Chapter 1201: Wipe Out the Bandits

Hearing this, the middle-aged demon shouted in surprise, “This is impossible! The Giant of the Bitter Sea is behind us. How could the demonic city be devoured by him?”

“Boo! I don’t care whether you believe it or not!” the bandit leader sneered. “Now, you should pay more attention to your current situation!”

Among the four bandits in this place, the weakest bandit was a Stage One Mortal Fairy like Sha’er. However, there were two Stage Three Mortal Fairies among the four bandits.

“Now, you have two options. First, you could surrender. We will add seals to you and you will become our companions! Second, you will be killed immediately and all your demonic artifacts will be taken away by us. Now, you can tell us, which option do you want to choose?”

Faced with such a large gap in strength, most people would choose the first option.

“Heh! Heh! Heh! You can fool those inexperienced creatures. As a Patrol Envoy, I will never be fooled by a group of bandits like you!” the middle-aged demon sneered.

The Patrol Envoy knew this was the bandits’ customary tactic. The bandits would always try to induce their targets to surrender and join them.

However, once the targets were controlled by them, the targets would be sold to some big demonic families and become slaves.

For those bandits, slaves were more valuable than dead bodies!

Moreover, once their targets decided to resist, the bandits would also suffer casualties. Therefore, they would always try to induce their targets to surrender.

It was quite ridiculous that they had even tried to fool a Patrol Envoy!

Hearing this, the bandits’ faces darkened. However, they were not surprised because they knew it would be very difficult to fool a Patrol Envoy.

“Attack! Leave the Patrol Envoy to No. 2 and me. No. 3 and No. 4 can capture that little girl!”

No. 3 was a Stage Two Mortal Fairy. No. 4 was a Stage One Mortal Fairy.

The 2 two of them could defeat Sha’er immediately.

The middle-aged Patrol Envoy shouted angrily, “How dare you!”

“Hah-hah-hah! Cut it out! Just accept your bad luck without complaints!” No. 1 and No. 2 sneered as they dashed towards the Patrol Envoy. Then, a fierce fight began.

The demonic artifacts and skills of the two bandits and the Patrol Envoy were almost at the same level. The middle-aged Patrol Envoy, who was more experienced, managed to break even against his two opponents.

However, it was impossible for him to provide any assistance to his daughter.

Although Sha'er was quite petite, she was not terrified at this crucial moment. She shouted ferociously, "My father always told me death is not horrible! It is horrible to lack the courage to face death!"

Instead of running away, Sha'er dashed towards the two bandits without hesitation.

Her courage was laudable. However, the gap between her strength and that of her two opponents was too large.

The bandit who was at the level of Stage Two Mortal Fairy looked at Sha'er frivolously. "Heh! Heh! Don't kill her. We can sell her after we've had enough fun with this little girl!"

Puff!

Sha'er's shoulder was penetrated by the Stage Two Mortal Fairy as soon as the fight began.

Then, the Stage One Mortal Fairy took out a black rope and placed it around Sha'er's neck.

It seemed the rope was a demonic artifact, and it sealed Sha'er's Mortal Fairy's strength instantly.

In this way, Sha'er was easily captured by her opponents.

Seeing this, the middle-aged Patrol Envoy shouted angrily as he forced back his two opponents. When he turned around and was about to save his daughter, his two opponents, who were at the same stage as him, found a weak point in his back.

Swish!

A black spear flew out from one bandit's sleeve and penetrated the body of the middle-aged Patrol Envoy instantly.

There were three barbs on the spear. They could fix the spear tightly in the target's body.

Seeing this, the two bandits smiled grimly as they pulled the spear back together. Then, the middle-aged Patrol Envoy was dragged back painfully.

His back was ruthlessly torn apart by the two bandits.

The middle-aged Patrol Envoy's body was almost divided into 3 parts!

However, he didn't give up even after being seriously wounded. He shouted angrily as he tried to break away from the spear in order to cut the rope on his daughter's neck.

Bang!

A big bang sounded, and he was knocked down on the ground heavily by a demonic artifact that looked like a brick. It was being held by one of the bandits.

Like the black rope, this brick-like demonic artifact could also seal the strength of Mortal Fairy. Now, no matter how hard the middle-aged Patrol Envoy tried to break away from the spear, he was not able to move anymore.

"Dad!" Seeing this, Sha'er screamed miserably.

The middle-aged Patrol Envoy was also quite anxious and angry at this moment.

These four bandits were extraordinarily powerful. Their skills and demonic artifacts had totally surprised the Patrol Envoy.

However, he knew the background of these bandits was not important now. He knew what would happen to them in the future would be more horrible than death!

His daughter would die miserably after being raped by those b*stards.

“Hah! Hah! Hah! I didn’t expect a Patrol Envoy could be defeated so easily!” the bandit leader said with a disdainful smile. The other three bandits were also quite excited. They knew a Patrol Envoy, who was the trusted follower of a Demon Master, must be wealthier than an ordinary person!

“No.1, No. 2, their belongings are yours. I only want this little girl! Heh! Heh! I haven’t slept with a woman from a big family for a long time!”

“No problem! After this, we will report on the completion of this task. It has brought us a lot of windfalls!”

The four bandits started to talk about how to divide the spoils with greedy smiles.

“Hey! You four! I guess you have forgotten me, right?” Su Yu said coldly with folded arms.

Maybe because of Su Yu’s low stage, the four bandits ignored him completely.

Before this, Su Yu didn’t want to get involved in this issue because he was not interested in the internal conflict of demons.

When Su Yu saw the father doing his best to save his daughter, he was moved. Were they like the demons he had been told about?

As far as he knew, demons were greedy, ferocious, selfish and bloodthirsty. They only tried to strengthen themselves by devouring all the other creatures.

However, these two kind-hearted demons had provided protection to Su Yu on his way. The daughter’s courage and the father’s desperate struggle had impressed Su Yu a lot.

Maybe the demons of the Demon Realm were different from the demons in my knowledge!

Therefore, after thinking about it for a moment, Su Yu decided to help the two demons.

“Heh! Heh! Interesting! If you had kept silent just now, we might really have ignored you! An All Creation demon is too cheap for us. Since you reminded us, we will sell you too. You look quite handsome. Maybe we can sell you because you might be quite popular among some rich women!” The Stage One Mortal Fairy who didn’t take part in the fight just now walked over to Su Yu with a smile. Then, he extended his finger towards Su Yu’s shoulder.

As a Stage One Mortal Fairy, the bandit believed he could capture an All Creation little demon easily.

However, to his surprise, Su Yu pinched his finger with two fingers which were wrapped up in dazzling golden light.

Then, the bandit started to scream miserably because his finger had been easily broken by Su Yu.

The next moment, the bandit's miserable scream stopped when Su Yu's two golden fingers penetrated his head, which killed his body and his soul at the same time.

When that demon's lifeless body collapsed on the ground, the other three bandits stopped smiling and started to stare at Su Yu with their eyes wide.

Chapter 1202: Lord Demon King

When No. 3 realized what had happened, he let out an angry cry. Then, he took out another black rope and threw it towards Su Yu's neck.

Swish!

Su Yu's golden palm grasped the black rope tightly. Then, he dragged No. 3 towards him with magnificent strength.

No. 3's body and soul were also penetrated by that horrible golden palm.

No. 3 collapsed on the ground. Disbelief and pain could still be seen in his eyes.

When the other two bandits realized what had happened, they asked in surprise, "Who are you?"

This guy had managed to kill No. 4 and even No. 3 within one round.

Su Yu looked at the other two bandits calmly but said nothing. His body was covered by nine golden light beams, which looked like nine golden dragons entwining on his body.

"Retreat! This guy is not an ordinary demon! He must be a hidden Demon King!" the two bandits said in terror. They felt their blood run cold.

They didn't expect they could encounter an expert at the level of Demon King who had concealed his strength in this place.

Su Yu stared at the two bandits. Then, nine golden dragons dashed towards them rapidly.

Along with two dull sounds, the two bandits became two piles of golden ashes.

Su Yu had managed to kill four bandits within just a short space of time.

Then, the golden light on his body disappeared. Su Yu regained the appearance of a demon. He walked over to the middle-aged Patrol Envoy and kicked away the brick-like demonic artifact from his body. Then, Su Yu snapped the rope around the neck of Sha'er.

The two demons stared at Su Yu in surprise. Their eyes were full of shock and reverence.

"Young man... No! Lord Demon King! I greet you, Lord Demon King! I am a Patrol Envoy and my name is Qian Jun! I didn't know your identity, Demon King! I deserve ten thousand deaths!" The middle-aged demon came to his senses and dropped on one knee immediately. Then, he greeted Su Yu with beads of cold sweat on his forehead.

Demon King was an honorific title for demons who had reached the level of the Peak Mortal Fairy. In the Demon Realm where strength was revered, a Demon King was always respected. Even the Demon Masters showed their respect to the Demon Kings.

At the thought of traveling with a Demon King for so long a time, Qian Jun was even more terrified.

Suddenly, he noticed his daughter was still staring at Su Yu with widened eyes. He shouted as he forced his daughter to kneel down hurriedly. "Just greet the Lord Demon King!"

After being reminded by his father, Sha'er came to her senses as well. As a brave girl, she also stammered, "I greet you... Lord Demon King... My name is Sha'er!"

This was a Demon King!

An underling of a Demon King had the right to give orders to 10,000 Patrol Envoys like her father!

Sha'er blushed when she remembered she had been bragging about the protection her father, who was a Patrol Envoy, could offer.

Now, she knew why this guy was always so aloof and quiet as if he didn't feel grateful to her and her father. Sha'er, who was so embarrassed at this moment, didn't understand why Su Yu had chosen to fool her and her father.

"Lord Demon King, I was wrong! And my father has nothing to do with my mistake! Please punish me!"

Looking at the miserable expression on Sha'er's face, Su Yu replied with a smile, "It's OK! I have to hide my identity because of a secret mission. It's not your fault!"

Since they believed Su Yu was a Demon King, he decided to make full use of this opportunity.

"Lord Demon King, the city of the Carefree Demon Master has been ruined. Are you still going to go there?"

I will never go there! The Giant of the Bitter Sea is very close to that city. How could I bite the hook at this moment?

"The demonic city has been ruined. It is useless for me to go there!" Su Yu said as he shook his head calmly. "Where is the nearest Demon Master? We shall immediately inform him about the possible attack of the Giant of the Bitter Sea!"

Su Yu had planned to get some information about the Rosy Clouds Fairy Concubine and the entrance to the Demon Realm from the Carefree Demon Master. However, things didn't turn out as planned. Now, he had to find another Demon Master.

"The nearest Demon Master is the Agile Demon Master!" Qian Jun blurted out because he thought what Su Yu said was reasonable.

Su Yu nodded his head as he looked at the father and daughter who had been seriously wounded. Then, he said, "Since you have nowhere to go, you can come with me!"

In this way, Su Yu could provide protection to them and use them as a disguise to avoid unnecessary problems.

Then, Su Yu took away the demonic artifacts and the storage space of the four bandits.

After checking these items, Su Yu found all of them were full of powerful demonic energy, which was completely incompatible with his skills and techniques.

Therefore, Su Yu threw those items to the Patrol Envoy and his daughter, which made them ecstatic.

Among the four bandits, there had been two Stage Three Mortal Fairies! Because of their previous plunders, their storage rings were full of all kinds of precious items, which were even more than the Patrol Envoy could ever hope to own.

Su Yu's casual handout was more than the properties of Qian Jun which had been accumulated for several hundred years!

"Thank you, Lord Demon King! You are the most generous, brilliant and handsome Demon King I've ever met! I love you so much!" Sha'er's eyes lit up as she looked at the other storage rings in her hands. The treasures were making her mouth water.

Hearing this, Qian Jun shouted angrily, "Mind your words! You are not allowed to speak to the Demon King like that!"

Qian Jun folded his arms at Su Yu again and said, "Lord Demon King, you saved our life and gave us so many precious items! We are not able to make any recompense to you! So, we decide to serve you from now on!"

The demonic city had been ruined. Qian Jun was no longer a Patrol Envoy. So, it was reasonable for him to pledge loyalty to a powerful Demon King.

Su Yu replied with a faint smile, "OK! I need your assistance now!"

Hearing this, Qian Jun was overexcited. Being an underling of such a powerful and generous Demon King was much better than being a Patrol Envoy.

When Qian Jun excitedly checked the two Storage Rings, his expression changed, and he said in surprise, "This is..."

"What's wrong?" Su Yu asked.

Qian Jun frowned. Then, he checked the storage rings in her daughter's hands and said seriously, "How could this be?"

He took out four identical tokens of passing from the four storage rings. Su Yu found identical characters on the back side of each token.

"Jingxuan!"

"My lord, they were not ordinary bandits! They were envoys of the Jingxuan Realm!"

Su Yu raised his eyebrows after hearing that. Jingxuan Realm? What was that place?

"Ahem, is it a special place?" Su Yu asked.

Qian Jun looked at Su Yu in puzzlement. "My lord, you are from the Jingxuan Realm! Don't you know the Jingxuan Realm of the Sixth Princess is hostile to the Jingyu Realm of the Ninth Princess? Why did the envoys of the Jingxuan Realm appear in our Jingyu Realm?"

The Jingyu Realm? Su Yu was surprised as Xia Jingyu's beautiful face appeared in his mind.

Long time no see, Xia Jingyu!

We haven't met since we separated on the Zhenlong Continent!

Su Yu shook his head to suppress his yearning sensation. Then, he said seriously, "Does it mean they have other plans in this place?"

"I guess so! Just now they said they looted at their convenience while they carried out their task here, which means that task was their real object!" Qian Jun said. "That's why they were so powerful and different from ordinary bandits! I didn't expect them to be envoys! Humph! How abhorrent they were! It's the Jingxuan Realm's style to send their envoys to act as bandits!"

After thinking it over for a moment, Su Yu said, "Forget it. I am not interested in their plan. Let's go to the demonic city of the Agile Demon Master immediately!"

Then, the three of them left this place.

One month later, a large mass of dark clouds descended in this area.

Over 100 demons walked out from the cloud. All of them had reached the level of Mortal Fairy.

Their leader was a Demon King at the level of Peak Mortal Fairy. It seemed he was a full-blooded Demon King.

After checking the corpses of those bandits, a chilly light flashed in his eyes as he said, "No wonder I lost contact with them many days ago! They were killed as I expected. I don't know whether the secret has been exposed!"

"Anyway, this is a worthy loss. We have lured the Giant of the Bitter Sea to the Seawatch City which is guarded by the Ninth Princess! I guess the fight between them has commenced!"

When his voice still echoed in this place, he and his underlings had disappeared.

In a far away forest, Su Yu, Qian Jun, and Sha'er were standing beside a bonfire.

After traveling together for one month, they had come to know each other very well.

"Qian Jun, have you heard of the Star River outside the Demon Realm?" Su Yu asked.

"No, my lord Is there really a Star River outside the endless Realm of Demons?" Qian Jun asked.

Sha'er also looked up at Su Yu, and her bright eyes were full of curiosity and admiration.

It seemed this Demon King, who was a little bit weird from time to time, knew nothing about this place. For example, he had been asking them about the Rosy Clouds Fairy Concubine.

It was quite strange that he didn't know the Rosy Clouds Fairy Concubine who was the concubine of the Demon Emperor!

Sometimes this Demon King seemed to know many things. He told Sha'er that there was a vast Star River outside the Realm of Demons.

Su Yu sighed in his heart secretly because Qian Jun, who was a Stage Three Mortal Fairy, didn't know the Star River either!

The Realm of Demons was so vast that many demons were not able to go across it in their lifetime. How could they be interested in exploring the outside world?

In the past month, Su Yu had acquired many pieces of information about the Demon Realm by beating about the bush. Now, he knew the demons here were totally different from what he had experienced before.

For example, Qian Jun, Sha'er and the demons in the villages they had passed through never performed training by devouring other creatures. They also made progress by absorbing the demonic energy in all kinds of resources.

Therefore, they were totally different from the demons Su Yu was used to seeing and had learned about in the records.

Also, demons were not ferocious by nature. Although they were bellicose, they also had all kinds of emotions like the other creatures in the Star River.

Then, what was wrong with those ferocious demons who devoured everything like grasshoppers in the Star River?

Maybe ordinary demons didn't know the answer. So, he decided to ask a Demon Master.

"My lord, I think you could get an answer from the Agile Demon Master, who is very knowledgeable and gentle. I bet she will be able to answer your question!"

Now, Su Yu, Qian Jun and Sha'er had reached the dominion of the Agile Demon Master. In five days' time, they would arrive at the demonic city to meet this Demon Master.

When they were talking, they saw the sky was filled with a dazzling divine light which came over from the horizon.

At the same time, golden blood dropped from the sky like heavy rain. Qian Jun and Sha'er who were born in the Seawatch City couldn't help but feel sad.

A deity had passed away!

It was the deity who was in charge of the Seawatch City!

Su Yu stood up and became quite serious. Had the deity been killed by the Giant of the Bitter Sea?

Chapter 1203: A Little White Beast

Why would the Giant of the Bitter Sea appear in the Seawatch City?

Su Yu's instinct told him that he must be the target of the Giant of the Bitter Sea who had gone ashore because he had been so annoyed.

Why had the Giant switched his target and appeared in the Seawatch City which was located in the opposite direction?

What made the Giant of the Bitter Sea change his target?

As Su Yu was thinking this over, a hairy little creature fell from the sky like an asteroid.

The little creature, which seemed to be intelligent, flew towards Su Yu and his teammates.

Bang!

With a dull sound, the bonfire was smashed and a giant pit was created on the ground.

When Su Yu fixed his eyes on the thing that had fallen from the sky, he saw a small creature, which looked like a white fox or dog, was lying in the pit. Its short legs, white hair and black eyes made it quite cute.

Sha'er recovered herself and shouted in pleasant surprise, "Wow! What is it? It is so cute!"

She tried to touch the little creature. However, she was stopped by Qian Jun who shouted hurriedly, "Stop!"

This little creature had fallen through the sky with the divine blood. However, its hair was not stained. Moreover, as an experienced demon, Qian Jun had never seen a creature like it in the Demon Realm before.

A creature that looked harmless could be extremely dangerous!

Su Yu stared at the white creature as he narrowed his eyes which were full of killing intent.

Just now, he saw clearly that this white creature had fallen from the sky far away from them. When it saw Su Yu and his teammates, it changed its direction and fell near to them.

Swish!

The white creature which had fallen heavily to the ground didn't have a scratch on its body. It jumped up and started to run deep into the forest with its four short legs moving rapidly.

Su Yu sneered, "This is outrageous! What an evil beast! I didn't expect it would try to lure its enemy to us!"

Apparently, this small white beast was fleeing from its calamity.

It chose to land next to Su Yu and his teammates because it wanted to lure some enemies to them.

Qian Jun frowned and said, "I see. It seems something is chasing it. He tried to use us to slow down its enemies! How ridiculous it is! Lord Demon King, let me capture it!"

Qian Jun took out a black scimitar and threw it out immediately. The scimitar landed on the hind legs of the small beast with the magnificent strength of a middle-grade demonic artifact.

Qian Jun was totally surprised because the small white beast kicked the scimitar back with its hind legs without even looking back.

The scimitar failed to scratch or even cut a hair on the small beast's hind legs.

“This...” Qian Jun was shocked. He used 60% of his strength in this attack, which could at least seriously wound a Stage Two Mortal Fairy. What stage was this small white beast at?

Qian Jun received the scimitar with embarrassment. Then, he dashed forward and shouted angrily as he tried to grasp the small beast with his hand, “Stop! Evil beast!”

Squeak!

However, the small white beast was not terrified at all. It turned around and showed its teeth disdainfully. Then, it kicked back with its hind legs.

The next moment, Qian Jun, a Stage Three Mortal Fairy, was sent flying by that harmless-looking little white beast. Then, Qian Jun started to spit blood. Cracks could also be heard from his chest. It seemed the bones in his chest had been cracked.

Squeak! Squeak!

The little white beast raised its head and stared at Su Yu and his teammates disdainfully.

Then, it turned around and started to run towards the forest with a swagger.

However, a silver light beam flew towards it at the next moment.

Without any hesitation, the little white beast attacked the silver light with its front legs. The silver light was smashed and a small silver sword appeared in front of it.

Squeak!

The little white beast knocked the sword away easily and was about to run away. Suddenly, it stopped and warily looked at the void in front of it.

Actually, a further eight silvery swords were hiding in the void in front of it. If it continued to move forward, it would be trapped in this powerful sword formation.

At the last moment, the little white beast twisted its body in an incredible way and managed to run away from the edge of the sword formation.

Then, the little white beast looked back again. It even pointed at the ground with its paw disdainfully to show its contempt.

However, Su Yu’s voice came into the ears of the little white beast the next moment.

“Interesting! You are able to perceive the Nine Suns Cosmos Sword Formation in advance, which means your perception is even better than some Initial Stage prospective deities!”

Hearing this, the little white beast was somewhat stunned. Then, it found Su Yu was standing in front of it.

Without any hesitation, it dashed forward and tried to knock Su Yu away as it had done to Qian Jun.

However, when its paws were about to reach Su Yu, a giant Five Elements Mountain appeared in front of Su Yu.

The little white beast's attack was totally absorbed by the mountain and it was knocked back by a magnificent strength.

It rolled over on the ground several times. Its white hair was in a mess.

Squeak! Squeak!

The little white beast roared by showing its teeth angrily.

Before it could jump up from the ground, the Five Elements Mountain landed heavily on its body.

Squeak!

The little white beast started to dig up the earth with its small paws. Then, it managed to raise the Five Elements Mountain in an unsteady way.

Swish!

However, a black rope flew over and twined on its neck to suppress the strength in its body.

Immediately, the little white beast collapsed like a stretch of boggy mud. Although it still growled ferociously, it was not able to move anymore.

"Lord Demon King, what is this?" Qian Jun asked as he stared at the little beast with widened eyes.

Su Yu didn't answer but also stared at the small beast in surprise.

He didn't expect this small beast would be able to raise the Five Elements Mountain which could subdue a deity!

Although Su Yu was not able to use the full strength of the Five Elements Mountain, he could subdue a prospective deity with this mountain easily.

Therefore, Su Yu was totally shocked by what had happened just now.

If Su Yu failed to seal the strength in the small beast's body, it would run away sooner or later.

"Let's leave here immediately. I guess the enemies of this beast are drawing near. This is definitely not a good place to stay!" Su Yu said hurriedly.

He put away the Five Elements Mountain as he grasped the rope in his hand tightly.

When the Five Elements Mountain was moved away, the little white beast jumped up as it showed its teeth angrily.

Bang!

Su Yu spanked the butt of the small beast with his palm and shouted, "Behave yourself!"

The little white beast screamed and stood up like a man. Then, it covered its butt with its paws as it stared at Su Yu angrily as if it had been greatly humiliated.

What? I didn't expect it could be so intelligent! Su Yu was surprised.

"What are you looking at? I will smash your butt if you dare to do anything reckless!" Su Yu said snappily. The next moment, he jumped onto the flying demonic artifact as he dragged the little white beast like he was walking a dog. Then, they left immediately.

One hour later

A large mass of dark clouds descended. It contained the auras of several prospective deities and over 100 Peak Mortal Fairies.

One of the prospective deity among them was the full-blooded demon who had appeared several months ago.

He landed on the ground and checked this place. Then, he said seriously, "Yes! This is the aura of the Ninth Princess! The Giant of the Bitter Sea defeated her and turned her to her original form. Then, she fled to this place! Let's split up to search for her. It is impossible for her to cover a large distance in such a short time!"

After a while, they came back to this place.

"What? You didn't find her in an area of which the diameter was around 1,000,000 kilometers?" The full-blooded demon frowned. "Expand the search area and continue to look for her! This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to kill the Ninth Princess! The Sixth Princess will reward us handsomely if we can accomplish this mission!"

"As you wish!"

Hearing this, the other demons split up again and started to search a much larger area.

The full-blooded demon looked up at the sky ferociously. "Ninth Princess," he said, "you won't get away this time!"

Chapter 1204: The New Pet Puppy

In the evening, Su Yu and his teammates sat beside a campfire.

The little white beast was trussed up tightly on a bracket. It kept growling ferociously and showing its teeth.

"Wow! How cute it is! What is this creature? I haven't heard of it before!" Sha'er said affectionately as she squatted in front of the small beast with her hands cupped around her cheeks.

Qian Jun, who was still puzzled, rubbed his aching chest and said, "It seems this small beast is not a martial artist. However, the strength in its body makes it a powerful expert. It is almost like a Demon King!"

No, it is more powerful than a Demon King! Su Yu shook his head secretly. A creature who was able to raise the Five Elements Mountain was at least an Initial Stage prospective deity!

Qian Jun had survived the attack of the small beast because the small beast didn't want to kill him. Otherwise, he would have been killed by its kick.

"Lord Demon King, it's so cute! Please don't torture it, OK?" Sha'er entreated Su Yu.

Su Yu placed a big pot above the campfire and started to add different seasonings to it. Then, he replied by nodding his head with a smile. "Of course! I bet such a cute beast is very delicious! Tonight, let's enjoy the dog meat hot pot!"

Squeak! Squeak!

Hearing this, the little white beast showed its teeth angrily again as if totally annoyed by being called a dog.

Sha'er opened her mouth and was about to ask Su Yu for mercy again.

"Oh? Do you want to roast it?" Su Yu touched his chin as he looked at this little white beast carefully. Then, he said, "We could also barbeque it! I don't know whether it could be as tender as roasted suckling pig!"

Sha'er was so embarrassed. Why was the Lord Demon King so fond of eating small cute animals?

As expected, the little white beast continued to show its teeth by staring at Su Yu angrily.

Before long, the water in the pot started to boil.

Su Yu walked to the bracket as he took out a knife. Then, he looked at the belly of the little white beast and said, "Don't move! You will regret it if I stab the knife into the wrong position!"

The little white beast was so annoyed that it did its best to struggle. However, the black rope had suppressed most of the strength in its body and had greatly weakened it. Right now, it was feeble.

The little white beast didn't expect Su Yu to touch its belly with two of his fingers.

It stared at Su Yu with its eyes wide. "What the hell are you going to do?"

"Oh, your heart is here!" Su Yu gently touched the left part of its chest after making sure its heart was there.

Then, Su Yu placed the knife on the small beast's chest and prepared to stab it into its heart.

When the little white beast felt the cold blade on its skin, its eyes were full of sorrow and grievance.

It seemed it tried to express its grievance that it was about to be killed miserably and cooked.

"Lord Demon King, please don't do that!" Sha'er almost burst into tears when she looked at the little white beast. She didn't dare to stop Su Yu although she really wanted to save the small beast.

Su Yu replied by shrugging his shoulders. "I have no other option! It is so powerful. If I release it, it will be extremely dangerous for us. So, we have to eat it. Maybe we can enhance our training stage by eating its meat!"

Hearing this, the little white beast lowered its eyes as if it was asking mercy from Su Yu.

"You are asking for mercy from me, right?"

The little white beast nodded its small head.

"You don't want to be eaten in this dog meat hot pot, do you?"

Hearing this, the little white beast immediately nodded its head. Then, it shook its head and stared at Su Yu angrily as if to say, you are a dog! All your family members are dogs!

“Then, are you willing to become a spiritual pet?”

The little white beast reluctantly nodded its head. Its eyes were dim and full of grievances.

“Can you cook?”

The little white beast shook its head.

Su Yu was a little bit unhappy. Then, he asked, “Can you warm my bed?”

Ah! The little white beast shook its head like a rattle drum.

Su Yu said coldly, “You can’t cook! You can’t warm my bed! You are useless to me! You can only waste food! Forget it! Maybe it is a good idea to eat you in this hot pot!”

Su Yu pressed the knife tightly against the chest of the little white beast.

The little white beast was so terrified that it even started to shout in demon language, “OK! OK! I can warm your bed for you...”

It cried miserably and its two big eyes were full of tears because it had been completely terrified.

Then, the knife on its chest stopped moving forward.

“Why don’t you say that earlier?” Su Yu said with a sinister smile. He was like a villain who had managed to bully a lady.

“Since you have decided to warm my bed for me, you are my pet now! However, you are too powerful and could escape at any time. So, I have to place a seal in your body!”

Hearing this, the small beast nodded its head hurriedly as if it was quite afraid.

Actually, a strand of disdain flashed deep in its eyes because no seal in this world could control it.

“OK!” the beast thought. “I will pretend to obey his orders. When he lowers his vigilance, I will run away... Wait! Why should I run away? I will defeat him when he lets his guard down. Then, I will force him to warm my bed for me!”

“Right! An eye for an eye! I will also force him to warm my bed for me!”

The little white beast started to look at Su Yu with a sturdy but thoughtful smile as if it had gained a great sense of accomplishment by forcing this abhorrent guy to warm its bed for it.

“Open your soul!” Su Yu said.

The little white beast obediently followed Su Yu’s order. Then, it closed its eyes and murmured in its heart secretly, “Humph! I will punish you severely when I remove this seal. I will tie you to a bracket and terrify you by placing a knife against your chest. I will ask you to cook for me and warm my bed for me! Hah! Hah! Hah! Hah! Hah! Hah... What? Wait!”

Suddenly, the little white beast realized that the seal that had been placed in its soul was quite peculiar. It looked down and saw a strand of light with nine colors. Then, its soul was closed.

After feeling the seal carefully, the little white beast was totally terrified.

This... is... the Seal of Nine Deities... It was not a seal that could be taken out by an ordinary All Creation demon! It was a combined seal of nine deities!

The little white beast could remove anyone of these seals easily.

However, if it wanted to remove combined seals, it would need at least two kinds of different divine strength.

The seal which was placed in its soul contained nine kinds of divine strength. In other words, it would need nine deities to help it to remove this seal.

It was impossible for it to remove this soul alone!

“Ah! No!” the little white beast shouted reluctantly.

It knew it was really going to have to warm this guy’s bed!

“Good!” Su Yu touched its hairy little head and released the black rope with a smile. Now, Su Yu could destroy the small beast’s soul easily through that seal. So, it was unnecessary to keep it tied up.

This seal was the backup artifact prepared for the Misfortune Deity. Su Yu didn’t expect he could use it on this little white beast.

Although he didn’t know this small beast, he knew it was worthwhile to use it on a powerful and intelligent creature that could even speak demon language.

After being released, the little white beast lowered its head miserably like a frosted eggplant.

“There! There!” Sha’er said as she touched the small beast’s head lovingly. “As long as you do your best to warm Lord Demon King’s bed, he will never treat you badly! Lord Demon King is a generous demon!”

Squeak! Squeak!

The little white beast shook Sha’er’s hand from its head. Then, it walked to the campfire and stood there with its front legs folded in front of its chest as it stared at the flame seriously. It seemed it was thinking about its life in the future.

“What now? What should I do? I am really going to have to warm this b*stard’s bed!” the little white beast murmured in its heart to itself. “I need to run away! Right! I have to escape from his evil hands!”

“Puppy, come here!” Su Yu shouted.

Hearing this, the little white beast moved its ears. Puppy? Was that the name of a dog? What a countrified name!

“Hey! You! Puppy, come here!”

The little white beast turned around and looked at Su Yu with puzzlement. Where was this Puppy?
When the little white beast made eye contact with Su Yu, it trembled a bit. Then, it pointed to itself with its paw and looked at Su Yu in disbelief. Are you calling me?

“Right! Puppy is your new name!”

Puff!

The little white beast felt a fit of dizziness in its head as Su Yu’s words echoed in its ears.

Puppy! Puppy! Puppy!

Then, the little white beast rolled its eyes and fainted because of anger. Before it lost its consciousness, it could still hear its new name being repeated by that b*stard!

In its dream, the little white beast heard the word Puppy many times.

After a long time, it came round again and the word Puppy disappeared from its ears at last. Then, it let out a sigh of relief. Phew! What a long and horrible nightmare!

“Hey! Puppy! Are you awake? If you continue to sleep, we plan to stew you before you die to avoid wasting any food!”

The word and the voice in its nightmare came into its ears again!

“No! I don’t want this name!” the little white beast roared angrily in demon language again.

...

Five days later

In a restaurant that was very close to the mansion of the Agile Demon Master in the demonic city controlled by her.

Su Yu, Qian Jun, Sha’er, and Puppy were sitting around a table. The atmosphere was a little bit tense.

Qian Jun and Sha’er were quite worried at the moment.

“I didn’t expect the City Master of the Seawatch City could be taken away by the Giant of the Bitter Sea! Princess Jingyu also disappeared after being wounded by the Giant of the Bitter Sea! How could this be? They have a secret way to expel the Giant of the Bitter Sea. Why was she still wounded?” Qian Jun had been loyal to Princess Jingyu when he was a Patrol Envoy in the Jingyu Realm, So, he was quite frustrated when he heard the princess had disappeared.

Su Yu consoled them. “I believe God will bless the princess! Maybe she has been saved and is healing her wounds now!”

Suddenly, Su Yu looked at the little white beast. “Puppy, why are you staring at me?” he asked. “What do you want to say?”

Puppy shook its head. Now, it had accepted this name which would bring humiliation to its life.

“Oh? Do you want something to eat?” Su Yu said as he tossed a piece of bone to the floor. “Here! Your master loves you the best!”

Puppy rolled its eyes as it looked at the bone. However, it still rushed towards the bone and started to gnaw it with gusto. It seemed it had a conditioned reflex towards bones.

Puppy sobbed in its heart as it gnawed the bone. “Sob! Sob... Demon Emperor, please forgive my depravity! I... I am not able to resist him!”

Over the past five days, it had been tamed by Su Yu like a dog. Now, it had cultivated the conditioned reflex towards bones.

Qian Jun looked at the little white beast sympathetically. “My lord, we have reached the demonic city. You don’t want to visit the Agile Demon Master directly. Why do you choose to fish for information in the streets?” he asked.

They had stayed in this restaurant to try and get the latest information about the situation.

They were totally shocked when they heard that the City Master of the Seawatch City had been killed and the Ninth Princess had disappeared after being badly wounded.

Su Yu looked at the mansion of the Agile Demon Master and said thoughtfully, “I don’t think it is a good idea to visit the Demon Master directly when the Giant of the Bitter Sea is making trouble. Let’s check the recent visitors of the Agile Demon Master first!”

Qian Jun was surprised by Su Yu’s prudence although he didn’t regard it as right. But he continued to observe the visitors of the Agile Demon Master closely together with Su Yu.

However, as the observation went on, Qian Jun grew more and more surprised.

Chapter 1205: Obstruction and Interception

Half a day later, Su Yu took a breath and said, “Many experts at the level of Demon King come here to seek refuge with the Agile Demon Master. I guess many of them are your former colleagues, aren’t they?”

Qian Jun looked up and looked at Su Yu admiringly. “My lord, you are really a prophet! Among these visitors, many experts are from the Carefree Demonic City and are my former colleagues. It seems the surviving Demon Kings decided to seek refuge in the Agile Demonic City after the destruction of the Carefree Demonic City!”

Su Yu nodded his head and said thoughtfully, “Most of the visitors have come here to seek refuge. So, it will be very difficult for us to meet the Agile Demon Master who is so busy, let alone talk with her!”

The main purpose of Su Yu’s visit was to get information about the entrance to the Demon Realm. If they could not get any useful information, they would have to leave here and go straight to the capital of the Demon Realm.

At least, Su Yu was sure that a woman, whose name was the Rosy Clouds Fairy Concubine, was a concubine of the Demon Emperor.

It would be quite easy to confirm whether she was the one Yun Yazi had tried to find.

When they were observing the mansion of the Agile Demon Master, one woman and two men walked down from the upper story of the restaurant.

The woman was quite elegant and noticeable.

The two men who were standing on either side of the woman were quite handsome and calm.

When they appeared, all the people on this floor immediately stopped talking and looked at the three people in terror. When they saw the woman, they even sat up straight reverently.

The woman and two men went downstairs. When the woman glanced at Su Yu and his teammates, she frowned slightly as she said, "You have been watching the mansion of the Agile Demon Master for a long time!"

Hearing this, Qian Jun was surprised. Did it mean that she knew what they were doing here?

To avoid any misunderstanding, Qian Jun replied hurriedly, "Lord Demon King, we come here to visit Lord Agile. There are so many visitors here. So, we have to wait here for our turn!"

Although Qian Jun didn't know the woman and the two young men, he had to treat three experts at the level of the Demon King carefully.

His excuse could hold water because the Agile Demon Master was truthfully quite busy at the moment.

"You can visit the Agile Demon Master. But stop your sneaky observations here. Otherwise, don't blame us if you are arrested because of your suspicious actions!" the woman said with disapproval.

Then, she glanced at the little white beast beside Su Yu's leg. Surprise immediately appeared in her eyes.

However, she regained her normal appearance by looking away nonchalantly.

"Heh! Heh! They are Demon Kings who were terrified by the Giant of the Bitter Sea! Now, they are homeless. So, it is understandable that they treat everything vigilantly. Miss Feiran, don't let them ruin your mood!" the dark-skinned young man who was standing on the woman's left said with a smile.

The pale-faced young man on the other side of her also nodded and smiled.

Then, the three of them went downstairs.

When they walked to a quiet place, the woman stopped and said suddenly, "Find a way to detain those three people!"

What? The two men were a little stunned after hearing that. We passed by those people just now. Why should we detain them?

"That little white spiritual pet looks quite familiar. I don't know whether my speculation about it is right or not. So, we have to take it from them!"

Familiar? The two men hadn't paid any attention to that little white beast just now.

“My lady, why didn’t you arrest them just now? Because of your identity, nobody would dare to stop you!”

The woman replied, “No! By my best guess, this small beast is very powerful. We can’t take it by force. You find a way to get it and give it to me. As for those three people, you could kill them or seal their mouths to avoid this issue being disclosed... And you should give the small beast to me secretly. Don’t let the Agile Demon Master know about this!”

“As you wish, my lady!”

In the restaurant, Su Yu sighed as he touched the head of the little white beast. “Puppy, I have to feed you every day! But you haven’t done anything useful for me yet. I guess you will bring me a lot of trouble! I think it is time for us to leave this demonic city now!”

Su Yu had noticed the woman’s thoughtful gaze just now.

However, Su Yu didn’t suspect the small beast had a hidden identity. He believed the woman cast her greedy eyes on this precious spiritual pet.

It seemed that the woman’s status was extraordinary. Although Su Yu was not afraid of anyone, including the Demon Master, in this demonic city, he still wanted to avoid any unnecessary trouble.

“Let’s leave for the capital now!”

The capital? The little white beast shook its ears as it gnawed a piece of bone quietly. However, its nostrils kept chugging as if it was expressing its protest against Su Yu’s “frame-up”.

Qian Jun became quite serious. He had got the feeling that the woman was quite edgy and also thought that they should leave here as soon as possible.

Although Qian Jun was surprised when Su Yu said they were about to go to the capital, he really had nowhere to go in this world. Therefore, he was willing to follow Su Yu.

The three of them and Puppy arrived at the Transportation Portal that could take them to another demonic city.

However, when they arrived, they found the portal was temporarily sealed.

“Heh! Heh! It seems we are too late!” Su Yu said calmly.

If that woman knew Su Yu used to ruin the World of Divine Remnant, maybe she wouldn’t have the guts to stop him from leaving here.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The next moment, a group of guards in uniform, who had reached the level of Mortal Fairy, flew into this place. They were led by the two men from the restaurant who had reached the level of Demon King.

Seeing this, Qian Jun was quite worried. Two Demon Kings! How could they defeat two Demon Kings here?

Qian Jun, who pretended to be calm, walked over and folded his arms at those guards. “Are you law enforcement officers in this demonic city? My name is Qian Jun and I am a Patrol Envoy of the Carefree Demonic City. What are you going to...”

“Shut up! I don’t care where you are from! We suspect the three of you are planning to do something to the mansion of the Agile Demon Master. You must come with us for further investigation!” the two leading Demon Kings said as the auras of Peak Mortal Fairies gushed out from their body.

Qian Jun was quite angry. How could you say that? We just looked at the mansion from outside. A lot of people were watching the mansion from that restaurant!

“My lords, this is my identity plate. Please have a look! We are not bad guys!” Qian Jun said as he gave his identity plate to those guards.

The dark-skinned Demon King grabbed the plate and looked at it casually. Then, he smashed the plate and looked at Qian Jun with a cold smile. “You are a drowning dog and not a Patrol Envoy now! Wake up! Your Carefree Demon Master has gone! Here, you are nothing!”

“Arrest them!” the pale-faced Demon King who hadn’t yet spoken ordered by waving his hand.

Swish!

Those guards behind them rushed up and surrounded Su Yu and his teammates with horrible killing intent.

“Surrender! If you dare to resist, we have the right to kill all of you before giving a report to our superior!” The dark-skinned Demon King gave his order as he glanced at the little white beast.

Now, in this transportation portal, the two Demon Kings would be able to take away the little white beast and secretly give it to Miss Feiran.

Qian Jun’s heart was torn with anxiety. If they resisted, they would be killed here. If they surrendered, they would also end up in a miserable situation.

Qian Jun became hesitant. However, those guards took out chains and rushed towards Su Yu and his teammates without any hesitation.

“Heh! Heh! I don’t want to make trouble. And don’t take it as timidity!” Su Yu said as he knocked back a law enforcer in front of him with several golden light beams.

They were resisting arrest!

Seeing this, the two Demon Kings were quite glad instead of being angry. The dark-skinned Demon King said ferociously, “This is the moment I have been waiting for! Law enforcers, the criminals have resisted arrest by wounding a law enforcer. Now, kill them!”

He dashed towards Su Yu. Then, he attacked Su Yu’s chest with one of his hand which was full of the magnificent strength of a Mortal Fairy.

The next moment, his smile disappeared from his face as his body was penetrated by a golden palm from behind.

Then, the palm vibrated a bit and the Demon King’s body was broken into several pieces!

Ah!

Along with a miserable scream, the dark-skinned Demon King's soul flew out from his body and rushed towards the other Demon King immediately.

However, his soul was penetrated by a golden arrow the next moment. Then, his soul was completely destroyed.

Within several breaths, a Demon King had been killed.

The other Demon King and the rest of law enforcers gasped. Even Qian Jun was greatly surprised.

Qian Jun knew Su Yu was powerful because he had killed two Stage Three Mortal Fairies easily.

However, Qian Jun didn't expect Su Yu could kill a Demon King within one round!

Su Yu's stinging attack had totally impressed Qian Jun!

Swish!

Su Yu took back the Celestial Destroying Arrow and wiped the blood from it calmly.

Around him, those law enforcers, who didn't dare to move at all, stared at Su Yu with widened eyes. They knew Su Yu could kill them easily.

The other Demon King was also extremely shocked. He could do nothing but also stared at Su Yu in terror as his heart pounded furiously.

Then, Su Yu said calmly, "Tell that woman to never try to do it again! Otherwise, even the Demon Master can't protect her!"

After saying that, Su Yu calmly left the demonic city with his teammates as the law enforcers simply looked on.

After a while, those law enforcers recovered their wits.

"Lord Demon King, what... should we do now?"

The pale-faced Demon King said in terror, "Let's go back and report to Miss Feiran! This guy's strength... is horrible!"

In a big hall, the woman who was waiting for the arrival of the small beast received a message which annoyed her.

Bang!

The woman pounded the table in front of her angrily. "How dare he!"

She didn't expect this guy could threaten her in such an arrogant way!

This blatant threat had totally annoyed her.

"Nobody dares to threaten me in this way in the dominion of the Agile Demon Master!"

The pale-faced Demon King said, "Miss Feiran, please calm down! This man's strength is unfathomable! He also has powerful artifacts. Experts at the level of Demon King are not able to rival him!"

The woman thought it over for a while after hearing that. Then, she said resolutely, "That small beast is crucial to my future! I have to get it from them! If Demon Kings are not able to rival him, I guess prospective deities could defeat him! Those assassins sent by the Sixth Princess should do something now!"

Hearing that, the pale-faced Demon King looked around vigilantly.

If those assassins were sent to carry out this mission, that guy would be killed no matter how powerful he was.

"In order to ensure safety, ask the Mind Control Demon Master to finish them!" the woman said viciously. "Because of your threat, all of you will die miserably!"

Chapter 1206: Mind Control Demon Master

Outside the demonic city, Qian Jun was quite anxious as he slowly flew forward on the flying demonic artifact.

Su Yu had killed a Demon King. The woman who was threatened would never stop making trouble for them. She would definitely send more experts to kill them. Now, Su Yu and his teammates were traveling slowly. Wasn't this suicidal?

Maybe Su Yu could kill one Demon King easily. What if his enemy sent 10 or even 100 Demon Kings?

Many Demon Kings had come to this place to seek refuge with the Agile Demon Master.

Su Yu was still quietly learning the inheritance of the Tree Goddess.

It was highly possible that the Tree Goddess's inheritance was from the Ancient Tung Tree. Su Yu was not able to acquire all of them. However, her Divine Path had helped Su Yu a lot in comprehending his own Divine Path.

Now, Su Yu's Divine Path had reached the Peak Pure Divine Decree. Next, his Divine Path would reach the Void Transformation Divine Decree.

The Void Transformation Divine Decree was a Divine Path.

Although Su Yu was a prospective deity, his training stage and Divine Decree were far away from the level of a prospective deity.

The Divine Path in the Tree Goddess's inheritance could provide great assistance to Su Yu in comprehending his own Divine Path. After all, only the Tree Goddess could give her Divine Path to Su Yu without any reservation.

Su Yu was acquiring the inheritance with great eagerness. It could allow him to keep perfecting his own Divine Decree.

Five days later, they arrived at the border of the demonic city. If they continue to move forward, they would enter the dominion of another Demon Master.

Qian Jun, who had been anxious for a long time, let out a sigh of relief. He was surprised that their enemy hadn't hunted them down on their way.

“My lord, we are about to enter the dominion of the Aurora Demon Master. I guess we will be safer there!” Qian Jun lowered his vigilance and said with a smile.

With his eyes still closed, Su Yu said calmly, “Safer? I don’t think so. Two prospective deities have been following us for a long time. I guess they are going to kill us here!”

Qian Jun was surprised by his words. “Two prospective deities?”

A prospective deity was at least at the level of a Demon Master. However, each place only had one Demon Master. Did it mean the Agile Demon Master had come here with a friend who was also a Demon Master?

As Qian Jun puzzled over Su Yu’s words, two chilly auras appeared and stopped Su Yu and his teammates from moving forward or running away.

“Oh? I didn’t expect you could sense our existence! What a surprise!”

Swish!

Two prospective deities descended in this area with weak divine strength.

One of them, who was wearing an animal hide, was strongly-built.

The other one was wearing a long black robe that covered his entire body. Even his face was hiding in the shadows.

The young man who was wearing an animal hide looked at Su Yu and his teammates as he licked his lips coldly. When he saw the little white beast beside Su Yu’s feet, he was a little terrified a bit as he murmured in his heart secretly. It really looks like the one we are looking for! No wonder Feiran asked us to intercept them!

“I’ve heard you are only an All Creation expert but you managed to kill a Demon King who was at the level of the Peak Mortal Fairy easily!” the young man said as he looked at Su Yu curiously. “I like those who are gifted. So, I decided to show mercy to you!”

Qian Jun and Sha’er had been totally terrified by what they saw. Demon Master! Two Demon Masters were standing in front of them!

Instead of sending more Demon Kings, their enemy had sent Demon Masters to intercept Su Yu and his teammates.

How could they rival the Demon Masters? Maybe the Demon Masters could kill them with just one finger!

When Qian Jun heard one Demon Master agreed to show his mercy, his heart began to pound furiously. As expected, they were just like ants for those Demon Masters who could spare their life when they were in a good mood.

“How will you show us mercy?” Su Yu said as he opened his eyes with a smile.

The young man replied with a smile, “All of you will be killed by me!”

Hearing this, Qian Jun and his daughter were so frustrated. How could you say you will show us mercy when you have already made up your mind to kill us?

“Heh! Heh! Trust me! That woman plans to ask this gentleman beside me to kill you. If you are killed by him, your death will be quite miserable!”

Qian Jun and his daughter looked at the prospective deity who was hiding in his long black robe. Although they couldn’t see his face, they felt more terror from this guy.

“Since you keep silent, I guess your answer is yes!” the young man who was wearing an animal hide said with a smile. Then, a strand of weak divine strength flew out from his body.

Although it was quite weak, it was still divine strength. No matter how powerful a Mortal Fairy was, he or she only had the strength of Mortal Fairy!

The gap between the divine strength and the strength of Mortal Fairy was as wide as a sea!

If they were hit by this divine strength, they would be destroyed along with their soul!

Qian Jun stood in front of his daughter as he smiled wryly because he had given up resisting.

It was meaningless to resist the attack of a prospective deity.

When Qian Jun sensed the horrible divine strength, he slowly closed his eyes. However, after several breaths, he didn’t sense the pain of destruction but a cloud of harmonious strength of Five Elements which wrapped up him and his daughter.

Qian Jun gasped on the spot when he opened his eyes.

A cloud of five-color light, which was full of powerful strength of Five Elements, had enveloped Su Yu and his teammates.

The destructive divine strength was stopped after going into the five-color divine light. Now, it was only two meters away from Su Yu.

Su Yu was still sitting on the demonic artifact with his legs crossed.

Seeing this, the young man’s face darkened. “This suppressing strength is so powerful! It can even suppress divine strength! I guess it is from a top-grade demonic artifact in your body, right?”

He was quite serious because he knew only a few top-grade demonic artifacts could be found in the Demon Realm.

Who the hell was this guy? The young man who was wearing an animal hide was shocked and had a bad feeling about this situation.

Su Yu waved his sleeves to collect the divine light of Five Elements. Then, he threw the divine strength back to its owner.

The young man who was wearing an animal hide changed his expression slightly. Then, after wiping off the divine strength which was flying towards him, he asked seriously, “Who are you?”

Qian Jun and his daughter Sha'er also wanted to ask this question. By now, they had figured out Su Yu was absolutely not a traveler from the Jingxuan Realm. He must be a powerful demon with a secret identity.

"I don't want to kill too many people. Just don't push me!" Su Yu stood up from the demonic artifact and waved his sleeve calmly.

Hearing this, the young man became hesitant. Frankly speaking, he didn't want to fight against a secret guy who might have a top-grade demonic artifact.

However, he made up his mind when he looked at the little white beast beside Su Yu's feet.

"I can let you go. But you should leave this small beast with us!" he shouted.

Su Yu was still calm but an invisible killing intent appeared in his face. "I don't think you understood what I said before!"

The next moment, a large cloud of five-color divine light appeared behind Su Yu's back. Instantly, the five-color divine light appeared above the young man wearing an animal hide.

Then, the five-color divine light, which was full of the horrible strength of Five Elements, fell down.

The young man became very serious. He created a fiery-red fire lion with his Divine Path and tried to resist the strength of Five Elements with it.

Puff! The next moment, the fire lion was crushed by the divine light and became a small flame.

The young man was totally shocked because he was also suppressed by the divine light and was not able to move at all.

"What is the top-grade demonic artifact you have?" The young man in the animal hide was terrified because he had seen top-grade demonic artifacts before. However, he had never seen a horrible demonic artifact that could suppress a prospective deity like him easily.

Su Yu stared at the young man coldly. "I don't want to kill you because I don't have any issue with you. Now, you decide to seek death. Don't blame my cruelty!" he said.

Finally, the young man in animal hide figured out the meaning of Su Yu's words. Su Yu didn't want to run away. He just wanted to spare their life!

"Wait! You'd better think twice about what you are doing now! Do you know the consequences of attacking a Demon Master? By the way, I am from the Jingxuan Realm. If you annoy the Sixth Princess who is the master of this realm, nobody could protect you in this world!" the young man said as he secretly accumulated divine strength so that he could run away or strike back when he had an opportunity.

He chose to mention the Sixth Princess at this dire moment because he knew ordinary people in the Demon Realm didn't dare to offend the Sixth Princess. Only ruffians would!

It was a pity that Su Yu was a ruffian from the Star River.

“The Sixth Princess? What a coincidence! I fought against her not long ago. Thanks to this princess, I am trapped in this situation. If you hadn’t mentioned her, I might have let you go. What a pity...”

The next moment, a spear which was formed by the Evil Fatal Energy flew out from Su Yu’s hand and penetrated the young man’s body. Then, his body and soul were destroyed by the spear at the same time. Only a lump of golden Celestial Energy Sphere was left.

In front of the widened eyes of Qian Jun and Sha’er, Su Yu put the Celestial Energy Sphere into his pocket.

They didn’t expect the Celestial Energy Sphere of a mighty prospective deity could be taken away by him in this way!

Qian Jun and Sha’er couldn’t believe their eyes.

What Su Yu said just now even surprised them more!

He said he had fought against the Sixth Princess!

He managed to survive after fighting against the powerful Sixth Princess! Who the hell was this guy?

Hearing this, the little white beast rolled its eyes in surprise. Then, it started to look at Su Yu thoughtfully.

Su Yu’s identity had totally shocked Qian Jun, Sha’er, and the little white beast.

However, Su Yu shouted in a low voice at this moment, “Be careful! Guard your mind!”

He turned around and found that guy who was wrapped up by the long black robe had disappeared together with his aura.

However, a strand of dangerous aura was approaching Su Yu slowly.

Suddenly, Su Yu felt a sting in his soul. When he realized his soul was under attack, he reminded Qian Jun and Sha’er immediately.

Qian Jun managed to guard his soul in time. However, Sha’er, who was too young and inexperienced, lost control of her soul at last.

Along with a groan, Sha’er rolled her eyes and lost consciousness. Her soul was being controlled by a powerful mind.

Seeing this, Qian Jun tried to drag her back anxiously. However, Su Yu stopped him immediately, “Guard your mind! Don’t fall into his trap!”

That guy was trying to distract Su Yu and Qian Jun by controlling Sha’er. When they were anxious, he would take the opportunity to control them.

After being reminded by Su Yu, Qian Jun forced himself to calm down.

“Hah! Hah! Hah! Hah... Do you think you can defeat the Mind Control Demon Master by guarding your mind?” A voice echoed in the mind of Su Yu and Qian Jun at this time.

Hearing this, Qian Jun was totally terrified. “The Mind Control Demon Master!!”

There were many Demon Masters in the Demon Realm. Normally, it was not necessary for Qian Jun to know all those Demon Masters.

However, Qian Jun changed his expression abruptly when he heard the words of the Mind Control Demon Master!

Chapter 1207: Win Loyalty

“My lord, we’re in serious trouble! It’s the Mind Control Demon Master! Among the Initial Stage Demon Masters, he could enter the top 10! He’s remained undefeated within 3 rounds fighting against a Medium Stage Demon Master! He is extremely dangerous and proficient in controlling minds! Demon Masters who are at the same level as him aren’t so willing to fight against him!”

Qian Jun didn’t mention that he heard about the Divine Path of the Mind Control Demon Master being so awful. It was capable of uncovering the secrets hiding deeply in people’s hearts, especially painful memories. He was able to magnify those memories 10 or even 100 times more painful than before. Rather than from physical injuries, many people died from the painful memories destroying their souls.

Just then, the Mind Control Demon Master’s voice echoed in their mind again, “Endless Nightmare!”

Deep memories in Su Yu’s mind started to emerge. While Su Yu did his best to guard his mind, he was unable to resist.

It was as if he was going back in time. All the memories appeared in Su Yu’s mind one after another. At last, the memory of Su Yu as a young Martial Artist in the Xianyu Prefecture also appeared.

During the engagement ceremony, the Duke protected Su Yu and Xian’er from the deadly strike with his body.

It seemed that the flames that had devoured the Duke appeared on Su Yu’s skin and began to scorch him.

On the Zhenlong Continent, Master Li Guang, whose centennial hope failed, protected Su Yu with his life when the latter was being hunted down by his enemies.

Li Guang’s frozen body, solitude tomb, and unfulfilled wish were like daggers plunged deep into Su Yu’s heart.

The Duke of Xianyu and Master Li Guang used to have inspired Su Yu when he became a Martial Artist. Su Yu wanted to repay them for their kindness. Li Guang disappeared together with his aura. Thus, Su Yu regretted not being able to revive him even though he knew it was impossible.

If Su Yu could’ve revived him, he would’ve been so relieved knowing his century-long efforts and persistence didn’t fail and the woman he loved so much didn’t betray him.

It was a pity that Su Yu couldn’t go back to the moment where he passed away to revive him and alter history.

That deep sorrow and regret tortured Su Yu's heart and trapped him in a void of despair.

Eventually, Su Yu opened his eyes, brimming with regret, and sighed with yearning, "Master Li Guang, please rest in peace!"

Sighing, Su Yu emerged out from his endless memories as his eyes became clear.

"What? How could you come out from your memory without assistance from outside?" A surprised voice echoed in Su Yu's mind.

Compared to Su Yu, Qian Jun, who was also trapped in his endless nightmare, was rolling on the ground painfully. It seemed his soul was about to collapse and would soon die once his soul had been destroyed.

Su Yu pointed at Qian Jun and said calmly, "Endless Nightmare, stop!"

Whilst being tortured by his painful memories, Qian Jun opened his eyes. Although sorrow remained in his eyes, he had regained consciousness!

"That's impossible! You...you imitated my Divine Path!!" The Mind Control Demon Master shouted in surprise. He didn't know the Divine Path could've been imitated beforehand.

Although the imitated Divine Path was only half as powerful as the original one, it could still stop the Endless Nightmare easily.

Su Yu's handsome face was quite calm. He said with a chilling and murderous intent, "I haven't forgotten my painful past because I can't forgive those failures caused by my incompetence! I can endure those bad memories even you magnified them by 100 times!"

Su Yu then fiercely said, "But! What I can't endure is that somebody tried to trick me using the people I respect!"

A dragon would've been annoyed if its reverse scale was touched.

For Su Yu, the people he respected were his reverse scales.

Disregarding these reverse scales, Su Yu wouldn't have been as annoyed if his enemy attacked him with other measures.

"Endless Nightmare!" Su Yu shouted coldly. A transparent ripple appeared around him and Qian Jun, the ripple seemingly twisting in pain. At last, it left Su Yu and Qian Jun, moving into Sha'er's body and controlling it.

Vaguely, they saw a transparent demon controlling Sha'er by sticking to her back.

Swish!

Under its control, Sha'er picked up a sword and placed the tip on her chest. It seemed the sword had the strength to ruin souls.

If she stabbed the sword into her chest, her soul would be ruined immediately.

“If you don’t want to see her die, follow my orders! Otherwise, she will die along with her soul in front of your eyes!” The Mind Control Demon Master said coldly.

Qian Jun’s eye pupils constricted after hearing that. Infuriated, he said, “As a Demon Master, how could you threaten us with the life of an ordinary demon?”

“Cut the crap! Stand here and don’t move! If you make even the slightest movement, I will kill her on the spot!” Sha’er stabbed the sword several centimeters into her chest, black demon blood starting to gush out from the wound.

Qian Jun turned pale after seeing that. Despite his fury, he didn’t dare to move an inch.

With Sha’er under his influence, the Mind Control Demon Master walked back vigilantly. He knew he couldn’t kill Su Yu. Maybe he could also kill him using those magnificent light of Five Elements.

Su Yu didn’t move either. He just stared at the Mind Control Demon Master who had flown away by controlling Sha’er.

When the Mind Control Demon Master was sure he was far enough from Su Yu, he left from Sha’er’s back. He then turned around to flee towards the Agile Demonic City as he said coldly, “You jackass! Sometime in the future, you will regret what you did today!”

Looking into Shaer’s glassy eyes, the Mind Control Demon Master said, “She is useless to me now. She is yours!”

Poof!

The sword Sha’er was holding penetrated her heart, thus ruining her soul.

“Hahahaha!” the Mind Control Demon Master laughed rampantly as he flew away. Sha’er’s lifeless body started to fall from the sky.

Seeing this, Qian Jun rushed to catch his daughter’s body from the sky. Then, he screamed with deep sorrow and hatred, “Why? Why did you kill her when you can run away?”

When faced with death, the demons’ reaction resembled that of a human.

Swish!

A gorgeous woman in a black robe came out from Su Yu’s Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl. She stood before Qian Jun, but it seemed that he couldn’t see her.

After getting instruction from Su Yu, the Black Phoenix nodded her head as she looked at where the Mind Control Demon Master disappeared coldly before flying out like a gust of black wind.

“Let me see!” Su Yu said.

Weeping bitterly, Qian Jun said as he clenched his fists tightly, “My lord! Sha’er has...”

Su Yu silently placed his palm on Sha’er’s body. Then, amazing waves appeared around her.

Qian Jun was shocked; the pieces of his daughter’s ruined soul started to gather together, her lifeless body becoming vibrant.

After several breaths, Sha'er opened her eyes slowly and asked in confusion, "Hey! Dad! Why are you crying? Wait! Where is that Demon Master?"

Qian Jun's body trembled violently as he looked at his revived daughter.

Nobody could fill the gap between life and death. How could his dead daughter have been revived?

Even the servants who signed the Divine Agreement with a deity could only be revived by that deity's Celestial Energy Sphere when their body and soul were ruined.

However, it should've been impossible for Sha'er to be revived.

However, his wild joy was overwhelmed by the shock and terror in his heart soon.

He knew it would be bad news for him to know the secret that Su Yu was able to revive the dead.

To keep this a secret, this Demon King could've placed a horrible seal in the souls of him and his daughter and enslave them forever.

"It's time for you and your daughter to leave me now. Go!" To Qian Jun's surprise, Su Yu didn't kill him or his daughter but asked them to leave.

Su Yu didn't care if this secret was made public in the Realm of Demons. He was not a demon, so it was fine if demons knew this secret.

Ah! Qian Jun thought he misheard Su Yu, unable to believe that Su Yu would let him and his daughter go like this.

After briefly thinking about it, Qian Jun said as he dropped on his knees, "Lord Demon King, I am willing to follow you to repay your kindness of saving us twice now!"

Su Yu first saved him and his daughter from those bandits. Because Su Yu had saved his daughter's life again, Qian Jun chose to follow Su Yu to repay his kindness.

Su Yu asked as he looked at Qian Jun and Sha'er, "Follow me? Will you follow me regardless of who I am?"

Qian Jun replied seriously, "My lord, do you know the status of me and my daughter in the Realm of Demons?"

"You are insignificant here!"

Qian Jun said, "Because we are insignificant, everyone more powerful than us could kill us at will. Had you not saved us, we would have already been killed. We are now yours, my lord. We have severed all ties with any factions in the Realm of Demons. No matter who you are, we are at your disposal!"

Su Yu said with a smile, "What if I was a sworn enemy of the demons from outside the Realm of Demons? Would you still follow me?"

Before Qian Jun could reply, Sha'er said immediately, "Lord Demon King, it doesn't matter. You have saved our lives. So, we will follow you forever!"

The Realm of Demons was a dangerous place filled with death, so demons didn't care about the idea of race and origin.

Therefore, they didn't care about turning against the Realm of Demons.

"Hehe! Good! I don't have any background in the Realm of Demons. Now, I need help. If you have made up your mind to follow me, I can guarantee a prosperous future for you!" Su Yu said with a faint smile, knowing he had won their loyalty after saving them twice.

Su Yu would leave the Realm of Demons sooner or later, but he needed information about the Realm of Demons. Thus, he needed someone to secretly gather information for him.

Qian Jun and his daughter were pretty good candidates.

At that moment, the Black Phoenix came back seriously wounded with a Celestial Energy Sphere in her hand. She said with a smile, "My lord, I have brought back his Celestial Energy Sphere as you told me to!"

Like the Mind Control Demon Master, the Black Phoenix was also an Initial Stage prospective deity. However, as an assassin, she was much more powerful than the Mind Control Demon Master because she could kill most prospective deities during an ambush.

In a way, Su Yu obtained 2 Celestial Energy Spheres.

The demons' Celestial Energy Spheres were powerful enough to generate the strength of the demonic god, which could only be used by demons. Creatures from the Jiuzhou Continent were not able to use it.

"I will give these 2 Celestial Energy Spheres to you and your daughter. Try to reach the level of Peak Mortal Fairy so you can absorb them into your body!" Su Yu gave the 2 Celestial Energy Spheres to Qian Jun and Sha'er.

Gasp!

Hearing this, Qian Jun and Sha'er couldn't help but to simultaneously before trembling excitedly with a Celestial Energy Sphere in each of their hands.

This... was the Celestial Energy Sphere of a prospective deity!

Qian Jun's greatest wish was to become a Demon King who served a powerful Demon Master.

He never expected he could become a Demon Master.

"My lord, are... you really going to give them to us?" Qian Jun and Sha'er didn't believe they would be granted such power so easily.

Su Yu said, "Yes. The quality of these Divine Paths is bad. Please accept them; they are better than nothing!"

Better than nothing? Qian Jun and Sha'er kept shaking their head. "How could you say that? You're wrong!"

Chapter 1208: The Identity of the Small Beast

After getting the precious Celestial Energy Sphere of prospective deities from Su Yu, Qian Jun and Sha'er were more determined to follow Su Yu.

“Qian Jun will follow you until I die!”

“Right! Sha’er will go wherever you go, my lord!” Sha’er said with a smile.

Su Yu said calmly, “OK! Let’s go back to the Agile Demonic City!”

Uh...

Hearing this, Sha’er and Qian Jun were stunned. It was hard for them to flee to this place. Why would they go back?

“I am not used to keeping silent after being bullied several times!” Su Yu said as a chilly light flashed in his eyes, “I’ve warned that woman before. Instead of correcting her mistakes, she sent prospective deities to intercept me! Humph!”

His words terrified Qian Jun and Sha’er; Su Yu’s murderous intent was painful to watch.

“Let’s go!” They jumped on the flying demonic artifact and started to go back to the Agile Demonic City.

Su Yu planned to fulfill his promise by killing that woman, but he also wanted to confirm with her about a more important issue before she died.

He assumed that the background and history of the little white beast were significant. Otherwise, the woman wouldn’t have sent so many experts to rob the small beast and kill them.

She even sent 2 prospective deities who were underlings of the Sixth Princess to kill Su Yu.

Su Yu refused to believe a Demon King in a small demonic city could give orders to prospective deities in the Jingxuan Realm.

They must’ve been related somehow.

The little white beast trembled a bit when it noticed Su Yu was staring at it. It tried to avoid any eye contact with Su Yu as it murmured in its heart secretly, “Oh, no! What if my identity is revealed? This creature from the Star River may be from the 2 great alliances. If he knows I am the Ninth Princess, he’ll surely torture me brutally. Yes! He’d do that because he is a devil! No, he is the devil among devils! Oh, hell, no!!”

Su Yu smiled thoughtfully because he unintentionally captured a puny beast.

He bent down and touched its hairy head as he said with a smile, “Puppy, don’t be afraid! I will take good care of you!”

Hearing this, the little white beast trembled violently and fell straight to the ground, its eyes filled with desperation.

...

Several days had passed in the Agile Demonic City

Su Yu was wanted throughout the entire city as a criminal who once killed a Demon King here, so he was spotted by the guards immediately.

Feiran quickly heard about Su Yu’s return. Her face turned pale.

She had a bad feeling about the disappearance of those 2 prospective deities, knowing they might have been killed.

However, she still betted that the 2 prospective deities had taken the small beast directly back to the Sixth Princess.

When she knew Su Yu had returned, she stretched out her hand.

“Guards! Send more guards to defend the city and prevent him from entering!”

“As you wish!”

After a short while, she received more bad news.

“Lord Demon King! 3 wanted criminals broke the city gate after killing several guards! 5 Demon Kings who were sent to stop them had been killed!”

Hearing this, Feiran was in complete shock. “What? If I remember correctly, another 9 Demon Kings were supposed to be on the city wall! Where are they?”

“My lord, they have fled the battlefield!”

Feiran was furious and shocked. “As expected, I can’t rely on these worthless new recruits! Send the Demon King team guarding the Agile Demon Master’s mansion to kill the invaders. Remember, take no prisoners!” Feiran said calmly.

She believed that as the most powerful team in this demonic city, the Demon King team could even kill Initial Stage prospective deities!

After a while, she received more bad news.

“Lord Demon King, the Demon King team has been defeated. 10 Demon Kings were killed, while 30 Demon Kings were seriously wounded. The remaining 20 Demon Kings have fled!”

“What?” Feiran’s expression changed. She didn’t expect even the Demon King team to be unable to stop Su Yu and his team. Did that mean he killed both the Mind Control Demon Master and the Azure Bull Demon Master?

“Where are the invaders now?!” Feiran shouted.

“Lord Demon King, they have reached the downtown area of the city and are now heading for your mansion!”

Feiran quickly changed her expression upon hearing this, “Wait! You said they are heading for my mansion now? Are you sure?”

“Yes, my lord! They are heading towards your mansion!”

Gulp!

Feiran felt her throat being obstructed by something when Su Yu’s warning came into her mind; she had forgotten about it!

“Tell that woman to never try that again! Otherwise, even the Demon Master can’t protect her!”

It seemed he returned to fulfill his promise.

From the 2 missing Demon Masters and the defeated Demon King team, she knew these 3 guys. While they looked rather weak, they were quite powerful in reality.

She was so anxious that she couldn’t help but pace back and forth within her mansion as if a great calamity was at hand.

After a while, she clenched her teeth and said, “All hands in the mansion, engage the enemy and stop their invasion!”

After giving her order, she left her mansion and went to the Agile Demon Master’s mansion nearby.

At that moment, the Agile Demon Master was hearing reports.

The Agile Demon Master was not a full-blooded demon. As a female Demon Master, she looked quite ordinary but displayed a cruel murderous intent on her face.

After hearing the report, the Agile Demon Master said angrily, “I didn’t expect these guys to be so wild and rampant that they dared to rush into my city and kill my Demon Kings! Are they looking down upon me?”

After a short hesitation, the reporter replied carefully, “My lord, it seems their target is the Feiran Demon King in our city!”

“Feiran?” The Agile Demon Master said as she rolled her eyes, “Has Feiran offended someone powerful recently?”

“I’ve heard they attacked 3 passing demons, who ran away after killing an expert of Feiran Demon King. I don’t know why they chose to come back!”

The Agile Demon Master said coldly, “Ask Feiran to come to my mansion!”

She didn’t expect Feiran could bring this much trouble to her demonic city.

As the reporter was about to leave, Feiran Demon King had arrived anxiously.

“Lord Demon Master, please help me! Those 3 demons are insane!”

The Agile Demon Master said calmly, “Tell me what happened.”

Feiran Demon King said mournfully, “In the restaurant opposite to your mansion, I found the 3 of them peeping at your mansion furtively that day. I asked my underlings to question them about their identity and origin politely, but I didn’t expect those 3 demons to refuse to answer the questions! Then, they attacked my underlings when they were not prepared. One Demon King was killed by them!”

Hearing this, the Agile Demon Master said coldly with murderous intent, “What happened after that?”

“Before they ran away, they threatened that I would regret it if I kept chasing them!” Feiran said righteously, “To safeguard the dignity of the Agile Demonic City, I sent my underlings to hunt them down immediately. So, they were annoyed and tried to seek revenge against me by slaughtering innocent people in the city!"

"What I did before was for the Agile Demonic City. Lord Demon Master, please help me!" Feiran made a pitiful plea as if she suffered a great injustice.

"This is outrageous!" The Agile Demon Master said angrily, "I want to have a look at this guy who dares insult me!"

"Let's go and meet them! Humph!" The Agile Demon Master said angrily.

However, a chilling voice came in at that moment.

"No need for that. I am here to behead her myself!"

Chapter 1209: Princess Small Beast

Swish!

3 figures landed in front of the Agile Demon Master and Feiran after breaking the seal above the mansion.

After fixing her eyes on the comers, Feiran knew they were the 3 demons in the restaurant that day. Terrified, she subconsciously hid behind the Agile Demon Master.

"How dare you!" The Agile Demon Master shouted angrily. She didn't think these reckless fools dared to rush into her mansion; it was obvious that they looked down upon her.

Qian Jun replied seriously, "Agile Demon Master, this woman tried to frame us! First of all, she tried to kill us in the name of a law enforcer. So, my lord resisted and killed a Demon King who was her underling! Then, my lord released the rest of the law enforcers and asked them to relay a message to her that she should stop what she tried to do. My lord released them because he wanted to show his due respect to you!"

"But she didn't want to stop, so she sent 2 Demon Masters to kill us! Therefore, my lord came back to fulfill his promise by killing her! It is ridiculous that she would try to sow discord in front of you!"

Qian Jun narrated the course of this event without any exaggeration.

"Nonsense! What I did is for this demonic city! Why should I kill you? Also, do you think I have the power to give orders to 2 Demon Masters? If you're going to lie, at least make it more convincing!" Feiran fearlessly proclaimed as she stood behind the Agile Demon Master.

Qian Jun replied with a cold smile, "If my lord wanted to kill you, he would have done it in the restaurant! Why would he bother to kill you now?" You didn't cherish the opportunity given by my lord and instead wanted death, so my lord came back to end your life!"

Then, Qian Jun turned to the Agile Demon Master, “Now, I believe the Agile Demon Master has figured out the truth!”

“Heh heh...” the Agile Demon Master replied with a cold smile, “I choose to believe my underling! Did you think you could convince me to kill my trusted underling with a few words? Did you think I would ignore what you did in my city?”

“Today, none of you could leave this place!” The Agile Demon Master snorted as she took out a black cage filled with demonic energy.

This item instantly made everyone within its vicinity uncomfortable.

“My lord, this item is a top grade demonic granted by the Demon Emperor to the Agile Demon Master. It is called the Heaven Prison for Deities and Demons, which is a copied Emperor-based Saint Artifact! It can subdue a Medium Stage prospective deity!” Qian Jun reminded Su Yu secretly as he stared at the Agile Demon Master. The reverence in his eyes turned into contempt.

“I’ve heard the Agile Demon Master is respectable and knowledgeable. Now I know you can’t live up to your great reputation. You can’t distinguish right from wrong! You’re so dumb! Fortunately, my daughter and I met my lord first. Had we sought refuge with you, we would’ve regretted it for the rest of our lives.”

Su Yu interrupted Qian Jun by waving his hand.

Su Yu said calmly, “The Agile Demon Master can distinguish right from wrong. She knows what Feiran did is wrong. However, she has to stop us even though she knows she is being used by Feiran!”

As the Demon Master of this city, she wouldn’t allow others to kill her underling here. Otherwise, her reputation and prestige would be ruined completely.

Therefore, she was not stupid. On the contrary, she was quite smart because she knew she had to do this.

A strand of amazement appeared in the Agile Demon Master’s eyes upon hearing that. She couldn’t help but look at Su Yu carefully. It seemed this silver-haired young man was the leader of the other 2 demons.

“Even though you knew what I have to do, you still broke into my mansion! How reckless of you!” The Agile Demon Master said coldly, “I don’t care what kind of grievance you suffered before, you have caused plenty of trouble in my city. Now, I must quiet this disorder with your head!”

Swish!

The copied Emperor-based Saint Artifact in her hand started to rotate and expand rapidly. Then, dozens of black hands reached out from it and tried to drag Su Yu and his teammates into the cage.

In front of such a powerful demonic artifact, even a Medium Stage prospective deity had no choice but to flee.

Feiran sneered at the sight. She was confident about the strength of the Agile Demon Master, knowing the 2 Demon Masters couldn't rival the Agile Demon Master in combat.

After all, only a few Demon Masters had copied Emperor-based Saint Artifacts. The Agile Demon Master was one of them. She could enter the top 10 among all Demon Masters in the Moonview City. In this city, nobody aside from several Later Stage prospective deities could rival the Agile Demon Master.

Therefore, Feiran believed Su Yu and his teammates who rushed into this city recklessly had confirmed their fate.

In front of this activated copied Emperor-based Saint Artifact, Su Yu waved his hand to set up the Nine Suns Cosmos Sword Formation with 9 Celestial Swords.

The silvery swords formed a tightly-weaved net eliminating all the demonic hands that almost reached Su Yu and his teammates.

The Agile Demon Master changed her expression as she saw the sword formation, "What a powerful sword formation! Perhaps it could rival the Sacred Demon Sword Formation of our Demon Clan... No! I found some similarities between these 2 sword formations!"

It seemed the knowledgeable Agile Demon Master had figured out this sword formation was extraordinary.

Without hesitation, the Agile Demon Master shouted in a low voice to activate that copied Heaven Prison for Deities and Demons.

Even if it was a copied artifact, it was still an extremely powerful Emperor-based Saint Artifact.

Along with the roar coming out from the Heaven Prison for Deities and Demons, the menacing aura of a Medium Stage prospective deity rushed out.

Swish!

The transparent soul of a Medium Stage prospective deity immediately rushed out from the cage and started to dash towards Su Yu and his teammates.

This was why the Heaven Prison for Deities and Demons was dreaded. Once a soul was trapped in it, the soul would be under the cage's control.

"My lord, be careful!" Qian Jun shouted. Even it was just a soul of a Medium Stage prospective deity, it was still more powerful than any Initial Stage prospective deities!

Su Yu looked at the sky. A giant eye filled with rotating waves appeared in the sky and covered an area of tens of thousands of square kilometers.

The Soul Eyes, enhanced by the Tree God's Divine Path, were more solid and powerful than before.

Even a Demon King would've been subdued after being stared at by this giant eye. Su Yu could've easily taken away his enemy's soul and thrown it into that giant eye.

“The integration of the Divine Path and the Soul Path?” The Agile Demon Master was shocked as the combined path brimmed with power.

Although Su Yu’s Divine Path hadn’t reached the level of Void Transformation, it still terrified a prospective deity such as herself.

“Oh, no!” The Agile Demon Master realized the dangerous situation and tried to seal that hard-won soul of a Medium Stage prospective deity back into the cage. However, the giant eye in the sky blinked, instantly taking the soul away.

Before the Agile Demon Master had time to attack that eye, a cluster of colorful divine light fell straight down towards the heads of the Agile Demon Master and Feiran.

All of a sudden, the Agile Demon Master and Feiran were suppressed by that light.

The Agile Demon Master tried to raise the light with futile efforts. Feiran’s body of a Peak Mortal Fairy had been crushed by the light directly.

Feiran’s soul refused to budge under that divine light.

Feiran’s arrogance shifted into fright.

Su Yu walked up to them and said as he stared at Feiran calmly, “I’ve warned you before. As I said, even a Demon Master can’t protect you! You should have taken my words seriously!”

“You can’t kill me! I...I work for the Sixth Princess! If you kill me, you will become an enemy of the royal family!” In such a desperate time, Feiran didn’t dare to hide her secret identity anymore!

Hearing this, the Agile Demon Master beside her was greatly shocked. “You work for... the Sixth Princess!?”

“Even if you are her trusted follower, I will still kill you here. You are merely an expandable lap dog! Even the Sixth Princess can’t escape from my hand, let alone you! Capture her!” Su Yu shouted in a low voice. Then, Feiran’s soul was absorbed into the Soul Space.

Qian Jun and Sha’er didn’t believe what they heard just now.

“Even the Sixth Princess can’t escape from his hand!” Eh...he said it just now. Did he mean the powerful and cunning Sixth Princess Jingxuan?

Hearing this, the Agile Demon Master was also greatly shocked. Why did Feiran offend someone with so much power?

Despite being amongst the top 10 Demon Masters in the Seawatch City, the Agile Demon Master was defeated within 3 rounds!

When Su Yu turned to her, the Agile Demon Master said as she clenched her teeth, “You won! Now, the Ninth Princess is missing. Nobody could uphold justice for our city master! My life is at your disposal now!”

Su Yu replied with a faint smile, “Heh heh! I didn’t expect you to be so frank. But how would I benefit from killing you?”

Su Yu said as he kicked the cage up into the sky and grabbed it with his hand. Now, this powerful demonic artifact became Su Yu’s trophy.

The Agile Demon Master was forced to accept this fact because she couldn’t take it back from Su Yu. She quickly said, “If you don’t want to kill me, do you want me to surrender? In your dreams! I am only loyal to the Master of the Seawatch City! I will never pledge loyalty to you!”

As a Demon Master, she had pledged her loyalty to the deity who ruled the Seawatch City. She couldn’t break the vow enchanted by the deity’s strength. Otherwise, she would be killed by the deity’s strength in her body for her betrayal.

The Master of the Seawatch City was killed, but the vow was still in effect.

“Hahahaha...!” Su Yu laughed wildly, looking up at the sky. Then, he said in a horrendous tone, “What if I am the Master of the Seawatch City?”

“What?” The Agile Demon Master widened her eyes after hearing this. Qian Jun and Sha’er were also dumbfounded.

Everyone knew the Master of the Seawatch City had been killed. Did that mean... Su Yu was a replica created by his Celestial Energy Sphere?

However, Su Yu was with Qian Jun and Sha’er before the City Master died. How could he be a replica of the Master of the Seawatch City?

“Are... are you insane?” The Agile Demon Master looked at the young man in front of him with puzzlement, unable to understand what he said.

Su Yu waved his sleeve. Then, a hairy little white beast flew out from his Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl.

“Ninth Princess, please give your order to nominate me as the new Master of the City!”

When the small beast came out, it heard those terrible words immediately. It trembled a bit and didn’t dare to make eye contact with Su Yu or admit its identity of the Ninth Princess.

However, someone else admitted the fact for it.

“Ah! Ninth Princess!! Greetings, Ninth Princess, I am the Agile Demon Master!” The Agile Demon Master said with profound respect and humility after looking at the little white beast.

Blue veins appeared on the little white beast’s forehead out of anger. She murmured in her heart as she looked at the Agile Demon Master angrily, “This is so irritating! Can’t you figure out the current situation? Can’t you fool this devil by saying I am a spiritual pet of the Ninth Princess after receiving my implication? You exposed my identity, dumbass!”

When she was in the sulks, her head was touched by a hand as a nightmarish voice came in. “Heh heh! Puppy, I didn’t expect you are the Ninth Princess Jingyu! Why didn’t you tell me earlier? If you didn’t tell me, how would I know you are a princess? How could I feed you?”

“From now on, you will have one more bone in each meal, along with one more hour to relieve yourself every day. Su Yu said as he touched the little white beast’s head with a loving smile.

After hearing that, the little white beast trembled as she thrust her claws into the ground. Then, she said in her heart as she showed her teeth. “Ah! Ah! Ah! My reputation has been ruined completely! God, please smash this abhorrent devil to death with an asteroid!”

“What? Why won’t you thank me?” Su Yu said. Despite his smile, his voice sounded rather cold.

The little white beast turned around hurriedly. Anger had disappeared from her face. Then, she started to rub Su Yu’s hand with her head as she wagged her tail as if she was quite happy and grateful.

Su Yu said with a faint smile as he patted the small beast’s head, “Good! Good!”

Seeing this, Qian Jun, Sha’er and the Agile Demon Master were dumbfounded like ducks terrified by thunder.

Chapter 1210: The Lord of the Seawatch City

Qian Jun and her father were shocked by the identity of the snow-white beast. It turned out to be the supreme Ninth Princess!

The Agile Demon Master was shocked by the relationship between the Ninth Princess and Su Yu. She wondered if she had been crushed by the power of the five elements Mountain and had suffered from an hallucination. The Ninth Princess had become... a spiritual pet?

“Gosh, since you are the Ninth Princess, and I am your master, you have to obey me right?” Su Yu smiled mildly.

However, in the eyes of the dog, it was the smile of a devil. Would he dare to shake his head? He nodded in a hurry, and his eyes blinked at Su Yu, fearing that Su Yu was unhappy.

“Well, now, you write a book of edicts in the name of the Ninth Princess, and you will bestow on me the right to be the new owner of Moonview City!”

The dog struggled for a while until he realized that Su Yu’s body was emitting a cool breath, and he spat out what he had been asked to. He opened his mouth to spit out a yellow jade seal and a scroll full of special magic.

The imperial jade seal was the unique seal of the Demon Emperor, representing the supreme identity of the Ninth Princess.

Su Yu grabbed the scroll and stroked the dragon. From his hands, he drew a few lines of dragon and phoenix dance characters.

“The words of the Ninth Princess: the Feather Demon rescued me. The princess was rescued by him, and she specially arranged for Seawatch City to have a new owner. Seawatch City will be affiliated to him and run by him. No one is to go against my orders. Out!”

The dog looked at the scroll pitifully with tears in its eyes as it held the jade seal and pressed it, leaving the mark of “the Ninth Princess” on the scroll.

Then the entire scroll turned into nothingness and sank into the void.

At the same time, the spirits of Jingxuan Realm appeared with the mighty voice of the gods.

Suddenly, the souls of Jingxuan all bowed in excitement as they heard the imperial edict.

“The princess is not dead! She really is not dead!”

The Ninth Princess had disappeared over a month ago and no one knew whether she was alive or dead. Many creatures were worried. They never expected that she would be found safe and sound.

“Just who is the Feather Demon? How did he save the princess?”

Although the creatures in the quiet Jingxuan world were surprised, the news that the Ninth Princess had been rescued made them feel relieved.

As for rewarding the demon to become the master of the Seawatch City and holding a position that could only be held by the gods, they did not have much to say to that. After all, this is the will of the Ninth Princess. Even if they are envious, what could they do? Who made him save the Ninth Princess?

In the squatter house, thousands of fathers and daughters and the Agile Demon Master also felt this godly will.

The princess herself gave the order, and Su Yu became the master of Seawatch City!

The Agile Demon Master was so dumbfounded that she couldn’t believe the scene in front of her. She had witnessed the birth of a city master with her own eyes! It was more like a testimony to a daring and intimidating thief who had threatened the princess!

With a depressed face, the dog lifted the jade seal and was ready to swallow it, but he did not expect a hand to reach out and prevent him from swallowing it.

Then, a nightmare-like voice came into his ears. “Gosh, you are still young, so you should let your owner take care of important things like the jade seal; be good and let loose.”

What! You need my jade seal too!

This was equivalent to Su Yu taking control of its power! With this jade seal in hand, he could replace her at any time and surrender it to the souls of the Jingyu Realm. In addition, any creature born in the realm of Jingyu Realm would not be able to disobey his orders!

In this way, Su Yu became the real person in charge of Jingyu Realm!

The dog realized that the situation was serious, and it bit down hard on the jade seal without letting go. Once the jade seal was taken by Su Yu, the world would be in chaos!

Dong!

There was an extra bone in Su Yu's hand, and the eyes of the dog looked at it instinctively and rushed towards it.

Its mouth loosened around the jade seal which was taken away by Su Yu. The dog realized that it had been tricked and immediately rushed over to Su Yu, anxiously trying to grab the jade seal back.

Alas, as Su Yu flipped his palm, he put the jade seal into the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl, smiled and said, "Puppy, are you being disobedient again?"

The dog looked at the smile on Su Yu's face and trembled all over. It remembered the terrible experience of being trained for five days and suddenly stopped and stared at Su Yu angrily and anxiously. However, it did not dare to resist.

"Go and eat the bone; you are fine here and there is nothing else here for you now," Su Yu said.

It struggled for a while and spewed hate towards Su Yu as it gritted its teeth. "Ah! Ah, the princess is so mad! How could there be such a terrible demon in this world? I have to endure it. Wait till I release the seal of the nine gods in my body; I will bite him! Yes, bite him! Bite bite bite!"

If it knew that it now belonged to the Great Eastern Alliance, and it was the unparalleled Feather God who had caught it, it would not have such a thought.

Because from the moment it fell into Su Yu's hands, it would never be able to escape!

However, the dog was pretending to be docile, holding the bone seriously and truly enjoying it. It felt good inside. "Hum! The princess is very patient; just you wait for it!"

Although it seemed that the dog was quite happy gnawing on the bone.

Poor puppy. It didn't know that, regardless of how happily it ate that bone, it couldn't change the future.

Seeing this scene, the Agile Demon Master had lost interest in watching further. Even if Su Yu let go of the repression on the dog, she had already lost her soul. She stared at the dog, whispering, "No, no, our princess, how could it be a dog that chews on bones?"

Alas, the dog gave her a look that secretly said, "I'm lying here, trying to bear the burden of this; do you understand my burden? Hey, how can you be so stupid? I am clever, haha, very clever. I shall chew, try my hardest to chew..."

"It's over! The world of Jingyu is over!" Looking at the bone and the Ninth Princess who had gone berserk chewing on it, the Agile Demon Master felt an inexplicable sadness.

"Agile Demon Master, hear your orders!" Suddenly, a cold hum sounded like a clap of thunder.

The Agile Demon Master reacted instinctively, kneeling on one knee. "Humble Demon Lord, I obey the command of the Lord of Seawatch City."

When she realized what happened, the Agile Demon Master could only swallow her pride. The order was binding, and she could not resist it.

“Things here must be kept secret. They must be destroyed immediately, and they must not be searchable.”

“Yes, Lord of the City!”

Sure enough, it worked. Su Yu’s mind was slightly fixated, and he was thinking hard.

He had fallen into the demon world and originally intended to see Princess Yunxia and escape as soon as possible. After all, he was not a true demon, and he would be exposed sooner or later.

However, he unexpectedly took control of the Ninth Princess, and the situation changed greatly in his favor. Su Yu had to recalculate his plans.

It seems that there is no need to leave the Demon Realm in a hurry after all!

There was at least the matter of the sixth prince and seventh princess, the two culprits who brought Su Yu into the demon world; if he didn’t repay them, how could they benefit from Su Yu’s encounter? And how would he deal with the Tree Goddess, who was in a state of deep sleep?

“Sixth prince, seventh princess! Believe me, the last thing you regret in this life will be that you brought me, Su Yu, into the Demon World!” Su Yu’s mouth evoked an evil smile.

Seeing this smile, everyone who was present shivered.

Especially the dog. There was a kind of uneasiness that it felt before the coming of a heavy storm. It seems to be calm for millions of years, only for that massive storm of blood to hit immediately after.
