

Nine-Dragon 1771

Chapter 1771 The Plot Was Exposed

Three factions had secretly joined forces. They were prepared to take advantage of the sky orchid mansion's weakness to swallow it whole.

Fortunately, Tian Jian and Tian Rulan had accompanied their guest, Li Changqing, to the sea of constellations civilization. By accident, they had obtained a piece of golden flame forbidden tree. They had invited the three great emperors of the dust sand civilization, who had painstakingly protected them.

Only then had they been able to intimidate the underlings and resolve the crisis.

The bearded man, Yu Hong, was the direct disciple of the painstaking emperor. He had taken over the position of head of the Tian Lan residence in place of his master.

It was precisely because of that section of the Golden Flame Forbidden Tree that the fate of the Tian Lan residence had changed.

Thus, Tian Jian was exceptionally respectful and grateful towards Su Yu.

"Brother Su, my younger sister also wishes to meet you, but she is currently refining a treasured pill. She still needs another hour. When she comes out, we will welcome brother Su together!"

Hearing that Tian Rulan was busy, Su Yu said, "There is no need for a welcome. It would be good if you could arrange a cultivation room for me."

He pointed at his chest. The shocking injury was still there.

"It was my negligence. I will arrange it for brother Su immediately!" Tian Jian glanced at the injury and said solemnly.

Very soon, Su Yu was arranged into a secret room.

Outside the secret room, Yu Hong pondered, "Is this person reliable?"

Tian Jian only smiled faintly, "Without him, we wouldn't have the sky orchid mansion we have today."

"Let's go, protect Ru Lan, the Divine Moon treasured pill is about to be born!" Tian Jian's eyes were filled with anticipation.

The Divine Moon Treasured Pill was the highest grade pill in the dust sand civilization. It had an unexpected benefit to the Overlord realm.

After swallowing it, there was a 90% chance of helping a silver overlord to break through to the gold overlord realm.

A 60% chance that it would help the gold overlord break through to the Mystic Crystal Overlord.

And a 10% chance that it would help the mystic Crystal Overlord break through to the peak overlord.

It could be said to be extremely magical.

This pill formula was something that the emperor had painstakingly found from a certain ruin in the Great Yu imperial court. It was something that he had only ever found.

This was considered an additional reward for the sky orchid mansion to be “Sensible”. It was a half-finished divine moon treasured pill.

As long as the sky orchid mansion refined it simply, it could become a complete divine pill.

Right now, Tian Jian and Tian Ru Lan were both silver overlords in the sky orchid mansion. They urgently needed to raise their strength. It was imaginable how precious this pill was.

“Second uncle, why are you here?” When Tian Jian rushed back to the alchemy room, he discovered that Tian Liu Dao was also present.

Tian Liu Dao was the mansion master’s younger brother. Many years ago, he had been chased away by Tian Jian’s father during the fight for the mansion master’s inheritance. He had walked alone in the dust civilization for many years, and it was unknown whether he was still alive or dead.

This time, the sky orchid mansion had encountered a crisis. He did not know where he had gotten the news and rushed back to help the sky orchid mansion fight against foreign enemies.

Although the war did not happen in the end, Tian Liu Dao still had the sky orchid mansion in his heart. It was not convenient for the Tian Jian siblings to chase him away, so they let him stay.

He had the cultivation of a gold overlord, and could be considered a rare combat strength of the sky orchid mansion.

Tian Liu Dao was gentle and refined, and his face was slightly sickly pale. He nodded slightly and said, “How can I not keep an eye on such a big matter? Whether or not the sky orchid mansion can have another gold overlord depends on this pill.”

Tian Jian smiled, but he felt a little strange in his heart.

Could it be that second uncle had left home for many years and had never resented his father for expelling him back then?

He always felt that second uncle was overly enthusiastic towards them.

But what was wrong? He could not explain why.

At this moment, the pill refining room was overflowing with a rich fragrance. The flickering light emitted from the crack of the door.

The light reflected in the eyes of the people outside the door reflected a different color.

Bang --

The sound of the furnace cover hitting the stone wall came from within the stone. The expressions of the three people outside the arena changed.

The Pill was completed!

Creak --

The stone door opened. A young woman with an extraordinary appearance walked out with a head full of sweat.

She was holding a bronze box in her hand. The inside of the box was jumping wildly. It was the Divine Moon treasured pill that had just been successfully refined.

“Congratulations to the two of you for successfully refining the Divine Moon treasured pill!” Yu Hong smiled, but his peripheral vision vaguely swept across the bronze box.

Tian Jian excitedly went forward and was about to take a peek at the rumored Divine Moon treasured pill.

Suddenly, an intense fog erupted from the hall. Not only did it block one’s line of sight, but it also blocked one’s senses.

“Who is it? Yu Hong is here. Who Dares to cause trouble?” Yu Hong discovered a powerful enemy and slapped his palm forward.

However, with a rumbling sound, Yu Hong and a certain expert fiercely exchanged a palm strike. The sound of a series of retreating footsteps reverberated within the dense fog.

“Be careful, this person is extremely powerful. He is the overlord of the Mystic Crystal Realm. Protect the Divine Moon treasured pill well!” Yu Hong roared loudly.

However, the enemy had come prepared, how could there be any losses?

Tian Rulan let out a miserable groan within the dense fog. She had been injured by someone.

“Not good, the bronze box has been snatched away!” Tian Rulan cried out in alarm.

“Who is it?” Tian Jian was going crazy.

Who could sneak into the Tian Lan residence without anyone noticing? And even arrange the fog beforehand?

Just who was it?

Yu hong shouted, “Seal all five senses! !”

The Tian Jian siblings and Tian Liu Dao each sealed their five senses.

Roar --

Yu Hongmeng took a deep breath and spat out the pure divine power together, creating a huge sound wave radiation.

In a few breaths, the surrounding fog was swept away by the sound wave, sweeping away everything.

Only now did he see Tian Rulan lying in front of the secret chamber covered in blood. The bronze box in her hand had disappeared!

Yu Hongmeng was panting. It seemed like he had fought with someone before. His palms were red, and there were traces of him clapping with someone.

Tian Liudao's face darkened, and he quickly chased after him.

The rest of the people also immediately chased after him. However, they had been separated for such a long time, so how could there be any traces of the enemy?

Tian Liudao quickly walked over and helped Tian Rulan up with concern. He said, "When that person attacked, did you feel anything? Is there anyone you suspect?"

The oasis was only so big. There should be a few experts who had seen it before.

"It's useless!" Yu Hong's expression darkened slightly. He clenched his fists and his eyes were filled with annoyance. "That person is a Xuan Crystal Overlord, not an expert from the Emerald Oasis."

If it was a mystic crystal overlord from another place, Tian Rulan would definitely not be familiar with it. She would not be able to deduce who did it.

Tian Rulan's face was ashen as she shook her head. "It's very strange. I've never seen it before!"

PA --

Tian Jian's face was flushed red as he punched the wall. He roared furiously, "Who is it? Who can sneak in without touching the array formation of the Tian Lan residence and ignore senior Yu's senses? Who can set up a plan in advance?"

At this point., Yu Hong's eyes were filled with suspicion as well. "This matter is indeed strange! The Xuan Crystal Overlord might be able to avoid the array formation, but how can it avoid my perception? It must be a mole, and it must be a Xuan Crystal Overlord level mole who is proficient in aura concealment. Otherwise, it would be impossible for it to be done so perfectly!"

Tian Jian was stunned. "But the only Xuan Crystal Overlord in the mansion is only senior Yu, and you have always been with me. It Can't Be You."

Yu Hong's eyes flashed. "Young Mansion Master, you forgot that there's still a Xuan Crystal Overlord in the residence. The one you just saved!"

"Him? Impossible! He's not such a person!" Tian Jian shook his head without thinking.

To be able to give out the Golden Flame Forbidden Tree, why would he need a divine moon treasured pill? What a joke!

Tian Rulan clutched her chest and wiped the divine blood dry. She asked suspiciously, "Big Brother, who did you save?"

Tian Jian frowned. "It's my benefactor! He was injured and fell nearby. I brought him back to treat his injuries. I thought that after the divine moon pill was successfully refined, the two of us would welcome him. Who would have thought that such a mistake would occur!"

“Ah! My benefactor is here?” Tian Rulan’s face was filled with surprise and joy.

“HMPH, what benefactor? He’s a suspect!” Yu Hong interrupted her joy at the right time.

Tian Rulan said righteously, “Benefactor can’t be a suspect!”

The corner of Yu Hong’s mouth curled up. “Is that so? The overlord of the mystic crystals is good at concealing his aura, and he’s also a mole. Hehe, other than him, can we find a second person?”

Hearing this, Tian Jian’s heart jumped.

Indeed, when they had searched for that desert, Yu Hong had not been able to discover it even when they were close by. It could be seen that Su Yu’s ability to conceal his aura was extremely profound.

It could also be explained by not alerting the array formation outside or even setting up the fog in advance.

The most irrefutable thing was that Su Yu was also a mystic Crystal Overlord.

“The most suspicious thing is that your so-called benefactor did not come earlier or later. He just had to come before the Divine Moon Treasured Pill was born. Don’t you think it’s too much of a coincidence?”

Everything pointed at Su Yu, making it impossible for anyone to refute.

Tian Liu Dao frowned. “Tian Jian, you’re too reckless. How could you bring an outsider in at such a critical moment? You’re half responsible for the loss of the Divine Moon Treasured Pill!”

Yu Hong snorted coldly. “Don’t say anything. Let’s meet that benefactor first. HMPH!”

No matter how Tian Jian and Tian Ru Lan tried to stop him, the two of them strode forward and rushed to the secret chamber.

Su Yu’s injuries had recovered by 20-30% , so he no longer needed to use his full strength.

Sensing the pressure of the two aggressive auras, he opened his eyes naturally.

“Tian Lan mansion’s great benefactor, I have something to ask you.” Yu Hong was extremely impolite and kicked open the stone door.

Su Yu’s expression was calm as he said, “Speak.”

His arrogant attitude made Yu Hong even more displeased. “Let me ask you, where is the Divine Moon treasured pill hidden?”

“What is that?” Su Yu asked back.

“Haha, Stop Pretending! I have to admire your acting skills. You can still remain calm when you come knocking on My Door!”

Tian Liu Dao sized up Su Yu and said indifferently, “Young Hero, the Divine Moon Pill is a life-saving item from the Tian Lan residence. Please hand it over, and we will still acknowledge you as our benefactor.”

Su Yu stood up and said, "This is baffling. I didn't take anything from you."

He could hear their tone and suspected that Su Yu had stolen something from them.

Since they were already suspected to this extent, there was no point for Su Yu to continue staying.

Moreover, looking at the time, the vile-daughter palace would soon discover the dust civilization. They had to make preparations early.

"Since that's the case, then we have offended you. Young Hero, please cooperate with us." Tian Liu Dao's expression darkened.

Yu Hong immediately pounced over and sneered, "Surrender obediently. If you weren't injured, I would still be afraid of you. But now, HMPH!"

Su Yu looked at him indifferently and walked past him. He nodded slightly at Tian Jian and Tian Rulan, "Thank you for your hospitality. Goodbye."

Tian Jian hurriedly said, "Wait, this is not what we meant!"

Knowing that Su Yu had misunderstood, Tian Rulan also hurriedly said, "Benefactor, let me explain..."

However, as Yu Hong pounced over, the yin and yang qi around Su Yu flashed and he disappeared into thin air.

"He disappeared?" Tian Liu Dao was shocked.

Yu Hong, on the other hand, had a flash of light. He suddenly looked at the sky behind him and said in shock, "What a powerful escape technique!"

Tian Jian and Tian Rulan's faces darkened. They did not believe that Su Yu was such a person.

Ever since they came into contact with the ancient dream altar, they knew Su Yu's character very well.

It was all Yu Hong!

"Senior Yu, how can you make decisions on your own?" Tian Jian asked.

Unexpectedly, Yu Hong turned his head coldly and said, "Shut up! Who do you think you are to question me?"

Tian Liudao folded his hands in his sleeves and casually stood beside Yu Hong. He said indifferently, "Nephew Tian Jian, what you did was indeed wrong. How can you be disrespectful to Lord Yu? Why aren't you kneeling down and apologizing?"

What? Tian Jian could not think straight for a moment.

Yu Hong's completely opposite attitude was something he couldn't understand. Why was their second uncle Tian Liudao helping outsiders?

Chapter 1772 Exterminating The Enemy With A Single Sword

Furthermore, if he, a young manor head, were to be forced to kneel, that would represent the entire sky orchid manor.

Wouldn't that mean that the sky orchid manor would henceforth submit to Yu Hong?

"Second uncle, how are you going to help an outsider?" Tian Rulan's personality was as straightforward as ever.

Tian Liu Dao said indifferently, "I will only stand on the side of reason."

Tian ru LAN's expression darkened. "Second uncle, don't forget that this is the sky orchid mansion and we are the ones who took you in. If you want to stand on the side of an outsider, then please leave!"

"Leave? Where to?" Tian Liu Dao spread out his hands. "Sky Orchid Mansion is mine, what right do I have to leave?"

HMM? No matter how much the Tian Jian siblings stayed silent, they finally realized that something was wrong.

Tian jian shouted, "Second uncle, be careful with your words! Father's last order was passed down to me before he died, not you!"

Tian Liu Dao's face gradually revealed a stern expression that he had been suppressing for a long time. He sneered, "That was your father who stole it from me!"

"That was a matter of your previous generation. I am the rightful owner of the sky orchid mansion. I am also the target of the Sky Orchid Mansion's loyalty. I will not change my master with just a few words from you." Tian Jian said righteously.

"Hehe, how naive. I really don't understand how the two of you came back alive from the ancient Dream Altar!" Tian Liu Dao's face was filled with killing intent. "Both of you are dead. Am I not the only one you are loyal to?"

Ah!

Tian Jian and Tian Ru Lan shuddered.

No Wonder Tian Liu Dao suddenly returned after their father's death. It turned out that he was coveting the position of the mansion master of the Sky Orchid Mansion!

Tian Jian had long felt that something was amiss. So that was how it was!

"Have you thought it through?" Tian Liu Dao smirked. "However, what you didn't expect was that I was actually the one who instigated those three forces to devour the Sky Orchid Mansion!"

What? Tian Liu Dao had rushed back to aid the sky orchid mansion back then. Was it actually to cooperate with the enemy from the inside and the outside?

After thinking through this point, the siblings felt their bodies turn cold.

An even colder feeling came from behind.

"Senior Yu, so you were also bribed by him? Aren't you afraid that the painstaking emperor will punish you?" Tian Jian asked.

He had been ordered by the painstaking emperor to come and protect the sky orchid mansion.

To do something that went against the emperor's original intention, wasn't the Emperor Furious?

Yu Hong laughed mockingly. "I report to the painstaking emperor that you were killed by that old friend who escaped just now. What can the Emperor Do to me? Could it be that he will punish me for the sake of you two insignificant ants?"

Tian Jian gritted his teeth and suppressed the anger in his heart. He said, "Senior Yu, we can give you whatever Tian Liu Dao gave you!"

"Haha, You Can't." Yu Hong laughed. "What I want is for the sky orchid mansion to listen to me from now on. And your second uncle is obviously more sensible than you two siblings!"

The two siblings' hearts thumped as if they had fallen into an ice hole. Their Hearts were as cold as ice.

Yu Hong was unable to take a single step forward. The powerful aura pressed down on the siblings, making it difficult for them to breathe, let alone resist.

"Originally, I wanted to kill you and your sister in the fog just now. However, you have an old friend of the Mystic Crystal Overlord. It's more or less troublesome. Therefore, I used a little trick to chase him away and at the same time, I framed him for your death. This way, it would be more justified!"

What? They were also the ones who snatched the Divine Moon treasured pill?

The brother and sister suddenly came to a realization. What external enemy snatching? It was clearly Yu Hong and Tian Liu Dao acting on their own!

Yu Hong's palms collided with each other and pretended to be fighting against an external enemy. That was why his palms were red.

And the one who injured Tian Ru Lan was Tian Liu Dao!

What a well-planned Show!

Tian Ru Lan and Tian Jian's eyes were about to split open. They were completely treated as monkeys!

"I'll kill you!" Tian Rulan screamed shrilly as she pounced forward to meet Yu Hong head-on.

The corner of Yu Hong's lips curled up. With a flick of his little finger, an enormous amount of divine power transformed into a javelin and pierced through his chest.

How could a silver overlord withstand a strike from a mystic Crystal Overlord?

Just as he was about to be killed with a single strike, a pitch-black sword Qi suddenly swept over from the sky.

The javelin formed by Yu Hong's divine power was instantly shattered!

At the same time, the sword Qi's momentum did not decrease as it went straight for Yu Hong.

With the sudden attack, Yu Hong hurriedly pulled out his weapon to resist.

However, the Sword Qi was terrifyingly powerful, and the weapon instantly flew out of his hand.

"Which senior? I have painstakingly taken the Emperor's last disciple. Please show mercy, Senior!" Yu Hong was overwhelmed with shock.

After exchanging blows, he instantly knew that he had met a supreme expert that was far above him.

That kind of unstoppable momentum was something only a half-step emperor of heaven and Earth could have.

"Senior, you can't be considered as an old friend of the Sky Orchid Mansion." An ethereal voice descended from the sky.

Old Friend? What old friend? Would the sky orchid mansion have an old friend who was half-step Emperor of Heaven and earth?

Yu Hong's mind was filled with thoughts.

It was not until the violent sword Qi split him into two and destroyed his soul that he saw the so-called old friend of the sky orchid mansion before he closed his eyes.

A handsome young man with flowing silver hair, dressed in a plain crown and white clothes, held a blood sword in his hand and floated down.

Su Yu..

Yu Hong's eyes that were about to close opened wide, and he died with his eyes wide open.

How could it be him, an injured overlord of the Mystic Crystal Realm?

With doubt, Yu Hong's life force was extinguished.

A crisp sound rang out in his arms, and several pieces of broken jade slipped out.

That was a life token. His death would definitely be conveyed to another life token.

Tian Jian and Tian Rulan felt as if they were in a dream. They looked at Su Yu, who had suddenly returned, and at Su Yu, who had killed the overlord of the Mystic Crystal Realm with a single sword strike. They were in a daze on the spot.

Yu Hong's terrified pleas before his death were especially hard to shake off.

Someone as strong as Yu Hong couldn't even defeat a heavily injured Su Yu.

No, to be more precise, he couldn't even block a single sword strike from him.

Then, how terrifying was Su Yu when he was at his peak?

After two years, what level had he jumped into?

A peak overlord or a half-step emperor of heaven and earth that was hard to reach?

Su Yu landed and smiled at the two of them. Without turning his head, he said indifferently, "If you take another step, you'll die."

The siblings had just noticed that Tian Liu Dao had sneaked out of the main hall and was about to escape.

After being warned by Su Yu, Tian Liu Dao maintained his stance and didn't dare to move.

After witnessing Su Yu's terrifying swordsmanship, how could he dare to disobey even a single word?

"I'll leave it to you two to deal with it," Su Yu said to the Tian Jian siblings.

After all, he was a member of the Tian Lan residence. It would be better to leave it to the Tian Jian siblings to deal with it.

Tian Rulan's eyes were filled with hatred. "Traitor, colluding with a foreign enemy. Of course, I'll kill him with one strike and eliminate any future trouble!"

Swish --

She drew her sword and was about to end Tian Liudao's life.

"Sister, Wait!" Tian Jian stopped her.

"Why are you stopping me? This kind of heartless thing, kill them all!" Tian Rulan was indignant.

Tian Jian said calmly, "Naturally, it's impossible to let him go, but second uncle has befriended those oasis forces. We have to investigate them one by one, right? Even if the Tian Lan family goes back to take revenge one by one in the future, we'll have a list of revenge."

Hearing his words, the sky orchid felt that it was reasonable. "HMPH, I'll spare your dog life first! But since..."

Immediately after, a trace of ruthlessness flashed in the depths of his eyes. "But you can be spared from the punishment of living, but you can't escape from the punishment of Death!"

Chi La --

A wisp of ice-cold sword qi flashed and pierced straight towards the abdomen of Tian Liu Dao, intending to destroy his inner mansion and destroy his cultivation.

Keng --

Who knew that when the sword qi struck his abdomen, it was blocked by the tyrannical divine power of Tian Liu Dao.

Even if he did not fight back, it would not be easy for the silver overlord to hurt the Gold Overlord.

"You still dare to resist?" Tian Ru Lan was so angry that her face turned red. She glanced at Su Yu from the corner of her eyes, as if she had lost a huge person.

Su Yu flipped his wrist and drew a sword.

A black sword qi stabbed out and easily pierced through Tian Liu Dao's inner mansion.

Tian Liu Dao's face was pale as he held his abdomen in pain. The divine power in his inner mansion flowed out uncontrollably.

"Men, suppress him and keep a close watch!" Tian Ru Lan shouted angrily. She wanted nothing more than to step on him a few times.

He actually made her lose face in front of Su Yu. How hateful!

Su Yu smiled and sucked Yu Hong's corpse over. With a simple search, he grabbed Yu Hong's storage space.

He casually threw it to the siblings. "See if the lost item is inside."

The siblings immediately checked and easily found the bronze box that had been stolen.

Tian Rulan held the bronze box and felt relieved. She said happily, "Thank you, benefactor. Thank you!"

Tian Jian was also very grateful and said, "I'm ashamed. Benefactor saved us again and made benefactor suffer such a great injustice. But that was not our original intention. We believe that benefactor is not that kind of person. We didn't lie..."

Waving his hand, Su Yu said, "It was precisely because I knew that I returned."

To be falsely accused for no reason, and it was two powerhouses whose strength and cultivation were far higher than the Tian Jian siblings.

How profound was Su Yu's scheming ability? He could see through this little trick with a single glance, so he pretended to leave, but in reality, he was secretly observing.

Only after he had confirmed it did he use a thunderous method.

Hearing this, the Tian Jian siblings finally heaved a sigh of relief.

"Benefactor is a man of great righteousness. To be able to get to know benefactor is a great honor for our Tian Lan Manor!" Tian Jian exclaimed from the bottom of his heart.

Meeting Su Yu was indeed a blessing that they would never be able to cultivate in their entire lives!

As he spoke, Tian Jian returned the storage space to them.

Su Yu said, "I gave it to you. Then take it. The Xuan Crystal Overlord's storage space should have many good things."

To Su Yu, the storage space was useless, but it should be of great benefit to the two of them.

"AH? How can this be?" Tian Jian hurriedly rejected, his expression also became a little solemn. "Moreover, this Thief's master is the painstaking emperor. How can we dare to take his things? If we are questioned by the painstaking emperor, it would be a disaster!"

“Benefactor, you have already caused a great deal of trouble by killing Yu Hong. Please quickly hide,” Tian Rulan said. “Although our sky orchid mansion isn’t a heaven and earth spirit mansion, we have an extraordinary treasure that can isolate us from the outside world’s detection. Even an emperor might not be effective. Big Brother Su can temporarily hide in there.”

Heaven and Earth Emperor? If he was the Emperor of Heaven and earth, even if Su Yu couldn’t kill him, he might not be afraid.

“If I ask you to take it, then take it. I will explain the situation to the emperor,” Su Yu said.

Tian Rulan wasn’t scared by Su Yu’s tone. Which Emperor of Heaven and earth was so easy to talk to? Especially after killing his disciple and then explaining the situation to him?

This casual tone really scared them.

“Big Brother Su, it’s better to be less troublesome than more troublesome. Quickly hide and let us explain everything,” Tian Rulan urged.

She did not believe that Su Yu could really explain it so easily.

Chapter 1773 Dao Instrument Of Failure

Even though they were slightly familiar with Emperor painstaking care, they were still uneasy.

Killing Yu Hong would bring great trouble to the world. They hoped that after Emperor painstaking care heard the truth, he would be reasonable and not maliciously make things difficult for the sky orchid manor.

The brother and sister exchanged glances and prepared to say something.

However, Su Yu said indifferently, “There’s no need. He’s already here.”

Su Yu looked at the life token fragment that fell from Yu Hong’s arms and then looked up at the horizon.

The Tian Jian siblings could not sense it, but he could sense an extremely powerful aura rapidly pressing down on them.

It was probably the painstaking emperor who had sensed the death of his disciple, Yu Hong, and came here in a fit of rage.

“What? He’s Here?” The Tian Jian siblings’ hearts skipped a beat. In their panic, they had not even thought of their words properly.

Chirp --

A series of flames faintly appeared in the depths of the sky, and an ear-piercing sonic boom erupted.

It was some kind of extremely powerful creature that had rushed over.

The two siblings were even more flustered as they watched the flames shoot straight towards the sky orchid mansion.

“Who killed my beloved disciple? !”

Boom --

The fireball crashed down with an explosive force, creating a high-temperature shock wave that instantly destroyed half of the sky orchid mansion.

More than a hundred clansmen vanished into thin air in the shock wave.

That earth-shaking roar had just roared out.

Tian Jian and his sister's eyes went black. It was over. Judging from Emperor Painstaking's furious state, they could not hear any explanation at all.

A bad feeling of impending disaster lingered in their hearts.

Tian Ru Lan's heart was hanging in her throat. She mustered up her courage and said with trepidation, “Senior painstaking, it's like this. Senior Yu, he...”

Unexpectedly, before she could finish her sentence, Su Yu said indifferently, “I killed your disciple. The reason? I don't like him. Let's drop this matter. Go back to where you came from. We don't have to hurt each other for a little ant.”

Tian Rulan was dumbfounded, and Tian Jian was also dumbstruck.

Who was he talking to? The Emperor of Heaven and earth, his own brother!

Did he think that he didn't die fast enough?

Even the emperor of painstaking efforts, who was rushing over in anger, was stunned.

Then, he glared at Su Yu as if he was staring at an ignorant fool. He said coldly, “I don't care who you are or what abilities you have. If you want to kill my disciple, I'll Make You Beg for your life!”

Su Yu put away the Shura Sword and took out the Royal Longzun Sword. He said indifferently, “Well, I don't expect to convince you with words anyway.”

“Little Qilin!” Su Yu shouted and waved his sword.

The dragon-shaped sword qi pierced through the sky.

The terrifying power of the Emperor of Heaven and earth startled Emperor Ku Xin and he tried to resist!

However, just as he made his move, a pink mist flashed in front of his eyes and a pink little qilin that gave off a prehistoric power swung its hooves at his face.

The attack looked soft, but it caused Emperor Ku Xin's body to shake and blood to flow out of his seven orifices.

His entire body was sent flying like a stone!

That terrifying sword strike was unstoppable as it slashed down on his chest.

Rumble --

Emperor painstakingly's body was slashed into an extremely hideous blood groove. Large amounts of emperor's blood spilled out, forming a lush spiritual vein nearby.

After continuously smashing through countless ancient trees, he finally fell into a hundred thousand feet of dust.

The Tian Jian siblings who were watching from the side seemed to have been petrified. They did not even blink and forgot to breathe as they stared blankly at the unbelievable scene in front of them.

The Majestic Emperor of Heaven and earth was actually injured in just one move.

First was Su Yu's earth-shaking sword, and then the unexpected little qilin. It was truly shocking to their knowledge.

Cough cough --

Emperor painstakingly crawled out from the dust. His eyes were filled with shock, especially when he stared at the Royal Longzun Sword in the hands of the little qilin and Su Yu. He was extremely shocked.

The other party actually had the spiritual pet of the Emperor of Heaven and earth? There was also an extremely terrifying sovereign Dragon Sword!

"Continue!" Su Yu said indifferently, preparing to swing his sword again.

Little Qilin was also happily groping his little hooves, ready to rush up at any time and slap him in the face.

"Wait, stop, Stop!" Emperor painstaking heart hurriedly said. His previous rage vanished into thin air. Instead, he cupped his hands towards them and smiled apologetically. "It's just a misunderstanding. So we're all on the same path. Why is there a need to be so angry over such a small matter?"

No Emperor of Heaven and Earth was willing to fight to the death with someone of the same level.

"Then what about your disciple?" Su Yu asked.

Emperor painstakingly said, "Can you give me an explanation? After all, he's my disciple. He died like this. He has to give an explanation to the outside world."

Tian Rulan's heart moved. She immediately went forward and explained, "The matter is like this..."

She explained everything in detail.

"If the Emperor doesn't believe me, we still left Tian Liudao alive. The emperor can search his soul."

Emperor painstakingly waved his hand and said with a pleasant expression, "I trust Miss Tian's character. I really didn't expect that I would take in such a wicked disciple who harbors evil intentions!"

He sighed deeply and said, "If you kill him, you can consider it as cleaning up my house."

Emperor painstakingly cupped his fists and said, "Since it's a misunderstanding, I'll take my leave."

Since he had already found the stairs, he naturally had to leave immediately. Could he wait for the other emperors of Heaven and earth to come over and watch the show?

“Wait? Just like that? How are you going to calculate the losses you’ve caused to the Sky Orchid Mansion?” Su Yu pointed at the ruins below his feet.

Emperor painstakingly suppressed his temper. He killed his disciple and still wanted him to apologize? No one would bully others like this!

Tian Rulan also carefully tugged at Su Yu’s sleeve and said in a low voice, “Benefactor, forget it. This is already very good.”

Su Yu turned a deaf ear and said, “Since I am an old friend of the Tian Lan residence, I naturally have to stand up for them. Why, does emperor painstakingly intend to not admit his debt?”

As he said this, he brandished the Royal Longzun Sword.

The little qilin also rubbed his palms together, looking as if he had not had enough yet.

Emperor painstaking care’s eyelids twitched, and he hurriedly took out a transparent bottle of medicine.

Within it was a five-colored medicinal pill. It was the Divine Moon treasured pill!

“Miss Tian, please accept this small compensation.” Emperor painstaking care handed it over with an apologetic expression.

Tian Rulan was overwhelmed by the favor. She deeply remembered that when the Golden Flame Forbidden Tree was offered last time, emperor painstaking care had looked down on them as if they were ants.

They really could not bear such an attitude as if they were treating their friends as equals.

“Thank... Thank you, Emperor painstakingly!” Tian Ru Lan subconsciously wanted to kneel down and thank him.

Su Yu glared at Emperor painstakingly. He shivered and immediately helped her up, he said amiably, “What are you talking about? It’s my fault first. This bottle of pills is compensation. If you have any difficulties in the future, you can come to me anytime.”

Ah? Tian Ru Lan felt light all over when she heard that, as if her soul had left her body.

Today’s experience was really too magical!

“Alright, then I’ll take my leave.” Sensing the aura of a few emperors of heaven and earth heading towards this place, the painstaking emperor hurriedly left.

Tian Ru Lan, who had finally recovered her spirit, looked at Su Yu with gratitude and admiration and muttered, “Benefactor, how should I repay you?”

Oh? Benefactor?

The eyes of the painstaking emperor, who had not gone far, flashed with a flash of greed.

Benefactor, was it that benefactor who had given them the Golden Flame Forbidden Tree?

He quietly left and pretended not to hear anything.

Su Yu said, "It's nothing. There's no need to take it to heart."

"What is the hidden treasure that you mentioned just now? Can you allow me to take a look?" Su Yu asked.

Ah? Benefactor wanted this item as a form of repayment?

However, Tian Ru Lan and Tian Jian did not feel the slightest bit of reluctance. Compared to what Su Yu gave them, what was a mere treasure?

"Follow us!" Tian Ru Lan led Su Yu back to the Sky Orchid Manor and arrived at the pill refining room!

A Snow White pill furnace that looked like a jade artifact appeared before their eyes.

"This is it." Tian ru LAN said, "This is the pill furnace passed down in the Sky Orchid Manor's family. It has an extraordinary effect in isolating one's aura."

Su Yu sized it up and felt that it was strange.

Even if the Emperor Dao sacred artifact was placed in front of him, Su Yu could see through its grade with a single glance. Only this jade artifact could not be seen through with a single glance.

The little qilin widened its purple eyes as it curiously circled the jade artifact twice. It clicked its tongue and said, "A failed dao artifact. The fortune of your Skyorchid Manor's ancestors isn't bad, to actually be able to pick up such a treasure."

A failed dao artifact? Su Yu was shocked.

Didn't this mean that it was a peerless treasure?

The little qilin and Su Yu shared the same thoughts. He said, "A failed product and a finished product are two different things. A failed product can be said to be worthless. Whether it is its function or the attributes it has been refined, they are all useless. They are inferior to a putong emperor-grade divine weapon."

No wonder if a failed dao artifact had value, it was not the place for the tiny sky orchid mansion to keep it for so long.

"The aura isolation of this item is indeed exquisite." Su Yu inspected it. Although it was a failed dao artifact, due to the properties of the material itself, the aura isolation was extremely strong.

Not to mention ordinary emperors, even if the Little Hall master came personally, he might not be able to see through the pill furnace.

Unless the Little Hall master personally opened the pill furnace, he wouldn't be able to see through Su Yu with a glance.

But could the young hall master inspect it so carefully?

Even if they had many emperors, it would still take more than a hundred years to turn the dust sand civilization upside down, right?

“Surviving a desperate situation.” Su Yu looked up at the sky and sighed.

The heavens really did not want me to die!

He had no intention of helping the Sky Orchid Manor, but he had obtained a chance to survive a desperate situation.

Su Yu, who did not believe in fate, suddenly had an epiphany that everything had a fixed fate.

“Big Brother Su, it’s too serious. If you like it, feel free to take it. We don’t refine pills often anyway,” Tian Rulan said straightforwardly.

Su Yu said, “I’m not asking for it. I just want to borrow it to avoid being chased.”

Chased? Tian Jian just remembered the situation where Su Yu fell into the dust civilization and said in surprise, “Who can chase after you?”

With the strength Su Yu had displayed, could it be that there was a sovereign of heaven and earth chasing after him?

“A powerful enemy that you can not imagine,” Su Yu said solemnly. He sized up the two of them and said, “In order to avoid bringing unnecessary trouble to you, I need to remove your memories of me.”

With Su Yu’s current soul attainments, it was easy for him to do this.

The Tian Jian siblings did not hesitate. “As long as we don’t expose Big Brother Su, we are willing.”

Removing the soul was rather dangerous. They agreed without hesitation, which showed how much trust they had in Su Yu.

“Okay!” Su Yu’s eyes shot out two faint white lights.

The brother and sister’s souls felt a sharp pain and they fainted on the spot.

After settling them down, Su Yu hugged the little qilin and jumped into the Dao artifact jade cauldron.

Chapter 1774 No Place To Hide

An hour later, the brother and sister slowly woke up and looked around blankly.

“Eh, Big Brother, what happened to us?”

“Ah! Oh My God, why do I have an entire bottle of divine moon treasured pills? Hiss, ten pills, how is that possible?”

“Wait, Where’s senior Yu? Isn’t he guarding us while we refine the pills?”

The siblings were in a state of great shock.

Then, a huge shadow enveloped them.

The dazzling sun was isolated by something and was gradually swallowed up.

The world lost its color and the sun and Moon lost their light. The entire dust sand civilization fell into darkness.

The four remaining sovereigns of the dust sand civilization looked up in shock. From the huge shadow above their heads, they felt a powerful aura that they had never felt in their entire lives.

Emperor painstakingly was on his way back. He stared at the shadow above his head in shock, and a bad feeling enveloped his heart.

Without thinking, he turned around and fled.

However, he had only taken a few steps when a purple-clothed woman appeared.

Her figure was graceful and peerless, and a faint purple light surged on her face.

“The vile-daughter palace invites you!”Without any explanation, the purple-clothed person imprisoned him and instantly brought Yun Xing along.

When he opened his eyes, he discovered a mysterious bronze-colored hall deep within.

There were more than thirty auras of Emperors of Heaven and earth around him.

The presence of so many emperors made him suck in a breath of cold air!

At the same time, he was shocked to discover that the four emperors of the dust sand civilization had all been imprisoned!

“A meteorite has fallen into this civilization. Is there such a Thing?”A dreamy and ethereal voice floated over.

Following the voice, one could see a woman shining with golden light sitting in front of them. She gave off a terrifying aura that shook one’s soul.

Facing this woman, Emperor painstakingly felt his legs go weak, and he couldn’t help but tremble.

“Speak.”The golden-haired woman wasn’t angry, but she was imposing.

The Four Emperors nodded in succession.

“Yes, yes. We sensed that something crashed into the civilization, but when we went over to investigate, there was only a crater left. There was nothing.”

The Golden Lady pondered for a moment, and her white fingers streaked across the sky, condensing into a lifelike figure.

“Have you seen this person before?”

The emperors of the first three days were at a loss and shook their heads.

Only the eyes of the painstaking emperor wavered, but for some unknown reason, he also shook his head.

The golden lady said in disappointment, “Then you are all useless. Bestow the Holy Pill.”

The Four Emperors were at a loss. What was the Holy Pill?

Zi Yi took out four holy pills and fed them to the first emperor. The effects of the pill immediately took effect.

With a painful roar, the emperor who swallowed the Holy Pill turned into a woman?

The next emperor did the same and turned into a woman.

When it was the third emperor's turn, he protested, "May I ask how we offended you? Why did we..."

The result was that before he could finish his sentence, he was flicked by the Golden Lady's little finger, and the emperor was turned into ashes on the spot!

"My decision can not be questioned," the Golden Lady said indifferently.

Emperor painstakingly trembled in fear. When he saw the purple-robed man hand over the Holy Pill, he hurriedly knelt down and begged for mercy, "Senior, please show mercy! Senior, Please Show Mercy! I've seen this person before, and I know where he is!"

The purple-robed woman's hand gestures paused, and she moved aside.

The golden-robed woman coldly asked, "Then, why did you shake your head just now?"

Facing such a powerful senior, how could he dare to hide anything? He replied, "It was because junior was greedy and wanted to swallow the treasures on his body alone. I was unwilling for senior and the others to capture him, so I lied!"

A trace of killing intent immediately locked onto him.

Emperor painstaking heart was so scared that he kept kowtowing. He was extremely terrified.

After a while, the killing intent slowly faded away.

"You lied to me. I should have given you one, but if what you said is correct, help me find this person and I'll spare your life!"

Emperor painstaking heart trembled. "It's absolutely true. I definitely didn't lie!"

"Lead the way!" The golden-haired woman said indifferently.

Rumble --

The golden-haired woman, violet-clothed, and violet-crowned teleported out of the meteorite star with Emperor painstaking heart and appeared in front of the Sky Orchid Manor.

The golden-haired woman swept her gaze over and coldly said, "His aura isn't here. You're lying to me to save your life, right?"

Emperor painstaking heart was so frightened that he was on the verge of tears. "I'm not lying. I just exchanged blows with him. That's impossible. He must be nearby!"

However, why wasn't his aura there?

"Could it be that he concealed his aura?" Emperor painstaking heart asked.

The Golden Lady was silent, and killing intent surged within her.

The purple-robed figure said indifferently, "The young hall master's eyes have been tempered. No one's aura can be concealed under her eyes. Looks like you're lying."

His ending would be even more miserable than the third emperor who died tragically.

No! Emperor painstakingly shouted in his heart.

Perhaps it was the pressure of death, but emperor painstakingly had an idea. "Wait, I remember now. It is said that there is a unique pill furnace in the sky orchid mansion. It has an extraordinary effect in isolating auras. Could it be that he is hiding inside?"

Purple Robe shook her head. "I have said it before. Nothing can be concealed under the little palace master's eyes."

Thinking of the meteorite that had left, Zi Yi said, "Young Palace master, perhaps they are only here temporarily and will immediately leave the dust civilization."

"Perhaps." The Golden Lady said.

However, she walked towards the Sky Orchid Prefecture.

"Young palace master..." Zi Yi called out softly.

The golden lady said indifferently, "He is indeed not lying. There is something special here that has blocked my eyes."

Emperor of painstaking care heaved a sigh of relief when he heard this, but cold sweat was already dripping down his back.

What a close call! They had just walked through the gates of hell!

With a thought, everyone teleported in front of the object.

Tian Jian and his sister were clearing their minds. It took them a long time to figure out that Yu Hong was emperor of painstaking care under orders. He left behind a bottle of divine moon treasured pill before leaving.

As for why they were unconscious, it should be because there was a problem with the Divine Moon treasured pill. It triggered some kind of shockwave and hurt them, right?

Just as they were in deep thought, a powerful fluctuation suddenly appeared behind them, scaring the siblings into turning their heads in a hurry.

Looking closely, there were a total of four people.

One of them was emperor painstaking care.

"Ah! Senior Emperor painstaking care, why are you here?" Tian Rulan's face was filled with respect as she knelt down together with Tian Jian.

Emperor painstaking care did not dare to say a single word as his eyes stared fixedly at the Golden Woman.

She waved her robes, and the door to the pill refining room burst open, revealing a jade-colored pill furnace.

“A failed dao weapon?”The young hallmaster was slightly surprised, but her eyes narrowed. “If Su Yu really is in the dust sand civilization, the only place she can hide is this pill furnace.”

She couldn't help but believe emperor painstaking heart's words.

Violet-clothed and violet-crowned were also surprised. They surrounded the pill refining room one after the other to prevent Su Yu from escaping.

The Young Hall Master stepped into the secret room and stared at the pill furnace.

Emperor painstaking heart was extremely confident. It was impossible for Su Yu to escape from the dust civilization in a short period of time. He was definitely inside the pill furnace.

“Open!”The Young Hall master waved his sleeve and the lid of the cauldron flew off.

What everyone saw was an empty space.

No! !

Emperor painstaking heart instantly fell from heaven to Hell.

“No, how is this possible? How is it possible that he isn't Here?”Emperor painstaking heart staggered back.

When he saw the young palace master turning his head to look at him, he screamed in fear, “I'm not lying! If you don't believe me, ask the brother and sister. They must have arranged for Su Yu to hide!”

The Young Palace Master looked at the brother and sister and said indifferently, “Soul Search.”

Purple Robe and purple crown, one each, immediately began the soul search.

After a moment, the two shook their heads, “There are no recent memories of Su Yu. The only thing we have is two years ago.”

“How is that possible? Someone must have erased their memories!”Emperor painstakingly shouted. “If you don't believe me, search my soul. I've fought with him before, so I must have his memories.”

The Young Hall master slowly stretched out his finger and flicked it lightly.

Ah!

A mournful scream that cut through the heavens and earth came to an abrupt stop.

“Young Hall Master, why didn't you search his soul?”Zi Yi asked.

The Little Hall master said indifferently, “I can't tolerate being deceived again and again. There's no need. He's just stalling for time.”

If he had admitted that he had seen Su Yu from the beginning, perhaps the little hall master would still have believed him.

However, he had lied from the beginning and said that the sequence did not correspond with the truth. This had completely exhausted the little hall master's patience.

"Let's go and catch up with that little meteorite." The Little Hall master paced and returned to the big meteorite with a thought.

He glanced at the two new saint slaves indifferently and said, "Let's Go..."

At this moment, two yellow light emperors rushed over and said, "Urgent News."

"Speak!"

The two yellow light emperors handed over a jade slip. "We searched the soul of a cultivator named Hu Xiaodie and found something abnormal. He came from the Taotie Cage and passed through an ancient array formation!"

The unperturbed little hall master suddenly stood up and sucked the jade slip over.

He swept his gaze over and immediately scanned the information inside.

The golden light on his jade face fluctuated violently, and his voice was mixed with excitement.

"Return! Capture Su Yu and demote it to a level two mission. Rescue the hall master to a level one mission!"

What? All the hall members were shocked.

The Little Hall master gripped the jade slip tightly, and his emotions could not be any more excited!

Not only had he confirmed the location of the Taotie's cage, he had also found an ancient array formation that could teleport him into the Taotie's Cage!

If he succeeded, he would definitely be able to rescue the evil daughter.

Compared to this, capturing Su Yu was secondary.

"Zi Yi, lead ten hall members and stay behind to continue chasing after Su Yu!" The Little Hall master ordered.

"Yes!" Zi Yi led ten hall masters and stepped onto the backup little meteorite. They left the big meteorite and continued chasing after the missing little meteorite.

Rumble --

The huge meteorite sped towards the sea of constellations civilization.

The dust civilization saw the light again, but the four sovereigns of Heaven and earth that were born could never return.

Pop --

Sky Orchid Manor, Pill Refining Room, Jade Cauldron.

The lid of the cauldron was gently opened, and what was originally empty turned into reality. The little qilin and Su Yu appeared.

“Phew! That was close. Fortunately, I learned my life-saving divine ability.”The little qilin had a look of survival.

The moment the lid of the cauldron was lifted, the little qilin activated the divine ability to turn from reality into nothingness, turning it and Su Yu into nothingness.

Unlike the visible nothingness in the past, this time it was real nothingness. Not only was it formless, its aura was also nothingness.

That was why it was able to avoid the little hall master’s eyes that could see through all auras.

“If you had this ability, why didn’t you say so earlier? You made me worry for nothing.”Su Yu pinched the Little Qilin’s face.

The little qilin pouted. “How can it be as easy as you think? “With my primal power, I can only hold on for ten breaths at most. After ten breaths, I’ll reveal my true form. I Won’t use it unless it’s absolutely necessary! “Back then, the reason I was able to escape for so long was because I used this divine art.”

Chapter 1775 Heaven And Hell

The little qilin was panting as she spoke.

Su Yu caressed her head and comforted her. She heaved a sigh of relief in her heart.

She had escaped death!

Without the jade cauldron, she could not escape death.

Without the Little Qilin’s supreme divine arts, she could not escape death.

Without the Little Hall master’s stubbornness, she could not escape death even if she managed to kill Emperor painstakingly in time.

Without one of the three stages, one would die without a doubt.

To be able to survive this time was truly a blessing from the heavens!

“Ah! Benefactor, why are you here?”The Tian Jian siblings who had lost their memories had frightened expressions as if they had seen a ghost.

Su Yu was speechless. His eyes shot out bright lights and pierced into the souls of the two of them.

The memories that had been removed previously entered their minds once more.

The two of them quivered. Tian jian blurted out, “Big Brother Su, are you safe?”

Tian Ru Lan also cast a concerned gaze.

Su Yu nodded and smiled. “Thanks to you, the enemy has left.”

“That’s Great!”The siblings smiled sincerely.

Following that, Su Yu rested comfortably and did his best to recover from his injuries.

After a few days, not only did Su Yu recover, his divine power also recovered to its peak.

“Congratulations on coming out of seclusion, big brother Su.” Tian Ru Lan smiled.

Tian Jian said, “We have prepared a welcoming banquet for big brother Su. There’s no need to refuse. It’s just the three of us.”

Su Yu did not refuse. He drank and chatted with the siblings.

After listening to Su Yu’s two years of experience, Tian Ru Lan was intoxicated. She exclaimed, “It’s really a legendary experience.”

Tian Jian’s eyes were filled with envy. “We ordinary people don’t even dare to think about big brother Su’s experience. No wonder big brother Su went from the Mortal Immortal Realm to the Mystic Crystal Overlord in just two short years. All of his experiences are more mythical than myths! “I really don’t know where the two of us got the fortune to get to know brother Su.”

His words were sincere and did not contain any flattery.

Su Yu only smiled. Such a “Mythical” experience was just a common occurrence to him.

“Brother Su, if you have nothing else to do, why don’t you settle down in the dust sand civilization? I’ve asked around. The Four Emperors have been captured by your enemies. In the dust sand civilization, brother Su can absolutely be the king and the Overlord!” Tian Jian suggested.

Su Yu pondered for a moment and slowly shook his head.

“Martial arts are like sailing against the current. If you don’t advance, you will retreat. I have a long way to go and I can’t stop,” Su Yu said with a determined gaze.

When Tian Jian and his sister heard this, they were both ashamed and fascinated.

They were destined to guard the sky orchid mansion and spend their lives in mediocrity.

They were destined not to experience the ups and downs of a life like Su Yu’s.

Little did they know that Su Yu had been pursuing such a peaceful life from the start.

“Alright, I have to rush to Emperor Yu’s dynasty. We will meet again.” Su Yu finished his last glass of wine and said goodbye.

Emperor Yu’s dynasty? The siblings were stunned.

Tian Jian asked probingly, “May I ask if big brother Su is going there for Dao Yu?”

“Oh? You know about it too?” Su Yu was surprised. “The news spread quite quickly.”

Tian Jian smiled bitterly. “How could the two of us have the ability to find out about the great Yu Emperor Dynasty? It was the information that my second uncle accidentally found after a soul search.”

Su Yu sat down again and looked at the two of them. “You guys want to participate too?”

“No, no!” Tian Rulan waved her hand. “In second uncle’s memories, all the participants of Dao rain are extremely powerful heaven’s favorites. How would we have the courage to participate?”

Tian Jian said, “We know that it doesn’t seem easy to participate in dao rain. We need a recommendation, right?”

Su Yu was slightly surprised. “Your second uncle is only a golden overlord and doesn’t have any background. How did he know so much?”

“Big Brother Su, you don’t know. After second uncle was expelled, he was fortunate enough to be taken in by a royal daughter and became her imperial guard. Although he wasn’t very important, because he was deep in the imperial city, he was well-informed. Recently, he learned that my father had passed away, so he resigned from his position as a guard and returned to the dust civilization to occupy the sky orchid mansion.”

Tian Jian said with a smile, “I wonder if Big Brother Su has a recommendation?”

There was a recommendation. The seventh princess of Beixin was controlled by Zhu Ji.

But now, there was no recommendation. Zhu Ji and the others believed that they had escaped far away and had no way to find them.

“If not, we can help.”

“You?” Su Yu was surprised. “Could it be that your second uncle has some clues in his memory?”

“That’s right!” Tian Jian said, “Second uncle learned from secret news that someone is selling recommendation letters everywhere, but the price is extremely high. Without being able to move that person’s interest, he won’t consider it at all.”

Su Yu listened and actually didn’t find it strange at all.

Everyone in dao rain was greedy. Being able to enter and control the tickets in the hands of a few people, it was only natural that there would be an exchange of interests.

“Is it reliable?” Su Yu was doubtful. This was a rare event that happened once in a blue moon. There would be many people who would take advantage of it.

“Then we don’t know. Second Uncle’s influence is insignificant, and his financial resources are limited. He doesn’t have the guts to participate.”

Was that so?

After pondering for a moment, su yu said, “Okay, give me the details.”

Tian Rulan giggled as she took out a jade slip. “It’s here.”

It turned out that she had already prepared it.

The siblings had long expected that Su Yu, a dragon among men, would not be able to live in a small dust civilization, so they had made preparations.

“Thank you.” Su Yu held the jade slip.

Tian Rulan blushed. “Big Brother Su has helped us a lot, and we can’t repay him. We are more than happy to be able to help big brother Su.”

“It would be great if guest elder Li Changqing was here too. He has been missing big brother Su for a long time.” Tian Rulan said regretfully.

Li Changqing? Su Yu narrowed his eyes and thought of something, “That day at the ancient dream altar, when Li Changqing first saw me, he said that someone had issued a reward to find my whereabouts. May I ask where guest elder Li saw the reward?”

Tian Jian slapped his forehead. “If you didn’t tell me, I would have forgotten about it! After we returned, we specially asked Li Changqing to pay attention to this matter. After searching, he finally remembered that it was in the Imperial City of the Great Yu Empire.”

“A year ago, Li Changqing set off to the imperial city to help Big Brother Su investigate the person who issued the bounty.”

Tian Rulan said, “Back then, I saw that big brother Su took it very seriously, so I wanted to wait for the investigation to be done before using the information as a gift to repay big brother Su’s kindness. Unfortunately, there is still no news of Li Changqing.”

“The Imperial City?” Su Yu asked. Coincidentally, the person Tian Liudao mentioned who was qualified to sell Dao rain was also in the Imperial City.

It seemed that they had to go to the imperial city.

After asking for Li Changqing’s contact information, Su Yu had just bid them farewell.

Looking at Su Yu’s back as he left, Tian rulan muttered, “Big Brother, we won’t run into Big Brother Su again, right?”

Tian jian sighed dejectedly, “Yeah, it shouldn’t be. He’s an exalted immortal, and we’re mortals on Earth. We’ll never meet again.”

Su Yu stepped on the meteorite and quickly left the dust civilization.

One month later.

A small meteorite descended on the dust civilization.

On the meteorite, Corpse Qi overflowed into the sky. A female corpse king with disheveled hair gave off an ice-cold sharpness.

“Investigate the situation immediately!”

The Nine Corpse Kings behind him immediately shot out in all directions, looking for news.

Not long after, they returned one after another with solemn expressions.

“How is it? Is Su Yu still there?”The female corpse king’s voice was hoarse and cold.

The undying boy sighed, “The odds are against us. Even the emperor of the dust sand civilization was captured, let alone the heavily injured Su Yu. Moreover, with that little hall master’s temper, Su Yu is most likely already...”

She didn’t continue, because the result was very obvious.

It had already been erased from the world.

“Why! ! !”The only female corpse king in the world who cared about Su Yu’s life and death, besides Zhu Ji, there was no other person.

She was powerless to kneel in the dust, as if she had been drained of her last bit of strength.

She tightly held the dust in her palm, allowing it to flow through her fingers.

“You withered, why am I still alive?”Zhuji was no longer as radiant as before, her face was Haggard and pale.

Twenty days had passed since she woke up.

She had traveled thousands of miles at all costs, with the last bit of luck in her heart.

However, the heaven was heartless. She didn’t receive any favor, and couldn’t even look at Su Yu’s body again.

A sorrowful will that had no pity in life lingered around her.

The Corpse Kings were silent. They could feel that Zhu Ji’s heart was dead.

The grief was nothing more than her heart being dead.

Even if her cultivation was still there, she had lost the motivation to live. She could either return to the muddle-headed life of the corpse clan, or die in silence under the pressure of time.

The immortal boy paused and said, “Su Yu, the Corpse King left the hope of life to you. Did he hope that you would sink into depression and fall? You are only doing this because the loved ones hate the enemy!”

However, Zhu Ji looked absent-minded.

Nothing could move her.

“Zhu Ji, Su Yu is dead, but you are still alive. Don’t you want to do something for him?”Immortal boy advised, “For example, those culprits are still free.”

Zhu Ji suddenly tightened her palm and crushed the dust in her palm, sending it flying in all directions.

A piece of dust fell in front of her eyes.

Through the dust, her absent-minded eyes were filled with a chilling killing intent.

“The reason why I Live...”Zhu Ji murmured, her eyes getting brighter and colder.

“I live like a vine, accompanying my husband through birth, old age, sickness, and death, experiencing the reincarnation of the world, never regretting...”zhu ji said hoarsely, “I live like a vine, entangling the damned enemy in Hell and torturing him for eternity!”

At the end, the thick hatred made the many corpse kings shiver.

But they all understood.

The former was Zhu Ji’s wish.

The latter was another Zhu Ji’s wish.

One was a lover, a beautiful wish.

One was a twisted wish for revenge.

“Zhu Ji is dead, Zhu Ji is alive.”Zhu Ji smiled, and two lines of tears flowed out of her eyes. “I should have known that the corpse race lives for revenge. What Love, what love, it has nothing to do with me.”

However, for the first time, her target for revenge was clear.

“Evil daughter Palace!”Zhu Ji’s hair was disheveled, and no one could see her expression clearly. Her words were unusually cold. “I want you to pay with blood!”

Her roar shook the world.

The Nine Corpse Kings watched quietly. They saw with their own eyes that a bright and charming Zhu Ji had turned into a dark and evil ghost.

The immortal boy spread out his hands. “Since I have nowhere else to go, I’ll take revenge with you. To be honest, I have a pretty good impression of Su Yu.”

Chapter 1776 Exclusive To The Royal Family

“We will follow you. Since the Zombie Horde has been wiped out and we have nowhere to go, Let’s Go!”

Zhu Ji said hoarsely, “Alright, let’s go to the evil daughter Palace together!”

She jumped onto the meteorite but didn’t activate it immediately.

Instead, she shook out three ice coffins from her storage space.

If Su Yu was here, she would be surprised.

Among the two ice coffins, one sealed Xia Jingyu, and the other sealed Shengge.

Kacha --

The three ice coffins shattered, and they were released.

Xia Jingyu and Shengge opened their eyes and looked at the nine corpse kings with different expressions.

Shengge was on high alert, but Xia Jingyu was unperturbed. She was like an autumn lake under the bright sun, peaceful and peaceful.

“You two are free.” Zhuji looked up at the sky.

Xia Jingyu asked, “Why did you let us go?”

Zhuji sighed, “He is already dead. There is no need to compete with you anymore. Everything is meaningless.”

Shengge was stunned. Xia Jingyu trembled slightly, her bright eyes filled with tears.

“You didn’t lie to me?” Xia Jingyu asked.

Zhuji laughed hoarsely and did not answer.

Silence was the best answer.

“He won’t die, he won’t.” Xia Jingyu shook her head. “He died many times before, but every time he survived...”

“It’s different this time. The evil Lady Palace chased after him personally, but he didn’t even leave his breath behind.”

Xia Jingyu closed her eyes and peered into the future, looking for Su Yu’s fate.

But what she saw was nothing.

Such a situation could only happen to one kind of person.

A dead person!

Xia Jingyu trembled and staggered backward. Her tightly shut eyes were as clear as rain.

“Brother Su Yu...” in the midst of her grief and desolation, she hugged herself tightly and slowly squatted down.

Shengge couldn’t help but sob.

Zhuji silently faced the sky, but tears welled up in her eyes. After a long time., she sobbed, “We zombies are born with no memories. What we cherish the most are memories. So, I’ll let you go. When I die and have another life, I hope that one of you can tell me that in my previous life, I once loved a man named Su Yu.”

After that, she closed her eyes, “Let’s Go!”

“Wait!” Xia Jingyu slowly stood up, “I’ll go with you.”

“Where to?”

“The Goddess clan.” At this moment, Xia Jingyu was indescribably cold.

“What for?”

“To find a way to revive him.”Xia Jingyu said, “The Goddess clan is best at Heaven’s will.”

Zhu Ji said, “What if after being revived, you forget your previous life like me?”

Xia Jingyu said, “Then as you said, please tell him that there was a woman named Xia Jingyu who loved him.”

“Okay, come on up. I’ll send you to the Goddess Tribe!”

One of them asked for revenge.

The other asked for the next life.

“Take me with you!”Sheng ge caught up with Xia Jingyu without any explanation. “I can verify it for you.”

Zhu Ji nodded.

Finally, she looked at the woman in the third ice coffin, bei Wangzhu.

Being stared at by her, bei Wangzhu couldn’t help but tremble. She stared at her with love and hatred, her face still red.

“What do you want?”Bei Wangzhu had a bad premonition.

Zhu Ji stared at her. “Nothing. I just want you to do something for the three of us.”

“What is it?”Bei Wangzhu said weakly.

“Remember him for us!”Zhu Ji said, “If the three of us die, at least one of us will remember him forever, until death.”

Then, he placed his palm on the top of Bei Wangzhu’s head.

The Immortal Boy was shocked. “Corpse King’s Curse?”

Every Corpse King could cast a curse once, and only once.

The curse would last for a lifetime until the death of all living beings.

Bei Wangzhu didn’t feel much pain, and there weren’t many changes on her body after casting the curse. She asked cautiously, “What did you do to me?”

“You will find out soon, Hehe...”Zhu Ji smiled mysteriously. She controlled the little meteorite and flew into the vast void.

Bei Wangzhu was left behind with an uneasy expression.

Not long after, bei Wangzhu’s face suddenly turned red, and her eyes were dazed.

She was both hopeful and shy. “Damn it, it’s happening again!”

Her eyelashes fluttered, and she closed her eyes. A drunken dream that could not be realized in reality evolved in her mind.

She let out a soft cry and habitually catered to the strong male body, savoring the forbidden pleasure.

“Second brother, Zhu'er likes you so much.” She twisted her body and said romantic words.

However, she did not receive any response.

She opened her eyes in embarrassment, but what she saw was not Bei Wangchen, but... Su Yu!

“Ah! ! !” A scream cut through the sky above the dust civilization.

Bei Wangzhu suddenly woke up and broke out in cold sweat.

“What’s going on? Why is it... It’s him?” Bei Wangzhu hugged her arms in fear. A thought flashed through her mind and she immediately understood what was going on. She gritted her teeth and said, “Zhuji! Your... Your curse is actually...”

It was to change the person she loved in her heart to Su Yu!

What made her even more embarrassed was that the curse would be with her for the rest of her life, and it would flare up from time to time.

When she thought about how she would fall in love with a strange man every once in a while, Bei Wangzhu went crazy.

“I... I Won’t let you get away with it! !” Bei Wangzhu screamed in the direction where Zhuji had left.

Su Yu, who was completely unaware of this, carried the little qilin and traveled through the vast void.

Suddenly, Su Yu touched his chest and frowned. “There seems to be some unknown power probing me. Is it the vile-daughter palace?”

The Little Qilin yawned. “Don’t worry. With me by your side, any probing that is too far away will reveal a state of nothingness and won’t be discovered.”

Su Yu was relieved and rushed forward with all his might.

A month later.

A brilliant palace stood in the depths of nothingness.

Emperor Yu of the Great Yu dynasty!

With his previous experience, Su Yu easily bribed the prosecutor guarding the entrance with a large amount of resources and successfully entered the imperial city.

“It seems that northern letter fiefdom hasn’t revealed my identity to the public.” Su Yu turned his head to look at the entrance and smiled.

The only people who knew about the theft of the Wang Ding were the northern letter faction and the Hehuan Saintess.

If it was tightly controlled, the news might not leak out.

“This makes it easier for me to do things.” Su Yu followed what the Tian Jian siblings said and came to the imperial city to offer a reward.

As a specialist in the imperial city, her reputation was very good.

Su Yu came to one of the remote counters and said, “I want to inquire about a reward.”

The girl at the counter was as beautiful as a flower. She nodded expressionlessly and said, “Sure, the inquiry is free. What information do you want to inquire about?”

Her attitude was cold and unenthusiastic.

As expected of the royal family. Even an ordinary maid could be neither servile nor overbearing in front of the mystic Crystal Overlord.

“Two years ago, someone issued a bounty to find a human named Su Yu.”

The maid took out a palm-sized crystal screen. With a swipe of her finger, countless messages began to scroll.

In the blink of an eye, a dark red message successfully appeared.

“The bounty has been canceled. You’re late,” the maid said lightly.

Canceled..

After thinking for a moment, su yu asked, “Did the bounty hunter leave his contact information?”

“I’m sorry, no,” the maid said.

If that was the case, it would be very difficult to find out who the bounty hunter was.

“But...” the maid paused for a moment and then said, “Recently, someone reissued the bounty to look for a human named Su Yu and left his contact information.”

Su Yu was surprised. “Who? Where do you want to meet?”

“Ethereal Tower, interview.” The maid said, “Give us a full bounty and we will inform the other party for you.”

This was how the bounty business earned money.

Both the bounty collectors and the bounty recipients received commissions.

After handing over a portion of the resources, the young lady revealed a smile. “Congratulations, young master. In three days, ethereal tower will arrange for you to interview the bounty recipients.”

Su Yu looked forward to it. were the two people offering the reward to find Su Yu the same person?

If so, then who was it?

The only thing he could be sure of was that it was definitely someone from the cage of Taotie!

After leaving the reward line, Su Yu went straight to the slums of the imperial city.

This place was filled with all sorts of people and was filled with opportunities and dangers.

Today was no exception.

However, compared to the slums in the past, it was much livelier recently.

Not only was it because of the various powers coveting Dao Rain, the biggest reason was that there was a mysterious person selling dao rain's qualifications.

Every three days, he would openly auction a qualification at a certain place in the slums.

The participants rushed over.

Normally, unless invited by the ten great emperors and the imperial family, normal people didn't have the qualifications to enter Dao Rain's territory.

This shortcut naturally attracted countless people who had no other choice.

Su Yu followed the address provided by Tian Jian and his sister and arrived at an ordinary house in the slums.

The outside looked desolate, uninhabited, as if it had been abandoned for a long time.

However, it couldn't escape Su Yu's eyes. Looking through, he immediately discovered the existence of the illusion array.

With a thought, Su Yu stepped in, and the scene before him changed.

In the spacious courtyard, there were eight or nine people sitting or standing.

Su Yu's entrance attracted a lot of attention, which attracted a lot of hostility.

"Tch! Another competitor!"

"It's really not easy to fight for a place."

Su Yu turned a deaf ear to their discussions.

Looking around at the nine people present, he frowned slightly.

There were too few people!

Tian Liu Dao's status in the imperial city was so low, and he even knew about the selling of Dao Rain's qualifications. Where were the higher-ups?

Why were there only eight or nine people who actually came to bid?

Clang --

Almost as soon as Su Yu entered, a middle-aged man in a gray robe dressed as a servant entered.

Strange runes were embroidered on his sleeves.

His appearance immediately made the eight or nine people present respectful.

"May I ask, sir, when will the auction begin? We have already prepared the items."

He is the auctioneer? Su Yu's heart skipped a beat.

"I am the No. 81 guide sent by Master. Please step forward and head to the real auction venue."

The real... Su Yu's eyes flashed. "May I ask if the auction locations are all different?"

The gray-robed middle-aged man nodded. "That's right. There are a total of 810 gathering points. You are just one of them."

Was that so? Everyone present was enlightened.

They had also wondered why there were so few people.

So that was the case.

If there were ten people in each of the 810 gathering points, there would be roughly 8,100 people. That was not a small number.

Only Su Yu's pupils flickered with a strange light as he quietly followed the middle-aged man in the gray robe.

Chapter 1777 Princess Ru Chen

"Let's Go Too!" The other eight followed, full of anticipation.

The path the gray-robed middle-aged man took was exceptionally remote. He still shuttled through the slums, and the more he walked, the less people he saw. Finally, he arrived at a desolate area.

"It's right in front." When the slums behind them were already far away, they had already left the border of the imperial city.

Not far away, an abandoned Taoist temple was isolated under the setting sun.

"Didn't they say there were 8,100 people?" Someone questioned.

The Taoist temple was cold and quiet. How did it look like there were 1,000 people?

The gray-robed middle-aged man had his back to them. Without saying a word, he came to the front of the Taoist temple, took out a specially made array flag, and stuck it in front of the door.

Near the originally empty Taoist temple, the divine light fluctuated, and the surrounding scenery gradually distorted, revealing a scene of brilliant gold and Jade, and a bustling bustling city.

"So it's an array formation!"

"What a profound array formation. I actually didn't sense any traces of the array formation at all just now."

"As far as I know, only one person in the Emperor dynasty of Great Yu was able to conceal the array formation of the Mystic Crystal Overlord, and that person was emperor traceless, who was ranked as the emperor of the Array Formation!"

"To be able to invite this person to specially set up the array formation, it's really unbelievable. who could be the person who sold the qualifications to enter the Hall of Dao Rain? To actually have such a large amount of money?"

Although they had expected that the person who was qualified to sell the entrance scroll would definitely have an extraordinary status.

However, reality was even more unfathomable than they had expected.

They even secretly guessed that it might be emperor traceless himself.

“Follow me in.” The gray-robed middle-aged man expressionlessly waited at the entrance of the bustling city.

The eight people returned to their senses, their faces filled with joy as they walked towards the bustling city.

“What’s going on with you?” The gray-robed middle-aged man glanced at Su Yu and frowned.

The rest of the people took action. Only Su Yu did not walk over. Instead, he turned around and left after muttering to himself.

“Stop! If you take another step, you’ll forfeit,” the gray-robed middle-aged man warned.

Su Yu did not even turn his head. “Then you’ll forfeit.”

This strange action made the eight people present feel baffled.

It was not easy for them to come here, so how could they give up at the last minute?

The middle-aged man in the Gray Robe was unhappy. “It’s okay to give up, but for the safety of the auction, I’m afraid you can only stay here for the time being before the auction ends.”

Su Yu turned his head. “What do you plan to do with me?”

The middle-aged man in the gray robe was exceptionally skilled in handling this matter. “It’s very simple. Just follow me inside. There will be someone specially watching over you.”

Looking at the bustling city, Su Yu shook his head gently.

“I’m only afraid that once we enter, we won’t be able to return,” Su Yu said, he swept his gaze over the eight people. “Let me remind everyone to choose carefully! This array can set up a Taoist temple that we can not distinguish between real and fake. How can we know that the bustling city before us is not a figment of the array?”

Hearing this, the other eight people were slightly startled. They looked at each other and left the bustling city entrance at the same time.

Those who were mentally sound could understand that Su Yu’s words were not without reason.

The middle-aged man in the gray robe sneered, “To be able to set up such a grand scheme, do you think it’s necessary to target a small overlord like you?”

The eight of them fell into deep thought again. These words were also reasonable.

Could it be that they, a mere overlord, had specially invited the world-famous emperor traceless to set up a formation?

“That’s true. Could it be that we have something that is worth the greed of the people behind the scenes?”

“Brother, aren’t you being too paranoid?”

“Ignore him. Let’s go and take a look first. 8,000 people are competing for the same spot. We must first understand the situation at the scene. There’s no time to delay.”

“That makes sense. Let’s go.”

The eight people reached an agreement and entered one after another.

However, Su Yu still did not move.

Perhaps what the gray-robed middle-aged man said made sense, but his intuition told Su Yu that things were not normal.

As they entered, Su Yu slowly retreated.

Ah --

Suddenly, a cold scream came from within the city.

And it was not just one, but several in a row.

Su Yu’s heart trembled. Several mystic crystal overlords had been destroyed in a row, so there must be a lot of danger.

Without any hesitation, Su Yu immediately rushed forward.

“Stay here for me!” The middle-aged man in the gray robe suddenly lifted his gray robe and threw out several mystic crystal overlords’ Talismans in a row.

Su Yu did not even turn his head. With a backhand, he sent out a sword Qi that swept away the attack of the talismans.

The middle-aged man in the gray robe was shocked. “What a powerful sword qi. This person is also an expert in the way of the Sword!”

As he said this, the middle-aged man in the gray robe shouted, “Nanga Buddha, hurry up and Attack!”

A loud and mighty voice came from the entrance of the bustling city.

“Amitabha.”

After the Buddhist chant entered his ears, Su Yu immediately felt dizzy and the divine power in his body flowed in an obscure manner.

His entire body swayed, and Su Yu directly fell to the ground.

What a powerful Soul Attack! Su Yu was secretly surprised.

The strength of his soul right now wasn't any weaker than a half-step emperor.

There were very few sonic attacks below an emperor that could affect his soul.

Turning his head, he saw a monk with a benevolent face and a big red kasaya. He put his palms together and looked at Su Yu with a smile.

An overlord at the peak of the Buddhist path?

"Almsgiver, please wait a moment," the monk in Kasaya said in a clear voice. He released an attack that came from his soul.

Su Yu was on guard, so the effect was weakened. He said without changing his expression, "Wait a moment? Like Them?"

The monk in Kasaya still looked the same, but his expression changed slightly.

In his mind, the Overlord of the mystic crystal realm should have fainted under the sound wave attack.

But this person was fine. It was truly strange.

"No, please listen to this penniless monk's words," monk Kasaya muttered.

An even more powerful soul attack secretly attacked.

Su Yu frowned slightly, turned around, and walked away.

With the strength of his current body, even if he walked on foot, his speed was extremely fast.

"Almsgiver, turn back to the shore." Monk Kasaya formed a seal with both hands.

The ground in front of him suddenly split open, revealing a huge canyon.

At the same time, the ground beneath his feet retreated.

Su Yu, who was originally moving forward, was forcefully pulled back.

Moreover, the closer he got to the monk in the Kasaya, the more he suffered the sound wave attack, which affected his soul.

"Enough, you have to force me to make a move!" A form of demon was instantly unleashed from his heart.

The monk in the Kasaya, who had a benevolent smile on his face, immediately stiffened. The Buddhist light in his body rapidly swallowed and spat out, condensing into a dark golden Buddha shadow on the surface of his body.

At a level that was invisible to the naked eye, the Buddhist shadow was fighting with a ferocious devil shadow to block the Devil Shadow from invading the monk's soul.

The two were equally matched and were wearing each other out.

However, the Phantom attack generated by the Devil was only a side effect. The true power came from the sword attack that followed.

A majestic sword Qi slashed down from the sky.

The monk in the Kasaya hurriedly threw out the kasaya on his body. It was a protective treasure robe.

Clang --

The treasure robe sank and caught the sword qi, but its entire body was much dimmer.

But just as one sword attack ended, another sword attack arrived.

The monk in the monastic robe had a serious expression. He grabbed the Buddhist beads on his neck and threw out nine of them.

Pu, Pu, Pu --

One Buddhist bead after another was destroyed by the sword Qi. The remaining sword qi cut off the monastic robe and sent it flying.

The monk in the Kasaya did not even have time to catch his breath before he was struck again.

“Almsgiver, wait!”The monk in the Kasaya said.

The gray-robed middle-aged man was also shocked. He immediately took out a golden scroll and threw it out on the spot.

The scroll unfolded in the air. Strange words flew out from the scroll and formed a light screen in front of the monk in the Kasaya.

The Sword Qi swept over and heavily suppressed the light screen, but it completely blocked it.

Su Yu was slightly surprised. The power of his sword had far surpassed the past, and even peak overlords might not be able to completely block it. However, this light screen easily blocked it. It was not an ordinary object.

“Senior, please show mercy. Allow me to explain.”The gray-robed middle-aged man hurriedly walked over and helped the monk up.

He carefully guarded against Su Yu. His expression was solemn and no longer as indifferent as before.

“Explain what?”Su Yu gathered his divine power and prepared to swing his sword again.

The gray-robed middle-aged man felt his scalp go numb. How could he dare to hesitate anymore? He hurriedly said, “Senior, you’ve misunderstood. Please take a look.”

He took out another array flag, and the scene at the entrance of the bustling city immediately shattered.

As expected, it was also formed by an array formation.

The downtown area disappeared and was replaced by the same desolation as the surrounding area.

There were eight unconscious people lying on the ground. They were the eight people who had just entered.

However, there were no injuries on their bodies. They were just trapped in some kind of illusion.

“What do you want to say?” Su Yu said lightly.

The gray-robed middle-aged man bowed respectfully. “As senior said, the array was set up in a fake place, but we didn’t mean any harm. Instead, we were ordered by Princess Ru Chen To Select Dao Yu as a candidate to enter the scene. This scroll is a letter personally written by Princess Ru Chen.”

With a swipe of his hand, the words formed a complete article.

At the same time, he took out a jade seal. There was a special brand on it. It was the word Ruchen. “This is Princess Ruchen’s keepsake. The authenticity of this item can be verified by any royal institution in the Imperial City.”

With a glance, Su Yu was sure that it was real.

The seal contained a very familiar aura of the country’s fate, which was also the tinder.

Other than the imperial family and the conferred King, ordinary people could not touch the country’s fate, let alone refine it into a weapon.

“So, the so-called selling dao rain entry qualification is just a bait?”

The gray-robed middle-aged man nodded. “That’s right! Princess Ruchen hopes to quickly gather a group of overlord-level top-notch experts in this way and spread the news just now.”

“Then, are there really more than 810 gathering spots like this?” Su Yu asked again.

“That’s true, but there probably won’t be more than ten people who can pass the test like senior.” The gray-robed middle-aged man said, “Princess Ru Chen hopes to select people who not only have strong cultivation, but also have a smart mind. They also need to have a calm mind and not be impulsive for the sake of immediate benefits.”

The eight people who fell were blinded by Dao Rain’s qualifications, so they were eliminated without a calm mind.

Su Yu put away the asura sword and shook his head. “Then I’m sorry. I’m not interested in submitting to Princess Ruchen.”

He came to the Emperor dynasty of Yu the Great Just for Dao Rain’s qualifications. Since she didn’t have any, the selection had nothing to do with him.

The gray-robed middle-aged man smiled knowingly. “Hehe, senior, do you think that Princess Ruchen will disappoint the person she has chosen by spending so much money?”

“If senior can be chosen by Princess Ruchen, not to mention Dao Rain’s qualifications, even a second-class scope can be given to you. This is a treatment that only many princes can enjoy!”

Su Yu's heart moved. Could it be that the scope of Dao Rain's grace was divided into good and bad?

Chapter 1778 Fantasy Moon Langjun

He seemed to understand what Su Yu was thinking, the middle-aged man in grey robes said, "The dao rain is scattered, dense and sparse. The dense areas can naturally withstand more dao rain, and the sparse areas will be fewer. Our dynasty's diviner has already calculated the specific situation when the dao rain falls, and according to how much dao rain will fall, we will divide it into four grades."

"The first grade is reserved for the members of the eastern royal family, and outsiders are not qualified to enjoy it. The second grade is reserved for the ten great emperors and Heaven Board contributors, the third grade is reserved for the Earth Board contributors, and the fourth grade is reserved for the profound board contributors."

As expected, it had something to do with the contribution board? Su Yu's eyes flashed.

The second grade was reserved for Heaven Board contributors, and Princess Ru Chen could also think of a way to break the rules and stuff it into her people.

This princess had quite a lot of power in the dynasty!

"Can you tell us what the Princess is trying to do by selecting us?" Su Yu asked.

Princess ru Chen had spent so much effort to secretly select outstanding people from all over the world, and she even gave such a shocking reward in the second-tier range. She must have some ulterior motive?

"We are just following orders. Only senior will know when you go," the gray-robed middle-aged man said.

He added in his heart that even if you went, you might not know.

Out of ten candidates, only one could meet the princess' requirements.

After pondering for a moment, Su Yu nodded. "Lead the way. Let's hear what she wants to do first."

The middle-aged man in the gray robe was overjoyed. It was a great fortune to be able to find a suitable candidate at 810 gathering points.

He had already imagined the various rewards that princess ru Chen would bestow upon him.

"Senior, Please!" The gray-robed middle-aged man led the way eagerly.

He left the unconscious eliminated person lying on the desolate border.

Nanga Buddha casually pulled up a few hidden array flags on the ground and quickly caught up with Su Yu and the gray-robed middle-aged man.

After pondering for a long time, Nanga Buddha approached Su Yu's side and said, "This penniless monk, Nanga Buddha, please forgive me if I offended you just now."

"It's fine." Su Yu casually brushed it aside and stared at Nanga Buddha. He said, "Master, please speak your mind."

He could see from Nanga Buddha's eyes that he seemed to have something to say.

After bowing, Nanga Buddha said, "Then, please forgive me for speaking my mind. From what I see, benefactor's cultivation should be the devil sword technique of the Devil Prison civilization. May I ask where benefactor came from?"

Su Yu's eyes flashed. What he practiced was the inheritance of the Devil Sword Emperor of the ancient divine realm.

Could it be that the Devil Sword Emperor was also like the Emperor of Taiqing, the emperor of heaven and earth who accidentally fell into the ancient divine realm?

Although he was surprised, Su Yu's expression was as calm as usual. There was no strange expression on his face.

"Master's question is related to this selection?" Su Yu asked back.

Nanga Buddha shook his head. "It doesn't matter. This penniless monk is just curious. I don't force you if you don't want to answer me. However, from what I see, your devil sword technique is somewhat extraordinary. It doesn't seem like an ordinary devil sword technique."

Oh? He had seen other people use demonic sword techniques?

As for how unusual it was, the nine styles of the demonic sword was indeed more astonishing with each strike.

When it was cultivated to the extreme, the demonic sword Wuya injured the evil daughter with a wooden sword!

"Master, you flatter me. It's just an ordinary demonic sword technique."

Nanga Buddha smiled. "This penniless monk is just curious because Princess Ru Chen also has a sword technique expert from the Devil Prison civilization under her command."

Su Yu's heart skipped a beat.

"Oh? Then how is his strength?" Su Yu asked.

Nanga Buddha said, "His sword arts might not be as profound as yours, but his cultivation is a level higher, so..."

Therefore, Su Yu was inferior to that devil path expert.

Su Yu smiled but didn't say anything. He had only used 30% of his strength just now.

But speaking of which, this Nanga Buddha's strength was no trifling matter. Perhaps it was the restraining effect of the Devil Gate's strength, but he was actually on par with Su Yu.

If it was any other peak overlord, they would have long been wiped out by Su Yu with a single sword strike.

This person should have a certain amount of weight under Princess Ru Chen's command

The Emperor of the Great Yu Empire, Dongfang Xia, had six sons and two daughters.

The five princes competed for the throne, and princess ru Chen was no exception. Although she was a woman, she hoped to become the first empress of the Great Yu Empire.

Her subordinates were filled with talents and experts were as numerous as the clouds.

The famous array master, Emperor Wu Hen, was one of princess ru Chen's mainstays.

However, compared to her big brother, Crown Prince Dongfang Yu Liang, there was still a huge gap.

On the surface, there were as many as nine emperors of Heaven and earth supporting Dongfang Yu Liang, including three conferred kings and even a double-crowned emperor of heaven and earth.

It could be said that 30% of the Great Yu Imperial Court's power supported the Crown Prince's ascension.

Its power was so great that the other princes and princesses couldn't even catch up to it.

At the very least, princess ru Chen didn't receive the full support of a single conferred King.

It was extremely difficult for her to fight for the throne.

"That restaurant is where the princess greets her seniors."The gray-robed middle-aged man didn't lead him into the imperial palace. Instead, he brought him to a luxurious restaurant in the middle of the bustling city.

Sweeping the signboard, Su Yu's expression was slightly strange.

Ethereal Tower!

Wasn't that the agreed upon meeting place with the person who placed a bounty on Su Yu?

How could it be such a coincidence?

With a hint of surprise, Su Yu followed the gray-robed middle-aged man into the backyard of the restaurant.

In the elegant and quiet backyard, eight experts of all shapes and sizes were scattered around the courtyard.

Each of them exuded the aura of a peak overlord, and one of them, an enchanting and beautiful woman, was particularly eye-catching.

Not only was she beautiful and demure, she was also gentle and amiable, giving off the feeling of a girl next door from a small family.

What was even more eye-catching was that her cultivation stood out like a crane among chickens.

"A half-step emperor of Heaven and Earth!"Su Yu's pupils constricted slightly.

He believed that the eight people in front of him were the same as Su Yu. They were all candidates who had been secretly recruited.

"A mystic Crystal Overlord? What a lucky person."

Su Yu's arrival naturally attracted attention.

It was inevitable that people would be suspicious if such a low cultivation base had arrived here.

“It seems that even if I’m eliminated, it won’t be too embarrassing. There will always be someone at the bottom.”The person who spoke glanced sideways at the woman who was half a step away from the Emperor of Heaven and earth, and his brows relaxed slightly.

This woman gave them an unusually great pressure.

Su Yu stood in a corner with a straight face and slowly closed his eyes, waiting quietly.

When he closed his eyes, he suddenly felt a pair of sharp eyes coming at him. Su Yu was so shocked that he suddenly opened his eyes.

However, that pair of eyes was extremely sharp and he immediately retracted it.

When Su Yu swept his gaze, he could no longer see the source of the gaze.

Who Was It?

If that gaze was a gaze, it would have been fine. However, it contained a deep killing intent and hatred that was exceptionally sharp.

Did he accidentally offend one of the eight people present?

However, after a careful scan, Su Yu had not seen any of them. This made him feel a trace of wariness rise in his heart.

“Congratulations on reaching this stage.”A deep voice that was filled with demonic nature floated into his ears without a chill.

In the middle of the small courtyard, a large amount of demonic qi suddenly surged up and gathered into a human shape.

A mysterious person that was covered in demonic qi appeared in front of him.

Su Yu’s heart moved slightly. could he be the Devil Prison Sword Dao expert that Nanjia Buddha mentioned?

As soon as this person appeared, he gave off an unusually strong pressure.

Other than the young woman who was half a step away from the Emperor of Heaven and Earth, the others all felt a lot of pressure and couldn’t help but surge their divine power to resist the pressure.

“I am the 108th General under Princess Ru Chen, Devil Heart!”The aura of a half-step emperor of heaven and earth poured out like a waterfall. “Of the nine of you, only one can become the princess’final confirmation. The rest will be eliminated!”

Along the way, they had already received the news from the receptionist, so they were not surprised.

“May I know how to select the final candidate from among us?”Someone asked.

Demon heart laughed hoarsely. “It’s very simple. I will give you ten days to kill the criminals on the wanted list of Emperor Yu dynasty. If you kill the person with the highest ranking, you will be recognized by the Princess.”

Everyone frowned.

The criminals on the wanted list of Emperor Yu’s dynasty were all notorious criminals.

Su Yu was even more familiar with this. When he first came to Emperor Yu’s dynasty, he was only able to jump into the yellow list because of the head of the evil Wolf, who was ranked 100 on the wanted list given by Bei Wangzhu.

That Evil Wolf was only ranked 100, but it already had the terrifying strength of a half-step emperor of heaven and earth.

It had even escaped from the combined pursuit of the Emperor of Heaven and earth many times and was extremely difficult to deal with.

“The number one criminal is a criminal, and the number 10,000 criminals are also criminals. Isn’t there a minimum limit?”

Devil heart chuckled, “Of course there is. The lowest ranking must be within 100.”

What? The nine people present frowned.

The Emperor of Heaven and earth might not even be able to kill a criminal ranked within 100, let alone them?

What made them even more confused was that the criminals ranked within the top 100 rarely showed their presence in public, and they rarely showed their tracks.

There had been no news for tens of thousands of years, so how could they find the criminals ranked within the top 100 in just ten days?

“As a reference, I can reveal two new pieces of information to you.”The Devil Heart Devil Qi surged, and nine small balls of devil fog shot toward the nine people.

All of them, including the half-step heaven and Earth Emperor Lady, cautiously caught it and carefully peeled off the devil fog to find what was inside.

On the contrary, Su Yu, who had the lowest cultivation base, directly grabbed the devil fog and swallowed it.

“If you swallow it directly, you can extract the information inside...”as the Devil Heart said this, it noticed that Su Yu had taken the initiative to swallow it before him, and couldn’t help but be surprised. “Eh? You know this is the Devil Heart’s message?”

Only the devil race knew the correct way to use the devil fog.

Su Yu smiled and didn’t reply. Instead, he focused on sensing the information within.

The content of the message wasn’t surprising. There were only two criminals in the top 100.

One of them was the Devil's child girl who was ranked 98th.

She had reached the peak of the Dao of poison.

She had once massacred an entire emperor's bloodline descendant, causing that Emperor's descendant to be cut off. It could be said to be a huge case that shook the world.

His fame was so great that it was stronger than the evil wolf.

The most recent news of the Devil Girl's appearance was 300 years ago. At that time, she was already a half-step heaven and earth emperor.

No one knew what her cultivation level would be like when she appeared 300 years later.

If it was difficult to kill her, then it would be impossible to kill another one.

The Mysterious Moon Prince, who was ranked 83rd, had been on the wanted list for thousands of years.

Back then, he had barged into the imperial palace alone and kidnapped three of the monarch's concubines, causing a sensation throughout the entire great yu imperial court.

Dongfang Xia was furious and personally issued an order to hunt down fantasy moon Langjun.

However, he was like a stone that had sunk into the ocean, never to be seen again.

At that time, he was able to deal with the three emperors of heaven and earth with ease. He had kidnapped the three concubines and left laughing loudly.

Some people guessed that he was an expert at the level of the emperors of Heaven and earth at that time!

With the current situation of the nine people, even if all of them joined hands, they wouldn't be able to kill Fantasy Moon Langjun.

Chapter 1779 One Leaf Blinds The Eyes

After receiving the news, Su Yu thought to himself.

The others also became silent, their expressions grave.

"You can choose to withdraw or join now," Mo Xin said.

Of course, they wouldn't withdraw.

But if they joined... They looked at each other and exchanged glances.

With their individual strength, they couldn't be a match for any of the criminals. If they joined forces, there was still a chance.

Especially if they could work together with this half-step Emperor of Heaven and earth, their chances of winning would be 20% .

As for who would win in the end, it would depend on who had the ability.

"It seems that we need to work together." An old man who looked like he had passed the age of 70 broke the silence and looked at the Devil's heart.

The Devil's heart did not stop them and tacitly agreed that they could form a team.

“I agree.”

“Me too.”

The group agreed to form a team.

The seven of them reached a consensus and finally fixed their eyes on the girl next door who was a half-step emperor of heaven and earth.

“Okay, Count me in.” She smiled faintly.

Only then did the seven of them let out a sigh of relief.

Without a half-step emperor of heaven and earth, it would be suicide for the seven of them to go against the notorious criminal of a half-step emperor of heaven and earth.

“If that’s the case, then the eight of us... Oh, and a young man.” The old man had just noticed Su Yu standing in the corner.

Yu Ren looked over and pondered for a moment. “Let’s go together. Although our strength is a little low, what if it can be of some use?”

Although they said so, they could guess what they were planning in their hearts. They were probably using Su Yu as cannon fodder or something like that?

After all, hunting a half-step emperor was extremely dangerous. Apart from being cannon fodder, how could a mystic Crystal Overlord expect him to fight a half-step emperor?

Just as Su Yu was about to refuse, the girl next door said, “This trip is very dangerous. His cultivation is too low. If we go, he will only drag us down. It’s better not to bring him along.”

Since she spoke, how could others refuse?

“You’re right. His cultivation is so low. It’s better not to meddle.”

Everyone came to an agreement.

“Then, which one are you going to kill?” Devil Heart asked.

The seven people looked at the girl, with her as the core. “Devil Girl!”

Devil heart nodded. “You can set off now.”

The eight people left together, leaving Su Yu alone on the spot.

Devil Heart looked at him. “Then, you choose to forfeit?”

With only Su Yu alone, what could he accomplish? Besides forfeiting, he had no other choice, right?

“No, I’ll continue.” Unexpectedly, Su Yu revealed a relaxed expression instead.

He had been a little worried that they would be too enthusiastic and would definitely pull Su Yu into their group. In that case, he would not be able to use all the tricks he had hidden up his sleeves.

However, his worries were clearly unnecessary, so he was naturally happy and relaxed.

The Devil's heart was slightly startled before it nodded. "Alright, if you want to reluctantly try, we won't Stop You. However, you will be responsible for your own life and death."

"Understood," Su Yu said before he turned around and left the small courtyard.

The Devil's heart watched as he left. Just now, he had turned into a devil mist and disappeared. When he reappeared, he appeared in an elegant room.

Separated by the bamboo curtain, a white-clothed young man with a jade-like face and rosy cheeks was looking out of the window with his hands behind his back.

Looking out of the window, it happened to be the small courtyard that Su Yu and the others had just built.

However, standing in the small courtyard, he could not sense the existence of the window at all.

"Who do you think is more likely to complete the mission?" The white-clothed young man stared at the small courtyard and asked to himself.

Devil Heart worriedly kneeled on the ground and said respectfully, "Princess Ruchen's eyes are as sharp as torches. I don't dare to speak recklessly."

The white-robed young master was the only remaining Princess Ruchen of the Great Yu imperial court!

"A half-step heaven and earth emperor. I'm looking forward to it," Princess Ruchen said.

Clearly, the girl next door was Princess Ruchen's choice.

"However..." her voice changed slightly. "I'm also very interested in that little cultivator named Su Yu. If I remember correctly, the person on the yellow roll who killed evil wolf is also called Su Yu."

Mo Xin said, "The two shouldn't be the same person, right? I heard that the person who killed evil wolf only used one move."

Princess ru Chen nodded and shook her head. "It's true that evil wolf was killed by someone with one move, but it wasn't Su Yu, but a young genius under bei Wangchen."

"That Su Yu..." Mo Xin suddenly understood. "Could it be a trade?"

Such a trade wasn't new. Although it was forbidden by the dynasty, it was rarely investigated.

"So it could be the same person," princess ru Chen said.

A sharp light flashed in the Devil's Heart's mind. "Should we capture him and hand him over to the dynasty? Firstly, we can establish the princess' prestige, and secondly, we can gain the emperor's appreciation."

"Forget it." Princess Ru Chen denied it without hesitation. "An insignificant person, an insignificant matter, won't gain much benefit."

“Then how should I deal with it?”

“Observe and see if there is anything special. If there isn’t, you don’t have to report to me again.”

--

Su Yu, who received attention, didn’t excitedly hunt criminals. Instead, he stayed in the ethereal tower.

After two days of waiting, Su Yu left his room and went to the private room on the second floor.

The promise of the reward auction house was always on Su Yu’s mind.

Standing in front of the private room, Su Yu used a divine spell to change her appearance before stepping into the room.

There was already a person in the private room.

It was a young woman covered in a white veil.

Her curves were exquisite, and her curves were curvy, very close to the aura of youth.

Through the thin veil, one could see that there was a cinnabar mole with a tear mark on the corner of her right eye, which added a bit of beauty to it.

“Are you the Bounty Hunter?” Su Yu stepped into the room and carefully searched his memory, confirming that he did not know such a woman with cinnabar tears.

“Yes.” The woman with cinnabar tears’ voice was as soft as dust and exceptionally pleasant to the ears.

“You’re Su Yu?”

“No.” Su Yu sat opposite her. “I’m the same as you, the person who is looking for Su Yu.”

A hint of disappointment flashed across the woman’s eyes. “Another person who is looking for him.”

Why was it “Another”? Could it be that other than him, there were other people who had also looked for the woman with cinnabar tears?

“Why did you look for him?” The woman with the cinnabar tears asked.

Su Yu did not hesitate. “Kill him.”

The woman with the cinnabar tears narrowed her eyes. “Why?”

“He hurt my kin. This enmity is irreconcilable!” Su Yu’s face was filled with hatred.

The woman with the cinnabar tears clenched her fists. “He only hurt your kin. Do you know that my kin died in his hands!”

Oh? Su Yu secretly rejoiced. Fortunately, he had held back and did not reveal his true appearance.

Otherwise, the moment he appeared, he would have had a great battle with this woman.

The reason for the great battle was because this woman was also an emperor of Heaven and earth, and she was also an extremely powerful emperor of heaven and earth.

At the very least, she was not an ordinary emperor who could be compared to her. Her entire body was filled with danger.

“What is your name?”Cinnabar tears asked.

Su Yu recalled the name that he had given up. “Xue Yu.”

“If you have any news about Su Yu, remember to inform me.”Zhu shalei threw down a communication jade seal.

Su Yu nodded and asked, “What About You?”

“You can call me Qiu Hen Lei.”Zhu shalei said faintly.

Qiu Hen Lei, was it the same as Zhu shalei at the corner of his right eye?

“May I ask who was the last person looking for Su Yu? Is He also Su Yu’s enemy? If we communicate with each other, we might be able to find Su Yu Faster.”He probed.

Shaking his head, Qiu Hen Lei said, “That was a friend looking for Su Yu. Don’t worry, I’ve already killed him.”

It was Li Changqing!

Su Yu subconsciously thought of the guest minister Li Changqing who had been out of contact with the sky orchid manor for many days.

No wonder there was no news of him. It turned out that he had met with an unfortunate accident and was killed by this woman.

Li Changqing must have also found the bounty to find Su Yu in the bounty auction house and followed the clues to find the owner of the bounty.

Unexpectedly, the bounty hunter had a grudge with Su Yu and directly erased him.

Su Yu sighed slightly. This person did not dislike him at all. Moreover, he had come because he wanted to give Su Yu a gift.

“If I have the chance to return to the sky orchid mansion, I will ask for Li Changqing’s remains and resurrect him,”Su Yu thought to himself. However, he said on the surface, “Then I can be at ease. If I find any traces of Su Yu, I will definitely send a message to senior.”

Qiu Hen nodded with tears in his eyes and left.

Su Yu remained in the private room. He clenched his fists tightly and slammed the table angrily, he said unwillingly, “Damn it! I worked so hard to find Su Yu, the evil thief. I thought that this person had put a bounty on Su Yu and might know some news. I did not expect that, sigh, there are so many people. Where can I find him?"

While sighing, Su Yu keenly sensed that outside the private room, an obscure spying aura was slowly fading away.

Qiu Hen Lei did not completely leave. It was very obvious that he did not believe Su Yu's one-sided story. Instead, he secretly observed whether Xue Yu was Su Yu's enemy or not.

After Su Yu's self-directed and self-staged drama dispelled Qiu Hen Lei's worries, he truly left.

Only after secretly heaving a sigh of relief did Su Yu leave ethereal tower.

With this experience, Su Yu became much more careful. With a thought, Su Yu headed to the most famous one-qi Weapon Alliance in the Imperial City.

One-qi Weapon Alliance focused on refining weapons, and its reputation was well known. It was the place with the highest level of refining weapons in the great yu imperial court.

"True emperor-level divine weapon, a leaf that blinds the eyes!" Su Yu stood in front of a counter, staring at the items that were protected by layers of restrictions, clicking his tongue in wonder.

This was the first time he had seen an Emperor Dao sacred weapon sold on the spot.

It was a willow leaf that could change one's appearance. Moreover, a crowned emperor wouldn't be able to see through it.

Although Su Yu could also change his appearance and had laws that couldn't be seen through by anyone below the Emperor realm, it wasn't necessarily the case for emperors.

Emperors of Heaven and Earth could use the power of laws, so they could naturally sense it.

If one were to carefully sense the Qiu Hen tears just now, they would definitely be able to discover that Su Yu's appearance had traces of laws covering it.

However, when she saw that Su Yu was only a mystic crystal overlord, she subconsciously felt that it was impossible for Su Yu to use laws, so she didn't investigate it carefully.

Looking at the price again, it was a face-to-face discussion with the emperor who created it.

This kind of Emperor Dao sacred weapon was indeed priceless, and could only be bartered.

"Oh? The criminals are back?" A teasing voice came from the side.

Turning to look, it was the eight-man alliance.

They had just purchased a large batch of talismans to make sufficient preparations for the upcoming battle.

They didn't expect to meet Su Yu.

They had heard Su Yu's statement that he chose to hunt the criminals alone.

Now that they had met, they could not help but laugh at Su Yu's newfound fearlessness.

Su Yu did not pay any attention to him. Instead, he was thinking about what he should exchange for a leaf.

“Oh? You Think You Can Covet a leaf? Even a half-step emperor realm expert would be deterred!” In the eight-man alliance, a relatively young expert laughed with a sense of superiority that was higher than Su Yu’s.

Su Yu asked back, “So you know what the Emperor of one Qi wants?”

“Hehe, of course I know. It must be a thousand-year-old spiritual item, or a rare plant.” The young expert cupped his hands and laughed. “But do you have it?”

Hearing this, Su Yu rubbed his chin and muttered to himself, “As long as it’s a plant, it’s much easier. Fortunately, it’s not as difficult as I imagined.”

If the Emperor of Qi needed the refining materials in the ore, then Su Yu would be unable to help him.

Who knew that when he unintentionally muttered to himself, he was so shocked that the eight people passing by were stunned.

Chapter 1780 Disguise

What did it mean that plants and vegetation were much simpler?

The most difficult thing was the spiritual plants and vegetation, alright?

Ores could be found, and even if they couldn’t be found, they could be purchased at a high price. After all, the ores could be stored for tens of millions of years without any problems.

But what if they couldn’t find the spiritual plants and vegetation? They were much weaker than ores, and couldn’t be stored for tens of millions of years.

This was also the reason why this true emperor rank weapon was a eyesore and nobody cared about it at the counter, because too many people had been rejected.

Su Yu’s boastful words really made them dumbstruck.

“Nonsense, do you think that a thousand-year-old spiritual item can enter the eyes of a one Qi Emperor? He won’t accept anything that isn’t wood-attributed materials that aren’t good for refining weapons.”

Su Yu smiled and didn’t mind.

He lacked everything except wood-type materials for weapon refining.

Indian silver bamboo, golden flame forbidden wood, which of them weren’t godly items for weapon refining? Moreover, they were extremely rare items in the market.

With a faint smile, Su Yu walked into a secret room at the side and prepared to trade with a one Qi emperor.

“What are you guys waiting here for?” The young girl who was half-step emperor caught up after dealing with the items, only to find seven members gathered around the counter with bewildered expressions.

After learning the whole story, the young girl who was half-step emperor realm slightly frowned. "Since you know that he is bluffing, why are you all still here? If you don't hurry over, the Devil's child girl might have already left."

Only then did the seven quickly leave.

In the secret room, the person who received Su Yu was not the sovereign of one Qi's original body, but the body that he had left behind.

He only had the most basic ability to talk and did not have the ability.

Su Yu also felt much more at ease.

"You want a leaf to cover your eyes? Did you see the requirements clearly?" The emperor of one Qi was old and senile, and his eyes were also blind.

"I saw it. It just so happens that this junior obtained a weapon refining material by accident." Su Yu took out a section of the Golden Flame Forbidden Wood that was as long as an arm without thinking.

The emperor of one Qi's light burst out, and his tone suddenly became solemn. "Evil-warding divine wood, Golden Flame Forbidden Wood?"

This piece of wood was only one ten-thousandth of the ten-thousand-year-old Golden Flame Forbidden Tree.

"How is it? Are You Satisfied?" Su Yu smiled.

The emperor of one Qi rolled his eyes and shook his head, "It's not enough, unless you..."

"Then Let's cancel the deal." Su Yu didn't hesitate and immediately stood up, putting away the golden flame forbidden tree with one hand..

Unexpectedly, the emperor of one Qi held it down and said anxiously, "Wait!"

"What? Could it be that senior emperor is still greedy for some of my hard-working materials?" Su Yu sneered.

The emperor of one Qi coughed dryly. "If you really don't have anything else, this old man will reluctantly trade with you."

Reluctantly? How could Su Yu not know the meaning of the Golden Flame Forbidden Tree?

In the era of the rising corpse clan, the item that could ward off evil was especially precious.

As the world-famous Golden Flame Forbidden Tree, it was a priceless item. It was not something that could be obtained just because one wanted it.

"Hehe, junior will not trouble senior. The trade ends here." Saying this, Su Yu was about to take back the Golden Flame Forbidden Tree.

At this point, the emperor of one qi finally became anxious, "Young hero, please wait! Apart from a leaf, I have other true emperor rank divine weapons. You can choose another one."

That was more like it!

However, when the emperor of one Qi displayed the other true emperor rank divine weapons one by one, Su Yu frowned.

It couldn't be said that those divine weapons were not good, it was just that they were not suitable for Su Yu.

It was useless even if he obtained them.

The emperor of one Qi was a shrewd old man. He sensed that the atmosphere was not right and said, "How about this, this old man owes you a favor. In the future, whatever divine weapon you want to refine, this old man will definitely complete it for you. How about it?"

After thinking for a moment, Su Yu said, "How about this, I'll owe you a favor first. But how about we use it to see what the situation is like?"

He did not lack divine weapons for the time being. Rather than wasting the favor on this, it would be better to leave it for other uses.

The favor of an emperor was not light, especially since the one Qi emperor was an emperor that the great Yu imperial court favored.

"As long as it doesn't violate the principles, it doesn't matter." The one Qi emperor twirled his beard and agreed.

After he finished speaking, he took out a ball of light mist from his body and turned it into a talisman.

"If there's anything you need me to do, crush the talisman and I'll immediately appear."

Su Yu picked up the talisman and nodded with a smile.

This emperor of one Qi still didn't give up. He still hoped to get some golden flame forbidden wood from Su Yu's body.

Unfortunately, Su Yu wasn't an ordinary overlord of mystic crystals. Even if he summoned the emperor of one Qi personally, he might not be able to do anything to him.

The transaction was successful.

Su Yu obtained a leaf and went straight to a dark forest outside the imperial city.

According to the information, the devilish girl had appeared in the depths of this forest three days ago, as if she was cultivating some kind of secret technique.

"Dao rain has attracted these criminals who have hidden themselves very deeply?" Su Yu was pondering when he suddenly felt a huge fluctuation in front of him that contained faint laws.

Half-step Emperor Realm Warriors were fighting!

With a thought, Su Yu carefully sneaked over.

In the depths of the Dark Forest, a group of people surrounded and attacked a small figure in a black robe.

“All of You Die!” The small figure yelled sharply, trying to break out of the encirclement.

The surging demonic qi swept over, and all eight people, including half-step emperor realm warriors, were thrown away.

Apart from half-step Emperor Realm Warriors, all the others who touched the demonic qi had different degrees of decay.

“The Devil Girl is too powerful, completely beyond our expectations.” They were the eight-man alliance.

The Devil Girl’s information was very accurate. As they had hoped, they had successfully found the Devil Girl.

However, the devil girl was even more ferocious than the information in the information.

Not only did she have the terrifying strength of a half-step emperor realm, but her poison technique was also very powerful.

With just a casual move, she was extremely troublesome.

Not only was it difficult for them to suppress the demonic girl, but they were also in danger of being wiped out.

Su Yu was secretly shocked. As expected of a notorious criminal, she was indeed very powerful. She was completely incomparable to Bei Wangchen.

The young half-step emperor shook the demonic qi on her body and shouted, “Use the demonic suppression formation!”

The eight of them immediately took action. Each of them threw out a formation flag and stabbed it into the ground. The eight formation flags shot out milky-white chains to wrap around the demonic girl.

Chi Chi --

Black Demonic Qi immediately rose from the Devil Girl’s body. Under her black robe, she screamed in pain.

The few of them were pleasantly surprised.

They specifically targeted the Devil Girl’s demonic attribute and bought a set of extremely high-grade devil suppression array flags.

Now, it seemed that the effect was abnormally obvious. They successfully subdued her.

They only needed to use lightning-like methods to kill the Devil Girl.

There was only one person who had killed her.

The eight of them looked at each other and rushed forward one after another. They all used their hidden killing moves and threw them out.

The young girl who was half a step into the emperor realm took the lead. The jade bracelet on her wrist left her hand and she immediately threw it out.

For a moment, the colorful divine light of the attack covered the sky and Earth and enveloped the demonic girl.

Under the black robe, no one could see clearly. Her pained expression suddenly disappeared and was replaced by a sneer on the corner of her lips.

Puchi --

The Devil Child Girl was instantly killed, not even leaving any dregs behind.

The eight of them gathered together and looked at the debris on the ground, their expressions excited.

“Who completed the last attack? It should be my sky net cone, right?”

“What a joke, of course it’s my soul-locking life-reaping needle!”

“Get lost, I killed it!”

..

For a time, the eight of them quarreled until they started to fight each other.

“Old Song, you and I will work together and destroy the two heroes of the Qi mountain first. They are going too far!”

“Wei Xinlin, you dare to hurt me? You are courting death!”

The eight of them were in a mess. Only the half-step emperor girl stayed out of it. She frowned and lowered her body to check the fragment.

She pinched her fingers and the black robe fragment turned into a wisp of demonic qi.

“Formed from demonic thoughts...”the half-step emperor girl’s expression changed. She suddenly stood up and looked around nervously and solemnly, she shouted, “Stop fighting. We’ve fallen into a trap. We weren’t dealing with the Devil’s child’s real body. It was her devil’s will clone.”

What? Everyone was shocked. They stopped and rushed over to check.

After confirming that the black robe fragment wasn’t real, everyone’s expression turned ugly.

In order to give the Devil’s child a final blow, they didn’t hold back and used their trump card.

Now that they were told that the demoness maiden was not dead, what could they use against the real demoness maiden?

Even a demoness clone was difficult to deal with, how terrifying was her actual body?

The young girl who was half a step into the emperor realm gritted her teeth and said in a serious voice, “We can’t stay here for long. Leave quickly.”

The eight of them all felt as if they were being targeted by some dark object. They all shuddered and agreed.

“Hehehe, this demoness has worked hard to prepare a graveyard for all of you. Why? Don’t You Like It?”The sinister laughter of the girl echoed in the Dark Forest, and it made one’s hair stand on end.

As soon as she finished speaking, everyone present revealed pained expressions.

“My body isn’t good. I’ve been poisoned!”A martial artist whose entire body was festering and wore rotten clothes from the inside out said in pain.

The others, including the girl who was a half-step emperor, were all poisoned, and it was an extremely powerful poison.

The girl who was a half-step Emperor’s face was pale. “What’s your demonic incarnation made of?”

A black wind blew past, and a short black-robed girl appeared in front of her. Her mouth was filled with pitch-black poisonous teeth, and her eyes were pale. She gave off a foul smell.

“Hehehe, this is this witch’s favorite poison. It penetrates the intestines and rotten the heart!”

The Devil’s will was shattered, and the poisonous gas immediately spread out.

This poison was invisible, causing all of them to be affected.

“You knew that we would come?”No matter how muddle-headed they were, they could still sense that something was wrong. Everything seemed to be a trap set up by the Witch Girl.

The witch girl chuckled. “What else? Why do you think I suddenly revealed my traces?”

The young girl who was half-step Emperor struggled. “What’s your purpose in luring us into your trap?”

“It’s very simple. Dao Rain is coming. I need to hurry up and refine a few medicine men. I thought that a few overlords would be enough, but I didn’t expect to attract a half-step emperor.”The demoness girl grinned. “Since you’ve delivered yourself to my door, this demoness won’t stand on ceremony.”

After she finished speaking, her pitch-black hand pressed down, wanting to end the young girl’s half-step life.

But when she pressed down, she was surprised to find that she couldn’t even press down the girl’s head. The girl’s head was as hard as iron.

“You’re not a living creature? What are you?”The demoness girl cried out and quickly retreated.

She saw that the girl’s scalp, which had been cut open, was emitting a thick corpse aura.

The demoness girl was surprised. “You’re a corpse clan? That’s strange. You Corpse clan actually learned how to use a skin bag to disguise yourselves. This way, no one would be able to tell that you’re actually a corpse clan!”
