

Nine-Dragon 1451

Chapter 1451 Disturbing The Morale Of The Army

However, it was too late to retreat now.

At the top of the sky, a huge blood-red eye quietly appeared.

This was the Divine Dao Eye of space. Compared to the wine-red color of the past, it was now blood-red, which was exceptionally strange.

Especially when it was buried deep underground, the symbols that were wrapped in the emperor's blood exploded one after another, detonating the divine blood within. The Eye of space appeared even more blood-red.

This was the emperor's blood, which could increase the power of the Supreme Dao.

One Drop was already precious, let alone tens of millions of drops.

This was what Su Yu asked the living beings of nine regions to do, secretly arranging the divine blood outside Shengjing City.

The place where the divine blood appeared increased the space power of the area illuminated by the eye of space.

Moreover, it was an unprecedented increase.

This action consumed 90% of Su Yu's divine blood, but the effect was exceptionally astonishing.

The mutated eye of space exploded with the power of space, enveloping everything within a radius of billions of miles!

As more and more divine blood exploded, the power of space accumulated in the Eye of space reached its limit!

The atmosphere fluctuated, and the world became blurry, as if the boundary was blurred by the power of space.

Under the cover of the blood light, heaven-defying cold star and the five million troops all felt their heads were heavy and their feet were light, sinking into a boundless change in space.

The face of the heaven-defying cold star was pale, and a huge crisis was beating wildly in his heart.

Finally, as the huge blood-red eyes slowly closed.

A super spatial fluctuation covering hundreds of millions of miles was suddenly born!

The heaven-defying cold star, the five million soldiers, and the endless hundreds of millions of miles of mountains and rivers were all instantly teleported away by the spatial power and disappeared from the spot.

And Shengjing City, which was surrounded by the spatial crack and was about to be turned into ashes, was also teleported away by the spatial power at the critical moment.

Rumble --

As Shengjing City suddenly fell to the ground, the city shook violently, as if a huge earthquake had shattered ninety percent of the buildings.

The Brilliant Shengjing city was almost instantly flattened.

Although there were no casualties, it had been reduced to ruins.

After the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth calmed down and the dust settled, the surviving shaman clan members walked out from the ruins and looked at the clear sky with excitement.

“What happened?”

“Yeah, where’s the Spatial Rift?”

“We... We Didn’t die?”

“No, what’s that blood-red light?”

They could not understand why Su Yu could survive in the endless rift that was sure to kill him!

Only Wang Qing Chen and the eight commanders on the city wall saw it up close. It was Su Yu who had cast a divine ability!

A spatial divine ability that spanned hundreds of millions of miles!

Not only were they shocked, even the emperors of the four great empires of the ancient God realm found it hard to believe that they could use such a large spatial divine ability.

Su Yu slowly closed his red right eye, and the huge eye in the sky gradually disappeared.

Wang Qing Chen looked around in shock. “Where are we...”

His voice suddenly stopped. Hundreds of millions of miles behind them was the terrifying spatial rift created by the heaven-defying cold star.

At the critical moment, Su Yu paid a huge price to teleport the entire city out.

“Then, what about heaven-defying cold star and the others?” Wang Qing Chen asked. If he remembered correctly, this was where heaven-defying cold star and the army were located.

Su Yu turned around and looked at the spatial rift.

Wang Qing Chen was slightly stunned. When he came to his senses, his expression changed drastically, and his lips trembled as he said, “They... They were teleported inside?”

When he received Su Yu’s slight nod, Wang Qing Chen’s lips were not the only thing trembling. His entire body was trembling.

It was excitement, it was excitement!

The eight commanders were also extremely excited as they said, “Heaven-defying cold star and the five million strong army were destroyed in the spatial rift that they created after shifting positions with us?”

“More or less,” Su Yu said expressionlessly.

Everyone cheered happily as they welcomed the final victory.

What was even more ridiculous was that the enemy did not die in their hands, but died in the crack that they created to exterminate everything.

“Hahaha! It’s true that heaven can do evil, but you can’t live with it! You want to slaughter all the living beings in our Shengjing sect, leaving not even a blade of grass behind, but in the end, you’ve actually buried yourself!”

“Hehe, if he wasn’t so vicious and left us with a glimmer of hope, we wouldn’t have fallen into a desperate situation now.”

The great battle lasted for six days and six nights.

Both sides were exhausted and exhausted.

What was especially gratifying was that under the obvious disadvantage, they turned the tables step by step and even foiled the enemy’s final plot, burying the enemy in it. It could be said to be a miracle.

Many shamans looked at Su Yu. In their hearts, that weak body was comparable to the full moon cult master at that moment.

Among the crowd, only one person understood Su Yu.

Wang Qing Chen said, “Brother Su, what do you mean by that? Could it be that they can still survive in such a spatial crack?”

Su Yu said, “An army of five million will most likely not be able to survive, but the heaven-defying cold star... the deeper one is in a desperate situation, the more powerful the path of reverse intent becomes. Others will definitely die, but he might not!”

Almost as soon as Su Yu finished speaking, a white light flashed within the endless pitch-black crack.

It was an overbearing arrow of the will of rebellion that was filled with indomitable will to kill those who refused to submit.

The long arrow pierced through the pitch-black crack and created a path.

A young man with disheveled hair flew out from the middle, his cloak broken and his armor shattered.

His pitch-black face, his unremarkable appearance, and the overbearing will of rebellion that wanted to trample all living things under his feet.

If that wasn’t the heaven-defying cold star, who else could it be?

Immediately after, more than 50 commanders with powerful cultivation bases flew out from behind him. They were all gods who had reached the third heaven!

They were the elites of the heaven-defying cold star army, the souls of the army.

With them around, the heaven-defying cold star army would be able to immediately recover its vitality and rebuild the iron blood army.

If they were not dead, this battle would not be considered a complete victory.

However, the two of them were separated by countless mountains and rivers. If they wanted to escape, they might not be able to catch up to them.

Even if they could catch up, how many of them would be left behind in the Shaman Tribe, which had suffered heavy casualties?

Heaven-defying cold star panted heavily. His face was completely pale, and his entire body was surrounded by a powerful will of rebellion. It was as if it had materialized.

The strength of the will of rebellion had surpassed the past and was unprecedentedly powerful.

Although he was tired, his face was filled with joy. He couldn't help but raise his head and laugh loudly. "Su Yu, Oh Su Yu! You wanted to kill me and put me in a desperate situation, but you let my rebellious intent erupt and break through the shackles that I had been holding on to for a long time

"As long as I rest in peace for half a month, I will be able to step into the second sky of the deity realm! At that time, Su Yu, just wait for me to take your life!"

Although he had lost five million soldiers, he had unexpectedly gained a huge increase in the rebellious spirit. For him, it was actually a fortunate thing.

The generals couldn't help but feel cold in their hearts. Only they had escaped the crack, but the soldiers they had brought out for many years would forever remain inside.

At this moment, what heaven-defying cold star cared about was not them, but his own cultivation progress.

Was it really worth it for them to fight to the death for the heaven-defying empire?

Many generals had doubts in their minds.

"Let's Go! Rebuild the army and come to Shengjing again. Next time, I will personally destroy all of them!" Defiant cold star raised his head and laughed, leading everyone to leave.

However, at this moment, the Yin and yang Qi of heaven and earth suddenly became chaotic. A young man with the Taiji Yin and yang light above his head and the black and white wings on his back appeared in front of everyone with his arms crossed.

"Su Yu?" The many generals were startled. They would never have thought that Su Yu would arrive in front of so many of them alone.

Even heaven-defying cold star was startled. He immediately sneered, "There's no need to waste your breath on him. Kill him immediately!"

After witnessing Su Yu's arrangements, heaven-defying cold star was finally convinced that he was a great enemy who had endless tricks up his sleeves.

He didn't want to give Su Yu any chance!

Su Yu's expression was indifferent as he calmly said, "Generals, are you still willing to listen to such a Commander?"

Heaven defying cold star's gaze immediately darkened as he shouted, "Generals, listen to my orders. Do not listen to a single word from this person. He can be killed immediately. Those who violate this will be severely punished!"

The prestige of the past was still present. With heaven defying cold star's order, as soldiers, they instinctively attacked Su Yu.

There were a total of 50 people. If they attacked together, even the kings of the four great empires might not be able to withstand it.

"All of you are defeated generals. You know what will happen to you. Even so, are you willing to listen to his orders?" Su Yu was calm and composed. His words pierced through the deepest worries in their hearts.

That's right, they had suffered a crushing defeat in this battle.

Tens of millions of soldiers were buried in foreign lands, setting a record of casualties that heaven-defying empire had never seen before.

Such a major failure would definitely be punished by the emperor.

With such responsibility, if the last batch of commanders and generals did not die, how would they appease the anger of the people? How would they calm down the morale of the army?

In addition to the ruthlessness and unkindness of heaven-defying cold star, this matter would happen without any suspense. Any of his trusted aides might suffer the fate of being exterminated.

Heaven-defying cold star's expression eased up, and he was no longer as arrogant as before. He said, "Generals, don't worry. I will protect you in front of my father. I will not make things difficult for you!"

The strange thing was that not only did his promise not convince the generals, it made them even more cautious. They stopped one after another and looked at each other.

Heaven-defying Cold Star's heart skipped a beat. He said sincerely, "Generals, don't tell me you don't Even Trust My Promise?"

They still stood on the same spot. They exchanged glances as if they were discussing.

At this moment, they heard su yu say slowly, "Do you think that a rebellious person who refuses to submit will submit to you?"

The generals, who were already shocked, became even more hesitant.

They knew more than anyone else what kind of person heaven-defying cold star was. Not to mention the guilt of their defeat, even if they were to hesitate now, they would definitely be punished later.

"Don't worry, I won't make things difficult for you!" Heaven-defying cold star said hurriedly.

But the more he acted like this, the more uneasy the generals became.

Those who rebelled would never surrender or retreat, and defiantly cold star was even less so.

Without a doubt, defiantly cold star had already sentenced them to death in his heart!

At this moment, they heard Su Yu use a seductive tone. He said in a confused tone, "Generals, defiantly cold star is more lenient than he is strict with others. If you make a mistake at the peak, you will be killed. However, he didn't care that he lost tens of millions of troops! "May I ask, is such a commander still worthy for you to follow?"

"Even if he doesn't pursue the matter of this great defeat, what about the future? Who can guarantee that you can live safely under his hands Forever?"

"If you go back this time, you will definitely die. Why Don't you take this opportunity to leave heaven-defying cold star and choose another wise leader?"

Heaven-defying cold star's face was gloomy. "Shut up! Don't disturb the morale of the Army!"

Chapter 1452 Inciting The Rebellion Of The Generals (Second Update)

"I am merely stating the facts and did not add any embellishments. The right and wrong are right and wrong. All the generals are aware of this," Su Yu said. "All the generals, if you do not mind, you can join me."

As he said this, Su Yu waved his sleeves, and a prepared image floated in the air.

In the image, the traitors of the divine realm, Guo Cheng, General Bai, and a group of soldiers, accompanied by Wang Qing Chen, enjoyed all kinds of good wine and food in the city. They were treated like beautiful women.

They were personally accompanied by Wang Qing Chen, who was the heir of the Wang family. All the shamans in the city gave them face and did not discriminate against them.

Not only did the two of them get a beautiful couple, they even got a manor and were even given important roles.

The battle at the West City Gate was a great achievement for the two of them.

Su Yu did not care about them at all.

This was the 'Difficult Mission' that Su Yu gave them, to enjoy it to their heart's content!

Let them serve as living examples to attract the enemy to surrender.

"As a human being and a member of the divine territory in the past, I don't want to say that all the living beings in the world are one family. The shamans are the shamans, and the divine territory is the divine territory. There is a natural racial difference. It is reasonable that you don't trust the shamans, but can you trust me?" Su Yu said.

"I know that I am not a good person, but I have never killed innocents and never treated any of my subordinates harshly. Under my command, at least you don't have to worry that I am temperamental. At least, you don't have to worry that you will lose your life if you make the slightest mistake. At least, you don't have to worry that you will still be alive tomorrow

"I don't give you much, but these are all things that the heaven-defying cold star can't give you!"

His words touched their hearts deeply.

They had the heart to escape from the heaven-defying cold star and avoid this disaster. The question was, where should they go after they escaped?

Would the other three dynasties dare to take them in?

The heaven-defying cold star even dared to rob the princess of the Eternal Night Dynasty and the Taiqing dynasty's marriage alliance. How difficult would it be to send people to kill them?

The world was so big, and there was only one place that could accommodate them.

Lost Country!

And in the lost country, the only person that they could trust was their former enemy, Su Yu!

If anyone had such courage and strength to protect them, it would be Su Yu!

After a round of battle between heaven and Earth, someone finally took a step forward.

Su Yu had a slight impression of this person. He was also one of the guards who had besieged the black wood forest garrison and captured the holy son, Zhao Tianyin, and had performed meritorious deeds.

At this moment, he was the first to make a decision. He took a step forward and his figure disappeared, arriving beside Su Yu.

He cupped his fists toward heaven-defying cold star and said, "I'm sorry."

Heaven-defying cold star's eyes were filled with dense killing intent. "Nan Huai, you damn traitor!"

Nan Huai said indifferently, "Being a traitor is better than being a dead ghost with no reward."

"You want me to capture the Holy Son, Zhao Tianyin, alive, but not receive any reward? If I make a mistake, I'm sure I'll immediately be killed, right?" Zhao Tianyin said indifferently.

Being Unkind and ungrateful was the most chilling thing about heaven-defying cold star.

Shua --

Another third sky general suddenly walked out and came to Su Yu's side. He cupped his fists at heaven-defying cold star.

"It's You!" Heaven-defying cold star recognized that this was the general who was responsible for transporting the bride, Li Xin.

"Li Xin! It's fine if Nan Huai rebelled, but I have never criticized you at all!" Heaven-defying cold star said angrily.

Li Xin was a female general. She said calmly, "Perhaps the general has forgotten about the soldiers who escorted Xue Xiaoman to her death? Do you know that my parents are among them?"

Defiant Hanxing was stunned. The soldiers who escorted Xue Xiaoman either did not return and got lost in the Black Forest. Anyone who returned was executed by Defiant Hanxing.

Regardless of whether they were trusted aides or not, it was the same.

Shua --

Shua --

Two more generals chose to leave and stood on opposite sides.

"Hahaha... why are you guys doing this? Could it be that this prince also killed your parents, or is there any reward?" Heaven-defying cold star laughed in anger.

The two of them looked at each other and said, "It's not to the extent of parents, but Old Huang is our best friend. He didn't die at the hands of Commander Su, but he died at your hands. We're just unwilling to follow in his footsteps."

Xiu Xiu Xiu --

The strongest fortresses were all broken through from the inside.

The betrayal of the four of them was like a breach in a dam filled with water.

More and more generals made a wise choice after careful consideration.

Following heaven-defying cold star would only lead to death. If they didn't die at the hands of the enemy, they would die at his hands. Why not choose another master?

Especially since heaven-defying cold star was no longer as mighty as before. Now, he was like a stray dog.

If he didn't leave now, when would he do so?

Fifty third sky gods accounted for thirty percent of heaven-defying Empire's experts!

Forty of them chose to join Su Yu and stand on the same line as him, coldly confronting heaven-defying cold star.

Su Yu looked around at the general who stood firmly behind heaven-defying cold star and said indifferently, "Are you sure you want to follow such a Commander? You only have one chance."

There was no doubt that he would not let heaven-defying cold star escape, and he would not let anyone who was related to him go either.

Heaven-defying cold star shouted coldly, "Enough! "You can take in those traitors if you want. If they can betray me today, they can betray you tomorrow. You can keep such a weak-minded person for yourself! "I don't care. Only those loyal generals who firmly follow me are worthy of my nurturing..."

PFFT --

However, at this moment, a black dagger with a jet-black luster suddenly pierced through heaven-defying cold star's chest.

The owner of the Black Dagger was heaven-defying cold star's trusted aide. He was his most trusted aide and also the supporter who had always stood by his side.

The icy cold edge and the sharp poison stimulated heaven-defying cold star.

He turned his head and stared at his trusted aide. There was black blood at the corner of his mouth, and he said in a deep voice, "Why? Pang du! You are a brother that I grew up with. I personally guided you in your cultivation. I thought that only you would not betray me."

The many gods who had already pledged their allegiance to Su Yu also revealed expressions of shock.

If any of them were heaven-defying frost star's trusted aides, then Pang du was their trusted aide.

When he was young, he had been selected by the dynasty from countless children with astonishing potential to accompany the prince as he grew up.

It would not be an exaggeration to say that they were brothers.

His betrayal was the most surprising.

Pang Du's face was white and appeared very gentle. However, at this moment, there was a trace of malevolence and pleasure from having his revenge, he said in a hoarse voice, "Brother? When you snatched my woman and forced me to give up, did you ever treat me as a brother? In your eyes, there's only yourself and no one else."

Even the person he trusted the most chose to betray him.

At this moment, the heaven-defying cold star had been betrayed by everyone.

"Therefore, heaven-defying cold star, you deserve to die!" Pang du let out a vicious smile.

With a flip of his palm, the dagger destroyed his heart.

However, heaven-defying cold star did not die. His face was gloomy and his killing intent was unleashed. "No matter why, those who betray me must die!"

A dark red energy shot out from his chest and instantly melted the dagger.

At the same time, it shot out from the wound and sprayed all over Pang du's upper body.

A shocking scene appeared. Pang du's upper body was instantly vaporized into nothingness by the dark red energy. He died without a burial place on the spot.

His death caused those supporters who were originally determined to follow heaven-defying cold star to quickly change their minds.

This person could not be followed.

In the end, the remaining nine people also chose to join Su Yu.

The heaven-defying cold star had truly become a lone wolf!

He faced the 50 great generals of the past alone, and there was also a great enemy in his life.

He placed his palm on his chest, and the wound automatically healed. One could faintly see a dark red heart that was different from an ordinary person.

It was filled with the bloodline of the heaven-defying emperor.

With this heart, he could be protected from death and death, and he could also kill people, such as Pang Du, who had been accidentally hit.

The heaven-defying cold star coldly looked at the people on the other side of the river with a ruthless gaze, he remembered their faces one by one. "Those who betray me will be killed without mercy. No matter where you go or whether you escape to heaven or earth, I swear that I will use all my strength in my life to kill you one by one! "Including your nine clans, I will wipe them out one by one, not leaving even a chicken or dog behind!"

As his voice fell, it turned into a strange and obscure fluctuation that surged into the heaven and earth.

This was the oath of the Renegade. Once the oath was made, it would fuse into the divine path of the Renegade.

As long as it was not completed, the renegade would not be unblocked.

To the heaven-defying cold star, this was definitely the most resolute oath.

He was only one person, but his words caused the expressions of the fifty people to change.

They clearly understood the meaning in his words, and they also knew that heaven-defying cold star would definitely do this!

"What are you waiting for?" Su Yu said indifferently, "Are you waiting for your nine clans to be exterminated, or are you waiting for him to escape this calamity and come back to seek revenge on you one by one?"

When everyone heard this, their hearts trembled.

Yes, they had come this far, and there was no turning back.

If heaven-defying cold star didn't die, they would never be able to rest in peace.

"Kill!"

"Kill the tyrant!"

..

Everyone raised their troops and charged towards heaven-defying cold star.

Heaven-defying cold star raised his head and laughed loudly, "You won't be able to keep me here! Remember my words, I will come back!"

Shua --

He took out a fan, and the instant he opened it, an even more terrifying rebellious intent gushed out from within.

It was the rebellious intent of the heaven-defying Gu Yun!

The rebellious intent turned into a huge palm and slammed towards the crowd. It was extremely destructive.

Everyone was shocked and couldn't Dodge in time, especially the person at the front, who was about to be destroyed by the palm.

But at this moment, a cold snort came from behind them. Following that, an endless and shocking battle intent was suddenly born.

A divine weapon that looked like any weapon in the world shot out a sharp light, aiming straight at the huge palm formed by the rebellious intent.

The two sides clashed violently. Although the heaven-defying cold star was powerful, the divine weapon was unyielding and grew stronger as they fought.

After a few exchanges, Su Yu's battle intent exceeded its limits and destroyed the giant palm that contained the heaven-defying cold star's Attack!

As the giant palm was destroyed, a muffled groan could be heard. Heaven-defying cold star's body was covered in blood and he turned into starlight and disappeared.

He didn't die, but escaped with injuries.

The starlight contained the aura of the heaven-defying Emperor's divine blood. He must have used the imperial family's inheritance item to escape.

Su Yu transformed into a human figure from his divine weapon state. He could no longer sense his existence.

This could be considered a direct confrontation between them. In the end, heaven-defying cold star escaped with injuries.

Su Yu frowned deeply. This time, heaven-defying cold star had survived. He would definitely break through his shackles in half a month and reach the second sky.

When he returned, his threat would increase by several times!

"This person is a huge threat. We must get rid of him!" Su Yu said in a serious voice.

Chapter 1453 Uncover The Traitor (Third Watch)

Behind him, the generals were silent in fear.

Su Yu had actually defeated the heaven-defying Gu Yun's attack just now!

What did this mean? He had the strength to fight against a second sky god!

Some of the hesitant people made up their minds.

In this world, there might be a few people who could fight against the heaven-defying cold star, but the only one who was willing to protect them was Su Yu!

“We pay our respects to General Su, and we are willing to serve general su with all our might!”The group of people exchanged glances and simultaneously knelt down on one knee to pay their respects.

Su Yu waved his hand, and a gentle force helped them up. He said, “Since you’re following me, there’s no need to pay your respects in the past. I’m not the heaven-defying cold star, so I don’t need you to be respectful everywhere.”

Although the group of people didn’t say it, in their hearts, there was an inexplicable sense of relief and relief.

“Now, I have two orders for you.”

“First, immediately return to the heaven-defying empire. If you have any relatives or relatives, you can move them to Shengjing.”

Everyone sighed with emotion. After being summoned to surrender, the first task they received was not to kill the enemy, but to rescue their relatives and relatives.

Compared to the heaven-defying cold star... They couldn’t help but feel relieved. Perhaps, they should have left the heaven-defying cold star long ago.

“Second, after you return to the dynasty, if you can convince your schoolmates and good friends to secretly work for me, it will be even better. If you perform meritorious deeds, you will definitely be rewarded. However, you must not expose yourself.”

As he spoke, Su Yu pulled out a pile of extremely rare and precious resources from Chu Long’s interspatial ring. They had an unexpected effect on stage three gods.

When everyone saw this, their expressions changed greatly.

Such a large amount of resources, even after ten years of hard work in the god domain, they still hadn’t been able to obtain it.

“My subordinates, the rewards and punishments are clear. All of you should immediately go and do it.”

Everyone was extremely grateful. One after another, they rushed back to dynasty to rescue their relatives and relatives.

The remaining seven or eight people had no ties in dynasty. They followed Su Yu and returned to the Broken Shengjing City.

On the city walls, there were already people of the shaman clan who had respectfully welcomed Su Yu’s return.

In this great war, Su Yu played a role in turning the tide.

If it were any other person in the city, it would be impossible for them to obtain the final victory, even if it was the Wang clan leader himself.

Su Yu pressed his hand and signaled them to be quiet. He said, “Now, it’s time to invite the three seniors and... the traitor who is hiding among us!”

Upon hearing the word ‘traitor’, all the shaman tribe members in the city hated it.

It was because of the help of the traitor that general white bones and the others were secretly released and almost caused a disaster.

Fortunately, Su Yu had anticipated the enemy and made preparations in advance. Otherwise, the consequences would have been unimaginable.

The eight commanders were also filled with killing intent. Under Su Yu’s lead, they went straight to the main hall.

There was a special statue outside the main hall that blocked the outside world, so the inner world could not sense the outside world at all, and they were even more unaware of the situation outside.

The sanctum head said solemnly, “It’s already been six days and six nights. Could it be that Su Yu’s resistance is not going well? I think it’s necessary to change the commander. If not, we should go out and take a look for ourselves.”

Actually, the people inside the hall could not keep their cool either.

Whether it was the Wang clan leader, the sanctum head, the saintess, or Cai Lin.

This battle had been going on for a long time without any results. It would be a lie to say that they were not worried at all.

They also wanted to take a look at the situation in the outside world, but they were still able to restrain themselves.

The temple master of the SAINTESS temple said, “No! It’s precisely because there hasn’t been any movement for six days and six nights that the situation is great! Either the enemy hasn’t arrived yet, or they are resisting. At the very least, it’s several times better than the fan capital being conquered in a short period of time.”

These words had a calming effect. Indeed, no news was good news.

“As for changing generals at the last minute, how could the sanctum head not know about this?”The sanctum head said meaningfully. “As for going out to take a look, have you forgotten why we are gathered here? To prevent the news from leaking out.”

When everyone heard this, they were all suspicious of the sanctum head.

If someone were to say that he was a spy at this moment, perhaps half of them would believe it.

The other half wouldn’t believe it because of his identity as the sanctum head of the sanctum of sages, which was second only to the full moon cult master.

The sanctum head of the sanctum of sages reprimanded him with a straight face, “I’m only concerned about the situation of our shaman clan. I’m only worried about the situation. Are you doubting me?”

To be honest, there were really many doubters.

Even the clan head of the Wang clan, the sanctum head of the saintess, and even the spirit shaman were highly suspicious. How could a person in a high position say all sorts of illogical things at a difficult time without any problems?

However, there was no evidence. Even if they were suspicious of the sanctum head of the sanctum of sages, they wouldn't be able to do anything to him.

They had to find concrete evidence.

At this moment, the barrier outside the door was broken by a burst of violence.

The faces of the people in the hall changed slightly. The only ones who dared to break the barrier with brute force were... the enemies!

Boom

With a loud boom, the barrier was destroyed.

A group of people rushed in.

The leader was none other than general white bones, who was supposed to be trapped in the cage

Behind general white bones, there were more than ten third sky gods, all dressed in the uniform of the heaven-defying dynasty's general.

With so many enemies suddenly rushing in, no matter how stupid they were, they understood that Shengjing city was lost!

Once general white bones entered the hall, he immediately cupped his hands toward the temple master of the sanctum of sages and said, "Temple master of the sanctum of sages, the prince's important matter has been accomplished. Thanks for your help, Temple Master, the Prince will definitely reward you handsomely for this meritorious service."

The sanctum head's expression changed, and he shouted in a deep voice, "God's domain rebel army, what nonsense are you spouting? When have I ever helped you? The city has been destroyed, and the people have perished. Don't even think about harming my shaman clan in the slightest. Take This!"

With a loud shout, the sanctum head immediately rushed over and cast a powerful spell, charging straight at general white bones.

Such valor and unafraid of death was truly admirable.

However, on the way, General Baigu suddenly stopped and sped up to stand beside General Baigu. The anger on his face disappeared, in its place, General Baigu was overjoyed. "Thank you, General Baigu, for personally leading the troops. May I ask if the prince has mentioned the position of sectmaster?"

General Baigu nodded. "Of course, he has mentioned that if the full moon Sectmaster is eliminated, he will definitely push you to become the new full moon Sectmaster."

Hearing this, the sanctum head was overjoyed. He could not help but laugh out loud. "Hahaha, it's not in vain for me to help you in secret! Please tell the prince that if the sacred capital needs help, I am willing to do anything for you."

The fearless conversation shocked everyone in the hall.

The Wang clan leader's expression suddenly changed. "Sanctum head, you... you really betrayed the witch clan and joined the Divine Realm?"

The sanctum head sneered. "What do you mean by betrayal? I was only thinking about myself. Do you really want to wait for death?"

"You Coward!" The Wang clan leader cursed angrily.

The sanctum head's sneer deepened. "A bunch of ignorant people. You've been in the Black Wood forest all year round and have no idea how terrifying the divine realm is. Their ancestors were nine emperors, and they left behind many terrifying civilization weapons. We have no chance of winning."

The sanctum head angrily rebuked, "Don't hide your ambitions anymore. You're doing this for the position of cult master!"

In this regard, the sanctum head did not shy away at all. He said, "Why can't I be the cult master? Why Can't I be the cult master when I can only nurture those juniors to become the cult master? This is unfair!"

These words undoubtedly offended the public.

The cult master had chosen the rules to be passed down from the ancestral witch. As the sanctum head of the sanctum, these words undoubtedly subverted the rules of the ancestral witch, and it caused a wave of anger.

Angry curses and reproaches filled the hall.

The sanctum head of the sanctum of sages had no change in his expression. He laughed and said, "Go ahead, you bunch of losers. Now that Shengjing city has been destroyed and the army of the God realm has occupied it, all of you will die. None of you will be able to live!"

The Wang clan leader, the sanctum head of the SAINTESS, and the spirit witch looked at each other and released their powerful wizard power.

Many juniors in the hall also burst out with an unyielding fighting spirit.

Even though they were dead, they were not willing to surrender.

"Is it useful to resist? If it's really useful, Su Yu claims that he can protect Shengjing capital, but in the end, won't he still end up in a great defeat?" The Holy Son Hall master shook his head and sighed. "Accept your fate. The power of the god domain is beyond your imagination!"

However, not only did their aura not weaken, but it became even stronger.

"You're so Shameless. We can't kill others, but it's more than enough to kill you!" The Wang clan leader knew that the situation was over, so he was ready to kill this traitor with his life.

The sanctum head was fearless and laughed. "Kill me? Don't you see who's standing behind me?"

However, just as his voice fell, general white bone's voice suddenly changed. He said in a voice that the sanctum head was very familiar with, "Oh? I think you should see who's standing behind you."

The sanctum head's body stiffened at the strange voice. He turned his head to look, and his heart suddenly skipped a beat. He cried out involuntarily, "It's You? Su Yu! You... You're not general skeleton?"

A layer of divine light rippled around Su Yu's body, and general skeleton's form faded away and was replaced by Su Yu.

The sanctum head's heart trembled violently. He hurriedly flew toward the other generals of the divine realm and said, "He's Su Yu, the commander of the enemy army. Now, he's pretending to be general skeleton. Quickly catch him!"

However, the dozen or so generals remained indifferent and looked at him with pity.

Noticing that they were acting strangely, the sanctum head's expression gradually darkened. "You... you're also pretending to be generals of the Divine Realm!"

Nan Huai ridiculed, "We're the real ones, but we're no longer serving heaven-defying cold star. We're serving Commander Su now."

Rustle, Rustle, rustle --

The sanctum head staggered a few times and fell to the ground. He stared at Su Yu in disbelief. "You... How did you do it? How did they surrender to you?"

Su Yu said, "It's very simple. Heaven-defying cold star lost the battle, and they surrendered to me."

What? The God's Domain Army lost? The war ended?

The sanctum head could not believe it. He stammered, "You... how can you defeat them?"

In his memories, the Army of the divine realm was an invincible existence.

Their voodoo race was destined to be destroyed by the heaven-defying empire.

Su Yu said, "People like you will never understand what a miracle is."

"Lock him up. If he dares to move, kill him," Su Yu ordered indifferently. The general of the divine realm behind him immediately stepped forward and firmly bound him.

The sanctum head finally reacted. "Wait! Let me die first to understand! You pretended to be general white bones just now to test me?"

Su Yu nodded nonchalantly.

"Impossible! There are so many people in the sanctum. How can you be sure that I'm the Mole? It can't be that my relationship with you isn't good, right?"

Su Yu replied, "Of course not! It's because I've suspected you for a long time!"

Chapter 1454 Ancient God Nine Dragons (Fourth Watch)

“Based on guesses?”The sanctum head was unwilling.

Su Yu shook his head. “No, I saw it with my own eyes! I was stationed in the Black Wood Forest and saw with my own eyes that the sanctum head Zhao Tianyin handed a scroll to the people of the divine realm.”

“At first, I didn’t know what the scroll was, but after the destruction of the fan capital in a short period of time, I had a guess.”Su Yu’s eyes revealed a profound light. “I’ve been thinking, why are the people of the divine realm so familiar with the abandoned tunnels?”

“In the fan capital, they can find the tunnels that lead directly to the city, and in Shengjing, they can find the distribution of all the tunnels! and such comprehensive information can only be found in three places.”

“First, the headquarter of the full moon sect! Second, the Holy Maiden Hall! Third, the sanctum of sages!”

“Combined with the scroll that Zhao Tianyin gave me, I can almost be sure that the spy is you! It’s just that I don’t have any evidence, so I lured the snake out of its hole!”

After learning of the entire situation, the sanctum head threw his head back and laughed. “Su Yu, Oh Su Yu! I’ve Schemed for ten years, but it’s all because of you. If you want to kill me or cut me up, do it! I admit defeat!”

HMM? Admit defeat so easily? This was a little beyond Su Yu’s expectations.

“Seal his wizard power,”Su Yu said.

The generals behind him no longer had any doubts and immediately stepped forward.

However, at this moment, someone immediately stood up and said, “Don’t touch him. He’s using the universal teleportation spell!”

The two generals were alerted and immediately retreated.

Su Yu’s eyes flashed, and he immediately unleashed a wave of spatial energy to isolate the area around the sanctum head.

After isolating the area, an invisible wave crashed into the blood-red light screen.

Immediately, his figure disappeared from where he stood and instantly appeared near the light screen where the wave crashed into.

That was a spell that could teleport one’s figure.

Wherever the ripples passed by, the figure would teleport somewhere.

If one was touched by a creature Midway, the figure would teleport into the creature’s body and disappear without a trace, making it impossible to find it.

If it weren’t for someone’s warning, the two generals would have been almost fooled by the sanctum head and had been burrowed into his body.

The sanctum head turned gloomily and stared at the person who had spoken. He snapped, “Zeng Lin! You betrayed me?”

He had never expected that the person who had betrayed him would be his disciple, Zeng Lin!

“Master, you can teach me how to be sinister and despicable, or you can teach me how to be unscrupulous. However, as a member of the Shaman Tribe, this is something that can not be erased,”Zeng Lin said sternly

If it had been in the past, he probably would not have done so.

However, in the Dreamland of the secular world, he had been stimulated by Su Yu’s unyielding battle intent, and his attitude had changed a lot.

At the very least, he would no longer lower his head to his former dignified master and turn a blind eye to his actions. Instead, he would dare to correct him.

“If I had known this would happen, I would have killed you, you vile creature!”The sanctum head was filled with hatred.

No matter how cunning he was, he was defeated by his own disciple in the end.

Su Yu’s gaze turned slightly cold. He had been careless. The sanctum head possessed many unknown sorcery arts, without Zeng Lin’s reminder, he had really escaped.

“It seems that I can’t let you live,”Su Yu said indifferently. He pressed his fingers together, and an extremely sharp battle intent suddenly descended, crushing the sanctum head of the sanctum of sages.

Knowing that he was about to die, the sanctum head of the sanctum of sages simply stopped begging for mercy, a resentful expression appeared on his face. “Su Yu! You Won’t have a good ending. Don’t think that just winning a victory is enough. The real battlefield has never been fan jing or Shengjing, but...”

Before he could finish his words, he was crushed into dust.

Su Yu slowly added, “It’s Shengjing.”

Everyone had long recovered from the shock of Su Yu’s great victory. When they heard the secret revealed by the Hall Master of the Holy Son Hall before his death, they couldn’t help but be greatly shocked.

The Wang clan’s patriarch said in horror, “Little friend Su, what does he mean by what he said?”

The Holy Maiden Hall Master, Holy Maiden, and the others didn’t have the time to celebrate the miraculous victory in front of them. They all felt extremely uneasy and stared at Su Yu without blinking.

It was as if Su Yu was their backbone.

Su Yu looked in the direction of the Holy Capital and slightly nodded. "It's the literal meaning! The Holy Capital is the real main battlefield! Because from the beginning to the end of the war in Shengjing, that person has never appeared."

The person he was talking about, everyone's heart trembled at the same time.

They knew who that person was... the Emperor of the heaven-defying empire, the heaven-defying Gu Yun!

He had already arrived at the lost country and fought in the Battle of Brahma capital. However, in the Battle of Shengjing capital, such a huge war was nowhere to be seen.

There was only one reason, he had to do something more important.

This matter was far more important than the Battle of Shengjing Capital.

And in the lost country, what was more important than this battle, besides Shengjing Capital?

Everyone's heart sank. If the Battle of Shengjing capital was not the most important battle, then how fierce would the Battle of Shengjing Capital Be?

Temple master saintess said, "We will immediately return to the capital. The temple masters of the two halls, as well as the experts in the hall, have been sent out. Shengjing city probably doesn't have much combat power to use."

"There's no need. It may be too late to go back now." Su Yu said.

Saintess was unhappy. "How do you know?"

Su Yu sighed. "Didn't you already say it? All the experts in the capital have been sent out... haven't you ever thought about the intention behind this?"

Even though they knew that the great enemies of the divine realm had invaded the lost country, they had still transferred the two most important palaces out of the witch clan's Holy Land, the Holy Capital.

Unless the full moon god sect did not care about the holy capital, they would never do such a thing.

There was only one reason for doing so. The sect master had used this excuse to transfer them away from danger.

"The sect master is in danger!" The Wang clan's patriarch turned pale with fright. "Pass down the order. The Wang clan's experts will follow our clan leader into battle!"

The Holy Maiden Hall master also said, "All those who belong to the Holy Maiden Hall, Follow Me!"

When the order was given, the outside world was shaken. The witch clan's army, which was still recovering, immediately readied itself and prepared to assist Shengjing.

Su Yu was silent and didn't move.

Wang Qingchen cupped his fists and said, "Brother Su, I am extremely grateful for your help to our witch clan. However, this trip to Shengjing is fraught with danger. Please don't get involved anymore, brother Su!"

He could foresee that this was a more terrifying danger than the battle in Shengjing sect.

Perhaps, Su Yu was also not confident.

“I suggest that everyone, it's better not to throw away your lives rashly. Don't waste the good intentions of the full moon sect leader,” Su Yu said lightly.

Everyone paused for a moment and continued to prepare with an expressionless face.

The Wang clan leader said, “I am very grateful to little friend for saving my shaman clan. However, the sect leader is in trouble. As a shaman clan, we can not stand idly by.”

The Holy Maiden temple master also said, “I understand your feelings, but please understand us. We are very sorry that we can not listen to your suggestion.”

They would not blame Su Yu for not saving them because Su Yu had already done enough for them.

However, it was impossible for them to listen to Su Yu.

After all, the war had already passed and he was no longer the commander.

At this moment, the spirit shaman who had not spoken all this time stood up silently and sighed deeply. “I think that everyone may have to listen to Su Yu's suggestion.”

HMM? At this moment, the spirit shaman's words were thought-provoking.

He silently took out a golden divine statue from his sleeve. It was the sect leader's divine decree!

When this item appeared, everyone in the hall knelt down and bowed. “We listen to the Divine Decree!”

It turned out that the spirit shaman had been sent here together to supervise the battle. In secret, there was actually a divine decree.

This was something that no one had expected.

The statue was crushed, and an image appeared in the sky.

The image flowed, and a white-robed middle-aged man appeared.

When Su Yu saw this person, he could not help but be shocked. “Why is it him?”

The white-robed middle-aged man had a refined temperament, and he was elegant.

He had seen him before, and they had met twice!

Once in a restaurant, and once in a dungeon.

It was he who had come to the town where heaven-defying empire's troops were stationed and destroyed the Divine Falcon Witch Hunters Union, killing a portion of the generals in the army.

And these people were the people that Su Yu had wanted to kill at that time.

Because they had colluded with Zhao Tianyin to find the souls of the people of the divine realm, helping Zhao Tianyin cultivate the forbidden witchcraft of the shaman clan.

He had not expected that they would be completely annihilated by that mysterious middle-aged man.

What was even more unexpected was that the mysterious middle-aged man was actually the full moon cult master himself!

This was something Su Yu had never expected!

In the picture, the middle-aged man smiled calmly. "Su Yu, are you very surprised? I once said that we would meet again."

Su Yu remembered that at that time, he had cast a strange glance at eternal night first snow and had mysteriously concluded that they would meet again.

Now that he thought about it, it was him who had seen through the ancestral wizard power hidden in Eternal Night First Snow's body.

The only way to unravel this ancestral wizard power was to come to the shaman race.

That was why he had made such a conclusion.

"But I'm also very surprised that you would touch the ancestral wizard Tombstone and challenge me," the middle-aged man said with a smile, his expression calm and otherworldly.

This was a pre-recorded image, and Su Yu was unable to answer it. He could only look at the middle-aged man and Mutter to himself.

"I've been in seclusion for several hundred years. A few months ago, I sensed that a disaster was coming, so I quietly set off and visited the four lands. In the end, I discovered an ancient civilization weapon hidden in the heaven-defying empire. Its strength is unrivalled, and this item might be the source of the Shaman Race's disaster

"It was also on this trip that I discovered that someone was collecting the souls of the dead and cultivating dark magic. It was precisely because of this that I met you, Su Yu, the successor of ancient God Nine Dragons!"

Su Yu was shocked!

Ancient God Nine Dragons was the true owner of the nine dragons divine cauldron.

He had heard these words from the king of the Central Plains once.

This time, it was the second time.

Who was ancient God Nine Dragons? Su Yu was eager to ask. He was familiar with the history of the Star River Divine Realm, the lost divine realm, and the three regions of the shaman race, but he had never once found the words 'ancient god Nine Dragons'.

"I didn't expect that the descendant of ancient god Nine Dragons that the ancestor shaman spoke of really existed. I thought it was just a legend."

The full moon sect master continued, "If you really are the descendant of ancient God Nine Dragons, then you have the right to challenge me!"

Hearing this, Su Yu's heart moved.

His sole purpose in coming to the shaman race was to defeat the full moon cult master and obtain his yin-yang move to save the first snow of the eternal night.

Half a month ago, the spirit shaman had said that the cult master was preparing to challenge him.

Now, he didn't know if he could continue.

The full moon cult master suddenly sighed. "If you saw this image, then I think that perhaps you've already won?"

HM? Even if Su Yu's mind was flexible, he was still confused.

The challenge had not yet begun, so how could it be that Su Yu had already won?

The Spirit Shaman said from the side, "Sect leader had long expected that the three capital cities would be attacked, so he used this as a challenge! Whoever can defend a city will win! And you, have saved Shengjing!"

"The challenge has long begun, and your challenge has long ended. Congratulations, you have successfully defended Shengjing."

Chapter 1455 The Magical Use Of The Heavenly Book (5th Watch)

Su Yu was dumbfounded after listening to it.

So the challenge had already started without any reaction? And the content was not a one-on-one fight, but a competition to see who could defend a city?

Although it was different from the previous challenges, it was completely in line with the rules -- life or death.

Defending a city meant life, and failure meant death.

And now, the full moon cult master..

The portrait was nearing its end. "If I Die, you win! "According to the rules of our Shaman Tribe, the winner will have priority over the Holy Son and holy daughter and become the new cult master of the Shaman Tribe! "This oracle must be made public in front of the masters of the two halls and the two capitals before it can be effective! "All members of our shaman tribe must not disobey!"

Then, the image shattered.

The hall was silent.

They were also shocked by the sudden news.

Su Yu had already been in the midst of a challenge and had obtained victory.

If it was confirmed that the full moon cult master had failed, he would be promoted to the new cult master!

Such news really surprised them.

But no one could disobey the cult master's divine order.

The spirit shaman said, "Now, the only thing we have to do is to confirm whether the cult master has fallen or Not!"

If he died, Su Yu would immediately be conferred the title of cult master and lead the Shaman Clan.

The entire place was silent as they fell into an awkward situation.

If they went to rescue the cult master, it would be the same as stopping Su Yu from advancing to the Great Dao of the cult master.

If they didn't go, they would have let down the cult master who had treated them so well for so many years.

At this moment, no one could say anything as they looked at each other.

"Then let's set off immediately." A voice broke the silence. It was Su Yu..., he looked around at everyone. "I think your cult master has made a mistake. The source of the disaster is not the heaven defying empire, but something even more terrifying. Now is not the time for him to sacrifice himself."

In the Mystic Crystal Mountain Range, there was a sealed evil daughter, and a trapped Devil Dragon.

That was the true disaster.

As for the position of cult master, Su Yu had never been interested in power. Compared to that, a living full moon cult master was more useful than a shaman who needed help.

Hearing this, everyone was moved.

If it were any other ordinary person, they would have been eager to wait for the cult master to die and immediately become the cult master.

Only Su Yu was willing to take the risk to go and rescue him!

How could they know Su Yu's breadth of mind? It was not in power and influence, nor was it in the lost country. Instead, it was in the entire lost country and the two great god realms.

The group quickly set off towards the sacred capital.

As expected, they discovered a large number of divine domain experts along the way. They did not belong to the heaven-defying cold star's army. Without a doubt, they were the army led by heaven-defying Gu Yun!

They were currently chasing after the scattered shaman tribe residents. After they were discovered by Su Yu and the others, they killed them on the spot.

After asking around, they learned that they were refugees from the tribes near the sacred capital.

They did not know much about the situation in the sacred capital. All they knew was that they had been besieged a few days ago.

Hearing this, everyone became even more anxious.

Two days later, they rushed all the way to the sacred capital.

In the end, what they saw was a shocking scene.

The once prosperous sacred capital had been razed to the ground.

The ground was filled with floating corpses that flowed in the blood.

There were the shamans and the army of the divine realm.

The Cult Master's Divine Hall in the center, which used to be impenetrable under the world-destroying spell, had also collapsed into ruins.

"How could this be..."the Saintess'shrine master couldn't believe what she was seeing.

However, the scorched earth and floating corpses on the ground told them the tragic reality.

Everyone was stunned and stared at the cult master's Shrine in a daze.

At this moment, Su Yu landed on the ruins of the shrine in a flash. A golden light revolved in his palm and split open the ground, revealing a middle-aged man who was buried in the ruins and was on his last breath.

It was a spirit shaman, a spirit shaman who had mastered punishment.

He still had a breath left in him. When he realized that Su Yu and the others had arrived, Zhan Zhan Wei raised his finger and pointed to the west.

To the west was the tomb of the ancestral shaman, where the Shaman Tribe's Holy Land was located!

After pointing to the direction, the spirit shaman put down his finger and completely stopped breathing.

"It's in the Holy Land, let's hurry over!"Su Yu said. He immediately led his army and headed straight for the Holy Land.

The sacred land.

The graveyard where the past full moon sect masters were buried was beyond recognition. It was completely destroyed by the powerful energy, and their remains were blasted into pieces on the ground.

Along with it were the corpses of many powerful shamans.

As for the ancestral shaman sacred altar in the middle, it was surrounded by three inner and three outer divine realm experts.

On the steps of the sacred altar stood a slightly tanned middle-aged man with a light smile on his face. He was none other than the heaven-defying Gu Yun!

He stood with his hands behind his back. In front of the innate yin-yang stance, he easily broke through one of them.

On top of the altar was the full moon cult master who was covered in blood. There were six hideous wounds on his chest. It was unknown what had injured him, but they were still emitting black smoke and could not be healed for a long time.

His blood flowed all over the ground and dripped down the steps of the altar.

Defiant Gu Yun casually shattered a natural yin-yang stance and said with a faint smile, "It is said that this is the graveyard of your ancestral witches. Anyone who steps on the steps will be tested?"

The face of the full moon cult master turned pale. It was a sign that his injuries were too severe. He no longer had the strength to fight.

He looked at defiant Gu Yun indifferently and said, "Not everyone who steps on the steps will be tested. Some people will be punished."

"Oh? Just based on these few Phantoms?" Defiant Gu Yun sneered. He easily crushed them into dust with a finger.

Defiant Gu Yun shook his head indifferently. "There's no need to test me. This is indeed the shaman clan's number one technique that you wanted to obtain, the innate yin-yang stance. Unfortunately, this stance has its own spirituality. It's not something that you can learn just because you want to."

Defiant Gu Yun's expression stiffened slightly, as if he had been exposed.

However, he quickly concealed it and said, "The reason I exterminated the Shaman Clan was to avenge the martyrs who sacrificed their lives in my divine realm. The items of your shaman clan are far inferior to the vast and profound knowledge of my divine realm. Why do I need to learn from you?"

"Is that so? How come I didn't know that someone as selfish as you would be willing to go to great lengths for the Divine Realm, to the extent that you would even attack the Holy Land?" The full moon cult master said indifferently, it was as if he had seen through everything. "You wish to obtain this stance and use it on that super civilized weapon to create a powerful killing weapon, right?"

After being exposed continuously, defiant Gu Yun decided to not hide it anymore, feng Qingyun said calmly, "You are only half right. I asked for the innate yin-yang move not only to create a killing weapon, but more importantly, to create an object that can break the realm!"

The full moon cult master was slightly stunned. Break It? Where to?

Looking at defiant Gu Yun who was getting closer, the full moon cult master said, "I advise you not to go forward anymore. The innate yin-yang move will not agree with you. Coming to the altar will only lead to your own death."

Heaven-defying Gu Yun smiled and stepped onto the altar.

Immediately, the divine blood flowing on the altar suddenly sank into the altar, as if it had been swallowed by something.

Immediately after, on the gravestone of the ancestral sorcerer's tomb, the ancient words carved on it flashed rapidly and flew out of the gravestone, forming a human body!

There were hands and feet, eyes and nose, and the entire body was filled with ancient words, making it seem extremely strange.

The person made of characters was very spiritual. With his hands behind his back, he calmly looked at defiant Gu Yun.

A hint of solemnity appeared on defiant Gu Yun's face. "The spiritual nature of the natural yin-yang style?"

The Natural Yin-yang style opened its mouth. Its voice was hollow, like a puppet. There was no emotional fluctuation. "Step back. You Don't meet the requirements. You are not allowed to barge in."

"What if I say no?" Defiant Gu Yun said. At the same time, his figure suddenly changed. He took a step forward and went straight for the creature formed by the natural yin-yang style.

The innate yin-yang style indifferently extended his palm. The words on the surface of his body flickered and condensed into a special ripple in the palm.

The ripple could be seen with the naked eye. It was not the gray color of the spell, but a glittering golden color.

The ripple did not even take an instant from the activation to the radiation.

Defiant Gu Yun's expression changed drastically. He did not even have time to defend himself before he was turned into dust under the golden radiation.

A second sky god was killed so easily! !

Full Moon sect master shook his head in disappointment. "It's a pity that he wasn't killed."

Xiu --

A violent cough sounded from below the altar. A pale-faced person walked out from the void. His eyes were filled with fear and ecstasy after surviving the calamity.

If that wasn't heaven-defying Gu Yun, then who was it?

In his palm was a small person covered in cracks. This was the inheritance of the heaven-defying imperial family, a substitute for the tribulation.

It was this thing that had blocked the fatal blow for him.

Heaven-defying Gu Yun licked his lips and raised his head to stare at the words on the stage with his hands behind his back, he laughed out loud, "Good! Good! It is indeed as powerful as the rumors say. With less than 1% of its power, it can destroy a second sky expert! If it succeeds in cultivating, there is great hope of breaking through this world!"

As he spoke, he took out a transparent book that was like water.

He flipped it open, but there was nothing on it.

However, the full moon sect master on the altar had a change in expression. “Heavenly Book? You actually mastered a heavenly book!”

Heaven-defying Gu Yun chuckled. “In the past, my ancestor received guidance from an otherworldly expert and gifted a heavenly book. This book covers all the laws of Great Dao. Although the natural yin-yang style is amazing, unfortunately, it is also a part of the laws of Great Dao! If I use the heavenly book to record this book, it won’t be able to resist it!”

As expected, the moment the heavenly book was opened, the body of the Yin-yang style immediately became chaotic.

One by one, the characters seemed to have received a fatal attraction and were all eager to try the heavenly book.

It was only because of spiritual control that they didn’t immediately enter the heavenly book.

However, it was only a matter of time.

The body that was born with the yin-yang style gradually shattered and finally turned into a large mess of characters that flew rapidly toward the heavenly book.

The full moon sect leader’s expression changed greatly. He didn’t care about his serious injuries and slapped the ground with his palms. He rose into the air and used his body to block the characters as he shouted, “No!”

However, the characters were already out of control. They slammed the full moon sect leader aside and flew toward the heavenly book.

“No!”The full moon sect leader spat out blood and his eyes were about to split open. He could not accept the scene before him.

However, he could not stop it. He could only watch as the words flew towards the heavenly book.

Defiant Gu Yun licked his lips. The palm that held the heavenly book trembled in excitement. His eyes stared at the words that were getting closer and closer. His eyeballs were bulging.

Closer!

Even closer!

However, just as the words were about to be recorded, the words in the sky suddenly changed direction. With a spin, they bypassed the “Heavenly book”and headed straight for the sky.

Heaven-defying Gu Yun was stunned. He suddenly looked towards the sky.

He saw a silver-haired figure holding a transparent, wordless heavenly book in his hand.

Those words were heading towards the “Heavenly book”in his hand.

The silver-haired figure recorded many words and gently closed the ‘Heavenly Book’. He let out a long sigh. “So the ‘heavenly book’can be used in this way. I’ve learned a lot from you. Thank you, heaven-defying king, for your teachings. I, Su, am extremely grateful.”

Damn, writing from six in the morning till now. I came so late. Tomorrow night at eight, I’ll come again at five... ahem, I’ll try my best to be punctual.

Chapter 1456 Old And New Grudges

“You also have the heavenly book? Impossible, who gave it to you?” Heaven-defying Gu Yun was shocked beyond words. He was even more shocked than when the divine path was destroyed by Su Yu’s hand.

Su Yu said indifferently, “I have the same problem.”

Other than him, there was actually a second person in the world who held the heavenly book.

Then, who gave it to heaven-defying emperor?

Was It Yun Yazi?

Heaven-defying Gu Yun was shocked, but he was still shocked. He stared at Su Yu’s figure and felt even more hatred. He could not maintain the calm expression on his face.

Traces of evil aura could be vaguely seen.

Such a heaven-defying Gu Yun who lost his composure was rarely seen by the army of the divine realm around him.

Snatching the remains of the ice and fire emperor, destroying his path of reverse intent, and snatching the Yin-yang move that he had painstakingly planned.

Before the old feud was settled, new feuds were added.

At this moment, even heaven-defying Gu Yun could not help but suspect that Su Yu was sent by the heavens to deliberately obstruct his existence.

Any plan that he had laid out with great effort would have Su Yu interfering in it.

“Su Yu! Just in Time!” Heaven-defying Gu Yun’s expression was as cold as ice. “I didn’t expect that you would actually dare to appear in front of me!”

Su Yu said indifferently, “Why wouldn’t I Dare?”

Their gazes collided in the void and a sharp light shot out.

“You’re courting death!” Even though defiant Gu Yun’s defiant will was extinguished, he still had his usual habits and disliked being provoked the most.

With a light shout, his figure disappeared from where he was.

When he reappeared, he had already rushed to the top of Su Yu’s head and kicked at Su Yu’s head. “Eternal suppression!”

This kick contained an extremely powerful divine ability. It contained a hint of a majestic force that could easily destroy anything.

Su Yu was not afraid at all. She transformed into a divine weapon and unleashed her limitless battle intent.

This battle intent was something that defiant Gu Yun had personally experienced. He immediately shivered and the killing intent in his heart deepened.

Not only did he not restrain his kick, it was even more powerful and contained an extremely sharp aura.

Boom --

Both sides exchanged blows in the air. The divine weapon that Su Yu had transformed into immediately shattered into countless pieces of dust. However, it was quickly reforged.

However, before the reforging was completed, defiant Gu Yun stomped on it again.

The divine weapon that was covered in cracks shattered once again.

Defiant Gu Yun did not stop. He stomped on the divine weapon eight times in a row, and each stomp caused the divine weapon's fragments to shatter even more.

It was only when he stomped ten times in a row, containing ten full force strikes, and the divine weapon's fragments were reduced to nothingness, that he slowly stopped his feet.

That piercing battle intent slowly dissipated.

Defiant Gu Yun took a deep breath and calmed his slightly heaving chest. He said coldly, "Although the limitless battle intent is terrifying, it's a pity that you're not strong enough. If you comprehend another level, I'm afraid I won't be able to do anything to you!"

The limitless battle intent was invincible. However, if the enemy was too strong, they would instantly destroy the divine weapon and not give them a chance to be reborn.

Then, Wuji's battle intent would naturally disintegrate.

Kacha Kacha --

At this moment, a soft sound came from the void. A weak light was born in the void and condensed into fragments.

Finally, the fragments gathered into one and transformed into Su Yu's form.

His original body was not injured, but his brows were deeply furrowed.

As expected, compared to the heaven-defying Gu Yun in the dream, the real heaven-defying Gu Yun was ten times stronger!

His strongest move was unable to contend with the heaven-defying Gu Yun.

"Your life is really tough! This emperor will send you on your way immediately!" Heaven-defying Gu Yun said.

On the altar, the full moon sect master endured his injuries and said, "Take your natural yin-yang move and leave immediately. Don't worry about me!"

But Su Yu didn't hear it.

The full moon sect master was slightly anxious. "I know you came all the way here for me, but as smart as you are, you should have understood my intention of sending the masters of the two halls and important members to Shengjing sect. Protect your natural yin-yang move well and protect them well. My death is not worth regretting."

Su Yu indifferently said, "I'm sorry. It's precisely because of my comprehension that I can't do as you wish... I don't want to replace you and take care of the descendants of the shaman clan. You protect your clansmen yourself!"

While speaking, the heaven-defying Gu Yun had already displayed his divine ability, and it was that powerful kick again.

Su Yu's face was unchanged. He took a deep breath and took out a golden broken horn from his sleeve.

The moment the horn appeared, it caused a tremor.

"This... This is the horn of the dragon sealed within the 10,000 demons territory. How did you..."the sect master of the full moon sect was the first to exclaim in shock.

Following that was the heaven-defying Gu Yun. From the Golden Dragon Horn, he sensed an extremely terrifying threat.

His expression immediately changed. His figure flickered and he immediately dodged.

However, Su Yu was already prepared. How could he avoid it?

A ball of flame burned in Su Yu's palm. The seemingly tough dragon horn immediately burned, giving birth to an incomparably large seven-colored flame.

A mocking voice came from within the flame. "Oh? You finally used your true body? I thought the little guy had run away."

The voice drifted down, giving everyone a soul-shattering impact.

It was as if the speaker was the god King of the endless vast ocean.

Even the full moon sect master and heaven-defying Gu Yun trembled violently and were in great shock.

They could even sense the aura that the speaker exuded that surpassed the second sky, as well as the indescribable pressure.

"Cut the crap. The enemy is right in front of us. I'll leave it to you,"Su Yu said as he dashed up the altar.

Many obstacles with Yin and yang styles appeared on the stairs, but they did not stop Su Yu.

"How are your injuries?"Su Yu asked.

The full moon sect master smiled bitterly, "I won't die."

His eyes were fixed on the burning golden flame, but he heard a dissatisfied snort from within, "There are only a few who can talk to me like this without being punished!"

Although he said it, everyone could hear that this trapped master of one of the three forbidden lands was extremely familiar with Su Yu!

Boom --

Even though everyone did not see what was in the flames, they could feel a pair of terrifying eyes sweeping over them and finally fixed on heaven-defying Gu Yun.

“Hehe, the descendant of heaven-defying emperor, the Supreme Dao of reverse intent has completely disappeared. Your Supreme Dao has come to an end.” The creator Dragon could also see the shocking weakness that he was trying his best to hide.

Heaven-defying Gu Yun’s heart was shaken, and his eyes were extremely solemn. “Senior, we didn’t mean to offend you. If we have disturbed you, please forgive us.”

“We won’t disturb you, we won’t disturb you. We’re just sending you on your way. Don’t be afraid.”

Heaven-defying Gu Yun’s heart thumped, thinking that this was not good.

Within the flames, a huge pitch-black claw suddenly stretched out and slapped towards heaven-defying Gu Yun.

The momentum was a hundred times more powerful than defiant Gu Yun’s ‘eternal suppression’!

This attack was not much weaker than his natural yin-yang style.

Defiant Gu Yun’s heart was pounding. He took out another substitute Dharma Treasure in pain.

But before it was crushed, the creator Dragon said majestically from the flames, “Return to the absolute beginning!”

Immediately, a Great Dao Law chain appeared nearby.

The substitute Dharma Treasure in the hands of the heaven-defying Gu Yun, which could kill him, lost its function and became an ordinary dharma treasure.

The experts around also realized that all the precious dharma treasures in their hands had become ordinary weapons or even raw materials.

Under the Great Dao Law, all the Dharma Treasures returned to their original state.

It was somewhat similar to time reversal, but it was more profound and contained the Great Dao Law of creation.

This is the law of the dragon of creation, creation.

Chapter 1457 Six Paths Of Heavenly Connection

Heaven-defying Gu Yun, who had lost his substitute magic treasure, took the blow from the giant claw.

At the critical moment, heaven-defying Gu Yun unleashed his will to resist. He used everything he had learned in his life to resist this attack.

Boom! Boom! Boom

However, under the Dragon Claw, all resistance was futile.

Heaven-defying Gu Yun was sent flying by the palm. He turned into a pitch-black dot and disappeared at the edge.

Along the way, countless milky-white divine blood sprayed out, and no one knew if he was dead or alive.

“Let’s finish this job. Kid, I’m going back. Half a year’s time is coming, don’t miss it.”

With that, the seven-colored flames were extinguished.

Su Yu stood up and stared coldly at the many generals surrounding the altar.

The number of soldiers surrounding the holy capital was not many, only less than ten thousand.

But those ten thousand were all experts from the heaven-defying empire.

“If you don’t want to die, Scram immediately!”

If it was in the past, Su Yu’s appearance would only cause them to boil with excitement. They wanted to kill him in exchange for the reward of being wanted by the four great empires.

But now, who dared to covet him?

Even the fate of the heaven-defying Gu Yun was unknown. Was there still a need for them to continue surrounding him?

“Go! Find the Commander!”

The army retreated like a tide, resolving the danger of the full moon sect master.

At this moment, the Saintess Hall master, the Wang clan leader, and the accompanying army arrived at the altar and apologized profusely.

The full moon cult leader smiled and waved his hand. “It’s fine. I arranged for you to leave the sacred capital. It’s not your fault, cough cough...”

Seeing that his injuries were not light, Su Yu frowned. “Your injuries seem a little strange.”

As a 2nd Sky Magus, he was unable to recover from his injuries after such a long time.

Looking closely, Su Yu felt that his injuries were familiar. “These injuries...”

Suddenly, Su Yu’s mind was filled with shock, and his expression changed. “Who injured you?”

The SAINTESS Hall master and the others were astonished. Could it be that this injury wasn’t caused by the heaven defying Gu Yun?

In the entire world, the only one who could injure the full moon cult master was the number one person in the empire, the heaven defying Gu Yun.

The full moon cult master’s expression suddenly turned solemn. “It’s a black-robed person who specializes in dreams. His name is Karakorum!”

Karakorum... a mysterious expert who trapped the Holy Maiden, Cai Lin, and Zeng Lin in the Dreamland of the mortal world.

This person appeared very suddenly, as if he had suddenly appeared.

Su Yu only knew that he was some reclusive dream dao expert.

However, looking at the full moon cult master's injuries, Su Yu's expression changed drastically. He had seen those injuries before!

In the entire world, there was only one person who could cause such a strange injury.

He was not someone else, but... the six paths devil God! !

That six black holes wound was caused by his famous ultimate skill, six paths heavenly connection!

"As expected, he is still alive!" Su Yu recalled General White Bones' last words. That Lord would come to take Su Yu's life.

He should have thought that the lord he spoke of was the six paths Devil God!

Also, when the death soul worm chased after blood devil and the others, it was discovered by a second Sky Supreme Dao expert midway and chased after him.

At first, Su Yu thought it was the six paths devil God subconsciously.

But now, he realized that it was not him at all. It was the six paths devil God!

The Aura he emitted was also Supreme Dao!

"You Know Him?" The full moon sect master said.

Without waiting for Su Yu to nod, the full moon sect master suddenly looked up and his expression changed.

A cold, brutal, and cruel voice mixed with hatred floated down from the nine heavens, "We don't just know each other. He and I have an irreconcilable hatred for the death of our son!"

Hong --

Six pitch-black and transparent light pillars pierced through the heaven and earth, heading straight for Su Yu.

That was the terrifying six paths heavenly cycle, an unstoppable destructive object.

Su Yu's expression changed. "Indestructible Domain!"

A layer of light suddenly appeared and enveloped Su Yu and the others.

The pitch-black light pillar descended and destroyed them on the spot.

The strange thing was that the instant they were destroyed, they were immediately reborn without a single injury.

"HMPH!" A cold snort sounded as a black-robed figure flew down from the vast ocean.

The black robe was taken off, revealing a ferocious face.

That face... if it wasn't the six paths fiendcelestial, who was it?

“It’s the same old trick!”The six paths fiendcelestial had suffered a great loss at the hands of the indestructible domain in the past. “Unfortunately, things are different now!”

“The Dreamland of the mortal world!”The six paths fiendcelestial’s body emitted pink ripples that rapidly radiated in all directions.

Immediately, the surroundings changed, turning into a vast dreamland.

They were in a ghastly inferno, suffering torture and endless torture.

The pain was extremely real.

Even though they knew it was a dream, they still couldn’t control their fear.

Ah!

A weak-willed person couldn’t take it anymore and screamed in fear. In the end, he was really swallowed by a ball of flames and turned into ashes.

Su Yu shouted, “Don’t fall for it. As long as you believe this is a dream, nothing will happen to you!”

The prerequisite was that the indestructible domain was still there.

Although the surroundings were a dream, the six paths demon god was real.

His attacks were all truly fatal moves.

“Let’s see how long you can last!”The six paths demon god attacked while launching deeper level dream attacks.

Gradually, more and more people couldn’t withstand the realistic pain and fell into it. In the end, they really died.

They could not continue like this!

Su Yu’s eyes focused as he took out another golden dragon horn from his sleeve.

The Dragon Horn was ignited and seven-colored flames appeared.

“Hehe, using the dragon horn twice in a row. Little Fellow, you’re in a lot of trouble.”A mocking voice sounded again. Immediately, the creator Dragon was slightly surprised. “That’s strange. The power of Asura?”

He was obviously referring to the six paths demon god.

Su Yu stared at his eyes and suddenly realized!

Speaking of which, the modified demon race, which was the demon god in the Sacred Demon Hall, had blood-red eyes. They were very violent and savage.

This... seemed to be exactly the same as the creatures in the asura forbidden land that mutated after being infected by the power of Asura.

The creator Dragon did not mean what he said, but Su Yu did. He accidentally discovered a huge secret.

“Take action immediately. I Can’t hold on for too long,”Su Yu said.

The creator Dragon Chuckled and stared at the six paths demon god. “Do you want me to send you on your way too?”

The six paths demon God’s eyes were filled with fear. “You actually have a dragon horn!”

He could not hide it because he was afraid that Su Yu had a backup plan.

Who knew that he had a pair of dragon horns!

“Scram!”The creator Dragon swiped its claw and attacked the six paths demon god with a destructive force.

The six paths demon god was shocked and immediately used six paths heavenly connection.

When the pitch-black light beam hit the giant claw, it only caused the opponent to pause for a moment before it hit the chest of the six paths demon god.

Pu --

Even someone as strong as the six paths demon god was forced to cough out blood from the impact of the claw.

However, he was only injured!

The dreamscape around him had a buffing effect on him.

“HMPH! The power of the mortal world?”The creator Dragon was disdainful. He spat out a dragon breath from the flames and blew away the power of the mortal world. The Dreamscape was dispelled and the real world was revealed.

The six paths demonic god was shocked. “What kind of creature are you?”

“I don’t need an ant like you to know my name!”As he said that, the creator Dragon struck out with his claw.

However, this claw wasn’t aimed at him. Instead, it suddenly changed its direction and slammed into the ground. Its voice suddenly became sharp. “Come out! You’ve been hiding for a long time!”?

Chapter 1458 The Sky Sacred Ship (Fourth Watch)

A crack that was hundreds of thousands of feet deep extended to the sky from under the giant claw.

Su Yu’s heart skipped a beat when he saw this. There was someone else? Who?

Bang Bang --

A huge sound of friction came from the depths of the crack!

The ground on both sides of the crack started to roll outward, as if something huge was slowly drilling out of the ground.

The entire holy land was shaking, and it couldn't stand steadily.

The atmosphere of the world was rapidly flowing away, as if it was swallowed up by something.

Then, a terrifying aura suddenly came from the depths of the crack.

This aura made many people present shiver.

Wang Qingchen's face turned pale. "This, this is... The Aura that created the space crack for hundreds of millions of miles!"

Shengjing sect was almost completely destroyed, buried under that terrifying space crack.

That terrifying aura was still fresh in his memory.

The eight commanders who had personally witnessed that scene also instantly felt that terrifying aura that they would never forget.

Without saying anything, Su Yu immediately led everyone to fly high up in the sky, far away from the Earth.

Looking down, the rolling of the Earth became more and more intense, just like the surging waves in the fierce wind, rolling endlessly with a shocking momentum.

Finally, a blood-red Colossus slowly emerged from the depths of the Earth.

Its body was ten million feet long, and its entire body was made of blood-red strange metal, emitting waves of luster.

Su Yu was not unfamiliar with this object.

When he came to the lost divine realm, he had seen an abandoned battleship with his own eyes. It pierced straight into the sky and was incomparably lofty.

However, that was a destroyed battleship.

A complete battleship had long been lost in the dust of history.

No one in the world could recreate it.

However, the sky sacred battleship in front of him was not only brand new, even the anti-extinguishing cannons on both sides of the battleship had been created.

One after another, incomparably large cannons could easily destroy a city.

It was precisely these terrifying long cannons that created such a huge space crack area near Shengjing City.

"Sky Holy Ship..."the others were only shocked by the enormous size of this thing, but they didn't know what it was.

Only the full moon sect leader took a deep breath, and his voice was trembling!

Su Yu's expression was extremely solemn. Was this the great killing weapon that Chu Wen had never mentioned, the Super Civilization Weapon, the Sky Holy Ship?

In front of this ship, all living beings were like ants.

The feeling of being unable to resist made them tremble from the bottom of their hearts.

Even someone as powerful as the six paths devil God revealed a reverent expression. "It's finally used!"

When he turned to look at Su Yu, his eyes were filled with a cold smile. "You won't be able to escape your doom."

Over a hundred forbidden cannons turned their pitch-black muzzles and aimed at the creation dragon.

The Creation Dragon's eyes were solemn. "Little Brat, this is the civilization weapon that was used to fight against the evil daughter and the destruction dragon in the past. It's no longer something that the current me can resist. All of you should run for your lives!"

Hum Hum Hum --

Over a hundred cannons shot out terrifying energy beams that charged straight at the creator Dragon.

The creator dragon brandished its huge claws and swatted away one of the beams of light. However, it was struck by another beam. The seven-colored flames immediately flickered as if they were about to be destroyed.

"Quickly leave!" Seeing that the situation was not looking good, the full moon sect master shouted.

However, how could the six paths fiendcelestials grant their wishes?

"Six Path Heavenly Cycle!" Another six pitch-black beams of light pierced through the full moon sect master's body.

Under the indestructible domain, although he was unharmed, he was hindered from leaving.

And at this moment, the indestructible domain was about to reach the limit of a cup of tea and was in a state where it could be destroyed at any moment.

Boom --

At this moment, the Hundred Path clan's forbidden cannons swept over and the creation dragon's projection was destroyed without any suspense.

Creak --

Following that, the hundred or so forbidden cannons turned their direction and pointed at Su Yu and the others.

Being locked onto by this cannon, everyone's body stiffened. That feeling was as if they were locked onto by a hundred second sky experts.

The Creation Dragon could be destroyed with two cannon shots, and they could be turned into ashes with just one cannon shot.

"Hehe, the rest can be killed at will. This child must be killed by me personally!" The six paths Devil God was cold as he charged down.

The full moon sect master was heavily injured and his dragon horn was used up. He could no longer fight against the six paths Devil God.

Everyone's eyes were filled with despair as they fell into a desperate situation.

Only Su Yu's expression did not change. He said, "Fine, you and I should have an end to this."

As he finished speaking, the Buddhist beads on Su Yu's wrist shook. One of the beads shone brightly and a white, fat child with an ice-blue left eye and a fiery red right eye appeared.

The moment this person appeared, everyone was slightly stunned. They didn't know why Su Yu had released a child who didn't have any fluctuations at the critical moment.

It wasn't until the child blinked his eyes that a terrifying wave of extreme coldness and extreme heat attacked them that they were shocked.

The full moon sect master had a flash of inspiration in his mind, and he said in surprise, "Could he be... the remains of the Ice Fire Emperor?"

Su Yu nodded and said to the child who had just woken up, "Little Ice Fire, that person wants to snatch your heaven fire."

The ice fire that was originally in a daze suddenly widened its eyes when it heard that the delicious food was going to be snatched away, it glared angrily at the six paths Devil God who had a vicious expression on his face. "Big Brother said that those who snatch my things are all bad people, you big bad person!"

The six paths demon god was greatly shocked. The terrifying power of that beam of light was dozens of times stronger than the creation dragon's projection!

His scalp was extremely numb as he said in great shock, "Defiant Gu Yun, quickly help!"

A cold snort from defiant Gu Yun also came from within the sky sacred ship. Over a hundred forbidden destruction cannons immediately turned around and aimed at little ice fire.

He was not dead and had hidden inside the sacred sky ship.

However, from the sound of it, although he was not dead, his injuries were not light.

Peng --

Hundreds of forbidden cannons were fired at the same time. The destructive power they released turned the entire sky into a boundless spatial crack, swallowing little Bing Huo's two pillars of light.

Little Bing Huo stomped his feet in anger. With a stomp of his toes, he turned into a fireball of ice and fire and rushed into the whirlpool.

Su Yu jumped in fright. It was too late to stop him. He was instantly devoured.

After the six paths demon God hid behind the crack, he laughed loudly, "Hahaha... After all, it's just a skeleton. It's strong, but it's a pity that its intelligence is too low. It's courting death!"

However, while his laughter was still echoing, a spatial crack suddenly appeared in front of him. A pair of hands stretched out from it.

His two hands pulled the crack apart, and the spatial crack actually expanded by three times.

Then, a child that was half ice and half fire jumped out from it.

Everyone was dumbstruck. With such a spatial crack, let alone a second sky god, even a first sky god might not be able to survive if they were trapped in it.

As for Little Ice Fire, she ignored the devouring power of the crack!

This scene was something even Su Yu himself had not expected!

“Stop laughing, you bad person!” Little Ice Fire was even more furious when she saw the six paths devil God Laughing. Without saying anything, she opened her mouth and spat out two extremely destructive energies, one ice and one fire, interweaving into a small tornado, it swept the six paths devil God into it.

Ah --

In just an instant, the six paths demon god was destroyed by two alternating powers.

However, just like before, when the six paths demon god was about to die, he used the Undying Demon Heart!

In an instant, he came back to life from the moment he was about to die.

However, in an instant, he was killed by the tornado again. He immediately changed his heart.

The undying demon heart was to snatch the hearts of experts of the same level and use it for his own use. Once the heart was destroyed, he could immediately change it to achieve the goal of rebirth.

During the galactic battle, he had used up all of his undying demon heart.

However, in this wider divine realm, where experts were as common as clouds, it was not difficult to find enough undying demon hearts.

“HMPH!” Little Bing Huo was displeased. Both of his eyes shot out a ray of light and entered the tornado.

The tornado’s power doubled!

The destruction speed of the six paths demon God’s heart increased by several times!

He was greatly shocked and said in fear, “Heaven defying Gu Yun, what are you waiting for? If we fail, master will definitely take Our Lives!”

Boom Boom --

The forbidden annihilation cannon was filled with energy and was immediately activated.

However, the sky rumbled as over a hundred light pillars charged towards Little Bing Huo.

Little Bing Huo was not afraid. He placed his hands on his waist and his entire body emitted extreme power of ice and fire.

Numerous Great Dao law chains surrounded the back of his head.

The power of ice and fire had reached the level of drawing the laws of Great Dao!

The two collided in the air and tore open a large space crack.

Everyone was shocked. Little Bing Huo's battle strength was comparable to the sky sacred ship?

"Remains of ice and fire!" Defiant Gu Yun was furious. "Forget it, I wanted to take you for my own use. Since that's the case, don't blame me for destroying you!"

Kacha Kacha --

At the bottom of the sky holy ship, the gears rotated, and a huge hole appeared.

From the hole, a huge pitch-black cannon appeared.

That huge cannon was ten times the size of the forbidden cannon, and its caliber alone was the size of the entire Shengjing sect.

What was filled inside was not ordinary energy, but the illusory images of the Great Dao Laws!

The full moon sect master's expression changed drastically. "You guys have also re-copied the cannon of the laws? Who helped you? This cannon can not reappear in the human world."

"If you want to know so much, then go down and ask!" Heaven-defying Gu Yun laughed sinisterly and activated the cannon of laws.

Instantly, the world darkened and yin and yang became chaotic.

The four seasons alternated. Thirty thousand feet ahead was the blooming of spring flowers, but to the left was the fluttering of cold snow.

The Witchcraft and Supreme Dao that everyone had learned were all thrown into disorder under the lock of this cannon.

It was clearly a powerful divine ability, but when it was used at this moment, its power was extremely weak.

Some of the little prodigies, however, exploded with extraordinary power.

Under the laws of the Great Dao, everything that was closely related to them changed.

Little Bing Huo raised his head and stared at the cannon with some fear. He pouted. "Bad Guy, you're bullying me! I... I'll let Big Brother Beat You Up!"

He grabbed with his hand and captured the six paths demon God and the tornado, teleporting back to Su Yu's side.

Su Yu was also shocked by the law cannon. The sky sacred warship had such a terrifying killing weapon?

If they did not leave now, none of them would be able to leave.

“Tai chi yin-yang wings!” Su Yu shouted. A pair of black and white wings appeared on his back, and a tai chi pattern appeared on top of his head.

In an instant, Heaven and earth were turned upside down, and yin and Yang were in chaos. They disappeared from where they were.

Defiant Gu Yun sneered. “You want to leave after injuring me like this?”

The sky sacred warship turned around and locked onto the direction of the forbidden area.

Billions of miles away, they teleported to the vicinity of the forbidden area.

Their appearance immediately alerted the strange beasts in the spatial holes. They all rushed out and barked at them.

This scene made their expressions change. The forbidden area was an ancient forbidden area that had existed since the ancestor wizard era, and its danger was self-evident.

At this moment, an incomparably majestic will swept past. In everyone’s mind, it was as if a huge mountain was right in front of them.

The strange beasts that had gone berserk all quieted down and returned to their respective caves.

“It’s out of my expectations that you can come back alive.” The creator Dragon’s voice sounded leisurely. “All of you, come in. Leave the rest to me.”

Chapter 1459 Ancient God Nine Dragons (Fourth Watch)

After hesitating for a moment, the full moon sect master and the others gritted their teeth and entered.

Compared to the forbidden ground, the sacred sky ship was even more terrifying.

Rumble --

The sound of space shattering echoed.

From Afar, an enormous sacred sky ship shattered space as it headed straight for the forbidden ground.

Its momentum was so great that it seemed like it was going to destroy the world.

The creator Dragon’s voice became much more serious, “The cannon of laws, this thing was created. It seems like there’s an expert guiding them.”

To be called an expert by the creator dragon, it was obvious that he wasn’t at the emperor level. Even eternal night, who was at the first sky, probably wouldn’t be called an expert by the creator Dragon.

“Dragon Domain! Open!” The creator Dragon said.

Instantly, countless small spatial holes that covered a radius of hundreds of millions of miles began to close up.

With the giant hole where the creator Dragon was at as the center, they all gathered and gathered together.

Looking from afar, the forbidden land of ten thousand devils that had existed for thousands of years no longer existed.

What replaced it was a ball with a diameter of 100,000 miles.

The sphere was made up of small holes that were extremely solid.

At this moment, defiant Gu Yun urged the sky holy ship to come over, and 100 forbidden cannons were immediately fired.

Hundreds of destructive light pillars landed on the surface of the sphere, causing sparks to fly, but they were unable to break through.

In fact, the sphere did not even tremble.

Only some of the holes were damaged, and they reverted back to the form of dragon scales.

The creator Dragon had once said that those holes were formed from his dragon scales and were used to defend against enemies.

Defiant Gu Yun frowned deeply. "I don't want to be your enemy. Hand them over and I'll stop. Otherwise, even if you're an ancient beast, you won't be able to withstand the cannon of laws."

Who was the creator Dragon?

If defiant Gu Yun had been reasonable, he might have been able to convince him.

However, such a threatening tone was exactly what the proud creator dragon could not tolerate.

"Hahaha... It's been a long time since I've been threatened by an ant like you! I Won't hand you over! If you can break through my defense, that's your ability!" As expected, the creator Dragon was enraged.

Defiant Gu Yun's eyes turned cold. "Alright! Then I'll give it a try!"

Finally, the law cannon was activated. Countless law chains shot out from the cannon and bombarded the giant ball.

Kacha --

The strange thing was that the law chains were repelled by the scales. Only a few special law chains shattered one or two of the scales.

"Law Immunity? You... you have the body of a divine dragon?" Heaven-defying Gu Yun was shocked.

He had never seen anyone who was immune to law attacks.

There was only one legendary creature... a divine dragon that controlled laws!

They were naturally proficient in laws, and their immunity to laws far surpassed that of ordinary creatures.

"HMPH, with your abilities, it will take at least three years to fill up a cannon of laws. You can slowly wait for your accumulation. I am very patient!" The creator Dragon snorted.

Heaven-defying Gu Yun's expression changed, and an endless cold light shone in his eyes.

This time, it could be said that they had suffered a crushing defeat!

Even though he had broken through the shaman clan, the shaman clan's most precious 'natural yin-yang move' had failed at the final juncture.

The preparations for several years had been in vain.

At that moment, a carefree voice that could not be distinguished between a man and a woman sounded in his mind. "You have failed."

Heaven-defying Gu Yun was shocked and immediately knelt down on one knee. "Gu Yun deserves to die ten thousand deaths. Please forgive me, Master!"

"You do deserve ten thousand deaths for your crimes, but it's not time for you to die yet. That Su Yu is the successor of ancient God Nine Dragons, so he naturally has a great amount of luck protecting him. It's reasonable that you can't kill him." The voice continued, "Right now, don't move your troops and save up the cannon of laws. They won't stay in there forever. One day, they will come out."

Heaven-defying Gu Yun secretly heaved a sigh of relief, but he was surprised by Su Yu's identity as the successor of ancient God Nine Dragons?

He was inwardly shocked, his eyes filled with envy and envy.

After thinking for a moment, heaven-defying gu yun said, "Since that's the case, why doesn't master personally store energy for the cannon of laws just in case?"

The voice gradually faded away, revealing a strange smile. "I can't act for the time being because I've also entered this Dragon's defense. If anything happens, I'll be discovered..."

What? Heaven-defying Gu Yun stared at the huge ball and was extremely shocked. "When did master enter?"

Inside the ball, they nervously sensed the situation outside. Hearing what the creator Dragon said, they heaved a sigh of relief.

They were finally safe!

Although the outside was solid, there was a different world inside. It was no different from a cave abode world. They could cultivate freely here and wait for an opportunity to leave.

Su Yu immediately looked at the captured six paths demon god. Under the destruction of the ice and fire tornado, he had been reborn ninety-nine times!

This made Su Yu secretly rejoice. Fortunately, he had a powerful trump card like Little Ice Fire. Otherwise, when he faced the unkillable six paths demon god, the possibility of him dying was infinite.

At this moment, he only had one demon heart beating.

Once the heart was destroyed, it would be completely destroyed.

No matter what, the six paths devil God never expected that he would fall into the hands of Su Yu after surviving in the lost divine territory with great difficulty.

And this time, he did not have the chance to turn the tables.

“Speed up and destroy him completely,” Su Yu ordered indifferently.

Full Moon sect master said, “Wait, he and defiant Gu Yun have another mastermind behind them. Shouldn’t we interrogate him first?”

Su Yu said, “Compared to interrogating him, killing him is the most urgent matter! You’ll never know if he still has any tricks up his sleeve.”

Having fought with this mortal enemy of the past, Su Yu knew how terrifying he was. If he was given a chance to catch his breath, he might be able to be reborn on the spot.

His cautiousness made the full moon sect master and the others unable to understand.

He had already been captured alive. Could it be that he could turn the world upside down?

Little Binghuo nodded and spat out another mouthful of ice and fire power, causing the tornado to be destroyed even faster!

Seeing that the last heart of the six paths demon god was being destroyed, at the moment of life and death, the six paths demon god shouted, “All of you will die together! !”

Pink energy was gathering in the dark at the spot where his heart was. It was the power of the mortal world!

The power of the mortal world condensed into a heart that was beating rapidly like a concealed weapon that was about to explode!

However, it had yet to fully solidify. They had to wait for a moment before it could take effect.

Even so, the rapidly expanding power of the mortal world inside caused everyone present to be alarmed.

If this thing really exploded, the energy that erupted instantly would be enough to kill all of them on the spot, not leaving a single one alive!

Su Yu’s gaze focused. “As expected!”

Under the suppression of the tornado, the last heart of the six paths devil God was completely destroyed.

The heart of the mortal world that had yet to take shape was also gradually destroyed. The energy that did not have time to erupt was also dissipated into nothingness.

“Su Yu! ! Master will definitely not let you off!” The six paths demon God’s hatred was extinguished as he let out a venomous roar before his death.

Su Yu said indifferently, “Just let him come find me!”

Pu --

The six paths demon god turned into a pile of ashes. Only his two tusks were exceptionally hard. The dual powers of ice and fire could not do anything to him for a moment.

“Enough.” Su Yu waved his hand and made little ice and fire stop.

The two tusks fell to the ground with a crisp sound.

Su Yu waved his hand and kept the two tusks into his sleeve.

The people from all directions broke out in cold sweat. These six paths devil gods were indeed ruthless characters. Even before dying, they had to secretly self-destruct and bring them along with them.

Fortunately, Su Yu was decisive and did not give him the chance to secretly detonate and directly obliterate them.

Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

The full moon cult master sighed softly, “Sigh, I’m Old! The future belongs to you young people!”

Wang Qing Chen, who was a young man, smiled bitterly, “It should be said that the future belongs to Su Yu...”

Su Yu looked at everyone and said, “The sky holy ship is parked outside. Now is not the time to go out. You can live here until the danger recedes.”

This was something he could do.

Finally, he looked at the full moon cult master and said, “Cult master, can we talk in private?”

The full moon cult master nodded and said, “It’s just right. I have something to say too. I want to talk to you alone.”

The two of them went to a corner and used a soundproof barrier.

“Cult master, please go first,” Su Yu said.

The full moon cult master cupped his hands, he looked ashamed. “If it weren’t for you saving us, our shaman tribe might have been destroyed. We wouldn’t even be able to leave a city. I’m not worthy of being the cult master! “Moreover, according to the results of the competition, you are the new cult master candidate, so...”

“I refuse,” Su Yu said. “As the cult master, you have sacrificed your life for the battle. You have done your duty and loyalty. It’s just that the enemy is too strong, and it’s not your fault! “As for the competition, according to the rules of the ancestral shaman tribe, even if we challenge the cult master and win, we don’t have to become the cult master, Right?”

He still wanted to persuade Su Yu, but he was stopped by Su Yu. “Right now, the sorcerer race has suffered heavy casualties, and we need a leader to rally our forces. My understanding of the sorcerer race is far inferior to yours, so forcefully handing over the position of Patriarch to me will only harm the vast majority of the people of the sorcerer race.”

Hearing his sincere words, the full moon patriarch bowed. "Brother Su, the kindness of the sorcerer race will never be forgotten!"

"Hehe, it's just a duty. If the Patriarch wants to repay me, just answer me one question."

The full moon sect master's eyes flashed. "You mean the matter of the successor of ancient God Nine Dragons, right?"

Su Yu's eyes were filled with excitement. After so many years, he had finally received news of the origin of the nine dragons divine cauldron.

"Yes, may I ask who the nine dragons ancient god system is?"

The full moon sect master said, "It's an existence comparable to the ancestor witch. According to the letter left behind by the ancestor witch, it's an old friend of his."

"An old friend of the ancestor witch?" Su Yu was shocked. Who was the ancestor witch? Even an existence like the world creation dragon was sealed!

Ancient God Nine Dragons was actually an existence comparable to the ancestor witch!

"Where is he now?"

"He has long since disappeared for countless eras," the full moon cult master said.

Disappeared? This wasn't surprising to Su Yu. If he hadn't disappeared, how did the nine dragons divine cauldron end up in Su Yu's hands?

"And how did you find out that I'm a descendant of ancient God Nine Dragons?"

After some thought, the full moon sect master took out a handwritten letter. He opened it and saw that most of it was written in an obscure heavenly book.

Within the letter was an ancient-looking letter that gave off a rich ancient charm.

"This letter was left behind by ancient god Nine Dragons. It was written with his divine blood. Not to mention you and me, even the ancestral witch didn't open it back then. He said that this was the last letter that ancient god Nine Dragons left behind before he went missing. It definitely contains the mystery of ancient God Nine Dragons' disappearance, but unfortunately, many years of attempts have been unable to open it."

Han, he had fallen asleep the day before. He had sent out two chapters in advance before falling asleep.

Chapter 1460 Red Dust Path Master (5th Watch)

"After that, he left behind the letter and passed down the message that if there was any movement on the letter one day, it would definitely be the descendant of ancient god Nine Dragons. If I give this letter to him, he might be able to open it," the full moon cult master said. "I believe that the ancestor wizard must have received some guidance back then. After confirming that a trillion years later, the descendant of ancient God Nine Dragons would be born in the nine dragons ancient divine realm, he made some special arrangements.”

“The first time I met you on the stairs of the inn, the letter was already scalding hot. When I saw you again, the second time it was scalding hot, I was certain that you were perhaps the descendant of ancient god Nine Dragons.”

After saying this, he took the letter down and handed it to Su Yu. “Now, according to the ancestor’s will, I’ll hand this letter to you.”

The letter fell into Su Yu’s hands, and the letter immediately began to burn with a gentle flame.

The full moon cult master’s eyes were filled with envy as he said, “Ancient God Nine Dragons is an important figure on par with the ancestor wizard. The Lost Kingdom is unrivalled in the world. If you become his successor, your future accomplishments will be limitless!”

Unrivalled in the lost kingdom? They probably still didn’t know who their ancestor was.

He was a mighty figure who had personally sealed the world creation dragon. How could he be at the level of unrivalled in the lost kingdom?

If he knew the truth, he did not know how he would feel.

Su Yu silently held the letter, and a sense of familiarity surged into his mind.

The nine dragons divine cauldron, which had been silent for a long time, also let out an excited sound, as if it was about to jump out of his mind.

This was the first time he had seen the nine dragons divine cauldron acting so strangely.

Immediately after, the ancestral witch’s heart, which could not be opened, opened gently with a pop, and an incomparably white piece of paper slid down from it.

He caught the paper, and a warm and lukewarm feeling surged into his heart.

Just the paper alone was definitely not an ordinary thing!

He fixed his gaze and looked carefully. There were vigorous and powerful words left on the snow-white paper. They were ancient dragon race words that had already been lost in the present era.

The words were clear, and there were even ink stains that had not dried up. It was as if they had just been written.

All the words were light blue in color, and they were filled with majestic dragon power.

After the letter was opened, the nine dragons divine cauldron was even more excited, eager to obtain the liquid written on the words.

It was self-evident what this was!

It was the divine blood of ancient God Nine Dragons!

The divine blood of such an epic legend!

No wonder the nine dragons divine cauldron was so excited!

With excitement in his heart, Su Yu carefully read the letter.

The content was very short, only a few hundred words.

“If this letter is opened by Brother Ancestor Wu, then my true body is safe and sound. If it is opened by my successor, then my true body will be trapped in Dao Yuan, or my soul will be destroyed.”

“If brother ancestor Wu opens this letter, then it can be destroyed.”

“If a descendant of mine opens this letter, please remember, do not enter the absolute beginning world before you reach your strength! Do Not!”

After reading it, Su Yu’s heart slightly trembled.

This letter was clearly left behind by ancient god Nine Dragons before he went to Dao Yuan because he had a premonition.

According to the letter, the ancestor sorcerer was unable to open this letter. Ancient God Nine Dragons was either trapped in Dao Yuan or dead.

As for Dao Yuan... Su Yu couldn’t help but take out a pitch-black invitation that was covered in heavenly script characters.

Wasn’t the black invitation written by Dao Yuan?

Could it be that ancient god Nine Dragons received an invitation and went to Dao Yuan, never to return?

Also, what kind of place was the absolute beginning world?

In this world, apart from the Galaxy Divine Realm, the lost divine realm, and the lost kingdom, were there any other worlds?

And why did ancient god Nine Dragons warn Su Yu that before he reached his strength, he must remember not to enter the absolute beginning world?

Su Yu smiled bitterly. “It wasn’t easy to obtain information on the origins of the nine dragons divine cauldron, but who would have thought that there would be so many questions?”

Shaking his head, Su Yu picked up the envelope on the ground.

An envelope that could not be forcefully torn open by an ancestral witch, could it be an ordinary item?

“Thank you.” Su Yu cupped his hands.

“You’re welcome. Compared to your kindness in saving the Shaman clan, it is not worth mentioning.” The full moon sect leader said.

Next, Su Yu gave the full moon sect leader a simple treatment. Using the Milky Way star sand, he extracted the six heavenly power from his body.

“Big Brother, I’m hungry again.” Little Ice fire blinked her eyes. She put her index finger on her face and looked at Su Yu with her watery eyes.

Su Yu took out a bottle of heavenly fire. Little Ice Fire smiled happily and swallowed it on the spot.

After eating, she licked her lips and patted her round belly, “Big Brother is so good. I’m full!”

After burping, little ice fire yawned again, “Oh, I’m so tired, I want to sleep.”

Su Yu couldn’t wait to let him play outside, or else he would have the energy to destroy the world. It was really hard to feel at ease.

He let go of a Buddhist bead and let little ice fire in.

Before he left, Little Ice Fire seemed to have thought of something and ran to the six paths demon God’s ashes. He reached out his hands that were wrapped in ice and flames and disappeared into the void, grabbing a purple-gold calabash.

There was a buzzing sound inside the gourd. It was as if something was violently hitting the opening of the bottle, trying to escape.

Little Binghuo opened the Cork of the gourd and spat out a mouthful of ice and flames. It frowned and muttered, “Quiet!”

Su Yu’s expression changed slightly. The instant the Cork was opened, an extremely brutal and savage aura shot out from it. If it wasn’t a death soul worm, then what was it?

He didn’t expect that it couldn’t escape the capture of the six paths devil God and was sealed inside the gourd.

With a mouthful of ice and fire power, it was as fierce as a death soul worm and couldn’t help but become obedient.

Little Bing Huo was beaming with joy just now. “Now you’re obedient. Wait for me to wake up and play with me.”

For some reason, Little Bing Huo was only interested in the death soul worm.

With the gourd, Little Bing Huo entered the space of the Buddha bead and fell asleep.

Su Yu’s eyes flashed as he arrived at the place where Little Bing Huo came from. His soul swept through the void and keenly captured the extremely weak spatial fluctuations.

Without thinking, Su Yu grabbed a golden flame forbidden wood longsword and swept it across.

Kacha --

Following the spatial fluctuations, a large storage space hidden in the void was split open by Su Yu’s sword.

Instantly, a dazzling array of resources appeared in front of him in the form of huge mountains.

Even the full moon sect master couldn’t help but exclaim, “This person has such a rich collection that even the Chu family can’t compare to him.”

Su Yu smiled, “Hehe, this is an unexpected gain.”

Without saying anything else, he freed up a total of two space Buddha beads before he tidied up the things inside.

The things that could be used by the living beings of the nine regions were given to them first, while the rest were left for later use.

After taking inventory, Su Yu took out two things.

The first was a bone-shaped stone, on which were carved strange-looking demon characters. Su Yu just happened to recognize it, and it was surprisingly the cultivation technique of the six paths of heavenly connection.

The second was a pink silk, which was an invisible transparent body. When it landed on his palm, it was like a dream or an illusion, as if it would shatter into nothingness with a pinch. This object contained a powerful dream power.

“Six paths of Heavenly Connection?” Su Yu’s eyes were filled with excitement. This move was extremely powerful, and Su Yu had experienced it before.

In this world, there was no defense that could block it, and it was extremely powerful.

If he could learn it, it would definitely be a powerful trump card!

As for the silk handkerchief, Su Yu frowned deeply.

In the past, the six paths demon god was not proficient in dream divine powers. Only after arriving in this world did he suddenly know how to control dreams and kill people without being seen.

According to what he said, he and the heaven-defying Gu Yun, these terrifying and powerful existences, were both working for the master who was hiding behind the scenes.

“The power of the mortal world, the dream realm technique... the master that the two of them mentioned, could he be referring to the sealed existence in the Forbidden Land of the mortal world?” Su Yu guessed.

After thinking for a while, a flame rose from Su Yu’s palm and burned the silk.

Even though the dream realm was powerful and strange, its power was not inferior to the six paths of Heavenly Dragon.

However, Su Yu’s intuition told him that it was best not to touch anything related to the existence of the seal in the forbidden land.

“Oh? Little Guy, I thought you couldn’t help but cultivate it too.” The creator Dragon’s teasing voice drifted into his ears.

A huge hole slowly appeared in front of him.

Su Yu said, “It’s not that I don’t want to cultivate, but it’s better to be cautious when it comes to things like this.”

The creator dragon praised, “That’s right, be careful in everything. Only then can you sail for ten thousand years. Your cautiousness just now saved your life.”

“Oh?” Su Yu looked at the slowly burning silk in his palm and was secretly vigilant.

“This is a dream technique condensed by Daoist mistress Hong Chen using the laws. Anyone who obtains it can comprehend it in a short period of time and become an expert in the Dao of dreams. The Fatal Point is that once one successfully cultivates it, they will be locked by the law chains and become Daoist mistress Hong Chen’s puppet from then on. She can follow the chains into the Cultivator’s dream to control his body at any time.”

“In fact, if she wanted to kill a cultivator, she only needed a single thought!”

Hearing this, Su Yu broke out in a cold sweat. Fortunately, he did not covet the Dream Realm Technique.

“The red dust path master is sealed in the red dust forbidden land. Who is sealed in the Asura forbidden land? is senior also at the path master level?” Su Yu voiced out his doubts.

Each of the three forbidden lands was extraordinary.

The creator Dragon smiled. “You Want to know? Sure! Wait until you learn my dragon race divine ability! If you succeed in learning my three divine abilities, I will tell you everything you want to know.”

Su Yu’s black eyes lit up. “Alright!”

“Hahaha, it just so happens that they have finished refining the dragon blood. You guys should meet up first and get ready to cultivate the dragon race divine ability.”

After saying that, four figures were released from the spatial hole. Two men and two women.

The men were eternal night without permanence and eternal night without a name.

The women were eternal night first snow and Bi Wanqing.

After obtaining a drop of dragon blood to transform, their strength had increased considerably.

This was especially true for eternal night without permanence. He had gone from a fifth-sky God to a fourth-sky god in one step, raising his strength by an entire realm!

Next was Bi Wanqing. She had just broken through to the deity realm not long ago, but she had actually broken through to the stage five deity realm.

Even eternal night impermanence had benefited greatly from this, reaching the stage five deity realm!

The only person whose cultivation level had not changed was eternal night first snow. She was restricted by the ancestral wizard’s power, but her qi and blood were unobstructed, and her physical strength had improved a lot.

The five of them met again, and their emotions were all different.

“Hahaha, we haven’t seen each other for half a year. I wonder how much brother Su has improved. Before officially cultivating the divine ability of the Dragon Clan, how about we spar first?”After stepping into the fourth sky realm, Eternal Night Impermanence’s confidence was doubled, and he actually took the initiative to challenge Su Yu.

Su Yu didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. “Alright, we’ll spar again in five days.”

Bi Wanqing’s eyes flickered with purple, as if she had seen through something. She smiled faintly.

“Wanqing, I have something to ask you.”Su Yu said with a serious and expectant expression.

Bi wanqing nodded gently. “Okay, but not now. Because you’re in trouble, I’d better avoid it for now.”
