Chapter 1251: Vanishing into the Bitter Sea

The five Demonic Gods had no facial expression, as if someone else was controlling them. Despite their repugnance inside, they put up no fight at all as they rushed towards the Giant of the Bitter Sea.

The Giant turned his head around sharply and opened his mouth, sucking the five deities into it. Then, he ate them alive.

All the while, the five Demonic Gods did not retaliate in the least bit.

The Demon Cloud City Master felt his scalp go numb as he watched. That was the ultimate phase of consuming the dark green spiritual liquid- losing all sense of self, where all they knew was obeying commands and their own nature.

When he was done eating, the Giant of the Bitter Sea looked like he wanted more. Stretching out a colossal hand that could conceal the heavens, he pointed at the Bitter Sea, where Su Yu and the others were.

There were the Eldest Prince, the Second Princess, and the Sixth Princess. The three of them were the outstanding ones among the royal heirs.

Theoretically speaking, they were the most powerful incarnates among the reincarnates of the Giant of the Bitter Sea, right after the current Demonic Emperor, so they had to be swallowed.

Consort Yunxia stared at the Bitter Sea, and a devilish smile blossomed on her face. "Let us begin the game of catching a turtle in the jar!"

The Demonic Gods of the Holy Magic Hall stepped forward.

"Capture the three royal heirs alive, and preserve the intact corpse of the Yu Demon."

When she finished speaking, she followed them under the escort of the Holy Magic Hall.

At the shore of the Bitter Sea.

The small boat of the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood was gradually formed. It was a hundred feet in length and could accommodate more than thirty people.

To prevent the water of the Bitter Sea from splashing into the small boat, the extra material of the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood was crafted into a shield, with the joint effort of the ten deities.

When they sat in it and covered themselves with the shield, the water of the Bitter Sea could be blocked completely.

Even Su Yu was somewhat startled when he saw its appearance.

It looked like a submarine from his previous lifetime...

However, on the Bitter Sea, this was the only kind of boat that could navigate safely.

“Alright, board the boat and set off right away, they must be coming to their senses by now!” Su Yu said.

Swish!

The group of people hopped onto the small boat and quickly raised the shield.

As they finished the moves, surge after surge of divine brilliance waves flickered at the shore like dense drops of rain.

“You actually ran to the Bitter Sea, are you at a dead end!” Before he appeared, the Demon Cloud City Master sneered.

However, when he opened his eyes, he was startled by the golden small boat, which had half of its bulk immersed in the Bitter Sea already. “Is that... the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood?”

Consort Yunxia also showed up. When she witnessed the small boat half-submerged in the Bitter Sea, her placid confident smile shattered abruptly, replaced by utter shock.

How could there be such an enormous craft made of the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood?

Was it secretly cultivated by some prince who had spent years nurturing his schemes for a chance to strike?

No, no way! The Golden Flames Forbidden Wood could not survive in the Demonic Dimension.

The Book Deity emerged and his eyes grew solemn. In a low voice, he rumbled, “He kept a means of retreat indeed! Consort, let them strike right now, or else it’ll be too late!”

Consort Yunxia decisively gave her command before the Book Deity even reminded her. “Change of plans! Kill all of them, leave none alive!”

They were about to run away. How could they still have any mercy on them?

The great general, Demonic God of Six Paths, bellowed and took the lead to teleport over. The instant before the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood small boat could fully immerse itself in the Bitter Sea, he grasped its tail!

The faces of the people on the boat fell.

“It is the Demonic God of Six Paths, the pupil of the current Demon Emperor!” The Eldest Prince had an awful look on his face. As a tutor who taught them in person, the Eldest Prince knew how frightening the Demonic God of Six Paths was.

Even if the nine princes and princesses joined forces, they would never be a match for this Demonic God of Six Paths, the greatest Demonic God below the Demon Emperor.

The Sixth Princess’s gorgeous face turned to ice as well. At the final moment, they still got caught!

The worst part was that it was the Demonic God of Six Paths who attacked.

He could obliterate them all by himself!

The only one who remained calm on the boat was Su Yu.

“Five Elements Divine Prison!” Su Yu called softly.

All of a sudden, a small tower with five colors emerged abruptly from beneath the ground at the shore of the Bitter Sea.

The small tower bore down on the Demonic God of Six Paths' head fairly and squarely.

Boom! Boom!

The ground started to thunder and roar, as though an enormous force was compressing the Demonic God of Six Paths' body. Soon, half of him was pressed into the ground.

Numerous cracks spread across the surface of the Demonic God's body like the web of a spider.

If it had been any other ordinary Demonic God, such an abrupt blow would have been enough to kill them with the oppression.

However, the Demonic God of Six Paths was completely unruffled and kept a tight grip on the small boat.

Consort Yunxia and the others heaved a sigh of relief. It seemed that Su Yu had underestimated the Demonic God of Six Paths. If other Demonic Gods of the Holy Magic Hall had attacked, they could have escaped already.

Right when they felt relieved, Su Yu's voice sounded on the boat once again.

“Star River Scripture!”

With the pungent stench of divine blood, an outraged growl sounded.

A wild beast of a deity's level sprinted out from the boat. Roaring furiously, it brutally tore and bit the Demonic God of Six Paths' arm that was holding the boat.

Seeing the scene, the Book Deity's face turned gloomy. Those were the divine-level wild beasts that he collected one by one through tremendous efforts!

Su Yu plundered it last time, but he never expected him to deploy it here!

However, the arm of the Demonic God of Six Paths only shed a layer of skin from the bite of the divine-level wild beast.

The strength of his physical body was matchless!

With a cold snort, the Demonic God of Six Paths opened his mouth wide and spat a mouthful of demonic air, sweeping the divine-level wild beast off its feet.

The Demonic God of Six Paths put on a murderous look as he exerted force on his arm, nearly extracting the boat from the water of the Bitter Sea.

It was a precarious moment.

Another yell sounded from the boat:

“Sacred Demon Summon!” Su Yu bellowed thunderously, and a revolving formation emerged in the sky out of nowhere.

Ferocious growls that shook the heavens and the land reverberated one after another, relentlessly.

As they watched the scene, everyone was astonished, including the Eldest Prince and the rest who were on the boat.

“The secret technique of the royal house, the Sacred Demon Summon! You...” The Sixth Princess stared at Su Yu in disbelief. Su Yu was holding a mass of the Seventh Prince’s divine blood in his hand, and he was even giving off the royal aura of the Seventh Prince.

The Eldest Prince was startled, while the Second Princess shrieked in shock, “You are an imperial kinsman of the Demonic Dimension?”

The Sacred Demon Summon was a top-notch secret technique that only the royalties of the demon race could practice. Apart from Demon Emperor, none of the members of the royal house had practiced it before.

They hadn’t even been trained in it, yet Su Yu, a man of the galaxy, had succeeded in acquiring the technique.

Besides, what was the matter with the Seventh Prince’s scent that he carried?

Amidst their shock and suspicion, nine ferocious, hideous heads of a beast dashed out from the formation.

They were delirious and brutal, ravenous and agitated as they rushed out with thunderous growls.

When they noticed the Demonic God of Six Paths standing right in front of them, they howled in delight and pounced onto him!

“Beasts of Chaos!!” The Holy Magic Hall, as well as Consort Yunxia, were shocked and took a step back.

The most horrendous creature of the Demonic Dimension, the Beasts of Chaos!

There were 18 of them in total. Nine of them had been tamed by the current Demon Emperor as his spiritual pets, and the other nine were sent into exile in the galaxy.

How could they show up here in the Demonic Dimension?

However, before he had more time to ponder, the Demonic God of Six Paths had been beleaguered by the Beasts of Chaos.

Ahh!

With a mighty growl, one of the Beast of Chaos bit off the hand of the Demonic God of Six Paths that was clutching the boat!

The divine-level wild beast could only tear off a layer of skin, yet it took just one bite from the Beasts of Chaos.

The Demonic God of Six Paths was utterly shocked. He switched to grasp the boat with his other hand, but the Beasts of Chaos pounced onto it ruthlessly and started tearing at it with their fangs.

The other hand that he extended was severed in the blink of an eye.

Without any restraint, the boat finally slid into the Bitter Sea and rapidly sank into its depths.

Even if they had more deities, they wouldn't dare to venture into the Bitter Sea to arrest the fugitives.

The Demonic God of Six Paths was suppressed by the Five Elements Divine Prison and rendered immobile. The Beasts of Chaos feasted on their prey that couldn't budge, and in just a few breaths, nearly a half of the Demonic God of Six Paths was devoured.

Luckily, Consort Yunxia gave her order to the deities of the Holy Magic Hall to attack at once, chasing off the Beasts of Chaos.

Although they couldn't be killed, they had come here because of the summons. Once the time was up, they would be transported back to where they came from.

The Green-Black Flood Dragon in the Five Elements Divine Prison seized the opportunity to take control of the Five Elements Divine Prison as well. It plummeted into the Bitter Sea and caught up with the boat that was navigating underwater.

When the last ripple disappeared from the Bitter Sea, Consort Yunxia's stern look finally became dark and gloomy.

The Book Deity and the Demon Cloud City Master did not look quite well either.

The Demonic God of Six Paths, who had wounds and injuries all over his body, was even more furious.

It was silent and calm at the shore.

With so many people on their side, they had expected it to be a game of catching turtles in a jar. Who would have thought that the opponents could make such fools of them?

Dong! Dong!

Right at that moment, the magnificent Giant of the Bitter Sea came ashore and slowly squatted down.

Consort Yunxia's eyes shone. "Climb onto the Giant's shoulder."

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Over a hundred deities from the Holy Magic Hall leaped onto it.

Unexpectedly, the Giant of the Bitter Sea did not devour them as they had thought he would.

Staring at the Giant of the Bitter Sea at such near distance, all of the deities were trembling in fear. This nightmare had disturbed the Demonic Dimension for hundreds of thousands of years.

What if he turned around all of a sudden and ate them?

Or perhaps he would sink into the Bitter Sea suddenly and all of them would fall into the water of the sea. What should they do then?

Perturbed, they followed the Giant of the Bitter Sea as he stepped into the water.

——

In the depths of the Bitter Sea.

A small enclosed golden boat was sailing swiftly in the Bitter Sea like a lively little fish, leaving a trail of shadow in its wake.

The boat was filled with dead silence.

The Sixth Princess was gazing at Su Yu with her pretty eyes, unusual colors swirling in them.

She finally understood why Su Yu was unbothered when they were busy crafting the small boat, claiming that he had more important matters to deal with.

It turned out that he had prepared three means of retreat.

Without these three deciding means of retreat, the mere thought of the consequences would have been enough to give them chills.

With the involvement of the Demonic God of Six Paths, would luck be on their side?

No!

She wanted to say something but had no idea how to express the emotions she was feeling.

Instead, Su Yu was the one to break the uncanny silence. "We have temporarily escaped!"

"Right." Even the carefree Second Princess had a bashful look on her face as she stared at Su Yu like a mortal looking up at a deity.

The Eldest Prince paused for a second and clapped his hands. "Brother Yu always has brilliant schemes up his sleeve. I truly admire you!"

Su Yu was probably the only person who could make the eldest royal heir of the Demonic Dimension make such a remark.

Bi Wanqing moved a little and got near Su Yu. Beneath her veil, her dainty face was flushed red. Her red lips parted slightly, and she said softly, "You are judicious, my lord. Wanqing is willing to follow you for life."

It was difficult not to gain any benefits following such a wise man with flawless plans.

Su Yu shot her a look and decided to let go of her past disrespect towards him.

"My real name is Su Yu, you could call me Su Yu," Su Yu said casually. "We can't let our guard down yet. Entering the Bitter Sea was merely to escape Consort Yunxia's hunt for a while. We still have to face the killing of the Giant of the Bitter Sea! Never forget, the three of you are his targets."

The Eldest Prince, the Second Princess, and the Sixth Princess were silenced.

Indeed, Consort Yunxia might not be able to venture deep into the Bitter Sea, but the Giant of the Bitter Sea definitely could.

The Giant would never sit back and watch them escape without doing anything.

Chapter 1252: The Second Passageway

"Besides, we have just entered the Bitter Sea. I don't know how to head to the exit of Xing River. We still don't know how the undead emperor escaped from the Bitter Sea."

Everyone lowered their heads. Escaping into the Bitter Sea was only the first step, and leaving the demon world was their ultimate goal.

“The sea is so vast; we have no clue as to how to find the exit; it is as if we were searching for a needle in a haystack,” The Eldest Prince said. “We must find a way to limit the scope of the search.”

Everyone stayed silent. Judging from the coastline of the Bitter Sea, the length of it was as big as the entire demon world.

How the Undead Emperor left at the beginning was completely unknown. They now had to find clues as to how he did it.

“If there are clues, I have some, but they are very weak. I have limited information about the Devil Realm, and you need to analyze them.”

The prince and princesses were taken aback.

“What, do you have a clue?”

Su Yu bowed his head and said, “I have them through my analysis of things!”

“The Undead Emperor was dragged into the bitter sea by the giant. He could not withstand the water of the Bitter Sea for too long, as he did not have a boat like ours, made out of Golden Flames Forbidden Wood! Therefore, the passage he found must have been not too far away from the coast.”

In this regard, the prince and princesses nodded and agreed.

“And as far as all the records of the Giant of the Bitter Sea have written about, as well as what I have observed, each time the giant appears, it is also close to the coast. I am guessing that the nest of the giant is probably not far away from the coast. That may be the place where the Undead Emperor found the passage and escaped.”

After listening to Su Yu’s analysis, the eyes of the prince and princesses were bright.

The Eldest Prince said softly, “The old nest of the Giant of the Bitter Sea... I know where it is!”

Yep! Su Yu was overjoyed. Sure enough, they possessed more comprehensive information than he did.

The Second Princess said, “I also know about it. There are relevant records in the Royal Secret chambers. Each time, whenever and wherever the Giant of the Bitter Sea landed, and wherever he went ashore, there are detailed records. After years of summary, it can be speculated where the giant’s nest is located.”

“It’s true,” the Sixth Princess nodded.

Su Yu smiled slightly. “It seems that our hopes just got brighter.”

After a short while, they reversed their direction and moved quickly towards the waters where the Giant’s nest was possibly located.

Throughout a period of two months, they traversed from one end of the coastline to the other.

If they traveled through the air, the gods could arrive in an instant.

However, in the Bitter Sea, the golden boat could only be as fast as the Dust Fairy, and it took two full months to sail the full length of the sea.

“Coming soon!” On this day, the Eldest Prince’s eyes brightened.

In the past two months, reading the abnormal fluctuations of the sea’s water flow, they could infer that the Giant of the Bitter Sea was always chasing behind them. Now, with the bitter water of the sea being more and more turbulent, it was certain the giant was getting very close.

At this moment, the waters of the Bitter Sea around them were stormy.

A stream of undercurrents swayed, making their boat extremely unstable.

“Make an opening and prepare to find the exit!” Su Yu said. Under his control, eighteen pieces of Golden Flames Forbidden Wood inside the ship contracted, revealing a gap.

However, the water of the Bitter Sea outside did not pour in, as there was a transparent layer that could not be seen with the naked eye blocking the water at the gap. It was made by the meridian of the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood.

Suddenly, the external situation in the sea appeared before their eyes.

In front of them was a vast rocky area.

Pieces of abnormally large stones were put together into a huge stone bed that stretched over a million square feet.

“Is this the giant’s nest?” The Second Princess took a breath of cool air.

This place was the lair of the Giant of the Bitter Sea!

If her inference was right, the passageway to leaving the devil world was definitely nearby.

The passengers of the boat looked around through the windows.

As they ramped up their search of the surrounding waters, the Giant of the Bitter Sea seemed to notice something and suddenly roared towards the sky. It took a step forward and leaped forward in the sea.

“What happened to the giant?” The Book God was startled.

Princess Yunxia was surprised and shook her head slowly. “I don’t know. It must be something that they have done. The Giant of the Bitter Sea is anxious.”

“Don’t let them run away now!”

Time passed bit by bit, but they never found out where the passageway was. There was simply no trace of it.

They had searched the entire nest of the Giant of the Bitter Sea.

“Are we looking in the wrong place?” The Eldest Prince was in doubt of their plans now.

The Sixth Princess was also lost in thought.

The Second Princess was anxious: “How about leaving the place first and coming back quietly later?”

Looking out of the window at the turbulent waters of the Bitter Sea, the Second Princess’s heart pounded hard. The Giant of the Bitter Sea was approaching them.

This was the most critical moment in their journey so far!

Su Yu didn’t know what to do. After all, the existence of the channel was all based on speculation and there was no evidence of its presence at all.

However, the more critical the moment, the calmer Su Yu was.

“Quiet! This is the place where the passage is most likely to exist; therefore, we must have missed something.”

The Second Princess hurriedly said, “What could we possibly miss? We searched everywhere. All that is left is digging at the bottom of the sea three feet deep.”

Suddenly, a thought flashed through Su Yu’s mind.

“Digging three feet deep?” Su Yu’s eyes became brighter. Looking through the window and staring at the huge stone bed below, he said, “How could we have forgotten about the stone bed?”

What? Everyone was shocked. Could the passageway be within that stone bed?

“Everyone, why don’t we think of it this way? This channel, if it is the second channel to the outside world... where is the best place to keep it protected? Where would the Giant of the Bitter Sea spend most of its time?”

Of course, in the place that was closest to the passageway.

For a giant who has been sleeping for thousands of years, the closest place would be, of course, under the bed!

“Everyone, focus on the stone bed! The escape of the Undead Emperor was a thousand years ago, indicating that there was at least one loophole at that time that he managed to exploit! Now, if we can’t find it, the giant must have blocked it. We just need to find the stone that it is blocked with. With that, we can find the way out! ”

The Second Princess blinked and said, “But it is such a large stone bed and there are countless stones here. How can we know which stone was used to block the passageway?”

This time, Su Yu didn’t answer. Instead, the Sixth Princess unkindly knocked her on the forehead and said. “Sister, you are so stupid! This world has existed for 10 million years, and the stone used would be a new one. The difference between an old and a new stone would be very striking!”

The Second Princess realized this was true.

At this moment, the water of the sea became more and more turbulent, forming a vortex at the bottom. This made it even more difficult for them to find the stone.

However, they have narrowed their goals to a specific target and what they now needed to do was extremely clear.

After having half a cup of tea, the Second Princess screamed suddenly and pointed through a window to a rather ordinary hill. "Look, that hill, it looks less rotten than the rest of the stones around it. In addition, the traces of the bitter seawater erosion on it are far less than in the other areas of the seabed."

Everyone looked around, and sure enough, the hill was significantly newer than the rest of the stone bed.

When they sailed past it in their boat, they were even more pleased with what they found. There was a very weak current near the hill.

Although the bitter seawater at this moment was very stormy, they could clearly feel that a small and distinctive current different from the rest of the water flow surrounded the hill.

"There is a continuous stream of water penetrating here from below the hill. Therefore, there must be a bottomless pit under the hill!" Su Yu analyzed.

The people on the boat all showed signs of excitement.

The passageway! Sure enough, it was here!

Their speculation was not wrong!

"But how do we push the hill aside?"

Suddenly, everyone on the ship froze.

Despite enduring thousands of years of erosion within the Bitter Sea, the stone was still there. Needless to say, it was as hard as the Golden Flame Trees.

It would be unrealistic to try to smash it with a boat.

However, at this moment, they were stuck in the boat and it was impossible to leave it and use their own strength to break the stone.

As soon as the boat opened itself to the sea, the water would flood in and they would all rot away whilst inside.

There was dead silence on the boat.

They had finally found the passageway, but it was blocked by a hill.

After a short while, a soft sigh came and said: "It is time for us to float upwards."

"Master!" Bi Wanqing's purple eyes flickered, understanding the intention of the master.

The Purple-Eyed Demonic God patted her palm and said, “Oh, I’m about to die anyway. If I do not go, who will?”

“Su Yu, float up and let me out. I will dive into this place again, move the hill away, and with my remaining divine power, I should be able to persist until the hill is moved away.”

The prince and the others were silent. In the immediate predicament, a god had to be sacrificed. Life and death were at stake, but no one wanted to dive in.

The self-sacrifice of the Purple-Eyed Demonic God moved them deeply.

Su Yu shook his head. “No. Even if you sacrifice yourself, you may not be able to move this hill.”

With that, he maneuvered the boat to crash into a fist-sized stone by the hill.

Compared to the stones, this giant boat was like a behemoth of force!

Coupled with the properties of the boat’s material, even the deities could not withstand the impact it created.

However, the results of the collision surprised the entire crew.

They felt the boat shaking violently, and a strong anti-seismic force came from the bow.

The entire boat turned over several times, and after a few consecutive turns in the sea, it became stable.

If not for the special material of the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood, this anti-seismic force would be enough to break up the entire boat.

“How can the material that is able to withstand the erosion of the bitter seawater be something ordinary?” Su Yu shook his head and went on, “The hills and rocks here have been concentrated by the seawater for many years and have become extremely heavy and abundant. Therefore, even if you sacrifice yourself, you will not be able to move the hill.”

Hearing this, everyone was desperate. Would they then need an entire boat of people to move this hill?

“There is no other way. Let me do it,” Su Yu sighed deeply. If he could, he would never want to use it again.

However, there was no other way now!

He pointed at his brows. They squirmed, and a silvery-white eye suddenly appeared.

The gods on the boat trembled suddenly. They said in shock. “Gluttonous Eyes!”

According to legend, it was the beast of heaven and earth that would feed on gods.

All the present were aware of its eyes.

This was the fourth time that Su Yu has used these eyes. The more frequently they were used, the faster the Gluttonous Eyes would grow.

Now the eye was already in a semi-mature state. If it evolved to a mature stage, Su Yu would have to feed on the gods, and the Gluttonous Eyes would be infinitely expanded. With each usage, the eyes would need to consume even more, until there came a time when Su Yu himself could no longer satisfy the Eye and would end up being consumed by it.

However, now there was no other way.

The Giant of the Bitter Sea was here!

Chapter 1253: Rebellion

“Heaven Devouring Demonic Eye!” Su Yu’s eyebrows suddenly burst into light, exuding the power to devour the heavens.

Suddenly, the boulder the size of a small hill swayed slowly.

The giant, who was aware of their actions, once again issued a roar of anger. Each step it took in the water of the Bitter Sea rumbled like thunder.

In the boat, they could dimly make out a wall-like existence that had now appeared in the water.

That was the giant’s calf!

In less time than was needed to take ten breaths, the Giant of the Bitter Sea would reach them!

The boulder was still slowly moving away, gradually revealing the edge of a dark hole.

The water of the Bitter Sea rushed into the hole immediately and gushed into the bottomless depth.

The time for five breaths had passed and the hole was now half exposed.

The entrance to the hole was not large. Only when it was fully exposed, a small boat of about ten feet could enter the cavern.

Two breaths left!

The Giant of the Bitter Sea was there!

Its infinitely large body stood in front of them, much like Optimus Prime.

It lifted its giant foot, covering the sun and causing the bitter seawater to roll upstream fiercely. Then it stepped down ruthlessly toward the hole.

This step would not only seal the hole but would also break the whole boat.

At this critical moment, the hill was finally moved away, and with the sound of a whoosh, it was swallowed up by the Gluttonous Eye.

The whole hole finally appeared, completely unblocked!

The giant’s feet were less than one hundred feet away from their boat. The giant would only need a moment’s time to cover this distance.

However, the small boat dived into the cavern instantly, with a powerful current of bitter seawater flowing into the cave with it.

Almost immediately, when the small boat got into the hole, the giant's feet stomped down hard on it.

The sole of his foot touched the tail of the boat and stepped on it with a loud stomp. A crack immediately appeared.

At the same time, the tail of the boat, made out of Golden Flames Forbidden Wood, pierced the foot of the giant very easily, causing streams of white liquid to ooze out from it!

Propelled by the force of the giant's feet, the small boat whirled wildly into the hole and fell straight down.

The people sitting in the boat were all horrified and felt true fear.

However, what made them even more alarmed was that when the giant failed to step on them, he squatted down, opened its mouth to cover the cave, and sucked hard.

At once, the water that had been pouring down changed direction and was flowing back to the Bitter Sea.

Su Yu's boat was also affected somewhat and was almost sucked back into the sea.

Fortunately, Su Yu responded extremely quickly. He stabilized the boat, pushed it against the water, and worked hard to steer it forward down the hole.

However, the suction force generated by the giant was getting stronger and stronger. It seemed that it will not stop until it managed to capture the boat and get hold of everyone on board!

The countercurrent was getting stronger and stronger, and their boat was moving ever so slowly. Once they could not hold back and were sucked back into the Bitter Sea, no one could survive.

Su Yu's heart sank a little. Would he still fail in the end?

However, he didn't give up. He clenched his teeth in his effort to control the boat. Even though the speed of their movement became slower and slower, he didn't give up.

With every breath, they fell ten feet!

With every breath, they fell eight feet!

With every breath, they fell five feet!

Three feet!

Two feet!

One foot!

One inch!

By this time, the speed of the boat's sinking was negligible, and they were almost hanging in the air.

Then they were gradually floating upwards.

They wouldn't be able to make it!

"The God of Death could do it! Why can't we?" Su Yu had never been willing to give in to fate. How could he die here?

Struggling, Su Yu suddenly saw a golden rib from the passageway, deep within.

What was that? Su Yu had an epiphany. There was no sign of corrosion on it from the water of the Bitter Sea, and it was indeed extraordinary.

As soon as he could, Su Yu steered the boat there and slowly approached the golden rib.

Upon approach, it was clear that it was made of a bone-like metal, full of Buddha-nature.

The water of the Bitter Sea pounded against it without causing corrosion.

Were these the bones of the Buddha deity?

Su Yu froze. He also saw that there was a groove on the side of the golden rib. It seemed that there was once another rib at it, but now it was no longer there.

After looking around, Su Yu manipulated the boat, and the stern swept past the golden rib, sweeping it out of the wall.

Suddenly, the golden rib peeled off the wall and was sucked up along the current.

Soon after, they heard a painful roar and the suction suddenly disappeared.

Su Yu and the others got out of trouble. Along with the collapsing water column, they fell down an almost endless path.

Boom!

Without warning, the boat seemed to hit the surface of the water, making a roaring splash.

Looking out through the window, they saw they actually appeared in another vast galaxy!

The water of the Bitter Sea that flowed from earlier now converged into a large river and ran into the distance. It gradually integrated into the Xing River and all traces of it disappeared.

Looking up above them, their pupils shrank.

Here, they had a glimpse of the entire Demon Realm!

They had thought that it was similar to the shape of a Cavern world, but looking at it now, all were creeped out by what they saw.

The shape of the demon world resembled a human womb!

The huge uterus hung in the galaxy, beating constantly.

A baby sleeping in the womb was faintly visible.

The outline of that baby looked like the Giant of the Bitter Sea!

“So the Demon Realm is like a uterus, constantly absorbing nutrients and using it to help this creature grow?” The prince and princesses came from the Demon Realm.

This was the first time they saw the entirety of where they came from.

No matter how one looked at it, the Demon Realm was like a womb dedicated to the nurturing of the Giant of the Bitter Sea.

The bitter seawater was the amniotic fluid in the womb, and the gods of the land and members of the royal family were the nutrients.

The people on the boat sucked in cold air, deeply shocked by the scene in front of them.

Su Yu also felt a bit frightened. Where was the Cavern World in this scenario?

Everyone was shocked and felt a sense of being a pawn in the greater scheme of things.

The journey was full of ups and downs, which made people frightened and somewhat shaken.

Several gods still trembled slightly.

“It’s alright, we finally left the Demon World alive,” a god said, wiping his sweat.

However, the words just left his mouth when suddenly, from the hole that still had the bitter seawater leaking from it, out came fingers hundreds of thousands of feet long. As if they were falling from the sky, they crushed straight into their golden boat.

The Giant of the Bitter Sea still did not give up. It crossed the Demon World with his fingers and sought to crush them!

The boat, which was caught off guard, had no room to dodge and was struck by his finger.

The horror of the giant’s finger was such that no creature in the galaxy could resist it!

The boat made out of Golden Flame Forbidden Wood was no exception.

At this critical moment, seeing that there was no escape, Su Yu screamed, “Fight it! I don’t believe that we cannot win against a finger!”

Su Yu straighten the boat and took control once more. The ten-foot-long boat suddenly looked like a javelin, facing that finger straight on.

Whoosh ——

The giant’s finger was easily pierced by the boat’s bow, which penetrated through it.

All the way from the Demon Realm, the anguished roar of the giant came through the hole.

However, this move failed to make the giant retreat. It was even more motivated to attack them fiercely. Regardless of whatever was piercing its finger, it brought down upon them unbelievable Holy Power between heaven and earth.

Slash!

The bow of the boat made out of Golden Flames Forbidden Wood broke and cracks spread across the bow in all directions.

The Second Princess shivered. Looking at the finger, she cried in despair, “It’s over!”

Even Su Yu felt an emptiness in his heart. He was ready to give up.

It was really over!

The power above the Xing River could not be resisted at all!

“Are we really finished here?” Su Yu smiled bitterly as he uttered those words.

All the trials and tribulations that came before... After all of that, this was the only thing that he failed to conquer. He was indignant about this.

Witnessing such power, anyone would feel a sense of desperation.

The giant fingers were as huge as the sky and could crush them all into dust. There was no way for them to escape at all.

In the end, he failed.

However, at this moment, Su Yu suddenly opened his eyes wide.

He felt a familiar atmosphere!

However, he heard a trembling universe flood, as if the souls howling, which was transmitted straight to his own soul. The Giant of the Bitter Sea suddenly roared in pain, as if suffering unprecedented trauma.

It was in so much pain that he did not even care about Su Yu, who was about to die, and quickly retracted his fingers!

At the same time, the giant quickly closed the hole, as if he was afraid of something!

Su Yu's pupils shrank with surprise. He rushed to turn the golden boat and looked around.

He could never have mistaken that fleeting breath he felt.

It was Yun Yazi!!!

“Master!” Su Yu shouted excitedly at the dark and starry Xing River.

However, apart from the echo of his own voice, there was nothing else in the Xing River.

Su Yu was confused. Yun Yazi clearly came here, so why did he refuse to show himself?

Since the relocation of the Jiuzhou mainland, he said that he had to rush to Xing River to investigate a matter. He never showed up again. Now, however, he finally showed himself, helping him to scare away the Giant of the Bitter Sea. Alas, with that, he disappeared again.

Whoosh —

Suddenly, a light spot came from the distant starry sky and fell between the brows of Su Yu.

The voice of Yun Yazi came from inside.

“Hello from your teacher. I miss you! Be careful now, don't get closer to the Demon World.”

His message was quick and short, and there were no other words beyond those brief phrases.

Su Yu was stunned. What exactly was Yun Yazi doing, and why didn't he show up?

Also, what was that sound? How did he scare away the Giant of the Bitter Sea? To what extent has he recovered his own soul?

While they were in distress, his Master came forward and rescued Su Yu and the rest.

The hole from the Demon Realm was closed, and they finally broke away from the Realm completely.

Everyone who miraculously survived the ordeal quickly left the place and arrived at an abandoned Cavern World far from the Demon World.

This place was swallowed up entirely by the demons of the Holy Magic Hall. This was nothing here now except for silence and darkness.

“I didn’t expect that we would be able to leave the Demon Realm alive,” The Purple-Eyed Demonic God looked around, filled with emotion.

The Eldest Prince was also in an uncertain mood. The experience of the last six months was more thrilling than his entire life in the Demon Realm!

This was especially so after they entered the Bitter Sea and fled the Demon Realm in one go. It was even more dangerous.

He looked up at Su Yu. The great prince sincerely bowed to him. “Thank you, Brother Su. If not for you, we, descendants of the imperial family...” After a pause, he shook his head and sighed. “We should say that, even with three reincarnations, there is no way we could have escaped.”

The Second Princess smiled and said, “Thank you. If we can help you in any way in the future, say it. I, the Second Princess, will offer you my help no matter what!”

The one who never spoke anything was the Sixth Princess.

She was silent for a long time before she finally sighed and said, “Thank you. It is thanks to you that we can leave the Demon Realm. I think the Holy Magic Hall will chase after us soon. Could I kindly ask you to help us all the way and remove our royal breath?”

Su Yu looked at her and then down at the Eldest Prince, who bowed his head. A twitch of irony appeared at the corners of his mouth. “Me helping you remove your royal breath is a promise I gave and I will act upon it. However, if I may ask, what are you planning to do?”

Unknown to them, the six city masters who followed them calmly and quietly surrounded Su Yu, the Purple-Eyed Demonic God, and Bi Wanqing.

The Eldest Prince and the Sixth Princess also each pulled out a royal sacred artifact.

Chapter 1254: Collective Betrayal

The Second Princess was dumbfounded. “Big Brother, Sixth Princess, what are you doing? Are you all crazy? How can you treat your allies like this?”

The Sixth Princess shook her head and sighed. “Sister, we have a common goal in the demon world, so we are allies, but if you look around you... where are we now?”

Xing River!

Xing River creatures and the Demon Realm have always been at loggerheads and unable to reconcile their differences.

After returning to the Xing River, Su Yu regained his identity as an acting god within the Great Eastern Alliance.

Meanwhile, they were still demons from the Demon Realm.

There was an irreconcilable rift between them.

What Su Yu did all the way was unpredictable and they could never see what he would do next.

Even as an ally, what they saw along the way made them feel terrified of him.

The Eldest Prince said, "Su Yu is simply too dangerous; we have to guard against him!"

It was unexpected that the Eldest Prince and Sixth Princess would switch their attitudes so fast, much like how one would do so flipbooks.

However, Su Yu and the Purple-Eyed Demonic God were not shocked. It was as if they had expected such a reaction from them.

"Hahaha, you deserve to be the best descendant of the royal family in the demon world. You did choose to sever all ties once the need to work together was completed. If I were you, I would have done the same," Su Yu laughed.

The pupils of the Eldest Prince and the Sixth Princess started shrinking, fast.

"Did you expect this?"

"Of course!"

"I don't believe it!" The Sixth Princess looked around suspiciously. She didn't believe that before leaving the Demon Realm, Su Yu would analyze the situation so thoroughly that he could possibly anticipate this.

It was exactly at this moment when, behind the Eldest Prince and the Sixth Princess, a gust of cold wind started to blow.

The Eldest Prince was seriously injured, and the blood of the Giant of the Bitter Sea was still left in his body. Therefore, he was too late to resist the attack and was severely hit by the gust of wind. He immediately vomited blood and fell into a semi-coma state.

The Sixth Princess was unhurt and turned around irritably. "You dare to betray us!"

The ones who attacked were, in fact, the six gods who were supposed to be loyal to the Eldest Prince and the Second Princess!

"We have never betrayed you because we have never been loyal to you. Instead, we have always been loyal to the lord of Seawatch City!"

The Sixth Princess felt as if she had walked directly into a trap. "How can you be loyal to him?"

"Why are we loyal to him? Quite simply, he can take us away from the demon world, that's it! As for you, you are a group of princes and princesses who can't protect themselves, so why would you be worthy of our allegiance?"

The Sixth Princess was stunned. Their rebellion was like a thunderbolt on a sunny day.

"When did this happen?" She gritted her teeth and asked grudgingly.

“One month before the coup d’état,” the six city-lord gods smiled and replied. “The early-stage quasi-gods sent by him convinced us to do so.”

“How could you be so easily persuaded? If you didn’t choose to join the coup, wouldn’t it be better for you to stay in the Demon World?” the Sixth Princess asked.

The faces of the six city gods were gloomy and they sneered, “How can you still pretend that you don’t know? How did the Holy Magic Hall develop from nothing, from being weak to being strong, all up till the present day? We all know it very well!”

The face of the Sixth Princess sank even further. In the beginning, there were only six demon gods in the Holy Magic Hall. Today, there were more than a hundred. Where did they come from?

Of course, they did not merely appear out of thin air but were instead city masters who were transformed, one by one.

The change of the Demon Cloud City Master explained everything.

This was an open secret, and the gods of the cities always knew about this.

“Once inducted into the Holy Magic Hall, we will completely lose our freedom and eventually become monsters! The six of us wanted to escape from the Demon Realm long ago, but there was no way to get out. In the long run, we will one day be transformed into the monsters of the Holy Magic Hall! The ambassadors of the Seawatch City Master gave us the opportunity to escape from the Demon World. Therefore, we will definitely be loyal to him!”

When she heard this, the Sixth Princess was speechless.

It turned out that from the beginning, all the princes and princesses were merely pawns in a bigger plan!

They thought the city owners had pledged their loyalty to them. In fact, they have been on Su Yu’s side all the while!

“But you all have already left the Demon Realm. The Xing River is large and you can go wherever you want. Do you still need to remain loyal to him?” The Sixth Princess turned and looked around.

“Oh, Her Royal Highness, you do not need to seek to create tension amongst us. We can see things more clearly than you can! This place is Xing River, the land of all living things. Once we demons appear, coexistence would be incompatible between us and the creatures already here. How long can we live in the Xing River? The Seawatch City Master promised us that as long as we are under his control and agree not to harm the Xing River, he can give us the status of gods of the Xing River without us having to worry about being attacked.”

The Sixth Princess’s silver teeth clenched hard as she stared fiercely at Su Yu. “You bastard, you have thought it all out!”

“However, do you really think that just the six of you will be able to suppress me?”

The six city gods started to laugh, grinning wildly. “Of course we can’t win over you in a straight fight, but the Seawatch City Master has prepared some gifts for you!”

Whoosh —

The six gods took out several blood-red scorpions at the same time. They exuded a corrosive breath. If it was not the blood of the Giant of the Bitter Sea, what could it possibly be?

“You! Where did you get that from?” The pupils of the Sixth Princess shrank, showing her fear.

She vividly remembered how the seventh prince died tragically from the blood of the Giant of the Bitter Sea.

However, she also remembered very clearly that these bloody scorpions prepared by the Seventh Prince were not taken away by the other three city-lord gods. Therefore, they should have been buried along with the monsters of the Holy Magic Hall.

“Naturally, it was the Seawatch City Master who secretly ordered us to search for them. Those three Lord Gods were also with us. Alas, unfortunately, they were dragged down by those stupid princes and princesses and failed to escape.”

What! The Sixth Princess was completely terrified by Su Yu’s methods. She was feeling lost.

She claimed to be clever, but she was just a pawn in Su Yu’s palm.

“Her Royal Highness, it is not easy to escape from the demon world. Therefore, I urge you to simply obey the Seawatch City Master and keep your life. It is better than to fall into the hands of the giant.”

She looked around at the bloody scorpions. Then she smirked and stared at Su Yu. “Did you plan to control all the princes and princesses like this from the very beginning?”

“No,” Su Yu shrugged. “I’m just guarding against your mutiny. If you do your part, I will dissolve your royal breath and then we can go our separate ways. However, if you have still have dissent, these backup plans are prepared to thwart those thoughts!”

Hearing this, the Sixth Princess was stunned. “Is this the truth?”

“Well, there is no need to lie to you at this point.”

There was a bitter smile and the red lips of the princess parted slightly. The Eldest Prince and she thought themselves to be clever, but instead made themselves look like fools!

She struggled for a long time and finally said, “What do you plan to do to u?”

“It’s impossible to simply let you go. The strength of the two of you is too strong. If I do not use some form of extreme technique, it will be difficult to deal with you. Therefore, I will have to control and contain you with my palm.” If anyone was to blame, it was because of the choices they had made now. Thus, Su Yu has no choice but to watch out and be cautious against them in his approach.

“How do you mean to control us?” the Sixth Princess asked.

The six city gods looked at each other and smiled. One of the gods took out two six-color marks. “I’ve long prepared them for you.”

“You bastards!” The Sixth Princess was really annoyed and angry. Even the six god imprints were prepared in advance!

“Her Royal Highness, please let me remind you that this is a special six god imprint. Unless the six of us deactivate it at the same time, even if you find a hundred gods, it cannot be removed. In addition, if you are not careful, you might activate the seal and, well, just die.”

The Sixth Princess laughed hard. Even this last loophole was thought about and plugged.

The nine god imprints on the Dog could be neutralized if nine gods were found.

However, the six god imprints in front of her contained the blood of the six demon gods. Unless they would all agree to remove it from her at the same time, there was no way she could ever get rid of it.

Chapter 1255: Great Western Alliance

But would the six of them ever think of unlocking the imprint?

It was said that the Sixth Princess had always been cruel to traitors. In addition, as things stood today, the one who gave the six gods all the benefits was Su Yu and not the royal siblings. It was therefore far-fetched to think that they would ever do so.

After struggling a while, the Sixth Princess finally lowered her proud head.

She and the sleeping Eldest Prince were implanted with the six god imprints.

The other end of the mark was in the hands of Su Yu. A mere thought from him could destroy them instantly.

As powerful as they were, being the two strongest descendants of the demon deities, they were now firmly held in the palm of Su Yu.

Especially the Eldest Prince!

His strength was at his peak level. Looking throughout the entire Xing River, except for the first demon emperor, the god of death, and the Demonic God of Six Paths, who else could rival him?

At least, no one was his rival in the two major alliances here.

In addition, the strength of the Sixth Princess was comparable to the Dakini. Along with the six god city masters, Su Yu’s source of power was terribly strong!

“Hahaha...” With a chuckle, the dog got out of the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl and stretched out her paw with a smile. She then touched the head of the Sixth Princess.

"Sister, congratulations, you're going to be a dog now, hahaha... why am I so happy? Hahaha..."

The Sixth Princess turned blue. "A... dog?"

"Yes, you are a doggy that wants to warm the bed!"

Boom!

As if struck by lightning, the sixth princess stood paralyzed at the spot she was at.

"Hahahaha, finally, the other princes and princesses can also be turned into dogs. Wow, hahaha ... why can't I stop laughing? Hahaha ..." the dog laughed until her legs buckled.

Even though her stomach was starting to cramp up, she couldn't stop laughing.

Everyone stared at her, their brows furrowed.

That was it. The Ninth Princess was crazy.

"What about me? Su Yu, what are you going to do to me?" The Second Princess chimed in loudly.

Su Yu glanced at her. "You? You are of average strength. Keeping you won't do much for me. You can look after yourself for all I care. I won't bother you."

"What did you say? How can you utter such insults without any sense of shame?"

"Well, I'll be gentler with my words. You are simple."

"That sounds good... wait, what is the meaning of this? I don't care, you took me away from the demon world, so now you are responsible for me!"

Although she was straightforward, she was not stupid. She was thinking about what could happen to a demon emperor's daughter who appeared at Xing River. Once the news spread, what would the local gods do?

Of course, all the gods across the Xing River would seek to capture her, take her for research, make some specimens out of her and tour her around as if she were an exhibition.

Following Su Yu was no doubt the safest bet for her.

At this point, Su Yu was finally relieved.

From entering the demon world until now, Su Yu has been nervous and could not rest well.

"Where exactly in the Xing River are we?" Su Yu asked.

One of the city gods said, "I have a map of Xing River, which was prepared many years ago in case of an escape. Now, I suppose, it is useless, but I will nevertheless give it to you."

Su Yu took it, looked, immediately confirmed his position, and said in amazement: "Eh? How can we possibly be here?"

According to the map, he was extremely far away from the Great Eastern Alliance, but only one month's travel distance away from the Great Western Alliance.

"The Demon Realm is so close to the Great Western Alliance? It's incredible and unexpected."

The demon god who provided the map said, "The Great Western Alliance is really close to the Demon Realm and has been attacked by the Demon Realm over the years. For this reason, there are many powerful people in the alliance who fight against the demons, and they use very effective means to do so."

"The gods of the Great Eastern Alliance are different and rule in a rather piecemeal fashion. The Great Western Alliance has achieved great unification. All the gods obey the orders of the leader, and each god establishes an anti-demon group. They all obey the orders of the leader at any time to unite together and fight against the demons."

Su Yu vaguely remembered that the Glittering Jewel Mortal Fairy came from a well-known anti-Demon family.

Did the fairy actually come from the Great Western Alliance?

Unfortunately, she was not found in the Demon Realm. If found, she could be brought back from there.

It was at this moment that the Sixth Princess stared into the distance and saw something. "There are creatures approaching."

The remaining deities did not confirm it until they had looked around for a while.

One could easily see that the Sixth Princess was more powerful than they were.

"Who is it and how strong are they?" Su Yu asked.

"These must be the people from the Great Western Alliance. They often have survey teams who come out here to investigate the demon world," the Sixth Princess said. "As for their strength, most of them are not very powerful. An investigative team is actually cannon fodder."

"This batch is not high in strength. The strongest is at most at the third Realm of the Dust Fairy. Moreover, they encountered some trouble along the way. A group of patrolling demon soldiers found them and is quietly approaching them. They still don't know what is going to happen."

The Sixth Princess looked at Su Yu and asked, "Shall we go to help the demons and kill them all?"

She still hasn't been able to completely change her standpoint of being on the side of the Demon Realm, and subconsciously took the demons' side.

"No need, let's go and look."

The gods moved.

In the starry sky, a medium-sized battleship quietly slid past the demon world in the Xing River.

There were strong men of different ages on the battleship.

The ship was commanded by an old man with a broken arm. His figure was bent and his face was full of killing intent.

The rest of the men on board also had a fierce look across their faces.

Among the crowd, there was a girl of about ten years wearing makeup over a porcelain-like face. She had bright eyes and looked very much like a porcelain doll. She stood in stark contrast to the fierce fellows on board of the ship with her.

“Boss Wu, I think this is enough. Any farther forward and it would be very easy to be found by the demon soldiers!” A strong man of the second realm of Dust Fairy carefully warned.

The old man with the broken arm was Boss Wu.

“Do you think I don’t want to retreat?” Boss Wu said with a grim mood. “However, the god-damn anti-demon guards left a mark on our battleship. If we don’t follow the agreement and enter a million miles within the Demon world to investigate, It will be recorded by the mark and all our hard work over the last year will amount to nothing!”

There were many fierce people onboard, and they were annoyed. “Damn anti-demon guards! They rarely come so close to the Demon World. However, they want us to do so right now; it’s clear that we are forced to die!”

“The most hateful thing is that they have this mark on us. We must do what they say, otherwise, there is no choice for us but to die!”

“Hey, I mean, who made us into death row prisoners? I only accepted this mission so that I could live.”

They were talking, and suddenly Boss Wu turned pale: “Keep silent! There seems to be something around!”

The battleship suddenly went quiet. With narrowed eyes, they all looked into the darkness, searching for movement.

Suddenly, they saw a warship carved from bone rushing towards them.

On the white bone ship, there were dozens of strong demon soldiers. The lowest-ranked demon was also in the realm of the Dust Fairy. The highest level was a bloody-red early-stage quasi-god!

“Ah!!!! Yes, yes, it’s a quasi-god!” Boss Wu heaved out cool air and looked horrified. At this moment, he had no courage to sail forward. Instead, he screamed: “Turn the rudder! Retreat!”

With fierce roars, the team scrambled and guided the ship to flee from the spot.

Alas, the demon soldiers had already spotted them and quickly caught up.

Compared to them, the white-bone Ship of the Demon Soldiers was faster and soon caught up with them.

From the white-bone ship, a dozen smaller boats were lowered and surrounded them in all directions. They completely blocked the warship and slowly moved closer together with the ship in the center.

“Hey, the Great Western Alliance has sent a big supplement gift for us again! Eat them all!” The early-stage quasi-god smirked coldly. He stood with his arms crossed at the bow, enjoying the crew’s panic.

At this moment, the crew of the ship was utterly desperate.

“It’s over!”

“We can’t go back!”

Boss Wu has seen many things throughout his life and was able to remain calm in times of crisis.

There was a vicious flash in his eyes, and he stuck his remaining right hand out, much like an eagle claw. Catching a crew member, he flung his arm hard and threw him out of the ship. That man fell into the Xing River.

“Boss Wu, what are you doing ... Ah!” Before he could resist, he was surrounded by the raging demon boats. As they picked him up, they ate him on the spot!

The bloody scene greatly jolted the rest of the men and stimulated their instinct for survival.

They saw the intention of Boss Wu and immediately started to throw crew members off the ship. This was to distract all the demon boats and use the opportunity to escape!

Alas! No matter how hard they tried to escape, they was only so much they could do.

Without flinching, Boss Wu threw another crew member off the ship.

The demons in front of the barge were distracted by the fallen crewmembers.

However, no one dared to stand beside Boss Wu at this moment.

Boss Wu rushed into the crowd like lightning and grabbed at anyone he could each.

The crew was so frightened that they tried their best to escape.

Boss Wu made a few grabs and only managed to catch thin air. Finally, he made a sudden jump and caught a crewmember who had no time to escape.

Boss Wu swept her out without a glance, throwing her off the ship without saying a word.

The one thrown was still in the air, and she gave out a piercing scream.

Witnessing this, one would realize that it was the little doll-like girl.

Her eyes widened. She was both frightened and angry, but her body was completely out of her control. Alas, she too was thrown off the boat.

The demons below were in a frenzy. They were screaming madly, opening their bloody mouths that were thirsting for meat. They were anticipating the pink tender flesh of the girl.

Looking at the demon faces closing in, the girl screamed in fear and fainted on the spot.

Many demon soldiers rushed towards her like locusts and wanted to eat her immediately.

However, at this moment, just when they were about to begin their feast, a boundless divine power rose up from the Xing River, breaking through the barriers, and penetrated the demon soldiers' white-bone ship.

The early quasi-god on the ship had a tortured grimace on his face. However, he was unable to react in any way before he was turned into nothingness by the divine power.

The hull was perforated and quickly sank. The demon soldiers on the ship all fell into the Xing River.

The terrible force brought about by the divine power tremored throughout the Xing River and all the boats were overturned in an instant.

Even the warship was sloshing around, moved by the force and about to be overturned by the immense power.

Boss Wu was startled: "God... the demon god!"

At the edge of the sky, black clouds were rushing over; all the people on the warship felt utter despair!

Whoosh ——

There was a flash of purple light, and then, a handsome demon with silver hair appeared.

He did not attack the warship. Instead, the silver demon reached out a large hand and picked up the ten-year-old girl who had fallen into a coma inside the Xing River.

Beneath that handsome face was murderous intent.

Chapter 1256: Gongsun Wuxie

Su Yu stared at the old man with a broken arm.

The old man with a broken arm had a cold heart, and his dry lips trembled as he spoke. "Master ... Lord Demon Master, if she is not enough, there is still a full ship of people, please let me go..."

The crew on board the ship was horrified and furious.

"No need to. I only want your life," Su Yu said coldly.

Brush ——

Without him attacking first, a demon city master flicked a finger and turned the old man into dust.

"What about the rest? Kill them as well?"

Su Yu looked at them in panic and shook his head slightly. “No need to. I have something to ask them.”

On the warship, Su Yu held the girl in his arms and asked, “Why is she on the warship, and who are all of you people?”

In terms of appearance, most of the people present were extremely vicious and fierce.

The girl in his arms, however, is Gongsun Wuxie!

She first came to the Great Eastern Alliance with the All-Access merchant ship. How then did she ended up within the Great Western Alliance and being with these fierce-looking individuals?

If he had not seen it all with his own eyes, Su Yu couldn’t have believed it. This girl is indeed Gongsun Wuxie.

She is here, but why didn’t he see the Duanxian Cliffmaster?

All the crew members trembled upon meeting Su Yu’s eyes.

“We are the death row prisoners of the Great Western Alliance, and she is also a death row prisoner. We were assigned on a mission to come to investigate the enemy’s situation within a million miles of the Demon Realm. Only with a completed mission can we go back alive. Otherwise, the imprint in our body will take effect and kill us.”

On death row? Su Yu frowned. Why did Gongsun Wuxie become a prisoner on death row?

“Sixth princess, see if her imprint can be lifted.”

The sixth princess glanced at her, and then at the rest on death row. Frowning, she said, “Strange, is she special? She is the same as the rest and is on death row. However, the rest on death row are controlled by prospective deities, but for her only, she is controlled by the gods.”

“Can’t lift it?” Su Yu asked again.

The sixth princess shook her head. “This imprint is very special. It is mixed with the blood of the gods themselves. Unless we extract out the blood of the other party, is it then possible to remove it. If we forcibly tried to with external force, it will only trigger the imprint and kill her.”

Looking at Gongsun Wuxie’s frightened and unconscious face, Su Yu’s mind went into a frenzied thinking mode.

Why did she end up with the Great Western Alliance? Which god imprinted this on her?

“Let’s go to the Great Western Alliance first and then talk about this later.” Su Yu had a cool look that was visible across his eyes.

“What do we do with them?” The sixth princess’s eyes squinted into a crescent, shooting out dangerous radiants.

Su Yu glanced at them lightly and replied, “Leave them to their own accord.”

A group of death row prisoners, from the point of view of their breath, are mostly doers of evil crimes. Why should he go on to rescue them?

Besides, this place is close to the demon world. To move forward with such a large group of creatures will only attract the attention of the rest of the demon soldiers. They will never be able to escape.

The sixth princess said regretfully, "Master, you are too kind."

If she can, she prefers killing them herself.

Whoosh ——

The nine gods condensed into a huge magic cloud and headed towards the Great Western Alliance.

Demon World...

On the coast, staring at the thundering bitter sea and hearing the roar of the giant of the bitter sea, all the gods were startled. They feared that the giant of the bitter sea would eat them all instead.

"He was injured! Plus, it was a very serious injury!" Princess Yunxia screamed.

That scream pierced directly through their souls and howled throughout the entire Xing River.

They also felt it.

Such a middle-level power is, for them, a source of overriding power.

To think that the mighty giant of the Bitter Sea Giant was also hurt by it!

"Is there such a strong individual hidden within the Xing River?" said the Demonic God of Six Paths.

Princess Yunxia shook her head and then nodded. "No one can say for sure. After all, Xing River was part of the ancient gods of the past, and it is not impossible that the best of the ancient gods were left behind."

Ancient God Realm ... Every demon was shocked by what they heard.

"No matter who the person is, he did not intend to harm the first demon emperor. I guess he must be restricted in some way. Otherwise, he won't stop so easily.

Therefore, it doesn't pose a threat to us for the time being!"

As soon as Princess Yunxia said those words, her murderous intent was clear. "However, the eldest prince, the second princess, and the sixth princess fled from here. They were the reincarnation of the first demon emperor. In the past, an undead demon emperor managing to escape; so be it. However, now that three are also joining his footsteps, this does not bode well for the first demon emperor's Ten Thousand Demon Mantra Reincarnation."

"You have to get them back. If you can't get them back, at least bring back their flesh and blood."

The Demonic God of Six Paths stood up and said, "Let me lead my men out to catch them."

The commander of the Holy Magic Hall is doing this, in person? Everyone was surprised. For six years, the Demonic God of Six Paths never voluntarily requested to execute a capture task, and never once had he stepped out of the demon world.

Princess Yunxia shook her head. "You? No, the Demon World has just experienced great chaos, and people's hearts are unstable. It is precisely now that you are needed to suppress it. You cannot leave."

"No! I must go! For the first demon emperor, and for myself!"

"For yourself?"

"Yes! On that silver feather demon, I felt a breath of curse." The Demonic God of Six Paths had an indifferent look that was filled with hatred. "That is the mark left by my son."

Princess Yunxia froze. "That mixed child you sent to the Jiuzhou Cavern World to abscond for the throne?"

Regarding the fact that Demonic God of Six Paths had a mixed child, it is not a secret she did not know about.

The Demon Emperor was so angry when he knew about this that he wanted to kill the half-man and half-devil child.

As a result, the Demonic God of Six Paths secretly sent him away and placed him in the land of the gods, allowing him to grow up there. Finally, he then sent him to a declining Cavern World, enabling him to devour the entire Cavern World, thereby becoming a god.

Unexpectedly, news of his child's fall came several years ago.

He didn't expect that the murderer was so close to him at this moment!

"He should have used some means to cover up the curse breath, but at close range, he can't hide from me. He is the murderer who killed my baby!"

Princess Yunxia frowned slightly. She knew that the half-man and half-devil child was something that mattered a lot to the Demonic God of Six Paths.

However, today's demon world, except for the first demon emperor, the six demon gods are the next in line to claim the seat of being the strongest.

Thinking for a moment, Princess Yunxia bowed her head and said, "OK! I allow you to go, but you can only take ten gods with you to help out."

The rest of the creatures in the Holy Magic Hall needs to stay behind and calm down the chaos of the demon world.

"OK." The Demonic God of Six Paths agreed.

"Book God, you are familiar with Xing River; you will lead the way!"

"Cai Lin, you are responsible for serving the needs of the Demonic God of Six Paths!"

“White Bone Admiral, you lead a few new gods from the Holy Magic Hall and sharpen them up along the way.”

“Yes, sir!”

“Finally, Su Yu either gets caught, or we will bring back his dead body, do you understand?”

“We understand!”

“Then let’s go!”

As she stood behind and watched them leave, and Princess Yunxia returned to the ruins of the palace.

“Su Yu! As soon as you enter the demon world, you turned everything upside down!” Princess Yunxia hated the man.

If there were no Su Yu, the coup of the princes and princesses would have been annihilated before it had the chance to germinate. Alas, Su Yu planned the coup in advance and hit them by surprise.

Although the coup d’ état subsided, it affected the hearts of many city masters.

The news that Su Yu and the three princes and princesses, as well as six city demon gods, had successfully escaped from the demon world cannot be concealed and hidden from the masses.

After all, the hardships suffered by the giant of the bitter sea in its pursuit of them cannot be hidden from the gods.

Judging from the information she possessed, many city master gods regretted their decisions, especially those gods who had been lobbied by Su Yu’s early prospective deities.

Therefore, many city gods are eagerly on the move, and many gods secretly send out spies to come to search for clues near the bitter sea to find a second passageway to leave.

In this regard, Princess Yunxia is stuck in a spot.

The rebellion is not terrible. The terrible thing is people that are rebellious but have not acted on it much. Therefore, it is difficult to predict when they will launch a coup.

For this reason, Princess Yunxia had to spend a lot of energy, a show of benevolence, to deter and stabilize the demon world.

At the same time, the forces of the Holy Magic Hall had been sent out had been recalled to help stabilize the internal affairs of the demon realm.

“So hateful! The first demon emperor is going to lose a lot of nutrients from this. The time to break a stage to become a median god will be delayed by at least ten years!” Princess Yunxia was resentful. A little pawn like Su Yu was able to hold back the first demon emperor from going along with his ambitious plan that was in the making for thousands of years.

He had delayed the time he needs to become a median god!

The evil god once said that the wildness of Xing River is birthed by that of a median god.

Alas, how is it possible to collect all those resources in the Xing River?

Through the demon soldiers of the Holy Magic Hall, they devoured all the living beings in the heavens and the earth, and then the first demon emperor swallowed these demon soldiers.

Indirectly, he is grabbing the resources of the entire Xing River.

Finally, paired with the Ten Thousand Demon Mantra Reincarnation, there may still be a chance for a breakthrough.

“Su Yu! You better pray that you can escape the hunting of the Demonic God of Six Paths. Otherwise, you will die!”

The Demonic God of Six Paths attached great importance to that child of his.

Somewhere in the Xing River, a desolate Cavern World that was devoured by the demons.

Yun Yazi is transparent and looks extremely weak.

The sound that stunned the first demon emperor was extremely costly, and Yun Yazi, whose soul had never been restored since, was once again hit hard.

“Did the Demon Emperor grown into as such?” Yun Yazi constrained his eyebrows and asked, “Looking at his shape, he will break out within ten years. At that time, the entire Xing River will be reduced to being his food source after his birth.”

“The situation of the Xing River is critical. If this part of the ancient god realm is destroyed, I don’t know if it will alarm those outside the Xing River ...”

The vast starry river.

A group of demon clouds overwhelmingly sailed towards the Great Western Alliance.

On the demon cloud, Su Yu sat cross-legged, while Gongsun Wuxie leaned on Su Yu’s legs.

As they moved, Gongsun Wuxie soon woke up.

When she opened her eyes, a demon with silver hair came into the picture.

“Ah!!!” Gongsun Wuxie screamed, threw pink fists, and yelled, “Don’t eat me! I haven’t taken a bath for three years. I haven’t changed my socks for ten years. I’m smelly, very smelly!!”

She didn’t dare to look directly at the demons in front of her and fluttered with her eyes closed.

Su Yu laughed. “I do not mind that. I will simply throw you in boiling water and wash you clean. Then, I will be able to eat you. Hey, what a tender and delicious creature you are. I haven’t eaten such a superb thing for a long time now!”

"I will string you up, slowly cook you on the fire rack, and then spray you with the condiments of the demon world. Wow, fragrant, this must be a delicacy of the Xing River!"

Gongsun Wuxie listened carefully, her heartbeat fast, and her face turned pale. She struggled to escape, but she was easily suppressed by Su Yu. "Hey, you can't wait to get on the roast now, is it?"

Chapter 1257: The Gongsun Family

"No! I don't want to go onto the fire. I don't want to be grilled! I don't want to!"

"Hey, then how do you want to be eaten by me?"

"Woohoo, I don't want to be eaten, please let me go!"

"Well ... it's not impossible to let you go, but I'll still want to take a bite."

"Can you not eat me at all?"

"No!"

"Well ... Well, where do you want to eat?" Gongsun Wuxie still didn't dare to look at Su Yu, and subconsciously covered her flat breasts. "You can't eat here. There is nothing here anyway. If you eat them, they won't grow anymore."

Su Yu laughed secretly in his heart. Even if he doesn't eat it, those won't grow much too, right?

"How about I eat a finger?"

"Okay ... okay, but only one. As you said, just one!" Gongsun Wuxie trembled and stuck out her index finger. Then, she suddenly changed her mind and replaced it with a little finger. "Eat this."

Su Yu was secretly amused. He leaned over, put his lips on her fingers, and tried to bite on it.

"Ah!!! It hurts! It hurts!" Gongsun Wuxie screamed immediately, and tears came out. She screamed very loud.

Su Yu let go of his bite and couldn't help laughing. "I didn't even start to eat you. To think that you are so afraid. Wuxie, If I really bite into you, wouldn't it hurt you very much?"

Gongsun Wuxie, who was twirling herself up from the anticipation of pain, suddenly said, "What did you call me? How do you know my name?"

She doesn't remember if she had told this cannibal demon her name.

Also, why did this demon's voice sound so familiar? Although the accented pitch was thicker than before, it was nevertheless obviously of a tone that was deliberately disguised...

Her eyes that were closed tightly, quietly, she opened a slit carefully, for fear of widening it too much, and then the other party would bite down on her finger.

Through the fine seams of her eyes, the other person's nose, mouth, and jaw were blurred.

“Oh, you seem really familiar.” Gongsun Wuxie opened her eyes a little more this time, and when she finally saw the whole picture, she stared at those eyes. “Ah! You are ... you are ...”

As she was too surprised by what she witnessed, Gongsun Wuxie opened her mouth and tried to breathe whilst trying to call out Su Yu’s name.

Nevertheless, she could not call out Su Yu’s name. Instead, the sound that came out was much like a muffled cry. She threw her neck back, and the crying really came out.

Su Yu found it funny. He patted her back slowly, soothing her to calm down.

After crying for a long time, Gongsun Wuxie stopped crying, staring at Su Yu with a look of anger, opening her small, cheery mouth and bit on Su Yu’s shoulder. She said, “How dare you scare me, how dare you scare me! I will bite you, too! ”

Hiss ...

Su Yu pushed her away. Looking at her, she really left a tooth mark on his shoulder.

“How dare you. You really bit on me!”

“Who made you scare me so!” Gongsun Wuxie said. Thinking of his performance just now, her face flushed red, and she couldn’t wait to find a place to drill into and hide.

It was so shameful!

“You two are kissing and playing with each other, do you want to see whether this is the appropriate occasion?” The second princess interjected inappropriately.

Gongsun Wuxie looked around, and her face was pale. “Everyone here, they are all demons! Su Yu, why don’t they eat you?”

The second princess stared at her and said, “What kind of image did my demons project in your galaxy?”

Residents of the Demon Realm and creatures of the Xing River are not much different.

The ones that swallowed and ate the realm’s creatures are the transformed monsters in the Holy Magic Hall.

Seeing Gongsun Wuxie’s frightened look, the second princess parted her lips and said, “Relax, we won’t eat you! We all are very gracious; we are even thankful that Su Yu did not eat us, so why would we even eat you?”

Gongsun Wuxie opened her eyes wide. “Ah! Su Yu, you really eat people ... you eat the demons!”

After a while of helplessness, Su Yu covered his right palm over his chest and took out the demonic blood in his body. In this way, his transformation into the form of the demons quickly faded away. He quickly recovered the image of the human race.

“They are now used by me. They are my people.”

Gongsun Wuxie pointed at the sixth princess. “Including her? She, she doesn’t seem to be a strong dust fairy?”

“Dust fairy ... uh, she doesn't count.” Su Yu was somewhat speechless.

“What about her? Is she not at the realm of the dust fairy as well?” Gongsun Wuxie pointed to the second princess.

“No.”

“What about him?”

“And what about all of them?”

“Neither,” Su Yu said.

Gongsun Wuxie suddenly tumbled and got up. She raised her neck up high like a peacock, and said, “What is this? You scared me! It turned out everyone here are the small miscellaneous fish of the demons! There is no one here at the realm of the dust fairy!”

With that, Gongsun Wuxie shook her fist, and she shot out the power of the dust fairy.

“Did you see this? Do you know what it is? It is the power of the Dust Fairy, and I can easily smash all of you into dregs since all of you are not at the realm of the Dust Fairy!”

Hearing this, the gods, including the sixth princess, could not help but try hard to hold it in.

They are not like the other gods that emit god light at all times.

Gongsun Wuxie never thought of them to be in the higher realm of the gods because of their physicality here. Instead, she regarded them as mere simple creatures of the demon world.

She took it for granted that they were simply a bunch of nobodies that didn't even cross the realm of the dust fairy.

“Hum! How dare you laugh at me? You all are really a group of demons who do not know where your place is!” Gongsun Wuxie gritted her teeth and smiled.

However, her threatening look made them laugh even more.

“Well, let's go all the way to the Great Western Alliance.” Su Yu was also amused, but he knew that Gongsun had no evil temper. If they continue this further, she would really attack them, so he made up a quick distraction to discourage her from striking anyone.

The gods all went off to do their own things.

“Hey, you all should be fortunate that brother Su Yu saved your life.” Gongsun Wuxie spoke and acted as if she was of high status.

Su Yu looked at Gongsun Wuxie and said, “You cultivated so fast to achieve a breakthrough in your cultivation. Thus, so to speak, the undead herbs in your body have been completely resolved?”

Gongsun Wuxie's small face had a look of bitterness. She pointed to her body that is still like that of a little girl. “Do you feel like it has been resolved?”

“Doesn’t look like it,” Su Yu replied.

Gongsun Wuxie was extremely distressed and said, “The Glittering Jewel Fairy Cane you gave me did purify part of it so that I am no longer restricted to being a Stage Nine Fairy. With my father’s rigorous training, I just about barely broke through the realm of the dust fairy. However, nothing else improved.”

Su Yu understood. He thought about it again and said, “Yes, so how did you become a death row prisoner? Where is the Duanxian Cliffmaster?”

Unexpectedly, just as Su Yu asked that question, Gongsun Wuxie’s small face had a dejected look. Gradually, her eyes were filled with water mist, and then soon turned into crystal tears.

Finally, she threw herself into Su Yu’s arms and burst into tears. “Father, he is dead!”

The Duanxian Cliffmaster is dead? Su Yu was shocked but was not too sad upon hearing this news.

As long as there is his breath in this world, resurrecting him will be as easy as with a thought.

The question is, how much trouble would it take to raise a dead person from, well, his death.

He will think about this later.

“How did he die? Speaking of which, at the same time, you were still in the Great Eastern Alliance, so why did you suddenly appear in the Great Western Alliance now?”

Gongsun Wuxie sobbed for a long time before replying, “My father was originally from the Great Western Alliance. His family members are from the top ten anti-demon family houses. Although they are not descendants of the gods, they really did belong to the god bloodline.”

At this point, Su Yu was not surprised at all.

As early as when he was in Jiuzhou, Duanxian Cliffmaster gave people a sense of mystery, and his origin story had quite a number of abnormalities.

When the mainland of Jiuzhou finally moved, his identity as a non-Jiuzhou creature was revealed.

Today, it is not surprising that his true identity is that of a child of a god family.

“My father was persecuted by his clan and forced to leave the Great Western Alliance, and for some reason, he hid in the Jiuzhou Cavern World. He stayed there until Jiuzhou’s mainland moved, before returning to the Xing River and taking root in the Great Eastern Alliance.”

Su Yu frowned. “Are you being persecuted? So, you came here, but can’t get revenge. Instead, you ended up being captured and becoming a prisoner?”

“No!” Gongsun Wuxie shook her head. “Father knows that he can’t avenge for himself now, so he wants to take root in the Great Eastern Alliance for a while and gradually cultivate his own power.”

Su Yu looked surprised and replied, “How did the Duanxian Cliffmaster die? How could you possibly be exiled to the Great Western Alliance and become a death row inmate?”

“Our father and daughter were extradited to the Great Western Alliance by the Great Eastern Alliance!” Gongsun Wuxie shook her fist, her eyes filled with hatred.

“Extradition? Who decided this?” Su Yu was surprised.

“It was decided by the gods when they convened a meeting. All the prisoners wanted by the Great Western Alliance were captured and handed over to the Great Western Alliance. So, my father and I were caught by the Great Eastern Alliance and soon sent to the Great Western Alliance. Soon after my father arrived, he was persecuted to death. I was also controlled by them and was to become the cannon fodder to the demon world! ”

Su Yu frowned deeply and replied, “Why did the Great Eastern Alliance do this? If they wanted to extradite you, they would have already done so. So, why wait till today?”

“I heard that it is to boost cooperation with the Great Western Alliance, so we have to sacrifice us as a gift to the Great Western Alliance.”

Su Yu thought, “You are high on the Great Western Alliance’s wanted list?”

“Not that high. My father is just an insignificant member of a tribe of the gods. He can only be regarded as a sixth-level wanted criminal, much less than those high-level wanted criminals!” Gongsun Wuxie said and continued, “Moreover, our enemies in the Great Western Alliance did not know that we were in the Great Eastern Alliance at all and they did not name us or call for our extradition. In fact, my father and I were very low-key in our time in the Great Eastern Alliance. My father and I just couldn’t figure out why we would be extradited! ”

“Wanted criminals who are extradited at the same time are notorious in the Great Western Alliance and are well-known first-class wanted criminals. Only my father and I are at the sixth-class wanted criminals.”

Su Yu heard this and gradually felt that something was amiss.

“Have you inquired about who decided to extradite all the prisoners here?”

Gongsun Wuxie shook her head. “We have no foundation or relationships in the Great Eastern Alliance. Where can I possibly find this information? Moreover, we were quickly caught and had nowhere to ask. It would be good to know which gods decided our fate.”

When he heard this, Su Yu’s heart was crystal clear.

It is clear that this father and daughter duo were intentionally stuffed into the extradition list.

“The Great Eastern Alliance may have already changed,” Su Yu murmured. To think that the situation of the Great Eastern Alliance changed dramatically after he left for merely two years.

At this moment, however, he is not that concerned about the situation in the Great Eastern Alliance. He first needs to go to the Great Western Alliance.

He is not only seeking justice for the Gongsun family, but he also has a more important thing to do there.

There is nothing wrong with the gods of the Great Eastern Alliance meeting up with them.

Invasion is imminent, and it is time to connect the two major alliances, of the east and west, to fight against the demons together.

It is just that, he wondered, if the Great Eastern Alliance ever sent out messengers over here.

Chapter 1258: Peace and Calm

“Wuxie, I’ll take you back to the Great Western Alliance,” Su Yu said.

Gongsun Wuxie shook her head vigorously. “I don’t want to go! If you are with me, you will be regarded by my group as being with my father. I don’t want to involve you, you should return to the Great Eastern Alliance.”

“What about you?” Su Yu asked tentatively.

Gongsun Wuxie smiled. “I ... I’m fine, I’m free now. I will hide in the Great Western Alliance, and no one can find me there!”

Su Yu said, “Can you really survive alone?”

“Why not? Who would bully me?” Gongsun Wuxie waved her fist and said, “Let’s go, leave me alone and don’t think about me.”

Su Yu touched her arm, and his heart was moved. “If I don’t take care of you, who will help you to resolve the internal restraint inside you?”

Gongsun Wuxie’s body was stiff and she looked surprised. “You... how do you know?”

Looking at her, pretending to be innocent and not wanting to affect them, Su Yu felt a sense of duty towards her.

Although she was naughty, she was a good girl after all.

“Well, so how can I ignore you? Who gave you the imprint? I’ll go to him,” Su Yu said.

Gongsun Wuxie’s eyes brimmed with tears, and her expression filled with gratitude. She wiped her eyes, choked and replied, “Don’t bother. I am grateful for your attention. However, you really don’t need to do anything more. The people who gave me this imprint are not ones you can deal with.”

She was really touched. At the last moment of her life, she could see Su Yu again and feel his care.

She was content.

“If you don’t try me, how do you know that I can’t deal with them?” Su Yu laughed and added, “You should know that I have an identity of an acting god in the Great Eastern Alliance. Maybe in the Great Western Alliance, it will work well for us too?”

Gongsun Wuxian’s eyes lit up. Yeah, how could she possibly forget this?

She hesitated for a while before she spoke. "It is one of the ten anti-demon families, the owner of the Gongsun family, a true god."

"Well, then let's go to him," Su Yu said casually.

Gongsun Wuxie hurriedly said, "Don't be so rash; use your brain and plan your strategy. Otherwise, he may not pay attention to your identity and sentence you to the death row immediately."

"Alright, I'll negotiate with him."

"Negotiate?" Gongsun Wuxie frowned and immediately regretted asking Su Yu to stand up for her. She was suddenly anxious.

"Well, it must be negotiated," Su Yu smiled. "Tell me about your grievances with them. Why, the god himself decided to act and place that imprint on you."

Gongsun Wuxie bowed her head and talked about the grudges between her father and the Gongsun family.

It turned out that in the early years, the Duanxian Cliffmaster was just an ordinary member of the Gongsun family. In terms of skills, he was light years away from the dazzling gods.

The Duanxian Cliffmaster was humble and simple and his qualifications were very mediocre. However, he had perseverance. Finally, he managed to achieve some results amongst his people.

At a certain alliance meeting, Duanxian Cliffmaster unexpectedly met with the eighth daughter of the alliance leader.

She was the daughter of the supreme leader, a descendant of the gods, while he was from a lower branch of the family.

The two, who did not interact much at that time, met again in a later expedition.

A group of demon army leaders headed by a group of Holy Magic Hall gods invaded, and the eighth daughter led the anti-demon team to resist the invasion. Alas, she was seriously injured by her resistance.

By coincidence, she was rescued by the Duanxian Cliffmaster and hid in an area occupied by the Demon Clan for several years.

With time, they grew attached to one another. The Duanxian Cliffmaster was highly caring and attentive. His warmth and affection soon conquered the heart of the eighth daughter.

After the invasion was defeated, the eighth daughter begged the alliance leader to allow her to marry the Duanxian Cliffmaster of the Gongsun family.

At that moment, the alliance's vitality was severely damaged, and the family also lost some of their strongest warriors. They were not that stable and the position of the alliance leader was seemingly wobbly as well.

Therefore, they agreed to the marriage with the Gongsun family in order to receive their support.

It was originally a beautiful event for the lovers to come together, but alas, there was a twist of events at the last moment.

When the alliance's marriage contract was issued, Gongsun Shan, the first heir to the Gongsun family, was jealous.

He lusted for the eighth daughter, who was famous for her beauty. His jealousy of the marriage was further fueled by the fact that his rival was the mediocre Duanxian Cliffmaster!

He asked the Gongsun Deity, his father, to displace the Duanxian Cliffmaster so that he could marry the eighth daughter instead.

Gongsun Deity, in fact, was not satisfied with the marriage either. At the stage when they were negotiating the marriage, he personally met and discussed this with the alliance leader.

As one could imagine, the leader of the alliance naturally preferred Gongsun Shan over the Duanxian Cliffmaster. He was the first heir in the family, so the marriage would bring both of their families closer than ever.

After the two met and agreed, they objected to the original marriage contract and decreed that the Duanxian Cliffmaster will be replaced by Gongsun Shan.

No matter how the eighth daughter begged, the leader was indifferent.

The Duanxian Cliffmaster also kneeled down and asked the gods to be kind. Instead, he got the cold shoulder and was scolded. They asked him to consider the overall situation, for that was the most important thing.

In the end, the two had to escape from the Great Western Alliance. They chose to elope and fled all the way to the Great Eastern Alliance.

The leader of the Great Western Alliance and Gongsun Deity were so angry that they sent people to hunt them down.

When they finally caught up with them, three years have passed. They had hidden in various places for those three years, and in the meantime, they did get married in the end and gave birth to the young Gongsun Wuxie.

After a huge battle, the eighth daughter was seriously injured, and the Duanxian Cliffmaster was deprived of almost half of his powers. Even their daughter was regarded as a sinner by the people. The alliance decided that they should all be killed on the spot.

The eighth daughter used the only 'undead spirit grass' found in heaven and earth to keep Gongsun Wuxie's innocent life. The medicinal power would last for ten years and its effects would end when she was ten years old.

This was also the origin of Gongsun Wuxie's special constitution. The 10-year countdown was merely a kind-hearted lie that Duanxian Cliffmaster told her because he could not bear to tell her the truth.

In order to protect the father and the child, the eighth daughter burned her Divine God Source Origin and sent them across the border into the Jiuzhou Cavern world.

Due to the existence of the Jiuzhou Cavern world barrier, the people who pursued them did not find them, and only managed to recover the eighth daughter.

Today, the eighth daughter was still in prison.

A good and solid marriage and union between the two families were broken up because of their elopement. That was why the Gongsun Deity family had such grudges against the Duanxian Cliffmaster, who did not seem to have understood the bigger picture of his actions.

Now, they were extradited by accident and the Duanxian Cliffmaster was already executed. In addition, Gongsun Wuxie, the ‘sinner’, had not been released. All of these actions seemed reasonable enough on their part against this family.

After listening, Su Yu had a realization. “What a great big picture indeed! Because of the big picture, you want to give up your own daughter to someone else? Such a grand reason to hide the favoritism of Gongsun Deity towards his own son.”

Su Yu had not yet seen the Gongsun Deity, but he was already feeling disgusted.

Gongsun Wuxie comforted him, rubbing Su Yu’s palm with her small hand, and whispered, “You know, just don’t show dissatisfaction when negotiating. I’m really afraid you will fall too deep into this.”

“Oh, rest assured, I am only venting. I will negotiate well on your behalf,” Su Yu replied.

After one month, at the Great Western Alliance...

Beyond the brightness and distance of the light, the Great Western Alliance was far superior to the Great Eastern Alliance. They also had many gods and there were no less than a hundred stationed in the Alliance at any given time.

The gods of the Great Western Alliance were all within the grounds of the Alliance and no god had traveled far.

Moreover, the entire alliance exuded a sense of tension and an intention to fight. This was observable, from the gods high up above to the ordinary creatures below.

Compared with the Great Eastern Alliance, which was as peaceful as could be, the Great Western Alliance was at another extreme.

Su Yu couldn’t help but think of the Dakini: “The type of leader will determine the environment the person creates.”

A Dakini who was kind to her enemies would be a loose organization without a sense of strategy.

However, if the Great Eastern Alliance constantly had to fight with the demons, much like the Great Western Alliance did, it would help to shape up a batch of strong warriors. Then, when the final war came, the situation might not be that bad for the alliance.

It was a pity, though, that with only a few years left, the entire Great Eastern Alliance could change immediately.

It was imperative to reach a truce with the powerful Great Western Alliance.

Before he came to the Great Western Alliance, Su Yu let the ten gods who had come with him enter the beads of small cavern worlds on his wrist. Each of the beads could fit just one person.

If he did not let them reside in the beads, ten demon gods would have suddenly appeared here within the Alliance grounds. It would most certainly alarm the entire Great Western Alliance.

With all that done, he brought Gongsun Wuxie into the alliance grounds.

Compared to the Great Eastern Alliance, where gods were in charge of their respective Cavern worlds, the Great Western Alliance was different. All the Cavern worlds were connected and collectively referred to as the Alliance mainland.

The gods who created the Cavern worlds also lost their jurisdiction over the Cavern world they belonged to, and all their powers now belonged to the Alliance.

The alliance leader was the supreme one, followed by the heads of the top ten anti-demon families, who together provided ten top generals to defend the motherland.

Once the supreme leader gave an order, he would lead all ten gods, who would lead the quasi gods, dust fairies, and the army of Vientiane cultivation beneath them.

Then, by the order of the leader, the Great Western Alliance war machine could start.

Amongst them, the status of the top ten anti-demon families was not trivial.

Every family had control over huge forces, which was enough to affect the vitality of the entire Great Western Alliance. Therefore, they had a very high status within the alliance.

Even the supreme leader would not seek to offend any of these families at will.

The Gongsun family was ranked tenth and last of the top ten families. Even so, no one dared to underestimate an anti-demon family.

The ten top anti-demon families, in order to facilitate obedience to the orders of the alliance leaders, were all located in the Alliance City, making it the largest city in the Great Western Alliance.

On this day, two guests were welcomed into the Alliance City.

One was a girl in disguise, unable to hide her petite figure.

The other was a handsome character with silver hair that fell like a waterfall.

When they came to the gate of the Gongsun Mansion, Gongsun Wuxie hesitated a little, bit her lip, and pulled on Su Yu's sleeve. "Let's forget it," she said.

Once the important moment came, the more she thought about it, the more it seemed that the venture was dangerous.

If she had to die, she should die alone; why should Su Yu be involved again?

"We are already here, how can we give up now?" Su Yu pried his sleeve out of her fingers and walked towards the main entrance.

Gongsun Wuxie was helpless and hurried to catch up. She lowered her voice. "Then you must maintain restraint, no matter what happens. Be patient, and never irritate the other party!"

Su Yu replied, "You have told me this no less than ten times along the way. Don't you get tired of repeating it so often?"

"I... I am worried about you." Gongsun Wuxie was still worried about him.

Su Yu smiled with a comforting look. "Rest assured, I'm only here to negotiate today."

“You must talk calmly.”

“Okay, calm and peaceful!” Su Yu nodded, walked to the main entrance, puffed up his chest, and shouted loudly, “Gongsun Deity, Gongsun Shan, quickly come out to greet your guests!”

The sound was loud and shook more than half of the Alliance City.

Several vast markets seemed to run all the way to the horizon line. Now, they seemed to be frozen in time and space. Everything was silent.

They have lived so long. However, now, for the first time, they heard someone calling out for the anti-demon family to come out and greet their guests.

Gongsun Wuxie was so stunned her chin dropped. Where were the peaceful and calm negotiations Su Yu promised?

Chapter 1259: Entering the Family Mansion

Gongsun Wuxie was shocked by Su Yu’s recklessness. Was he trying to get himself killed?

She grabbed Su Yu’s arm and pulled it back without saying a word, her heart pounding furiously.

“Who would dare to be so bold?” This place was, after all, one of the top ten mansions of the Anti-demon Families. Now that it seemed that he had insulted the family, how could he possibly be let off so easily?

The guards within the mansion grounds turned around and flew out past the mansion walls, trapping them. They had a murderous look.

At this moment, an old housekeeper in a green soap gown hurriedly appeared and screamed, “How could this even happen?!”

It was not like nobody dared to abuse the anti-demon gods behind their backs. However, those who actually had the guts to come forward to the mansion and insult them directly were rare. The housekeeper had lived here for a few years, and this was the first time she had witnessed this.

Su Yu stood upright, arms folded across his chest, and said lightly, “Are you Gongsun Shan? You are old, yet still lusty.”

“Don’t insult the young master!”

Su Yu frowned. “You are not Gongsun Shan? I asked for Gongsun Shan to come out to meet me, so what are you doing running out here like this?”

“Presumptuous! The young master is of a noble anti-demon family! How dare you insult him? Men, catch him!” With an arrogant madman like Su Yu, severe punishment was necessary to teach him a lesson.

Su Yu snorted and said, “A mere descendant of the gods! He is not even in my league!”

Whoosh...

He flipped his palm, and a token full of divine power flashed in it.

A few guards who rushed over raised their eyebrows and stopped abruptly. They looked very startled.

The housekeeper was also stunned. "Divine power... Are you a god?"

"Well, I'm an acting god! How about that? If your young master pays such close attention to rank, shouldn't he come out to greet me? When a god visits, don't you think it would be appropriate?"

The housekeeper was astonished. A god was not a being a mere housekeeper could afford to offend.

However, the housekeeper thought for a while and said, "May I ask which Acting God you are?"

There were several acting gods in the Great Western Alliance, but none of them was this young.

"Great Eastern Alliance Crane God acting deity."

The housekeeper nodded and simpered, "Oh, Crane God acting deity! I am so sorry for the disrespect... wait, where are you from? Great Eastern Alliance?"

"Where else?" Su Yu said coldly.

The awe on the housekeeper's face was replaced by horror, then laughter. "An acting deity of the Great Eastern Alliance! To think that you would come here to the Great Western Alliance!"

"Men, hold him down!" The housekeeper ordered.

To be an acting god was really amazing. However, if this acting god was from the Great Eastern Alliance, his specific identity was not worth mentioning.

The guards who surrounded Su Yu gathered their courage and rushed forward again.

They were all strong and in the realm of the dust fairy. With resolute temperaments and excellent training, they were all elite soldiers.

They soon approached Su Yu and were within three feet of him. Su Yu was covered with golden light, turned into a golden dragon and swept them all down.

It was as if an autumn wind swept through fallen leaves. The guards were all turned upside down and flew back into the mansion.

The dragon then landed and Su Yu returned to his body, leaving a touch of golden light upon him, much like a golden Buddha statue.

"Since Gongsun Deity and Gongsun Shan are unwilling to greet me, I guess I have no choice but to come into your mansion as an uninvited guest."

The housekeeper's mouth twitched. This insolent acting god would call this being a guest?

"Stop! Before you make a big mistake, there is still the possibility of redemption. If you step into the house of the Anti-demon Family, the Great Western Alliance will have no place for you in the future!"

Su Yu turned a deaf ear to this and walked straight into the mansion, saying: "First, the family who seized someone's wife, killed innocent people, and tore up families, is not qualified to redeem me!"

Second, whether I have a place in the Great Western Alliance is not for you to determine! Even the Gongsun family is not allowed to determine that. Only I, Su Yu, can decide for myself!"

Gongsun Wuxie opened her small mouth so wide one could almost stuff an egg inside.

When did he become so powerful? As a single person, he was able to wipe out more than a dozen strong men in the realm of the dust fairy? Among them, there was no shortage of those at the peak realm of the dust fairy!

She vividly remembered that during the time she spent on Jiuzhou mainland, Su Yu was in danger of death fighting head-on with the Central Prefecture King.

Just a few years had passed; how could his power have been so enhanced?

Moreover, where did the condescending disdain for the family of gods come from?

They met again, but Gongsun Wuxie found that the Su Yu in front of her was different and distant. She did not recognize him.

Things have developed to the point where, even if she persuaded him to change his plans, it would do nothing to improve the situation. She took in a deep breath, raised her head high to follow Su Yu, and entered the feared and hated Gongsun family mansion.

"Stop him!" The housekeeper was desperate.

Those who showed disrespect to the Gongsun family would be forever damned!

This time around, four early-stage quasi-gods appeared. They were much like four King Kongs, glaring at Su Yu.

"Breaking into Gongsun Deity's family mansion? It's against the law!"

Su Yu glanced at them and said, "I am looking for Gongsun Deity and his son. This has nothing to do with you, so back off."

"What a joke! Do you really think we will stand aside simply because you said so?"

Unexpectedly, Su Yu, who was in front of them, flashed in all colors and suddenly disappeared into thin air.

Almost at the same time, they felt that a cold chill around them. Then, a strong metallic atmosphere burst out of nowhere.

The next moment, each of them took a severe beating. It was as if a god hit them until they were nearly dead.

"When I tell you to retreat, you must retreat!" Su Yu turned his back on them, looking deep into the mansion and walking across the span of the house.

The four early-stage quasi-gods were so horrified that they forgot to breathe. They couldn't quite believe what had just happened.

The punching was not merely powerful; it contained divine power!

Was that really someone from the third Realm of Dust Fairy?

Gongsun Wuxie was also stunned. Su Yu had beaten the early-stage quasi-gods seemingly without effort. How strong was he now?

Walking past the four early-stage quasi-gods, Gongsun Wuxie chased after Su Yu all the way, trying in vain to keep up with him.

The housekeeper rushed over and was taken aback: "Can't you stop them?"

Seeing that it was an emergency, she took out a conch-shaped instrument from her neck and immediately blew into it.

There was a loud, trumpet-like sound.

The deep, loud sound rapidly penetrated the air and spread up and down the entire mansion.

This was the first-level alert signal of the mansion, which would only be blown when Demons invaded.

The response from the guards in the mansion was extremely rapid. They immediately took off from a high altitude to scan the entire area.

They easily found two unusual beings ramming their way through the mansion, and the guards seeking to stop them along the way were all beaten.

"There is an enemy attack!" The guards were now on high alert and swarmed the area overwhelmingly.

Suddenly, even though the midday sun was illuminating the land, all fell into darkness.

"Go!" Su Yu didn't even bother to look as he waved his hand.

The earth behind him suddenly turned into waves and the prohibition that should have protected the mansion was torn apart and destroyed.

It was as if there was something huge, like an enormous animal, waking up underground.

Whoosh...

Suddenly, a towering giant tree slowly rose from the ground. Its huge canopy covered the sky and shaded the land beneath it.

Hundreds of branches rapidly stretched out from the giant tree, each of them sweeping at the air like a whip.

There were sounds of piercing screams. Black pressure from the sky was crushing the guards. Then the dark clouds scattered and soon disappeared.

In mere moments, the entire Gongsun family house was razed to the ground!

However, the creator of this destruction did not seem to have any intention to stop. Instead, he glanced into the center of the mansion and brazenly walked towards it.

Chapter 1260: Casting Out One's Inner Demons

There, Su Yu felt the strongest aura in the mansion, a middle stage prospective deity!

Although there was a huge commotion, he remained unmoved. The only explanation for this was that he was at a critical juncture of his cultivation.

“Stop him! Don’t let him take another step forward!” The housekeeper yelled.

However, given Su Yu’s vast experiences and prowess, who could stop him? Who dared to stop him?

He destroyed everything in his way, and most of the mansion was razed to the ground.

Su Yu walked to the entrance of the secret basement that was heavily guarded by soldiers.

The two early-stage prospective deities there were calm and composed.

Despite the huge ruckus, they were still guarding the place firmly. It could be deduced that the middle stage prospective deity in the room behind was of an extraordinary status.

“It looks like Gongsun Shan is inside, undoubtedly,” Su Yu said to himself. His eyes then swept towards the two guards. “This has nothing to do with you. Move away!”

Without waiting for the two early-stage prospective deities to make their moves, Su Yu blasted them away with the power of his five-colored divine light.

Apart from the guards, the huge stone gates behind them were also blown to pieces by Su Yu’s power.

Su Yu marched forward, making his way underground without hesitation. He walked down a long flight of stairs to reach the underground chamber.

It was a vast cavernous space. There was a boiling blood pool, and sitting in it was a young man with a stout body.

He looked to be in his thirties. His skin was dark and his face wore a fearsome look. His pose gave off a menacing aura that was most visible between his brows.

On top of his head, traces of blood-red threads were continuously extracted from the top of his skull.

Every time a thread was extracted, his form became even more imposing.

“Oh? What a coincidence, are you trying to break through to become a late-stage prospective deity?” Su Yu said, glaring at the blood-red silky threads coldly.

Those blood-red threads were intertwined with the soul realm.

Every time a thread was drawn, it would show signs of struggle before releasing a trace of demonic energy.

Su Yu was no stranger to this phenomenon, especially since he had just returned from the Demon Clan. These were his inner demons.

Long-term obsession and depression could give birth to inner demons, hindering cultivation and the ability to comprehend.

The man had to resolve his long-term obsession and depression before he could begin to dissolve his inner demons.

Judging from his increasingly magnificent form, he was supposed to be able to break through to become a late-stage prospective deity soon.

Dong Dong Dong!

Gongsun Wuxie trotted along a narrow path, and when she witnessed the scene, her beautiful eyes started to fill with hatred. "Gongsun Shan!"

"After torturing my father to death, have you finally vented your years of grievances and started to break through?" Gongsun Wuxie's body was trembling as she recalled her father's inhuman torture before his death, his face beyond recognition and his heart full of pain.

With a sudden move, Gongsun Wuxie rushed forward, intending to interrupt his breakthrough.

As soon as she moved, Su Yu gently caught her shoulders. "Don't act rashly. He has an enchantment surrounding him created by the Gongsun God. If you rush over, you will only burn to death on the spot."

With a flick of his fingers, a ray of Mortal Fairy's Strength shot towards Gongsun Shan.

Within a hundred feet, it started to ripple away, as if hitting a soft film.

Then, the Mortal Fairy's Strength simply burned to nothingness silently.

If the Mortal Fairy's Strength were not effective, how would a mere Gongsun Wuxie possibly do much more?

"Heh, I wondered who was creating trouble in the Gongsun Mansion. Turned out it was you, along with this barbaric man from nowhere," Gongsun Shan opened his eyes and sneered.

"Gongsun Shan!" Gongsun Wuxie could not restrain her killing intent, and her hatred went through the roof.

"Hehe, your expression is exactly like your father's when he was dying! It's really pleasing to see!" Gongsun Shan's mouth curled into a cruel grin.

"Do you know how your father was like when he was tortured in the end? He was begging me!" Gongsun Shan smiled savagely and laughed wildly, the blood-red threads in his body extracting even faster.

"He begged me not to hurt you anymore. I refused. I told him that after he died, I would kill you. It would be a hundred times more miserable than what I did to him, and I said I would toss you to the demons to eat you alive!" Gongsun Shan said. "So, he regretted it, regretted your birth and giving you such a miserable and painful life!"

"That scene was simply wonderful! Hahahaha!" Immersed in the thrill of revenge, Gongsun Shan's inner demons were extracted even faster and his momentum soared sharply.

Tears filled the eyes of Gongsun Wuxie. Her father had died so painfully and his final thoughts were actually about protecting her?

“You beast!” Gongsun Wuxie clenched her fists tightly, her former lively and charming eyes gone. Only hatred remained.

For too long, she had been living with hatred and pain.

“This is ridiculous! Your father took away my woman, got together with her and gave birth to a bastard child like you, making me a joke in the Great Western Alliance. Do you know how many people still laugh at me? Do you all know how ashamed I had been all these years?” Gongsun Shan shouted, his eyes brimming with hatred. “Your father’s selfish actions had hurt me so much, did you all forget it?”

“Hahaha...”

Suddenly, Su Yu, who had not spoken before, laughed.

Gongsun Shan asked coldly, “What are you laughing at?”

“It’s funny that the heir cultivated by your Gongsun family is so insufferable!” Su Yu laughed. “Pot calling the kettle black!”

“At that time, it was clear that you were jealous and lustful and opposed their marriage. In the end, you were unsuccessful and made yourself into a joke. You were not regretful, even blaming the innocent father for being selfish? According to your theory, if I fancy your woman, you are not allowed to resist; resistance is selfishness and would hurt me? ”

“Surely this kind of self-centered ugly character can only be cultivated by the Gongsun family.”

Gongsun Shan did not take it seriously. “What is my status? What was that bastard’s status? Only my status was worthy of the marriage! Marrying me would be good not only for Fei Er, but for the entire Gongsun family, and even more so for the Alliance Master!”

After listening to such ridiculous and warped logic, Su Yu shook his head.

This kind of self-intoxicated egocentric thinking was something that words simply could not describe.

“I don’t know who you are, but since you dared to break into the Gongsun mansion, I presume you are ready for death?” Gongsun Shan laughed and said, “When I break through to become a late-stage prospective deity, I will kill you myself, oh, and in front of Wuxie too. The look of despair on her face would really be wonderful. ”

Su Yu shrugged. “Speaking of which, you are very confident in dissolving your inner demons and breaking through to a late-stage prospective deity.”

“Of course! From my suppression to this release, my heart had finally untied itself after so many years, allowing me to break through to the late-stage prospective deity; all thanks to the miserable end of this pair of father and daughter, hahaha!” Gongsun Shan continued laughing. “Once I come out, you two will have a taste of unbearable pain.”

Su Yu rubbed his chin. “That’s strange. Wuxie’s father hasn’t died, but you are so happy. Alas, ‘your woman’ is finally going to be married to him. Have you accepted this fact and therefore your heart was finally untied?”

What?

Gongsun Wuxie trembled. Her father was not dead?

“Haha, this is a joke. I personally tortured him to death. You don’t need to bluff here and affect my breakthrough! I will break through to the late-stage prospective deity. It is inevitable. No one can stop it!” Gongsun Shan smiled, treating it as a joke.

“I never lie,” Su Yu also smiled, and an emerald dragon floated from his left palm and landed on the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl on his arm.

In the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl, under rays of emerald light, a human figure was gradually appearing.

Calm and restrained, it was none other than the Duanxian Cliffmaster.

There were ten true dragon spirit tendons that Duanxian Cliffmaster had cultivated in the body of Su Yu. As long as even the tiniest breath remained, it was easy for him to perform the resurrection.

Duanxian Cliffmaster was bewildered, and the pain from before his death still remained on his face. “Where am I?”

“Duanxian Cliffmaster, by order of the master, I am here to relay information to you.”

“Master? Who?”

“Su Yu!”

The pupils of Duanxian Cliffmaster began to dilate.

“The master used his great mystical power to recover your body and soul and reshape your body back together when you were on the brink of death. Now, he is waiting for you outside.”

After the words were spoken, the space surrounding him diffused, and the dumbfounded Duanxian Cliffmaster rolled out.

Almost immediately, his eyes caught Su Yu’s familiar appearance.

Although he still had several questions, he sensed that the words he heard just now were true, and said, “Thank you for your help, Su Yu!”

“Father... Father!” Gongsun Wuxie uttered in shock.

She had seen her father's body and it was clear as day that he had already passed away. How come did he suddenly appear beside Su Yu?

Duanxian Cliffmaster's body shook and he suddenly looked up, tears welling up in his eyes. He hugged Gongsun Wuxie tightly. "Wuxie, you... you are fine!"

"It was Brother Su Yu who saved me, father. How come are you still alive?" Gongsun Wuxie muttered, still unable to believe the scene in front of her.

Duanxian Cliffmaster was stunned. "It's Mr. Su Yu...he rescued me when I was on the verge of death, using his great magical power."

Although he could not explain how he did it, it was the only possibility.

The father and daughter were reunited, safe and sound.

Meanwhile, this warm scene had incurred someone's wrath.

Puff!

A mouthful of blood spurted out, and Gongsun Shan, who was violently agitated, was unable to comprehend the situation that unfolded in front of him. The inner demons swiftly poured back into his body, and the blood flow reversed, causing him to spit out blood.

"Oh? Dear Gongsun Shan is also happy that the father and daughter were reunited? You are so excited that you just vomited blood..."

"Impossible!" Gongsun Shan said with blood in his mouth as his eyes widened.

Su Yu said, "Nothing is impossible. I used my great powers to recover his soul and reshape his physical body. What is so impossible about that?"

Waving his hands, he said, "Well, I will take both father and daughter to meet The Eighth Lady. The family will be reunited. Gongsun Shan, my buddy, you can now slowly continue to cultivate."

After Gongsun Shan heard his words, the blood flowed back even more rapidly, and all his previous hard work was irrevocably lost in the blink of an eye!

Staring at the father and daughter who were both safe and sound, the shame in his heart began to surface again.

He simply could not afford to let them go. Otherwise, he would be an even bigger laughing stock.

Boom!

With a loud noise, Gongsun Shan broke the enchantment set up by the Gongsun Deity.

"Don't even think about leaving!" Gongsun Shan bellowed in a deep, low-pitched and angry tone.

At the same time, there was also an oppressive divine power suffocating the father and daughter.

"You puny ants, this time I will make sure to kill you once and for all!" With a roar, Gongsun Shan shimmered like a ghost, and his divine power turned into a hundred-pound golden spear soaring through the sky, intending to annihilate the father and daughter, as along with Su Yu, altogether.

Boom!

Su Yu smirked. He had successfully fooled Gongsun Shan and made him get out of the enchantment that was protecting him.

His whole body flashed with golden lights, and the gold of the five elements covered both fists. At the same time, the two Celestial Energies in his body released their divine power. They all condensed into one punch that met the golden spear head-on.

Boom Boom!

The golden spear smashed into pieces. The golden fist was like a dragon, impacting the spear that broke like bamboo in front of Gongsun Shan's chest.

Bang!

There was a loud noise, and Gongsun Shan, like a smashed fly, slammed into the stone wall of the underground secret chamber, trembling fiercely.

Gongsun Shan could not believe it. "This divine power... you... who are you?"
