

Nine-Dragon 1211

Chapter 1211: How the Demon World is Run

Within Demon Territory, a group of unknown strong demons still searched for something.

One of the purebred demons gradually became anxious.

The last clue of the ninth princess was found quite some time ago. It had been a full month since then and they hadn't found any new clues.

The more time passed, the worse the situation became for them.

"My lord, news of the ninth princess came from the Phantom Demon City!" A demon-like quasi-god said, looking rather dignified. Holding a black skull in his hands, he walked over quickly.

"What happened?!" The purebred demons were startled, grabbed the skull over the air, and crushed it on the spot.

A blast of magic exploded inside the skeleton, condensing into two characters that wrote 'Demon Clan'.

The first line read; "Carefree Demonic City, Green Bull Demon Lord was killed!"

The second line wrote; "The ninth princess was in the Phantom Demon City and rescued by someone in the Demon Clan named Feather Demon. Now he is given the title of the Lord of the Seawatch City.

Click!

The purebred demons clattered the text into a mist, and their eyes flashed with rage. "Phantom demon city! Feather demon! No wonder we can't find the ninth princess in the devil city. It turned out she was saved by this Feather Demon!"

"Order all the demon masters in the Quiet Rain Realm to converge to the Phantom Demon City! The strong ones are lurking all over that place and will join the intelligence system. Pay close attention to the actions of the demon masters in your area. If you spot any signs of them performing a rescue, notify me immediately! "

With this order, the strong demons belonging to the sixth princess camp hidden in the world of quiet rain acted upon it one after another.

Meanwhile, in Pinawan House...

The sun was shining and the flowers were in full bloom.

In front of the pavilions, a handsome demon with silver hair with a light smile was glancing around.

"Extend your claws."

“Squat.”

“Bone.”

The blue veins on Agile Demon Master’s forehead popped through. “My Lord, don’t do this again, please treat her like a princess.”

Su Yu shrugged helplessly. “You don’t understand. This is a special bond between me and your princess, am I right?”

The dog shook her tail and barked twice, seemingly happy to enjoy it.

The Agile Demon Master was overcome with grief, crying and kneeling. “Master, my incompetence caused you to suffer such a crime!”

The dog raised her head and gave him a white look. She thought to herself, “You’re so stupid, I’m trying to live up to the character! To achieve greatness, the ancient ones are willing to suffer. So what if I gnaw on bones?”

As she thought this to herself, the dog became more energetic. She didn’t know why. Perhaps she had been chewing bones too often and began to enjoy it now.

The Agile Demon Master was speechless, and the father and daughter on the sidelines also had mixed feelings. The dignified princess was turned into a puppy, which was... something they never expected to happen.

As he thought about other things, Su Yu said, “What’s going on with you these days? How’s the task I gave you?”

Qianjun respectfully said, “Reporting to the Lord of the City, with the help of the Lord of the Puppet Demon, all the information that you want is collected.”

He was blindly probing around the demon world. If he wanted to stand a chance, then collecting information was crucial.

“What is the relationship between the princes and the princesses of the demon world?”

“It’s very complicated. There are hostile to each other despite being allies. In other words, they are trying to take the position of the Demon Emperor.” Qian Jun said: “Among them, the great prince is the most powerful and has many gods under him. He is most likely to inherit the position of the demon emperor! Second is the sixth prince and seventh princess. The former is powerful and the gods under him are extraordinary and powerful. They are strong competitors for the throne, followed by the second prince, the third prince, and the fourth prince ... Finally, we have the ninth princess... Well, there is also some hope for her to ascend to the throne ... ”

Su Yu looked down at the ninth princess and said, “So, my dog is the lowest-ranked?”

Huh!

The dog accidentally penetrated the ground with her claw, and roared in her heart, “Bastard! Who said I’m not good enough for the throne? How dare they say such nonsense! Grrrrr! The princess is so angry! ”

Qianjun said. “Wasted wood ... Hehe, the ninth princess doesn’t care about the title enough to fight with the world for it. Otherwise, there might be a bit more hope for her...”

“Oh, that means she is just idle and doesn’t think about it. It’s no wonder that she is the victim of the Sixth princess.”

The dog bit her teeth and said, “I will! I must!”

“Moving on, was the giant of the bitter sea led to Seawatch City by the sixth princess?” Su Yu asked. He knew that the giant of the bitter sea came for him, but he switched and headed to Seawatch City in the middle of his journey; there must be hidden reasons for his actions.

“Master, you are wise. This is indeed the act of the sixth princess. Although there is no obvious evidence, there are traces of quasi-gods under her control,” Qian Jun said.

Using quasi-gods instead of the actual ones was reasonable. If quasi-gods were exposed, they could also shirk their blame and be destroyed at any time. However, if the gods are mobilized, nobody would forget the relationship between them and the deed once things became exposed!

What’s more, if the gods under the sixth princess appeared in the world of Jingxuan, they would have shocked the gods under the ninth princess; the plan to blame the ninth princess wouldn’t have worked at all.

“The sixth princess used the blood of the demon royal family to lead the giant of the bitter sea to Seawatch City, while the ninth princess happened to be here. Naturally, the two fought with each other!”

Su Yu looked at him thoughtfully. “According to what you said, my dog is just wasted wood and there is no possibility of her competing for the throne. Despite that, the sixth princess spared no effort to harm her. Why is that?”

“It’s simple; to obtain the territory of the ninth princess and get the gods in her jurisdiction. This would strengthen the sixth princess’s powers so she can better compete for the throne! Such an action will make her rank much higher than all the other royal princes and princesses. But once people find out she was behind the incident, the demon emperor will be angry and capture her. Nevertheless, success would grant her numerous benefits. Unfortunately, no one can count on you, my lord, to suddenly appear and save the ninth princess for her to escape.”

It turned out to be true.

Looking at the dog, Su Yu couldn’t help but think about the tree god. She was also seriously injured by the giant of the bitter sea, but the dog’s condition was much better. She was seriously injured and returned to her former physical body. She only needed recuperation to recover, while the tree god's fate remained unknown.

"Okay, then why did the giant of the bitter sea abandon the dog and drag it away to look for the Lord of Seawatch City? It can be attracted by the blood of the royal demons, so it's much more interested in the ninth princess than the Lord of the Seawatch City, right?"

Qianjun said, "My lord thinks the reason why the giant of the bitter sea gave up on chasing the ninth princess is that the ninth princess successfully repelled it."

Repelled it! Su Yu's pupils slightly shrank, for he saw the combat power of the giant of the bitter sea with his own eyes. No god could ever be that powerful. If the ninth princess was the so-called weakest of the bunch, then how would she have repelled it?

"You may not know this. My Lord, but the Devils have been tormented from the giant of the bitter sea for a long time for tens of millions of years. They had since slowly worked out some effective targeting strategies to counter it. Among them, the most significant effect is golden flames forbidden wood. This is one of the rare items that can penetrate the body of the giant of the bitter sea."

"Every royal demon has a weapon forged by the golden flames forbidden wood. The ninth princess's weapon is a spear. On the day of the battle in Seawatch City, the giant of the bitter sea was struck by the golden flames forbidden wood. After it penetrated deep into her flesh, he gave up on fighting the princess and turned to Seawatch City instead."

With the golden flames forbidden wood, there was something in the Devil Realm to restrain the giant of the bitter sea!

"Since this dog can restraint the giant, why didn't she just kill him? Why is it now like this?"

Qian Jun smiled bitterly: "Not even the demon emperor would dare to kill the giant of the bitter sea! There isn't much of the golden flames forbidden wood. It's a miracle that the giant of the bitter sea can be scared away. "

Su Yu thought hard before he said, "To what extent is the golden flames forbidden wood in existence?"

"In the Great Devil Realm, only a million years ago, a piece of an ancient fossil was washed up by the tide from the bitter sea. A section of the tree's core wasn't petrified, thus leading to the discovery of the golden flames forbidden wood. Besides the royal family in the past, nobody in the demon world found a second tree. Although the last demon emperor planned to look for it from the bitter sea, the water of the bitter sea was especially hostile and no soul can enter. They gave up in the end."

Was it extracted from fossils?

“Did you find seeds from the fossils?” Su Yu’s eyes flickered slightly. His hopes weren’t very high anymore.

Qian Jun said: “Of course. In the beginning, a residual seed was found from the trees. It was luckily not petrified, but the soil of the devil was not for planting trees. They put in millions of years of hard work to try and make it work. Alas, the seeds gradually withered instead, which made it a fossil. ”

Su Yu vividly remembered the horror of the giant of the bitter sea. It would’ve been better if he got the seed of the golden flames forbidden wood that restrained it.

The Demon Emperor... If Su Yu had to face the Demon Emperor, then he would inevitably have been killed.

“The dog held the golden flames forbidden wood in her hand but was still injured by the giant of the bitter sea. Does it still seem that the dog is too wasteful like wood?” Su Yu kicked the dog gently with his toes, causing it to be dissatisfied and grit its teeth.

Qian Jun shook his head and said, “No, the giant of the bitter sea has the same restraint power against the demons, especially those with royal blood. Its blood is more rotten than the bitter seawater. A little touch can also make the members of the royal family disappear. If the ninth princess was not alert, she would have had her soul destroyed and be dead by now.”

Oh? Su Yu’s eyes flickered again. To think that the blood of the giant of the bitter sea could be used to fight against the royal family?

It was a major discovery.

Knowing this, Su Yu gradually mentally made some calculations. Before leaving the Demon Realm, he needed to make the demons suffer.

Neither the Great Eastern Alliance nor the Great Western Alliance had the strength to face the Demon Realm.

At the very least, the two major alliances needed time to prepare for this war.

If he was able to shock the demons, he could force them to delay the time of war.

“What about the last thing? How did the investigation go?” Su Yu asked.

A look of great pride came across Qianjun’s face. “Because of the aptitude of the Agile Demon Master, we found some clues about the exit of the Devil Realm! In the Demon Emperor’s Capital, there is an ancient altar inherited from the beginning of the Devil Realm. Every time it is launched, there will be more breath of things that exist outside of the Devil Realm that can be detected. According to the Agile Demon Master’s speculation, it is likely to be what my lord calls it; the exit of the devil world. ”

Chapter 1212: Fresh Blood Must Spill to Rise

Oh? Su Yu was surprised. He thought that those at the level of the gods would be very clear about the existence of the Xing River. He did not expect that even they did not know everything.

In that case, they were even more unaware of a group of extremely cruel and inhumane demons in the Devil Realm killing outside at the Xing River?

Interesting. The devil world was much more complicated than Su Yu expected.

After understanding all the information, Su Yu's eyes flashed with this intel. "Our current priority is the enemy hiding in the world of static rain. They must have heard the news about my dog here. I wouldn't be surprised if they're rushing towards Pinawan City."

Agile Demon Master said. "My Lord, please take the Royal Highness back to Seawatch City as soon as possible. There are several masters in the city, which will allow us to protect the royal Highness."

"No! Stay here," Su Yu flashed his eyes across.

Qian Jun's face was calm. "Master, do be careful and take care! Even the demon king on the fringe has been bought by these people. Anyone can easily see how well the sixth princess is preparing. There will likely be more quasi-gods enemies! Sadly, the Azure Bull Demon Master and the Mind Control Demon Master are only a small portion of what is to come. Where we currently are, there are not enough strong forces to protect His Highness and my lord."

Agile Demon Master took this seriously. "He is right, there may be a mid-level quasi-god amongst the enemies. Once the enemy comes, I am afraid that none of us can stop it. We shouldn't be here for too long!"

Su Yu said lightly, "How can we draw them all out if we don't give them a chance?"

The snow-white beast choked on the bone it was gnawing at and angrily stared at Su Yu. "Was this to deliberately attract the enemy's firepower? Was this abominable bastard trying to kill me?" it thought.

Qian Jun and Agile Demon Master tried to persuade him again, but Su Yu waved his hand and interrupted, "I don't have time to find all the enemies lurking in the quiet rain realm one by one. Leading the snake out of the hole and hitting all of them at once is the fastest way! "

"The order has been given to all the masters staying in Seawatch City. You must rush to Pinawan City to see the lord of this city within three days!"

Qian Jun said, "Yes!" He paused, and then said, "What if they refuse to see you?"

"We'll take note of anyone who doesn't come."

"Yes!" Qian Jun said. Despite this, he was secretly thinking of how, with the disposition of the city owner, many would likely refuse to meet the lord.

Soon after in the eighty-one cities of Seawatch City aside from the ruined Youran Demon City and Agile Demon City, all the lords received the order of the new city lord. They were to leave for Pinawan City now.

Towards this new city lord, there were very few people who would willingly submit to him. Previous city lords can only be gods. Who is this character called the Feather Demon? None of them have heard of it.

However, it was the order of Her Royal Highness the Ninth Princess and no one could ignore it. Meanwhile...

Just as the soldiers came under strong pressure, a huge cloud of magic flew towards Pinawan City.

“Master, the lords of the various parties in Seawatch City have left their territory one after another, and set off for Pinawan City as we expected.”

After getting the report, the eyes of the purebred demons turned cold. “Wonderful! Their movement confirms that the ninth princess is still in Pinawan City! It seems that the ninth princess hasn’t learned her lesson and easily exposed her location! If she leaves quietly, I may not be able to confirm her whereabouts so easily. However, all that fanfare ordered by the Lord to come to escort and expose her position is ridiculous! ”

“Hey, maybe our Royal Highness the ninth princess thought that the lords of Seawatch City were enough to resist us?” Besides the purebred demons, there was a very pure subgroup of demons that ranked second only to the purebred demons.

The corner of the mouth of the purebred Demon evoked contempt. “The whole army listens to my orders and speeds forward. Let us surprise the ninth princess!”

The lords of various cities in Seawatch city left their territory, generating tons of speculation.

Many people realized that they went to see the Lord of the Seawatch City in name, but they actually went to see Her Royal Highness.

What they didn’t know was that they had taken on the responsibility of secretly escorting them all.

There were many opinions and speculations on this matter.

Despite this, Su Yu meditated in the mansion amidst the chaos.

He still based his cultivation primarily on the inheritance of the Enlightenment of the Tree God. He had cultivated for many days and learned plenty of knowledge, centered on the tree spirit.

“Thanks to the experience of the Five Elements Divine Prison in the past, I have a deeper understanding of the wooden attribute power in the power of the Five Elements. Otherwise, if I would like to understand the wood-based power element from the start, that would truly take forever” Given his existing knowledge, Su Yu could soon unleash the true power of the tree god.

The power that he managed to cultivate was no weaker than Su Yu’s current peak of the god’s power.

As for the status of the deity, Su Yu integrated the newly acquired ability of the Tree God into his divine will; it went into the realm of life!

After the emerald dragon had been completely cultivated and its magical abilities obtained, all living things within the realm became immortal.

There was sadly no chance to use this ability, but it could prove useful in the present.

Su Yu has also reached a certain stage in refining of the Five Elements Mountain. At present, he did not need to rely on the Five Elements Mountain anymore, but could also urge the forces of the Five Elements Mountain to suppress the enemy.

If he further refined his ability, he could use the power of the five elements more easily.

During the process of refining the Five Elements Mountain, Su Yu's comprehension of the power of the five elements increased each day. Of the nine hundred demon characters, Su Yu had secretly understood more than three hundred of them.

All of this was achieved while hiding it from the green ink dragon in the Five Element's prison.

He never forgot the black-green water dragon's advice; that he should not believe in the green-ink tattoo dragon.

In the face of a major crisis, Su Yu never used the Five Elements Prison again.

If Su Yu fully understood the demon characters and had absolute control over the five elements, he would've been on a level higher than the green ink tattoo dragon; this would've drastically changed the situation!

Finally, Su Yu had stayed at the peak of Vientiane for a while. It was time to prepare to break through to a higher level!

Dust Fairy!

As soon as he reached the realm of the dust fairy, Su Yu could use the powers of both the god and the dust fairy to give birth to an exclusive magical ability that he could use to strengthen his Divine God Source Origin and gradually stabilize it. This also made it more difficult for people to take it away from him.

After the realm of the dust fairy, Su Yu's soul would become even stronger. At that time, he could begin to cultivate the fifth layer of "Heaven's Son Gazing At Air".

Su Yu predicted that his strength would change once more when he reached that realm of the dust fairy.

He didn't know why, but he felt that it might not be that simple for ordinary creatures to break through to the realm of the dust fairy.

After three days of continuous practice, Su Yu slowly opened his eyes.

Outside the door, Qianjun and Agile Demon Master waited respectfully for him.

"How's it going?" Su Yu said indifferently.

Qian Jun said. "Master Lord, out of seventy-nine lords, sixty have come, five are still on the road and fourteen ... nothing and no news."

"Well, it's only been three days! Take note of all the demons who are still on the road or not moving!"

“Yes, Master!”

Agile Demon Master said, “Master, how shall we arrange them to protect both you and His Highness?”

“Protect us? No!” Su Yu said. “Gather them, entertain them well. No orders for them. No matter how many enemies come, no shots are allowed to be fired!”

“Ah!” Agile Demon Master didn’t understand what Su Yu was thinking; was he an idiot? The number and strength of the enemies were unknown, while their subordinates who have been excruciatingly summoned were cast aside to do nothing!

“Then why did the Lord ask them all to gather?”

Su Yu said lightly. “My dog and I don’t need them to guard us! I asked them to come to remember a word.”

“Come to me, or perish fighting against me! They should be fortunate that there are a large number of enemies who will use their blood to demonstrate this!” The implication was that without these enemies, Su Yu would’ve probably killed some of them.

Agile Demon Master heaved in a breath of cool air. “You’re insane! You intend to fight against the enemy on your own?”

He was finally convinced that Su Yu was a downright lunatic!

A new officer who didn’t show off a little wouldn’t achieve much. If he was not crazy, what else could he be?

The Agile Demon Master said coldly, “Unfortunately, we now know the enemy’s whereabouts. They are still half a day away from Pianawan Demon City! There are over 100 quasi-gods, including ... two Mid-level ones! My Lord, if you want to die, I won’t stop you. However, if you want to take Her Royal Highness to her funeral, I can’t allow it! I will take Her Royal Highness to leave now! ”

The Agile Demon Master had enough of Su Yu’s amorality.

Su Yu’s mouth evoked contempt, “I thought that there would be a high-level quasi-god. How disappointing!”

Hearing this, Agile Demon Master shook his head. “What a lunatic!”

One mid-level quasi-god was enough for them to panic, so how would they deal with two of them? There were also far more quasi-gods than they could adequately handle.

With such an inexplicable disadvantage, nobody knew how Su Yu could be so cocky.

He faintly stared at the Agile Demon Master. Su Yu then said, “You can take your dog anywhere without leaving the range of the city. However, if you even take one step outside the city, I won’t show you any mercy again!”

Agile Demon Master's silver teeth bite hard and he spoke with an equal amount of contempt. "Now it is time to inform the ninth princess!"

The Ninth Princess has suggested for the second time that Su Yu to order her deities to come to escort in her place.

The crisis could be easily resolved even if a god was dispatched, but Su Yu refused to even consider this.

"I have said many times! Asking the gods to come is akin to asking for death!" Su Yu said coldly. "During the pursuit of the Ninth princess, may I ask if any of those gods showed any signs of wanting to save her?"

Agile Demon Master shook his fist. He did not want to admit it, but the answer was no.

If that wasn't the case, how could the ninth princess end up so miserable?

"However, they may not have all surrendered to the Sixth princess. It may simply have been inconvenient for them to get involved in the affairs of the city."

"They don't always have to surrender, but I can't see how loyal they are to the ninth princess. When they see the ninth princess being beaten and losing much of her strength, they give off such a horrid attitude. Do you trust them? Are you sure they will come if you invite them? Are you sure that they won't shoot at the ninth princess amidst all the chaos? "

"Even if just one of the gods has a different allegiance and makes small scheming actions, it's not something that you and I can guard against!" Su Yu said. "Never say anything that stupid ever again. You're a real pain to deal with! "

Agile Demon Master bit the lips of his demon's teeth as he was refuted by Su Yu until he had nothing else to say.

"Retreat! Go and do as I ordered! All the masters, do not allow anyone to move!" Su Yu shouted.

Everyone backed down, looking at Su Yu's eyes with deep suspicion.

Was the Feather Demon this crazy?

He wanted to stand up against all those enemies all by himself so that he could win respect and his rightful place?

How crazy! What a lunatic!

Only the dog raised her head and stared at Su Yu in surprise, her eyes flashing with different colors.

Chapter 1213: Everyone Got Activated

Anticipating that the Agile Demon Master will take away the dog, the black phoenix silently appeared behind Su Yu, staring coldly at the Agile Demon Master.

“Master, let me kill this woman. She is simply too ignorant. It is difficult for any new city lord to trust a traitor to lead. She knows nothing but questions everything. To stop this from continuing, it’s best to kill it off,” Black Phoenix said coldly. He was thinking and looking out for Su Yu.

Su Yu’s face was calm and he shook his head gently. “They don’t understand me, but don’t you understand my intentions?”

To stand out among the many lords in Seawatch City, Su Yu had to have the courage to face hundreds of quasi-gods, of which two are mid-term quasi-gods. Therefore, how could he even care about the numerous demons under his jurisdiction who were indignant about his leadership?

He didn’t need to pretend to these quasi-gods at all!

“The lord is really protecting the ninth princess. These quasi-gods seem to be loyal to the ninth princess. I don’t know how many have already rebelled. If they are used by us against the incoming enemy forces, I’m afraid the one that will suffer the most from this chaos will be the ninth princess! ”

“The master invited these lords to lead the head snake out of the hole and wipe out everyone. When was it for even done for prestige? It’s silly how the Agile Demon Master claimed to be self-righteous when all she cared about was the life and death of the ninth princess.

She felt indignant for Su Yu.

Everyone in the world misunderstood him as a lunatic but didn’t understand that he was the sanest person there.

Many didn’t know that Su Yu was doing the most important thing for the ninth princess; ensuring her future.

Su Yu said indifferently, “We cannot blame her. We can’t publicize this matter either. Otherwise, how can those traitors hiding in our army be easily fooled into showing their true colors at critical moments?”

“You keep a good eye on the Agile Demon Master, don’t let her take the dog out of your sight, let alone bring her to the lords who come near you. If she goes out of line, kill her.”

“Yes.”

There was a breeze blowing as Su Yu was left alone in the pavilion.

If one person was to fight against hundreds of quasi-gods, Su Yu himself knew how crazy this was.

“Oh, if Master Yun Yazi knows that his disciple is where he is today, would he be pleased?” Su Yu smiled softly.

In the gloomy galaxy, a god bone ship galloped along.

On the bow of the ship stood a solid old man with solid eyes, eyes full of the deep light that penetrated and showed its years.

“Unexpectedly, my apprentice grew up like this over the past few years,” Yun Yazi’s god bone ship passed through the ruined land of the gods several months ago.

Relief was expressed on his old face. “Even without me, I believe that he can become a god all by himself and maybe even reach a level that I have never reached.”

He never truly understood his disciple. He always exceeded his expectations, bursting out with amazing potential.

He intended to point the way forward for him, but Su Yu was always one step ahead of him. Yun Yazi had trouble comprehending his disciple.

Especially after entering Xing River, Su Yu’s actions became increasingly unpredictable.

Cleaning the Great Eastern Alliance’s maggots and the land of the gods were things beyond a gods’ ability, but Su Yu managed to do it.

Now that Su Yu fell into the devil world, whether he would live or die is unknown.

“I hope it’s not too late. The demon emperor is deeply secretive. His ability to plot is beyond the previous demon emperors. If Su Yu is careless, it will be difficult to leave the demon world.”

A trace of anxiety emerged in Yun Yazi’s eyes.

The god bone ship carried itself slowly through the galaxy, much like a shooting star.

In Pinawan City...

Qian Jun quickly made the arrangements as instructed by Su Yu.

The sixty lords he invited were all placed in a hospitality hall of the mansion.

The divine power frequently flashed in the hall. People who weren’t quasi-cultivators in the hall couldn’t bear the immense pressure at all.

This was the place for quasi-gods in the entire territory.

Not all of them were destined to become a god in the future, but together, they were too powerful to be ignored.

Qian Jun entertained them per Su Yu’s orders, guaranteeing flawless hospitality in all aspects.

Despite this, the lords were still dissatisfied.

“Hey, the Lord of the City summoned us. Wouldn’t he just let us drink tea and leave it at that?” a quasi-god said whilst staring at Qian Jun.

Although Qian Jun despised them, Su Yu was looking after his back. Thus, he was full of energy and spoke humbly, “Aside from drinking tea, you can quietly recuperate, communicate with each other, et cetera. As long as you do not violate the order of the Lord of the city and leave the hall without permission, you may do as you please. ”

“What a jerk!” The bearded quasi-god shot up from his seat and said. “Who are you and what permits you to order us around? Immediately tell the city owner that if we don’t see him, we will return to our territory immediately!”

Qian Jun’s face hadn’t changed as he said lightly, “The city owner said that you can go, but you can’t come back once you step out of this hall.”

With that, Qian Jun took out a thin piece of paper, held the pen in his hand and stared at the person. “May I ask for your name?”

Uh...

The lords glanced at the paper and found that the names of nineteen lords were already on it.

The person thought for a moment and knew that they were all lords who had never come to see the Lord, and their names were written down.

The Bearded Lord froze for a moment and suddenly felt a little suffocated. Those who did not come were disobedient.

If the new city lord had no aptitude and skills, he would have nothing to handle those who disobeyed him either.

How about some means?

Thinking about it, the bearded lord was embarrassed as he snorted coldly, “Then can we see the ninth princess first?”

“No!” Qian Jun said shortly.

“What! The Lord of the City does not allow us to meet him. In fact, why isn’t even Her Royal Highness allowed to see us?” Lord Beard laughed angrily.

Qian Jun said, “This is the order of the Lord of the City. It is not appropriate for you to see Her Royal Highness.”

“Hmm!” Another lord spoke this time, with anger in his face. “Her Royal Highness is of a high position. If we want to see Her Royal Highness, why should the Lord make these decisions? Say, where is His Royal Highness? We will visit her ourselves!”

“That’s right! We’re going to personally impeach the Lord of the City and tell her that he is not worthy to be Lord of the City.”

“Everyone, together, the Lord of the City is acting by his own accord. I suspect that Her Royal Highness is likely to be coerced by the Lord of the City because of her injury. Let’s go and see Her Royal Highness together.”

The sentiment got the crowd excited. Su Yu invited them to come, but suppressed them from moving, causing dissatisfaction, and the dissatisfaction was led by the lord with an ulterior motive to head towards starting a riot.

Qian Jun sneered at the corner of his mouth and drew a few strokes as he raised the pen.

Some lords found that something bad was happening and shouted, "Wait! What are you writing?"

Without a word, Qian Jun moved aside and said lightly, "Again, the Lord's order has been issued, and everyone still decides to disobey. I cannot stop everyone from doing as they please, but you bear the consequences yourself."

After saying that, he left straight away, leaving the quasi-gods behind without a care.

Only then did the menacing lords suddenly become quiet. The atmosphere in the air was a little stagnant. No one wanted to take the lead in causing trouble, especially without knowing the new lord's ability.

"Master of the Ten Regions, you are the newest subordinate of the former Seawatch City Lord. Could you please say a word for us?" After thinking for a while, many lords looked into a corner. The youth, clothed in red, was always silently standing in a corner.

He had sharp cheeks that reflected faint light, giving off a cold feeling.

He stood silently in the corner, resembling a behemoth animal, and no one could ignore his existence.

A voice came out and all the other lords looked around. They were thinking about who had the guts to speak up but waited for the lord to speak.

As both Master of the Ten Regions and the strongest lord of Seawatch City, he was once the most important lord of Seawatch City. Some people secretly called him the great lord.

This was because he is the only med-level quasi-god in Seawatch City!

Master of the Ten Regions slowly opened his cold eyes. He glanced indifferently at the crowd, and he closed them slowly. "Patience."

He simply uttered this word without saying anything else.

Although the lords were indignant, they had no other choice since even the great lord chose to be patient.

At that moment, the lord suddenly changed his expression and looked towards the sky.

The other lords also opened their eyes. "Such strong power fluctuations!"

The lords constantly changed their expressions, feeling the presence of hundreds of quasi-gods in the sky!

"Who is this?" said Master of the Ten Regions. He was affected as well because there are two powerful enemies that he detected and was afraid of.

“Not good! Is it an enemy that is going after Her Royal Highness?” They could guess this without obvious evidence.

“Escort and protect!” Someone shouted, smashed the roof with one palm, and broke out.

The other lords also joined in, volleying outside the hall.

However, someone was waiting in the air.

“Follow the order of the city lord. All the lords are to watch the battle here. Without the city lord’s order, no one is to strike,” Qian Jun raised his voice.

Watch the battle ... Upon realizing that Su Yu was displaying his powers, some of the lords were simultaneously shocked and angry. “Who can fight against high-level quasi-gods?”

“Is the Lord of the City crazy? Her Royal Highness is in danger but wants us to stand by. Is this a deliberate trap set for us to become infidels?”

“Don’t bother about that lunatic, we are Her Royal Highness’s subordinate. Let’s kill the enemies and protect the princess together!” Among the gods, the bearded lord’s eyes flashed with a different light, and a roar encouraged the lords to take action.

Sweep!

However, a halberd full of evil spirits had just rushed through the void so quickly that it created shockwaves.

It was the bearded lord who was provoked by it.

Suddenly, an evil halberd appeared. When the bearded lord finally responded to its appearance, the evil halberd flew more than a hundred feet away.

The lords around him saw that things were not going well and had already dispersed and found any corners to hide. However, the evil halberd was able to recognize the bearded lord.

Seeing that he had no escape, the bearded lord whispered and sacrificed from his hands a rosary made from nineteen skulls.

Instilling its power into himself, the skull immediately sent a shock wave that pierced the soul.

The lords near him stepped back, and they were startled. “Soul Chaser Soundwave?”

All lords ran for Divine Protection, lest they are affected by the power released.

When the sound wave arrived, it was enough to shake the evil halberd.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, the bearded lord yelled, “Lords, our city lords colluded with foreign enemies and secretly ordered us to slay our soldiers. In reality, they used the foreign enemies to destroy us! Everyone let’s band together. We won’t be defeated by him...”

The bearded lord yelled, but the response was out of horror rather than out of a desire to band together. They kept back and quickly moved away from him as if to avoid the plague.

Chapter 1214: The Mid-Level Demons

“You guys ...” Bearded Lord froze. He only looked down when there was a chill in his chest.

He saw a long sword surrounded by light piercing through his chest, dripping with his half-red, half-yellow quasi-god blood.

He turned his head around in disbelief. A silver-haired young man surrounded by colorful light stood indifferently behind him.

He glared down at him as if he were looking at an ant.

“We must kill those who disturb the peace,” When the silver-haired youth flicked his wrists, five-colored divine light burst into his limbs.

The quasi-god body of the Bearded Lord continued to decompose, turning into colorful particles and eventually disappearing into the sky. Only the Bearded Lord’s remained, holding a weak source of divine soul source origin.

“Ah!!” He screamed in horror as the Bearded Lord jolted himself forward in shock.

How did the other party get behind him without him noticing? What was the five-colored divine light that decomposed the quasi-god into particles!

The other quasi-gods saw that behind the bearded lord, the five-colored divine light had condensed, and Su Yu instantly appeared. The five-colored divine light was full of five elements and seemed to be able to assimilate anything that contained them.

This was not only Su Yu’s understanding of the Five Elements Mountain after refining it, but also him flexibly using the power of the Five Elements.

Everything was composed of five elements. As long as the power of the five-elements was extracted, the object could be erased from the world and reduced to nothingness.

The teleportation was another mysterious application. For now, Su Yu could only teleport for a short distance but couldn’t make a Cavern world like a god.

Using his own hands to kill the traitor who jumped out first, the lords who witnessed this were somewhat frightened.

Rumor had it that the new lord has only Vientiane cultivation. After seeing it with their own eyes, however, they knew that wasn’t the case at all!

“Rebel and this will be your end!” Su Yu glanced coldly at the many lords as his silver sword swept across them, uttering an unwilling roar. It slew the Bearded Lord’s soul and obtained his Great Source Divine Origin.

How cruel!

The lords’ heart trembled. The means used were fierce, and Su Yu was not one to mess with!

With Su Yu glancing coldly at everyone, nobody dared to act arrogantly.

Perhaps he intended to fight all the enemies alone?

This was impossible ...

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Enormous demonic clouds covered the sky and dispersed as the sun came flooding in. The mixed divine powers that came through shone on billions of souls.

Looking at the many lords of Seawatch City facing the enemy, they looked stunned. The enemy was too strong for them to fight against!

If there was a battle, they might've not even been able to escape.

Mumble...

Some lords swallowed their saliva fiercely as their hearts trembled. Some lords gradually retreated.

They had already given up before the battle began.

"Hehehe, everyone in Seawatch City, how have you been," In the magic cloud, a sad and cold voice emerged.

The sound shook the magic cloud, revealing one hundred quasi-gods with faint divine power!

The one who spoke was one of two demons leading the pack.

One of the purebred demons sneered and looked down at them indifferently.

The demon with a higher blood purity was the one who spoke.

Looking at the two, the lords of Seawatch City felt their limbs become cold.

"Mid-Level quasi-gods!! There is a purebred demon among them!!!"

They were all demons, but the pure breed demons were even more powerful!

The power of the two demons far exceeded the power of sixty of them. There were only fifty-nine early quasi-gods left now, not to mention that the other ninety-eight quasi-gods followed them.

"What? We haven't arrived yet, but you have already started to kill each other? Now that the dragons have no master, have you become headless flies?" The semi-purebred demons looked at them and mocked.

Finally, their gazes fell on Su Yu. "You are the so-called new Lord of Seawatch City. I thought you would be a powerful creature, having saved the ninth princess. It turned out that you can't even control your people. You need to kill a hundred to scare them to listen to you. How pitiful. "

The lords of Seawatch City had strange looks on their faces... Su Yu wanted to kill hundreds of them, but his order wasn't for them to attack, right?

Looking at the sneers of the semi-purebred demons, the lords could not help but secretly think that they were idiots.

"Even if you mobilize them all, you can't change the situation today. Give up the ninth princess, and you will be happy. Otherwise ..." the semi-purebred demons taunted.

Whoosh!

Eight consecutive bursts of sharp air blasted and surrounded the semi-purebred demons.

At the same time, the silver sword in Su Yu 's palm flew out and blended with the eight silver swords that pierced the air. The sword sieged the nine masters, including him.

Silver light swept over, and a large intertwined silver giant net drew the masters in the formation.

The faces of the semi-pure demons changed slightly. They released an air of demon breathe and exposed a body that was as hard as granite.

There was a stream of dinging sounds as things hit the demon's body, accompanied by pieces of spark.

The sword array of the heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo couldn't break through their physical defense but would only bring them some pain.

While they could block it, the other eight demon gods might've been left vulnerable.

The muffled sound of chopped flesh and blood was mixed with their screams. The eight demon masters were destroyed by the sudden sharp sword array, leaving behind souls that desperately tried to flee from the scene.

Alas, they did not manage to escape from the sword array. The nine days Cangming came down to suck up their souls, swallowing them all up in the breath.

The screams and muffled sounds stopped abruptly.

There was nothing left but the deep panting sound of the semi-pure demons, along with the pungent black blood left behind by those who were slaughtered.

Both Su Yu's allies and enemies remained silent.

In the blink of an eye, the eight demon masters at the early stage were smashed. Their flesh was torn apart and all their souls and Great Divine Source Origins were taken away. Not one escaped!

Earlier, the demon lords on Su Yu's side were furious towards Su Yu. Now, their anger had turned into utter fear!

They finally realized how justified the Bearded Lord's death was!

They finally understood what Su Yu's intended to merely ask them to stand aside and witness what he does!

Raising his hand, the nine swords flew together resembling nine silver dragons surrounding Su Yu's body. They met with his cold face, making him seem even more indifferent.

After having killed the semi-pure-bred demons, Su Yu looked at his enemies with red eyes and said, "Do you have any other nonsense to say?"

They seemed to be irritated, and the neck of the semi-pure demon race was twitching. The irony and drama on their faces were replaced by sternness and deep suffocation. "Ok! Good! Good! Your talents are not immediately observable, no wonder you can save the ninth princess! If that is the case, I have found my reason to strike!"

"You, die for me now!" The semi-purebred Demon roared sharply and struck into a black afterimage.

Su Yu was unmoved and said with a smile, “It seems like without me, you wouldn’t even have a chance to take a shot. You may be a deputy, but don’t act like you’re the best in the world!”

Facing the mid-level demon known for his physical strength, Su Yu did not retreat as nine extremely brilliant golden lights emerged from his body. From Su Yu’s mouth, he spewed out, “Dragon Form Technique!”

With a ferocious roar of the dragon, Su Yu suddenly turned into a golden dragon. At the same time, his body was shrouded in colorful light and collide with the celestial bodies as well as the semi-pure demon.

Boom!

A roar erupted from the collision, creating shock waves that swept in all directions.

The enemy had demons who had broken through to a new level in their cultivation. However, the shockwaves had blasted them backward by hundreds of feet, leaving their bodies cracked and their flesh torn.

This new move combined the power of the dragon and the five elements.

The Dragon Form Technique was strong in explosive power and suppression but lacked explosiveness and long-lasting power.

Combining the two to learn from each other’s strengths created a source of unprecedented power.

Boom!

The half-pure demon was shocked by this earth-shattering collision. He rolled over and spat out blood several times before slamming hard into the magic cloud.

Suddenly, several more screams arose from a few unlucky demons who got caught amongst the firepower and suffered.

Looking back at Su Yu, his golden dragon aura has dissipated as he turned into a figure covered with five colors of light. He was standing still at the source of the collision, ground zero.

The differences in standards of who was at a higher point and who at the lower was obvious at a glance.

The half purebred demon spat out demonic blood, startled by what he experienced. “You ...”

He could no longer act arrogant. Instead, his composure was replaced by deep fear displayed in his eyes.

In the beginning, the masters on the side of the enemy were completely relaxed. Now, they stared at Su Yu in horror.

On the surface, he was of Vientiane cultivation. In reality, he was no less than at the level of cultivation of quasi-gods in the Mid-Level. They no longer thought that there was anything suspicious. Killing him and getting to the ninth princess on this trip became easier to do.

Counting everyone, the opponent also has two Mid-Level demon masters!

Upon that thought, the fierce silver-haired demon lord said indifferently, “Only this?”

Brush!

As soon as his voice was dropped, he disappeared from the crowd out of thin air.

He wasn't fast, but he mastered the teleportation skill that only the gods can master!

The pure-bodied Demon's pupils finally shrank at the sight. His gaze turned like lightning, and suddenly his face changed. He shouted, "Demon dragon, be careful! He is heading for you!"

The semi-purebred demon was shocked. Before he could even comprehend his boss's reminder, he felt the astonishment of chill from behind.

It was a critical moment. He did not attempt thinking harder and shouted, "Holy Demon Transformation!"

Upon that, he saw a dazzling bright red color flickering in his body, of what looked like blood vessels.

Some kind of terror in the blood seemed to have been awakened instantly.

The blood-red light emerged through his body, condensed into a layer of blood-red armor on the surface covering his entire body.

At the end of the armor covering was an arm with brilliant golden fingers covered with five different strokes of light. It was full of amazing power that pierced through his heart.

Only a muffled sound was heard, and his Scarlet Armor was pierced by these fingers that penetrated the dragon's body. Nevertheless, the armor somehow negated the finger's instant killing power.

Enduring the severe pain, Demon Dragon roared and patted his back with two palms, while his body flickered forward.

When he turned his head again, he checked on the blood left on the armor behind him, and the Demon dragon was more relieved with what he saw.

This Scarlet Armor was formed by the power that inspired the bloodlines peculiar to the Purebred Demon Clan. It was difficult for ordinary Demons in the Clan who just broke through to the highest levels to destroy, but it was now almost disintegrated by Su Yu.

The power of the dragon, combined with the power of the Five Elements, was terrifying.

He stared at Su Yu's gaze and saw in his eyes a look that turned from fear to thrill. After three fights, he was no match for him at all!

As he was preparing to retreat to his leader's side and work together with him, Su Yu suddenly disappeared again!

The Demon Dragon was so scared that his eyelids leaped wildly as he frantically scurried back towards his compatriot. At the same time, he was trying hard to repair the dent on the scarlet armor.

With this scarlet armor in hand, Su Yu could not kill him. Instead, he could take the opportunity to meet with the leader so the two sides can join forces to destroy this child easily.

Thinking about the strength of the leader, the dragon demon was completely reassured and shouted, "Come! You would think that the Lord would be afraid of you!"

Zoom!

That amazing chill struck again from behind, and the dragon demon did not panic or rejoice. However, he coughed as he tried his hardest to resist the finger.

The leader who was rushing over was also feeling chilly.

Su Yu happened to be in the center between them. As long as he wasn't killed by this finger, he could turn against him and kill Su Yu on the spot.

When the leader stared at Su Yu's gesture, his face suddenly changed. "No! Demon Dragon, run away, don't resist any further!"

Chapter 1215: The Betrayal towards Su Yu

Huh? Shocked at the realization that the situation looked bad, the demon dragon immediately flung forward in an attempt to escape.

However, the strategy of resistance he adopted earlier caused him to lose the chance to escape.

It was supposed to be similar to how he normally activated his power. This time, however, there is a power of assimilation added to the power of the dragon god and the strength of the five elements!

The scarlet armor made from the condensation of the blood energy suddenly broke down by itself, exposing the weak point on its vest.

Without further hesitation and with murderous intent, the finger penetrated the demon dragon's vest and attacked his chest vigorously.

What was more frightening was that the strength of the five elements from the fingertips poured into the demon dragon's body and broke his body down into particles, leaving only a shivering soul!

The scarlet armor was ultimately an ancient vessel made of blood, and blood was partially made from water.

The water attribute in the strength of the five elements could separate the blood and water for the water to resonate with it and return to its normal state. Therefore, it was possible for this finger to easily break through the scarlet armor's defenses.

Clinging to whatever he had left, the Demon Dragon's soul screamed in horror, "Master, please save me!!"

In response, the soul rushed towards him as a ray of light.

The leader was unhappy. A black jar appeared on the palm of his hand as he said, "Hurry up unless you want to be swallowed up by the soul space in the sky!"

The Demon Dragon's soul forcibly endured the sucking force from the sky and quickly flew into the jar to seek refuge from it.

Although the powerful demon body was lost, he could still be restored in the future as long as the original physical body and divine source existed.

Just when the soul of the demon dragon felt relieved, a black light suddenly flashed as a cage made from the bones of the demon god fell from the sky.

When he looked up, the soul of the Demon Dragon was terrified, exclaiming, "The Demonic God's Heavenly Prison! Noooo! Arghh...!"

The cage relentlessly trapped the Demon Dragon in it. It was no longer possible for him to escape. All souls brought into the Demonic God's Heavenly Prison lost their self-awareness and became enslaved for eternity.

Furious at the Demon Dragon's soul being taken away, the leader roared and flashed forward to snatch the Demon God's Heavenly Prison.

Although he was fast, he was no match for Su Yu's teleportation, manifested from the strength of the Five Elements.

In a flash, he caught the Demon God's Heavenly Prison in one hand and grabbed it with the other hand to activate it. Instantly, excruciating screams echoed from the Devil God's Heavenly Prison, accompanied by green.

That was the forced deprivation of the Demon Dragon's self-awareness!

Not long after, there was nothing left in the Demon God's Heavenly Prison.

Just like that, a quasi-god was made into a slave while he was still alive!

In a blink of an eye, it fell into its current state!

Disregarding the demon masters, all of them felt exasperated and gazed at Su Yu as if he was a beast.

"You must be looking for death!" The purebred demons were furious. They were instantly provoked upon witnessing what Su Yu had done.

When they had just arrived, they were expecting this to be a one-sided massacre. Nobody expected the Demon Dragon to be easily wiped out by the new Seawatch City Master!

Su Yu put away the Demon God's Heavenly Prison and gave all of them a slight glance. "The demon dragon also said that I was looking for death, but he was the one who died in the end. Enough nonsense, now it's everyone's turn!"

The ferocious leader exuded a frightening demonic aura. The sound of his heart beating profusely can be heard as if countless veins were pulsating at the same time, filling the whole sky with the ominous beats.

Blood-red lines also appeared throughout his body.

The Demon Dragon previously only had about ten crimson lines, but now this demon had over hundreds of them!

This was the difference between purebred and half-bred demons!

The majestic blood energy rushed out of the body and swelled around him, turning him into a ten-foot-tall devil with a crimson body resembling the leader.

"Sacred demon transformation!" The leader grunted. Like a residual image, he appeared before Su Yu and pummeled him with his bloody fist.

Su Yu squinted and unleashed the power of the dragon god, the strength of the five elements and the power of assimilation altogether.

However, Su Yu's face changed slightly upon contact. The five elements of God's light emerged from his body and he teleported away.

Poof!

The bloody fist penetrated through where Su Yu stood, revealing the Xing River within the demon world.

Using his full strength, Su Yu only allowed the fist to penetrate his defense by less than one foot. However, he could not completely diffuse the blood fist.

Not only did the leader have astounding defenses, but it was also far more powerful than the Demon Dragon.

If Su Yu hadn't immediately teleported away in time, that punch would've killed him on the spot.

"Ha, this is the difference between purebred and half-bred demons! You think I'm joking about wanting you dead?" The leader looked down at Su Yu coldly with murderous intent.

Swoosh!

The leader flashed forward again at the speed of lightning.

Having mastered the five elements of God's light, Su Yu avoided the attack. Although the opponent was strong, he could not stop Su Yu.

Both of them looked on anxiously. This final battle would determine who was the victor.

Many lords in Seawatch City became extremely tense. Su Yu had given them hope, but the Demon Master gave them despair. If this continued, Su Yu will be defeated. When that time came, a bloodbath awaited them.

"Master of the Ten Regions, only you and the City Master can fight against the enemy by joining forces. For the sake of Seawatch City, please lend us a helping hand," After some deliberation, they all set their sights on the Master of the Ten Regions.

If they were dispatched, hundreds of quasi-gods on the other side would join the war.

Once the Master of the Ten Regions joined the fight, the enemies would hesitate to follow.

The Master of the Ten Regions continued to silently watch the battle between Su Yu and the Leader with cold glares.

He sneered, "Didn't he warn us to never get involved? If he's so powerful, then why would he need my help?"

The lords smiled bitterly. The City Master was prideful.

At that moment, the situation changed.

The leader roared after not attacking for a long time. In a flash of light, the huge body shot out hundreds of tentacles towards the sky and enveloped their surroundings.

Looking from the outside, Su Yu and the leader were sealed in a huge bloody sphere.

“Looks like you have nowhere to run,” The leader sneered. The sphere quickly shrank so that Su Yu lost the teleportation distance.

Since taking a full blow from the leader seemed inevitable now, Su Yu murmured, “It’s about time for me to finish this in one shot.”

Su Yu’s hands suddenly formed a seal, and a surging earth-based power surrounded him.

The leader was slightly surprised. “What a rich earth-based power! I didn’t expect you to be proficient in the earth element!”

Even so, he refused to hold back when killing Su Yu.

As the leader was about to kill Su Yu, thick red vines suddenly burst out from below and filled the huge blood sphere from within. They were densely shaped, much like hair.

New vines continued to grow relentlessly, quickly filling the already narrow sphere.

The leader went down and destroyed numerous vines with his fist, but most of the power was absorbed by the vines and didn’t Su Yu at all.

The endless growth of the vines threw off the leader. They were filling the entire interior so quickly that he was forced to retreat again.

Upon retreating to the edge of the ball, the entire interior was filled, and he found himself lacking space for any kind of movement.

At that moment, small spikes emerged from the vines. Together with Su Yu’s unique five-element assimilation power, they were all launched together and towards the leader.

Within the space that they had to move around in, resistance became futile. The large spikes pierced into his body.

One or two spikes may not have been able to assimilate the power of the blood energy, but what about 1000 or 10,000 thousand spikes?

Like a snowman that was standing under the sun, the leader’s giant body quickly melted away and soon revealed his original body.

Since the blood sphere was restraining him, the leader recovered the blood sphere and quickly withdrew.

Just then, Su Yu’s cold voice came from within the countless vines, “Now!”

Swoosh!

A giant spike engulfed with the power of infinite assimilation cut through the void and penetrated the leader’s giant body.

The blood mist on his chest instantly dissipated to reveal the entire upper body, including his head and chest.

Wasting no time, Su Yu teleported in front of him, transformed into a golden dragon donning colorful heavenly lights, and use the power of lightning to deal a lethal blow.

The blow was enough to kill the leader!

The lords of Seawatch City felt their hearts in their throats. This battle would determine whether they could kill the enemy leader.

However, they were too nervous and did not realize the normally quiet Master of the Ten Regions had disappeared!

The leader was terrified. The Demon Dragon was defeated by the fusion of these three forces!

At a critical moment, the leader yelled, "Master of the Ten Regions! What are you waiting for!"

What are you doing, Master of the Ten Regions? When the lords of Seawatch City heard, their hearts sank. It couldn't be...

At the last moment of the fight, a red robe figure appeared silently behind Su Yu and said coldly, "Received!"

Slash!

A black giant sword appeared in the palm of the Master of the Ten Regions and swung down through the air.

With the full strength of Master of the Ten Regions, the blow was second only to the leader's full blow.

Su Yu was cut into two with no apprehension!

Blood splattered and the golden dragon roared.

When the lights faded and the golden dragon became one with Su Yu, the lords of Seawatch City were immediately stunned.

The City Master was dead ...

He was not killed by the hands of the enemy, but rather murdered by an ally while engaging the enemy!

Master of the Ten Regions!

The lords of Seawatch City stared at the traitor with hatred and disdain. They couldn't believe what they had just witnessed.

That would explain a lot. When the City master was in trouble, he refused to help and chose to ridicule instead.

When the City master was about to succeed, he fatally stabbed him in the back and cut things off.

"You beast!" The lords of Seawatch City were livid. They lost because of this traitor!

"Let's kill this traitor together!" The lords were completely enraged by the attack on their City master.

Faced with the indignation of former colleagues, the Master of the Ten Regions wiped the blood from the knife-edge and said, "You're all morons who do not know the current affairs! Even if the ninth princess is alive, she is now beaten back to her former body. It is almost impossible to restore her to her heyday. What's the point of following her Royal Highness like this? It would be better to turn to the Sixth princess instead! "

Master of the Ten Regions glanced at most of them with pitying eyes, “Do you think that I’m the only one who trusts the Sixth Princess?”

Chapter 1216: The Deity Strikes

Ahh!

All of a sudden, a few agonized screams broke out among the Seawatch City Masters.

Six city masters suffered sneak attacks, and their physical bodies perished. Two of them even had their souls and godly spirits plundered.

The ones who attacked them were none other than the rest of the Seawatch City Masters!

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Many figures flashed past, and as many as 13 city masters flew out and landed behind the Masters of the Ten Regions, staring mockingly at the Seawatch City Masters with only forty people left.

“You have turned traitors too!” The Seawatch City Masters were in disbelief. When the Ninth Princess was on the throne, they appeared extremely loyal and faithful, but now that the Ninth Princess had sustained severe injuries, they had revealed their true colors.

“It is you who were senseless!” The traitors were indifferent.

The opponents’ leader heaved a long sigh of relief and withdrew his bloodline power. With a teasing smile on his lips, he glanced around and said, “Ninth Princess, I know you are watching the battle. So, how are you finding this surprise? Ddo you like it?”

No one would have ever expected that so many city masters would chose betrayal!

Besides, the betrayal by the Master of the Ten Regions further confounded the situation, making Su Yu suffer a defeat when he had been on the verge of victory.

The reply was not as expected. The leader’s face was beaming with a triumphant smile as he looked over at the remaining Seawatch City Masters.

“Listen to my order, city masters! The time has come to reap what we sow! Annihilate every last one of them! Leave no one behind! All their possessions will be yours!”

Upon hearing that, all the city masters who were part of the betrayal stared at each other like gluttonous, starving wolves.

As Prospective Deities, they must also be carrying profitable items of worth.

All of them became ecstatic and uproarious at the thought of it.

In contrast, the faces of the Seawatch City Masters were ashen grey with despair. The opponents were three times greater than them in number, and there were two middle-stage Prospective Deities with terrifying capabilities among them. None of them would make it out alive!

Despair, reluctance, anger, and many other emotions flickered across their faces.

To the opponents’ leader, it looked like the final whimper of the desperate lambs.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The 13 masters who had joined the betrayal stood at the front line, giving them the vantage point. They took the lead and charged forward with great excitement.

Pow!

However, just as the 13 of them moved, one of them died as their body exploded without any warning or apparent reason!

Pow!

And then the second one, followed by the third, and the fourth...

The 13 early-stage Prospective Deities who had charged forward valiantly kept exploding one after another like mushrooms. It was very creepy.

In the blink of an eye, the traitors whose faces were bloodthirsty and euphoric a moment ago were running back to where they had come from in great terror.

However, even as they ran, the explosions occurred incessantly. Even their souls dissipated with the winds, and both their physical forms and spirits perished together!

“Ahh!! I’m not killing anymore, I’m not killing anymore!!” The dead spirit of a traitor emerged in extreme dread for the gruesome and eerie deaths, while imploring in terror as it fled beyond the heavens.

However, he failed to escape his fate and died of the explosion.

In the blink of an eye, 13 early-stage Prospective Deities had perished. Not a single one of them was left alive!

Observant people would have noticed that the first ones to die among the 13 of them were the six traitors who had murdered their own, and whose hands were soaked in blood!

What a familiar scene it was, slaying 13 Prospective Deities in a row.

Just as expected, when they fixed their gazes on the spot where the 13 traitors had died sudden deaths, numerous blades of silver long swords gradually emerged, forming the Nona-Solar Sword Formation!

It was him! It really was him!

The face of the Master of the Ten Regions turned pale with fright, and streaks of cold sweat broke out all over his forehead. He turned his stiff neck with great difficulty to look at Su Yu’s corpse.

The leader’s victorious smile was still plastered on his face, yet the look in his eyes had been replaced by terror and shock, as he painstakingly shifted his eyes to Su Yu’s corpse as well.

But was there even a corpse? Not a single drop of blood was in sight, and there was only a remnant pool of immense, boundless vitality!

“Where is... where is he?” The Master of the Ten Regions swallowed a mouthful of saliva forcefully, and his heart was thumping wildly in his chest, filled with extreme insecurity and fear.

He was so terrified he felt as though he was teetering at the edge of a cliff and could fall into the bottomless chasm with just one careless step.

“He can’t possibly be still alive! I ensured that even his soul perished!” The leader’s palms turned clammy with cold sweat as he muttered underneath his breath, his pupils tightly constricted.

Praa!

All of a sudden, the Nine-Solar Sword Formation moved, shooting towards a particular position all at once and surrounding a deserted space where it hovered with excitement.

Staring at the deserted space, the entire place was in complete silence.

No one dared utter a word. All they did was fix their stares on it, without even blinking.

Faint gleams of hope were rekindled in the despairing eyes of the Seawatch City Masters.

Now, their enemies were extremely anxious, pinning their hopes on a mere fluke.

Not him, it couldn’t be him!

Swish!

A soft noise sounded, and a layer of penta-colored divine brilliance lit up in the deserted space. Shrouded amidst the brilliance was a handsome silver-haired demon, standing gracefully.

“City Master!! It’s our City Master!!” The city masters on his side burst out in euphoria as if the savior of the world had been reborn!

It was hard to imagine that not long ago, they were harboring jealousy, contempt, and displeasure towards Su Yu.

Now, all that was left was respect and excitement!

The facial expressions of the enemies as well as the Master of the Ten Regions were the complete opposite of theirs.

“No, this is impossible! How can you still be alive after that swing of the knife?” The Master of the Ten Regions’ lips were trembling. Having witnessed Su Yu’s combat power with his own eyes, he knew that he stood no chance of survival at the hands of Su Yu.

Right here right now, the Su Yu who had risen from the dead made him feel cold from head to toe.

Su Yu stared at the Master of the Ten Regions with indifference and did not reply. To be precise, that swing of the knife could have killed him indeed. He had only been revived with the help of the Divine Nine-Dragon Cauldron.

At the side, the leader sucked in a cold breath. Shooting a glance at the dead bodies of the traitors all over the ground, and at the city masters who were ordered not to attack by Su Yu, his heart trembled vigorously.

He voiced the thought that he himself couldn't even believe. "Could you have summoned them to watch the battle, with the ultimate intention of wiping us all out, along with all the traitors of the Seawatch City?"

Su Yu nodded lightly, confirming his surmise.

The leader's voice was inexplicably low. "If that is the truth, you purposely allowed the Master of the Ten Regions to kill you just now?"

Su Yu nodded again. "If I wasn't dead, how could all those traitors be lured out?"

Upon hearing that, the Master of the Ten Regions staggered a few steps backward. He could not believe that he had been tricked!

The leader had nothing more to say. Initially, he had thought that taming the traitors of the Seawatch City would be a surprise to the Ninth Princess, yet he had no clue that an even greater surprise was lying in wait for him.

He had invested such tremendous efforts in persuading the 13 city masters to surrender, only to have every last one of them rapidly eradicated by Su Yu, with his gruesome, swift and uncompromising strategies!

Staring at Su Yu, the leader felt deep hatred as well as a sense of dread. "Ten Regions," he bellowed, "he won't let you get away! Come join me and let us kill him together!"

The Master of the Ten Regions was totally terrified, but since things had turned out this way, he had no more means of retreat. He yelled in agreement, "Alright!"

In the meantime, the leader commanded, "Everyone, listen to my order! Strike at once and kill every single city master on the opposing side! Then, find the Ninth Princess. We will hold back the Yu Demon!"

The all-round battle had begun!

If they found the Ninth Princess and took her hostage, Su Yu would surely spare the mouse to save the vase.

The city masters were forced to put up a desperate fight, and they had no choice but to risk their lives at this moment. It was make or break time!

Besides, their chances of winning were still considerably high. As long as the leader and the Master of the Ten Regions could restrain Su Yu, it would only be a matter of time before they killed the opposing city masters and found the Ninth Princess.

Once the Ninth Princess was found, the situation would become definite!

Looking at the opposing city masters who seemed deadly determined and murderous, Su Yu put on a tender smile on his face. "Your courage is praiseworthy, however, it is a pity that I will give no you chance of turning your fate around."

Boom! Boom! Boom!

All of a sudden, numerous tremendously thick vines emerged from beneath Su Yu's feet, sprawling across the ground and extending to the edge of the sky. They weaved together and surrounded an enormous space, forming an enclosed cage.

"All of you break out now!" the leader yelled as he struck alongside the Master of the Ten Regions.

The leader contributed his powerful bloodline power once again, while the Master of the Ten Regions performed shocking knife techniques.

The two of them joined forces, and their combined strength was not to be slighted. No matter how capable Su Yu considered himself, he would never be a match of them.

However, what if Su Yu had an immortal body?

Su Yu closed his eyes slowly. In the desolate skies above his head, the enormous eye of reincarnation of the Soul Dimension suddenly turned into an emerald expanse. A very long beam of emerald light shot out from the eye and fell upon Su Yu, shrouding him.

From afar, Su Yu looked as delicate and crystal clear as an emerald. He was so exquisite that he looked like a fairy.

Right at that moment, the Master of the Ten Regions' knife swung down, carrying the power of the Divine Path and splitting Su Yu into two. Even his soul was not spared as it was slain along with his body.

However, before the Master could show his satisfaction, Su Yu, who had obviously been split into two, moved his right hand. The Power of the Dragon God, the Power of Five Elements as well as the Power of Assimilation united as one, penetrating the Master's body without warning.

The Master of the Ten Regions could not believe it as he looked at his body that was gradually being assimilated. How could a dead man still attack?

Carrying his godly spirit, his soul escaped the moment his demonic body turned into grains.

Right when he thought that this was Su Yu's final retaliation before his death, the Demonic God's Heavenly Prison emerged on Su Yu's left palm, and he tossed it into the sky.

Watching as the incredulous scene unfolded, the Master of the Ten Regions felt a sense of deep horror. That wasn't a final retaliation before death! Su Yu had not died at all!

"Dodge!" the leader screamed at the top of his lungs as he flew forth swiftly, his enormous bloody fist brutally slamming away the Demonic God's Heavenly Prison.

However, Su Yu, who was already in two halves, launched another attack. A penta-colored mountain flew out from his palm and expanded suddenly in the air to a thousand feet in size, pressing down forcefully.

The leader yelled and slammed towards it with both his fists. But the instant his hand made contact with it, a boundless, immense Five Elemental Power of Assimilation was unleashed from the mountain, completely resolving the bloodline power on him!

“Oh no!” The leader was horrified. He had never expected Su Yu to have such a creepy miniature mountain constituted of the Power of Five Elements.

But it was too late to do anything about it now.

The nine silver flying swords in the air carried the penta-colored divine brilliance and the Power of Assimilation, piercing right through the leader’s body.

At the same time as it pierced him, the Power of Assimilation was forced into his body, assimilating his demonic body into the five primitive elements, turning him into grains.

He was left with only his soul and godly spirit!

“Impossible! What on earth is the matter with you? Why can’t you be killed?” The leader was terrorized beyond words. He could not conceive the scene that he was beholding.

He had killed him twice, but the outcomes before his eyes were unbelievable.

Especially now! He had obviously been split into two and had turned into a dead body, but why was he still not dead yet?

“Do you want to know?” All of a sudden, Su Yu’s halved corpse began speaking. The parts of the dead body assembled once again. Even his shattered soul healed to its initial state.

The incredible scene made the two middle-stage Prospective Deities choke on their sharp cold breaths. “You... you have an immortal body?”

They exclaimed in horror as they looked at the emerald light in Su Yu’s surroundings.

Su Yu smiled gently. “Precisely speaking, it is the Domain of Life! In this domain, I have eternal lives, no matter how many times you kill me, I will never end up dead.”

“Alright, I am done explaining things to you. Now you may rest in peace!”

Boom!

The Demonic God’s Heavenly Prison worked again, detaining both of the middle-stage Prospective Deities in it.

Su Yu took over the heavenly prison and with a clasp of his hands, he melted them immediately.

Inside the heavenly prison, the leader’s unwilling and desperate growl of fury resonated, “Princess, Your Highness, please come to our rescue!!”

Creak!

It was as though he had squeezed something into pieces. A wave of shocking divine energy was suddenly unleashed from the Demonic God’s Heavenly Prison!

That wasn’t the divine energy of a Prospective Deity, it was a terrifying divine energy that only one with a mature godly spirit could unleash.

Chapter 1217: The Book Deity’s Reappearance

“Ahh!! Your Highness, what are you doing? Ah...”

However, the divine force didn't arrive to rescue the leader, but to destroy his soul instead!

That was murder!

In the meantime, a magnificent divine force surged forth with the murderous desires of a deity, penetrating the Demonic God's Heavenly Prison and aiming straight at Su Yu!

Not even Su Yu expected a deity to intervene.

Was the Sixth Princess so outrageous and unscrupulous that she dared to expose her own deity?

Upon closer inspection, Su Yu found that the divine force was extremely familiar to him, as though he had seen it somewhere.

“Hold on! The owner of this divine energy is...” Su Yu recalled in bewilderment, and his eyes turned cold abruptly. “It is you!! I never expected you to be involved with this!”

With a vicious look in Su Yu's eyes, he raised a hand and with a wave. The Five Elements Mountain was in his grasp. He sneered, “Take this gift from me!”

Aaaah!!

Pitch-black streams of air suddenly began to leak from the belly of the Five Elements Mountain, faintly discernible with no concrete forms.

“The ultimate misfortune of the Misfortune Deity, the Deity Perishing Misfortune! Have fun with it!”

The black streams of air were wrapped around by the Power of Five Elements by force and stripped from the Five Elements Mountain, sent into a head-on collision with the divine energy.

The black streams of air were dissolved by the divine energy without a sound as if they had no power at all.

However, that was the terrifying part of the Power of Misfortune. Even from so far away, it could silently kill someone by casting misfortune on their belongings.

As the divine energy struck towards him, Su Yu yelled, “Evil God!”

Swish!

The Evil God's figure materialized from Su Yu's Soul Dimension. Compared to its last appearance, its body was larger now. Its aura was even more immense than before, near the state of a late-stage Prospective Deity.

After shooting a glance at the divine energy, the Evil God chortled and engulfed it with its dog mouth.

“You brat, just had another big fight?” The Evil God glanced at the corpses of Prospective Deities all over the place, briefly rolling its eyeballs.

Su Yu replied angrily, “Go back to your kennel, I'll give you the extra godly spirits.”

How didn't he realize that the Evil God was coveting the godly spirits?

"Ha! As the divine emperor who killed the heavens and slaughtered the lands, I have had a lush lifetime of romance with countless female companions. In the end, you're the only one who cares about me."

"I have decided that if I ever reach the top again, I will give you whatever you want, including my women. I'll give them all to you!"

"Your women? Hmm... What species are they?"

"They're dogs, of course!"

"Never mind, keep them for yourself!"

"Heh, don't go just yet. All my women are renowned beauties in the world of dogs, all of them gorgeous and flirtatious..."

Having slain two middle-stage Prospective Deities, Su Yu stared coldly at the many early-stage Prospective Deities that were still hopelessly trying to break free from the cage of vines.

Anyone whom Su Yu's glance swept across felt an electric shock from terror. They stood motionless in their spots, none of daring to budge.

Everyone stopped to wait for Su Yu to decide their fates.

"Whoever wishes to stay alive, open up your hearts and surrender to me!" Su Yu said dispassionately.

Not only were the city masters not awkward, but all of them also looked exhilarated.

According to the custom among demons, captives from a war of life and death like them would almost always be punished, deprived of their godly spirits. It was surprising that Su Yu was willing to shelter them.

In the face of death, why wouldn't they surrender to him?

They used to depend on the leader, so why couldn't they depend on this new leader whose power was so strong it was almost nature-defying?

Even if they weren't sincerely surrendering, they should've at least muddled through the crisis at hand before anything else and sought after opportunities to free themselves in the future.

As his glance swept across them, Su Yu took note of everyone's facial expressions. He sneered; how could he tolerate any halfhearted, insincere surrenders?

Indiscernible waves of soul fluctuation were emitted from his eyes. The Imperial Soul Realm was fully activated.

Having opened up their souls, they were all under Su Yu's absolute control!

Half an hour later, 90 intact early-stage Prospective Deities bent their knees before Su Yu with wholehearted, genuine respect.

“Meeting master, we will obey your commands from now on!”

Su Yu smiled, feeling empowered and in control.

These were all Prospective Deities, matchless powerful individuals who dominated the vast, expansive Demonic Dimension, let alone the Great Eastern Alliance.

Now that he had turned them into submissive puppets, the kind of enormous power that Su Yu had gotten hold of could be imagined. If applied aptly, he would be like a tiger that could fly.

At that moment, the anxious inquiries of the city masters sounded outside the sealed cage.

How could they not be worried that the cage had gone silent for some time now?

Su Yu tidied up the scene of battle, keeping away the storage spaces and the godly spirits of the leader and the Master of the Ten Regions.

He also plundered all the resources and godly spirits of other deceased Prospective Deities on the ground, amassing a shocking amount of resources and wealth.

Many among them were beneficial to the creatures of Jiuzhou.

The godly spirits were especially useful for the recovery of God Kylin and the Evil God.

With a move of thoughts, the vines everywhere transformed into luxuriant green vitality and returned to Su Yu’s body.

That was only because Su Yu had the Heart of Eternity and powerful vitality. Had it been an ordinary person, they could not have supported that massive amount of vines either even if they were proficient in the magical powers of the Mu race.

The city masters who were checking on them noticed that the cage had opened, and they glanced towards it immediately. When they found out that 90 opposing city masters were unscathed, they recoiled quickly with horrified looks on their faces, all geared up for a bloody fight.

The Yu Demon must’ve perished!

“My Lord!” Only Qianjun was familiar with Su Yu’s scent. She sprinted forward immediately, agitation written all over his face. But she was also shocked and suspicious about the 90 Prospective Deities standing behind Su Yu.

Su Yu said, “Don’t worry. They have surrendered to me.”

Ahh! Qianjun and the city masters inhaled sharp cold breaths. There were so many of them, and all of them had surrendered?

But in retrospect, if it had been them, the only possibility they had was to surrender in the face of a nature-defying killing God like Su Yu!

Qianjun tried to regain his composure. He was stupefied yet excited at the same time.

With 90 strong men of the Demon Master level, added with the remaining 40, that was more than 130 Demon Masters in total!

Any deity under the Ninth Princess' jurisdiction would not be able to get hold of that many Demon Masters!

"Congratulations, city master!" The 40 remaining city masters stepped forth and congratulated him.

Up to this moment, they had been completely convinced and had fully recognized this city master with genuine admiration.

Although he did not have the capabilities of a deity, he was the only one qualified for the position of the Seawatch City master.

Su Yu glanced across them. This had been a complete victory, with all three goals perfectly accomplished.

The first goal was to obliterate the powerful enemies stationed in Seawatch City by the Sixth Princess and remove the latent danger.

The second goal was to eradicate the hidden traitors and stifle the disaster in its cradle!

The third goal was to win the people's hearts and secure his position as the city master.

This was the very first battle Su Yu had fought since he gained his foothold in the Demonic Dimension, also the most crucial battle of all.

Having cleared the obstacles, now was the time to lay out the major plan!

With his gaze pinned on the 40 Prospective Deities, Su Yu said, "Everyone, follow me back to your respective territories and clear off the remnant sinners!"

The main power arranged by the Sixth Princess had been destroyed, but other personnel were certainly in charge of intelligence, infiltration and other tasks. They were equally worrisome and should not be ignored.

"We abide by your commands, city master!" At this moment, none of the city masters dared to defy him again.

Su Yu was willing to accept the surrenders of the opposing army, yet he slaughtered every Demon Master who betrayed him. It seemed that this Lord city master had zero tolerance for traitors.

"Besides!" Su Yu's eyes went cold. "Three days ago I commanded all city masters to show up here. Five of them are still on the way, and 14 of them haven't moved at all!"

Only then did the city masters recall upon hearing that, they couldn't help but feel fortunate inwardly. Luckily they had come without belittling this city master. If they did...

"Qianjun, send my order, strip the five city masters who are still on the way of their positions and allow the successors in their territories to take the positions! Since they couldn't meet with me, then I don't need them anymore!"

Depriving them of their positions as city masters straight away? How cruel! Which Prospective Deity who held the position hadn't traded for it with a lifetime of efforts? Yet they had nothing left overnight!

“I have another order. The 14 city masters who have taken no actions will be destroyed individually by the Demon Masters behind me, with Qianjun taking the lead. Don’t let a single one live!”

What? Kill them all? Wasn’t this too heartless?

Even Qianjun was startled for a moment. If they had killed the 14 traitors, were they going to kill those in inaction as well?

“Even if they didn’t intend to betray me, not obeying the city master’s commands must mean that they’re indecisive. What is the point of sparing people who aren’t loyal to me and Her Highness?” Su Yu questioned mercilessly.

The Master of the Ten Regions were right about one thing; having forced her back into her Original Form, it was almost impossible for the Ninth Princess’s power to return to its peak state.

After a while, the Jingyu Realm had remained in a weak, vulnerable condition.

The indecisive fence-sitters could turn to the enemies anytime and betray the Jingyu Realm. Instead of guarding against them all the time, it was better to annihilate them.

The last thing that Su Yu wanted was a lack of strong city-masters.

“Yes!” Qianjun’s eyes were filled with determination. Having witnessed today’s betrayal by the Master of the Ten Regions, the world had nearly been overturned. They all nearly perished as she banished her kindness.

The rest of the city masters broke out into cold sweats from their foreheads.

Luckily they had Her Highness in their hearts and had arrived in time. Otherwise, they would’ve been dead by now!

Despite looking young, this new city master was decisive and merciless!

Having given the order, the city masters returned one after another. Qianjun also led the Demon Masters who had surrendered and divided themselves into 14 squads, prepared to kill the undecided city masters.

When no one was around, Su Yu called out calmly, “Puppy, why don’t you come here?”

Swish!

A white-colored furry mass wriggled out from hidden debris and obediently moved towards Su Yu’s feet.

The look in its eyes as it gazed at Su Yu was different from before.

Behind it, the Agile Demon Master followed with a face full of guilt and shame.

She thought that she was the one who was most concerned with Her Highness’ safety. In reality, the one who contemplated the most was the Yu Demon who “abused” the Princess.

She was about to speak when Su Yu cut her off, “Keep guarding your Agile Demon City. In such a condition, it was considered a contribution that you did not turn to the enemy with Puppy. You may get up.”

The Agile Demon Master's face was flushed red, ashamed yet fully convinced about Su Yu.

"Lord city master, please return to the mansion to rest from the great battle just now..." The Agile Demon Master spoke.

"No need for that, I'm heading for the Seawatch City to assume personal command now! The city master has perished for many days, and the people had lost their leader. And the Sixth Princess' infiltration, it needs to settle down as soon as possible before all prior efforts go to waste."

Su Yu picked up Puppy and left by tearing the Void without even pausing for a second, with the surrendered Demon Masters following behind him.

The Agile Demon Master was startled but kept quiet. She had no idea that a woman in a black dress had silently left her side to catch up with Su Yu's pace.

Had she turned against him at the critical moment, what awaited her would be a fatal strike from the Black Phoenix.

Inside a secret chamber in the Sixth Princess' mansion were a man and a woman sitting across each other.

The petite and delicate woman looked beautiful and clever. She was the Sixth Princess!

Sitting across her was a middle-aged man with a placid look on his face, looking relaxed and leisurely.

If Su Yu were here, he would have recognized that he was the Book Deity taken into the Demonic Dimension!

They sat around a round plate, through which they could observe the situations at the Agile Territory.

At that moment, pitch-black streams of air burst through the round plate, transcending the distance.

The Book Deity opened his eyes abruptly, his eyes filled with dread. "The Deity Perishing Misfortune of the Misfortune Deity? Oh no!"

The Book Deity lost his composure; how could he not know about the terrifying impact of the ultimate misfortune? He had never expected to invite such a horrendous misfortune from failing to harm that silver-haired demon!

Chapter 1218: The Emissary's Visit

Even if he was a prophet, he would never have predicted that the Misfortune Deity would leave behind an ultimate misfortune upon his death.

And even less predictably, the misfortune would've manifested as a silver-haired demon.

Unfortunately, misfortune wasn't a material attack. It had manifested early on along with the divine energy he unleashed when he assaulted Su Yu from across the dimension.

The black streams of air lingered around him like silhouettes and slipped into his body effortlessly as the Book Deity growled in anger.

A faintly discernible black mark emerged on his forehead.

In horror, the Book Deity maneuvered his divine energy instantly to chase it off.

Shortly afterward, his brows were furrowed into a deep scowl, his face as gloomy as the dark water.

It was just like the mythical saying: misfortune could only be suppressed but not resolved, and the suppression wouldn't last for too long.

As the Book Deity, he knew everything in the world. Thanks to his immense knowledge, he knew misfortune was nearly irrevocable unless with the help of several methods.

"It's the Misfortune Deity from the World of Divine Remains, isn't it? That's weird. Wasn't he dead already? How is there still an ultimate misfortune left behind in the world?" The Sixth Princess' pretty eyes turned slowly as she queried in surprise.

She had been calm and composed the whole time, not even hindering the Book Deity whom the misfortune had befallen.

The Book Deity had a gloomy look, the depths of his eyes filled with deep hatred. "Who else could it be, apart from the Feather Deity?"

What? The Sixth Princess, who was initially calm, raised her brows. "It's him?"

Hints of iciness filled her crystal-like eyes. She had not forgotten that Su Yu had single-handedly devastated the network of spies that the Demonic Dimension had stationed in the World of Divine Remains!

Neither had she forgotten that Su Yu drew the Death Deity, causing the mayhem on the transmission of the Nine Demons God Sealing Ring.

Were it not for the Demon Emperor, she and her seventh younger brother would've nearly been embroiled in the calamity and died.

Putting aside the two old grievances, he had interrupted her big plans once again!

"Feather Deity, Yu Demon!" The Sixth Princess laughed bitterly, her laughter icy cold. "In the galaxy, you have ruined my plans time and time again. In the Demonic Dimension, you have confronted me again and again, ruining my big plans! God forbid that I spare your life!"

The Book Deity was consumed by despair, brimming with hatred and bitterness. In the World of Divine Remains, he had painstakingly freed himself from Su Yu's intrigue.

Who would have predicted that he would fall victim to Su Yu's scheme once again in the Demonic Dimension and be cursed with the Deity Perishing Misfortune!

"Book Deity, as a princess, I can neither intervene in the affairs of the Jingyu Realm nor order the deities under me to get involved. Otherwise, it will easily leave traces behind, and we'll get punished by the Demon Emperor!"

“However, you’re a deity from foreign lands. Even if you flip the entire Jingyu Realm over, it is none of my business! Thus, I will leave the Feather Deity at your disposal!”

The Book Deity was silent. If the Sixth Princess got involved, she would be punished, but wouldn’t he as an outsider? He was more likely to receive a punishment that was even more dreadful and exacting.

“I understand your considerations, but all you need to do is attack the Feather Deity and get rid of him. As long as the Ninth Princess isn’t alerted, the Demon Emperor will not be alerted.”

The Book Deity seemed to be pondering.

“Rest assured, if you can capture the Feather Deity alive, I will implore my imperial Father to help you get rid of the Deity Perishing Misfortune! The only person who could resolve the Deity Perishing Misfortune is the first-ranking strong man of the galaxy, the Demon Emperor!”

Having been offered the condition which he desired, the Book Deity finally nodded.

There were only a handful of powers in the world that could resolve the Deity Perishing Misfortune, and one of them belonged to the Demon Emperor.

No wonder the Sixth Princess had only sat back and watched as the Book Deity was possessed by the Deity Perishing Misfortune; it turned out that she was waiting to gain control over him and make him serve her.

“I can attack, but am I allowed to kill him?” The enmity between the Book Deity and Su Yu could not be put in simple words.

“No! I only want him alive, in perfect condition!” No matter what, she had to get her grip on Su Yu’s nature-defying ability to reverse his fate and demonize himself.

The Book Deity was exasperated inside. The enemy was before his very eyes, yet he could only capture but not kill him? How miserable.

But he looked unruffled on the surface. “Yes!”

As he finished, he turned into a puff of breeze and dissipated from the secret chamber.

Guarded by the nine deities of the Jingyu Realm, the Seawatch City was a prosperous city bustling with activities.

Industries, population, and every other aspect and profession had shown unprecedented improvement and development.

Compared to the Great Eastern Alliance, the Jingyu Realm was even more advanced as a city of the Demonic Dimension.

Rumor had it that the Demonic Dimension was a world of chaos, spartan and harsh environment with cruel killings happening at every corner...

As far as the eye could see, it was all peace, prosperity, and splendor in the Demonic Dimension, which far surpassed the Great Eastern Alliance.

The combined capabilities and resources of a mere Moonview City could rival almost half of the Great Eastern Alliance's.

Putting aside the faraway areas, a single city had 81 Demon Masters of the Prospective-Deity level. How many Prospective Deities were there in the entire Great Eastern Alliance? Not more than 200.

Gazing at the Seawatch City from the Boid, Su Yu had realized the insignificance of the Great Eastern and Western Alliances.

They didn't need the whole army of the Demonic Dimension. Any of the Princes or Princesses could lead the creatures of their territories to march into and conquer the Great Eastern Alliance with complete ease.

"What on earth is happening? If the Demonic Dimension had wanted to destroy the Great Eastern Alliance, they would have done it long ago. Why are they being so discreet and cautious, spending several hundred years to lay arrangements?"

Su Yu's doubt intensified. His questions could only be answered by the members of the royal house.

It seemed like he had to help Puppy recover part of its abilities so that it could communicate freely.

With the support of dozens of surrendered Prospective Deities, Su Yu seized control over the city master's mansion.

The mansion had been left behind by the former city master. Not only was it adorned everywhere with the writings of deities, but even the treasury of the mansion was also preserved.

After investigation, Su Yu was surprised that many of the resources were objects that could only be used by individuals of the deity's level. They might've not been useful to Su Yu, but they could provide unexpected benefits to the Evil God and God Kylin.

Of course, there many resources which Su Yu could utilize as well, especially those that could help him achieve a breakthrough into the Mortal Fairy level.

Having appeased the crisis this time, Su Yu had the feeling that the next crisis wasn't far away.

He had very little free time, so he had to seize the opportunity to break into the Mortal Fairy level.

Once he attained the level of Mortal Fairies, the "Heaven's Son Gazing at Air Technique" and his godly spirit would benefit tremendously, and his capacity would improve by leaps and bounds once again.

The only problem was that Su Yu was human. If he broke into the Mortal Fairy level and triggered the unusual phenomena of the peculiar demon race, it would've led to disaster.

Therefore, he had to figure out a way to conceal the unusual phenomena during his breakthrough.

Right when Su Yu was contemplating, Sha'er walked up to him from behind.

Qianjun had led the army to attack the city masters who disobeyed his command. Because Sha'er had replaced her father's post to deliver Su Yu's orders, she looked just like a trusted follower of Su Yu.

“City master, the Demon Cloud City Master has sent an emissary to meet you.”

The Demon Cloud City was one of the nine great cities of the Jingyu Realm, and its city master was a genuine deity.

“Alright, bring him to the reception parlor,” Su Yu said. He had just assumed the post of the city master, and Su Yu had expected other city masters to visit.

He just wasn’t certain if the visitor was an ally or an enemy.

He couldn’t determine which among the eight other city masters were still faithful to the Ninth Princess.

Perhaps when the Ninth Princess was at her pinnacle, they had been loyal and devoted. With her current state, however, they had likely turned their backs on her.

After Sha’er left, Su Yu summoned the Ninth Princess and stroked her furry head. “Puppy, are there any deities in the cities you think I could trust?” Su Yu asked, knowing it was unlikely.

Puppy contemplated very intently before shaking its head.

Was there none? Puppy was clear about its circumstances. No one could be trusted at this point.

Su Yu couldn’t help but frown at the fact that there wasn’t anyone who could be of help to him. The enemy was the Sixth Princess, who had the Book Deity and several other deities by her side. It would be unnerving not to have had any helpful deities by his side.

“Isn’t there anything I could use against them to make them surrender?”

Puppy shook its head.

“Then is there a means of retreat that can be used to halt them and prevent the situation today from happening again?”

Puppy shook its head again.

Su Yu’s veins leaped, as he stared at her and questioned, “As a princess, what do you usually do?”

“Eat!” Puppy uttered the word with great difficulty.

“What else?”

“Drink!”

“Other than that?”

“Play!”

“Enough, you useless princess!” Su Yu’s head was throbbing. As a member of the royal household, how could she not know about the cruel nature of the competition, which far exceeded what the commoners would ever face?

Commoners either won or lost in a competition.

But the competition in a royal house was a matter of life and death!

Despite the vastness of the Demonic Dimension, the royal members only consisted of the Demon Emperor and his nine descendants. Where were the Demon Emperor's siblings back then?

They most likely perished in pools of blood.

Puppy bared its fangs in protest. She wanted to tell Su Yu that if he ever called her useless again, she would bite you.

"In that case, you have neither any control over the nine deities under your jurisdiction nor any means of retreat that can intimidate them. I don't feel bad for you in your predicament today."

Su Yu's head ached terribly. There were eight deities whom they had no control over. If any of them harbored malice, major calamities would ensue.

Based on the current situation, the emissary from the Demon Cloud City was very unlikely to be a kind one.

A brief moment later, in the great reception hall...

The emissary from the Demon Cloud City was a middle-stage Prospective Deity, and even a rare, purebred demon!

"I am an emissary from the Demon Cloud City, here to greet City Master Yu Demon," the emissary said as he looked Su Yu in the eye, neither arrogant nor humble.

Sha'er creased her dainty brows and yelled, "What an insolent emissary! It is basic etiquette to bend one knee when you greet the city master. If even an insignificant demon king like me knows that, how could you not know this?"

An emissary should've been more aware than anyone when it came to manners.

The emissary had a placid look in his eyes as he said, "The Demon Cloud City only crowns heroes in terms of their strength and capabilities. To command respect and decent manners, you need to be equally powerful."

His words were meant for Su Yu. A mere Peak All Creations did not deserve the manners that were meant for deities.

Sha'er yelled, "Wanton! How dare you calumniate our city master!"

"I was just speaking the truth. If you insist on punishing me for that, I have nothing else to say," the emissary remarked with indifference.

Sha'er was so angry she laughed. This emissary was way too arrogant, having no respect for Su Yu at all.

Even though the word about Su Yu being appointed the new city master had spread around, the news about him conducting a massacre in the Agile Demonic City and destroyed three middle-stage Prospective Deities had not gotten around. It was probably too early for it to have spread far enough.

If the emissary before him knew about it, he would never be brave enough to behave so wantonly.

She intended to continue the argument, but Su Yu waved a hand to stop her. He said, "He is our guest, and I have never placed much importance on things like manners. Tell me, what has the Demon Cloud City Master sent you here for?"

The emissary looked at Su Yu and took out a badge that emitted the jet-black luster of metal.

The Divine Order of the Demon Cloud City Master!

"Seeing this badge means seeing the Demon Cloud City Master himself!" The emissary held the badge in his hand and yelled softly. His stare was fixed on Su Yu as he waited for him to act.

Su Yu sat tight on the main seat without budging an inch. Indifferent, he said, "Did the Demon Cloud City Master send you here just to show me the badge?"

The emissary withdrew the badge, and replied without humility, "I received the order of the Demon Cloud City Master to represent his full authority and discuss a matter with the Seawatch City Master."

Hmm! Su Yu raised his brows slightly. This Demon Cloud City Master had no respect for him at all!

As a city master just like him, the Demon Cloud City Master sent his subordinate to negotiate with him. What he implied was that the Demon Cloud City Master did not see Su Yu's status as any different from a middle-stage Prospective Deity.

Beside him, Sha'er was exasperated as she heard it. "The Demon Cloud City has gone too far!"

At Su Yu's side, Puppy blinked and thought to itself, "The Demon Cloud City Master is a real bully. Is he always this impudent when I'm not around, treating my command like it is nothing?"

Chapter 1219: Having Respect for No One

Looking down on Su Yu was the same as disrespecting the Ninth Princess.

If he still had any respect for the Ninth Princess, he wouldn't have deliberately committed such an insulting act.

Su Yu was calm and composed. If it had been any other successor of the position, they would never have accepted such a humiliating negotiation.

However, Su Yu could accept it.

"Well, whatever it is that you wanted to discuss, you may speak," Su Yu said casually, leaning against the main seat.

Ahh! Sha'er was completely taken aback. As far as she knew, Su Yu had never been one to eat the humble pie and endure insults without protest.

The emissary stared at Su Yu with great disdain, thinking of how he held the position of the city master but did not possess the caliber to maintain it. He was bound to bring shame to himself sooner or later.

The more Su Yu laid down his pride, the more the emissary looked down on him. Inadvertently, he sat up straight, giving off his usual dignified aura.

“The Demon Cloud City Master has sent his command: now that the Princess is severely injured, she needs capable subordinates to protect her, to prevent those with evil intentions to bring harm upon Her Highness in this time of crisis. Hence, he has sent me here to invite the Princess back to the Demon Cloud City.”

What? Did he want to take the Princess away?

Sha'er and Puppy were both startled. They hadn't expected such a request!

But Su Yu seemed as if he had expected it. He secretly thought to himself, “He came for this”!

He believed that the Demon Cloud City Master wasn't the only one!

Now that Her Highness was seriously injured, whoever protected her would become her spokesperson.

If the Demon Cloud City Master summoned the rest of the city masters to come forth for a meeting in the name of Her Highness, who would dare to disobey? Because disobedience meant defiance against Her Highness and was the same as betrayal!

Who was wild enough to think of controlling the ruler to order her dukes around in mind?

Besides, some among them could be planning on seizing Her Highness and handing her over to the Sixth Princess to be finished off.

“You have to inquire Her Highness' willingness on this matter,” Su Yu stated with indifference.

The emissary was secretly mocking him. He was far more useless and cowardly than he had thought, having given in so easily!

“Then do invite Her Highness out here, I believe Her Highness will make a judicious decision,” the emissary said.

Swish!

A furry mass of snowy white little beast rolled out from beneath Su Yu's feet, its pitch-dark, bright eyes looking at the emissary.

The emissary was stunned for a moment, the look on his face changed. He got down on one knee, and said with respect, “Demon Master Tian Ling from the Demon Cloud City, greetings Your Highness!”

It was said that the Ninth Princess had been reduced back into her Original Form. As an emissary, it was his duty to know about the Princess' Original Form beforehand. Thus, he easily figured out that the snowy little beast before him was the Ninth Princess.

Puppy nodded gently and uttered two words with difficulty. “Get up.”

The emissary got up and said solemnly with a bow, “Your Highness, please move to the Demon Cloud City. The Demon Cloud City Master is greatly concerned with Your Highness' safety and is willing to safeguard Your Highness with his life.”

Puppy snorted coldly inside. "How amusing. He would never meet me in person, but his emissary says that he would safeguard me with his life? If he still has any regard for me, he would've met with me himself instead of sending a nobody like you!"

"I am not going!" Puppy stated its intention concisely and straightforwardly.

She wasn't stupid. She couldn't rely on any of the eight deities.

Although Su Yu had been very mean to her, he was the only person who had no reason to kill her.

The emissary wasn't surprised. After all, the Yu Demon was the savior of the Ninth Princess' life, trusting him was reasonable.

"Unbeknownst to you, Your Highness, the Demon Cloud City Master found out that a mysterious group of killers who harbor malicious intentions against you has infiltrated the Seawatch City. If you do not leave soon, your safety will not be guaranteed, Your Highness!"

His words sounded like good-willed persuasion to hide the fact that it was an imposing threat.

Puppy sneered to herself. "If the Demon Cloud City Master is aware of the presence of those killers, why hasn't he taken any actions? And now you're threatening me with it. I'm glad that the Yu Demon has gotten rid of them all!"

As she thought of it, Puppy suddenly felt that she was even safer now as Su Yu's captive. Otherwise, she would have died at the hands of those people by now.

"Having the Seawatch City Master... is enough..." Puppy spoke painstakingly.

The emissary scowled lightly. Not even a threat worked on her?

"Forgive my forthrightness, Your Highness. The current Seawatch City Master is vulnerable in terms of his capabilities, he is not powerful enough to hold the evildoers back. I sincerely hope that you consider the Demon Cloud City Master's suggestion carefully, Your Highness."

"There is no need to consider... I'm only staying in... Seawatch City."

The emissary creased his brows into a deep frown. Since persuading Her Highness did not work, then he could only threaten this worthless city master!

Facing Su Yu, the emissary straightened his posture naturally and held his head up high. "Seawatch City Master, perhaps you have just assumed the post and have yet to understand the Demon Cloud City Master's temper well."

"If he has requested to do it, I strongly advise you against defying the Demon Cloud City Master's instructions. That will result in benefits to every party!"

As he spoke, the emissary retrieved a pitch-black skull filled with the liquefied power of the Demon God.

“This is a reward from the Demon Cloud City Master to you, for rescuing Her Highness,” the emissary set it down on the table and muttered to himself.

“If you cooperate with the Demon Cloud City Master, the benefits that you receive are far beyond your imagination! At least a single word from the Demon Cloud City Master could save you numerous troubles!”

“Apart from that, if the Demon Cloud City Master is satisfied with your performance, he might consider getting rid of the unknown strong men hiding in the city for you. This is a precious opportunity for you to secure your position as the city master!”

Su Yu looked at the emissary with a placid smile on his face, quietly listening as he talked about the benefits that he was promised.

Seeing that Su Yu was unmoved, the emissary thought to himself, “Are these benefits not enough for him? Humph, what a greedy man. But I understand.”

He had gone from a little demon whose name was unheard of to a city master by just one leap. When a vile person got his way, it was normal that his gluttonous nature was exposed! It seemed like there was a need to give him a blow!

The emissary took a leisurely leap of his tea and put on a mirthless smile. “I take it that the Seawatch City Master has no clue about your current circumstances yet?”

“Do you think that receiving Her Highness’ edict made you a real city master? Without the approval and support of the other city masters, I can guarantee that you won’t be able to secure your place for more than a fortnight!”

“You will either be overthrown by the masters under the jurisdiction of the Seawatch City, or you’ll be finished off by the assassins lying in ambush!”

“Haha, maybe you’re too naive, thinking that Her Highness’ edict means you could have it all. The truth is that many people think the Seawatch City Master is a nobody!” He said ungraciously.

He said nonchalantly, “Don’t blame me for making such straightforward remarks. I did this to make you realize your limitations! You should be grateful!”

Up to this point, he had stopped concealing his contempt and disrespect for Su Yu.

“Alright, I have said what needed to be said. If you hand Her Highness over to the Demon Cloud City Master, you will be rewarded. And if the Demon Cloud City Master is in a good mood, he will help you get rid of the hidden strong men.”

“This has a determining impact in your effort of securing the city master’s position! If you refuse, I am certain that you will be evicted pretty soon.”

The emissary stared at Su Yu and waited for him to make his decision, looking cool and unhurried.

The placid smile on Su Yu's face did not falter once. "Haha, have I not made myself clear? If Her Highness is willing, I will not stop you."

"But Her Highness isn't willing," the emissary pressed on.

Su Yu replied, "Hence, I will stop you."

Humph! The emissary furrowed his brows into a deep frown, set down the teacup forcefully and squinted his eyes. "Seawatch City Master! Do you even hear yourself? Say that again!"

"I said, I will stop you!" Su Yu remarked calmly, and the smile on his face faded, looking calm and unruffled. "The Demon Cloud City Master has sent a deaf man as an emissary. Is he running out of competent workers?"

The emissary was stupefied. How dare a nobody like him who had gained success overnight treated him like that?!

"How dare you!" The emissary slammed the table and got up, his brows creased into a deep scowl. "How could you humiliate the Demon Cloud City Master?!"

In reality, he was infuriated by how Su Yu insulted him right in his face!

"I should be the one who feels humiliated, that a deaf man has been sent to visit me!" Su Yu remarked dispassionately and waved his sleeves. "Go back and tell the Demon Cloud City Master that Her Highness is not willing to return, and I'm not willing to let her either. The matter is decided, so there is no more room for a bargain."

"Yeah, by the way, if he sends more emissaries in the future, tell him to send a smarter one."

As the owner, Su Yu ordered his guest to leave.

Since both parties were no longer on good terms, it was impossible to turn the situation around.

The emissary forced out a burst of angry laughter. "A vile man who gets his way knows nothing about his real capacity! What a waste of my time to offer you advice on your current plight. It turns out that you are an arrogant, self-righteous idiot!"

Su Yu's eyes turned cold as he cast an indifferent look upon him.

"Haha, how dare you still look at me? Do you think you're the Seawatch City Master? Idiot, you mean nothing to me!" The emissary blurted out, no longer hiding his disdain.

With a sweep of his glance, he skipped Su Yu with total disregard and pinned his stare on Puppy, who was hiding behind Su Yu's back.

He said, "Under the order of the Demon Cloud City Master, I will take Her Highness back with me by all possible means, and she must accept protection by the Demon Cloud City Master! If I have offended you in any way, do forgive me, Your Highness!"

The emissary bellowed as he stepped forward directly to seize Puppy.

Puppy was so furious that she was trembling terribly. She was like a tiger that got bullied by dogs when it wasn't within its own territory. How dare a mere middle-stage Prospective Deity treat her so impudently? Did he still have any respect for her as the Princess?

“Stop it! I am not...going to the Demon Cloud City...whoever goes against my order...should be beheaded!” Amid her wrath, Puppy blurted out a string of words.

However, the emissary pretended not to hear her as he advanced in wide strides. Somberly, he said, “Forgive me for not being able to abide by your order, Your Highness. For your safety, I have to take you to the Demon Cloud City!”

Puppy was boiling with rage, murderous desires brimming inside her. “You, how dare you!!”

The emissary ignored her completely as a cold sneer flickered in the depths of his eyes. As a Princess who had lost power, did she still think that she was the Princess she used to be?

As he sneered, he made his way to Su Yu's front with his hands behind his back. Without even casting a glance at Su Yu, he forced him out of the way with his shoulder and headed straight for the Princess.

The arrogant, supercilious look in his eyes was outrageous!

However, the imaginary scene where Su Yu collapsed onto the ground and shrieking in agony did not happen.

Instead, when his shoulder collided with Su Yu, it felt like he had crashed into a mass of cotton!

What? The emissary was slightly taken aback. With the corner of his eye, he caught a glimpse of a remnant penta-colored brilliance, and Su Yu's shadow was nowhere to be seen.

Hold on! Was that teleportation?

In his shock and bewilderment, an immense, enormous force struck him from behind.

The emissary was caught unaware. He only managed to extend both his fists in time before the enormous force struck him.

The immensity of the force gushed into his body with enough power to topple mountains and overturn oceans, pulverizing both his fists and hurling him onto the ground brutally. He rolled several times on the ground, only stopping when a great half of the hall fell apart.

From the debris, the emissary scrambled out with his mouth full of blood and his face full of filth and dust, looking at where he stood a moment ago with utter stupefaction.

A silver-haired demon shrouded in penta-colored divine brilliance looked at him with nonchalance. “Bold of you to come to vie for a person with that meager capacity of yours.”

Chapter 1220: Aggressive Coercion

“You...” The emissary was somewhat baffled. He looked at Su Yu, then at his surroundings. He couldn't quite figure out who was the attacker.

“What you?” Sha’er had her hands on her slim waist, as she blabbered in anger, “Who asked you to press on so aggressively and compel the city master to attack! You got what you wished for, and you deserve it!”

The emissary’s pupils shrank slightly as he glanced Su Yu up and down in disbelief. “What? It was you?”

The blow carried the strength of a middle-stage Prospective Deity, so how could it have come from a mere All Creations?

“Impossible!” The emissary bellowed coldly, “Who attacked just now? Get the hell out here!”

Su Yu strode out calmly. Placid, he said, “Not only is the emissary from the Demon Cloud City deaf, but he is also blind.”

As he finished speaking, the sudden penta-colored divine brilliance that Su Yu transformed into instantly disappeared.

Right when the emissary realized it, Su Yu had teleported three feet in front of him. With his terrorized eyes pinned on him, Su Yu held the long spear of Evil Fatal Energy in his hand and casually thrust it into his chest.

The lethal energy hidden in the long spear and Su Yu’s teleportation struck the emissary, his heart shuddering with great shock and dread.

It was him! He was the one who attacked!

A mere All Creations was capable of threatening him!

Having been forced to accept the reality, the emissary remained unconvinced. A desire for competition rose within him.

He sneered, “Such profound concealment, you have some skills, don’t you! In that case, allow a nobody like me to have a taste of your supreme magical powers, Lord City Master!”

“Impregnable Warrior!” The instant the long spear thrust towards him, the emissary bellowed. The surface of his physical body was shaped like numerous pieces of bean curd, rapidly glistening with the sheen of bronze.

When the long spear of Evil Fatal Energy filled with divine energy stabbed into the bronze-colored body, it was like a small knife pricking on granite.

With a crisp sound, the long spear ricocheted off.

“A long spear filled with Evil Fatal Energy... Is that all that you could depend on?” The emissary taunted. “When a vile man gets his way, they often become blinded by arrogance. Even if the weapon is of great quality, its supposed power won’t be unleashed if the user is weak. What is the point then?”

Swish!

With a flip of his palm, he took out a pitch-black walking stick covered in hideous inverted pricks with remnant black demon blood that contained some faint divine energy.

Countless Prospective Deities have died under the walking stick!

“I’ll give you a taste of the power of the greatest master of the Demon Cloud City to wake you up and make you know where you stand!” As the emissary fiddled with the walking stick, the corners of his lips twitched into a callous smile.

Swish!

The emissary moved like a bolt of lightning. With the walking stick in his hand, he thrust it in Su Yu’s direction as if he were a phantom.

But the sensation upon contact informed the emissary that it was only a remnant shadow of Su Yu in front of him.

“Using the old trick again, are you running out of ideas?” The emissary wasn’t surprised but looked contemptuous instead. He got up abruptly and slashed behind him as he laughed coldly. “Right here!”

Clang!

With a noise of metals colliding with each other, the walking stick struck a concrete object.

At the same time, the long spear of Evil Fatal Energy appeared out of nowhere again.

The emissary made no effort to dodge, his eyes full of scorn. “You already know that this trick is useless, yet you use it again. Do you not have any other tactics to use? I’m starting to feel sorry you...”

Hiss!

All of a sudden, the emissary felt his chest freeze, followed by a stabbing pain. He looked down subconsciously, and his pupils constricted to the size of a needle.

“You...” The long spear of Evil Fatal Energy easily pierced through his chest as if piercing through a piece of paper, impaling him from the front to the back!

From his back, the long spear pushed the beating black heart right out of his body as it gave off the powerful sound of heartbeats.

Shortly afterward, Su Yu’s long spear trembled, and the demonic heart shattered into fragments without any warning.

The Evil Fatal Energy contained in the long spear surged into his body like mad waves of seawater.

In an instant, his body was filled with it, that even his eyes turned pitch-black.

Ahh!

With a horrified howl, the emissary shook off the long spear of Evil Fatal Energy by force, and the heart in chest reassembled. Even his wounds were rapidly healing, and the Evil Fatal Energy in his body was suppressed.

After being used several times, the strength of the long spear of Evil Fatal Energy had weakened gradually and was no longer capable of killing a middle-stage Prospective Deity in a single blow.

However, with his body full of Evil Fatal Energy at this point, the emissary had lost most of his strength by now.

“What the hell was that divine light with five colors? It assimilated my chest as the Power of Five Elements in an instant!” The emissary growled in a low voice.

Bang!

In response, the Five Elements Mountain came colliding abruptly. He intended to shun away but was still sent flying off by the collision, his whole body covered in blood.

Sha’er had no sympathy for him and sneered, “Still haughty at this point huh? He must not care for his own life at all!”

Swish!

The Five Elements Mountain rose again and came pouncing with an immense oppressive force.

The emissary put on a fierce look and glared at Su Yu with deep hatred, his figure recoiling. He yelled, “Fine! I will remember this day, and I will deliver your words to the Demon Cloud City Master. I hope that you don’t regret it in the future! Humph!”

Bang!

The vast Power of Five Elements unleashed from the Five Elements Mountain slammed the recoiling emissary from across the air until he was flying off again. This time, his physical body cracked and he nearly shattered into pieces.

“Enough of you!” The emissary staggered to his feet and bellowed thunderously in rage. “How dare you coerce me with just a handful of treasures!”

Su Yu replied dispassionately, “It was you who coerced me, wasn’t it?”

The emissary exclaimed in a dark, stern voice, “Humph! I will return this humiliation in the future!”

He turned to leave. Right as he left, a wave of Power of Five Elements befell from the heavens, bombarding him until he was rolling on the ground again.

Before the emissary could even growl, Su Yu questioned, “Who gave you the permission to leave?”

What?! The emissary’s face froze, and he raised in voice in fury, “What are you trying to do? I am the emissary sent by the Demon Cloud City Master! Even if the two nations get engaged in a crossfire, nobody has the right to kill emissaries!”

This was the reason he was fearless to offend Su Yu, assuming that he wouldn’t do him substantial harm even if given extra courage.

Leisurely, Su Yu said, "Emissaries? Emissaries from which nation would pick fights for no reason and emissaries from which nation would snatch their Princess away?"

"Her Highness just said that she is not willing to head for the Demon Cloud City, and whoever disobeys her order should be beheaded! You went against Her Highness' wish brazenly and tried to capture her by force."

"You have turned against Her Highness, and you are now a traitor who no longer has a place in the Jingyu Realm, and deserve to be loathed by all!"

Swish!

The Five Elements Mountain crashed down with a booming sound, the massive Power of Five Elements oppressing the emissary until he could not move.

He struggled to resist the Five Elements Mountain gradually descending upon him and bellowed, "How dare you! I am the first-ranking master of the Demon Cloud City and have received the command from the Demon Cloud City Master, do you know how severe the consequences are if you kill me?"

He was truly anxious.

Su Yu dared to kill him!

"Is the Demon Cloud City Master that amazing? Well, this is the Seawatch City. No matter how amazing he is, he has no power over me!" Su Yu proclaimed coldly.

The emissary had a fretful, nervous look on his face as he yelled in a stern voice, "Think clearly! Without Lord Demon Cloud City Master, can you secure the city master's position? Only in your dreams!"

On the sidelines, Sha'er had enough of the emissary's condescending behavior. She said mockingly, "Are you talking about the various masters under the jurisdiction?"

"What a pity that they have been as proud as you before, but having witnessed the heavenly power of my master, all of them have surrendered and sworn their loyalty. My master's position needs not to be worried by you."

What, was she serious? The emissary was inwardly stupefied. With Su Yu's capacity, it was impossible for those feeble, timid masters to surrendered!

One of the trump cards which he prided himself on had been discarded.

"Humph! What do you have to be proud of? Have you forgotten what I said? There are many mysterious assassins in Seawatch City. All of them have come for the Princess without the protection of shelter by the Demon Cloud City Master. I don't mean to belittle you, but all of your heads will be gone from your shoulders in a fortnight!"

“Because based on what I know, there are at least two middle-stage Prospective Deities among them and nearly a hundred early-stage Prospective Deities! Dare I ask, without the intervention of the Demon Cloud City Master, can you hold them back?”

Sha’er put on a piteous look. “I feel sorry for you, I really do! Shouldn’t you have asked around before you came here? Aren’t your so-called mysterious assassins dispatched by the Sixth Princess? A purebred demon, and a half-bred demon named Molong, am I right?”

“How did you know that?” The emissary was taken aback, and he blurted out in disbelief. He hadn’t even sorted out the true identities of the visitors!

Sha’er chortled. “Of course I know. They have both been butchered by my master. As for the rest of the hundred early-stage Prospective Deities, they have all surrendered to my master and sworn loyalty to him until the day they die!”

“What?!” The emissary drew in a sharp cold breath. Two middle-stage Prospective Deities and a hundred early-stage Prospective Deities formed such a colossal military force, yet all of them had been defeated?

Sha’er finally released her sulks and laughed in disdain. “From the moment you came, you behaved like you were doing a charity, saying things like if we serve your city master well, my master gets to secure his position and all that.”

“To be honest, I got the feeling from the start that you were sent here by the Demon Cloud City Master to entertain my master.”

The emissary was in no mood to respond to Sha’er’s sarcastic remarks at this point, drenched in cold sweat of dread.

The confidence he prided himself upon had crumbled into pieces.

The “vile man who got his way” whom he looked down upon had defeated him in terms of competence.

The “weakness” of the new city master which he got hold of was also a joke.

In that case, what other reason did he have to negotiate with Su Yu?

Seeing the Five Elements Mountain increasing in weight, the emissary finally put on a friendly look and showed his insincerity. “I have offended you before. Please forgive me, city master. Considering that I am an emissary, I hope you don’t take my past misdeeds to heart.”

It sounded like he was surrendering, but what he said recently about “returning the humiliation in the future” still lingered.

“I do not forgive you.”

“You are the master of a city!” The emissary exclaimed. What he implied was that a city master should have the same magnanimity as a leader.

“Didn’t you say that according to the rules of the Demon Cloud City Master, competence is more important than positions? I am not as competent as the rest of the city masters, so I shall not be considered a city master. Thus, there is no need for me to forgive you with the status of a city master.”

Upon hearing that, the emissary’s face turned pale with fright. Wasn’t it what he told Su Yu at the very beginning?

He did not regard Su Yu as the city master because the Demon Cloud City placed importance on competence instead of on positions.

He was the one who blocked his path of retreat completely.

Walking up to the emissary, Su Yu said with nonchalance, “You have been rude to me and looked down on me, but I did not mind. There are so many people in this world, and those who look down on me are way too innumerable. How tiring will it be if I fuss about each of them?”

“Hence, I let you go and allowed you to return. Yet, you went on to behave impudently. In that case, I shall have no mercy on you.”

Having said those words, the Five Elements Mountain pressed down once again with a deafening boom.

Powerless and defenseless, the emissary was completely suppressed underneath the mountain.

Sha’er scurried over, extremely pleased to have vented her anger. “My Lord, how are we going to deal with him?”
