

Nine-Dragon 1241

Chapter 1241:

The Median God Bug

“It’s true,” Su Yu said. If the Nine Dragons carved in the Divine were awakened abruptly, it would have caused unimaginable harm to him based on the cold consciousness he experienced just now.

No wonder the Lord of the Cloud City and the Lord of Birming City are so scared of this bug.

Staring at the dead soul bug, Su Yu asked, “Evil god, what is the dead soul bug?”

“You should have heard of the starry sky, right?” the evil God said inexplicably.

Su Yu nodded. “Heard of it. There are rumors of thousands of creatures in the sky.”

“Ten thousand is just an imaginary number. There are more than ten thousand creatures in the stars. it is said to be even more than one million!” The evil God smirked as he told Su Yu something that he had never heard before.

“Millions of souls are divided into the upper third, middle third, and lower third flow according to their innate strength. Collectively, they are referred to as the nine flows.”

Su Yu secretly heard the devil god mention this before. It seems that the human race belongs to the lower third flow.

“So, there are nine classes of creatures in the Xing River? This dead soul bug belongs to the higher ranks?” Su Yu now somewhat understood the meaning of the evil God’s words.

However, the evil God shook his head. “Let me correct you on two points. First, the creatures in the Xing River belongs in the lower third flow. The people you call humans are the ninth-flow race. The minority races, such as the Sheng Deity and the Dakini, belong to the eight-flow race. The demons are the seventh-class race.”

“Second, the dead soul bug is not only of high quality but of very high quality! It belongs to the upper three flows!”

Su Yu was stunned and dropped his tongue out. To think that the human race really was at the bottom in ninth place.

Moreover, the quality of the demons is above all the Xing River creatures, which is why the demons are extremely powerful.

Humans are really weak.

“Also, this dead soul bug in front of me is very special. Although it has been frozen for 10,000 years, and most of its life has been lost, but there is still a consciousness left inside it. Let alone you, even if the demon emperor tries to go after it, he will lose more than half of his life!”

Su Yu couldn't help but be surprised. “Wow, it's such a terrible thing, so why did the abyss city owner so willingly give it to me in the first place?” Su Yu questioned.

The evil God said, “That is because he has no eyesight and only knows that this worm is a dead soul bug. However, he doesn't know that it is a bug that has temporarily lost its mojo!”

“What did it lose? Will it not survive it?”

The evil God rolled his eyes and said profoundly, “Gods are also divided into high and low periods throughout their lives. Naturally, there will be fluctuations. This dead soul bug should be the worm that struck the median God but ultimately failed.”

“Median God?” This was fresh news to Su Yu again.

Evil God replied, “The gods are divided into the lower God, the median God, and the upper God, but they are all gods. However, there is an abyss between the three. It can be said that it is not a difference between all of them.”

“You just need to know that the deity of the lower god is given by the median god, and the deity of the middle god is given by the higher god.”

Su Yu's eyes flashed slightly. “You mean, the one who manages the lower god is the median god?”

He remembered that he had witnessed two robberies happening in a row. Perhaps the one who manipulated all of this in the underworld was a median god?

“How many gods are there in our galaxy? The demon emperor, the God of death and the Dakini?” Su Yu asked.

“Haha!” The evil God sneered. “What kind of median God are they? They didn't even reach the minimum threshold even to be a median god!”

“As for how many median gods are in the Xing River, the answer is zero.” The evil God calmly said, “Xing River is too small to contain a median god.”

Strong as the demon emperor and the God of death are, they are merely considered to be lower gods? How powerful is the median God?

“This dead soul bug is a median god worm that failed the calamity. Its strength when it is alive... Let's just say that the demon emperor and the God of death are not worth mentioning. Even if it is dead, its remaining consciousness can also take half of their lives.” The evil God jealously stared at Thousand-Year Black Ice. “You did pick up a bargain this time! It is as good for self-defense, but unfortunately, it can only be used once, and so you need to be careful.”

With such clarifications, Su Yu was extremely careful as he put away the dead soul bug. This is a big killer whom many have no knowledge of. Once thrown out and released, the effect it may cause ...

Su Yu's confidence momentarily increased a lot.

The last item is the pink skull, an imitation of the imperial sacred artifact. It contains an extremely powerful psychedelic effect, that is, a god, if he is not strong, will be made confused by it.

The refining process is not cumbersome, and it is easily completed.

After half a month, Su Yu exhaled softly. "It's finished."

As soon as he was thinking about it, Su Yu's soul entered Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl. In the nursery, a golden bud was covered with golden light, much like gold carving.

Around where it germinated, the burning layers of warm flames were observable.

"Sir, what is this? Chaos Colorful Butterfly is very eager to know more about it. If it weren't for me, she would have been eaten by it." Sheng Ge curiously looked upon it.

Su Yu's eyes were slightly happy. "It is a good thing. For the time being, let the chaotic, colorful butterfly endure this. After it matures, harvests enough seeds, and then plant a special batch for it."

With that, Su Yu moved his eyes to another nursery. There was a towering silver bamboo, standing tall, densely scattered around it.

Su Yu stared at the most sturdy one. After years of cultivation, Su Yu never once moved the original silver bamboo. He wanted to see what the limit it could grow to when it matures.

However, at present, apart from its exaggerated body shape, of which it is gradually far from the description in historical records, there is nothing else special about it.

He looked away, and then Su Yu's soul flew away.

As soon as he walked away, the chaotic, colorful butterfly rushed into the nursery again, devouring the World Soul Treasures.

In the nursery now, except for the banned Golden Flame tree seedling, the only thing that can attract it is the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo.

However, Su Yu didn't realize it, and Sheng Ge didn't notice it either. The chaotic, colorful butterfly devoured all the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo but avoided the biggest one far away.

The soul returned to his flesh, and Su Yu took out the Five Elements Mountain to continue with his enlightenment.

Just as he moved, a colorful tower comes out uninvited and circled in front of Su Yu.

Eh? Su Yu raised his eyebrows and stared at a small green ink dragon that emerged from the colorful tower. "What are you doing coming out here? I haven't called for you!"

Since receiving the reminder from the devil god's remains in the belly of the Five Elements Mountain, Su Yu had been observing 100% vigilant against the black-green water dragon.

Since then, the Five Elements Divine Prison had never been used.

“Boy, let’s make a deal.” Black-green water dragon, for some unknown reason, had a body shape that was a lot more solid than before.

Once it appeared, it went straight for what it wanted without beating around the bush.

“What transactions can we make?”

“Of we can make a transaction! For example, now that you are in need of help, I can use 30% of the power of the five elements to help you get out of trouble.”

Thirty percent? Su Yu’s pupils shrunk. At first, the black-green water dragon only used 10% of the power to suppress the peak dust fairy easily.

But now it can be tripled!

Su Yu’s eyes froze, and it seemed that the black-green water dragon used an unknown method to restore a part of its body, and its control of the Five Elements God Prison also increased significantly!

However, Su Yu had not told him that, after so long, Su Yu had been able to reach over 30% in detecting the feelings of hundreds of monster characters. He now reached 50% of control.

The real battle for control had already begun, and the black-green water dragon may not have won Su Yu.

Now that the black-green water dragon suddenly appeared, there must be another plot looming.

“Yes, but what do you need me to do?”

Black-green water dragon said, “It’s very simple. Exile me to Xing River, and from then on, I have nothing to do with you.”

“Yes, sure.” Su Yu agreed quickly.

Deep in the bottom of the dragon’s eyes, a tinge of different colors flashed.

It withdrew the Five Elements God Prison, and Su Yu had a bit of coldness in his eyes. “Black-green water dragon, if you are honest and lead a peaceful and restrained life, everything will be fine. However, if you have other intentions, don’t blame me for erasing you from this place forever!”

Time passed, and Su Yu had been in retreat in the Five Elements God Prison for one month.

His refinement of the Five Elements Mountain had entered the final stage. It should not be long before he could refine the Five Elements Mountain completely.

In addition, within a month, the seeds of Golden Flames Forbidden Wood grew a lot. It is now already one foot long, and its growth was much faster than expected.

At the same time, within a month, the princes and princesses seemed to be silent, but in fact, they actually acted frequently, and they were in constant communication.

The city lords in their realm are frequently mobilized. Some city lords are arranged to perform tasks quietly in the distance, while others are summoned to meet the princes and princesses.

The silent horn of war sounded quietly in the demon world.

After half a month...

The period of two months of waiting had finally come.

Cailin did not wait for a moment and immediately appeared in front of Su Yu's secret room. "Time is up, come with me to see Princess Yunxia!"

"I'm sorry, I have reached the critical moment and need to retreat for another two months." In the secret room, Su Yu spoke lightly.

Cailin's eyebrows twisted, and her face was completely sullen. "Feather Demon, how dare you! Princess Yunxia wants to see you. It's you who should be cultivating your blessings."

"So, are you going to capture me?" Su Yu did not answer the question.

Cailin's eyebrows flashed a murderous look. She is not a kind-hearted person. For so many years, she had secretly killed many disobedient gods on behalf of Princess Yunxia.

However, Su Yu is different.

Princess Yun Xia's deliberate orders forced Cai Lin to hold back.

"One month! After one month, if we do not leave then, you will face your own consequences!" Cai Lin threatened.

From the kind smiles she had at the beginning, to the urging later, and now to the threats today, her true attitude was gradually revealed.

In the room, Su Yu's eyes flashed cold.

He is waiting, waiting for the Golden Flame Forbidden Wood!

Using the unique cultivation ability of the Supreme Growing Soil, the Golden Flame Forbidden Wood seedling thrived, and now it is almost three feet high.

Depending on the situation, it would mature in another three months.

If he had the Golden Flame Forbidden Wood, many things would be easy!

In that month, Su Yu continued to enlighten his cultivation of the Five Elements Mountain, and he had successfully refined most of it and mastered many uses of the Five Elements Mountain.

In addition to the new power he had, the power of the Five Elements Mountain had reached a new level.

"Time is getting tighter, and I don't know if I can delay it until three months later." Su Yu murmured softly to himself.

Three months later, it is also the time when the nine princes and princesses would launch the coup.

At the same time, in the Xing River, a huge battleship was sailing in the vast Xing River, heading towards the west.

On the barge were the Sheng Deity and Sheng Yuanxin, as well as two or three gods who had participated in the attack of the land of the gods.

After stepping out of the land of the gods, they returned to the Great Eastern Alliance, which was inspired by their actions and won rave praises from everyone throughout the Alliance.

Thousands of people had once suffered in the hands of the enemy. Now, the evil land of their suffering had been destroyed, as many wished for.

In addition to their joy, they redoubled their confidence in resisting the invasion of the Demon Realm and held several deities meetings to discuss unprecedented anti-demon measures.

The most important one is to unite all forces that, if possible, can be united.

To this end, two batches of troops were dispatched.

Chapter 1242: All Ties are Torn Apart

A team of troops led by the All-Access Merchant God searched for the Cavern Worlds scattered in Xing River and sought to gather them into the Alliance.

The troops were led by the Sheng Deity and headed to the Great Western Alliance of the West.

As the representative of the Great Eastern Alliance, the Sheng Deity, on behalf of the gods, headed to the west in order to ally with them and fight against the demon world that was about to move ahead with plans.

On the giant ship, the gods negotiated, and they all dispersed after, all with confidence on how to deal with the situation.

Sheng Yuanxin was the only quasi-god on the ship. She had not been seen for almost two years, and she had successfully broken through to become a mid-level quasi-god.

The Sheng Deity looked at her daughter, frowning, and sighed softly. “He fell into the Devil Realm, and the possibility of his survival is almost zero. I don’t expect him to be alive anymore. Put your mind on cultivation, and strive to break through the final-level of quasi-gods before the Devil Realm strikes.”

Sheng Yuanxin clenched her fists tightly. “I believe he will not die. The wind and the waves will come in, and the devil realm may not fall as well! But I am afraid that when he returns to the Great Eastern Alliance, seeing the status quo of the Great Eastern Alliance, I don’t know how he will feel?”

In her words, there was deep anger and a deep apology.

“Yuanxin, he fell into the demon world. There is no possibility of living. The Daikini has transferred everything to the newly trained junior for management, and it is reasonable for her to do so...”

Sheng Yuanxin smirked. "Reasonable? If it was not for Su Yu, how many devil insiders have penetrated our Great Eastern Alliance? If not for Su Yu, who contributed to destroying the land of the Gods? As a result, his life and death are unknown. All the things he left in the Alliance are given to others! There is no colder heart than our actions! Mother, you might as well ask the people in the room if they feel if such actions are reasonable! "

Complaints about this matter are loud and boisterous.

Su Yu's actions for the Great Eastern Alliance, all can see it with their own eyes.

However, now that his whereabouts are unknown, such treatment is rather unfair to him, making everyone rather mad about it!

The Sheng Deity was silent. Not only in the world but also amongst the gods, there is all indignation.

Who has no complaints when observing such treatment to a fellow god?

However, that was the decision of the Daikini. As the first God of the Alliance, no one dared to resist and go against her actions.

"If I were Su Yu, I found that I was treated in this way when I return, I will immediately feel betrayed by the Great Eastern Alliance!" Sheng Yuanxin said deeply, "I really feel worthless towards him. He is outside the Alliance and has done so much for us. He even sacrificed himself for this, but what have we done for him? "

The Sheng Deity was speechless and bitter.

If it was her, she would also rebel.

"Hey, he has no possibility of returning. Take it that we failed him and owe him a big one. I will fight, amongst the gods, for him to have an honorable cloak and make him a grave amongst the gods."

Sheng Yuanxin smiled a little. Depriving him of everything, what's the point of leaving only one robe?

Silently, the giant ship slipped silently towards the Great Western Alliance.

In the demon world, a month's time quickly passed.

The seedlings of the golden flames forbidden wood have reached a height of about one foot. They are about the thickness of the arm, reaching a level of semi-maturity.

Although in the outside world, only three months had passed, the cultivation of the seedlings in Supreme Growing Soil was equivalent to making it have a 200-year period of growth. It was, therefore, reasonable for it to reach a semi-mature state.

In about two months, it should be able to reach a four-hundred-year-old cultivation period, which is enough for it to fully mature.

The first holy tree of the devil world and Su Yu was full of expectations.

However, when a wave of divine light came from outside, Su Yu raised his eyebrows. He was afraid it would be difficult to delay the matter until two months later.

“Feather Demon, it’s time to hit the road!” Cailin stood coldly outside the closet, and her patience was worn thin.

Su Yu opened the door to the secret room and said, “Okay, but I’m going to some other places.”

Cailin’s eyebrows twisted. “Want to delay some more?”

“If you are not assured of what I am doing, you can follow me.” Su Yu took care of himself and left the Chamber, took out the flying magic weapon, and slowly walked towards the Bitter Sea.

Cailin was furious. “Feather Demon! My patience is limited!”

She put up with it again and again, but Su Yu was still delaying time.

She turned her head and gave her a faint look. “When will I see Princess Yunxia is my decision, and when do I need to look at you to decide?”

Cailin was so angry that she stared at Su Yu, her eyes flashing with hidden killing intent.

If it wasn’t for Princess Yunxia’s orders, who else, except the members of the royal family, can she not kill?

As for Su Yu, she can’t wait to lay her hands on him.

“Okay! I want to see what you are doing!”

After half a month later...

Edge of the Bitter sea...

Cailin said coldly, “You wobbled slowly here for half a month. The so-called place to go is here? There is no scenery here for you to see at all!”

“Oh, can’t I just watch the sea?” Su Yu shrugged and walked aimlessly along the bitter sea coast.

Until half a month later, Cailin finally lost her last straw of patience.

“All three of you come here!” Cailin stared at Su Yu’s back and shook her head. With a whoosh, three waves of divine light appeared all around them.

It was Princess Yunxia’s second, third and fourth maids.

“He is already suspicious, and you don’t want to go to see Princess Yunxia. Hold on to him, don’t let him go away, I’ll ask the princess on what to do next.” Cailin got in front of Su Yu. By doing what she was doing, she had torn off all signs of relationship and any form of cooperation.

“If he wants to escape, you don’t have to be polite and break his legs!” Cailin’s breath suddenly became cold, and her murderous spirit was no longer concealed.

“Yes!” The three maids replied in unison and stared at Su Yu, their pretty faces flashed with a vicious look.

He waited for Cailin to leave. Then the three maids dispersed, two of them guarded close to him, and one simply stared at Su Yu.

The one staring at Su Yu was the second maid, holding her arms and scorning at Su Yu. “To be held in regard by the princess is rare. To meet someone like you, whom she had in regard but does not appreciate, it is rare!”

Su Yu strolled leisurely around and calmly said, “This kind of attention is me being monitored, I would rather not have it.”

“Oh, you are so arrogant, aren’t you!” The second maid didn’t hide her disgust and looked at Su Yu from top to bottom. “You know how excited the princess was when she saw you? It was the first time that I found the princess having abnormal behavior. Therefore, you must have something that the princess longed for.”

Is it the Milky Way Star River? Su Yu’s heart was clear as a mirror. Secretly, he said to himself, senior Tian Jizi, you are wrong.

“Well, don’t leave again, sit here honestly, and wait for the elder sister to return with the news,” the second maid yelled.

Su Yu stopped, sitting cross-legged on the bitter seaside, and was bored enough to pick up stones and throw them into the sea.

The stones fell and were immediately corroded into nothingness.

The second maid glimpsed at the scene and laughed, but Su Yu had no choice but to wait.

Time passed slowly, and in the blink of an eye, it was already three days.

At last, the jade of the three maids vibrated at the same time made a rapid noise that jolted them.

“It was the elder sister’s message. Yet it’s strange, why is it an urgent one.” The three maids were surprised, and the emergency message was only launched when it was something that was very important. This is because it had the potential to damage the jade.

Three penetrating cracks sounded at the same time, followed by three exposed voices from the other end.

The sound is cold, full of endless ice and chills.

“The princess has a command! Cut off the hands of the demon, imprison his soul, and return to the imperial capital immediately. There must be no mistake in your task!”

Cailin’s cold words remained in the air, shaking people’s hearts.

The three maids were stunned. They thought that the princess would order them to arrest Su Yu and bring him back forcibly.

But now, she asks them to cut off his hands, destroy the body, and imprison the soul?

Such a cruel means can only be used against the most serious criminals.

After they calmed down, the three maids stared at Su Yu coldly. They would not have the slightest pity and sympathy towards him.

“It seems that you irritate the princess and have to end up in such a way. You can only count it as your own fault.” The second maid’s mouth twitched with sarcasm, and her eyes flashed.

The third and fourth maids used divine power to block Su Yu’s direction of escape.

The second maid is in charge of the operation. With a flick of her fingers, pure golden yellow power, shaped like a sickle, cut into Su Yu’s palms.

This was what the princess cared about most.

Su Yu secretly froze. Such a decisive woman, immediately doing what she was ordered and took Su Yu’s hands straight away.

It seems that Princess Yunxia is most likely in the know-how about the Milky Way Star River and wanted to deal with it immediately.

A ray of cold light flashed through his pupils, and Su Yu responded extremely quickly. Even when the three maids were still stunned by the message they received, he had already struck.

“Gold!” Su Yu cried, and the power of the five elements erupted in his body, surrounding Su Yu’s whole body.

Golden wood, water, fire, and soil, the power of the five attributes were combined with each other and amalgamated, and all the five elements are transformed into the power of gold.

The power of gold merged into Su Yu’s body. Su Yu’s entire body was now metalized.

The sickle’s divine power sought to chop Su Yu’s arms, but only a friction sound was made. It could not chop Su Yu’s arms within a short span of time.

This was Su Yu’s harvest of his continuous cultivation of the five elements mountain.

The second maid was slightly disoriented as to what had just happened. It was expected that this blow could easily cut off Su Yu’s hands.

However, those under the gods are mere ants. Even if Su Yu had the ability to kill the later-levels quasi-gods, it was still not worth mentioning and discussing his skills in detail.

Her eyes flickered, and the sickle turned by God’s power suddenly grew several times.

The golden force in Su Yu’s body was unbearable, and it was instantly broken.

The huge sickle that swelled split not only Su Yu’s hands but also his body into two.

He didn’t wait for the second maid to show a sneer, and his facial expression changed.

Su Yu's body was indeed divided into two, but at the moment of separation, Su Yu hands printed.
"Water!"

The body that was cut off turned into a condensed person made out of it.

The golden sickle, as it struck, penetrated a ball of water. It passed through Su Yu's body without causing any damage.

"You are really difficult to deal with!" The second maid was shocked. The golden sickle was divided into ten at once and divided Su Yu's hydration into ten parts.

"Earth!" At the critical moment, Su Yu spit out a word.

His body was chopped into ten pieces, and every piece was turned into soil.

"Not good! He has fallen into the ground!" The second maid had a pale complexion, although she tried to maintain her composure. The three strikes, shockingly, did nothing to capture a quasi-god.

The third and fourth maids shot out God's light that hit the sky.

Su Yu instantly moved to the endless distance with the technique of earth.

"Chase him down! If we don't kill this person, none of us need to go back alive!" The second maid said coldly.

Princess Yunxia never raised useless people, and the top ten maids were never fixed maids. Countless of them had been replaced since.

Those replaced, no doubt, were plentiful to fill the earth.

Therefore, if Su Yu was not dead, they were dead!

Brush ——

Three gods teleported themselves and chased after Su Yu with all their strength.

The situation finally developed to the final step. The Demon Realm, Su Yu had to leave it now!

Chapter 1243: Wanted Demon in the Demon Realm

"Go nowhere!" Su Yu teleported out from the place, and his divine light fluctuated. Alas, the three maids caught up instantly.

It is impossible for quasi-gods to escape from the gods.

When they appeared, Su Yu's five-colored light flashed, and the power of the five elements was teleported.

The three maids couldn't stop it and clenched their teeth hard.

They didn't find out at all that, at the spot where Su Yu stayed, there was a drop of golden blood, which contained the unique flavor of the demon royal family.

He appeared again via teleportation, and the three maids appeared first before Su Yu, condensing divine power to seal Su Yu away.

However, just at this moment, two waves of divine light suddenly appeared.

"Giggle, to withstand three moves in the hands of the gods, and escape twice, no one else in the demon world can do this, right?" A quirky, pretty face appeared.

On her side is the Purple-Eyed Demonic God.

After the two appeared, they naturally broke the seal of the divine power.

"Purple-Eyed Demonic God! And ... the sixth princess!" The pupils of the three maids shrank slightly.

Purple-Eyed Demonic God, they need not say much, but the sixth princess actually attacked!

How terrible the power is in this royal family, second only to the existence of the great prince, has always been an unknown mystery.

"We were ordered by Princess Yunxia to arrest the Lord of the Seawatch City and return to the Demon Emperor's Capital. I don't know if the two of you know this, but you will not be blamed for it. However, now, you will step down without hindering us!" The second maid said.

The eyes of the sixth princess turned, and she bent to form a crescent. "Oh? We knew that Princess Yunxia would attack the Yu Demon, and therefore we decided to attack! We just disobeyed Princess Yunxia, so what happens? Are you ready to attack me too?"

The Purple-Eyed Demonic God also bowed his head gently. "I advise you, there is no need to seek your own death here today."

Ah! The pupils of all three maids shrank.

How could they have expected that the sixth princess and the Purple-Eyed Demonic God dare to defy Princess Yunxia in public?

"You are here for betrayal!" The second maid said suddenly, sulking.

The eyes of the sixth princess gradually became cold. "Oh, you're right, we are rebelling!"

Booming—

The sixth princess transformed into the divine light and started her attack!

The second maid's scalp was numb, and she hurriedly said, "The sixth princess, the Purple-Eyed Demonic God are now in rebellion, they shall be killed without any pardon!"

What mental energy do the three maids have now on their primary task to capture Su Yu? Instead, they have to deal with the decisive sixth princess.

The two sides fought at once.

The three maids are the strong ones carefully selected by Princess Yunxia. They are also among the top gods.

However, in a fight, all three were bombarded by the sixth princess.

The fourth maid was directly destroyed by her, and her Great Source Divine Origin was held by the bloody hands of the sixth princess.

Her pretty face, with a trace of cruelty, devoured it in public, licking her lips endlessly. "Giggle, it's delicious."

This scene is shuddering, even for Su Yu. He witnessed it till his sight turned drowsy.

"Fourth sister!" The second maid yelled sadly, staring at the sixth princess with hate.

But her mouth quickly issued a decisive command. "Leave separately, go back and inform the princess; the sixth princess and the Purple-Eyed Demonic God have betrayed, and ask for the Holy Magic Hall to dispatch further manpower!"

Their messenger jade, because of the previous emergency message received, was now destroyed and could not promptly notify Cailin. The only way left is to use the means of a messenger in a city and announce it to the world.

Whoosh ——

The two of them split in different ways and fled.

The edge of the sixth princess's mouth was left with golden blood, and cruelty radiated from her eyes. "Can't let you escape."

Brush ——

Her figure flickered and chased the second maid.

Purple-Eyed Demonic God looked at the second maid for a long time. "Sixth princess, if you don't handle it well, it will be a source of hidden danger. You must be prepared, my little friend."

Su Yu also stared at the light. The sixth princess, like an uncontrolled tiger, acted fiercely. She had changed a lot and had a very cold heart. Accompanying them, of course, they could use her unparalleled strength, but they could also be bitten back by her at any time.

"I have plans." Su Yu said, "Is it properly arranged?"

"Well, one month after you left, I have done all as you told me, and there is no one in Seawatch City."

Su Yu nodded slightly. "Well, we don't have to go back to Seawatch City anymore. Now, we head straight for the Demon Emperor."

Purple-Eyed Demonic God nodded and looked at the direction in which the third maid escaped. "It's almost time to give chase, wait a moment."

A purple light flickered, and he chased quickly.

After a long while...

The sixth princess and the Purple-Eyed Demonic God appeared one after the other, and the two maids failed to escape and were killed on the spot.

Su Yu witnessed everything. The Purple-Eyed Demonic God took off a long time after the sixth princess, but they took about the same time to return.

Also, he can quickly kill the third maid!

He is indeed the Purple-Eyed Demonic God. When they fight together, he can always predict the enemy's next move, and he can also understand the enemy's various weaknesses.

Fighting with such an enemy is terrible to think about.

His heir...one can only wonder how much he inherited from the existing Purple-Eyed Demonic God, and whether he will be a great help for Su Yu.

"Although they have now died, their deaths cannot be concealed from Princess Yunxia for very long." Su Yu looked to the sixth princess. "Sooner or later you will be speculated about. About your rebellion. Thus, go back and strengthen your preparations. I will go to the demon emperor with the Purple-Eyed Demonic God."

The sixth princess nodded her head. The reason why she stayed and supervised Su Yu's execution was to confirm whether he was really credible.

Now that he was ordered to be killed by Princess Yunxia, he must be someone who is not in collusion with Princess Yunxia, and she can cooperate with him at ease.

The coup was imminent, and she did need to go back and prepare for it.

"Okay! After one month, we will all meet the Demon Emperor!" The sixth princess turned and walked away.

Su Yu paused and said, "Wait, I have advice for you."

"Eh?" The sixth princess turned her head and stared at him with a smile.

"The Book God cannot be trusted, and anyone who believes in him will be used by him and eventually die!" Su Yu said, "I urge you to remove him immediately, without any hesitation! Doing so also means you help me remove one rival."

The sixth princess did not answer. She dared to use the service of the Book God, which naturally means she had something to use against the Book God.

Without the sixth princess, there is no possibility of removing the Divine Meteor Doom in the Book God's body.

"If you feel that you are holding something of worth against the Book God, I can only say that; sixth princess, you are not far away from death." Su Yu shook his head and said, "This person cannot be trusted and controlled."

With that, Su Yu took out a jade pendant and threw it to the sixth princess. "If you trust me, follow the message in the jade pendant."

With that, Su Yu and Purple-Eyed Demonic God quickly left.

The sixth princess grabbed at the jade pendant, read the contents, and turned her eyes slightly. After a moment of contemplation, she raised her palms and patted her chest, and she suddenly coughed up blood.

Her face paled quickly, and pain appeared across her face.

After a moment of teleportation, she returned to Jingxuan Realm in this state.

As soon as she returned to the mansion, the Book God ushered her in and saw that the sixth princess was injured.

“Send out the order. Those who depend on our city secretly to come here and protect me.”

The Book God said, “Yes!”

Looking at the back of the Book God, the sixth princess’s eyes were cold.

Seven days later.

Looking at the magic clouds rolling over the Seawatch city, the violent gas was wanton.

Several gods stand tall, deterring the spirits of the heavens.

“The Lord of the Seawatch City killed the princess’s special envoy. Such crimes cannot be tolerated!”

“When did our city lord kill the princess’s envoy?”

“It must be someone from the Holy Magic Hall. They are reluctant to give up after the failed attempt on our city the last time. Now they want to plant unreliable blame on our Lord!”

They questioned and questioned, but no one dared to stand up to the monsters of the Holy Magic Hall.

Brush ——

Looking at the Seawatch city, the spirits are still in shock, and several gods descend on the main residence of the city.

The deity who came to assist is the Demon Cloud City Master.

“Sure enough, he escaped!” After a search, the people in the mansion found nothing, leaving only those who did not matter.

Behind him is a blood-stained demon with tyrannical eyes, and he angrily said, “This demon is a cunning man, and he escaped upon killing the maids. He is most likely in hiding now!”

Many people in the mansion recognized that the demon in front of the Hold Magic Hall was not any other person but the Demon Cloud City Master himself.

They do not know why, but in just half a year, he actually changed from the tyrannical demon form typical of the Hold Magic Hall.

“Hmm! The land belongs entirely to the demon emperor. Where can he escape to? Send the order and issue a first-level wanted order in the Holy Magic Hall to arrest Su Yu and Purple-Eyed Demonic God!”

“Yes!” The Demon Cloud City Master sneered. “When he is caught by the Holy Magic Hall, I will...I must eat him in person, alive!”

A wanted order was quickly conveyed to every city and every jurisdiction in the Demon Realm. Whenever he appeared, he must be arrested by local official forces. After all, no one wants to be further convicted by the Holy Magic Hall.

With such a massive web of potential informants, Su Yu, who had nowhere to hide, appeared in the Demon Capital!

In an unobtrusive ordinary house, three early-level quasi-gods who had been with the Demon Emperor for half a year were now guarding a certain house seriously.

A team of seven early quasi-gods is entering the house in turns.

In the squatter room, Su Yu sat cross-legged and met them one by one.

On the day when the first hundred quasi-gods were released from captivity that day, thirty of them were taken away by Qianjun and hidden to investigate information on behalf of Su Yu.

The other seventy people were delivered to the Demon Emperor Capital by Su Yu six months ago and arranged everything in advance.

This shelter is prepared in advance.

No one will doubt that the Feather Demon wanted by the demon world is actually right under the eyes of Princess Yunxia.

He divided the seventy people into ten groups, and each group was about seven people. He came here in advance to catch up on the news and arrange everything he needed.

At this moment, he hears about the news that they spied for half a year.

The first thing he asked about was, of course, the method of leaving the demon world, the ancient altar.

“Master Uighur, the altar is guarded by three generals of the Holy Magic Hall, and they are very powerful, comparable to the Demon Cloud City Master.”

Su Yu frowned slightly. The strength of the Demon Cloud City Master, Su Yu had seen it with his own eyes. If the four joined forces, he would not be their opponent at all.

At this altar, the princes and princesses will find a way to seize it first as part of their coup. This is to secure and ensure their retreat path, so there is no need for Su Yu to worry much more.

Second, is the intelligence reports on the Demon Emperor and Princess Yunxia.

“The capital has rumors. The Demon Emperor has not appeared for hundreds of years. It is likely that he is controlled by Princess Yunxia by some means. Now everything happening in the demon world is controlled by Princess Yunxia.”

Chapter 1244: The Giant Goes Ashore

Su Yu groaned. Was the Demon Emperor being controlled? The unusual behavior of the Demon Emperor over hundreds of years can indeed explain some of the problems happening now.

For example, Princess Yunxia dared to kill the nine children of the Demon Emperor. Isn't she afraid that the Demon Emperor will be furious when he is finally awake? Therefore, this rumor may not be groundless.

He inquired again about the Holy Magic Hall.

“The gods of the Holy Magic Hall are all named generals, and according to their strength, they are divided into three levels of heaven, earth, and demon!”

Su Yu's eyes flickered slightly. “What level was the general at? The one who came to capture me previously?”

“Master, for your report, it's the heaven level!”

“What about the level of Demon Cloud City Master?”

“Earth!”

The rest are at the lowest level of Demon.

“In addition to this, there is a commander of the Holy Magic Hall, who leads all the generals of the Holy Magic Hall.”

Commander? Su Yu's eyes glowed with the essence of light. “Who is it? How strong is he?”

“The commander in chief is the former disciple of the demon emperor, the Demonic God of Six Paths! In terms of strength ... It is said that except for the demon emperor, the Demonic God of Six Paths has no other rivals.”

Hearing this, Su Yu's pupils shrank slightly. “Even the eldest prince is not considered a worthy opponent?”

“He should not be! During the demon emperor's retreat, the Demonic God of Six Paths is responsible for teaching the eldest prince. In fact, the Demonic God of Six Paths is the master of the eldest prince.”

Su Yu was shocked by this news.

Among the nine princes and princesses, Su Yu has only witnessed the second-ranked, the sixth princess, display her powers. She is comparable to the Dakini in terms of power, so how powerful is the eldest prince indeed?

Alas, the commander-in-chief hidden in the Holy Magic Hall, is truly hidden.

What is his strength, compared to the god of death?

Knowing this, Su Yu was in a heavy mood. It seemed that if the nine princes and princesses want the coup to succeed, it may not be that easy.

“Well, how did it go? The last thing that I asked you to do?” Su Yu said.

The Prospective Deities that came earlier to report their findings took out a bunch of black beads that seemed rather common. However, on closer inspection, each of them was a Cavern world.

“We succeeded in our mission and exchanged all the resources entrusted to us by you, sir. We finally succeeded in finding a refining demon who was willing to make us a string of beads with Cavern worlds secretly.”

Su Yu’s eyes lit up, and he took the beads for further inspection.

There are nine sacred beads, each of which is a Cavern world.

“Okay, send it to the Purple-Eyed Demonic god outside the imperial capital. Tell him to choose a bead with a Cavern World to hide in, and then bring back that bead to me.”

As a god, the fluctuation of his divine power that can’t be converged is too obvious. If he appears in the Demon Emperor Capital, he will be immediately discovered, but not so if he is hidden in the Cavern World.

In order to forge this series of small portable Cavern worlds, Su Yu emptied nearly 30% of the resources in the Jingyu world. Otherwise, no demon would dare to make a small Cavern world privately.

Everything was ready, and Su Yu said, “Heir of the Purple-Eyed Demonic God, have you found him?”

Like Su Yu, the Purple-Eyed Demonic God began to prepare as early as six months ago and hid his heir in the capital of the demon emperor in advance.

“I’ve found him. He is here in the house. Should I bring him over?”

Su Yu thought for a while and shook his head. “There is no time, tell him, don’t leave the house at will.”

“Yes!”

Waiting for everyone to leave, Su Yu sighed and counted the time. Soon, it was time for the princes and princesses to launch a coup.

“This turmoil is the only chance for me to leave the Demon Realm, and I have no other option!” He has been wanted by the entire Demon Realm, and if he does not escape this time, there will be no chance to leave in the future.

Looking at the sky, Su Yu murmured, “There are still 20 days before the coup, no, only 10 days now!”

Bitter sea...

The sky is blue, and the wind is fine.

Several beasts chased each other around and played on the bitter coast.

Suddenly, the two little beasts seemed to perceive something amiss, and they plunged into the jungle. They disappeared.

Large swarms of birds in the jungle were also startled and panicking. They flew towards the depths of the mainland.

Deep in the grass, the buzzing bugs snorted, as if there were signs of something taboo that was about to happen.

Splosh...

It was dark and peaceful, like a bitter sea with a smooth mirror, near the coast, when suddenly, a bubble the size of a human head popped up.

Then, the bitter sea fell into peace again.

However, on the shore where that first bubble bubbled up, the same bubble appeared again.

The number is increasing, one, two, three, and finally, millions of miles of coastline, at the same time, were filled densely with bubbles.

It seems that the bitter sea has evaporated, and there are boundless behemoths walking under the bitter sea.

Roar...

Suddenly, a roar that penetrated the demon world burst out from the depths of the bitter sea, sweeping hundreds of thousands of feet of the water of the bitter sea, and washed everything ashore.

A million miles of grass and trees along the way were destroyed, and the stable demon world started to decay into an endless gap. The water of the Xing River outside poured in at ferocious speeds.

Groups of hungry and ferocious beasts poured into the demon realm along the Xing River.

Among them, there is a beast of god level!

However, when its front foot stepped into the demon world, the god-level beast halted abruptly, his ferocious eyes stared at the bitter sea where the bubbles rolled, showing its hesitation.

It stepped one of his feet in the demon world, and after a moment of thinking, it slowly withdrew its foot back.

It seems to be aware of what is extremely dangerous and chose to step back.

What a pity that its hesitation cost its life.

A dark, ink-like chain suddenly shot out of the bitter sea, splashing a large area of the water of the bitter sea, decaying the water of the Xing River into bubbles.

The wild beasts in the Xing River have also been poisoned by it, and not one was left alive!

The chain contains the rules of the Silk Road, and when the god-level beast tried to release itself from it, it was, alas, wrapped around the body by the chain.

“Roar!” With a terrifying roar, the god-level beast finally panicked, dragged the chain, and turned to run.

Yet despite it being infinitely powerful and at the level of the gods, the chain budes little.

Instead, the chain carried the water of the bitter sea into its body, causing it to growl in pain.

At the same time, great power came from the other end of the chain, dragging the god-level beast into the demon world, and it fell into the bitter sea.

Just as it was about to fall into the bitter sea, suddenly, the water of the bitter sea was separated. A huge Five Fingers Mountain, the size of hundreds of thousands of feet, suddenly appeared from the bottom of the bitter sea.

Looking carefully, of this unknown origin mountain, it was, in fact, a giant hand covering the sky.

The giant hand grasped hard, holding the giant beast of thousands of feet tall in its palm!

Howl...

Then, the water level of the whole bitter sea suddenly dropped, because a huge creature stood up from the bitter sea!

It was a giant humanoid with a height of one million feet. It was extremely towering.

A deity of a thousand feet tall is less than one percent when compared in front of a giant. His size would only be half of its finger.

Giant of the Bitter Sea has appeared!

He opened his mouth, indifferently squeezed the god-level beast in his palm, and chewed.

One can only hear the screams in his mouth, which gradually weakened with the sound of chewing, and finally died off.

The giant of the bitter sea stepped on the demon realm's land.

Suddenly, the earth cracked, and the demon world shook.

It walked to the place where Su Yu met with the three maids and sniffed with his huge nose.

Among the dust, a drop of god's blood-covered by the dust flew up.

In the blood of the gods, there is the imperial royal breath.

That is the blood of the ninth princess.

It was intentionally left behind by Su Yu.

The giant of the bitter sea greedily sucked the blood into his mouth, and his indifferent face showed an excited expression.

He looked up and looked forward. After taking a few steps, he found another drop of blood.

He was getting very excited. As he went on, every one million miles, there was a drop of blood of the gods.

He walked along with the route.

That direction is headed for the demon emperor!

Wherever he went, there was chaos and death.

This message was passed on to the Demon Emperor in just ten days.

The nine princes and princesses, the Holy Magic Hall and Princess Yunxia, were all shocked.

“Giggle, the heavens are really helping me. The giant of the bitter sea is coming ashore again after only half a year’s time!” The sixth princess was surprised when she heard the news.

The Book God has a different face. “Her Royal Highness is preparing ...”

“Haha, of course, the coup will be launched in advance!” The eyes of the sixth princess flashed coldly!

“This ... we have not discussed this with the rest of the princes and princesses. If they changed their minds and failed to go along with you, wouldn’t you be putting yourself in danger?” A flash of anxiety flashed in the eyes of the Book God. He calmly advised the princess otherwise.

The sixth princess turned her head and stared at the Book God whilst smiling. “It is only if someone temporarily changes their minds that the coup can be successful! Otherwise, if someone informs the others in advance, even before we launch the coup, we would have been discovered. If that happens, wouldn’t that be a joke instead?”

The Book God looked calm, and said lightly, “Her Royal Highness is suspecting that I would betray you?”

“Well, yes, I have my doubt! Feather Demon, no, Su Yu said, you are a totally untrustworthy person, and whoever believes in you is choosing death,” the sixth princess said lightly.

Book God said, “So you based your actions solely on his words?”

“So what? Since you are a hidden danger, then I shall remove you first and then talk later!” The sixth princess yelled and immediately attacked.

Book God’s face changed slightly, and he shouted, “All come out!”

Brush——

Five strong gods appeared in the four corners, besieging the sixth princess.

The five deities are the city masters of the Jingxuan Realm, and the sixth princess had secretly persuaded them to trust in her and follow her to launch a coup.

“You all dare to betray me?” The sixth princess said with cold eyes.

The five gods didn’t say a word but looked very calm.

The Book God hid behind the five gods and relaxed just a little. He said lightly, “You betrayed the demon world. They are demon world gods. Of course, they must kill those who betray to uphold righteousness!”

The sixth princess said lightly, “Oh! What righteousness, using that to destroy the family? Is it because you promised them greater benefits?”

The book god smiled lightly. “You are indeed a princess who can be compared with the eldest prince. Very resourceful! Yes, I am acting on the order of Princess Yunxia. Whenever you have any rebellious actions, you will be killed immediately! These five city masters were influenced by me and decided to abandon the dark and threw themselves towards the light. If they take your head, they can get a great reward from Princess Yunxia, far better than risking a rebellion against the demon world with you. ”

The sixth princess scorned and said with hatred, “You actually turned and sided with Princess Yunxia? When did it happen?”

“Just when you went to Seawatch City for talks with the princes and princesses.” The Book God was already in an absolutely triumphant position, and he did not hesitate to tell the truth to the sixth princess. He thought that she had no other way to escape. He smiled slightly. “The one with the surname Su is correct. Those who believe in me usually do not end well. ”

Chapter 1245: An Advance Coup

The sixth princess looked at them coldly. “Do you think that you are my opponents?”

As the second strongest member of the royal family, the sixth princess is qualified to say this.

“Hehe, if you were in the heyday, the five of them would not be your opponents, but you are seriously injured ...” Book God remembers very clearly that the sixth princess was wounded and secretly inquired. It was known that she was injured when fighting with Princess Yunxia’s three maids.

This is also the reason why the five-city owners finally decided to jump sides.

Since the sixth princess is seriously injured, there is no hope at all during the coup. Instead, it would be better to go back to Princess Yunxia and kill the sixth princess along the way.

“Kill her, while she is seriously injured!” Book God ordered indifferently. “The chance of her having a serious injury happens only once in a lifetime!”

Booming—

The five gods are full of murderous intentions, and all attacked together.

The sixth princess, during her heyday, they would not even have the courage to do it, but now ...

Du Du ——

Two loud noises came suddenly.

The five gods who besieged were suddenly startled.

Even the Book God was taken aback. “You ...”

Does the sixth princess even look like she was seriously injured? She held a ball of Divine God Source Origin in both her left and right hands, and two city masters were killed on the spot!

The corner of the mouth of the sixth princess evoked cruelty, and she swallowed up their Divine God Source Origin and sneered. “Su Yu’s strategy works really well. Only my suffering can lead you to show your true colors!”

“Su Yu! You mean, you pretended to be seriously injured? That is Su Yu’s suggestion?” Book God stared, his face quickly became gloomy.

The sixth princess sneered. “Yes! He gave me a message, and he guessed that a villain like you would not be willing to risk joining a coup with me and would choose to be with the most favorable party. So, you must have taken advantage of when I was absent and turned sides to join Princess Yunxia! Secondly, he guessed that you are good at calculating and manipulating people’s hearts, and so while I am away, you must have taken the initiative to persuade those under my command!”

“Now, it seems that his speculation is correct!” The sixth princess had previously received the jade pendant left by Su Yu. She was still skeptical at first, but she also knew that the matter was of utmost importance, and she had to try it.

She pretended to be seriously injured, and at the same time, she summoned the city gods to escort and protect her.

Today, she suddenly changed her mind and immediately wanted to launch a coup.

They then hurriedly react to the situation, finally showing their true colors!

Su Yu’s prediction was really correct!

If one seriously thought about it, to launched a coup without knowing this, the sixth princess would have been first attacked by the Book God and the five gods, and she might even be killed on the spot!

Even if she was lucky, Princess Yun Xia, who had already received the news, must have prepared a death trap in the Demon Capital. Once all the princes and princesses rushed over, it was as if courting their own death!

Fortunately, Su Yu foresaw what may happen and gave her this jade penny in advance, telling her to remove all hidden dangers first!

Book God's face changed drastically, and he turned around to run away immediately.

The sixth princess sneered. She paid no regards to him, but first dealt with the three rebellious city lords in front of her.

"Her Royal Highness, I, I was blinded for a while, and I never would dare to do so anymore. I am willing to follow Her Royal Highness to overthrow Princess Yunxia. Please give me the opportunity to make up for my crime!"

Slash ——

As soon as his voice fell, he was destroyed by the sixth princess.

"No need to! Betray me, and you shall face the consequences!" The sixth princess killed without hesitation, much like Shura.

There was a drizzle of blood, and the last two city masters fell into a pool of blood.

As for the Book God, the sixth princess did not chase after him but waited quietly.

Soon, the endless magic cloud came.

There was a wave of divine light inside, and in it was a team that was forty demons strong!

Among them, seven of them exuded the royal breath!

The team is headed by the eldest prince, who was surrounded by the other princes and princesses, including the seventh prince.

Behind them were the city-lords who were loyal to them and were ready to accompany them to the coup.

The eldest prince held a book in his hand, dropped it, and threw it to the sixth princess. "Feather Demon is right, this person turned to Princess Yunxia, and the ones who stayed with you must not be his real self! For his true self, he is sure to hide it in an extremely safe place! "

The sixth princess scrutinized the book in their hands and whispered, "Even he expected this! What a fun thing this is!"

The seventh prince wondered, "Brother, sixth sister, why did you not tell us about the coup in advance? Didn't you tell us that it is in ten days' time? If the coup is now, my people are completely unprepared!"

The second princess stared at them too with displeasure. "You two made up your own minds, and don't bother to ask us for advice, huh!"

The sixth princess had only told the eldest prince about Su Yu's message, only him and no one else.

This is also instructed by Su Yu. Even if the rest of the princes and princesses are credible individuals, are their people credible?

To launch a successful coup in advance, the fewer people who know about it, the better it will be.

Of all the princes and princesses, only the eldest prince can be trusted, and the rest are more difficult to trust.

Therefore, when the giant of the bitter sea came ashore, the eldest prince notified the other princes and princesses without warning, summoned the city lords loyal to them, and quickly went over to the sixth princess' area.

Until this moment, they didn't know that they were going ahead with the coup ahead of time. Before that, they simply thought that it was only to rescue the sixth princess.

The eldest prince said, "I didn't tell you, and that is my decision. Is there a problem?"

They dared to show contempt to the sixth princess, but they had no such courage towards the Eldest Prince.

The sixth princess cast a grateful gaze, for her elder brother took the initiative to help her bear all the pressure.

"The speculation of Feather Demon, everything has proven to be correct, and undoubtedly, our coup has long been known to Princess Yunxia!" The prince said loudly, "Only with a coup in advance can we still have a chance to win!"

"The giant of the bitter sea is our opportunity and the signal that the Feather demon created for us. When the giant of the bitter sea comes ashore, it is the time for us to proceed with the coup!"

The giant of the bitter sea went straight to the Demon Emperor Capital, and it would draw away most of the firepower of the Holy Magic Hall in the Demon Realm. Such a rare opportunity; is there ever going to be a better time to launch a coup?

No!

Although the giant of the bitter sea coming ashore must cause unimaginable damage to the demon world, it is better than if they die in the mouth of the giant, isn't it?

"Princess Yunxia imprisoned the demon emperor, seized powers, persecuted the descendants of the royal family, and destroyed the order of the demon world. This demon must now be killed!"

"Today, as one of the descendants of the royal family, adhering to the will of the royal family, I will launch a sacred war against Princess Yunxia!" The eldest prince shook his arm and shouted, "Kill the demon concubine and save our father!"

He raised his arm and shouted out loud.

The princes and princesses looked at each other, then followed.

"Kill the demon concubine, save our father!"

Gods loyal to them also joined in. "Kill the demon concubine, save the demon emperor!"

The shout of the gods shook the earth.

This day is bound to be a day that will be remembered in the history of the demons.

Nine princes and princesses of the Demon Realm, launch a coup!

Brush ——

Together with the princes and princesses were a total of forty gods. They headed straight for the demon capital.

The sky was full of god light and infinite magic clouds. It was an unprecedented spectacular scene.

Wherever they passed, the masses gathered, and all souls bowed down to them.

With more than forty gods working together, they prepared a long sharp arrow and shot it at the Demon Capital, heading straight for Princess Yunxia, who caused much trouble in the Demon World!

The uproar caused by the giant of the bitter sea coming ashore has not yet subsided. Now, news of the coup led by the princes and princesses hit the Demon capital like a tsunami as well!

When the coup army arrived at the Demon Emperor's Capital, the preparations made by Princess Yunxia were not even fully operational, and they were destroyed by the sudden coup.

There are three gods guarding the demon emperor. Under the mighty army of forty gods, they are extinguished like fireflies.

The troops were divided into two paths. One was led by the sixth princess, which headed towards the ancient altar to protect their retreat.

The other path is headed by the eldest prince and went straight for the demon palace!

Suddenly, the Demon Capital was boiling with activities!

The princes and princesses collectively rebelled. This had never happened before!

There is no need to pass on this news. The demons in the Demon Capital can also feel the fluctuations of the gods in the heavens and the earth.

In his mansion, Su Yu, who had been sitting quietly for ten days, opened his eyes suddenly, and his face was tense. "The coup has finally begun!"

"Everyone, listen to your orders! Immediately perform the task as I told you!" Su Yu yelled. From the vicinity of the house, more than 70 prospective deities shot out like raindrops, and they went in all directions to perform their assigned tasks.

Su Yu was now alone and stepped out of the house.

At the door of the squatter house stood a beautiful woman in a white veil and a rather slender figure. Her figure was albeit too slender, which gave people a feeling of morbidity.

On her head was a white gauze bucket, and he could only dimly make out some parts of her face.

"Who are you?" Su Yu glanced sharply and said.

He was inside the house, but to think that he actually didn't realize or detect that she was outside!

What made Su Yu even more amazed was that, even with prospective deities guarding outside his house, none of the prospective deities came to report her to him.

They are totally loyal to Su Yu and would not have betrayed him!

For her to stand here silently, she must have done something to those guards!

“I am Bi Wanqing, and my teacher is the Purple-Eyed Demonic God.” The woman’s voice was weak, and she was a bit sick, but her tone was calm.

“It’s you?” Su Yu’s eyes flickered. The pupil of Purple-Eyed Demonic God was indeed within the mansion, but he didn’t know that, in fact, this demon was a woman.

“Follow me!” Su Yu was too lazy to talk more.

The woman bowed her head lightly. “Are we going to the altar? The giant of the bitter sea came ashore, and the prince and the princesses took the opportunity to launch a coup. If they are smart, they will occupy the demon realm altar exit as a backdoor for escape. If you want to leave the Demon Realm, now may be the best opportunity.”

She is reminding Su Yu that now is the time to act.

Su Yu turned his head and looked at her lightly. “You seem to think that you are smart?”

She is not the same as Purple-Eyed Demonic God. His heir seems to like to show off her sharpness and intelligence!

She had manipulated the guards outside his door, to show off her unique points. Now, she cleverly reminded Su Yu of his next steps.

Compared with the low-key modesty of the Purple-Eyed Demonic God, his heir apparent is very different, as if they are two different types of demon.

“No, I don’t dare, but it is just that my eyes have seen it all through,” the woman calmly said. Her eyes hidden under the white veil flickered with a hint of purple.

Chapter 1246: The Blood of the Giant

Su Yu shook his head secretly. This is a lady who pretends to be clever, seemingly weak, but nevertheless is a proud woman.

“That’s because you haven’t seen enough,” Su Yu said faintly, stepped out, and teleported. He disappeared in the courtyard.

The pretty face under Bi Wanqing’s white veil displayed a few traces of dissatisfaction, and her red lips were gently pursed. She calmly said, “Is this the source of the chaos that my master made me follow? He can’t even hear the slightest suggestion from me. A person like that, can he really bring me unexpected results? ”

Gently, she shook her head, and Bi Wanqing sighed helplessly. She followed and stepped forward. To think that he actually disappeared into thin air!

Except for gods, only a few of the late-stage quasi-gods can control teleportation!

She followed the breath of Su Yu and came to the ancient altar.

In her heart, she secretly said, “You claimed that you do not intend to listen to me, but didn’t you actually come here? Man, you just did not want to lose face in front of me.”

Su Yu flew closer, sniffing the bloody breath remaining in the air, and he confirmed what he had thought. “It seems that the escape route must be guarded first.”

“Giggle, I waited for you for a while now, why did you take so long to come?” The sixth princess playfully teleported towards Su Yu, her hand still stained with a hint of blood.

Su Yu said, “A little thing delayed me. The eldest prince should have broken into the palace by now?”

The sixth princess’s eyes looked at Su Yu, her eyes filled with joy. As she experienced the situation with the Book God as predicted by Su Yu, she became more interested in Su Yu. He far exceeded her ability to foreshadow the future.

Su Yu’s strategy play really convinced the sixth princess, who was arrogant, that he was a fine specimen indeed.

“Well, there should be no problem with the strength of my big brother and our army. After all, 70% of the demon gods in the palace are dispatched to deal with the giant of the bitter sea.” With that said, the sixth princess couldn’t help but admire him. “Thank you around this time. Even my brother praised your idea of attracting the giant of the bitter sea! ”

Su Yu smiled, his eyes firmly on the god blood on her. He had some ideas.

“Also, thanks to your arrangement in advance, we were able to enter the palace with the element of surprise. Haha, you are, in fact, the leader in this coup.”

Bi Wanqing, who was standing aside, heard this, and her eyebrows bent slightly. “Well? What does the sixth princess mean? The giant of the bitter sea comes ashore, and the coup of the princes and princesses...What has this to do with Su Yu?”

She looked at Su Yu and the sixth princess, and the sixth princess also noticed her. “Who is she? Well, she has the breath of the Purple-Eyed Demonic God. Is she the heir? Why is she following you?”

“It was a promise,” Su Yu murmured.

How clever is the sixth princess? Her eyes turned, and she smiled and said, “Is the Purple-Eyed Demonic God approaching his end, and is ready to entrust his heir over to you?”

Looking at Bi Wanqing, the sixth princess laughed. “You are in luck, following such a person, you will have endless benefits in the future.”

Uh!

Bi Wanqing was a little confused. For her master to say so, it is fine. To think that the sixth princess will say exactly the same thing.

Why did she say that she would get endless benefits by following Su Yu?

From the brief contact she had, from her point of view, he was clearly a mediocre being, merely trying to save face.

Su Yu didn't have time to think about what she thought, and he walked into the temple to collect the god corpses and blood on the ground.

These things, the sixth princess doesn't care about, but for Su Yu, they have a lot of uses.

Looking at Su Yu's actions to remove the blood of the gods, Bi Wanqing said nothing, shook her head, and sighed softly.

The sixth princess stared at her, and her piercing eyes spoke aplenty about what she thought. "Hehe, it seems that you are not satisfied to follow him."

Bi Wanqing looked indifferent and replied, "Her Royal Highness thinks too much."

"Hehe ..." The sixth princess had read countless people. Bi Wanqing's thoughts, she knows immediately with just a glance. She shook her head and laughed. "You are really a woman who thinks that she is so smart. The Purple-Eyed Demonic God entrusted trouble to the Feather Demon indeed."

What!

Bi Wanqing was clearly unhappy. Not so long ago, Su Yu had said that she was behaving too clever for herself. Why did the Royal Highness bluntly accuse her of the same thing again?

Inheriting eyes that understood everything in the world, Bi Wanqing often has a sense of superiority over others.

Today, however, she has been underestimated by others. This is enough to make her unhappy.

"Her Royal Highness, although you are a princess, there is no need for you to be so insulting, isn't it right?" Bi Wanqing said lightly.

"Insult?" The sixth princess smiled, with a little irony. "The reason why I said that you pretend to be clever is because of your ignorance! I am too lazy to explain it to you."

At this time, Su Yu came out, and there were three deities' blood and corpses. Su Yu had collected all of them and left nothing behind.

"Oh? What do you want to do with the blood of the Gods?" The sixth princess came forward and asked curiously.

Su Yu's eyes flickered slightly. "There are some functions from them. This place has been entirely protected. We shall leave two guards behind. Now, let's go to the palace."

"We don't need to go, my big brother, given that he is attacking, plus there are not many guards in the palace, the ending is almost guaranteed! Moreover, as long as we hit the forbidden area of the palace and reach the place where the demon emperor recuperates, we can wake my father emperor up. By then, no matter how many cards Princess Yunxia has up her sleeves, nothing will be able to help her.”

Su Yu thoughtfully folded his arms and shook his head. “You are too optimistic. Listen to my suggestions and support them immediately. I will go with you.”

The eyes of the sixth princess turned around and said decisively, “Okay! After all, you are the mastermind behind this coup, and after listening to your suggestions, we did minimize our losses. I will listen to you! Let’s go!”

She pulls Su Yu together with her teleport.

Bi Wanqing was full of shock. She appeared truly shell shocked. She almost thought that she had heard it wrong.

The sixth princess said that the mastermind behind the coup was Su Yu?

How is this possible? Why will the descendants of the royal family obey an outsider to launch a coup?

But the sixth princess is unlikely to lie!

There was a roar in her mind, and she thought of a conversation in front of the house!

She thought she saw everything in the sky and on the earth, saw the giant of the bitter sea come ashore, saw the royal coup, saw the opportunity to break away from the demon world, and then reminded Su Yu not to be complacent and seize his opportunity.

It turns out that all of this is orchestrated by Su Yu!

He is like a martial arts cultivator who shows the essence of a certain method to a passerby who cares less. As everyone knows, that method is the creation of the passerby!

No wonder Su Yu would say that she is too smart for herself. When she was not convinced of this evaluation, he merely told her that she did not see enough.

Her eyes only saw the development of things, but she could not see the thinking behind-the-scenes that guides all development!

She recalled her dispute with the sixth princess, who judged her for acting clever and being full of ignorance. Bi Wanqing started to feel really hot.

From the interaction earlier, she really did appear to be really ignorant!

However, she is still not convinced by all of this. She has no way of believing something without seeing it with her own eyes.

“If you want me, Bi Wanqing, to stay willingly, then show me your skill that can truly convince me. Otherwise, I would rather die on my own than be buried in your mediocre hands!” Bi Wanqing took a step forward and also teleported to catch up.

When Su Yu and the others rushed to the palace, the palace was already bleeding badly.

There are quasi-gods’ bodies everywhere, interspersed with the bodies of the gods.

In the past, the splendid royal palace also fell apart during the war of the gods, and most of it turned into a ruin. Only the central forbidden area of the palace is still intact.

The army of coup d' état also invaded here, forcing the living forces in the palace to congregate to this place.

After a terrible battle, only five out of the twenty gods in the palace were left. Alas, all of them were wounded.

On the other hand, the coup d' état, the princes and princesses are safe and sound, and the momentum they ride on is much like a rainbow. Only three or four city leaders have fallen.

This is a great victory, much easier than expected.

They have to give thanks to the giant of the bitter sea, which will attract the vast majority of troops.

They stared at the forbidden area, the defeated soldiers in front of a palace, and the middle-aged women in royal clothing. The princes and princesses, who were tightly protected by the crowd of city masters, all shot extremely murderous eyes at the figure.

The eldest prince held a magic sword in his hand, pointed at the middle-aged woman, and said indifferently, "Princess Yunxia, you have no way back, surrender! Don't make unnecessary resistance!"

Su Yu looked from far away at the woman in the dress, his pupils shrinking slightly. Is that Princess Yunxia?

That is a middle-aged woman wearing a red phoenix robe with a golden hairpin in her hair.

A pair of eyes, calm as mountains, exude a majestic flair that rivals that of the emperor.

She sat quietly in front of the palace at this moment, facing the mighty coup army. Even with this sight, she remains unchanged and unfazed.

Such an imposing aura. Even if one is part of the coup d' état, one is likely to be affected by it.

This is especially true of the city masters, who did not dare to look at those calm and majestic eyes.

"Those who create chaos, rebellious, and disregard filial piety deserve to be guilty and killed!" Princess Yunxia said gently. With great majestic flair, she uttered those words. All the city lords could not help but feel a pang of immense guilt.

The eldest prince said lightly, "Fairy concubine, you have exhausted all your life source. If you are willing to repent, I will have to use brute force to destroy the prohibition! Although our father emperor in the retreat will be alarmed, the royal household will nevertheless eradicate you. I believe our father will not blame us."

Princess Yunxia's expression was dull, and she did not intend to surrender.

"Attack! If our father is alarmed, I will bear the blame!" said the great prince.

With that, all the princes and princesses suddenly released their powers and attacked together.

To seize Princess Yunxia and get rid of the evil in the Demons, the only chance is here!

However, in the process, the seventh prince suddenly flashed a light, and while he was following the great prince, he threw a bloody red centipede at him that he took out from his sleeve.

The eldest prince did not notice, and the red centipede was attached to him.

The bloody red centipede flashed and immediately penetrated into the body of the eldest prince.

The eldest prince screamed, and his god's body rotted quickly!

“The blood of the giant of the bitter sea!!!” Within the bloody red centipede contains a trace of the blood of the giant of the bitter sea!

The blood of the giant of the bitter sea giant is extremely powerful in combating against the royal family.

It was for this reason that the ninth princess was returned back to her original body.

“Seven Strand Seal!” The eldest prince quickly raised his eyebrows, and a powerful divine power spurted out from his body. It washed out most of the giant's blood that was integrated into his body.

However, there is still a small amount of residue in his body. The great prince has to use most of his divine power to suppress the blood of the giant from spreading further.

“I didn't expect that my big brother had secretly practiced the seven strand seal that the royal family had never practiced successfully before!” A surprised voice came from behind.

He turned back abruptly, staring at the seventh prince who attacked him suddenly and said, “You have taken sides with Princess Yunxia?”

The seventh prince turned pale. With the temperament of a scholar, he drifted backward and said lightly, “Yes, because when all of you are dead, I can become the sole heir to the royal family.”

Behind the seventh prince, a large number of late-stage quasi-gods appeared one after another. They each held a bloody red centipede, and each contained the blood of the giant of the bitter sea.

They are surrounded!

As they are restrained, Princess Yunxia stood up calmly and looked at them with pity. “I waited for you for a long time. If you all stayed in line, I would have needed to clean you up one by one. Alas, unfortunately, you are incapable of trying to launch a coup! The blood of the giant of the bitter sea; they have waited a long time for you!”

All the princes and princesses who were present felt chills down their spines!

The blood of the giant of the bitter sea giant is the devil against the royal family. Even if they touched it a little, they would be beaten back to their original shape!

He was the one who surrounded Princess Yunxia, but now instead, they were surrounded by the betrayed seventh prince!

In addition, the great prince suffered much from the blood of the giant of the bitter sea invading him. They had effectively lost their leader!

The situation was very much in their favor earlier on, only for such a massive upheaval in the blink of an eye!

However, Su Yu, who was watching the drama from afar, had on an indifferent look, as if everything happened according to plan.

The sixth princess was worried about the eldest prince and looked at Su Yu's eyes again with deep admiration. "It has been speculated again by you. The seventh prince is indeed, a problem! Fortunately, you have already taken precautions. Otherwise, my siblings will really suffer, and they would be completely wiped out!"

Chapter 1247:

Acting Decisively

"Formation!" the Eldest Prince whispered.

The princes and princesses retrieved their respective Golden Flames Forbidden wood weapons and formed around.

Their city masters, loyal to them, also retrieved their respective magical defense tools and decisively sought to protect the princes and princesses.

"A senseless struggle," the seventh prince said lightly. He was just about to commence the next round of bloody red centipede attacks.

Suddenly, one of the quasi-gods holding a bloody red centipede turned his head and threw it at the Seventh Prince!

The seventh prince was shocked and responded extremely quickly. He teleported away to dodge it.

Alas, at this moment, as he tried to avoid it, a wave of divine light suddenly appeared, and it was three strong city masters who had always been hidden and never appeared until now.

They have been secretly hiding behind the coup army and did not show up to fight, but appeared at this a critical moment!

The three gods descended upon the boundless light of God and decisively interrupted the seventh prince's teleport.

The seventh prince was shocked, but he could not avoid it. Angered, he screamed, "How dare you, ah!"

He spewed out divine power and bombarded the early-stage quasi-gods who rebelled on the spot. Alas, this was to no avail. The bloody red centipede thrown at him quickly submerged into his body.

The blood of the giant of the bitter sea was completely integrated into the body of the seventh prince.

Just listening to the severe pain he experienced was heartbreaking. The seventh prince spurted out blood from his mouth, and his body was constantly rotting. In a flash, from a handsome prince, he turned into a flesh-dead dying man.

The eldest prince stared at him, coldly. "I don't know if you are really stupid or fake stupid. Do you think that Princess Yunxia will give you the throne? For you to believe this kind of lie, it is not like that of my seventh brother!"

Among the many princes, second only to the great prince is the seventh prince.

In terms of intelligence and intellect, he is not much beneath his brother.

Such an obvious alienation plan...to think that he would even believe it.

The flesh of the seventh prince dropped off and gradually decayed. However, he whistled at princess Yunxia in exile in the corner, his eyes filled with strange affection, and eagerly said, "Yunxia, save me!"

Hearing how the seventh prince called the princess, everyone present was somewhat shaken.

In theory, Princess Yunxia is the concubine of their father and the emperor. Therefore, in theory, she is their elder.

For him to call her by her name, everyone seemed to understand something.

The sixth princess looked deeply at Su Yu. "I'm curious, how do you know that the seventh prince has such a unique relationship with the princess."

Su Yu said, "On that day, you and the seventh prince appeared together in the land of the gods. The seventh prince took away from the Sheng Deity an item that solely belongs to her ancestral family, the Xuanlan Hairclip, and said to himself that it is to be given to Princess Yunxia."

"Isn't it obvious enough when a man gives a hairclip to a woman?"

The sixth princess was stunned. "No wonder you can predict the rebellion of the seventh prince in advance and told the eldest prince to plant his own person in the confidante of the seventh prince in advance! Unfortunately, the eldest prince also lost a lot of his power from the blood of the giant of the bitter sea."

Bi Wanqing, who hurriedly arrived at this moment, overheard the conversation and was shocked. The Seventh Prince actually rebelled!

Neither of her eyes could see this, but Su Yu had predicted this in advance?

With a sense of suspicion, Bi Wanqing kept silent and remained that way.

The seventh prince failed to get Princess Yunxia to intervene. The blood of the giant of the bitter sea completely wasted him. With her not intervening at all, she was letting him dig his own grave.

Until the seventh prince had rotted into a pool of muddy water, Princess Yunxia did not look at him further.

Although this man would rather betray his brothers and sisters for her sake, although he knew that Princess Yunxia would eventually get rid of him, he was still willing. Alas, she showed him no mercy.

When the seventh prince died, a group of people under him, who were holding the blood of the giant of the bitter sea, lost their leader and momentarily did not know what to do.

Three city masters, like thunder, cut through all of them and seized the bloody red centipede in their hands.

Su Yu's eyes flickered slightly, remembering the three city masters.

"Fairy Princess! You are indeed disgusting and must die!" The second princess saw the fall of the seventh prince with her own eyes, and she was filled with hatred.

Princess Yunxia said indifferently, "He himself willingly did it, I never forced it. Besides, he died in your hands, shouldn't it be you who must die for it then?"

"I will kill you!" The second princess screamed angrily, and with a deep sense of anger, rushed in for the kill.

The other princes and princesses also felt the same because of the fall of the seventh prince.

Under the siege of many gods, the restraint was crumbling.

The situation fell in their favor again.

Su Yu's brows were tightly locked, and whether they could succeed at all depended on this move.

"Oh, you look uneasy." Bi Wanqing pretended to act surprised. In fact, her purple pupils had already discovered some secrets of Princess Yunxia.

Princess Yunxia secretly placed an ambush. The group consists of some of the most powerful gods from the Saint Magic Hall! They will soon come over and wipe out all these princes and princesses!

This secret, only her purple pupils were able to detect. A little sense of pride caused the corner of her mouth to smirk, giving her a sense of superiority beyond ordinary people.

Su Yu ignored her and stared at the sixth princess, saying, "If they cannot breakthrough within the time of one cup of tea, immediately persuade them to give up. Counting on the amount of time we have, the people from the Holy Magic Hall should be coming soon."

Sixth Princess said, "Yes, my brothers and sisters; they will act strictly according to your plan."

What? The smug Bi Wanqing's heart shook fiercely. He had anticipated that the Holy Magic Hall would assist in the fight against the coup d'état? He had a rigorous plan that took this into consideration as well?

She doesn't quite believe that one person will be able to foresee and plan so far ahead!

On the battlefield...

Although there are many gods besieging the place, the resistance is extremely tough as well. They cannot be broken down in a moment's time.

The eldest prince was secretly impatient. According to Su Yu's speculation, the Holy Magic Hall will strike soon.

The longer they delay, the worse it will be for them.

Only by breaking the prohibition and rescuing the father emperor, in the name of the father emperor, can he stop the Saint Magic Hall strongman.

So time is everything.

Break the restrictions before the Holy Magic Hall arrives, and they win.

Otherwise, they will fail.

However, the time of a cup of tea passed quickly, and despite some shakes in the resistance, there was no sign of fragmentation of the prohibition.

“Retreat!” The eldest prince made an immediate decision. Otherwise, if they were surrounded by the gods from the Holy Magic Hall, there is no chance of them leaving.

The princes and princesses were extremely reluctant to leave. The coup d’état ended in failure after all. Before the whole army was overwhelmed, they had to leave.

Click~

However, just as they were preparing to retreat from the prohibition that could not be brought down for a long time, a crack suddenly appeared! It was a sign that the prohibition was about to be breached!

Brush——

They were going to retreat but turned around and looked ecstatically.

However, at this moment, Su Yu, in the distance, stared deeply and yelled, “That’s a trap. Don’t be fooled. Go now! The Holy Magic Hall is here!”

Su Yu was alert to the situation. His reminder calmed the hearts of the princes and princesses. Is this a trap set by Princess Yunxia?

They know that Su Yu is right, but they could see the growing cracks, and they can’t restrain their inner emotions.

If they persisted some more and break the prohibition, wake their father from the retreat, so what if they are surrounded by the Holy Magic Hall?

After struggling for a while, the princes and princesses finally looked at the eldest prince together. “Brother, what should we do?”

There is also struggling in the eyes of the eldest prince.

Give up on this, and they will miss the only opportunity to kill Princess Yunxia. They will seek exile in the Xing River, never to return to the demon world.

But the last trace of reason controlled his thoughts.

“Leave! Don’t fall into the trap!” The prince clenched his teeth and fled, along with the three deity gods who are loyal to him and met up with Su Yu.

However, those who followed him were only the second princess and the three city lords who were loyal to the second princess.

After struggling for a long time, the other princes and princesses locked their eyes on the prohibition.

Chapter 1248: Disappearance of the Demon Emperor

“Attack with full force! Victory is within grasp!” The Third Prince bellowed, and along with the surviving Princes and Princesses, as well as the city masters, they chose to bet it all on the final throw.

Creak! Crack!

As the seams expanded one after another, their breaths were quickened and hurried.

Once they saved Father, victory would be theirs to claim!

The faces of the Eldest Prince and the Second Princess fell suddenly. “All come back!”

However, having staked everything and all their hopes on the last game, seeing the restrictive barrier on the verge of falling apart, why would they listen to their advice?

“There is no need for more advice. They have made their choice.” The Sixth Princess shook her head.

The Eldest Prince and the Second Princess heaved a deep sigh and quickly headed to the altar along with Su Yu and the Sixth Princess.

The moment they left, demon clouds emitting savage, violent energy arose all over the outside of the Demon Imperial City, gradually forming an enclosing force and besieging the imperial city.

Amidst the demon clouds, nearly a hundred waves of terrifying divine brilliance illuminated all corners of the world.

The leader of the hundred Demonic Gods, a humongous Demonic God with a body twenty thousand feet in height, stood with magnificence, more than two times taller than the ordinary Demonic Gods!

The color of his body wasn’t blood red but a dark, profound shade of red instead, and numerous strange talismans hovered on the surface of his body, adding to his savage, ferocious aura.

He was the Great General of the Holy Magic Hall, the only pupil of the current Demon Emperor, the Demonic God of Six Paths!

He was holding a long sword of Golden Flames Forbidden Wood that was soaked in blood.

The Giant of the Bitter Sea had been defeated!

Sensing the advent of the Holy Magic Hall, the Third Prince’s face fell theatrically. The Holy Magic Hall had come for real!

However, it was too late to hurry over to the altar right now!

“Break past the barrier, bring Father out!” The Third Prince yelled fiercely. The entire army of the Holy Magic Hall spurring into action stimulated their nerves, rendering them to besiege the restrictive barrier like madmen.

Crack! Creak!

Finally, at the most critical juncture, the restrictive barrier shattered.

The recalcitrant army surged inside all at once!

Consort Yunxia, as well as the group of deities that were persevering, were all engulfed by the waves in the fraction of a second.

Apart from Consort Yunxie, all of them were executed on the spot.

The deities of the Holy Magic Hall had arrived at that exact moment, closing in on the recalcitrant army till it was absolutely impenetrable.

Including the Third Prince, the over thirty deities held Consort Yunxia hostage immediately, and bellowed, "Step back! Or see Consort Yunxia be killed!"

The Great General had a pair of dark red blood eyes, which were staring at them with indifference. He gave his order coldly. "Time for dinner."

Roar!

The ravenous, brutal roars and growls of a bunch of savage, bloodthirsty Demonic Gods sounded from the demon clouds, like a bunch of cruel, famished beasts that hadn't been fed for a long time.

At the same time, Consort Yunxia, who was tamed, flashed with a bright shine all of a sudden, and turned into a book!

That wasn't the Original Form of Consort Yunxia!

"What?" Everyone gasped in shock. The one they were besieging wasn't Consort Yunxia at all!

If so, where was she?

However, now wasn't the time to be concerned about her.

The Third Prince and the rest of the royal heirs bowed to the secret chamber at once. "With all respect, we welcome you out of isolation, Father!"

Their voices were clear and bright, reverberating through the heavens.

The secret chamber that had been sealed for hundreds of years slowly opened after a creak.

The royal heirs couldn't conceal the delight on their faces. They were ultimate victors, after all!

Father had come out of isolation!

As long as their Father awoke, the outcome was decided.

The Third Prince was secretly elated. The Eldest Prince had left the Demonic Dimension, and among the remaining royal heirs, his competence was the greatest. So long as the Eldest Prince did not return, he would be the next Demon Emperor, undoubtedly.

The giant door opened, but the secret chamber was filled with dead silence inside, showing not even a sign of life.

The Princes and Princesses could not help but raise their gazes, and the scene in the secret chamber made their pupils constrict forcefully.

It was completely empty in the secret chamber, besides the thick layers of dust that had accumulated throughout the hundreds of years!

The Demon Emperor wasn't inside the secret chamber!

"Father has clearly been in isolation for the past hundreds of years, where is he? Where is he?" The Princes and Princesses could not believe the scene before their eyes.

They had always steadfastly believed that Father was kept in the dark because he was in isolation, hence not having a clue about the plight of his royal heirs.

However, the vacant secret chamber hit them forcefully like a bolt from the blue.

They had staked everything on this single throw, pinning all their hopes on the Demon Emperor, whom they had believed was in isolation.

But it turned out that there was not a single soul inside the secret chamber!

Roar!

Countless growls of fury that trembled the heavens resonated in the demon clouds, one by one, the bloodthirsty Blood Red Demonic Gods pounced down like locusts.

In an instant, divine blood splattered all over the place, and the sky bawled with tears of blood, as the deities perished one after another.

Including the Princes and Princesses, none of the thirty deities managed to free themselves, all of them ending up as snacks in the mouths of the Blood Red Demonic Gods, swallowed alive.

At the altar...

When they arrived, it happened to be the time the Holy Magic Hall appeared at the Demon Imperial City.

Watching the Holy Magic Hall that had sent their entire army, their hearts went cold.

"They are hopeless," Su Yu said, without emotions.

The Second Princess seemed hopeful. "Not necessarily, if they could open the secret chamber..."

"The Demon Emperor was never in isolation. Opening the secret chamber is useless." Su Yu shook his head. "It's probably empty inside the secret chamber."

What? Not just the Second Princess, the Eldest Prince, and the Sixth Princess gasped in shock as well. "Father is right inside the secret chamber amidst his isolation. It is widely known by the whole Demonic Dimension! And it is because of that, that the devilish woman Consort Yunxia wreaks havoc in the Demonic Dimension!"

They could not believe the truth.

Because, if Father hadn't been in isolation, where could he be? Why did he watch his royal descendants being landed in a miserable plight of being offered as sacrifices to the Giant of the Bitter Sea, without doing anything?

“No, when I negotiated the divine trial the other day, I’ve realized that the Demon Emperor has never been in isolation. Instead, he is right in front of you,” Su Yu stated calmly.

Upon hearing that, the three of them were petrified.

“Where is Father? When did we ever meet him?” The three of them stared at Su Yu as they fell into an endless astonishment.

Bi Wanqing’s violet crystal eyes flickered relentlessly, peering into the hidden secrets of the world, following Su Yu’s words.

But the result made Bi Wanqing’s face turn pale with fright.

However, despite the sweat that broke out all over her forehead, she couldn’t probe the true whereabouts of the Demon Emperor.

“The Demon Emperor, haven’t I brought him here?” Su Yu revealed the answer, gazing in the faraway direction of the Bitter Sea.

An enormous giant a million feet in height could be faintly discerned over there, standing between the sky and the lands!

The Giant of the Bitter Sea!

The Second Princess took in a cold breath. “You mean, the Giant of the Bitter Sea...is our Father?”

Su Yu nodded. “Can’t be wrong! The Giant of the Bitter Sea is the Father whom you have painstakingly been searching for!”

Hiss——

Bi Wanqing clasped her hands over her violet eyes all of a sudden, as stabbing pains began in her eyes, her face full of shock and anguish.

The shocking part was, following Su Yu’s words, she had indeed succeeded in deducing the truth, an unbelievable truth.

The true form of the Giant of the Bitter Sea was, in fact, the Demon Emperor who had been missing for hundreds of years!

Even more to her stupefaction, she could not find even a single trace. It was all a conjecture made from Su Yu’s wisdom.

At that moment, Bi Wanqing suddenly felt her whole body go cold, as unknown fears crept into her like streams of water.

Standing beside Su Yu now, she finally understood how terrifying he was.

That was an entity that overrode her Divine Path, solely depending on his wisdom!

Clap! Clap!

Right at that moment, crisp sounds of applause resonated from the great hall of the altar, as the faint stench of blood wafted through the air.

“What a frightening intelligence, finding out something like that. Tian Jizi’s heir truly surprises me!”

Thud, thud...

Graceful, brisk footsteps approached gradually. A woman clad in elegant clothing with a stern, formidable manner showed up.

Behind her, stood the Book Deity, the Blood Red Demonic God, and the Demon Cloud City Master. Beneath their feet was the blood of Demonic Gods.

They had re-seized the altar, and the city master who guarded the altar had been eliminated.

They had lost their opportunity to leave the Demonic Dimension!

Chapter 1249: The First-Generation Demon Emperor

Su Yu looked at Consort Yunxia with a placid look on his face. “Never thought that the woman whom Tian Jizi misses so much is someone like you!”

Shaking his head, despite his reluctance, Su Yu still delivered Tian Jizi’s message. “Tian Jizi asked me to send you his words. He has never forgotten about you, Rosy Clouds Fairy.”

Upon hearing that, hints of emotion flickered across Consort Yunxia’s face, before it was quickly replaced by indifference.

Su Yu felt unworthy of Tian Jizi.

Su Yu had brought her the words that he was asked to. He thought it would be the deep affection between a man and a woman, yet all it received in return was indifference.

No matter what, the message had been delivered. Su Yu loosened his grip, and it felt like something in the Milky Way Star Sand had been reduced to ashes.

That was the last hindrance dissipating as the promise was fulfilled. The Milky Way Star Sand had completely become Su Yu’s possession.

“Father is the Giant of the Bitter Sea? How could that be?”

Hearing Consort Yunxia’s confession, the Eldest Prince, the Second Princess, and the Sixth Princess were stunned beyond words.

Since the very beginning of the existence of the Demonic Dimension, the Giant of the Bitter Sea had been around. The ancientness of its life was almost equivalent to that of the heavens and the lands.

But the current Demon Emperor was a creature born a hundred years ago. He couldn’t possibly be the Giant of the Bitter Sea that had been existent for millions and billions of years no matter what!

Consort Yunxia gazed at them with sympathy. “The phenomenal ambitions of the Demon Emperor transcend all eternities, you petty insects of the world will never understand it!”

“You have always thought that it was me who usurped the throne and wreaked havoc across the Demonic Dimension, harboring malice against you. In fact, I was only obeying the commands of your Father, oh, which are the wishes of the Giant of the Bitter Sea, offering you to your Father to savor!”

“Impossible!” The Second Princess shrieked in horror. She could not believe the ridiculously absurd reason.

Consort Yunxia gazed placidly at her. “That is why I told you, petty creatures like you would never understand his noble dreams.”

When she finished, Consort Yunxia closed her eyes slowly and stood quietly on the altar.

The deities beside her stepped forward one by one, thoroughly sealing off the entrance to the great hall of the altar.

The Book Deity stood at the great hall, looking down at Su Yu in a condescending manner and said with indifference, “It should come to an end now, Su Yu.”

The enmity between them had extended all the way to the Demonic Dimension from the Great Eastern Alliance, and they had fought openly and in secret countless times. It was finally drawing to an end this time.

Su Yu stared at the Book Deity. “What a haunting ghost!”

The Sixth Princess’ eyes were sizzling with a murderous smoke. “Humph, you really have turned to Consort Yunxia!”

“Those who act as the circumstances demand are wise, do you not understand it, Your Highness?” The Book Deity replied dispassionately.

Right at that moment, waves of divine brilliance began surging, the recalcitrant army that had been forced into a state of despair began the war with the Holy Magic Hall.

Once the Holy Magic Hall spared a hand to deal with them, they would have no more hope left.

The Eldest Prince stared at Su Yu profoundly, suspicion hidden in his eyes.

Knowing that the Demon Emperor was the Giant of the Bitter Sea, why hadn’t Su Yu told them earlier? And he even drew him here!

“Re-seizing the altar is the only way for us to leave the Demonic Dimension.” The Eldest Prince glanced around at them.

There were nine deities on their side, the Eldest Prince, the Second Princess, and the Sixth Princess, as well as six city masters who were still loyal to them.

While the opponents consisted of Consort Yunxia, the Book Deity, the generals of the Holy Magic Hall, as well as four deities, including the Demon Cloud City Master.

If they put up a rigorous fight, they might stand a chance of re-seizing the altar.

However, Su Yu shook his head. “No need to waste your effort, since they have retaken the altar, they’ll never allow you to despoil it again! They must have laid traps within the altar, you fighting against them here is exactly what they wish to happen.”

Although the look vanished in an instant, it did not go unnoticed by the Eldest Prince and the others!

Su Yu got it right. They had indeed laid traps within the altar.

“Evacuate immediately, they are holding us back, while waiting for the Holy Magic Hall to spare a hand.” Su Yu touched the band of beads around his wrist.

One of them flickered with violet light, and the Purple-Eyed Demonic God emerged out of nowhere.

Staring at the situation before his eyes, the Purple-Eyed Demonic God muttered, “So things still turned out this way in the end?”

Upon finishing, he grasped Su Yu and Bi Wanqing, each with a hand, and shifted his thoughts for teleportation.

The direction they were headed was the Bitter Sea!

The Eldest Prince, the Second Princess, and the Sixth Princess hesitated for a moment, and reluctantly cast a stare at the heirs whose rebellion was getting weaker and weaker. With a low growl, they took off after the Purple-Eyed Demonic God.

Consort Yunxia had a wicked, murderous look in her eyes, and her face was icy cold.

“Consort, what should we do?” The General of the Holy Magic Hall stared at Su Yu’s back, and his lips twitched into a callous smile.

When he was hindered by Cailin the last time, Su Yu managed to escape. As for now, hehe!

“Wait.” Consort Yunxia was steady and collected. “The altar is the only exit of the Demonic Dimension, as long as we keep guards here, there will be tortoises in the vessel. Once the Holy Magic Hall gets to spare a hand, that will be the deaths of them.”

The Sixth Princess and the rest caught up with Su Yu very soon.

“Yu Demon, make yourself clear, what is the whole matter about Father being the Giant of the Bitter Sea?” The Sixth Princess’s pretty eyes were filled an icy gleam, a murderous desire hovering in them.

The Eldest Prince and the Second Princess were hostile too. How could Su Yu conceal such an important matter from them?

“It means what it literally means.” With the protection of the Purple-Eyed Demonic God, Su Yu wasn’t afraid if the royal heirs would attack him. “The Demon Emperor is the Giant of the Bitter Sea.”

“I am asking you, how did you know about that, and why did you not tell us?”

Su Yu replied calmly, “While negotiating the divine trial, I met three people at the same time, the former Demon Emperor, the current Demon Emperor, and the Death Deity.”

“But based on my investigation, only the former Demon Emperor would appear during the trials in the Demonic Dimension. With three of them appearing all at once, wouldn’t you relate it to something?” Su Yu squinted his eyes.

The Sixth Princess’s pretty eyes turned. “You mean they are the same person!”

“Precisely speaking, they are three different people transformed from the same person! Only then could it be explained, the former Demon Emperor should have shown up, yet three people showed up in the end! If not mistaken, the three of them were most likely transformed from the same person.”

The Second Princess rebuked, “Preposterous! The former Demon Emperors of our demon race were one of a kind, how could two different Demon Emperors actually be the same one? Let alone a non-demon Death Deity!”

Su Yu shrugged. He did not bother to explain further.

The Second Princess was about to berate again, when the Eldest Prince spoke softly after a long while of gazing, “He is perhaps right, the two Demon Emperors could be the same person indeed.”

“Among the secret classics of the royal house, there is one which has never been made public, the ‘Curse of Reincarnation of the Thousand Demons!’”

The Second Princess and the Sixth Princess were stunned for a moment. “Why did we not know?”

“That is a forbidden book that only the Demon Emperor’s heir could read,” the Eldest Prince stated unhurriedly.

He was the heir!

“This forbidden book records a radical forbidden technique passed down from the First-Generation Demon Emperor! Once accomplished, one could create hundreds and thousands of duplicates with their own consciousness, to enter the cycle of transmigration and become new creatures.”

“The creatures born could train on their own, and once they attain a certain competence, they will be engulfed by their Original Forms, thus achieving a radical improvement in cultivation.”

“If the Yu Demon’s speculation is right, the current Demon Emperor could possibly be the reincarnated duplicate of the former Demon Emperor! They could be the same person!”

The Second Princess and the Sixth Princess were stupefied to the point of speechlessness.

The First-Generation Demon Emperor had left behind such a frightening forbidden technique?

Creating countless duplicates, each undergoing transmigration and rebirth, growing on their own, and devouring each other.

“Hold on! Even if Father is the reincarnated duplicate of the previous Demon Emperor, he cannot possibly be the Giant of the Bitter Sea. The previous Demon Emperor was born ten thousand years ago, which had a long history from the era in which the Giant of the Bitter Sea emerged.” The Sixth Princess was the first to consider it.

The Eldest Prince shook his head gently. “This is something that I cannot quite get my head around too!”

He looked at Su Yu, waiting for his explanation.

Su Yu smiled a little. “If you can accept that the current Demon Emperor is the reincarnate of the previous Demon Emperor, then you might as well think further a little, whose reincarnate was the previous Demon Emperor?”

“And the one before him, whose reincarnate could he be... So on and so forth, and you can extrapolate till the First-Generation Demon Emperor!”

“As for the ‘Curse of Reincarnation of the Thousand Demons’, wasn’t it a creation of the First-Generation Demon Emperor?”

What? Once again, the three of them were astonished by Su Yu’s unbridled speculation.

Even the Eldest Prince was in disbelief. “You’re saying that the Demon Emperor of our Demon Dimension throughout the eternities, were all in fact, reincarnated and reborn from the First-Generation Demon Emperor?”

Su Yu nodded. “Exactly, it is the First-Generation Demon Emperor!”

“When I first came to the Demon Dimension, I was curious about it. The Demon Dimension was a creation of the First-Generation Demon Emperor, why is there a supreme entity that could threaten all creatures of the Demon Dimension exist?”

“In any cavern world, there was only one supreme entity, and that is the First-Generation Deity that created the cavern world!”

“And then later, while negotiating the trials and seeing the appearance of two Demon Emperors at once, I came to a realization!”

“The Giant of the Bitter Sea was the First-Generation Demon Emperor! The ‘Curse of Reincarnation of the Thousand Demons’ says the Original Form engulfs its reincarnates of every generation, so if the past Demon Emperors were all duplicates, where could the Original Form be? It must have lived for hundreds of thousands of ages!”

“In the Demonic Dimension, there is only one creature that is capable of living for more than millions of years, and that is the Giant of the Bitter Sea!”

Upon hearing that, the Eldest Prince, the Second Princess, and the Sixth Princess were terrified and shocked and were rendered unable to speak for a long time.

They could hardly believe Su Yu’s surmise, but they had no choice but to admit that it was the most possible and most reasonable explanation.

The birth of the Giant of the Bitter Sea had been explained. It was the Original Form of the First-Generation Demon Emperor!

It also explained the Giant of the Bitter Sea’s desire to devour the royal house, because all descendants of the royal house were only duplicates of his reincarnation.

All of them felt like being struck by bolts of lightning from the sky, as they followed Su Yu by teleportation, absentmindedly. They did not even contemplate what the purpose of Su Yu heading for the Bitter Sea was.

That was a place of dead desolation, and not even deities could traverse it.

Bi Wanqing, who had been arrogant, felt the bolts of lightning as well. Su Yu’s surmise had penetrated the million-year history of the Demonic World, marginally transcending time and space. The Divine Path she had inherited would never add up to such greatness.

The ways she looked at Su Yu had completely changed.

This was, indeed, an entity that horrified people, as if nothing in the world could hide anything from it!

The Purple-Eyed Demonic God wasn’t amused by the stupor of the trio when he looked at them, because when Su Yu told him about the same exact speculation, she had had the same facial expression.

Until today, when Consort Yunxia admitted personally that the current Demonic Emperor was the Giant of the Bitter Sea, Su Yu’s shocking conjecture was validated.

A remarkable conspiracy lying latent in the world for millions of years had emerged on the surface!

A black silhouette behind the scene that had resided in the Demonic World for millions of years had shown himself!

The First-Generation Demon Emperor!

The Giant of the Bitter Sea!

He spent thousands and millions of years to practice the “Curse of Reincarnation of the Thousand Demons,” continuously expanding himself.

Looking at the petrified Bi Wanqing, the Purple-Eyed Demonic God was completely relieved. Only a matchless wise man like Su Yu, who could see right through the Time and Space of the eternities, could override his pupil.

Only after a very long while did the three Prince and Princesses recollect their thoughts from the shocking conspiracy of millions of years.

The looks on their faces were awful.

The Sixth Princess's face was gloomy as the dark water. "Since you know all these, why didn't you speak up early on?"

Chapter 1250: Way Out of the Bitter Sea

Su Yu cast a piteous look at them. Theoretically speaking, they were doomed to be devoured by the Giant of the Bitter Sea since birth. Their destinies were tragic, indeed.

Heaving a soft sigh, Su Yu said, "I wasn't entirely certain at the beginning. Besides, if I told you, would you still choose to conduct the coup?"

"I..." The Sixth Princess did not retort. Indeed, if they were informed of such a terrifying truth, would they still have the courage to start the coup?

Because not only were they going to face Consort Yunxia, but they would have to face the Giant of the Bitter Sea upfront!

The Eldest Prince gazed at the gradually approaching Bitter Sea, and said, "Do you have other motives for luring the Giant out of the Bitter Sea?"

Su Yu nodded. "Yes, the Bitter Sea is, in fact, the ultimate way of retreat that I have prepared! The altar is just an alternative option, it is best if we can leave through it, but it doesn't matter even if we can't, we still have the Bitter Sea."

The Second Princess looked astounded. "The Bitter Sea is our way of retreat? Are you insane? We can't fly for long above the Bitter Sea, even with a deity's teleportation, we can't get far either. We'll have to return immediately. Otherwise, it will be normal for deities to perish in it."

The Bitter Sea was apparently a hopeless place of desolation. The Second Princess was almost driven crazy by the fact that Su Yu had brought them here.

The Eldest Prince and the Sixth Princess were silent. Judging from Su Yu's personality, he had always been one to take precautions beforehand. If he had brought them to the Bitter Sea, there must be a reason for it.

However, just like the Second Princess, they had not a single clue as to where the way of retreat was in the Bitter Sea.

The Sixth Princess blinked. "No living creature had ever crossed the Bitter Sea in the past ten million years, how are you so certain that there is a way of retreat for us in it?"

"Hehe..." Su Yu chortled softly. "No living creature? Not necessarily. Have you forgotten about someone?"

“Who?” The three royal heirs were taken aback for a second. Could there be any other creature apart from the Giant of the Bitter Sea that could cross the Bitter Sea?

“The Death Deity!” Su Yu said.

“He appeared in the tribulation that I underwent, which was enough to explain it. He was the Demon Emperor of an era, and he should have been in the Demonic Dimension. Yet, he was seen in the galaxy, don’t you find it strange?”

The three royal heirs were stunned for a moment. According to the “Ten Thousand Demon Mantra Reincarnation,” all the past incarnates had been engulfed by the Giant of the Bitter Sea. Nonetheless, the Death Deity was an exception. He was still living in the galaxy.

Su Yu nodded. “In the record of the Demonic Dimension, there was a Demon Emperor who was dragged into the Bitter Sea by the Giant, and has disappeared without a trace ever since then, his status of life has remained unknown.”

Upon hearing that, the three royal heirs blurted out, “The Demon Emperor of the Ninth Generation, the Undead Demon Emperor!”

How could they not know about the only Demon Emperor that had been taken by the Giant of the Bitter Sea?

“Yes, that is him. I suspect that he is the Death Deity that has escaped from the Demonic Dimension!”

“In the history of the Demonic Dimension, the life and death of the past Demon Emperors were jotted down in great detail. They were born in the Demonic Dimension, and passed away in the Demonic Dimension, ultimately returning to the First-Generation Demon Emperor!”

“But not for the Undead Demon Emperor, who had gone missing and was nowhere to be found! Hence, the Undead Demon Emperor should be the Death Deity in the galaxy!”

The appearance of the Death Deity had always been a mystery in the galaxy.

No one knew from where the Death Deity had come; neither did anyone know how profound was his capacity. He seemed to have appeared overnight, joining the World of Divine Remains and establishing the Netherworld Faction.

That was all that the starry sky knew about him.

Perhaps, his identity could explain it all now.

A Demon Emperor who had escaped the Demonic Dimension.

The Sixth Princess’s crystal eyes shone brightly as she stared at the Bitter Sea and said, “You’re saying that there is a second route in the Bitter Sea that would allow us to leave the Demonic Dimension?”

Su Yu's eyes shimmered with shrewdness. "Exactly! He got dragged into the Bitter Sea and had gone missing ever since. When he emerged again, it was in the galaxy!"

"Is it not enough to explain the problem? The Bitter Sea must have a route that connects the outside world. Back then, it was because the Undead Demon Emperor could flee from the Demon Dimension out of a stroke of luck to avoid his fate of being devoured by the First-Generation Demon Emperor."

When they finished listening, they were all in disbelief and bafflement.

Amidst the fine traces and clues, Su Yu had discovered a route that connected the Demonic Dimension to the outer world, which no one had ever found throughout the past ten million years.

Swish!

The group of people was engaged in a conversation, as they quickly teleported to the shore of the Bitter Sea.

A group of early-stage Prospective Deities was refining a hundred-foot-tall tree that was ablaze with golden flames at the expense of their own divine energies.

When they first saw the scene, apart from the Purple-Eyed Demonic God who knew every part of the plan, none of the others were stunned, including the princes and princesses.

"This is..." The Sixth Princess deemed herself shrewd, but as she stared at the humongous tree a hundred feet in width, she couldn't quite believe her eyes.

The familiar scent, the familiar flames, what else could it be if it wasn't the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood?

But there was no way the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood could survive in the Demonic Dimension. It had been extinct for a long time. What was the matter with this dense, exuberant giant tree that seemed to have been excavated just a while ago?

All of a sudden, the Sixth Princess recalled Su Yu asking the dying Golden Flames Forbidden Wood from her.

Could this have been cultivated from that seed?

However, the Sixth Princess banished the preposterous thought quickly. Cultivating a dying seed into a mature Golden Flames Forbidden Wood in just half a year?

Even if the First-Generation Demon Emperor was there, he couldn't have been capable of it either.

The Eldest Prince's pupils constricted forcefully. "The Golden Flames Forbidden Wood?"

The Second Princess hurried over in surprise, and circled around the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood once, her face full of stupefaction. "Goodness! How is this possible?"

"There's actually a complete Golden Flames Forbidden Wood growing in our Demonic Dimension! From the age, it is at least 500 years old!"

"Where did you find this?" The Second Princess was flabbergasted.

Bi Wanqing was stupefied as well. She knew there could not be a second one in the Demonic Dimension.

The only possibility was that the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood had come from Su Yu!

How much had he hidden from them?

Up till this day, Bi Wanqing recalled her own arrogance when she first met Su Yu and was flushed with embarrassment.

In the face of such a figure, what did her meager Divine Path amount to?

No wonder even Master had much respect for Su Yu.

Bi Wanqing finally laid down her pride and lowered her head that was once held high.

At the moment, a group of early-stage Prospective Deities was fully engaged in the refinement. They chopped off the branches and boughs on it in an attempt to refine it into a small boat.

“Everyone, let us give them a hand in refining it,” Su Yu said.

These early-stage Prospective Deities were those whom Su Yu instructed before the coup, to come beforehand and craft the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood into a boat.

Upon hearing that, people’s eyes emitted scorching hot, sharp rays.

Right! The Golden Flames Forbidden Wood was the only material known to be able to withstand the water of the Bitter Sea. A boat crafted from this item could certainly navigate the Bitter Sea.

And once it entered the Bitter Sea, regardless of how powerful the Holy Magic Hall might be, would they be able to chase after them in the Bitter Sea?

By the time they arrived, they could only stand at the shore of the Bitter Sea, and watch them enter the depths of the Bitter Sea without being able to do anything.

As the thought occurred to them, the dark despair in their hearts was replaced by hope, and they looked vivacious again.

Including the three royal heirs, ten deities joined the process of refinement.

Although the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood was difficult to be refined, with the combined effort of the ten deities, the contours of a small boat became gradually visible despite the hardship.

“Hurry up, even if the Book Deity has divine schemes, he would never have predicted that there is a second route to leave the Demonic Dimension.”

“Right now, they must be guarding the altar, waiting for the Holy Magic Hall to strike, and then capture us as if we are tortoises in a vessel.” Su Yu’s eyes flickered with the gleam of acumen.

He could see right through the motives and schemes of Consort Yunxia and the others.

“Hahaha! That devilish Consort thinks she has the advantage of time, geography, and people on her side. Unbeknownst to her, you have ruthlessly made a fool of all of them!" The Sixth Princess was jubilant as if giving Consort Yunxia a huge blow made her especially proud.

Apart from him hiding the relation between the Giant of the Bitter Sea and their Father from them that roused her killing intention, it was a smooth-sailing, pleasant experience getting along with him.

By now, after carefully sorting out the circumstances, it was clear how prospective Su Yu had been.

All this while, Su Yu had never pinned his hope of escaping the Demonic Dimension on the altar, but the Bitter Sea.

Through a series of plans, he had helped them start the coup and lure out the Giant of the Bitter Sea, all for the sake of this day.

Of course, what she didn't know was, besides providing the convenience to divert the Holy Magic Hall's attention, Su Yu had planned the coup, more importantly, to wreak havoc in the Demonic Dimension, so to buy time for the creatures of the galaxy.

Otherwise, Su Yu had many opportunities to leave the Demonic Dimension.

"But..." The Sixth Princess rolled her eyes. "We get busy while you do nothing?"

Su Yu replied indifferently, "I have more important matters to deal with."

"More important?" The Sixth Princess muttered, and shot a doubtful glare at Su Yu, before delving proactively into the refinement project of the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood.

In the Imperial City...

The great war between the Holy Magic Hall and the recalcitrant army had drawn to an end.

On one side, there were the ferocious, brutal Demonic Gods with more than a hundred in total; while on the other side, there were the ordinary Demonic Gods that had been cornered, adamantly resisting in a state of despair.

There was a marginal difference in terms of capacity and number between the two parties. Hence the outcome was conspicuous.

All the treacherous deities, including the princes and princesses, had ended up as snacks in the mouths of the Demonic Gods of the Holy Magic Hall.

"Six Paths Demonic General, greeting Consort." The great general of the Holy Magic Hall, the Demonic God of Six Paths, took the lead as all the ferocious Demonic Gods walked forth. They were unusually respectful as if she was the true owner of the Holy Magic Hall.

Consort Yunxia nodded in a formidable manner. "You have proven yourselves to be the Holy Magic Hall, which I single-handedly founded!"

During the great war between the two parties, the Holy Magic Hall did not lose any deity, only a couple of them sustained severe injuries.

For such a beastly, rapacious army, who in the Great Eastern and Western Alliances could be a match of them?

Not forgetting more than 50 ordinary deities in the Demonic Dimension.

An enormous force like that was enough to tame the entire galaxy.

Consort Yunxia retrieved a bottle of spiritual liquid mixed with a forest green from her sleeve. "Your performance today was decent, take this."

The Demonic God of Six Paths accepted the spiritual liquid, and hints of delight appeared on his cold face. The other Demonic Gods of the Holy Magic Hall seemed covetous.

Whereas the Demon Cloud City Master who had just joined the Holy Magic Hall was having a mix of fear and other complicated emotions.

All the deities of the Holy Magic Hall were once ordinary deities, who had later transformed into Blood Red Demonic Gods.

After swallowing the peculiar, dark green, spiritual liquid, one's body would undergo gradual changes. Not only would their capabilities be strengthened, but their temperaments would also turn brutal and savage as well, gradually losing control.

They had to swallow the dark green, spiritual liquid once a month.

Otherwise, they would be overwhelmed with pain to the point that they lost the desire to stay alive. Many deities of the Holy Magic Hall could not endure the agony of being tormented in Hell and had chosen to commit suicide.

Only by swallowing it would their pains be relieved.

However, the more they consumed it, the more cruel and brutal they became. Gradually, they lost their own rationality, eventually becoming beasts that only ever knew to kill.

More terrifyingly, the dark green, spiritual liquid made them slaves to Consort Yunxia ever since. Without the spiritual liquid that she gifted, none of them could live longer than a month.

"Su Yu, it was you who made me end up here!" The Demon Cloud City Master resented inwardly. All thanks to Su Yu, he had turned into a deity of the Holy Magic Hall!

The coup had been appeased. Consort Yunxia cast a look at the Giant of the Bitter Sea that was slowly walking into the Bitter Sea and swept a glance across the deities of the Holy Magic Hall. Indifferent, she said, "Those who have eaten the royal heirs just now, step forth."

Swish!

Five deities stepped forth. They were the ones who ate the Third Prince and the rest.
