Chapter 1261: Boundless Pride

He was just at the cultivation of the Mortal Fairy of Three Realms, so how could he possibly exert such divine power?

“Eh? I did not manage to blast your body to bits? Do you have a great defense artifact on you? Is it an imitator of the emperor-based saint artifact?” Su Yu’s expression became calm.

Gongsun Shan was taken aback. “You can take them away, I would not stop you, but if you forced me to retaliate, then the outcome would only be you dead and me alive!”

“You would be dead and I would be alive!” Su Yu glared coldly and moved forward.

With a shrouded history, the divine power of the Strength of Five Elements was overwhelming.

After several ages of refinement, even the gods could only suppress one or two of the elements. How would a middle stage prospective deity possibly fare any better?

Ahh...

Feeling intense oppression, Gongsun Shan shouted loudly. He bent his legs and raised his arms.

However, when the Strength of the Five Elements came pressing down, his legs were crushed and the breaking of bones could be heard. He was in pain and screaming. Pinned to the ground by the Strength of the Five Elements, he could no longer move.

Walking in front of him, Su Yu said lightly, “Tell me now, who had you wanted to torment Gongsun Wuxie?”

Gongsun Shan was in fear. Only now did he know the kind of powerful being he was facing!

He raised both his hands and feet but he was unable to put up any form of resistance. Even a late-stage prospective deity would not be able to withstand this!

“You... are you a god?”

Su Yu touched his chin: “Oh, I guess you can say so. A deity acting on behalf of the Great Eastern Alliance.”

Gongsun Shan’s heart beat profusely. Becoming the acting deity of an alliance meant that Su Yu’s strength was comparable to that of the primeval gods.

His eyes glanced at Gongsun Wuxie faintly. Restraining his hatred, he said softly, “To think this wretched girl actually had connections to an acting deity!”

However, his face was begging for mercy: “I will no longer hold the father and daughter accountable, all the grudges will be dissolved, I swear!”

If he could not pursue this matter, his father could pursue it on his behalf!

“Haha...” Su Yu laughed. “Even on the brink of death, you never change. You still think they owe you!”

Su Yu went on: "You persecuted them in the past, causing their family to split up. Now they are persecuted again; you tormented Duanxian Cliffmaster to death, and sent Gongsun Wuxie to the Demon Clan! These two debts that you owed them... have you never thought about it? "

"I..." Gongsun Shan's eyes turned sharply, secretly filled with hatred. The father and daughter deserved retribution, but his face had to appear remorseful: "Yes, I was wrong..."

"Forget it; one's nature is difficult to change. If you could earn forgiveness by merely saying a few words, it would be too easy."

"Then what do you want?"

"Of course, a tooth for a tooth, an eye for an eye." Su Yu flicked his fingers and the force of the Five Elements pressed down even harder.

While he was screaming like a slaughtered pig, Gongsun Shan's body was crushed completely, leaving only his soul and Divine God Source Origin.

Swoosh...

As Su Yu turned the palm of his hand, there was a flash and a black cage appeared on it. It was the demonic god's cage.

A ray of demonic light flashed, and Gongsun Shan's soul was sucked away.

After losing his body, Gongsun Shan knew that Su Yu would never release him. His expression became savage, and he shouted, "Bastard! My father will not let you go!"

"Oh, don't worry, I will reunite your father with his son soon."

As soon as the demonic light dissipated, his soul was captured. Soon, loud screams were heard as his consciousness was quickly wiped away by the cage.

Soon after, the screams ceased, and a bunch of Celestial Energy that lost its master flew out.

Su Yu held it in his palm for a while and looked back at Duanxian Cliffmaster. "Here, I shall give you a chance to become a deity."

Upon saying that, he threw it to Duanxian Cliffmaster.

"What, are you giving it to me? This..." The hands of the Duanxian Cliffmaster shivered. He could not believe that Su Yu gave him such precious Celestial Energy.

"Oh? If you can become a deity yourself, you won't need it." The deity that seizes others' Celestial Energy to become a god himself would occupy a low godly position. Such a god was called an artificial deity and would be much weaker than ordinary gods.

Duanxian Cliffmaster said eagerly, "Yes! I do need it! How could I not need it?"

Becoming a deity was the dream of all the strong Mortal Fairies.

“But can I give it to Wuxie? She failed to inherit the divine blood of the Gongsun and has no hope of becoming a deity.”

Su Yu casually said, “You use it yourself. When Wuxie cultivates herself to become a Spire Mortal Deity, I will find another one for her.”

The way Su Yu said it, it sounded like getting Celestial Energies from early-stage prospective deities was as easy as pie.

Recalling how Su Yu managed to suppress Gongsun Shan so easily earlier on, it was natural that both father and daughter were surprised by what they witnessed.

In the Great Eastern Alliance, Su Yu was a well-known figure. The father and daughter knew it, but they did not imagine him to be so powerful, easily killing off a middle stage prospective deity.

It was obvious that in the two years since Su Yu left, his strength got a massive upgrade.

“Come on, let’s go.” Su Yu strode out of the underground secret room, looking around at the guards who did not dare to approach him.

His eyes flickered and spotted the housekeeper hiding in the distance.

Swoosh...

With a flash of five-colored divine light, Su Yu teleported in front of her, grabbed her shoulders, and asked coldly, “Where is the Gongsun Deity?”

There was no trace of him in the mansion.

The housekeeper trembled as if she was going to die and muttered, “He... he is holding an alliance meeting.”

Alliance meeting? No wonder that even with such a huge commotion, no deities appeared.

Pushing the housekeeper away, Su Yu said, “Forget it, I will respect the Alliance; I will not go and create a ruckus where they are! When Gongsun Deity comes back, tell him that I took away his precious son. If he wants him back, he can find me at Jiuli Cavern World! ”

After that, he took off with the father and daughter.

No one dared to chase after him. Everyone was rooted to the ground.

“Damn! This is crazy! What is he talking about? Respect the Alliance? Not make a scene at the meeting?”

“I’m going. I had seen enough! Such arrogance, disrespecting the Gongsun family... he took away the young master, and is asking the Gongsun Deity to meet with him!”

“Yeah, it’s so damn crazy. Who would have expected this?”

...

The housekeeper’s face was grim. She looked around at the destroyed mansion, and her heart sank.

A lowly acting god managed to destroy the Gongsun’s family house in such a devastating manner and even took the young master away.

This was such a disgrace, even more so than back when clan members fled to marry privately!

In the housekeeper's mind, she was only thinking of how to make up for the losses.

"Everyone, shut up!" She overheard the guards gossiping. They were becoming more and more talkative. The housekeeper scolded: "Send someone to the Palace of the Alliance now, and immediately inform the master out of what happened!"

From the housekeeper's point of view, it seemed as though the sky was falling.

"In addition, all the happenings here are confidential and must not be exposed!" She warned sternly.

However, looking at the number of people watching from afar, the housekeeper's heart was bitter.

A commotion had broken out within the Alliance City.

The Gongsun family, one of the top ten demons subduing families, was attacked by a mysterious person. Not only was their mansion destroyed, but their young master was taken away as well!

Even more absurd was that he asked Gongsun Deity to go to Jiuli Cavern World to recover the young master.

"Hello, have you heard? There was a badass fellow in the Alliance City!"

"Huh? He is the proxy deity of the Great Eastern Alliance, right? The one that single-handedly flattened the Gongsun mansion and kidnapped the young master? Come on! That is not fresh news anymore! I heard that many of the Alliance's strongmen are now rushing to Jiuli Cavern World to see what he is like. "

"Why do you think the proxy deity of the Great Eastern Alliance is so daring? I have lived for a long time, and the audacity to attack an anti-demon family is simply unheard of!"

"What's so great about that? He only caused a big upset when Gongsun Deity was not at home!"

"Idiot! If that were the case, would you call the Gongsun Deity to come and recover his young master? According to the people who returned from Jiuli Cavern World, he is waiting for him there right now!"

"Damn! The Great Western Alliance is going to get lively. Let us hurry over to see what will unfold."

Jiuli Cavern World, an independent Cavern World not far from the Great Western Alliance, was invaded by the demons many years ago.

The Jiuli Deity had fallen, and most of the Cavern World was devoured. Only a small part of it remained.

In the barren mountain range stood a dilapidated gazebo.

Su Yu sat cross-legged, waiting patiently for Gongsun Deity.

Suddenly, several unidentified strong men came one after another toward the area, but they were afraid to approach within a thousand feet of the mountains.

A thick red line appeared, forming a circle, surrounding the mountains at a radius of a thousand feet.

Within the circle, the bodies of several strong Mortal Fairies were scattered.

“What? That is the famous Tu Mo... how did he die here?” Some latecomers glimpsed just one of the corpses and started feeling really uneasy.

“How, you asked? Not heeding warnings, he went inside the circle rashly; it would get you killed in one shot!”

“What a pity! Although Tu Mo tended to be rude, it is a pity that such a powerful Spire Mortal Fairy has died in this manner!”

“Eh, if that’s a pity, wouldn’t the one over there be even more so?”

Following his gaze, the latter became numb and trembled. “Early-stage prospective deity! The third-ranked Lang Lixing of the Great Western Alliance’s wandering martial artists? He specialized in flying evasive techniques but was killed?”

” Lang Lixing thought his evasive techniques were formidable. He tried to provoke the proxy deity of the Eastern Alliance by sneaking in and then running away. In the end, before he even got half his foot in, the proxy god teleported instantly and wiped him out, stripping his Celestial Energy away! ”

“Pfft! Teleportation! He’s just a Mortal Fairy of the Three Realms!”

“Hey, anyway, after this happened and no one dares to approach the circle anymore.”

At the gazebo...

The Gongsun father and daughter saw more and more strong men gathering and began to feel uneasy.

Things seemed to get out of control!

“Brother Su, why don’t we just let it go? Anyway, I am still alive, Wuxie is safe and sound and Gongsun Shan has already been punished. Why should we still challenge that Gongsun Deity? Let us return to the Eastern Alliance. I don’t think he will continue chasing us once we are back with the Alliance.”

Su Yu said lightly, ” I did not come here to fight Gongsun Deity head-on, but to calmly negotiate with him.”

Upon hearing this, Gongsun Wuxie reeled.

Calmly negotiate? By ruining his mansion and then taking away his son?

What kind of peaceful negotiation was that?

“If Gongsun Deity really came and turned out to be unreasonable, would Brother Su be capable of dealing with him?”

Su Yu said, “Who am I? The proxy deity of the Eastern Alliance. Why should I be afraid of him if he is a deity of a similar level too?”

Duanxian Cliffmaster thought to himself, Are the divine positions the two of them occupy actually comparable?

With utmost uneasiness, they waited and watched silently as more and more people of the Western Alliance gathered.

In a hall at the Alliance Palace that was now placed under restrictions, the Western Alliance leader, the top ten family heads, and major deities were discussing the situation intensely.

Chapter 1262: A Meeting of Deities

“I guess all of you have known the sudden change in the Realm of Demons. Although we can’t figure out the reason, that giant really reached its finger out of the Realm of Demons!” A majestic middle-aged man, who was sitting at the head of the table, showed a scene in this palm.

It was the scene when Su Yu and his teammates were defeated by the giant who attacked them from the Realm of Demons.

“Guys, any comments?” The Alliance Master looked at a brown-faced middle-aged man who was sitting at the end of the table.

Seeing that, the middle-aged man said immediately, “I have something to say!”

The Alliance Master said with a smile, “Gongsun Deity, please!”

The rest deities in this area just looked on coldly as bystanders. They knew the relationship between the Alliance Master and the Gongsun Family was pretty good. The Alliance Master offered an opportunity to the Gongsun Family, of which the rank was lowest to stand out intentionally.

“First, we should find out the target of the giant! The giant seldom attacks its target who is outside the Realm of Demons, which means the target must be very important for the Realm of Demons. Therefore, we could get crucial information about the Realm of Demons from this target!”

“Second, we should check the Rebuking Sound, which scared away the giant from the Realm of Demons! This guy must be an extremely powerful expert who could provide us with great help in fighting against the Demon Clan!”

“Third, turmoil must have happened in the Realm of Demons. So, we have to take precautionary measures against it!”

Hearing that, the Alliance Master said approvingly, "His suggestion is exactly what I want to say! Guys, anything else you want to add?"

The rest family masters became speechless. Most of them had just known this issue and had no idea about the details of it. What could they suggest now?

However, Gongsun Deity met the Alliance Master secretly before this meeting. So, he could bring forth feasible suggestions because he had acquired the details of this issue.

In front of those speechless deities, Gongsun Deity smiled complacently.

With the secret help of the Alliance Master, the Gongsun Family realized great progress in recent years. They accumulated strength in secret. The meritorious service they rendered even made the top three families jealous.

It was highly possible that the Gongsun Family could enter the top five several years later.

"If you don't have more suggestions, let's start to perform a thorough investigation according to this plan!" The Alliance Master gave the final word of this meeting.

Suddenly, an indolent voice came in. "Gongsun Deity, you suggested improving preparedness. But why haven't you reached an agreement with the envoy of the Eastern Alliance? You haven't realized any progress in the past half year!"

Those deities smiled secretly in their heart after hearing this. The one who brought forth this question was the master of the Glittering Family, which ranked in fifth place.

Unsurprisingly, the position of the Glittering Family would be occupied by the Gongsun Family several years later.

The Glittering Family was a powerful family that was more powerful than the Gongsun Family. However, the Glittering Family was hindered by the Alliance Master, who showed partiality for the Gongsun Family. How could the Glittering Family stay calm in such a situation?

Therefore, a lot of conflicts occurred between the Glittering Family and the Gongsun Family.

Hearing this, Gongsun Deity frowned. "To form an alliance with the Eastern Alliance is an important decision to make. So, the negotiation is very time-consuming!"

"Heh! Heh! I've heard that the negotiation is in a stalemate because of your precious lascivious son who tried to marry the daughter of the Sheng Deity forcibly! But this careful and cautious negotiation really matches the style of your family!" the Glittering Deity said with a thoughtful smile.

Hearing this, the rest deities couldn't help but smile no matter how hard they tried to smother their laughter.

They had heard of this issue before. The Eastern Alliance sent an envoy to form an alliance. All deities of the Western Alliance had no excuse to lodge an objection to this proposal.

However, no progress was realized in the negotiation in the past half-year. The deities knew a thing or two about the reason. Besides the harsh requirements of the Eastern Alliance, the main reason was the trouble made by the Gongsun Family, which was responsible for the negotiation.

Gongsun Deity tried to turn the Gongsun Family into the belt of forming an alliance between the Eastern Alliance and the Western Alliance. So, as the representative of the Western Alliance, Gongsun Deity proposed a marriage between his son and the daughter of the Sheng Deity, who was the representative of the Eastern Alliance.

His son, Gongsun Shan, liked Sheng Yuanxin, who was the daughter of the Sheng Deity very much. So he urged his father to propose this marriage.

This unreasonable proposal was rejected by the Eastern Alliance immediately.

It was not a secret, and Gongsun Deity was not able to deny it. So, he could only snort at this moment. "Humph! My proposal is for the sake of the two alliances! In this way, we can enhance mutual trust!"

"Oh? Why do you choose your precious son to undertake such an important task? The young sovereigns of our Glittering Family are much better than your lascivious son!"

The words of Glittering Deity caused much loud laughter.

Gongsun Shan's well-known scandal in the past had become a sheer humiliation of the Gongsun Family.

"Glittering Deity! Please mind your words!" Gongsun Deity said gloomily as he darkened his face.

Hearing this, Glittering Deity replied with a burst of laughter. "This is a scandal of your family! Why can't I talk about it? How rude and unreasonable you are!"

Frankly speaking, many big families didn't like the Gongsun Family. So, nobody in this area stepped out to speak for the Gongsun Family at that moment.

Suddenly, Gongsun Deity rolled his eyes and said with a disdainful smile, "So, don't you have any scandal? Your ancestors sought refuge with the Demon Clan and became Demonic Gods, right? I didn't expect a disloyal family like yours could gain the honor of Anti-Demon Family! It will only bring humiliation to the rest families here!"

Hearing this, Glittering Deity became speechless and didn't retort Gongsun Deity.

Ten thousand years ago, Linlang Hongchen, an extraordinary sovereign of the Glittering Family, betrayed the Western Alliance and joined the Demon Clan. Her betrayal ruined the reputation of the Glittering Family completely.

Till now, members of the Glittering Family didn't know what to say when this issue was mentioned by others.

Because it was a fact.

The Glittering Family kept rendering meritorious services in fighting against the Demon Clan. According to their strength and services, they should have entered the top three and even became the number one anti-demon family!

However, because of this scandal, the Glittering Family only ranked fifth now.

“Heh! Heh! You don’t know what to say now, right?” Gongsun Deity said with a cold smile. “I suggest the honor of the anti-demon family of the Glittering Family should be deprived...”

“Enough!” An old and indifferent voice came in and interrupted Gongsun Deity.

Hearing this, those deities turned around immediately.

The one who spoke just now was a white-haired old man who closed his eyes and said nothing from the beginning of the meeting.

However, nobody dared to underestimate him. Even the Alliance Master didn’t dare to act arrogantly in front of this old man.

This old man was Ximen Jian, who was the master of the number one anti-demon family.

The Ximen Family was almost as powerful as the family of the Alliance Master. It was said that together with the hidden strength, the total strength of the Ximen Family had exceeded that of the family of the Alliance Master.

It was also said that the Ximen Family would compete for the position of the Alliance Master during the next ranking of all anti-demon families.

Therefore, the Alliance Master had to take precautions against Ximen Jian.

Then, Ximen Jian opened his old eyes and said as he glanced at Gongsun Deity, “Isn’t it meaningless to mention an issue that occurred 10,000 years ago now? According to your way of thinking, all new anti-demon families here, including your Gongsun Family, were only families of ordinary deities! Then, nobody is qualified to have the honor of an anti-demon family!”

“You kept talking about things that happened in the past and ignored our services in the past 10,000 years! Do you want to disappoint all those who are determined to fight against the Demon Clan?”

Hearing this, Glittering Deity looked at Ximen Jian gratefully.

Many deities shook their head in their heart towards Gongsun Deity.

Gongsun Deity was so embarrassed and angry. But he didn’t dare to lose his temper in front of Ximen Jian.

“From now on, those who dare to utter those words again will be punished by me severely!” Ximen Jian said overbearingly.

His harsh words ruined the atmosphere in the hall!

The Alliance Master had to ease the tension. “Heh! Heh! It is just an argument. Ximen Deity, please calm down!”

“Let’s call it a day now. Feilong Deity is responsible for investigating those who ran out of the Realm of Demons. Wuxin Deity is responsible for finding out the one scared away the giant with that Rebuking Sound. If you don’t have other topics to discuss...”

“Wait!” Ximen Jian interrupted the Alliance Master, “Feilong Deity has another important mission to accomplish. Wuxin Deity has been seriously wounded and is not able to perform an investigation. In front of so many deities of anti-demon families, why did you assign those tasks to those who are not suitable?”

Hearing this, several deities were smiling in their heart secretly.

The Feilong Family, Wuxin Family, and the Gongsun Family stood firmly behind the Alliance Master.

So, almost all important tasks were assigned to them to increase their meritorious services.

Therefore, the rest deities had already become disgruntled.

When Ximen Jian stepped out to lodge an objection, they decided to do their best to support Ximen Jian.

Now seven out of ten big families here didn’t agree with the Alliance Master’s decision. So, the Alliance Master had to reconsider his decision.

“So, who should carry out these tasks?” The Alliance Master, who was quite shrewd, didn’t reveal his mood.

“I will perform an investigation upon the one who scared away the giant with that Rebuking Sound. I guess nobody is better at gathering information than me, right?” Ximen Jian offered his own service.

Seeing this, Glittering Deity also said, “I will check those who ran away from the Realm of Demons. The Glittering Family is the best candidate to accomplish this task. We are very sensitive to the aura of demons. It is highly possible that those who ran away from the Realm of Demons are demons. So, you can count on me!”

The rest four families showed their support after hearing that.

A strand of chilly light flashed in the eyes of the Alliance Master. However, he continued to say amicably, “Great! I am quite happy that the two of you rendered your service for the Western Alliance voluntarily! OK! You can proceed according to your plan!”

The meeting was finished. Those deities had different feelings upon the result of the meeting.

When the seal was opened, all those deities left one after another.

“Heh! Heh! I didn’t expect Ximen Jian, who always keeps a low profile, could step out today! It seems he is really going to strive for the position of the Alliance Master!”

“Sure! His reaction was so obvious today! He provided Glittering Deity with great support today, which means he is planning to win over the Glittering Family!”

“This is interesting! I guess the Alliance Master will have some hard times!”

“I don’t think so! The Alliance Master has prepared his plan for many years. Nobody could defeat him easily! If I were Ximen Jian, I should take precautions against the Alliance Master to avoid any unnecessary risks at this critical moment!" a deity said thoughtfully.

"Hush! We should speak cautiously!"

When those deities walked out of the mansion of the Alliance Master, they received messages from their family almost at the same time.

During the meeting, something serious occurred in Alliance City.

The Gongsun Family was ruined completely.

Gongsun Shan, the successor of this family, was also captured.

More importantly, the one who captured Gongsun Shan asked Gongsun Deity to take back his son in the World of Jiuli Continent.

When those deities received the news, their first reaction was to doubt the authenticity of it.

However, when they checked the mansion of the Gongsun Family, they got the answer from the quiet ruins.

"Hah! Hah! Hah...I am really looking forward to this great show! I didn't expect the precious son of Gongsun Deity could be captured by someone!"

"It is definitely a sheer humiliation for Gongsun Deity! He acted arrogantly during the meeting when his family was ruined by someone!"

"Let's go and have a look at the one who captured Gongsun Shan!"

In the World of the Jiuli Continent, Su Yu opened his eyes slowly.

"I guess they have heard the news!" By playing with the Buddha Beads in his hand, Su Yu said as chilly light flashed in his eyes, "I may spare your son if you repented what you did! If you don't want to accept your failure...Heh! Heh..."

Chapter 1263: The Attack of 10 Deities

"Lord Su, are you sure Gongsun Deity will come here?" The Duanxian Cliff Master said as he furrowed his eyebrows. As more and more onlookers appeared outside this area, he became more anxious.

"He won't come here!" Su Yu replied.

Ah? The Duanxian Cliff Master and his daughter widened their mouth in surprise. Why do you wait here for so long a time when you know he won't come?

"This issue could impair the reputation of Gongsun Deity. So, he would never come here!" Su Yu said as he lit up his eyes as if he had seen what Gongsun Deity was doing now. "I guess he will send his underlings to capture us!"

"Then, why do you..." the Duanxian Cliff Master was totally puzzled.

Su Yu said as he looked at the Duanxian Cliff Master and his daughter, “I am planning to eliminate those underlings first. After the death of Gongsun Deity, his underlings or followers might seek revenge against us. I am not able to save you every time. So, I must be thorough in exterminating evil!”

Actually, Su Yu had another goal. And he didn’t want to tell it to the Duanxian Cliff Master and his daughter before achieving this goal.

After having eye contact, the Duanxian Cliff Master and his daughter reached an agreement that Su Yu had lost his mind.

One deity was able to kill all of them, let alone the ten underlings of Gongsun Deity, who were also deities!

So, they became speechless with a wry smile. Su Yu saved them, and they were willing to go through fire and water together with Su Yu.

The Gongsun Family

Gongsun Deity, who left the Alliance Hall complacently, went back to his mansion when he received the message from his housekeeper.

Standing in front of his mansion, which had been turned into ruins, Gongsun Deity didn’t believe what he saw.

Who the hell is so audacious to ruin the mansion of an anti-demon family?

Moreover, even Gongsun Shan, a Medium Stage prospective deity, was also taken away forcibly!

“This is outrageous!!” Gongsun Deity shouted in a low voice as furious flames raging in his eyes.

His underlings, who came back together with him, stepped out immediately.

“My lord! What should we do now?” Ten deities were standing in front of Gongsun Deity. They were also shocked by the ruins of the mansion.

This guy is too reckless! How could he ruin the mansion of the Gongsun Family?

“An outlaw ruined my mansion and captured Gongsun Shan when I was not here. Now, they are hiding in the World of Jiuli Continent. You should split up. Some of you set up World Destruction Spells. The rest of you go into that world to save Gongsun Shan!”

“World Destruction Spell?” Hearing this, those deities were shocked.

The World Destruction Spell was a spell that could only be made by deities of anti-demon families. This horrible spell could be used to destruct a world.

Once the World Destruction Spells outside a world exploded, the world would be destroyed together with all creatures in it.

Only deities could survive in this kind of world destruction. All the rest creatures were not able to survive.

“My lord, what about the rest creatures? I’ve heard a lot of people have gone to that world...”

“Kill them all! All of them are suspected of being involved with those outlaws!”

Those deities were terrified because they didn’t expect Gongsun Deity even wanted to kill those onlookers.

“What if the outlaws bring forth unreasonable requirements by threatening the life of Gongsun Shan?” A deity who was responsible for saving Gongsun Shan asked.

Gongsun Deity said sinisterly, “We won’t make any compromise! Don’t be afraid of any threats! You and the four rest deities just kill or capture those outlaws! Even they placed a seal in his soul. I am able to force them to tell me the way to remove the seal as long as you bring their souls back to me!”

“What if they have done harm to Gongsun Shan?”

“Humph! They don’t have the guts to do that! They captured Gongsun Shan because they want to threaten me! Don’t worry! Gongsun Shan won’t be hurt by them!”

“Just have it done!”

“As you wish!”

Ten deities left for the World of Jiuli Continent immediately.

As expected, Gongsun Deity didn’t come personally.

It would be a humiliation for him if he was forced to go somewhere by an outlaw.

A lot of onlookers had arrived at the World of Jiuli Continent at this moment.

Among these onlookers, there were ordinary persons and deities who concealed their identity.

“Heh! Heh! I’ve sensed the aura of ten deities!”

“As expected, Gongsun Deity didn’t come here personally!”

“Although I like this guy because he humiliated Gongsun Deity, I don’t want to offend Gongsun Deity for this guy. Let’s go, and I don’t want to stay here anymore!”

...

In a pavilion, Su Yu stood up and looked up at the sky. Then, he said with a faint smile, “All of them have arrived! Good! I can kill all of them once for all!”

“Who has arrived?” The Duanxian Cliff Master’s perception was not as good as Su Yu, although he was a Peak Mortal Fairy. So, he asked in surprise.

Su Yu replied with a smile, “Oh, the underlings of Gongsun Deity, who are also deities!”

“How many deities have arrived?” The Duanxian Cliff Master felt his heart had missed a beat.

“Just ten!”

“Just...ten?” The Duanxian Cliff Master’s eye pupils constricted abruptly after hearing that.

Why do you say “just”? All his underlings have been sent here!

Swish—

At the same time, five deities, whose bodies were covered by divine light, appeared in the World of Jiuli Continent.

It was quite weird that the five rest deities didn’t come into this world. It seemed they were preparing something around this world.

Now, five deities were staring at Su Yu coldly.

“Release Gongsun Shan immediately!” A deity who was responsible for saving Gongsun Shan shouted at this moment.

Su Yu replied as he placed his hands behind his back, “If I release him, you will kill me. If I don’t release him, you will also kill me. There is no difference between these two decisions at all. Tell me, why should I release him?”

“If you release him, I will give you a quick death. Otherwise, your death will be quite miserable!” The deity continued to say coldly, “You have committed a heinous crime by offending an anti-demon family. So, you should accept the fact that you must die today. Just release Dongfang Shan when you still have a chance, so that you could die quickly!”

Hearing this, Su Yu replied calmly, “Then, I will leave you two options! When my mood is still good, you could choose to surrender and join me. Otherwise, all of you will be—killed by me! Now, tell me your choice!”

The leading deity shook his head and didn’t want to reply at all.

“Attack! Ruin their body and capture their soul. Remember, take away all precious items on their body. I guess Gongsun Shan should be hidden in a small world among those precious items!” The leading deity shouted as he dashed forward rapidly. The next moment, he appeared in front of Su Yu.

The four rest deities also rushed towards the Duanxian Cliff Master and his daughter. Apparently, they were going to capture Su Yu and his teammates all at once.

However, five deities sensed extraordinary fluctuation of divine strength at this moment.

Dazzling divine light appeared on Su Yu's arm. Then, five green vines reached out and whipped towards five deities rapidly.

After being knocked by the vines, five deities were knocked back immediately as if they got an electric shock.

"You..." Those deities who tried to save Gongsun Shan shouted as they stared at those vines, "A deity-level expert!"

"Giggle...I haven't seen sunshine for a long time!" A familiar sweet voice came in together with a charming and pretty figure at this time.

A gorgeous, elegant, and graceful woman appeared in front of them.

By wearing an emerald long dress whirling about in the wind, this woman was as beautiful as a fairy maiden.

Then, she said as she looked at Su Yu with a charming smile, "Thanks!"

This woman was the Tree God who had slept for two years.

The water of the Bitter Sea in her body had been absorbed by the Milky Way Star Sand, which had been completely controlled by Su Yu.

Moreover, when she was sleeping, Su Yu planted her in the Supreme Growing Soil, which enhanced her strength when she woke up.

Now, it seemed she was even more powerful than the All-Access Merchant God and the Sheng Deity.

Maybe she was powerful enough to rival the Sixth Princess at this moment!

"My pleasure!" Su Yu replied with a smile. Then, he sensed something different in her charming eyes.

The Tree God looked away and turned to the Duanxian Cliff Master and his daughter.

"Hey! Friends from the Jiuzhou Continent!"

The Duanxian Cliff Master and his daughter were totally shocked, "Are you...the Ancient Tung Tree God?"

Her existence was not a secret.

"Heh! Heh! Please call me Mrs. Su!"

"Mrs...Su?" The Duanxian Cliff Master looked at Su Yu and the Tree God puzzled.

Gongsun Wuxie was also stunned. Then, she started to look at Su Yu sorrowfully.

"Heh! Heh! The little girl is jealous! Don't worry! I will help you! In this way, I could divorce him because of his betrayal and leave him nothing! All his properties are mine! Hah! Hah! Hah..." the Tree God laughed loudly as she placed her hands on her hips carelessly.

“Hey! Wake up!” Su Yu was not surprised by her reaction. “You’d better get rid of these deities first!”

Hearing this, the Tree God started to look at the five deities in front of her carefully. Then, she lit up her eyes and said excitedly, “Heh! Heh! All of you are covered by divine light! I can even see the precious items which are shining in your body! You are wealthier than those poor deities in the Eastern Alliance! Sorry, I have to plunder you!”

Being stared at by the Tree God, the five deities couldn’t help but tremble.

“What are you afraid of? With such a big numerical advantage, we can defeat her easily!” They believed they could even defeat Gongsun Deity in this way.

The Tree God replied with a smile, “Five versus one, right? Heh! Heh...”

Crack!

The next moment, the Tree God appeared among the five deities in the form of a cloud of green light, which was full of magnificent divine strength.

Her divine strength was so powerful that the entire world was trembling in front of it.

Instantly, one deity’s body was smashed by her. His soul was also captured by the Tree God before it could run away.

The Tree God’s attack was so stinging, which meant her strength had been enhanced remarkably.

“What? This woman is as powerful as a master of an anti-demon family!” The leading deity was totally terrified. So, he shouted immediately, “A powerful enemy appears! We need immediate reinforcement!”

Swish! Swish! Swish—

Another five strands of divine light appeared in this area. Now, nine deities were standing in front of the Tree God.

All of them stared at the graceful and elegant woman vigilantly.

“Eight of us attack this woman together and the one rest captures that guy!” The leading deity figured out the weak spot of this woman immediately.

What she is trying to protect is this silver-haired young man who released her just now.

Swish!

A strand of divine light dashed towards Su Yu immediately.

The Tree God, who didn’t move a bit, said, “Be careful!”

“Don’t worry! They can’t kill me!”

“I hope you could be killed by them! As a widow, I can get all of your legacy!”

“Then, why did you remind me just now?”

“Oh, I told the dumbass who is going to attack you to be careful!”

“...”

When that deity approached, Su Yu smiled as a dazzling golden book appeared in his palm.

The Star River Scripture!

Su Yu waved his hand to spray some blood of the demonic god on the book. Then, the Star River Scripture was opened quietly.

Growl!

Along with a deafening roar, a deity-level wild beast rushed out from the book and bumped into the deity who was so close to Su Yu.

Puff—

The deity was knocked back by the wild beast and dropped into the Star River after penetrating this world.

What? A deity-level wild beast?

Those deities who were attacking the Tree God were totally shocked.

“Two of us should work together to capture that guy alive!” The leading deity shouted immediately.

Chapter 1264: Repent and the Shore is at Hand

The Tree God said with a smile, “You’d better take care of yourselves first!”

Then, she rotated her body. Her emerald dress threw out countless emerald light spots that stopped in the sky above this world like numerous stars.

Then, those emerald light spots were connected by green light beams. An enormous light net appeared in the sky and covered all those deities under it.

Seeing this, eight deities were shocked and tried to break the net. However, their divine strength was only powerful enough to shake the net.

“Heh! Heh! Just rest in peace and leave your precious items to me!” Along with a coquettish smile, a miserable scream of a deity came in.

“Ah! Attack! Attack the net together!” The seven rest deities had been scared out of their wits by the powerful Tree God at this moment.

It was a pity that all of them were killed by the Tree God one after another, like lambs to be slaughtered.

The deity who was knocked into the Star River shouted angrily as he dashed back instantly.

“Beast! You are seeking death!”

Rumble—

The deity-level wild beast was not able to rival him. Half of the beast's body was smashed in a head-on collision with that deity.

After all, it was subdued by the Book Deity forcibly. Its strength had been weakened and couldn't rival an ordinary deity.

But the deity-level wild beast was not the only countermeasure of Su Yu.

"Go!" Su Yu threw out the Five Elements Mountain immediately. Then, the mighty mountain stopped above the head of that deity.

When the deity sensed danger, he ran away through teleportation instantly.

It was creepy that the Five Elements Mountain, which had locked its target, started to chase that deity through teleportation.

That deity kept teleporting almost 100 times but failed to shake off the Five Elements Mountain.

At last, along with a reluctant roar, the deity was pressed into the ground by the Five Elements Mountain. Then, his body penetrated this world and dropped into the Star River again.

Now, this deity was only able to use his divine strength slightly. But he was not able to push back the Five Elements Mountain.

This scene shocked everyone here. This little colorful mountain could subdue a deity. What the hell is this thing?

They wouldn't be surprised if they knew the Demonic God of Six Paths had also been subdued by this mountain.

However, only half of the Demonic God of Six Paths' body was pressed into the ground when he was subdued.

This deity was pressed through this world and even deeply into the Star River!

The next moment, that deity-level wild beast dashed towards the deity directly.

Before long, miserable screams came in from the Star River.

After a while, the deity-level wild beast came back with the seriously wounded soul of that deity in its blood-stained mouth.

"Good! Su Yu waved his hand and pressed that seriously wounded soul into his forehead.

Then, an exciting voice came in. "Hah! Hah! A soul of deity! I know you love me! Hah-hah-hah!"

Su Yu's lips twitched a bit when he heard that. Then, he put away the Five Elements Mountain and the Star River Scripture as he looked at those dumbfounded onlookers calmly.

Su Yu used to kill many deities. So, the death of a deity wouldn't bring any surprise to him. Then, he tossed his eyes at the emerald light net.

After being attacked by the Tree God mercilessly, only six wounded deities were left in the light net.

Su Yu walked to the net and looked at those seriously-wounded deities coldly.

Seeing this, all those deities were terrified as if a tiger were staring at them.

When Su Yu killed that deity neatly, all these deities were shocked.

“Do you also want to have fun here?” The Tree God was busy plundering the precious items from the deities killed by her. So, she didn’t want Su Yu to share her trophies.

Hearing this, the remaining six deities were driven in despair.

“Do you still want to make a choice now?” Su Yu asked.

What? The six remaining deities trembled a bit when they heard Su Yu’s words. The leading deity shouted hurriedly as if he had grasped a lifesaving straw, “Please...spare our life, my lord! We...we won’t stand in your way! Please forgive us, mercifully!”

A moment ago, ten deities were still standing in this world overbearingly. Nobody could keep calm when four of them were killed in such a short time!

They knew they would be punished severely if they dared to disobey the order of their master in the strictly hierarchical Western Alliance.

However, those punishments wouldn’t kill them. The two horrible guys in front of them could kill them at any time!

“I gave you a chance to make your choice before. But you didn’t cherish it! Now, you have lost that chance forever!” Su Yu said coldly, “Now, you still have two options. First, you surrender and join me! Second, she will kill all of you and take away all your precious items! Now, tell me your choice!”

Surrender and join you? Those deities knew it was only a little bit better than death!

“Could we...” the leading deity still tried to bargain.

“No, you can’t! Don’t try to take a chance. If you don’t believe I can kill all of you, you could choose to resist to the end!”

Are you kidding? You have killed a lot of deities! We believe you have the ability to kill us!

After making eye contact, the six deities became speechless helplessly.

They didn’t want to die here. Otherwise, their family would definitely decline after their death.

“No! I haven’t finished my plunder yet. These guys are so wealthy, and you have no idea how poor I am...” the Tree God lodged her objection immediately.

Su Yu replied snappily, “Do you still want to perform training in the Supreme Growing Soil?”

“Of course!”

“Place the seal in their soul and stop killing them!”

“Could I kill one more? Please, just one! I am too poor..”

“No, you can’t!” Su Yu replied by staring at her.

“Humph! How stingy you are!” The Tree God stomped her feet angrily. Then, she placed seals in the soul of those deities snappily.

This horrible woman was so eager to kill those deities, so they did their best to avoid offending her. Before she walked to them, all of them opened their soul and lowered their head to avoid making eye contact with her.

After placing seals in their soul, the Tree God walked back snappily. Then, she placed six emerald seals into Su Yu’s palm.

“These are unique seals of the Ancient Tung Tree God. Unless they could find another Ancient Tung Tree God, they could never remove these seals!” the Tree God said.

Deities who were good at Five Elements had unique specialties in sealing art.

Most wood element deities were good at sealing. The Tree God used to help Su Yu to seal the curse left by the Central Prefecture’s King, which could reveal her extraordinary skill in this field.

The Tree God frowned as she looked at Su Yu’s chest. “When you have time, I will solidify the seal for you again. When I placed this seal, I was not powerful enough. So, the seal is not able to shield the curse completely!”

When the Tree God placed that seal, she was seriously wounded.

Now, she had regained her full strength.

Su Yu furrowed his eyebrows slightly and said, “Till now, we still have no idea about the identity of the father of the Central Prefecture’s King! When I came back from the Realm of Demons, I guess my existence could be sensed by that demonic god!”

When those deities who were controlled by Su Yu walked up, they heard Su Yu’s words. So, they shouted in surprise, “Are you the one who ran away from the Realm of Demons? And you are the one who was attacked by the giant in the Realm of Demons?”

The entire Western Alliance had been startled by Su Yu’s deeds.

Su Yu was surprised a bit. “Oh? What’s wrong?”

Six deities were totally shocked after hearing that.

All deities, including the Alliance Master, believed the one who ran away from the Realm of Demons was also a demon.

Because no other creatures used to escape from the Realm of Demons alive!

“I didn’t expect it was you...my master!” Those deities changed their way of addressing immediately.

Then, they told Su Yu the details they discussed during the meeting.

“Oh? I didn’t expect the Western Alliance is looking for me! They try to get some information about the changes that happened in the Realm of Demons, right?” Su Yu was surprised, “Some changes really occurred in the Realm of Demons. OK! I will visit the Glittering Deity, who is responsible for this issue, when I have time!”

“Could we invite the Glittering Deity to this place? If the Glitter Deity finds you, a meritorious service will be deemed as being rendered by him. So, I believe he will come here personally!”

“That won’t be necessary. Don’t tell this issue to others. I will handle it after getting rid of Gongsun Deity!”

Hearing this, six deities were quite embarrassed.

They were sent here to capture Su Yu. They didn’t expect their soul could be sealed by Su Yu now.

“Send a message to Gongsun Deity and ask him to meet me here!” Su Yu said coldly.

As underlings of Gongsun Deity, these deities had their way to contact Gongsun Deity.

“Let me contact him!” The deity who was responsible for saving Gongsun Shan was the most trusted follower of Gongsun Deity. He was a Yu Deity of the Yu Clan.

He took out a communication crystal ball that could send audio and video messages.

The crystal ball was illuminated when he injected some divine strength in it. Then, images appeared in it along with a slightly dull sound.

Gongsun Deity, who was standing on the ruins of his mansion by folding his arms in front of his chest, said coldly, “Have you accomplished your mission? Have you captured his soul?”

The Yu Deity rotated the crystal ball to Su Yu and said, “Gongsun Deity, I guess the one you are looking for is him!”

After glancing at Su Yu’s image in the crystal ball, Gongsun Deity frowned. “What are you waiting for? Just ruin his body and capture his soul!”

“Also, what did you call me just now?” Gongsun Deity shouted angrily because he had sensed something was wrong.

The Yu Deity knew it was the time for him to choose his side now.

After taking a deep breath, the Yu Deity shouted, “Gongsun Deity! I didn’t expect you could go against the historical trend! You even try to ruin the World of Jiuli Continent and kill all creatures in it! These deities and I still have a conscience. So, we decided to forsake darkness and cross over to the light. From now on, we serve...this lord!”

When the crystal ball was rotated, the rest deities also appeared in it.

All of them shouted at this moment, “Gongsun Deity, we can’t follow you anymore!”

Inside the crystal ball, Gongsun Deity was standing there motionlessly for a while as if he had been frozen.

After a while, he asked in disbelief, “You mean you have...betrayed me, right?”

He didn’t expect these trusted followers could betray him. This sudden change stunned him completely.

The Yu Deity sighed. “Gongsun Deity, if you refuse to realize your error, you will only get endless pain. Just make an apology to this young lord to repent your wrongdoings!”

His words annoyed Gongsun Deity completely, who almost spat blood because of anger.

“Stop your nonsense! He ruined my mansion and hijacked my son. Now, you want me to make an apology to him to repent my wrongdoings! Are you kidding me? This is outrageous!” Gongsun Deity was trembling because of anger.

The Yu Deity replied calmly, “Alas! Gongsun Deity, the sea of bitterness has no bounds. Repent, and the shore is at hand!”

“Exactly! Just come here and make your apology!”

“Gongsun Deity, we used to work together. I suggest you repent your mistake and wrongdoings!”

...

Puff—

Gongsun Deity was so angry that he couldn’t help but to spit blood as he cursed, “F*ck your apologies! How could you make an apology to a guy who ruined my mansion and hijacked my son? This is totally outrageous!”

“OK! I will go there and have a face-to-face talk with him!”

Bang!

The crystal ball was ruined by Gongsun Deity angrily.

The Yu Deity turned to Su Yu anxiously.

Su Yu said with a faint smile, “Great! I am looking forward to his arrival! Just wait here quietly, and the one I am waiting for at this moment will be here soon!”

What? Who are you waiting for?

Aren’t you waiting for Gongsun Deity?

Chapter 1265: The Arrival of the Alliance Master

After a short while, heaven and earth started to tremble violently. It seemed the ruinous World of Jiuli Continent was about to fall apart.

Dazzling divine light penetrated this world and lit up the sky.

Countless creatures in this world knelt on the ground in terror.

Because they knew this extraordinary fluctuation of divine strength could only be from an extremely powerful deity!

Crack!

A pitch-dark gap appeared in the sky of this world. Then, a deity who was wrapped up by dazzling golden light landed on the ground.

“As expected, Gongsun Deity has arrived!”

“He had to come here! Some of his underlings were killed. The rest betrayed him. It is impossible for him to keep calm!”

“Heh! Heh! It seems Gongsun Deity had to face the challenge of a formidable enemy!”

“I don’t think so. As a family master of the top ten anti-demon families, Gongsun Deity couldn’t be that weak!”

Standing behind Su Yu, the Yu Deity lowered his head when he saw the one in the divine light.

When he realized his situation, he looked up but didn’t want to have eye contact with the one in the divine light.

Gongsun Deity said coldly as he stared at the Yu Deity and the rest five deities, “Now, tell me again! Do you still want me to make an apology?”

Six deities, who were terrified, didn’t know what to say.

“Tell me!” Gongsun Deity’s loud roar startled the Yu Deity and the rest five deities.

All of them had been terrified by the long-standing overbearing aura of Gongsun Deity.

Now, these deities lowered their head to avoid eye contact with Gongsun Deity again.

It seemed the entire World of the Jiuli Continent became silent because of the roar of Gongsun Deity. Nobody dared to make a noise at this moment, including the six deities and those onlookers.

Then, the silence was broken by laughter, “Now, you are working for me! Why do you bow unctuously to another deity? You are looking down upon me, right?”

This careless laughter echoed in the ears of the six deities like deafening thunders, which covered their forehead with cold sweat.

They realized their life was in the hands of Su Yu.

“If you can’t prove your value, I don’t think it is necessary to spare your life!”

Hearing this, six deities cheered up and said seriously, “We are at your service, master!”

“Then, what are we waiting for? This atrocious deity is going to ruin this world together with all creatures in it and onlookers from the Western Alliance. I guess he is a spy of the Demon Clan. Just capture him for further interrogation!”

“As you wish!” Six deities dashed forward without hesitation. Although they were still afraid of Gongsun Deity, they knew they had no choice at this moment.

“Gongsun Deity, your heinous crimes are unforgivable!” The Yu Deity shouted and attacked first.

The rest five deities also attacked Gongsun Deity by following the Yu Deity.

It was the limit of Gongsun Deity when he fought against six deities at the same time. It was extremely difficult for him to defeat five deities at the same time, let alone six!

But Gongsun Deity still rushed up as he shouted coldly, "All those who betray me will die!"

"You are the one who will die!" Six deities who had no way back had to do their best to fight against Gongsun Deity.

At the very beginning, Gongsun Deity could still defend himself from the attack from the six deities.

As time went by, six deities gained the upper hand through close cooperation after overcoming the fear in their heart.

"Die!" Suddenly, the Yu Deity found an opportunity. Then, he spat his divine blood on a bone whip in his hand.

The bone whip became red immediately, which was filled with an aura of a copied Emperor-based Saint Artifact. The next moment, the bone whip landed on the back of Gongsun Deity heavily.

Bang!

A dull sound that startled the entire world was echoing in this area.

A large hole appeared on the back of Gongsun Deity. From this hole, his white bones could be seen indistinctly.

After being seriously wounded, Gongsun Deity was totally annoyed. He widened his bloodshot eyes and turned back as he stared at the Yu Deity like a wounded wild beast, "Did you attack me with the weapon I gave you?"

The Yu Deity, who was stunned a bit by his words, swallowed and retorted as he pretended to be calm, "You refuse to repent your wrongdoings! Don't blame me because I am going to kill you!"

"Heh! Heh! Really? Let me kill you first!" Gongsun Deity shouted as his divine blood reflowed in his body.

"Nature-defying Nine Divine Knife!"

Gongsun Deity yelled suddenly. His body was full of the energy of a knife.

Behind his back, nine weird knives appeared, which were as powerful as those copied Emperor-based Saint Artifacts.

"These...are..." Six deities were shocked when they saw that. They had followed Gongsun Deity for so many years. However, none of them knew Gongsun Deity had this strength of bloodline.

"Kill them!"

The horrible knives behind the back of Gongsun Deity dashed towards the Yu Deity immediately.

Seeing that, the Yu Deity widened his eyes as he defended himself with the bone whip in his hand without hesitation.

Crack—

The bone whip, which was a high-grade fairy artifact, was smashed by those knives. Then, those knives appeared in front of the Yu Deity.

The Yu Deity was terrified because he knew the consequence of being penetrated by those knives. So, he took out a spell and crushed it with his hand immediately.

The spell was turned to a pitch-dark armor that covered his body for protection.

It seemed that it was also a copied Emperor-based Saint Artifact!

Clang—

A lot of sparkles were created on the armor. Then, nine dents also appeared on the armor.

The knife energy was stopped by the armor. But the Yu Deity was still knocked back.

Gongsun Deity shouted with horrible killing intent, “Without the equipment I gave you, you are nothing in front of me!”

The next moment, the Yu Deity, who was flying back rapidly, was received by Su Yu.

Su Yu looked at Gongsun Deity calmly. Then, he took out a pink skull.

The skull was also a copied Emperor-based Saint Artifact, which was more powerful than the bone whip.

“You are my underling. So, I will give this to you to defeat him. When I have time, I will find a more suitable copied Emperor-based Saint Artifact for you!”

Then, Su Yu threw the pink skull to the Yu Deity casually.

This scene totally shocked all onlookers.

Gasp! How could he give away a copied Emperor-based Saint Artifact in such a casual way? There are less than twenty copied Emperor-based Saint Artifacts in the Western Alliance. And almost all of them are being obtained by descendants of deities!”

“No! It seems copied Emperor-based Saint Artifacts are nothing for him!”

“Who the hell is this guy? He has powerful deities as his underlings. He can even give away precious items like this casually!”

The Yu Deity was stunned a bit. Then, he said as wild joy flashing in his eyes, “Thank you, my master! Thank you!”

The rest five deities looked at him jealously because they didn’t expect the Yu Deity could obtain such a precious copied Emperor-based Saint Artifact easily!

Also, they didn’t expect their new master could be so generous!

At this moment, six deities realized the one they pledged their loyalty to was not an ordinary person!

Seeing this, Gongsun Deity, who was totally annoyed, shouted, “Just die!”

It was impossible for him to tolerate the betrayal of his underlings who got preferential treatment from their new masters.

After obtaining such precious equipment, the Yu Deity put his heart at rest. Then, he said as he looked at Gongsun Deity with a smile, "You die first!"

Buzz! Buzz!

The Yu Deity activated the pink skull by injecting his divine strength into it.

Then, the pink skull opened its mouth to create a beautiful melody that seemed to come from the nine heavens. The melody could remove fickleness and hatred in people's minds and made people calm and peaceful.

Then, the skull was covered by a cloud of pink fog.

After a while, a gorgeous woman who was wearing a pink dress walked out of the pink fog.

She was so beautiful that even the most beautiful woman in history couldn't rival her.

Like an attractive fairy maiden, her temperament was very elegant and graceful.

All people in this area, from ordinary Martial Artists to deities, were deeply stunned by her beauty, which didn't belong to this world.

Gongsun Deity, who was extremely angry, also calmed down gradually. He was also looking at the woman dreamily.

However, the Yu Deity was free from the influence of the woman. He dashed forward and appeared in front of Gongsun Deity. Then, he attacked the forehead of Gongsun Deity with the index finger and middle finger of his right hand.

Puff!

Along with a dull sound, Gongsun Deity's head was penetrated by powerful divine strength.

Then, Gongsun Deity was woken up by the sharp pain. The gorgeous woman disappeared in his eyes. The Yu Deity, whose face was covered by killing intent, was standing in front of him.

Ah...

Gongsun Deity shouted angrily as he knocked the Yu Deity back. He also flew back at the same time.

A small hole appeared in his forehead, which was bleeding seriously.

The Yu Deity spat blood because his chest was hit by Gongsun Deity heavily. However, he still shouted excitedly, "His body and soul have been wounded. If we attack him at the same time, he will definitely be killed!"

Because of the serious wounds in his body, nine divine knives behind the back of Gongsun Deity had disappeared. Now, he was totally defenseless!

"Let me finish him!"

"No, he is mine!!"

The rest five deities, who were totally motivated, started to dash towards Gongsun Deity as if he was a sworn enemy of them.

They were motivated by the good luck of the Yu Deity, who obtained a copied Emperor-based Saint Artifact!

If they killed Gongsun Deity, they would also be rewarded handsomely.

Seeing this, the Yu Deity, who was unwilling to lag behind, also dashed forward rapidly.

This unprecedented scene totally stunned those onlookers.

The onlookers didn't expect these trusted followers of Gongsun Deity were so eager to kill him at this moment.

The next moment, six deities appeared in front of Gongsun Deity. All of them tried to end the life of Gongsun Deity first.

Although Gongsun Deity was not able to defend himself, he still stared at those deities with deep hatred.

When he was about to be killed, a sonorous voice came in from the sky at this moment.

“Cosmos Reversion! Fix Yin-Yang!”

Along with a shout, those six deities were fixed and were not able to move anymore.

All of them, who had lost control of their body and soul, were fixed on the ground. People could only see the terror in their eyes.

An uproar broke out among the onlookers.

“That's Fix Yin-Yang in the Secrets of Cosmos! That's the Alliance Master!”

“What? I didn't expect the Alliance Master could come here!”

“Oh, no! The Alliance Master was startled, which means Gongsun Deity came here with preparation! I bet he asked help from the Alliance Master before coming to this world!”

“Right! No matter how powerful those deities are, they are nothing in front of the Alliance Master!”

“I'm afraid that guy didn't expect the Alliance Master could be involved in this issue!”

Swish—

The World of Jiuli Continent started to tremble. A lot of places were shattered as if this world was not big enough for the upcoming powerful creature!

Along with a deafening sound that could startle the Star River, the world broke into several parts.

Then, a middle-aged man, who was wearing a purple gold hat and a luxurious long robe, appeared in this world.

Behind him, there were ten powerful deities.

All of them were more powerful than the Yu Deity.

The Tree God, who was quite calm just now, reminded Su Yu seriously, “Be careful! This deity is very dangerous!”

To the surprise of all people here, Su Yu said with a smile, “Finally, the master of the Western Alliance shows up!”

Ah!

The Duanxian Cliff Master and his daughter were totally shocked together with all those onlookers. It seemed Gongsun Deity was not the one he was waiting for.

Wait! Does it mean he was waiting for the Alliance Master from the very beginning?

The middle-aged man who was wearing a purple gold hat replied with a smile, “I know you are waiting for me!”

Chapter 1266: Substitute Deity

“I guess the purpose for you to create such a big noise is to startle me, right?” The middle-aged man who was wearing a purple gold hat said thoughtfully.

Gongsun Deity, who took shelter by standing behind the Alliance Master, was surprised by what he heard.

It turns out the ultimate goal of this silver-haired young man is to startle the Alliance Master!

Anyway, the Alliance Master would be startled if an anti-demon family was bullied in this way!

Su Yu replied as he nodded his head with a smile, “As expected, a lot of time and energy could be saved during the conversation with a clever man! Yes, you are the one I am waiting for!”

“As for you...” Su Yu turned to Gongsun Deity and said coldly, “I just tried to teach you a lesson and tell you that you can’t bully others like that!”

Su Yu’s words puzzled those onlookers. Till now, they didn’t know why Su Yu insisted on making trouble for the Gongsun Family.

Only a deep hatred would lead to such total destruction of the Gongsun Family.

After the destruction of their mansion, the abduction of the successor, and the betrayal of their deities, it was impossible for the Gongsun Deity to enter the top five.

If the Gongsun Family failed to find enough powerful experts in a short time, they might even be kicked out from the top ten anti-demon families!

The middle-aged man who was wearing a purple gold hat looked at Su Yu and his underlings. Then, he fixed his eyes on the Duanxian Cliff Master and said in surprise, “Gongsun Ya?”

The real name of the Duanxian Cliff Master was Gongsun Ya.

Gongsun Ya looked at the middle-aged man who was wearing a purple gold hat with mixed feelings. He would have become the son-in-law of the Alliance Master. But the fact was that he became a victim.

So, it was impossible for him to put aside his hatred against the Alliance Master.

The middle-aged man looked at Gongsun Ya thoughtfully. Then, he turned to Su Yu and asked, “Did you do this for him?”

“Yes!”

“Now, I am here! What do you want from me?”

“A negotiation!”

Gongsun Ya and his daughter were shocked after hearing that. Does it mean the negotiation mentioned by Su Yu was prepared for the Alliance Master?

Su Yu sought revenge against the Gongsun Family for Gongsun Ya and his daughter because they used to be bullied by that family.

Su Yu planned to have a negotiation with the Alliance Master because Gongsun Wuxie’s birth mother was still in the mansion of the Alliance Master.

“What do you want to talk about?”

“A marriage that hasn’t been consummated!”

The middle-aged man raised his eyebrows slightly after hearing that. Then, he said with a smile, “I thought you would ask me to give my daughter to them. I didn’t expect your plan could be so ambitious!”

It was quite simple to give his daughter to them, which was a pretty easy decision to make.

However, the marriage meant a lot to him and Gongsun Ya.

If he agreed on the marriage between his daughter and Gongsun Ya, it would be deemed as admitting his wrong decision made before and the recognition of the elopement of his daughter and Gongsun Ya in those years.

This would definitely bring humiliation to the Alliance Master.

“I am always ambitious! This time I only ask for the marriage for the sake of creatures in the Star River who share a common enemy. Otherwise, I will ask for more from you!” Su Yu replied calmly.

His words were quite arrogant.

He tried to force the Alliance Master of the Western Alliance to admit a mistake he made before, which was an unreasonable requirement for most people here.

However, the Tree God, who knew Su Yu very well, believed Su Yu didn’t demand an exorbitant price this time. According to Su Yu’s style, he would never stop making troubles before bringing catastrophic consequences to his enemy.

It was never an unreasonable requirement to provide Gongsun Ya and his daughter a complete family.

Unfortunately, people from the Western Alliance had no idea about Su Yu’s style.

The Alliance Master didn't refuse Su Yu immediately. He said calmly, "A marriage should be established between families of equal social rank. Do they have any social rank? I will never marry my daughter to a nobody!"

"Social rank? Is my social rank high enough for you? You tried to marry your daughter to the Gongsun Family. However, this family has been ruined by me. All deities of this family have become my underlings. So, I am much more powerful than the Gongsun Family, right?"

The Alliance Master looked at Su Yu. He had to admit that Su Yu was more powerful than a lot of big families.

"What is the relationship between Gongsun Ya and you? Is he your successor?" The Alliance Master brought forth an acute question.

Gongsun Shan was the successor of Gongsun Deity. Everyone knew Gongsun Ya was not the successor of Su Yu.

"Relationship? Heh! Heh! You could ask Gongsun Deity whether the Gongsun Family could ruin another anti-demon family for Gongsun Shan!"

The answer would be no!

If a successor died, they could find another one immediately. But it was impossible for them to fight another anti-demon family to death!

"But I can do that! For Gongsun Ya and his daughter, I have ruined the Gongsun Family. I can even ruin the rest nine anti-demon families for them!"

His words were arrogant but true.

After taking a deep breath, the Alliance Master said, "It seems Gongsun Ya and his daughter are quite important for you. So, they are qualified to establish a marriage with my family!"

Gongsun Ya was stunned by his words. However, the Alliance Master said as he stared at Su Yu, "Then, which family do you stand for? I remember you are a substitute deity of the Eastern Alliance, right? This marriage should be held inside the Western Alliance. And it has nothing to do with the Eastern Alliance!"

"So, I am sorry, but this marriage can't be realized!"

Gongsun Ya, who had just been cheered up, was frustrated again.

"What if I join the Western Alliance?" Su Yu asked suddenly.

What? Is he going to join the Western Alliance?

Those onlookers didn't believe what they heard.

How could a substitute deity of the Eastern Alliance recommend himself to join the Western Alliance?

The Alliance Master was also stunned. He didn't expect Su Yu could bring forth such a request after being rejected by him.

"Are you serious about what you said?" The Alliance Master asked.

Su Yu said with a faint smile as he placed his hands behind his back, "Do you think I am kidding?"

"If you join the Western Alliance, you will be a traitor of the Eastern Alliance. Are you sure you want to do that?"

Su Yu replied by shaking his head, "No, I am still a substitute deity of the Eastern Alliance. And I can also act as a substitute deity in the Western Alliance!"

Then, he said by pointing at the four dead deities on the ground, "Now, you have four vacant deity positions. I think I can get one position! I don't mind acting as a substitute deity in the Western Alliance!"

Hearing this, even the onlookers were surprised.

"Nice try! How could a substitute deity of the Eastern Alliance act as a substitute deity in the Western Alliance?"

"Right! The two alliances are independent of each other. Nobody could work for the two alliances at the same time! What if he betrays the Western Alliance?"

...

The Alliance Master said as he furrowed his eyebrows, "I'm afraid I can't agree with you!"

"No, you will!" Su Yu said as he pointed at the direction which led to the Realm of Demons, "The Giant of the Bitter Sea, who is more and more powerful, is about to break its jail soon. The horrible demonic gods of the Holy Magic Hall are about to sweep over the Star River and feed the Giant of the Bitter Sea with all creatures in the Star River!"

"A bloody war in the Star River is upcoming! I believe you should have sensed something as the Alliance Master. The disaster of the Star River is drawing near!" Su Yu said as he looked at the Alliance Master.

The Alliance Master was surprised by his words. Who is the Giant of the Bitter Sea? Is it the gigantic figure in the Realm of Demons? How could he know its name is the Giant of the Bitter Sea?

And what is the Holy Magic Hall? Why haven't I heard of it before? Who told him about that?

Although the Alliance Master was shocked, he couldn't deny what Su Yu said, "Right! A lot of signs suggest the Demon Clan is going to have a big move!"

Su Yu said with a faint smile, "So, the unification of all creatures in the Su Yu is an irresistible trend. Maybe the master of the Eastern Alliance hasn't contacted you yet. I believe you will form an alliance with them soon. In this way, you can gather all creatures in the Star River to prepare for the upcoming war!"

“So what?” The Alliance Master admitting the unification of the two great alliances was incontrovertible.

Su Yu replied, “Haven’t I given you enough details? Since we will become allies soon, as a substitute deity of the Eastern Alliance, I can definitely act as a substitute deity in the Western Alliance! No matter what my identity is, I am a member of the alliance that fights against the Demon Clan!”

Eh...

Those onlookers looked at each other but didn’t know what to say. This high-sounding excuse made them speechless.

Gongsun Deity, who sensed everything went south, shouted coldly, “Nonsense! Don’t try to delude us here! You try to join the Western Alliance because you harbor evil designs! Alliance Master, please don’t create a precedent for him!”

The Alliance Master was absorbed in thought after hearing that.

Su Yu said calmly, “It is OK for me if you reject my request. I will lose nothing. But you will lose the opportunity of obtaining a powerful ally! Do you know the ratio of finding an ally who is as powerful as an anti-demon family in the Star River?”

The answer was zero.

All powerful organizations had joined the Eastern Alliance, the Western Alliance, or the World of Divine Remnant! It was impossible to find a powerful organization that was wandering in the Star River!

The Alliance Master lit up his eyes after hearing that. It seemed he had been tempted.

After a while, the Alliance Master said with a smile, “You’ve convinced me!”

“OK! In the name of the Alliance Master, I hereby name you as...” the Alliance Master said as he looked at Su Yu’s silver hair, “The Silver God!”

His voice was echoing in this world, which was in dead silence.

The Silver God, a substitute deity of the Western Alliance, came forth in this way.

There were a lot of substitute deities in the history of the Western Alliance. However, Su Yu was the only one who acted as a substitute deity in two alliances at the same time.

“Thank you, Alliance Master! I am willing to destroy the Realm of Demons together with the rest deities in the Western Alliance!” Su Yu said calmly.

Gongsun Ya and his daughter were totally dumbfounded at this moment. They never expected the issue could end up in this way.

They didn’t expect Su Yu could become a substitute deity of the Western Alliance in this way!

The Tree God twitched her mouth because she was not surprised at all. She knew everything about Su Yu would develop in a weird way.

Therefore, she was not surprised when Su Yu became the first one who acted as a substitute deity in two alliances at the same time.

In the Eastern Alliance, Su Yu was the Feather God! In the Western Alliance, he was the Silver God! An unprecedented substitute deity came forth!

Gongsun Deity tried to stop the Alliance Master from making such a decision, but his efforts were in vain.

“So, the marriage is negotiable, right? I will do my best to support you, Alliance Master. Also, you will have my support during the great election of the Alliance Master several years later!” Su Yu said.

Although he only got a brief report from the Yu Deity and the rest deities about that secret meeting, he had figured out the situation through the information he obtained.

The Alliance Master didn’t enjoy popular support. The Ximen Family was about to strive for the position of Alliance Master in the future.

If the current Alliance Master failed to get enough support during the election, he might lose the position of Alliance Master.

Hearing this, the Alliance Master’s eye pupils constricted a bit. He turned to the Yu Deity and believed Su Yu got the information from the Yu Deity and the rest deities.

“OK!” The Alliance Master nodded his head. Then, he looked at Gongsun Ya and said with a smile, “I know you’ve suffered a lot in these years. You can go and find Fei’er now. She misses you very much!”

“And you, Wuxie, you can also see your birth mother!”

Hearing this, Gongsun Wuxie smiled excitedly because she hadn’t seen her birth mother yet.

Those onlookers were totally shocked. Does it mean the elopement which caused a great sensation in those years is settled in this way?

The great combat between the Alliance Master and the substitute deity of the Eastern Alliance they expected didn’t happen. This happy ending surprised all of them.

Of course, this was not a happy ending for the Gongsun Family.

“Release my son!” Gongsun Deity shouted with hatred.

Su Yu replied as he looked at Gongsun Deity indifferently, “He has gone!”

“What do you mean?” Gongsun Deity shouted angrily.

He didn’t believe Su Yu dared to kill his son.

“The literal meaning of my words!” Su Yu replied calmly.

Chapter 1267: Extreme Overbearingness

Seeing that both of them started arguing again, the Alliance Master said, “Silver God, you are now a member of the Great Western Alliance. You must not be reckless. Return Gongsun Shan to him. I believe that after this incident, Gongsun Shan will not dare to stir any kind of trouble with the father and daughter anymore.”

While saying those words, the Alliance Master did not look at the Gongsun father and daughter pair.

Su Yu looked at him and said, “I’m telling the truth. Gongsun Shan is long gone! Back then at the underground secret room, I’ve destroyed him completely... Oh, I almost forgot, not completely. His skin was still lying there. ”

Swoosh...

Su Yu flicked his hand and took out the Demonic God’s Prison.

With the roar of a wild beast, Gongsun Shan rushed out with bloodshot eyes and tried to pounce on anyone he saw.

He was no longer half-human nor half beast. He was no different from a beast now.

Gongsun Deity captured him from a distance. Gongsun Shan was roaring obliviously and there were no longer any signs of intellect in his eyes.

Gongsun Deity’s eyes were brimming with anger. His pupils contracted sharply, making his eye sockets looked hollow, compounding his furious demeanor. He shouted, “How dare you erase his intelligence!”

If the soul was still there, there could still be salvation.

However, if the spiritual intelligence in the soul was erased, how was it different from the most primitive beast?

Su Yu said indifferently, “For all the evil deeds he performed, it was inevitable that he would reap what he sowed! He should have known better back when he was blinded by lust and threatened Gongsun Ya’s happiness! Destroying his body and spiritual intelligence is just a just punishment for his despicable actions.”

“Furthermore,” Su Yu went on coldly, “You should be fortunate that the Alliance Master stood up for you. Otherwise, do you actually think that your fate would be any better than your son’s current predicament?”

As soon as those words were said, everyone was left frozen in their tracks.

Indeed, judging from the situation just now, Su Yu did not intend to spare Gongsun Deity’s life at all.

If the Alliance Master did not show up, Gongsun Deity would probably be as dead as a dodo by now.

“If you are smart enough, shut up and curb your hateful look. If you dare to annoy me, I will make sure to kill you like a dog!” Su Yu said coldly.

It was not his murderous threat but the arrogance in his words that stunned the onlookers.

“Well, isn’t this overbearing?”

“This is completely unheard of! Killing your son, destroying your house, then threatening you to shut up, or he will kill you too. This is absolutely ridiculous!”

“If I were the Silver God, I would die with no regrets!”

Su Yu’s coldness, decisiveness, and overbearing manner gave the Western Alliance Master’s three views on live spirit a severe blow.

They were used to fighting against the demon clan all year round, so he thought that their characters were similarly tough and overbearing.

However, compared to Su Yu, those were not even worth mentioning at all!

The Alliance Master frowned, turned his head and said, “Gongsun Deity, we are all one big family. Let us all put our past grievances aside. Do not stir up internal trouble again, understand?”

At this moment, the lungs of Gongsun Deity were about to explode with anger. Was there still any justice in this world?

However, in the presence of the Alliance Master, Gongsun Deity, despite his resentment, did not dare to reveal his true thoughts. He clenched his teeth and answered, “Yes!”

This was the best possible outcome.

“Since everything is now resolved, let us all go back.”

Su Yu led the Tree God, the Gongsun father and daughter, and the six henchmen deities he had adopted back to the Western Alliance.

As the proxy god, Su Yu inherited one of the mansions of the fallen deity as his temporary residence.

“Silver God, you have to put up with this for the time being. It will take some time for the new residence to be completed,” said the Alliance Master.

Su Yu said, “It doesn’t matter.”

“Five days hence, we will have a welcome dinner for you, and then some deities will come and meet you too.”

Su Yu wanted to refuse initially, but as the Western Alliance proxy god, how could he?

“That sounds good!”

After sending the Alliance Master away, he began to settle down in the mansion.

The Yu Deity and six other deities stared at each other, then said, “Congratulations, Silver God. We will be loyal to you until death!”

Su Yu nodded. “Good. I will not treat you shabbily if you follow me.”

“You all are now required to guard the mansion. You must not let anyone in.”

Swoosh...

Yu Deity and the six other deities immediately went to stand guard at all corners of the mansion.

Su Yu escorted the Tree God and the Gongsun father and daughter into the living room.

Poof...

As soon as he entered, Gongsun Ya went down on both knees and bowed.

He then reached out and pulled Gongsun Wuxie down to her knees as well, saying, "Come and give thanks to our savior!"

Gongsun Wuxie opened her mouth but thought about how she liked him, and now he was her benefactor as well. What a messy situation! Should she just take advantage of the situation and confess her feelings?

While she was hesitating, her father gently pressed her head forward and made her kowtow.

Gongsun Ya himself also solemnly kowtowed.

Su Yu wanted to pull them up, but Gongsun Ya didn't comply. He said gratefully, "Thanks to your help, not only did our family manage to survive, but we are also reunited once again. This is all thanks to your effort! We can never repay you enough."

"Oh, we have already gotten to know each other so well, why do you stand upon ceremony?" Su Yu laughed in surprise. He stretched out his hands, pulled up both of them and said, "And I'm afraid things are not as optimistic as you think."

Gongsun Ya was taken aback. "What do you mean?"

Su Yu's eyes flickered and he said, "From my observation, the Alliance Master was not sincere about accepting both of you. I am worried that there will be changes to the proposed marriage as well."

"Does he want to go back on his words? No way, as the Alliance Master, he made a promise in front of the masses. He wouldn't do that," Gongsun Ya started to get worried but reaffirmed himself again.

Su Yu shook his head and sighed.

Gongsun Ya managed to make a name for himself in the Jiuzhou Cavern World and established himself as the Duanxian Cliffmaster.

However, when people were in distress, they often only believed what they chose to believe.

Although he came to a realization that Su Yu's words might be right, he still found reasons to convince himself otherwise.

"If he wants to call off the marriage, there is no need for him to go back on his words directly. I think that the Alliance Master is cunning. His expressions are hard to read and he must be a skilled schemer. It will be easy for him to manipulate the situation to his favor," Su Yu said.

The Gongsun father and daughter pair became silent and the mood suddenly turned gloomy.

“But rest assured, since it was me who brought both of you together, I will definitely not stop until I see this whole matter through to the end.”

Gongsun Ya thanked him. “Thank you, our generous benefactor.”

“Go and rest up. These days have been really hard on you.”

When the Gongsun father and daughter departed, the Tree God asked, “Did you also realize that the Alliance Master’s intention was not that simple?”

“Even you, though you only care about money, realized it. I’m not blind, I can see it as well.”

“The way you put it made me feel very sad.”

The Tree God pursed his lips and said, “This is weird. If the Alliance Master planned not to let you join the alliance, wouldn’t the matter have ended there and then? With him letting you join the Alliance, promising the marriage, but being reluctant in the process, there must be sort of conspiracy brewing.”

“It’s not just a conspiracy. I think the Alliance Master wants to use me for something.”

“Have you guessed what it is?”

“I’m not a god. How could I know what he thinks before he makes his next move? However, I have an idea of what he is up to.” Su Yu’s eyes flickered. “I just hope things will not unfold according to the worst-case scenario!”

Inside the palace of the Alliance Master...

After the Alliance Master returned, he began to meditate in solitude as if nothing had happened.

However, before he entered a meditative state, he opened his eyes slowly and said, “I knew you would come. Come in.”

Swoosh...

With a flash of divine light, Gongsun Deity appeared in front of the Alliance Master and questioned him perplexedly: “Alliance Master, I have always been loyal to you. After many years of following you, do I not match up to that outsider?”

The Alliance Master shook his head and said, “After so many years, you still can’t keep your cool! The other anti-demon families are dissatisfied with you for a reason.”

What? Gongsun Deity seemed to catch something else between the lines. “Alliance Master, what do you mean?”

The Alliance Master looked at him: “You have been following me back when I was just a common god, step by step all the way to the position of Alliance Master. How dare you accuse me of siding with an outsider instead of my own loyal followers?”

Upon hearing those words, Gongsun Deity said agitatedly, “But today at the...”

“It was a show for the outsiders as well as for that fellow.”

“I still don’t understand. You granted him the title of Silver God and even betrothed Fei Er to him. Not only did I suffer humiliation, but you lost face as well! If it weren’t for his powers, why would you do this? Why would you let him benefit and harm your own interests?” Gongsun Deity expressed his doubts.

The leader sighed. “That’s why I say you can’t keep your cool! I do see his power, but I don’t intend to keep him by my side! Someone of a different clan will definitely be up to no good. Do you think a Great Eastern Alliance person will be able to just replace you and become my confidant?”

“I want to use his power to deal with the Ximen family. Ximen Jian, that old fellow, has been aggressive in recent years, secretly gathering forces. Among the top ten anti-demon slaughtering families, seven are leaning towards him. If this continues, the situation will be very unfavorable for us.”

“So, I need an external force to destroy the Ximen family. This Silver God is a good choice to make it happen! I gave him the title of Silver God is to make it convenient for him to do so. Otherwise, how can an outsider enter the territories of the Great Western Alliance so easily?”

Gongsun Deity’s eyes gradually brightened.

“Then, what about the marriage contract? Once it takes place, both you and I will be laughed at.”

There was a gleam of cold light in the eyes of the Alliance Master. “That is provided they manage to stay alive until the day of the marriage!”

Back at the mansion...

Su Yu was in a secret room, the four walls of which were strongly restrained. Even the gods were unable to break through.

The Tree God was guarding outside. Skeptical, she muttered, “Acting so mysteriously, he must be up to no good.”

From the standpoint of the Xing River souls, Su Yu did seem to be up to no good.

In front of him stood four of the demon clan deities.

Puppy, the Sixth Princess, the Second Princess, and the finally awakened First Prince.

After being knocked unconscious by Su Yu’s alienation plan, the First Prince had been in a coma for a whole month.

In the meantime, Su Yu helped him to dispel the blood of the Giant of the Bitter Sea residing in his body. He had fully recovered from his injuries since then.

Of course, the six god imprints that were deeply embedded in his body was firmly held in Su Yu's palm.

The other three princesses have long accepted their destiny and looked rather carefree.

Only the First Prince, who was staring intently at Su Yu, would most likely betray him if things went south.

Su Yu said calmly, "Anyone who achieves great things will know when to be flexible and when to stand firm. As heir of the demon emperor, the First Prince should know what forbearance is, right?"

"Hmph!" The prince hummed but did not take any action.

He endured Princess Yunxia's oppression for hundreds of years. So what if Su Yu was controlling him now?

"After finishing what I set out to do, I will let you all go," Su Yu said. "In addition, as far as the current situation is concerned, we are in the same boat. If I'm not wrong, the people of the Holy Magic Hall must be on their way now. "

After hearing what Su Yu said, the First Prince's expressions changed and his look of resistance gradually eased.

Compared to Su Yu, the Holy Magic Hall was the real threat.

"Sure, first you promise not to persecute me or force me to do what I don't want to do. Then, I will listen to your orders. Otherwise, I'd rather die."

Su Yu grinned slightly as the most powerful First Prince was convinced.

"Oh, don't worry, all I want is your extremely powerful capabilities," Su Yu smiled.

Only by persuading the First Prince would he truly control a power to be reckoned with.

It was hard for Su Yu to imagine how the deities of the Great Western Alliance would react if he suddenly released the four prince and princesses, the six City Master deities, and nearly seventy early stage prospective deities into the city.

Especially the First Prince, who was barely below the Giant of the Bitter Sea and Six Paths Demonic God in terms of power, and was one of the mightiest forces in the demon world.

"Haha, I hope they won't be needed at the welcome dinner that they are planning for me. Otherwise, it will be very interesting to see what will unfold!" Su Yu said to himself and smiled meaningfully.

Chapter 1268: An Ancient Memory

"What about me?" The puppy jumped up and down. It was still in its original physical state and had little combat power.

Su Yu looked at her and said, "Isn't this good for you? Anyway, after your recovery, your strength will still be like that."

The doggy waved its claws in protest, looking indignant.

“Your situation is very complicated. According to the history of the royal family, once you are beaten back to your original physical body, there is almost no possibility of full recovery,” Su Yu frowned slightly.

He had discussed this extensively with the Sixth and Second princesses.

A similar example had happened before; the demons of the royal family went back to their original physical bodies. This happened in the past and until now, they had not recovered completely.

The puppy was discouraged and lay on the ground silently, unhappy with what she heard.

“Sir, if you have the chance, it is better to find a way to restore my sister back to how she was,” Sixth Princess said.

Su Yu nodded.

The princess paused and continued, “I mean, my sister is special and may be useful to your cause in the future.”

“Give me more detail.” Su Yu heard what the princess seemed to want to emphasize and wished to know more.

The Sixth Princess said, “A long time ago, news circulated within our royal family, saying that one family member will be no better than eight royal princes and princesses. However, it is only with our father that we ended up with nine, the Ninth Princess. Therefore, it could only be her.”

Why couldn’t the royal family have more than nine princes and princesses? However, seeing the expressions of the First Prince and Second Princess, it seemed that this was indeed the case for the royal family.

“I asked the Purple-Eyed Demonic God to check on this. He said three words, the ancient god realm.”

Ancient God Realm? The unfamiliar name floated into Su Yu’s mind.

“Where is that?”

“I don’t know. The Purple-Eyed Demonic God could only detect the existence of this place, but not the deeper mystery behind it. According to him, he couldn’t continue to look in, as it was blocked by some mysterious existence.”

Was there such a thing? Su Yu was astonished. Was there an ancient god realm within the Xing River?

It seemed that it was time to ask the Purple-Eyed Demonic God about this.

Now, however, he was inside the bead and couldn’t appear.

His life was nearing the end. Before, he could rely on medicine to prolong it and could harvest many Divine God Source Origins to assist him. However, at this moment, he had little left.

Now, at the last moment, he was pinning his hopes on Bi Wanqing, trying to give Bi Wanqing a chance to break through to the gods before he eventually passed on.

If it was not necessary, Su Yu was reluctant to disturb them for the time being.

“Well, if I find a way, I will try to help her recover,” Su Yu said.

The puppy shook its tail in excitement, flatteringly holding onto Su Yu’s calf. She behaved much like a spirit pet.

“All of you, head off to rest.”

When the secret room was empty, Su Yu had time to cultivate carefully.

Su Yu’s first concern was the thing between his eyebrows, the Gluttonous Eye.

After trying several times, it finally fell asleep again.

According to records, after waking up for the first time, it was already in a semi-mature state.

Waking up after a second deep sleep, it would be fully matured.

The Gluttonous Eye in a mature state had a strong sense of greed. By then, it could only be satisfied by feeding on the gods.

The situation has finally become as tricky as Yun Yazhi dreaded.

“We take things as they come,” Su Yu secretly said that to himself. With his current abilities, to capture a few gods to feed it would not be a problem. Thus, he should be safe for the time being.

Followed by that was the dead soul worm kept in the ancient ice.

According to the evil god, this worm attacked the median god and failed. Although it has died, it could still have a deadly destructive impact on the soul.

Unless at a critical moment, he would never use it easily.

With that, Su Yu cast a thought and his soul entered the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl.

“Sir,” Sheng Ge smiled and stood in front of Su Yu. With the help of Su Yu’s resources, she also achieved amazing results in her cultivation.

Sizing her from top to bottom, Su Yu said: “Unfortunately, there is no prospective deity’s Divine God Source Origin of the ghost clan. Otherwise, it would help you break through to the level of the gods easily.”

In the entire Xing River, ghosts were rare. Only the Great Eastern Alliance had ghosts.

“Thank you, Sir! However, I want to try and prove to myself that I can achieve it through my own efforts.” When Sheng Ge spoke, two very different spirits appeared from his body. One was the spirit of the ghost clan family and the other was that of the Buddha.

Su Yu was surprised. “Oh? Are you very sure you have what it takes to vie for a seat amongst the gods?”

In this world, the gods were almost all those who inherited the position from their ancestors.

It was rare for a nobody to become a deity.

Sheng Ge actually had the confidence and independence to become a god, which really surpassed Su Yu's expectations.

"Yes yes, Xiaodie helped me." Sheng Ge thought for a moment, her hands came together and a majestic scent filled with the charm of ancient times emerged.

He dimly noticed that there were two huge divine residences standing quietly behind her.

One of the divine residences was that of the ghost god, and the other was that of the Buddha god.

"This is..."

"Ancient God Power. These are memories from Xiao Die."

Su Yu's pupils shrunk slightly. Ancient God Power? Did the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly actually have such ancient memories?

"Where is it?" Su Yu said.

Sheng Ge pointed to a Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo that had been almost half-eaten by a group of colorful silk cocoons hanging on it quietly.

"It's cocooning again?" Su Yu had an incredulous look on his face.

When the caterpillar changed into a butterfly, it had to cocoon itself once.

Today, as a butterfly, for her to cocoon herself a second time and continue to evolve was simply astonishing.

"When did this happen?"

"After eating all the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo, it started to cocoon."

After Su Yu came in the previous time, he allowed the Chaos Multicolored Butterfly to devour all the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo, except the first piece.

He did not expect that after swallowing up all that bamboo, another mutation would occur.

"With this ancient memory, to think that it can actually evolve again! It seems that I have been underestimating it," Su Yu smiled slightly. He seemed to be getting some unexpected surprises.

Looking back at Sheng Ge, Su Yu couldn't help but show his envy to her. "The Ancient God Power is hard for outsiders to find, but you easily get it from Xiao Die's memory. This is your luck. If one day you break through to the level of the gods, I will set you free."

He once said that if she performed well, she could be free.

Now that she had the opportunity to become a deity, why should Su Yu stop her?

"Sir, I am willing to follow you all the time and all the way. Without you, there would be none of me today." She could be who she was today because Su Yu spared no effort to cultivate her. Otherwise, how would a ghost fairy even qualify to look up high and aim higher up?

Su Yu smiled slightly. "When the young eagle grows up, it will eventually fly into the distant sky. If I let you stay with me, it will actually hurt you."

"Nurture and cultivate this Ancient God Power with a peace of mind. I can feel that you may eventually get a seat amongst the Gods faster than me."

After finishing talking, Su Yu looked to the nursery.

In the nursery, there were only two lonely and miserable ancient trees.

One of them was the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo, which was as tall as a thousand feet. Compared to the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo recorded in history, this bamboo was extremely tall.

Judging from the magical cultivation effect of the Supreme Growing Soil, this Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo was over 9,000 years old. After another thousand years, it would become a 10,000-year-old Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo.

Su Yu has always been looking forward to seeing what kind of magic would be born from such an ancient Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo. Unfortunately, there was no obvious change in the Heavenly Orchid Silver Bamboo except for its huge size.

"Cultivate it for a while longer. If it turns more than 10,000 years old and still has not changed much, then we should use it," Su Yu said to himself.

His eyes flickered, and he moved his gaze over to the next golden tree that was merely as tall as a human.

The entire tree was burning with golden flames, but they did not create heat. Instead, the environment was extremely gentle. What else could it be if not the Golden Flames Forbidden Wood?

The matured Golden Flames Tree was made into wood and used to build a boat.

One of the rhizomes was left behind by Su Yu, inserted into Supreme Growing Soil to continue its cultivation, and now had re-grown into a small tree.

"This sacred tree used to counter the Giant of the Bitter Sea. I don't know... if I cultivate it for long enough, perhaps it would become even more powerful and acquires a stronger restraining power," Su Yu secretly said.

The last time, he was in a hurry. The Golden Flames Forbidden Wood, that was not yet fully mature, was taken out of the soil for him to use. Though its effect was not maximized, it was nevertheless still able to resist the corrosion of the bitter seawater.

It had to be made known that the water of the Bitter Sea corroded everything, including the gods.

If he could cultivate a top-notch Golden Flames Forbidden Wood, he believed it could exert unexpected and unprecedented power.

Satisfied, he withdrew himself from the Nine Jade Spiritual Pearl. Su Yu glanced at the palm of his hand, and a small flying crane emitting the light of the Milky Way appeared.

“Master,” Crane Deity said.

“How do you feel inside?”

“Reporting to my master: the final portion of the Milky Way Star Sand, where I met with some obstruction before, has been resolved about a month ago. Now, you are able to wield this holy weapon freely.”

“No, I’m asking about you.”

The Crane Deity was startled a little and replied: “Thank you, sir, for your concern; after a long period of cultivation, my spirit is not only restored but also far better than it was in the past.”

If he was allowed to re-cultivate his Divine God Source Origin, the strength would be different and much stronger than before.

“Well, you keep at it and continue to cultivate.”

“Yes... But master, I seem to have found a consciousness left within the Holy Artifact.” Crane Deity hesitated and then continued, “It was the consciousness that appeared after I removed the obstruction that day.”

Su Yu’s gaze fixed on him and he said, “Why did you not say so earlier?”

There was consciousness remaining in the Holy Artifacts of the Emperor; that was astonishing!

“Its existence is very weak, and the inner structure of the Milky Way Star Sand is vast and boundless. Even if I am an instrumental spirit at this moment, I cannot capture its existence immediately. Thus, I have never been able to report much to you, my master! However, this strand of consciousness seems to be moving more and more frequently recently. I was almost locked onto it once before. When it reappears, I have confidence that this time around, I can lock on it.”

Su Yu solemnly said, “The Milky Way Star Sand cannot be lost. Pay close attention to that consciousness, and get a hold on it as soon as possible!”

“Yes, Master.”

The Crane Deity returned and Su Yu was lost in his thoughts.

“The Milky Way Star Sand... to think that there is an existence of consciousness? Whose is it? Was it left behind by Tian Jizi?” Su Yu secretly asked himself. “Or perhaps is it another unknown existence that is always inside the Holy Artifacts?”

If it was the former, it was better to deal with it.

However, it is the latter, a mysterious existence that has always existed inside the Holy Artifacts; it had silently been beside Su Yu for many years. Just thinking about it made Su Yu shudder.

Having received such important news, Su Yu could not help but raise his own vigilance.

He hoped that the Crane Deity could capture that consciousness in time and eliminate this hidden danger as soon as possible.

He silently cultivated for several days.

On the early morning of the fifth day, the alliance sent out their number one general, the Tuoba Deity. He appeared at the mansion.

“Silver God, we have prepared everything to welcome you to the Alliance mansion today. All the gods have been waiting for a long time. I also hope that Silver God will show them some courtesy and participate in the event.”

Su Yu opened the stone door and smiled slightly. “Let’s go,” He said.

General Tuoba paused and asked, “You do not intend to bring that tree goddess together with you? The alliance also welcomes her.”

“It’s not necessary. If she joins, everyone will be uncomfortable. Really.”

“As you wish.”

In a secret room, the tree goddess unexpectedly gave a sneeze and froze with a chilly look. She couldn’t help but look strange. “It’s weird. The pill that I stole last night is supposed to be able to neutralize the effects of the cold. So why am I feeling chilly all over again?”

The main mansion of the Alliance was filled with bright colors and the atmosphere was joyous.

The divine light of dozens of gods fluctuated and filled the mansion.

“Oh, it’s strange. Why is the Alliance Mansion, which is traditionally quiet, suddenly so lively at this point in time?”

“I’m also wondering about that. Except for when the gods get together to discuss important matters and have meetings, when is there ever such a happy atmosphere?”

“Hey, I don’t know. The gods of the Great Western Alliance prepared all this to welcome the acting god, the Silver God.”

“Ah? Silver God? So it is him!”

“Well, this is more than enough respect paid to him. I saw the servants of the top ten anti-demon families, but I did not expect that all the anti-demon families intended to come; this is extremely rare.”

“They did pay more than enough respect to the Silver God. I wonder if he merits it. I sense that this meeting is going to be pretty intense.”

Everyone thought for a while and realized something.

The relationship between the top ten anti-demon families and their leaders was inexorable.

For all to gather at a table and have fun would be impossible.

That was expected.

It was very lively outside, but the banquet table in the dining hall was deserted.

The gods of the top ten anti-demon families, from Gongsun Deity at the lowest rank to Ximen Jian at the highest rank all have come together.

The heads of the ten families were sitting around a banquet table.

Some gods whispered to each other, but the most remained silent. The atmosphere was awkward.

Just then, light footsteps sounded.

Tuoba Deity entered first and announced loudly: “Silver God is here!”

The gods turned their heads and watched a silver-haired youth enter the building.

The alliance leader was somewhat shocked but stood up to greet him anyway. “The Silver God has come. Come, sit beside me.”

This move was undoubtedly an indication to the anti-demon families present that Su Yu was someone who needed to be watched closely.

Su Yu’s eyes flickered slightly. Although he understood the intention of the leader, he did not resist it, because he had promised before that if the leader agreed to the marriage, he would strongly support the leader.

Although there were so many gods in front of him, Su Yu did not balk whilst in the limelight and sat down with ease.

Ximen Jian opened his turbid eyes and looked at Su Yu. “I heard that you have become a god of the Great Western Alliance by relying on a tree goddess. Why is the tree goddess absent, while you came here instead?”

His tone was not very nice.

Su Yu secretly laughed. It turned out that the power struggle within the alliance was serious.

The strongman that the Alliance had just recruited was immediately exposed to Ximen Jian’s displeasure.

Su Yu was not anxious but replied, “What do you mean?”

Ximen Jian’s eyes looked at him with vigor: “Huh! How can you be a god in our Great Western Alliance? Based on qualifications, that tree goddess might have them, but you..? What is even more ridiculous is that you get to be ranked on the same level as me! This decision of the alliance leader is very inappropriate!”

“I suggest that you re-examine this person’s qualifications to be an acting god. Otherwise, if outsiders know that anyone can become an acting god of our Great Western Alliance, wouldn’t it be a joke?”

This was obviously a public slap in the face for Su Yu and the Alliance Leader.

The reception and feasting have not yet begun. Instead, the situation had immediately turned awkward.

Not only did Su Yu have an embarrassed look, but the leader also lost face and did not know what to say or do.

Su Yu was laughing privately. This banquet of sorts was turning out to be really interesting.

However, if someone wanted to rely solely on the name of an anti-demon family to kick his butt, Su Yu would not allow it.

Chapter 1270: Everyone Were Shocked

“Who are you?” Su Yu asked Ximen Jian indifferently.

Ximen Jian’s yellow eyes shot with dazzling light, and he replied with a deep voice, “I come from the first anti-demon family and my name is Ximen Jian. Do you disagree with my suggestion?”

“Oh, so it turns out that you are the head of the Ximen family,” Su Yu suddenly realized.

Ximen Jian replied coldly, “It’s good that you now know it. So, now that you do, why don’t you hurry up and get away?”

However, he had just uttered those words why he heard Su Yu’s response. “I thought you were another alliance leader. Since when can the head of a family of the Great Western Alliance criticize the decisions of the alliance leader? Those who don’t know what is going on will think that you are the leader instead.”

“As a new perspective god joining the alliance, I really don’t understand the power structure of the Great Western Alliance at all.”

Ximen Jian’s tone grew colder and he said: “I am the head of an anti-demon family and of course, I heed the orders of my leader. However, if the alliance leader did something wrong, we have the right to point it out.”

“Then do you have the right to let me leave immediately?”

Ximen Jian snorted: “I have the power to suggest...”

“Are you old and deaf? I am asking you, are you qualified to let me go?”

“Presumptuous! How can you talk to a god like that?” Ximen Jian slammed the table angrily.

Su Yu said calmly, “So, you are not able to let me go? Since you do not have this power, please, may I trouble the elders to just shut up?”

“This is an event in preparation to receive me into the alliance. If you don’t like being here, you can get out right away. I have a hard time imagining how a person who claims to feel uncomfortable tries so hard to enjoy himself. What a weirdo.”

The gods who were present here were secretly shocked. This acting god was behaving very lawlessly!

Faced with Ximen Jian, a member of the Great Western Alliance’s first anti-demon family, he dared to act crazy.

“Hahaha!” Ximen Jian roared angrily, “This is the first time in my life that I meet someone as clueless as you are!”

“To make me leave, young man, what qualifications do you think you have?” Ximen Jian sneered. “You were not even born when I already fought against the demons!”

Su Yu looked faintly at him and replied, “You haven’t seen it all because you lived like a dog until your age!”

He didn’t wait for Ximen Jian to react to his words and continued: “As for your resistance efforts against the demon clans, well... since I am so ignorant, can you enlighten me on what you actually accomplished?”

The gods could not help but shake their heads secretly. This was the case of an egg trying to teach the chicken.

In other aspects, there might be flaws in the Ximen family.

However, in terms of resistance against the demon clans, the Ximen family was ranked first; none of the other families would come close.

It was an insufferable question.

“Hehe, what ignorance! Chen, tell him about the performance of our family so that he can be in awe of our achievements!”

Behind him was a middle-aged man with facial features pointing at a family likeness.

“Yes, Father.” The middle-aged man looked at Su Yu and shook his head. “I didn’t expect that there would be a day I would need to explain my father’s merit to an outsider.”

Who did not know about the merits of Ximen Jian? Did they even need a special introduction?

With a bit of reluctance, Ximen Chen said: “My father had killed four demon-level demon gods and thirty or more prospective deities. For the lower-order demons, the numbers are countless. Due to my father’s efforts, we repeatedly turned the tide for the Great Western Alliance and saved innumerable lives! Now, do you understand who you are talking to? ”

“I see,” Su Yu said.

Ximen Chen replied harshly, “Then you had better show some respect! Don’t be ridiculous and make a joke of yourself!”

Su Yu shrugged: "Well, I understand, but it's just that the four demon gods had been beheaded and killed a long time ago. Stop relying on old news to enhance your father's reputation."

"If this is a feat that you are proud of and thought that I had to respect you for it, then I, someone who killed countless demons all the way to escape from the demon world, could expect your family to kneel down in front of me instead!"

What? This statement shocked everyone present!

Even the alliance leader, who was looking coldly at the spectacle, was surprised. "Silver God, what did you just say? You fought your way out of the demon world?"

The Glittering Family also perked up and eyed Su Yu from top to bottom. "Is it the truth?"

The escape of creatures from the demon realm and triggering the giant of the demon realm had already been discussed in previous meetings.

The entire Great Western Alliance was looking for those creatures. However, to think that they actually appeared in front of them!

The most important thing was that they generally believed the creatures who escaped were demons.

Who could have thought that it was someone of the human race?

"You really do dare to say anything! Although I don't know where you got this news, at least there must be evidence; you cannot simply try to pose as one of the escaped souls, yeah? You just say this and you expect us all to believe you?" Ximen Jian sneered. He simply did not believe Su Yu.

Snap!

Su Yu took out a ring and threw it on the table.

"This is ..." The gods froze and looked at the ring to examine it further.

However, after a glance, they were all shocked: "The blood of the Demon God!"

"No, that is the blood of more than five demon gods!"

"What! To think that there is so much demon blood here!"

"Silver God, where did you get it?" Seeing the blood of so many demon gods shocked them.

Su Yu said lightly, "What do you think?"

"Did you really come back from the demon realm?" Finally, a god believed Su Yu's words.

In the Xing River, there were never that many demon gods before. The only plausible answer was therefore that Su Yu had gone into the demon world and killed many demons.

A glaring light blinded everyone as they cast their glances at Su Yu together.

To think that a creature managed to escape from the demon world, alive!

Ximen Jian felt that it was simply unbelievable. However, when he detected the demon blood in the ring, he took in a breath of cold air.

Alas, he still didn't believe it.

"Maybe you just happened to find the blood of the demon gods. There were many dead demon gods within the Xing River; to be able to collect these drops of blood would not be entirely impossible!"

Snapped!

Seeing that Ximen Jian was still unconvinced, Su Yu grabbed a bloodstained badger and put it on the table.

"Ah! Demon creatures!"

"No, it's not an ordinary creature. There seems to be special blood in its body!"

The Alliance Leader Ximen Jian and the Glittering Family all had a look of horror across their faces.

"This is ..." The three seemed to realize something.

Su Yu said lightly, "It is the blood of the Giant of the Bitter Sea, the so-called giant of the demon world."

Howl!

At that moment, there was no doubt.

Su Yu was the creature they were looking for, the creature that had escaped from the Demon Realm.

The eyes of the Glittering Deity lighted up: "Silver God, I'm responsible for finding out what had happened. After the banquet, please be sure to pay a visit to my Glittering Family home."

Su Yu nodded gladly. "Well, I also wanted to visit you to talk about my experience in the demon world."

There were many gods in the various anti-demon families, from the masters of the house to their subordinates, who were highly interested in hearing what had happened!

They had been hostile to the demon world for many years, but their knowledge of that world was negligible.

They did think of sending spies into the demon world, but the creatures that were sent there either died or couldn't return, with no exception.

If they could learn more about the situation of the Demon Realm, they believed that they would have more confidence when fighting against the Demon Clans.

Therefore, they were extremely eager to understand the situation in the Demon Realm.

The rest of the anti-demon families were eager to get involved and rebutted: "Glittering Deity, what you proposed is not correct. This involves the entire anti-demon resistance effort. How could you keep such important information to yourself? It is better to speak now when we are all present!"

They were indeed itching to hear Su Yu's story.

Su Yu said, "Sorry, I'm afraid that's not right!"

"Now, this is a welcome banquet for me, not a meeting to discuss major events." Su Yu refused to speak and instead gave a belligerent look. "Moreover, some news is simply too shocking, and I really can't speak of them in public so as not to cause unnecessary panic. Therefore, I will only convey this to a few masters of several anti-demon families. If this information were leaked, I'm afraid that no one present could control the consequences."

Having heard from Su Yu that the situation was so critical, they no longer insisted.

The Glittering Deity smiled. "If you can't wait, you might as well come to my family home and listen to the Silver God's explanation."

"Haha, the Glittering Deity insists, so I will be there!"

"Hey, demon world... what kind of magic place is that? I also look forward to it very much, and I will definitely participate."

Being affirmed by the many other anti-demon families, the Glittering Deity was appeased.

The Glittering Family's position was awkward. This was because of the initial betrayal of the family many years back. This had intentionally or unintentionally divided the families and caused some to create boundaries with the Glittering Family home.

However, today, almost all the families were willing to head to the Glittering Family home. That had never happened before.

The source of everything was Su Yu!

The Glittering Deity was grateful to Su Yu. He smiled and said, "Come, everyone, a toast to Silver God. He had just joined the Great Western Alliance and already brought me such an important gift!"

"Haha! A toast!"

"Silver God is young and promising. He really makes my anti-demon family feel like nothing at all!"

"It's a great joy for us. Our Great Western Alliance has gained a strong general. Now we can kill off the demons easily. Just thinking about it gets my blood boiling!"

The banquet that was originally flat and boring finally got lively.

Of course, not everyone was happy.

From the beginning to the end of the banquet, the gods of the Ximen Family home were solemn.

"Let's go!" Ximen Jian said coldly as the banquet was about to end.

The other family masters merely pretended to keep him back for a while before eventually allowing him to leave.

Even a blind man could see the anger in Ximen Jian. He had been utterly shamed today in public, so how could he live that down?

Alas, no one sympathized.

After all, why did Ximen Jian become so aggressive and hostile when the Silver God arrived? Was he not asking for it?

After the banquet, they went home, but not before they agreed to host another banquet at the Glittering Family home the next day.

The Glittering Family home welcomed Su Yu and facilitated his joining of the alliance. At the same time, the gods were also looking forward to hearing him speak about the demon world.

Back at the mansion...

The smile on Su Yu's face dissipated, replaced by a touch of sadness.

"What's wrong? Did someone take your baby?" The tree goddess didn't know where it came from, but there was a delicate fragrance on his body.

Su Yu frowned. "If someone stole the baby, maybe I would feel better."

"Oh? What are you worried about?"

Su Yu said, "I'm worried about how to do things successfully. The alliance leader had been exposed as the fox he was. However, how to solve this problem is another question."

"The alliance leader really did not have good intentions. What did you find out at the banquet?"

Su Yu shook his head: "It's obvious that something is wrong. The Ximen Jian family deliberately made things difficult for me, but the Alliance Leader merely stood by indifferently, without any attempt at resolution. He seemed intent to watch me have a serious conflict with the Ximen Family."
