow!

The Sheng Deity’s face was flushed red as she stared at Su Yu in great fury. She looked like she wanted to strangle him to death!

She didn’t know if her own parents would recognize her, but her daughter did not recognize her at all.

Upon hearing that, the deities were laughing through their tears.

Having recollected her thoughts, Sheng Yuanxin’s eyes went saucer wide. “You are... Mother?”

Upon ascertaining this, Sheng Yuanxin nearly choked on her own breath. She glowered fiercely at Su Yu. “You! You made my mother...”

Su Yu narrowed his eyes, flashed a wicked smile and lifted her chin frivolously. “Little beauty, why are you talking to me like that? Is it because you had a taste of me last night, and can’t bear to be parted from me now?”

“Don’t worry, when we disembark later on, I’ll sell you at a good price, and I guarantee there’ll be men who can make you so comfortable that you feel like you’re in paradise.”

Sheng Yuanxin’s face was reddened. Her identity was a deity’s descendant who was enslaved by Tuoba Yun, a young beauty who was a Prospective Deity.

Having heard Su Yu’s vicious taunting, she couldn’t help but be shy even though she knew Su Yu was only pretending. She muttered, “Su Yu! Wait till we return to the Great Eastern Alliance, you’ll get what you deserve!”

After beating off Su Yu’s hand angrily, Sheng Yuanxin lifted her long dress and ran away bashfully. When Su Yu turned back his head, he felt nine rays of cold light on him.

The Sheng Deity said with a calm spirit and an even temper, “I’m fine, yes, really, I’m fine.”

The Merchant God shot her a glance and thought to himself, “Why are you clenching your fists so tight if you’re fine?”

“Erhem, Su Yu, your acting is superb. I hope we reach our destination safely...” the Merchant God coughed.

Su Yu said in a serious and humorless manner, “Stop the nonsense! I have stepped in the World of Divine Remains, and I want to be served with great wine and good food. All of you get back to work! Stop wandering around in front of me! Get lost now!”

The nine deities all immediately clenched their fists tight.

At the harbor of the World of Divine Remains.

The Book Deity and the Rakshasa Deity were standing in a wine house, quietly waiting for news from the harbor.

“A few days ago, their intelligence agents started bustling around, I thought they were nearby already, but why have they not shown themselves till now?” The Rakshasa Deity was slightly anxious.

The Book Deity looked at ease. “Don’t fret, if my guess is right, they have chosen to infiltrate and will certainly keep a low profile. The Pirate Deity is holding the fort in person at the harbor with the God-Destroying Crossbow crafted by the nine deities/ They will not be able to return.”

Upon the mention of the God-Destroying Crossbow, the Rakshasa Deity was a lot more relieved. This divine bow had been lost for long, with only nine left in the world.

Once activated, it would hunt the deities down relentlessly. In the ancient era when the two great alliances had just been formed in the galaxy, the God-Destroying Crossbow was the god-destroying weapon that terrified all the deities.

More than a hundred deities had perished because of the God-Destroying Crossbow back then, including some of those high-ranking, powerful deities.

Even the fourth-ranking Rakshasa Deity had no confidence to evade the hunt by the God-Destroying Crossbow.

With the divine crossbow, the deities could be killed once they were found.

But the Rakshasa Deity was still worried. “If the deities that have come for us have chosen a hidden way to enter, the Pirate Deity won’t have noticed them, would he?”

“Not if, they absolutely have! With my understanding of the character of deities of the Great Eastern Alliance, they must have abandoned their ship and entered the World of Divine Remains by ambush! Thus, I have reminded the Pirate Deity to thoroughly examine the small-sized ships!”

If they had traversed the galaxy, they must be deities without a doubt.

Because only deities could traverse the galaxy!

The other places of the World of Divine Remains had barriers built by nine deities with their combined strengths. If they had chosen to barge in from other places, they needed to attack the barriers, thus revealing themselves.

Hence there was only one way for them to enter the World of Divine Remains: through the harbor!

And the only way to enter was by a small-sized ship.

Having listened to the Book Deity’s analysis, the Rakshasa Deity was completely relieved now. “Book Deity has considered matters very carefully. It will be a piece of cake to get rid of that bunch of haughty deities!”

Two days later, a colossal battleship broke through the stars and clouds and headed straight for the harbor of the World of Divine Remains.

The gargantuan outline of the battleship could be seen from afar.

Divine brilliance flickered above the harbor, and a deity fully covered in divine light emerged secretly. He stared at the gigantic battleship with a stern look in his eyes.

“The only ones who are capable of building such a battleship are the two great deity’s families of the Great Eastern and Western Alliances. Are the deities of the Great Eastern Alliance really so ignorant to have barged into the World of Divine Remains so flagrantly?”

“Pirate Deity, shall we start the God-Destroying Crossbow and pierce the battleship?” The three Prospective Deity men below licked their lips, looking thrilled.

The Pirate Deity gazed intently at the battleship and shook his head lightly. “Hold on a little longer!”

When it got closer, the battleship entered their visual field with great clarity. But the symbol of the Great Eastern Alliance was nowhere to be seen. It turned out to be a battered, weather-beaten battleship that seemed to have been wandering for a long time, with a flag of a skull raised on the ship.

And the people on the deck were all ferocious and vile-looking.

“A pirate ship?” The Pirate Deity was slightly surprised.

All of a sudden, an extraordinarily handsome young man in bright clothing was seen, fluttering his pleated fan as he beheld the World of Divine Remains before his eyes smilingly.

The Pirate Deity looked closely, not missing out anyone on the ship. Their appearance, behaviors, manners and even the looks in their eyes, he missed none of those things out.

As the Pirate Deity, he had seen all kinds of pirates in the world and could discern if a person was pretending at a glance.

The pirates before him looked rather unnatural and bore little resemblance to pirates. Traces of their disguises were faintly discernible.

Just as his guard was raised, a silver-haired youth who looked even less like a pirate appeared before his eyes, making the Pirate Deity even more hesitant.

Chapter 1180: God of Killers

“Ah San, ask them who they are.”

Upon receiving the command, the third-ranking Prospective Deity flew forward. After having a conversation with Su Yu and the rest, he returned a brief moment later.

“The Tuoba Deity’s family?” The Pirate Deity scowled lightly. The matter concerning the death of the Tuoba Deity of the Great Western Alliance and the fact that his three sons had been vying for his divine throne was not a secret in the World of Divine Remains.

Occasion rumors about Tuoba Yun, the third son, were also heard in the World of Divine Remains.

As the Pirate Deity, he had heard those rumors too.

Most of the misgivings he had in mind were banished by now. It was no wonder those people looked so unnatural and unlike real pirates. They were descendants of the depraved deity who had switched to a profession which they weren't trained for.

"Pirate Deity, shall we take the chance and..." Ah San was short of stature and had a dark yellowish face. He made a throat-slitting gesture with his hand.

The Tuoba Deity's family was a divine family after all. As a descendant, Tuoba Yun must have brought some valuable items with him.

Hearing that, the Pirate Deity glared at him. "We are galactic pirates, not bandits! We never rob in the World of Divine Remains; neither do we harm the people who come to seek refuge here. Are you trying to make me breach the promise to the Alliance of Nine Deities?"

The nine deities of the World of Divine Remains had made a similar promise. To make the World of Divine Remains forceful, they generously received the traitors of various cavern worlds with open arms.

Hence anyone who had come to seek refuge should not be harmed by any party, such as the Netherworld Faction and the Pirate Deity. Neither should they refuse their entry. Otherwise, if words got around, who would dare to come to seek refuge again?

As a galactic pirate, the Pirate Deity experienced the most restrictions.

Ah San turned timid. He stepped back behind the Pirate Deity and kept silent, but his eyes kept moving around. When he had gone on board just now, there was a flirtatious woman in revealing clothes, and she was extremely attractive.

Ah San's desires were aroused after just a few glances. The reason he helped the Pirate Deity was that he was coveting that woman.

"Let them in." The Pirate Deity waved his hand, and the soldiers waiting in ambush at the harbor made way.

On the battleship, Tuoba Yun and the others drove ashore brazenly.

The All-Access Merchant God and the Sheng Deity, as well as all the other deities on board, had different roles to play.

Their godly spirits were sealed so well that not a single trace could be discovered. Even the Pirate Deity would never be able to detect their godly spirits.

The group of deities alighted. They were unruffled when they saw the numerous troops in ambush, but when they caught a glimpse of the nine God-Destroying Crossbows hidden among the troops, their hearts skipped a beat and chills cascaded down their spines.

It was just like Su Yu had predicted. There were heavy troops lying in ambush at the harbor, waiting for them to walk right into the trap.

Besides, they even discovered that the Pirate Deity's targets for inspection weren't big ships like theirs, but small-sized Divine Bone Ships.

Their perception of Su Yu had attained a whole new level now.

This guy never failed to foresee events with heavenly accuracy!

If they had adhered to their initial plan, in which nine the deities infiltrated separately in the guise of commoners, they would have fallen into the trap.

“The Pirate Deity is preoccupied with something else and is not free to meet you at the moment. You just have to park your battleship here, and you can move around freely in the World of Divine Remains,” Ah San told them.

Without the battleship, this bunch of people had no way of leaving the World of Divine Remains, so he would keep an eye on them by staying behind to look after battleship.

“No problem.” Su Yu nodded lightly. With a wave of his sleeve, the several deities who had disguised themselves as sinister-looking pirates dragged out two “captives” from the cabin.

One of them was the real captive Qin Feichen and the other was the fake one, Sheng Yuanxin.

When Ah San saw the two of them, he gasped in shock. “Prospective Deity? Deity’s descendant?”

“This one... Ah San, which auction house in the World of Divine Remains is the most reliable? I have caught two deity’s descendants along the way, a Peak Mortal Fairy, and a Prospective Deity, and I’m thinking of selling them at high prices.”

Having known that they had the capability to capture Prospective Deities, Ah San became a lot more serious all of a sudden.

Where more chaos arose, martial strength would be cherished more.

“Good question, Mister Tuoba! The auction house that is the most suitable is certainly the Pirate Deity’s cavern world. The valuable things that many pirates have plundered from the galaxies will be sold there.”

“In the long run, the Pirate Deity’s cavern world became the central black market of the World of Divine Remains. You can sell anything and purchase anything there.” Ah San glanced at the alluring, sexy lady who was the Sheng Deity in disguise and couldn’t help but swallow his drool.

Su Yu was amused. Was he actually thinking of getting his hands on the Sheng Deity? The Pirate Deity was way below her standard!

“Thanks a lot.” Su Yu smiled and led the members of his pirate squad as they pompously swaggered into the World of Divine Remains while escorting the two captives.

In an inn, all the deities, captives, and Su Yu sat in a circle.

“Haha, the Feather Deity is great at foretelling circumstances. We have entered in a bright and honest way and have not aroused any suspicion.” The All-Access Merchant God offered high praise.

Clever people were drawn to clever people. Su Yu’s performance had undoubtedly gained the All Access Merchant God’s favor.

The Sword Deity burst out laughing too. “If only the Feather Deity had assisted us in attacking troops back then, the outcome would have been different.”

Only the Sheng Deity hung her head low with her fists clenched tight. Indignantly, she said, “That insect called Ah San! If I hadn’t been controlling myself, he would have had his body and soul reduced to ashes with the look that he gave me!”

Hearing that, the deities exchanged smiles with one another.

All of them had noticed the licentious look that Ah San gave her. It would be strange if the Sheng Deity wasn’t furious.

But the Sheng Deity’s acting skill was worth mentioning. It was astonishing. Her interpretation of the flirtatious and sexy qualities was exceptionally impeccable.

Even some of the deities had secretly fallen for her. They thought that the Sheng Deity could be this enchanting too.

If they had had such thoughts, it was understandable someone like Ah San would.

Sheng Yuanxin’s face was flushed red. It was such an ignominious challenge to her mother that even she felt ashamed.

“Haha, alright, getting into the World of Divine Remains with hidden identities was only the first step. Next up is killing those two deity fugitives. That’s the most important of all,” Su Yu said.

“There are two difficulties in capturing them! Firstly, we need to identify their exact location; secondly, we need to deal with the deities who come forward while we are capturing them.”

The two deities must be in hiding at the moment, manipulating the situation in secret. To find them, solely depending on the intelligence system was far from sufficient.

Once they were discovered, a fight was bound to happen. A great war among deities would simply trigger the occurrence of unusual phenomena in the world, and an entire cavern world could collapse.

Worse still, there were only nine great cavern worlds in the World of Divine Remains and all of them were almost interconnected.

In just a few seconds, the deities would receive the news and come forward.

At that time, they would become the ones under siege instead.

If that was the case, not even would they fail in killing the two traitors, but they would even suffer a total defeat and be buried right here, after being attacked by the deities of the World of Divine Remains with all their powers combined.

“For the first aspect, I have some channels that we could perhaps try using,” the All Access Merchant God said. “I travel around the galaxies all year round and inevitably have connections with some of those merchants.”

“I also know some despicable, unscrupulous figures in the World of Divine Remains. If we can have them investigate things for us in secret, maybe we can obtain clues about those two traitors.”

But not even the All-Access Merchant God himself had enough confidence in the method that he proposed.

The reason was very simple. The disadvantage was too great and could be fatal.

Rubbing elbows with the unscrupulous figures meant that their presence would very likely be exposed.

After all, none of those people could be fully trusted.

“As for the second aspect, we could only lure the two deities out of the World of Divine Remains before getting our hands on them. Other than that, we have no other options,” the Sheng Deity said.

Attacking them in the World of Divine Remains was like digging their own graves.

However, the disadvantage was equally tremendous. With the Book Deity’s wisdom, would he be fooled easily and lured out of the World of Divine Remains? Perhaps not.

The joy of getting into the World of Divine Remains successfully was instantly banished by the two enormous challenges.

Perhaps if they fought with all their might, they could manage to kill the two traitor deities, but it would lose its meaning.

The purpose of their trip this time was to eradicate the threat, but if they sacrificed things instead, the order would have been reversed and the loss would outweigh the gain.

Right at that moment, Su Yu’s mouth broke into a grin. “Since I brought us all here, I certainly have thought of a surefire plan.”

Oh? The deities’ eyes shone when they heard him. Su Yu had apparently become their source of wisdom now.

“Tell us, your intrigues and conspiracies... Oh, I mean, we truly admire your wise ideas and brilliant plans,” a female deity corrected herself hurriedly.

The green veins on Su Yu’s forehead pulsed. “I find it hard to be pleased by your admiration!”

After a pause, Su Yu said, “I have detailed plans on how to find the two traitors and how to capture them, and I’ll delegate the tasks to you right now. You can carry them out on your own. If you don’t make any mistakes, the outcome this time will be far greater than just getting hold of the two deities!”

Having heard Su Yu’s intention, the nine deities at the scene took in cold sharp breaths and stared at Su Yu with terror in their eyes.

Even the seasoned All Access Merchant God exclaimed upon hearing, “Your plan really is... absurdly unpredictable!”

“Are you sure you have got your goals right?” the Sheng Deity asked in shock.

Su Yu nodded with a solemn look on his face. “The World of Divine Remains has existed for far too long, and has become a meeting place for the filthy figures of all the cavern worlds.”

“When the galaxies are at peace, they go into hiding without ever showing themselves; when the galaxies are in chaos, they lead the way for the demon race, bringing disasters and threats to the various cavern worlds, with the convenience of being familiar with their respective cavern worlds!”

“This poisonous tumor has to be excised! Especially now that the demon race is restless and all ready to cause trouble. I’m afraid that if they aren’t gotten rid of once and for all, the consequences will be deadly.”

Upon hearing his words, the deities’ hearts felt heavy.

The World of Divine Remains was inhabited by many traitors from the Great Eastern Alliance. If they showed the way for the demon race, the Great Eastern Alliance which was already at a disadvantage would be laded in an even more perilous predicament.

Getting rid of him was the common goal of the two great alliances, both the Eastern and the Western. But this place was too unique. Unless they paid the high price of severely injuring their spirits, the World of Divine Remains would not be shaken at all, and those parasites would be left ungoverned.

Yet Su Yu had the mighty aspiration to annihilate the World of Divine Remains! Just how dauntless was his spirit?

Looking at Su Yu whose cultivation was only Stage Five All Creations, the deities felt a deep sense of guilt.

Having ventured into the World of Divine Remains together, their horizon was merely limited to eradicating the traitors. Su Yu however, was looking at the entire World of Divine Remains as a whole.

“But the risks involved in this will be way too tremendous, won’t they? If any of us slips up, the entire group will be exposed, and it will be very dangerous by then,” the All-Access Merchant God said.

The Sheng Deity felt it deeply. “Is it just about the great risks? It is totally impossible! The nine great deities of the World of Divine Remains each hold a God-Destroying Crossbow. Combined with their own strength, any one of them could be stronger than the All-Access Merchant God and I. We stand zero chances of killing them.”

Su Yu smiled. “If we fight them face to face, we will no doubt suffer a thorough defeat because when enemies show up, the World of Divine Remains will unite their forces and fight against the enemies together! But what if they can’t unite their forces?”

What? The deities raised their brows.

“Why does the World of Divine Remains exists?” Su Yu answered his own question. “The reason is the pressure faced by each great cavern world!”

“The nine deities face pressure and that is why they share the same enemies and were able to build the World of Divine Remains in harmony! Take a guess, what if one of the deities seeks refuge from us? What is going to happen?”

The deity who had turned to them would definitely not be tolerated any longer. He could be expelled from the World of Divine Remains, but would more likely be killed by the eight other deities.

Once the seeds of suspicion were sown, they would never stop propagating.

If one deity could turn against them, would there be any other deities who had secretly betrayed them as well?

Once the deities that had been united for countless years began suspecting each other, the harmonious relationship would only be maintained on a superficial level. If division further happened among them, triggering civil unrest in the World of Divine Remains was no challenge.

And if these nine hidden deities secretly launched their attack...

The nine deities and even Sheng Yuanxin looked at Su Yu in intense dread, as chills ran down their backs.

Su Yu could have used the same exact tactic on the Great Eastern Alliance!

Fear, trepidation, and gratitude filled their hearts at the same time. Fortunately, someone like him was standing beside them. If he had turned to the demon race instead... The mere thought of it was horrendous and dreadful enough.

“Who do you plan to begin with?” If they were to find a deity who would seek refuge from the Great Eastern Alliance, he or she must be trustworthy.

The deities worked out it was likely to be the Pirate Deity.

Ah San’s greedy eyes on the Sheng Deity could be an ideal footboard on which Su Yu could step and kick-start his plan.

However, Su Yu replied dispassionately, “The most terrifying deity in the World of Divine Remains.”

The Death Deity!

“What? The Death Deity of the Netherworld Faction? Are you insane?” the Sheng Deity gasped in utter shock. Even the All-Access Merchant God was terribly stunned too.

Any deity could possibly be persuaded to turn to the Great Eastern Alliance, all except for the Death Deity! It was absolutely impossible!

This man was renowned as the Head of the Nine Deities of the World of Divine Remains. Not only was he the most powerful of all, but he also managed the organization of assassins that even the galaxy was terrified of, the Netherworld Faction. He was feared by all deities.

In the past, the Death Deity was the one who killed most of the deities of the Great Eastern Alliance that had joined the attack!

Besides, not long ago, the Netherworld Faction had even dispatched two assassins to murder Su Yu.

The outcome was that the Netherworld Faction that had never missed any of its targets had failed for the first time ever.

If Su Yu went to meet the Death Deity, it would be like a sheep walking right into the mouth of a tiger.

“Calm down everyone. Since I have decided to go, I surely have a reason.” Su Yu had a thoughtful smile at the corners of his mouth.

Sheng Yuanxin was worried and anxious. “Can’t you change to another deity? I think the Pirate Deity is fine. My mother could seduce that Ah San and take the chance to tame him, making him one of ours. Won’t it be easier to slowly persuade the Pirate Deity then? Don’t even think of the Death Deity! It is just not possible.”

Hearing her daughter suggest that she seduce Ah San, the Sheng Deity glared at Sheng Yuanxin in shame and anger. “What nonsense are you talking?”

However, she also advised very somberly, “Su Yu, it is not that we don’t trust you, but we should not simply meet the Death Deity. Even the Dakini herself is frightened of that man. She used to say that in the galaxies, apart from the Demonic Emperor, no one would ever be a match of the Death Deity!”

“Not just in terms of capabilities, rumor has it that his personality is extremely distorted as well. His moods are totally capricious and he could start killing randomly, without any warning. If you plan to convince him, I am afraid that you will be killed before you even have a chance to speak.”

Su Yu chuckled, and said, “How does a person with a distorted personality get along so harmoniously with the eight other deities? I have decided early on to pay a visit to the Netherworld Faction. And since we are here today, of course, we have to visit as guests, and we have to do it bright and honest!”

Standing beside Su Yu, the Black Phoenix couldn’t help but sigh. He was indeed going to visit the Netherworld Faction sooner or later, just like he had said.

It was coming true today!

He was going to visit the most horrifying God of Killers of the Netherworld Faction and the galaxies, the Death Deity!